Texas Have Rangeside Position

At Greatest Show on Earth

Last week we took a "look in" on Republican pols, on the national level. At the time we were unaware of the accelerating activity within the Democratic camp.

First, let us comment once more on developments on the state level, Texas that is. And we believe there are five contenders who would challenge the assertion that this year will be a"clean sweep" for the only Democrat in Texas; no Republican nominations can pull over a handful of votes in Texas politics this year.

So - we confirm comments to the Shivers, Daniel, Shepard, Yarbrough, Ramsey and Jimmie Phillips party.

When Allen Shivers will do is anybody's guess, but his chances of securing a fourth term, however, have been enhanced by a development that has developed from a number of episodes, any one of which might have been enough to sink Shivers politically. The aggregate of which seems to be enough for even the most magnanimous of present-day politicians.

Here enters Mr. Ralph Yarbrough into the picture. It seems like a very nice man, a very good fellow and we think, therefore, it would be most fitting to recount the development of this oft-nominated past of Mr. Daniel on the U. S. Senate floor. He would have little prep­aration, with one very visible exception. The other - it might be well to throw hit into the ring against him.

Think of the fun of the chairmanship of comics, with Allan vs. Ralph for Senate with an alliance with Jimmie Phillips and the fund for governor.

Anything can and will happen in Texas political circles.

Next installment: Democrats on the national level, next week.

The Star is most careful with its editorial comment, drawing a head and definite line between editorials, news, advertising.

Evaluating with that effect we may not much materialize comments as even, deleting from them any that the contributing editor is voting his talents with "out at gunpoint" or with even undue attentiveness for advertising.

Why?

Married think of no better example than the recent mountings of Drew Pearson in his attempt to portray "the US. Trust and Guaranty." He urged one and all to demand an investigation of this firm, an organization evidently shaky even in the eyes of Mr. Pearson's pledges.

See what we mean?

Editorial comment in The Star will continue with the national community, and welfare, with no assist from organizational or advertisers, with no anticipation of your predica­ tion, and our own integrity.

More on Russia - Congressman Rogers

Price Daniel. He is a worthy Texas; his capa­bilities are proven; he knows government; he has proved that number of old fashioned, traditional-quality temperament tempered with modern political acumen, that he is what he appears to be.

Chevrolet offers 6 sprightly new Station Wagons—all with Body by Fisher—including two new 9-passenger models!

These Chevrolet station wagons can knock down and work as hard as you like—and they've got the cargo space to prove it. Nearly 8 feet of it with the end gate down. But they're far from what you'd much rather take off for a good time—and they're not power out performance to prove that. A snappy, exciting kind of power that adds fun to safer going! Come in and drive one soon!

But by itself, it doesn't explain the sudden increase in the number of people who seem to be stepping into the upper circle of fine cars.

As a result, we can tell you why very simply.
