suffering of those Americans who have lost loved ones because he wanted to strut on the world's stage. It may, or may not, give him pause in the future. But at any rate he has been put on notice that his acts carry a price, and he can weigh his own actions accordingly.

We would like to make special note of the reaction by House Speaker Tip O'Neill in this case. As our readers know, we have not been among his biggest fans over the years. Far too often, in our view, he has injected a note of partisan politics in the handling of American foreign policy. But in this case he was prompt and fulsome in his praise of the way President Reagan handled the affair. In my opinion he too deserves the thanks of Americans.

But it also should be noted that not everyone was on the team. The nutty Republican Senator from Connecticut, Lowell Weicker, was on the tube voicing his displeasure with the President. This should not appear strange. He has been displeased with everything Reagan has done since he came into office. In fact, he just does not like the way Reagan thinks, period. One would think he is striving for a job as chief editorial writer for the Austin American-Statesman when he leaves office at the end of his current term. And then there was former President Jimmy Carter telling a panel down at College Station that he too disapproves of the way Reagan is handling Khadafy. Following the first, rather limited strike of a few weeks ago, Mr. Carter pointed out that if he were still in office he would do it all differently. We have not seen anything he has said following the most recent action. Mr. Carter, it will be remembered, was in charge of the shop during the Iranian hostage affair.

We do not know what effect this will have on Mr. Khadafy's thinking. Nor do we know what effect it will have on other terrorist groups around the world. But there is an old, indeed ancient, Chinese saying: "You kill the chicken to frighten the monkey."

We can only hope that eventually all the monkeys will get the message.

Moving to another subject, one much closer to home but without the emotional impact, we hope, of the Libyan affair.

Our readers may have noted that we are now printing the official records of happenings in County Courts-at-law. We have been doing that for some time in District Court proceedings, but not in all cases as far as County Court records are concerned. We will try to explain:

The issue, quite simply, is what to do with the names of people who have been arrested and charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol, or "DUI." We will try to explain the situation, and our dilemma in trying to arrive at a fair decision on the matter.

Within the newspaper world there are essentially two schools of thought on the matter. One school holds that the names ought to be published, along with the names of all others arrested for various offenses. Some of the nearby papers have been doing this for years.

Other publishers have adopted the policy that the names should not be printed until there is a final adjudication on the matter, that is, when the case is finally settled by trial and conviction, or trial and acquittal, or dismissal, or something.

The issue, as far as a newspaper is concerned, is essentially one of fairness, or at least what is perceived as fairness. At any rate the records are open and are subject to perusal by any citizen. That is the law. The question as far as a newspaper is concerned comes down to how it will handle what is by law a matter of public record, made so by the Legislature of the State.

In the past these papers have more or less followed the policy of waiting, as far as DWI cases are concerned, until the matter is finally settled one way or another. That was the policy when we became part of the community a few years ago, and we continued the policy, although with some uneasiness.

We say uneasiness for this reason: One of the first complaints we were hit with upon becoming owners of these papers was that the papers were not fair in their handling of arrest records. The charge leveled against us was that we were showing favoritism. That is a terrible charge, as far as a newspaper is concerned, for if a newspaper does not have credibility it has nothing. Since we were newcomers at the time, we were in no position to dispute what had gone on in the past, but we determined to see that in the future the charge of unfairness would have no validity.

We have tried our best to be fair in our treatment of news affecting the people of our community. There may have been times when we failed at that task, but it has not been a failure of the heart by any means. Nevertheless as long as we continued the policy that was in place, we have worried that there may be some validity to the charge of unfairness, for this reason: There are some within the community who make the case to us that our policy favors those who have stature in the community, and penalizes those who have none. We do not believe that is the case. We have seen no evidence of it, but we recognize the fact that some people have the notion that "if you have money" certain things can be arranged. To the extent that notion gains credence, the community suffers, in our estimation. We are determined that we shall do nothing to give it credence.

Too, many people believe that the threat of adverse publicity attending arrest for DWI acts as a deterrent to deaths on our highways caused by drunken drivers. We do not know that to be the case, but it is an argument made by organizations like Mothers Against Drunk Driving, as well as others.

At any rate we have finally come down on the side of furnishing our readers with a report of official records in county courts at law. We want to make the point that we are not out to "get" anyone. We hope we never have to print the name of a single citizen. We would like it much better, for we take no joy in it. None at all.

Obviously any policy that has been adopted can be changed. If the citizens of our community feel this is wrong-headed policy, we will be happy to reconsider the matter. But to us it seems the fairest way to approach the issue. We would be pleased to hear from our readers on the matter. Are we right, or are we wrong?

In closing we would like to pass along some heartfelt thoughts on the subject. We do not see ourselves as the moral guardians of the community. Nor do we consider ourselves as an arm of the law, although we will do our part as community citizens to live within the law, and to the best of our ability see that the law is applied evenly to all our citizens.

Eight candidates speak at forum

Local political candidates have been working all around the county lately in their bid for a favorable turnout in the May 3 Democratic Primary. A prime opportunity to be heard by the voting public was offered to the candidates in the form of a political forum on Tuesday, April 22. The forum, sponsored by local Mexican-American residents was scheduled for 7:00 p.m., but was late beginning. It was held in the shop behind 508 East California in Floydada.

Among the candidates taking advantage of this chance to openly meet and talk with each other and voters were George Miller, Choise Smith, Barbara Edwards, Kathy Green, Linda Jackson, Jack Lackey, Delfino Pesina, and Floyd Jackson. An audience of some fifty people listened as each candidate present made a short opening speech. These gave basic information about the candidate and their desire to hold a public office. Each was careful to thank the voters for being there and for the opportunity to speak to them. Tino Morales, serving as moderator, then asked for questions from the audience.

The candidates willingly responded to questions from those attending. The major subject broached by the audience was the current state of the Floyd County Grand Jury and the selection of jurors to serve on it.

District Judge George Miller, the incumbent candidate for the position, was asked to explain the process by which the jurors are selected. He responded by saying that, "Approximately four years ago, we made the change from selecting jurors by using a jury commission to using a jury wheel. This method means that I enter an order every six months directing the Sheriff to draw the names of 35 persons from the registered voters in this county. The District Clerk then records the names and a jury is selected from among these."

