BALDWIN'S

HOW LONG THIS FARCE

On August 8 the Government Bureau gave out its first cotton crop estimate of the year. In a few hours the exchange gamblers ran the price up $8 a bale. The next day they ran it down again lower than before. It is safe to say that almost no farmers were able to sell at the peak, and as safe to guess that little spot cotton changed hands in either the rise of Wednesday or the slump of Thursday. The trades that were chalked up on the boards were almost exclusively futures, into which no actual cotton will enter at any stage.

It is also a safe guess that no spinner bought cotton during this flurry. Then who benefited by the wild fluctuations of the two days? Nobody but the speculators and the exchange operators who collected commissions for making the trades.

On Wednesday when the market closed at its peak it was freely predicted that it would go down the next day. Not because conditions would have changed but because that is the way the speculative system works. It must have fluctuations in price to exist. The slump came according to prediction. The excuse given was that it was due to "a dealing that the Government estimate was too low and that favorable weather during August would cause an ample yield to meet the spinner's needs."

Last fall when cotton speculators and politicians were tearing their shirt and causing the Government for a slump in the price, they won the plaudits of unthinking growers. This year, in the face of a bullish Government estimate, the same speculators bring about a slump by denying the validity of the Government report. Why didn't they let the price of last fall if the bureau prediction was wrong?

The smoke screen they create to cover their own machinations resulted in Congress cutting down the crop estimates to one a month, beginning in August. The commercial estimates and the "feelings" of the gamblers under the new law now have full sway for a month at a time, and the market will be subject to no balancing factor until another Government report. This is what the gamblers want. Were the Government's unbiased reports compiled twice a month as they were last year, there would be too little leeway for guess-work, rumor, innuendo, and all the other tricks which the price is influenced in the exchanges. If the Southern politicians were better informed or more honest with their constituents they would have enacted a law providing for more frequent reports instead of cutting half of them out. With a weekly report from the bureau which the gamblers so cordially hate, there would be little opportunity for them to bring about such spasmodic movements in price.

Speed the day when cotton growers recognize in the Government reports their only protection against the guesses of the "cotton trade;" when the growers will demand that the privilege of gambling in phantom cotton be taken from the exchanges by law, and the natural law of supply and demand be allowed to function without so much artificial interference.—Farm and Ranch.

FERGUSON FORUM FACES SUSPENSION

ANSTIN, Sept. 6.—Former Governor James E. Ferguson announced the probable suspension of publication of the Ferguson Forum, said to have been issued for the past eleven years, in the current number of the publication.

Lack of an adequate number of subscribers was given as the cause. Final decision on permanent discontinuance will be made between now and October 1, Ferguson said. He added he would like to "keep going" at least two more years.

"The main thing the Forum would like to keep going for would be to pull the 'I told you so' on the present highway commission when the next legislature gets a real investigation under way," he said.

DRY WEATHER BOON TO OUR FARMERS

The past two weeks of dry weather has been a blessing to the farmers of this section in that it has been hot and sunny and most people are of the opinion that the weather had had much influence in the seemingly let up in the work of boll and other destructive worms on the cotton plants. It appears that there is much more favorable aspect for cotton now than two weeks ago. Another hopeful influence is the general belief that a dry fall will follow a wet summer, generally speaking, and as a consequence we will have a later freeze or frost.

Crawford one day this week, who is considered one of our best cotton growers, and a close observer of the plant from the time it comes up until fully matured, he informed us that the forms kept on disappearing, but where they went was a mystery to him; he could not find them on the ground. Some think the forms are eaten up on the stalk. Mr. Crawford thinks that all forms that stay on up to the 15th will mature with a reasonably late freeze or frost. He attributes the dropping off of forms to sappy condition of the plant, making them brittle and easily broken off.

He informed us that four years ago he had 30 acres in cotton that was attacked by both the boll worm and lice from the time it began to

LUBBOCK BOOSTERS TO VISIT SOUTH PLAINS TOWNS

LUBBOCK, Sept. 13.—Every town on the South Plains will be visited by the Lubbock good will and fair booster caravans in the next three weeks, it has been decided by the citizens of Lubbock.

The annual trips will be staged about as usual. Four one day trips will be made, one this week, two next week, and one week after next.

The Lubbock High School Band will head the delegation to furnish the music. Souvenirs will be passed out to the crowds and trinkets of especial favor to the children will be broadcast over the crowds.

