

County Deposits Increase $3.78 Million

Deposits are a true barometer. County economy is healthy! Deposits in the two county banks at the end of the 31st call (technically, the 31st) call for an increase of $1,791,728.47 over the same period in 1978. Deposits were down approximately $1,791,728.47 from the same period in 1977. First National Bank of Floydada reported deposits of $28,112,962.26 at the end of the business day of March 31, 1979. This represents a hike of $1,483,000 over the same period in 1978.

LOANS DROP

Loans at the Floydada bank decreased as compared with the March '78 figures, while loans at the Lockney bank were up slightly. Combined totals show a $448,586 drop in loans at the two county financial institutions.

First National Bank in Lockney had loans of $5.5 million on the final business day of March. At the same time last year, loans stood at $5,350,000.

Loans of $9,484,835.86 were reported by First National Bank of Floydada. This is a decline from the $10,082,586.33 on the same date in 1978.

Recent moisture has delayed irrigating in some areas, thus representing a savings on irrigation costs to this point.

Farris attributes the increase in deposits to "a good cotton crop, for one thing, and cotton brought a good price, too." He notes that "strong cattle prices" also have made up impact.

"Also, we are getting some out-of-town money back into Floydada," Farris adds.

George Sparkman, executive vice president of First National Bank in Lockney, says "progressiveness in the county and pretty good crops which were sold late" are responsible for a portion of the increase in deposits. He adds that "the increase in the cattle market contributed somewhat."

Sparkman pointed out that total assets at the Lockney bank were $18,542,000 on March 30, a rise over $16,378,000 on the final day of March '78.

Even considering the inflationary factor, the $3.785 million increase indicates a bright financial picture for Floyd County.

Floydada Men Cooperate In Jungle Rain Forest Mission

By Felicia Applewhite

"We were in the jungle rain forest in Guatemala," either Dr. Jack Jordan or Dr. Charles Craig will answer when asked where they went in February this year on their 13th annual flying mission trip. Their first trip was in February 1967.

This trip was made, like others, with the Flying Dentist Association under the auspices of the Christian Dental Society.

With the doctors making the trip for his 6th time was Jack McIntosh. Also, making the trip for the 5th time was Louis Lloyd, a former spray pilot. These two men know "about planes, know how to keep things going" in village work. An example: this year, they fixed an electric generator that had been inoperative for 5 months. They rewound a panel.

The 4 men left Floydada on February 7th in 2 single-engine 4-place private aircraft.

Each plane carried 2 men, medical supplies and equipment.

"Our destination was Nuevo Vida in the Peten Jungle of northern Guatemala."

This small country—properly called the Republic of Guatemala—has a 70-mile coastline on the Caribbean and 220 miles on the Pacific. It is bordered on the west and north by Mexico and on the east by British Honduras and El Salvador.

After taking off from Floydada, they flew to Brownsville, then to Tampico, Mexico and on to Vera Cruz and the Isthmus of Thunantepec where they crossed from the Gulf to the Pacific. Their last stop before Guatemala City was Tapachula.

We were in Guatemala City 2 days waiting for the weather to better. While there we did renew our relationship with the Wycliff Bible Translators and Mission Aviation personnel.

"On Saturday, we were able to get to Coban where we were another 2 days because of a heavy mist called 'cheapie'." Here we met missionary pilot, Royce Riggs.

"The airport runway in Coban is long and extremely rough and is uphill one way. You land uphill and take off down hill."

A Guatemala twin-engine aircraft lies on its back a few hundred feet from the runway because it had tried taking off up hill.

"We waited for a clear ceiling for us to take off and were able to do so Monday morning. Our destination was Sayaxche where the road that leads toward Nuevo Vida, which was 18 miles away.

After leaving Coban, there is nothing but jungle vegetation.

"For 1/2 to 3/4 of an hour, we saw nothing—no trails, no Indians, no houses just flat rolling jungle. The heavy vegetation had mahogany trees 60 to 70 feet high mixed with banana, other trees, and vines."

