CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The following letter has been received from the United States Department of Labor at Fort Worth "One of our agents is leaving here to night for Sweetwater, where a special effort will be made to secure pickers for you. He will then go to Post and if he can use that as a distributing point, he will do so." In connection with the above we desire to advise all farmers that pickers are passing along the road between Sweetwater and Post at the rate of about five hundred each day and it is likely that an adequate supply for this county will be had within the next week.

Some errors were made in printing winners of premiums in the Herald last week, but the original list as completed by superintendents of different departments, is on file in the office of the chamber of commerce and the secretary is ready to pay premiums as shown by it. The secretary will be in the office for the next several days and would like to pay off as soon as possible in order that the books in connection with the fair be closed and other matters taken up.

Division Engineer, Geo. A. Field has just completed his inspection of the extension of highway 53, from Brownfield to Odessa and it is expected that we will be advised as to its final designation within the next few days. In the meantime the highway department has called for a cut off between Brownfield and Chalfin switch and commissioners have guaranteed the right of way and machinery is on the ground to begin work upon it.

THE COUNTRY IN THE BOY

By Richard H. McCarty

You know it's mighty hard for one to get away from their boyhood or young manhood environs. Yes, the things that happen to them when the mind is plastic, and the red blood of youth ran riot in their veins, ever clings to them, though they may climb high up in temples of fame, yet, the tang of the exploits of boyhood hang onto them. Of course, the country boy takes the polish like a clear cut diamond, in the academic realm, in the cloister of the institutions of learning, in the forum, and in the great big business world, the green gets rubbed off—but nevertheless, the country is still in the boy—Just can't get away from it when the occasion presents itself—O yes, those capers of early youth, lying there, seemingly dormant, but just touch the violin strings of youth, with a little rosin on the bow, and all restraint is thrown to the winds. Standing in a crowded hotel lobby not long since, the newspaper gang were there from all over West Texas, the small and the great, amongst this crowd was a debonaire, stately, portly fellow, best known and best beloved newspaper man in all of Texas, his hair is frosted over, the picture of mentality is stamped on his features, he always carries a cane, chews wax and the rest of the time, he smokes a cigar, and a special favorite of the fair sex. Looking at him, you would never suspect that he came out of the sticks, polished and very reserved in his demeanor, nothing whatever to suggest that he had ever cut a coon tree, play-mumble peg or stink base, attended the log rolling or the country dance—But you got another guess coming boy—Directly the jazz band began to play and those feet of his which grew and got their shape ere the foibles of fashionable footwear and silk shoes put a crimp in 'em sorter began to wiggle and shift about—O yes, hot footed youth runs true to form, the scars from stone bruises and busted toe nails began to itch and tingle—Again he heard the call of the countryside, bulpen and burnback, the old time country dance in the mountains of the Carolinas, fiddle and banjo and the chicken bones—Cotton-eyed Joe and one-eyed Riley, chicken in the bread tray, peck, peck—Swing your partners and all run away—A boy again, And my how he did knock the back step and the double shuffle—Joe just could not be still—The Country in the Boy.

Human Note Shown In Harold Lloyd Film

The humanization of screen comedy can be directly attributed to Harold Lloyd. He, more than any other film comedian, can be said to have elevated comedy above the pie throwing stage.

The process of evolution, which has been steadily advanced through "Grandma's Boy," "Safety Last," "Girl Shy," "Hot Water," "The Freshman," "For Heaven's Sake," and with his latest Paramount release "Speedy," at the Rialto Theatre Monday and Tuesday.

Advance reports indicate that the human note so dominant in all of Lloyd's previous productions is again a fundamental factor in his latest comedy. Underlying the uproarious fun and comic foolery is a whole some thought that gives the photo play an appealing flavor.

Briefly, the story is that of a boy who is an ardent baseball fan, in fact so much so, that it hurts him in a "business way." Instead of bending his efforts to the job in hand, he spends all his time day dreaming of his favorites on the diamond, especially Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig, the Yankee stars. He is fired summarily from job to job for the same reason. He is dubbed "Speedy" because of his aptness in obtaining and getting fired from work. However, a crisis occurs in his home life and with that of his girl he loves, so Speedy bends all his efforts to help rectify the trouble and the resulting experiences smelt of the high standard Lloyd has set for himself.

