The Editor Taking A Short Vacation

The editor felt too poor and was too busy to take any vacation during the summer, and besides he has about come to believe that the climate is just about as agreeable here in summer as anywhere in the whole nation, except perhaps in the mountains. Indeed, he still feels too poor, but there is a human urge to get out once in awhile for a change of scenery and to mix with others of like profession.

Therefore, we have decided to attend the State Fair at Dallas for a short period, including Friday and Saturday, which are press days at that big institution, and for which he has passed not only to the grounds but some of the attractions, including the "Desert Song," whatever that is, and some feeds by clubs and individuals of that thriving Texas Metropolis. This will be our first trip to the State Fair in 23 years.

We persuaded one of our fine merchants to sell us a suit and risk our face for thirty days for same; we have a tolerably new hat and with the tie he threw in and a right smart shirt given us by a relative last Christmas, a pair of new socks donated by wife—like the head clerk where she got them wears—we'll look very presentable to the elite of the city at the head of Trinity navigation. Our underlies are not supposed to be seen.

We'll try to be back at this old oaken desk again by Monday afternoon, and you won't have to hold up dunning long to say the least. We promise this much, we'll cut as big a swath as $19.23 cents will permit that the banks have promised to let us have.

Ray Howell Shows Get Big Crowds Last Week

The Ray Howell tent show comedians, said to be a Harley Saddler owned show, were here all last week, and drew big crowds during the entire week, and many were turned away Saturday night for the lack of seating capacity. Most of these found amusement at the picture show, however. This was the first tent show to make Brownfield in about two years.

The crowds at the Rialto were light all last week on account of the tent show, but they are making up this week, as they not only have the home town movie with local scenes and local people as the background, but they also have a heavy week in some of the best productions of Hollywood last year to put on the screen.

Next Wednesday the 17th, Schell Bros. Wild Animal Shows will be here for two performances, at 2 and 8 P. M. This is the first circus to make Brownfield in about five years.

Cecil Prim Hurt in Car Wreck Friday

While returning from Post, Texas, Friday night, a car driven by one of John Burnett's boys was turned over, and a rod that holds the wind shield was run through the right thigh of Cecil Prim, one of the football players, which physicians say could prove to be serious if not properly cared for.

It seems that a break on the car worked badly, grabbing one wheel instead of both gradually, and caused the car to overturn. One or two other boys were more or less bruised. The wind shield was broken out, together with other damage to the car. The wounded boy was brought to the Stricklin home about midnight Friday and remained there until Sunday morning, and seemed to be improving nicely when carried home.

GREAT SCOTT

The professor had just finished an evening talking on Sir Walter Scott and his works when a lady said, "Oh, Professor, I have enjoyed your talk. Scott is a real favorite of mine."

Indeed, said the professor. What one of his books do you like best? Oh, replied the lady, I haven't read any of his books, but I am so fond of his Emulsion—I've used a lot of that.

Jeweler Shows Clock Over 100 Years Old

J. T. Auburg local watch maker, has on exhibit in his show window an old clock made by Seth Thomas, which has been in use for 102 years. He recently cleaned and repaired the old time piece and it is keeping good time. But clocks were made by hand and made accurately those days; they are stamped out with machinery these days. We did not learn any history of the old timer, but it is modeled like almost all the clocks of those days, about 14 inches wide, 5 inches deep by two feet in height. It is run by weights and strikes the hours.

O. L. Jones had one of these ancient time pieces a few years ago out on the farm, but when he moved to town some one took it and he has not seen it since. Mr. Jones prized the clock very highly as it was a good time piece and prize as a relic.

This calls to mind a sight the writer beheld in Alabama some 25 years ago. On the mantel over a huge log fireplace, reposed two ancient time pieces, one 99 at that time and the other 107. The latter had wooden cogs, and was made by a firm some place in Mississippi, Jackson, we believe. The other was a Seth Thomas and was flowered profusely around the face with a big jay bird as the center attraction. Both clocks were knocking away as if built yesterday, and it was interesting to watch those old wooden cogs do their stuff. The balance wheel and a few other important ones were of brass. One had been handed down from the paternal and the other from the maternal side of the house.

While Moving, We Moved the Mice, Too

Well, we had our new home built just as near mouse proof as possible, and we made it up in advance of moving day that we were going to examine every part and parcel of baggage to see that no mice were moved into the new castle. Further resolute that all screen doors would be kept in good shape to forever bar all pestiferous varmin from our domicile. But we had consulted without our guest—a rain.

We had kept some of our more or less unnecessary junk packed up in boxes in the corn crib at the old place, but these boxes were placed out doors on moving day to be unpacked out there and the mice, if any, destroyed. But up turns a hard shower and the boxes rushed indoors to be forgotten for the time being.

That very night, we thought we saw shadows flitting about in the dark corners. Others also thought so, but we finally decided that maybe we were "seeing things" and were about ready to sign the pledge again. But next day we spied out one of the shy creatures in broad day light, and whilst greatly perturbed by having to go to baiting traps again, or persuading a mamma cat to take up her residence with us, we felt good that we were not seeing snakes and boots all the time.

Brownfield Cubs Lose Game to Post City

The Brownfield Cubs lost their first game of the season Friday afternoon, when they went to Post and lost 10 to 0. The boys however, are not discouraged, as they had tied two games and won one this season.

The first game of the season was with Amherst, which was a tie, likewise the second with Big Spring. The third game was with O'Donnell during the fair here and was won by the locals 7 to 0.

They have a number of other games scheduled, and hope to give a good account of themselves during the rest of the season.

Mr. Vernon Davis, of Tahoka, was a visitor here Sunday.

Sheriff F. M. Ellington and Deputy Dalt Lewis returned Saturday from Wichita Falls, where they conveyed H. L. Lee who was adjudged as insane last week.

Schell Bros. Trained Wild Animal Shows

Away from the old time methods of presenting tented amusement enterprises, is Schell Bros. Trained Wild Animal Exhibition, which will give two performances, afternoon and night at Brownfield on Wednesday, October 17th.

As its title denotes, animal features predominate, but do not by any means form all of the programme; high class European novelties and horse, pony, dog and monkey acts are interwoven into the programme with such varied effects, that the onlooker is taken from one surprise to another with such wonderful rapidity that he hardly knows what to expect next, and it is in the arranging of the programme so as to take advantage of these surprises wherein lies the charm of Schell performances.

A noticeable feature of the show is its absolute freedom from anything suggestive that mars so many performances; its clean wholesome fun, the real comedy of the clowns, in burlesquing important topics of the day, and grotesque impersonations of people prominent in the limelight, is real humor and greatly appreciated. Twenty funny clowns under the leadership of Happy Ole Larson, the master clown of the day, feature many absurdly comic acts. "A Baseball Number," "Rube and Old Lady Number," and dozens of other foolish and ludicrous comedy acts, by clowns who are eminent in foolery.

Prof. F. J. Rogers, the world's greatest horse trainer, with his troupe of five educated, performing white Arabian horses. Prof. Chas. Barry with his troupe of educated dogs and Shetland ponies will be the delight of children and interesting to the grown-ups; 25 of these ponies present drills and difficult military maneuvers with all precision and skill of trained soldiers. This is recognized as the best trained school of ponies seen with any tented organization.

The music with Schell Bros. show is a special feature, Director Mathews has a concert band of twenty artists.

Several Ex-Service Men at Convention

Millard Ellington, C. R. Baldwin, Glenn Harris, Jack Holt and wife, Hugh Pyeatt, all of this city and W. M. Schroeder of Wellman are all at San Antonio this week taking in the national convention of the A. E. F., which has become almost international in scope, as the boys now come from almost every nation, and speakers from nearly every allied nation will be on hand to address the boys who went over seas to knock the props from under the Kaiser.

San Antonio has been busy almost since last year when the convention was held in Paris, making preparations for the entertainment of the boys from all states and nearly every nation, and aside from many entertaining features prepared by that city, side trips are to be made to adjoining Mexican border towns where bull fights and other amusements not to be had in the United States is promised.

Some 30,000 had registered Sunday and it was thought that Monday would be the big day when probably 50,000 would have been reached in registrations.