The trees were so close together that their tops formed a solid canopy. Young trees can grow only where an old tree falls to let in the light. The broad leaves are always green.

Most of the land along the rivers in the Peten of Northern Guatemala has been taken by people who were starving at some other place. These people come in and clear a place leaving the banana trees standing. They then plant corn and beans between the trees in the clearings.

There is a choice in going to Nuevo Vida between going by boat or going by bush-type aircraft. The Floydada men chose air-craft.

"We were flown by a missionary aviator air plane in five minutes. The boat trip takes 6 hours going down stream.

"Nuevo Vida was a pleasant sight to us with its 35 acres of cleared land including the runway which was short and undulating bearing a couple of trees that prevented a straight final approach.

"It's a Mennonite settlement. A Mennonite missionary named Stolzfus with his family from Pennsylvania formed the settlement 7 years ago.

They had first settled on a small island in the river but soon found that during the rainy season, they were unsafe.

They then machete-hacked a more livable space not far from the island on the bank of the river.

Most of the Indians who moved here were from the mountains to this government settlement project. Most of them spoke Spanish.

Stolzfus had found that he could not separate himself from doing medical first aid along with establishing church work. He was limited in this endeavor because of lack of equipment. He had one dental instrument that he used to take his children's teeth out.

The Mennonites had access to boats that passed up and down the river. These boats were made in Sayaxche and were 35 feet long, 7 feet wide and could carry 20 tons. They were propelled by an 18-horse-power outboard motor engine and moved very slowly.

"We had our own bed rolls and a back-pack tent. We also had back-pack food. Since they had made a tent for us, we slept in it.

Here as in other sections, the vegetation had been cleared leaving selected trees.

One of the trees commonly found is the ceiba tree. They are usually about 70 feet tall. The limbs on this tree come out at the same place on the trunk, but opposite each other at a 90 degree angle.

They also leave the nut palm tree when making a clearing. It bears an edible nut about the size of a bantam egg. These nuts grow in large clusters.

On arrival in the village, the medical group set up for work.

They were shown a pretty, young girl in the village who had been brought to them about half dead a little while before. For some reason she had been left in the care of her grandfather and had been neglected.

When she was brought to the Mennonite village, she had no skin left on the top of her feet. During the time that she had lain ill, the chickens had come along pecking at her feet until the skin was gone.

PURPLE MARTINS ARRIVE HERE

Purple Martins have been seen in the Pete Hickerson yard, according to Hester Moore. "So far as I know, this is the first year they have taken up residence in Floydada," Mrs. Moore says.

Three Martin apartment complexes have been erected in the Hickerson yard.

If you will remember, the Purple Martin is the small bird which consumes an abundance of insects—primarily mosquitoes—daily. Some county residents have been attempting for years to attract the insect-eaters.

NEWS 'N' NOTES

By Sharon Hillis

EAT LIGHTER FOR LENT

Eat lighter for Lent if old Lenten favorites have lost their appeal. Low-calorie cheeses, along with raw fruits and vegetables, pack a lot of nutrition in lighter-than-spring salad menus.

Plan menus around low-calorie dairy products and early spring fruits.

DAIRY DELICACIES

Low-calorie dairy products include cottage, ricotta and neufchatel cheeses and low-fat yogurt.

FRUIT FANCIES

Early spring fruits include strawberries and the ever-faithful banana.

Apples and D'Anjou pears are plentiful and high quality, fresh out of storage.

And don't forget the myriad of canned fruits — peaches, pineapple, apricots, and mixed fruits.

If packed in heavy syrup, just pour off the syrup and use for fruit punches for active children of normal weight.

NATURALLY NUTRITIOUS

Dairy products are our leading source of calcium needed for bones and teeth. They also offer high-quality protein, riboflavin and many other nutrients.

Fruits are valuable chiefly because of the vitamins and minerals they contain.

Strawberries are a rich source of vitamin C needed for healthy gums and body tissue.

Apricots are rich in Vitamin A needed for growth, normal vision and a healthy condition of the skin.

Fruit is also an abundant source of fiber needed for proper elimination.

