By the Secretary

I have just read an article in the Radford Grocery News. It is a story of De Leon and Comanche county. Down there they used to have a great cotton country, but the weevil got them and they had to try other crops. Now they are going the peanut route and clearing over $100 per acre on their land by the sale of nuts and hay. We can do the same. Usually when I start peanut talk, some fellow says we cannot grow them here on account of the fact that they will cause the land to blow away. The same thing would happen down there except that they plant a few rows of nuts and then a few rows of corn or other feed stuff, and this holds the land. They have a sandy soil down there, in fact more so than ours. The people of Erath county are also prospering in growing peanuts. I was raised down in that section of our state and I know it as well if not better than I do this, and if they can make money growing peanuts, we can get rich at it. Nothing will grow unless it is planted. Fact is, it was freely stated that cotton would not mature in our sandy soils. This was common talk back in 1918. The reason that it would not grow was because it was not planted. Let each farmer in each school district of our county plant a few acres and then pool the quantity for buyers. The price at this time is $1.25 per bushel, and the average yield above 60 bushels.

One man has brought in some popcorn, and another has said that he would do so. Let me have several samples in order that I may send them to proper parties and see what kind of an offer can be secured per bushel. Just a few bushels produced will not attract buyers, but if each man will try a few acres of the right variety, it would be that much side money. But cotton of course will be our main crop with a lot of corn to go with it. The popcorn could be pooled the same as peanuts.

It seems that East Texas is getting too much rain and the whole Southern States cotton belt is flooded and it begins to look as if their cotton would come up some short, and that we might not have the eighteen million bale crop that has been predicted and this is most certain if the weevil gets in his work. However, let us not go wild and plant the whole country in cotton to the exclusion of everything else as guesses sometimes go wrong and we might wake up with a twenty million bale crop and if this should occur the stuff would be so low on the market that it would not be worth hauling out of the field. It came near going that low last year.

Last week a lady who resides in Detroit, Mich., wanted to purchase several thousand acres of land near the city of Dallas, and said she would be willing to pay as much as 50c per acre as she only wanted to invest some surplus cash. Today, this office had a letter from a man who wanted to locate in this county as he had heard so much about it. All he wanted was a county map in order that he might locate some school land and be on the ground and bid it in when the Land Commissioner placed it on the market in August. He is a resident of Northwest Texas, but like the Detroit lady, is not familiar with the school land situation in this section.

The highway department has secured an 80 foot right of way to Gomez, but does not appear to be asking for anything further than that. So far as this office is informed at this time, nothing official has been made public as to their intentions regarding the route west of Gomez, but it is hoped that some agreement can be reached and that we can make use of the several thousand dollars that is to be set aside for our county.

Rotary Club Entertains District Governor

The local Rotary Club had the distinction last Wednesday night of having for its guest, District Governor W. C. Edwards of Denton, Texas, who with a number of live wire Rotarians from Lubbock, Slaton and Post attended the banquet prepared at the Hotel Brownfield at which almost the complete roll of membership here attended. Among others from Lubbock who attended were: Neill H. Wright, who was very much instrumental in organizing the local club, Mr. and Mrs. L. Knight, Dean J. M. Gordon of the Tech College, Hubert L. Allen, Walter A. Myrick, and Mrs. R. A. Trussell.

Owing to the limited time provided for the banquet and the program, the writer failed to get the names of the Slaton and Post boys, but they were a live bunch of rollers, and will be welcome to any future meetings.

The main thing after passing into the banquet hall was the consumption of a splendid feed prepared by the kitchen force at the hotel, which was not only enjoyed locally, but many nice things were said about the feed by the visitors.

After all had been well filled, President Morgan Copeland welcomed the visitors in his usual pleasing style and then turned the meeting over to Neill Wright to ramrod. About the first thing he ordered was a song by Mrs. McKnight, who is "sweetheart" of the 3rd Rotarian district of Texas. She complied, being accompanied by Mrs. Trussell, and so pleasing was the rendition that she was forced by encore to respond again. She sang again later on in the evening, but as it was growing late refused to respond to a second encore. After a few brief and complimentary remarks about Brownfield people and the Rotary bunch in particular, Mr. Wright very pleasingly introduced the honored guest of the evening in a few well chosen words. Mr. Edwards did not make a long speech, but it was as full of good things and information concerning Rotarianism as that many English words could possibly describe, and it was well taken by those assembled. After the short address, Mr. Edwards presented the Brownfield Club with its charter. Mr. Edwards is holding his second term as District Governor, and is very popular all over the State with all the people being defeated by Barry Miller three years ago for Lieutenant Governor of Texas by only a few thousand votes. He is particularly popular with Rotarians and newspaper men, for at home he is editor and publisher of the daily Record-Chronicle, and is a past president of the Texas Press Association. Mr. Edwards will leave in a few weeks for Ostend, Belgium to attend the International Rotary.

Other interesting speakers of the evening were, first, Dean Gordon and let it be said right here that Dean Gordon is no absent minded professor, but has a string of good things intermixed with spicy witticisms right on the end of his tongue, and he kept that Lubbock crowd scringing from the time he got up until he sat down, and all breathed a sigh of relief. It was all very funny to Brownfield, and the Slaton boys. His special mark, however was Neill Wright, the Dean seemingly to somewhat doubt Neill's good Sunday School attendance record, which somehow got before the house for discussion. The president of the Slaton club delivered a fine address and invited all to attend their meetings when convenient. Also, a very pleasing address was delivered by an Englishman accent fellow from Post, who also made Neill a great deal of the brunt of his darts. Anyway, all Englishmen are not as grim as the whole nation is painted.

