Chamber of Commerce CURRENTS

By the Secretary

In behalf of the first bale of cotton of the 1925 season of Terry County's, raised by Mr. H. L. Henley, a young farmer in the Lou Community, the Chamber of Commerce of Brownfield, Texas presented him with a cash premium of $10400 besides the ginning which was donated by the independent Gin Company of this city. Judge R. L. Graves headed the solicitations and the funds were quickly raised.

BROWNFIELD BOTTLING WORKS CHANGES HANDS

Mr. Geo. T. Kesler, prominent young business man of Lamesa, has purchased the Brownfield Bottling Works from Mr. John M. Smith, and took charge last week.

We understand that Mr. Kesler's father owns the bottling works at Lamesa, and that he has therefore had lots of experience in this business. We understand that he contemplates a number of improvements in the very near future. We welcome him to our city, and we hope that those who handle or drink soda waters will see to it that Brownfield products are in stock, and lets give him even better patronage than we have Mr. Smith.

Mr. Smith has not announced just what he is going to do, but he does not contemplate leaving Brownfield, and may have something good to announce to the town in the next few weeks.

CONTROVERSY IN ROPES SCHOOL NOT SETTLED

The controversy involving two sets of trustees and two sets of teachers in the Ropes school in Hockley county, has not been finally settled, according to word brought to the Avalanche office yesterday.

The decision handed down by Judge Clark M. Mullican of Lubbock will not be accepted as final by one group of trustees who have given notice of appeal to the Court of Civil Appeals at Amarillo.—Lubbock Avalanche.

Uncle Tom DeShazo, of Gomez, was over Saturday, mingling with the big crowd.

A HOME-MADE MACHINE FOR DUSTING COTTON

By R. R. Report

In many areas of North Texas and the Eastern Coast section, following the recent rains, the damage from leaf worm is becoming severe. In a large part of this area it will probably be profitable to poison for a period of three or four weeks yet if necessary.

Many farmers are inquiring where dusting machinery may be obtained. The ready supply of such machines is limited and in most cases, before a machine can be shipped the damage may have been done; hence, the method being used by McLennan county farmers as advised by county agent Eudaly, should be of extreme interest.

A cultivator, without shovels, is fitted with a 2x4 placed crosswise behind the seat, of such length as to cover five rows. Lengths of 2x4 running backward from the tongue are used to raise this the necessary height above the cotton. At intervals on the cross-piece, so as to hang directly over each row, are hung bags of cheese cloth filled with calcium arsenate. The necessary shaking of the bags is secured by rope wrapped about the tires of the wheels at two-foot intervals. In sandy soil it may be necessary to tie 2 inch blocks of wood on the tires in place of these ropes.

If the cotton is large, the quantity of poison applied is increased by driving the team fast, while in small cotton the team may be slowed down. The McLennan County farmers are reported as having full success in poisoning by this method.

We are attempting to keep in touch with supplies of poison and if farmers are unable to locate them, they should communicate with the Experiment Station Entomologist or with the Extension Service Entomologist, both of College Station, Texas.

AMERICAN LEGION HAS INTERESTING MEETING

The local American Legion Post had a very interesting meeting Tuesday night Sept. 15, for the purpose of having a complete reorganization, and to make plans for a membership campaign.

It was decided to have a smoker and feed on the next meeting night, Thursday, September 24th, to which all American Legion members and ex-service men eligible to membership are invited.

Also motion carried by unanimous vote that the club features of the local post be restricted to members only. See the ad elsewhere in this paper in regard to meeting nights.

Amarillo, Texas.—In session last week at Fort Worth, the Texas Department of the American Legion selected Amarillo as the place for the 1926 Convention. Amarillo put up a stiff fight, eliminating Houston, her strongest competitor.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY COUNTY TRUSTEES

Motion was made by J. A. Davis and seconded by H. D. Leach that the District Trustees of Terry County, Texas, pass the following resolutions and hand it to the Terry County Herald:

Be it resolved by the District Trustees of Terry County, Texas, that we take these means of expressing our appreciation to the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce for the splendid dinner served to us at the American Cafe, which shows that trustees get something besides "cussings" part of the time. That we also take this means of expressing our gratification for the speeches made by the following named persons: M. L. Copeland, O. W. Fagala, Mrs. J. L. Randal, J. B. Jackson, J. E. Shelton and H. R. Winston. Motion carried.

Signed: H. D. Leach, Will C. Brown, A. T. Fowler, W. H. Heigh, J. D. Williamson, J. E. Fite, Clovis Hubby, E. R. Norton, L. P. Adair, W. C. Cheak, O. K. Tongate, P. R. Cates, E. V. Gillentine, Jeff Reed, W. M. Schroeder, C. F. Rickles, T. P. Wood, John Gracey, T. E. Hobbs, Mrs. C. R. Hubby, Joe A. Davis, S. M. Smith, C. G. Hudson, R. Stice, C. J. Bonham, T. B. Inman, L. L. Brock, T. D. Warren, S. T. Murphy, W. B. Martin, J. W. May, R. L. Cook, W. T. Patton.

MARTIN BOOT SHOP MOVING TO PHOENIX, ARIZONA

After selling all their real estate holdings here to W. A. Bell and G. W. Chisholm, Martin & Son, prominent cowboy boot makers have announced that about the first part of October they will move their shop to Phoenix, Ari., which is now much nearer the center of the cattle country, as we are fast becoming a farming section.

The Martins have been here some eight or nine years, during which time their business has grown at a rapid rate, and they are now shipping their famous hand made boots to all most every state in the union, and especially the western states, and it is with many regrets that we have to give up this splendid industry.

WORK HAS BEEN RESUMED ON THE COURT HOUSE

After more than three weeks of delay, work was resumed the past week on Terry county's new $120,000 court house, and we understand there will not likely be any more delays until it is completed.

We understand the cause of the delay was not the fault of the contractor, but the fact that after it was decided to excavate the whole foundation, the architects had to work out new foundations, and to use more steel and concrete.

This has all been settled, and workmen are now busy finishing the basement excavations, and material for it and the foundation is being put on the ground at a rapid rate.

TWO YEAR OLD CHILD DROWNED LAST FRIDAY

The little 2 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nix Bigham, who live a few miles south of town was drowned in about two feet of water in a small earthen tank last Friday morning about 9:30, and was buried in the Brownfield cemetery Saturday morning following funeral services conducted by Rev. C. E. Ball.

