

Tribe heads for state BB crown this weekend

The fantastic Morton Indians head for Austin this week in order to take on the rest of the entire state in competition for the class AA schoolboy basketball crown.

The trip will be the first in Morton High School history for a boys' team. The 1952 girls' team took second place in the state playoffs.

Morton will face Taft, a team from South Texas, at 4 p.m. Friday. The Class AA finals will be played at 7 p.m. Saturday.

The other two AA clubs in the state tournament are Hughes Springs and Kountze, and they will face one another at 2:30 preceding the Morton-Taft game. Kountze represents southeast Texas and Hughes Springs, northeast Texas.

Taft carries the best record into the state tournament with a 28-3 mark. That record is identical to McCamey's, a team that fell to Morton last Saturday, 88-74.

Kountze is 29-4 and Hughes Springs is 25-8 for the season. The Indians are now 27-7.

This year's tournament is different from any held previously. Prior to this year, all five interscholastic division tournaments took place over a three-day period, and a playoff for third place was held for the losers. This year, only the A, AA and AAA tournaments will be held this weekend. The class B and AAAA schools will meet in Austin next week. Also, there will not be a third place playoff. One loss eliminates a team from the tournament.

There will be five sessions in all, beginning with the AA semifinals Friday afternoon, followed by the AAA semifinals that night. Lamesa plays Fairbanks at 8:30 p.m. Friday. The Class A semifinals will be played Saturday morning. Clarendon of region I meets Itasca at 8:45 a.m.

The Morton Indians and their coaches will depart by car at 9 a.m. this morning, and will work out in the afternoon before arriving at Austin tonight. Several hundred Indian fans are expected to make the 430 mile trek to the state capital. A chartered bus occupied by teachers, students, and local fans will leave early Friday morning and will return Sunday.

The Indians should be at full strength and ready to play. After eliminating three of the best teams in the area in the form of Dimmitt, McCamey, and Quanah, hopes are high that the tribe will bring home their first crown. If not, the Indians are still heroes of the year and have contributed tremendously toward boosting community and school pride to its highest point ever.

Indians top McCamey, Quanah for region title

Coach Ted Whillock called them a "Cinderella" team.

With the Lubbock Municipal Coliseum as the setting for the Prince's Fancy Ball, the Cinderella Morton Indians arrived with "seemingly little going for them," as one area newspaper writer put it, but when the midnight hour struck, the whole story was changed.

The Indians left no glass slipper; instead they brought home the prince's crown, robe, and all the honors including the Region I championship trophy.

By downing McCamey and Quanah, the Indians earned the right to advance to the state playoffs, the first trip to Austin for a MHS boys team, and will pay their first game against Taft Friday at 4 p.m.

They say that the third time is a charm, and the Tribe proved the old adage true last Saturday. Morton advanced to the regional tournament in 1958 and 1959, but were shut out in opening round games. But the 1969-70 edition of the Indians broke all past traditions by shocking the highly-touted McCamey Badgers, he heavily-favored Quanah Indians, the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, and most of the Morton fans.

With impressive play that saw any one of six Morton players become the hero from moment to moment, the Tribe socked McCamey, 88-74, and outdistanced Quanah, 73-68, in the finals Saturday night.

The Indians had to offset several disadvantages in order to put together the big victories. Morton gave away height to McCamey, a team that had lost only two games in thirty tries. Quanah brought to the tournament two outstanding players in Lee McDow and Jessie King, but good defense held McDow to 10 points. King fared better, however, and was the leading Quanah scorer with 21.

George Pritchett canned 31 points against McCamey and won himself a well-deserved spot on the regional all-tournament team. Only five boys were named to the team. Quanah placed two, and McCamey and Coleman, one each.

The Tribe had to offset fantastic shooting by the McCamey Badgers in order to pull out the first game. The Badgers hit 21 of 34 from the field for a 61.8 percentage mark at the half and had outrebounded the Indians 25-14. Yet Morton led at that point, 45-53, thanks to its own 50 per cent field goal shooting and nine big points from the free throw line.

McCamey's shooting fell off considerably during the second half as the Badgers began to feel the pressure, and managed to hit only 10 or 34 attempts in the final two quarters.