It was an especially great evening for the home force, as they are new in the work and the words of instruction and encouragement came in at a good time and was highly appreciated. The last thing that big Bill said to the writer, however, was that we were certainly going fine for a new club and he was going to expect great things for us.

W. B. Bassham, of Midland, former citizen of this place, was here on business this week.

E. C. Roberts and wife of Seagraves, were shopping with our merchants Wednesday afternoon.

An angry denial is often a confession of guilt.

Light Rain Followed By Big Sand Storm

We failed to mention last week of the reception of a light rain that just about settled the dust for a few hours, but the wind got into the southwest and stayed there like a twin brother the whole week, and if a bunch of clouds looked like they intended to form and rain, it would increase to a flurry and scatter them to the four winds.

However, Sunday was a lovely day, the first in a week, but clouds were noticeable on the horizon late in the afternoon, and just before day they approached this section, but as usual were met but a good strong wind and we only got about a quarter of an inch. This will help some until more is received, or until the wind forgets itself some of these days and a cloud slips up while the wind is asleep.

Directly after the sun came up on Monday morning, the wind did likewise, and by noon was doing its stuff fully equal to the Thanksgiving storm. A large tree in the court park was uprooted, the first ever known to have been blown down in the city. For four or five hours the air was thickly clouded with dust and shucks, and the new comer was thoroughly initiated and disgusted, we guess.

But the sandies should play out in the next few weeks, and then for the next six or seven months, no country on earth has a more delightful climate to offer the native or visitor.

Fine rains are reported in the Tokio and Harris communities.

Lahey Entertained Singers Sunday

The writer did not get to attend the County Singing Convention at Lahey last Sunday, but borrowing the opinion of those who did attend, we are sure no one went away from this fine community but are now singing their praises as entertainers.

J. C. White and wife, good singers from Brownfield, were among the local people who attended, and they report a large crowd with splendid singers from all over this section and some mighty good singing all during the day, according to his informants, as he did not go until afternoon. He was not there at the lunch hour, but inferred from what he could gather from those who did attend the forenoon that the lunch was well in keeping with the general run of fine Terry county spreads. You know if a dinner is not satisfactory, you hear a lot about it, but if satisfactory the lunchers are generally "too full for utterance," and this is the way J. C. had the lunch part figured.

We understand that W. S. Copeland, the Lahey merchant was elected president of the convention for the ensuing year, and that the next meeting will be held with Meadow on the 3rd Sunday in July.

INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE EXECUTIVE COM. MEET

Brownfield, April 16, 1927
The following members of the Executive Committee met this afternoon at the Courthouse in Brownfield: O. W. Fagala, H. C. Zorn, H. R. Winston, Mrs. Lucile Burleson, and J. E. Jackson.

After a thorough investigation of the eligibility of Nupert Caffey of Wellman, it was found that he was ineligible to represent the school in the Interscholastic League contests, being 21 years of age before September 1, 1926. All events in which he participated being ruled out of the contest.

It was further decided that a copy of this should be given to the local press, a copy to Mr. G. L. Sone, of Slaton, District Chairman of the Executive Committee, and a copy to Roy B. Henderson, League Director, Austin, Texas.

(Signed) The Executive Committee of Terry County.

LYNN COUNTY FAMILY TO MAKE HOME IN TERRY

Mr. Fred Dawson and family, who have made Wilson and nearby Wilson their home for many years, moved to their farm in Terry county the first of the week. We surely regret to see these good people leave us, but our loss is Terry's gain.

We surely wish them a profitable move. To our notion, Mr. Dawson owns one of the best pieces of real estate to be found.—Wilson Pinter

Can the Farmer Live By Advice Alone?

The old farmer probably receives more advice gratis than any other known profession. Everyone seems to want to be his brother's keeper when it comes to the farmers, and we might add that they not only want to advise him, but it is a wonder that some of us don't apply to the court to have us appointed guardians of the farmers. But whether we want to be his guardian or not, most of us will continue to hand him our fatherly advice anyway, as we don't altogether regard him as an orphan just at present. And the farmer, generally a good natured and friendly cuss, don't resent our advice, at least openly, but seems to enjoy getting free advice. It is no wonder though, as this is probably the only thing he ever receives absolutely free. He never says you nor may to this advice, and takes it if he likes it, otherwise he as usual pursues the even tenor of his way with never a look-back over his shoulder.

If we advise the merchant, banker, editor or professional men how to conduct their business, they are liable to become huffed at us and maybe sight us to our hat, cane and the open door. They think they know their business without any advice of "butinsky" friends. Not so with the farmer. You may show him a thousand mistakes he has made, or at least what you consider mistakes, and then pour out the advice in slushes for a solid hour, and then instead of getting sore, he will very likely ask you to come in and have dinner, such as you have not hand in your tummy for some time. Your advice may not be worth a tinker's dam to his certain knowledge, but he'll come back for more just to please you.

There has never been found any teacher in the universe greater than real "Old Experience" himself and our harping on this and that is not going to change the leopard's spots one bit. If a farmer is "sot" on the one crop idea, he will remain a one-cropper. But if he fancies chickens, hogs and cows, you will find plenty of them for all his purposes around this place, and he will think enough of them to raise plenty of feed for them.