Morales then asked the judge to express an opinion concerning the lack of representation for minorities on the jury panel. "We seem to get a token person appointed, but never feel that we are fairly represented," said Morales. "With more than 35% of the area residents being Mexican-Americans and another 4.3% black, we do not feel that we are treated fairly by the judicial system."

Miller told the gathering that he had no ready explanation for the apparent lack of representation. "Many names drawn are excused for various reasons," he said. "Among these reasons are an inability to speak or read English or having young children to care for at home. This may account for it, but I couldn't say that for certain."

Miller's opponent, David Cave, was not present due to the fact that his father is hospitalized and scheduled to undergo surgery on Wednesday morning. Albert Garcia from Spur was on hand to represent Cave.

Garcia told the audience that he could not speak directly for Mr. Cave on political policy, but that "Cave has assured me that he will do everything in his power to make sure that all residents of the district are fairly and equally.

Morales asked Miller "Why can't we return to the use of an appointed Jury Commission to select Grand Jurors?"

Miller responded by saying "I changed the procedure to the jury wheel because it seemed a more impartial method than having a committee appoint jurors. We seemed to always see the same persons on the juries when we used commission."

Candidates for Precinct Commission of Precinct 4 were challenged by the group to see that the city and the county work together to provide better roads in the minority sections of town and to "do something positive to alleviate the flooding problems of the northeast sections of town when it rains."

Lackey, the incumbent commissioner for Precinct 4, was quick to point out that the county auditor had "quoted the law to us and we are not authorized to perform services within the city as it is their jurisdiction, not ours."

County Judge Choise Smith did add, "We can come in and help out if the city asks us to. For example, we could use some of our equipment in the city if the city requested help when some of their equipment was out of service or broke down."

Also brought to the attention of the voters was the fact that "Floyd County is losing something in the nature of $250,000 in funds next year due to a reappraisal and the end of revenue sharing funds." Lackey stated that he felt "it is a time to be cutting back."

Pesina told the voters "I would work towards seeing that Floyd County is a better place to live for all. We are on the decline, sad as it is to say, and we need to do something to build the county back up and make more jobs for residents. I would like to see a cannery or some other type of businesses come in."

Miller was asked about the salary of the District Court reporter. Miller replied saying, "Carl Young started here when the average court reporter in the area was drawing at least $4,000 more than he did. At this time, every reporter in the counties that adjoin Floyd County draws more money, except two. One is the new court reporter in Crosby County. He draws $78 less a month than Carl does. The other is a non-certified reporter who draws about 10% less than Carl. With his experience and years of service, he should make more than he does. You have to pay a man what his work is worth or he will be working for someone who will."

Morales thanked all the candidates and voters for coming and told the group, "We plan to have more forums like this in between elections, just to get everyone acquainted with the people in the courthouse and to keep everyone informed about what goes on there."

Refreshments were served following the forum and voters were encouraged to speak informally with the candidates present. Candidates other than Cave who were not present included Glenna Orman, Margaret Collier, Don Green, and Lowell Bilibrey.

Letter to the Editor

The Floyd County Hesperian

Floydada, Texas 79235

Dear Editor:

Perhaps you are wondering why John R. (Randy) Hollums, the District Attorney for the 110th Judicial District, is taking sides in the race for District Judge.

As an attorney and officeholder, I feel that I cannot sit by and allow half-truths and false innuendos to be printed in political advertisements by Attorney Cave and his committee without replying.

David Cave is a young attorney whom I had hoped would run a fair campaign based on the real facts and issues. I have been severely disappointed in the manner in which he has slanted and misrepresented issues.

Although each item in Mr. Cave's advertisements might be capable of similar analysis, I will undertake to answer only two items which directly pertain to my office.

The first item to be corrected is the statement regarding Fortenberry vs. State, 579 SW2 482. Contrary to David Cave's insinuation, the fact is that Judge Miller acted in a reasonable and proper fashion in finding that the charge to the jury was not required. The decision to not give a particular jury charge in Fortenberry vs. State, was made by Judge Miller after hearing argument by both the State and the defendant's attorneys. The State, represented by myself and Tom Hamilton, the former District Attorney in Hale County, had consulted with two attorneys in Austin in regard to the propriety of the defense's requested charge. The two individuals conferred with were Jim Vollers, who was at that time the State's Attorney of the Court of Criminal Appeals, and Mike McCormick, who is presently serving on the Court of Criminal Appeals. All of the four attorneys agreed that under the present (at that time) state of the law, the charge was not required and the State argued against the requested charge being given. Judge Miller ruled in favor of the State.

If Judge Miller had ordered the requested charge to be given the jury, I am of the opinion that the jury would have found the defendant not guilty of capital murder and might not even have imposed the life sentence that Fortenberry is presently serving. The Court of Criminal Appeals created new law when it reversed the case and Fortenberry vs. State has been cited by the Court ever since as the first case under the new rule of law.

It would be nice if I could believe that David Cave ran his advertisement while ignorant of the true facts in this case, but David Cave had knowledge of the above facts. I informed him of the true facts several weeks before the misleading advertisement appeared in the area newspapers. I submit that this is an example of the "anything to win morality".

The second item to be corrected is the manner in which the District Attorney's office assists with the Grand Jury. The record shows that this District has OPEN GRAND JURIES. Mr. Cave's advertisement implies that "many cases of alleged criminal activity do not get to the point of being considered by the grand juries of the respective counties". I have, throughout the ten plus years of being District Attorney in this district, always conducted open grand juries. That is, any person who felt that a crime had been committed was allowed to appear and testify before the Grand Jury. Mr. Cave is well aware of that fact in that he personally attended and helped conduct most of the grand juries in Dickens County during that period. Mr. Cave accepted or refused most of the criminal complaints received in Dickens County during this period (the first step for most Grand Jury cases). He, of all people, knows or should know, that certain legal elements must be met before a case can be successfully prosecuted or an indictment returned by a Grand Jury. To present a case to the Grand Jury before all the elements are provable is often a waste of the Grand Jury's and the Court's time.

David Cave knows and has followed the above precepts in his own actions before the Grand Jury of Dickens County. So why imply that the present system is not working? It must be the "anything to win morality" again.