Great Film "7th Heaven" To Be Shown Locally

The management of the Rialto theatre has secured the first run of "7th Heaven," Fox Films epic picture version of the play by Austin Strong. This picture has been creating a sensation and playing to capacity houses all over the country and is considered one of the finest productions of the year. Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell are featured at the head of an all-star cast which includes Gladys Brockwell, Albert Gran, David Butler, George Stone, Emile Chautard, Marie Mosquini, Ben Bard and Brandon Hurst.

Petty Crime on Increase Says Grand Jurors

IN the District Court of Terry County, Texas, August Term, 928—Final Report of the Grand Jury:

This the 22nd day of September 1928. To the Honorable Gordon B. McGuire, Judge of said Court, we your Grand Jury for the August Term of the District Court of Terry County, Texas, in open session of Court, most respectfully submit herewith our final report of our work as Grand Jurors:

We were duly empaneled by this Honorable Court on August 27th, 1928, and after the first five days of work, under permission of this Court recessed until the 17th day of September at which time we again assembled under orders of this Court and have since been in session as Grand Jurors.

We have very carefully investigated all reports of law violation in our county, and where the facts would justify have returned Bills of Indictment, and have returned into this Court as a result of our work 12 Felony Indictments, and 31 Misdemeanor Indictments. In many instances we received reports and rumors of law violation and our investigation led us to believe that said rumors and reports were perhaps well founded and that the law had been violated, but the facts before us did not warrant the return of Bills of Indictment at this time. There will likely be some criticism of our work and the officers connected therewith in that we have not returned bills in all cases where purported law violations have been brought to us, but there is a great deal of difference in mere opinion that the law has been violated and having sufficient proof under our oath as Grand Jurors to justify us in returning bills.

In this connection we are sorry to report that in many respects the crime wave in this county is on the increase, and especially is this true with respect to petty theft and petty crimes of various kinds and we find this generally among the small boys of our county. This is regrettable and we call on all law abiding citizens and parents of our county to assist in putting a stop to such condition among our young boys. In many instances brought before us boys of the very tenderest years are charged with crime, which is deplorable since the future of this country must depend on the young boys and girls of today. We feel it only just to say that in many instances we find the parents are largely to blame for the young boys and girls due to the lack of close watch and direction of them.

We wish to call attention also to the fact that there is a tendency on part of many of our citizens to shield and protect the professional bootlegger, which we must report is still in our midst, to the extent, in some instances, of being willing to perjure themselves rather than to help stamp this most of all dreaded evil out.

We wish to thank the Judge of this Court for his kindness and help extended us, and also we wish to thank our District and County Attorneys for their faithful work and assistance shown us since we have been together. And in general we thank all of the county officers for their help and assistance.

We have very carefully examined all departments of our Court House and find same in an excellent sanitary condition.

We ask that a copy of this report be furnished our local paper for publication.

Having finally finished our work for the term, we most respectfully ask that we be finally discharged.

Fred Smith
Foreman of the Grand Jury.

YOU BET!

Billy came home from school bearing evidence of having had the worst of a fight.

Why, Billy, exclaimed his mother, how often have I told you to play only with good little boys? Good little boys don't fight. Well, said Billy, through his tears, I thought he was a good little boy until I hit him.

HUNTER NOTES

We are all hoping that the weather will be pretty this week so we can get more cotton out.

Little Vera Estelle Williams, who been sick for quite awhile isn't doing so well.

Miss Thelma Speed visited Miss Esther Herndon, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith are the proud parents of a big nine and a half pound boy.

Ed Holdridge who has been visiting in Oklahoma returned home the latter part of last week. He reports a fine time.

Phil Cates, the twelve year old son of F. R. Cates, is suffering from a very serious accident, which happened Thursday. He was playing and fell over a hog pen fence and paralyzed his kidneys. He is now in Dr. Cate's home at Akley. He is very low but as long as there is breath, we still have hopes.

Mr. and Mrs. Travis and daughter, Opal, of the Forrester community, accompanied by their son, Virgil, from Illinois and cousin Floyd Henderson from Oklahoma visited in the R. B. Offill home Saturday night.

Herbert Hoover says: "In this land, dedicated to tolerance, we still find outbreaks of intolerance. I come of Quaker stock. My ancestors were persecuted for their beliefs. Here they sought and found religious freedom. By blood and conviction I stand for religious tolerance, both in act and in spirit. The glory of our American ideal is the right of every man to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience."

But some of his adherents in Texas don't agree with Mr. Hoover in the above.

A building twenty-seven feet by one hundred feet, built of brick with concrete floor will house the Lockney Beacon at Lockney soon. Part of the building will be available for meetings of organizations with out buildings.

Luther Cruce was a Slaton visitor Monday and says we have a better cotton crop than that section.

BARGAIN IN THOROUGHbred SOW

I have a fine Poland China sow with papers misplaced. Will sell at 16c per pound, weight about 350. See J. B. King at J. B. KING LAND COMPANY

Water Power Wasted

The Alto Parana river, which divides Paraguay from Argentina and Brazil, and its many tributaries, could make Paraguay an important industrial center. The power of these waters is practically unknown, it is estimated as having, in some places, a fall of 200 feet, and a force of 100,000 horse power. The geyser falls are regarded as even more powerful than Niagara.

The Pound Sterling

"Sterling," as applied to the pound, is a contraction of "Easterling." When currency was of various grades the best used was that of some German merchants trading with this country. As they came from the East they were called "Easterlings," and the name, shortened, came into use to denote good money.—London "Tit-Bits."

Markets in China

China is a land of markets. They are held in every city and town, and even in the small villages. Where there is no regular market place much of the buying and selling is done out of doors. But there is hardly a village that hasn't its regular market plot. In the larger towns and cities there are several.

Firms and Families

A firm is like a family—it is bound together by mutual interests. Just as families quarrel and ruin their homes, so the members of a firm may quarrel and ruin their wages and profits. But a normal family does not quarrel. It develops a family feeling, and all combine to protect each other.

Stars of "Dipper"

The stars of the "little dipper" are constantly moving at tremendous velocities and mostly in different directions, say astronomers, but so vast is their distance from us that they are not changed their relative positions to any appreciable extent within the memory of man.

In the Twigs

The cuckoos make a flat platform of twigs, and lay their blue, rounded eggs, says Nature Magazine. The little blue-throated hummingbird commences its nest, straddled upon a slender maple twig, or perhaps, upon a hemlock bough overhanging a rippling stream.

Honest Labor

The world will be at its best when every person will be taught a way to make a living by honest toil and be willing to admit that the opportunity is at hand. Then no man could rightly rail at his luck or find warrant for crime.

Height of Happiness

A cynical columnist wants to know whether the happy hero in the Woman's Home Companion story who "felt as if he would spatter himself against the moon," was less happy than the cow which jumped over it.

Never Read a Book;

Buy Publishing Firm

London.—A man who says he has never read a book has become owner of the well-known firm of Methuen & Co., negotiators for the sale of which have been going on here for several months.

He is George Roberts, a retired London business man, formerly director and manager of a famous firm of cracker makers, and the price he paid is stated to be in the neighborhood of £200,000.

"I have bought the shares of Methuen & Co. first as an investment and secondly a matter of private interest. . . . I have never read a book, I have no time," he said to an interviewer.

Smiles Won't Help

New York.—No rich young girl shall smile at Magistrate Dryer in his traffic court and walk out with a suspended sentence. He so announced in fining Miss Virginia Vanderlip, nineteen, $25 for speeding in her red roadster.

Save Air Camera Men

Forced Down in Arctic

Fairbanks, Alaska.—Hard ships suffered by members of the Fox film aerial expedition, when forced down by fog in snowbound northern Alaska more than three weeks ago, were revealed in messages telling of their trip to Point Barrow.

The story of how three of the expedition's members walked nearly 100 miles in the snow and bitter cold was relayed from Kotzebue by Matt Niemin en and Richard Heyser, relief plane flyers, who returned just as a second relief plane was about to leave. Search for the five film men and two relief aviators.

After braving the arctic blasts for three weeks, R. S. Merrill, pilot; Charles G. Clarke, director; and Jack Robertson, camera man, are recovering in a makeshift hospital at Point Barrow from the exposure suffered on their long hike.

