City Of Floydada Seeking Third HUD Block Grant

Public Hearing Scheduled Next Wednesday

City of Floydada is mapping plans to apply for funding through the Department of Housing and Urban Development Community Development Block Grant Program. City Manager Bill Feuerbacher points out that two important elements in planning for this program are citizens participation and evaluation of the city's past performance on housing and community development activities.

The first step will be a public hearing on the City of Floydada Citizen Advisory Committee for housing and community development programs. The committee will present the city's proposed CDBG participation plan and to "obtain views on this plan prior to its adoption by the city council."

Citizens also will be given an opportunity during the hearing-scheduled for Wednesday, Jan. 24 at the city center — to comment on the city's past performance in carrying out housing and community development programs.

Members of the committee are: Larry Santos, Ricky Gonzales, John Campbell, Nancy Willson, and Doyle housing rehabilitation and similar items in low to moderate income neighborhoods.

STERN COMPETITION
All Texas cities with a population of 50,000 and under are eligible to apply for the federal assistance in the "small city" category, regardless of previous application.

Competition for the grants is "very rigid," Feuerbacher estimates that "about 20 of the 400 towns making application will receive grants."

He notes that "we (Floydada) have been very lucky to have obtained two previous grants. Most cities have received nothing."

A $100,000 grant from the 1975 program permitted paving of 13 blocks in the Della Plains area. This is in the northeast portion of Floydada.

In 1976, another $100,000 grant was received by City of Floydada. This was utilized to pave 13 blocks on Price and Missouri Streets, east from Second Street.

SECOND HEARING
Standards require that two hearings be held. Date for the second has not yet been decided.

Idalou Teams Here Tuesday

Floydada basketballers will host Idalou here Tuesday, beginning with the JV girls match at 5 p.m. Varsity girls and boys tilts follow.

Local sports fans are encouraged to support the FHS cagers with their presence at the games.

A COMPOSITE sketch depicting the athletic career of Pat Summerall, speaker for the Feb. 12 Floydada Chamber of Commerce Banquet, is being held by C of C Manager Lance Barrow. The framed 18x20 inch sketch, which is to be presented to Summerall at the banquet, will remain on exhibit another week at First National Bank of Floydada.

Summerall Sketch On Display At First National Bank Here

Floydada community residents are encouraged to view at First National Bank of Floydada a sketch of Pat Summerall, who has accepted an invitation to speak Feb. 12 at the annual Floydada Chamber of Commerce Banquet. The drawing will remain at FNB through next week.

Lance Barrow, manager of Floydada Chamber of Commerce and spotter for Summerall during telecasts of professional football and major golf tournaments, says the sketch highlights Summerall's athletic and sports casting career.

A sketch of Summerall holding a CBS microphone is surrounded by three other scenes: (1) the former New York Giants kicker preparing to boot the 49-yard field goal in the dark and during a blizzard (taken from an actual photograph) which broke a tie against the Cleveland Browns and sent the Giants into the championship game; (2) a pre-game setting showing Summerall and Tom Brookshire in the CBS broadcast booth prior to the 1978 regular season game pitting the Los Angeles Rams against the Minnesota Vikings; and (3) the booth from which CBS sportscasters work major golf tournaments.

Barrow encourages the public to secure their banquet tickets from any Floydada Chamber of Commerce director or at the chamber office. He notes that the 450 tickets are "moving fast."

The 18x20 inch composite was done by Gary McCaleb, assistant academic dean at Abilene Christian University. It is to be presented to Summerall, chosen last year as the nation's number one sportscaster, at the banquet.

Open House Thursday At New Electronic Switching Office

Southwestern Bell will host an Open House for Floydada residents at its new Electronic Switching office at 211 W. California on next Thursday, Jan. 25, according to Manager Jim West.

Hours are from 1 p.m. till 6:30 p.m. "We would like everyone to come out and see our new ESS system," West said.

"Besides an interesting tour, we will have souvenirs, exhibits, refreshments and informative literature. We will also invite people to register for three framed copies of the upcoming directory cover." West pointed out that the new Electronic Switching System was put into operation in Floydada late last year.

"We plan to show visitors how ESS can handle several thousand separate instructions per second, make complicated and accurate decisions in millionths of a second and do some of its own maintenance and testing.