It seems that the mother was very busy canning vegetables and fruit but missed the little girl, Mary Cathrine, and asked her little brother who is between three and four years old if he knew where sister was. He, not being large enough to realize the danger told his mother that she was in the tank. After getting the child out of the tank the mother ran with her about a half mile to a neighbor's, at which place her husband was working that day. A physician was hurriedly called, and everything was done to resuscitate the child but to no avail.

J. W. Green, the little 8 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Green, died at the home of the parents near Brownfield last Friday, of something like diphtheria. Funeral services were conducted at the cemetery Saturday afternoon by Rev. C. E. Ball, after which the little body was buried.

The heart and sympathy of the entire community goes out to the two families above in their loss of these precious little ones.

SEVERE HAIL VISITS SECTIONS OF COUNTY THURSDAY

Terry county received another big rain last Thursday afternoon that was not needed, but they just have to be received as they come, and we did not hear many objections registered, as we wished for rain too many times some two months ago. However a great many objections were raised to the hail that played wild with the crops in some sections.

From what the Herald can gather, some hail fell in most every part of the county, but not enough to do any damage except a strip which seemed to reach from Tokio running in a southeastern direction, passing thru and south of Gomez. We viewed a few crops around Gomez Sunday afternoon that were from one-half to two-thirds ruined and we learned a few crops in the strip were absolutely wiped out.

We learned Monday morning that Jim Smith, near the Hockley county line had his crop ruined in another hail Sunday night, and unconfirmed reports said the southeastern part of the county was also visited by hail Sunday night.

These hails are certainly bad coming as they do after the crop is almost matured, and when farmers are fighting desperately to save their crops from leaf worms.

Terry Redford left Monday morning to enter upon his second year at Simmons University at Abilene.

WHAT ABOUT A HAIL MUTUAL ORGANIZATION FOR TERRY?

When a business man or citizen has occasion to view the destruction that was wrought by hail in the Gomez and Turner communities of this county last Thursday afternoon, if he has the county or its future at heart, he cannot but help to wonder and figure out some way to mutually help those farmers who are in these hail belts.

There hardly ever is a year but that in some section of the county a portion of some community is hailed out or at least damaged by hail. It then behoves not only the farmers, but all other citizens to begin the planning of some mode of cheap protection.

That old line hail insurance is too high cannot be questioned. Our local insurance men are not to blame for that, however, as they must write at the rates given them. They will probably admit themselves that it is too high and of too short duration for the average farmer to successfully carry it, and would probably be willing themselves to devote some of their time this winter in working out a schedule for a farmer's mutual hail insurance association. The farmer has some means of combating the insects that may attack his crop, for he has poison at his command, and we do not believe any insurance should cover this phase of the crop, but hail is from the elements over which no human has control, and since we are subject to them in some portion of the county almost every year, the only way to protect ourselves is to band together mutually.

As a starter, we might suggest that such insurance should be based on the acreage, as one man may have twice as many acres as another, and would therefore require more protection. Then too, there should be an initiatory or membership fee of sufficient amount to pay a small salary to a secretary elected by the association, and the rest could be worked out on very much the same plans as that of the mutual life association. We believe a committee of three disinterested farmers or business men could be had free of charge to go out and estimate damages in any community. Also the amount of loss could be advanced or the crop as the season advanced and the loss became greater.

Of course it is now too late to work out anything this year, but an effort should be made to get some action of this kind before next planting season. Let us all remember that any destruction of crops anywhere in our territory effects us financially, and it is to our interests to help all we can in the matter. If we now had a fund of even a few thousand dollars to distribute among the farmers in the Gomez and Turner communities, it would not only make them feel better, but would make the more fortunate farmer in other sections feel that he had a small share as his brother's keeper. This would be true co-operation, and friendship in time of need.

We would like to hear from the farmers themselves on the matter and the Herald will welcome any article from any Terry or Yoakum county farmer with any suggestions he may have to offer. We will say further, that he does not even have to agree with our opinion.

Some people say farmers will not stick together, but in this it looks to us that they will have to stand together or pay a prohibitive price for something else to do so.

Old line life and fire insurance rates are cheap enough, but 14 per cent is too much for three and one-half month's insurance on crops.

DISTRICT COURT WAS IN SESSION HERE THIS WEEK

Judge Clark M. Mullican, Judge of the 72nd Judicial District Court, who is exchanging benches with Judge Gordon B. McGuire of the new 100th Judicial District, on account of the latter being disqualified in some cases as he was the former district attorney, came down Monday and opened up district court here. The main case on the docket was the Rose murder case.

A special venire of 100 men had been summoned in the case, but the defendant was granted a continuance until the January term, and that almost cleared the docket for this term.

While there was nothing doing at the court house the rest of the week, court is not officially over for this term until tomorrow night at twelve o'clock.

T. N. Bingham was in Sunday after his mail.

PUTTING THE ROAD PROPOSITION UP TO US

Plains, Texas, Sep. 13, 1925. Terry County Herald:—

Regarding the road west from Brownfield, there is imperative need for immediate action if your town wants this fall's trade from the west. The roads are almost impassable for loaded trucks and wagons. In going to Brownfield yesterday, between your west line and Tokio, I passed two broken or crippled cars, and two more before reaching Gomez.

The trade is already turning from Tatum toward Roswell, and from Lovington and southwest Yoakum to Seagraves, and our Commissioners' Court will tomorrow pass an order to begin work toward opening the road to our north to intersect the railroad 23 miles from Plains on the Santa Fe, now nearing that point in its rapid construction of the line west from Lubbock.

But far worse than the loss of this season's trade for Brownfield, or any other local town's interest or communities preference for present development, your action in stopping the construction of this through road to your west is jeopardizing the interest of the entire tier of counties from Post to Plains in their effort to hold the now assured Military Highway from Fort Worth to Roswell or from the Atlantic to the Pacific. I say assured advisedly. It is ours if we want it and will do our part before some other favored community beats us to the absolute construction of a first class road that the public can use in crossing this part of the Plains.

The road is a national necessity and is going to be built and the state and national authorities favor our route, which is the shortest and most feasible route for the greatly needed military highway crossing the southern part of the nation, connecting the two oceans with a first class overland artery for travel.

No man with a Christian conscience or a particle of patriotism should get in the way or tie up the construction of this road. If they want to diagonal from Plains to Broncho, they can diagonal across my place, any place they want for the asking. If there was a north and south railroad at Tokio, Plains, Broncho and Tatum, with this great overland artery, your town would get ten times the trade from the west she now does.

With millions of bushels of apples every year, and still increasing with other development that is sure to come and when the National Government takes hold she will surely want the shortest route.

