Chamber of Commerce C-U-R-R-E-N-T-S

By the Secretary

On Monday afternoon at 2:30 P. M. a general meeting of all farmers of Terry county and business men of Brownfield will be held in the District Court room for the purpose of undertaking to formulate some plan that will result in the mutual benefit of both town and country, especially as concerns the future cotton situation.

The meeting is called at the request of several leaders of the Farmers Cooperative Union and will be held under the general direction of Mr. J. A. Johnson, who will also be the principal speaker. Business men of Brownfield and surrounding towns are urgently requested to be present as well as the farmers. It is conceded that if the country is prosperous the town is prosperous and if some plan can be mapped out that can also be adopted in all other portions of the cotton belt, stabilizing of the market will be realized within a short time. Don't forget the hour and be on hand promptly.

Last Sunday the Brownfield Band motored over to Tahoka and combined with the Tahoka Band and the two organizations put on one of the best concerts that the writer has heard in some time and very much improved over the one of the Sunday before at Brownfield, but this was to be expected as the members had become familiar with the signs of the two directors and naturally put out better music. Quite a number of Brownfield people accompanied them on the trip and they were greeted by a large crowd at Tahoka who gave them a very cordial welcome.

This was the second of a series that will be staged in the summer months alternating between the two towns and is to be encouraged as it not only stimulates local interest but emphasizes the good will that has heretofore existed between the towns concerned.

From all indications the membership of the chamber of commerce will be double that of last year and will enable the organization to work more efficiently. A shortage of funds last year kept us from getting some results that would have otherwise been put over. It is just like any other business, results are limited by the amount of money that is back of the venture.

Rev. Markham Called To Happy Church

Readers will remember in these columns last week was an article that said among other things that Rev. W. F. Markham had resigned his place as missionary of the Brownfield Baptist Association, and was in line for local pastorage work.

We learned this week that Rev. Markham has been called and has accepted the pastorage of the Happy, Texas Baptist church, and he and his excellent family will leave in the near future for that city.

This is another minister that has endeared himself to the people of this section, whose ties of friendship must now be broken while Rev. Markham goes to a new work. A consolation of it is, that with these days of rapid motor transportation, a hundred miles or so is soon negotiated, and he will be almost neighbors with us after all.

DIED

J. C. Narrell, aged about 55 years, passed away at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Crone in the Forrester community Tuesday night after a brief illness. The body was laid to rest in the Forrester cemetery Wednesday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. A. L. Burnett.

Mr. Narrell became overheated cooking in a Midland restaurant and was brought back here, but never was rational after reaching the Crone home, as blood clot seemed to have been formed on his brain. A half brother was communicated with in Alabama. He also seemed to have two children in the Alabama Odd fellows home. He was a member of the Church of Christ and an Odd Fellow.

Watch Out For Keller Or He'll Get You

Some of our citizens have heretofore been rather slow in paying their auto license, but we don't suppose they are very much different from people of other sections at that, but saying the least, some of them seemed to entirely forget the matter until repeatedly reminded by the law that they were expected to kick in.

But recently former Sheriff J. C. Keller of Plains has been appointed by the State Highway department as special officer of this section, and he has been stopping them pretty frequently here of late. We noticed he stopped one of our citizens rather early Sunday morning, who was joy riding without the required 1927 auto license, and was not permitted to move his Henry until he visited the collector's office and procured the two nicely painted pieces of tin. He was then permitted to proceed.

Of course those Mr. Keller is stopping probably think him a little hard boiled, but Mr. Keller has the support of all who have promptly paid their license tax and believe others are no better than they, and they are not. If part has to pay it, all should be made to pay the tax. The officers cannot afford to play favorites, and from what we know of John Keller, there won't be any favorites, either.

The Baptist Revival Now in Full Swing

The Baptist spring meeting was started as per schedule Sunday A. M. by the local forces pending the arrival Monday of Rev. Layton Maddox from Belton. At the Sunday morning services, Rev. C. E. Ball turned in his resignation to the local church, which was accepted, and Sunday night was probably his last sermon to the church as he leaves for his new charge directly after the meeting, after five years labor here.

The revival to be held this week by Rev. Maddox has been well advertised and he will no doubt be greeted by a good audience at each and every service. No day meeting was announced for Monday, but day services will no doubt be given out for the rest of the week. The meeting goes over next Sunday, March 13th.

BROWNFIELD GIRL IS FOUND HANGING

That a fatal step may end the most happy life has often been proven true. Even the most refined, the most cultured, and best loved are no exception to such a fate. A father's devotion, a mother's fond care, or a brother's or sister's beloved companionship will not even shield them when a desire to take that step has been once yielded to.

This fact was vividly illustrated last Monday evening when one of the highest educated, most beautiful and vivacious girls of Brownfield, who was surrounded by all the luxuries that go to make life happy, was found hanging in the home parlor of her parents.

Late in the evening she had been missed. A careful search had failed to reveal her whereabouts. The telephone had been persistently used without any definite results. Friends and neighbors were called to assist in the search. Finally the almost heart-broken mother returned to the parlor, and there to her intense horror and surprise, found her beloved daughter hanging to her sweetheart's neck and begging him to subscribe for The Herald, that he might be better informed as to the current news of the community.

THE CORRECT SOLUTION

Two women in a train argued concerning the window and at last one of them called the conductor.

"If this window is open," she declared, "I shall catch a cold and will probably die."

"If the window is shut," the other announced, "I shall suffocate."

The two glared at each other. The conductor was at a loss, but he welcomed the words of a man who sat near. These were: "First open the window. That will kill one. Next, shut it. That will kill the other. Then we will have peace."

Brownfield Has Good Bunch of Firemen

The Brownfield Volunteer Fire Department has recently undergone a complete reorganization, according to fire chief Eunice Jones, and he is doing all in his power to make it one of the most efficient volunteer companies in this section of the state. He has selected his men carefully for alertness as well as men who will heed and obey orders to the letter, and with a round of training from week to week, he hopes to whip into shape a bunch of men that will compare favorably with many paid departments.