"Plus, we will demonstrate some new and inexpensive optional features we are now offering all Floydada customers like adding a third person to an existing conversation, dialing only two digits of a long distance number and reaching your party, talking back and forth between two different parties on separate conversation and forwarding calls to a third number automatically.

"We promise an interesting and informative experience," West added.

Schwertner Reports Friday

Tractorcade Stretches 14 Miles On Highway

"We're trying to get our government back to the people. We feel we'll get our government back now...or lose it forever," Arnold Schwertner said in a Friday morning phone conversation from Shreveport, La.

The Sandhill man is a member of the Tractorcade which is enroute to Washington, D.C. The delegation — which is "averaging 100 to 140 miles a day" — now includes "over 100 tractors plus support vehicles (pickups and campers)," Schwertner explained, noting "that there are two to three support vehicles for every tractor." The Tractorcade group with which he is traveling has grown to "14 miles long."

500 TRACTORS
The group left Shreveport Friday morning enroute to Monroe, 100 miles away, for a Saturday night clam bake and rally. They plan to remain in Monroe until Monday morning.

A Thursday phone conversation with Georgia leaders of the American Agriculture Movement noted that "500 tractors from Georgia are confirmed... there may be another 500." The Georgia tractors will link with Schwertner and his group Saturday of next week in Atlanta.

This is expected to produce a procession spanning "80 to 84 miles down the highway...plus what we pick up at Monroe."

The Sandhill man said "we farmers want 100 per cent parity in the market place because we feel this is the minimum and it would limit food price increases." He added his opinion that "the Carter administration is opposed to this because they are taking our land."

FARM BILL IMPLEMENTATION
"What we came for (to Washington) is implementation of the 1977 farm bill — 90 per cent of parity now. We believe this would be the first step to getting 100 per cent parity."

Schwertner said the group is following its projected time schedule. They plan to reach the nation's capitol Feb. 2, and "camp outside of town on Virginia farmland. We will cause confusion in

Are you a photo buff? Or do you accidentally come up with a pretty good picture occasionally?

The two Floyd County newspapers are starting a photo contest. The winning entry each week earns a $2 cash prize and will be featured in the Sunday issue.

But the best part is a $25 check which awards the grand prize winner at the conclusion of 1979?

Out-of-county judges — who do not know the contestants — will choose winners.

Enter your favorite photo today at The Hesperian office in Floydada or The Beacon office in Lockney [no professionals allowed]. Let's see who is Floyd County's best amateur photographer!

Members of the committee are: Larry Santos, Ricky Gonzales, John Campbell, Nancy Willson, and Doyle

Feuerbacher requests that anyone with suggestions concerning spending the funds to contact him, City Manager Jimmie Lou Stewart, or any member of the committee. He emphasizes that "every idea will be considered."

Input from the citizens is very important to securing this funding and to help plans for improving Floydada," the city manager states.

AD TO LOW-MODERATE INCOME RESIDENTS

Feuerbacher emphasizes that the grant program is designed by the Department of Housing and Urban Development to benefit areas with predominantly low and moderate income residents.

The city manager says that persons who will be unable to attend the hearing may present written opinions to the city office, 114 West Virginia, any time prior to the public hearing.

Interested individuals may contact the city office to arrange for assistance during the session.

The community development block grants are designed to assist with such projects as water system, paving, Hungry? How About Spaghetti Tuesday?

Floydada community residents are invited to attend a Tuesday spaghetti supper, sponsored by the Floydada Student Council. The meal is to be held from 5 until 8 p.m. in the junior cafeteria.

Tickets are $2.50 for adults, $1.50 for children, and 50 cents for children under five.

'We Started With A Screwdriver'

Johnny Lloyds Establish Farm Equipment Firm In South Africa

Johnny and Willie Mae Lloyd started a new business venture in a foreign country "with just a screwdriver." Three years later the former Floyd County residents are seeing the results of their initiative and imagination.

Mrs. Louis (Janice) Lloyd, the couple's sister-in-law, feels that Johnny and Willie Mae have made a significant contribution to agriculture in the Republic of South Africa. "They have helped develop and make available farm equipment, which was badly needed," the Floydada woman said last week while her brother-in-law and sister-in-law were visiting in the Floydada and Lubbock homes of relatives: Jno. A. Lloyd, Ray Lloyd, Fred Lloyd, G.U. Smith, Louis Lloyd, and others.

The former Floyd residents manufacture and sell parts as well as finished products.

