THE HOOPLA is about over, and fans will be able to watch the actual 1984 Olympics this coming week.

This has to have been the most "pre-game" publicity ever seen for an Olympics--and you have to realize that the main reason is due to the fact that we're hosting the Games here on American soil, for the first time in over half a century.

It would be interesting if one could compare the amount of publicity the 1932 Olympics received with that of the current extravaganza in Los Angeles. Of course, there was no television coverage at that time--there was barely radio.

As sports fans are aware, it has been eight years since the United States competed in the Olympic events, after our boycott of the Moscow games.

For those who are keeping score, it appears that America and its allies kept more nations out of the Moscow games than the Russians were able to persuade to stay away from Los Angeles. At least, the number of nations entering is a record 141.

Being aware of how terrorists have ruined the Games at past events, officials have attempted to tighten the security as much as possible for the 1984 events.

And, speaking of security, that brings to mind Friona's tie-in with the 1984 Olympic Games. Donnie Lewellen, a local product, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lewellen, has been tapped as a helicopter pilot and will be working the Games from that angle. To our knowledge, this is as close a tie as the city has ever had with the Olympics.

IF YOU SEE Hollis Horton, you might want to ask him about the "Farm Safety Week" ad he almost ran in this week's issue.

Hollis joins us in reminding our farmer friends to be careful, this week and every week.

And there are certain things not recommended while a farmer is driving a tractor.

UNCLE AUSTIN ELLIS from Jackson, Tennessee says "If you have a job that has no aggravation... you have no job."

MICHAEL JORDAN

Jordan Is Manager Of Perry's

Michael Jordan has been named manager of Friona's Perry Bros. Inc. Store No. 122.

Jordan will replace Larry Hall, who resigned his position to pursue other interests.

The new manager comes to Friona from Brady, where he served as assistant manager of the Perry's store there. He is a native of Brady.

Jordan's previous experience included three years with Gibson's Discount Center in Brady, and a short stint in Austin as assistant manager of the Winn's Store. "I resigned that position because I didn't like the fast pace and traffic of a big town," Jordan says.

Jordan and his wife Patty are parents of a daughter, Jana, four, and a son, Michael Ray, one. They are living at Black. They are members of the Pentecostal Church.

TDA Official Expects To See Action

Texas Department of Agriculture officials say they are not sure yet what the TDA will do with the information it is gathering concerning the area's cotton damage, but it appears that something is bound to come out of the investigation.

Angela Lamb, TDA district supervisor, says there are three avenues which can be taken: "We can assist a farmer in any civil case that arises; we can file criminal charges and pull the license of whoever was responsible if we can prove they did it maliciously, or we can level an administrative fine."

