Terry County Water Melons

Every Farmer that can possibly do so should see O. V. Roberts, who is chairman of the Terry County Water Melon Association, or drop him a card in the Brownfield office for information relative to the seed for our melons. There is no reason why Terry should not take the lead as the chief melon exporter of the state, we can raise and ship more melons than Weatherford and the fine thing of it is that it is an early money crop and is finished in plenty of time for harvesting fall products.

Our Highways

An investigation into Federal Highway specifications and requirements reveals the fact that we must bring our roads into shape and meet the demands along the proposed route if we are to receive Federal and State aid and secure the designation. We understand that Terry County Citizens will soon have the opportunity to pass on this important question, it should command our attention and favorable support. Rome became the commercial city of her age due to the splendid constructed highways, in her time, on the old empire

Chautauqua

Brownfield has splendid schools, good churches and a magnificent theatre, all providing fine places to go. We are also soon to be visited by one of the leading chautauqua companies of the day, this will also afford opportunity for diversified entertainment, they come not as a sole money extractor of the community but appear under the auspices of the Band which is commendable and to a worthy purpose, if you are an admirer of good, constructive and entertaining programs keep this in mind.

There is one business in or rather near Brownfield of which not much is known, Mr. Wm. R. Farmer, just south of town is the proprietor of a modern Poultry Farm, where thorough bred chickens and eggs may be had. Would it not be fine if Terry County Farmers would classify their poultry yards and grade them up as fine herds of livestock are built up. A poultry an egg center, followed by a water melon exporting period backed by our usual fall crops would indeed make our town and county prosperous. Mr. Farmer says: "though his business is just out of Brownfield, his heart is right in the middle of it." He backs our local Chamber of Commerce.

SUMMER SCHOOL— JUNE 8TH TO JUNE 31ST

In view of the fact that there are so many students in Brownfield High School who are classified as irregular students in their work, I have obtained permission from the school board to hold a summer school in the school building thereby giving them an opportunity to make up some credits. School will open June 8th and continue for 8 weeks.

We plan to offer classes in Mathematics and History with probably some other classes should there be sufficient students report for work in those classes.

Each student will be permitted to take one new subject or two review subjects.

Each student will be required to spend two study periods at the school building.

There will also be work offered for the grades. Students who have failed to make their work in the regular session may use this opportunity for making up their work. It will also be a fine opportunity for any student to strengthen themselves in their work even though they have made a passing grade.

Tuition for High School will be $5.00 per month. The grades will pay only $1.00 per month.

I shall be glad to have the names of those who expect to attend, handed to me as soon as possible in order that we may know how many teachers will be needed for the work.

O. W. Fagala.

J. P. Turner and family, who have been conducting the Hot Biscuit Cafe here for some twelve months, have leased the place and are moving this week to Wichita Falls, where Mr. Turner is undergoing treatment for blood poisoning in the hand.

Spring Fever Epidemic

WATERMELON GROWERS ORGANIZE AT WELLMAN

Wellman, May 12.—A Terry County Melon Growers Association was organized here May 2, with Thomas Doss, President, and O. V. Roberts, Secretary. About 300 acres will be planted to thorough bred Tom Watson melons at this loading station, about 100 acres at Lahay, and quite an acreage at Seagraves. Probably Brownfield will fall into line and will raise some to ship. This county should ship about 200 cars with a fair crop, with this acreage. An average of $200 per car is a low estimate of the price for September market, and this would bring about $40,000 into the county before cotton picking begins.

Wellman also has a Chamber of Commerce, which is probably the only chamber of commerce in the State composed entirely of farmers. We need a general merchandise business, a garage and blacksmith shop to care for the present needs of our growing town. We are erecting a $30,000 gin plant now, and new citizens are still moving in. A library society will be organized here Saturday night.

Our school will close June 19. The old faculty has been re-elected and a new teacher will be added next term. Four inches of rain in the last three days will start farming off.

Address inquiries regarding business opportunities to O. V. Roberts, Secretary Chamber of Commerce, Wellman, Texas.

AEROPLANE AUCTION PROVES INTEREST AFFAIR SAT.

The Aeroplane Auction Sale came off at 4:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon as per schedule, being unique in this city in that coupons were used instead of dollars and cents. The following were the successful bidders, the amount they paid and the article they received.

P. J. Carter, box of cigars, for which he paid $30 in aeroplane bonds.
Mrs. C. S. Padgett paid $65 in aeroplane bonds for 100 bars of P & G Soap.

C. D. Moore received a pair overalls for $40 in bonds.
J. A. Tankersley gave $20 in bonds for a dress shirt.

W. S. Smith gave $40 in bonds for 3 pounds of Maxwell house coffee.
W. A. Tittle paid $60 in bonds for 3 gallons of motor oil.

J. A. Tankersley paid $15 for a nice box of stationery.

Mrs. J. L. Lynn bid in the 3 boxes of Amanda Powder for $34 in bonds.