Any legislation, state or national, to give a subsidy to farmers or any other class to our notion is to ruin that class and make them serfs and pawns of the government instead of independent individualist as we now know the average American farmer. If let alone and given a square deal by erasing the protection from the other industries whereby all foreign competition in goods are shut out and the American manufacturer allowed to charge his own price, the farmer will take care of himself and will not need any advice from any source.

This is not saying, however, that the Herald does not like to print articles about farmers who have made good in their own way, or that we do not believe that each farmer's premises should not contain a full quota of hogs, chickens and cows along with the other farm animals. We'll admit the Herald has some selfishness in wishing to see the farmer succeed, for if he is prosperous, the Herald is also prosperous. The trend of his business is the straw that shows the trend of our business and all other business.

Brownfield Well Has New Drilling Crew

We understand that a new crew of drillers have been put to work on the Brownfield well. Just why this change was made, we are unable to learn, but this is the third crew that has been employed on the well.

Just how deep the well is at present or what the prospects for oil is, the Herald is as dense as an owl, as very little if any information is ever given out especially for publication. In view of this fact, and not being of a very inquisitive nature toward any who seem to have a dark secret, we know nothing and very little of that concerning oil wells here or yon.

It is rumored here however, that we may in the near future have a test southwest of town. Also, one each over in Yoakum and Gaines counties, and most geologists are of the opinion that oil will be found in these sections southwest of Brownfield.

Obeys that impulse—quit your foolishness.

Another Farmer Satisfied With old Terry

Another one of the big farmers of Terry county lives in the Wellman section some 12 miles southwest of Brownfield, and is occasionally seen on our streets here. Indeed he was among the huge crowd that thronged our streets Saturday. In saying that Mr. Orcutt is a big farmer (for L. E. Orcutt is his name) he is not big in size or avoirdupois. On the other hand, Mr. Orcutt is rather below the average man in stature, but we mean that he tills his ground in a big way and harvest bumper crops to put on the market.

This year Mr. Orcutt and his force ginned 105 bales of cotton, and got the first prize, a Stetson hat given by the Wellman gin for the largest number of bales from one farm ginned with them. The Orcutt farm produced 4,000 bushels of good corn for which they received 48 cents per bushel as they sold early in the season. Thirty tons of maize was also harvested and more bundle stuff than the force has ever been able to get out of the fields.

That Mr. Orcutt is not of the one crop idea is found in the fact that his barn yard literally abounds in a well bred bunch of poultry, including a bunch of turkeys. He also has several head of hogs at all times and some real good milk cows, and it is said that in summer Mr. Orcutt's friends can hardly pass his place up about meal time, for they must stop with him and eat chicken and enjoy the great hospitality of their home.

It is a great sight to pass by his place early of morning or about 1:00 p. m. when the 16 big mules are being put in harness for the days work, and watch them file out into the field to turn the aluvial soil. These mules are all not only large but fat and healthy, thereby hangs the tale of the bumper crops. We understand that Mr. Orcutt is going to put in a lot of new land on the place this year, and he may have something else to show the street knockers next fall.

CHEVROLET BUSINESS INDUSTRY CATES PROSPEROUS INDUSTRY

Los Angeles, April 23.—Marked evidence of further prosperity that seems to be in store for the country generally throughout the current year was pointed out by R. H. Grant, vice president and general sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor Company, who has just concluded a series of 21 nation wide sales meetings that brought him into close touch with business conditions form coast to coast. During the course of the meetings, which consumed three months, Mr. Grant addressed more than 15,000 people and enjoyed an excellent opportunity to survey trade conditions at first hand.

"Business conditions over the United States, as we saw them in the first three months of the year, more than justified the optimistic forecasts made last December," Mr. Grant declared. "Trade activity and soundness in the early months have demonstrated the accuracy of the opinion that the year should be an excellent one for American business."

Commenting on the automobile business, Mr. Grant declared that the year holds unusual promise for the motor trade.

"Chevrolet should enjoy the greatest year in its history" he said. "The popularity of the car is being reflected in the sensational public reception being accorded it in all sections of the country, with registrations showing a tremendous increase over the record of a corresponding period of a year ago."

"In response to the greatest demand in the history of the Chevrolet Motor Company, our factories in March produced 107,900 units, shattering all previous monthly records by more than 22,000 units."

Mr. E. R. Crittenden, with the R. G. Dun Mercantile Agency, of Amarillo, was here Saturday on business.

A. Flache lost a sister, Mrs. N. R. Reed recently by death at Coahoma, Texas. The body was shipped to the old family cemetery at Paradise, Texas for entombment. Mr. Flache did not get to attend the funeral.

There was another fake fire alarm just about dark Tuesday on the south east corner of the square. All the fire fans attended, and it is reported that the fire marshal ordered the boys to give the visitors a dousing, which they did with a will.

Lahey Hen Competes With The Herald

The Herald was not expecting any competitors from any source for at least some time to come, and least of all it did not expect a Terry county hen to get into the printing business in competition during these times of high priced machinery, but it seems that a Lahey hen can manufacture her own printing devices.

Anyway, a few days ago, Mr. A. T. Simmons, one of the new comers of the Lahey section brought in a very curious egg from the farm. The shell had only been formed in places, the rest of the egg being soft, and it did not take an expert reader to see plainly in raised letters formed by the shell the words, "Emma" "Look" and "at. In other words, "Emma, Look At." Mr. Simmons' wife's given name is Emma.

