GREATEST YEAR FOR MEAT SEEN BY BOARD HEAD

Chicago, Sept. 23.—Meat consumption per person in the United States this year promises to equal or even surpass the record here of 1918 which stands out as the highest mark since the establishment of Federal Meat Inspection in 1907, according to a statement by D. A. Millet, newly elected chairman of the National Live Stock and Meat Board.

In his statement made public today following the annual meeting here of the National Board, Mr. Millet said that government estimates now available for the first four months of this year shows an upward trend over the corresponding four months of last year. In 1923 the figures for these months were 35.5 lbs., while this year they were 36.7 lbs. He pointed out that the high mark was reached in 1908 when the per capita consumption for the entire year was 170.9 lbs. A sharp decline followed for several years due to steadily increasing population coupled with abnormal conditions incident to the world war. However, he called attention to the fact that 1923 resulted in a pronounced advance with a per capita consumption for the entire year of 167.0 lbs. This figure set a record for the past fifteen years, or those years following 1908 and indicated, in his opinion, that the American people had definitely turned to a larger use of meat in the diet.

"The remarkable health and vitality of our nation together with the per capita meat consumption figures are significant facts to be seriously considered," said the Board's chairman. "We are known as one of the greatest meat eating nations and our health and energy are unsurpassed."

THIS BROTHER MIGHT COME TO TEXAS

Camden, Ark., does not claim the honor of having the largest Klan in the realm of Arkansas, but it does claim the distinction of being the proud possessor of the hottest Anti-Klaner in the entire South. He is an attorney.

This bird is so hot up over the Klan that he removed the hood off his automobile. He gave all the night gowns on the place to the washer woman. He is so violent against hoods that he removed all the slips from his pillows. He has posted a sign forbidding robes in the bath room. He is backing a law striking the letter "K" from the alphabet. Another law he wants passed is to make it a felony for three or more persons to sing the song, K-K-Katy, Beautiful K-K-Katy."

This chap is so rank again the Klan that he wants all Coo Coo clocks destroyed and all the setting hens gaged to keep them from klucking.—Ex.

Why Automobiles Deteriorate

A factory machine is attached to a solid floor, which nearly prevents vibration. Yet it is constantly being adjusted and lubricated. Hence it wears for many years.

An automobile is constantly bumped over rough roads. Yet in spite of this terrible strain, the average car gets much less attention than the factory machine. Hence it depreciates much faster.

THE SECOND ALL WEST TEXAS EXHIBIT

The first All-West-Texas exhibit is now being shown at the International Fair at El Paso, in charge of B. M. Whitaker, exhibit manager. A large number of persons are seeing this exhibit, and especially visitors and tourists from other states passing through the Gate City. While this is the first exhibit we have shown in El Paso, we are very well pleased indeed with the exhibit.

The second All-West Texas Exhibit will be placed on display at the Texas State Exposition, Austin, Oct. 6-11, 1924, and also will be in charge of B. M. Whitaker, exhibit manager. We showed last year at Austin, so this will be our second year at the capital city. The Austin Fair is growing into one of the best fairs in the state. It is our invasion of South-Central Texas.

The next place we will show after Austin will be the East Texas Cotton Palace, Athens; following that at the Texas Cotton Palace, Waco, and following that at the South Texas Fair at Beaumont.

Indications at this hour are that approximately 20 West Texas counties will have individual county exhibits at the State Fair, Dallas, Oct. 11-26, 1924. The sixth annual banquet tendered by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to West Texas Exhibitors at the State Fair will be arranged for this year as usual.

Miss Gladys Hall left Monday to attend the West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon, the coming term.

Mr. Floyd Fry has accepted a position with Collins Dry Goods Co., Mr. Fry came here from San Antonio, and we welcome him to our city.

Miss Lillian Williams left Monday morning for Plainview, where she enters Wayland College for the coming term.

Mrs. Homer Stark of Seagraves, and Mrs. McMahan, of Lamesa, are here visiting their aunt, Mrs. Albert Quinn and family.

N. W. Jeter renewed for his Herald one day recently. Said he couldn't do without it.

Mrs. J. O. Brown, who has been visiting her sons, T. C. and N. E. Brown at Post City, returned Monday.

Mrs. C. M. Boone of the Pride community, was in Brownfield Monday and Tuesday, shopping.

Elder T. P. Burk filled the pulpit at the Church of Christ at Gomez on Sunday morning and night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Newberry were in town this week.

Brownfield is fast becoming a city of home owners. This makes a happy, prosperous citizenship.

TRAINING VOICES IS ALSO FOR TELEPHONE GIRLS

Young women in other work are able to bid for favor in a variety of ways, but the telephone operator must depend upon her voice says the Texas Public Service Bureau. In the school for training of operators conducted by the telephone companies, tone, enunciation and voice placement are subjects of greatest importance.