The need for farm equipment and parts — "spares" they are called in South Africa — is pointed out in a story told by Willie Mae. Soon after their arrival in that country, Mrs. Lloyd and son Mitch went into a store in search of drafting paper. The woman salesclerk wanted to know the need for the drafting paper and when she learned the Americans would produce farm machinery and parts, she noted that the need existed.

The woman explained that she and her husband were selling their farm black, white, and Indian employees.

Soon after the farm implement business were founded, its owners decided that their rented facilities were inadequate. In October 1977 they designed a new plant "and we thought we would have plenty of room."

OUTGROW FACILITIES
They were wrong! Even before the Lloyds moved into their 11,000 square foot building last June 15, they realized the facility was "too small."

Lloyd, who unlike his wife, still speaks with a touch of Texas, says his firm manufactures "six or seven plows." They imported only one pattern cutter from the U.S. Two other models — a Master 20 7/2 foot semi-mounted offset disc harrow and a Hutch Master 12 to 20 foot plow — are "under license," which means that a royalty must be paid on them.

Most of the equipment, however, has been designated by the Lloyds. They have plans for a cultivator to go onto the market in October, "when we come into cultivator season."

Among Johnny's creations are several other models, including 2424 and 2426 dies.

The Lloyd's equipment is shipped as far as Capetown, "about a thousand miles."

Martin has to be pleased to have the

"because of a lack of spares (parts)."

Johnny Lloyd says the demand for parts "is really coming on."

'DECIDED TO TRY IT'
The Lloyds had decided to attempt a different business venture from farming. Their interest in South Africa was stirred after "Mr. Martin had talked to us several times...we just decided to try it."

She referred to Fred Martin, a former Floydada equipment dealer who went to South Africa and founded a farm equipment firm.

Actually, the Lloyds manufacture solely for GC Tillage Co., which is owned by Martin. The equipment then is distributed to approximately 350 agents.

All of the Lloyd products are sold basically in the Republic of South Africa.

Johnny and Willie Mae "started from scratch...we went over with just our personal clothing" and set up their operation in Howick, South Africa. This is in the state of Natal.

The couple and their son Mitchell arrived Nov. 19, 1975. They "rented a small building" the following March and started their business: Texas Tillage Mfg.

The firm's growth has been little short of phenomenal. Their initial employees were two black men...and last year their payroll consisted of 46

United Methodist Women Circle Meets

On January 17, 14 members of the Martha Ann Circle met in the home of Mrs. J.B. Bishop for their first meeting of 1979.

Mrs. John P. Moss led the program on Prayer. More and more people are coming to depend on prayer in many situations. It is God's gift to us and our response to Him. It was suggested that each member of the circle covenant together to pray for each other by once each week, including our church minister. It was announced that yearbooks are being made.

Caprock Hospital Auxiliary Meeting Held

On January 15 the postponed January meeting of C.H.A. was held in the hospital staff dining room at the winter time meeting hour of 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. Tye, president, presided at the short business meeting. It was reported that after February 23 a new project could possibly be reported on and hopefully could be decided on after that time.

It was voted that Mrs. Gaile Merritt, laboratory technician formerly of Lubbock, had joined the staff as of February 1. She is the staff housing Virginia Street.

Users Express Need For Railroad Service

Floydada was host last Tuesday night for one of a series of regional meetings throughout the state to receive comments from the public on draft economic analyses of railroad line segments which have been designated for possible abandonment by railroad companies operating in Texas.

Although this was not an abandonment hearing, users from Floydada and Paducah strongly indicated that a proposal by the Quanah, Acme and Pacific Railway Co. to abandon its line between Floydada and Acme would seriously affect rail users and communities along the line.

The commission's study shows proposed abandonment of 104.8 miles of QA&P line in Floyd, Cottle, Hardeman and Motley counties would mean:

- A loss of rail service to all shippers on the line, except those with access the Santa Fe in Floydada;
- Increased transportation costs to rail users and communities along the line;
- A lower development potential for communities on the line.

THIRD ATTEMPT
The current application is the third application for abandonment down a ruling against the railroad on June 2, 1977.

A second request was denied because of a technicality in the filing data. This came in early 1978.

Texas Railroad Commission of Texas has proposed three alternatives should the ICC decide to grant QA&P's request for abandonment. They include:

- Insure continued service on the Acme-Floydada line by providing a three-year operating subsidy in order to "buy time" for a long-term solution;
- Continue service on the line by establishing an independent short line operator; and

--Insure continued service on the Acme-Paducah portion of the line by providing an operating subsidy if needed and encourage Santa Fe to seek acquisition of as much of the western portion of the line as possible.