And this properly hard-surfaced and advertised will mean more to all this part of the Plains an other year so accommodate the National tourists and advertise us to the world than any other conceivable local development. But if we sit supinely down and wrangle among ourselves as to "who gets the live" some other town gets the National Highway and we get a goat walk or mere county road and my hat is off to the community that gets there first. I can move to Lubbock or Lamesa and still be on the Military Highway.

Yours for anything better,
P. G. Stanford.

BROWNFIELD GINS IN FINE SHAPE TO HANDLE CROP

The managers of the Brownfield gins with a large crew of workmen have been busy for the past few weeks getting them in shape to cut out the 1925 crop in good shape. Not only this, but they have their engines and boilers in shape to go on short notice and most of them have added more or less modern cleaning machinery that has been brought out since the last ginning season, so the local managers are determined to have the very best and very latest machinery that money can buy, and Brownfield territory cotton planters may rest assured that no section will have better ginning equipment than is at their service.

A number of these gins are telling their patrons through the advertising columns about their gins and their new equipment, and we ask that you read each of them that you may be thoroughly posted on ginning conditions in Brownfield.

SEWER PLANS IN AUSTIN FOR APPROVAL

Austin, Sep. 13.—Plans, specifications and designs for a complete sanitary sewer and sewerage disposal plant for Brownfield, Terry county, have been received by the State Board of Health for approval. The plans call for the installation of an Imhoff tank and sludge bed; chlorinator, the construction of an earthen reservoir. Also the laying of approximately 26,000 feet of V. C. pipe.

The capacity of the reservoir to be built, will be large enough to hold the settled sewerage effluent for 30 days in wet weather. This effluent is to be used for the irrigation of 75 acres near the plant, it is stated.

THE FORCE OF HABIT

"Deacon White," asked Parson Jack son softly, "will you lead us in prayer?"

"There was no answer."

"Deacon White," this time a little louder, "will you lead?"

Still no response. Evidently the deacon was slumbering, Parson Jackson made a third appeal and raised his voice to a high pitch that succeeded in arousing the drowsy man. "Deacon White, will you lead?"

The deacon in bewilderment rubbed his heavy eyes and announced: "Lead yourself—I just dealt."

Rotan.—R. Q. Lee, President of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce spoke here recently to one of the largest gatherings ever held in Rotan. All business houses were closed and numbers of the farmers of the Rotan territory heard Mr. Lee who had to speak from a truck on the streets to accommodate the crowd. Mr. Lee's farm program, if carried out will be of great benefit to Fisher county

 By Bumblebee.

People around here have been attending some preaching at Liberty, Turner and Tokio. Brother Terry is holding a revival meeting at Tokio at this writing.

Crops are getting very dry in places as the last rains were spotted. Although if we could get another rain people would make kas of late feed. J. A. Taylor and H. P. French made a business trip to Plains last Monday. P. M. Williams and family have been visiting among relatives at Stamford and up in Wheeler county.

The chicken hunters have been almost as thick as rabbits in places in Yoakum county, but to no avail. Too early for chickens around here.

Before the writer finished this a half inch rain has fallen, and some hail but not enough to damage. The cloud came up from the north and the white faced rattle drifted south. The cloud went to the east, and we were only in the edge of it.

As mentioned in these columns some time ago, the local Baptist church is now on the budget system of disbursing their funds, and they have a budget of $6,000.00 this year, and are making all pledges collectable weekly instead of monthly. This looks like a pile of money, but when one considers that they have 500 or 600 members it looks easier.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Terry county—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Oscar Covey by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 106th Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest District to said 106th Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the County Court of Terry County, Texas, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Brownfield, on the first Monday in October, A. D. 1925, the same being the 5th day of October, A. D. 1925, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 24th day of July, A. D. 1925 in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 233, wherein W. A. Bell is Plaintiff, and Oscar Covey is Defendant, and said petition alleging, that heretofore, to-wit, on the 12th day of April, 1924 defendant made, executed and delivered to plaintiff his certain promissory note bearing that date payable to the order of plaintiff at Brownfield, Texas, on demand, for the principal sum of $525.00 and bearing interest from its date until paid at the rate of 10 per cent per annum, providing the usual 10 per cent attorney's fee clause if placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, whereby defendant became liable and bound to plaintiff and promised plaintiff to pay him the sums of money in said note specified, together with interest and attorney's fees.

That plaintiff has placed said note in the hands of Joe J. McGowan, an attorney, and promised to pay him the 10 per cent attorney's fees specified in said note, which is the usual and customary fee.

The said note is long past due and unpaid, and defendant, though often requested, has failed and refused to pay the same or any part thereof, to plaintiff's damage in the sum of $675.00.

Wherefore plaintiff prays judgment for his debt, principal, interest and attorney's fees and costs of suit, for special and general relief, in law or in equity.

Herein fail not but have before said Court, at its aforesaid regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Brownfield, Texas, on this the 2nd day of September, A. D. 1925.

BROWNFIELD FACULTY PARTY

The teachers of our schools were charmingly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Downing, on Tuesday evening, September 8th. The ladies assisting in the delightful affair were Mrs. J. Hayden Griffin and Mrs. W. H. Dallas.

The short program given was very much enjoyed. Those having numbers were Mrs. Jno. B. King, Elizabeth Downing, Rebecca May, Miss Fogle, Miss Castleberry, Miss Perkins, James H. Dallas. The captain of the fun makers were Mr. and Mrs. Griffin, and such frolic is seldom seen among children, were put on by the teachers. There was a "fight" between two men--a "newspaper fight," which caused a scream of laughter. Brother Sin Bobbed was another that brought roars of merriment from the crowd. The teachers and others were in an extremely happy frame of mind with a report at the close of the evening of a most splendid occasion.

Punch, candies and cakes were served by the hostess. The Downing home recently beautified and re-arranged, was indeed extremely attractive. Flowers of pink and yellow were used with ferns for the decoration. Guest.

TWO MILLION CHEVROLET CARS COMPLETED

The two-millionth Chevrolet built Sept. 8 establishes a new record in automobile history.

The Chevrolet Motor Company is the first maker of selective gear shift cars to attain this production.

Passing the two-million mark production emphasizes Chevrolet progress, said W. S. Knudsen, president of the company. "The present record should not be the last as the company expects to produce close to a half million cars during 1925 which will exceed by a wide margin the 1923 Chevrolet peak production."

When the first "Baby Grand" touring model was turned out at the Flint plant in 1913 Chevrolet production for that year totaled only 5,987 which today would represent less than three days work.

