Chamber of Commerce

By the Secretary

I am just wondering if "Bronco Buster" from over Plains way, ever reads this column. If he does he must have missed some information contained in it several weeks ago, regarding the Fort Worth-Roswell Highway. Anyway it will be about ninety days before the route will be opened for traffic, but a meeting has been called for Post City, which has for its purpose the making of arrangements for advertising and marking the route. Heretofore we have not had anything to offer the public, which was unfortunate, but nevertheless true.

An Agricultural Agent for Terry County, has been employed and is now in town arranging his work for the next few months. His main attention for a while, will be devoted to the organization of Boys Clubs and poultry and dairy activities. His office will be with the chamber of commerce, but will probably not be in the office very much. A portion of his time belongs to Gaines county and this will continue for the remainder of the year or until the Government funds are available for a full time man.

Last week the members of the State Highway Department passed through this section on an inspection tour, but did not include Brownfield, in their itinerary, but we arranged a meeting with them at Seminole and secured a definite date for the examination of our North and South route, which will be attended to within the next few weeks.

Of course every reader of this paper has noticed that we are going to pull off a County Fair this year. And this is further notice that it is going to be a good one and there will not be any fall down this time. Our farmers are urged to plan for it as we desire to make the best showing that Terry County ever had and if we do, we will not have cause for regret as some mighty good exhibitions have been pulled off in the past.

The Commissioners are mixing about 4,000 pounds of additional prairie dog poison as the first batch was not sufficient. Land owners had better arrange for a supply as this will probably be the last mixing for the year.

West Texas Gin Co.

Officials Here Tuesday

Messrs. R. R. Gilliland, General Manager and Tom Majors, Mechanic Supt., both of Quanah, accompanied by Dist. Supt., J. H. McKinney, of Lubbock, were here this week looking after the local property interests of their company, the West Texas Gin Co. They found the machinery and buildings in a good state of repair, we understand.

In conversation with the local manager, O. L. Jones, he informed us that the officials seemed pleased with the business here, and especially his small loss on buying cotton, which was the smallest of any gin in this section. They also informed him that they were giving him a nice little bonus for his work for them, and O. L. was feeling very good.

The West Texas is Brownfield's original gin, and the company has always enjoyed a good business since being built in 1919.

Physician and Dentist

Form Partnership

Announcement was made this week that Drs. M. C. Bell and H. H. Hughes had formed a partnership and will occupy the suit of rooms in the Alexander building they now have, which adjoin each other. The former is an M. D., and the latter a Dental Surgeon.

They are prepared to make photographs of any portion of the human body, are well supplied with electrical devices for the treatment of diseases and are ordering others that are needed.

Stamford—Newspaper editors all over West Texas will be guests of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at breakfast June 18 in the Fort Worth Club.

Editor and Family

Take a Short Trip

When the editor of this sheet first arrived in Brownfield, Big Spring was considered a long, long way from home, as freight had to be brought from there by mule and burro teams, which took anywhere from 8 to 12 days to make the round trip—weather permitting. But even at that time, the old two-cylinder cars made the trip occasionally, and if you were lucky, you might get a ride from Big Spring to Brownfield for the sum of $8.00, but it took you from 6 to 8 hours to make it, for 20 miles an hour was a flying speed. Saturday the old Studebaker made it in three hours, and we went around by Tahoka and O'Donnell at that.

There were some improvements going on in most of the towns we passed through, about like Brownfield, except Big Spring, and they are sure building that city. Not only was there all kinds of building operations going on from sky scrapers to residences, but the streets were literally crowded even on Friday afternoon. If the proportionate increased from Friday afternoon and Saturday are the same as in Brownfield, we don't know how they get through the streets there on Saturday afternoons.

We found that Coahoma was doing a fair business, all the folks well, and lots of good things to eat, and as they were not expecting us, we found how well they live all the time, and seemed to be tickled to see us.

On the way down, we saw at least one place where they were sterilizing their cotton seed for planting purposes, as two dead pink boll worms were found in Dawson and we believe three in Howard county. But the people seemed resigned to the restricted condition in which they are placed, and are going to make the best possible of it and fully comply with the law. By doing this they figure that next year they will be clear of any quarantine. Otherwise they might be placed in a non-cotton zone. We believe their reasoning good and logical.

There was a good shower during Friday night in that section, and a heavy snow Saturday morning that will give that immediate section a season to plant on if the weather moderates, but the moisture played out about 15 miles north of Big Spring, and from there on home it was just like it was Friday when we went down—getting dry. But no one is very uneasy at this time. Plenty of time to plant, and as all the land is up ready for planting, that operation can start immediately with the first rain.

We arrived home to the best town and best county in Texas late Sunday afternoon despite a puncture.