No Comparative Adjectives

The unwritten language of China has no comparative adjectives.

Moscow's Two Millions

Overflow Red Capital

Moscow.—Moscow appears to be suffering serious scarcity of dwelling houses, according to an elaborate review of the situation made by the newspaper "Isvestia." This is due to the fact that during the World war and the revolution the city lost about 20 per cent of such buildings, while the population considerably increased and is still increasing. In 1920 the city was estimated to have 1,500,000 inhabitants while now it is said to have 2,125,000—a phenomenal increase.

The existing houses provide an area of only 57 square meters for each person, or only about half as much as is required by the commissioner of hygiene. To correct these congested conditions it would be necessary at once to provide at least 3,000,000 square meters of building space.

Meantime the newspapers are printing many communications upon the subject giving all sorts of suggestions for relief. Some urge that sleeping rooms be fitted with upper and lower beds like sleeping cars. Others demand that every room shall have at least one window, a rule which does not now prevail; and yet others would limit the number of occupants to four in a room.

Earthen Jars in Arizona

Said to Be 2,000 Years Old

Noah's Ark.—Ancient earthen jars, containing the bones of a prehistoric race, recently excavated by men working on the city streets, were declared to be more than 2,000 years old by Byron Cummings, dean of the University of Arizona, who made an inspection of the relics.

Many of the jars are inscribed with curious designs and crude drawings of snakes, centipedes and birds. Dean Cummings attributed the articles found to the Pima people, a long-headed race, predecessors of the later race known as the Pueblo people who built Casa Grande.

Excepting the cliff dwellers relics which were discovered near Flagstaff these jars were said to be the oldest relics yet unearthed in Arizona.

City Links Pay

Spokane, Wash.—With a modest fee the city made a net profit of $2,000 from its municipal golf course last year.

VERY BUSY WITH THEM IN FACT FIGURES TELL A STORY OF STAMINA

There was a colored regiment of fighting men in the front line trenches and they had been there for sometime, with furious attack, counter-attack, and general bombardments. It appeared that the Germans had deserted a couple of machine guns that were visible out in "no man's land," as there was no sign of life about them, and the white captain pointed them out to a colored sergeant. "Take a squad of men and go out and bring them in, he first time the smoke drops over them so as to give you some protection," he said to the big black sergeant. "Yessuh," replied the sergeant. Then the captain departed for another part of the trench. A few minutes later conditions seemed right, and with his dusky gang behind him the sergeant climbed over the top, and started on the run for the machine guns. Then it suddenly developed that the Germans were just playing possum, for suddenly two of them rose from a hole behind the guns, swung them toward the approaching darkies and began spattering lead at them. The sergeant led his men at full speed back into their trench where they remained.

After a while the captain came back, and looking out, he saw the two machine guns still in sight. He said to the sergeant, "Didn't I tell you to take a squad of men and bring in those guns?" "Yessuh," said the sergeant. "Well, why didn't you bring them in?" "Because," replied the sergeant, "Dey was usin' 'em!"

Mrs. Ben Hilyard, former employee of the Herald as Miss Belle Williamson, is helping out part time again. Its hard for a printer that has served the trade even as long as she to give it up entirely. There is a drawing power.

The figures below offer analytical proof of the gigantic strains and stresses that each of the four strictly stock Studebaker President Eights so triumphantly withstood when each traveled 30,000 miles in less than 30,000 consecutive minutes at the Atlantic City Speedway:

|---|-------------|
| Total revolutions of each engine | 67,320,000 |
| Total explosions of each motor | 269,280,000 |
| Total up and down travel of each piston, ft | 49,087,500 |
| Total times each valve opened | 33,660,000 |

These figures, the result of slide rule calculations, are so colossal that they are difficult to visualize. But their vastness emphasizes the significant feat of stamina and endurance achieved by the President Eight in maintaining better than a mile-a-minute speeds for 19 successive days and 18 successive nights.

$344,000 PAID FOR GAINES COUNTY LAND

Probably the largest and most important deals in land and mineral rights to have been consummated in West Texas for many months was made yesterday at Dallas when Havemeyer and Jenny of New York sold to Magnolia Petroleum Company their tract of approximately 58,000 acres of Gaines county land in fee, retaining one-eighth royalty. The total consideration was $344,000 cash.

This deal bears out to some extent rumors in this section that there will probably be much testing for oil in Gaines County and adjacent territory in the near future.

J. M. Caldwell, Midland attorney, has been the agent for Havemeyer and Jenny for years, as well as for other Northern owners of large holdings in West Texas.—Midland Reporter.

TO 4-H MEMBERS

The county fair has been held and in my opinion it was a glorious success. Never have I attended a better one. There are larger fairs with better exhibits but our county fair beat them all because we all worked together. I trust that every club member in the county learned at least one thing that he will retain. You probably learned that filling the score card is the important part in putting up a booth or perhaps it might have been something in decoration, in uniformity, or that you must not get your pigs too fat or any of the hundreds of other details you may have noticed. There were so many things to learn that it is hard to single any one out but if I were placing one over all I would say that we learned to work together. There could be nothing more inspiring than watching each club or community working on their booth side by side with the merchants, each trying to make his booth original and more attractive. A million dollars could have been spent in making the exhibits absolutely perfect and the fair could have been a failure for it was that spirit of cooperation and friendly competition that made our fair a success.

While each of you club members did not win a prize yet each of you who had an exhibit or helped with an exhibit won a much greater prize than the fair could offer in that you won an experience that you would never had you not shown.

Your exhibits in pigs, poultry, field and gardens show that you have been putting out some real work this year and I am sure that no county has made a stronger showing in club work than has Terry.

With a pig show of sixty pigs from booths from fourteen clubs you have established a record that I don't think has ever been equaled in Texas.

I feel that we are learning all the time and that next year we will have a still better fair and better clubs.

Your next job is to get your record book in by November 1st. Let's be 100% in sending in these books as we have been in all club work.

R. B. Davis, County Agent.

TERRY COUNTY CLUB BOYS AT THE PANHANDLE FAIR

Last Sunday morning two trucks carried thirteen prize winning club pigs from the Terry County Fair to the Lubbock Fair to gain further honors. These selected pigs were those belonging to Owen Wasson, Herbert Cheshire, Robert Luker, Willie Wasson, Oran Moore, Durwood Moorhead, J. C. Hart, Weldon Grimes, Jack Tongate, I. E. Lambert, Floyd Lee, J. B. Gillentine and Lowell Trout.

The boys went along to see that these pigs had their meals regularly, and to learn how to show in the bigger hog shows. The judging was held Wednesday and each boy had his pig listening like new money.

In the club division there were only two classes in which the Terry county boys could show and that was in the Junior pig classes of Poland Chinas and Durocs. Terry County won first, second and third in both classes which was all that was offered. Herbert Cheshire was first in Durocs, Lowell Trout second and J. B. Gillentine third. In Poland Chinas J. C. Hart again repeated his winning by taking first place, with Weldon Grimes, second and Jack Tongate third.

In the open classes the boys failed to place within the first three on Poland Chinas but J. W. Renfro placed third. However, in Durocs Terry county came back strong taking first and third Junior sow pig, Herbert Cheshire winning first and Lowell Trout winning third.

When you consider the fact that Lillard had his three show herds at Lubbock together with the other strong herds why the showing made by the Terry county club boys is a very creditable one. The Grand Champion hogs of the world were at Lubbock and it was the greatest hog show that will be held in Texas this year.

Terry county got considerable advertising out of the fair. Many people stopped to admire the pigs over whose pen the Terry county sign with her winnings was pinned.

Needless to say the boys had a big week learning the ways of a showman. I. E. Lambert thought that he had it down pretty good when he carefully bathed his pig, brushed her hair good and rubbed her with a rag coated with olive oil, but when he saw Mr. Lillard use stove polish to make blacker and talcum powder to make the white spots whiter he learned another wrinkle in the show business.

Six of the boys were present Friday and attended the exhibitors banquet. They all had a big time and added to the program by giving the famous Terry county Pig Yell and Owen Wasson made a high speech.