More than 5,000 people here heard the address of R. Q. Lee, President of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, on diversified and extensive farming. An informal reception for Mr. Lee was held and numerous farmers discussed with him the program he is advocating. Following the speaking a watermelon feast was held on the courthouse lawn and several hundred melons were furnished by the local Chamber of Commerce and Lions' club were served.

Icebergs on Lake in Glacier National Park

Icebergs are usually thought of only in connection with the sea, but there are a few places where glaciers have their outlet on bodies of fresh water and where masses of ice float about on lakes, writes T. A. Church in St. Nicholas. One of these is in Glacier National park, in Montana, and visitors pronounce it one of the most spectacular features of this scenic wonderland.

Iceberg lake, as this body of water is most appropriately called, is about seven miles from the famous Many Glacier hotel, and lies in an amphitheater formed by the precipitous Cathedral wall and Mount Wilbur. Between the lake and the cliffs is a glacier, fronting on the water, and large blocks of ice break from its face, so that there are icebergs in the lake, in midsummer.

The snow for the formation of the glacier blows over the walls of the amphitheater, and collects in the basin in huge drifts. These, thawing and freezing, result in ice. The outlet of the lake is too shallow to allow the icebergs to pass out, so they melt there, with the result that the water has, even in summer, a temperature of only 39 degrees Fahrenheit. Despite the coldness of the water, many visitors swim in it and are photographed scampering about on the ice floes.

Near Iceberg lake is Gunsight lake and Gunsight pass, the latter being one of the most famous passes over the Continental Divide. Glaciers are on every hand, and dozens of streams tumble into the picturesque lake. At one time a fine chalet was located on the shore, but it was swept away by an avalanche. Ice may occasionally be seen floating on Gunsight lake, but most of the glaciers which feed the lake are high above the water. The Blackfoot glacier, two miles distant, is the largest in the park, covering an area of ten square miles.

How Sargent "Got" Them

Only a fortnight ago Mr. Ernest Ipsen, a distinguished portrait painter himself, in talking of the character displayed or concealed in the faces of sitters, told me a story of Sargent. It seems that in painting Wertheimer, the artist was watching eagerly for the psychological moment. "Finally," said he, "I deliberately asked him a question about an interesting investment--then I got him." But indeed he nearly always got them; the strong set face of a soldier like General Wood, the lady whose gowns were more important than herself, and the lady whose face in its character would make you forget any gown, the wind and sea tan on the skin of an admiral, or the soft texture of the complexion of a little Beatrice Goelet, the person who was bursting with health and the one who would soon see the doctor.

Yes, he got them.--Edwin H. Blashfield, in the North American Review.

Private O'Leary, V. C.

Michael O'Leary, one of the first men to win the Victoria cross in the war and now a resident of Canada, has been released from custody by United States immigration officials; he has been cleared of the charge of trying to smuggle aliens into this country. Michael won the cross in the early fighting in the Ypres sector. Alone, he advanced up to an enemy machine gun nest and killed half the crew, compelling the other half to surrender and bring their guns along with them. Michael was brought to London to be decorated by the king. Admiral Lord Fisher, that hard-bitten old sea dog, was standing about at the time of the ceremony and remarked: "Mr. O'Leary, you're a d--d good fighter, I wish to God I had you in the navy!"--Pierre Van Paassen in Atlanta Constitution.

Plaster of Paris Houses

Gypsum, commonly called "plaster of paris," which has been used for centuries for plastering walls, is the essential part of a new fireproof building material. Mixed with clinders, gravel, crushed stone or furnace slag, and poured in forms, it can be used in the construction of one and two-story houses at a cost that compares favorably with that of wooden buildings, says Popular Science Monthly. In a recent laboratory test the outside of a six-inch gypsum concrete wall was subjected to a temperature of 1,700 degrees for an hour, and at no time did the interior surface become warm.

Began "Digging" In

During their advance to the Marne, the Germans left sappers behind them to trench a position on the Aisne to which they could return if necessary. After their retreat from the Marne, following the first phase of the Battle of the Aisne, September 18, 1914, they took up their position behind the trenches and the trench warfare, which featured the World war, began.

Had Learned Something

A woman called at a studio for a sitting. The photographer made two negatives and promised proofs for the following day.

The next day her husband called for the proofs, but the photographer showed him only one. The husband said: "My understanding was that there were to be two proofs."

"I did make two sittings of your wife," replied the photographer, "but in one she held her lips apart and showed the end of her tongue."

"My goodness," gasped the husband, "let me see that one. I didn't know there was an end to it!"

FAREWELL PARTY

A large number of the members of First Christian Church gathered at the beautiful home of Mrs. S. H. Hildgate to spend the last social hour as Rev. G. W. Davis and wife before they departed for their home and field of labor in Fordyce, Ark.

The evening was spent in singing and in instrumental music. An abundance of ice cream and coffee was served. The cream was prepared by the members of the Palace Drug Store.

Plainview, Texas--The Fort Worth & Denver City Railroad Company is erecting the second large steel storage tank in Childress. The tank is being built on a concrete and steel support, with a diameter of 24 feet and more than 60 feet to the top of the cover. The capacity of the tank will be 150,000 gallons of fuel oil for locomotives.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE

The State of Texas: To the Sheriff or any Constable of Terry County, Texas, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded by law posted for twenty (20) days, exclusive of the date of posting before the return day hereof at three of the most public places in your county, one of which shall be at the courthouse door of said county, a copy of the following notice; also you will cause to be published once each week for 20 days in some newspaper of general circulation which has been regularly published within your county for more than twelve months before this date, a copy of the following notice to-wit:

The State of Texas, "To all persons interested in the estate of Jno. W. Gordon, deceased:

Joe Boyd, executor of said estate, has filed in the County Court of Terry County, Texas, his final exhibit and report of said estate up to and including the 25th day of August, 1925, which will be heard by said County Court on the first Monday in October, 1925, the same being the 5th day of said month, at the Court House of said Terry County, at Brownfield, Texas, at which time all persons interested in said estate may appear and contest said exhibit and report should they desire to do so.

"Herein fail not but have you before said court on the first day of the said next term thereof this week with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same."

Given under my hand and seal of said court at office in Brownfield, Texas, on this 28th day of August, 1925.

(9-18) Jay Barrett,
County Clerk, Terry County, Texas.

Robert M. LaFollette Jr. has been elected the Republican standard bearer for the United States Senate in Wisconsin, to succeed his illustrious father now deceased. Republican nomination in Wisconsin, like Democratic nomination in Texas, is tantamount to election.