R. I. Cook received 3 pair ladies silk hose for $57 in bonds.
George Black got the ladies shoes for $27.50 in bonds.

W. T. Carr paid $78 for a pair of men's shoes.
Ross Rentfro bid in a ladies dress for $115 in bonds.

Terry Adams paid $40 in bonds for a nice toilet set.

I. A. Low received the motor meter for $40 of his bonds.

A. M. McBurnett bid in the Aluminum Roaster for $50 in bonds.

J. C. Turner received the aluminum perculator for $30 in bonds.

Mrs. C. S. Padgett bid $65 and got the 48 pound sack of flour.

The baseball glove was knocked down on W. A. Tittle for $12 bonds.

W. T. Carr bid in an inner tube at $40.75 in bonds.

The electric lamp went to Mrs. A. J. Stricklin for $21 worth of bonds.

Mrs. C. E. Lynn bid $280 in bonds and got the 100 lb sack sugar.

J. A. Tankersley bid $200 and received the 30X3/4 tire.

Floyd Wells bid $65 and received the carving set for his bonds.

A. M. McBurnett bid $65 in bonds and the 27X54 rug went to him.

At times there was lively bidding and a passerby would have led to believe that real money was involved instead of aeroplane bonds. Harold M. Oehler was auctioneer.

These sales will be given by the Aeroplane Stores from month to month, so save your bonds and get some fun and nice presents as well.

A. M. McBurnett, who has been on the night-watch job here for some time, has accepted a position with the Dempster Windmill people as "trouble man," with the plains and panhandle of Texas, Eastern N.M. and a part of Oklahoma as his territory.

He went on duty for the company the first of this week. Mr. Carr is now acting as watchman.

COMMISSIONERS ORDER $200,000 ROAD BOND ISSUE

The Terry county Commissioners Court in session Monday ordered a road bond election in Terry county, Saturday, June 20th for $200,000, to be used in surfacing at least 50 miles of Terry county roads. There being several bond buyers present, the proposed bond issue sold to Brown Crummer Co., of Wichita, Kansas for a premium of $1,850.

The proposed bond issue is to run for 30 years and are 5 1/2 per cent serial bonds, one to be paid each year.

It was proposed by the Commissioners to use the bond issue as follows:

The sum of $120,000 of the issue will be turned over to the State Highway Department, who will match it with $180,000, making a total of $300,000 to be used on the designated State Highway running from east to west through the county, 30 miles, and 20 miles from Brownfield to the Hockley county line northeast of Meadow on the Lubbock road. This will be $6,000 per mile, and will be what is known as a "Calcechia" hard surfaced road.

The other $80,000 will be turned over, $20,000 to each commissioner to be used in building well graded roads in each Commissioners precinct.

If the bond issue carries, at the beginning of another year old Terry will have some roads that they may well be proud of.

And they want cost us one penny. A broad statement did you say? Yes, a broad statement but nevertheless the truth.

Figure the extra taxes you will be obliged to pay to build these roads, then sit down and figure what you will save in time, worry, repairs, gas, etc., the difference in the loads you will carry over good roads, or the difference in the pleasure of using good roads, and in five minutes a confirmed nut will see that he will save enough difference in these expenses and the wear and tear on your machinery and your nerves to pay the difference and have money left.

Good roads cost nothing extra has been proven over and over, and no county that has ever built good roads has ever regretted it.

LOCAL DELEGATES OFF FOR SOUTHERN BAPTIST CON

Rev. C. E. Ball left Monday morning for Memphis, Tenn., as delegate from the Brownfield Baptist Association to the Southern Baptist Convention, which opened in that city Wednesday of this week. This will be the first time Rev. Ball was ever east of the Mississippi River, and will therefore be quite a adventure for him.

Rev. Markham and wife, the Missionary for this Association, left on Saturday last, going via Ford route, and expect to be in Memphis at the convention.

Miss Evelyn Taylor, of Lubbock, was down visiting her mother, Mrs. Ella Detro, a short while Sunday evening.

W. H. Collins, proprietor of the Collins Dry Goods Co., returned last week from Hamlin. He reports that a good looking country, but not to be compared to Terry.

GIRL STRUCK BY LIGHTNING SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Miss Thelma Hudgens, 14, daughter of M. P. Hudgens, living near Loulynn, half way between here and Tahoka was struck by lightning Saturday afternoon as she was crawling under a wire fence on her father's farm.

According to a physician who attended the young lady, the bottom wire of the fence was highly charged by a bolt of lightening, when she touched it with her back in crawling under, which not only rendered her unconscious for some time, but severely burned the flesh. With no unforeseen complications, the young lady will be up in a few days, the physician stated.

Her father is a brother of L. F. Hudgens of this city.

STATE HIGHWAY DEPT. NOW DOING ITS STUFF

Some of us got rather impatient over the delay of the State Highway Department in working our roads after some 53 miles were taken over by them, but since the first rain of any consequence came on the 22nd of last month, they have been going good and the roads they are putting up are sure enough roads. A sample of the work they aim to do on all of them may be seen from the Geo. E. Tiernan corner on north now a great deal past the railroad crossing.

