News From Lahey

Clyde Bond and family came in Friday from Roscoe, where he has been running a drug store for Webber & Bailey of this city. The store is now being moved to Odessa.

Lense Price, not old in years, but an old settler in this county, was in Saturday, and reported that he looked for rain between the 15th and 20th of this month.

I will step in again. On last Sunday and Monday there were several land deals made, but some how or another there wasn't much money in the deals. People couldn't give a deed to their land.

Well, it is still dry out our way, but we are still living in hope that there will come a wet change.

Mr. Joiner was up from Jones county and spent Sunday with Mr. L. C. Dixon and family. While here he was looking after business around Tokio.

Mr. J. C. Copeland and Mr. Parson, the old timers now of Fredrick, Okla., came in Monday evening to spend a few days with George Copeland, his son. He reports things are good in his country.

There was no Sunday School or preaching Sunday on account of the breeze we had.

It seemed like everybody stayed in. Remember next Sunday will be our regular singing evening. There will be preaching in the morning by Rev. Hallman. We would like to see a good crowd out.

Our school is moving along fine. As the writer did not get out last Sunday, we haven't much to write this week.

STATE FIRE MARSHALL GIVES BARN FIRE CAUSES

As warm weather comes on the usual run of barn fires occur. The number of these fires seems unusually large this year. Our attention has been called to as many as six large barn fires within the State during one week of the past month. Doubtless there were many others. As the season advances there will be more of them. This is a heavy and a useless waste. Some of these fires are caused by matches and other careless practices; but most of them are caused by spontaneous combustion.

Baled hay that is put up green or with moisture in it, or hay that might have gotten wet from a leak in the barn roof, is likely to develop spontaneous combustion. In any case when there is enough moisture in hay, straw or other similar vegetable products to cause rot, mildew or mold, heat is generated. The fact is known to all farmers who have torn into an old stack of rotting hay or alfalfa and found it hot on the inside of the stack. If this heat is confined and the decay continues ignition results. This decaying spot may be small and on the inside of a bale far down under the stack of bales; but as soon as there is ignition, the hay will likely burst into flame. This is more likely to occur in a well filled barn than in one only partially filled.

To avoid this danger of spontaneous combustion, ventilation should always be provided when putting hay away in the barn. Some bales may contain moisture or there may be a leak in the barn roof which will wet some of the hay.

In storing hay in the barn, poles, fence posts, rails, or other similar timbers should be laid on the floor to keep the hay off the floor and provide air space beneath the hay.

Space should also be left between at least every other stack of bales, providing an opening from the open space at the bottom up through the hay and out at the top of the hay. This will allow the air to circulate under and through the hay and heat generated by decaying or molding hay will pass off without danger of igniting the hay.

This precaution in storing hay in the barn will cause but little expense or trouble and should be taken. Rotting or molding hay in a stack in the open is not so likely to develop spontaneous combustion as that stored in the barn.

Lum Whisenant and force left this week for Crosbyton, where they will be for the next four weeks constructing tank racks and warehouses for the Gulf Refining Co., an exact duplicate of the improvements of that company here. This makes about the fourth set of improvements put in for them by Mr. Whisenant, at Brownfield, Seagraves, O'Donnell and now Crosbyton.

Red Tudor returned last week from Hot Springs, N. M., where he went after his father-in-law, Mr. S. J. Dixon, of Plains. Red reports that Mr. Dixon is not doing as well as he hoped he would.

We sow a thought and reap an act,
We sow an act and reap a habit,
We sow a habit and reap a character,
We sow a character and reap a destiny.—Thackeray.

Mr. Lewis: "Say, Miss Castleberry, what's a six letter word beginning with 'P.' and ending with 'r' that means mushroom?"

Miss Castleberry: "I give up."
Mr. Lewis: "P-a-r-l-o-r."

James Harley: "Some one wants you on the phone."

Mr. Scott: "If it's a girl tell her I'll be there and if it's a man tell him I'll take a pint." (What of?)

Florence: The diamond is the hardest stone, isn't it?
Fay: "Yes, the hardest to get."