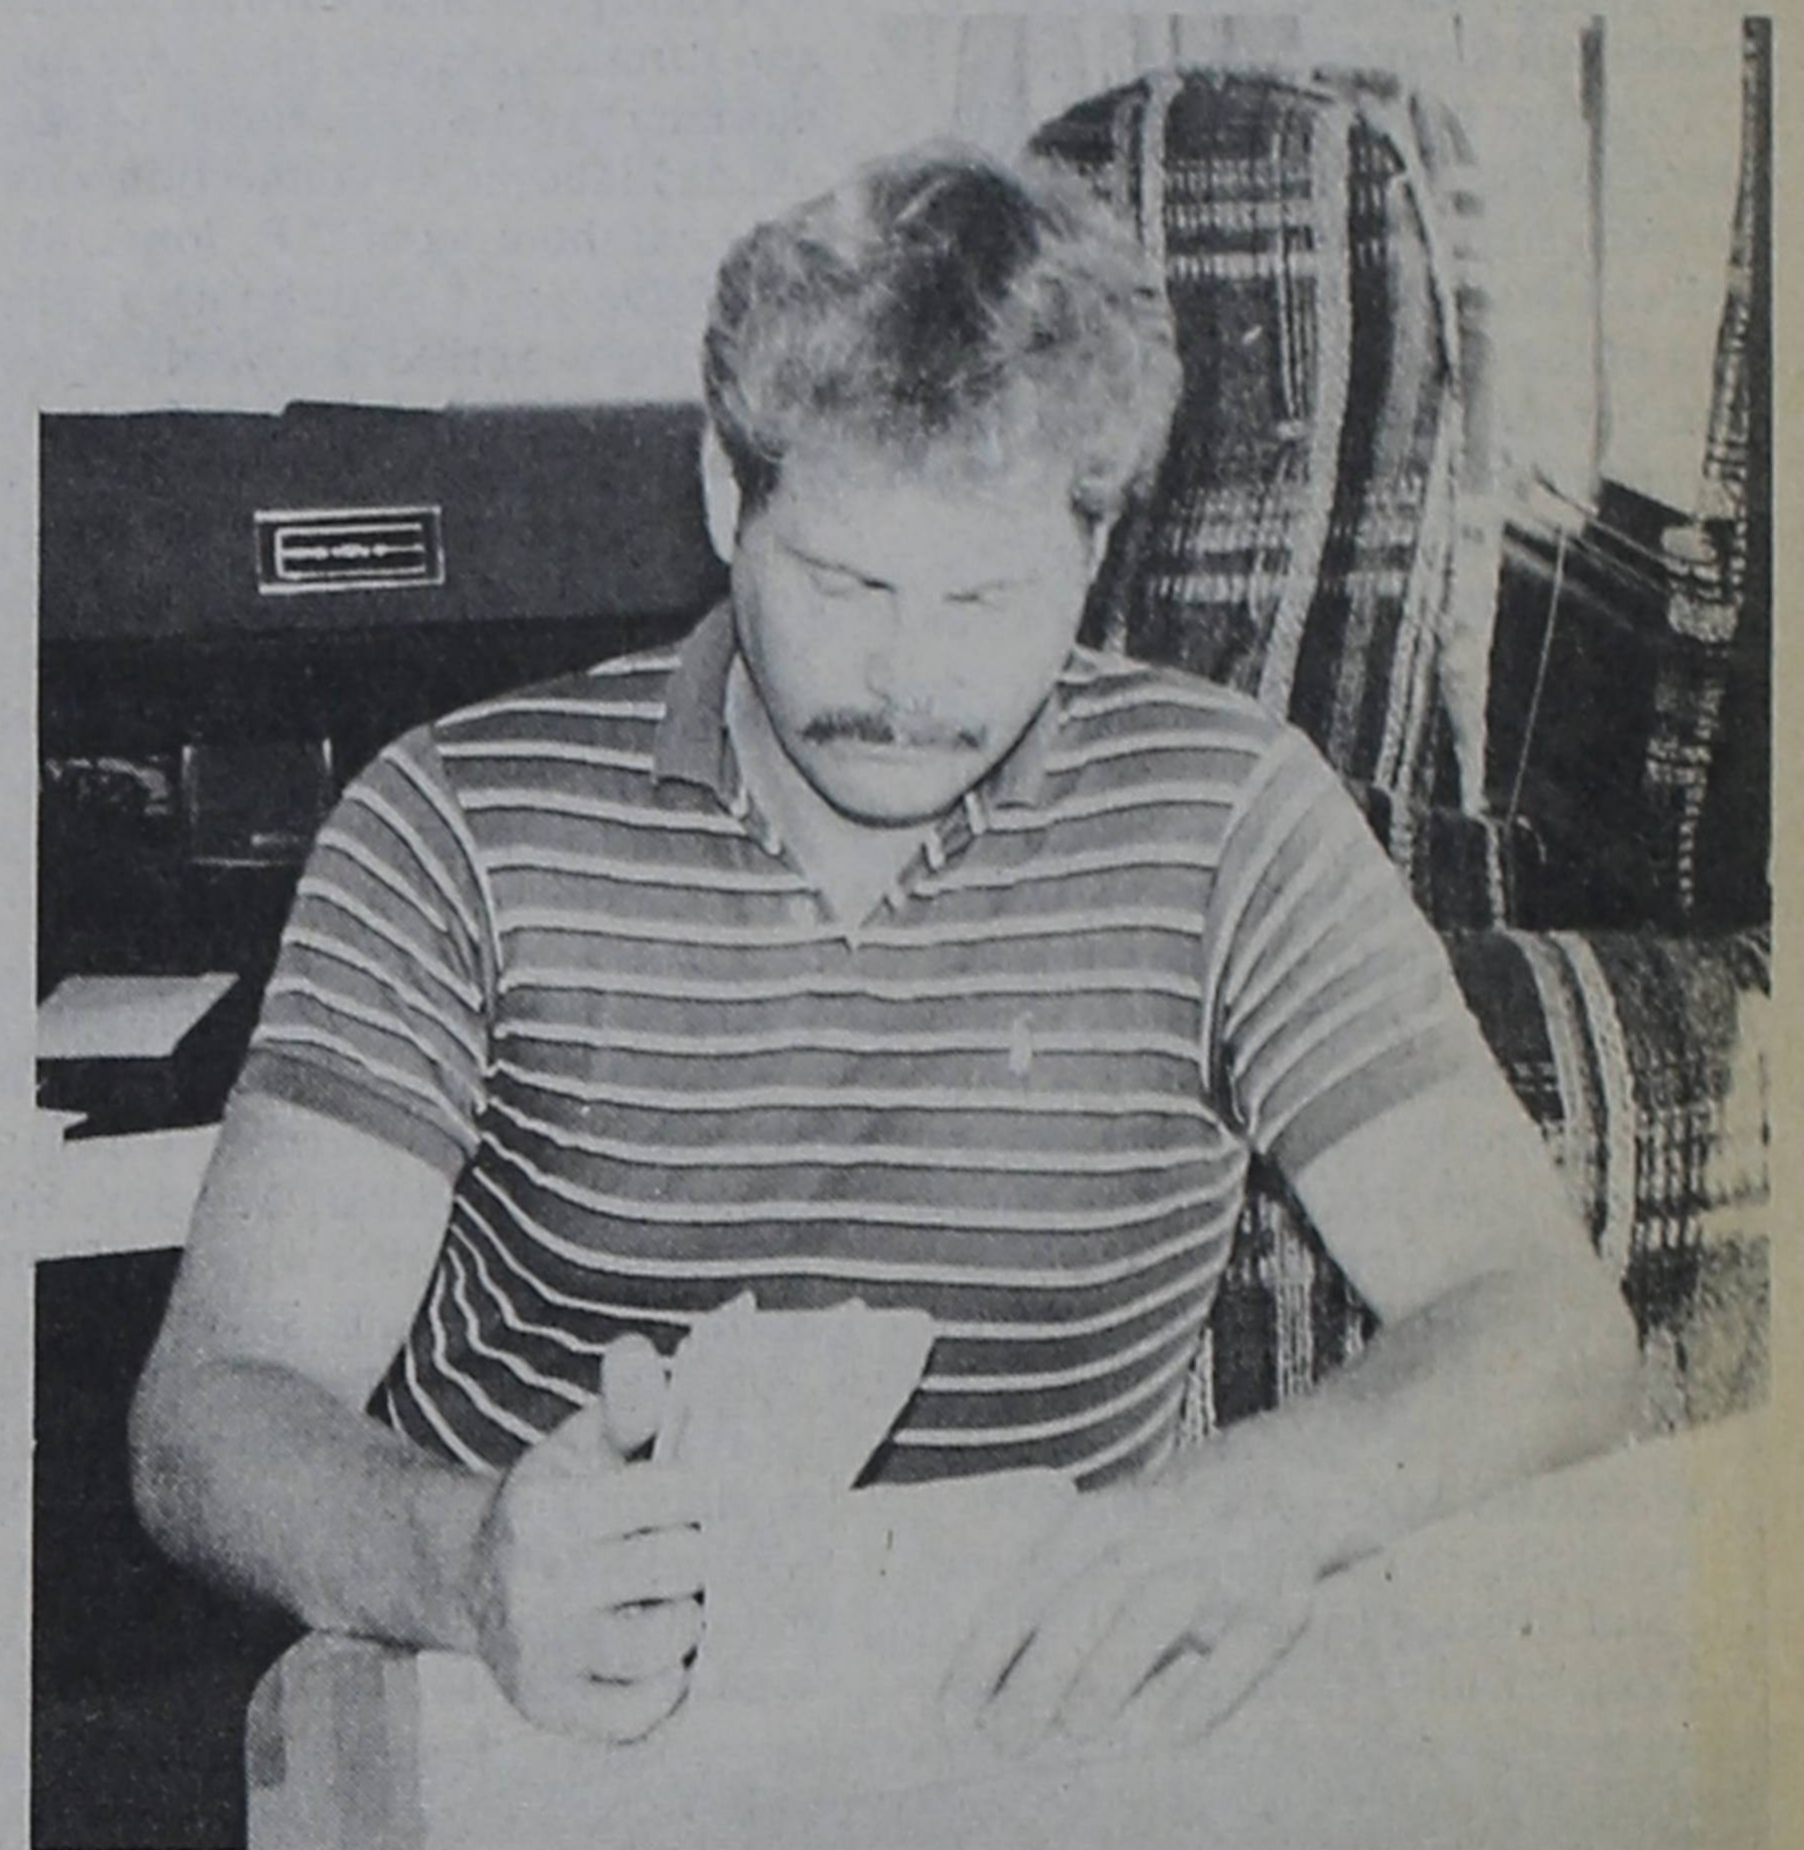

Mrs. Lamb said she felt virtually certain that some litigation will arise from the local 2,4-D incident.

"We do not file civil cases, but we can file criminal charges, and we can levy administrative fines or pull the licenses of applicators who may have broken regulations as set out by the state," Mrs. Lamb pointed out.