The Texas Company publication recently announced that by 1950 there would be a filling station on every corner. Why not cut off some 25 years of that time and put it 1930. It has almost reached that point now. In fact there are some that are not even on corners.

During the long winter evenings it seems to us it would be a good idea for the Chamber of Commerce to call in conference one or two prominent farmers from every school district in the county to discuss and try to put over a mutual hail insurance association. The affair could be preceded or followed by a feed. What say?

Harry T. Warner part owner and editor of the Paris Daily News died recently in a Houston Hospital following several week's illness. Harry T. Warner was a man of deep convictions and he always expressed his convictions in no uncertain terms, yet they were invariably tempered with reason. The Texas Press Association, as well as his family and the city of Paris, has lost a valued member.

Alex Sanger, one of Texas' leading merchants, with huge wholesale and retail stores at Dallas, Fort Worth and Waco, died early Sunday morning. He was the last of five brothers who started up a dry goods business at Mexia in the early days of Texas. We have our first person to hear say a disparaging word about the Sangers, but on the other hand we have heard numerous people say that if one played the game fair with the Sanger Brothers, they need have no fear in time of calamity.

The Herald has never deemed it necessary to put on any kind of subscription campaign in the way of premiums, but has endeavored to sell the paper at a price in the reach of every citizen, and to treat all alike, believing that the sale of the paper at just about cost of production was stimulation enough, providing any one in the community wanted it. We have always believed that anything sold by enforcing it with a premium was a bad bargain for the paper, making it appear that the paper was cheapened thereby. It has always been the Herald policy to sell it on its own merits, and we find that voluntary subscribers are the ones that most always renew promptly without being baited again.

It is claimed by many that an editor does not mention the disagreeable things of the community, but only those things that are calculated to boost the home town. We have noticed a tendency to get away from this to some extent, as several editors in the Panhandle are panning the poorly kept streets in their home towns. We used to boast of our good streets in McLain, but we have had to quit that, and even now when we boast of the fine new business buildings recently erected on Main street, we have to shut our eyes to the five foot high smflowers and cockleburrs growing in the same street a block away. No home town editor likes to mention the disagreeable things of the town, but sometimes that is the only way to get the evils corrected.—McLean News.

LADIES AID MEET

The Ladies Aid of the Christian church celebrated their fifth anniversary in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Flippin last Monday evening. After an hour of pleasant conversation, the table was heavily laden with eats from sandwiches up to baked chicken and dressing; pies and cakes not a few and some things were scarce when we got through. Mr. and Mrs. Cook stood in a line, Guthrie, Lavina and baby mine. Mr. and Mrs. Holgate came together; Mr. and Mrs. Gracey looked contented forever. Mr. and Mrs. Walters, they too came right along; Mrs. Price and Miss Brooksie, they are dieting they say, but I declare to you they did not eat that way. Then came the children with smiles on their faces, and little time was spent in finding their places. Then came Mr. and Mrs. Dallas, both faithful and true, who have always been a friend to the faithful few. When we had finished each one was thinking and some heard to say: "I'm glad they celebrate their anniversary this way. The fifteenth of September 1926. Let's remember we will celebrate again.—Reporter.

TO MY FORMER CUSTOMERS EVERYWHERE

I wish to say that I have sold the Brownfield Bottling Works to Mr. Geo. T. Kesler, of Lamesa, who is a young man of considerable experience in this line and will give the very best of service. Let us practice what we preach: "Trade with home folks."

FIRE LOSSES IN THE UNITED STATES

Every minute a fire somewhere. One dwelling house burns every 4 minutes. One farm building every 7 minutes. Four warehouses every day. Five churches every day. Five school houses every day. Fifteen hotels every day. Forty human lives every day. A grand total of over $500,000,000 in property and 15,000 lives are sacrificed to demon fire during the year.

In Texas
 Average annual total fire loss in Texas for the last four years has been over $18,000,000.
 Here is a few comparisons for the Texan to think about. In the past four years $54,914,711 was appropriated for the available school fund. There was in the same period a loss of $73,000,000 from fires.
 Texans paid $50,705,068 in local school taxes in the past four years. At the same time they were paying $92,460,698 in insurance premiums.
 Burn less: Educate more.
 The fire tax is terrible; shall we continue to pay it?

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

The State of Texas,
 To the Sheriff or any Constable of Terry County—Greeting:
 You are hereby commanded to summon Mathew Truman by making publication of this Citation for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 106th Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest District to the said 106th Judicial District to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Terry County, to be holden at the Courthouse thereof, in Brownfield, Texas, on the 3rd Monday in January, A. D. 1926, the same being the 18th day of Jan. 1926, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 20th day of August, A. D. 1925, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court number 837, where in Alberta Truman is Plaintiff and Mathew Truman is Defendant, said petition alleging: That heretofore to-wit, on the 28th day of February, A. D. 1910, plaintiff was lawfully married to the defendant at Clarksville in Red River county, Texas. That she, the plaintiff herein continued to live with this defendant as his lawfully wedded wife until the 1st day of November, 1912, when she was forced by studied vexations and abuse and non-support forced to leave said defendant, that she has not lived with this defendant for 10 years, and has never seen him, and does not at this time know his whereabouts. That she is and has been a resident citizen of the State of Texas all her life, and for the past six months a resident of Terry County, Texas. Wherefore she prays that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing be severed, for which in duty bound she will ever pray.
 Herein fail not but have before said Court, at its aforesaid regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.
 Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Brownfield, Texas, on this 20th day of August, A. D. 1925. Jay Barret, Clerk.

SIXTY YEARS IN THE SOUTH

In 60 years the South has learned to compete with the modern world of industry on its own ground, says the National Bank of Commerce of New York in a survey of Southern progress since 1860. In this time it is pointed out by the writer of the survey that an entire social system has been made over and from an agricultural empire there has evolved a region of balanced development.

Cotton now serves both factory and farm. This is the foreword: "The South in 60 years has overcome the destruction and loss of devastating war and has realized its agricultural possibilities as far as the present economic organization requires. In industry, its full power is yet to be revealed."

And then the survey continues that manufacturing has overtaken and far outstripped cotton growing in financial importance. According to survey the cotton crop of 1860 almost equals the value of all manufactured goods at that time. Today the tables are turned. The total value of products of southern industries in 1921 was almost six times the value of the average cotton crop from 1919 to 1923.

Again the survey says that the Southern population still produces more than its per capita share of agricultural production. Thirty-eight per cent of the country's farm crop and animal products in 1923 came from the 16 southern states and over half the total number of American farms are in this section.

