County election draws opponents in all races

All county political races will be contested in the May 4 Democratic Party primary. Last-minute filings placed contestants in the last two previously unchallenged races — county attorney and tax assessor-collector.

Challenging incumbent County Attorney James K. Walker is neophyte politician R. E. Thompson. Mrs. Otha Denny, who previously was in office, will contest Tax Assessor-Collector Leonard Groves.

Another previously unopposed race, that for state representative of the 72nd district, will pit incumbent Democrat Bill Clayton of Springlake against Republican J. Frank Ford Jr. of Hereford. This race will be decided in the Nov. 5 General Election.

Still unopposed is U. S. Representative George Mahon.

Facing incumbent County Commissioner of Precinct 1, Leonard Coleman, are hopefuls Calvin "Buddy" Franks, H. L. Coon, Weldon Newsom and L. T. "Short" Lemons.

Harral Rawls, incumbent Commissioner of Precinct 3, has drawn M. C. "Lefty" Hall and Benton C. Davis as opponents.

Don Lamar and Frank Davidson will oppose incumbent Sheriff Hazel Hancock.

One of the most interesting races to be decided in the Primary, at least from the Democratic side of the ballot, will be the governor's race in which more than a dozen men will battle in what could be a political free-for-all.

Locally, city council and school board contests will open soon with several entrants expected for the vacancies. These vacancies will be filled in a called election, one each for the school and city council.

Those county races that may need a run-off will be decided in the second primary election June 1. County party conventions will be held May 11.

State conventions to pick national convention delegates will be held June 8.

September 8 will be the date state conventions will pick the executive committee and write the state party platforms.

Area students compete in co-op speech meet

Eleven students from area schools will compete in an oratorical contest sponsored by Bailey County Electric Cooperative Tuesday, February 13. These students will each give a five to eight minute talk on a choice of six subjects. A panel of judges from West Texas State University will select two girls and two boys as finalists. These four students will speak again February 17 at the Bailey County Electric Annual Membership Meeting. The two winners selected at the membership meeting will win a 12 day all expense paid trip to Washington, D.C.

Midland (Boston Celtics) Carver trounces the Indians

Midland Carver's tall and talented Hornets looked more like the Boston Celtics here Tuesday night as they blasted Morton 76-44. The victory raised Midland to a season mark of 25-3, while they are 9-0 in district action. The Hornets still face Slaton, Denver City and Stanton. The Stanton Buffaloes host Midland Feb. 20, but lost their chance to tie it as Slaton upset Stanton Tuesday night. They lost at Midland 96-90. Stanton currently is 7-2 in loop play.

Morton, with 20-10 and 4-4 marks, will take to the road Friday night in an attempt to get by Denver City. Final home game will be Tuesday, Feb. 13, when the Indians host Freshhip. After that will be road games at Stanton and Post.

Midland's fast-break attack and intimidating defense left Morton hanging on the ropes after the first period. The deliberate Morton offense failed to bother the Hornets, who gave up the outside shot and dominated the boards.

Morton had one lead, 6-5, with 4:45 left in the first period. The score was tied halfway through the quarter, 7-7, but it was all Midland the rest of the way.

Six straight points gave Midland a 13-7 edge and the Hornets were off to the races. By the end of the quarter, it was 10-17. Byron Willie had picked up eight points, but had two fouls. Midland-Carver ace Earl Carter had three fouls by that time.

Willis opened the second period with a field goal and then was to go scoreless for more than two quarters. Midland hit from all over the court for 12 straight points and it was all over. With a 29-12 edge, the Hornets were in command. Charles Carter and Rusty Rowden combined for four points. Midland got two free throws. Carter got another basket and Midland rattled in six more points for a 37-18 lead at halftime.

It was more of the same during the third quarter as Midland hit for 17 points and Morton got 14. Charles Carter was hitting from outside and Donnie Harvey dropped in a pair of buckets from the corner. As the quarter ended, Morton trailed 32-54.

Carter and Willis hit to open the fourth period. It was the first point from Willis in more than two quarters . . . and his last for the night.

Carver ripped in three field goals before Donnie Harvey and Carter could score to make it 40-60, with 4:50 left. Seven more points came for Midland before the Tribe could hit again. Ray King made a two-pointer as Coach Ted Whillock sent in his reserves after Willis fouled out with 3:50 left.

Funds needed

The Cochran County Salvation Army is still short some $900 in its current fund raising drive, said Bobby Travis, Cochran County chairman. The goal for the drive, which has been running since December 17, is $1,800. Travis said past donors will be contacted by mail in an attempt to secure more funds. He said the local unit has assisted a young man with a hearing problem by providing funds for pre-surgery examinations. The unit has also purchased prescriptions for many families and usually for school age children. Travis said that furnishings for the Moore family, whose home was destroyed by fire, have been donated almost exclusively through the Salvation Army. A portion of the money raised locally will be used to pay off the state Salvation Army agency's deficit incurred during the Hurricane Beulah disaster. Travis said persons wishing to contribute should contact Mrs. Rita Fralin or James Dewbre.

Receives conservation award . . .

MRS. E. C. HALE of Route 1, Box 4, Morton, is presented with the Cochran County Conservation Homemaker Award by Budd Fountain, supervisor of the Cochran County Soil Conservation service. The award is sponsored by the Fort Worth Press and the Texas Agriculture Extension Service. The award recognizes the achievements of Texas homemakers in the area of conservation of human and natural resources. (Staff Photo)

Conservation Homemaker for county is Mrs. E. C. Hale

Mrs. E. C. Hale of Rt. 1, Box 4, Morton, has received the Texas Conservation Homemaker Award for Cochran County. The award, sponsored by the Fort Worth Press and Texas Agricultural Extension Service, was presented to Mrs. Hale by the Cochran County Soil Conservation district.

The purpose of the award is to recognize the achievements of Texas Homemakers in the area of conservation of human and natural resources and to inspire others to cooperate in good conservation practices.

To qualify to enter, a woman must live in the county in which she and her husband operate a conservation farm under a basic soil and water conservation plan developed in cooperation with the local Soil and Water Conservation District.

Mrs. Hale will be entered in state-wide judging this month.

Mrs. Hale has four children: Clovis, 30, who has a Master's degree in electrical engineering and who is working toward a Ph.D. in physics; Mike, 21, who is employed by Texas Instruments in Dallas; Ronald, 18, a senior in Morton High School; and Larry, 15, a freshman in Morton High School.

The Hale family lives four miles north of Morton on a 354-acre irrigated farm. Their operation includes the raising of grain sorghum, cotton, wheat, beef and swine.

The family attends the Primitive Baptist Church in Levelland where Mr. Hale is a deacon and church clerk.

Mrs. Hale is a 4-H club leader, an officer in the Morton Band Boosters and has been council chairman in Home Demonstration work.

Co-op to hold annual meet

The Annual Membership Meeting of the Bailey County Electric Cooperative Assoc. will be held in the Cochran County Activity Building on Saturday, February 17, at 2 p.m. At this meeting, members will hear the financial report, progress report, and general condition of the Cooperative, consider and take action on any matters that might come before the meeting.

Also, on the order of business, will be the election of three members to the Board of Directors. The nominating committee elected at the 1967 meeting and composed of Lester Howard, Lester Elmore, Adolph Wittner, J. P. Powell, Ralph Bart, W. P. Houston, Frank Hinkson met on January 19 and nominated the following: District No. 4 — C. G. Lewis and Delbert Watson; District No. 5 — Johnnie Wheeler and Perry Lynskey; District No. 7 — Vernon Blackley and L. T. Lemons.

Additional nominations for directors may be made from the floor of the meeting. C. G. Lewis, Johnnie Wheeler, and Vernon Blackley are now serving as directors.

Four finalists in the Government In Action Youth Tour to Washington will give their speeches and the winners will be selected during the meeting.

Prizes worth $200 will be given away at the meeting plus a $400.00 Grand Prize to be used as credit on electric bill. Members must be present to win. A $3 credit on electric bill will be given each member who presents attendance certificate at time of registration (these certificates are mailed to each member).

Refreshments will be served by the Cochran County 4-H Clubs.

Frank Ford to run for state representative

J. Frank Ford, a Deaf County farmer and businessman, has announced as a candidate for State Representative in the 72nd district, subject to the action of the Republican Primary. The district includes Deaf Smith, Farmer, Castro, Bailey, Lamb, and Cochran Counties.

Ford is a native of the Texas Panhandle South Plains area, and is a 1955 graduate of Texas A&M. He served in the U.S. Army during 1956, 1957, and 1958. He was an Honest John Rocket battery commandant and attained the rank of captain.

"We are all concerned about the rapid increase in taxes, crime-rates, and the general unrest which we see now in our country," said Ford in announcing his candidacy, "and the best way we can stop this trend is to work harder to make our state and communities better places in which to live. It is my desire to see more responsibility placed at the state and local levels, rather than in Washington, D.C.

"I consider vocational training as a high priority item for progress in Texas. Skills and training for our youth must be matched with the jobs which will be available in the next two decades. The 1969 session of the legislature will be the most important one in many years in the field of education.