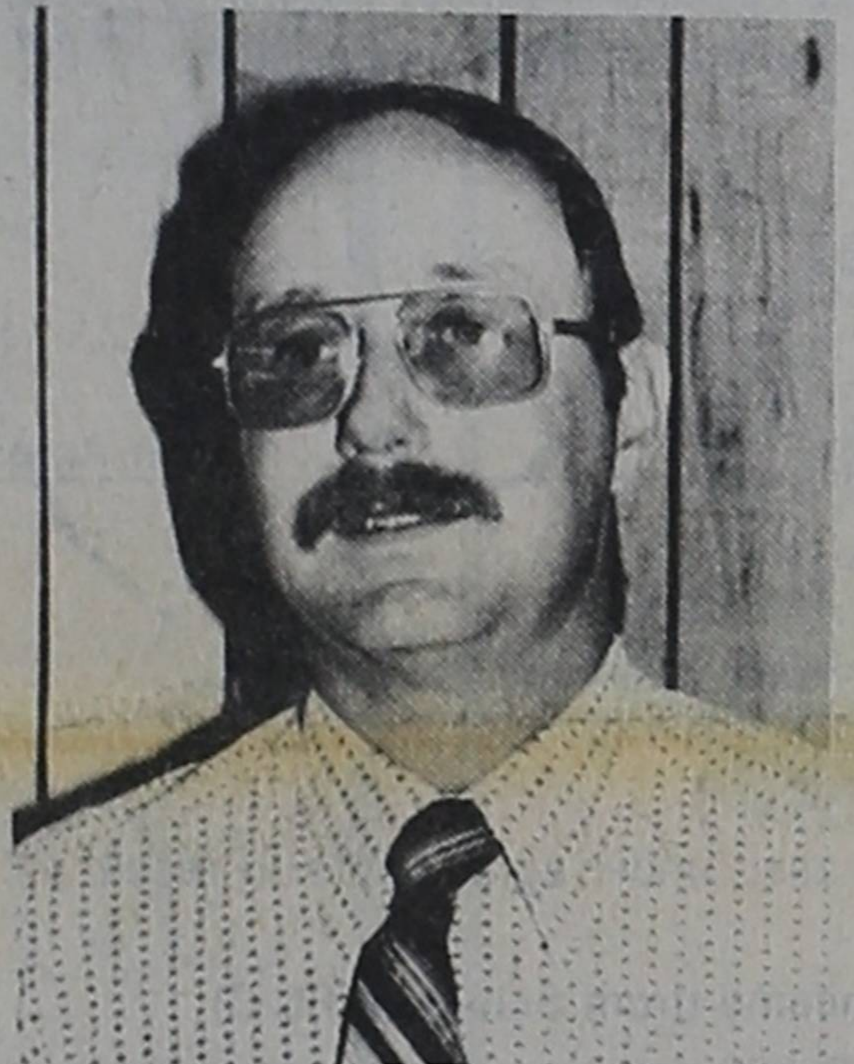

The head of field operations for the TDA, Dan Ruiz of Austin, was expected to be in Friona on Friday for a first-hand look at the situation.

OFFICE ESTABLISHED... Cliff Todd of Austin, TDA official, stands in front of the mobile office which was established in Friona this week to process the complaints of damage from 2,4-D to area cotton.

CHECKING LIST... Gary Henderson of El Paso is shown checking through the files of complaints which the Texas Agriculture Department representatives are checking, regarding 2,4-D damage to cotton. Eighty-five complaints had been received as of Thursday.

BILL THIEMAN

Police Chief Thieman In Resignation

Friona Chief of Police Bill Thieman has tendered his letter of resignation to City Manager Beele Goodwin, effective as of August 31, 1984, it was disclosed this week.

In a letter to the city manager, Thieman said in part: "As you are aware, in May, 1983, I inherited a department that was suffering severe internal problems and external problems with the community. These problems have not subsided to my satisfaction, nor have the conditions causing the problems been removed."

"On the positive side, I feel that my significant contribution to the department have included: development and introduction of a department manual addressing organizational guidelines, disciplinary process and field station operating procedures; introduction of a command board as a means of participative management, and an improved process for hiring of department personnel."

"Regarding our community image, I feel that it has improved and the projects of vacation house watch, fingerprinting of children and the powder puff firearms has gained public support for the department."

"The time with the Friona Police Department has been very challenging and intellectually rewarding. I have appreciated our candor in our discussions, and working for you as my city manager. However, my own goals have not been met and I feel it is time to step aside for the effort of others."

Goodwin said steps have been initiated toward selecting a new Chief of Police.

TDA Officials Continue With 2,4-D Investigation In Cotton

The Texas Department of Agriculture has continued its investigation of damage to the area's cotton crop from the chemical 2,4-D this week.

The TDA moved a mobile office into Friona on Tuesday, and the number of personnel involved has grown to 12 men working the fields, and two men in the office.

"We have had a total of 85 complaints as of Thursday morning. We are seeing a lot of damage, in various degrees," said Al Hernandez, an administrator for the enforcement section of the Agricultural Environment division, Texas Department of Agriculture.

The TDA employees who have been doing the investigative work have driven their vehicles to Friona from all over the state. Hernandez pointed out that the men need vehicles once they reach their work site, so it's just as simple to drive.

Men have come to Friona from Beaumont (two), San Angelo, San Antonio (two), Odessa, Giddings, El Paso, Austin, Mount Pleasant and Columbus.

The Parmer County Commissioner's Court this week responded to the problem by passing a resolution banning the use of all ester formulations of 2,4-D. This is the type of the weed killer which has been blamed for most of the damage to the area's cotton.

In their mobile office, the TDA workers have radio as well as telephone contact with their field workers. They have a local telephone number, 247-8034, by which they may be contacted by farmers.

They maintain radio contact with the field men, and this proves to be convenient as it sometimes saves trips out to the fields.

D.L. Carmichael, manager of the Friona Farmers Co-op Gin, said Thursday that more damaged cotton is continuing to show up in the area.

"Every time we get one of these little showers, it brings some 2,4-D damage with it," Carmichael says. "The older damage is not responding as well as we had hoped," the local ginner added.

He said that only one field, belonging to Junior Renner about three miles south of town, had bounced back and appeared to be recovering.

In the meantime, the U.S. Department of Agriculture has withdrawn all permits issued to local applicators for spraying 2,4-D in its various forms in the county.

"The Texas Department of Agriculture is concerned about the farmers. We want to try to help them all we can," Hernandez said.

Carmichael points out that the loss of cotton yields hurts the farmer not only for the year in question. "It will affect the farmer's projected yield figure which the government uses in figuring any government payment for a five-year period," Carmichael said.

The local ginner, who has also been a cotton farmer in this area for a number of years, says the current year's damage from 2,4-D is the worst he has ever seen. "I've seen cotton destroyed before, but it's usually been just individual patches, not thousands of acres."

Other gingers contacted have indicated their customers likewise have crop damage. Army Armstrong, manager of the Bruegel

Bros. Gin just beyond the southeastern edge of the county line, said several of the farmers in his area were affected.

Similar stories were related by Tommy Chapman of Elgin, JeDon Gallman of Farwell Gin, Ovid Lawlis of Bovina Gin, John Baca of West Hub Gin, and Marvin Payne of Hereford.