I hope that the voters will realize that allegations made in the last few weeks of the campaign cannot be properly responded to and should be taken with a grain of salt.

It hurts me personally to see David Cave slinging mud in the District Judge Campaign. I had hoped the race would be run with fairness by both candidates, but it appears that only one, George Miller, cares about the dignity of that office.

Sincerely,
John R. Hollums
District Attorney for the 110th Judicial District

Dear Editor:

I would like to respond to Bill Gray's request to hear from someone who has had some experience with Mr. Cave in Dickens Co. Due to a "legal problem" my sixteen year old son had in Dickens Co. due to a pick-up accident, I found myself dealing with Mr. Cave on my sons behalf. Although I am not a lawyer as Mr. Gray requested, I do feel that I am capable of recognizing courtesy, common sense and professionalism and I would like to state that Mr. Cave demonstrated all three qualities.

Sincerely,
/s/ Carol Brooks

We appreciate those who give Neeley money from time to time for the bananas. In the afternoon we had a good time of Bible study, sharing and prayer.

We appreciate the check for $15.00 from Alpha Sigma Upsilon for the ceramic fund. Ceramics is one of the most favorite activities for the residents.

City modernization campaign continues

The Sesquicentennial Clean up, Paint Up and Fix Up Committee of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce reminded Floydada business firms this week that they should complete their paint up and modernization plan in a few weeks. Over one hundred questionnaires were mailed to the business community in December with suggestions that every business firm adopt an improvement project for the Sesquicentennial in 1986. The questionnaires suggested that business firms paint or modernize their fronts, buy new carpet, remodel their store awning and signs, repair broken sidewalks, repaint store fixtures and store interiors, and keep weeds cut in alleys and sidewalks. Local organizations and clubs were also encouraged to adopt a special Sesquicentennial project for the year. Forty business firms and organizations returned their questionnaires and projects to the Chamber of Commerce office. Many projects have been completed throughout Floydada since January 1.

"We were pleased with the response of the Floydada business firms to our clean up program", Chamber President Jerry Thompson reported to the annual banquet audience on Saturday night.

"Now it is time to finish up our plans and get those modernization plans completed before Old Settler's Day May 24," Thompson said. "Time is getting

SPISD performance report summarized

As required by House Bill 72, the South Plains Independent School District has prepared an annual performance report for the 1984-85 academic year. This report, approved by the district board of trustees on April 7, 1986, is available for public inspection at the local school office in South Plains.

The South Plains ISD operates a small rural school on one campus facility. The student body of less than 30 attends kindergarten through sixth grade under the supervision of a superintendent (also the kindergarten teacher), three teachers, and an aide. The students are roughly 50% Anglo and 50% Mexican American who reside in rural areas.

The curriculum includes English, language arts, science, math, social studies, theatre arts, music, health, physical education, Spanish and computer science. Career, drug, safety, and crime information is integrated into appropriate curriculum areas and students are assessed each year to determine academic progress.

The professional staff, certified by the Texas Education Agency, all hold at least a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university. Both the faculty and the curriculum meet or exceed the minimum requirements set forth by the TEA. The staff participates in training on new developments through programs provided by the Educational Service Center.

The system has no students involved in compensatory education or bilingual programs. There are no severe discipline problems and no dropouts.

Students residing within the district who have successfully completed the sixth grade are sent to the Floydada Independent School District's Junior High and High School facilities to complete the mandatory secondary education requirements for high school.

Membership in Phi Kappa Phi is limited to junior, senior, law and graduate students who rank in the top 10 percent of their classes. They were initiated April 16.

We greet our "Beno" Wilson
Who wears a pretty smile...
She is a "dresy" lady
And likes the latest style!

To Mr. Leon Marble
...He counts from '99...
We wish a happy birthday
At this his special time.

Mr. Spence we're greeting
...He dates from '91...
Although he's slowed his step a bit
He still likes having fun.

Another one we're greeting
...Her name is Florence Curry...
She takes her time from day to day
And says "its not to worry".

Mrs. Thelma Hoffman
Is one we like to greet...
She is so nice and pleasant
And always looks so neat!

For Mr. Self we're wishing
On this his "special" day...
A lot of happy memories
To cheer him on his way.

Lets serenade these people
With the same old Birthday Song...
So everybody ready
And come out good and strong!

Resident and guests were ushered into the Rest Home dining room on Thursday, April 17th for the monthly birthday party, hosted by ladies of the City Park Church of Christ.

The table was laid with an ecru cloth and centered with a floral arrangement in shades of yellow and green. Places for the honorees were marked with special birthday cards and each of them wore a fresh corsage compliments of Williams Flower and Card Shop.

song. Bennie Wilson had as her guests Jessie Stewart, Opal Kratzer, Letha Lightfoot and Addie Lindley. Seated with Mr. Spence was his son Sam and Mrs. Henry Bloodworth was visiting her husband.

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

As a candidate for District Judge it would seem proper that I should publish some form of communication to you in order that you may know what my position is concerning some of the matters that a District Judge must deal with, the manner in which I think they should be handled, some of the policies I will adopt, and the procedures that I will use in the event that you elect me to the office of District Judge.

I have found in visiting with people that they are concerned about crime and are displeased with the manner in which criminal activity is being dealt with in the district. I hear numerous complaints that many cases of alleged criminal activity do not get to the point of being considered by the grand juries. If elected as your District Judge I will be sure that the grand jurors understand that they have the right to consider alleged criminal violations regardless of whether or not the District Attorney agrees or disagrees that such matters should be considered, that the Grand Jury understands that it has subpoena powers and may on its own motion cause witnesses to appear before it for questioning on the matters before it. The grand jury foreman may notify members to appear and consider matters that come to his attention and to the attention of other grand jury members. The District Attorney has no right to dictate to the grand jury as to the witnesses it questions, the matters it may consider, the time when it meets or the time it spends considering alleged criminal activities, and the particular charge in the indictments. The Grand Jury has a right to consider matters with or without the District Attorney being present. It has a right to notify the District Attorney and the District Attorney has an obligation to assist the Grand Jury if called upon to do so.