Many telephone operators read much aloud at home to develop flexibility of their voices. She knows that her voice tones must be as carefully selected as the color of her frock—that her enunciation must be watched as painstakingly as the cut and style of her costume.

Telephone instruments have been perfected to the extent that talking over the telephone is not difficult even for the untrained voice. But the professional operator must have the best possible training both for efficiency in operation and for the effect of her voice on the persons talked with over the phone.

Odd Materials Used by Birds to Build Nests

When the material which a bird ordinarily uses for building its nest is lacking it will adapt anything handy to its purpose, with results that are sometimes distinctly odd. Some years ago a telephone subscriber at Simla, India, ringing up for a required number, was answered from four different offices at once.

What had happened was this: a crow had built its nest at the central office, where four wires converged, and used the clippings and bits of wire for the purpose, with the result that it established complete electrical communication between all four lines.

Equally odd was the performance of a cormorant. It may be remembered that some years ago H. M. S. Sybille was wrecked off Lambert's bay on the southwest coast of Africa. A party of ship's officers went to visit the wreck in the following spring, and found that in the lookout on the mast-head a cormorant had built a nest in which were five eggs. The nest was made of odds and ends of steel wire and rope from the rigging of the wreck, and was lined with seaweed. Nest and eggs were taken, and are now in a museum.

Art of Diamond Cutting Originated in France

The art of diamond cutting dates from the end of the Fifteenth century. Formerly diamonds were set in their natural state, after having been cleaned, or else were cut in a very rude and imperfect manner. But in 1546 a young gentleman of Bruges, named Louis van Berghem, by rubbing a couple of diamonds together, observed that they attrited and polished their surfaces reciprocally, and that the artificial facets thus formed acquired an extraordinary splendor. This observation was the starting point of the diamond cutting and polishing industry, which was almost exclusively localized in Amsterdam, the Detroit News remarks.

It is recorded that Berghem made the first trial of his improved mode of cutting in 1575 on three large rough stones which were confided to his care by Charles the Bold, duke of Burgundy. The new industry was greatly encouraged by Cardinal Mazarin, who caused the diamonds in the French crown to be recut, whence they obtained the name of the twelve Mazarins.

Makes Music in the Sky

One of the queerest orchestras in the world plays music up in the sky. The players are members of a flock of pigeons carrying various kinds of light air whistles attached to their tails by fine wires. Flocks of the birds flying through the air provide a unique and melodious aerial concert, says Popular Science Monthly. The originators of this unusual idea are the Chinese. The musical instruments used are of two different types—bamboo tubes and gourds with tubes attached. They are made to whistle by the rapid passage of the bird through the air.

How to Get Better Milk Prices

Now is the time to feed a real milk producing ration.

By raising the average of your winter milk deliveries with Cow Chow during the winter months you can expect better prices, and more milk accepted in the spring and summer.

The dairy farmer who brings in twenty gallons a day in the winter and then tries to deliver 40 gallons in the summer, gets the regular price for only 20 gallons, and the surplus price for the other twenty.

The dairy farmer who has a big fall and winter production establishes a high average for himself and gets a good price in the spring and summer on grass for as much milk as he made last fall.

Cow Chow now means more winter milk and more summer income.

The lower government report on cotton Tuesday caught a lot of cotton gamblers short, and in rushing to cover sent the fleecy staple up 185 points.

We still say we believe in our County Commissioners, no matter their opinion of what they saw on their trip. We believe they will make a good road east, and that shortly.

Cotton is now rolling out of Brownfield, and the dollars we have been sending out for food, clothing and feed are rolling back. The balance of trade will be in our favor for awhile.

Grand old Texas' 1923 divorce record was one for each seven marriage knots that were tied. The large cities and towns is what gives us such a bad record, many of them, like Tarrant, Dallas, Harris and Bexar, showing from a half to one-third as many divorces as marriage. The record for Terry was almost 20 to 1.

While the Herald believes in boosting all the time, winter or summer, yet our endeavor to get new people should be hedged with the precaution of getting the highest type of citizenship possible. Our main effort ought to be directed toward securing the farmer and business man, as the shiftless and transient will naturally follow these classes to fill any needs that may be demanded for day laborers without solicitation. While not all laborers are lawless; far from it, but the law breaker drifts in with prosperity in the guise of laborers.