In years past, officials of the various public schools have co-operated with the fair association by turning the school out for a short time to allow the children the opportunity of getting their share of the souvenirs and to hear about the plans for the fair.

Details of the trade trips have not been announced by the committee in charge.

VIC. C. NELSON OF SUDAN OPPOSING HON. MARVIN JONES

Vic. C. Nelson, ex-mayor and prominent realtor of Sudan, has been nominated by the Republican party as a candidate for Congress from the 18 district, and will make the race against Marvin Jones, the present incumbent.

Mr. Nelson is a native Kansan, and was reared from boyhood as a friend and neighbor of U. S. Senator Charles Curtis, Republican nominee for vice-president. For several years he resided in Panhandle, Texas, where he was postmaster for 13 years, after he lived six years in Fort Worth.

While in Fort Worth, Nelson came intimately acquainted with the late Louis J. Wortham, former owner and manager of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, and was sent to Amarillo to look after some real estate purchases on the Plains. Four years ago he moved to Sudan, where he became one of the leaders among the progressive citizens of that city.

Mr. Nelson is widely and favorably known throughout this section of the district, having hundreds of staunch friends and acquaintances who, because of their confidence in his integrity and ability, will be glad to lend both their votes and influence in behalf of his election to the office of which he has been honored with the nomination.

Rev. J. T. Reynolds of Dallas, field man for the Baptist Standard, was here this week in his official capacity as solicitor.

J. C. Green and wife are at Clovis N. M., visiting their daughter, Mrs. Jessie May, and family.

ONE AMENDMENT SHOULD BE VOTED DOWN

The McLean News is against one of the three amendments that is to be voted on at the next election, and very wisely put it in this light.

"It is a fact that most State Amendments to come before the voters this year should very properly be killed. The proposition to exempt parsonages, and other property belonging to churches and other religious bodies should not be passed. There is no reason why churches, lodges, etc. should be taxed as they do not represent the people as a whole, but only a small division of them, and on the other hand history has proven that the wider the separation of church and state the better for the common people.

The leases involve in the case are estimated to have been worth not less than $500,000,000, and were consummated, to use the language of the Supreme Court of the United States, 'by conspiracy, corruption, and fraud.' Not a person has yet been punished for these crimes, the greatest of their kind in the history of the world; and, so far as we know, the president of the United States has never even so much as mentioned them to anybody in any way.—The Golden Age.

NORTHERN CAPITALISTS REAP SOUTHERN PROFITS

During the past two or three years' expansion program carried on in the southwest, more especially in Texas cities and South Texas Border lands, and West Texas oil fields, capital and capitalists from the north and east have reaped most of the profits—generally leaving southern citizens holding the bag in case of losses. Northerners contend that has been due to the keen business minds of northerners who invaded the south with promotion schemes. Such has not been the case. It has been because our citizens lacked the capital that they furnished.

In the city of Dallas four years ago northern capital came in and put on a building program that the normal growth of the city could not absorb. When conditions demanded a halt those responsible for the conditions turned loose and left the city in a bad business slump through which it is just now emerging. This is a situation Texans must avoid. Use local capital wherever possible.

For quite a while business has been looking to the southwest as the next field of big business and development. A south Texas land boom is a forerunner and will prove bigger than the California or Florida boom. Fort Worth, Dallas, and Houston are due to repeat the great growth record of Los Angeles, San Francisco and Portland on the coast. The Rio Grande and Pecos Valleys and the West Texas oil fields provide a good field for capitalists to invest. Business men, local capitalists and citizens should gather profits from these fields to a greater degree than they have been. In the Winkler county field who gets the profits? Not many local land owners profited much. It's the foreign capital that reaps the reward. More Texas millionaires should be made out of the things that business should result. Further than this, our pride is something to think of. To let northern and eastern interests belittle our intelligence seems to serve to teach us that we are over-Texas, or at least more Texas looking our opportunities. Opportunities occur everywhere—even here in "your own back yard."—Ward County News.

CORNER STONE OF THE LITTLEFIELD COLLEGE LAID LAST FRIDAY WITH APPROPRIATE CEREMONIES

The laying of the cornerstone of the Littlefield college last Friday afternoon was attended by a large crowd. Most of the business houses were closed during the ceremony, the citizens and officials of the school jointly participating in the ceremony.

Hon. Otto Jones, mayor of the city performed the inductory rites of opening the ceremony, and was followed by Judge E. A. Bills in an address wherein he stressed the value of higher education and extolled the virtues of the town and community in which the new college had been located.