The Quanah Indians outbit the Morton Indians from the floor, clipping in 44 per cent of their shots, compared to Morton's 41 per cent. From the free throw line, Quanah hit 12 of 17 while the Indians were making 15 of 26 attempts, but the difference came as Morton just got to shoot more times than did Quanah.

The Tribe wrapped up both victories in the third quarter and from the free throw line in each game. Against McCamey, the Indians outscored the Badgers 24-14 during the third period, and outshot Quanah, 24-17 during the same quarter. From the free throw line, the Indians hit 22 of 35 attempts against McCamey while the Badgers were making only 12 of 22.

Original talent show judged big success

The premier edition of the monthly talent show sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce got off to a spectacular start here Saturday, according to show chairman Jackie Randolph.

An estimated 250 people turned out for the event held in the county activities building and featured country and western music in the nature of a jamboree.

The three hour show featured musical groups from Clovis, Littlefield, Odessa, Pecos, Andrews, Lamesa, Roswell, N. M., and talent from the local area.

The "Green Grass Group" won the initial merchandise prize which will be a feature of the shows which will be held the last Saturday of each month. The prize is not awarded for the best performance, but is drawn for by all the contestants who participate.

The next show date will be Saturday, March 28, and will probably not have as much competition for an audience as this one had. The Saturday show was in competition with the Regional basketball tournament held in Lubbock which, it appeared, half of the population of Morton attended.

★ Concert

The Gospel Harmonizers of Berger will give a gospel singing concert Sunday, March 8 at the County Activity Building from 2 to 3:30 p.m. The group sings a wide selection of old and new songs. The public is invited to attend.

Fat stock show sets new all-time records

The 1970 Cochran County Junior fat stock show faded into history with the last of the auctioneer Friday night after setting all-time records in the number of animals exhibited and in the total money receipts from the stock sale.

The show exceeded in all categories the record-breaking show of last year with the still undetermined total receipts climbing toward the $9,000 mark as compared to $7,028.88 in 1969 and $7,231.77 tallied in 1968.

Show officials expressed pride and satisfaction in the manner in which the show was run off and in the high quality of the animals exhibited by the boys and girls.

Parents, FFA members and 4-H clubs have expressed their gratitude to the buyers in the auction for the dedication and support given their organizations and efforts, officials stated.

With the early closing of the show Friday night, due to a possible conflict with the regional basketball tournament if it were held as scheduled on Saturday, show superintendent Bobby Neal made announcement of the special awards that are a part of the annual event.

Showmanship awards, each worth $10 went to Gary Bennett, Whiteface FFA, Swine division; Deborah Whitehead, Morton 4-H Club, Lamb division; and Craig Kirby, Three Way 4-H Club, Calf division.

The Herdsmen awards, also worth $10 each, went to Morton 4-H Club, Calf division; Bula and Pep FFA, Swine division and Morton 4-H Club, Lamb division.

In announcing the winners in the Steer Weight-Gain contest, Neal pointed out that this competition is sponsored annually by the area cotton gins. The winners and their awards were as follows:

First, Marti Dewbre, $70; Second, Ronnie Richardson, $50; Third, Connie Richardson, $40; Fourth, Kathy Mason, $35; Fifth, Morton Smith, III, $20; Sixth, Barry Key, $15; Seventh, Geno Abbe, $10; Eighth, Ted Thomas, $5; Ninth, Vicky Dewbre, $5 and Tenth, Doug Vanstort, $5.

The special presentation of a pair of Tony Lama boots, donated by the Jack Davis Boot Company of Lubbock to the person contributing the most to the stock show, went to Danny Barker of the Morton FFA chapter. The $25 savings bond, given by the Farm Equipment Company to the most deserving exhibitor, went to Bradley Aiken, of the Whiteface FFA chapter.

Hank Mathews, auctioneer from Leveland, once again conducted the sale and announced packer-buyer floor prices of $28.90 on the steers, $28.50 on the hogs and $28 on the lambs.

A new system of guaranteed bids was inserted into the sale for the first time this year so that the exhibitors will have the opportunity to retain their animals and exhibit them in other shows with the possibility of gaining a higher price.

