ARMISTICE CELEBRATED WITH BIG PARADE

Armistice Day was opened here by the firing of anvils before good day light by the former service men and others who got up that early. After a round of anvil shooting, the boys got their skillets, bread, eggs and bacon and repaired to the Legion Hall where a roaring camp fire had been prepared, and once again they lived over those days in the training camps and near the lines of foreign battlefields.

About eleven o'clock a parade line was formed on east Hardin, and at a signal of about the time the Armistice was signed in 1918, the fire siren was turned on. This was a signal for the six gins which were all fired up, and for about five minutes we "stay at home" thought of that night in 1918 when we fairly turned ourselves loose and were just boys again in celebrating peace.

But on came the parade with many and various sizes of our national banner, from the big one belonging to the American Legion to the little fellows carried by the tiny school children. Every business house also had its flag out front. First came W. A. Bynum, former U. S. sailor, acting as marshal of the day on a spanking pony, closely followed by the Chamber of Commerce Band playing one of those famous military marches of which our nation and especially Souza are famous. Close behind the band was some thirty or forty ex-service men, some in uniform, but all with a quick proud step that could not be stopped by the Kaiser's crack veterans. Following them was our Boy Scouts, who are our peace time protectors, and then men of the future that our nation will depend most upon. Then came a band of men representing the local Woodmen lodge, whose merits are too widely known to need any introduction from us.

Then came some six hundred school children, headed by the Seniors, then the juniors, sophomores, freshmen and the grades. Many of these had decorated floats that would have done credit to much larger towns and schools. Even the tiny tots of the kindergarten and first grade had a big double float well decorated. But one youngster on a single float representing Uncle Sam, probably attracted the most attention.

The Seniors got first prize of $10 for having the most appropriately decorated float, and the Sophomores got second prize of $5.00 for the most beautiful float.

After the parade, the participants and viewers formed near the north entrance to the courthouse and were addressed by Judge Geo. W. Neill with a very thrilling and appropriate talk for the occasion.

As all the stores were closed from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M., the rest of the day was spent in the homes, hunting or outing trips. The local theatre was liberally patronized at night. A big dance at the Legion Hall at night ended the festivities of the day.

BOY IS VICTIM OF PECULIAR ACCIDENT

When Louie Schorn living on Dr. Towne's farm south of town roped a cow Friday, the rope became entwined about a couple of his fingers and when the cow lunged forward at the end of the rope, the end of one of his fingers was jerked off and the nail torn from another. It became necessary for the doctor to amputate the finger which received the greatest injury.—Tahoka News.

BROWNFIELD 0—AMHERST 0 FARMERS MAINTAIN THAT ADVERTISING PAYS

The main feature of the November eleventh program was the gridiron battle under the Amherst All Stars and Brownfield All Stars. It was a game full of excitement and thrills. It was an unusual game for a scoreless tie. The entire game was played under the shadow of a touchdown for the locals and without a threat to score by the visitors. The visitors never did cross the fifty yard line, while the locals brought the ball within a few feet of a touchdown twice but opposition by Amherst would be so strong they could not push it over.

The brand of football played by the local eleven was far superior to that of Amherst. Brownfield played a real good game of offensive ball, while the visitors seemed to be afraid to play anything up-straight defensive ball. The locals showed very plainly the need of having worked together.

The field generalship of Tannery was very good indeed. He out general Mr. Pool, Amherst coach and quarterback, very much as well as making some good gains. Fred Youree, and Ballard played a power offensive game. While in the line was the veteran, Ben Hillyard, at end and a number of other stars too numerous to mention.

For Amherst, Nickles at full and the center man were the stars. The local High School will meet Levelland on the High School field Friday, and return the game to Levelland on Thanksgiving day. If Brownfield can win these two games they will have won the South Plains Class B District. If proper support can be had we will be able to win the honor.

We are hoping the town will go one hundred strong to Levelland on Thanksgiving. The game will be played at two o'clock which will give everybody time to return to Brownfield for evening entertainments. Close your places of business and come out Friday to our last game on the home field.

REPORTS FROM COUNTY HEALTH NURSE

The County Health committee meets next Wednesday afternoon, November 24th, at the Methodist church.

There will be a Free Clinic at the Court House next Tuesday afternoon November 23rd from 2:30 to 5 for the benefit of the mothers who were unable to bring their children last week.

Delhart—Ground broken for new business building adjoining Midway Filling Station.

Marathon—New Gage Hotel under construction.

That advertising in the Herald pays and pays well has been satisfactorily demonstrated a number of times recently until there is no question at all about the matter, but we are going to give the readers just a few instances of very recent date.

A farmer living near Plains sent in a 25c ad recently to run in the classified columns and said he actually had thirteen buyers come over there in answer to that ad. However he missed a sale of his hogs, for the first man who came contracted for the whole lot and never came back. He had to turn down twelve other men who followed, and to cap it all had to bring them to town last Saturday to dispose of them, which he readily did. But he says the next man that contracts any hogs from him will at least put up a nice forfeit.

There is a farmer of the Harmony section that uses lots of advertising space with us in a year's time, and he says it has always paid him well, and believes that more farmers should make use of our classified column.

He remarked that he often made sales on the strength of his ads long after they appeared in the paper. Only this week we had inquiry about an ad that appeared in these columns so long ago that we had forgotten about it. Some years ago the editor wrote an article giving a description of the land and prices, and last year we got the clipping back from a man in Alabama asking if land was still that cheap here. It had advanced three fold since that article was written.

Recently one of our physicians lost his old house cat and advertised in these columns for her but the printer got her description wrong, and the doctor says all kinds of off brand cats were brought to his place, one fellow bringing two.

Also a fine young lady tried these columns for a husband, and while the conditions to be met were very strenuous, she reports many applicants for her hand—and who knows but some dashing sheik from the far east or west may come in yet to lay their heart before her. None of the out of town fellows have read of her marriage yet, and it might hearten them to try their hand.

You bet your socks young fellow; it pays to advertise.

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING SOLEMNIZED SUNDAY MORNING

In the presence of intimate friends and relatives, the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Downing and Mr. Roy M. Herod was solemnized in the home of the brides parent, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Downing at 9 o'clock, Sunday morning, November the fourteenth.

The rooms of the spacious home were artistically decorated in excellent taste—a profusion of ferns, smilax and trailing vines being used with gorgeous blooms of white and yellow chrysanthemums. The interior beautifying was under the able direction of Mrs. J. B. Cardwell, of Plainview, Texas, an aunt of the bride.

An exquisitely improvised altar was the archway between the living and dining rooms. This was treated with a charming background of smilax ropes meeting tall baskets of chrysanthemums on either side. Fluffy bows of maline were tied to the tall handles. A mirror reflecting the rear bore the same perfect and beautiful theme as the Bridal Archway, where large baskets were also used filled with ferns and gorgeous chrysanthemums. Candelabras of brass holding yellow candles lighted the beautiful rooms, being placed to enhance the charm and dignity of the occasion. The mantel was decorated with smilax as also the punch table and the massive dining table which held the Brides cake, a vision of loveliness built in three tiers.