Dad: Joe, how come all those hair-pins in the car?
Joe: I donno, dad, she had bobbed hair. (taken from real life.)

Gladys: But mamma objects to kissing.
He (?) Well, I didn't ask to kiss your mother.

"Kerney, your dog seems to be in pain?"

Kerney: "No, suh, he's not in pain—he's jest lazy."

"But surely he must be suffering or he wouldn't howl like that?"
Kenrey: Jest plumb laziness; he's sittin' on a thistle."

Clovis: Went out to see my girl last night, but walked right on by.
Eddie: Didn't you even go in?
Clovis: No, there was a car out in front that had a sign that read, "Wyllis Knight."

Louise: Have you never met a man whose touch seemed to thrill every fibre of your being?
Many Ann: Yes, once; a dentist.

Miss Lawlis: Would you put yourself out for me?
Mr. Lewis: Why sure I would?
Miss Lawlis: Well, please do, as it's late and I'm sleepy.

Mr. Lewis says it used to be—"where there's a will, there's a way" but now it's "where there's a will there's a lawsuit," usually.

We Wonder Why?

Fay went to Post?
Vivian carries matches?

Although we knew we needed rain, we didn't know it was coming so soon. The Seniors have asked three Juniors to be on the commencement program. They are enjoying it very greatly—the Juniors, we mean.

Vivian says she could have taken the State exam in American History, but she decided she wanted to go home and get something to eat.

Misses Crawford and Lawlis are slowly recovering from a fright they received last Tuesday night. Miss Crawford's hoarseness is also improving. It seems that a little dog ran in front of them, and it was she who did most (not all) of the screaming. The dog died of fright.

Mr. Otho Flippin, former guardian of the Junior class visited school Tuesday morning, receiving many congratulations, etc., (mostly etc.) after his long stay. He is now holding down a REAL job in Crane City and he has the Juniors' best wishes for his future success in all his undertakings.

The Seniors are sadly going through their last exercises in B. H. S., and are mournfully awaiting the time when they shall no more be dealt misery by the other classes. Some in the class are especially sad that their high school days are nearly over as some lovely friendships have sprung up of late.

The Seniors are still hostile to the Juniors. We wonder why Joe says Vice-versa?

James H. Dallas and Uyles Grahm, accompanied by Egbert Gilmore Lewis returned home Sunday from their trip to Austin, where they represented Brownfield in the track meet. They report a nice time.

Song of the Chatty Senior

(By a Junior)

Up thru the grades of grammar school
Up thru the Freshman class,
I study hard to gain my aim
Of making my grades and to pass;
Flunk on math and Ec the same,
Accept my grade or little or big
And/or exams its cram and dig.
Course I don't want to pass and gain
the fame,
Up thru grade of Grammar school,
Up through the Senior Class,
All thru grades of grammar school,
All through the Freshman class,

I went to parties and stayed out late,
The jolly dance with a pretty lass,
I remembered instead a history date;
There were themes and note-books
Overdue.

Maps and problems, outlines too,
There in the grades of the grammar school,
There in the Freshman class,
High o'er the grades of grammar school.

Far from the Fishes' class,
I attained the rank of a Sophomore
And thought Freshies as green as grass.

I studied some on my subjects four
And learned of the star Miss Clara Bow.

And other too, I came to know.
As Monte Blue and men galore;
There in the years of High School,
There in the Sophomore class,
And oft in the years of high school,
Oft in the Junior class

I cut study hall and geometry,
I hated Senior, alas! alas!
I smoked a little, tasted home brew,
Slipped out for rides in a chummy coupe.

But knew my lessons every day,
My teachers loved me and helped me through;
Those times in the years of high school;

Those times in the Junior class,
But oh! the years after high school,
And after the Senior class,
I'll wish I were back studying maths,
With the Juniors who always pass,
And are kind of gentle without much wrath.

We treated them badly, shamefully bad,
But the kind hearted students never got mad

Had patience and acted with class to Those from the grades of grammar school,
Up through the Senior class.

When we are able to see over the telephone, we may get lots of pleasure out of getting the wrong number.—Joe Shelton.