Only one boy was arrested and that was Weldon for selling pop corn on the carnival grounds. But even that did not keep the boys from making their own expenses and having a start in hogs that with the proper mating and care will cause the best of breeders to take further notice in ever class next year. Terry county must produce two Champions next year. Who will show them?

BUTTERFAT IS HIGH BUT FEED IS CHEAP

All signs point to a profitable winter ahead for the man with plenty of feed and milk cows—good milk cows, says the October 1 Oklahoma Farmer-Stockman.

Butterfat has gone up and promises to go up some more. The average price by all means ought to be 40 cents this winter, and it may be more.

It is going to pay to feed the cows. Maybe some of the scrubs won't pay for their feed but the average sort ought to, while the real good cows will show a fat profit.

Corn has opened up locally at 50 cents and it is likely that kaffir and other grain sorghums will sell for about the same—maybe a little less. These crops will go up in price later on as they always do, but considering the size of both the state and national feed crops, grains will be rather reasonable in price this winter through.

This means that with butterfat at 40 cents, the milk cows offer the best market for these grains. The more grain that can be put through the cows the greater the return from these crops.

ANYWHERE

It was at the railroad station and a number of wives were taking their departure for the various summer resorts, summer homes, beaches, etc. One exceptionally charming young woman kissed her husband with a long lingering embrace.

"Good bye, dearie, she cooed. "Don't forget to write."

"Oh, I won't," he protested, "I'll write often."

"Do, sweetheart," continued his wife, do—if it's only a check."

The demand for utility services is constantly increasing.

JUST A SCHOOL TEACHER

She was still rather new at driving a car and a little bit confused in traffic. Down Broadway she forgot to stop soon enough at the signal and shot out into the middle of the street.

Didn't you see me hold up my hand, shouted the traffic officer fiercely.

The culprit gasped a breathless yes.

Pompously the traffic officer bore down upon her.

Didn't you know that when I held up my hand it meant stop.

No, Sir, I'm a school teacher, she said, in a timid mouse-like voice, and when you raised your hand like that I thought you wanted to ask a question.

The class met Tuesday afternoon with Miss Doris Bandy for a business meeting and plans were made for a Halloween carnival to be held Tuesday night, October 30th. Class colors of purple and white were chosen. Sandwiches, ice tea and cake were served to Misses Cordia Mae Shepherd, Eudora McSpadden, Mae Holgate, Wynona Burnett, Lela Mae McPherson and Miss Baldwin.

The next meeting will be with Miss Burnett.

Hasn't the fellow finished yet? asked the reporter, while "taking in" a political speech.

An Irishman, who had been kept awake, promptly answered. Sure, he finished long ago, but he couldn't stop himself.

The Hoover-Smith vote in the Literary Digest is just a bit griping to some of us Democrats, as Herbert is getting the long end of it, but as several of us good Democrats were not cast voters...

So B. F. Yoakum has felt for Herbert, although a former Texas. But that bird is a big transportation man now, and has lived in the North so long that he has forgotten his Democratic ancestors and manners.

One of our exchanges has a good motto, reading, "Blank, Where Diversified Farming Pays." While admittedly a good motto, it will apply equally well to any agricultural section any place in the world.

The Lubbock News has made its appearance on our exchange table, and we found it not only an interesting paper from a reading and artistic standpoint, but the financial backing given it by Lubbock business men can only spell success if the paper continues to contribute its share of the cooperation of the two.

If newspapers such as the Herald were to print all the stuff sent them for free gratis publication, they would print anywhere from 20 to 25 extra pages a week to accommodate it, and the people would be no better off after reading it.

DO IT ELECTRICALLY

- Someone with an analytical mind and an electrical education has worked out a few simple rules for handling a woman electrically:
If she talks too long—Interrupter.
If she wants to be an angel—transformer.
If she is picking your pockets—Detector.
If she will come all the way—Receiver.
If she gets excited—Controller.
If she goes up in the air—Condenser.
If she wants chocolate—Feeder.
If she sings inharmoniously—Tuner.
If she is away from town—Telegrapher.
If she is a poor cook—Discharger.
If she eats too much—Reducer.
If she is wrong—Rectifier.
If she gossips too much—Regulator.
If she becomes up-set—Reverser.

WHISPER

(By State Press in the Dallas News)

Terry County Herald: "Well, the whispering campaign has reached Brownfield. It is now going the rounds on the school grounds that if Al Smith is elected president of the United States little girls 11 years old and all boys that old or older will be drafted into the army and made to fight."

Do the whispers say whom the little boys and girls must fight? May it be Indians? The Indians are mostly peaceable now, so it could hardly be them upon whom the juvenile army might be turned. State Press has no objection to the campaign whispers. He has heard a thousand of them in his time, and they never harmed him. He went ahead and voted the Democratic ticket, losing most of the time. He may lose again this year, but he will have had the advantage of an unusually rich sequence of whispers. Yet he does not object to incomplete whispers. When a whisper starts out to convey the news that Mrs. Al Smith weighs 170 pounds and does not diet to reduce, it ought to stay in and pitch until it explains that a woman who weighs 170 pounds and declines to reduce would not grace the White House. That would give all of us who think the White House ought to be graced a reason for voting against Mrs. Smith's husband. But if some hard-boiled Democrats should argue that Mrs. Smith's experience in executive mansions she could be depended on not to disgrace the White House, that would be a point for those who think the White House should not be disgraced. And such differences are what makes a campaign enjoyable if the Democrats could start a whisper that Mrs. Hoover diets, and considers it ill-bred to weigh more than 120 pounds, the Republicans could counter with the assertion that Mr. Hoover weighs a lot more than Mr. Smith, and taking the two families weight by weight, their two would afford more tonnage than the Democratic two. It is interesting to pursue this sort of thing into its farther ramifications. But if there isn't time for that there is at least time for another whisper or two. Let's have more whispering! Why shouldn't some Democratic lady tell it discreetly behind her hand that Mrs. Hoover said stout ladies were unrefined? That would cost her husband a million votes. What harm would one more falsehood do to the moral universe?

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE K of C OATH QUESTION

El Paso, Texas, Oct. 4th, 1928.
Dear Mr. Editor:
Information reaching me from different sources convinces me that earnest attempts are being made to receive the bogus Knights of Columbus oath, either through the circulation of copies thereof, or in open letters addressed to the papers of our State.
I do not believe that the editors of our Texas papers desire to be a party to this criminal libel, and that you may be better informed, I am handing you herewith a pamphlet giving the facts about this alleged "Oath."
Those circulating or uttering the bogus oath invariably refer to the Congressional Record as an authority. No explanation is offered as to how this bogus oath actually appeared in the Congressional Record. Referring to page 39 of the pamphlet, you will note that this "oath" was filed as an exhibit of one Bonniwell in his charges against Butler in a contest of election. The findings of the Congressional Committee which appear on page 31, condemn the publication of the false and libelous matter, and rob the "oath" of the importance attached to it apparently by reason of its appearance in the Congressional Record.

This pamphlet further discloses that those charged with printing, publishing and circulating of this alleged "oath" have been criminally prosecuted with success in the States of Pennsylvania, page 4, Minnesota, page 8, California, page 19, 27, Oklahoma, page 21, and in Newfoundland, page 16.

You will also find that the Knights of Columbus ritual in its entirety has been examined by a committee of Thirty-second and Thirty-third degree Masons of Los Angeles, California, page 34, and the Knights of Columbus exonerated of the heinous charge of taking such an oath.

Thanking in anticipation of your kind consideration, I am, Respectfully yours, J. L. DRISCOLL, State Deputy, K of C.

TAMMANY

(By J. D. Moorehead)

The Rev. J. Roach Stratton and his Fundamentalist buddy J. Frank Norris, of all kinds of fame, are having conniption fits over the corruption of Tammany and the relation of Gov. Al Smith to the organization. Now, there isn't a school boy or girl that isn't familiar with the cry against this organization especially the years of presidential elections.

Norris almost fractured a lung and deluged the audience in Lubbock. He seemed to have most of the crowd with him on that occasion which is not surprising if those who went from other places were like those from here. All were either Ku Klux or Republicans to start with. I count all those Republicans that can't be relied on to vote the ticket and in recent years have chased after Butte and other Republican stalking horses or are this year lined up with Hoover and the negroes.