Mrs. J. B. Cardwell, of Plainview, sang sweetly, as of yore, two wedding songs, "At Dawning" and "O' Promise Me" preceding the ceremony. Mrs. W. H. Dallas accompanying Mrs. Cardwell, also played Lohengrins Wedding March as the wedding party entered. First came Mr. and Mrs. Carl Herod, followed by the dear little attendants, Miss Virginia May little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom May and Miss Mildred Herod tiny sister of the groom, as flower girls, carrying pretty baskets, from which they scattered petals. Little Betty Jo Cardwell, dainty little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cardwell came bearing the ring on a tufted pillow of pink satin. Dainty costumes of pink satin were worn by these tiny little ladies, which added beauty and charm and brought forth admiration.

The bride and groom were met under the bower of beauty by Reverend Mr. J. W. Baughman, former pastor of the bride, who in his accustomed sincere manner said the words which made them man and wife.

The bride was altered in a pretty autumn frock, hat and accessories harmonizing, and was her usual sweet self, and beautiful as she took the vows of wedded life.

The groom wore the conventional suit of black.

During the ceremony strains of entrancing melodies were heard. Mr. John S. Powell with his masterful touch played the violin accompanied by Mrs. Dallas.

Generous baskets of flowers placed on pedestals were used in the dining room and the French doors decorated with smilax ropes. The wonderful sparkling punch was served by Mrs. W. H. Collins by the East window. Mrs. Walter Royalty of Lubbock cut the cake.

The Registration Table held a charming Brides Own Book, a gift, in which names of the guests were written. Mrs. G. S. Webber presided at this table.

The guests were impressed with this beautiful wedding, the charm of the home and the sincerity of the entire ceremonies and the dearest hopes for a happy life of the radiant bride. Elizabeth has grown to young womanhood here and has endeared herself to all who know her. She is a talented musical student, a sincere christian, a loyal friend, a pure and lovable young woman. The very best of life's joys should be hers— with few shadows to mar.

AVALANCHE FARM WRITER VISITS BROWNFIELD

By special invitation we made a trip to Brownfield last Saturday to discuss the present cotton price situation. There were about fifty men out for the meeting, and they seemed interested in our presentation of the best, or what we think is the only way out of the present difficulty.

There is but one plan that will prove effectual, and that is for the farmers to absolutely stop selling at the present prices, and for the bankers and all other business interests including the newspapers of the country which have always stood for the farmer in times of trial and difficulties in the past and are their greatest help in letting interested parties have the opportunity to discuss their difficulties through the papers.

A strong holding campaign was assured, and there were many hundred bales of cotton shipped out from Brownfield and held for better prices.

We were delighted to find the farmers studying their problems in the earnest way they are. They endorsed our idea that the farmers cannot handle the situation without the co-operation and assistance of the banks and others interests mentioned, and expressed confidence in the bankers who they contend are their friends and not their enemies as some try to make them believe. They seemed revived and encouraged to make strong effort to hold the crop off the market until a strong reaction should come over the minds of the people and they would get together and make a fair price for this crop.

There was one thing we noted of importance on the trip, and that was after we had gone, say half way, the cotton had not been blown and wasted by the wind and rains as it had here near Lubbock.

We were surprised not to see cotton on the ground and there were new leaves budding out and did not have the dead and damaged appearance that the cotton near Lubbock has. Then the other strange thing we noticed was the corn fields; the corn was still in the fields. We do not know why the farmers have left the corn on the stalks as they have this late. It has been our practice to gather the corn as early as possible after maturity.

There was one very noticeable thing we observed and that was that there were no crops of grain along the road. We always like to see the fields or some of them sown in grain and have a green appearance at this time of season. We think there could be no sinner thing than for more of our farmers to sow grain now or even later. There is now enough moisture in the land to bring up and carry the grain crop to May next year.—Welton Winn in Lubbock Avalanche.

BROWNFIELD PARTY ARRESTED IN LAMESA

Last Saturday night a party of young people motored over from Brownfield to attend the dance at the natatorium and incidentally get a little prescription whiskey, and having found a doctor who does not live in Dawson county willing to write the prescription as one of the members was supposed to be sick, and according to reports, they took the whiskey to the dance and from all accounts others in the crowd felt badly and imbibed in the prescription and the result was that Sheriff Dillard and Deputy Lena escorted them to the county hearing house where they had a chance to make bond and return wiser if not better folks.

It is a serious mistake to try and come to Brown county to pull a party as several will attest besides these gentlemen. They will pick another county perhaps to have fun the next time on the end is not yet in sight.—Lamesa Reporter.

WILL AND BRIT STAMPEDE A HERD OF CALVES

About the most laughable thing we have heard lately occurred recently when Will Poole of the Poole & Goodman ranch, and Brit Clare of the Clare ranch started to drive some 900 head of calves to grass they had leased in Gaines county.

It seems that Will started his herd of some 600 and had them going good and went by the Clare ranch where Brit was to join him with 300 head from his ranch. Well, everything was lovely and the gooses hanging up high when Brit got right out in the middle of the 900 white faces and stretched to capacity and gave a yawn that could be heard in the next county. Well the calves broke.

Every horse they had was ran stiff and two of the calves died from overheating. It took all day to round them up again.

Now Brit is a gentleman of proportions, running avoirdupois up to some 225 pound, though he is not very hard to look at, although the calves may have decided different. Anyway it might have been Will's calves that got frightened and that started Brit's calves. Anyway we bet the calves never saw anything like that before.

Brit is hardly through denouncing himself yet, it is said, for any old cowman should have known better than pull such a stunt in from of a herd of cattle.

BIG COMPANY HELPS LOCAL MERCHANTS

How one of the largest manufacturing concerns in the country cooperates with their dealers to keep local business in the hands of local concerns, was interestingly brought out in a talk with one of our leading tire merchants last week.

The company to which he pointed particularly for its work in this direction is The United States Rubber Company, which has perhaps gone further along these lines than any other tire concern.

There are several reasons, aside from the very good point of keeping home money at home, why our own local tire stores are the logical place to buy tires rather than the mail order houses.

Tires need looking after by an experienced tire man. He must have a well equipped and well stocked shop and be able to tell whether a tire is doing its work properly, and if not why not.

For instance, an expert tire man can tell whether tires are wearing unduly because of the wheels being out of alignment and can correct the trouble in time.

If improperly equalized brakes are causing tire wear, the tire man can tell that and warn the owner.

This sort of service you cannot expect when you buy tires from mail order houses.

The United States Tire Company started eleven years ago to educate people to their interest in supporting the legitimate home town tire dealer.

In addition to running its own educational campaign in local papers, without interruption for eleven consecutive years, the Company encourages the dealer to supplement it with advertising of his own and helps him do it. Under certain conditions it even shares the expense of the dealer's own advertising.

Recent improvements in production methods now enable the United States Rubber Company to market, through the local dealers, tires of known quality, bearing the Company's full warranty, for as little money or even less than the cost of nameless mail order tires of uncertain value.

POULTRY RATIONS MUST BE BALANCED

A hen cannot lay one-half an egg. The closest she can approach this is to lay a soft-shelled egg. Though these facts may be self-evident to the average farmer there is a moral in the foregoing statement—material for both the yoke and the white must be present in the ration for laying hens.

"Make use of the feeds that are grown on the farm," advises D. C. Henderson, poultry extension specialist at State College, South Dakota. "Corn and other grains raised should make up the greater part of the ration. However a ration that consists entirely of corn contains an excess of the material from which the yolk is made and not enough for the proten, or the material for the development of the white.