A Senior, a Senior,
A sitting on a stump,
Watching a Junior go
Pump, pump, pump!
What did he pump?
Why air of course.

Ask Joe Shelton who the Senior is.
The dogs of war might not be loosed so often if the decision were left to the underdog. (That's what the Seniors say.)

NEW BAPTIST PASTOR ARRIVES IN BROWNFIELD

Rev. V. E. May, of Mississippi, who was recently called by the local Baptist church as pastor, in place of Rev. C. E. Ball, arrived with his family last week, several days we understand before he was expected, but owing to the fact that the "father of waters" was on a big rampage, he though best to cross when he could, and informed the writer that his boat was about the last to cross at Vicksburg, and the deck of the boat was above the levee then.

We found Rev. Mr. May to be a very easy fellow to get acquainted with. Indeed he said his brother had lived here so long that he felt he almost knew Brownfield folks without introduction. We just know that the Baptist folks are going to like Rev. May, as a pastor and councillor, and that the people in general are going to find in him a friend, good neighbor and a booster for Brownfield and of Terry county. He acted just like he was right at home from the very first jump, for me made right for the Herald office to subscribe for the home paper and order some stationery.

He filled his pulpit here Sunday at the evening service, the morning hour being devoted to a Mothers Day program, but left Mrs. May at Post to visit with his brother and family for a few days, but he went over after her Monday, returning Tuesday.

Miss Lucy Drury, employee of the Hotel Brownfield, left Saturday for Tulsa to visit relatives for a few days.

DIXIE FARMER DEVISES THREE-ROW GO-DEVIL

R. F. Barton, who was in the News office on business Saturday, stated that he, Herbert Benson and Bill Mayberry of the Dixie community, were on a little fishing trip to Two Draw Lake, near Post, recently, and while there took occasion to go thru the process of manufacture at the Post-Tex Cotton mills.

They saw cotton go through the process of manufacture, from the removal of the bagging from the bale until the sheets and pillow cases were folded and ready for market. It was a most interesting sight, he declared.

Mr. Barton is a progressive farmer and is ever alert for the latest improved farm machinery. Recently he devised a three-row go-devil which he is using on his farm. Only four horses are required to pull it and it will clean 25 acres per day, Mr. Barton stated.—Tahoka News.

Mrs. Jack Benton had charge of the Cruce store while Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cruce had business in Lubbock.

Mrs. Youree is on an extended visit to her daughter at Hedley, Texas. Roy Collier has been enjoying a visit from his parents of Montague county.

There are lots of people that are for taxes and more taxes if you get it out of the other fellow. No one that we know of undertakes to defend the tobacco habit, but many fanatics would put a tax on the stuff in an endeavor to tax it out of existence. This plan was unsuccessfully tried on whiskey after the Civil War, but the quantity continued to rise, and the quality lowered, until other measures were brought forth. The only effect we can see that a tax on tobacco would bring would be to induce people to mail order what they wanted from other states and hurt home merchants that much. Lots of men think if they do not have a habit that all who do have a certain habit are down right sinners.

Secretary Mellon of the U. S. Treasury Department is calling in the 2nd Liberty Loan Bonds, or will give the privilege of exchanging them for other government securities. They are to be closed out by Nov. 15 this year. Thus with such a business man as Andrew Mellon at the head of affairs of finance at Washington, we are gradually getting from under the burden of war debts. We need more business and less politics from municipalities to the national government.

There are now four constitutional amendments running in the Herald, one concerning judicial reform, which is indeed badly needed, another on putting county and district officers on salaries instead of fees, which is not bad; one relating to taking off all limit on the governor's and the salary of members of the legislature, which is not bad if a present limit was again placed, as the governor and the legislature both should be better paid, and the fourth refers to tax equalization all over the state, which every west Texan should support with all the vim and every ballot in his family.

Week by week in every way we are learning by watching the cigaret ads what brands the Rich powered smokers are smoking. But all seem to have hit upon the strike.