Gee, maybe one day . . .

CUB SCOUT RICHARD WILLIAMS looks up at Boy Scout Ronnie Reeder and wishes, "Gee, maybe one day I'll be a Boy Scout, too." Richard and Ronnie are part of more than 80 local boys who are celebrating National Boy Scout Week. Nation-wide there are more than 6 million boys involved in the program. Ronnie, the 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Reeder, is a Life Scout and lacks two merit badges completing the requirement for the Eagle award. Richard is 9, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Williams, and has earned his Wolf badge award. (Staff photo)

Boy Scout movement observed nationally

The Boy Scout organization is a cause for celebration every day and even more so during National Boy Scout Week, Feb. 7-13. Eighty-four boys in Cochran County will join in the celebration. They represent 32 Boy Scouts and 52 Cub Scouts.

Registration for Boy Scouts in Cochran County is still continuing and the membership may go even higher. The 32 Cub Scouts represent a substantial growth in the local unit and the Morton pack is the only one in the George White District that has made its quota for new boys.

Nationally, more than 6 million boys and leaders, 6,058,508 to be exact, are enrolled in the Boy Scouts of America. This includes 4,461,111 boys and 1,597,397 adult volunteer leaders. They represent a gain of 171,732 boys or 4 percent and an increase of 55,235 leaders or 3.6 percent.

In Cub Scouting, a program for boys 8, 9 and 10 years of age, there are 2,432,174 boys, a gain of 117,780 or 5.5 percent. There are 1,908,183 Boy Scouts, 11 and older, a gain of 54,867 or 3 percent.

Explorers, young men 14 and older, there are a total of 309,754 boys or units, a decrease of 915, or a .3 percent loss.

There are now 58,045 Cub Scout packs, 69,388 Boy Scout troops and 22,021 Explorer posts.

Since its founding 58 years ago, the Boy Scouts of America have ended each year with a gain in membership. Since 1919 there have been over 44 million boys and leaders identified with the Boy Scouts of America.

President Lyndon B. Johnson today told the members of the Boy Scouts of America that they "have kept pace with the times" and "played an indispensable part in the lives of both your members and the nation you serve."

★ Blue ribbon city

An organizational meeting for the Blue Ribbons project will be held at 4 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 8. Roy McClung, who is serving as chairman, said the meeting would be held in the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce office. All chairmen and others interested in improving Morton are urged to attend.

Lemons announces his candidacy for office

L. T. "Short" Lemons has announced his candidacy for County Commissioner Precinct 1 and thus becomes the fifth such candidate for that post.

Lemons, 44, has lived in West Texas all of his life and for 30 years has lived in Cochran County. He is currently vice president of the Morton School Board and has served on that board for six years. He is also a member of the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce.

He has served on the Community Committee of the ASCS in addition to other civic offices.

Lemons has served with the 140th Ordnance Co. in the Army during World War II and was stationed in Germany and Japan.

He and his wife, Billie, have five children, Dennis, a student at South Plains College; Dale, Rickey, Treva and Donnie, all of Morton. The Lemons family was named as the Farm Family of 1967 by the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce. They are members of the County Line Baptist Church where Lemons has been song leader for 14 years.

He said, "I feel like I've had enough experience to do a good job for the people of this precinct. I will work to the best of my ability to do a job worthy of this office. I'm also for the progress of the community and will work toward that purpose."

He is subject to the action of the Democratic Party Primary May 4.

Pep sailor in Naval operation . . .

GUNNERS MATE Second Class Dagoberto S. Moreno, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugenio Moreno of Pep, is participating in Operation "Sea Dragon" with the U. S. Seventh Fleet aboard the destroyer USS De Haven. Moreno is responsible for the maintenance and repair of all the gun mounts aboard the ship. He also serves as leading petty officer for the gunnery division. Petty Officer Moreno entered the service in December 1954. The photos show a Seventh Fleet destroyer and heavy cruiser firing on enemy troop concentration areas in support of Allied troops ashore in Vietnam.

Operation "Sea Dragon" carries out missions against the enemy

Above the demilitarized zone, along North Vietnam's coastal waterways, cruisers and destroyers of the U. S. Seventh Fleet are conducting an offensive battle against the enemy in an operation named "Sea Dragon."

The year-old operation was initiated to stop the flow of supplies from North to South Vietnam via the Tonkin Gulf.

Initially the Navy was charged with the destruction of waterborne supply craft, but "Sea Dragon" has expanded in scope to include the destruction by gunfire of coastal lines of communication, supply routes and targets of military significance.

In the past year "Sea Dragon" has destroyed more than 2,000 waterborne supply craft, and, for all purposes, stopped the flow of supplies through the Gulf of Tonkin. The now-daily attacks on enemy coastal defense gun-sites, roads, railroads and storage areas are thwarting enemy efforts to move supplies overland.

The accuracy of naval gunfire stems mainly from its complex fire control system. The system is composed of a fire control radar which locates and tracks the targets, and a fire control computer that tells the guns where to fire.

With the position of the ship and the relative position of the target known, the fire control system can keep the guns locked on target, resulting in 100 per cent accuracy.

The first step in the control is to determine the exact location of the ship. This is done by taking visual bearings on geographic points or by taking ranges and bearings to these points on navigational radars. Once the ship's position is determined the range and bearing to the target is taken from a chart and plotted in relation to the ship. This information is fed to the computer, which digests the facts and other variables like wind direction and velocity and air temperature, and decides in microseconds where the guns should point to hit the target.

'Manage that Dollar' class is slated here

All of us wonder from time to time if we are getting the most for the money we spend. Temptation to buy is all around us. Does the money run out before your family gets all the things they want and need?

Most consumers who have large debts are young families between 18 and 34 years of age. For this reason, the Cochran County Home Economics Committee decided to sponsor a class "Manage that Dollar" for young couples under 35.

The class will begin February 13 with a kick-off meal sponsored by the First State Bank. The class will meet each Tuesday for six weeks in the PCA Building, at 7:30 p.m. Class subjects will be (1) Credit — Burden or Blessing (2) Budgets Do Work, (3) Saving at the Supermarket (4) Six Shopping Sins, (5) What's Underfoot in Housing and Home Furnishing, (6) Plan ahead for Security.

Class sessions will each feature a different speaker or panel. Couples will have opportunity for discussion and questions.

Class enrollment will be limited. Anyone interested should contact Jennie Borland, Home Demonstration Agent immediately.

The computer not only figures out the answer, but aims and elevates the guns and keeps them locked to the target as the ship moves.

Gun barrel wear and other variables can affect the fall of the round slightly but the first rounds usually fall within a few hundred feet of the target, and with the help of ground and air spotters, who relay initial corrections, the ship can "walk" its projectiles to the center of the target within minutes.

Seventh Fleet ships participating in "Sea Dragon" are playing a vital part in the Vietnam war. Every shell that is fired from a naval gun weakens the enemy and adds significantly to Allied ground efforts in South Vietnam.

final contest are: J. Wayne McDermett, Morton; Richard Lee Black and Vivian Ray, Sudan; Patricia Grusendorf, Bula; Marsha Dawson, Springlake; Rene' Walser and Roger Patrick, Farwell; Marilyn Cade, Whiteface; Charlotte Davis, Lazbuddie; Venita King and Tony Perez, Muleshoe.

The youth group will travel to and from Washington, D.C., by chartered bus. Participants will be chaperoned by six adult couples.

During four days in the nation's capital city, the young people will visit various governmental agencies and sites of historical significance. They also will visit the headquarters of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association, national service organization for about 1,000 electric cooperatives across the nation. J. W. Coppedge, Manager of Bailey County Electric Co-op, said.

Each of the Youth Tour participants will be given a set of colored slides showing highlights of the Washington trip. Coppedge said. It is expected that the young people will use the slides in reporting highlights of their Youth Tour experiences to local groups such as youth groups, service clubs, church groups, farm groups or any organization desiring an interesting program for its meeting.

In addition, she cans and freezes food from her garden and fruit trees on the farm, buys meats and other foods on special for the family freezer and processes pork and beef from their farm.

Mr. Hale attended a Fertilizer Short Course in Lubbock for information pertaining to grain sorghum. Treflan has been used on part of the cotton acreage in a controlled test and Atrazine has been used on grain for weed control.

Mrs. Hale said, "If we have the right till the soil, we have the responsibility to care for it in every way so that it will continue to be productive. We know that with a small acreage such as our place we need to use every conservation practice possible to be able to pay for our farm and improve it. We feel like the more productive we make our soil, the more productive we as a family can be to our community."

Ford worked in the legal division of the State Board of Water Engineers in 1959, and served as bill clerk for the 56th Legislature that year.

He and his wife Margie, live in Hereford with their four children, Davis, 10, Cindy, 7, Dan, 5, and Susan, 4. They are active in the First Methodist Church. Ford has been Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 52 for seven years; recently completed a year as president of the Hereford Migrant Ministry, and is currently vice-president of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce. He is president and manager of Arrowhead Mills, Inc., a stone grinding flour mill in Hereford.