The practice alarms have been changed from Thursday afternoons to any day or hour he may see fit to turn in an alarm for the good reason that the men thinking it might just be a practice alarm might not respond with the same speed and determination they would with one they thought was a genuine alarm. The calls both practice and real here of late have been covered with good speed and water has been turned on the fire—real or imaginary—in almost record time in a few instances. This certainly speaks well for less than two years of practice altogether.

The business and professional men of the city should show their appreciation in every way possible for these boys who stand ready any minute day or night to respond to save your business or residence property from the flames. It would not be a bad idea for each and every citizen to read the rules and regulations in this issue and try to do their part by making the department more efficient. It has not been a week since we saw a fellow run over a fire hose full of water with a truck rather than drive around a block. From this on, we are going to report such occurrences, and hope others will do likewise. Of course the hose was not being used at that time to fight fire, but to wet up the courthouse lawn, but it was a violation of the law and a careless stunt just the same.

Johnson School House Destroyed Thursday

Just a few minutes after "books" last Thursday morning about nine at the Johnson school house were taken up, fire was discovered in the roof of the building, and had gained such headway that it was impossible to save it and it went up in flames. All the children, and most of the books, except library books, were saved, we understand. Insurance to cover was carried on the building we learn.

These hardy pioneering people got together immediately and began moving any vacant building they could find in the neighborhood to the site and were ready to start school again Monday morning.

As Johnson is an independent district and covers one of the richest sections in Terry county, the trustees will no doubt be petitioned to issue bonds by vote of the people and we look for a neat brick and fireproof structure to go up on the ashes of the old frame structure.

"ONE DOLLAR AND COSTS"

Did you ever stop to analyze this phrase, familiar in the police court reports—"One dollar and costs?"

Not long ago a man from another State was stopped by a Texas officer and fined for running a car without a 1927 license plate. The fine was a single cartwheel—the "costs" ran the total to more than $13.

Another man plead guilty to running a vehicle whose wheels did not meet legal requirements. "One dollar and costs," said the judge, and the victim, who claimed ignorance of the law, coughed up $23.35.

Maybe these two fines were justifiable. We do not pretend to argue the merits of the cases. But the fee system which gives to the officials a remuneration out of all proportion to the amount of the fine is preposterous and inexcusable.

In each case the general fund is boosted by a single dollar. In one the officials get twelve times as much and in the other twenty-two times as much. By legalizing this iniquitous system Texas places a premium on official cupidity and mulets her citizens individually without benefiting the body of taxpayers.—Farm and Ranch.

District Mileage Test Very Interesting

The District Ford Mileage Test of this district, with Seminole, Scagraves, Brownfield, Tahoka, O'Donnell and Lamesa competing for the of $250 was held last Wednesday at Lamesa after all the above places had held their preliminary tests. A large and enthusiastic crowd of Ford fans were gathered from all over the district to witness the event, which was something entirely new under the sun in this vicinity.

There were four prizes offered; $75 each for the greatest mileage in a closed and open car, and also $50 for second place with closed and open. The judges for the event consisted of W. O. Henderson, Tahoka, J. W. Watson, Lamesa, Tom May, Brownfield, and Mr. Richards, of Seminole. The following was the results according to the judges:

No. 1. Bob McDonald, Brownfield, 33 miles used Magnolia, coupe.
No. 2. S. E. McClish, Brownfield, Magnolia, 31.8 miles, roadster.
No. 3. L. R. Hanson, O'Donnell, Touring, 36.7 miles, Marathon gas.
No. 4. Bill Meadows, Lamesa, roadster, 33.3, Magnolia.

No. 5. J. B. Bennett, coupe, Lamesa, 27.9, Marathon.
No. 6. Slim Black, Brownfield, roadster, 33.7 miles, Texas.
No. 7. B. B. Cox, Seminole, sedan, 33.1, Magnolia.

No. 8. Fred Townsen, O'Donnell, coupe, 32.4, Marathon.
No. 9. Winter Knight, Tahoka, coupe, 36.9, Texas.
No. 10. Geo. Green, Brownfield, coupe, 27 miles, Texas.

No. 11. Paul Gooch, Tahoka, touring, 30.2, Magnolia.
No. 12. J. W. Childers, Seminole, touring, 30.8, Texas.

An interesting summary of the 3 fuels used shows them all close together with Magnolia having a slight lead and Texas and Marathon tying. Magnolia, average mileage 32.6 Texas average mileage 32.2 Marathon average mileage 32.2 The contest passed off nicely with no questioning of the judges' decision, all taking what was coming to them like true sportsmen.

Only $500 Offered Brownfield Road

The hardsurfacing project on the Brownfield highway received a severe jolt yesterday when reports from Austin were to the effect that state aid of only $500 will be allowed on highway number 53 toward Brownfield, on which construction contract was awarded recently by the court here, leading to the belief that the project may be stopped.

County Judge Charles Nordyke received a letter yesterday from the state highway commission agreeing to the contract on the basis that the state will aid on the project only $500 as provided under terms of an agreement reached before the last highway commission retired. Since this agreement whereby the state is to aid in the project on a 50-50 basis with the county has been made, Judge Nordyke said.—Lubbock Avalanche.

WE MUST HAVE MINES

The donor of a large cash prize for a recent long-distance swim, in presenting it to the winner, is quoted as saying, "Don't invest in mines."

What he evidently inferred was, "Do not speculate in mines or oil or orchard companies or automobile plants or a thousand and one other glittering schemes to 'double your money.'"

It is an injustice to one of our great industries that the term "mining" has become synonymous with get-rich-quick schemes to bleed the credulous of their savings. As a matter of fact, any banker can point out investments in bonds or stocks of mining companies that are considered as safe as those in most any of our other industries.

Speculation and investment are as widely separated in mining as in anything else. But the world must have mines; thousands have failed on farms and in factories to every mine failure. Mines found, developed, and still greatly maintain the West. An honest mine is still like any other industry—as necessary and as safe.