"If the hen is given a ration low in proten, such as the straight grain rations, the proten in the grain must be stored up from day to day, and production is limited by lack of proten in the feeds. Milk is one of the best sources of proten. On farms where the amount milk is not limited, satisfactory egg production may be obtained through feeding shelled corn in hoppers and skim milk in the place of water.

"If milk is not available, tankage or meat scraps may be used. In this case limit the amount of corn in the morning by feeding the amount that the flock will clean up in fifteen minutes. Give the birds all the corn they will eat in the evening. Keep the tankage or meat scraps in the feeders before the flock all the time.

Henderson advises that proten lacking in the grain feeds may be supplied in the form of tankage or meat scraps fed in combination with ground feeds. A ration which he advises as practical on farms that are equipped to grind feed is composed of 65 pound of yellow corn, 20 lb. cracked wheat or wheat middlings 10 pounds of tankage or meat scraps four pounds of bone meal and one pound of salt.—Farm and Ranch.

A SNAKE STORY

A kind hearted farmer up in North Dakota found a rattlesnake caught in a trap and compassionately released the animal and went on his way. The snake followed his liberator home and exhibited such friendliness that the farmer kept it as a pet. When the weather got cold the rattler was allowed to sleep in the kitchen. One night hearing a commotion down stairs, the farmer rushed down to find the snake tightly coiled around the neck of a burglar who had entered the house. The snake's tail was stuck out of a window, frantically rattling for the police.—Ex.

We are sorry for the Republicans in their failure to make Texas a two-party state. They did not cast sufficient votes in the recent general election to entitle them to hold a primary two years hence. An they would not have done so two years ago under any other circumstances than the one Texas was confronted with at that time.

We are certainly glad that our people have learned to take down their flags at sunset on flag days. Now if could learn them to stand and bare their heads when the Star Spangled Banner is being played, stand at salute when the flag is being raised, we could pull our celebrations here without being ashamed of any visitor seeing us.

A preacher said to his congregation: "There is a certain man among us who is going with another man's wife. Unless he puts five dollars in the collection box his name will be read from the pulpit." When the box came in there were nineteen five dollar bills in it and a two dollar bill with a note attached, saying, "This is all the cash I have, but will send the other three dollars Wednesday."—Ex.

The Lovington N. M. Leader is regretting the fact that New Mexico went Republican this year except their one lone congressman, but holds out the consolation that Lea county elected every one of the county officials who are Democrats. Well, how could one expect Lea county to be anything else but Democrats and it just across an invisible line from grand old Texas?

Several people have asked us recently "What is an independent Democratic newspaper?" Well, we have seen several of them during our newspaper experience and we have found this to be the answer, "An independent Democratic newspaper" is one run in a Democratic community by a Republican editor who has neither the courage nor the independence to take a stand for the principles in which he believes where the opposition is overwhelmingly against him.—Lovington Leader.

West Texans are natural born boosters. A certain writer said "That if one of them should accidentally die and go to hell he'd be found on the street corner boosting the place in ten minutes after arrival. That is as it should be. Be a booster for your town—make people want to come here. Of course there might be a limit. We must stay in reason. But the thing to do is to believe in your town so strongly that you'll think you are telling the truth whether it is or not. Boost Miami! If you can't be a booster move on.—Miami Chief.

A farmer remarked to us recently that it cost him $2,000 to make his 100 acres of cotton and possible half that amount of feed. We wanted to say a lot to him, but he was a bigger man than we. Yet we cannot help wondering how a man is going to make both ends meet with such an expense as that, not to say anything about the expense of the family, of which he likely did not include. Such an overhead would break the best bank in the country, according to the amount invested. He asked us how we expected him to pay any debts out of a crop that cost him that much. We don't.

Trotsky has been thrown into the discard in the government of Russia, and many most worthy souls in this country now quietly sympathize with him, knowing something about that retirement business themselves. And in passing, it is well to admit that Trotsky was by far the most humane and intelligent figure in the crimson dynasty that succeeded the Romanoffs. Also that he has simply served his allotted time, it being accorded no man to perpetually serve any people, except in a despotism. Not that it wouldn't have been perfectly alright, if the Soviet had retired Trotsky with the firing squad.—Roswell Dispatch.

Other proofs that football is a dangerous "sport" came to our attention this week via the Littlefield Leader which reported a game they recently had with Lubbock. It seems that not only a lot of the Littlefield players were knocked out for the count of ten, and some of them badly injured, but it seems after the game was over some of the Lubbock "fans" caught two of the Littlefield players off to themselves and proceeded to give them a real good mobbing, and at least one of them wound up in one of the hospitals there. At Tahoka one of their players got his shoulder broke attacking a dummy.

If school boys can be broken up attacking dummies, what could happen if they attacked the real thing. Our opinion is that football in its present form should be banished by every school board in the state.

We are no lawyer, son of one, or that we know of the least bit blood kin to one that we know of, but we believe that we are endowed with old horse sense enough to know that no law can be passed that will stand up for itself in this or any other state. We are sustained in this by some of the best constitutional lawyers in the state, who says it can't be did. Then why do so many people, some of them of our legislature and other leaders continually harping on such legislation? Are they looking for a job, or have they an axe to grind, or are they just simply plain damphools. The only way for cotton acreage reduction to succeed is for the farmers to take the matter up themselves and carry it out just like any sensible mill owner shuts his plant down when he is overcrowding his market.

One Edward Sapiro has been touring Texas and the South making addresses concerning the present cotton situation and telling the farmers that the bankers are a set of thieves and robbers who are scheming now to swindle them out of their earnings. We do not believe a word of it. Edward Sapiro has an axe to grind. He is the same gentleman that Henry Ford has been constantly warning the American people against for the past several months. We never believed there was much to Henry's charges against Sapiro until the latter gentleman made his visit to Texas recently, and we have just about decided that Sapiro is himself the shrewd grafter and schemer and swindler that Ford says he is. We believe that the bankers of Texas and of the South are earnestly and honestly attempting to devise and carry into execution a plan that will save Southern cotton raisers millions of dollars. Why shouldn't they? Cotton is the basis of our wealth in the South. High prices of cotton make the farmer prosperous, and as long as the farmer is prosperous the businessman and the banker also prosper. Selfinterest if nothing more would prompt the bankers to desire the prosperity of the farmer. Sapiro is a fake.—Tahoka News.

WHAT'S DOING IN WEST TEXAS By W. T. C. of C.

Stamford—The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is making an effort to check a new form of "bootlegging" being practiced by unscrupulous hog dealers who are spreading hog cholera through their careless introduction of infected or exposed swine in West Texas and federal aid is being sought by the regional organization in the matter.

Graham—A novel storage system has been solved the cotton farmer in this section. Asa Vaughn and sons, of Wilbarger county are using a hay baler to put up their seed cotton as it is picked. Dispensing with the cost of ginning and storage, the seed cotton bales are to be held in Vaughn's barns during the present crisis, and will be released to the market at a later date. When ready for marketing, the seed cotton bales will be loaded and taken to the gin.