"In entering this campaign," concluded Ford, "it is my hope to help encourage all citizens, especially our young people, to take a more active part in their government. This will help preserve our freedom and extend the opportunities which are our American heritage."

the Boy Scouts of America and was an active Scouter both at Austin, and at Washington, D.C.

His message for Boy Scout Week, was released here by the South Plains Council, Boy Scouts of America through Jack Strong, its President. Strong received the message through Chief Scout Executive Alden G. Barber.

The President's message follows:

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

"I am delighted to salute the nation's Scouts and future leaders during the traditional observance of Boy Scout Week.

"For fifty-eight years, you have shown the world the truest meaning of honor, integrity, loyalty, and patriotism. And you have done it through example, not preaching; by deeds, not words.

"You have kept pace with the times, but you have not lost faith in our time-honored traditions.

"Since 1910, you have played an indispensable part in the lives of both your members and the nation you serve.

"Your helping hands have stopped at no barriers. You have reached out to boys in low income areas, and given those in remote rural America a chance to participate in the fullness of our land.

"Our nation is greater for your role in its history. And generations of its men are physically and morally stronger for their part in your great and growing movement.

Junior high wins trophies

Morton's junior high school teams fared well during the past weekend as they brought home two tournament trophies. The eighth graders ran through three opponents and captured first place in the Friona Eighth Grade Tournament. The seventh graders lost their first outing and then took two wins for the consolation title at the Bula Junior High tourney.

The eighth graders had little trouble getting by Farwell in the first round at Friona. They jumped to a 14-4 lead and stretched that to 29-12 at halftime. By the end of the third quarter, it was 49-17. Morton reserves failed to score, but Farwell got only 11 points to make it 49-28 at the final buzzer.

The second game was a real upset as Tula had been established as one of the favorites. But the young Indians wasted little time getting ahead of the Hornets. It was 13-7 after one quarter and 28-11 at halftime. After three periods it was 39-19 and ended 54-25.

In the finals, the Morton squad needed a strong second half to insure the victory. It was 8-7 and 16-13 for Morton after the first two periods. Morton led 25-19 after three periods and outscored Dimmitt 16-13 in the final period to win 41-34.

The seventh grade was severely tested in the Bula tourney as it played combined seventh-eighth grade teams. The first game was against host Bula, which started three eighth graders and two seventh graders. Morton trailed 7-9 and 13-14 after two quarters, then fell during the third period. It was 17-26 going into the last six minutes. Morton narrowed it to 25-31 before the game ended.

In the second game, Morton faced the Whiteface eighth grade and won after an uphill battle all the way. Morton trailed 3-8, 15-17 and 23-24 at the rest stops. But a last-minute shot finally pulled it out for Morton, 30-29.

In the finals, Morton faced a seventh-eighth grade combination from Causey, N.M. The youngest Indians jumped out front, 13-4, but led only 19-13 at halftime. A second-half splurge made it 36-17 for Morton. The Indians coasted in to win 46-25.

SPLIT WITH BROWNFIELD

In Morton Monday evening, Morton split with Brownfield as the seventh grade lost and the eighth grade won. The seventh grade trailed 8-9, 14-23, 24-27 and lost 24-36. The eighth grade won as it led 15-8, 29-12, 36-24 and took the final decision, 44-36.

Midland Carver

The Hornets dropped in nine more points, while Morton was limited to a pair of free throws. Midland finally sent substitutes onto the floor with only 40 seconds remaining.

Jimmy Dixon paced the Midland scoring with 26 points. Earl Carter and Maurice Chrisemon had 15 each and Charles Robertson added 12.

Charles Carter got 16 for Morton and Willis added 12.

Morton's B team stayed with Midland for almost three quarters and then fell before a 30-point final period by the Hornets. Carver led 17-15, 42-31, 62-54 and won 92-69. Midland used two complete teams of tall, talented shooters and ball handlers to wear down the young Indians.

Bob Hawkins took scoring honors with 27. Bob Hobson had 18 and Jerry Steed netted 14. Clarence Dickens got 17 and Willie Nathan 12 for Midland. There were 49 fouls called in the game, but only Morton's Dennis Clayton fouled out.

Study Club to honor husbands with party

The Emitta Smith Junior Study Club will hold Men's Night in the honor of the husbands on Saturday, Feb. 10 at 7 p.m. Clubmembers and their husbands will meet at the high school gymnasium for dinner followed by volleyball and card domino games.

Hostessing the affair will be the Study and Yearbook committees consisting of Meslames Sherrill Griffith, chairman, Rodney Fralin, James Dewbre, Ted W. Lock, Dale DeBord and Sandy Asbill.

4-H food group meets

The 4-H Food Group met recently at the home of their leader, Mrs. J. L. Cook Jr. The group prepared banana pudding. They also did some experiments with milk. Those attending were Vickie Hall, Jan Whitehead, Julie Cooper and Sherita Frazee. The following meeting was held Feb. 10 at the home of Mrs. James Whitehead.

Demolished in wreck . . .

THIS 1967 CHEVROLET, owned by R. D. Fred of Morton, was demolished Thursday night when it was involved in a collision with a 1964 Oldsmobile driven by Gary Sullivan. Driver of the Chevrolet, Lynn Fred, received a scalp laceration.

Sullivan received lacerations and minor injuries. He was ticketed for exceeding the speed limit. Fred received a ticket for failure to yield right of way. The accident occurred at the intersection of SW 3rd and W. Buchanan at 8:55 p.m. (Staff Photo)

General Telephone announces plan for expansion and improvements

General Telephone of the Southwest in 1968 expects to spend $45,400,000 for construction to improve and expand its telephone facilities located in Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana, it has been announced by E. H. Danner, president of the company which merged in January with Southwestern States Telephone Company.

This budgeted amount will include expenditures for replacing central offices which provide local telephone facilities; additions to present central office facilities to take care of anticipated growth; providing Direct Distance Dialing (DDD) service to 15 exchanges; construction of microwave facilities; projects to provide additional facilities between exchanges permitting expanded calling scopes for local dialing or long distance dialing; projects to permit improvements in rural service areas; and projects spacing underground cable.

Danner said that the 1968 construction budget compares with just under $42,000,000 actual gross expenditures on construction by General Telephone and Southwestern States during 1967.

It is anticipated that the 1968 construction program, along with 1968 advertising and sales efforts, will bring about a net gain of 42,900 telephones during 1968. This compares with an actual net gain during 1967 of 34,800.

Other plans for 1968 designed to improve operations and thus give better customer service include establishment of a central ticket investigating (CTI) bureau in the general offices in San Angelo which will provide the company and customers with the latest in techniques for investigating questioned long distance charges. The program, begun in January, will be phased into operation during the next 18 months.

Another highlight of 1968 operations will be the introduction of Touch Calling service in four exchanges. Touch Calling enables customers to "dial" other telephones and to access computers by pushing numbered buttons on a telephone instead of using the more traditional telephone with dial.

However, 1967 was not without milestones, Danner commented. Great strides were made in 1967 toward reorganizing the company from a division/district set up to an area/division organization and toward total legal merging into one operation General Telephone Company of the Southwest and Southwestern State Telephone Company.

The new area reorganization, which was completed on January 1, gives five area offices. These offices are headed by area managers John E. Robbins, Jr., at Brownwood; Harry B. Elam at Texarkana; W. A. Leigon at Brownfield; and D. H. (Speck) Dunaway whose offices are in Irving until a new area office building is ready for occupancy at Lewisville; and R. B. Shirey whose offices are in Robstown until location of a Southern area office is announced.

The legal merger of the two companies became effective January 10, 1968, and added more than 212,000 telephones to the more than 486,000 already served by General Telephone and gave the surviving company, General of the Southwest, more than 708,000 in the five state area of Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana.

Other highlights of 1967 involved providing DDD networks in San Angelo, Denton, and Broken Arrow areas and expanding the calling scope of the Baytown area to include the Houston Central Zone.

Lt. jg LeRoyce Shaw is given Navy medal

Navy Lieutenant (junior grade) Le Royce Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maheon Q. Shaw of Route 1, Bula, was awarded the Navy Distinguished Service Order Second Class by the Vietnamese Government.

The presentation was made by General Vien of the Republic of Vietnam during ceremonies aboard the attack aircraft carrier, USS Coral Sea.

The citation accompanying the award read in part: "As maintenance control officer with Attack Squadron 155 from May to December 1966, Lieutenant Shaw displayed exemplary industry and skill in the areas of supervision and coordination connected with his assignment while his unit conducted operations against the enemy."

A graduate of Tipton High School in Tipton, Okla., Lieutenant Shaw entered the service in April 1961.

Lay-up laid down . . .