Rotarians Hold First Meeting Friday

About eighteen of twenty members of the Brownfield Rotary Club, met at the Hotel Brownfield Friday night at 8 o'clock for their first official meeting. President Morgan Copeland had charge of the meeting, and as no set program was provided, most of the time was spent in approving of rules and regulations. Each Friday night at 8 o'clock was set for the luncheon, and Tom May is to have a good program ready to go on board tonight.

Joe McGowan was provided with a box of cigars for the most original way of stating his business, "Joe McGowan, Liaryer" but Joe was not a bit stingy, and the cigars just about all went up in smoke at the banquet board. A fine dinner was served by the hotel management.

It is hoped that all the boys will be on hand tonight and make the meeting lively as possible.

Brownfield Laundry Had Fire Tuesday Morn

The fire alarm sounded again Tuesday morning about ten o'clock, and the boys responded and had the hose connected in less than 40 seconds according to the general opinion expressed, and ready to turn on the hose, but the bucket brigade at the laundry seemed to have the flames under control when the fire truck arrived, and all the fire boys had to do was to finish the job and go back to their several businesses.

The building took fire around the flue of the heating and steam part of the laundry, and as the building is frame with shingled roof the building which is just one lot south of the Herald office stood in a good way to be destroyed.

Plumbers were called in after the fire and put in a better flue.

Residence Burns in Early Morning Flame

The fire siren was sounded shortly after 1 o'clock Monday morning, to which the boys responded in a very short time after the alarm, but they soon found that the residence of John Hendricks Jr. was too far gone to undertake to save, and their efforts were toward protection of nearby property. As luck would have it, Mr. Hendricks had taken out insurance on the house about two weeks before, and a practice fire alarm being the deciding factor in taking out insurance.

Mr. Hendricks said the family had come in from church and all being great hands to read, had sat up rather late reading the papers and other literature, and he guessed they had been in bed long enough to get good and sound asleep. The first he knew of the matter was that coils of fire were falling in on the bed, and as a consequence it was about all they could do to save themselves. The old grandfather of the family, some ninety years of age was just barely gotten out before the roof fell in.

The Hendricks family moved here about two months ago from Portales, N. M., having traded for the place that burned.

MRS. MARY J. BEADLE

Mrs. Mary J. Beadle, 82, of Spur, who had been here visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Cheek, died Monday at the Cheek home on the Dr. Miles place.

Mrs. Beadle died from injuries received in a fall several weeks ago.

Mr. R. E. Collier of the undertaking department of the Brownfield Hardware took the remains to the home of one of her sons R. G. Beadle, who resides 26 miles below Spur, where the remains were laid to rest.

FARM BUREAU MEETING

On Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the Court House there will be a meeting of the Terry County farmers who are members of the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Ass'n. There will be a discussion of plans for the coming year, and also production credit will be discussed in detail. All members are urged to be present.

Brownfield Oil Well Has Crushed Casing

For the time being there is no drilling on the oil well in the Brownfield ranch, as a joint of casing some 1200 feet under the ground has been crushed so badly that the drill will not pass through it. It was supposed to have either been crushed by great water pressure or the falling in of a huge stone, as a great vacant place like a cavern was found at that depth, which they tried to fill in with concrete.

Some thirteen stratas of water has been encountered in the 1200 feet, all of them heavy ones, it is thought that probably all of them have been converged. As soon as the casing is pulled and a new joint put in, we understand that drilling will be resumed.

By Order of Volunteer Fire Department

Each fireman shall be fined ten cents for each fire alarm he fails to respond to in the day time, and for failure to report at night alarms he shall be assessed 50c.

In case the fireman goes to the fire in his own conveyance, he shall be fined ten cents for each time he runs in front of the fire truck, and he shall not run closer than fifty feet to the rear of the truck, in going to the fire.

A reward of one dollar will be paid each fireman that saves a meter at a fire.

When a fire alarm is sounded all citizens must pull over to the curb so that the fire truck shall have the entire right of way in going to the fire. In returning from the fire to the station, the fire truck shall observe the same rules as any other car.

Any person running over a fire hose shall be fined $5.00 for each and every offense.

Note:—The above two rules are also enforced by an ordinance of the city council.

Each fireman shall stay at the fire or at practice until the hose is placed back on the truck, at which time the roll will be called, and if he fails to answer the roll call he shall be assessed as above described.

MORE COTTON, MORE IGNORANCE

Just the other day we picked up a Southern daily newspaper and found the front page heavily featuring news about the low prices of cotton and needed remedies, etc., and then turned against a longer school term better children from the fields." Here is the vicious circle that curses the South:

We keep our children from school in order to make a surplus of cotton—

And then we are so poor we can't spare our children time to go to school—

And so more cotton makes more ignorance, and more ignorance makes more cotton—and so on ad infinitum!

If the Southern states had had compulsory education laws like those of other states for forty years, we could have made plenty of cotton, could have maintained cotton prices on far higher levels, and could have had a citizenship just as well educated as that in the north or west. In other words, we could have had just as much money and far more knowledge.

Isn't it high time to quit sacrificing our Southern childhood and Southern intelligence on the altars of "King Cotton"—and especially when such sacrifices only pile up unwanted surplus that bring disaster rather than prosperity?—Texas Farm Bureau News.

BROWNFIELD GOLFERS INVADE TAHOKA SUNDAY

A bunch of the champion golfers of Brownfield went over to Tahoka Sunday to have it out with the Tahoka bunch, and found them easy, although Tahoka has had a golf course much longer than Brownfield.

The boys report some good games and said they were shown a royal time by the Tahoka sportsmen.

Earl Cadenhead and Prof. H. C. Zorn, of Meadow, were here Sunday afternoon.

WHY? YES, WHY?

Recently a carload of eggs was shipped from Vincennes, Indiana, to a dealer in Texas. This is a fact, not a speculation, yet Texas boasts of being the leading agricultural State in the Union. Why a carload of eggs should be shipped from Indiana to any point in Texas is certainly an interesting question. The hue and cry has recently gone up about the price of cotton and rumors have come out about the financial ruin that is staring our farmers in the face, yet it is a proved fact that from 200 to 500 pure bred chickens properly handled should be producing a living for the average Texas family. Texas has the climate, the soil and marketing facilities, when properly handled, for economical egg production second to none.