I have already told the District Attorney of this District that he may not expect me to go along with every plea bargain arrangement that he might suggest and I intend to consider the circumstances of each individual case before approving or rejecting a plea bargain proposal. Plea bargaining has its place in the system but is not appropriate in many cases. Those persons who sell illegal drugs should be dealt with harshly for the reason that such sales totally ruin the lives of many of those persons using the illegal drugs and cause many crimes on their part to be committed in order to obtain the money with which to pay for the illegal drugs.

Rule 3 B(4) of the Code of Judicial Conduct provides that, "A Judge should not make unnecessary appointments". In keeping with this rule unnecessary appointments will not be made. Floyd County is the only county in the judicial district which has an auditor appointed by the District Judge. Under the provisions of our laws (Article 1645 V.A.C.S.) an auditor is not mandatory for Floyd County. Therefore, unless requested to appoint an auditor by a duly passed resolution by a unanimous vote of the Commissioner's Court an auditor will not be forced on the taxpayers of the county. As these as troubled economic times the taxpayers should not be burdened with unnecessary expenses. Under the provisions of the law all counties must have an outside audit each year by an independent auditing firm and such independent audit is sufficient. Contrary to what Judge Miller told the gathering in Lockney on the evening of March 31, 1986 at a meeting of the candidates the Commissioner's Court of Floyd County DID NOT request Judge Miller to appoint an auditor. The cost of maintaining the auditors office has almost doubled in the term of the incumbent District Judge.

The District Judge has been authorized by law to order the Commissioner's Court to pay certain expenses. This is a broad power of discretion empowering a District Judge to spend taxpayers money even when such expenses are not necessary in the opinion of the County Commissioners. I intend to consult with the Commissioner's Court of the Counties before arbitrarily ordering them to spend the taxpayers money. This is a departure from the policy of the incumbent judge who has ordered the Commissioners to pay certain expenses without consulting the Commissioners.

It is the duty of a District Judge to see that the rules of Civil Procedure are followed in the trial of cases, to see that rules of law are properly applied, and in case of jury trials to properly instruct the jury. I will perform these duties by studying the rules of law and the interpretations of these laws which are contained in Court decisions in order that errors on the part of the Court will be avoided.

The people of this District are entitled to a District Judge who devotes full time to the duties of the office and does not engage in extrajudicial activities in violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct.

The Rules of Judicial Conduct of this State are contained on six pages of the statutes. They are not long and involved, but are clear, concise and plain. They are designed to maintain a judicial branch of government in which the people have faith that fairness and justice can be expected from the Court. I will strictly obey the rules of Judicial Conduct.

In regard to crime and punishment, it is my opinion that appropriate punishment is a deterrent to crime. I believe that the rights of law-abiding citizens should be protected by the imprisonment of those perpetrators of serious crimes who constitute a threat to society.

Probation has a proper place in our system of punishment but I believe it should be used sparingly and only where it appears that a person deserves a second chance to show that he will straighten out his life and be obedient to the laws. In cases where a person on probation violates the conditions of his or her probation then probation should be revoked and the violator should serve his sentence.

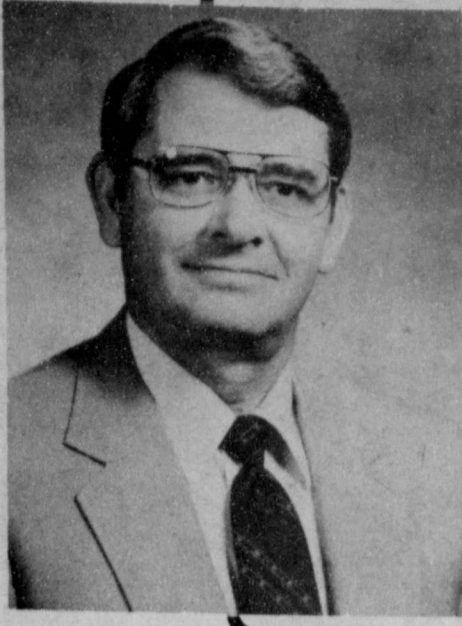

If elected as your District Judge I will impose a sentence that will be at least as harsh as what I believe a jury would have assessed in the same case. I do not intend to impose light sentences for serious crimes. I hope such a policy will make criminals more inclined to elect to be sentenced by a jury so that some of the people of this District will have the opportunity to decide what punishment should be inflicted on people who commit crimes.

I realize the tremendous duty placed on a District Judge and if elected I will make a diligent effort to fairly, correctly and efficiently perform those duties. I ask for your support during the course of this campaign and for your vote on May 3.

Sincerely yours,
DAVID CAVE

"Look For The Beautiful"

By Earl N. Blair

Sometime ago I heard a song that thrilled and inspired my life. The name of the song was "Look For the Beautiful". What wonderful advice that is. I believe that the world would be a better place and life would be more abundant if each Christian would look for the beautiful, and speak of the beautiful. But for us to do this, we must look upward to Him who created us and not down to earth, for as the song says, "All that is beautiful, there had its birth."

In order for us to look to the beautiful in life, we must commit our thoughts to God. The Apostle Paul wrote some practical advice on how we may commit our thought-life to God. In Philippians 4:8 he says, "Finally brethren, whatever is true, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things." So in committing our thoughts to Christ we must dwell on the good and on the beautiful and not on the bad and ugly. As we do this, life will be more meaningful and joyful.

Life is good, but sometimes negative thoughts tell us otherwise. In looking at the beautiful life we find in Christ, we can be freed from resentments, hate, and anger and other negative feelings.

Let us take these words of Paul's as a challenge to turn our thoughts over to the Lord that we might be able to look for the beautiful.

Students model projects

By Joyce Williams
Models from Floydada High School's CVAE Home Economics class showed their spring fashions Friday, April 18 in the Home Economic room at 9:00 a.m. Red, white and blue tablecloth and streamers set the Sesquicentennial theme for the style show.