Speaking of the rail development, the survey remarks that transportation paved the way for the southern industry revival. The repair of war time damage to trackage and equipment and the notable gain in mileage were the chief forward steps of the era of reconstruction. Now it is asserted the railroads of the South are meeting the needs of both industry and agriculture.

It is gratifying to be told that the basis of a well-rounded economic development lies in a varied natural endowment. The survey says that the climate, soil, water, power, mineral and forest resources furnish materials for a balanced agriculture and industry. And we are told the South has them all, and that, beginning in 1905, the Southern States have built up a vast hydro-electric power system, connecting the resources of various sections.

Texas is a billion dollar agricultural state. Texas is a billion dollar manufacturing state. Texas leads all the American states in its exports. Texas should be first.—Waco News Tribune.

We are requested to announce that Elder Fisher of Abilene will begin a protracted meeting for the Church of Christ at Pride, Texas, on Saturday night, Sept. 19th. Everyone has a cordial invitation to attend.

W. C. Franklin and family have returned home from a several weeks auto tour and visit to relatives in the States of Texas, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Mississippi, Tennessee and Alabama. This was the first trip to the states east of the Mississippi river Mr. Franklin had made in 35 years, and he said he witnessed a wonderful change; knew no one hardly, but just the same thoroughly enjoyed the visit.

Mr. E. M. Osborne, of Plainview, passed through here Wednesday on his way to Lamesa, where he goes as manager of the Higginbotham-Bartlett lumber company at that place. He was accompanied as far as Brownfield by his "friend" Miss Dollie Miller who will spend some time here the guest of her friend, Mrs. Stricklin.

W. C. Smith, who recently returned with his family from Phoenix, Ariz. where he visited with their son and family, presented the Herald with a couple of beautiful specimens from the petrified forests of that state, as he made a trip to it while in that state. He said visitors to the forest were allowed to carry away samples from the outside of the park, but inside nothing must be molested. These two samples showed clearly the bark and sap and the heart of a pine tree, which could be easily recognized by anyone who had ever seen a pine. Just how these forests were formed, and how many billion years ago (?) of course remains for the geologists to tell us. Anyway, we are proud of the samples as they were the first we have ever seen.

Yancy McDaniel, traveling salesman for Graham Paper Co., was in our city one day last week in the interest of his company.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK DESIGNATED BY GOV.

LUBBOCK TO CELEBRATE THREE EVENTS SEPT 30TH

Lubbock, Texas, Sept. 15.—The directors of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will hold their next regular meeting at Lubbock, September 30, coincident with the opening of the Texas Technological College and the opening date of the Panhandle and South Plains Fair, according to information received here from President R. Q. Lee, of Cisco, who states that he expects over 40 of the directors and hundreds of the members from all parts of West Texas to be present on that day to attend the opening exercises of the college and the first day of the fair.

Porter A. Whaley, manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, A. B. Davis, manager of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce and Dr. Paul W. Horn, president of the Texas Technological College who are making arrangements for the opening of the college and Geo. E. Benson, president of the board of directors of the Panhandle South Plains Fair have made arrangements for visitors here September 30, to attend the Fair and the opening exercises at the college without conflict.

The largest crowd that has ever assembled here or on the South Plains is expected here to attend the three events. The Panhandle-South Plains Fair association are making arrangements for one of the best regional fairs in Texas this year and with the abundance of good crops in this section, it is believed that exhibits will rival any fair in the state. Elaborate plans are being made for fireworks, football games and other attractions.

Marvin Jones, of Amarillo, Earle B. Mayfield, of Austin, R. Q. Lee, of Cisco, Dr. W. M. W. Splawn, president of the University of Texas, Dr. W. B. Bizzell, president of the University of Oklahoma, and Dr. Paul W. Horn, president of the Texas Technological College and other noted speakers will appear on the program at the opening exercises of the Texas Technological College.

Ballenger, Texas—Within a short time the cotton rush will be on in Runnels County and there will be busy times here for the next 60 days or longer. The gins are humming and the daily receipts of cotton are increasing on the local market. Up to date more than 30 bales have been marketed.

Moran, Texas—The Moran Luncheon Club met recently with more than sixty visitors and members present. The Moran Band rendered several selections before the luncheon, at which J. F. Scott, of Haileyville, Okla. was the principal speaker.

B. F. Knoll and family have just returned home from a visit to their son Bennie, who is a teacher in the public schools of Srawn, Texas. They also visited relatives at Hamilton, Texas, while away.

Prof. Fagala informed us this week that our school enrollments had done passed the 550 mark, with the high school out waiting for the completion of their building this week. He predicts 700 by the holidays. It takes a corps of 22 teachers to accommodate these students.

J. A. Parks was in Saturday and informed us that his renter had lost two good horses poisoning worms on the place and that he had one in a manner dead. Instead of distributing the poison from the cultivators they were carrying it horse back, and the horses began sweating and the arsenic entered their pores it is thought. They rigged up their cultivators after that.

Littlefield, Texas—Water mains are now being rapidly laid on the streets of Littlefield. The two wells furnishing the water supply have been completed and pumps installed. The Chamber of Commerce is now discussing ways and means for a sewerage system and the paving of the main street of the town.

Editor Harvey Blackstone of the Meadow Review was in our city last Saturday soliciting business among our business men. The Review does a thriving business here getting some that the Herald don't, which is perfectly alright as it has a tendency to bring more business here, and the Herald is bound to share in some of that. Let the good work go on.

ANOTHER ROAD IN PROSPECT

Mr. W. B. Story, president of the Santa Fe system, in a wire to the Star-Telegram Tuesday, confirms the report that engineers of his railroad are now surveying east from Post for the route of a new line to Fort Worth. However, Mr. Story does not say that his company intends to construct such a line at this time or in the immediate future. But he does say that such a line has been in mind for some time; that the Santa Fe has intended to construct it when the "time is ripe" and that the surveys are being made so that his road can act without delay when that time comes.

This statement we believe has much significance at this time. In our opinion, it means that if the Fort Worth and Denver is granted a permit to construct its line into the South Plains, the Santa Fe will immediately counter with an application for a road into Fort Worth. Since the Fort Worth & Denver's application is up for final hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission in October and a decision is likely before the end of the year, the Santa Fe is making its surveys so as to lose no time.

Thus, Fort Worth instead of getting one direct one-line haul connection into the South-Plains section is almost certain to get two. We base this statement upon the sincere belief that the Interstate Commerce Commission will grant the Fort Worth and Denver's application and at that the present action of the Santa Fe is tantamount to a declaration of its intention to construct such a line when the Fort Worth & Denver is permitted to build.