Local Photographers

Form Partnership

The two local photographers here, T. G. Allen and C. C. Dwight have formed a partnership, which the Herald considers to be the wisest thing these men could have done in view of the fact that united they can stay here and make a success, while divided it would be doubtful. They have their combined studio upstairs over the State Bank, and together have one of the most modern photo galleries to be found in this section of the state.

Mr. Allen has only been here a few months, but his work has already been accepted as the best. Mr. Dwight has called Brownfield his home for the past five years, and his work needs no advertisement for us in this article; it speaks for itself.

Consolidated, one of them can stay in the office and do studio work while the other may go anywhere if called to do outdoor photographing. By working together, success for both is assured.

You need not go any place to get good photographs, enlarging or tinting any more, for you get the best right here, and cheaper if any difference.

C. T. Smith and wife of Los Angeles, passed through this week on their return home after a visit with Mrs. Smith's brother, W. E. Earnest, of Lubbock.

County Singing Convention Draws Big Crowd

Those who attended the county singing convention at Johnson last Sunday report the biggest crowd ever seen at a singing convention since its organization some three or four years ago. It was estimated all the way from 1500 to 2000 people, but the Johnson community were ready for them and provided loyally for the huge crowd with plenty of chuck at the noon hour. However, it is reported that they were thick around the tables that one's pie often got on the other fellow, and many of the ladies went home with soiled dresses, and the tailors had a big job Monday morning cleaning dresses and suits.

Some mighty good singing was heard both special and general, and a good time was reported by all who attended. We failed to learn where the next convention goes, but it will be announced in these columns at the proper time.

County Court in Session Here This Week

County Court was in session here this week with County Judge H. R. Winston presiding. There was an unusual amount to be done, although not a great deal at that, for our people as a whole are law abiding, and as neighbors get along well with one another, and as a consequence, lawing among themselves is reduced to a minimum.

A six-shooter case was tried Monday, but as defendant proved to the satisfaction of the jury that he was in his rights to carry one while traveling, he was cleared.

Two more days, Monday and Wednesday, will it is thought clear the docket for the term. The less lawing we have among ourselves, the more money we will have at the end of the year, not to say anything about clearer conscience. In most cases, if people are not too stubborn they can settle their minor cases out of court and save wear and tear on the pocket book as well as the tempers.

You may ask what the lawyer will do. Well, they will find plenty to do in making up legal papers and other matters, such as examining abstracts. In our little experience with lawyers, we have found that as a whole they do not encourage law suits among neighbors, but in most cases work for some kind of compromise between the parties. There are plenty of honest lawyers just as there are honest farmers, merchants and printers.

Your Credit is Good—

Hudgens & Knight

There is a large furniture company doing an extensive retail business in one of Texas' larger cities that advertises to the world with newspapers and sign boards—"Your Credit is Good at Hudgens & Knight." Well, they have nothing on the firm of Hudgens & Knight of this city, for they are doing the same thing, and in time may have as large a business as this big Texas firm now has. Who knows?

Anyway, the firm mentioned above nor the local firm do not mean to imply that just any old guy's credit is good with them, but they do mean that if you are anybody at all and trying to provide and maintain a decent home for your family; that if you are entitled to any credit, your credit is good with them. This is fair enough, isn't it? No firm will sell to those who do not deserve credit, and if you do not deserve credit, you get none. Examine yourself.

But what we started out to say was note the many bargains in furniture in the Hudgens & Knight page ad this week, and take advantage of them. If you are the right sort, rich or poor, you may now furnish your home like you want it and pay later.

Lampasas—J. R. Key, a director of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, has offered to pay all expenses of the boy or girl representing this city in the annual "My Home Town Contest" at Fort Worth.

Boy Scouts Go On Hike To Cedar Lake

The Scouts went on their monthly hike Friday afternoon of last week. We left the grade school at four-thirty bound for Cedar Lake. We finally arrived at the lake about dark after hiking three miles facing the wind. The first thing we did was to find a suitable place to camp but as it was already dark we had a very difficult time finding a place. The sand was blowing and misting rain making it as dark as Egypt. We were divided into patrols, each making camp about two hundred yards from the others. It might be interesting to those that are not scouts how we made our shelter that protected us from the freezing weather. Each patrol found a small gully, covering it over with a wagon sheet, brush and grass. Inside the house we made a fire place that would draw all the smoke out of our shelter. We made cabinets by digging holes in the wall and placing boxes in them. Thus we kept the sand and dirt out of our food. Before going to bed we made a fire on the ground where we were going to put our beds, when the fire was out we then made our beds on the warm ground, thus we were comfortable and cozy while the folks back in town thought we were freezing.

Boy Scouts can cook too—if you don't believe it go with us on a hike. At all times we had plenty to eat. We killed rabbits, roasted them with onions; we baked potatoes, fried and stewed them; cooked eggs in all forms and fashions; made camp stew, ate a barrel of pork and beans and fried bacon. We carried lots of fruit with us. So you can see that a boy will not starve when he has all this to eat.