We predict that when they get the full 53 miles finished, Terry is going to have some roads they will be tickled to travel themselves, and not ashamed for others to travel.

DEATHS

As we get ready for press we learn of the sudden death of two prominent South Plains citizens:

Uncle Dave S. Cunningham, 72, of the Loop community in this county, and for several terms County Commissioner of Precinct No. 2, was found dead in bed this morning (Thursday) by the family, and will be buried (Friday) in the Pride cemetery. A fuller account next week.

Jesse M. Adams, editor of the Plainview News died in France Tuesday following a short illness of India fever which he contracted while he was touring India. Editor Adams left Plainview around Christmas to make a tour of the world, and had reached France, coming east on his homeward journey. He was not only a valued citizen and highly respected in his home town, but held a high place in the estimation of the newspaper fraternity throughout the State.

THE HERALD GETS BACK FROM A LONG VOYAGE

A Herald under date of February 27th, this year, returned this week from its 25,000 mile journey to and from the Philippine Islands, and was presented to us by assistant postmaster L. A. Burnett, who explained that second class mail could be returned to the United States from any island possession. The paper was addressed to Dr. W. N. Lemmon, who returned to the States before this paper reached him.

Over two months was consumed by this Herald on its more than around the world, but it was in very good shape, still retaining the original wrapping, although it was tied on with a cord.

BOY SHOT WITH AIR GUN AT O'DONNELL.

While trying to equal the marksmanship of William Tell with an air gun instead of a crossbow, the companion of the young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gates, did not take into consideration the low trajectory of the weapon and missed the apple by a full three inches, the shot striking young Gates squarely on the sneezer between the eyes. The shot hurried itself in the flesh and required the services of a physician to remove it. Had the shot varied the fraction of an inch either way, young Gates would have lost an eye, and would have stood a good chance of being killed.—O'Donnell Index.

Miss Evelyn Taylor, of Lubbock, was down visiting her mother, Mrs. Ella Detro, a short while Sunday evening.

W. H. Collins, proprietor of the Collins Dry Goods Co., returned last week from Hamlin. He reports that a good looking country, but not to be compared to Terry.

BROWNFIELD GETS NEXT DISTRICT CONFERENCE

Tahoka, May 6.—Notwithstanding the fact that rain fell over almost the entire district Tuesday night and many people travelled back and forth in their cars to the services, there was a fine attendance of the lay members of the District Conference of the Methodist Church on the second day and a very interesting session was held.

The morning services were begun at nine o'clock, C. B. Thompson conducting the devotional services.

Reports of the various committees were heard during the morning session, and all brought up good reports of the progress of the church throughout the district.

A resolution was read in the meeting against unification of the Northern and Southern Church and this brought forth a debate. Rev. E. E. White, pastor of the Lubbock Church spoke in defense of unification, and Rev. W. B. Dodson spoke against unification. The vote was taken and the conference registered a vote of 86 to 3 for the adoption of the resolution, that the conference go on record as opposing the present plans of unification.

Mrs. C. T. Watson addressed the conference in the interest of the league work throughout the conference, and showed that the league had made some very interesting gains during the past year, and that as District Secretary had learned of the progress of the leagues, and urged that the preachers of the conference give more real help to the league than in the past.

The presiding elder called for an invitation from some town within the Lubbock district, and the nomination of Brownfield and Crosbyton were placed, and when the vote was taken Brownfield had won by a large majority.

Rev. J. T. Howell, pastor of the church at Crosbyton, spoke in the interest of conference collections, and urged that these collections should be kept well in hand and attended to early in the year instead of leaving it all to the last of the year.

Good reports were heard from the various pastors who are building churches and parsonages throughout the district, and one would judge from the reports that there is much being done for the advancement of the churches of the district.

Resolutions were made and passed enthusiastically that the conference thanked citizens of Tahoka for the splendid entertainment given the delegates.

MIX STARS AS HERO OF ZANE GREY STORY

After a brilliant sortie into romantic old England as Dick Turpin, Tom Mix has returned to his no less romantic West as Jim Lassiter in Zane Grey's "Riders of the Purple Sage," the William Fox production which will be shown at the Rialto Theatre Saturday May 16th, matinee and night.

"Riders of the Purple Sage" is up to the high standard which might be expected of a combination of Tom Mix, Zane Grey and William Fox. It is a typical Mix picture, full of villainy, chivalry and grandeur of the West.

Mix does some excellent acting as the soft spoken two-gun hero. Tony carries his master through perilous situations and aids him with his horse sense. Lynn Reynolds, who directed the photoplay, has made the best of the excellent opportunities for showing the incomparable Mix in his daring feats.

A mysterious masked boy rider is woven into the narrative, and the revelation of his identity is one of the surprises of the picture.

Mabel Ballin is charming in the role of Jane Withersten, the girl rancher who falls in love with Lassiter. A subordinate love theme is delightfully played by Marion Nixon.

SEAGRAVES MASONS ORGANIZE LODGE.