Probably one answer to the question is a statement often made by cold storage people that Texas eggs brought to their stores, produced under local conditions, are frequently not suitable for consumption purposes. Should these statements be true, then it is high time for the farmers to take notice of the proper methods of feeding and caring for their flocks, gathering and marketing their eggs so that they may be suitable for cold storage or for consumption by the retail trade.

Why should Texas not produce fresh yard eggs to supply market demands every month in the year? Records on file in the Extension Service show that many families in Texas are doing this. Furthermore, should the supply exceed the demand, why should not the surplus go into storage to be shipped to Indiana and other states in the north and east where egg production must necessarily drop off during the winter months, and as a consequence suitable eggs bring good prices?

It would indeed be interesting, were it possible, to ascertain where the eggs were produced which made up the carload and then shipped into Texas. It is possible that they were produced on some Texas farm and found their way through the mystic maze of modern refrigerated transportation to the cold storage rooms in Vincennes, Indiana, and then back over the long haul to Texas. This would be no more unreasonable than the journey made by the bacon that graces the breakfast table of the average Texas family.

Transportation costs money. Why should the producer pay the transportation cost? Every man who touches the product must have his profit, for this is a large measure accounts for the big grocery bills and the high cost of living. Eggs shipped from the middle west to Vincennes, Indiana, put in cold storage and then transported back to Texas must necessarily be purchased from the producer at a very low price, when sold in competition with the fresh product going to the market at the present time, a about thirty-five cents per dozen. Furthermore, if the farmers who produced these eggs made any profit then the Texas farmer who can eliminate many of the various items of expense involved, is certainly missing an opportunity when he fails to produce eggs to supply the local demand and he is also neglecting a big business in production and marketing of a very important product.

SPEAKING OF PIGS

Whether the prize litter of pigs raised by August Speerscheider of New Franken, Wis., hold the national record we do not know, but they are worthy of wide notice anyway.

This litter of twelve pigs weighed 3,095 pounds at the age of six months winning the state championship. The source of our information did not give the breed, except to say that they were of pure-bred stock, which was obvious. Razorbacks and other scrubs never develop to such proportions in six months.

In raising this weighty family, Speerscheider gave the porkers expert attention, including scientific feeding and sanitary conditions around the lot. After weaning, the pigs were fed a ration including wheat middlings, wheat bran, ground oats, buttermilk, with a dash of salt and wood ashes. During the summer they ran in a two-acre pasture of alfalfa and timothy.

Mr. Speerscheider evidently believes in the adage that "a pig should never go hungry," and the result of his system should encourage others to follow his example—Crosbyton Review.

Early Saturday morning our young pedagogues, Prof. Greer and Miss Gibbs, together with Miss Johnson, teacher of Harmony school, arranged a wolf chase. Like the mighty Nimrod of old, dawned their hunting clothes, armed themselves with the proper weapons of defense, gathered together a large pack of hounds, mounted their prancing steeds, and set out for a near by ranch in quest of the game. Upon arriving at their destination and while crossing a deep ravine their hopes were soon realized, for in a short distance could be heard the musical baying of their hounds in hot pursuit of the coveted prey. For a moment they stopped and stood stockstill, their nerves in a tinge—evidently the hounds were headed their way! Riding on for a short distance and emerging from the canyon, with the Misses Gibbs and Johnson in the lead. They stopped stricken with fear, both excitedly exclaiming, Oh, look there comes the hounds giving chase to a large lobo wolf. Yes breathlessly assented Prof. Greer, and as large as an elephant too. The girls now clung to one another in a state of trepidation anxiously awaiting the worst to come. While our young Lochinvar hastily preparing his weapon for instant use in protection of the fair young damsels against the ravages of the on coming beast. Fortunately at this point fate intervened, the dogs began closing in on their prey. A struggle followed but for a second only, then silence prevailed, the hounds lazily sauntering off. Our young hero now began slowly and stealthily advancing toward the scene of battle. On reaching the place there lay the victim wrapped in the habiliments of death, a half grown cotton tail rabbit.

"FARM RELIEF" NEEDED

Last year, says the Illinois Department of Health, the 2,728,178 rural inhabitants of that state lost 205 of their members to typhoid fever, while the 4,236, 772 city dwellers lost only 121, a difference of about 5 per 100,000 in favor of the city. On tuberculosis, malaria and influenza similar differences were noted as to the better health of the city dweller. Yet Illinois has a better health record than the average state, and a genuine farm relief would be a service aimed at this waste from sickness and death, says the Research Department of the National Association of Farm Equipment Manufacturers. Safe drinking water supply for every farm family should be the first move, drilled wells, home water systems that will give the family abundant hot and cold water at a turn of the tap, such as are now being demonstrated by most of the state colleges of agriculture, will quickly change this farm loss that is putting the farm at such a disadvantage when compared with the city.

WHAT'S DOING IN WEST TEXAS

By West Texas C. of C.

Baird—Bike of booster bands and flash of booster colors will enliven Baird March 23 when delegates of the Oil Belt District attend the West Texas Chamber of Commerce regional convention March 23. Large delegations from Cisco, Ranger, Eastland, Abilene, Albany, Stamford, and other towns have signified their intentions of coming in groups.

Stamford—E. H. Whitehead, for the past two years publicity manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will be moved to Fort Worth to take charge of the Fort Worth office of the organization which was vacated when Ray Loeman resigned to become manager of the South Texas Chamber of Commerce. Whitehead will continue to supervise publicity work of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and will continue to work portions of the western territory.

Munday—The local chamber of commerce has resumed activities after remaining inactive for some months. Pledges of support are indicative of his accomplishments for the organization during the present year.

Goldthwaite—Six communities of Mills county have organized to promote community interests and to entertain speakers on farm topics who come here. Each club has designated a community leader or leaders on various activities that pertain to the general welfare.