Highlight Lenten menus with these sparkling low-calorie salads:

Besides the fashions and prizes, there was a display of local talent. Doris McClain, Decoration Chairman along with Faye Dixon planned a beautiful stage setting that gave the feeling "Spring's New Life is here" just by viewing it. Local residents Mr. and Mrs. Lesol Parker lent mushroom stools they have made and Mrs. Robert Murry made butterflies to place on each table. The models had a flair of professionalism from the children to teenagers to adults.

GEORGIA FINLEY, Green Thumb hostess at the Floyd County Historical Museum, examines an arrowhead in the G.L. Burns Indian Collection, a new museum feature.

Indian Artifacts In Burns Collection At Floyd Museum

The G.L. Burns Collection, new at Floyd County Historical Museum, includes points and artifacts found by Burns in the early 1900's. These interesting items were recovered from the Pease River, Tule Canyon, Palo Duro Canyon, on the old Crawford Ranch northeast of Lockney, along the Canadian River in Texas and New Mexico, at Roaring Springs and several other Floyd County locations. The Obsidian point was given to Burns by an Indian in New Mexico. Pottery and a piece of a pease pipe also were from New Mexico. Some of the points are from Indiana and Alabama.

The Floyd Philosopher
 Floyd Philosopher Has Four Different Reactions To Egypt-Israel Peace Treaty

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm in Floyd County examines the Egypt-Israel peace treaty, somewhat.

Dear editor:
 At the peace treaty signing in Washington Sadat, Begin and Carter, apparently not having read each other's speeches ahead of time, all three said we ought to beat our swords into plowshares.

Can't we beat them into something else? Maybe it'd be the thing to do in India or Iran where they're still plowing with a forked stick but in this country we've already got enough plows to produce more stuff that we can get rid of at a fair price. Would it be all right if we beat them into windmill blades or car bumpers at least until we get rid of our surplus grain?

I've been asked what my reaction is to the Egypt-Israel peace treaty. I haven't made up my mind but here are several possibilities:

(1) What it amounts to is, if you two countries will sign this piece of paper we'll give each of you two and half billion dollars in American tax payers' money.

(2) By the way, on what page does it say how long this treaty remains in effect? Till the next election? Is the first side that breaks it a rotten egg? Is it true that throughout history the number of peace treaties that have been broken equals exactly the number that have been signed?

(3) If I can get into a big squabble with a neighbor, will Washington come out here and settle it by building each of us a new barn and re-graveling our driveways? We don't need any airports or fighter planes but would like to be guaranteed tractor fuel for the next 15 years.

(4) Five billion dollars to stop any war is a bargain, unless it's one between Russian citizens and their government. If somebody had stopped the Viet Nam war a month after it started we'd be 50,000 lives and 100 billion dollars ahead.

You can see that when it comes to international affairs I'm as befuddled as anybody else.

Yours faithfully,
 J.A.

WHOZITS . . .

NO GUESSES ON LOCKNEY WHOZIT

Last week's Whozit column was so mixed up we don't even want to talk about it. There were no guesses on the Lockney mystery picture, and it got in the wrong place in the Whozit column, and.....

LOCKNEY WHOZIT — This picture of a brother-sister pair was taken in 1953. Call The Beacon, 652-3318, if you think you know who it is.

FLOYDADA WHOZIT

This Floydada businessman has lived his entire life [61 years] in Floyd County. The fellow, pictured on his horse Nichol, is a member of a large and well-known county family. Those who would like to guess the identity of this person from picture "made in 1922 or 1923" are asked to contact our office Monday through Wednesday.

Dot And Jim Word Floydada Whozits

Mary Garrett of Kansas City, Mo., phoned to name Dot (Dorothy Cousins) and Jim (James H.) Word as last week's Hesperian Whozits. She was the only person who made a correct identification. Mrs. Garrett is the Word's middle daughter. The Hesperian and The Beacon mystery photos were transposed and Mrs. Word's picture was above The Beacon description lines.