On last Monday night the Masons met at the Masonic hall over the Electric Theatre, and organized. Judge Chapman, Grand Master from Middland, and other visiting members from other lodges were present. Seminars were well represented.

After organization refreshments were served to some seventy Masons. Signal.

STRANGE CUSTOMS FOUND IN THE ORIENT

Romance in business still lives. It may be drab to balance ledgers, arrange stock, dust counters, trim windows or look after files, but there is the other side of trade which, though little known, is as romantic and picturesque as a Marco Polo could wish for.

It's more exciting than a blood-and-thunder novel, this business of scouting for rare rugs, says C. A. Bigelow, a Chicago business man back in the United States after eighteen months in the out-of-the-way places in the Orient. During this period, as the representative of Marshall Field & Company, wholesale interested in rug research, he covered 40,000 miles by camel, donkey and automobile.

In India, where nomads turn from the driving of their flocks and weaving of rugs to banditry at night, this trade pioneer was in constant peril of shots from the snipers' guns. Even the soldiers, he says, were not safe from the bandits. The soldiers have their guns handcuffed to them but when taking a respite from their vigil, the bandits creep upon them and steal the guns by deftly removing the handcuffs. In crossing the Sind Desert, Bigelow was in constant danger, not only of the bandits' bullets but the stings of scorpions and tarantulas as well. For weeks at a time, during his travels among the Hindus, he went without water, quenching his thirst only by the juice of fruits. Only a few days before his coming, he was told in one place, a convoy had been attacked by bandits and an Englishman slain.

It was in Persia that Bigelow had to comply with the customs of the people to keep in their good graces. At Ghourveh he was invited to take luncheon with Amir Afghan, a relative of the Shah and ruler of forty villages. Seated on the floor, with legs crossed in true Persian fashion, he ate a fifty course luncheon with his fingers. Persians never use knives, forks or spoons, he was told, because they believe that it is just as important to "feel" the food as to taste it.

On another occasion the Sardar Sepah, premier of Persia, took tea with Bigelow in his tent outside of Sultanbad. To comply with the customs of the people, Bigelow slaughtered a dozen lambs upon arrival of the distinguished guest and scattered the blood over the ground. Before entering the tent Sardar Sepah touched the tip of his boot in the blood to indicate that he was bringing with him peace and happiness. The slain lambs were given to the poor.

Mr. C. C. Lindsey, Manager of the Palace and Lindsey Theatres at Lubbock, was in Brownfield Sunday evening looking over the new Rialto. Mr. Lindsey was loud in his praise for Brownfield's new playhouse and said it would be a credit to a town many times the size of ours.

J. P. Redick who lives five miles northwest of town, happened to be strolling around in his field recently when he discovered a small toy balloon, which had become entangled in the shrubs. Further examination revealed a small envelope suspended on a string. The envelope contained an order for a Coleman Quick Lite lantern. It is supposed the balloon was thrown out by the Wichita Boosters, who were here a few days ago, as the Coleman Lite Co is a Wichita concern.

H. Blackstone of Tahoka was over recently and informed the Herald Man that he would begin publication of the Meadow Review next week. Mr. Blackstone has had some experience in the newspaper business and we predict that he will give Meadow a wide-awake newspaper. The Review, for the present, will be printed in Tahoka, but Mr. Blackstone said that he intended to move an up-to-date printing establishment to Meadow in a few weeks.

In the list of High School senior's names which were published in the Herald last week a mistake was made in giving the names of the Valedictorian and the Salutatorian. We are informed by Mr. Fagala that the following is correct: Mildred Trader, Valedictorian and Virgie Bell Beasley Salutatorian.

Mr. Leedy, of Tahoka, owner of the Leedy Plant farm, was a visitor to our city this week on business.

Messrs. B. H. Gibson and L. L. Lewis, of Durant, Okla., were in our city last week prospecting. In conversation with the Herald they announced that they would very likely open a line of insurance and real estate business here. They were well pleased with Brownfield and Terry county.

N. M. Doss, of Los Alamos, Calif., was recently here visiting his sister, and paid the Herald a short call.

Jno. B. King, local nurseryman, is on the puny list this week.

J. W. Lasiter recently dropped in and had us send the Herald to his brother at Roanoke, Texas.

J. M. Story and W. S. Crowder of the Wellman country were in on Monday telling of the big rain they had Sunday. Mr. Crowder said it was the biggest rain he ever saw fall except one in Stonewall county years ago. Mr. Story said he could just see the tops of the old cotton stalks on about forty acres of his field.

Rev. J. P. Watson, pastor of the local Methodist church, returned last week from Tahoka highly elated that he was able to land the next District Conference of the Lubbock District. He reported that Tahoka sure did the nice thing in the way of entertaining the preachers and delegates, and he felt sure Brownfield would be on the job next May. Its a safe bet preacher, as sure as the world. Brownfield will make 'em proud they came.

H. L. Taylor, a young business man of Abilene, is here helping manager Legg get started off with the Economy Store No. 2.