We did not have much leisure time as we were always busy fixing camp, cooking and learning about camping and scouting. However we had a baseball game Saturday afternoon. Patrol No. 3 winning the championship. We went to the Indian grave yard and found lots of relics. We had Sunday School and every one had a good lesson. We wish that we could be in a class together every Sunday.

We prepared dinner for our Rotary buddies and we were sure glad to have them. You do not know how proud it makes you feel to have a big buddy that is interested in you and does not think you are a mean boy that is always picking out trouble. We have some buddies, and we don't mean maybe, they are interested in us and we are going to make them proud of us. Mr. Burnett, Mr. Bynum, Mr. McSpadden, Mr. Fagala and Mr. Holmes came after us and if you want to know about our camp ask them. We want to thank these men for helping us and if they ever want anything done, just ask a scout. We also want to thank the entire Rotary Club for their interest in us.

Those making the trip were: Asst. Scout Master Williams; Bill Master Nance; Patrol No. 1 Grady Goodpasture; Patrol Leader, Ray Brownfield; Asst. Patrol Leader, Duard Lovelace; Vernon Bell, John Chisholm, Lynn Perkins, Sam Perkins and Don King; Patrol No. 2, Spencer Kendrick, leader; Woodrow Scuddy, Asst. Patrol Leader; O. D. Hucklebee, R. W. Rambo, Jack Diffy, and Richard Helgate; Patrol No. 3, Lee Brownfield, leader; John L. Cruce, Asst., Odell Ballard, R. L. Bandy, Charlie Barrett, Otis Moore, Paul Allen and Bob Simmons.

Boys it is great to be a scout and have hikes, friends and buddies to do a good turn daily and to obey scout laws. Don't you want to join us? Say!

—A Scout.

OIL STOVE EXPLODES IN LOCAL GARAGE

The fire department answered a call Saturday night in the accessory room of the Griffin-McDonald Filling Station when an oil heating stove exploded, but we understand the fire was under control when the fire truck arrived, and no hose connections had to be made.

But just the same it could have made a mighty ugly fire, and as always before, the boys were on the job pocompto to help put'er out if needed. No loss except the stove was reported.

County Agent Located Here This Week

R. B. Davis who has been selected for the county agent of Terry county, arrived this week from Seminole and secured rooms at the Brownfield Hotel and is now ready for work.

Mr. Davis came to give Terry county only half time, as he will continue to devote half time to Gaines county for the present at least, or until each county can get a full time agent. However, half time will prove better than to probably wait twelve to sixteen months for a full time agent. In view of the fact that Terry is the most populous county, and that Brownfield is a larger as well as a railroad town, Mr. Davis decided to move headquarters here.

This is the culmination of a long drawn out battle for an agent in this county, and we believe that after trying just half time service of one that the people will be slow to go back to the old method of not having one.

We failed to learn whether or not Mr. Davis has a family, but whether or not, the Herald joins the citizenship of the county in bidding him a hearty welcome to Brownfield and Terry county.

Rabbit Drive at Tokio

Next Tuesday

The Herald has it on good authority, in fact from a citizen of the Tokio community who was appointed to inform us about the matter, that a big rabbit drive is to be staged in the Tokio community next Tuesday, April 24th, at which time an effort will be made to kill all the jacks and cottontails possible.

He informed us that at noon they would serve barbecue and a basket picnic to all who attend and help out in the drive. They are to barbecue a fat yearling for the occasion. You are invited to come and bring your shot gun and ammunition and participate in the drive and sport.

Now is the time to hit these pests before they begin rearing their young, and every one killed now rid the country of possibly two or three big litters of the young later on, who would be big enough by late summer or fall to destroy lots of feed.

Several Changes in ### School Faculty Here

In conversation with one of the trustees this week the Herald learns that none of the faculty here have been elected except conditionally, as they are asking that all who teach in high school at least, must have degrees, except perhaps the manual training department.

At this time it is entirely too early to say just who will and who will not be retained, according to the above official, but as soon as the Herald learns definitely, it will be reported through these columns.

In the meantime, we have about another month of school after this week and the less gossip and street talk that is indulged in during that vital period will not only be better for the school, but all concerned. Let's finish this last period in a great way.

J. Ross Bell to Speak

To Voters Saturday

Hon. J. Ross Bell, of Paducah, candidate for congressman from this the 18th district, to succeed the present incumbent, Hon. Marvin Jones, will address the voters here Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, according to announcement received here by his friends.

At this time this popular candidate will more fully elucidate upon his platform, and tell the people how he stands on measures now confronting the people.

Miss Minnie Campbell, beauty specialist of Dallas, was here this week at the Alexander Drug Store demonstrating their line of beauty aids.