No funds of any kind that we know of have been raised in Brownfield for either flood or tornado sufferers. This however, should not be the case, for we know not but we will be the next to be hit by either storm or drouth (we hardly expect floods in this section) and will need the ministering spirit of the more favored sections. It never pays to try to live to yourself.

Ben Smith, veteran South Plains editor, who recently moved to Stinnett, Hutchinson county, wrote a recent editorial in which he held Lubbock county up as a horrible example and painted, in vivid phrases, the "business depression and the hard times," here. The Plainsman remembers when Ben Smith used to take up 35 of the 36 available in his weekly paper to laud the South Plains, exaggerating (if it is possible to exaggerate) the prosperity and future of the Plains) in his articles. He goes out of business at Slaton and moves to Hutchinson county, and lo! the miraculous change. He now holds up Hutchinson county—that's where Borger and force of State Rangers are located, you know—the proverbial land of milk and honey and berates the South Plains as his alibi for moving. "Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned"—or likewise a man bitterly disappointed.—Lubbock Daily Journal.

COUNTY PUTTING IN ORNAMENTAL LIGHT POSTS

Electricians have been busy since last week putting up the 12 ornamental light posts, and stringing the cable around the county courthouse park, and they hope to have them ready by Saturday night to turn on the juice and give the city a real white way all around the square, augmented by the 14 put up by the city two or three years ago.

There are 12 of these posts and lamps of high power light furnished by the county, and the city has agreed to furnish the juice for them free. One of these lights are to be at each corner of the park square, and two each at the four entrances to the park, making 12 in all.

When these are installed and are turned on, Brownfield is going to be one of the best lighted little cities in this part of the country, and the additional lights will not only show up our beautiful new courthouse to good advantage by night, but will add to the looks of the city, and greatly aid the watchman in his duties during the dark nights.

ROTARY CLUB COMPLIMENTS ROTARY-ANS WITH BANQUET

A most elaborately planned banquet was given in honor of the wives of the Rotary Club—the Rotary-ans—on Thursday night, May 5, at the Hotel Brownfield. Guests assembled at 8:30 sharp and were immediately invited to the banquet hall. Guests standing sang one verse of America, Mr. Clyde Lewis, leader. Rev. Thomas gave the invocation. Immaculate table linens covered the tables, which ran the entire length of the large dining hall. At regular intervals, tall vases of cut and crystal glass were placed; these were filled with gorgeous blossoms of sweet peas in pink and lavender colors. The pretty fluff-tulle in pink and green, in bows, were tied around the stems of the vases.

A sumptuous dinner was served in two courses, as follows: Spring fried chicken and cream gravy on toast, ripe sliced tomatoes, cranberry jam and lettuce, baked ham with toast triangles, Waldorf salad, cream peas, mashed potatoes, iced tea. Guest favors of sweet peas boutonnières were placed on the plate of ice cream and angel food cake. Master of ceremonies, Mr. Morgan L. Copeland, welcomed the visiting ladies, and gave an analysis of the word "Rotary." His words were said in his customary beautiful style. Mrs. W. A. Bell responded with words of appreciation and sincerity, with dignity and ease. Mrs. R. L. Bowers also made a becoming brief talk on the club and her appreciation of it. Mrs. Winston and Mr. Clyde Lewis sang "Our Yesterday" with Mrs. McGowan accompanist. This lovely duet was followed by a trio, "Georgia Lullaby" sang by Mesdames McGowan, Winston, and Mr. Lewis. Each number received a hearty applause and was enjoyed greatly. Rev. Thomas delivered a most interesting lecture with blackboard illustrations, on "Human Intelligence Applied to Man." This lecture or rather discourse, was intensely interesting, explaining the trials of man which build success. A thorough research by an eminent educator resulted in statements and plain facts regarding man's ability in making a success and the requirements. Rev. Thomas deserves just commendation for having given such thought and care in his presentation of the timely topic. Guests of the Rotary Club were:

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Copeland, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cruce; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Michie, Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Thomas; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bell; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Shelton; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bowers; Mr. and Mrs. Tom May; Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Winston; Mr. and Mrs. Joe J. McGowan; Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Graves, Dr. A. F. Schofield, Mr. Albert Schofield; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bynum; Mr. Clyde Lewis; Miss Lillie May Warren; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Quante; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Anthony.