We call your attention to the W. R. Lovelace ad in this issue of the Herald. He has recently purchased the Quinn Variety store and is adding a full line of groceries.

ON THE BIBLE

Years ago Tom Paine wrote in his "Age of Reason": "Fifty years from now the Bible will be obsolete and forgotten...; but, after Paine had crawled to a despairing drunkard's grave, the very printing press, which was used to print his 'Age of Reason' began to be used to circulate the Bible.

In the very room in which Robert G. Ingersoll wrote his "Mistakes of Moses" (a book, which the world hailed with delight as the end of Moses) a group of men met together and said: "Let us put up in this city a great monument to Jesus Christ." This was done and there that monument stands today.

A hundred years ago Voltaire said in a certain house in Geneva: "There will not be a Bible in existence a century from now," notwithstanding, there are millions more Bibles now than then, and the house, in which he spoke is now the Bible Depot of the Bible Society of Switzerland—F. B. Shepherd.

J. L. RANDAL'S DRUG

Saul J. Randall; and for cause of action, plaintiff respectfully shows the Court:

1st: That heretofore, to-wit: On or about the 4th day of November, A. D. 1921, he was lawfully seized and possessed of the following described land and premises, situated in Yoakum county, Texas, holding and claiming the same in fee simple, to-wit:

All that certain lot, tract or parcel of land, lying and being situated in Yoakum County, Texas, and on the Waters of Colorado River, about 11 miles S. 20-W from center of county, and being the west half of Survey No. 757, in Block D, Patent No. 45, Vol 39, patented to the Island City Saving Bank, Assignee of Jno H. Gibson, and described as follows:

Beginning at a stake, the N.W. corner of the N.E. quarter of said section No. 767, this day granted and sold to E. O. Kinnison by the grantors herein, for the N.E. corner of the West half of said Section 767 in said Block D.

Thence West 950 varas to a stake for corner;

Thence South 1'00 varas to a stake for corner.

Thence East 950 varas for a stake for corner;

Thence North 950 varas to the S.W. corner of the N.E. Quarter of said Section No. 767.

Thence North 950 varas along the west line of said N.E. Quarter of said Section No. 767 to the place of beginning, containing 320 acres of land.

And being the west half of said Section No. 767, the patent to said Section or Survey being of record in Liber 8, page 61, of the Deed Records of Yoakum County, Texas.

2nd: That the defendants, each and all of them are claiming some interest in said above described land and premises, and would withhold from plaintiff the possession thereof. That the defendants aforesaid, each and all of them, have no bona fide title, interest or claim in said land and premises and that their alleged claims casts a cloud upon the title of this plaintiff which should be removed.

3rd: That plaintiff and those under whom he claims has had and held under color and title from and under the State of Texas, peaceable, continuous and adverse possession of the lands and tenements above described for a period of more than three years, and he further says that he and those under whom he claims are claiming said lands under deeds duly registered and have had peaceable, continuous and adverse possession of said land, cultivating, using and enjoying the same and paying all taxes due thereon for a period of more than five years.

And plaintiff further says that he and those under whom he claims have good and perfect right and title to said land above described, because they have had and held peaceably said land adversely to all the defendants, cultivating, using, and enjoying the same for a period of more than ten years since any cause of action accrued in favor of any of the defendants.

And plaintiff here specially pleads the three, five and ten year Statutes of Limitation.

4th: Plaintiff further says that the places of residence and whereabouts of the defendants in the above styled and numbered cause are unknown to him, and that the heirs of the various defendants other than those named as defendants herein are unknown to him, and prays that citation issue by publication as the law directs in such cases.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays judgment of the Court that the defendants, each and all of them, be cited to appear and answer this petition, and that upon hearing plaintiff have judgment for the title and possession of the above described land and premises, and that the claims of the defendants, each and all of them, be declared to be null and void, and that the cloud which was cast upon the title by their claims be removed and that he be decreed to be the owner of the above described land and premises in fee simple, free and clear of all claims of the defendants, and for such other and further orders of general and special nature, in law or in equity, that he may be justly entitled to under the facts in this case, as in duty bound he will ever pray.

Mr. H. Blackstone, of Meadow, was in our city Saturday, and called on the Herald. He is the editor of the Meadow review, which will make its initial appearance this week, according to Editor Blackstone. It will be printed in Tahoka.

We are glad to see that Amarillo is to get the 1926 Convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. That Big institution will have somewhat of a western aspect both from personnel and location aspect next year. We are glad to see it come back home after a year's absence.

A fellow was heard to say some days ago that there would be plenty of residences in Brownfield to rent when school is out. We have been hearing that story for years. It is true that some will move when school is out, but for every one that leaves, two will come. It probably never occurred to this party that some will want to move here just as well as some may leave here.