With this production, a new star in filmdom is introduced to the fans. Ann Christy is the lucky girl chosen by Harold to play opposite him in his new production. It will be remembered that Bebe Daniels, Mildred Davis, and Jobyna Ralston were elevated to stardom by appearing in Lloyd comedies. A like career is predicted by critics for Miss Christy. She is a new Baby Wampas star.

HOOPER WAS REGARDED BY WILSON AS TREACHEROUS

Fort Worth.—That he knew it to be a fact that Woodrow Wilson regarded the conduct of Herbert Hoover toward him as "treacherous" and at one time asked a friend not to refer to Hoover as a "polecat because a pole cat at least has a white streak down its back," was asserted by Congressman Sam Rayburn of Bonham at a Democratic party rally here last night.

"I know this to be true," Rayburn declared. "It is appropos during this campaign because Mr. Wilson gave Mr. Hoover the opportunity for doing the only thing he ever did in politics to distinguish himself. A friend of mine visited the martyred president after he had left the white house. Mr. Wilson remarked on the "treachery" of Hoover and my friend said that he reminded one of a polecat. And here is what Mr. Wilson replied: "No, I implore you. Do not compare him to that animal of the woods for the skunk, at least, has a white streak down his back."

In addition to Mr. Rayburn, who has just been nominated for his ninth term as a congressman, former Congressman Jas. H. Young of Kaufman county spoke. Both Young and Rayburn, administration leaders in congress during Wilson's term, leveled their attacks on former Governor Oscar B. Colquit, Cato Sells and Tom Love. They referred to the latter two as "Catto" and "Tawm" and these references were greeted with loud cheers.

Rayburn declared that as long as he lived among white people and respected the womanhood of the Southland he would never vote for Herbert Hoover, whom he termed advocate of racial equality. Both speakers referred to Hoover as the representative of a party that sent carpetbaggers into the south with "sword and saber" to trample the south when it was helpless.

THE LABEL DIDN'T SAY

Mrs. Blurb: You remember the eye medicine you prescribed for me this afternoon?

Oculist: Yes.

Mrs. Blurb: Well am I to drop it in my eyes before or after meals?

Well, Here We Are —Back on the Job

Back home again liking old Terry better and better than ever and with firm determination to do more if possible than ever to promote and sell the idea of old Terry to the people of the crowded and land worn east, for they certainly need a change, at least a great many of them do. They need the fertile virgin soil of Terry county, and Terry county needs them to bring it under cultivation.

There are still many fields in Central Texas that have been tilled by the owners for generations and given good care that are still producing wonderful crops, but many farms that were in prime order when the writer came to that section 28 years ago are worn out and undergone great erosion by rain and water until great gullies have streaked them and the whole surface has undergone a change for the worse, much of the soil now probably being in the gullies.

Then there are great areas that have been killed by root rot on the highest priced agricultural land in Texas. Some of this land scarcely died any cotton when we arrived in Texas, but the people who have lived there say that the condition is getting worse year after year, and one can well agree with them. When we first went to that section only the black land died cotton, but it has now extended to the sandy lands of the cross timber, and it is much worse than the black lands 28 years ago. Experts of the A. & M. College and both the State and Federal agricultural departments have expended much time and money experimenting trying to find the cause of root rot but without success so far, and it looks as if cotton production is doomed on the once finest cotton producing lands in Texas.

On the other hand, we of the South Plains section, with our virgin soils never see a dead stalk of cotton unless the plow or some insect cut it down. Almost three times the acreage can be tilled, and comparison by experiment station for the past seven years disclose the fact that the South Plains section produces more cotton to the acre than any like section of the state. Then why should not these people have their attention and interest turned to our section. We have one serious drawback—sandstorms—They have several—impoverished land not very good water, all kinds of weeds and grasses that are known to take fields where one is a bit overstocked. As to citizenship, we stand about equal. They have an overwhelming majority of good people, so do we. When we first came to Texas 28 years ago, their citizenship was practically 100 per cent honest, when we came here it was about the same way, but the bad are coming with the good now, and our country is now what it was even ten or fifteen years ago.

We spent about four hours in Dallas Friday afternoon, and it was hot there on October 12th than it ever gets here in June or July. In fact we just about melted and run into our shoes. We only spent one hour in that "canyoned" city, and three at the fair most of which was out around the race track which was more of like the "open spaces" of the plains than anywhere we could find.