Prof. John R. Freeman, preiden of the Littlefield college, responded at length, delineating the plans of the college proponents and setting forth at length some of the aims and ideals of the new institution. These addresses in keeping with the occasion were also made by Prof. J. Frank Copeland, faculty member of R. O. Conner, business manager.

Following the addresses the first shovel of motar in which the corner stone was laid was thrown in by Mayor Jones, Prof. Freeman placing the second shovel, after which about 50 cars loaded with spectators participated in a motoreade around the 1,416 acre tract which is to contain the college buildings and more than 100 cottage homes or interested citizens.

We note that the Scury County Fair Association sent their catalog to a neighboring town to have it printed, yet they will expect the home paper to do all the boosting for the fair before and after, not only this year but every other year. Home newspapers give such institutions hundreds of dollars worth of space each year, but that is never considered when some folks think they can save a few pennies.

The folks at Sudan, Texas seemed to be grooming one V. C. Nelson for a race with Congressman Marvin Jones for his seat in Congress. Nelson may be a good man and a high stepper, and the Herald is far from wanting to drop a wrench into the machinery, but we cannot refrain from telling those good folks that a good democrat failed to beat him in the primary, and we can't see where a G. O. P. has a ghost's show in the race. They're just fooling away good time and money.

One of our exchanges recently remarked in fun, we presume, that the first woman found herself without apparel upon consuming an apple, and asks that more apples be passed out to the fair sex. As much as we like to chide the ladies about what they wear or don't wear, they have better sense than burden themselves with hot coats on hot days and sweaters, fume and stew around about it. Besides who said Eve ate an apple? The Bible says "fruit. The ladies are alright, Mr. Exchange—how's your morals?"

Some of our neighboring exchanges have used long editorials recently to advise readers to pay no attention to any proposition that comes to them about the dispute as to the title to Trinity church. New York, and offering to sell said church to them. Well, the Herald decided it was useless to warn our people about the matter as our folks as a whole are rather slow in paying out churches here in Brownfield and we presume on one in New York, if put up for sale here, would be knocked down on the seller. Brownfield folks simply aint in the market for churches.

Volume one, and number one of the Hobbs, (N. M.) Oil Driller has appeared on our exchange table. It is being edited by Ray B. McCorkle, and at present is being printed by the Avalanche-Journal press at Lubbock. The first copy was well edited and printed and the financial end is well supported by the merchants and business men of both Hobbs and Lubbock.

A MOTORIZED FAMILY

What is believed to be the most thoroughly motorized family in the United States has been discovered in Avant, Okla. The Studebaker dealer in this territory reports that the Bradshaw family of Avant has bought nearly 50 Studebaker cars in the past ten years.

The fact that all the cars were Studebakers and that the family now owns eight cars of that make, is thought to set a record for the popularity of one make of car in a single family.

The Bradshaw's first order was for four cars in 1922. Immediately on delivery these cars took the family for a long motor tour through Canada. Their performance was so satisfactory that within three months, two more Studebakers were ordered. Now every member of the family has a Studebaker.

PRAIRIE VIEW BOOSTER CLUB

We are still boosters. Even in our work we are always Boosting.

We have spent the past two weeks canning at homes in different parts of the community.

A new sealer has been brought for the club recently. We also intend to get a preserve cooker soon.

There are eight cookers and five sealers in the community that we know of now. They are being constantly used. There has been something like a thousand cans of food canned in about two weeks.

Miss Murray was mostly the cause of this. The club and the people of the community owe her much. Also Miss Halsey. She is helping us more than we know or appreciate.

The club officers meeting was a success. We want to thank Mr. Daws for being such a nice host. He knows how to serve watermelon—eh, club officers?

We have begun to talk about the fair. Next week and from then on it will be work instead of talk. We stand a very good chance at the Silver Loving Cup and that's not all the prizes we expect to win, either.

G. B. Ware has one of the pigs that goes to Lubbock. He is not ashamed to present him. Neither would you be if your pig was in such a nice condition.

The fair will tell who meant what he said at the club officers' meeting, and that settles it.

REPORTER.

NOTICE

All officers of the Terry County 4-H Clubs will meet with Mr. Wilton E. Williams in the County Agent's office at 4:00 P. M. Saturday, Sept. 15th. The Terry County Fair of September 28-29 will be the main topic.

FARM HEAD DEFENDS BOLT TO GOVERNOR SMITH

The Democratic party endorsed the equalization fee in principle in the Houston platform, George N. Peek, of Moline, Ill., the chairman of the Committee of Twenty-two of the North Central States Agricultural Conference, declared in a letter to Gov. John Hamill of Iowa.