Evangelist Boyce Evans Leading First Baptist Church Revival

Evangelist Boyce Evans of Lubbock is leading Spring revival services at First Baptist Church of Floydada. The event begins Sunday, April 8, and continues through this Friday, April 13.

Steve and Theresa Wright are leading the singing.

Dr. Floyd C. Bradley, pastor, announces the first service is planned for 11 a.m. Sunday. Services also are set for Sunday through Friday night at 7:30 p.m.

Weekday noon services — Tuesday through Friday — are followed by lunch served at 12:30 p.m.

The church nursery is open for all services.

Special activities during the week include a hot dog supper for children in Steve and Theresa Wright are to provide special music during the week, including congregational singing, solos, and special music by the church choir.

Evans, a full-time evangelist since 1965, has preached more than 500 revivals and crusades throughout the United States. Previously a pastor for 16 years, he pilots his private plane to evangelistic meetings throughout the nation.

The membership of First Baptist Church cordially invites the public to attend all services.

Tennis Results

Tracy Tyer and Esmeralda Gonzales led five Floydada girls into the regional round of schoolgirl tennis by capturing first place in the District 4-AA girls doubles Wednesday and Thursday at Abernathy.

Joining the doubles pair in advancing to the regionals will be Kara Copeland, Tana Tyer and Stacy Graham.

Copeland won second place in girls singles for the second straight year while Tana Tyer and Graham went on a Cinderella march to the finals of the girls doubles to take second place.

Tracy Tyer and Gonzales had little trouble in mastering the field as they lost only five games prior to the finals. They defeated Tyer-Graham for the title 6-4, 6-1. This marks the third consecutive doubles title for Tracy.

Tyer and Graham recorded three upsets enroute to their finals berth and played 90 games in the first three rounds. In all matches they split sets and were on the court for two hour matches.

Copeland came up to form in the singles competition when she opened up in the second set of the semifinals. Emile Foreman of Tulla seemed determined to make a run at the Floydada girl, but after Copeland took the first set 7-5, she unloaded for a 6-2 clincher.

Ramona Irlbeck of Abernathy, again won the singles title, but Copeland made a strong showing before bowing 6-3, 6-2.

Kim Barnett also placed in the girls singles. She made it to the semifinals before bowing to Irlbeck and then just missed third place as Foreman came back to defeat her 4-6, 7-5, 7-5.

The one-two finish in varsity girls doubles marks the third consecutive year, Floydada has pulled off the feat and the younger players made it unanimous by going one-two in girls doubles of the freshmen and junior high divisions.

Brenda Hicks and Susan Hendrix of Floydada defeated teammates D'Lee Marble and Yolanda Medrano for first in the freshmen division while Christi Norrell and Cindy Burk downed Teresa Spurlock and Sophie Garza, also of Floydada J.H. to take the junior high crown.

Treva Hambright added another first for the Floydada girls as she captured first place in the freshmen girls singles and only lost two games in the process.

Carol Cochran scored for the junior high girls by taking second in the girls singles division. She upset second-seeded Vickie MacKenzie of Abernathy in the semifinals before falling to top-seeded Kay Reay in the finals.

In the team races, Floydada holds a 35-15 lead over Abernathy in the varsity division with the boys playing next week to be added. In the freshmen division, FHS has a 40-20 margin over Abernathy and FJHS stands 35-20 ahead of Lockney in the junior high division.

First Baptist Media Center

BETH PRATT

The month of April has been designated Church Media Center Month at First Baptist in Floydada. Jan Sherman and Jennisu Smith did a wonderful job of placing reminders throughout the church proclaiming the theme Explore The Bible... The Media Way. If you make a visit to the church, you can't miss the colorful bulletin board and window display. We hope this theme will encourage you to try the variety of study helps available. There are filmstrips, cassette tapes, records, and kits with a planned study guide as well as the traditional printed media at hand to enrich and stimulate Bible study.

Helping to process new materials this week were Jan Sherman, Dorothy Davis, Wanda Turner, Ila White and Ardis Daniel. Many new books were on the shelf this week because of their good help.