Most of the time was spent in the homes of our two brothers, Tom of Fort Worth, who lives upon the Polytechnic Heights, where we got plenty of fresh air, and down with our farmer brother in old Johnson county, part of which time was spent down on the creek gathering pecans. All in all we had a fine time, and feel quite rested although it took us some two or three nights to get caught up with our sleep after returning home.

On returning home, soon after boarding the train at Fort Worth Judge Geo. W. Neill walked out and snatched our old briar out of our hand, and we figured we were going to have to clean up on some tough until we looked up. He had been over to Dallas visiting his sister and the fair, and had suffered too with heat. Well, with the usual foolishness of each of us, we managed to amuse the rest of us during the long ride to Post and on home. He, like us, did not have the price of a "birth" explaining that he had plenty of them

Bond Election Loses By 29 Votes Tuesday

Very little interest seems to have been taken by either side in the election Tuesday for issuing bonds in the sum of $60,000 for paving purposes in Brownfield. If anything, the people against the measure did the most work, as some who were really for the bonds did not vote although on the streets all day. Others who were away made no effort to get back to vote. However, according to the unofficial count some 233 votes were cast in the election, as follows:

Against 131
For 102

We believe by next fall, if conditions are good, the paving program can be put over nicely if those for it will do some work and especially in the way of explaining to the property holders just what the cost will be, how much increase in taxes and other information they are justly entitled to know before voting that amount upon themselves.

In the meantime, we presume we shall still continue to pay high street maintenance taxes for the privilege of running over the bumps in dry weather and pulling mud in wet weather, while progressive people pass us up for more progressive towns. But our people have spoken their sentiments for the time being.

DIED

A well developed little boy baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Whitaker Saturday morning, but the wee bit of humanity was never permitted to draw a breath of life after making his appearance in this world. The little body was prepared for burial and carried to Lamesa Sunday and laid to rest in that cemetery. The mother is doing fine considering the loss of her first born.

HOW TO STAY MARRIED A HUNDRED YEARS

The longest marriage we ever heard of lasted 100 years. It was between a man and wife in Poland and ended the other day when the husband, Leib Feld, died at the age of 125 years.

Far from wanting a divorce, Leib Feld could not get enough of married life. Unlike many married couples of today who are continually trying to break the marriage knot, he was content to accept it as an act of fate and let it stay tied. Even when martial bliss was no longer bliss, he gave word for word and blow for blow to his equally persistent spouse.

In 100 years of married life the number of nights that a husband would stay out late at night and be "blessed out" for it would run into thousands. The number of alibis he would have to offer for this, that and the other thing would be even more. The wife would have many a crying spell. Quarrels followed by delightful making-up would be almost endless.

Doubtless during all his married life, Leib Feld became an extremely experienced husband. He learned when and how to quarrel, and to spank his wife and when not to, to take a blow and how to give one back. His wife learned to absolute perfection when and how to rule her husband and not let him know it.

Maybe the trouble with our married couples today is they don't stick it out like Leib Feld. With the first fight they break and run and then it's all over.

Mr. Claude Neely and wife, a nephew of J. T. Pippin, has returned to Joplin, Mo., after a weeks visit in old Terry. They were well pleased with the looks of our county.

The fair, what we had time to see was fine, also the cities are growing. The only difference in Fort Worth and Dallas is that you can get acquainted with the people in the former, but the latter cares nothing for you except your business, even those with whom you have traded for years. Fort Worth people are westerners and Dallas people are easterners.

Come to Terry, the middle and best portion of the best planet of God's footstool.

No Time For Time— So Don't Ask For It

After a number of years, about 24 we believe, of business in Brownfield, the local telephone company refuses to give the time of day to its subscribers. That has always been the only thing they gave out free of charge, and we suppose that they were afraid they might give a patron the wrong time and he would miss our mixed train that passes through more or less each day. So now us poor fellows that are not able to afford a regulator and forget to wind our watches will have to guess at the time. Or maybe our accommodating system will install a slot machine to drop in a nickel and get the time. Time changes but don't seem to get any better, for instead of free time you will pay for it or do without. It takes too much of the time of the operator to give the time.