There hasn't been a presidential candidate of the Democratic persuasion since the Civil War that hasn't sought and obtained the help of Tammany. Without it no Democrat can carry New York. It may be corrupt but not more so than larger cities in the country.

The days of Tweed, Murphy and Crocker are not a drop in the bucket to the enormous steals that have gone on during the Harding and Coolidge administrations which is never referred to in the speeches of Norris and Stratton. Who is it that knows either of them will believe that these two old men of the sea who claim to be shocked at Tammany swallow Tea Pot dome and other Republican graft without blinking, are in this campaign for the loaves and fishes, provided by the Republican Campaign Committee.

Norris asserted that Fort Worth and other large cities were well supplied with booze and he is correct. So is all parts of the country, but is Al Smith the enforcing officer? No, the Republican distiller Secretary of the Treasury is chief and that dashing grass widow, who stirs the hearts, of Ohio conferences is his attorney. She says that enforcement has not broken down. It's done something for Norris says there is oodles of liquor in Fort Worth. Whether his information is first hand, I am unable to say. If he can see Al Smith drinking in New York he certainly should know his home town. It is certain that Fort Worth knows him and estimates him at full value. If there is plenty of booze everywhere as asserted by Norris, then there is no enforcement, and the dirty bunch should be kicked out bag and baggage.

Hoover according to press reports is terribly shocked that the religious issue should have been injected into this campaign, and wishes it discontinued on the part of his henchmen. He waited however, until it appears that it might prove a boomerang, before getting into print. Everybody knows that Al Smith is being tried at the bar of Protestantism for being a Catholic. The wet issue is a stale mate so far as the men are concerned and it is now proposed to circularize the women of the South, on Romanism and Booze. It is of course the intention to try and reach them through their pastors, but perhaps their intelligence is of a higher order than the Republicans believe.

The Republicans have grown won-

NEW SOCKET-POWER RECEIVERS MEET WITH FAVORABLE RESPONSE

The new socket-power receivers are fast replacing the old type set. The simple form of tuning on the light switch now supplies an inexhaustible source of uniform power.

One of the new and improved socket-power receivers recently announced is the Radiola No. 18. In speaking of it, Mr. J. L. Ray of the Radio Corporation of America said, "It is entirely self-contained and extremely compact, requires no batteries or external radio power units, but plugs directly into the nearest A.C. electric light socket or outlet. With simplified precision tuning, substantial volume and realism of tone, and finely balanced sensitivity and selectivity, this new receiver has all the basic features to make it an outstanding success."

"In addition, laboratory technicians have further improved selectivity so that sharper tuning is provided with the new receiver. An improved form of tuned radio-frequency circuit is employed, comprising three stages of radio-frequency amplification, detector, and two stages of audio-frequency amplification.

"The operation has been reduced to the simplest form. A power switch turns the set on and off. The current drain from the electric light line is no greater for the new receiver than for the usual 50-watt lamp. Tuning is accomplished entirely by one knob, while an indicator dial moves past a window in the panel. The volume intensity is controlled by a simple, volume control to meet the specific tastes of the listener.

"This new receiver represents the latest developments in the broadcast reception art, which mass production has made available at a price well within the reach of the average family."

derously kind to those Hoover Democratic leaders and have offered one half of the places on the electoral ticket to Tom Love and his associates in Texas, if they care to have them. But Tom says no. Tom hesitates to cut entirely loose from old associations as he and his colleagues might want something and he will get just what he is delivering the rag tag and as much by betraying his trust and as-bob tail of fool democrats to Tea Pot Dome as if he had gone on the electoral ticket.

Very many of the Hoover Democrats are counting on places included in the federal patronage, if Herbert is lucky enough to get in.; Hoover will fill most of the places of small importance with negroes in the South. He is right in doing this as they would undoubtedly be more dependable. The old proverb, "Falsus in uno, falsus in omnibus," which being interpreted is "False in one false in all", finds ready and true application in this instance. A man or woman's word is of equal value at all times and about all things. They voted in the Democratic Primaries knowing the obligations involved and must bear the implications that go with the violation of the pledged word. The excuses offered by those who expect to disregard this pledge are even worse than its violation. Showing as it does that thoroughly understands that they took it with the intention of setting it at naught. Not content with being false to their pledges—for it was well known that Smith would be nominated—they attempt to capture the machinery of the party and carry it with them into the Republican party. Hoover - Democrats? I learned to hate hyphenated names during the World War and this is more hateful to any sure-enough dyed in the wool Democrat than German-American or other nationality hyphenates.

"Oh wad some power the giftie gie us To see oursel's as others see us" Of course I know that many, very of them. There is no reason under heaven why Democrats in the South or elsewhere should not accept negro votes. If negro help is a virtue with the Republicans it can't be very sinful to Democrats. Norris and his crowd are part and parcel of the crowd of Republican negro and white bolters of Texas new supporting Tea Pot Dome and assisting in the white wash of the Republicans. Goose Neck Bill McDonald whom Norris claims is supporting Smith to my way of thinking is a better, cleaner man than Norris and I don't feel that I have flattered Goose Neck. Norris and Goose Neck were once fellow citizens of Fort Worth and perhaps he feels a little jealous of the negroes popularity. There are no dry districts in Texas or elsewhere, they are all wet.

HOW THEY GOT ON THE WATER WAGON

Arriving in a small western town, an easterner was attempting to start up a friendly conversation with a native.

"Tell me," he said, "what is the status of the liquor supply around here?"

"Status," mumbled the native. "I dunno what you mean."

"I mean is it easy to obtain liquor and is there much of a supply around here?"

"Wall, mister," said the rustic, "all I can tell you is that a little while back they turned off the water supply for a week and nobody knew it till the town hall caught fire."

TRIP TO DALLAS FAIR WON BY HERBERT CHESHIRE

Herbert Cheshire was declared winner in the Club pig contest and left Monday night with the county agent for the Club Boys encampment at Dallas. The trip to the Dallas Fair was given by the Fair to the boy who made the highest, most economical gain, placing in show, and best record book.

Herbert's pig gained two hundred and twelve pounds at a cost of a little over three cents per pound. His pig was second at Brownfield and first at Lubbock in both the open and club classes. Herbert was one of the forty one boys who turned in record books and competed for this coveted prize. An abundance of green pasture, skim milk and close care won for him by a very small margin.

While Herbert won yet each club boy is a winner for it is the experience and the pig that is worth most.

A REAL SHOCK

Yes, said the old man, I have had some terrible disappointments, but none stand out over the years like the one that came to me as a boy.

Some terrible shock that fixed itself indelibly in your memory, I suppose.

Exactly, said the old man. When I was a boy I crawled under the tent to see the circus, and I discovered that it was a revival meeting.

It is reported here that some 35,000 people passed through the gates at the Panhandle South Plains Fair Wednesday of last week and it was believed there would be 100,000 or more during the entire six days.

Overcoming Objections

Little Trudax, age five, is always glad to see her aunt come to spend the night, and thinks it quite a treat to get up and eat breakfast with her the following morning, which is always about four hours earlier than she is usually permitted to arise. At 8:30 p. m. the aunt was trying to explain that it made little girls cross to get up so early, so Trudax began to untie her shoe, and said, "I'll be going to bed right now, then."

From the Wise

Read not to contradict and confute, nor to believe and take for granted, nor to find talk and discourse, but to weigh and consider. Some books are to be tasted, others to be swallowed, and some few to be chewed and digested; that is, some books are to be read only in parts, others to be read, but not curiously, and some few to be read wholly and with diligence and attention.—Bacon.

Pearls From Fish Scales

A plant has been established at Nanaimo, British Columbia, for the manufacture of an essence derived from the scales of herrings, to be used in the manufacture of artificial pearls. The plant is equipped to handle daily 10,000 pounds of herring scales, previously dumped into the sea as worthless.

Mankind "Going Strong"

There is no need to feel depressed. Youth is pressing forward with undaunted energy. The physical aspect of man is no longer ignored. Wider and nobler truths are being recognized by science. Human welfare is being attended to, and in spite of obstacles the outlook is bright.—Sir Oliver Lodge.