Local Firm Buys Big Ambulance-Hearse

The Brownfield Hardware Company's undertaking department closed a deal Monday wherein they came in possession of a huge Sayers-Scoville Ambulance-Hearse. It has a straight eight International engine, well finished with genuine leather upholstery on the inside, and beautifully polished and nickled inside and out. It weighs better than 5,000 pounds but capable of quick pickup, and can be driven at any speed from a slow walk to 70 miles per hour.

While the company for a long time have been equipped with a hearse, there was no ambulance closer than Lubbock, and many wounded and sick people had to be piled in between car seats the best they could, which at best was bad for people suffering pain. With this big, easy riding ambulance, the patient can be stretched at full length and safely carried almost any distance on a nice cot furnished for the purpose.

In case the vehicle is to be used for burial purposes, the cots can be easily removed to make room for a casket with the flower trays above. No town the size of Brownfield is better prepared now to take care of emergency cases. Indeed, it is as good as anything in Lubbock were told, and the Brownfield Hardware is to be congratulated upon this progressive step.

Cowpunches Treats on Good of Sandstorms

Plains, Texas
April 13, 1928

To Terry County Herald—

The sand soars again today. We've been in this country nigh onto 20 years and have decided that there is about as much good as bad in sandstorms. They rasp the miasma out of the atmosphere, making it the most healthful climate on earth. They shift the loose soils, the pulverized vegetation, (B. S. and shinary leaves) from off the untilled lands to lodge and fertilize the lands of the energetic farmer who has the fortitude to keep his soft sandy lands listed deep to catch and hold these deposits from the shiftless farmer who lets his lands lie idle and untilled.

By the judicious use of terracing, proper placing of beargrass, loose stones, stack lot, refuse, shucks or tumble-weeds and other shifting debris about the place, so arranged to catch these loose and floating soils and pulverized particles of any old decomposed matter that can be arrested and retained upon your properly safeguarded premises. But it takes energy, forethought and a lot of labor.

But what is labor? You have to combat the elements in any country. Down in East Texas, the rainy season keeps you cooped up and your lands get too wet to farm sometimes till late to make corn, but here on the "Llano Estacado" you can get some goggles and even plow through the worst sandstorms, while in the east you have to keep raincoats, slickers or oilcloth suits on or stay under cover through half the planting season, and watch your efforts wash away. Here you can keep going if you have not already prepared your premises to gather the floating elements, while you play dominoes or read the eastern-graft news and panaceas of the politicians who want office worse than they wish to perform the mandates of parties and political promises.

Let the sands shift. Prepare your premises to gather the good thereof. Barbecue your gardens on the west side, and turn on the abundance of good water from that fine well, furnishing water with the windmills and reap as fine fruits and vegetables as any part of the earth produces.

COW-PUNCHER,
From Llano Estacado.

Memphis—A new telephone switchboard is expected to be in operation here by July 1.

OLD FIDDLERS CONTEST AT AMARILLO

AMARILLO, Tex., April 12.—More than 25 counties in the Panhandle, Eastern New Mexico and Western Oklahoma, are staging old fiddlers contests, the winners to be entered in the championship old fiddlers contest to be staged by the Amarillo Tri-State exposition in Amarillo, April 27. The entrants in this big event in which $250 is offered in prizes must be winners of county contests.

Milt Trout, Castro county, winner of second place here recently is the first county winner to be announced. All county contests are to be finished by April 17 in order that the winners may be entered in the fair contest. The big event in Amarillo bids fair to surpass the first contest held in March in every respect. Twenty fiddlers competed before 2,000 persons at that time.

SIMPSON IS WITNESS IN FRAME-UP INVESTIGATION

Sheriff J. W. Simpson of this county was one of the witnesses who appeared before the Upton county grand jury last week which returned indictments against J. H. Dumas and another unnamed person for an alleged "frame" which resulted in the killing of reputed bank robbers at Rankin and Odessa. Mr. Simpson says that the accused men were here a short time before the Odessa killing, and he has reason to believe that the men killed in Odessa and Rankin were "planted" there by the accused men for the purpose of getting them killed in order that the accused men might tip off the officers and receive a portion of the reward offered by the Texas Banker's Association.—Tahoka News.

D. C. Fritz of Munday and J. W. Wilson, of Bomarton, were up this week looking after the latter's fine farm property 12 miles west of this city.

HUGE CHEVROLET PLANT OPENS IN ATLANTA, GA.

The first Chevrolet car ever built in Dixie rolled off the assembly line Friday, April 13, when the mammoth new Chevrolet factory in Atlanta—the largest automotive institution in all the south—swung into operation to supply the Southeastern states.

In the presence of a group of notables, including city, state and civic officials, the first Southern-built Chevrolet was welcomed to the land of cotton and sunshine by Governor Hardeman of Georgia and Mayor Ragsdale of Atlanta. Representing the Chevrolet Motor Company were W. S. Roberts, plant manager, and L. S. Costey, regional sales manager.