No wonder the poor city folks are a little inclined to be selfish and do not care to know who their nearest neighbor is. The very life is crowded out of them. Parking space is at a premium even in the city of Dallas, and "no parking here," and "move on" signs are everywhere. Sanger Bros. are erecting a six story building to cost upwards of $200,000 in order for their customers to park their cars, and even then, the customers will be conveyed over to the store in Sanger Bros. taxis. Yes, we had rather live in Brownfield where a guy has still got some liberty.

There is absolutely no flies on the Terry county farmers. He is a business man and figures out his problems according to Hoyle just the same as other folks. He is generally too busy to join the calamity howler and the soap box orator that would denounce the good old U. S. A. would get a cold shoulder and probably a rotten potato between the eye too boot. He believes in co-operation, and even organizes his commercial clubs, thus fulfilling the old adage that "in union there is strength."

The home town papers are with the business men in fighting the itinerant merchant who pays nothing toward local institutions, but comes in and licks up the cream and, like a rat, scampers away for new territory. The peddler is always a dealer in cheap goods, and the cheapness of the article is what sells it. All business men who appreciate the co-operation of the newspaper do not patronize the traveling solicitors for job printing but turn all their work to the home institution, which is as little as any one can do, yet it is but practicing the Golden Rule.—McLeary News.

Carrying or distributing any kind of hand bills within the city limits of Dixon, Illinois, is prohibited under an ordinance passed by the city council. Littered streets and annoyance to automobile owners who found advertising matter in their cars promoted the action. We are led to wonder what good anyone's advertising is expected to do when it arouses the ire of the man he expects to reach by littering his car. The best and cheapest advertising is newspaper advertising. This fact has been proven many times over by consistent advertisers. Newspaper advertising does not offend anyone and makes a dignified appeal in the prospective customer's favorite medium that cannot fail to be effective.

In last week's Baylor County Examiner, Editor Harrison, rolls up his sleeves and takes the "canned editorial" to a handsome drubbing. In keeping with editor Harrison's ideas on the subject the News would like to observe that newspaper men who think they are too busy to write their own editorial columns and offer the canned article without credit or apology, are mostly kidding themselves that their readers don't know the difference. The people of every community know their editor pretty well and readily recognize the lack of their personality in the screeds they buy and print as their own. There is no call for every editorial to be masterpieces of English, nor ponderously weighty with wisdom; but there is urgent and insistent call for editorial expression and sincere and straightforward and manly as the editor's own love for his town and community and profession prompts. The News often presents the views of other writers in its columns, but it always gives due credit. All other expressions are our own, and we stand behind them always. Away with the "canned editorial."—Clarendon News.

Mr. T. P. (Slim) Ellis, of Morton, was in Brownfield Sunday and Monday visiting friends.

T. H. Hillyard of Rodger, in Bell county, accompanied by his wife are here this week the guest of their son, Ben, who is employed as bookkeeper at the Brownfield State Bank.

W. B. English, local gunman, who takes his old home paper, the Bryan Daily Eagle, says the paper of recent date reports no rain yet in that county, and people are losing heart.

NATIONAL HEBREW UNIVERSITY

Last month, on Mount Scopus, at Jerusalem, was celebrated the opening of the National Hebrew University.

Lord Arthur J. Balfour presided, presenting Great Britain, and there were present also dignitaries of great nations and numbers of the great religious denominations of the world.

"With seventy souls did our forefathers come down into Egypt, and now the Lord thy God made you as numerous as the stars in heaven."

In the short space of 230 years after these 70 shepherd souls went into Egypt to escape famine, 3467 years ago, they had increased to more than 3,000,000, when Moses led them forth on their wanderings of 40 years before reaching the promised land, "A land flowing with milk and honey."

During these 40 years he gave them the Ten Commandments and they were prepared, when a new generation had arisen, to enter Palestine and build Jerusalem.

Today this "Book of Law" given through Moses, is translated into more than 400 languages, and is the beacon for right living and the formation for inspiration for all civilized peoples.

But the glories of Jerusalem, the capitol of their nation, passed and the chosen people were spread over the face of the earth, though the teachings of Moses never lost their potency.

Now it is fitting that with the physical restoration of Jerusalem and the country about it, by the confining of Jewish peoples, there should be opened to, not only the Jews, but to any nationality or religious belief that may come, a great university in the land that was the cradle of civilization and religion.—Southland Farmer.

LET US REMEMBER JEFFERSON

Almost a century ago Thomas Jefferson died, at the ripe age of 84. Today, when all bias of personal interest and passion is a full century in the past, more than ever is our country coming to appraise for its true worth, the things that he did in a long and busy life.

Jefferson entered the house of delegates of his native state as a young man to press into enactment four bills. The first was to abolish primogeniture, to free the land for all people and stand as a bar for all time against the creation of an aristocracy of birth in America. His next effort was the statute of Virginia for religious freedom. Here his thought was to free the soul of man. There followed provision for free education, from the primary schools to the university which he founded. The mind, too, must be free before democracy can reach its full flower. The fourth measure he advocated was a bill to curb, what seemed to him and later proved to be, the greatest menace to the republic—the institution of slavery.