Opportunity

Opportunities make us know ourselves as well as to others. In affairs of importance we ought less to contrive opportunities than to use them when they offer. Our qualities, both good and bad, are uncertain and dubious, and at the mercy of opportunity.—La Rochefoucauld.

Killed by Peashooter

"Shot to death with a peashooter," was the verdict of the coroner's jury investigating the demise of Mrs. Jessie Archer in London, England. It was found that she ruptured the aorta when the vegetable, shot from a boy's artillery, hit her in the face.

Word to Game Hogs

We are the supreme egotists and monopolists of creation. We go out and murder millions of our kind with scientific inventions, yet we call a tiger bad because it occasionally kills the two-legged barbarian who hunts it.—American Magazine.

Constant Improvement

"Wayhead lettuce is recommended to amateur gardeners by Woman's Home Companion," writes a caustic commentator, "but a fortune awaits the man who will originate three jumps-beyond-way-ahead lettuce."

Has It Coming

A woman rarely fails to shoot a poisoned arrow at a man, though she may have no personal grudge against him; she argues, no doubt, that another woman has, or will have.—E. W. Howe's Monthly.

He Knows His Pounds

"Claiming that they are inaccurate, boxer declines to use the scales of boxing commission," reads a sport story. He wanted to have his own weigh, so to speak.—Farm and Fireside.

Gilbert Jones Had a Fine Exhibit Here

Gilbert H. Jones, furrier, taxidermist and tanner of Loop, Gaines county had one of the most interesting exhibits to be found at the fair, mention of which was overlooked last week. This young man has made a close study of animals and birds, their nature and habits, and being naturally an artist, he has mounted them in such manner that they appeared to be alive. Their poise and posture as they live in the wide open spaces were faithfully portrayed.

Both animals and birds which were mounted were habitats of this section except perhaps the armadillo, and even they are occasionally seen in this section, whether born or brought here as pets that escape from their captors. The hides were well tanned and pliant, and the fur rugs of several fur bearing animals of this section would grace the rooms of any residence. There was always a crowd to be seen about Mr. Jones' booth.

The Childless Hotel Coffee shop will be opened soon, two months previous to the opening of the hotel proper, according to J. P. Rankin, manager. This is being brought about by a special effort on the part of the contractors.

Livestock buying and selling is active in Lampasas. W. T. Maxwell shipped four car loads of one and two year old fat steers to St. Joseph, Missouri recently. Three cars of mixed cattle were also shipped by breeder to Fort Worth.

TRIPLETS BORN TO MOTHER OF TWINS

Nacogdoches, Oct. 4.—Robert Lee, 24, of the Cove Spring community, 14 miles east of here, is the proud father of the first set of triplets born in this vicinity in a decade or longer. The mother is doing fine. The triplets were born Tuesday, September 25th. They are all boys. Two of them weighed 5½ pounds each, and the third tipped the scales at 5 pounds.

Mrs. Lee already had had twins, a boy and girl, born four years ago. A second girl was born two years ago. Married only five years the young couple now have six children, none of them has yet reached the fifth birthday.

MORRIS STABBED AT NEW LYNN DANCE

G. B. Morris, who resides a few miles east of town, received several stab wounds in a difficulty out at a dance near New Lynn last Saturday night. One wound was inflicted about the ear and three in the back. It is said that the wounded man is now apparently improving nicely. Thurman Bartley has been indicted by the grand jury, charged with the crime, according to Sheriff Wesley Simpson.—Tahoka News.

A pumpkin weighing fifty five pounds raised by Lon Martin, a Crosbyton farmer was brought into town and exhibited. The pumpkin was unusual in size for this section and will be taken to some of the fall fairs.

The earnings on capital invested are limited generally by regulatory bodies, either local or state.

PERSONS EXPRESSES HOPE OF "BLACK EQUALITY"

As a result of a Republican-Populist combine W. Lee Persons, a negro was elected to membership in the North Carolina legislature about thirty years ago. Emboldened by that stroke of fortune Persons became a candidate for Congress but was soundly defeated by an aroused and outraged white electorate. Persons found Republican sympathy in Washington and since has been on the Federal payroll but the sounds he has heard from some "white folks" down South has turned Persons's thoughts back to "Noth Cahlinah." All over the United States in the South by whispers and in the North in loud tones Republicans are telling the negroes that a "Hoovah victory" will win equality for the negroes. The Republican candidate for president finally was compelled to rebuke those who pleaded for his election as a slap at Catholicism but he has not done anything to even indicate that his thoughts are not in line with those expressed by the North Carolina negro. The negro wrote a letter to North Carolina that was published in the Asheville Citizen and has been widely commented on editorially by such newspapers as the Nashville Banner and the Chattanooga Times. The Banner published an editorial under the caption, "Black Cloud Grows." The letter of the negro Persons follows:

I welcome the accession of Senator Simmons to our ranks. Conversion is better late than never. Long years ago we were antagonists, but we need struck below the belt. Today, I welcome him with open arms to the grand old party of God and morality. After all of these years of defeat and disaster for the black man's party in the South I can see us again coming into our own. Not a great many of us remain alive who can recall the days when black men sat in the chairs of state in the Southern capitals. Those days have long been gone, but, bless God, I can see them returning. It is said that a house divided against itself cannot stand, and now I see the white people of the south dividing.

I wish to use the newspapers of North Carolina to urge my people to get behind Senator Simmons and support him. What is true in North Carolina may be true in other Southern states. Just let us get control of the state machinery this time and Mr. Hoover in the White House will give us such help as will wipe out all the laws in the South which will keep the black man from moving on the same plane as the white man.

SHERIFF'S SALE

THE STATE OF TEXAS
County of Terry
Whereas, By virtue of an execution and order of sale issued out of the District Court of Terry County, Texas, on a judgment rendered in said Court on the 28th day of August A. D. 1928, in favor of J. N. Lewis and against L. F. Bilbo No. 1092 on the Docket of said Court, and to me, as Sheriff, directed and delivered, I did, on the 8th day of October A. D. 1928 at 4 o'clock p. m., levy upon the following described tracts and parcels of land situated in Terry County, Texas, and belonging to L. F. Bilbo, to-wit:

Three acres off the southside of a 11 1/2 acre tract owned by A. A. Turner, said 3 acre tract being 675 feet east and west and 193.6 feet north and south and described in said deed from A. A. Turner to L. F. Bilbo by meets and bounds as follows, to-wit: beginning at a point that is 1508.3 feet south of the southeast corner of Block No. 106 Original Town of Brownfield, for the south east corner of this tract; thence west 675 feet to a point for the northwest corner of this tract; thence north 193.6 feet to a point for the northwest corner of this tract; thence east 675 feet to point for the northeast corner of this tract; thence south 193.6 feet to the place of beginning, in Section No. 113 Block T Terry County, Texas.

AND on the 6th day of November A. D. 1928, being the first Tuesday of said month, between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m. or said day, at the Courthouse door of Terry County, Texas, in the town of Brownfield, I will offer for sale and sell at public auction, for cash, all the right title, and interest of the said L. F. Bilbo in and to said property. Witness my hand, this 8th day

ARTIFICIAL HATCHING NOT A MODERN INDUSTRY

Farmers and poultrymen who hold the belief that when they buy chicks from a modern hatchery they are patronizing an infant industry are due for a surprise. King Tut, so ancient records show, must have dined regularly on broilers raised from hatchery chicks, for incubators have been used for production of chicks by the Egyptians and Chinese from time immemorial.

The hatchery business, far from being a product of modern enterprise, was old when Columbus first landed in America. It has behind it the tradition of ages, and is probably the first farm industry to adopt economical mass production methods—long before modern industrial leaders "discovered" this means of reducing production costs.

The hatching and selling of baby chicks as a business enterprise has existed more than 2000 years in Egypt and China, ancient records show while fifty years ago, when hatcheries were unknown in this country, there were at least 150 hatcheries in Egypt, each with a capacity of about 300,000 eggs a year. Thirty-four years ago the first shipment of chicks was made in this country, inaugurating what was to grow to one of agriculture's largest industries.