Fort Worth—The committee named by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to investigate the cotton situation in Texas went on record at the Texas Cotton Corporation to be organized with a $5,000,000 subscribed capital stock by a special cotton committee of Texas Bankers Association in accordance with plans adopted by six Southern states for the retirement of 1,250,000 bales of Texas cotton. The committee also adopted a resolution relative to a plan for cotton acreage reduction in the State of Texas to an extent of not less than 25 per cent.

Ballinger—The More Feed, Food and Conservation Campaign of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce is to be launched at the Central West Texas District Convention of that organization which meets here Nov. 15. The movement for living at home and encouraging thrift through more livestock for West Texas farms, involves a contest in which prizes aggregating $2,500 will be awarded by the regional chamber of commerce to farmers in its territory.

Plainview—A new addition to the Missouri hotel here to cost $5,200 has been planned by its proprietor to consist of ten rooms of brick and tile construction. The improvement program will make the Missouri Hotel a first rate structure, and fireproof throughout.

Robert Lee—Lights in this community are to be installed upon receipt of a transformer which was ordered some time ago.

Bilious dull feeling

"MY old stand-by is Thedford's Black-Draught—I have used it off and on for about 20 years," says Mr. W. S. Reynolds, of R. F. D. 2, Arcadia, La.

"I get bilious and have a bad taste in my mouth. My head feels dull. I don't just feel like getting around and doing my work. I know it isn't laziness, but biliousness.

"So I take a few doses of Black-Draught and when it acts well, I get up feeling like new—full of pep and ready for any kind of work.

"I can certainly recommend it." In case of biliousness and other disagreeable conditions due to an inactive liver, Black-Draught helps to drive the poisonous impurities out of the system and tends to leave the organs in a state of normal, healthy activity.

Black-Draught is made entirely of pure medicinal roots and herbs and contains no dangerous or harmful mineral drugs. It can be safely taken by everyone.

Sold everywhere. Price 25c.

NEW CATTLE TICK ORDER ISSUED

WASHINGTON, November 14.—The release from Federal quarantine of new areas freed of cattle-fever ticks as the result of systematic dipping during the year is announced by the United States Department of Agriculture.

The areas are in four States—Arkansas, Florida, Texas, and Virginia, and are equivalent to about 15 counties. The official act releasing the new tick-free territory from quarantine is Bureau of Animal Industry Order 300, signed November 5 by Acting Secretary of Agriculture, R. W. Dunlap. The new order becomes effective December 1.

It designates the quarantine areas in the Southern States still infested with cattle ticks and includes also the island of Porto Rico, all of which is quarantined.

A supplementary list of feeding stations shows the location of properly equipped non-infectious cattle pens within the quarantines area. Printed copies of the order will be distributed as soon as printed, to public officials, transportation companies, and others having to do with or affected by the tick situation in the South.

We are pleased to call your attention to the big A. B. Cook sale in this issue. The firm of A. B. Cook & Son are noted for the bargains they offer their customers, and this is going to be one of the biggest events they have ever undertaken. Also they are going to promote their own sale and are giving all their printing to Brownfield people.

YOUNG WIFE AFRAID TO EAT ANYTHING

"I was afraid to eat because I always had stomach trouble afterwards. Since taking Adlerika I can eat and feel fine." (signed) Mrs. A. Howard. ONE spoonful Adlerika removes GAS and often brings surprising relief to the stomach. Stops that full, bloated feeling. Removes old waste matter from intestines which you never thought was in your system. Excellent for obstinate constipation.

WHAT COWS CAN DO FOR THE FARMER

C. A. Gillis, tenant farmer on the Lasky farm, about five miles northeast of Colorado, has demonstrated the value of proper management coupled with a little work and time in handling of a few chickens and cows and what these can do for the tenant farmer of this country.

For more than three years Gillis has been marketing enough butter and eggs to more than pay his grocery bill. During this time he has not spent a dollar cash money for groceries or eats purchased from stores, but on the other hand, always sell the different stores more than enough produce from the farm to pay for what he has to buy. The stores usually owe him. He has only three cows and about fifty chickens and has accomplished all this from this small number, besides affording plenty for home use. He receives fifty cents a pound for his butter the year round because of its high quality and from 35 to 40 cents a dozen for his eggs. Mrs. Gillis believes in giving her children plenty of nature's best foods—milk, butter and eggs—so she only allows the surplus to be sold. The skim milk is fed to two Poland China barrows that are soon to furnish plenty of pork for the family.—Colorado Record.

WILD TURKEYS ARE PUT ON WILD GAME SITE

Dr. Earl C. Axtell, deputy game warden in this district, has turned loose 24 big bronze turkeys on the new game preserve in the Palo Duro Canyon. The turkeys were turned loose in two groups and were placed in widely separated places in the preserve. This wild game is the first to be turned loose on the Palo Duro preserve both other wild game, including deer, pheasant and quail, will be placed on the reserve in the near future.

The Palo Duro preserve now includes all of the Palo Duro Canyon in Randall and Armstrong counties with the exception of the Arnold Ranch. When this ranch is added the preserve will contain 120,000 acres.

ROBBERY CACHE DISCOVERED NEAR O'DONNELL

A robber's cache was discovered Sunday afternoon about nine miles southeast of town on the Wright branch in an old cave. Stolen loot was recovered estimated to be worth around $300, which consisted of new shoes and men's trousers, also a majority of the clothing and other household goods which was stolen from the Ewell Robinson home some two weeks ago.

Several parties from O'Donnell were out Sunday exploring the hills southeast of town and through curiosity entered the old cave which resulted in the location of the thieves' cache. City Marshall Wimberley was notified and immediately went to the scene, loaded the loot and brought it to town. The clothing and other articles belonging to the Robinsons were identified and returned to the owners. The remainder of the goods consisting of new merchandise including shoes and men's trousers are being held by officer Wimberley for identification.

It is supposed that the recovered goods was stolen from one of the several stores that have been broken into recently in this section. Officers are at work on the case and believe that within a short time the guilty party or parties will be brought to justice. So far no arrests have been made in the case.—O'Donnell Index.

NEW VARIETY STORE GAINS APPROVAL

All Brownfield people and surrounding communities turned out to visit the new Harris Variety Store which was opened on last Saturday, November 13th. Great interest was shown on the part of all visitors and customers in the sparkling display of new items which it will be the convenience of Brownfield people in the future to buy in the Harris store.

No woman who visited the Wilson building, expecting to find a modern and shining store, was disappointed. In fact estimations were rife that this store far surpassed anything that has heretofore been seen in towns of this size. If enthusiasm and approval are forerunners of success, this newest of Brownfield enterprises is promised an interesting future.

Numerous clerks were on hand to answer questions concerning the many items on display and to wait on the host of customers who were eager to take advantage of the values offered, many items of which had not been seen in Brownfield before.

The Harris Variety Store is welcomed to Brownfield and it is believed that Brownfield will profit with the Harris Store in a happy relationship.

TECH TALKS

By a Student.

Armistice was a great day in Lubbock. The big event of the forenoon was the parade put on by the city and Tech. The parade which was 13 blocks long was led by the Tech eighty piece band.

The special from Abilene brought more than 200 Abilene Christian College students for the Matador-Wild Cat fray. Although the Matadors were victorious 29 to 6, the Wildcats fought desperately to the finish. More than 5,000 persons saw the game.