RUSTY ROWDEN finds his lay-up attempt blocked by Slaton's Richard Washington here Friday night. Morton blasted the Tigers 74-60. Both Washington (23) and Paul

Hall (21) had 18 points in the game. But Byron Willis tossed in 41 to pace the Indians to the district victory. (Staff Photo)

Morton moves into third place; Thompson lost with broken arm

Morton exploded during the latter part of the first half and the early part of the second to gain a 74-60 victory over Slaton here Friday night. But the move into third place in District 4-AA was an expensive one. Junior playmaker-guard Wayne Thompson received a broken arm and dislocated wrist late in the game. The accident came with only 40 seconds remaining as Thompson went into the air for a rebound and was upended by big Tommy Davis. Thompson hit the floor with a crash and most spectators were immediately aware that Thompson was hurt. He was rushed to the hospital where x-rays revealed a clean break of the larger bone in his left forearm, plus a bad dislocation of the wrist. Doctors said that Thompson would have to wear a cast for about ten weeks. Since the 5-11 regular is lefthanded, the injury also will prove to be more than a minor handicap.

During the game itself, another junior was pouring in points until the crowd was counting each of them. Byron Willis netted 41 points before he left the game just before it ended. He tossed in 23 points in the first half after missing his first three shots. Second half efforts gave him another 18. He hit on 12 field goals and 17 of 23 free throw attempts.

Slaton hit the Morton players with everything but the bench in their frantic efforts to stop Willis and the rest of the Indians. Four of the Slaton starters were thumbed to the sidelines for five fouls before the game ended.

The Indians moved their record to 20-9 for the season, one more victory than they had last year. They topped their loop mark to 4-3, while Slaton is 4-4.

Once again, the scoreboard purchased last year was not working properly, so a stopwatch was used and each minute was announced over the loudspeaker system.

Both teams started slowly. Willis finally hit a field goal that was matched by Paul Hall. Charles Carter, who started blossoming in the last month, hit to put Morton ahead. The lead bounced back and forth through the period until the final two minutes, when Willis and Carter combined for six points and a 21-18 margin. Hall's two free throws narrowed it to 21-20 as the buzzer sounded.

The lead saw-sawed until midway through the second quarter. Thompson, Carter and Rusty Rowden netted six points to give Morton a 35-30 margin. Hall again hit a field goal. But Morton then blasted loose for six points and a 41-32 edge. Hall hit a free throw to make it 41-33 at halftime.

Willie Moore scored one of his infrequent baskets for Morton as the third period opened. Rowden added a free throw and Willis hit two baskets. That made it 47-33, the eventual margin of victory. Slaton came back strong and narrowed the gap to four points, 56-52, going into the last quarter.

Richard Washington got his final field goal as the fourth period opened, then fouled out and Slaton was virtually through for the night. Willis ripped the nets for four free throws before Slaton got a basket.

Thompson, Willis, Moose McCasland and Carter combined for seven more points to make it 67-56. Slaton hit for four points. Seven more points came during the final 90 seconds.

Willie Moore and Wayne Thompson did their work well on defense as they held Washington and Hall to 18 points each. Washington had only five points in the second half and Hall got only two.

Behind Willis' 41 points, Carter netted 11 for the Tribes. Eight players scored for the Indians.

The B game was much the same as the young Tribesmen jumped out front and decimated their opponents with a third-quarter attack. Morton led 15-11 after one quarter and 25-17 at halftime. Then Hi gang! Well, activities are finally in full swing around good ol' MHS, and the next couple of months promise to be busy ones.

First, on the basketball scene, our Indians whipped up on the Slaton Tigers last Friday night and were able to get revenge by beating them 14 points. The final score came out 74 to 60. However, the Morton squad in a way lost, because Wayne Thompson broke his wrist, which will knock him out of playing the final games.

The Indians travel to Denver City to take on the Mustangs Friday night, and we'd like to see as many of you as possible there.

As I said last week, the juniors have finally started to work on their play, "If a Body Meet a Body". The characters in the play are as follows: Sharon Irwin as Sue Ann Kendall, Deborah Miller as Priscilla Jones, Vivian McDaniel as Cam Crawford, Joe Coker as Mr. Hatcher, Byron Willis as Owen Barnes, Karen Rozell as Mrs. Reilly, Rheda Brown as Sonia, Rusty Rowden as Henry Reilly, Wayne Thompson as Lt. DeVille, Mike Sullivan as Officer Connelly, and Doug Scott as the delivery man.

Committees have been appointed for make-up, programs, tickets, publicity, props, staging, and prompting.

The mystery-comedy promises to be a good one, so make plans to be the first one at the county auditorium Friday night, March 22.

Along with the junior play, preparations are also being made for Indian Capers, an annual variety show put on by the MHS choral department. The program will feature modern numbers by individuals as well as the whole choir. The program will be February 23 in the county auditorium, so everyone try to come, ok?

Preparations are also underway for the University Interscholastic League literary events, which are to be held in Morton this year. Contestants for the different events are studying to try and bring Morton out on top this year.

The Morton bands gave a concert Sunday afternoon in the county auditorium. The program started with the beginner band as director, John Stockdale, explained how a student progresses from the beginner band to the high school band. The junior high band was next on the program, followed by the high school band, which featured a drum solo by David Salinas. The proceeds from the concert were added to the band's trip fund for its trip to the Enid, Oklahoma band festival this spring.

The Junior Horizon Club met Monday night in the home of Rheda Brown for their regular monthly meeting. George Tuck spoke to the group on the career of journalism. The girls are working toward their Wohelo Medallions, the highest honor along the Campfire trail. Margaret Ledbetter, a senior at MHS, was just recently awarded her Medallion and should be congratulated for her accomplishments.

I guess I've mentioned about everything that's going on, so it's probably time for me to cut this short. See you all next week!

Muleshoe volleyball tournament scheduled

The 5th Annual Muleshoe Jaycee Volleyball Tournament will be held Feb. 19-24, excluding Wednesday, Feb. 21. Marlin Mills, Tournament Chairman said both men's and women's teams are invited to enter.

The contest will be held in the old Muleshoe High School Gym, the same location as last year.

Trophies will be presented in both divisions for first, second and third places. Also, an all Tournament Team will be selected and will be presented awards.

Entries must reach Mills at 1629 W. Ave. B, Muleshoe, no later than Feb. 12. Entry fees of $7 per team may be paid any time prior to the first game of the tournament. Entries may also be phoned in to Mills at 272-4771 during the day or, if there is no answer, 272-3920.

Entry deadlines will be enforced in order to prepare brackets and have them returned to teams by Feb. 17. Entry blanks are available at the Morton Tribune.

Admission to the games will be 50-cents for adults and children over 12 and 25-cents for children under 12 and for participating players.

Peggy Ramsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Ramsey, and a student at Texas Tech visited in the home of her parents over the weekend.

came a 25-point flurry that made it 50-28 going into the last period. The Indians let off on the pressure and Slaton closed the gap by seven points. But the B team had a 62-47 victory for the night.

Bob Hawkins hit 25 points and Kenneth Taylor netted 11. Scott had 11 and Summers 10 for the visitors.

County Agent's news

Upland Cotton Programs are scheduled for local talks

By ROY L. McClung

The 1968 Upland Cotton and Feed Grain Programs have been given a considerable amount of publicity but many of the area farmers are wondering about the different alternatives of both programs.

Plans have been made to explain the facts of the 1968 Cotton and Feed Grain Programs to Cochran County and area farmers at a meeting to be held Feb. 8, 7:30 p.m. at the Cochran County Activity Building in Morton. This meeting will be co-sponsored by the local ASCS Office and Extension Service said County Agent Roy McClung.

Speakers for the meeting will be the local ASCS office manager, John Hall, along with John J. Seibert, Extension Service Area Farm Management Specialist. We think this type of a meeting where farmers and Agri-business people can ask questions and have them answered can be very beneficial said McClung.

McClung also announced that South Plains cotton producers and agribusinessmen will get firsthand information on the production of quality cotton at a cooler to be held at the KoKo Palace on Feb. 15.

The program is slated to kick off at 9:30 a.m., according to Billy C. Gunter, Extension District 2 agricultural agent, Lubbock.

Leadoff speaker at the session will be one of the foremost cotton economists in the nation, Dr. M. K. Horne, Jr., chief economist of the National Cotton Council, Memphis, Tenn. Horne will discuss the world cotton situation and the demand for quality cotton.

Quality cotton production programs are essential to meet this demand and these programs will be discussed by Wayne Underwood, vice president of Lockett Seed Farms, Verron.

CENTER PERSONNEL TO SPEAK

One of the highlights of the conference will be a discussion on "Cotton Varieties and Fiber Quality Improvement" by Dr. Levon Ray, in charge of the cotton breeding program at the South Plains Research and Extension Center.

The cotton fiber development process will be discussed by Dr. Robert Metzger, Extension area agronomist at the Center.

Certain cultural practices also play an important role in the overall cotton quality picture. At the session, a discussion on "Planting and Harvesting Techniques for Fiber Quality Control" by Elmer Hudspeeth, ARS agricultural engineer at the Center, should be of extreme interest to all producers.

In line with this will be a discussion on "IMPROVED Production Practices with Emphasis on Producing Acceptable Micronaire" by Bill R. Taylor, Hockley County agricultural agent. Facts about the 1967 LSM Program will be presented by Dan Davis, general manager of the Plains Cotton Cooperative Association.

Roy Baker, head of the Cotton Ginning Research Laboratory at the Center, will talk on ginning for fiber quality preservation and will also give a rundown on the new ginning laboratory that is being built at the Center.