Winners of the various divisions in the show, together with the sale price of their animals, is as follows:

Craig Kirby, Three Way 4-H Club, Grand Champion Angus steer, $921.50.

Wesley Bently, Cochran 4-H, Grand Champion Crossbred hog, $408.

Joan Whitehead, Cochran 4-H, Grand Champion Fine Wool lamb, $141.75.

Joan Whitehead, Cochran 4-H, Grand Champion Crossbred lamb, $106.25.

Dan Barker, Morton FFA, Grand Champion Medium Wool lamb, $186.

Marti Dewbre, Cochran 4-H, Grand Champion Southdown, $140.40.

Leslie Holden, Cochran 4-H, Reserve

Historical medalions placed on two county structures Feb. 28

Saturday, February 28, was a big day in the historical annals of Cochran County.

Two dedication ceremonies were held, one in Whiteface and one in Morton, during which historical medalions were placed on buildings which have figured large in the county's history. Structures receiving the honoring plaques were the old Whiteface Hotel and the Cochran County Historical Museum in Morton.

The Whiteface ceremony was held at the hotel site beginning at 10 a.m.

Guests were welcomed by Whiteface Mayor Wendall Dunlap. Rev. Harold Harrison gave the opening prayer and Marshall Cooper, Administrator of Girlstown, presented a resume of the school's plans for the building and thanked the Noel Estate for donating the property to Girlstown.

Elvis Fleming, former Cochran County resident, author, historian and professor at ENMU, introduced members of the Cochran County Historical Committee and gave a review of the history of the building.

Walter Thompson gave the dedicatory prayer.

At 2 p.m. the dedication of the historical medalion at the Cochran County Museum in Morton was conducted.

After a tour of the museum, Murry Crone, President of the Museum Association, introduced Morton Mayor Donnie Simpson who gave the welcoming address and introduced Elvis Fleming who gave a brief history of Cochran County.

Walter Taylor again gave the dedicatory prayer.

The group then moved to the banquet room of the Cochran County Activity

Scout fund volunteers hold kick-off breakfast

Approximately 25 volunteer workers attended a kick-off breakfast for the local Boy Scout fund raising campaign at the Wig Wam Restaurant Wednesday morning.

Purpose of the meeting, under the supervision of Warren Green, Director of Programs for the South Plains Council, Boy Scouts of America, was to organize the drive and assign workers to specific areas in the project.

The campaign organization is composed of an overall staff, two majors and ten captains. Each of the captains were to choose five additional workers at the meeting to assist in the campaign.

Enrollment chairman Leonard Groves is in charge of the local campaign. Majors are Tommy Hawkins and David Greka. Captains include Rex Mauldin, Harold Brennan, Jimmy St. Clair, Bill Crone, Bill Frost, O. L. Tilger, Wiley Hodge, Leonard Coleman, Fred Weaver and Gary Williamson.

The drive is for the purpose of supporting scouting activities on the South Plains which are ever increasing in cost. Green said. The Boy Scout program has no means of support other than voluntary contributions, he added.

Mexican Dinner will aid day-care center

The steering committee for the Day-Care program of the Community Action Center and interested people in the community met last week to discuss ways to establish the program.

The committee is in the process of securing a building to be used. Since the building must meet state requirements, money will be needed to meet these requirements.

The Day-Care Center will be available for working mothers in the low income bracket.

Mrs. Sherrill Griffith was named fund raising chairman and she has announced a Mexican Dinner set for March 15 from 11:30 to 1:30 p.m. in the County Activity Building. Prices will be $1.25 for adults, $1.00 for students and 75c for children. It is hoped the dinner will help in funding the project.

Student essay program endorsed by Governor

Texas Gov. Preston Smith today endorsed a high school essay program designed to re-kindle an awareness of the "positive" basics of American life among young people of Texas.

Termed "Why You've Got a Lot to Live," the essay program will be conducted throughout the state by Pepsi-Cola bottlers in 24 Texas franchises, according to Charles L. Sandahl, Jr., of Austin, director of the national Pepsi-Cola Bottlers Association.