Option number three is preferred by state rail planners.

If acquisition of the Floydada-Roaring Springs segment by the Santa Fe is not assured, however, TRC would support option number two which would mean operation of an independent short line. This plan would require state assistance in negotiation and possibly in the form of temporary financial assistance.

In the May 1977 ruling handed down by administration law judge Geraldine R. Keyes, the conclusion was that traffic over the line proposed for abandonment increased from 1974 to 1976, and that the line served "a substantial public need in connection with the movement of agricultural commodities."

Judge Keyes issued her ruling following hearings conducted in 1976 in Paducah and Washington, D.C.

The third and latest abandonment application was filed Aug. 1, 1978.

It has been the contention of the railway that it was losing revenue on the line. QA&P, a subsidiary of the St. Louis and San Francisco Railway Co., contends that as few as 34 cars per mile have been used on the line.

Rail users claim that the demand is increasing annually. They believe that enough farm commodities — grain sorghum, wheat and cotton — are being shipped to make the line profitable.

Roger D. Poage of Floydada, one of the persons who has been involved, points out that the meeting last week in Floydada was "not an abandonment hearing" as some local residents believed. No date for an actual abandonment hearing has been set.

Area Students On Honor Roll At Angelo St.

Area students attending Angelo State University in San Angelo are listed on the Dean's Honor Roll for the fall semester at the university.

Those listed on the 3.00 to 3.49 Honor Roll include: Brenda Gay Bartlett, a health and physical ed major; Marsha Elaine Giesecke, an art major; Debby Louise Johnson, an elementary education major; Penny Michelle Muncy, an elementary education major; Jill Deonne Poage, a nursing major; Kelvin Lewis Ratliff, a health and physical ed major; and Ronnie James Wall, a distributive education major.

179 YEARS YOUNG — That's the combined age of the four male staff members at First Baptist Church all of whom have birthdays in January. Left to right, Joe Cisneros, custodian; Dr. Floyd C. Bradley, pastor; Dan Gonzales, associate pastor; and David T. Seay, minister of education. None of them agreed to reveal their age.

HOW MANY?
Quick now, sports fans, your answer! The Dallas Cowboys own the record for the most trips to the Super Bowl. Sunday will mark Super Bowl number — for the Cowboys.
If your guess is five.....you are a good observer.

TRADING AT HOME
When one hears a fellow tell a friend "I wish you would keep your business at home," the assumption is that a businessperson is speaking.
In this case, however, it was a highway patrolman speaking. A friend had gotten a speeding ticket near Idalou!

Center News
 By Mrs. J.E. Green

January 15: My! My! Here it is half of January gone! I spent last week in Caprock Hospital, but they were so good to me and fed me so well I am home again — came Saturday.
 I am grateful for neighbors and the ambulance in my time of need, and visitors, flowers, phone calls, prayers and all. But I am glad to be home.
 What a cold, snowy two weeks we had! Snow is gone after the last two sunny days, but we have another windy, cloudy, cold day now.
 There was not a great deal of visiting because of the dangerous icy roads. But some kept going.
 At Miss Meredith's, Mrs. Clay Muncy and Mrs. Mildred Walters came Wednesday; and Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Edna Patton came Saturday — also Mrs. Muncy.
 The Claud Carpenters in Lockney Nursing Home are doing fine.

 Mrs. Green's company Sunday afternoon was Mrs. Wester, Mrs. Hollis Payne and Mrs. Victor Green of Plainview.
 All the children were at the Thomas Warren home Sunday — Also present were Mrs. Ola Warren and Mrs. Fred Battey.
 Last Monday the Thomas Warrens were in Weatherford for last rites of a relative, Alvie Miles, husband of a cousin, Nita Huckabee. Our sympathy with all.
 Mrs. Elmer Warren and Mrs. Leo Frizzell visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Elco Frizzell.
 Mr. and Mrs. L.D. Golithly and daughter of the Dallas area, formerly of Center, were in Floydada during the holidays visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fawver and other relatives.
 Mrs. Ava Jackson and other local relatives were in Amarillo this week to attend last rites for her son-in-law, Orbin Carroll, who passed away on Friday. Our sympathy is with the loved ones.