Members of the Matadors who played against the A.A.C. were given a free airplane ride by the pilot of the two planes which have been in Lubbock carrying passengers the past week.

The Matadors will close their football season Thanksgiving when they play the West Texas State Teachers at Canyon. In the meantime Tech plays Howard Payne the 14th at Brownwood.

ROAD NOTICE TO NON-RESIDENT LAND OWNERS

The State of Texas,
The State of Texas.

County of Terry ss.—We, the undersigned Jury of Freeholders, citizens of Terry County, Texas, duly appointed by the Commissioners' Court of Terry County, Texas, at its October Term, 1926, to view and establish a 1st Class Road from the N. E. Corner of Section No. 1, in Block D-12 in Terry County Texas, west to the Yoakum county line, and having been sworn as the law directs, hereby give notice that we will on the 19th day of December, 1926, assemble at Brownfield, Texas, and then proceed to survey, locate, view, mark out and establish said road, beginning at the Northeast corner of Section No. 1, and the Southeast corner of Section No. 4, both in Block D-12 and the Southwest corner of Section No. 164, and the Northwest corner of Section 165 in Block T, all in Terry County, Texas; thence due west following the Section lines a distance of about 12 1/2 miles, and terminating at the Terry and Yoakum county line, the same being the Northwest corner of Section No. 37 and the Southwest corner of Section No. 34, both in Block K in said County and State.

Said proposed road to pass along the south section lines of Sections 4 and 3 in Block D-12; Sections Nos. 98, 97, 96, 95, 94, 93, and 92 all in Block D-11 and Sections Nos. 42, 41, and 40 all in Block D-14, and Sections Nos. 33 and 34 in Block K. Also to pass along the North lines of Sections Nos. 1 and 2 in Block D-12; Sections Nos. 99, 100, 101, 102, 103, 104 and 105 in Block D-11; and Sections Nos. 43, 44, and 45 in Block D-14; and Sections Nos. 37 and 38 in Block K, all in Terry County, Texas.

And we do hereby notify U. F. Smith, T. W. Weiborn, John L. Welker, O. O. Little and any and all persons owning land through which said road may run, that we will at the same time proceed to assess the damages incidental to the opening and establishment of said road, when they may, either in person or by agent or attorney, present us a written statement of the amount of damages, if any, claimed by them.

WELLMAN ORGANIZES PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION

The people of Wellman met at the school house Friday, November 12th and reorganized the Parent-Teacher Association. Mrs. Stephenson was elected President, Mrs. Jas. W. Baker 1st Vice-President; Jas. W. Baker 2nd Vice-President; Miss Francis Jackson, 3rd Vice-President, and Mrs. W. M. Schroeder, Secretary-Treasurer.

The local association decided to join the State and National associations. The time of meeting was decided to be the second and fourth Friday evenings at 7:30.

After organization of the P. T. A., an Armistice play, "Grandma's Pictures of the World War," was rendered by the school children.

We are glad to announce that Rev. G. J. Thomas was sent back here as local pastor of the Methodist church for another year. Rev. and Mrs. Thomas have made numerous friends here both in the Methodist church and out of it, and the outsiders are rejoicing with the Methodist flock that he is coming back.

Big Lake—Conditional acceptance of a bid for the construction of a city hall was made recently by city officials, and work upon the building is expected to start soon.

Paint Rock—A new produce firm has open in this section. It will handle poultry, pecans, wool, mohair, furs and other products.

PENNY LOSES RACE IN COCHRAN COUNTY

P. B. Penney, democratic nominee for sheriff of Cochran county, was defeated by his opponent, J. C. Montgomery, who ran on the independent ticket at the election Tuesday. The vote in Cochran county was very light, but Penny was defeated by 12 votes.

It is rather uncommon for a democratic nominee in this state to be defeated by an independent, and as a rule nomination in the primary spells election. In this particular instance, however, the campaign has been hotly contested, and many voters predicted that the independent candidate would be successful.—Littlefield Leader.

THE ISSUE: OUR COUNTRY!

"The issue is no longer whether Prohibition shall be established; it is whether or not the Constitution shall be preserved. Nullification or preservation? Anarchy and license or regulated liberty? There is but one choice and we unhesitatingly make it—liberty under law and supremacy of the Constitution now and forever!—William Gibbs McAdoo.

Mrs. Annie Armstrong, prominent ranch lady of Yoakum county, was in Brownfield Tuesday on business and paid the Herald a short call. She has taken full charge of affairs on the McHugh ranch since the death of her uncle Pat, and from all accounts is doing well with it.

GIBSON RECEIVES MAJORITY VOTE FOR COUNTY ATTY.

The commissioners court met Monday and with the county judge canvassed the returns of the general election held on Nov. 2nd for this county. The nominees of the Democratic party were declared elected to every office in the county.

A. W. Gibson received 139 votes for county attorney and this was a majority of votes cast in that race.—Lamesa Journal.

Mr. Gibson is our present efficient district attorney, but was defeated for that office in the primary by Judge T. L. Price of Post City.

WELLMAN-FORRESTER SANG-SONG

Wellman and Forrester singers met at Wellman Sunday evening at 7:30, Nov. 14th, and organized a Sang-Song. Wellman singers are to go to Forrester on the fourth Sunday evening at 7:00. The Forrester singers will sing at Wellman at a later date.

The two communities are to meet together and sing twice each month, once at Wellman and once at Forrester.

We think this is a good way to promote the singing interest of the country. Every singer come out and help sing. Those who like singing are invited to come and listen.

Many have come in recently from East, Central and South Texas without any cotton pickers or at the outside just a few. Many of them report that it is a dangerous undertaking to hunt pickers down there if the landlords find out that is what you're after. In many instances the land owners down there have told the laborers, especially Mexicans and negroes of the hardships to be endured out here, and low wages. These birds are afraid if the laborers come out here and find the conditions so much better than they are used to, they will stay here. Hence they figure that most anything is better than letting their hands get away from them.

The Herald had a letter this week from the Martin family who used to be here in the boot making business, and we know their many friends will be glad to learn that they are doing well in their new home at Prescott, Ariz. They are in the heart of the cattleman's country, and are there—

Many of our merchants had very beautifully decorated show windows representing Armistice Day. They were fully in keeping with the occasion, and we are glad our merchants take so much pride in their places of business, as well as show a patriotic spirit in doing so.

E. G. Alexander, local druggist has purchased a drug store at Levelland, and has sent George Bragg, who has been with him a number of years at Brownfield, to take charge of it. This makes three drug stores Mr. Alexander owns now, one each at Brownfield, Littlefield and Levelland.

Floyd Ellington, of New Mexico, recently brought down a fine five-prong buck in the mountains of New Mexico, and sent the hide and head here to his brother, Sheriff Frosty Ellington, to negotiate with Pappy John Powell to mount it. A party of Okla. people passed through Wednesday night from the New Mexico mts. with four nice bucks.

Rankin—Contract let for building of the new Upton county courthouse, fore making lots of cowboy boots for that immediate section. Frank Jr. added however, that the old Herald was still like a letter from home and enclosed funds for it another year. The families were all well.