Such a line as the Santa Fe is now surveying would be of incalculable benefit to Fort Worth. It would afford a direct line into the very heart of the South Plains and would open up to Fort Worth a territory that is now accessible only through more or less circuitous routes. The road, in all likelihood would traverse Fisher, Jones, Shackelford and Stephens counties, connect with the Santa Fe's branch at Weatherford, and thence into Fort Worth.

The Santa Fe, in the opinion of the Star-Telegram will find the time is ripe for the construction of such a line as outlined when the Fort Worth and Denver gets its permit. As long as there was no direct connection between the South-Plains and Fort Worth, there was no necessity or even incentive for the Santa Fe to build from that section to Fort Worth. With the Fort Worth and Denver invading the territory, through connection with its main line at Estelline and tapping the rich region to the north, the situation will become different. A direct line to Fort Worth in this case will become a necessity for the Santa Fe.

The chief fact in the whole situation, however, is the recognition that the wonderful development of the South Plains territory and its almost unlimited possibilities of the future, make direct, one-line connection with the Fort Worth markets essential. The section is too vast; it is too rich; its possibilities are too great to be denied access longer to its natural market, and that natural market is Fort Worth. The railroads recognize this fact; they appreciate the possibilities in the South Plains and they know that those possibilities can be realized upon best through construction of lines that will afford direct connection between the South Plains and Fort Worth.

The Star-Telegram supported the application of the Fort Worth & Denver, for it believed that as the only concrete proposition then offered for relief of the situation, it deserved unstinted support. However, it said at the time that it would support the Santa Fe or any other railroad system that put forward a definite, concrete proposal for the benefit of the South Plains and Fort Worth. It hopes that Mr. Story's telegram means that the Santa Fe soon will be ready for such a proposal. In that event, it will lend whatever influence it may possess to the Santa Fe's application, provided, of course, that application has for its object the direct linking of Fort Worth and the South Plains.

The South Plains territory, in our opinion, is large enough and its tonnage sufficient to support both the Fort Worth & Denver and the Santa Fe lines. It also believes that the future of the territory is such that not only these two lines, but others will be found necessary to serve it.—Star-Telegram.

Two Washington fire guards were arrested for smoking and for leaving camp fires burning in the forest they were "protecting." An Oregon man was fined $100 for refusing to help put out a fire he had started, saying he had lived there for 47 years and he "knew all about fires."

The Northwest has just gone thru a bad fire season; it would have been worse if extraordinary precautions had not been taken. It will take a life time to put many burned-over areas back to the condition they were in last spring. A law that punishes the careless user of our forests is a good law; that needs rigid enforcement.

G. M. Horn, farmer of the Gomez vicinity, informed us Saturday that he had a special invitation to attend the Fiftieth Anniversary celebration of the organization of Eastland county, to be held at Eastland in the near future, as Mr. Horn was there during organization. Mr. Horn remarked that he did not remember the Indians ever visiting Eastland county, but he remembered several times when they raided Young, Jack and Comanche and Brown and other more prairie counties. He said the Indians were afraid to get down in the deep brush of Eastland and Stephens, as they had no land marks through the brush, and were afraid of getting lost or cut off by the white people.

LAMESA GIRL PAINFULLY BURNED WITH ACID

Flora Ellen, the sixteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Lindsey, was very painfully burned last Saturday evening when the cork of a bottle of nitric acid came out and the chemical came in contact with her lower limbs.

The injured girl was attending church services at the Baptist church, and had the bottle of acid in her lap. In some way the cork came out and she was burned by the acid. She was immediately given medical attention, and it is thought she will be alright in a short time.—Lamesa Journal.

Mesdames G. S. Webber and W. C. Duffie have returned from Dallas, where they purchased stocks for their gift shop they aim to open in the near future in the Cook & Son balcony.

W. C. McDuffie, assistant-cabier of the First National Bank, returned one day last week from Ennis, Texas, where he visited relatives for some ten days. Mr. Duffie remarked in conversation with the Herald man that they had the poorest crops in that section he ever knew. For instance, he said, my wife's grandfather has 900 acres of black land farms that are valued at around $200 per acre that he won't get 20 bales of cotton off this year, and pointing to a small Ford truck, Mr. Duffie said it would hold all the feed that would be raised on the 900 acres.

We have been requested to announce that the Aer-o-plane Stores will not have any more auction sales for two reasons. The sales block the side walks too much, and the City Council had requested them to discontinue same. Also a misunderstanding with the Aer-o-plane people has come about, and unless this is settled they will be discontinued altogether.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Harbin returned Tuesday of this week from Baird, where Mrs. Harbin has been attending the bedside of her brother who recently underwent an operation for ruptured appendix. She left him improving slowly. Mr. Harbin who is superintendent of state road construction in this county, only left here one day last week after his wife, but he went as far as Brownwood and Eastland while away, and he informed us that "if I do say it, I did not see any dirt roads to compare with our roads in Terry county built by the State Highway Department. Well, if he did, he sure saw some good one. We can heartily say that.

Floydada, Sep. 12—Homer Steen, the hustling editor and owner of the Floydada Hesperian, is tip-toeing around over the city now with a smile on his face that reaches all the way around and buttons behind. The cause of the "light-soedness" and the "smilingness" is the fact that he has just moved into his "spic-and-span" new office building. He says he will now have ample space to "sweep" his wicked blue pencil without punching an assistant in the eye.

It has a fine appearance and is specially designed and constructed for commercial service. Its deep 6-inch channel steel frame, hung low to the ground on long semi-elliptic springs, allows the platforms to be placed at the right height for easy loading and unloading.

The powerful Chevrolet motor is famous for its ability to stand up under heavy service. It has a standard 3-speed transmission, fully enclosed dry plate disc clutch, extra heavy rear axle, heavy truck-type wheels and large tires, full running boards and fenders, Remy generator, starter and distributor ignition, and other quality features.

The Chevrolet chassis may be found with a wide variety of bodies, suitable for any business. 30" x 5" tires on front wheels only $30 extra. For lighter loads there is a Chevrolet commercial 1/2 ton chassis possessing the same quality features, price $425.00 f.o.b. Flint, Michigan.

SATTERWHITE NOT TO MAKE RACE FOR GOVERNOR

Austin, Sep. 15.—Lee Satterwhite, speaker of the house in the 39th legislature, today blasted the hopes of his supporters who have been hopeful that he would enter the gubernatorial race in 1926.

In a statement authorized here, Mr. Satterwhite declared that he would not be a candidate for either the governorship or the lieutenant-governorship, but would be content to be returned to the house as a "plain representative."