One of those new books is a biography of Mary Irwin, The Moon Is Not Enough. Mary, wife of astronaut James Irwin, is typical of the American wife and mother today who is experiencing a serious identity crisis. In other ways she is unique. In this book she describes her inner struggles and the blind alleys she wearily traveled seeking inner peace and healing for her marriage and family relationships. Her ultimate victory is a challenge to all to realize that there is hope—no matter how desperate the hour, no matter how dark the horizon.

This would be a good time to begin listening to the Amplified New Testament on cassette tapes and begin your exploration of the Bible the media way!

Cattle Number Increases 13.7% In Area

GROWTH OF FED CATTLE INDUSTRY IN SOUTHWESTERN PUBLIC SERVICE CO. SERVICE AREA 1965 - 1978

Sam Thomas, manager of agricultural development for Southwestern Public Service Co., has announced that 430 fat cattle were produced in 1978 in the 45,000 square mile area served by SPS. This is an increase of 600,680 or 13.7 percent over the previous year and is the largest number ever produced in a 12 months period.

The survey, which has been conducted since 1963, is quoted throughout the United States as the most authoritative source as to the production of fat cattle in the Southern Great Plains area.

"During the 1978 period, the feedlot capacity came to 2,728,400, which reflects a reduction of about 6,000 head over 1977. This also represents the consolidation of feedlots and the conversion to growing operations," Thomas said.

The total impact of the feedyard industry on the business community exceeded 8-billion dollars for the second year," Thomas said, "and the farm sale value exceeded 2-billion dollars. Profits on feedlots or fed cattle have ranged from a low of $3.33 per head to a high of $137.00 during the last 120 days."

The survey also showed that the packing plant annual slaughter capacity continues to exceed 5-million head.

"The only foreseeable limitations on the future of the fed cattle industry is the possibility and probability that the customer's ability to buy may be exceeded, however, this is not in sight," Thomas said.

The survey has made a major contribution to the development and growth of the industry and has been especially valuable in the vertical integration that has occurred in the SPS service area.

Copies of the survey will be available at Southwestern Public Service Company offices in about 60 days.

Larger Cotton Crop To Dampen Prices

"Cotton prices for the 1979 harvest season will likely fall if plantings increase as expected," says Dr. Carl G. Anderson with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The marketing specialist says prospects for more education, small U.S. 1978 cotton supplies, and strong export demand will highlight this year's cotton picture.

"With normal yields, this year's production could develop into a 13-million-bale or larger crop, thus pushing prices down. Plantings should total 13.5 to 14.2 million acres compared to 13.4 million last year. Prices could approach the 1979 Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) loan rate of 50.23 cents a pound for Strict Low Middling, 1-1/6-inch cotton by late this year," projects the economist.

With prospects for lower cotton prices, producers may want to consider forward contracting or hedging in the futures market during the next several months when and if a favorable price can be established, says Anderson.

He expects exports to total six million bales this year, with cotton disappearance for the 1978-79 marketing year reaching 12 million bales. The estimated 1978 crop was 10.8 million bales.

"Cotton stocks will total about four million bales by Aug. 1, down 1.3 million bales from last year. However, carryover stocks will remain close to the average since 1974," believes the economist.

U.S. cotton supplies will likely increase from one to two million bales during the 1979-80 crop year, resulting in a carryover of five to six million bales by Aug. 1, 1980.

Foreign cotton supplies are also smaller, with carryover declining one million bales to 18 million. This is the smallest foreign carryover since Aug. 1, 1971, notes Anderson.

"Cotton prices strengthened last fall largely because of the small U.S. crop and strong foreign demand. Yet heavy sales in January contributed to a sharp slump in prices. Average prices to Texas growers dropped from about 60 cents a pound in November to around 52 cents in February. Currently, overall demand for existing cotton supplies appears soft," says Anderson.

Over the short run, spot prices will probably move up and down several cents a pound as new developments (reflecting supply and demand) surface.

Report Tax Loss Next Year For Current Weather Damage

Texas farmers and ranchers who have suffered property damage from winter storms should take steps now to ensure they obtain the proper casualty-loss deductions on next year's income tax forms, urges Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown.