Although the hatcheries of the country have several organizations, and do millions of dollars worth of business each year, it was not until recently that some of the more progressive hatcherymen banded together to promote the sale of chicks on a purely business basis, with quality of product, and excellence of service to customers as their basic ideal. These hatcheries, operating under the slogan "Hatchery Chicks For Greater Profits," are scattered from coast to coast. They come nearest to the ideal of the ancient Egyptian hatcheries, whose operators for generations handed their business down from father to son, to carry out the traditions of service which is a part of their industry.

STOP FARM THIEVES BEFORE THEY START

Chicken thieving time has again arrived the Oklahoma Farmer-Stockman of October 1 warns. Farmers in Oklahoma and Texas were pretty well worked up last spring about chicken stealing and farm thievery in general. Then during the summer there have been fewer thefts and smaller losses and most of the anti-thief organizations in farm communities have ceased to function.

A lot of chicken houses that were locked last winter have not been locked for three months. Farmers and communities with tattoo markers have few flocks of pullets on hand that have not been marked. The whole armer campaign against thieves is as flat and flabby as an unused football. It needs inflating.

There will be plenty of communities that will do nothing to put the fear of the law into the hearts of potential thieves this fall. Communities that put up a stiff front and make a business-like effort to catch the first sneak thief that starts operations will profit by the indifference of the communities that make farm thievery easy. Thieves choose the easy marks.

IN RE: GUARDIANSHIP OF THE ESTATE OF C. P. LONGLEY, A MINOR

In the County Court of Terry County, Texas.
Notice is hereby given that I, Mrs. C. P. Longley, guardian of the estate of C. P. Longley, a minor, have this day filed my application in the above entitled and numbered cause for an order of the County Judge of Terry County, authorizing me as guardian of the estate of the said ward to make an oil, gas and mineral lease to the Mid-West Exploration Company, Colorado corporation, upon such terms as the court may order and direct, of the undivided one-fourteenth to the Northwest quarter (NW 1/4) of Section Thirteen (13) in Block 4X, Terry County, Texas.

Said application will be heard by the County Judge of Terry County in probate at the courthouse in the city of Brownfield, in said Terry County, Texas, on the 20th day of October, 1928.

Mrs. J. A. Longley, Guardian of the estate of C. P. Longley, a minor.

Texas is the leading producer of the Bermuda onion, the annual value of the crop being around $4,000,000.

At the end of 1927 the total resources of Texas building and loan associations was $92,300,000 and the total membership 162,436.

The bonded indebtedness of Texas is about $4,000,000.

of October, A. D. 1928.
F. M. ELLINGTON, Sheriff of Terry County, Texas.

CAN THE CREAMERY PROMOTER

The cooperative creamery promoter is around again. Every time dairying gets a real start somewhere some fellow who yearns for a job or other fellow who sells butter making machinery comes around and wants to organize a cooperative creamery. He generally proposes to sell about $15,000 worth of stock to pay for building and machinery and other equipment for the creamery. Some times, to prod the folks along, he offers to furnish a manager for the creamery for the first year or so until things get going right.

These propositions are, as Al Smith says "boloney." In other words, bunk. Farmers in any community who want a cooperative dairy can build and equip one complete, with a capacity of 250,000 pounds of butterfat a year, for not more than $6,000. Any higher cost than that means grave to somebody. The co-op creamery idea is all right. Instead of only three in Oklahoma, there ought to be thirty because there are at least that many dairy communities where the farmers have enough cows to warrant a cooperative creamery.—Oklahoma Farmer-Stockman.

MARVEL OF SURGERY

Among the many marvellous uses to which electricity has been put, none is more astonishing than the case of a Canadian World War veteran, who for nearly ten years carried a bullet in his lung. The bullet was located by means of the X-ray, but in its position it could not be reached by forceps. Therefore the surgeon took a sufficiently powerful magnet, and holding it over the patient's chest drew the bullet to a point where it could be seized with forceps through the windpipe. The operation saved the patient's life. Every day in hospitals throughout the United States, electricity is performing feats of life-saving that, only a few years ago, were not only impossible, but unimagined.

Presbyterians Call Arkansas Minister

Proceeding the preaching service at the morning hour last Sunday conducted by Rev. B. D. Robinson of Lubbock the local Presbyterian church called Rev. Elmer J. Bouher, Kingston Arkansas to become pastor of the local congregation at his earliest convenience.

Pursuant to the announcement of an interesting proposition the Rev. Robinson stated before the preaching service that he had received a letter from the Reverend Bouher stating that the doctors had advised him to come to this country on account of the health of one of his daughters. The matter of asking him to come to Brownfield as supply pastor for the Winter had already been mentioned to some of the members and had met with a ready response. When the question was put to a vote every member of the church stood on his feet. Then the remaining components of the congregation arose in token of the pledge of their cooperation and well wishes.

The Reverend Mr. Bouher has done a fine work in the part of the country from which he comes, according to Rev. Robinson. With a large territory to cover he has been leading in demonstration work of the Country Life Work under the National Board of Missions of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A.

The congregation was of one mind in the matter and grasped the proposition as though happy in the acceptance of an unusual opportunity. After preaching from the first part of the nineteenth chapter of Luke the Rev. Robinson left for Hale Center with the promise that he would get in immediate touch with Rev. Bouher and find out when the local congregation may expect his appearance.

TERRY COUNTY CLUB BOYS WIN HONORS

The Terry County Boys club came to the Panhandle-South Plains Fair. They saw and they conquered. With thirteen pigs showed by them in the swine division of the fair, they take home the honors of winning first, second and third places both in the Duroc and the Poland China junior sow pig classes in the club division.

And that is not all. These Terry county boys copped more honors. In the open classes, Herbert Chessir, of Meadow, won first prize on Duroc junior sow pigs and the grand champion in the Duroc show. And Lowell Trout, of Tokio, won first place in the open classes of Duroc junior sow pigs.

Herbert Chessir also won a free trip to the Dallas Texas Fair, offered by the Terry County Fair Association.

"I'm naturally a little bit pleased with the showing the Terry County Boys club has made here," remarked R. E. Davis, Terry and Gaines County agent.—South Plains Farmer.

Emotional

Emotion is a good servant, but a bad master. It must be put to the service of right thinking and true action. In this transience of feeling to conduct it may seem to lose its freedom, but it acquires new powers and finds new ways for its expression. The worth of religious sensibility is to be tested in the adventures of truth and goodness to which it calls men and in the eagerness of self-sacrifice to which it inspires them.—Grove Patterson, in the Mobile Register.

Motive

"What makes life dreary is the want of motive," said George Eliot. It is even better to have a little aim than no aim at all. Be sure of something you want to do, somewhere you want to get, somebody you want to be. Whatever gives life a purpose and a meaning to you is the thing that holds for you the possibility of happiness.

Gallantry

Men should be fair with women, and not gallant. Gallantry is always somewhat villainy. When we men bow and scrape to the ladies, do the ladies know we do not mean half of it? I suspect they do, from the prompt manner they have always had in rejecting my gallantry when it is too strong.—E. W. Howe's Monthly.

The Eyes of Youth

The old historian, Plutarch, when asked what boys should learn, said: "That which they will use when men." The trouble is that men do not use enough what they learned and what they thought and what they hoped as boys. The idealism of youth too quickly fades. Most men are too practical.—Exchange.

Holland's Big Dikes

Most of the dikes of Holland are about 50 feet in width and are used for streets. They are made of sand and grasses and usually covered on the seaside with enormous granite blocks, which have to be imported, because Holland has no stone quarries.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Getting Along

Getting along with other people depends a lot on your ability to study their natures, find the good in them—or it is always there—then adapting the best there is in you to the best you find in those about you.—Grit.

Unpleasant Guests

The United States public health service places the number of rats in this country at twice that of the human population and statistics show that it costs $1.82 annually to feed each rat.—American Magazine.

Commercial Discovery

It has been discovered that the hot mineral waters of Bath, England, will permanently tint glass, and it seems possible that the well-known health resort may become a famous glass staining center.

Matter of Psychology

Woman is primarily an unconscious and not a conscious being. That is why her nature is so different to fathom, why every woman appears exceptional to herself.—Woman's Home Companion.

SELF REFRIGERATION

Electrically refrigerated dining cars capable of transcontinental trips without icing, have been announced by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway.