Flashing from the assembly line, its lustrous finish glistening in the sunlight, Number One caught every eye as it was quickly driven out to make room for Number Two which was coming up immediately in the rear. Over to the driveway shed it went as an admiring crowd followed to make further inspection of the car that is the herald of a long line to follow in succeeding weeks.

City officials present at the formal-ly commented on the significance of the event, its importance, not only to Atlanta but to the entire Southeast, and joined in the opinion that the huge Atlanta plant would be a leading factor in increased industrial activity in the South.

EASY STEERING NOT ALL IN THE GEERS

One of the primary essentials of what D. G. Roos, Studebaker Chief Engineer, calls a "well-mannered car" is ease of steering.

It is easy to claim easy steering for a car but difficult to attain it, according to Studebaker engineers. Steering gear design, tire sizes, tire inflation, axle design are all factors that must be properly co-ordinated to achieve the utmost in easy handling.

It is characteristic of Studebaker's scientific attitude toward engineering problems that fact rather than opinion should be the basis of steering gear design. To determine the best combination of factors for easy steering, engineers on Studebaker's million dollar proving ground use an auxiliary steering wheel which accurately measures steering effort.

This auxiliary wheel is connected to the regular steering wheel by a double acting hydraulic piston. Steering effort is registered on a specially calibrated gauge. The records of hundreds of tests made with Studebaker built cars as well as competitive makes, form a basis of actual fact on which to judge the merit of any change in steering design and contribute to the light touch with which all Studebaker and Erskine cars may be maneuvered.

AVERY TWIN-JACK CULTIVATOR

Easy on both man and team

Avery engineers did a big job in eliminating strain on the operator and lightening the work of the team when they designed the famous Jack Rabbit Cultivator. In the Twin-Jack they have repeated their success, this time in a two-row cultivator that is simple to operate—and easy on both man and team.

The Twin-Jack is sturdy, durable, flexible, easy to handle and comfortable to ride. It has a strong, rigid main frame that will not twist or sag under the hardest conditions. The frame is in perfect balance at all times, with the result that manipulation requires but minimum effort, the horses are spared sore shoulders, and more ground is covered per day with less fatigue.

Each pair of gears is controlled by two independent levers, the inside lever raising or lowering the pair simultaneously, when desired. By means of an easy pressure on the stirrups the wheels may be angled to right or to left.

We will be glad to explain the many efficient, time-saving features of the Twin-Jack—or demonstrate at your convenience. There is no obligation.

There is a full line of famous Avery walking, riding and tractor plows, tillage implements and Champion harvesting and haying machines

LONG RANGE ADVISER TO FARMERS CATECHISED

Roger Babson, eastern financial writer and statistician, recently joined the ranks of big bankers and business men who, from a long distance, give advice to farmers. He closed his essay with the following:

"Personally, I can not imagine a better life than to farm in the north from April to November and spend the winter in California and Florida. Only the farmer has a business where such ideal life is possible."

This was too much for the Oakland (Iowa) Acorn. The editor came back with the following questions which show he knows what real farm life is:

Say, Roger, did you ever—
Sit up all night with a brood sow about to farrow?

With a bunch of ewes at lambing time?

With Bossie when she was expecting the arrival of a wobbly-legged calf?

With old Luce, the one mare on the place, when a colt was expected?

Did you ever clean out a stable at 5 o'clock in the morning and take the harness from a tired team at 9 p. m.

Did you ever try to drive a pig from one pen to another?

Did you ever clean out the hen house?

Did you ever teach a hand-fed calf to drink milk from a pail?

Did you ever try to pay $10 an acre rent out of 25-cent corn?

Did you ever wade a feed lot eight rods wide and twenty inches deep?

Did you ever drive Lizzie to town through Iowa mud?

Did you ever work seventeen hours a day through haying, harvesting and corn-husking time?

Did you ever "stow-away" hay in a red-hot barn?

Did you ever work at the "tail-end" of a threshing machine?

Did you ever "caponize" a flock of chickens or lambs, or a herd of pigs or calves?

Did you ever dehorn a herd of steers?

Did you ever milk a "kicky" cow?

Did you ever live on a farm?

Where did you get the idea that farming was the greatest snap that ever happened?

Who would run the farm of the farmer and wife spent the winter in Florida or California?

How could the farmer go to California when he has all he can do to hang on where he is?

What are you talking about anyway?

Al Smith is now down in the old north State to get a rest from a worry legislative session, according to reports, but pert paragraphs and cartoonists still insist that he is there counting "Tarheel Democracy."

We are wondering today (Tuesday) if spring has really come. We have thought so several times lately only to be disappointed with a big blizzard, accompanied by rain, sleet and snow. Come on gentle spring, we are awaiting you with outstretched arms.