 Mr. and Mrs. Milton Mensch and son David of Lubbock visited Saturday in town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Thomas. It was David's birthday. He was three years old.
 Bill Thomas of Lockney visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Hal Thomas.
 Mr. and Mrs. Dean Watson were hosts to a birthday supper Saturday evening honoring the birthday of Dean. Present were his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brewer, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Watson of Mt. Blanco, and Mrs. Fred McDougle and Sharon of Crosbyton. Also there were the Ken Robisons of Lubbock.
 Mrs. J.C. Odum visited Mrs. Green last Monday.

THIS DAPPER YOUNGSTER was three years old when this photograph was taken, in the mid-twenties. This tyke in our first mystery picture is now a Lockney businessman. If you think you know who it is, or if you'd like to venture a guess, phone The Beacon, 652-3318, before next Wednesday.

BITING his lip because three top teeth and two bottom front teeth are missing is our first mystery personality from Floydada. The photo was taken in 1936 of this fourth grader at the time. If you would like to guess at the man's identity, please phone The Hesperian, 983-3737, before next Wednesday.

Tractorcade Stretches 14 Miles On Highway

 Washington, but this is necessary because we represent a small — but essential — part of the economy."
TOWER ENCOURAGES
 Sen John Tower of Texas Thursday urged the group "not to turn back." He is a supporter of the Tractorcade.
 The Tractorcade participants have received other encouraging news during the week. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen "wants to support the farm movement," Schwertner says. He noted that Congressman Jim Wright wants to co-sponsor the Dole Flexible Parity Bill and Con. de la Garza's chief agriculture, Burt Pena, will ask Sen. Dole to implement the 90 per cent parity loan rate resolutions."

 Con. de la Garza is interested in sponsoring in the House the Dole Flexible Parity Bill, which was designed by Sen. Robert Dole of Kansas.
 Schwertner was highly pleased that freshman Congressman Charles Stenholm and Kent Hance — who represent West Texas districts — were appointed to the House Agriculture Committee. Con. Jack Hightower of Vernon has been appointed to the influential House Ways and Means Committee.

Fairview News
 By Mrs. Clyde Bagwell

January 15:
 Word came to us the past week of the death of Mr. R.R. Waller, who at one time lived in Floydada and who is the father of Mrs. Bobbie Irwin who for many years lived in Fairview Community. Mr. Waller passed away on December 26 at Elberta, Alabama, where he and Mrs. Waller had been for several months.
 Mr. and Mrs. E.W. Walls went to Plainview Friday and visited with her brother-in-law, D.D. Tate, who is in the Heritage Home in Plainview. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gene Carthel visited Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Cozby and Kara Saturday night.
 Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beedy visited Mr. and Mrs. Walton Wilson.

Friday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Walton Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Burl Huckabee went to Lubbock. That evening they ate supper out and then visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Truett Austin. Mr. and Mrs. M.O. Stapleton of Plainview were Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson. In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Walton Wilson joined the above group.
 Mr. and Mrs. E.W. Walls visited Monday afternoon with Mrs. Grace Jarboe.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:
 I would like to commend and say thanks to the Floydada Fire Department for their efficient work in controlling the fire in the house at 121 W. Crockett Street. I will have to say I was jittery for awhile for if it had burned down mine could have easily burned too. Since it's so close by, I feel a lot safer about fires since I saw the fire boys at work first hand.

'We Started With A Screwdriver'

Lloyds in South Africa. Prior to the establishment of their factory, Martin — who went to South Africa in 1970 from Floydada — was bringing in parts with which to assemble equipment.

Another indication of the company's growth is the fact that Mrs. Lloyd, a former stockbroker in Lubbock, started keeping books in her house. Now, the office is housed in a separate building from the factory and "we have three office employees."

NEW DAUGHTER-IN-LAW

In addition to the business, Johnny and Willie Mae Lloyd have another new addition in South Africa: a daughter-in-law. Mitchell was married Oct. 7, 1978 to a South African English-speaking woman. The son is a 1973 graduate of Floydada High School.

Republic of South Africa's economics are different from Uncle Sam's. Seven employees have breakfast and lunch each day at a canteen on the plant grounds. The cost: $1.44 per day per person for both meals.

Johnny's pickup — a small Datsun which was assembled in South Africa after parts were shipped from Japan — will travel "45-to-50 miles" on a gallon of gasoline. "You can let that pickup smell gasoline fumes and it will go 100 miles," Johnny says in jest.