It is rumored here that the company that owns the system here now say they will not make any improvements here until the people quit knocking them, so we are putting them on notice right now that this is no knock—not even a noise, and that we'll manage to get our time elsewhere as we did Tuesday morning when informed by an accommodating operator that she was forbidden to give away any more of their time. We got it from Western Union that day—don't know what day they'll chop off our time right behind the foreshoulders. But when they do we'll fall back on the sun from whence our happy ancestors got their unfulfilling time.

Well, says one, you ain't got nothing on anyone; you don't give anything away at the Herald office that I know anything about. Wait a minute lad! Isn't space our stock in trade? Sure. Well, we're giving the local telephone people about five dollars worth of free advertising in this one article. So there.

WE WISH TO SERVE THE PUBLIC AS A NEWSPAPER

The Record has made it plain on numerous occasions that this paper is not a political organ nor a mouth-piece for any individual or concern. We are conducting a newspaper for the whole people of this section and it matters not what they may think of politics or religion we are not going to ridicule or belittle anyone. It is not within the province of a newspaper to undertake to say how our readers should vote or worship God.

There are doubtless clerks working in stores and banks that will vote differently in any political campaign and who go to different churches. Does the store or bank come out strongly condemning those of an opposite faith or following? No, they do not. Well, this newspaper is a business institution that wishes to serve the people as such. We do not propose to drag the columns of this paper down into the mire of political discussion. We do not propose to engage in a mudslinging campaign that could not possibly do anyone any good.

To show our readers how the majority of the newspapers over the county feel about such things we quote from the Albany News in which Dick McCarty, its veteran editor, said "Met a fellow this week, and he said to us, Dick, why don't you get up and tear your shirt in this campaign? Seems to us you are kinder quiet in this campaign? Seems to us you are kinder quiet in this fight—Why, yes, get up and shell the woods and pile it on the opposition, and if you don't folks are going to boycott the News—Boycott us, eh? He has already boycotted us, don't even take the News—and yet he wants us to get up and make a sloop pail out of our paper in a hot political campaign—Not a political rag, we thank you, but a business institution."—Colorado Record.

Cotton Crop Deteriorated Fast of Late

Dallas.—Unquestionable deterioration in the cotton crop during the past five weeks has taken place, according to reports compiled by the Department of Public Relations of the Southland Life Insurance Company.

In this queerest of all cotton seasons, including times at which no two people agreed as to the outlook, general opinion has centered in the belief that the cotton crop will be neither so small to assure prosperity to the state as a whole, nor too large to make possible the securing of a fair price for the product.

Reports received in the last five weeks indicate, without reservation, that rapid deterioration is going on and very probably will continue. This shrinkage of the crop is, of course, due to various reasons—root rot, weevils, hot and dry weather, boll worms, and even slight damage by frost. As far as the general outlook is concerned, however, two factors must be taken into consideration. One of these is the noticeable improvement in the quality of cotton produced this year, especially in north and northeast Texas, and the other fact that acreage this year seems to be producing an unusually large amount of cotton despite deterioration.

Other aspects of Texas' chance for prosperity this fall are extremely bright. The grain crops have been unusually large and profitable; the cattle industry in the extreme western part of Texas is more nearly on its feet than it has been since the war, and sections which have suffered most from near crop failures during the past two years appear to have been the most fortunate this season.

Noticeable spots on the crop map for this month are Dallam, Potter, Randall, and Deaf Smith counties in the Panhandle where the biggest grain crop in history is reported; in the Rio Grande Valley which is producing a one hundred per cent vegetable crop and the gulf counties around Corpus Christi, where weather conditions appear to be extremely favorable for next season.

Any business map of Texas at the present time would be a spotted affair ranging from almost hopeless outlooks to the brightest of prospects. In the main, however, farmers, city folk and business itself believe conditions better than average.

"DEGREES NO NOT MAKE TEACHERS"

The above title as a verbatim quotation from a letter in the Dallas News. The writer, X. Carson, assures us that this is no indictment of teachers, and pays tribute to their sterling qualities, while deploring the mystic vision of school boards, superintendents, and others charged with the selection of teachers, who place a college degree in the front ranks of qualifications.