Shirts were modeled by Misses: Donna Cooper, Josie Rosales, Lucy Flores and Kellie Van Cleve. Barney Reyes modeled a cotton robe which he had made. Danny Salazar showed a "Miami Vice" sports shirt. Skirts were made and modeled by Misses: Stacy Rucker, Rachel Boyd and Sharlene Hill. Miss Lisa Galvan modeled her skirt and blouse ensemble. Miss Sara Guzman modeled fashion pants. Miss Laura Boyd modeled a black strapless tea length gown with formal accessories. The show was narrated by the teacher, Mrs. Joyce Williams. After the program, refreshments were served from a table covered with a red, white and blue striped tablecloth. Texas wild flowers were arranged in a basket to center the table. Students served refreshments they had prepared for their guests. Butterfinger ice cream, cookies and fruit punch were served from crystal servers. Guests included Mr. Jerry Cannon, superintendent of schools; parents, relatives and friends. Students from early childhood class, welding class, woodwork class, Mr. Al Galloway, Mrs. Dale Smith, Miss Gean Christopher and Mrs. Elaine Baxter, ladies from the Day Care Center also were guests for the style show and social hour. Spring fashions modeled

Floydada Junior High seamstress modeled spring fashions Friday afternoon, April 18, for parents, teachers and fellow classmates. The annual style show was presented in the Della Plains Home Economic classroom. Mary Garza modeled a camp shirt. Nallia Huerta modeled an afternoon dress of cream colored woven polyester with tacked shoulders. Lisa Delgado showed a grey striped cotton jump suit. Elvia Huerta modeled a dark cotton pinafore with detachable top. All fashions were made by the students. Students also displayed pillows they had sewn in class. Early American quilt block designs such as "Lady's Fan", "Churn Dash," and geometric designs of triangles and squares were shown by Mary Garza, Janie Sanchez, Elvia Huerta, Letty Maldonado, Adela Rodriguez and Peggy Barrientos. Mrs. Joyce Williams narrated the show. Red fruit punch, chocolate layer cake and banana ice cream were served from a table featuring Texas Sesquicentennial colors of red, white and blue. Mr. Dale Smith's class and Mr. Al Galloway's students, parents and friends were guests of the Junior High School Home Economic class.

Mobile dentist visits schools for check-ups

A trio of smiling faces has become a familiar sight around A.B. Duncan Elementary School during the past few weeks. The three, a dental team from the Texas Department of Health in Lubbock, are part of a program which periodically visits area schools to screen students for dental problems. The team, a dentist, a dental hygienist, and a community service aide, visits 88 schools in 32 counties on a rotating two to four year schedule. Children of lower income families who qualify for the program are examined and scheduled to have dental work done if necessary following the screening examination. The team has screened 102 students in the Floydada area, including students from Andrews Elementary and South Plains schools. Students up to the 8th grade are screened, although the treatment program only allows dental work to be done on students up to the 6th grade level.

Yolanda Rose, the community service aide, schedules appointments and tries to prepare the students for their trip to the dentist's chair. "Many are apprehensive and have never seen a dentist. We do not force treatment on anyone. If they are scared, we will try again later or the next time our team visits," says Rose.

Dr. James Walston, the dentist, says, "We try to dispense a little education along with a little dental work. We try to teach the children the importance of good dental hygiene as well as show them a career they might want to consider in the future."

Walston hopes that some of the children might be encouraged to stay in school and work towards a career in dentistry if they are favorably impressed by his team. "Maybe they can see that they can earn a living and do something good for others. This is a very rewarding job and I feel strongly about promoting it and helping the children to feel good about themselves and their teeth."

Duncan principal, Bob Copeland, stressed, "These students are from lower income families, generally those who qualify for free lunches. This state program allows us to see that they receive needed dental care when they would otherwise do without."

"The prime pre-requisite for working with this program," says Walston, "is that you like children and like the work."

Rose agrees, saying, "We often work in very small spaces and under not very good conditions, but everyone involved tries to do the best they can as we move our equipment and our van from place to place to bring dental help to all who need it."

THIMET. TOP PERFORMANCE. LOWER COST THAN TEMIK.

Why pay more than you need to for insect control? THIMET® 20-G soil and systemic insecticide protects your cotton and saves you about $3 per acre over the cost of Temik.*

If you're one of the many growers that used THIMET last year, you know it does the job for thrips and other pests. Applied at planting, THIMET also controls other early season insects such as aphids, mites, leaf miners, leafhoppers, black cutworms and white flies. So stick with THIMET for proven protection.

THIMET is more convenient, too. It's concentrated in a 20-G formulation to help you cover more acres faster.

So for the best combination of performance and price, THIMET can't be beat. Ask your farm chemical dealer for THIMET today.

Whirlwind girls capture 2-3A title

When the '86 track season opened, few fellow coaches and fans would have given Coach Tommy Baxter and his Whirlwind girls a chance to finish better than sixth or seventh in the seven-school District 2-3A. Odds of the Green and White winning the district championship were astronomical.

After all, there were only two seniors and an equal number of juniors on the varsity squad. Balance of the squad consisted of sophomores and freshmen. More than a few persons bore a shocked expression Saturday when the point tabulation was completed and the Whirlwind girls were all alone in first place. Their margin of victory was equally surprising: 15 points ahead of runner-up Tulia.

Floydada lasses had amassed 110 points to Tulia's 95. Other squads and their point totals in the district meet, Friday and Saturday in Idalou, were: Dimmitt, 91; Muleshoe, 85; Friona, 76; Idalou, 63; and Littlefield, 34.

Whirlwinds qualified for regional trials in six individual or team events. Althea Campbell had her ticket to regional punched in two individual events, plus she ran a leg on the 400 meter relay which also qualified. Miss Campbell won triple jump and placed second in long jump. The FHS senior teamed with Jane Willson, Paige Cannon and Tana Turner to claim second in the 400 meter relay.

Tana Turner's second place finish in triple jump made it one-two for Floydada.

ada. Miss Turner was also runner-up in the 100 meter dash and ran a leg on the 400 meter relay.

Miss Cannon qualified for regional in discus throw by being runner-up in that event. Teammate Norma Cisneros took second in the shot put to advance to regional.

First two qualifiers in each event qualify for regional trials.

Weather for the final day of the meet resembled winter rather than spring. Following a Saturday morning rain, conditions were damp, windy and "cold".

Coach Baxter says Region I-AAA competition will be Friday and Saturday, May 2-3, in Odessa.