Louis F. Swift, of Swift & Co., packers, announced recently while visiting in Texas that the price of cattle would remain high for some time yet, and said he was pleased at the prosperous condition of the southwest. He announced that there could be no overproduction of cattle in the next few years.

Hon. R. Harper Kirby, of Austin, died of heart failure at his home in that city Monday. He was the leader of the constitutional democrats of the State who are demanding instructed delegates for a dry platform and a dry candidate at the National Democratic Convention in Houston in June. Mr. Kirby made a success in life from a financial viewpoint, was a uncompromising dry and a fundamental Methodist.

According to press reports President Coolidge only recently accepted a statute of Andrew Jackson for the rotunda of the nation's capital. Are we that far behind with honoring our presidents and war heroes, or have we kindly neglected Old Hickory? If we are that far behind now, however, and heroes and sheroes coming in at the present rate, future generations will have to create an unveiling bureau to be open night and day to catch up, or some of them might be entirely left out and forgotten.

We heard a man remark recently that the young people of Terry county and Brownfield were the best behaved and got into less mischief than any young people he had ever encountered, and he had lived several places in his existence. Of course, they have their fun like other young folks, but they have sense enough to have fun without molesting other people and their property, or violating the law. Then is it any wonder that our terms of court are short and that our district court officials are always complimentary of the decorum of the people of this county? A mighty fine place to raise your family.

WHY TAHOKA IS LOSING TRADE!

Our Chamber of Commerce and some of our business men have been long concerned about getting the trade for Tahoka that rightfully belongs within her trade territory. If they would read regularly the papers published in our neighboring towns they would understand why these towns are invading Tahoka's trade territory. The business men of these towns advertise. They carry frequently half-page and full-page and double-page ads, telling about their goods, wares, and merchandise. Just last week one of our near neighbors issued a fourteen-page paper, well-filled with advertisements of the business concerns of the town, and it regularly issues ten and twelve pages. This town is little if any larger than Tahoka. Other neighboring towns are advertising fully as freely. We are not complaining at the home folks, but we are just putting our finger on the reason for our losing trade that belongs in our territory.—Tahoka News.

—THE COST OF A PIG—

(Editorial, Tomahawk Leader)
Henry Ward Beecher once told of buying a $9 pig, feeding it $40 worth of corn, and selling it for $10; he said that he lost money on the corn, but he cleared a whole dollar on the pig.

That is the way with municipal ownership of most utilities. They buy the $9 pig—the plant; they feed it $40 worth of political favoritism, political inefficiency, everybody's business, irresponsibility, taxes that it does not pay—and then sell $10 worth of service and claim a saving. The "pig" seems to show a profit under that system of bookkeeping; but the golden corn—the taxes, the incentive, the intelligent development, growth and management—vanishes in the pig's hungry jaws.

This gives point to the recent study made by J. A. Van Osdol, formerly president of the Indiana Municipal League, showing that in the municipally owned electric utilities of Massachusetts it costs 35 per cent more to manufacture current and 21 per cent more to distribute it than does in private plants of the same state.

The press is united in saying that the government has no right to go into the printing business and print envelopes. It is united in saying that the absurdly low quoted price does not actually cover the cost of the service; that the rest is made up in excess postal rates, if not in general taxation, and that the local printer is made the goat of a vicious political monopoly.

Municipal or state ownership and operation of utilities is a similar assault on the businesses by which free men live. It pays no taxes—it is not bound by the rules that bind private competition. It has no responsible control that must in self-protection know its cost and efficiency. It can make up losses by taxation or impaired or curtailed service. Established as a principle, public ownership might well start printing offices, brick factories, stores, banks, law offices, shoe factories, movies, foundries and farms.

The press that has seen the viciousness of the so-called cheap federal printing that is really exorbitantly paid for by indirect taxes, may well condemn the advancing tide of socialized ownership.

MEADOW BRIEFS

By Aesculapias.

The past few weeks have found me busy looking after the sick and keeping up with the weather. The latter has been much the most difficult problem. Snow at Easter and ice every morning since get my goat. My neighbors have quit keeping coal piles and Bob Welch won't sell it on credit, so it puts the average citizen betwixt the devil and the deep sea. We have had plenty of moving sand but I like sand and especially blowing sand, but I didn't know that I had moved into the Arctic Circle when I came here.

Since my last we have elected a mayor and a few aldermen, changed a few trustees and had a deputy constable appointed to kinder look after our citizens, who must try to settle their little differences with their fists. The city exchequer needs funds and those guys that feel like attracting attention by engaging in fistic encounters can add a little to the till. There are other odds and ends that if looked after carefully might help the finances.

The son of Jack Longly who was operated on at Lubbock Wednesday for Intestinal Obstruction died Saturday night and was buried at the Meadow cemetery Sunday evening. The Rev. Allen, pastor of the Baptist church, preached the funeral sermon. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the community. This is the first death in the community for more than a year.