Last Sunday the editor and his family had a most enjoyable visit up at the home of Mr. Otis Preedy, a few miles out on the Brownfield road. Mr. Preedy has a nice place and a good farm. He has a splendid crop on his farm this year. He says he would not give the crop, maize, corn and cotton that is on it now, for the whole farm.—Seagraves Progress

Why trade or value his farm below the value of the present crop? If it produced well this year, will it not do so again? Won't it produce another bumper crop of maize, corn and cotton? We are inclined to think

Mr. Preedy was joking, although he produced stuff of equal or greater value than his land is now worth on it this year.

HAYNES MAKES BOW TO SEAGRAVES READERS

In assuming the ownership of the newspaper in Seagraves we just wish to say to the good people of this territory that we are glad to have the opportunity of locating among you and expect to give you the best newspaper service possible. It has been our life's work. It will be impossible to take personal charge of the paper until after this week's issue.

We have purchased new equipment for the plant and will spare no expense to enable us to turn out a newsy paper and first class job printing at all time.

Mr. Bachman has published you a fine paper since he established the Progress something like eighteen months ago, and we are sure his many friends will regret to see him retire from the journalistic field.

The new editor wishes him well in his future undertakings.

After the first of October the name of the paper will be changed to the Seagraves Signal succeeding the Seagraves Progress.

Mr. Bauchman will be in charge this week and next. Please bear with us until we can make the necessary arrangements to move on the field.

Seagraves, according to our prediction, has a great future and the whole of Gaines County is destined to grow by leaps and bounds. The South Plains is a wonderful country, and people from other sections of the United States are learning about opportunities that exist here.

We want to meet you and get acquainted and will expect you to assist us in making your newspaper one of the best weeklies in this section of the state. After this week we expect to meet every business man in town.

Yours for a bigger and better Seagraves

TEXAS FARM LABOR UNION QUILTS PRODUCE BUSINESS

Dallas, Sept. 11.—The Texas Farm Labor Union, which incorporated and opened business in Dallas last spring under the firm name Producers Market Company, capitalized at $35,000, closed its doors Saturday of last week, convinced that further operation in fruit and vegetables and poultry and eggs would only mean further losses. The business started off with a flourish and simmered down to mere nothing. Its late quarters were occupied by the Jobbers Supply Company, fruits and vegetables, on Monday.—Produce Packer.

IS THE DOUBLE SOCIAL STANDARD RIGHT?

In considering the tragedies that have occurred in Plainview and Amarillo recently, we often wonder how men and women, to, for that matter, can complacently regard the "double standard" which makes it possible for the development of the triangle which has, and is proving to be fatal in many Texas towns.

In Childress on September 6th, Mrs. Clara Maddux shot and killed Mrs. Annabelle Barker, a young divorcee of Elk City, Okla. It was said that Maddux had not been home for the past two months, and that his wife, who is the mother of two children, followed him to Elk City, and there learned that he had gone to Amarillo. She went to Amarillo where she purchased a revolver and not finding the pair in that city, learned that they were in Childress. She went to the later city and upon arriving in the town, went from the depot to the Nave Hotel where she saw her husband standing by the curb reading and the pretty divorcee seated in the front seat of her husband's car. Without saying a word she opened fire, both shots taking effect, the first entering into the brain of the Elk City divorcee, the next one entering the body near the region of the heart, either bullet would have proved fatal. After the shots were fired the husband wrenched the revolver from his wife's hand, and she surrendered to Childress officers.

A man, if he be of polished manner and good address, even though he has no moral standing, is admitted to the best homes. A woman, if her sin become public property is cast out or ostracized by society. Are the men to blame? Is he more at fault than the woman? The passive agreement of society to a double standard for a man is a relic of the heathen days of polygamous practice that our much vaunted civilization and modern influence have failed to erase from the primitive character of the male brute. These relationships are but cancerous growths and can only lead to disaster. In the murder that happened at Childress last week, was the wife justified in her action? It was a case of outraged wifehood and outraged motherhood, and she meted out summary justice.—Canadian Record.

"THERE IS NO GOOD BEST and BEST"

when you are talking about the abstract of title to a piece of property. In other words, an abstract with ONE ERROR—ONE OMISSION that leads you to pay money for property under the supposition that the title is clear, when in fact it is clouded or bad—that one omission makes the abstract just as false, just as worthless, as though there were a dozen mistakes in it.

There is only one kind of an abstract that is good—that is the kind that is complete and perfect in accuracy.

You want that kind, and we make no other kind. In this business we are specialists—devote our entire energy and brain power to this one thing, and own the most complete and accurate records for promoting the efficiency of our work. Come in and we will explain the service in detail.

MAGNOLIA CO. TO DO OWN BROADCASTING

On October 1, 1924, at 8 P. M. the Magnolia Petroleum Company at Beaumont, Texas, will radio-cast its first program over its new 500 watt station KFDM (Kall for Dependable Magnolene).