High and Low Seventh Grades Picnic at Rich Lake

Mr. Fladger Tannery, principal of the grade schools, chaperoned a large crowd of students from the high and low seventh grades, on last Thursday. The boys and girls with their principal left the school about 4 p.m., and arriving at Rich Lake proceeded with the usual thrills that accompany an event of this kind. Buns, weinies, pickles and iced tea were enjoyed. The crowd came home about 8:30, having had a wonderful time.

DELEGATES STATE TRACK MEET RETURN

Mr. E. G. Lewis, coach of Brownfield High School, who accompanied the two delegates, James H. Dallas, and Ulysses Graham to the State 17th annual meet of the University Interscholastic League, Austin, returned Sunday evening. The Brownfield representatives were met at Post by quite a delegation of friends and supporters, who were glad to have home folks so interested in them. The boys and Mr. Lewis report a thrilling trip and a most enjoyable stay in Austin, and though our boys were not winners in the final events, they made a good showing in the events which they were scheduled. Reynolds of Lubbock and Dallas of Brownfield were in the semi-final entry of the 220 yards dash. Davis of Freeport came out winner in this event, breaking the state record at 21.8.

The very new organization under the title of "The 1927 Bridge Club" had a charming party with Mrs. Walter Gracey, as club hostess on Friday afternoon, May 5. The prettily decorated home was most inviting as the guests arrived, and soon the fascinating game was in progress. Ladies playing were Mrs. A. M. McBurnett, R. M. Kendrick, Jack Holt, Charles Hamilton, Dalton Lewis, W. C. Smith, Ben Hurst, Miss Marie Bell. The club days are the first and third Friday afternoons. ### TRUE BLUE GIRLS

The True Blue Girls of the First Baptist Sunday School met for the monthly social and business meeting Monday afternoon, May 9, at the home of Miss Blanche Williamson. The teacher, Mrs. Savage presided over the meeting. The 34th chapter of Psalms was read and a special prayer was offered. The class discussed business for the month and suggestions were made as to the methods to increase the membership. Several social events were planned for the near future, and the class is trying to do much good. At the close of the business session, the girls were invited to the dining room where delicious sandwiches and nehi were served. The day was Miss Thelma Copeland's birthday and she was surprised with a number of pretty little gifts at her plate, presented to her by members of the class. Those in attendance at the meeting were, Mrs. Savage, Hazel Estlack, Vivian Eubanks, Ollie and Leta Hancock, Vera Nelson, Mary Thelma Copeland, Helen Jackson, Blanche Williamson, Mrs. Williamson and Mrs. Eubanks. The class cordially invites all girls who are interested in Sunday School work to join the True Blue Girls.

WOODMAN CIRCLE SENDS DELEGATE TO CONVENTION

The local Woodman sent as their delegate to the State Convention, Mrs. Geo. W. Neill. This was a most wonderful occasion with over 200 delegates from all parts of the State. The convention was of 5 days duration and included much of interest pertaining to the Circle. On April 29, the organization gave a fraternal program for the benefit and pleasure of the children. Readings, songs and short play made an interesting evening program. Ice cream cones were enjoyed by all.

BENEFIT BRIDGE PARTY GREATLY ENJOYED

The Maids and Matrons Club entertained with a benefit Bridge at the home of Mrs. J. D. Miller on Wednesday afternoon. R. Rambo, Ralph Carter, Harris, M. V. Brownfield, T. H. Wilson, Bryant, F. M. Ellington, Tom Glover, H. W. McSpadden, M. L. Copeland, and Misses Castieberry and Hulse. Delicious refreshments of various sandwiches and iced tea were served.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS OF BOYS ENTERTAINED

Mesdames W. B. Downing and G. S. Webber entertained their classes of the Methodist Sunday School, at the home of Mrs. Downing on Monday afternoon. The boys numbered twelve, and all had a wonderful time. Ice cream and cake were served. The ladies were assisted in the fun of entertainment by Mrs. J. G. Thomas. A lovely party like this is always cherished by the pupils.