The point is well taken. To be sure a degree is a sort of certificate of achievement, and a desirable good-luck piece for the young teacher, but it gives no assurance that its holder has other qualifications for teaching than learning. Hear Mr. Carson further:

"Physical excellence, health, courage, firmness, love, sympathy, self-control, brevity of speech are qualifications of a real teacher. "I want, first, a man; second, a teacher; third, a scholar," wrote a superintendent to a college president inquiring for a teacher. Dr. Thomas Arnold's view was similar. He wrote: "What I want is a man who is a Christian and a gentleman, an active man, and one who has common sense and understands boys. I do not so much care about scholarship; well, on second thought, I do care for it, but if one must give way, I prefer activity of mind and interest in his work to high scholarship." When have you read a "teacher wanted" in the News that sounded like these? A country is just what its homes and teachers are."

We commend this to the young teacher, and most of all to those who employ teachers.—Farm and Ranch.

To the 5000 who daily become owners of the new Ford car

THE service obligation of the Ford Motor Company and its dealer organization is now growing at the rate of 5000 cars a day. It is to these new car owners that this message is addressed.

The new Ford is a remarkably fine car for one that costs so little. It is simple in design, constructed of the finest materials, and built to unusually close measurement.

These are the reasons it performs so wonderfully. These are also the reasons its service requirements are so few and the up-keep cost so low.

When you receive your new car, the dealer will explain the simple little things that should be attended to at regular intervals to insure the best performance. He will also tell you something of his own facilities for doing this work promptly and at small cost.

With the purchase of your car, you are entitled to Free Inspection Service by your dealer at 500, 1000 and 1500 miles. This service is due you and we urge you to take full advantage of it. Proper care during this breaking-in period means a great deal to the life of your car.

FORD MOTOR COMPANY

Included in the Free Inspection Service is a check-up of the battery, the generator charging rate, the distributor, the carburetor adjustment, lights, brakes, shock absorbers, tire inflation and steering gear. The engine oil is also changed and chassis lubricated.

No charge whatever is made for labor or materials incidental to this inspection service, except where repairs are necessary because of accident, neglect, or misuse.

The labor of changing the engine oil and lubricating the chassis is also free, although a charge is made for the new oil!

We believe that when you see the good effects of this inspection you will continue to have it done regularly throughout the life of your car.

Wherever you live, you will find the Ford dealer very helpful in keeping your car in good running order for many thousands of miles at a minimum of trouble and expense.

He operates under close factory supervision and has been trained and equipped to do this work promptly, thoroughly and economically.

20 MICE BREED 50 MILLION IN 30 YEARS

New Yorker Makes Specialty of Raising Them.

New York.—To the list of novel occupations in New York add that of David Mayer, the world's champion breeder of white mice.

In the 20 years he has been specializing in this line, he has bred more than 50,000,000 mice for research purposes.

He supplies all the white mice used for experimental work by the New York City board of health, the United States public health service and government hospitals.

His mice are used in the laboratories of most of the schools and colleges in the country. Only recently, on an order from the Royal Society of London, he shipped 30 pairs of white mice to the government hospital at British Guiana.

Most of the governmental experiments with mosquito and yellow fever serum are tried on his mice in the Canal Zone.

His weekly output is between 3,000 and 4,000 mice during the months from September to May.

Flew With Lindy.

From May to September his shipment of mice is about half that number—due to the fact that colleges are closed and many doctors go abroad in the summer.

A pair of white mice flew with Lindbergh when he carried pneumonia serum to Quebec in an attempt to save the life of Floyd Bennett—the serum was to have been tried out on the mice.

Mayer casually regards his odd profession as "simply a study in genetics" and says he "grew up" with the work.

Thirty years ago when he started an experiment with 10 pairs of white mice in his father's animal shop, he was hardly more than a boy and little medical work was done with mice.

With the increase of scientific interest and economic value of mice, has come the development of 50,000,000 mice from the original 10 pairs and the expansion of Mayer to the leader of mice-breeding.

There are only two other big mice breeders in America, one in Philadelphia and another in Kansas, but their work is not as extensive as Mayer's.

His firm is the largest shipper of animals in the world.

Once in a great while, there will be a pure all-black mouse in a litter. This, Mayer says, is a throw-back from perhaps a hundred generations.

Grandfather in Six Weeks.

Mice breed every three weeks—a fact which makes them invaluable for scientific research.

A mouse born today will be a grand father within six weeks, Mayer says.

Besides white mice, he specializes in white rats, also for research work.

He has developed an interesting rat with black eyes—considered a mutant, since all white rats, like the rabbit, belong to the albino group and have pink eyes.