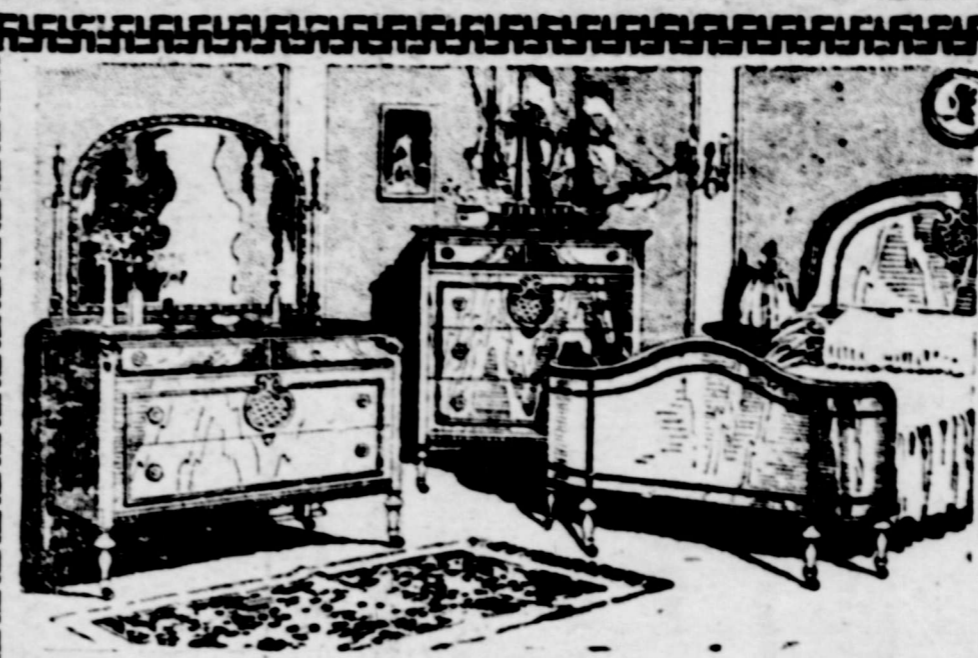

Baird—Sanitary sewer system being installed.

Red Cross Volunteer Workers Ever on Duty

Claim for the oldest volunteer knitter in the country is advanced by the Lincoln County Chapter of the American Red Cross at Wiscasset, Maine. She is Mrs. L. A. W. Jackson, who keeps busy knitting stockings for the Red Cross to send to destitute children abroad. The San Pedro, Calif. Chapter has a close second in a volunteer knitter 85 years old.

The annual report of the American Red Cross stresses the service of volunteers. In more than 3,000 Red Cross chapters the officers and workers are volunteers.

They will act as solicitors in the Tenth Annual Roll Call for members, which the Red Cross will conduct from November 11 to 25.

Nearly 50,000 disabled veterans are assisted by the American Red Cross on an average every month. Care of the disabled veteran is a foremost responsibility of the Red Cross, in which the people can share by joining its ranks during the Tenth Annual Roll Call, November 11 to 25.

The American Red Cross is the official agency of the United States for disaster relief at home or abroad. Join during the Tenth Annual Roll Call, from November 11 to 25 and share its services.

Levelland—Texas Utilities Company doubling capacity of local power plant.

Childress—Plans completed for the establishment of an industrial plant here that will involve an expenditure of $2,000,000 and employ between 400 and 500 workers.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

The State of Texas,
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Yoakum county, Greeting:
You are hereby commanded to summon J. F. Merritt, Ella Merritt, and M. Whitley, by making publication of this citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Yoakum county, to be holden at the court house thereof in Plains on the fourth Monday in December, A.D. 1926, the same being the 27th day of December A.D. 1926, then and there to answer a petition in intervention filed in said court by H. E. Byrne on the 2nd day of November A.D. 1926, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court No. 154, wherein J. F. Merritt and wife Ella Merritt are plaintiffs and M. Whitley and C. O. Austin, Commissioner of the Department of Banking are defendants, and said H. E. Byrne is intervenor alleging in said petition that he is interested in the subject matter of this suit, and has a cause of action against the plaintiff J. F. Merritt and wife Ella Merritt, and against the defendant M. Whitley and against C. O. Austin, Commissioner of the Department of Banking of the State of Texas.

That this suit was filed in this court on the 13th day of November A. D. 1920, by plaintiff J. F. Merritt and wife Ella Merritt against the defendant M. Whitley, in which suit the plaintiffs sought to recover off and from the defendant 160 acres of land situated in Yoakum county, Texas, and being the Southeast one-fourth Section 634, Block D. John H. Gibson original grantee, alleging that at the defendant M. Whitley had secured a deed to said land by certain false and fraudulent representations seeking to have said deed cancelled and set aside, and that all contracts pertaining to same be rescinded.

That on or about the 28th day of March 1921, the Security State Bank of Fort Worth, Texas, filed in this cause its plea in intervention in which said bank alleged among other things that before the commencement of this suit, to-wit on the 5th day of June A. D. 1920, the defendant M. Whitley was, and now is justly indebted to said bank in the sum of $4,000.00, as evidenced by his one certain promissory note for said sum of money executed by the defendant M. Whitley and payable to the order of R. A. Cox, due on or before two years after date, and at the same time of the execution and delivery of said note, the said M. Whitley also made, executed and delivered a certain deed of trust against the above described land and premises to secure the payment of said note, and the Security State Bank also alleged that said note and deed of trust had been thereafter transferred to it for a valuable consideration and that it had no actual or constructive notice of the fraud as alleged by the plaintiffs in their petition.

The intervenor, H. E. Byrne, also alleges that after the note and deed of trust referred to in the plea filed by the Security State Bank, was transferred and assigned to said bank that it became necessary for the intervenor H. E. Byrne, to take said note out of said bank and pay said bank a sum of money equal to said note, that the intervenor H. E. Byrne was at that time president of said bank, and that he took said note out of said bank and paid in lieu thereof a sum of money to said bank equal in value to said note, and that by reason thereof the intervenor H. E. Byrne became and has been at all times since, the legal owner and holder of said note, and is entitled to a judgment on said note and a foreclosure of his lien against defendant M. Whitley, and the plaintiffs J. F. Merritt and wife Ella Merritt and C. O. Austin, Commissioner of Banking of the State of Texas, and the intervenor prays for judgment, that the plaintiffs take nothing by reason of their suit and that he have judgement against M. Whitley for the principal, interest and attorney's fees due on said note and for foreclosure of his deed of trust lien against the above described land and premises as against the plaintiffs and the defendants in this suit, and for the cost of suit and general and special relief.

Herein full not, but have you before said court on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same.

Witness W. H. Hague, Clerk of the District Court of Yoakum County.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, in the town of Plains this 2nd day of November, A.D. 1926. (15-3) W. H. Hague, District Court, Yoakum County, Tex.

C. C. Copeland, of Yoakum county was here this week with farm products and called in to run a for sale ad of a number of surplus hogs he has on hand.

A Dog A Rat Tale

A man thought he had the best rat dog in the county and told his neighbor so. But while they were talking a huge rodent walked leisurely across the yard, the dog who was in the rat's path moved aside and disinterestedly watched it until it disappeared beneath the wood pile.

A loud laugh burst from the neighbor's throat. "So that's yo' champ ratter? A fine lap dog he is!" "Wait," said the owner, "that was one of our own rats—just watch him when a strange rat comes in the yard.

TRUSTEE'S SALE

The State of Texas.