Had he accomplished nothing nothing more than this his early work in his own state, it alone would forever assure him his position as the foremost man of the nation in shaping its history.—Southland Farmer.

'Service' is Our Motto

WE ARE IN BUSINESS TO SELL YOU CERTAINTY AND PEACE OF MIND ABOUT YOUR TITLE TO YOUR PROPERTY

Unless your abstract of title is as solid as the foundation upon which the house is built—and unless you know it is that solid—you will inevitably be in a constant state of uncertainty about your investment.

To have absolute knowledge that your title is all you think it is, and all that it should be, is worth a lot more than the small cost of securing a complete and accurate abstract from us.

We are specialists in this work. Nobody but a specialist knows enough to give you the best service—for only the experienced training and the complete, systematic and accurate records possessed by us make it possible to furnish a perfect abstract and do it every time.

Pains Very Severe

"I suffered from womanly troubles which grew worse and worse as the months went by," says Mrs. L. H. Cantrell, of R. P. D. 3, Gainesville, Georgia.

"I frequently had very severe pains. These were so bad that I was forced to go to bed and stay there. It seemed to me my back would come in two.

CARDUI For Female Troubles

"I taught school for a while, but my health was so bad I would have to stay out sometimes. This went on till I got so bad I didn't know what to do.

"One day I read about the merits of Cardui, and as I had some friends who had been helped by it, I thought I would try it. I began to get better after I had taken half a bottle. I decided to keep on and give it a thorough trial and I did. I took in all about 12 bottles and now I am perfectly well. I do not suffer any pain and can do all my housework."

THE GARDEN OF PROSERPINE

(Published in Dallas News)
"I am tired of tears and laughter,
And men that laugh and weep.
Of what may come hereafter;
For men that sow and reap;
I am weary of days and hours;
Blown buds and barren flowers,
Desires and dreams and powers
And everything but sleep.
We are not sure of sorrow,
And joy was never sure;
To-day will die tomorrow;
Time stoops to no man's lure;
And love, grown faint and fretful
With lips but half regretful
Sighs, and with eyes forgetful
Weeps that no loves endure.
From too much love of living,
From hope and fear set free,
We thank with brief thanksgiving
Whatever gods may be.
That no life lives forever;
That dead men rise up never;
That even the weariest river
Winds somewhere safe to sea.
Then star nor sun shall waken,
Nor any change of light;
Nor wintry leaves, nor vernal,
Nor days nor things diurnal;
Only the sleep eternal
In an eternal night."—University of California Chronicle.

Reply of P. C. Stanford

I love the tears and laughter
Of men and maids that weep;
Of all that comes hereafter
For men and maids to reap.
I love the days and hours,
The birds and buds and flowers
Desires and dreams and powers
And sweet contented sleep.
I know there's heartfelt sorrow,
And joy renewed and sure;
Today will live tomorrow;
Time heeds my forceful lure.
And love grown strong and fretful
Heeds not the faint regretful
Sighs, weeping half forgetful
That love alone endures.
From all the love of living
From hope and fear set free
We thank with great thanksgiving
All the gods that be.
That all life lives forever;
That man's soul dies? No never!
But like the greatest river
Flows onward safe to sea.
Then stars and sun shall waken,
Great seas of change and light
Where gas and waters shaken,
And all of sound or sight
Combine to form the vernal
Of life and things diurnal
That go and come eternal,
As morning follows night,
To hell, with your proserpine,
And all things else not divine
Your doubts and fears make you whine
Of blasted hopes and fear of death
And seek ease in eternal night.
Fight on so long as there is breath
And when that's gone keep up the fight
And man's eternal hopes fulfill,
Cross o'er from here to spirit land,
There let your go takes his stand
There is no death for fighting.

ADVICE

If your little woman paints,
Let 'er paint.
Let 'er look like what she ain't,
What she ain't!
You may see her some fine day,
When she ain't fixed up that way,
Then the chances are you'd faint,
Up and faint!

Whilst here let's fight to gain the force,
With spirit, air and sod combine
With stars and sun to take our course:
All forces prove that man's divine,
Tis left to us alone to will.

Spiders in Amazon Big as Small Rat

A traveler who has recently returned from an expedition into the forests of the Amazon tells that he was much more frightened by the huge spiders he encountered than by the jaguars, according to London Answers. There is certainly something awe-inspiring in his description of a species of Amazon spiders as creatures with long legs, fat, black bodies, about the size of a young rat, and the wickedest, most fiendish eyes imaginable!

These spiders make "trap doors" on the ground, beautifully camouflaged, and so perfectly balanced that they shut by their own weight. Beneath them are tunnels or pits in which the huge spiders watch for their prey.

Another spider is spotted like a leopard and spins a web quite a yard across. The strands of this huge web, suspended between two trees, are so strong and tough that if a small bird flies into them it is unable to escape before the arrival of the spider, which makes short work of its struggles.

No Life in Dead Sea

The Dead sea has been navigated. Strabo and Diodorus tell of floats from which men fished for bitumen. There have also been several scientific expeditions on the sea for purposes of investigation. The sea contains no life of any kind with exception of a few microbes. This is due to its extreme salinity.