Mr. Peek challenged Governor Hamill to call another conference of Governors of the states represented in the North Central States Agricultural Conference to sit in judgment upon his action in declaring his support of Governor Smith. The letter was in reply to one from Governor Hamill to Mr. Peek in which the Iowa Governor accused him of having gone beyond the power vested in the Committee a Governor Hamill in his letter to Mr. Peek said farm relief legislation had been blocked by "politics." Mr. Peek in his letter to Governor Hamill asserted the legislation was blocked by an "unsympathetic" President, with the approval of Mr. Hoover and Secretary of the Treasurer Mellon.

"You say that the Democratic party failed to endorse the equalization fee," wrote Mr. Peek. "To be sure, it did not by name endorse the equalization fee or the McNary-Haugen bill, but it very definitely endorsed the principle of the equalization fee when it said: 'We pledge the party to an earnest endeavor to solve this problem of the distribution of the cost of dealing with crop surpluses over the marketed units of the crop whose producers are benefited by such assistance. The solution of this problem would avoid government subsidy to which the Democratic party always has been opposed and will be a prime and immediate concern of a Democratic administration.'"

"These principles have formed the basis of farm relief that twice passed Congress in legislation, that would have furnished the opportunity for the farmers to get the benefit from tariffs on crops of which we export a surplus—legislation that was passed only to meet with the veto of an unsympathetic President who never advanced a constructive proposal himself addressing the problem. And this in the face of the platform pledges of his party upon which he was elected to take whatever steps are necessary to bring about a balanced condition between agriculture industry and labor."

BIG BOOZE CATCH MADE NEAR OLTON

LITTLEFIELD, Sept., 6.—Two men are charged with possession of a still, manufacturing intoxicants in violation of the law and possession of intoxicants for purpose of sale, as the result of a raid staged by Sheriff Len Erwin of Lamb county, and his chief deputy, J. L. Walvare n.

The raid, conducted at a farm eight miles north of Olton, netted 68 half gallon jars of what officers say is whiskey; an 80 gallon cooper still and 450 gallons of mash. The catch was the seventh large still taken by Sheriff Erwin since he took office in January, 1926.

LILLARD FARM STILL WINNING

BILLINGS, Mont., September 9.—One of the Lillard stock farms show herds of Duroc Jersey, Hampshire and Poland China hogs from Arlington, Texas, fresh from overwhelming victories in the East and Middle West and now showing at the big livestock exhibitions in the Northwest, swept the boards in the swine show last week at the Midland Empire Fair at Billings, winning thirty four firsts and nine junior, senior and grand champions. The Texas hogs were in competition with better than 900 other hogs, picked specimens of the breeds from six northwestern states. The Lillard farms, pioneer livestock breeders since 1886, who have now had two separate show herds of their hogs on the road eight weeks, are making an effort to show their champion hogs bred and raised on farms in Texas at the biggest livestock shows in the country, and each state in the Union. This show herd being shown by Geo. P. Lillard, Jr., will next move to the Northwestern States Livestock Show at Bozeman, Montana. The other Lillard Farms Show herd now is showing at the Michigan State Fair at Detroit under control of Joe W. Lillard and will next move to the Kansas State Fair at Hutchinson.

Texas is second only to Iowa in total value of the live stock industry. The annual production in Texas is about $300,000,000.

The Texas cotton crop is valued ordinarily at more than the annual value of all gold, silver, copper and zinc in the United States.

JOHN DEERE CORN BINDER

You harvest seven or more acres of corn a day when you use the John Deere Corn Binder. You do the work better and easier, eliminating entirely the muscle-tiring labor of hand-cutting.

Your corn is in prime condition for the silo; no need of cutting the crop days in advance—the corn can be cut fresh with no loss of feeding value.

And when you are through with your own fields you can increase your income by putting your binder to work in the fields of your neighbors.

You will appreciate the easy operation of the John Deere.

No hard-working, old-style carrier to operate—simply press the handy foot release, and the power carrier dumps the bundles out of the way of the horses—no bundles scattered—less waste.

The quick-turn tongue truck relieves the horses of neck weight and keeps the binder running straight. Hot-riveted steel frame insures rigidity and perfect alignment. Roller and ball bearings at all main points reduce friction, lessen wear, and insure lighter draft.