The Dallas Fair officials last year invited the Refinery band to play during the Fair. The organization was immediately a claimed one of the best that had ever played at the fair. The Dallas News and Journal at once invited the band to radio-cast over its station WFAA. The invitation was accepted and a few minutes after the concert started, thousands of telegrams poured in from all over the United States and Canada, complimenting Dr. Cloud, the Director and the band members on the wonderful music they were making. Then came by mail more than six thousand communications commending the band. Among the number were some from very prominent musicians.

The Magnolia Band consists of 35 pieces. Every member of the band is a regular employee of the Magnolia refinery at Beaumont, Texas.

A very interesting feature of the program will be the rendition of "Magnolia Triumphal March," just composed by Dr. Cloud, composer of "Magnolia Blossom," which made such a hit last year at the Dallas Fair.

Don't forget the Terry County fair Sept. 27.

The Tipton Orphans Home, supported by the Church of Christ, until recently known as the Canadian Orphans Home, was moved to their new $125,000 home at Tipton, Okla., and we clipped the following from a recent issue of the home paper which is known as the Tipton Orphans Home:

"The following excerpt was clipped from a recent issue of the Canadian Record and contains such a bit of the milk of human kindness that I want you to read it and feel the impulses of the heart grow warmer. Mr. Hubbard is a worthy member of the Baptist Church and he is my friend.—W. L. S., Supt."

"Directly across from the writer's home some few weeks ago, in the old Canadian Academy where many dozen children comprising the Canadian Orphans Home. They had been cared for there, some three years and the familiar sight of children on the old campus, their merry songs and happy laughter, had so often drifted down in the days and evenings upon our ear, and human voices lent enchantment to the surroundings.

With the long, long clothes line on wash day, flitting full of the garments to clothe the children of various needs. We ponder often of children thus cared for, and of all the needs, then our mind would turn to the private homes all over our land containing children, supplied with every luxury. Thus time rolls on.

One evening in mid-June a strange commotion of happy shouting came floating down across our way; darkness had spread its blanket and we could see nothing. The next evening darkness again spread its blanket but no songs rang out through the halls of the old academy, no electric lights shown from the windows and the darkness, oh, how dark it was, and how still.

It was not necessary for one to climb and inscribe on the old sign the whereabouts of those children. A flaming epitaph could not stronger proclaim what the eternal silence was saying—G-o-o-d. Now the old building is as mute as the sphinx of Egypt. "Strange we never miss the sweet music till the sweet bird has flown." Our prayer is, that those children still sing and are happy.—Canadian Record.

DIES Y SEIS DE SEPT. FITTINGLY OBSERVED

The Mexican population of this community were in a gala celebration Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 15th and 16th, the later date being Independence Day in Mexico.

A big dance was held just north of the R. B. Thurston farm each night. Speeches were delivered in characteristic lingo and style; music and singing prevailed the atmosphere, and the holiday continued throughout the entire daylight and night hours of the two days.

Many visitors were in attendance from points in New Mexico, Balmorhea, Fort Stockton and Pecos; and a large crowd was in town Tuesday afternoon to witness the concluding daylight part of the program in a most pretentious parade through town, and a number of our people accepting invitations to witness the big baile and final festivities Tuesday night.

We observe our holidays, take our vacations and knock off from work on the slightest provocation. Why should not the Mexicans take their own two days off and enjoy them to the fullest? The celebration was orderly in every respect, and they dance in a manner that might set a good example for the citizens of the other color.—Ward County News.

IDLE WIVES CLUB

Mrs. W. H. Dallas was hostess to the Idle Wives Club on Tuesday afternoon, from four to six, Sept. 22.

A very delightful afternoon was spent in playing 42.

At the close of the afternoon the hostess served an elaborate salad and ice course to the following club members and guests: Mmes. Bell, Shelton, McGowan, King, A. M. and A. R. Brownfield, May, Lemmon, Endersen, Copeland, Sawyer, Scofield, McKinney, McDonald, Snodgrass, Stricklin, Allen, Griffin and Renfro.

Mrs. Dallas gave four pieces of beautiful hand-painted china as prizes. Mrs. Shelton drew high and Mrs. A. M. Brownfield low and received the club prizes. Mmes. Renfro and Endersen received the guest prizes for high and low respectively.—Reporter.

M. E. Jones, hustling barber at the Sanitary Shop, is having a six room bungalow constructed in the southeast section of the city. Brownfield is fast becoming a city of home owners which is the right way to build a city beautiful.

John Scudday Sr. has purchased the Wiley Bridges place adjoining the city on the north, and moved in from his Tokio ranch this week.

TOKIO TALKS

By Reporter.

Cotton picking is now under headway out here. We understand that the gin will be ready to run by Saturday or Monday. We know the farmers will be pleased as well as the gin hands.