Sandahl said students will be asked to express their thoughts on the vital issues facing America today, with emphasis on the means by which the country can achieve its potential.

Winners at local high schools will be eligible to participate in an area competition and the winning entry will then be forwarded for judging in the state finals. State winners from all fifty states will participate in a national contest with the top essay announced in June, 1970.

Sandahl reviewed the program with Gov. Smith accompanied by James L. Stafford of Dallas, Southern Division Director of Public Relations for Pepsi-Cola Co., and Buddy L. Gould, district manager for the soft-drink firm from San Antonio.

The Texas state winner will receive a $1000 U.S. Savings Bond, while the national winner receives a $10,000 bond. Matching prizes will be presented schools of the winning students.

Apply Terraclor Super-X® the first time you plant cotton.

Think for a minute what it costs to replant an acre of cotton that doesn't make a stand. There's the cost of seed, fertilizer, herbicides, insecticides, equipment, operators and the precious time. Multiply that by the number of acres you could lose to seed and seedling disease.

Now think about Terraclor Super-X Soil Fungicide. It could very well eliminate replanting. Here's why: Terraclor Super-X is a combination of two Olin discoveries that effectively control the fungi that cause cotton seedling disease.

How important is this to you? The regional Cotton Disease Council reports that losses average $60,000,000 a year to seedling diseases alone.

Terraclor Super-X is applied while you plant. Your cotton seed is surrounded by protection in the furrow, where it counts. As the seed germinates and the seedling emerges, the fungi that kill unprotected plants are held off by Terraclor Super-X. You get a healthy, vigorous stand from only one planting.

About seed treatments: They are great... as far as they go. But seed treatment protection lasts only until the seed coat opens and the seedling grows into untreated soil. That's when you need Terraclor Super-X in the furrow.

Terraclor Super-X is available from your Olin dealer in three formulations: granular, liquid and dust. A special formulation is available with a quality soil systemic insecticide impregnated in the granules for combination fungus and insect control.

If you don't know your local Olin dealer, write to Terraclor Super-X, P. O. Box 991, Little Rock, Ark. 72203 for his name.

You ought to get to know him. He can help you get a good stand from only one planting. That's one good reason he is known as the rare bird in the business.

Susan Williamson named top homemaker; to try for state

Susan Williamson has been named Morton High School's 1970 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow.

Selected on the basis of her score in Dec. 2 homemaking knowledge and attitude examination for which a record 646 senior girls in 15,040 of the nation's high schools were enrolled, she is now eligible for state and national honors. She will also receive a specially designed sash and charm from General Mills, sponsor of the annual educational program.

Test papers of all school winners in the state are currently undergoing additional judging, and a State Homemaker Tomorrow will be named in March. She will be awarded a $1,500 college scholarship; the second-ranking girl in the state receives a $500 educational grant.

Additionally, first-place winners from the 51 states and the District of Columbia together with advisors from their schools — will receive an expense-paid educational tour of Washington, D.C., and Colonial Williamsburg, Va., this spring.

Climax of the tour will be naming of the 1970 Betty Crocker All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow, whose scholarship will be increased to $5,000. Three runners-up will also be selected and will be awarded $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000 scholarships. National judging will center on personal observation and interviews during the tour.

Begun by General Mills in the 1954-55 school year, the Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow is designed to emphasize the importance of homemaking as a career. During its 16-year history, more than seven million young women have been enrolled in the program and scholarship grants total approximately $1 3/4 million.

The test which forms the basis for selection of winners is prepared and scored by Science Research Associates, Chicago. Schools of state winners are awarded sets of Encyclopaedia Britannica by Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc. Yorkum.

Knits are the star attraction of the spring fabric show. Available in a wide variety of textures, patterns, weight and colors, they are easy to wear, easy care and easy to sew.

The weight of the knit will determine the type of garment for which it is suitable. Double knits make great suits, coats and tailored dresses while single knits are perfect for softer, less tailored designs.

Select a simple pattern for a loose knit or bold print and generally avoid bias cut or circular skirts.

When cutting knits, work on a long flat surface to avoid stretching fabric and do not use original fold in fabric.

Use sharp pins and shears to avoid snags. For jersey, pin pattern on wrong side to avoid curling.