At mid-week, cotton officials estimated that somewhere in the neighborhood of 30,000 acres of cotton may be affected by the herbicide drift. Parmer County has approximately 70,000 acres, according to Martin Chandler of the County ASCS office.

Carmichael was host on Tuesday to a gathering at which most of the county's gingers attended. Also on hand were television newsmen Carl McMillen of KAMR-TV, Channel 4; and Steve Pritchett of KVII-TV, Channel 7, both of Amarillo.

The two TV stations carried taped interviews with gingers and farmers on their Tuesday evening newscasts concerning the herbicide damage.

Also coming to Friona to document the crop damage have been representatives of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, the Amarillo Globe-News, and the Dallas Morning News, whose reporter David Hanners was compiling an in-depth feature story for this Sunday's edition. Lubbock's Channel 13 was also here on Thursday.

Hernandez indicated that in addition to looking at the herbicide's effects to the area's cotton, he also would be doing some inspection of records of sales of the hormone-type herbicides. He was not at liberty to say what action, if any, might be brought against applicators of the suspected spray.

Harry Hamilton, whose 77-acre field of cotton northwest of Friona appears to be one of the hardest-hit in the area, points out that this year's damage came at the worst of all possible times.

"This makes four years in a row for me," Hamilton said, explaining that in prior years he had experienced a devastating hail, followed by seedling disease problems, and then a year where too much moisture affected the yield.

Danny Murphree, who farms close to Hamilton, said, "We think we've lost 50 per cent right now, but we don't know if we're through with the damage or not."

POWDER-PUFF COURSE... Chief of Police Bill Thieman is shown instructing Doris Sears in the use of firearms in the first of his "Powderpuff Firearms" courses. Other courses are to be offered for area women.

Field Day Slated Here August 1

An "On-Farm Irrigation Field Day" has been scheduled for Wednesday, August 1 at the Phillip Johnson farm located one mile west of Hub at the intersection of Highway 86 and FM 214 in Parmer County, Texas.

Duval Burton, District Conservationist with the Parmer County Soil Conservation Service, has made the arrangements for this field day. Duval indicates, "This is a new concept in field days compared to those field days we have all attended in the past. We have planned six different demonstrations, but unlike traditional field tours, area producers are welcome to come see all the demonstrations, spend some time at each one, or just come by and visit the demonstrations that they are particularly interested in."

The irrigation field day will be set up from 9 a.m. until approximately 3 p.m. The planned demonstrations include: 1) Leon New, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station Area Irrigation Engineer, will demonstrate the Low Energy Precision Application (LEPA) center pivot sprinkler; 2) Phillip Johnson, farmer and secretary of the Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District Board, and Jerry Walker, Area Agricultural Engineer with the Soil Conservation Service, will demonstrate a surge irrigation system; 3) Jerry Funck, Agricultural Engineer with the High Plains Water District, will perform a pump-plant energy efficiency test including both pump and motor efficiency testing; 4) Soil Conservation Service personnel will display and discuss their use of the mini mobile field water conservation laboratory; 5) Drip irrigation will be discussed as it is used on irrigating windbreak trees; and 6) The use of gypsum blocks and resistance meters used to read the blocks will be demonstrated. Drip irrigation equipment, gypsum blocks and resistance meters are all available through the Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District.

"Soil Conservation Service, Parmer County Extension Service, Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District and High Plains Water District personnel will be on hand during the entire day to answer individual questions and provide actual hands-on demonstration of these new irrigation management techniques," states Burton. "Area irrigators are invited to come by at their convenience any time from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. for a personalized tour of any and all of the demonstrations arranged for this field day."

Around The House

By LAURA JACOBS
 About one quarter of all household water use can be traced to the kitchen and laundry room, says Parmer County Extension home economist Laura Jacobs. But with just a few adjustments, families can cut the amount of water they use for cooking and washing dishes, she adds.

Here are some of the water-saving suggestions:

Cut down on the number of utensils used in preparing meals and on the plates and glassware used with the meals themselves. Plan more one-dish meals in which vegetables are cooked or baked in little or no added water and save nutrients too.

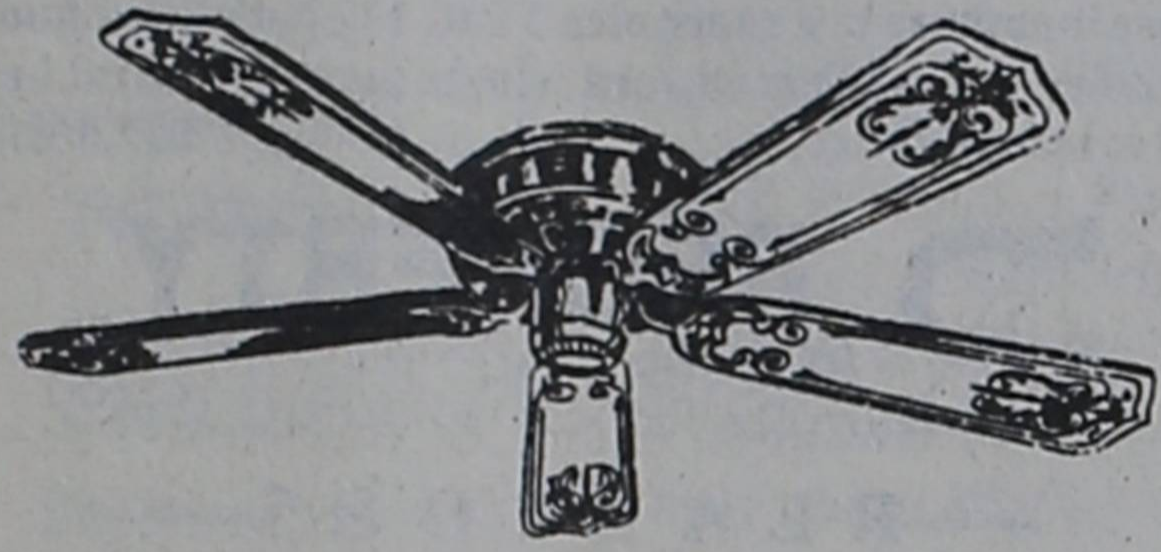

Because a kitchen faucet can deliver five gallons of water a minute, find ways to avoid running water. For example, use a pan of water to wash fruits and vegetables instead of doing it under the tap. If you wash dishes by hand, use a dish pan and rinse all the dishes at once rather than a few at a time.

Find ways to make double use of water. Ideally, the liquid from cooking vegetables and other foods should be used again as stock for soups or broth. But even if you don't intend to use it for cooking, don't throw it away. Cooking liquids can be used to soak baked-on food off of cookware before washing.

Washing dishes by hand requires anywhere from 8 to 20 gallons of water. A dishwasher typically uses between 12 and 16 gallons of water, so the dishwasher should not automatically be considered a water waster. However, a dishwasher uses the same amount of water whether it is completely full or only partially full, so it pays to wait until the dishwasher is loaded to capacity.