A check of the building program of Dublin reveals expenditures in excess of $100,000. These include $50,000 by a products company, $35,000 by the Katy railroad a $10,000 creamery and $3,000 fair exhibits.

BUMPER FEED CROPS IN LEA COUNTY, N. M.

Fortune continues to smile upon the people of the Plains country of New Mexico this year. Cattle were never fatter nor grass better than at the present time. With what moisture there is now in the soil, there will be an abundance of pasture for all livestock in the county during the coming winter. And there is still a considerable growing season for more grass yet.

In addition to this one of the finest feed crops in the history of the county is now maturing and will be harvested before frost. Both forage and grain crops are as good as any one could ask. Also the acreage is much larger than usual.

Now if our people will only take the proper care of this feed, saving for leaner years that which may not be needed for the coming winter, there need be no scarcity of feed for several years to come.—Lovington Leader.

Matador has a new Southern Fire Truck with a 500 gallon capacity and enough pressure to extinguish a large fire. The truck will be housed in the Matador Buick Company building until the completion of the city hall this month.

Girl and Father Are Accused at Detroit.

Detroit.—Accused of being responsible for the smuggling of at least 400 aliens from Canada to Detroit during the last 18 months, Casper Hollecker, fifty-two years old, and his daughter, Mrs. Rose Phillippi, thirty-one years old, were arraigned here recently on charges of conspiracy to violate the immigration laws and being accessories in aiding the smuggling of aliens.

John L. Zurbriek, district director of immigration, estimated the two were responsible for bringing in 400 aliens here as members of an international ring whose ramifications are believed to extend to Europe.

Both admit, Mr. Zurbriek said, that they have smuggled in a number of aliens but gave no exact number. Hollecker, Mr. Zurbriek said, told him that between 50 and 100 aliens whom he aided to enter the country illegally now are residing in New York.

Many From His Home

Suspicion of the authorities here were aroused when it was found that in the few months aliens caught illegally entering the country here all seemed to come from Englesbrunn, a section of Rumania which formerly was part of Austria. Hollecker was born in the district.

A month ago the authorities were informed that 78 aliens from Englesbrunn were aboard a steamer bound for Canada. On April 3, 12 and 19, the immigration border patrol apprehended a number of the aliens here, and all showed they were interested in a man named Hollecker.

The women said they paid $75 to be smuggled over the river, while the men said they paid $55 each. One woman said she paid $280. Mrs. Phillippi, Mr. Zurbriek said, claims $75 of that fee was paid the man who brought the woman over the river.

On April 19, Nicholas Titch and his wife, Anna, of Englesbrunn, were arrested in a taxi cab at the foot of 42 Riverfront with Arthur Damon, a smuggler released recently after serving a sentence in the Leavenworth penitentiary for smuggling aliens, and Edward Quinn and his wife Ruth, who live at the Riverfront address.

Gave Password

Titch told the authorities that when he came to Windsor he went to a certain hotel and gave a certain password, whereupon he was told to await an agent of the smuggling ring. The hotel, the authorities say they are informed, got $5 a head for this service.

Hollecker was notified of the aliens' arrival and his daughter came to Windsor and collected $150 from the Titches and told them they would be delivered to her home. Mr. Zurbriek said. The Titches got in a cab at the hotel with Damon.

Scientists Digging Into Gardens of Hesperides

Algiers.—Enrichments of science must doubtless agitate the spirits of the Hesperides, those beautiful maidens who in Greek mythology guarded the golden apples which Gaea, the Earth, produced as a marriage gift for Hera, wife and sister of Zeus.

In Morocco, near the legendary gardens of the Hesperides, archeologists are making fresh excavations of the ruins of ancient Lixus. This city was founded more than 2,000 years ago by the legions of the Caesars on the hill side close to the modern town of La rache.

There is profound interest among scientists in what valuable remnants of the old Roman civilization may be brought to light. A group of prominent French and other archeologists just completed an inspection of the parts already uncovered.

Mark Wild Bill's Grave for Admiring Tourists

Deadwood, S. D.—The last resting places of "Wild Bill" Hickok and "Calamity Jane," most noted of the early-day characters of the Black hills, are to be improved by Black hills residents. During recent years the graves of "Wild Bill" and "Calamity Jane" have been somewhat neglected. Massive stone monuments will be put at each grave and upon the monuments bronze tablets bearing relief portraits of the two famous characters will be placed. From 800,000 to 1,000,000 tourists are expected to visit the Black hills this year. Eight out of ten of them probably will make the hard climb up a steep highway to Mount Moriah cemetery, so they may view the graves of "Wild Bill" and "Calamity Jane."

Sailing Ship Passes From Pacific Ports

Seattle, Wash.—Although old salts along the water front saw the handwriting on the wall many years ago, the absolute disappearance of the sailing ship from trade routes out of Seattle and Tacoma so early in the Twentieth century was never dreamed of by those master sailors. Great fleets of wind-jammers in all rigs once made shipping history on the Pacific coast, but are no more.

Since the first of the year records of the marine department of the chamber of commerce show that but one sailing craft, the barkentine Centennial, passed in through the straits. Arriving in March the ship was refitted from active duty, reducing the present Pacific fleet of sailing boats to less than a dozen.

THREE EXPEDITIONS LEAVE FOR AFRICA

Boy Scouts Accompany Camera Safari to Jungles.

New York.—Three expeditions to interior Africa left for Europe recently. Two of them will make camera safaris, the other will collect live and dead specimens of animals.

Aboard the Ile de France were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson and the three Boy Scouts selected from their ranks who participated in a nation-wide elimination contest. They are to make a six weeks' camera safari through the big game country of Africa this summer. The three boys, all Eagle Scouts, are Robert Douglas, Jr. of Greensboro, N. C.; David R. Martin, Jr. of Austin, Minn.; and Douglas L. Oliver, of Atlanta, Ga.

After a few days in Paris the Scouts are to sail June 21 from Marseilles for Mombasa, Africa, where they will meet the Johnsons, who are to precede them there to complete plans for the trip. They are scheduled to return to the United States in September.

Two expeditions, the "Arctic equatorial" party of Carverh Wells and that of the Milwaukee Museum of Natural History, headed by Dr. S. A. Barrett, were aboard the Olympic.

Wells, who represents the Chicago Geographic society, is going to the Mountains of the Moon, on the equator near Victoria, Nyanza, central Africa, on a meteorological and geographical exploration trip and to take pictures of the icebergs.

The area at that base of that snow and glacier capped mountain range which required the inclusion of Arctic equipment, is infested with tsetse flies, the bite of which causes the dread sleeping sickness. He is to take both motion and still pictures of the flies to aid scientific studies of their habits.

The Milwaukee museum expedition hopes to obtain live and dead specimens of big game animals for the museum. They will operate in the country near the Mountains of the Moon and are to be joined by Mr. Wells when he has achieved the objects of his exploration trip. Wells expects to be in the mountains alone with his native safari for six months.

MARRIED

Friday afternoon, September 28, Mr. Travis Bynum and Miss Louella Hall both of Brownfield drove to Lubbock and were quietly married by Rev. White. They returned here for the night, then went to Seminole Saturday, where they spent a nice day with Mrs. Floyd Stark, the groom's sister. Saturday night found them at Tatum, New Mexico, visiting he bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hall.

Mrs. Bynum has been working in Brownfield in the Assessor's office for the past two years. She is a sister of Mrs. Sam L. Pyeatt. The happy couple came home Sunday evening and will make their home at the old home place of the Bynum family, one and a half miles northeast of the city.

Engineers are at work in Hamlin looking for a new water site. The water supply of Hamlin is sufficient at the present time, but prior to the Spring rains the lake was low.

The net earnings must be sufficient to attract the necessary additional capital.

We note that the Star-Telegram has placed the Texas cotton yield slightly over 4,100,000 bales, and based their estimate on reports from bankers, prominent farmers and county agents. They give Terry county 10,000 bales compared to over 13,000 last year, which many think is a conservative estimate, though others maintain that the size of the stalk this year which is nearly three times as large as usual, is going to fool us.

Fillow Case—Mrs. Wood Johnson,