Mayer is the only man in America showing the kangaroo rat—an interesting little brown and white animal with long rear legs and short front ones. He breeds, like the kangaroo, on his hind legs.

One of Mayer's jobs has been that of "professional rat-catcher," employed by steamship companies.

His legs and arms have hundreds of scars from rat bites.

In breeding rats and mice Mayer could not take more trouble if he were bringing up babies.

The rodents have special diets and are fed on balanced rations. If the mice eat stale white bread, water and a solid today, tomorrow their diet will be canned salmon. They need variety, the same as a human being, Mayer says.

They are fed cod liver oil to give a glossy sheen to their coats.

Mayer has tried out vitamin experiments with his mice. With certain foods they reduce, with others they gain weight.

Some rats weigh as much as two pounds—they are considered senile when they reach that weight.

The tremendous economic system of mice-breeding works out so that animals unfit for research work become food for the snakes in the various zoos throughout the country.

Michael Mayer, father of the champion mice-breeder, started his animal business in New York 50 years ago.

He is still in the game and goes to work every day. He is interested in the commercial end and enjoys the reputation of being the oldest man in the animal game in New York.

Napoleon Death Mask Declared Rare Treasure

Chapel Hill, N. C.—A death mask of the Emperor Napoleon, owned by the University of North Carolina, has been placed in a safety deposit vault since an offer to buy it made twelve city officials aware of its value.

The plaster cast of the emperor's features had lain for years unguarded on the desk of the president. When a handsome offer was made for it, research developed that it is one of six made by Dr. Francesco Antommarchi, Napoleon's physician, on the morning after the emperor's death.

Many Centenarians

Moscow.—Of Soviet Russia's population of 146,344,394 there are 24,428 persons listed as one hundred years old or more. The Union has 5,000,000 more women than men.

METHODIST STUDENTS PRE-DOMINATE AT U. of Texas

Austin October.—More students attend the University of Texas than persons of any other religious faith, according to a survey just completed by the University Y. M. C. A.

Approximately 1,635 students in the university belong to the Methodist church or prefer that denomination. Other denominations represented in the survey are Baptists 994, Presbyterians 775, Episcopalians 384, Christians 313, Catholics 247, Jews 187, Lutheran 189, Congregationalists 112, and the Church of Christ 1001.

Members of the different denominations are listed with the addresses and telephone numbers and typed copies of the lists are sent to the pastors of the various churches by the Y. M. C. A. This information enables the leaders of the religious work in the churches to organize their students within a few days after registration.

Tact, after all, is merely thinking of the point of view of others, considering others and saving the feelings of others.

Official paper of Terry County.

It is a distinct shock to the American people to be informed as they have been in recent news stories, that those arch fiends in human form, Loeb and Leopold, will be eligible for parole in seven years. The fact that they were not hanged at the time that they were found guilty of murdering the little Franks boy for no other reason than the "thrill" they hoped to get out of the atrocious deed, is a disgrace to American jurisprudence. It appears that their incarceration in the state prison of Illinois has been no real punishment, since they have been the pampered pets of the officials of the institution and the wealth of their families has kept them provided with the luxuries to which they were accustomed. If there be any honor in the legal profession, certainly it should resent the implication of Clarence Darrow, attorney for Leopold and Loeb, when he said that no lawyer could afford to lose a case. According to his interpretation of his profession, right and justice have nothing to do with the matter. It is imply up to the criminal lawyer to win and it is a part of the game to use whatever means necessary to achieve that end. Few Americans are optimistic enough to believe that by the time another seven years roll around, the governor of Illinois, whoever he may be, will refuse to open the gates of Joliet to these two notorious criminals and thereby pave the way for more and more such crimes. Certainly, there has been a great increase in the number of kidnapping cases in which the children taken were murdered since the exploit of the Chicago youths was given such widespread publicity, and the newspapers of the country will have to share with the lawyers, the stigma of contributing to the cause of the criminal element in publishing the maudlin stuff that filled their columns during the progress of the trial. And now we hear that efforts are being made to prevent the execution of Hickman, kidnapper and murderer of little Marian Parker, who is to pay the supreme penalty this week. What possible excuse could be produced for putting the taxpayers of California to further expense in endeavoring to protect themselves from such cruel and inhuman characters is not apparent but the fact remains that there are lawyers who will do anything to defeat the ends of justice. If there be a crime in the entire category that should receive swift, sure and severe punishment, it is the stealing of helpless little children. It is impossible to conceive of anything that might be construed as "extenuating circumstances" in the perpetration of this most cowardly and despicable crime. Full well does the kidnapper know the anguish to which he is subjecting the parents of his victim and he plays upon it deliberately. Surely there can be no legitimate defense for such an act and it is a disgrace to humanity that such crimes are possible—a shame that cries to heaven for an avenger, that it is becoming so difficult for the public to protect itself from such utterly heartless and depraved criminals.—Southwest Plainsman.