THE SCOTCHMAN WITH AN INDIAN NAME

One of our exchanges recalled a story of his own, which if true, is worth reproducing. It is like this as he puts it:
 "A Scotchman went to a telegram office to send a telegram to his wife. He inquired as to the charge and when told it would be so much a word he protested very vigorously. The clerk explained the charge and said they did not charge anything for the address and the signature.
 "Will you send a telegram to my wife if I give only her address and my signature and not charge anything for it?" He asked. "Certainly," replied the clerk.
 "That's fine," said the Scotchman. "I may not look like it but I'm an Indian and my name is 'I-won't-be-home-till-Friday.'"

PROGRESS OF PINK BOLLWORM CONTROL WORK

All agencies in the newly regulated pink bollworm zone in West Texas have been active in making the necessary arrangements for handling the 1928 cotton crop. Regulations governing the handling of cotton in the regulated zones make it necessary to sterilize all cottonseed at the gin with equipment that meets the approval of the state entomologist. The installation of sterilizing equipment has been in progress for some time and there is every indication that all gins will be ready to operate as soon as the new crop starts to move. Inspectors representing the State Entomologist on the Plant Quarantine and Control Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, will visit every gin daily to assist the ginner in keeping the seed sterilizer operating at highest efficiency.

Seed that have been sterilized will be permitted to move to a number of oil mills that have met the requirements of the state entomologist and have been designated by him to handle seed from the pink bollworm regulated zone. A list of the designated oil mills will at all times be posted on all the gins for information of interested parties.

All lint cotton produced in the regulated zone must be fumigated under vacuum before it can be shipped out. Fumigation plants have been installed and are now ready for operation at Big Spring and Lamesa.

G. C. Bond with headquarters at Big Spring representing the Plant Quarantine and Control Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, and M. E. Currie with headquarters at Lamesa representing the Texas State Department of Agriculture, will have charge of the pink bollworm regulatory work in the new territory in West Texas where infestation was discovered this past winter.

W. R. McDuffie, cashier of the First National Bank and Morgan L. Copeland, cashier of the Brownfield State Bank attended the meeting of the South Plains Bankers at Lamesa last week, where an organization of the Bankers with the above name was formed and the next meeting set for Big Spring later in the fall.

The crowning fortune of a man is to be born to some pursuit which finds him in employment and happiness—

TRUE CONSERVATION OF NATURAL GAS DEFINED

True conservation of natural gas is not hoarding, but the wise use of natural resources, the American Gas Association declares.

"The heart of the natural gas conservation problem is the conflict between the present and the future," the Association says. "The average land owner is interested primarily in immediate present personal returns. The public—at least the 3,500,000 natural gas consumers and the 17,500,000 people dependent on natural gas for their cooking, heating, and lighting purposes—are interested in conserving the supply and bringing about a slow, wise and economical exhaustion so as to insure continuity of service for the future.

"Conservation, therefore, demands intensive rather than extensive use, takes cognizance of equitable distribution, aims to bring about social justice, and means the greatest good to the greatest number for the longest time."

Mrs. L. Sharp supplied the Herald with some very fine roasting ears and cucumbers recently from the J. A. Taylor farm in Yoakum county.

ONE MORE WEEK OF DISTRICT COURT

The District Court of Terry County is still grinding, and is due to go over next week which will be the fourth week, and will probably finish all the work that can be done at this term. All departments have been hard at work to clear as much of the docket as possible, but some cases will necessarily have to be carried over.

Most of the cases this week that have come up for trial are civil cases, but two criminal cases were tried last week, both liquor cases and both against the same defendant. The first was for manufacture and sale and he was given a year in prison. The other was for transportation in which he was cleared. We understand notice of appeal has been given.

We have not learned just what nature of cases the docket will consist of next week.

CONTEMPORARY THOUGHT

A Bogus Oath.

New York Evening Post: One of the disreputable activities of the campaign is the circulation of the "oath" falsely attributed to the Knights of Columbus. We have received a copy of this lurid document, but the sender did not take the trouble to give his name or address. Probably he sent it in good faith, but if he did it is time he knew that the terrible vow is a fake and that it has been exposed at intervals during the fifteen or more years in which it has been going the rounds.

The strange thing is that any sane person should believe that multitudes of other sane persons are capable in this time and place of saying that they "promise and declare" that they will when opportunity presents, make and wage relentless war, secretly and openly, against all heretics, Protestants and Masons," as they are "directed to do;" that they "will spare neither age, sex or condition," and that they "will hang, burn, waste, boil, flay, strangle and bury alive these infamous heretics.