Presiding Elder Robinson was here and preached at the 11 o'clock hour Sunday morning.

Several of the Johnson people were over here Sunday afternoon and had a real singing. Next Sunday the Tokio people will try to go to Johnson and have some more good singing.

Mr. J. T. Pippin left Monday with his daughter, Myrtle Pippin, and Miss Bessie Day for Canyon, where the girls will attend school this winter.

Mr. George Lane left Saturday for Canyon where he will attend school this winter.

Rev. James Pippin preached at Johnson school house Sunday night.

Mr. John Day and Grady Casey made a business trip to Lubbock on Monday.

Miss Ethel Cargill visited her sister at Brownfield, last week.

Bob Lovelace and wife were visiting here Sunday.

Mr. Bryson returned from Abilene last week, and reports that his wife was doing nicely. We hope to see her at home soon.

CHALLIS BUDGET

Cotton Farmer.

Cotton picking has begun over here. Mr. Rollow, of Ada, Okla., who owns several farms around Challis, was here a few weeks ago. He seems to be well pleased with the prospects for cotton.

Myrtle and Tom Price have been visiting over near Jayton the past week.

C. F. Lander, of Lovington, N. M., is visiting Mr. O'Neal this week.

Messrs. T. H. Price and Howze were over at Lubbock last week having some dental work done.

Mr. and Mrs. Tongate were in Brownfield, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Neal and children, have returned from Ranger, Texas, where they sure saw it rain.

It ran the cisterns over down there, but they came back happy to be in old Terry county again, where good drinking water is free.

Virgil Price is boarding in Meadow and attending school.

We are sorry that Challis is not taking the interest in the county fair that we would like to see. We still have the prize money we received last year to be spent for the benefit of our school as the patrons see fit.

Mr. Bill Stockton's little son was bitten by a rattlesnake, and we understand he is in bad condition.

Lola Fortenberry is visiting near Throckmorton.

Herbert O'Neal has left for the Canyon Normal school.

Mrs. Greathouse was called to the bedside of her brother in the hospital at Amarillo, who has a very bad case of pneumonia.

Grandpa Howell has returned to the home of his son, Jess Howell.

TEXAS SHOWS GAIN IN USE OF ELECTRICITY

According to figures just made public by the United States Geological Survey, Texas produced five million kilowatt hours more electricity in July than in June. Most of this was produced by the use of fuels. Water power accounted for 616,000 kilowatt hours while fuels produced 95,317,000 kilowatt hours.

Fuels used in Texas during the month of July for the production of electricity included 853,418 thousand feet (cubic) of natural gas and 235,510 barrels of fuel oil. California used more of both these fuels than Texas, but with that single exception Texas leads all other states.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lovelace visited relatives at Tokio, Sunday.

Dr. H. C. Stephens, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Winters, and prominent Sunday School lecturer and worker, held a Sunday School Institute at the Baptist church last week and delivered several good talks. Dr. Stephens is a brother to Mrs. Dr. Copeland of this city, and made his home with this family while here.

The many friends of Judge O. W. Gillespie will regret to learn that he returned to Fort Worth Monday to make his home again. It was not because he did not like Brownfield or the people here, or that he was not enjoying a good law practice, but it seems the altitude rather high for him and besides he has a nice home and a good law practice in Fort Worth already established. Judge Gillespie made a host of warm friends while here, whose love and good wishes go with him to Fort Worth.

Miss Larue Sawyer, who is attending school in Lubbock, visited home folks here during the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Johnson, J. C. Green and family, Carl Price, Mr. Rush, Rev. Ball and family, Mr. Currier, W. W. Price, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, Mr. Coe and family, J. S. Smith and family, and their visitors, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Dennison of Jacksboro, went to Union Sunday afternoon and attended the ordination of Messrs. Johnson and Christie.

Mr. Paul McDermott is the new proprietor of the Cozy Cafe and Market. See his ad elsewhere, and remember he gives unsurpassed service to patrons.

Presiding Elder E. E. Robinson, of Lubbock District, was here Sunday and delivered an interesting discourse at the Methodist church at the evening hour.

Mrs. Tom Glover has been visiting relatives in Brownwood for a month. She returned home Monday, her husband, Tom, going to Lubbock to meet her.

H. R. Winston, Mesdames Simon Holgate and J. W. Welch, also Robt. Welch, of Meadow, carried Jim Burnett to Lubbock Sunday, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Lubbock Sanitarium. He was reported as doing well the last report said coming from his bedside, and we hope to see Jim's smiling face on our streets again in a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Hull returned last week from a visit to relatives at Hermleigh and Snyder.

Mrs. Robert Welch, of Meadow, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. J. W. Welch, this week.