"A Good Bank—Soundly Managed"

Three constitutional amendments will be voted upon in Texas the sixth of November in the general election. All three should be approved by the voters, as they are necessary to the welfare of the state. The amendments were published in the Chief several weeks ago. It is a well known fact that the State of Texas has a bad reputation of voting against all amendments to the constitution. They should make no mistake this year, according to the Canyon News and support all of the proposed amendments.—Miami Chief.

Well, you know Bro. Haynes that lots of folks now think any change in our constitution means their nullification, so let the folks vote 'em down. What was good enough for our fathers is good enough for us. They are sacred documents and must not be changed even if a change would be highly beneficial both morally and financially.

We saw a man this week who said that while he aimed to vote for Smith, he aimed to speak to his Hoover friends after the election. So far as we know, there has been no campaign speeches delivered in Terry county, and we hope none will be, and at the close of the campaign our people will be the better off. In adjoining counties the stump speakers of both sides have been busy, and as a consequence the people are all torn up and mad at each other and perhaps not a vote has been changed.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE

STATE OF TEXAS
COUNTY OF TERRY
By virtue of an Order of Sale issued out of the District Court of Terry County, Texas, September 21, 1928, in a judgment rendered August 28, 1928, in favor of T. B. Duggan against E. L. TURNING FEED INTO DOLLARS

A profitable winter may be spent by thousands of farmers in converting their beef calves of the last crop into baby beefs to sell next Spring, points out G. W. Barnes, beef cattle specialist in the A. and M. College Extension Service. "While it is true that good feeder calves are hard to buy, it is also true that many farmers have a few head on hand and these animals will provide an excellent market for the farm feed crop.

and 3/4 pound of cotton seed meal daily. At the end of that time the feed should be increased to give six pounds daily of ground maize heads or corn and cob meal, eight pounds of hay and one pound of cottonseed meal. As the Winter advances the daily ration should be increased so that calves will receive all that they can clean up. A finished baby beef should command highest prices in the Spring and feeders may make a profit both on the animal and on the feed consumed."

"Weaned calves weighing around 350 pounds may well be fed for 30 days on a ration composed of four pounds of ground maize heads or corn and cob meal, seven pounds of hay

MEN WHO FOUGHT IT OUT FOR SMITH

Dallas.—It has frequently been observed during the progress of the present national political campaign that the young men and the young women of the country are predominantly in favor of Governor Alfred E. Smith. They believe that he and the Democratic party are more in tune with the times and better prepared by broad sympathies to cope with the problems that confront the nation than is the reactionary Republican party with "its ostrich head in the sand."

Texas had opportunity this week to discover that the men who are approaching the zone of middle age are the men who ten years ago this fall were deep in the mud and muck of France finishing the war in a blaze of glory—are overwhelmingly for Alfred E. Smith for president. Great train loads of delegates to the National Convention of the American Legion held at San Antonio came through Dallas and stopped for a few hours. It mattered not where they came from. They hit the ground yelling hurrahs for Al Smith and with their bands playing "The Sidewalks of New York." The delegations from Oregon and Pennsylvania where Republicanism is as much the rule as Democracy is in Texas were loudest in their shouts for "The Happy Warrior."

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Kyle from Pool's ranch took his mother home who has been here visiting them and spent the week end in Sweetwater with relatives.

152 TONS OF PAPER USED IN FAIR EDITION

The average yield of paper pulp timber from seventy acres of land was required to print the annual State Fair edition of the Dallas Morning News, issued Sunday, which has brought to the publishers favorable comment from many parts of the state.

This edition of The News was one of the largest ever printed in Dallas, consisting of 204 pages in nineteen sections, each copy weighing nearly three pounds. It was produced in The News plant without interruption of the daily publication of several editions of The News, The Journal and the Semi-Weekly Farm News.