Seagraves was visited by another rain Tuesday night. Although the rain was light it will go a long way with what had already fallen in giving a sufficient season for making a crop. Prospects are looking good for more rain soon, and with just a few more showers like this, Gaines county will make a bumper crop.—Seagraves Signal.

We are sorry to report that our friend Col. W. H. Dallas is on the sick list this week.

Captain George M. McGonagill, one of the oldest citizens of Lea County New Mexico, died at his home twelve miles south of Lovington, last Tuesday morning. Mr. McGonagill had been in feeble health for several months, due to his advanced age, but had been able to be up and to attend to his business for most of the time. He was nearly 84 years old, and a resident of Lea County for more than twenty five years, and many of the "old timers" of this section knew him.

Principles of Operation

We believe that a bank should not only be a depository of funds, but indeed a haven where the rich and poor alike can confide their financial troubles, fears and doubts into the attentive ear of their mutual friend and counselor, the BANKER. The Bank, the foundation of all saving, should be solid like the granite, standing the acid test of time, pursuing a conservative but friendly course.

This Bank, like the great oak from the little acorn, of persistent effort and sound business principals has grown. It stands today like the Oak, its many services and ample resources, like the limbs, cast their shadow of protection over those who seek its shelter, a mecca which invites the confidence and patronage of the public.

FRESH STRAWBERRIES ON LOVINGTON MARKET

Ripe strawberries have made their appearance this spring much earlier than is usual. They usually begin to ripen from the 12th to the 15th of May but several people this year have reported them as early as the 20th of April.

The plants are doing as nicely as was ever known and all of them are now full of blooms and berries. This is true of the young plants that have been put out only a few weeks as well as of the older ones.

These berries will continue to bear and to ripen until cold weather, usually about the last of November. This will give a growing season of more than seven months of the year.

If we only had the proper transportation facilities for getting this crop to the market, it would be more valuable than a gold mine or an oil well. All during the summer months when the hot weather of other sections of the country render their growth impossible, these berries are at their best in this country. Our pleasant days and cool nights furnish the proper weather for their perfect growth and development. The soil, climate and water all combine to make an ideal condition for them. Their quality is unsurpassed and their flavor unexcelled by those grown in any other part of the world.—Lovington Leader.

HEADLIGHT LAW EFFECTIVE JUNE 18TH

Austin, Texas, May 2nd—The automobile headlight law, passed by the legislature at its recent session will not become effective until June 18th, and the list of approved headlight devices will not be available until about that date, according to Reed Granberry, head of the bureau located at the University of Texas, which is now employed in testing the various devices. Mr. Granberry has issued the following note of warning: "A large number of complaints have come to this office that certain headlight devices are being offered for sale over the State as devices which have been approved by the Texas Highway Commission. For the information and protection of all concerned we will say that no devices have been approved yet under the new automobile headlight law.

When the list of approved devices is ready it will be given to the press and copies sent to every Commissioners Court and Sheriff in Texas. This list will be available about June 18th, the date the law becomes effective.

LIGON POSTOFFICE MOVED TO NEW TOWN ON SANTA FE

Effective May 16th, the name of the Ligon Postoffice will be changed to Lehman, the office having been moved from Ligon to Lehman, on the line of the Santa Fe that is being built west from Doud to the New Mexico line.

Alvin O'Pry, postmaster at Ligon, will have charge of the office after the change has been made, no unusual transfer regulations will be complied with.

Lehman, on the Santa Fe, is one of the four new towns created during the past two months.

Fine Distinction Made Between Common Words

"Loan" as a verb is extensively used in the United States. There is some authority for such usage since it has so appeared from time to time in literature over the last four or five hundred years. Such usage, however, is frowned upon by grammarians who insist that "loan" is a noun only, says the Literary Digest.

Dictionaries, which must be simply recorders of the language as it is used, recognize "loan" as a verb, meaning "to lend money, especially on interest," and Doctor Vizetelly in his "Desk Book of Errors in English" says: "'Loan, lend'; one may raise (put an end to) a 'loan' by paying both principal and interest, and another may 'lend' money to do so. The use of 'loan' as a verb, meaning 'to grant the loan of or lend, as ships, money, lines, provisions, etc.,' dates from the year 1200 and is accepted as good English. Some purists, however, characterize it colloquial." To some ears "lend" may be preferable, but "loan" is not incorrect, and has the support of Acts 34 and 35 of Henry VIII (1542), Langley (1644), Fossenden (1729), Calhoun (1834), Brownson (1847), Bonamy-Price (1800) the North American Review, February, 1901, etc.

Christians in Minority

When any one questions why the Christian churches send out foreign missionaries, members of the church can readily explain by pointing to the proportion of Christians and non-Christian peoples in the world. There are, in fact, more than twice as many non-Christians in the world as Christians, and although Christianity has made steady strides, many of the non-Christian races are prolific and the ratio is not changing very rapidly.