To stitch, choose 100% polyester thread, a short stitch length (12-15), a loose balanced tension, adjust pressure foot to light, and guide fabric gently without pulling. Ball point needles with a slightly rounded point are now available in sewing centers.

To avoid stretch use bias tape in waistline and shoulder seams. Stay stitch neckline. To prevent rolling of seams on lightweight knits, fold lace seam binding over the edge and stitch.

Press in lengthwise direction to avoid stretching. Place paper strips under seam allowance to avoid impression on right side.

Interface neckline, buttonholds, suffs, waistbands and belts to prevent stretching. Interface collars, lapels and hemlines to give shaping with featherweight pelion, especially designed for knits.

If linings are necessary, construct separately and attach at necklines and waistline.

Insert a nylon zipper by hand for a flexible closing. Allow knit garment to hang 24 hours before the final hemming. Use lace seam binding or hem facing, ideal for knits because it gives with the fabric.

Comments on Conservation

By Wayne Wilcox

The dark clouds and sharp, loud crack of thunder Friday stirred memories. The frequent storms of last spring were brought to mind. The thunder could be a weak preview of things to come this year. The thing is for sure—we are in the blow season.

Much of the land in the Cochran Soil and Water Conservation District has been stripped bare of its original cover. The grass cover was removed to provide space for planted crops. Unfortunately some crops—cotton, for instance—don't produce enough "trash" to protect the land from blowing. Other crops—such as milo—produce enough "trash" but too many fields are plowed in such a manner as to bury the residue. This leaves bare ground which very easily becomes blowing ground. Say, aren't those Indians something! They are really blowing and going. The Soil Conservation Service staff joins the rest of the folk in these parts in wishing the Indians luck in their raid down Austin-way. Hope they can deliver a coup and return safely with the top spoils in the state—STATE CHAMPIONSHIP.

ASCS Farm News

By John W. Hall

EARLY COMPLIANCE WILL SPEED FARM PAYMENTS

Farmers participating in the feed grain, wheat, or cotton programs can help assure themselves of program payments in July or August by complying with the program provisions just as soon as time, weather, and crop growth allow. So reported Clarence A. Daniefs, Chairman of the Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASCS) Committee.

He pointed out that the U. S. Department of Agriculture this year has set mid-August as the target date for completion of 1970 farm program payments to participating producers in the feed grain, wheat and cotton programs. In previous years payments in Cochran County sometimes have not been completed until late September.

Sign-up for the farm program is now underway at Cochran County ASCS Office and will continue through March 20.

The ASCS Committee Chairman urged eligible producers to sign up early for the programs and also to request measurement service when they sign up if they have not already done so. Measurement service is offered at cost by the County ASCS Office and provides assurance to producers that they are in compliance with the programs if they go exactly by the measurements.

Before the County ASCS Office can begin processing a payment to a producer, he must certify that he has complied with all the program provisions. This includes a report of acreages devoted to the crops and land uses involved.

"We are urging producers to certify compliance as soon as they can," said Daniefs, "but under no circumstances should they do so until they know they have met the program provisions. Once a farmer has certified he is in compliance with a program—feed grain, wheat, or cotton—his farm may be checked at any time. If he is not in compliance, he may lose some or all of his payments."

Daniefs reminded farmers that earning farm program payments is a three-step process:

1. Signing up to participate and agreeing to comply with program provisions. Farmers may sign up at their County ASCS Office Monday through Friday, 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. through March 20.

2. Complying with program provisions. In general, this means seeing that the crop and land use acreage requirements have been met. The crop must be planted and cared for in a workmanlike manner. Complete details on program compliance are available at the County ASCS Office.

3. Certifying compliance with program provisions. Producers who have complied with the program provisions may come in to the County ASCS Office at any time to certify. Once they have certified, processing of their farm payment will begin. Final date for certification in Cochran County for farm programs is August 1.

Wheat and barley must be certified by May 1, 1970.

Appeals on 1970 cotton yields must be in the ASCS Office by March 11th.

Indians . . .

McCamey drew 25 personal fouls against the tricky maneuvering of Terry Harvey and the other Tribesmen. The Badgers' two top players, Mike Thomas and Buzzy Stevenson, were forced out of the game during the fourth period via the foul route.