Sonora—Machinery has arrived for a core test for potash to be made in this section immediately. Dr. David Flood of Chicago, eminent geologist, has been here several months and located the test.

El Paso—The special El Paso edition of "West Texas Today" has been released from the press. The number is not as large as originally intended and gives chief space to the "city as the 'Gateway to the North.'" West Texas Chamber member towns that were to receive publicity in the special edition will be given space in the regular magazine at a later date.

Matador—Motley County recently passed a bond election calling for appropriation of the county of $250,000 for highway improvement.

Fort Stockton—Contracts on primary 40,000 acres and 41,000 acres of secondary land of Red Bluff district are signed and in the Pecos Valley Water Users Association ready for arrangement for presentation to the Reclamation Bureau. The remaining contracts on the land for secondary interest will soon be in.

Eubanks assumed the payment of said notes, said deed bearing date on the day and year last aforesaid, and duly recorded in Vol. 25 page 451 of the Deed Records of Terry County, Texas;

And, Whereas, the said A. M. Brownfield is the holder and owner of all of said notes, and the said J. H. Eubanks and H. M. Prince have made default in the payment of the note due December 1st, 1926, and the annual interest due on all of said notes on December 1st, 1926, and the same is now past due and unpaid, principal, interest and attorney's fees, by reason thereof, as is provided in said notes and in said Deed of Trust, the said A. ### THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE

We little think when we butcher our mother tongue that it is the most universally used language since it is spoken by more people than any other language in the world. Among those who speak it we have the one hundred and ten million of these United States; and seven millions of the Dominion of Canada; the fifty million of Great Britain and Ireland; to say nothing of the millions in the provinces and settlements of the British possessions.

Considering the matter from the standpoint of the number of square miles over which the English speaking race holds sway, we have in North America five million five hundred thousand square miles. In the British possessions in India, Australia, Africa, etc., there are more than six millions of square miles. Hence the people who speak the Anglo-Saxon language bear rule over more than one-fourth of the habitable territory of the globe.

In "the Anglo-Saxon language: its origin, character and destiny," Alexander Campbell says: "For strength of frame it has the bone and muscle of the Romans, the Goths and the Saxons. It has the patience and endurance of the German and the Dutch, both High and Low. It partakes of the vivacity of the French, of the genius of the Italian, the wit and sprightliness of the Greek and the Celt. For comprehension, if for nothing else, our language is chief amongst all dialects of earth. There is nothing written—poetry, philosophy, history, or in the form of literature ancient or modern—that cannot be translated, body, soul and spirit, into our language. Who of the ancients or moderns, in any department of science or art, has given to the world an idea that cannot be perspicuously and fully set forth in Anglo-Saxon? But could all our learning now be expressed in Hebrew, Greek, Latin, or any language heretofore spoken by man? Nay, could it all be transferred to any purely Asiatic, African or American tongue now extant? We have been obliged to fabricate a myriad of new words from dead languages, and to form thousands of new combinations of the words of dead and living tongues, to express all our Anglo-Saxon sciences, arts and literature. But we can translate all our learning into our tongue, and do it so perfectly that the translation is fully equal to the original. As Dryden said of Homer, Virgil and Milton—

"Three poets, in three distant ages born,

Greece, Italy and England did adorn;

The first in loftiness of thought surpass'd;

The next in majesty, in both the last;

The force of nature could no further go—

To make a third, she join'd the former two."

J. E. Haynes, cotton buyer of Paris, Texas, was here Monday.

Walter Bond is attending Simmons University at Abilene for the balance of the term.

Editor A. D. Jameson, of Seagraves accompanied by City Marshall J. H. Hand of that city, had business here Tuesday.

Panhandle—Panhandle is to open an early spring paving program, according to plans being worked out between the chamber of commerce and city officials.

Moran—A big delegation from this town will attend the Oil Belt District convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Baird March 23 in the interest of securing the 1928 meeting for Moran. A big delegation from this town and also the Moran Band will attend the annual convention at Wichita Falls.

Captain Charles Goodnight, 91, of Clarendon, recently married a distant relative, Miss Corine Goodnight, 26 of Wyoming. Well, good night.

A new district court has been formed of Hockley, Crosby and Cochran counties, leaving Lubbock as a single county district. The new district is the 90th, and Lubbock county is the 72nd, or the old district.

The days are lengthening out, and it is almost one hour later until dark than at Christmas times. Therefore taking into consideration of a lot of tired clerks, the merchants should get together in the near future and set a closing time for each week day except perhaps Saturday.

County agents in neighboring counties are warning farmers to watch out for the cut worm this season, as they are likely to be here in great numbers owing to a mild winter. They recommend that the best way to beat them is starvation. Keep all vegetation on which they live until farm crops come in, killed by plowing.

Speaking of citizens being caught nibbling at bait in the form of cheap-john stuff put out by street fakirs, these suckers are not only by any means all farmers or farmers wives. Not by a jug full. In most cases farmers and farmers wives are careful buyers and it is hard to fool them on quality or quantity. Such names as Rube and Haysed are almost things of the past, and most of these birds now live in town.

The city of McLean recently turned over their city power and ice plant to a utilities company of that section, and received a check for $100,000 for the plants. McLean like Brownfield, voted bonds of about $40,000 altogether about the same time we did for the erection of these plants, and at that time, some of their citizens like some of our own voiced dire calamity upon the community for involving themselves and children, their neighbors and neighbors children in such a huge debt. But their plant like our own has made money almost from the beginning, and now they have sold it for a big profit. Now we suppose, all who opposed will maintain that they were for it all the time.

The Sudan News last week had the pleasure of hearing one of its hash house proprietor tell him how insignificant his little paper was, together with its worthlessness as an advertising medium. The Herald also got a free opinion on how much our advertising was worth recently, which reading between the lines from what was said was precious little, but as this opinion was from one of the clerks, and the proprietor and the manager thought different, the Herald got the ad. In view of the fact that such firms as Henry Ford, Continental Oil Co., Waples-Platter Grocery Co., and General Motors Co., each capitalized into the millions of dollars still think our space is worth so much per inch, and pay us the cash for it, we absolutely refuse to be worried about what a clerk thinks about the matter.