Now the editor had not been drinking anything stronger than well water that day, and is pretty certain that Mr. Simmons was also as sober as a judge, but this is what both of us made out as having been the message of Biddy to the outside world, engraved upon her delicious product. If any county on the South Plains can beat this, we will acknowledge for just once that old Terry has been headed by her sister counties. What have you in the way of a hen that engraves her own eggs in embossed letters?

Does Your School District Need Invoices?

The Herald job department has recently printed a invoices for a number of the independent school districts of Terry county. We now have a form that we believe will please any district in the county or any adjoining county for that matter that might want them.

It may not be known to the layman, but at least every printer understands that the more forms that are printed from any given composition the cheaper they come, and as these tabular forms are rather difficult to get up, we are going to keep it up a few more weeks and give the school districts that might need these tax-assessor's invoice forms a chance to come in and order as many as they may need in the next year or two. The price for 500 or more is 1c each, and for less amount slightly higher.

FORD CAR WINS IN 402-MILE RACE AT KC

Motor cars of "every day" types whizzed to fame Monday when they raced against time from Cimarron, Kans., to Shawnee Mission, Kans., a distance of 402 miles. Many of these miles were over rough, muddy or water swept roads.

Motorists found three things remarkable in the drive; the time in which the winning car made it, the fact that the second car was only one minute later and the closeness with which all cars finished.

The winning car made the run in 8 hours and 38 minutes; the second car roared across the line one minute later, while the last to cross had made the drive in 9 hours and 44 minutes.

Leonard Kerbs, Otis, Kans., dirt track race driver, in a Ford roadster with a special motor, finished first. Charles Crow driving an Essex coach was second.

L. E. Flint, also driving an Essex, made the run in 8 hours and 46 minutes; Clyde Johnson drove it in a Chevrolet in 9 hours and 38 minutes and Raleigh Erdman covered the distance in a Pontiac in 9 hours and 44 minutes.

Kerbs average for the trip was 46 and one half miles per hour. His highest speed was attained at the 158 mile stretch between Cimarron and Hutchinson, Kans., which he covered in three hours, an average of 53.62 miles per hour.

"Sometimes," Kerbs said in describing the drive, "we had the car up to 75 miles an hour. One of the best thrills came when, at 68 miles an hour, we hit a railroad crossing too hard and blew out a tire. That delayed us three minutes.—Kansas City Journal of April 14, 1927.

Jack Bailey went to Lubbock Monday and underwent an operation on Tuesday morning for adhesions that formed after his operation for appendicitis.

URGE COOPERATIVE FIGHT ON TUBERCULOSIS

The merchants ought to fight tuberculosis because he can sell more goods to healthy people than to those on the sick list. The grocer ought to help because healthy appetites are much harder to satisfy than sickly ones. Lawyers ought to help because able bodied clients are much more liable to hold up their legal rights than weaklings and he is more apt to have the money for prosecuting his claims. The industrial ought to help because strong lungs add the physical power to the employee. The underwriter ought to help because his losses will be cut down. The doctor ought to help because it is much more pleasant and hopeful to advise well people in health habits than to treat sick ones. PHILATHEA CLASS ENJOY MOONLIGHT PICNIC

The Philathea S. S. class went on a picnic and weenie roast last Thursday night. The crowd was not as large as was expected, but all who went report a great time and especially enjoyed roasting the weenies.

Our class accepted the resignation of Miss Belle Williamson, President and Miss Ruth Welch, 3rd Vice-President, who were leaving for California for an unlimited stay. We regret to lose them as officers and as members, but hope to have them back some day.

The class elected Mrs. I. M. Bailey, President, and Miss Marie Brown, 3rd Vice-Pres., and Mrs. Floyd Fry, Treasurer. We know that each of our new officers are going to serve faithfully and we appreciate them.—Reporter.

FEDERAL-AID ROAD PROJECT PROBABLE IN NEAR FUTURE

On account of the interest now centering around the status of Federal aid for highways in Texas, Thos. H. McDonald, chief of the United States Public Roads, United States Department of Agriculture, has made the following statement:

There has been some misunderstanding as to the previous action of the Bureau of Public Roads with reference to Federal Aid participation. Federal aid for highways in the strictly legal sense has not been withdrawn. On account of existing conditions, among which was the lack of State funds for new construction, the Federal Bureau ceased to approve projects. The Texas Highway Department has now requested a reevaluation of the approval of the approval of new construction. E. S. Sterling, the chairman of the Texas Highway Department, conferred with the Bureau on April 7. The aims of the Texas Highway Department and the Bureau of Public Roads are apparently in complete harmony. The Bureau is now engaged in a very careful survey of both the financial and the physical aspects of the future program, and there is little doubt that the approval of projects will be resumed at an early date.

E. W. James will leave Washington next week to represent the headquarters office of the bureau and to work with the State Highway Department and the district office of the bureau in formulating the future program between the State and Federal Governments. Mr. McDonald will go to Texas within the next few weeks.

Jim Hutto and a Mr. Robertson and small son, of Sudan, were here Saturday, being the first time we had seen Jim in many days. We know Jim got a railroad in 1911, and Jim slipped off over to Brownfield with a beautiful young lady and some of our ministers or county officials said the words that united them for life.

R. C. Boswell and G. C. Barrier, prominent Lubbock business men, had business here last Thursday.

J. E. George and J. H. Richie, of Lubbock, were here last Thursday in the interest of a mutual aid association.

W. A. Chesnut, 75, of Dallas, was here last Thursday in the interest of Fodgett Bros. Saddlery of that city. Mr. Chesnut is still remarkably well preserved and as lively as most people at 80, and gives every promise of many more years on the road.