A. A. Sawyer, local financier, is having a couple of rent cottages constructed in the eastern part of town. They are neat, and can readily be rented.

The Brownfield School Board received bids Tuesday of this week for care of the funds for one year. The Brownfield State Bank was the successful bidder.

Mitchel Newton has returned to Brownfield and accepted a position in the Sanitary Barber Shop.

Mrs. A. B. Bynum visited her daughters, Mesdames L. L. Cobb and F. Stark at Seminole, last week.

Seamon & Co., local distributors of the Chevrolet car, has leased the building now being erected at the O. K. Wagon yard, for storage of his cars. Mr. Love will move his repair business in the building, also, we understand.

John Dennis and family have returned from a short visit to relatives in Sweetwater.

Mrs. J. L. Randal left Monday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Percy Spencer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hardin and daughter, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Chisholm and daughter, attended church at Meadow Sunday night. Also A. J. Stricklin and family, accompanied by Mrs. M. P. Bragg and Miss Irene Ditto.

Editor A. C. White, of Meadow, was a visitor in the county capitol Friday, and paid the Herald a short call.

Miss Lillie Jones spent the week end with home folks near Gomez.

MADE ODD BEQUESTS AND GAVE REASONS

Canadian Exposed Peculiar Traits of Relatives.

Rt. Hon. Austen Chamberlain received recently from an Ontario correspondent a copy of the will of Dr. William Dunlop, who was an assistant army surgeon in the War of 1812, in the Eighty-ninth British regiment. It is said the will is registered at Goderich, and is dated at Montreal, 1847. As a legal document it seems to stand in a class by itself. The main portions follow:

I, William Dunlop, of Blairbraid, in the Township of Colborne, County and district of Huron, Western Canada, Esquire, being in sound health and body, and my mind just as usual (which my friends who flatter me say is no great shakes at the best of times), do make this my last Will and Testament as follows, revoking, of course, all former Wills.

I leave the property of Blairbraid and all other landed property I may be possessed of to my sisters Helen Boyle Story and Elizabeth Boyle Dunlop, the former because she is married to a Minister whom she henpecks—the latter because she is married to nobody nor is she like to be, for she is an old maid and not marketable, and also I leave to them, and their heirs, my share of the stock and implements on the farm, provided always that the enclosure round my brother's grave be reserved, and if either should die without issue, then the other to inherit the whole.

I leave to my sister-in-law, Louisa Dunlop, all my share of the household furniture and such traps with the exceptions hereinafter mentioned.

I leave my silver tankard to the eldest son of Old John as the representative of the family, but he would melt it down to make temperance medals and that would be sacrilege—however, I leave my big horn snuff box to him—he can only make temperance horn spoons of that.

I leave my sister Jenny my Bible, the property formerly of my great-grandmother, Bethia Hamilton of Wood Hall, and when she knows as much of the spirit of it as she does of the letter, she will be another guise Christian than she is.

I also leave my late brother's watch to my brother Sandy, exhorting him at the same time to give up Whiggery, radicalism and all other sins that do most easily beset him.

I leave my brother Alan my big snuff box, as I am informed he is rather a decent Christian with a jolly face.

I leave Parson Chevasse (Maggie's husband) the snuff box I got from the Sarnia Militia, as a small token of my gratitude for the services he has done the family in taking a sister that no man of taste would have taken.

I leave John Caddle a silver teapot to the end that he may drink tea therefrom to comfort him under the affliction of a slatternly wife.

I leave my books to my brother Andrew, because he has been so long a Jungley Wallah that he may learn to read with them.

I give my silver cup with a sovereign in it, to my sister, Janet Graham Dunlop because she is an old maid, and pious, and also my gramma's snuff mill, as it looks decent to see an old woman taking snuff.

Urgent Need

Edwin had been strangely fidgety all the evening. Usually he was content to sit for hours and hours in the twilight, holding his loved one, Edwardina, by the hand and dreaming dreams of the sweet by-and-by. Several times he glanced at his watch and at last—at least two hours before his accustomed time, he rose to take his departure.
"So soon, Edwin, dear?" she sighed. "Must you really go?"
"I must, darling," he answered. "Though I would sacrifice ten years of my life to stay one more short hour with you."

"But why, dear," she begged—"why have you got to go so early tonight?"
"Because, dearest," he replied, "it's our lodge meeting, and if I don't go I shall be fined a dollar."

Life!

The deputy warden of the penitentiary was looking over the new arrivals. Among them was a tall, forlorn-looking gentleman of color who seemed to take it very hard, sighing so deeply that the deputy asked:
"What's the matter, boy?"
"Mah sentence, suh!" was the mournful reply. "Ah can't do all this heah time the fedge done gib me!"
"How much are you doing?" inquired the deputy.