'68 UPLAND COTTON PROGRAM

A discussion on the 1968 Upland Cotton Program should be of interest to producers since the sign-up period has just gotten underway. John Seibert, Extension farm management specialist at the Center, will present this information.

Chairman of the morning session will

Mahon tells water study is budgeted

Representative George Mahon reports from Washington that the President's budget which was submitted to Congress recently includes $892,000 to continue the broad investigation of the possibility of importing water into the West Texas and Eastern New Mexico area.

Of the amount included in the budget $467,000 is requested for the Bureau of Reclamation and $425,000 for the Corps of Engineers. The $892,000 is for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1968 and compares with a total of $400,000 available to the two agencies in the current fiscal year.

The preliminary study of water import possibilities was launched in 1966 by the Bureau of Reclamation and was broadened in 1967 by Mahon's Appropriations Committee to include the Corps of Engineers in order to achieve proper coordination of the study.

Mahon reiterated that the importation of water into the area was a long-range proposition that will require the coordinated efforts of many interests. Mahon indicated, however, that the increased amounts requested in the budget would provide a significant contribution toward the completion of this essential study. The study is currently scheduled to be completed in 1972 and Mahon expressed his continued confidence that proper steps were being taken at this time to move the project forward.

Funeral held Monday for Ralph Hensley

Local banker member of trip delegation

D. E. Benham, president of First State Bank, Morton, is a member of an official delegation of the Texas Bankers Association visiting Washington February 8 and 9 to confer with federal administrative and legislative leaders on current fiscal and monetary policies, particularly as they affect banks, T.B.A. Executive Vice President Sam O. Kimberlin, Jr., announced.

Headed by President S. R. (Buddy) Jones, Jr., of Pasadena, the delegation will consist of officers, members of the administrative council and chairmen of Association sections.

The visit is an annual affair, begun in 1966, but Kimberlin stressed the importance of close contact with Washington officialdom in this time of change in national fiscal policies.

"The executive and legislative branches of government are deeply concerned with defense of the dollar," he said. "Coupled with the proposed surtax increase, the truth in lending bill and other monetarily related developments, bankers need as seldom before to know what is happening, or may happen, in Washington."

Kimberlin said that because of an increase in bank robberies, a meeting with F.B.I. officials and a tour of the agency's headquarters has been added to the customary round of conferences with Federal Reserve Board Governors, Treasury, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation officials, and Texas Congressmen.

Through the telescope by Jack

The Boy Scouts of America are 58 years old this week and we join with others in saluting this fine organization. Some of the finest memories we have of our boyhood came from our camping expeditions into New Mexico, Colorado, or even out into the brakes south of Dumas. We walked, rode horses, bicycles, trucks or school buses on these trips. Sometimes only a couple of us would go out for the weekend, while entire troops would make the week-long summer camps in New Mexico. That's where we had our first taste of coffee, usually laced liberally with sugar and cream. We recall one long hike during a cold, drizzly day in New Mexico. After what seemed like hours, we stopped for a break and cooked coffee. But the only thing we could find to add to it was molasses . . . the thick, black stuff. To a bunch of cold, hungry boys, it tasted like nectar.

Things have changed some since then. Most of the landowners are reluctant to give permission for boys to hunt or camp on their land; the plow has torn up much of the virgin grassland; careless visitors have torn up fences, left gates open, shot at stock and left fires to ravage the grass.

This is also National Beauty Salon Week and those who operate the emporiums of beauty deserve a big hand of applause for making women even more attractive than they naturally are. They say that only her hairdresser knows for sure . . . but even they aren't positive since wigs became popular.

Some news leaks out of Washington lead us to believe that the credibility gap has widened again in regard to the USS Pueblo. Reports Tuesday, while unconfirmed, hinted that the Pueblo was in a communication network that went straight to Washington, which would explain why other U. S. Navy ships weren't aware of the piracy. We wrote letters last week to Senator Tower, Senator Yarborough, Rep. George Mahon and President Johnson and have gotten replies from two of them. Both indicate that diplomatic channels still are being used to free the ship and its crew.

Mrs. C. A. Moore has been enjoying a visit this week with a girlhood chum, Mrs. Estalee Michael who lives in Anchorage, Alaska. They grew up together in Slaton, but hadn't seen each other since they were about 12. Also visiting is Mrs. Moore's sister, Mrs. Ina Hammett of Acuff.

About two more weeks remain in the basketball season. Morton's varsity is out of the race, but still can play a spoiler role. Mainly, the Indians will be playing their last four games for a high rating in the district. Friday night, the Tribe will be in Denver City. Final home game will be here Tuesday night against Frenship. The freshmen, seventh grade and eighth grade will host Levelland here Thursday, Feb. 8, with the first game at 5:30 p.m. On Monday, the freshmen and eighth grade teams will go to Littlefield.

Meanwhile, the spring sports teams have begun their workouts. Some of the track boys are out each day getting their legs and lungs in shape. And a few are trying to get ready for the tennis season. We haven't heard anything yet about the golf team, but probably will after basketball is finished.

velous, although most of the farmers would rather have spring rains than spring sunshine right now. But this wily weather in West Texas likely will have a few more cold spells before it turns winter into spring for keeps.

Politics just couldn't get any more interesting this year in Cochran County and we feel just a wee bit sorry for those who didn't register to vote. Every county race is contested, plus a state representative's post. One of the latest to file was J. Frank Ford Jr. of Hereford, who will run against Bill Clayton of Springlake this fall in the General Election. Ford is a long-time friend of mine and a fine fellow. He and Bill Clayton had a dandy race once before. They won't oppose each other in the primary since Clayton is filed as a Democrat and Ford as a Republican. Most folks in Cochran County haven't met either one yet, but you will and I think you will like both of them.

For all my married life I've found Jennie, my wife, it's hard to find a card That's just right for her Valentine But truthfully, I seldom remember in time!

Most area farmers to pay self employment tax in addition to regular income levies

Most Northern Texas farmers must pay federal self-employment tax for 1967, Ellis Campbell, Jr., district director of the Internal Revenue Service advised today.

The rate of self-employment tax is 6.4 per cent, or a maximum of $422.40, and is in addition to income tax.

By law, a self-employed person is one who operates his own business or farm. A farm employer is considered to be self-employed if he employs others to operate or work the farm even though he does not live on it himself.

A farmer must file a federal income tax return and pay the self-employment tax due if his net earnings from self-employment are $400 or more, even if his gross income is less than $500 and he owes no income tax.

THE SELF-EMPLOYMENT tax applies to a maximum of $5,600. But this figure is reduced by any wages from which social security taxes were withheld.

A special optional provision in the law enables farmers to acquire social security credits even if they have a loss. It works like this:

(1) If a farmer's gross income from farming is no more than $2,400, he may count two-thirds of such gross income as his net earnings from farm self-employment.

(2) If gross income from farming exceeds $2,400 and actual net earnings from farm employment are less than $1,600, he may use $1,600 as his net earnings from farm self-employment.

Under the above provision a farmer with annual gross income from farming of $600 can declare his net earnings from farm self-employment to be $400, or two-thirds of his gross farm income, to get social security credit for that year.

GENERALLY, INCOME attributable to rent from real estate and from personal property leased with the real estate is not taken into account to determine net earnings from self-employment. However, such income is considered as self-employment income if a landlord, because of the rental arrangement, participates materially in the production or management of the farm.

"Farm" as used in the federal tax law, relating to social security and self-employment taxes, includes stock, dairy, poultry, fish, fruit, fur-bearing animals, and truck farms, and also plantations, ranches, nurseries, ranges, greenhouses or similar structures, and orchards.

Study club honors women and students on Sunday

The Y. M. Study Club held its annual Federation Tea, Sunday from 3:00-5:00 p.m., honoring the following: Mrs. Elwood Harris, member of the L'Allegro Study Club as Outstanding Clubwoman for over 10 years; Mrs. John L. McGee, member of Elma L. Slaughter Club as outstanding clubwoman for under 10 years; Mrs. E. Oden, member of Erna L. Slaughter, Mother of the Year; Mrs. A. E. Sanders, member of Town and Country, Teacher of the Year; Misses Carolyn Jones, Karen King, Ann Jennings, outstanding students of the year, from Morton, Bledsoe and Whiteface. Standing in the receiving line as the Y.M. representative was Mrs. Weldon Wynn, president.

An interesting arrangement of a Hawaiian theme was carried out with fresh anthurums set in a bed of emerald and leather greenery. A tall candelabra with voice candled accented the piece; from each tier white steamers ending in a bed of greenery and flowers.

Mrs. Max Clark and Mrs. Billy Weems served coffee and punch from silver and crystal accomplishments.

There were approximately 120 people served throughout the afternoon from Morton, Whiteface, and Bledsoe. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Lois Cummings, president of Caprock district, of T.F.W.C. and Mrs. Eugene W. Jones, Secretary of Caprock District, T.F.W.C. both from Plainview.

Mrs. Bill Cunningham honored with shower

Mrs. Bill Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Butler of Morton, was honored with a come and go baby shower on Thursday, Feb. 1 from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Jim Carpenter of Goodland.