LITTLE FAY CATHRON WILSON CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Mrs. T. H. Wilson entertained with a lovely party on Monday afternoon, May 9th, in honor of her little daughter, Floy Cathron's second birthday. The happy little guests were, Bobbie Virginia Bowers, Jackie Holt, Imogene Coleman, Bernice Marie Baldwin, Lafreda Bennett, Patsy Sue Fagala, Virginia Nann Dunn, Jimmie Green, Carl Mullins, Billie Hudgens, Claude Hudgens, Jr., Hall Wilson. Guests were served ice cream cones and angel food cake.

Mrs. Jim Moore is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Watson, from Alford, Texas, for a brief visit.

Mrs. H. G. Lees and children, of Big Spring, will arrive Saturday to visit and attend the graduating exercises of the Brownfield high school, next week, when Mrs. Lees' brother, James H. Dallas, will graduate.

BUNCO AND ICE CREAM ENJOYED BY "SOPHS"

Last Friday night, May 6th, the jolly groupe of "Soph's", sixteen in number, met at the home of Mrs. A. E. Graham to enjoy the evening. Until about 10 o'clock our crowd was hopeless due to the fact that our "Soph" scouts were very busy keeping order at the Theatre. But from 10 o'clock until 12, we made up for the lost time playing bunco and 42.

At the close of the games Kerney and Lolan were presented with a little chain and knife as prizes; also Jaunita and Bessie received dainty little bottles of perfume.

After much elaborate discussion, two course refreshments were served, consisting of delicious banana nut ice cream with strawberries and angel food cake, followed by (I should say) less delicious cake and ice cream with pineapple, less delicious, due to the fact that a number of us had used our hands and not our heads while eating ice cream. I dare say not a single one of the following grouse could look a bowl of ice cream in the face without their conscience paining them; Misses Ora Gray, Rosella Goodpasture, Jaunita Perkins, Christica Sawyer, Lou Ellen Brown, Bessie and Jessie Chisholm, Mary Ann Bell and Florence Holt; Messrs. Clovis Kendrick, Ralph Bynum, Light Graham, Leorval Lewis, Kerney Scudday, Tolan Pippin, Jim Graves, and Emery Longbrake.

We were very sorry that Lena Mae Bahard could not attend, but on account of illness she was compelled to remain at home, but she enjoyed the refreshments nevertheless. Mr. E. G. Lewis, we are sorry to say, could not be present, the reason why, we need not mention.

The Soph class is grateful to Mrs. Graham for her hospitality, and we are all looking forward to the day when we may be favored with another such entertainment.—Reporter.

Mrs. Jack Stricklin got in Sunday afternoon from Coahoma, Texas, at which place she became ill while visiting her parents and brother and sister and had to remain some two weeks longer than she expected.

All of us pull some boners, but it remained for the Herald to pull an extra big one in Chisholm Bros. ad last week, when we had them offering a one pound box of Mothers Day candy for 1.15. It should have been 5 pounds. Some high candy.

Alec C. Maltzberger, once a prominent Gaines county ranchman, died recently at his home near Higgins, Texas. All the old timers will remember him.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT THE INGLEFIELD OIL WELL

A most destructive fire and one that may delay oil developments in Lea county, occurred at the Ingfield well 14 miles southwest of Lovington this afternoon. The derrick, machinery, sheds and a considerable part of the drilling machinery was consumed.

The fire originated from friction of the brake while running the bailer. The heat thus generated set fire to the escaping gas and immediately the whole rig was in flames. On account of the escaping gas and the fact that the rig was saturated with oil, it was impossible to control the fire. The high wind which was blowing at the time also added intensity to the flames. It was fortunate that no one was caught in the fire and that no lives were lost. The fire could be seen from Lovington and many people climbed upon windmill towers to watch it.