Most of the newer models of dishwashers are designed to make pre-rinsing unnecessary. Many automatic dishwasher owners use their appliance more as a sanitizer than an actual dishwasher because they essentially wash their dishes before loading them into the machine. Pre-rinsing is often a habit begun when they used earlier model machines without the same cleaning capabilities.

Bronco All-Stars In Run Of Bad Luck

The Friona All-Star team ran into trouble in their game against Muleshoe Friday, July 20. The local team was hoping for a victory against the team that had beat them by only a single run earlier in the tournament. A victory by the Friona team would have caused a playoff game on Saturday, whereas a loss by Friona would give Muleshoe the first place honors.

The Friona All-Star team got bogged down in the first inning when they allowed Muleshoe to score eight runs before they were able to get the side out.

The local team did not score any runs of their own before they took the field again.

Friona did not allow Muleshoe to score in the second but only picked up one run of their own, making the score 8-1.

The local team never really got untracked and played up to their full potential but finally began pulling a rally together in the fourth inning. They scored ten more runs in the remainder of the game and only allowed Muleshoe five but it was not quite enough to overcome the opponent.

The eight runs the Muleshoe team scored in the first inning of play proved to be the difference in the game.

Muleshoe took the victory, 13-11, to advance to the regional tournament in Amarillo, and Friona had to settle for second place.

Andre Duran was the leading scorer for Friona with four runs credited to him, and Rafael Torres scored three, including a home run hit over the fence in the fifth inning. Hector Perez scored two runs, followed by Steven Smith and Pat Upton with one each.

Andre Duran was Friona pitcher.

GINNERS CONFAB... Several area gingers were present in Friona on Tuesday to discuss the herbicide drift damage to the area's cotton. In the front are Army Armstrong (Bruegel Bros. Gin) and Tommy Chapman (Elgin). Standing (l-r) are Marvin Payne of Hereford and D.L. Carmichael, Friona Farmers Co-op Gin.

Eye Safety Emphasized During Safety Week

Everyday farm chores that can result in sudden, blinding accidents can usually be circumvented simply by wearing goggles, the Texas Society to Prevent Blindness (TSPB) notes in connection with Farm Safety Week, July 25-31.

Working with agricultural chemicals, particularly anhydrous ammonia fertilizers, is dangerous and always necessitates wearing goggles, TSPB Eye Safety chairman Bobby Williams said.

"Ammonia is so dangerous because it penetrates the eye virtually on contact, and total blindness can result as soon as in 10 to 15 seconds," Williams added.

"In the event such an accident occurs, the eye should be flushed with water for at least 15 minutes," he said, "and then medical help should be sought at once."

Under no circumstances should ointments or salves be used, since they tend to seal ammonia into the eye and might only increase the damage, Williams continued.

Wearing goggles and taking other common sense precautions can also prevent blindness that could be caused by other farm accidents, such as a strand snapping when stretching barbed wire, he said.

To acquaint the public with the dangers in using anhydrous ammonia, TSPB has a 16-minute movie, "For The Rest Of Your Life," which it will loan without charge to interested groups.

The movie and informational pamphlets, including "Blinding Facts About Eye Safety On The Farm," are available by contacting the TSPB at P.O. Box 13400, Houston, Tx. 77019, or at 713-526-2559.

TSPB is an affiliate of the National Society to Prevent Blindness. The parent organization, established in 1908, is the oldest voluntary health agency nationally engaged in preventing blindness through service programs, education and research.