"Life!" exclaimed the new arrival. "Well," remarked the deputy, not unkindly, "just do what you can of it."—Everybody's Magazine.

Vishnu

In Hindu mythology Vishnu is the second god of the "trinitary" or trinity, in which he figures as the preserver of the universe. His friendship for man was manifested in his avatars, or incarnations, which according to some authorities number ten, and according to others twenty-two. Of these avatars the two principal ones were the seventh, as Rama, the hero of the Ramayana, and the eighth, as Krishna, the hero of the Mahabharata. Vishnu is generally represented as a dark-blue man, having four arms, and is worshipped chiefly by the middle classes. He originally figured as a sun-god in the oldest Vedas, but gradually increased in importance until in the later Puranas he became the supreme deity.—Kansas City Star.

EVERY PERSON IN TEXAS COULD HAVE A DRAM

Austin, Sept. 18.—Every man and woman in Texas could have had at least one substantial swallow of whiskey in the past year if all the bonded prescription whiskey sold by druggists was equally divided among the citizenship of Texas. Six hundred thousand pints of whiskey are sold by Texas druggists annually according to the Comptroller's department.

A pint should provide six "healthy swigs" at the least.

TEXAS MAINTAINS EXPORT TRADE POSITION

Half yearly figures show the state again second only to New York. Texas remains the second most important export state in the union on the basis of the values of products shipped abroad according to figures covering the first six months of 1921 just released by the department of Commerce.

Statistics compiled under the supervision of Dr. Julius Klein, Director of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, revealed values of $232,762,901 for Texas against $375,772,132 for New York. Other states following Texas in order of value of their half yearly exports are Pennsylvania, $148,033,538; New Jersey, $114,967,442; California, $108,789,452; Louisiana, $104,796,452; and Illinois, $104,967,442.

Cotton shipments made up $169,204,813 of the total, retaining its position of predominance in Texas foreign trade. Refined petroleum followed with $32,907,544, showing a growing value, while sulphur and brimstone exports amounted to $2,002,627.

This is the second time in the history of the Government trade statistics, according to director Klein, that an attempt has been made to show the relative position of the different states in our inevitable struggle for foreign trade. It is planned to issue these figures quarterly.

FARMING IS OUR NATIONAL GREATNESS

With wheat and cotton advancing, Thanksgiving will see the American farmer further along toward normal conditions than the manufacturer, wholesaler or retailer.

The Burlington, Iowa, Post says: "While we do not accept statements as to the deplorable farming conditions unreservedly the fact that agriculture, our basic industry, should even be suspected of insolvency is sufficient to excite wonder."

"There was an unconscious wisdom in the failure of Congress to legislate for the relief of the farmer; for, if the farmer is in such a fix that legislation only can save him, then there is little use for the American people to make any further efforts toward National greatness."

"The farmer has his periods of fat and lean, but there never has been a time when he was justified in being discouraged. He may need new organization, a change in methods, or be placed in the way of prosperity by legislation or by government loans. The farmer who starts from the bottom can rely upon himself; his industry, thrift and frugality are proof against all sinister circumstances the farm is a steady mine of production in excess of all normal requirements; for it to be otherwise would mean that civilization itself is a failure."

FORT WORTH EDITOR IN- TERESTED IN SOUTH PLAINS

Louis J. Wortham, owner of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram was in Littlefield last Monday looking after business interests in this section. While here Mr. Wortham made a point to drop into the Leader office to pay his compliments to the best newspaper published on the South Plains, as he put it. The editor was very much inclined to believe he was the victim of some of the Colonel's blarney until he pulled out $1.50 and asked for a subscription to the paper to be sent to his private address, "so the boys at the office won't get hold of it."

Colonel Wortham has been in Littlefield four times during the past six weeks, and each time he comes he never fails to remark about the wonderful growth that has taken place since his prior visit. While here Monday he declared Fort Worth was a good place to make money, but he believed this was a good place to make money and to live in also, and some day he might make this his future home. The Colonel will certainly be welcome—Littlefield Leader.

County officials here have been restrained temporarily from placing the name of Mrs. Ferguson on the tickets as Democratic nominee for governor. Officials talked as if little attention would be paid the order here as Mrs. Ferguson was fairly nominated.

Don't forget the Terry County fair Sept. 27.

W. N. Doss, one of our successful farmers dropped in Tuesday to get his Herald on the right side of the ledger.

We have notice that the Dallas Morning News will put on a cut rate on subscriptions this fall some time. So far as we know this is the first time in the history of that splendid journal that it was ever offered at reduced rates.