Following are Whirlwind fem athletes who placed in both varsity and junior varsity divisions of the District 2-3A meet:

Suarez, Medrano second in district

Manual Suarez and Daniel Medrano each earned opportunities to participate in the Region I-AAA track meet Saturday by running second in district event finals.

Medrano was timed in 2:04.56 to finish second behind Logsdon of Muleshoe in the 800 meter run. The Whirlwind sophomore had the previous week established a new school record in the 800.

Suarez ran second to Perez of Muleshoe in the 3200 meter run. He was timed in 10:22.91.

David Medrano gave the Whirlwinds a second-third place finish in the 800 meter run by running just behind his twin brother. His time was 2:05.14.

Coach Mike Vickers' Whirlwind 1600 meter relay crossed the line third in a time of 3:31.63. Floydada was narrowly nipped by Tulia, which was timed in 3:30.95, for second and the right to advance to regional.

Running legs on the 1600 relay were Ralph Casillas, the Medrano twins and Hector Cervera.

The youthful Whirlwind squad posed 48 points to place fifth in the district meet, Friday and Saturday in Idalou.

Team totals were: 1. Tulia, 133; 2. Idalou, 128; 3. Friona, 71; 4. Dimmitt, 49; 5. Floydada, 48; 6. (tie), Muleshoe and Littlefield, 46 each.

Boys certified in cardio pulmonary resuscitation

An ambitious group of sixth grade boys have completed a class which even many adults view with a great deal of trepidation, a course in CPR (Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation). This life saving procedure is recognized throughout the medical community for its effectiveness at reviving or sustaining life functions in an ill or injured person until help can be summoned.

Six young men, Refugio Barrientos, Alan Livingston, Dirk Rainer, Billy Villarreal, Brad Wilson, and Edward Wickware recently completed the Red Cross course under the tutelage of Mary Lee Padgett. Vickie Rainer, an aide at R.C. Andrews Elementary School, also took the course and received certification in CPR. She attended class with these students from her school and assisted them in studying for the necessary examination and skills test they had to pass. Her score on the test was 88%. Test scores for the sixth graders were: Barrientos, 90%; Livingston, 92%; Rainer, 96%; Villarreal, 98%; Wilson, 88%; and Wickware, 84%.

Beginning with the primary survey of the victims condition, the class learned the ABC's of emergency care (airway, breathing, and circulation) and moved on to skills necessary to revive or sustain these functions on a victim. By applying their newly mastered skills, these youngsters now have the capability of restoring breathing and circulation during the most critical time following an accident, injury, or heart attack, the first few minutes. These skills, a combination of artificial respiration and chest compressions, can be instrumental in saving the life of a choking victim, a person who has drowned, or someone who has suffered a cardiac arrest.

The obstacles for such youthful trainees are many. They must become familiar with many new technical facts and skills and they must be able to demonstrate their mastery of these facts and skills to the satisfaction of the testing instructor. The smaller stature and young age of these students can sometimes make the physical demonstration of CPR procedures difficult. The boys did not let that deter them as they passed the standard Red Cross tests and received their certification.

"I am proud to say that the boys were excellent students," said Mary Lee Padgett. "Many times, they could reel off the answers faster than I could listen to them. They worked really hard and were very eager to learn. Their enthusiasm made teaching them easier for me."

Padgett plans to hold additional classes for other sixth graders who want to take the course in the future.

Wilson-Medrano win the 3-2A tennis title

Whirlwind tennis team, coached by Regina Smith, captured the girls district championship and deadlocked for first place in the boys division during 3-2A competition last week at the Lubbock Municipal Tennis complex.

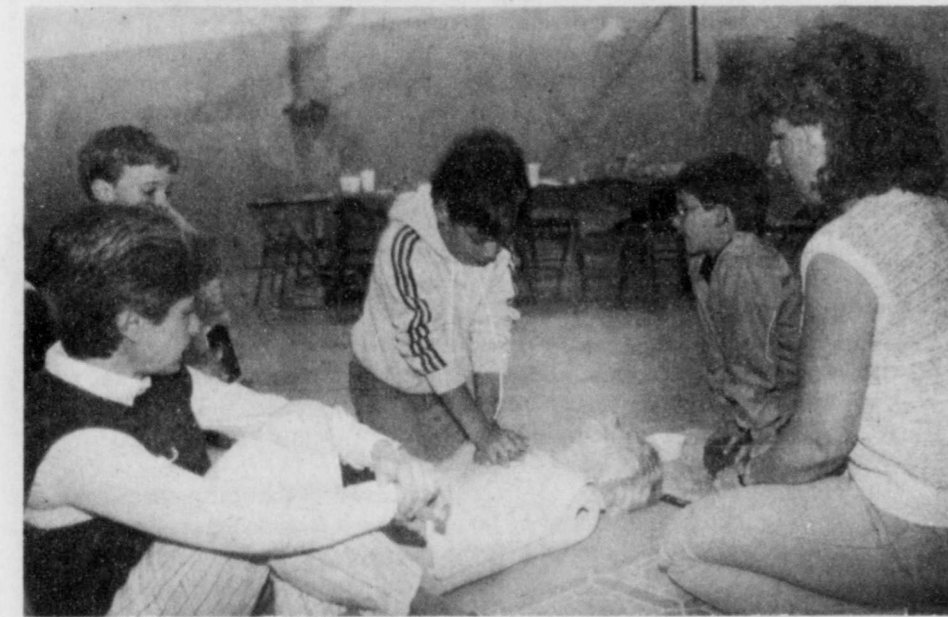

The female double team of Diana Wilson-Esmo Medrano won its division and now advances to regional competition. Wilson-Medrano knocked off Floydada's Debrah Nieman-Stacy Smith, 7-5, 6-3.

Both the girls double team of Teresa

Gentry-Rosie Rodriguez and the boys duo of Jerry Medrano-Gabriel Mendoza lost semifinal matches but rebounded to capture third place.

After being stopped by Neiman-Smith in the semifinals, Gentry-Rodriguez defeated Joey Heathington-Casey King of Muleshoe.

The Medrano-Mendoza team bowed in the semis to Kevin Beavers-Jeff Dickson of Friona, 6-4, 3-6, 6-2. They notched a 6-3, 6-2 decision over Albert Cerna-Stan Everitt of Idalou in the battle for third place.