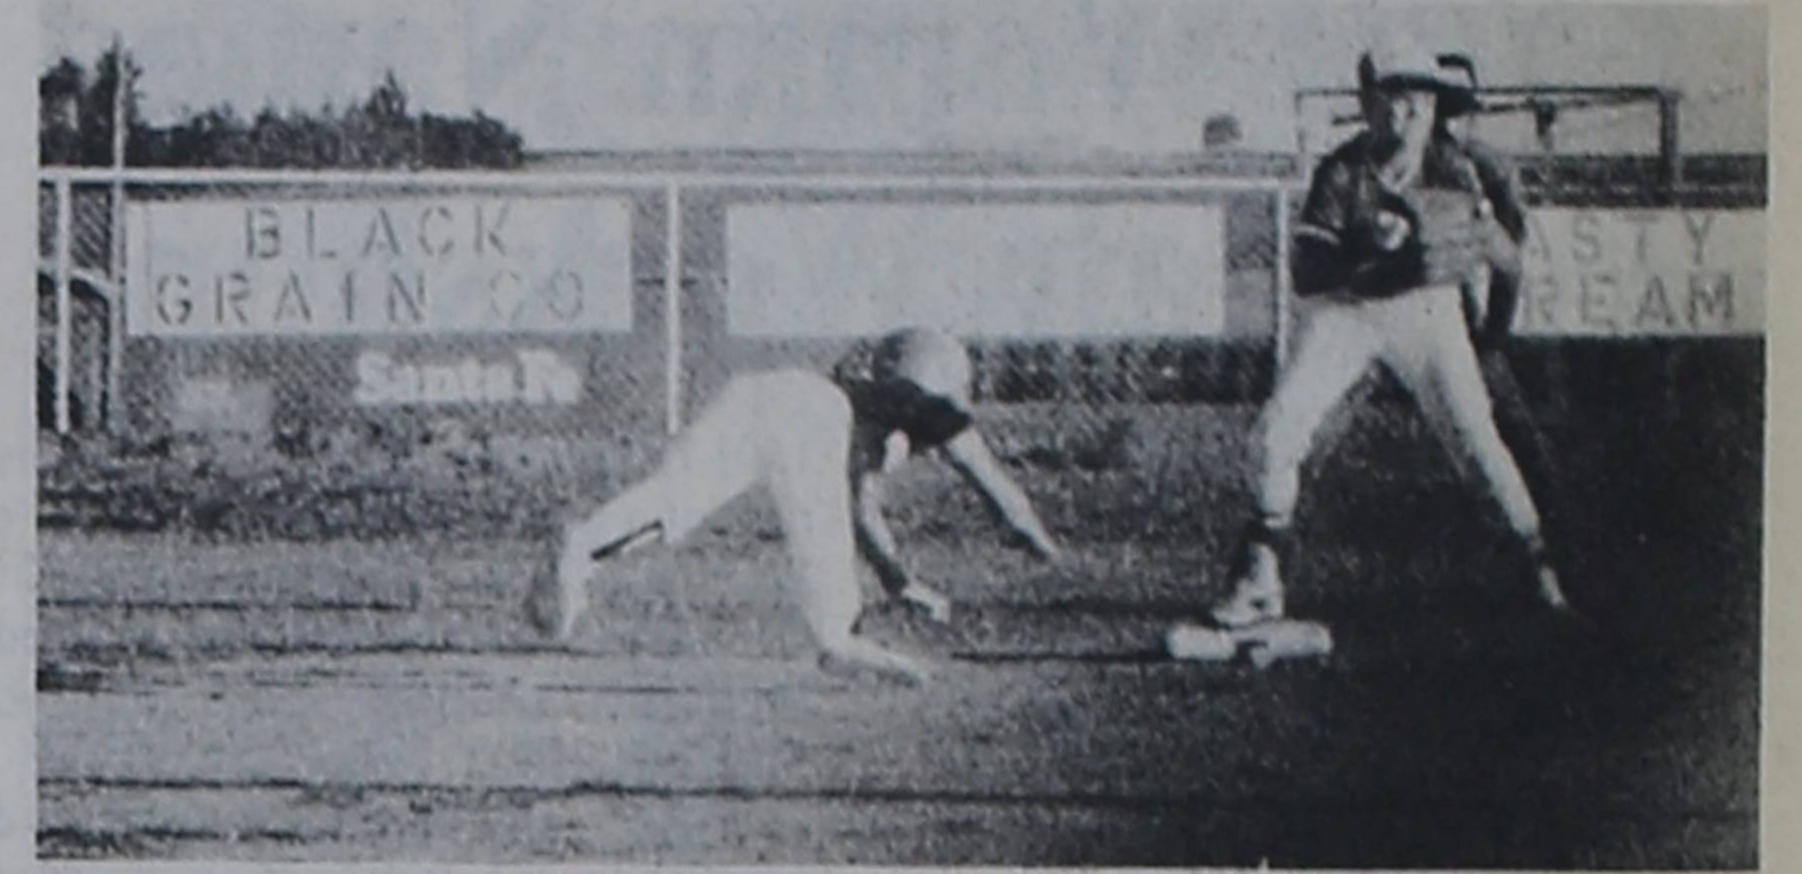

Swim Lessons Are Offered

A final session of swimming lessons has been arranged at Friona's Municipal Swimming Pool, for those who have missed out on previous sessions, it was announced this week.

The sessions will run two weeks, from Monday, July 30 through August 10, Monday through Friday each week.