The table was covered with a white lace tablecloth. The centerpiece arrangement of blue and white carnations around a stork. A cake topped with miniature storks, miniature diapers containing mints, punch and mixed nuts were served to 33 guests from Portales, N.M., Muleshoe, Level-land, Morton and Goodland.

The following hostesses presented the honoree with a corset and highchair; Mesdames Harold Carpenter, Al Miller, Donny Carpenter, Jim Carpenter, A. O. Mitchell, M. L. Carpenter and J. L. Partlow.

Mrs. Cunningham's husband, Sgt. Bill Cunningham, is stationed with the ninth infantry division in Vietnam.

Guests in the Roy Allsup home last weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Whsham and children, Mike, Kim, Carla, and Lauce of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Allsup and sons Mark, and Todd of Clovis, N.M.

Mrs. Henry Bedwell is visiting in Plainview this week with Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Norris and Kim.

Officers installed . . .

THE PRODUCTION CREDIT Assn. meeting room was the scene of the installation of the Cochran Memorial Ladies Auxiliary officers. Installed Saturday at 7:30 p.m. were Mrs. Lovell Jackson, second vice president; Mrs. Herman Bedwell, first vice president; Mrs. Bill Williamson, president; Mrs. A. E. Sanders, third vice president; Mrs. Elwood Harris, treasurer; Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, recording secretary; and Mrs. Lloyd Miller, corresponding secretary. Not shown is Mrs. Hume Russell, publicity chairman. (Staff Photo)

Auxiliary officers are installed

Officers for the Cochran Memorial Ladies Auxiliary were installed Saturday, February 3, in the conference room of the Production Credit Association in Morton.

Mrs. Fred Farrar, President of the Auxiliary in Seminole was in charge of the installation. Before the ceremony a group from Seminole gave a short talk explaining the various phases of the organization. Mrs. Farrar spoke to the group first. She gave examples from her own personal experiences of problems they might encounter, emphasizing the importance of controlling emotions and using common sense in dealing with the different situations that might arise. Her talk was both encouraging and informative.

Edward Rogers, Administrator of the hospital in Seminole, spoke on the work which the ladies had done, and how much the hospital and the patients depend on them.

Mrs. Eddy Baerline from Seminole, modeled the uniform worn by the "pink ladies", which consisted of a pink pinafore with white blouse and white rubber sole shoes. A cap, similar to the standard worn by registered nurses, may be worn.

Mrs. W. H. Westcott also of Seminole, Treasurer of their Auxiliary, explained the duties of her office and described different duties a pink lady would have. She used the routine she uses when on duty: service machines; deliver afternoon papers to room; obtain list from head nurse for juice and water, contact patients to see their preference; take fresh water to room; straighten room; ask patient if there is a certain magazine he would like to read, etc . . .

Mrs. Floyd George, Seminole, gave a very interesting talk on the projects. Some of them are the candy, coffee and cocoa machines. Three televisions are paid for, and the money taken in from these is used to buy needed items for the hospital.

Mrs. Edward Rogers, publicity chairman for the Seminole Auxiliary, explained the various ways the Auxiliary worked in fund drives and other activities in the community. She stated they had donated $1,000 to the hospital towards the purchase of a machine used for heart patients.

Mrs. Rogers installed the new officers with an impressive ceremony, using the theme of a wheel, with the hub being the president and the spokes representing each officer and finally the rim as all other members of the Auxiliary. Pink candies and ribbons were used in the ceremony.

Mrs. Williamson expressed her appreciation to the Jayceettes, who were the Steering Committee for organizing the Auxiliary and for the many hours of work they contributed in getting it started. She encourage all ladies who are interested to contact Mrs. Elwood Harris, 266-5153, after 5 p.m., pay their annual dues of $3 and become a charter member. She introduced Mrs. Joe Schlegler, who has done much in the organizing of this group, and who was Chairman of the Nominating Committee for the officers.

Others attending were: Mesdames Sammie Williams, Elmer Gardner, Lucille Wynn, Joe Gipson, Louise Talley, Ray Griffith, Kenneth Thompson, Ray Griffith, R. L. DeBusk, Jr.

Refreshments and visitation followed the meeting.

Busy fingers sewing club has Feb. 1 meet

The Busy Fingers Sewing Club met in the home of Mrs. Bertha Miller, Thursday Feb. 1, at 2:30 p.m.

President Mrs. Miller presided over the business meeting. Minutes were read and approved. Mrs. Stokes and Mrs. Miller demonstrated making pillow tops and others knitted.

Refreshments were served to the following members Mrs. Clayton Stokes, Mrs. G. F. Cooper, Mrs. Beulah Newton, Mrs. Rolly Hill, Mrs. C. C. Benham, Mrs. Walter Taylor, Mrs. W. E. Childs, Mrs. Ethel Stracner, Mrs. A. R. Lindsey and the hostess, Mrs. Miller.

Honored at tea . . .

THE OUTSTANDING WOMEN AND STUDENTS from the Cochran County area were honored at a tea Sunday afternoon from 3-5 p.m. in the County Activity Building. The tea, sponsored by the Y-M Study Club, honored: seated: Mrs. Elra Oden, Mother of the Year; Mrs. John L. McGee, Clubwoman with under 10 years service; Mrs. Elwood

Harris, Clubwoman with more than 10 years service; and Mrs. Weldon Wynn, President of Y-M Study Club. Standing are Mrs. A. E. Sanders, Teacher of the Year; Carolyn Jones, Morton Student of the Year; Ann Jennings, Whiteface Student of the Year; and Karen King, Bledsoe Student of the Year. More than 100 persons attended the tea.

MORTON, TEXAS, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1968

Three-official plan might improve basketball action

An accident Friday night during a basketball game has prompted us to write about a trend we have noticed in basketball. We have noticed a lack of GOOD officiating . . . and not all of it results from seeing the game as a partisan spectator.

Morton lost one of its players for the year as the result of a hard fall late in the game. Injuries are a hazard of the game and are accepted by coaches, players and fans. But deliberate fouls are another thing and many who saw Friday's game contend that Wayne Thompson was injured deliberately by a player who had lost his composure.

Three of his teammates had already been benched because of fouls and play continued to get rougher and rougher. Some infractions were going uncalled while minor violations were being whistled down. Both teams were taking advantage of what seemed to be poor officiating to gain the advantage.

Basketball is supposed to be a non-contact sport but anyone who has played the game knows that there is a lot of contact on the floor, and particularly under the basket, where arms, elbows and shoulders are great weapons. Unlike football, a player wears no protection and doesn't know what direction the next contact will come from.

We feel that an experiment used this year in a few college games should be continued. That is the use of three officials. It reduces the distance they must run and allows them better control over all parts of the game.

Presently, our games are officiated by men who are usually much smaller and several years older than the players. The players are getting bigger and faster and it is unreasonable to expect two officials to call a B game and a varsity game in one night and do justice during the last few minutes of a hard-running offensive battle.

After watching several junior high tournaments this year we also feel that paid officials should be used for the entire tournament if possible and, at the very least, for the final games. We recall one tournament in particular where it was obvious to all spectators, both partisan and casual, that the hometown teams were going to win.

When a coach has spent weeks developing sportsmanship into his young players, it hurts to have them subjected to partisan officiating. And if the officiating favors the visiting team, rather than the home team, that is just as bad.

Officiating basketball, we realize, is one of the most demanding jobs in sports. It takes knowledge of the rules of the game, stamina, and a desire to do a good job. To require that officials keep up with young, highly-trained athletes is almost impossible. That is why we would like to see the three-official system tried in this area. We would also like to see officials keep more control of the game. If it is made clear to the players early that they can't get away with rough and illegal play, it would again make basketball a game of skill and finesse, rather than a game where muscle is more important than ability.

Boob tube hits new low

A new mid-season tv show hit the screen recently and, after three performances, we think we have seen a new low in humor and vulgarity. Those viewers who resisted the impulse to turn off the set are universally puzzled over what is being passed off as humor.

There doesn't seem to be any humor at all in showing a bunch of young so-called musicians busting a shiny old prestige car into a pile of junk. What's more the group is so lacking in musical ability that they performed their destruction to the accompaniment of one of their records. I rather imagine that the show's producers were trying to avoid displaying them in a musical number.

This particular show comes in prime time, at 7 p.m. on Monday, when much of the audience is made up of impressionable youngsters. Why should the network want to expose them to vulgarity and smut and risk losing a good sponsor?

Some of the jokes were taken straight from Joe Miller's jokebook, others must have come from a third-grader and the rest must have been copied off a washroom wall.

Television does some marvelous things, but they failed on this replacement. The network has lost me as a viewer for this show. I'd rather watch a re-run of one of Roy Rogers' 188 films. But, instead, I will turn the set off rather than endure such drivel. I puzzled over the first show, trying to find the humor that I thought was hidden among the dirt. It wasn't there, nor will I be in the future.

Transcendentally speaking

Maharishi Mahesh Yogi, self-styled chief guru of the West and spiritual leader of the Beatles, is reportedly winning a large following in this country among college students with his philosophy of transcendental meditation.