He admits, however, that the vehicle's comfort leaves something to be desired. "It's about like riding in a go-cart."

SEMI-TROPICAL

The pickup has no air conditioner, nor do any vehicles in South Africa due to the semi-tropical weather. Heaters are standard on vehicles.

"We're in summer now," explain the Lloyds who have found that seasons in South Africa are opposite of those in the United States. Weather is warm at Christmas. The poinsettia, a plant identified with Christmas in the USA, grows wild in South Africa "about Easter." Poinsettia plants reach a height of 18 feet.

With an altitude of 4,500 feet above sea-level, "almost every tree blooms some time during the year" in the Lloyds' home town. Howick is 60 miles from the major city of Durban, "just about the same distance as from Floydada to Lubbock."

Temperature there varies generally from 50 to 90 degrees, with an average daytime temperature of 75. Mornings are "cooler."

A Lubbock native, Willie Mae Lloyd explains that houses have no air conditioning nor heating "except for fireplaces."

BUYING HOUSE

The Lloyds "are in the process of buying a house after renting since we have been here." The design is basically the same as those in West Texas. Constructed with brick walls, the residences have little wood due to a termites problem. "Cabinets, baseboards and rafters are the only things wooden in the houses," Johnny says.

Most people in the Howick area are "English speaking", a situation which does not exist throughout South Africa. Schools in the country which include people of four basic races — European (anglo), black, Indian, and colored (mixed race) — are segregated.

Race relations generally are regarded by the Lloyds as "good," although the nine black tribes "do not get along."

Johnny Lloyd speaks enthusiastically about his adopted country, where he regards the government as "very stable." The Republic of South Africa is one of the most staunch anti-Communist Nations in the world. Anyone suspected of Communist activity is "jailed immediately."

The highest minimum wage in this nation is $2.50 per hour.

South Africa's policy draw praise from Lloyd. He regards them as "very fair, very courteous, and very efficient."

A person of any race is eligible to become a policeman "if he can pass the training."

Various races "are compatible, but do not desire to mix."

Although several nations have imposed economic sanctions against South Africa, Lloyd does not believe these will bring the country to its knees. Leaders of that independent nation are most resourceful, the former Floyd County man points out.

"The Republic of South Africa is strong enough that we do not feel threatened," Johnny adds. Janice Lloyd sees the nation as having "a very fair and stable government."

FARMING SITUATION

The region around Howick depends basically upon agriculture and raw products for its economic well-being. Farming and ranching are the major industries, although "there is some gold and diamond mining."

Most crops are planted in October and November — a time which would be comparable to Spring in West Texas. March, April and May are generally regarded as "harvest time."

No cotton is grown near the Lloyds' home — "the closest place is 500 or 600 miles from here" — due to the high altitude. Most cotton produced in South Africa is "hand picked."

Around Howick, agriculture consists of sugar cane, soybeans, corn, some milo, "and, of course, vegetables. And, there are quite a few dairies."

Mrs. Lloyd says that friends in Bishoptoe "grow tomatoes year around."

The beam with which Mrs. Lloyd discusses the climate and with which she and her husband talk about their business leave little doubt that the Lloyds are happy and enthusiastic about their adopted home.

Texas Farmers Union Convention Reaffirms Stand On Parity

Delegates and members of the Texas Farmers Union have again given full support to re-adoption of 100% of parity farm prices and have urged all farmers and ranchers in the state to unite their numbers and harmonize their opinions in the coming months' efforts in Washington.

Delegates attending the Texas Farmers Union convention from Floyd County included Vernie and Lana Moore. The convention was filled with little controversy even though coincidentally timed with a caravan of tractors which left the convention center parking lot enroute to Washington.

In fact, the most heated session was not one of internal issues but rather one in which a top economist from the Carter Administration spoke Dr. J. B. Penn, deputy administrator of ESCS in the Department of Agriculture, was booed loudly and repeatedly in a question session after a speech in which he rather unsympathetically told the farmers that 1979 farm income would be little above last year's, "or down slight."

As one official stated, "Our sole interest at present is to change the poor and inadequate federal farm law. When we witness an unconcerned attitude like this from one of Carter's chief brain trusts in charge of farm policy, we're disposed to raise Cain. I think it's important that large numbers of farmers follow Penn back to Washington and dedicate themselves to bringing lawmakers to pass emergency legislation that even the Administration couldn't water down. I'd predict from the viewpoint here that President Carter couldn't carry enough farm votes in Texas to sneeze at.