This tax remission business has almost become a scandal these past few years. There are a number of counties in South Texas for one reason or another are paying no taxes to the State, and to our certain knowledge Galveston county has not paid any since the storm of September 1900. Now comes Tarant and Dallas counties, two of the richest in the state who want their state taxes remitted the purpose as we understand it of building a dam across Trinity river. As the Lynn County News points out in a lengthy editorial, a county that is visited with calamity this year and should have its taxes remitted by law, may be one of the most prosperous two years hence. It seems that many of our legislators were carried away with the proposition above when they visited Dallas and Fort Worth recently. Perhaps some of the Fort Worthians still carry hollow walking sticks.

LIVES THAT ARE BURNED NOT INSURED

Three firemen recently lost their lives in a New York fire. When the rescue party chopped Joseph Heslin out of the icy ruins, he was found frozen to death, the frozen nozzle still in his hands.

Careless people who think that insurance covers all the loss in fires, do not count the women, the children, the firemen who must pay the price. Insurance is the great financial salve and palliative, the anaesthetic that mercifully takes away some of the sting. But insurance, however admirable, cannot restore life.

The day is coming when a person guilty of fire carelessness will be held responsible for his damaging acts, just as an individual is now held responsible for carelessness which causes damage to another's person or property.

C. S. Hart of Fort Worth and J. E. McArthur, of Shafter Lake, both cattlemen who attended the Amarillo convention, spent Thursday night here.

C. I. Bedford, of Plains, live stock commission man, who attended the Amarillo convention, was registered at the Hotel Brownfield, Thursday night.

G. A. Kimbey and G. W. Hendricks State Telephone men of Matader, spent Friday and Saturday here, and left Sunday for Carlsbad caverns.

TEXAS INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATED WITH PROGRAM

One of the most enjoyable and truly inspirational programs ever given before in Brownfield, was supervised by a committee of the Maids and Matrons Club. The program began at one-thirty o'clock promptly March second, prefaced by a few remarks by Supt. O. W. Faglia. The large auditorium did not comfortably seat the eager parents and friends; many were compelled to stand. The Chamber of Commerce Band, with Mr. John S. Powell, director, played stirring and appropriate music, as the curtains were drawn. The program follows: "A Prairie Sunset," reading—Lataine Eiche.

"Jolly Cowboys," quartet—Bill Collins, James Harley Dallas, Joe Shelton, Kearney Scudday.
Band Minuet, costumes of olden time—4th grade girls.
"Texas"—Ray Brownfield, Jr.
Chorus "In Dear Old Texas"—Gladys Cox, Melba Cornelius, Mary Thelma Copeland, Dora Dean Neill and Velma McClish.
Music Band Blue Bonnet Dance—2nd and 3rd grade girls.
Music Band Pageant ("Texas Under Six Flags") Grammar grades.

Mr. M. L. Copeland in a beautiful and explanatory interpretation, gave us an inside into Texas history as the acts were played. Credit in most complimentary terms were given Miss Elizabeth Dumas for her untiring efforts in this wonderful presentation. Sharing with her are the members of the committee, Mrs. J. H. McKinney and Miss Bell. Splendid co-operation on the part of the grade school principal, Mr. Fladger Tannery and Mr. J. Y. Taylor, instructor, made it possible to present this memorable event. Training of the pretty dances and songs were work of the grade teachers of their respective grades. Pupils played their parts well and deserve the praise they received. The Maids and Matrons Club should feel proud of this attempt, and justly so. They have sponsored many helpful programs of various sorts and have done many things to enhance the beauty of our town and schools.

ANNE VARNER BAKER CO. GIVE DELIGHTFUL PROGRAM

The charming and magnetic personalities of these young lady artists made this number of the Lyceum course most attractive.

SOUTH PLAINS MUSIC FESTIVAL SOON

LUBBOCK, March 7.—The Fourth Annual South Plains Music Festival and Contest will be held in Lubbock March 24, 25 and 26, and much interest is being shown in the coming event. The Festival and Contest is being sponsored by the South Plains Music Teachers Association and the Music Department of the Texas Technological College.

A concert by Margaret Matzenauer March 24 will be the feature attraction of the Festival while the Little Symphony Orchestra of Canyon will play March 25 and the Contest winners will present a program March 26. Elimination contests in all departments will be conducted during the day on each of the three days.

Practically every South Plains town has music teachers affiliated with the organization and pupils from each of these towns will be expected to enter the contest. The entries will close within a few days. The South Plains Music Teachers Association through their annual festivals and other efforts have wielded a big influence in the advancement of music and culture on the South Plains of Texas. During the past few years, since the organization of the association, interest in music has made the same rapid commerce, trade and other things have enjoyed.

South Plains music lovers will be indeed fortunate to hear the artist Matzenauer who is credited by national critics with having one of the greatest voices in America. Margaret Matzenauer is not only a soprano, but a contralto. Her voice is phenomenal. Its range and compass unique in the musical world. At one performance she can sing Isolde, a dramatic soprano role, in a way that is reminiscent of Nordica in her prime and at another she can give us a Delilah in an opulent and golden voice.

Tickets for the Matzenauer performance will go on sale at Rix Furniture, Bowen's Drug Store and the Texas Tech College at Lubbock. Mail orders should be addressed to the college.

SEVEN YEAR OLD BOY HAS RARE DISEASE

J. W. Smelley, a seven year old boy living near Wolffarth, was brought to the sanitarium early this week. The little fellow has been sick over a year, and when brought to the sanitarium was in a very extreme condition. From the history of the case and from symptoms it was found that the child had Hodgkin's Disease. This is a rare trouble, especially in children and is a disease of the glandular system and one in which the red blood cells are gradually destroyed. It is one of the few diseases that medical science has no control over as all cases invariably prove fatal. The child passed away Wednesday morning—Lubbock Sanitarium News.