Yogi Maharishi's recipe for Utopia is a simple one: Find inner peace for the individual through "transcendental meditation" and world peace cannot be far behind.

And like many simple solutions for complex problems, it's a bit too good to be quite true.

The Maharishi's solution to problems is, in essence, to ignore them. Each individual must shut out the world while he indulges in the Yogi's "transcendental meditation" . . . a means of "turning on," finding mental peace, without drugs. The simple solution understandably has great appeal for young people overwhelmed by a multiplicity of problems which they consider not of their making and beyond their comprehension . . . and for older ones, too . . . and it also has appeal as an easy alternative to the hazards of escaping reality through drugs.

It's perfectly normal for most of us, at one time or another, to have a strong urge to escape reality when reality gets to be unpleasantly burdensome . . . but fortunately for the community and the world, most of us, feeling some degree of concern for our fellowmen, shake off the urge.

Maharishi's recipe for seeking inward peace by shutting out the outside world might possibly bring "world peace" if he succeeded in selling it to all of the three and one-half billion individuals who populate the planet, but it would also have some side effects; it would speedily reduce world population to the self-sufficient, and carried to its logical extreme of self-sufficiency, eliminate it altogether within a single generation.

Peace might ensue, but we doubt if the beneficiaries would enjoy it.

For a practical example by Maharishi's philosophy, it is only necessary to look at southeast Asia and India where "transcendental meditation" has been extensively practiced by students and scholars for centuries without producing any semblance of widespread peace.

"Transcendental meditation" which turns the individual inward toward himself is, of course, the antithesis of another great world philosophy which promises world peace . . . one called "Christianity," which teaches its followers to turn outward into the world for the search, requiring concern for others as its basic tenet.

This one, we believe, if "sold" to all of the world's three and a half billion individuals and really practiced by them, would have a much better chance of producing world peace.

Only the good news?

People often complain that newspapers play up only the bad news, and ignore the good. That's true. They do — up to a point, that is.

Suppose the papers printed only the normal and usual happenings of every day life?

Suppose they printed stories like this, for instance:

"Last Sunday John Doe and his family went to church together. After church Mrs. Doe fixed dinner, while Mr. Doe read the paper, and the kids read the funnies. In the afternoon Mr. Doe took the family out for a short ride. When the family returned home, Mrs. Doe made sandwiches out of the leftovers. After that the family then watched television for a while and went to bed."

Who would be interested in that? Probably not even the Doe family!

People are not interested in the normal and usual happenings. They are interested in the abnormal and unusual — behavior out of the ordinary. They buy the paper to get the news of the community. The things that makes news are the out-of-the-ordinary happenings of every day life. Not all of this is bad news.

The reader wouldn't have the slightest interest in how the Doe family spent Sunday. But if Mr. Doe had become so riled up with the Sunday evening leftovers that he shot Mrs. Doe dead, that would have made news! The people would have been interested.

When people say only the bad news is printed they are wrong. Consider the pages of weddings that appear in the paper, the parties, the unusual good things people do, the write-ups about their unusual hobbies, the school football and basketball games, and the honors and decorations that come to some people — all these things are played up in the papers — and they all make news.

The bad news can't be ignored. And it should always be remembered that the papers don't make the news — they merely print it. The papers have no control over what happens — good or bad.

LCB inquiry rattles windows but doesn't make major blast

AUSTIN, Tex. — Around and around goes the Texas Liquor Control Board inquiry — and where it stops nobody knows.

Threatened with disclosures that would "blow the top off" irregularities in operations of some of its field personnel, the board heard just enough to rattle its windows at a one-day public hearing here.

Widely-heralded fact-finding proceedings before the three-member board developed little evidence.

But the probe, according to LCB Chairman W. D. Noel of Odessa and First Assistant Atty. Gen. Nola White, coordinator, will continue behind the scenes.

Gov. John Connally said the fact that only five witnesses showed up for the hearing (when 500 had been invited) was "very disappointing."

Ex-inspector William B. Groce and Raymond L. Valenta, among seven Dallas LCB employees fired on December 13, provided most of the testimony. They denied any wrong-doing and demanded exoneration of any part in alleged rigged sale of a confiscated $78 truck and the reported trading of 11 bottles of confiscated liquor to an auto painter.

Dallas Assistant Dist. Atty. William F. Alexander repeatedly questioned Groce and Valenta about their association with a 417-pound private investigator named Smokey Joe Smith. Smith is under indictment on charges growing out of alleged efforts to "fix" liquor license suspensions.

That some partiality was shown in enforcing liquor laws in the Dallas area, was hinted by the ousted inspectors. But they denied pressure to put anybody out of business and any knowledge of license suspension reductions by the board's state headquarters.

White commented after the hearing that no real evidence of wrong-doing developed. Further hearings in Jasper, Dallas, Odessa and Tyler have been suggested. Meanwhile, new fuel was thrown on the fire by the firing or resignation of the board's supervisor of investigation, John W. Crank. Crank said he quit because he was "fed up". The board said he was relieved of his duties.

BUDGET — State agencies now are in the process of presenting their 1968-69 budget requests to the Legislative Budget Board and the Governor's Budget Office.

Staffers in these offices have indicated that they can be ready for a special legislative session by the end of February if that time should strike the fancy of Governor Connally.

Budget office personnel are confining their attention to agencies offering major changes in their proposals over funds allocated for fiscal 1968.

REVISION — A blue-ribbon constitutional revision commission has set itself a late-May deadline for the processing of study-group proposals for changing the state constitution by sections.

Commission granted its study sub-committees broad leeway as to whether to recommend sweeping "philosophical" re-writing or simple updating of basic laws and elimination of deadwood. Most members appeared to lean toward the latter, and some warned that the legislature is going to do as it pleases anyway with the final handiwork.

POLLUTION SUITS — Two Dallas corporations are suing the Texas Water Quality board which ordered them to stop releasing untreated sewage into the Sabine River near Orange.

Meanwhile, the board has taken legal action against Harris County Water Control and Improvement District No. 60 to stop the discharges from its plant into Middle Bayou and Clear Lake. Board also called for Spring Branch Utilities, Inc., to show cause why it should not be ordered to stop pollution of Spring Branch Creek in Houston and Spring Valley with sewage plant effluent.

Inwood Development Company and Watergate Corporation, owners of Riverside Homes Addition near Orange U. S. Naval Station, filed suit after the board told them to tie into the Orange sewage system. Petition claimed the board has no authority over Sabine River since it is the subject of a Texas-Louisiana boundary dispute. Also involved are questions of whether the plant release is detrimental to health.

Board also learned that Shell Chemical Company is building a $4,000,000 secondary waste-water treatment plant at Houston.

HEARINGS SET — House standing committee on education will hold 10 statewide public hearings during February. First will be in Kilgore on February 20 and the second in Gainesville on February 22.

Chairman George Hinson of Mineola said the principal purpose is to determine the needs in the area of vocational and technical education, and to explore inadequacies and lack of coordination. Most of the hearings will be held in rural areas as smaller towns, although metropolitan problems also will be explored.

Representatives of the Texas Education Agency, the higher education coordinating board, the regional education centers and the governor's public school student committee will report at hearings. Educators, business and industrial leaders and private citizens are invited to testify.

COLLEGE SALARIES — A new report from the Coordinating Board, Texas Colleges and University System, has pegged Dallas County Junior College as the highest paying junior college in the state.

Salaries there average $8,962 annually. But the highest individual income for a junior college teacher, $13,600, is reported from Tarrant County Junior College at Fort Worth.

One with the lowest average salary rate is Hill Junior College at Hillsboro. Average salary there is $6,525 per year.

CAR INSPECTION — More than 4,200,000 vehicles still have not been inspected for 1968 auto safety stickers reports the Texas Department of Public Safety. April 15 is the deadline.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., DPS director, said only 1,574,367 cars have been through inspection lines. A total of 5,702,862 were inspected in 1967.

Garrison urged drivers to have cars inspected soon in order to avoid those long lines which develop every year near the deadline.

Inspections will be a little tougher this year. Items covered include steering wheels, rims and front seat safety belts where anchorages are part of the manufacturer's original equipment. Garrison observed that some drivers may have to install seat belts before they can get a stamp.

There are 5,336 inspection stations in Texas.

PARK GRANTS — Federal grants of $35,200 and $31,250 respectively have been approved for development of state parks at Daingerfield and Corpus Christi. Funds will be matched by legislative appropriations for $70,000 and $62,500 total-cost projects.

Daingerfield's 551-acre unit adjoins an 80-acre lake. Corpus Christi park is on 13,838-acre Lake Corpus Christi near Mustang on the Nueces River.

COURTS SPEAK — State Supreme Court backing the lower courts, denied Sun Oil's plea for injunctions to keep two Hockley County men from blocking its use of fresh underground water in secondary oil recovery operations.

High Court refused to review a Midland's woman's suit against a physician who, she claimed, performed an unnecessary operation that caused a stroke.

APPOINTMENTS — House Speaker Ben Barnes and California Speaker Jesse Unruh have been named co-vice-chairmen of a new Council of State Government Committee on Legislative Modernization. Committee is to develop a series of new techniques to cope with growing problems facing state legislative bodies.