The actual oath of the Knights of Columbus is a far different declaration. It is as follows:

"I swear to support the Constitution of the United States. I pledge myself as a Catholic citizen and Knight of Columbus, to enlighten myself fully upon my duties as a citizen and to conscientiously perform such duties entirely in the interest of my country and regardless of all personal consequences. I pledge myself to do all in my power to preserve the integrity and purity of the ballot, and to promote reverence and respect for law and order. I promise to practice my religion openly and consistently, but without ostentation, and to so conduct myself in public affairs and in the exercise of public virtue as to reflect nothing but credit upon our Holy Church, to the end that she may flourish and our country prosper to the greater honor and glory of God."

Persons who circulate the bogus oath knowingly are beyond the reach of appeal to reason or fairness, but those who have been deceived by it ought to be made aware that their alarm is groundless.

MALARIA IS A MAJOR ENEMY OF THE SOUTH

The influence that malaria has on the rural problem is far reaching in its effects, declares a writer in the September 15 issue of the Oklahoma Farmer-Stockman. He calls attention to the fact that tenants seem to suffer more from this particular malady than any other class.

The problem of malaria is one not only for the tenant farmer, but also for his landlord, his banker or other creditor and his physician, too, for the man afflicted with malaria is seldom able to pay his bills.

In a social way the tenant afflicted with this disease is almost a total loss. He can't be interested in any scheme for his own or his neighbor's welfare or betterment. He doesn't care how the world rocks at all. The schools are affected also, for children in families having malaria cannot attend regularly and even if they do, those with malaria aren't usually the best pupils. Indifference to subjects and in many instances insubordination is the result.

The writer tells of his own experiences in fighting malaria in southern Oklahoma and concludes with the statement, "Don't take chances with malaria. Screen the doors and windows, even though you must use grain bags."

Miss Christine McAdoo left this week for Higgins, Texas, where she will take a special course in marcelling. After which we understand Miss McAdoo will return here to practice her profession.

AMERICAN LEGION CONVENTION PLANS STILL IMPROVING

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Sept. 13.—For the first time in the ten years of conventions, the American Legion will have a "grandmother." She is Mrs. Fannie Applewhite of San Antonio, who, as chairman of the Auxiliary courtesy committee, will see that all the children who come to San Antonio with their parents, October 8 to 12, have a "fun convention" of their own.

While their parents attend the convention sessions of the Legion and Auxiliary, the children will find safety and happiness in a day nursery which will be equipped for them at the Unitarian Church. This is within a block of Auxiliary headquarters and less than two blocks of the municipal auditorium where the sessions of the Legion will be held.

Trained nurses and kindergarten workers will be in charge of the nursery and will find able assistance in Mrs. Applewhite's committee which includes: Mrs. H. S. Churchill, Mrs. G. A. Lough, Mrs. W. S. Hines, Mrs. Eleanor McManus, Mrs. Marie Musser, Mrs. Florence Hallom, Mrs. William Applewhite, Miss Hedie Ortho, and Mrs. W. H. Beck, all of San Antonio.

In addition to the day nursery work of the courtesy committee, there will be many additional duties including the presentation of flowers to national officers and committee women and personal attentions. The local committee appointed by Mrs. Applewhite is supplemented by a state committee named by Mrs. F. M. Hardin of Harlingen, general chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary convention.

The state committee include: Mr. F. H. Carpenter, Sour Lake, chairman; Mrs. J. O. Willoughby, Eldorado, vice-chairman; Mrs. F. B. Lacey, Austin; Mrs. R. C. Courtney, Del Rio; Mrs. H. R. Floeckinger, Taylor; Mrs. Ber C. Clarke, Brownsville; Mrs. Paul C. Christian, Kerrville; Mrs. Win Du Barry, Cuero; Mrs. Grover C. Heldenfels, Beeville; Mrs. Thelma Billingsley, Alvarado.

NEW BANK CHARTERED AT LEVELLAND

We are informed that the State Banking Board issued a charter last week to the First State Bank of Levelland, an institution which is now in process of organization and which will be located in the new House-Stroud building on the north side of the square.

While the personnel of the new organization has not been made public, D. N. House, formerly in the grocery business here, is one of the promoters and will probably be actively connected as an official.

The new bank will have a capital stock of $25,000 and it is the intention to begin business some time next month, probably in temporary quarters pending the completion of the above named building.—Levelland Herald.

Send the Herald to your folks.