LUBBOCK INFANT DIES OF INJURIES

NEW LAW TO HELP COTTON FARMERS

One of the most important measures passed at this session of the Congress is one which provides for the listing of the grades and staple length of the cotton in the so-called carry over. The original bill by Congressman Marvin Jones was passed by the House in December. A similar bill by Senator Mayfield was recently passed by the Senate. The two bills were combined and as such have recently been enacted into law.

There are between four and five millions of bales in the so-called carry over. There are ten tenderable grades of cotton. Hundreds of thousands of bales of the carry over are not of a tenderable character. Much of it is of a non-merchantable character. All of this cotton, however, without regard to grade or staple has heretofore been included in the reports and only the total figures given as so many millions of bales. Naturally this affects the market adversely the same as if all of such cotton were of a tenderable and merchantable character. By referring to all of this cotton as surplus or carry over, manipulators have been able to depress the market and greatly reduce the price.

Under the new measure it will be known just how much of this is of a tenderable and merchantable character, and how much of it should therefore really affect the price.

It is thought by the Department of Agriculture and by those who have studied the question generally that this measure will mean millions in increased prices to the producer of cotton throughout the South.

The measure also provides for abolishing the semi-monthly estimates of cotton production, and substitutes monthly estimates instead, thus utilizing the funds heretofore used in making estimates of production for the listing of the quality of the cotton. It provides, however, for the retention of the semi-monthly ginning reports of actual cotton production.

NEWSPAPERS BEST FOR UTILITY ADVERTISING

Public utilities are using more than half of their yearly advertising appropriations, estimated at twenty-five million dollars, to tell their messages to the public through newspapers, according to a recent report of the Public Utilities Advertising Association.

Gas and electric utilities, says the report, of the Public Utilities Advertising Association show a proportion of expenditures for newspaper space greater than 65 per cent. In 1925, the last year for which figures are available, electric light and power companies spent 71 per cent of all advertising outlay in newspapers, and gas companies spent 65 per cent.

"The high percentage of advertising expenditure which is devoted to newspapers is again testimony of the appreciation of utility men of the value of newspaper advertising," says the report.

"There is every indication that the public utilities, in their endeavor to sell their services scientifically, are using newspapers for the direct and indirect results accomplished, thus rapidly overcoming the attitude that a utility must advertise in a newspaper in return for its goodwill."

Mrs. S. J. Dixon, mother of Mrs. W. B. Tudor, accompanied by Mrs. Murphy Luna, both of Plains, were visiting Mrs. Tudor, Monday.

NO WONDER

"I married a widow with a grown daughter. My father fell in love with my step-daughter and married her—thus becoming my son-in-law, and my step-daughter became my mother because she was my father's wife.

"My wife gave birth to a son, who was of course, my father's brother-in-law and my uncle, for he was the brother of my step-mother.

"My father's wife became the mother of a son. He was, of course, my brother and also my grandchild for he was the son of my daughter.

"Accordingly my wife was my grandmother because she was my mother's mother. I was my wife's husband and grandchild at the same time—and as the husband of a person's grandmother is his grandfather, I AM MY OWN GRANDFATHER.—Medical Insurance.

UNITED STATES OVERFED BUT UNDERNOURISHED

Wrong eating, rather than promiscuous drinking, is what is the matter with America today, in the opinion of Mrs. Delle Ross, famous Bloomington, Illinois, dietician. Mrs. Ross is a former singer and teacher who having cured herself of the disease of overweight after years of struggle, is meeting extraordinary success in curing overweight in others.

"Eating and drinking is the curse of America today," says Mrs. Ross. "We are overfed but undernourished. Not all are intemperate in drinking but most of us do not know how to eat intelligently. All foods are good if eaten correctly. Seven years of close study has convinced me that every disease known to man is first caused by wrong eating. Lack of adequate food, supplied in proper variety, leads to overwrought nerves, and the victim seeks in drink and drugs what he should have found in right foods."

"Many people believe it silly to think that perfect health and bodily structure can be brought about by merely eating certain foods. But is it? You would not try to repair a wire fence with silk thread nor mend a silk stocking with wire, would you? Each thing is good in its place, and the same is true of foods. The human body is a complex machine depending for its life-building and life-sustaining powers, science tells us, upon many elements found in foods free from the 'improvements' of man. If these are not all supplied properly, the body cannot work at the highest efficiency. Brain, muscle, bone and nerves depend upon the blood to furnish them materials; the blood, in turn, is dependent on the food put into the stomach. To have a perfect body, we need only to give it right foods, judiciously combined. Disease germs do not thrive in a pure blood stream."

A LESSON IN FINANCE

"I grew up thinking a bank was a place for rich people to keep their money, and I was grown before I learned that it was also a place for poor people to borrow from," said an East Texas native the other day. "Dad used to have something or other to sell all along, and never borrowed to make a crop," which explains his boy's ignorance in matters financial. Some of us have learned the borrowing facilities entirely too well, and thereby swapped independence and prosperity for a specious system which keeps its victims on an eternal treadmill.

"We always had lots to eat, mostly raised on the farm," continues this East Texan. "One time when I was a boy we visited an uncle who grew nothing much but cotton. We had such a poor dinner that it stuck in my boyish mind, and I puzzled over it for awhile, and finally took the puzzle to my father."

"Why doesn't Uncle ——— raise good things to eat like we do," I asked. "Is it because he is so poor?" "No," replied Dad. "He is poor because he doesn't." "I have never forgotten that lesson," asserts the speaker. His name is not used because it might embarrass Uncle ———, and his boys, who live in almost every section of the State.—Ex.

TECH SENDS JUDGING TEAM TO FORT WORTH

LUBBOCK, Texas, February 7.—The first stock judging team of Texas Technological College will participate in the judging contests for college students at the Fort Worth Exposition and Fat Stock Show, March 7. The team consists of six junior students of the school of agriculture under the leadership of Professor R. C. Mowery of the animal husbandry department. Professor Mowery has coached several similar teams in Texas with notable success. The Lubbock high school team won the state championship in vocational livestock judging contests under his leadership at Texas A. & M. college. The Tech team will be eligible to enter the college contests at the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago this fall and it will probably enter if the trip can be financed.