Morton, meanwhile, never was in serious foul trouble in either game. The Indians were charged with 12 fouls in the Quannah game, and 14 in the game with McCamey.

The third quarter was the turning point for both contests. In the game Saturday morning against the taller Badgers, Morton led at halftime, 45-43, in spite of McCamey's torrid shooting. As the third period got underway, the Indians began matching the Badgers shot-for-shot, and led 48-47, after the first two minutes of the period. Then George Pritchett picked up two quick field goals and M. C. Collins another and the Indians were in front by seven points before McCamey could score. Then baskets by Elton Patton, Pritchett, and five in a row by Collins thrust the Tribe ahead 67-57 as time ran out. Pritchett was fouled a second before the buzzer, and big George wasted no time in hitting both shots to give the Indians the 69-57 lead going into the fourth period.

From that point, the Badgers never got any closer and the Indians were set to take on tough Quannah at the end of the 88-74 contest.

The loss left McCamey with a 28-3 season record. The Badgers lost previously to Seminole and Seagraves.

Quannah's Indians were not as hot from the floor the first half as were the Badgers, hitting 40 per cent, but the Tribe from Morton wasn't either. The Morton quintet managed to hit only 29 per cent the first half, but had stayed even with Quannah on rebounding with 28. Again, Morton's free throw shooting and Quannah's fouling kept Morton in the game, but trailing, 32-30, at the half. Morton was down, 32-26, with just a minute left in the half, but four points by Terry Harvey pulled the Tribe within two.

The lead exchanged hands several times during the third period and was tied 49-49 with just one minute left in the period. Then baskets by Pritchett and Patton gave Morton a four-point lead. Before the quarter elapsed, Harvey racked up another one of several three-point plays on a basket and a free throw, and Morton held a 54-49 lead at the quarter mark.

Quannah trimmed the lead to three twice during the early minutes of the fourth period, but Morton began to pull away as Harvey, Patton, Keith Embry and Pritchett each connected. The Tribe led, 66-55, before Quannah began to come back with a desperation press and pulled to within six points twice, and trailed, 70-64, with 1:38 left in the game. Embry hit one point on a free shot, but Quannah came back with a field goal and trailed 71-66. Then Patton was fouled and hit the first of two shots. With 53 seconds left, Quannah scored two more, and trailed by only four, but Embry iced the game and the trip to Austin by hitting another free shot with 28 seconds left, giving the Morton Indians a 73-68 margin that held up for the last seconds of the game.

George Pritchett was the top scorer and rebounder for the Indians in the tournament. He scored 44 points during the two games, hitting 31 in the first against McCamey. George pulled down 28 rebounds in the two contests.

Pritchett also hit well from the field, connecting on 17 of 36 attempts for a 47 per cent average. Embry was tops in free throw percentage, connecting on 9 of 12 tries, and also in field goal shooting, with 4 baskets on 8 attempts.

Nearly 2500 fans saw the Quannah contest, and the majority of them were Morton supporters.

MORTON, TEXAS, THURSDAY, MARCH 5, 1970

NEXT TO THE TOP...

MICKI DEWBRE CAME CLOSE with her Southdown lamb, but didn't quite make it all the way to the top. Her sheep was judged reserve champion in the Southdown class, an honor that she will cherish for many years to come. Helping her show off her prize lamb, left to right, are Don Whittenburg, owner-operator of the Morton Gin Company, who purchased the animal at the stock show sale; Mr. and Mrs. James Dewbre, Micki's parents, and county agent Roy McClung.

GRAND CHAMPION MEDIUM WOOL...

DAN BARKER proudly shows off his grand champion medium wool lamb which took top honors in its class and was purchased in the stock sale for the outstanding price of $186. With Dan are his parents, the H. B. Barkers and Vic Jackson, buyer of the lamb for Star Route Coop, and Owen Young, vocational agriculture teacher.

NEAR THE TOP...