Cashier E. C. Roberts of the First State Bank, of Seagraves, accompanied by his wife, were visitors in this city last Thursday night, being guests of the Stricklin family. Elmer reports cotton moving into Seagraves quite lively now.

PAYING THE CASH FOR THE WATER HE USES

T. A. Christian, of Penelope, is here this week trying to make arrangements to tie onto a piece of Littlefield dirt. He was a former citizen of Floydada and knows the virtues of the Plains country. Just as soon as he can close a deal he will move his family out here and make this his future home. He stated to a Leader representative that just before leaving Penelope he bought four tank wagon loads of water to put into his cistern, paying $8.00 for same. Out here water is better and don't cost a cent.—Littlefield Leader.

We don't know where Penelope is, but if we lived there and known as much as we do about the South Plains country, we'd love away from Penelope between suns.

John Day was in from Tokio community this week. His cotton being in the hail belt of the 29th of May, is late, but he says it is literally hanging full of bolls.

MEADOW BRIEFS

By Anselapia.

Since my last communication, one building, a feed store, has been completed, and a new garage is under construction. Both structures are north of the Masonic Hall on the main highway to Lubbock. Meadow has well nigh outgrown the one street originally intended for stores. The fellow who originally laid off the original town plat seems to have figured that in the days to come we would be just about as big as we are now. We are six or seven years old and really need additional space for the town. The business portion is hemmed in on the north by the lumber yard and on the south lots that were sold to a supposed lumber yard that has never been put in, but which can be bought.

Cotton picking is getting underway and the hum of gins can be heard quite often. Within the next two weeks we hope to see both plants busy all day. There has been ginned to date 40 bales, most of which has been bought by home merchants. Meadow has always paid as much and sometimes more than was paid by nearby towns, and she will be a good market this season.

There has been some threats of a contest over the election to incorporate the town, but so far it has not materialized. It will be much better for the aforesaid citizens to lend their talent, wealth and influence to making a better town than hanging out at law offices trying to defeat the will of the people. It is entirely possible we shall choose them to steer us clear of the pit falls and other accidents they think may befall us in the venture.

The little son of T. W. Stockton, living on the Carruth place, was bitten by a large rattlesnake early Friday morning. The reptile was three feet eleven inches long and had eleven rattles. He was bitten on the leg between the knee and ankle. He was brought to Meadow and was under the care of a physician most of the day. It is thought at this writing that he will get well. However, the limb is much swollen and discolored, extending on to his body.

Careless driving with cars is the order of the day, and as a result we had two accidents in one day. One car was overturned and another ran into two standing cars, doing considerable damage. This is doubtless due to allowing youngsters from 15 years up to have cars to race up and down and around the streets, especially on Sunday nights. A fellow carries his life in his hands to venture out on the highways. Parents are deliberately responsible for these forays while they are in church and the girls and boys are making night hideous speeding and tooting horns. The old folks are the most to blame. The sooner some of them get killed or crippled, the better it will be for the public.

We were out Saturday to the barbecue and opening of a new townsite in the northwest. It had been much advertised and sign boards put up at the turn of roads to guide the gullible to the place. The lands are rich, in fact it is an ideal location, but way out from the railroad, schools and all conveniences. The price higher than land can be had just as good near schools and churches in Terry county. Still, it was selling just the same. What fools we mortals be.

Glenn Harris and family, accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Harris, left about two weeks ago for South Dakota, where they will visit relatives. They will be gone some two weeks yet.

HARRIS HAPPENINGS

By Sand Bur.

Mrs. James S. T. and D. T. Murphy and children, spent Thursday with Mrs. Check and children.

Geo. Alexander, who has been off shipping his calves, came home Wednesday. Mrs. M. E. Ellington and children returned home Wednesday after spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Alexander.

S. T. Murphy got out his first bale of cotton Friday. Roy Fitzgerald and family were Brownfield visitors, Friday.

The Jones family, who have been visiting in Jones county for some time came home Friday night.

Brit Clare was a Brownfield caller, Saturday.

Let's emphasize the importance of making the home a place of obedience to God, obedience to law and obedience to parents. Unless this lesson is firmly impressed upon the minds of children, there is little to hope for in the years to come. Desire for wealth and social position is of little account without the desire to give the world through our boys and girls, men and women who will carry on the work of this nation in such a manner as to have it not only maintain its present position in the world, but go on to greater achievement.

FIRST ELECTRIC LINE WEST OF MISSISSIPPI GROWS

It is in Laredo that the first electric street railway west of the Mississippi River were operated. This old line was established in 1889. This month two extensions of service were made and the other extensions are under construction. The line has operated continuously since it started. The first car used on the Laredo street railway is now in service in Nuevo Laredo, across the Rio Grande in Mexico, says the Texas Public Service Bureau.