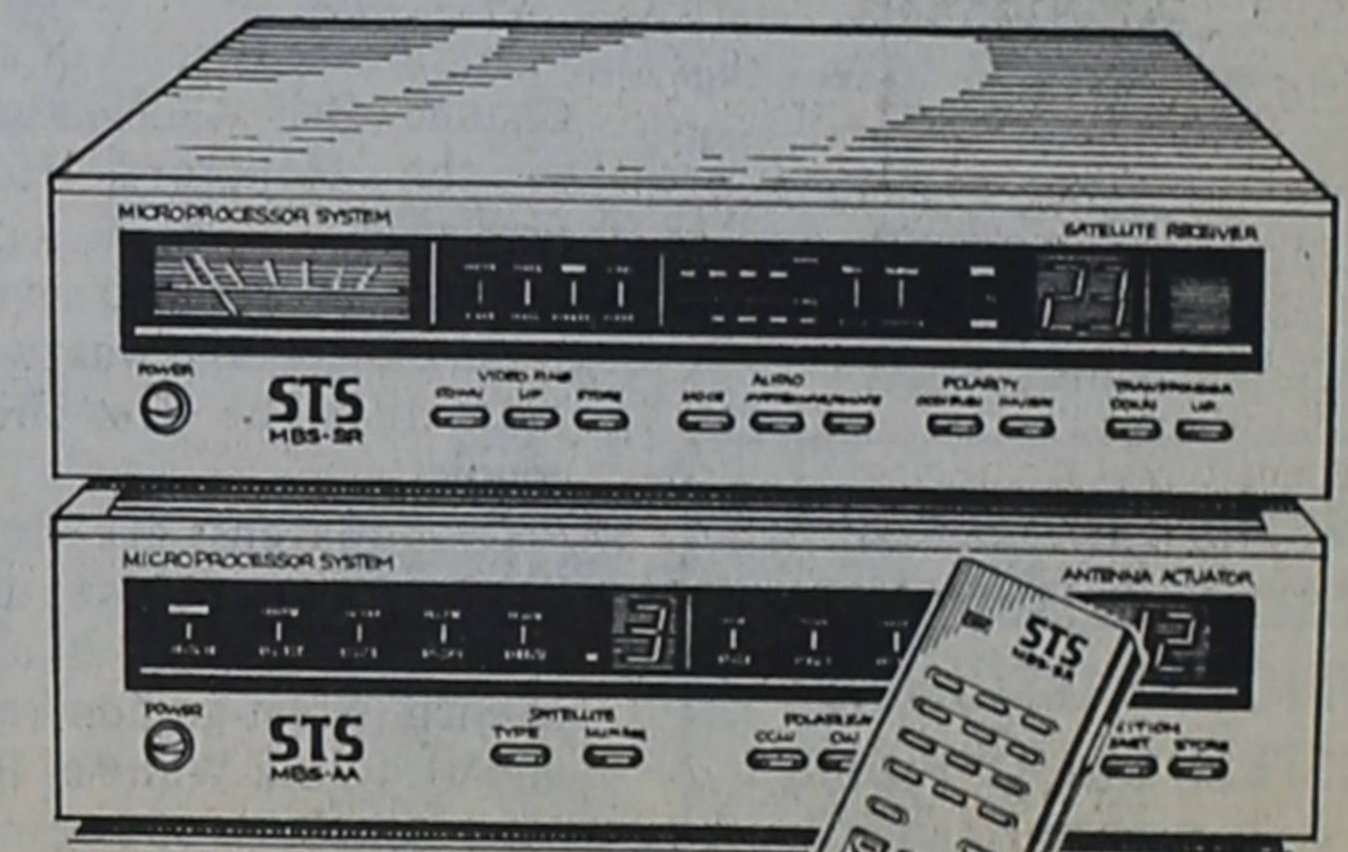

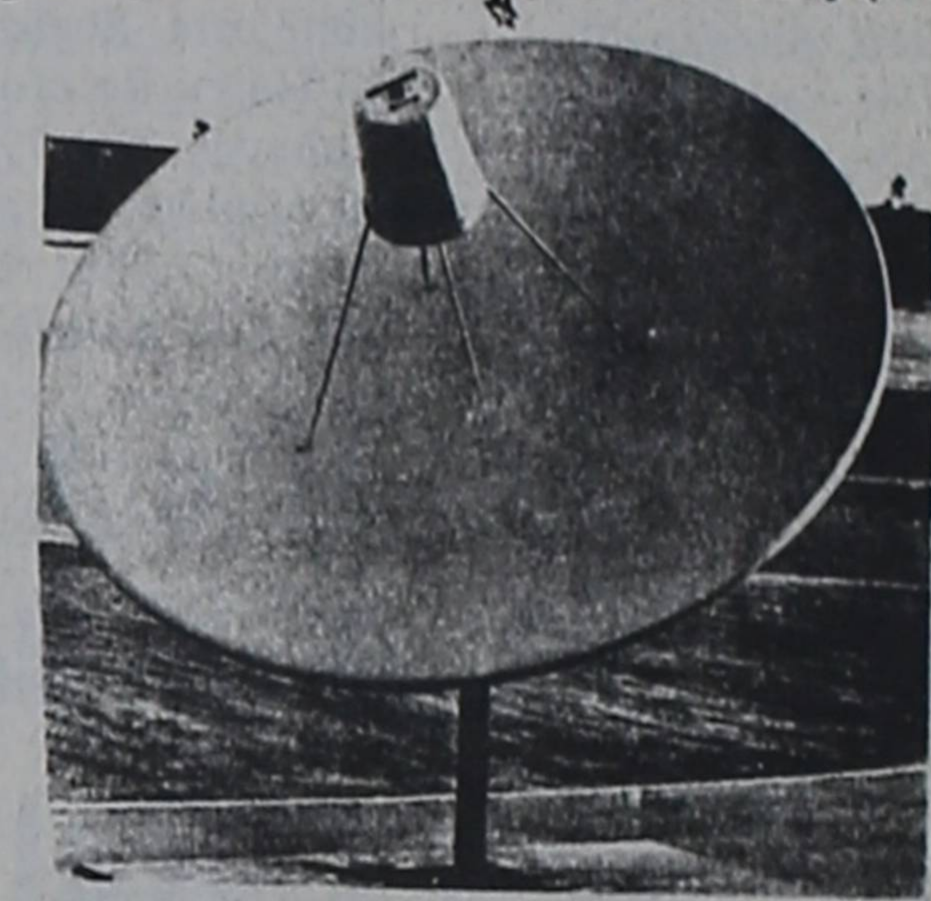

Classes will be held for beginners from 11 a.m. to 12 noon, and for advanced beginners from 12 noon to 1 p.m. Cost of the lessons is $30 per child.

Those wishing to register for the classes are urged to call Myrna Baize, manager, at 247-2101 to get their name on the list.

CLOSE PLAY... The unidentified Muleshoe base runner was safe at second on a play back to Steven Smith, Friona's second-base man. Muleshoe held on for the 13-11 playoff win, eliminating Friona.

QUALITY EYEGLASSES or DISCOUNT PRICES?

Is there really a difference in "QUALITY" eyeglasses and the "discount" eyeglasses advertised on TV and in the newspapers?

YES, of course! Just as there is a BIG difference in an automobile tire costing $20.00 or less and the one which cost about $100.00 or more. The difference is there.

How is this possible? Here are some of the ways this is accomplished:

1. Your Optometrist will see that your Rx is filled accurately. Many places that sell eyeglasses maintain a supply of "ready made" lenses already ground to the most frequently called for specifications. It is quicker and cheaper to provide lenses directly out of stock than to grind them to the patient's specific specifications. Your Optometrist does not carry or use "stock" ready-made lenses.

2. Your Optometrist will use only the finest quality lenses obtainable for he knows the importance of this to his patients. Bargain operators often supply inferior foreign-made lenses or rejects from American factories.

3. It is most important that the optical center of the lenses be placed in the exact proper place in every Rx. When this is not done properly it can cause headaches, dizziness, and other symptoms for the patient even when acuity is good.

4. Cheap inferior quality frames lose their shape and will not stay adjusted properly causing many visual problems for the patient.

5. All glasses require adjustment of some kind from time to time. Most Optometrists provide this service for their patients at no additional fee.

Short-cut eye examinations and cheap eyeglasses advertised at ridiculously low prices can be tempting, but too often we have seen the misfortune that comes from assuming that all glasses are the same. Good visual care doesn't cost...it pays!

This message is brought to you in the interest of better vision by Drs. Armistead & Smith, Optometrists, Littlefield, Texas.

Local Woman Named To Chair Workshop

Donna Echols of Friona will serve as chairwoman of a one-day workshop scheduled in Lubbock on August 18, designed to prepare more women to enter public policy arenas.

The meeting is sponsored by the United Methodist Women of the Northwest Texas Conference.

The program will be held at St. John's United Methodist Church, 1501 University in Lubbock, and is part of a nationwide emphasis of the Women's Division, General Board of Global Ministries of the United Methodist Church, according to Mrs. Echols.

"This UMW emphasis and workshop is a response to the fact that only ten per cent of all elected officials are women, although women make up 53 per cent of the population," Mrs. Echols says.

The local spokesman says that before women can expect to be represented more proportionately in public office, two things must happen: (1) the pool of potential candidates must be increased significantly; and (2) support systems must be developed, tapping those women who do not want to enter public leadership but can choose to support women candidates with their time, money, skills and services.

Registration fee for the workshop is $25.00, which includes lunch and child care. Registrations may be sent to Helen Releford, 1415 Ave. M., Lubbock, Tx., 79401. Officials would like to have forms and checks in by August 1, but registrations will be accepted through August 11.

Thirteen Girls Enter Pageant

The Friona Chamber of Commerce announced on Thursday that thirteen girls have entered the Miss Friona Maize Queen pageant, to be held on Saturday, September 15.

Those who have entered the pageant are: Leslee Upton, Sarita Ellis, Robin Houlette, Sharlene Parr, Stephanie Miller, Melanie Gallman, Rachel Bermea, Sonia Lafuente, Tammy Chapman, Tammy Harguess, Nikki Osborn, Shannel Woodard and Dana Berend.

Pageant directors issued a reminder that they need forms on file for all entrants at the Chamber of Commerce office.

A cookout and talent rehearsal is scheduled for Tuesday, August 14. Letters will be mailed shortly to all girls entered in the pageant, explaining the activities on August 14, said a member of the pageant committee.

The pageant entry fee will be the same as last year, $35.00 per contestant. Any business, organization or individual wishing to sponsor a girl in the pageant is asked to contact the chamber office.

Town Talk

By June Floyd

Call 247-3681 With Your News Item

Things have been noticeably quiet at the home of Ance and Ione Renner for several days. These two had their oldest daughter, Kathy Lynn, who teaches at Iraan, Texas, and granddaughter, Paige Watkins of San Antonio, for a long visit.

Paige is the daughter of Dr. Tom and Amy Sue Renner Watkins. She enjoys visiting her grandparents and travelling with her aunt, so she must have had a nice vacation.

The departure of little Lexie Elmore Tuesday of last week kind of left a quiet space at the home of her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W.V. Elmore, too.

The Elmores took Lexie, who had been visiting them about one month, to Comanche, Texas, where they spent the night in the home of Dale and Dolores Elmore Spivey.

Lexie's parents, Tim and Debbie Elmore, who live at Jefferson, Texas, were also guests in the Spivey home, and she returned home with them.

Little Joel Van Valkenburg of Englewood, Colorado, who is two, has a brand new baby sister. She was born Tuesday in a Denver hospital and was named Sara Elizabeth.

Joel's and Sara's maternal grandmother, Edith Johnson of Friona, drove to the Mile High City Friday and plans to stay long enough to get acquainted with the little newcomer, whose parents are Dave and Kay.

Loy and Vuthill had a real special treat recently. All three of their sons, with their spouses and most of the grandchildren, met the Loafmans at Ruidoso for a few fun filled days.

Numan, the youngest of the three, and his wife, Cynthia, and their three children, Jennifer, Brook and John, came up from Fort Worth. Don, the oldest, and his wife, the former Janice Wright, and their son, Wade, live in Plainview and Bill, the middle one, and his wife, Maxine, and their daughter, Terri, live here.