LESLIE HOLDEN came ever so close to the grand championship with her reserve champion Hereford and looks forward to next year when she vows that she will go all the way to the big prize. With her, and every bit as proud of her as the rest of Cochran county, are (left to right) Roy McClung, county agent; D. E. (Gene) Benham, buyer of the calf for the First State Bank, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Holden.

LOOK OF A CHAMPION...

CONNIE RICHARDSON of the Three Way 4-H Club displays her 820 pound calf that won her first place in the Hereford division of the stock show Friday. Maple Co-op Gin was the purchaser of the magnificent animal at the high bid of $341.85 at the sale Friday night. Helping her show the steer is county agent Roy McClung.

Hank Mathews, Auctioneer

ROYALTY IN THE HOG SET...

BUTCH DAVIS, accompanied by his vocational Agriculture teacher Owen Young, feeds Butch's reserve grand champion light cross breed hog a rewarding snack after he placed high in the judging at the annual fat stock show. Butch was probably more pleased with the situation than his grateful pig, as he realized $174.60 in his sale following the show.

PERENNIAL WINNER...

IT'S BECOMING THE RULE, "if there is a Whitehead entered, there will be a Whitehead winner", and it was certainly the case at the fat stock show again this year. With more than one of the family entered, there were more than one winner. Here Joann Whitehead shows off her grand champion fine wool lamb. She also won high in other categories of the show. Left to right are her father, James, a representative of Earnest Gentry Ford, of Levelland, who purchased the lamb in the sale, and county agent Roy McClung.

SOUTHDOWNS ARE THE BEST...

AT LEAST, SHE CAN FEEL THAT WAY. Marti Dewbre is very proud that her Southdown lamb won the grand championship and displays it here with her pride on her sleeve. And who can argue with her? Helping her display her lamb are county agent Roy McClung, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Dewbre and John Shephard, representative of the Maple Coop Gin, who purchased the lamb for the premium price of $140.40.

THE HAPPY WINNERS...

Included are Craig Kirby, Wes'ey Bently, Konnie Richardson, Kathy Mason; Leslie Holden, Marti Dewbre, Doug Vanstony, Micki Dewbre, Ted Thomas, Barry Key, Morton J. Smith III, Dan Barker, Butch Davis, Gary Bennett and Deborah Whitehead.

Area-wide support of Indians indicated in letters received

The Morton Indians are finding that they have support coming not only from their fans at home, but even from some of their past opponents.

Two letters received this week at Morton High School reveal the interest of other area schools and communities. The letters, printed below, are from Bill Sanders, student body president of Dimmitt High School, and the Mustang Booster Club of Denver City.

To Morton Student Body and Friends,

On behalf of the student body and community of Dimmitt I would like to express my feelings for the Morton Indians. During my four year career at Dimmitt High School I feel like this is the finest team that we have ever faced. This team not only stands out in its basketball ability, but to me it shows respect and sportsmanship to its teammates.

This factor not only shows up in the team but in the student body and community as well. This has been a great privilege for me and the Morton Indians will always stand out in my mind.

Best of luck in the future and we would like for you to know that the Dimmitt Bobcats are behind the Morton Indians all the way to the State Tournament in Austin. We know that you will represent our district well.

Best of luck,
Bill Sanders
Student Body President
WIN STATE!!

Basketball Team
Morton High School
Morton, Texas
To the basketball team:

On behalf of the Mustang Boosters of Denver City, we would like to congratulate you on your fine district record and subsequent district championship. We were proud to note your resounding victory over Dimmitt Tuesday night, and we hope that it will be only the first of many.

We wish you the best of luck in Lubbock this weekend. We are proud of the way you are representing District 4-AA,

— EDITORIAL — Go, Indians, Go!!

It is common (and so sweet) knowledge to all of the citizens of the area that our valiant Morton High School Indians have swept overwhelming opposition aside and now are on the brink of a possible state championship AA basketball.

It is also common knowledge to us that the courage, determination and all-out gutty performance it has taken so far which has been displayed by the basketball squad is a rare, rare thing indeed.

Derided by our neighboring "Big Brother" newspaper and given no chance at all in their strange brand of reporting, the Tribe gave no notice of concern as they systematically eliminated, one after the other, their vaunted foes and now stand on the threshold of the "Big One."