Refresher Course For School Bus Drivers Slated May 21

Tommy Coffey, county TEA instructor for public school bus drivers, reminds drivers whose cars expire in 1979 that an eight-hour refresher course is required for recertification.

They "must take the refresher course or take the whole course all over again," Coffey says.

He plans to teach the eight-hour refresher course from 6 until 9 p.m. May 21, 22 and 23 in the A.B. Duncan Elementary Cafeteria in Floydada. Thirty is the maximum number of persons allowed by TEA in a class.

"The first 30 people will be enrolled," Coffey adding that "I already have 16 to 18 registered interested individuals" phone 983-3498 to register.

If it would be more convenient, drivers may attend his refresher Feb. 12-14 at Terburg, John Apeltersburg, the county road engineer, is the instructor.

Coffey anticipates only one refresher course to be approved by TEA in the county this year. The instructor believes a full probably will be offered August.

VITAL TAX NEWS Dear Taxpayer:

YOU OWE IT TO YOURSELF to file the proper tax form regardless of which form you received in the mail so you pay the lowest legitimate tax. At H & R Block we are prepared for the complexities of today's tax law by providing our preparers with intensive training. We want you to be assured that our preparers have the latest tax information available and are able to apply their knowledge to your advantage.

This year, as in years past, H & R Block will have each return prepared with our trusted guarantee that states: "If we make any error in the preparation of your tax return that costs you any interest or penalty on additional taxes due while we do not assume the liability for the additional taxes we do not pay that interest and penalty. Furthermore, if your return is audited, we will accompany you, at no extra cost, to the Internal Revenue Service and explain how your return was prepared, even though we do not act as your legal representative."

We want every question or concern you may have about your taxes to be answered. If necessary, we'll make a list to ask us any question that will help you understand what you can or cannot do. For your convenience, a list of memory joggers is illustrated below.

Sincerely, Anna Lou Rodgers

Opinion, Please

BY LANCE BARROW

With Dallas beating Los Angeles, it puts the only team in the NFC that can match the strength of the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XIII.

The Dallas Cowboys' organization is known as one of the best in the National Football League. Rarely do you hear anything of the Steeler front office. However, both teams have been very successful during the 1970's.

Part of their success is centered around the draft. The Steelers have seven first round draft choices in their organization. The Cowboys have six.

For the Cowboys to win this Sunday they must play a game as they played during the second half of the NFC Championship game against L.A.

In my opinion, there are three keys to a Cowboy victory. First, Roger Staubach must have a hot hand from the first to the final series of downs. Secondly, the Cowboys cannot make errors against the Steelers defense and expect to win. Thirdly, and most importantly, the Cowboys must contain Terry Bradshaw.

The Dallas secondary will have their hands full with Lynn Swann and Co. They will have to bury the Steeler receivers early in the game.

All in all, I feel this will be the best Super Bowl ever played. The spread will be less than a touchdown. The score will be reversed from Super Bowl X with the Cowboys winning 21-17.

OBITUARY

Father Of Lockney Woman Victim Of Cold Weather

Lockney; four brothers, Juan and Manuel Sr., both of Winters, Aureline of Monday and Augustine of Kansas; a sister, Benita Castillo of Hale Center; 19 grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

Grandsons and nephews were pallbearers.

H. Esquivel, 63, Winters, who had been ill since Saturday evening, was found early Monday morning in a field in the Seven community, about seven miles southeast of Winters. Esquivel died early Monday, a victim of "exposure" to below freezing temperatures, after his body had been found by searchers.

Esquivel had last been seen sometime Saturday afternoon, according to Runnels County Sheriff Hershall, and was reported missing about midnight Sunday. Search was mounted, and Warden Robert Wood found his car stalled on a country road early Monday morning. Chief Deputy Sheriff Wilson tracked Esquivel's footprints and found the body in the field about a mile west of the stalled car.

How Things Fly

In case you want to know "how things fly", just ask your Floydada youngster from kindergarten through sixth grade. Major Robert Lee Clark from Reese Air Force Base has just completed a series of shows for these children to make them more familiar with flying, and with Air Force activities. Major Clark's presentation started with the basics of flying and concluded with the opening of his parachute.