The fire was a distinct blow to the Lovington oil field. The Ingfield is the discovery well in this field and while the discovery of oil was made some time ago, the well is not yet completed. At the time of the fire it was drilling below 4830 feet in hard lime. It has been confidently expected that a gusher would be bro't in when the lime which the drill was pounding away should be penetrated. The log of the well indicated that the Maljamar sand should be reached in the next few feet.—Lovington Leader. (N. M.)

Credit on Fire Record City Gets 15 Per Cent

A statement showing that the loss ratio of Brownfield for the years of 1924, 1925 and 1926 is .162 has been filed with and has been checked by the State Fire Insurance Commission. Under the provisions for credit for good fire record of cities and towns shown on pages 27 and 28 of the 1922 edition of the Texas General Basis Schedules, this record entitles Brownfield to a credit of 15% which local agents are to deduct from the final rate on all policies written on, or after, March 1, 1927, to February 29, 1928, only, and covering property located located within the corporate limits of Brownfield.

The above reduction will mean a saving of thousands of dollars in insurance to the citizens of Brownfield.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

H. J. R. No. 25. Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas amending Article VIII by the insertion of Section 1-a therein, authorizing the Legislature to provide for the separation of the objects of taxation for State purposes and for the support of the counties, districts and political subdivisions of the State and Counties, and authorizing the Legislature to provide for the levy of an ad valorem tax or other form of tax for State purposes only, and for local purposes only; authorizing the Legislature to provide for the classification of objects of taxation and providing that rates shall be equal on the same class of property, and fixing limitations upon taxation. Be it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1: That Article 8 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by inserting therein Section 1-a, as follows:

Section 1-a: The Legislature may separate the objects of taxation for State purposes from the objects of taxation for the support of the counties, districts and political subdivisions of the State and counties; and may provide for the levy of an ad valorem tax, or other form of tax, on certain classes of taxable property, or other objects, for State purposes only (including school purposes); or upon certain classes of property, or other objects for county or local purposes only (including school purposes.) In no event shall the rate of such taxes exceed the sum of the limits of such taxes fixed by this Constitution for State, county and other local purposes. The Legislature may provide for the classification of objects of taxation. Taxation shall be equal and uniform.

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State, at an election to be held on the first Monday in August, A.D. 1927, at which all ballots shall be printed thereon the following:

"For the amendment to Article 8, inserting Section 1-A, providing for changing the taxation system so that the State may derive its income, in whole or in part, from other sources than the ad valorem tax."

"Against the amendment to Article 8, inserting Section 1-A, providing for changing the taxation system so that the State may derive its income in whole or in part, from other sources than the ad valorem tax."

Sec. 3. The Governor of this State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation ordering an election to determine whether or not the proposed constitutional amendment set forth herein shall be adopted, and to have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State. And the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated from any funds in the State Treasury, not otherwise appropriated to defray the expenses of printing said proclamation and of holding said election.

Farmer Tumble Weed, of Pole Cat Lake was in our vicinity last week, and in commenting upon the article that recently appeared in the Herald under the caption "can the farmer live by advice alone," remarked that in his opinion this article was of sterling worth, brimming full of good common sense. He acquiesced in practically all the writer had to say, then added, he thought it was a pity that some of our free will advisers couldn't make it convenient to dispose of their business in town, move to the farm and under the present agricultural conditions demonstrate to us the practicability of their bright theoretical ideas, more especially the fellow who believes it justice for the farmer to grow his living at home, then donate the major portion of his crop to the non-producing parasite or speculator. He hardly agrees with the writer where he says: "If let alone and given a square deal, the farmer will take care of himself, and will not need any advice from any source." However, continued the old farmer, we are constantly reminded of the story of ancient Egypt, where in building the great pyramids, a hundred thousand laborers and slaves, naked in the blazing heat of the Egyptian summer, shivering in the heavy blasts of winter, starved, bled and died in their rope harness, that one royal body might lie secure, had these human beings been given a square deal, much of their suffering would have been averted. While the yellow pages of Egyptian history possibly would not have been stained with human blood.

Farmers are becoming the least bit discouraged over the late appearance of rain. Nevertheless, old timers contend, there is time enough yet.