Satterwhite has been prominently mentioned as gubernatorial timber since the adjournment of the last session, where he achieved an enviable record. "I have reached the conclusion that the next campaign will be one of the bitterest ever waged in Texas," Satterwhite declared. "I do not care to become involved in such a contest and will be satisfied to seek re-election as representative from Potter County."

Now Ready

For Motor Car Owners

MOTOPOWER

The GASOLINE that LUBRICATES

Motopower Car owners of this city can now get MOTOPOWER—The Gasoline that lubricates. This is the Motor Fuel which has created such a sensation in other cities where it has been introduced. Its popularity has been instantaneous—it has made friends by the millions.

It means new life for your motor,—more mileage, fewer repair bills. MOTOPOWER contains no injurious chemicals or acids. It is absolutely guaranteed not to injure the finest motor or carburetor.

HERE'S WHAT MOTOPOWER DOES

It lubricates—that in a nutshell is the big secret of MOTOPOWER GASOLINE. MOTOPOWER is a heat resisting oil. It lubricates the valves, the valve stems and behind the top piston rings. It softens and dissolves carbon. The natural result is better compression, which in turn gives you more power and more miles to the gallon.

MOTOPOWER lubricate: the interior of your motor on the same principle that the interior of a steam engine is lubricated. Just as the oil goes in with steam on a steam engine so does the oil of MOTOPOWER go into your motor with the gasoline vapor. Compression is the main thing in a motor—and MOTOPOWER maintains compression.

FAMILY REUNION AT HOME OF J. T. MAY IN LUBBOCK

No custom that is the product of civilization gives more pleasure to those who take part in them than the family reunion, when all the children under the parental roof and express their love for one another and for their parents.

Such a gathering took place on Sunday when eight of the children and their families met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. May.

Mrs. I. C. Burgess, one member of the family is moving from the Plains to Eldorado, Ark., and all the family met in her honor. A sumptuous feast was enjoyed at noon, after which the family went to the home of Mrs. W. W. Royalty and enjoyed a musical and social program which well displayed the talent of the grandchildren.

Those present were: Mrs. I. C. Burgess and family, of Brownfield; Mrs. E. B. Wright and family, of Dimmett; Mrs. W. B. Downing and family, of Brownfield; Mrs. Boyce Cardwell and family, of Plainview; Mrs. W. W. Royalty and family, of Lubbock; Arthur May and family, of Lubbock; Tom May and family, of Brownfield, and Scott May and family, of Lubbock.

At the close of the afternoon program, Mrs. Boyce Cardwell read the poem by Edgar A. Guest, which is printed below:

When the Task is Ended

"When the task is ended, happy those who say:
"He we cherished as a babe is a man today!
She who was our little girl is a woman true.

Sin and shame have harmed them not; we have bro't them thru."
When the task is ended, in the setting sun

Age must set and rest awhile, pondering all it's done;
Then the child who is an man and the daughter fair

Pay with pride and happiness for their years of care.
There's no glory like to this, there's no gift from fame

Which excelleth children grown, and worthy of their name—
Strive for fortune as you may, but time shall go,

If with joy your age shall shine, they shall make it so.
Here's the summit of success, when the race is run;

Not the wealth which you have gained, not the tasks you've done,
But at last to sit and see, all your babies grown.

Sturdy men and true women, fit to stand alone.—Lubbock Avalanche.

COAHOMA MAN CONDUCTING ODD FELLOW SCHOOL

Mr. J. F. Henderson, of Coahoma, Texas, arrived in Brownfield last Saturday and immediately began the instruction of a class in the unwritten work of that order, and the attendance upon the nightly session through the week have been increasing. He is also devoting his time through the day to both class and private work.

We understand that a joint session of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will have a feed Saturday night.

Those who are missing these fine instruction are doing themselves an injustice, for the opportunity is their's to learn, as it may be years before another such opportunity presents itself.

APPLICATION FOR PROBATE

The State of Texas,
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Terry county, Texas, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to cause to be published for ten days, exclusive of the return day hereof, in a newspaper of general circulation which has been regularly published in Terry county, Texas, for more than twelve months before this date the following notice:

The State of Texas,

To all persons interested in the estate of R. H. Coons, deceased:

Artie Coons has filed in the County Court of Terry County, Texas, an application for the probate of the last will and testament of R. H. Coons, deceased, and for letters testamentary, which said application will be heard at the next term of said County Court commencing on the first Monday in October, 1925, the same being the 5th day of October, 1925, at the court house thereof in Brownfield, Texas, at which time all persons interested in said estate may appear and contest said application should they desire to do so.

Herein fail not; but have you before said Court on the first day of the next term thereof this writ with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, this the 10th day of September, 1925.

County Clerk, Terry County, Texas

CAN WE OVERCOME THE RURAL HANDICAP

Attractive as country life may be the most enthusiastic ruralist will admit that it has its handicaps. One of its drawbacks is pointed out in this item. The Bureau of Education, U. S. Department of the Interior, has recently compiled statistics from reports received from over 500 county superintendents of public schools, contrasting the cost of the country school with the cost of the public schools in the cities and towns of less than 2500 population where less than half the enrollment comes from farm homes.

Based upon number enrolled in 1924 it is found that the per pupil cost in the country schools of the United States was $68.39 and in the schools of the small cities and towns above indicated it was $100.64.

Dividing the whole country into 4 geographical divisions it is found that the North Atlantic division the rural schools cost $69.00 per pupil enrolled and the small city student $85.00. In the North Central States the average cost per pupil was $78.00 in the country schools and $111.00 in the small cities and large villages. In 14 Southern States the school cost $34.00 per pupil in the country and $44.00 in the small cities. In the Western Division country schools cost $97.00 per pupil while the cost in the small cities and larger villages was $117.00 per pupil.

How can the wide difference in cost be explained? The reports show that the small city schools are open one or two months longer and the salaries of teachers are 40 percent larger than in the schools where more than 50 percent of the children are from farm homes.

HOT!

What is said to be the highest temperature yet produced by man is reported to have been reached at the University of Leeds, England by the use of ordinary manufactured gas and oxygen, according to the University's "Fuel and Metallurgical Reports." These reports state that a temperature of 7,677 degrees Fahrenheit was reached.

The impracticability of manufactured commercial oxygen on a large scale is some of the barriers to wide use of manufactured gas and oxygen, a combination which American Engineers claim will solve a great many industrial heating problems.

Messrs Seals and J. T. Cotten, of the Seagraves country, had business in the county capital Wednesday and paid the Herald a short call.