All special equipment carried by a pilot was demonstrated. Although he has accumulated over 4,000 hours of flying time, Major Clark has never had to use his parachute!

For the older children at Floydada Junior High, Major Clark put on a slide show entitled "Hurricanes and Hurricane Hunting". This was based on his four years as an Air Force Hurricane Hunter.

IT'S not a creature from outer space, but Gilbert Cedillo who had donned the flight helmet of Major Robert Lee Clark during a Tuesday program for fifth graders.

FLOYD DATA
Mr. and Mrs. Julian Lipham, Julianne, Timothy, Joe Kim, and Spring spent Christmas holidays in Daingerfield, Tex., with their daughters and their families. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clappitt, Tammy and Danny Joe, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spurlock, Shane and Ashley. Mrs. Lipham and children visited another week and then were delayed in their return home, because of the ice and snow storm that hit East Texas. Mrs. Lipham had also stopped enroute to Daingerfield, at Greenville, to visit with a brother, Gloy Myrick, who had been hospitalized with a heart attack earlier. He is now at home in Blue Ridge, Texas and recuperating nicely.

THE COOP PROGRAM

In 1969, the Floydada Independent School District Special Education population had grown large enough to qualify for a unit at high school. An agreement was reached with the Texas Rehabilitation Commission and the Floydada Independent School District, and the "Coop Program" at Floydada High School was established.

The coop program is an agreement between the school district and the Texas Rehabilitation Commission to provide services jointly for students with special needs. TRC agrees to assign a TRC counselor to the high school unit and to provide available medical and training services not otherwise available to FHS students. FHS agrees to provide the students a room and a teacher-V.A.C. with time allowed for job supervision and development.

Just as the name implies, this program enables a student to receive both academic and vocational training. The coop students receives more practical, work oriented knowledge than other students, thus is better equipped to take immediate advantage of job opportunities.

The purpose of the program is to prepare handicapped students to enter the world of work, so they can be as self-sufficient as possible upon graduation from high school. This program makes tax paying citizens out of students who otherwise may well be recipients of some form of government assistance. This helps promote a healthy self concept, as well as a feeling of satisfaction in the student.

Any student who is currently enrolled in special education classes, or who is eligible to receive such services, may participate in the Cooperative School-Work Program, with the approval of the Admission, Review, and Dismissal Committee of the Caprock Plan A.

In the classroom phase of the program, each student continues with academic subjects, especially reading, writing, and math. Those who can achieve a degree of success in certain regular classes are placed in these classes. Their progress is carefully monitored.

The Vocational Adjustment Coordinator (V.A.C.) places the emphasis on teaching coop students the necessary attitudes, habits, behaviors, and skills required to obtain and keep a job in the community. These skills include learning how to complete an application, learning what to do in a job interview, learning how to get along with fellow workers, developing self-assurance, and taking pride in doing a job well.

When the student has received maximum benefit from class work and has demonstrated basic social skills, the V.A.C. will assist in placing the student in a part or full time job in the community. While on the job, the student will remain under the careful supervision of the coordinator who works with the student and employer to assure job success.

The Vocational Adjustment Counselor is a certified public school teacher with a degree from a recognized university and advanced training and certification in special education. The VAC wears many hats. He functions as a teacher, psychologist, counselor, job trainer, job specialist, family living specialist, probation officer, and friend. Flexibility is the key trait.

Dale Smith was the first VAC when the high school program was established in 1968. Dale was followed the next year by Vance Zinn. In 1970, James Lovell was selected, and in 1971 Sue Lovell joined him. They operate as a team, a teaching approach that benefits both the teacher and the student. The teacher is encouraged to do what he does best, while the needs of the students are considered supreme.

Basically, James coordinates the job training program and teaches his classes. Sue originates the curriculum, keeps the records, supervises working students, and teaches her classes. Each claims all the students as his or her own. And, within the limits of human frailty, they try to keep up with all that is happening to each student.

In a followup of the 70 Floydada coop graduates, 31 are working fulltime in jobs that are considered "middle class".....and this one so called statistic makes all the effort seem just that much more worthwhile.

Next time you're in a Chinese restaurant take a walk at ordering in Chinese. Here's what some common Chinese menu terms mean: "shu" means roasted; "ding" is diced; "gai" stands for chicken and "kew" or "kow" means with Chinese vegetables. Once you've mastered ordering in Chinese try mastering the art of eating with chopsticks.