Rev. Mr. Draper of Meadow, accompanied by Mr. Timmons, were with us Sunday afternoon. Rev. Draper preached a very inspiring sermon. He is to be with us again next third Sunday.

Quite a few from Harmony attended services here Sunday. Beginning Sunday night there will be singing at the school house, and every Sunday night thereafter. You are cordially invited to attend.

We have been informed that Mr. S. J. Miller's feed was destroyed by fire the first of the week. A few days past Mr. Webber met with a like accident.

(This Week)

Early Saturday night we were overjoyed by the appearance of real rainy looking clouds hovering low, even to the extent of darkening the skies. We lay down confident the time had arrived when old mother earth was to get a genuine soaking. Also sensations of becoming rich were creeping up and down our spinal column. When lo! to our sorrow, all of a sudden, there swooped down the most ferocious sand devils of the season, madly dispersing the assembly of J. Pluvius, sending his delegates helter, skelter down the hill. No doubt those little coulders were up here with good intentions, nevertheless the way in which they were so ruthlessly disposed of, we suppose they felt as though they were unwelcome visitors. Consequently, we have come to the conclusion that within your lifetime you may have the supreme pleasure of listening to the beautiful strains of Beethoven's Sonata to the moonlight. Perchance you will have the opportunity of setting amidst a spell bound audience, enraptured by the irresistible notes of the great Paderwiskie. Your machinism may be so infinitely attuned that you are able to determine the artistic rhythm of the stars, but—should you be a habitant of the Plains this spring, we fear you are destined to miss the sweetest music ever given from God to the Plainsman—the croaking of frogs!

And now comes the report that in Erath and Comanche counties, the farmers are becoming fabulously rich from the growing of peanuts. Funny, yet glowing of this nature coming from the golden west, a few years ago prompted the writer, who by the way prided himself upon being a real peanut farmer, to reluctantly sever home ties, fold his tent, and sorrowfully depart for that paradise and search for the honey pond and fritter tree in good old Terry. We imagine this is the way in which things gets started.

Farmers are now busy running knives on full time. Possibly this will have a tendency of bringing rain, as the weather boss can plainly see we are in earnest.

Services at the school house Sunday afternoon were of very minor importance, provided the presence of the community was as scarce about the meeting house as was that of the writer. We proposed, the sandstorm disposed. Fair enough, this is west Texas.

Hist! it is being whispered throughout the entire community in kind of an under current that Prof. Greer has fallen very deeply in—in—at any rate, they say he has the turtle dove fever.

There will be singing here hereafter each Sunday night at the school house. You are invited to attend regularly.

Among those who were in Brownfield Saturday, were Mr. Flemming, Mr. Jobe McDonald, the Martin Bros. and others.

CONSIDERABLE TALK OF CHANGING MAIL SCHEDULE

There has been considerable talk of changing the mail schedule between Lovington and Roswell. The question has been agitated for some time, but has recently received more serious consideration.

The new program calls for a daily motor route between Brownfield and Roswell, or possibly between Lubbock and Roswell. Several times during the past year attempts have been made to establish a passenger bus line from Lubbock to Roswell via Brownfield, but the proposition has always proved a failure financially. The promoters now seem to think if they can secure a mail contract in addition to the passenger business, it might prove a paying investment.

Should this proposed change be made it would cause the discontinuance of the route between Lovington and Roswell. Lovington would probably have a new route intersecting the Brownfield-Roswell route at Tatum.—Lovington (N.M.) Leader.

AME FLACHE BADLY HURT LAST SATURDAY

Ame Flache, who owns several farms in the Union community went out last Saturday morning, taking his wagon after a load of bundle stuff, and started back home with it about the noon hour, as he lives in town. Along the road he felt the load slipping off and started to get off to make it fast, when he slipped off on the hard ground, with the bulk of the load on him. Part of the load also slipped off on one of the mules, who started up, but stopped when Mr. Flache spoke to him.

He was found in this condition by a passerby, who brought him to town in his car. Two local physicians were called and they found that Mr. Flache had a thigh broken just below the hip joint, a very mean place to set. He is doing just as well as could be expected at this time.