Let us pause here and state, in no uncertain terms, that whatever the outcome at Austin; whatever the fortunes of our boys might be, we are so proud of them that we are literally busting our buttons and if they should lose out even in the first round down there, we will be as darned proud of them as any community could possibly be if they went all the way.

But, just hold it a cotton pickin' minute, we aren't singing any swan songs—we just want them to know we are with them all the way, come what may. And, WE FEEL THEY CAN GO ALL THE WAY!!

We are of the opinion that Morton was very badly treated in the press (Avalanche-Journal) following their spectacular win in the regional tournament. (We didn't get too good treatment following our win in bi-district at Levelland either).

It would seem to us that when a team that seems to be the patsy in a tournament and has none of the attributes of a winner (their words) mows down the opposition and proved they have been underrated, that that team should receive not sarcasm, but applause. This we did not and we are watching you with hope and expectation, knowing that you will be satisfied with nothing less than AA State Basketball Championship.

The Denver City Mustang Boosters are behind you all the way. Good luck, Indians!

Sincerely,
Hollis Scarborough, President
L. Calvin Stewart, Treasurer

receive. We received instead a silly, trumped-up bit of flotsam that was supposed to pass as a sports news story.

The statistics were wrong, the narrative description of the game was so inaccurate as to be ridiculous and there seemed through it all the intent to belittle and humiliate the Morton basketball team.

Now, this we are not prepared to accept. NEVER!

We will put "Big Brother" on notice that we just don't buy their thinking (if any) and that we are in no way dependent on their good offices. Our town and school may be small but we are making our own way in a manner that neither seeks nor accepts any sympathy. (In fact, we will bet that we get a lot closer to a state title than any of those powder puff schools in Lubbock).

Let us not dwell on this, however, what we really want to do is get these boys over the top! There is no reason for urging the citizens of Morton to get out there and support their team—they have already been doing so and will continue to cheer them on. The huge crowds both at Levelland, at bi-district, and the Lubbock Coliseum, at regional, certainly proved that.

Let's everyone, who possibly can, go to Austin to support our boys. Those who can't, will certainly be hanging on the telephone lines and keeping an ear to the radio to follow the team. Let us also cooperate to the fullest in keeping each other informed, since we all have an equal interest in how they make out.

Let us also resolve—that whether our Indians come back with their shields, or on them—that we are with them in person, in spirit and in deep affection.

"Nature's Material" is program for club

Various kinds of weathered wood and its use in flower arrangements was the subject of the LeFleur Garden Club program at their meeting February 26 in the home of Mrs. Roy Hill.

"Since weathered wood is so good in western homes and can be used as line material, as a container or for the wood itself, interesting flower arrangements can be made for the home as well as flower shows," Mrs. Hill stated. She also told the members that as garden club members they should study weathered wood and its treatment, which depends on its condition and type and that beaches, rivers, deserts and mountains contribute interesting pieces which need only to be cleaned. One method of cleaning, Mrs. Hill suggested was rubbing with a wire brush and a non-shiny result can be obtained with wall paper paint, for a slight gloss apply varnish diluted with turpentine. Dull clear varnish, wax or furniture oil will dress wood and bring out color without shine. Arrangements and wood were on display.

The L'Allegro Study Club has adopted project "flag sale" to be conducted through the month of March.

"The purpose of this project is to place a flag in every home in the community and to promote patriotism. This is not a money making project, flags will be sold at cost," Mrs. Bud Thomas, club president, stated.

The flags are 3 feet by 5 feet and made of 100% cotton. The stripes are sewn and the stars are printed. Complete kit will be sold for $4.50 which includes tax and postage. It will contain an aluminum pole with rope and brackets for installing. Also included will be a book on flag etiquette.

Club members are taking advance orders and the purchase price must accompany the order. Deadline for ordering will be April 1 and the flags will be delivered to the purchaser by April 10.

Anyone wishing to purchase a flag may contact any L'Allegro Club member or one of the following committee women: Mrs. James McClure, 591 E. Grant; Mrs. Thomas, 204 E. Hayes; Mrs. Van Greene, 708 E. Lincoln; or Mrs. George Manda henke, 802 E. Hayes.