Down Waco way the folks are getting hard boiled with the old rooster. That vain fowl used to be the real cock of the walk in the farm yard from spring to winter and his majesty seldom molested or his rare dignity violated, but he is considered just about as useful after the hatching season these days as a crutch is to a fish. It is a well known fact that fertile eggs spoil in one hot day whereas an infertile egg keeps for about seven days in hot weather, and this is the reason that he is considered a crowd on the farm yard after the hatching season is over.

A farmer broached a subject to us recently that we had thought on quite a bit but had not expressed an opinion. That subject is simply this: What are the people of Terry county going to do when the present generation of horses and mules die off? You may travel from one end of the county to the other and then sidewise it and retrace it and not find a half dozen colts. Indeed, he informed us that he did not know of a jack or stallion in his community. It is a well known fact that tractors do not do good work in our sandier soils, and we shall always be forced to use stock. But where are the replacements coming from?

Any man who will quit under fire has admitted guilt, according to our notion, and according to that, the law enforcement force of Berger are just as guilty as any criminal that has been run out by the rangers. An officer who will tolerate crime under his nose is lower than the criminal, for he shields the criminal and receives a bribe probably for doing it. Our officers, by the way, and those of many other South Plains towns are having their hands full since the exodus at Berger, for many of their criminals and low life women are passing thru on their way to the fields southwest of here on the T. & P. railroad.

Our esteemed contemporary, The Lubbock Avalanche, is of the opinion that Thos. L. Blanton will inject the klan issue in the senatorial campaign in order to oust Earle Mayfield and get the seat himself. We beg leave to differ in view of the fact that we have never on any occasion seen where Mr. Blanton ever declared himself on this issue when it was a red hot issue in Texas or since that time. Therefore it would ill become Mr. Blanton to raise this issue when it is not generally known how he himself stood. To our notion the battle will be fought out on issue of extravagance in office of which the Junior Senator is accused.

At last Governor Al has been drawn out on whether or not the fact that he is a member of the Catholic church, would it in any way prevent him from upholding the Constitution of the United States or enforcing all the laws on the statute books. His answer on the face of it is quite satisfactory to most people who do not let a man's religion interfere with their voting or reason, but the fact that Gov. Smith is known to be an extreme wet will lose him most of the delegates from the South and West, and he cannot be nominated without them under the two-thirds rule. If his crowd can get the Democratic Executive Committee to remove the two-third majority and unit rule, he will be the next nominee of the party, and some protestant dry Republican will be the next president by a good safe majority. However, we are not saying that McAdoo is very popular so far as we are concerned.

REPORT ON COTTON FLEA HOPPER EMERGENCE

This is the second report to be issued by the Division of Entomology of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, showing the emergence of the cotton flea hoppers from weeds collected in several sections of the State.

The emergence figures show that very large numbers of insects have hatched from the weeds which were placed in cages made especially for this purpose. Present indications point to the fact that the greatest emergence has already taken place and that the numbers hatching now are on the decline. Adult flea hoppers were first found in the field at College Station March 28. Because the heavy emergence appears to be taking place before cotton is planted at College Station, it is believed there will be less injury this year than last, as a result of cotton flea hopper attack in this section of the State.

It can be readily understood from these figures that early planted cotton is subject to heavy infestation of flea hoppers which are probably distributed by winds.

Mrs. J. W. Welch and family, accompanied by Horace Burnett and wife and Miss Belie Williamson, left Sunday for Ventura, Calif., where they will visit for the next two or three months, possibly longer. Horace was returning to his job out there with an irrigation company after a vacation here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Burnett. Miss Williamson has been employed at the Herald office for the past two or three years, during which time this is her first real vacation. Mrs. Welch has a son, George, in California who has been there several years, or long enough to marry and settle down for life.

REBECCA MAY PRESENTED IN RECITAL APRIL 13TH

On Wednesday night following the feature, "Flaming Forrest," Miss Rebecca May was presented in piano recital at the Rialto Theatre. The little soloist played very remarkably the entire program of seven numbers with ease, grace and brilliance. Many friends and those of the audience complimented her in highest terms, and appreciated very greatly the efforts of the young pianist for her remarkable rendition and expression given by the sympathetic touch. TPA METTS APRIL 13TH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

Completing arrangements for the "Old Fashioned" and new program to be presented on Friday night, the P. T. A. met in regular session at 4:00 o'clock in the assembly room of the high school, with Mrs. Hardin, presiding. Subjects relative to the best interest of the school in general were discussed. It is urged that the members and those interested in the welfare of the school will attend the next meeting, April 27th.

FRIDAY NIGHT PROGRAM A SUCCESS

With several splendid and popular speakers and performers known to have a prominent part in our "Old Fashioned Program" made the P.T.A. entertainment on Friday night a success in more ways than one. When the curtains were drawn an eager audience greeted the "old time school," of 50 years ago. The school had for their distinguished instructor Mr. W. G. Hardin, a teacher of many years experience, who read the numbers as was the custom of years ago. In the class room were "children" costumed in the ancient dress. These children were Mesdames W. W. Price, H. W. McSpadden, H. R. Winston, A. B. Cook, Jim Moore, J. B. Jackson, Simon Holgate, Jno. S. Powell, H.O. Longbrake, J. L. Randal, W. H. Dallas and Miss Holgate. The boys in school were, Messrs. Clyde Lewis, J. B. Jackson, Judges Graves, Neill and Price, H. R. Winston and Mr. Jno. S. Powell.