County of Terry:—Whereas, on the 13th day of July, 1920, W. E. McGuire and wife, Mary McGuire, made, executed and delivered to W. A. SoRelle, Trustee, a certain Deed of Trust, which is recorded in Volume 5, page 465 of the Deed of Trust Records of Terry County, Texas, covering the North Half (N 1/2) of Section No. Eighty-two (82) Block DD, Public School Land, containing 320 acres, in Terry County, Texas, to additionally secure the payment of seven (7) Vendor's Lien Notes for the sum of $576.00, each, of even date herewith, executed by W. E. McGuire, payable to the order of Thos. C. Spearman on or before December 1, 1921, to 1927, inclusive, with 6 per cent per annum interest, interest payable annually each year, and providing that failure to pay either of said notes or any installment of interest when due should, at the option of the holder, mature all of said notes, which notes and the liens securing same were transferred by Thos. C. Spearman to Nelson W. Willard; and,

Whereas, default was made in the payment of the notes and interest due December 1, 1921, 1922, 1923, 1924 and 1925 respectively, and all of said notes were declared due by Nelson W. Willard, and payment demanded, and said W. E. McGuire and wife failed and refused to pay the same or any part thereof; and,

Whereas, W. A. SoRelle, the Trustee named in said Deed of Trust, is dead, and the said Nelson W. Willard on the 12th day of October, A. D. 1926, appointed me, Jack M. Randal, Substitute Trustee, and requested me to enforce said trust and sell said property as provided in said Deed of Trust:

Now, therefore, I, Jack M. Randal, Substitute Trustee, by virtue of the authority vested in me by said Deed of Trust and substitute appointment, will offer for sale and sell the above described property at public sale to the highest bidder on the first Tuesday in December, 1926, the same being the 7th day of December, within the hours prescribed by law, at the Court house door of Terry county, in the town of Brownfield, Texas, to satisfy the above described indebtedness, principal, interest and attorney's fees, and costs of sale.

Witness my hand this 2nd day of November, A. D. 1926.

Jack M. Randal

(19) Substitute Trustee

USE CAUTION IN CHANGING FARM PROGRAM

Farm and Ranch is receiving letters asking information relative to a change in the farm program for 1927. Some of these letters ask what we think about going into the truck business. Others ask for general information, all of which shows that farmers are thinking seriously concerning their business.

Farm and Ranch cannot answer these questions specifically, nor does it wish to assume the responsibility of giving individuals advice. Every man on the farm must face conditions with which Farm and Ranch is unfamiliar. Every man has his failings as well as his good qualities. Some will undoubtedly make a success by growing fruits and vegetables and others who plunge into it will make even a greater failure than they have with cotton. Fruit and vegetable growing is a business that must be studied. There are insects to fight. The methods of production are peculiar in themselves, and then comes the marketing. One may produce with success and fail to find a profitable market. Truck marketing is hazardous unless one understands the business and is located conveniently to some large consuming center, or belongs to an association that makes carload shipments. Production is only a small part of the business. Grading, selecting, packing and marketing are the big things in determining profits or losses.

The poultry industry is also a specialized business. While a farmer may very profitably keep a flock of standardbred chickens and turkeys to cast everything else aside is to assume a grave risk. One must learn the business and like it to make it pay.

A few good cows on the farm, when properly fed and housed, make a profitable side line, but if one is to go into the dairy business he must invest quite a large sum of money in equipment and understand the necessity for absolute cleanliness in handling the product. A good brood sow on the farm will furnish meat for the family and some to sell, but when a man has three or more brood sows he is in the hog business, and that requires a knowledge not possessed by every man who has confined his operations to cotton.

Farm and Ranch believes every man should stick to his specialty, and if that line is not paying, change gradually. The balanced farm should be the aim of most farmers, and the first thing essential to making both ends meet is to provide a living for the family and the livestock from home products. When this is done, one will not need to worry so much regarding production and prices of the major crops, whatever they be.

Farmers in the South have been encouraged to think in terms of something to sell when they ought to first think of something to eat. A full stomach never interfered with good farming.—Farm and Ranch.

"THE BLACK PIRATE" RIALTO SOON

Some people have an idea when they pay $2 a year for a newspaper they won the whole proposition, including the editor and can run both to suit themselves. Occasionally there is a fellow comes in and pay up a year or two in arrears and then with a pitying look at the editor a if he felt sorry he was going to lose his subscription, says: "I guess you might as well stop my paper; I would like to help you, but am getting more papers than I can read." Bless your life, sonny, the editor never loses any sleep over losing a subscription. He wants all the subscribers he can get; the more the better; but he wants those who appreciate his paper and consider they are getting value received for their money. We do not want your subscription as a matter of charity. I you do not want the paper say so; it's a business proposition with the editor. We can pull the bell-cord over the old gray mule to perfection any if we can't run a paper that is worth the price we'll quit. Don't subscribe for our paper as a matter of charity. It costs you $2 a year and you could not print one for $500.—Austin V. Butcher in the Altoona (Kans.) Tribune.

SENIOR CLASS NOTES

The Senior Class of Brownfield High School met November 9 at the high school building and completed its organization. Miss Mary Perkins was elected sponsor, James H. Dallas, president; Joe Shelton, Naoma Newton, secretary and treasurer and Willie Mae Jacobs, reporter. Lavender and green were selected for class colors, and lavender sweet peas for the class flower. The following quotation from Tennyson was selected as the motto: "Self-reverence, self-knowledge, self-control—lead life to sovereign power."

GOT HIM AT LAST

After several years of unsuccessful effort to get a local hardware merchant to advertise, the publisher of a Kansas weekly newspaper recently was surprised to receive an order for a full page from the former non-advertiser.

Glancing at the copy, the publisher discovered that it announced a "closing out sale." The hardware man was going out of business. His advertising competitors had taken his trade and there was nothing left for him to do. So the newspaper man had landed his prospect at last.

The merchant recognized the power of advertising to help him to get out of business, but had failed to recognize its power to help him to stay in business. There are a lot of merchants like that.

MISS DOWNING HONORED WITH SEVERAL SOCIAL EVENTS

Prior To Her Marriage On Sunday, November 14.

On Wednesday, November 3rd, an announcement party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom May announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Elizabeth Downing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Downing, to Mr. Roy Herod, of Lamesa.

The May home was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and rare colored chrysanthemums. In the morning the younger matrons and the young ladies, including the Swastika Club of which Miss Downing is a member, were entertained. Several interesting games of Bunco were played as a mode of diversion.

Refreshments consisting of heart-shaped chicken sandwiches with hot tea and salted nut meats were served both morning and afternoon. English walnuts tied with tiny bows of pink ribbon were used as plate favors. Upon opening the walnut this announcement was found, "Miss Elizabeth Downing and Mr. Roy Herod, November 14, 1926."

In the afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock the May home was open to other guests, 42 being played for several games. Miss Katherine Royalty, lovely little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Royalty of Lubbock read "Absent Minded Priscilla" also the pianologue "In the Usual Way." Miss Phillips gave a reading "She Liked Him Reel Wil," and Miss Sue Crawford gave Mary Janes Wedding, appropriate readings for the occasion. Refreshments were served to about sixty guests in the afternoon.