Hershall Brooks and wife have a little girl at their house. The little lady put in appearance on the tenth and father and mother seem to feel especially proud of her.

Our people are beginning to talk politics a little and it won't be long until waving of arms and loud talking will indicate the matter under discussion. Poor old Al how they will hammer him. He is wet and a Catholic, and not at all acceptable to the Anti Saloon League and the League controls the church vote so there you are. On the other hand Walsh is a Catholic and dry and I have yet to hear a man say that he would not support him if nominated. It appears to me however that one is just as much Catholic as the other and the wet shouldn't count any more than the dry, for many of those who shout the loudest against Al's wetness, make and drink 'home brew.' If drinking alcoholics is a vice of the wets it can't possibly be a virtue in the dries.

It is announced through the papers that Gen. Felix Robertson has joined the Catholic church. What if he has? The old man is now in his dotage, feeble in mind and body and it is more than probable that some close kinsman or friend is at the bottom of the action. When Buffalo Bill was old and decrepit he too was persuaded to accept the consolations of the Old Man on the Tiber. Both of them rejected the ministrations of priests in their prime and it is safe to conclude that neither of them knew what was transpiring when these busy bodies in frock and cowl were performing their wind jamming operations. Let all choose without let or hindrance the particular cult that appeals to them, but for decency's sake let the extremes of life alone for neither are competent to choose.

RAILROAD PLANS COMMENCING TO GET UNDER WAY

Details of the trip taken last week on the Artesia, Roswell & Snyder Railroad brought back good reports from every community visited.

At Gail the committee was met by Chairman Judge Dorward, and after getting a view of the proposed route through the canyon there, the ladies of Gail presented the visitors with an old fashioned feed. Gail was asked to give 200 acres of land and $35,000 as a bonus.

During the trip along the route it was brought out that two lines are under contemplation; one going out of Snyder via the R. S. & P. tracks to Fluvanna, thence due west to O'Donnell and onto Brownfield. The other route was west out of Snyder to Gail and Lamesa, thence to Brownfield, where it would connect up with the northern route of the newly proposed line. At Gail it was brought out that 85 per cent Borden County lands are not under cultivation.

Citizens of Lamesa, headed by Sec'y Wm. A. Wilson, met the railroad party at Gail and returned to their home city. At the Lamesa meeting every cooperation and help was extended.

O'Donnell, Tahoka, Brownfield, Plains, Bronco, Tatum, Cap Rock, all were given the same proposition as Gail, and they roundly endorsed the idea, with every co-operation being extended.

At Roswell, where more than a quarter million dollars in money and lands has been given, the committee was shown the diversified agricultural section surrounding that country, with fruits, vegetables, cotton and apples being raised on irrigated lands.

The engineers accompanying the party made a survey ascending the caprock and reported that going into O'Donnell or Lamesa could be accomplished very successfully. The same held true at Cap Rock. The land under the caprock toward Roswell is in a shallow water belt, and it was proved that it could be irrigated at a minimum of expense.

Tonnage figures obtainable at all points along the route showed that even at the present time there was more than enough tonnage to make the proposed road a paying proposition.

A. L. Dickinson of Houston, associated with the Townsite Development Company, was so pleased with the attractive sites offered that good prices were made for the sites.

Enough money in bonuses and townsites, together with right of ways has already been offered to practically assure the grading of the entire route, according to Secretary Evans of the Chamber of Commerce. Commenting upon the matter, Mr. Evans said: "In every town visited, and particularly the lands in the rural sections, were simply awaiting the touch of the plow and a railroad to make it possible to get crops to market at a low expense. In addition to agricultural possibilities, various minerals such as potash, gyp beds, coal and various other substances were to be found that would make the new line one of the most profitable and best paying in the entire state." Secretary Evans' last remarks indicated a hearty welcome at every point along the route on his return here Saturday. Mr. Dickinson of the townsite company returned with him, while Capt. Kennedy and the balance of the party remained in Roswell to complete negotiations that have been pending there for some time.

It has been assured for many moons that a real rail battle is to be waged in West Texas, and no matter whether it's the Katy, the Frisco, the Santa Fe, Burlington or the T. & P.—let it come, and soon. This vast West Texas needs adequate transportation facilities.—Snyder Signal.

We are sorry to report that Miss Ola Bell Brown is very seriously ill again. She has certainly had her share of pain in this world.

UNITED STATES TIRES ARE GOOD TIRES

ADVERTISING THE GREAT CIVILIZER

In 1883, the Mervine-Kahn Company store was founded at Rayne, Acadia Parish, Louisiana. It now does more than $500,000 business a year in a community of 3,000 people. It started with one clerk; now it has 30. Its sales have a volume that many a city jobber would envy.

Writing of the facts, the company manager says: "We have done a general merchandise business, with dry goods as the bulk of the business, catering to the trade of 10 parishes, and ADVERTISING IN EVERY PAPER IN OUR SECTION."