Others present were Stephen Miller and Kelly Smith, both of Arlington, Texas.

Nearly 80 persons attended a Harrison family get together at Friendship House on July 4. Hosts for the event were Mrs. Vela Harrison Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Noyle Wood, all of Friona, and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Wood, Sundown, Texas.

Honored guests were family members from Mississippi, Arkansas and Oklahoma.

Special guests were Mrs. Bernice Simpson of Wellington, Texas, mother-in-law of Walter Harrison; Mrs. Gerry Taylor and Lora Mae McFarland of Friona. Mrs. Taylor is the mother-in-law of Ronnie Wood of Pampa.

Other family members attended from Lubbock, Sudan, Muleshoe, Pampa, White Deer and Amarillo in Texas and Clovis and Forrest, New Mexico.

Ramey Beene, who has been living in Corpus Christi several years, returned home early this week after spending a few days visiting his mother, Decima Beene; brother, Jay, and his wife, Sue, and son Brent, and other Friona folks.

Decima is making satisfactory recovery following surgery in High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo about ten days or two weeks ago.

Fairrie Parker had a real fun long weekend. Out-of-town visitors in her home were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bellows of Ector, Texas; Betty Walker of Midland; Darrell and Patricia Graham of Garland; and Ronnie Bellows, who also lives in Garland.

Jack Bellows is Fairrie's brother and Patricia Graham, Ronnie Bellows and Betty Walker are her nieces and nephews. They also visited in the Earl Drake home.

Thursday evening the visitors were accompanied to Palo Duro Canyon for the performance of "Texas" by Mrs. Parker and her daughter, Marlene Drake.

Darrell and Patricia also visited in the home of his brother, Sterling, and his wife, Joy, who live west of town. Darrell lived here at one time a number of years ago.

"I was surprised how quick the variety was ready to graze."

"In fact, some of my neighbors tried to rent my pasture when they saw how much better established it was than others all around us."

Pioneer® variety 2157 gets off to a fast start, quickly establishing the kind of healthy, vigorous growing stand so necessary for good pasture. Its upright growth habit helps provide maximum available grazing.

And because 2157 has proven to be such a good yielder, you can count on it to deliver top-quality wheat at season's end. If pasture is part of your wheat program, new 2157 should be, too.

New Wheat Variety 2157

Superior Yield • Excellent Standability • Outstanding Grazing

"When I pulled my combine into the field, I knew for sure this wasn't an ordinary wheat crop."

"That 2157 was standing out there good and straight. And when I moved down the rows, I could hear the cylinders running full."

Farmers who've seen this impressive new high yielding variety like its standability and tolerance to dry growing periods and severe weather. It has excellent resistance to leaf rust, stem rust, fungal leaf blights, soil borne mosaic virus and the Hessian fly.

In side-by-side comparisons, Pioneer® brand 2157 wheat has consistently out-yielded other popular varieties. And it has shown consistently high test weights.

Local Officers Meet YHA State President

On Thursday, July 19, the 1984-85 officers of the local chapter of Young Homemakers of America met in the home of Daphne Cunningham. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss plans for the coming year.

Chapter president, Daphne Cunningham, surprised the other officers with a special guest, Debbie Annen, State Young Homemaker of America President. She was very helpful in giving new ideas for the upcoming year. She explained the details of the Area Meeting which will be held in Plainview on August 25. She also encouraged everyone to attend the State Convention in Austin. The officers enjoyed the chance to get to know Debbie and look forward to seeing her again.

Those present at the meeting were Cindy King, Paula Clark, Holly Campbell, Sherri Rector, Vickie Florez, Varla Wilcox and Daphne Cunningham.

This will be a special year in YHA because it is the 20th anniversary of the Friona chapter. The local members are attempting to locate scrapbooks for the past years. If anyone knows the whereabouts of any of these books, please contact Daphne Cunningham at 247-2140 or Paula Clark at 247-3764.

Anyone interested in being a member of the Friona chapter can contact any of the officers listed above for details.

Charlotte Roberts of Houston and Mike Boyette of Eagle Lake, Texas.

Rev. Jerry A. Smith performed the double ring ceremony before an arched arrangement of brass candelabra with ivory satin bows. Two triple candelabras and baskets of wheat, apricot roses and baby's breath flanked each side of the altar. The country setting was completed with pew markers of wheat with ivory bows.

Musical selections were presented by Jill Wright, pianist, and Dortha Duerson, organist. Shannon Fulgham of Hartley, Texas, sang "Up Where You Belong," and "The Lord's Prayer." A duet, "Almost Paradise," was sung by Shannon and Jill as Leslee Upton, cousin of the bride, lit the candles.

After repeating their vows, the groom sang "What A Difference You Have Made In My Life" to the bride.

Escorted to the altar by her father, and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a gown of off-white cotton eyelet which was made by her mother. The gown featured a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, puffed sleeves and a full skirt which extended into a chapel length train.

She wore a wreath of baby's breath in her hair and carried an old fashioned bouquet of eucalyptus, sonia roses, statis, and wheat with streamers of coral ribbon and raffia.

For something old, the bride placed a penny her mother had used in her own wedding, inside her shoe. Her dress was new. She borrowed her slip and she wore an ivory garter with blue trim.

Rhonda Greeson, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. Deborah Gibson of Copeland, Kansas, was the bridesmaid.

Their dresses were made of off-white with miniature coral print fabric and were styled similar to the bride's gown. They carried a long stemmed sonia rose with wheat, baby's breath and coral ribbon.

Todd Greeson of Sublette was the best man. Greg Greeson, brother of the bride, was the usher. The groom and his attendants wore Wrangler jeans, off-white western shirts and boots.

The bride's cousins, Loren Osborn of Amarillo, and Wade Greeson of Moscow, Kansas, were the flower girl and ring bearer. She wore an off-white pinafore with eyelet ruffle trim over a mid-calf length dress. She carried a wicker basket of baby's breath, statis and wheat with apricot ribbon trim. Her headpiece matched the one worn by the bride.

The ring bearer carried a pillow of off-white muslin which had been candlewicked by the bride and trimmed with eyelet, lace and ivory ribbon.

A reception was held in the fireside room of the church following the ceremony.

The ivory wedding cake was decorated with sonia roses, peach carnations and baby's breath. It was served by Deanne Herring of Amarillo and Judy Wilson of Salina, Kansas. Vanny Greeson of Sublette, served the punch.

Reception hostesses were Ruth Muse, Karen Jury, Faye Gibson, Laura Reineke, JoAnn Lopez and Shirley McClafin. They were assisted by Stormi Upton and Brandy Ray. Ronda Yaksich and Canna Ray passed out the wheat bags. They are all cousins of the bride. Gwen Greeson, aunt of the bride, was the wedding coordinator.

Following a trip to Red River, New Mexico, the couple will live in Eagle Lake, Texas, where the groom and his father own and operate Rice Aero, Inc.

Pre-nuptial courtesies for the couple included a get-acquainted family dinner on Friday night and a luncheon buffet which preceded the afternoon wedding.