Following up the ridiculous prelude of the grownups, was an up-to-date program by the children of today. This was indeed pleasingly planned by Miss Sue Crawford, assisted by Miss Bell. Childrens parts were daintily played by the pupils of the low second grade and a few others.

MRS. SHELTON CHARMINGLY ENTERTAINED FRIDAY

One of the most enjoyable parties of recent occurrence was tendered the friends of Mrs. J. E. Shelton as hostess at the home of Mrs. W. A. Bell, on Friday afternoon at 3:30.

Six tables of bridge players progressed for the customary period given them. Totalling the scores gave Mrs. McKinney high, Miss Bell next to high. These ladies were recipients of lovely handkerchiefs. Mrs. Chester Quiett was presented with a beautiful crepe kerchief as special guest prize. A lovely and extremely delicious salad course of sandwiches, salads, pickles, potato chips and iced tea were served to the large crowd present.

In attendance were Mesdames Bell, A. M. Brownfield, A. R. Brownfield, Wingred, Fred Smith, King, Miller, McGowan, Quiett, May, E. G. Alexander, McKinney, Griffin, Winston, Fagala, Holmes, Bowers, Copeland, H. W. and Flem C. McSpadden, Miss Hamilton, Miss Bell and Mesdames Michie, Collins and Dallas.

EASTER PROGRAM GIVEN

A pleasing and entertaining program was given Sunday morning by the members of the primary department of the Presbyterian Sunday School, under the direction of Mrs. J. H. Griffin.

MRS. SAWYER GIVES LOVELY EASTER PARTY

The brilliant culmination of all the Easter events was enjoyed at the home of Mrs. Arthur Sawyer, when she happily and gracefully entertained a large number of friends on Saturday afternoon at three o'clock, at her pretty suburban home. The elegant and daintily planned party was a delight to all her guests, and was pronounced the climax by the admiring guests. Mrs. Sawyer was assisted by her beautiful little daughter, Queenelle, in making the afternoon extremely delightful.

Eight tables occupied spaces in the receiving rooms. Guests cut for table prizes before the absorbing bridge was played. Mesdames Fred Smith, King, Ray Brownfield, W. C. Smith, DuBois, Wingred, Bell and Dallas received pretty Easter lilies in green bud vases. Soft fluffy bow of marine added beauty to the gift. Pretty and cleverly designed table markers of rabbits, hand painted, were the work of the little daughter. Easter motifs were evident in both decorations and refreshments served, with yellow and white predominating.

Concluding the games, the hostess presented Miss Aileen Phillips with a pair of cut glass candle holders for high score, while Mrs. M. L. Copeland who went next to high honor, received a lovely bottle of narcissus perfume. Low score was made by Mrs. McKinney, receiving a generous sized bottle of bath salts. Mesdames Graham and May assisted in serving the delicious Easter menu in two courses. Chicken in patty shells, Easter salad bearing a tiny yellow mallow chicken, ripe olives, hot buttered rolls, pickles, potato chips, iced tea, moulded Easter lilies, yellow and white cake and white rabbit plate favor. Guests were, Mesdames May, Graham, Fagala, Holmes, King, Copeland, Quiett, Gracey, McKinney, Du Bois, Carter, Bell, E. G. Alexander, Earl Jones, Fred Smith, W. C. Smith, J. H. Griffin, Flem C. QUEENELLE SAWYER ENTERTAINS FRIENDS

Little Queenelle Sawyer delighted seventeen of her little friends with an Easter egg hunt Friday afternoon, April 15th. The children were invited at three o'clock and were happy indeed to be her guests. Lucile McSpadden received the prize for finding the most eggs. Earlene Jones found the duck egg. Margene Griffin found the least amount. Prizes were awarded.

The little hostess served pink lemonade and cake.

Mrs. R. L. Bowers and children, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. L. C. Wines and Miss Mary Kathryn Anthony, left Tuesday for Vernon, Texas, on a short visit. Mrs. Bowers' intentions are to attend the District Federation of Womans' Clubs at Quanah, Texas while away. Mrs. Bowers represented the Maids and Matrons Club at the State Convention in 1925.

Judge and Mrs. Joe J. McGowan, and son, Billie Joe, left Sunday for Quanah, on a visit with Mrs. McGowan's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Radford. Mrs. McGowan will attend the district convention of Womans Clubs as delegate and representative of the local study club, Maids and Matrons. Mrs. McGowan as ex-president of the M. and M. Club, will be in the receiving line, made up of highest officers in each club president at the annual reception.

PRESIDENT'S BANQUET

The Maids and Matrons Club honored their President, Mrs. R. L. Bowers in a most charmingly appointed banquet at the King Hotel, on Thursday April 14. Around the beautifully decorated table were the twenty-two guests as follows: Mesdames Bowers, Will Adams, Morgan Copeland, Fagala, Holmes, Randal, Stricklin, A. A. Sawyer, Wingred, Bell, McSpadden, McKinney, McGowan, E. G. Alexander, King, Ellington, Miller, Quiett and Wines; Misses Elizabeth and Nancy Dumas and Bell.