"If your operation has suffered a loss in value because of damage from winter storms, it would be wise to document the damage when it occurs," he said.

"This will help you take the income tax deductions that are coming to you."

Use Of Fungicides Helps Prevent Seedling Disease

Each year, some 360,000 bales of cotton are lost because of seedling disease across the Cotton Belt. Research which may save these lost bales is being conducted here by a plant pathologist with USDA Science and Education Administration (SEA).

The work, to give cotton seedlings the best chance to produce a high quality crop, is being done by Dr. Earl B. Minton, in cooperation with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. It is being conducted at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center north of the Lubbock airport.

"Getting a uniform stand of vigorous cotton seedlings is critical in producing a profitable cotton crop," Dr. Minton said. "Healthy plants are more productive than diseased plants because they can better utilize soil nutrients and moisture." Vigorous cotton seedlings may produce more bolls and mature the crop before the onset of adverse weather, he added.

"For the best possible cotton crop," the plant pathologist said, "the highest quality seed available should be planted." However, seed quality is often not as good as desired, he added. The best alternative is to plant seed properly treated with fungicide, Minton said.

"The ideal treatment has not yet been developed," Minton said, "but progress is continuing to be made." Laboratory and greenhouse tests being conducted show that seed treated with fungicide can partially compensate for reduced seed quality, he reported.

Seed with mechanically damaged coats, when treated with fungicide, attains greater increases in seedling emergence and seedling survival than untreated seed with intact coats. "However," he cautioned, "intact seed treated with fungicide should be planted since fungicides will not completely compensate for damaged seed."

Seed dressing also reduces the seed rate for planting because it increases seedling emergence and survival. "This saving in planting seed has more than paid the cost of seed dressing in many instances," he said.

"Until about 15 years ago," Minton said, "only seed protectant fungicides were available." Since the development of systemic fungicides, protection has been provided to both the seed and seedling, he added.

"During the last eight years efforts have been under way to improve formulations of seed dressings," the USDA-SEA scientist said. Various flowable and suspension materials have been found to work well in wettable powder formulations.

"There is no broad-spectrum fungicide that will control all seedling diseases," Minton said. "The best combination treatment for control, but it is more of a single treatment fungicide." "Even though the cost of fungicide compared to the cost of cotton crop destroyed by disease."

DISKING WEEDY AREAS FOR BIRD FOOD

Running a disk over pastures and ranges will be a weed crop this spring that will provide an excellent supply for game birds and hunting, disk to a four-foot use any pattern that is a distance (one-fourth mile) cover, suggests a wildlife biologist with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

Officials of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers have announced that the organization's Twenty-Second Membership Meeting will be held May 2 in the Atrium of the Southpark Inn, South Loop 289 and Indiana Avenue in Lubbock. Starting time will be 2:30 p.m. and the meeting should conclude shortly after 5:00 p.m.

Emphasis of the meeting will be on existing opportunities for cotton in foreign markets, how those opportunities can be expanded and how the High Plains can fully realize its potential in those markets.

To broaden cotton producer knowledge of the international cotton trade, PCG has secured "two speakers who are among the world's most knowledgeable and respected men in the field," says PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson.

Traveling from Liverpool England to be on the program will be John Garner, a principal owner and publisher of the "Cotton Outlook" magazine. An international publication, "Cotton Outlook" each week covers cotton production, consumption, prices, government policies, exports and imports from every country of the world that exerts a significant influence on cotton trade.

From his base in Washington D.C. will be David Johnson, Associate Director for Cotton Operations for Cotton Council International. CCI organizes and supervises trade missions, technical services and various cotton promotion programs in countries around the world, including cooperative extension programs with some 40 textile mills, garment manufacturers and retailers.

In addition to these, PCG President Lloyd Cline will address the group and Johnson will give the opening Executive Vice President's report.

Following the membership meeting, the 50-member Board of Directors, two from each of the 25 counties in the territory, will meet and elect officers for the 1979-80