The team going to Fort Worth is composed of O. N. Burroughs, Lubbock; F. G. Blackmon, Shallowater; Sam Chatham, Idalou; Al Jennings,

Lubbock; Jack Sides, Lubbock; and L. N. Starr, Lubbock. The boys have spent much time preparing for the contest. Since the college herds have not been sufficient for judging practice the team has made a number of trips to various sections of the Panhandle, including Hereford, Spur, Crest and Floydada. The pure-bred herds of beef cattle found at Hereford and Spur proved especially valuable to the students.

Uncle Ike Newberry, prominent citizen of the Union community, who on account of advanced age rarely come to town, sent in his renewal for the Herald recently.

MEADOW BRIEFS

By Aesculapias.

The past week has witnessed a considerable increase of sickness in the community, especially among children. Whooping cough is perhaps responsible for quite a lot of it. Very few it seems feel any obligation to keep infected children at home until the disease has passed the infective stage.

We continue to have rather cool weather and with it rather high winds and abundance of sand. Regardless of this the plows are running and the fields begin to look black in every direction.

Since my last report there has been two additions to the population. On the 4th there was a girl at B. F. Donowho's and on the 7th a boy at the home of E. E. Branch. All parties express themselves as extremely happy.

The Highway Inspector was out among us the latter part of the week and appears to have opened a rich mine in Meadow and its environs. Many of our best citizens found themselves the victim of delay in securing license tags for the current year, and thereby laid up for themselves much sorrow and more money loss than either of them thought it possible to secure. Twentyfive and $27.00 when previously neither of them suspected that they possessed so much wealth.

Laws are made to be observed by—the other fellow—but a few times in my life it has happened that I found myself minus so much and cost with a sore spot to nurse for a season, and a solemn promise to myself that I would be on the watch next time against those officers that regard it as necessary to enforce the law. Verily the way of the transgressor is hard.

The American is the most pre-emptive advocate of more laws, additional legislation, checks, balances, and at the same time the most inveterate violator of these same laws of any people on the face of the globe. We perhaps have something like a quarter of a million whose business is to make and unmake statutes and two or three million more who are supposed to enforce them, and when we find one who is foolish enough to make the attempt at having us regard them seriously, we try to get rid of him at once.

Our legislature is having the time of their lives. By invitation they are taking in Fort Worth and other points of interest and incidentally are getting ready to remit taxes in part to some of the wealthiest counties in the state.

Just why the balance of the poor devils of other portions of the state should be mulched out of several millions of taxes for the next twenty-five years, that dams and other works that alone are to benefit the section involved, passes my understanding.

This kind of paternalism escapes the notice of most people as there is little publicity given to such jobs by the press of the larger cities, for it is here that most of the pork barrel stuff is pulled off.

The legal sanction for these deals is found in section 10 of the Constitution of the State, whereby the legislature was empowered by two-thirds vote of both houses to grant such relief. However, it says "in case of public calamity in such county, city or town." Everyone knows that such conditions do not exist on the west fork of the Trinity exclusively, and that all over the state larger and the smaller streams overflow annually to damage or destroy crops and wash away houses that should never have been built there.

The first instance that I can recall was that of Galveston in 1900. This was certainly a great public calamity, and accordingly in 1903, I believe the legislature granted relief in the matter of taxes for twenty-years and has since extended the time ten more years.

Since that time fourteen other counties have been granted remission of taxes in whole or part. Most of these counties lie in the Gulf and Rio Grande section. Many of them are daily exploiting the great advantages to farming and truck growing, cattle raising.

In most of them they are well provided with good highways, fine orchards and farms and really have good reasons to laud their soil and climate. Then why in the Devil and Tom Walker should we be called on to pay their taxes, keep up their highways and school their children for the next twenty five years.

If they want dams built to conserve their water or prevent overflows, let them go ahead vote bonds get the money and build and pay for them out of their own funds. They are the ones who will benefit by such work.

Some other portions not very far away have carried on such work without the aid of the state.

The present Legislature will be called on to consider remission bills to run for twenty five years for Dallas county, Tarrant, Starr, Tyler, McLennan, and possibly, Hunt, Panola and Burleson. When these bills pass, and most of them will, we will perhaps have something like ten per cent of the taxable values of the state on the charity list.

Many of the nations of the past were crushed out, that is, its common people by taxation. We are certainly making a good beginning in that direction. We can't all ride this same horse.

"A bold peasantry a country's pride, Once destroyed can never be supplied."

CHEVROLET SMASHING PRODUCTION RECORD AGAIN

Responding to an unprecedented and enthusiastic demand on the part of the public for the most beautiful Chevrolet in Chevrolet history, with its numerous refinements at lowered prices, the Chevrolet Motor Company during February again smashed all previous monthly production records by producing 85,821 cars.

February production this year showed an increase of 34,518 cars or more than 67 per cent over the total of 51,303 Chevrolets built in February, 1926.

Despite greatly enlarged facilities provided under the $10,000,000 expansion program completed December 1, 1926, the Chevrolet Motor Company was forced to extend its operations by working overtime, day and night, to meet the nationwide demand for Chevrolet cars—a demand marking the rise of this company to its position as the largest manufacturer of gear-shift cars in the world.

"There is only one reason for the phenomenal growth in popularity of the Chevrolet car" said W. S. Knudsen, president of the Chevrolet Motor Company, "and that is—it has pleased the public. It has met the desire of the public for a high grade car, of exceptional quality and performance, at a reasonable price. It is this constantly growing approval of the Chevrolet car that is causing the company to extend its production to meet the increasing demand."

In the first two months of 1925 the Chevrolet Motor Company built 46,373 cars; in the same period in 1926 it built 97,740 and in January and February of this year it totaled 159,497 cars—an increase in two years for this period of 113,124 cars.