Mrs. Randal as toastmistress, introduced first, the Library Chairman, Mrs. Miller, who spoke words of appreciation of the work accomplished under Mrs. Bowers' efficient management of the club during her administration. Mrs. Wingred gave a beautiful reading, by Ella Wheeler Wilcox, "Life is too Short." Mrs. Bell in her own inimitable way presented Mrs. Bowers with a silver platter, the gift of the club. Responding, Mrs. Bowers in her very gracious manner accepted this extremely lovely gift, telling how happy the club had made her. Elegant silver baskets on the table, were filled with beautiful phylon and verbenas. The three course dinner menu included, fruit cup, turkey with dressing and gravy, peas, lettuce and tomato salad, cranberries, ice cream and angel food.

NEEDMORE

Needmore.

Early Monday morning old J. Pluvius paid us a short visit and incidentally kicked over a few of his small pails of water, then smilingly he passed down the hill. Here's hoping the next time he comes he'll kick over some of his larger pots, then give us the horse laugh as he departs.

The Easter program at the school house Sunday was a great success. The readings given by the youngsters were excellent, but the most touching was an Easter Lilly staged by several young fairy like girls. This we think expressed more deeply the underlying sentiments of the occasion. The efforts put forth by the children would compare favorably with those of any age. After the exercises dinner was spread in the good old fashion way. The writer is frank in saying it was one of the finest repasts he has ever had the pleasure of attending. We warned you hungry looking fellows around Brownfield in time, so we have no sympathy for you for not being present. Prof. Greer, poor boy, we fear he partook of the feast too freely. He was slightly indisposed all the afternoon. Haven't heard from him today, Monday. It is officially reported that while in town Saturday afternoon, Mr. Jobe was seen to steal quietly away from Mrs. Jobe purchased some candy and ate the last bite of it himself.

We wonder what has become of Aesculapias, the Meadow god of medicine?

Mr. Perry entertained the young folks with a party Saturday evening. Johnny McDonald was in Brownfield Saturday afternoon.

Among visitors from Brownfield Sunday were, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Lindley, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, and Miss Hill.

We call your attention to the big sale of Jones Dry Goods Co., in this issue. Don't miss these bargains, but call early if you want them.

Junior Chuck-Box

Miss Helen Jackson, one of our prominent artists, is taking a course in her profession. She says it is very wonderful. I wonder why?

Mr. Kerney Scudday is suffering from a wounded member of his left hand. He informed us that while searching for cookies in the pantry his finger became entangled with a mouse trap. Clovis' mamma keeps him away from church because she says his ears look so much like pancakes that the babies all cry for them.

The little boy, Spec Kendrick, had just been vaccinated, and the doctor prepared to bandage the arm when Spec said: "Put it on the other arm, doctor."
"Why no," said the doctor, "I want to put the bandage on your sore arm so the boys at school won't hit you."
"Then put it on the other arm. You don't know the fellows at our school!" Spec replied.

Mother: "Nonsense, Clovis, of course you'll have your hair cut."
Clovis: "I will not; it's too feminine."

Mr. Fagala: And so, students, we can come to the conclusion that nothing is impossible."

Fresh Fish: Well, I'd like to see you ram this umbrella down your throat and open it."

Mr. James H. Dallas was the guest of honor at the Rotary Club dinner. The mayor presided and when coffee was served, the mayor leaned over and said to James H.: "Shall we let the club enjoy itself a little longer, or shall we have your speech?"

The Brownfield Cubs defeated the Meadow team in a pitched battle last Friday on the home grounds by a score of 10 to 7.

The junior rehearsals are progressing by slaps and knockouts. Studio practice is barred by the chaparones.

Since Easter has passed and spring has come, everyone is looking forward to the middle of May, and we often hear, "It won't be long now."

Mr. Lewis (in history class):—and that's the whole situation in a nutshell, and if you listen it will be in a nutshell."

Student: I guess so; you've got it in your head."

JUNIOR PLAY TO BE STAGED IN THE NEAR FUTURE

"A Kentucky Belle," a thrilling romance and horse story will be given at the Rialto, Thursday, April 28. This is an exceptionally good play, and we feel that with the talent of those putting on the play, it will have to be a success. The Juniors give you a very kind invitation to see their play.

A Junior's Reminiscences

There was a young senior whose name I won't mention. Who in class never paid attention. His fate I'll not tell, 'twas too awful. His actions always being unlawful, For his eyes he would blink, and he would even chew gum. (With the girls in the class, whose faces are like glass.) So take warning dear Juniors and to that class never come.

MEADOW BRIEFS

By Aesculapias.

The past week has been unusually pleasant. While the wind blew somewhat harder than is common, there was quite an admixture of sand that made it very tasty. Certainly there was some complaint, but people are never satisfied. They appear so constituted that there is a bad taste in the mouth at all times. The dentist would perhaps say that they were suffering from pyorrhea alveolaris. As you perhaps know if you have consulted a doctor or dentist lately that it is adequate cause for all the ills that man and woman suffer from. Bad teeth are easily found while other causes may and are often obscure. The fad is so common that it reminds one of the chiro and his spine.

I have strayed however, from the subject of the wind. Early Monday morning we had a nice little shower, for which we feel duly grateful, but just north of Meadow, the wind got on a bender and blew one house to pieces with barn and other outhouses. The family, Hicks by name, took refuge in a storm cellar and perhaps escaped death. Mrs. Hicks, however, received a blow on the head from a flying scantling, but at last account was getting on nicely.

Scott Walker lost his windmill and a shack occupied by a family of negroes turned over. Nobody hurt. The wind Monday continued in a playful mood and reminded one of the old lines in the reader:

"The wind one morning sprang up from sleep, Saying now for a frolic, now for a leap.