Danny Burger of La Marque has been appointed manager of the $400,000,000 Texas Water Development Fund, succeeding Howard B. Boswell, who has moved up to executive director of the Water Development Board.

Howard Rose, Austin attorney, has been elected chairman of the Texas Water Quality Board.

Miss Katherine Ard, Conroe, will serve as a field consultant for Texas State Library in a 33-county Southeast Texas area.

Governor Connally appointed former Congressman Ed Gossett of Dallas judge of County Criminal District Court No. 5. He succeeds the late Judge A. D. Bowie.

SHORT SNORTS — Republican leadership has agreed on Wichita Falls attorney Paul W. Eggers, 48, a political unknown, as its preferred GOP candidate for governor. Two other Republicans, John Trice of Dallas, and Wallace Sisk of Houston already had filed . . . Texas State Teachers Association is polling legislative candidates on how they stand on another pay raise for teachers . . . State Public Safety Commission announced a far-reaching new statewide crackdown on crime, with state officers moving in where local law enforcement efforts bog down.

CARD OF THANKS —

CARD OF THANKS
 For the wonderful care given our loved one, Mrs. Oden, during her illness and passing, we want to express our appreciation to the doctors and nurses and the many friends who helped in so many ways during this time of sorrow, we will never be able to say thank you enough. A special thanks for the flowers and food. May the Lord bless each of you for your kindness.
 The family and relatives of
 Ennice Oden

CARD OF THANKS
 We would like to take this opportunity to express our deepest appreciation for all the kind deeds, flowers, cards, and prayers in our behalf during our stay in the hospital. To the people of our community who sat up at the hospital; the nurses and Dr. Fernandez; we will be forever grateful. People do not realize just how wonderful friends are until times like these. Words cannot express our gratitude for everything that has been done for us. We still request your prayers and want all who can to come to Tahoka and visit us as we will be there until Mary is able to come home. To those who would care to write, our address will be Box 128, Tahoka. Again we would ask that you continue to pray for us as that we may soon be home again. May God's richest blessings be with each of you as our prayer.
 Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Nieman and their four children

L'Allegro Study Club has program on Texas Ranches

The L'Allegro Study Club met Thursday, Feb. 1 in the home of Mrs. Bud Thomas.

The opening prayer was given by Mrs. Bobby Travis.

The program, on three Texas ranches, was introduced by Mrs. Jack Wallace, program chairman.

The XIT Ranch was given by Mrs. Burton Silvers. She told the group that the Capitol Building for the State of Texas was originally to have been built upon the 3,000,000 acres of the land which later became the XIT Ranch.

This land was set aside by the State Legislature in the middle 80's as the site for the capitol. It lay along the western border of the Panhandle. A portion of the land, according to the Land Office Map of Cochran County for December 1929, lay in Cochran County as well as nine other counties. The Capitol syndicate later traded a building and land in Austin for the XIT Ranch land. Legislators congratulated themselves on rare business judgement when they traded the 3,000,000 acres of "Arid" land for a great building.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS
 O. CLEMENINA GALAN, Defendant,
 Greeting:

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to appear before the Honorable 121st District Court of Cochran County at the Courthouse thereof, in Morton, Texas, by filing a written answer at or before 10 o'clock A.M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 26 day of January A.D. 1968, to Plaintiff's Petition filed in said court, on the 6 day of December A. D. 1967, in this cause, numbered 1740 on the docket of said court and styled ALEX R. GALAN, Plaintiff, vs. CLEMENINA GALAN, DEFENDANT.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to-wit: DIVORCE as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

If this citation is not served within ninety days after the date of its issuance, it shall be returned unexecuted.

The officer executing this writ shall promptly serve the same according to requirements of law, and the mandates hereof, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the seal of said court at Morton, Texas, this the 26 day of January A.D. 1968.

Attest: Lessye Silvers, Clerk,
 District Court
 Cochran County, Texas.
 Published in the Morton Tribune Feb. 8, 15, 22, 1968.

CLERK'S NOTICE OF ESTRAY TO NEWSPAPER

THE STATE OF TEXAS
 COUNTY OF COCHRAN
 Taken up by O. B. Huckabee, and estrayed before Joe Gipson, Justice of the Peace, Precinct No. 1, Cochran County on the 15 day of January, 1968, a two year old Hereford heifer, branded on the left back with symbol or undetermined character. Worth unknown.

The owner of said stock is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges, and take the same away, or it will be dealt with as the law directs. Given under my hand and seal of office this 22 day of January A.D. 1968.

 Cochran County, Texas
 Published in the Morton Tribune Feb. 8, 1968.

The XIT Ranch became the largest ranch in the cow country of the Old West and probably the largest barbed wire fenced range in the world. In 1901 the XIT began selling off land. In 1902, Matador Land and Cattle Company purchased nearly 200,000 acres in Oldham County along the Canadian River to the west of Amarillo.

By 1906 some 2,000,000 acres had been sold and by 1912 the last herd of cattle belonging to this mammoth ranch had passed in to other hands. According to "The Big Ranch Co." written by Williams in 1954, "no longer is any of this fat country a part of the big ranch district." The 3,000,000 acre XIT Ranch now holds only about 20,000 acres.

The King Ranch History was given by Mrs. E. O. Willingham. The King Ranch Corp. is in extreme South Texas with headquarters at Kingsville in Kleberg County. This vast grass land empire is located in seven counties. It actually consists of 723,699.57 acres with an additional 10,000 acres in Pennsylvania, bringing the total up to 733,699.57 acres.

The Santa Gertrudis breed of cattle was developed in the U. S. by the Kings Ranch at Kingsville. This breed is a cross of shorthorn and Brahman. This breed is known for heat tolerance and special disease resistance. Their color is of a deep cherry red.

In many ways the King Ranch is unique, yet it is probably Texas most representative institution, like Texas, it is the biggest kind, progressive and making money. The ranch has been mechanized and organized to the hilt. There are filling stations scattered over the pastures and motor vehicles, much like the jeep are used.

There are 265 windmills, with 5 maintenance crews. The land on the ranch consists of coastal marsh to desert. There are still some problems with rustlers. The modern version is a mar, and partner in a fast truck loading at night, butchering in route and selling the meat to distant retailers at day light.

The third and last ranch history, the Pitchfork, was given by Mrs. J. C. Reynolds. Some 22 miles east of Dickens, the very modern headquarters of the Pitchfork Ranch is located. The buildings were built as recently as 30 to 40 years ago but the ranch itself is more than 85 years old. In searching the records to find the origin of the Pitchfork brand, it was found that a brand was registered in the name of Norman Savage in Matador County in 1943.

This pitchfork brand was one of the first to come to the West Texas open range and has continued to grow in importance all through the years. D. B. Gardner, the first manager of the ranch, held that important position all his life. Gardner did far more than perform just the bare duties that resulted in successful management.

He was human with his entire organization and became known as "the grand old man of the Pitchfork." He hired boys on the ranch who he trained and who later became valuable in successful ranching careers.

The facilities on the Pitchfork are very modern. Today under the management of Jim Humphreys, the ranch has extended its ranching to the raising and breeding of quarter horses. The fourth annual Pitchfork Ranch Horse Sale was held last fall. Approximately 1,000 persons from all over Texas attended.

Anytime you are traveling east of Lubbock on Highway 82, you can stop by the Pitchfork and be assured you will be received by the same friendly king of people that have always lived on the ranch.

Freshman team splits two games in a week

Morton's freshman team split games during the past week. Thursday they downed Seagraves 74-51 at home. Morton jumped to an 18-6 first period lead, stretched it to 35-21 at halftime and made it 56-34 after three quarters.

Terry Harvey led the scoring parade with 19 points. Stan Coffman had 18, M. C. Collins 13 and George Pritchett 11. Shaver had 15 for the visitors.

At Brownfield on Monday evening, the freshmen couldn't score enough in the second half to overcome a first half deficit. Morton trailed 7-14, 11-33, 28-45 and lost 48-60.

Collins had 15, Harvey 13 and Coffman 12 for Morton.

Upcoming this week for the younger teams, Levelland will visit Morton Thursday, Feb. 8, for three games. The freshmen will open the night at 5:30 p.m. The Morton seventh graders will go against Levelland's eighth grade B team, while the two eighth grade squads will tangle in the finale.

On Monday, Feb. 12, the Morton eighth graders and freshmen will go to Littlefield. First game is set for 6:30 p.m.

PROGRESS

Progress is on the march. There is a great boom in building. Cures are being found for maladies that have killed mankind for centuries. Industry is doing magnificent things. But what sort of progress is being made in human relations—this term that includes respect for the person and property of others and good will among men.

There is one agency striving for progress in this field. This agency is the church. At the birth of Jesus Christ, the following prophesy and promise was given to mankind by a host of angels: "Glory to God in the Highest Heaven! Peace upon earth among men of goodwill!" Luke 2:14, (Phillips translation). Only when the majority of men on earth are men of goodwill, will we have peace.

Attend church this week and align yourself with the forces of God.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