Chadwick accepts post as Sam Houston State coach

Floydada native Royce Chadwick has accepted the position of head women's basketball coach at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville. He was head women's basketball coach at Panhandle State University in Goodwell, Oklahoma, for two seasons before resigning that post to accept the SHSU job.

Chadwick, whose teams posted a 39-26 mark in his two years at PSU including two trips to the NAIA District 9 playoffs and a 20-10 mark this season, will be assuming his duties in Huntsville immediately. At SHSU, he steps up into NCAA Division I competition for the first time in his coaching career.

He succeeds Kim Basinger, who was the SHSU coach for four years. Her team went 11-16 last season.

"I'm thrilled," said Chadwick, whose wife Lisa served as his assistant at PSU. "Sometimes you can wait forever to get a chance at a good Division I job, and this is a good Division I job."

Sam Houston State has nine squad members returning next year, and the new mentor hopes to recruit at least two additional players.

Chadwick, a three-sport letterman at Floydada High School received his B.S. degree in accounting from Southwestern Oklahoma State in 1980. He earned a Masters in business from SWOSU in 1982.

After one year as an accountant, he decided to become a coach and accepted the job as assistant basketball coach for both men and women at Amarillo College.

While at AC, the men's team posted a 21-6 record and the women were 29-10 and finished fifth in the nation.

Chadwick then accepted the head girls' basketball coaching position at Olton High School. While at Olton, he led his team to a 21-5 record and the school's first district championship in nine years.

He took over the Panhandle State program in 1984. The Lady Aggies had not posted a winning record in four seasons. Chadwick led the 1984-85 team to a 19-16 record and the school's first playoff appearance in five seasons.

His mother, Jackie Chadwick, is a junior high school faculty member in Floydada.

Your District Court And Its Duties And Responsibilities

CRIMINAL JURISDICTION: The District Court has a reputation of being lenient on repeat offenders. In Briscoe County alone all of the criminals coming before the court in the last several years were handed either probated or deferred sentences even on repeat offenders. Very little consideration is given to the rights of the victims of a crime. My experience as County Attorney of Dickens County for the past nine years has taught me that a speedy trial and jail time has been a deterrent to repeat offenders.

CIVIL LITIGATION: Justice delayed is often justice denied. I will make certain that civil cases are moved promptly to trial. I will spend the time necessary to study the case before it comes to trial and during trial. Errors which can be avoided by study and research are inexcusable. I will work to make certain such errors are prevented.

Farm seminar announced

Congressman Beau Boulter announced that the national administrators of the Soil Conservation Service and the Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service will be at a public forum in Amarillo on Friday, April 25.

The purpose of the meeting is to respond to questions and concerns about the new soil conservation reserve program enacted under the 1985 Farm Bill, prior to the start of the second bidding period, which begins May 5. The program provides for the eventual establishment of a 50 million acre conservation reserve, 5 million of which is to be established in 1986.

Attending the meeting with Boulter will be Wilson Scaling, Chief of the SCS, and Milton Hertz, Administrator of the ASCS, which is implementing the soil conservation program.

There are a lot of questions in the farming community about the program. Mr. Scaling and Mr. Hertz should be able to answer these important questions," Boulter said.

Under the soil conservation reserve program interested farmers offered bids to put acreage on reserve. Originally, Texas was allotted 800,000 acres of reserve in the program. After the initial sign-up period, however, only 30,000 acres had been placed in the program. As a result, the USDA has announced the second bidding period.

The meeting will be held at the Texas A&M Research and Extension Center, 6500 Amarillo Boulevard West, from 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m., and is open to the public.

Additional meetings are scheduled in Lubbock and Abilene. Anyone who is unable to attend the Amarillo meeting is encouraged to attend one of the other meetings. The Lubbock meeting will be held Friday, April 25, at 9:00 a.m. at the Plains Cotton Mill; and the Abilene meeting will be Saturday, April 26, at 9:00 a.m. at Abilene Christian University.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:
It is difficult to get and keep good Judges. One reason, among many, is because Judges must endure criticisms to which judicial restraint forecloses responses.

I have tried cases the last ten years across West Texas and Judge George Miller is a good Judge that the District needs to keep.

There is not any Judge who has not made mistakes on the bench for which he could be reversed. The law is ever changing through the appellate process. A trial Judge cannot be omnipotent, but must make decisions in the midst of complicated and heated trials, which decisions can then be reviewed by months of study and reflection by appellate courts. I have reversed many Judges on appeals in criminal cases, but that does not mean those trial Judges are not good Judges.

Judge George Miller is a man of highest character and integrity. He is a credit to Floyd County and his District. Voters in his District should closely examine the source of campaign tactics directed against him based on sensationalistic distorted views of the judicial process.

Yours truly,
O'Shea, Hall, Hart & Forcum, P.C.

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO SPEND AN EVENING WITH ROGER COBB AND HIS FRIENDS. DON'T COME ALONE!

To the Voters of Floyd County, Texas

TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT 4, FLOYD COUNTY, TEXAS:

As you know, I am seeking reelection to the office of Commissioner of Precinct 4. It has been a pleasure to serve as your Commissioner for the last 1 1/2 years and I hope that you will decide to elect me for another term.

During the time that I have served I have tried to do what I thought the majority of you expected me to do, that is:

- to provide the services that should be provided at a reasonable cost to the taxpayers.
- I think all members of the Commissioners' Court will tell you that I have the most conservative record of anyone on the Commissioners' Court insofar as expenditures of county funds are concerned. I think that this conservative policy is increasingly important because of the difficult economic conditions that exist today.
- I ask for your support and influence during the campaign, and your vote on May 3.

Two scholarships available for journalism students

Two Floydada High School seniors have an opportunity to win a $500 college scholarship. It was announced this week by Ken Towery, publisher of the Floyd County Hesperian.

The Hesperian is a member of the West Texas Press Association, the world's largest regional press group, and that organization is seeking out two future community journalists to receive stipends of $500 each.

Through the "Bob Craig Memorial Scholarship" program, named in honor of long-time HAMLIN HERALD publisher Bob Craig who died in 1981, the West Texas Press Association is sponsoring an essay contest based on the theme "My Future and Career Plans in Community Journalism." High school seniors interested in pursuing a career in community journalism may submit their essays to WTPA Scholarship Committee, Dan Feather, Chairman, Box 248, Menard, Texas 76859.