The Ladies of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower on Monday afternoon, November 8th, from 4 to 6 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Michie, given in honor of Miss Elizabeth Downing, who was married to Mr. Roy Herod on Sunday, Nov. 14.

A profusion of yellow and white chrysanthemums adorned the receiving rooms of this lovely home. A short program was rendered at which time Miss Phillips gave the reading, "Was Marriage a Failure." Mrs. H. O. Longbrake sang, "I Love You Truly." Miss Sue Crawford gave the reading "Romance" and "Aunt Jeremiah's Courtship" was given by Mrs. Floyd Fry. "A Toast to the Bride," by Mrs. W. H. Dallas was followed by "A Toast to the Groom" by Mrs. J. G. Thomas. Immediately several tiny girls danced into the room bringing "gifts for the bride," these were followed by two small girls carrying a very large yellow and white basket filled to overflowing with lovely gifts.

During the afternoon Miss Faye Brown presided over the "Recipe Book," in which each guest was invited to write her favorite recipe, the book to be presented to the bride-to-be. Lovely words of thanks were expressed by Miss Downing.

Refreshments consisting of cakes with yellow cream filling, hot tea and salted almonds were served, white chrysanthemums being used as plate favors.

On Wednesday, November 10th,

Mrs. W. H. Dallas and Mrs. W. H. Collins entertained at the home of Mrs. Collins in honor of Miss Elizabeth Downing, bride-elect with a beautiful forty-two party. The house was artistically decorated and places were prepared for forty guests. The brides place was marked with a miniature bride and groom. Refreshments were served picnic style. Dainty baskets going to each lady who drew high. High and low cut prizes, beautiful lace boudoir caps, were given to Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Holgate.

Those present were, Mesdames, Dalton Lewis, Clint Rambo, Michie, Bowers, McBurnett, Henry Alexander, McDuffie, Fagala, Earl Alexander, A. M. Brownfield, A. R. Brownfield, Wingerd, Fred Smith, McGowan, King, Miller, May, Gracey, Ballard, Brothers, Holgate, Kendrick, Harris, Hamilton, Bell, Lee, Self, Hudgins, Cox, Longbrake, Bynum, Shelton, Wilson, Graham, Sawyer, Griffin, McSpadden, Copeland and the honoree.

MEADOW BRIEFS

By Aesculapias.

The past two weeks have been very busy ones in these parts. While the hands to be had are few in number, the farmers have gathered it rapidly. Most of them have abandoned the usual method of picking and are taking it pretty much any way it can be done; some using the slide, which was so much in vogue last season.

Personally, I don't think I would use one yet, though one can hardly blame them as the pickers or rather the gatherers demand so much for their work that very little is left for the owner.

The gins are running night and day with two crews each, but in spite of this they are far behind, with little prospect of catching up, unless a spell of bad weather should intervene, the season will find them behind.

Hands being so very scarce some of the merchants are working at night, also the bank force—no not Earl—and the lumber yard forces are also lending a hand.

Except on Saturdays business is extremely dull, if I am any judge.

Armistice day was observed here by the closing of the postoffice and bank. A program was rendered at night by the ladies and young folks for the benefit of the Legion. The Gaffon Theatre—which is the name of the new playhouse—was the place and a full house greeted the players. All seemed to enjoy the exercises.

Our hearts went out to those for whom—
The muffled drum's sad roll has beat

The soldier's last tattoo:
No more on life's parade shall meet
That brave and fallen few.

On fame's eternal camping ground,
Their silent tents are spread,
And glory guards with solemn round,
The bivouac of the dead."—O'Hara.

The observance of the day has been more general than for several years.

Rev. Duncan is away at Conference. It is hoped that he comes back another year. The people like him and he will thus be able to do a better work than a new man.

Buford Reed, for years with the Cicero Smith Lumber Co. of this place, but now working for the same company at McLain, was with us Saturday evening. He looks well and says he is getting along fine at his new home.

E. H. Jones and wife were away the most of the past week at Marlin, Texas. Mr. F. M. Daniel, father of Mrs. Jones was critically ill and all the children were called to his bedside. He is better, however, and they have returned.

The stork has visited one home since my last report. It's a girl. The boys have been in the ascendancy for the past two months, nearly two to one. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Parker are the proud parents of the newcomer. Mrs. J. D. Moorhead with Thad and Effie May, were down from Lubbock Armistice Day, but returned that afternoon.

INSIDE INFORMATION ON PRESS DAY

There are two guys you want to let alone. One of 'em is a dog gnawing a bone, and the other is a newspaper man going to press.—Bonham News.

Press time is an emergency that besets the man responsible for the appearance of the paper day by day or week by week. During the emergency it is wise to let him alone. The sun is less stern and uncompromising at sunrise than the pressman at press time. War may be declared, the heavens may fall, the family milk cow may run amuck, the gas stove may explode, but those are only minor incidents in comparison with the major duty of getting the press started and the paper through. No matter how important you are, or matter how good an advertiser you are, don't stroll into the newspaper office at press time and expect to be welcomed with glad hands, gift cigars or jovial slaps on the back. You will be lucky if you are not completely ignored or told to run along and play outside.

If the tide should fail to come in or go out on time, the people along the seashore wouldn't care a snap about it. But an hour's delay in bringing the paper off the press makes those in charge of that function see visions of catastrophes and cataclysms chasing one another across the horizon and in and out of the zenith. Yet some advertisers habitually send in their copy two minutes before press time and wonder why they are not popular at the printing office.—State Press.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES SWEEP NEW MEXICO

While returns from the election which was held Tuesday are by no means complete, sufficient information has been received to indicate very clearly a sweeping Republican victory with the exception of the election of John Morrow to Congress.

It was reported last night (Thursday) that Governor Hannett had conceded the election of the Republican candidate for governor and had sent his congratulations to Mr. Dillon.

In Lea County the Democrats polled more than their usual majority, while the Republican vote was even smaller than it usually is. Out of something like eight hundred votes that were polled in this county, the Democratic candidates received all but about one hundred votes. The Lovington box polled a much larger vote than two years ago and a larger per cent of them were Democratic votes.

While there were many causes that contributed to the Democratic defeat the principal one, no doubt, was the much talked election code. The Republican candidates and Republican speakers made the illiterate Mexican voters in the north and western part of the state believe that the purpose of it was to disfranchise them and if the Democrats succeeded in carrying this election this would be the last time they would ever have an opportunity of voting. Believing this to be the case they went to the polls and voted for the Republican candidates.—Lovington N. M. Leader.

TAHOKA CITY COUNCIL CUTS TAX RATE

At a meeting of the city council Wednesday night of last week, the city council fixed the tax levy for the year at a total of $1.15, as shown by the ordinance published in this paper. Additional funds needed to take care of electric light warrants and water warrants outstanding are appropriated but of the receipts derived from the operation of the municipal electric light and ice plant, according to the provisions of this order.

The tax rate levied against the property situated in the city limits is 20 cents lower than the tax rate last year, according to Mayor J. R. Singleton.—Tahoka News.

Postmaster J. C. Bohannon and family were visitors to parts unknown over Armistice Day.

Mrs. H. G. Lees and babies are up from Big Spring visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dallas.

Mrs. C. S. Cardwell of the Har- from Byers, Texas, where she has many community, returned last week been visiting relatives.