Now for a mad-cap galloping chase, I'll make a commotion in every place. —And it most surely did.

Lee Walker lost his barn and feed Monday evening by fire. Origin unknown.

A young man Charters, living ten miles east of Meadow, ran into the back end of a car with his horse during the sand storm and is now laid up for repairs. The doctor had to go to see him; the lumber man will have to furnish lumber and material to repair the houses; hardware men will furnish other windmills; so it is an ill wind that blows nobody good.

ERADICATING PESTS

Science has come to the rescue of many industries that faced injury or extermination. The invention of cheap, sure metal extraction from ores has remade the world; cheap transportation has prevented industrial stagnation. Electricity has permitted the performance of more prodigies in the past generation than all the wand-waving magicians of history.

But science is still one jump behind on one of the most important problems of American life—the eradication of the white beetle that has so ravaged the sugar beet fields of the nation, and has stopped beet growing in many once important districts. Last year the white fly almost ruined many beet fields of Utah and Idaho.

The scientist who can find a way to eradicate this white plague, may confer a greater economic blessing on America than if he had found and annexed a new continent.

Incidentally, the beet fly seems to be immune to bird attack. But many other insects are not; the birds are their one great check. The country has ignorantly killed off its bird life, until it is a close race between man and the bugs as to which shall control.

Birds are the cheapest, surest, safest, most attractive remedies for most insect infestations. It is more than sentiment that calls for bird protection; it is the knowledge that without them the country may be smothered by crawling, flying, burrowing bugs, insects and worms that birds would gladly destroy, if we'd only let the birds live.

VETERAN POSTMASTER QUILTS AT LITTLEFIELD

LITTLEFIELD, April 13.—W. J. Wade, who has been postmaster at Littlefield for the past twelve years, has just been checked out and the place taken by J. E. Brannen. Mr. Wade is a man of some eighty years of age, very active, and has served this community well during his many years' incumbency.

The postoffice situation here is unique in that a republican could not be found to fill the bill, and a democrat had to be used. Politics has heretofore never played any part in the appointment.

Earl Anthony proprietor of the Enterprise Market & Grocery, and J. E. Michie, proprietor of the Michie Grocery, have each remodeled their stores recently, which add greatly to the attractiveness of both places.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. McNeill of Ralls came in last Friday to make Brownfield their home. Mr. McNeill is now holding down a chair at the Sanitary Barber Shop.

—NOTICE—

The ice wagon is now making the residential section. Those wishing to secure ice from the wagon will please cooperate with us by securing coupon books and signal cards. Ask the driver or call at the plant for your signal card. Please place card in window or door where it can be plainly seen from the street with the number up indicating the amount of pounds of ice desired, as the wagon will not come back after it has passed your house. When one considers the several hundred houses here in Brownfield that we serve each day, and that every one is just as anxious as you to secure their ice in the morning, you will then see the absolute necessity of strict cooperation in order that we may give each and every one the same good service that they are entitled to and will be possible for us to give.

Thanking you for your past cooperation and trusting that it will be the same this season as it was last season.

YOURS FOR SERVICE THROUGH COOPERATION,

C. B. QUANTE

THE STRUGGLE IS ON TO DESTROY THE DIRECT PRIMARY

Die-hards are ever with us. The current specie is as tough and hardy as any the nation has had to exterminate in the past 75 years. It is the corrupt political boss or ward-heeler, fighting his death struggle, to have us repeal the direct primary.

With a presidential year looming ahead in 1928, there are reasons enough why it would be advantageous to many of the old bosses to return to the convention system, in county, state and nation. Of course this is too much for them to hope for, still it is a fact that a most determined effort to that end, is this year being made. Voters everywhere should be warned of the subtle and direct methods that are being used to take from their hands the right to name their respective party candidates.

The attack on the direct primary is being pressed by those forces that prefer a government by money—to one by popular opinion. The scandals of the past year have put a new determination into the foes of the primary. Bosses have learned that money used lavishly in a primary, defeats its own ends. Under a convention system money can be handled easily, effectively—and attract no attention.

Right now there are some seemingly very learned discussions being featured by the political boss directed press which attempt to palm off the old corrupt convention system of nomination as the "indirect convention system." Just remember this.

Every real progressive Congressman today comes from direct primary strongholds—and virtually everyone, maund you, will find that the drive against the direct primary is headed by public utility officials, old school politicians and corrupt lawyers.—Spur Times.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation to our friends and neighbors for their kindness during the illness of our mother, Mrs. R. C. Graves. —Children.

N. F. Emerson was down from the farm Monday and strenuously denied that he was contemplating leaving old Terry to settle in New Mexico as reported in both Meadow and Brownfield papers. Well, we suppose we'll just have to let N. F. remain here for awhile longer, anyway.

SALLIE TRUMAN REPLIES TO PLAYMATES' LETTERS

Cochran, Texas, April 18, 1927

Dear little friends and playmates: I read your nice little letters and enjoyed them so much. I am feeling fine and am having a good time.

I rained awful hard for a time this afternoon, and when it was over, I made a paper boat and went out to a little pond and sailed it. I go to Sunday School every Sunday and ride burros all the week.

Would like to be with you in school and help make sand tables, and I just love to use water colors, too.

I may stay here with grandmother all summer, but do hope to be home in Sept. to go to school with my little friends.

With love,
Sallie Truman Stricklin.

Mrs. Joe Bailey, of Odessa, is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Brownfield. Her husband is now holding down a linotype on the new Odessa paper.