Advertising invites and fixes a standard of comparison, by which one's goods, methods, prices may be tested. Advertising creates demand; one who does not know of the advertised automobiles, still drives the ox-team, or rides pillion-fashion or walks through jungle paths; one who doesn't know advertised matches or electricity or gas, kindles a cave-fire with a whirling stick, and gnaws half-cooked meat off the bones of the prey he has slain with stone or club. Advertising is information and goodwill investment.

Preparations made for the election in Chicago sound rather strange in a country which guarantees all citizens, "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." In addition to a regiment of extra police sworn in for the occasion, twenty-five thousand citizens have volunteered to assist in preserving order but even under those conditions it is extremely improbable that the known opponents of gang rule will feel perfectly comfortable in the exercise of their inalienable right. Such a state of affairs is a disgrace to Chicago and the nation and is to be laid at the door of professional politicians. They have been wont to make use of the "ward heelers" and underworld "bosses" and finally this unscrupulous and desperate element has become more powerful than the politicians themselves and Chicago is ruled by gang leaders who, while not occupying the "high places" themselves, nevertheless determine who shall occupy them and anyone who will not compromise with the ring cannot be elected. The spectacle of a city in free America having to guard the lives of citizens who wish to vote is one that should give the rest of us food for thought. There was a time when the honest patriotic and lawabiding citizens might have stemmed the tide that has now overwhelmed them but they were too indifferent. They failed to exercise their right of franchise in the interests of better government; they were too busy making money to bother about politics; they didn't care who was elected so long as they were not molested in the pursuit of a living, plus as many extra dollars as possible. Such an attitude is the meat upon which gang rule thrives and fattens and Chicago has awakened to find itself in the clutches of a demon that knows neither mercy nor remorse. The same conditions have long been observed in every large city in the country and are rapidly becoming true of smaller municipalities. One cannot help wondering when the average citizen will wake up to the danger of his continued neglect of and indifference to his political obligations. Not, perhaps, until his life is threatened or his business destroyed with dynamite. Compromising with graft and wrong doing is dangerous. In such compromise, graft and crime always have the upper hand because they hold secrets whose betrayal would ruin the man who wishes to appear decent and they are not above betraying them for a price.—Southwest Plainsman.

A TIP TO CREAM SELLERS

I recently shipped a can of cream to a Lubbock Creamery and they paid the express on it and the can back to me, and allowed me 44c per lb. for it. Locally, cream was selling for only 37c that date, so you see I made a little better than $4 by shipping about 60 pounds.

PARTS FOR MODEL "T" STILL BEING MADE

DETROIT, April 16.—The manufacture of replacement parts for the millions of Model "T" Ford cars still in daily use continues to demand nearly one third the production capacity of Ford plants here.

Ford officials estimate, from reports of dealers all over the country, that there are still approximately eight millions of the Model "T" cars in constant use in the United States. Some of these cars are many years old. Every now and then there are reports of Ford cars of the old brass-bound radiator types of twelve or fourteen years ago, still running after more than a hundred thousand miles of service.

The newest of the Model "T" Fords is now nearly a year old, for the production of assembled Model "T" cars was suspended in May 1927 to make way for the new Model "A."

This suspension of assembled Model "T" cars did not affect the production schedule of Model "T" replacement parts, however. Throughout the past year the manufacture of Model "T" parts continued to occupy about one third the production capacity of the Ford plants.

A few days ago newspaper correspondents here asked Henry Ford how long he expected to continue making parts for Model "T" cars.

"Until the last Model 'T' is off the roads," Mr. Ford replied promptly. Then he added: "That may be ten years, but we do not intend to allow any Ford car ever to become obsolete as long as it can be made useful with reasonable replacements."

Ford engineers, from tests and observations made over a long period of years, have estimated that the average useful life of a Model "T" Ford car is about seven years.

SHERIFF JOHNSTON IS UN- WORRIED BY 2 DAMAGE SUITS

Although two civil damage suits, aggregating $55,600, were filed against him and his bondsman, the Fidelity and Deposit company of Maryland, in 72nd District Court here late yesterday, H. L. 'Bud' Johnston, sheriff of Lubbock county, was apparently unworried today as he followed the usual routine of his office.

The suits were filed by Mrs. Naomi Richardson, and Jess E. Richardson, widow and son, respectively of W. H. 'Bill' Richardson, who was fatally shot by the sheriff, near the Lubbock Compress company's plant in the southeast part of the city, late on the night of January 4th. Richardson was killed and his two companions, R. E. 'Blackie' Lester and Byron Lewis, were seriously injured near a booze cache, which was guarded by Sheriff Johnston and Chief Deputy Vernice L. Ford. The cache yielded 78 quart bottles, containing what officers described as illicit whiskey.