The essays must be postmarked no later than April 30, 1986.

The essay is limited to a maximum of 400 words and no letters of reference will be accepted for consideration in the contest.

In addition to being a senior in high school, they must maintain a "B" average or better and plan to continue studies at a school of journalism. Once the winners are selected, they must be enrolled in at least three hours of journalism each semester he or she receives the scholarship. The scholarships will be divided into payments of $250 per semester for two semesters for two students.

The essays will be judged by the Texas Press Association.

FFA Report

A meeting of the Floydada Chapter of Future Farmers of America was held Monday night at 7:30 in the vocational agriculture classroom. Before any business was brought before the chapter for consideration a meal of chili was served. Special thanks to the mothers of Darin Martinez, Jon Garrett and Shannon Barbee for furnishing the chili.

After the meal at approximately 8:00, Haney Robertson, president, called the meeting open for business. The first item of business was to inform the chapter of the upcoming banquet. It is to be held on May 15 at 7:00 p.m. at the Duncan Cafeteria. The meal will consist of brisket and beans, cooked by the FFA, potato salad and other trimmings. For dessert homemade ice cream will be served furnished by the freshman class of Future Farmers of America. All parents with children in the Floydada chapter of FFA are invited to attend. The opening ceremony will begin at 8:00. The guest speaker will be Aaron Alehondo, state president, and Tom Mainard. All parents who are able to attend will be appreciated.

The next item of business before the chapter concerned the application for those who wish to hold an office in the local chapters. The requirements are that the student be a member of the FFA and write an application, including upcoming freshmen and graduating seniors report, about a page long with the reasons why they want to be an officer. The applications must be in within two weeks. Elections for the 86-87 officers will be held on May 5th at the next monthly chapter meeting.

The next item of business was a motion to buy FFA golf caps. The final amended motion was to buy blue FFA golf caps with silver lettering. The motion passed when put to the vote.

The last item of business concerned the nominations for honorary members awards to be given at the upcoming banquet. There were nominations made and all were well deserving of the award, but only two awards can be given. All the nominees will be recognized and the winners will be awarded at the banquet.

Finally the meeting was adjourned at approximately 8:45.

USAA names award winner in agriculture and science

The United States Achievement Academy announces that Cliff Hacker has been named a United States National Award winner in agriculture.

This award is a prestigious honor very few students can ever hope to attain. In fact, the Academy recognizes less than 10 percent of all American high school students.

Hacker, who attends Knox City-O'Brien CISD, was nominated for this national award by Jim Dillon, a vocational agriculture teacher at the school. Hacker will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, published annually.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in American's history. Certainly United States Achievement Academy award winners should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," says Dr. George Stevens, executive director of the United States Achievement Academy.

The Academy selects USAA winners upon the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors or other school sponsors and upon the Standards of Selection set forth by the Academy. The criteria for selection are a student's academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, citizenship, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability and recommendation from a teacher or director.

Old relics of various descriptions and origins were displayed as well as a Sesquicentennial flag. Class members were dressed for the occasion wearing long dresses and serving refreshments from a granite campfire coffee pot and an antique pitcher. Jobs are the number one concern in our area. Let's vote in strong leadership to rebuild our economy.

The quality of leadership we've been getting from Austin in recent years has been out of step with the times. Today, every county and city in Texas is feeling the impact of economic crisis. We're feeling it where it hurts personally—in layoffs and cutbacks and declining employment. Looking ahead, what will the job situation be 10 to 20 years from now?

The May 3 Republican Primary is your chance to insure the fresh thinking and decisive leadership we need.

Kent Hance has the experience—both in the Texas Legislature and the U.S. Congress. Kent Hance has the initiative—along with Phil Gramm he was President Reagan's choice for moving the nation's largest tax-cut bill through Congress.

Kent Hance faces the issues:

JOBS

"The early-warning systems were flashing loud and clear. Oil and oil alone can't carry this state. We need new diversified industry, and the incentives to bring business to Texas."

EDUCATION

"Government is taking over the responsibilities of the parent and forcing them on the teachers. The parent is the true steward of the child, not the state. Let's make that a part of our educational policies."

CRIME

"We must stop the early release of prisoners—that's what has made our crime rates go so high. Let's put our prisoners to work. We must build a crime control program with teeth in it."

ILLEGAL ALIENS

"I have the fullest sympathy for our neighbor to the south, but I have no sympathy for allowing illegal aliens to flood across our border threatening our job-hungry economy and creating new problems."

"I need your vote in the Republican Primary on Saturday, May 3. The Republican nominee must be able to carry the cities and the rural areas of Texas to beat Mark White. I am the only candidate in the Republican Primary who can do that. Please vote for me on May 3 and I will not let you down in November. I will beat Mark White, and if that's your priority, I'm your candidate. Thank you."

BY FRIENDS OF JACK LACKEY TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT FOUR (4)

The people in Precinct Four (4) can be proud of the man who has served them for the past twelve (12) years. During these years Jack has devoted full time to his responsibility as commissioner.

He has provided a strong conservative voice on the Commissioners Court. Jack believes in a days work for a days pay, and has set this example for those he employs. He is very much aware of the current financial crisis in our county, and feels that elected officials should be held accountable for their fiscal policies. Some people are not aware that the Commissioners Court is responsible for dispersing tax money in excess of 1.8 million dollars. Jack has voted to trim the "FAT" from the budget in the past.

Due to a reappraisal the county will lose approximately $70,000 dollars in taxes, and a cut in revenue sharing funds of approximately $140,000 dollars. It is essential that a financially responsible commissioner be in office at this time.

The "Baker Road" is an example of his concern for the people of Floyd County. Since it was constructed, this farm to market road has cost the taxpayers $8,000 to $10,000 dollars a year to maintain. Jack was instrumental in getting the State of Texas to assume this responsibility.

Through the years Jack has remained available to his constituents, and proved himself willing to assist them with their needs. He has done a good job for his precinct and the county. We urge you to re-elect Jack Lackey on May 3, 1986.