Paper used amounted to 274 rolls, weighing in the aggregate 315,955 pounds, or approximately 157½ tons, and the printing required the use of 6,207 pounds of ink. This paper and ink would fill nine freight cars. The paper was manufactured from approximately 209 cords of wood, cut in large part from Canadian forests. The average yield of pulp wood per acre is three cords.

One hundred and ten thousand copies of the edition were printed.—Semi-Weekly Farm News.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harred, Saturday a fine girl. Both mother and baby doing nicely.

So the two had their sodas and were departing when the manager asked what the wager was.

"Well," said the spokesman, "my friend George bets that when that iron tower on the top of the new Penobscot Building falls, it will topple over on the Dime Bank Building and I bet it won't."

WHERE'S ALL OUR PEP!

Just watch the star football player of any school. How eager he is in the fray, how anxious to bring home the honors for his school team! No hardship is too difficult, no act too risky for him if he has the backing of the school. We have the greatest fuel for sportsmanship than we have ever had and let's don't let our two able yell leaders wear themselves out. Get in there and help our boys "hold that line" by rooting for them, not just at the beginning of the game, but thru every quarter and in every way.

The Brownfield "Farmerettes" were the best we have heard in a long, long time. The more their team lost, the louder they yelled and boys they could yell. Our boys and girls were entirely obliterated when the Farmerettes got under way. It wasn't the fault of our yell leaders either. We think they are the very best and they worked harder than many leaders we have had in many a day, but somehow the girls and boys just didn't deem it necessary to "holler" but every thirty minutes or so. We ask you—Is that showing true sportsmanship?

Let's make our "pep" squad" the best on the plains. We can do it, so during the next game which will be with O'Donnell, Friday, try just a little harder to be what your yell leaders would have you to be.—Post Dispatch.

INTOLERANCE

After all it must be admitted that a man's religion is largely dependent on fortuitous circumstances. If we are born of Protestant parents, the chances are we shall be Protestants. If friend Norris had been born of Jew. It must be admitted that all religions have much the same object—a better world here and a brighter hereafter. The Pope is probably not a crafty, scheming diplomat, obsessed with the dream of dominion over the whole world. More likely he is a tired old man, bound by an ancient tradition, oppressed with an enormous responsi-

Al E. Smith may think some change in the Eighteenth Amendment advisable; but he is not therefore a drunkard, unfitted for the Presidency. Let us fight our battles on principles not personalities, on reason not prejudice, with argument, not abuse. We are all in the world together, and probably all destined to the same mysterious hereafter. The fierce lambent flames of hell that spare the good Baptist will not, we think, scorch the faithful Hindoo. At least we hope not—no constitution could stand them!

For our part we frankly admit that in choosing Hoover the Republican party have selected about the best man in their party. We have nothing to say against Hoover except that he is a Republican. Why cannot our friends on the other side be equally fair and say that the only thing they have against Smith is that he is a Democrat?—Lamesa Journal.

Christian Endeavor Sponsors Sight Seeing Trip

The Sight Seeing Trip over the United States that was given Saturday night under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor was certainly a success judging from the number who took the trip and the interest in the places visited.

The first place visited was the Mayo Clinic at the home of Mrs. M. V. Brownfield. Everything was in keeping with the medical idea, doctors being Murphy May and Ray Brownfield with Misses Pauline Hunter, Marion Hill and Katherine Holgate as nurses. To those who were sick (does of castor oil (pineapple juice) were prescribed to some and the electric vibrator to others.

The second stop was at Mexico at Mrs. F. M. Ellington's. Every conceivable Mexican touch that could be arranged for was employed. Senoritas Florence Holt, Lenore Brownfield, Vivian and Winnie Clare and Ilene Ellington served Cocoa Cola amid colorful decorations to the tune of native airs.

The Carlsbad Caverns at Mrs. H. W. McSpadden's were next visited. This was very realistic as the caverns formerly were. Rooms were darkened and candles were used, Steps were climbed and in some places the tourists were forced to crawl. Cotton hanging from the ceiling were make believe stalactites. Sandwiches were served here.

Then the circus was visited at Mrs. W. H. Dallas'. The big tent was set up on the lawn. The troupe included Misses Kathaleen Alexander and Eunice Michie and Clyde Dallas and Billie McGowan as the fancy bicycle riders; Misses Lucille McSpadden, Virginia May and Mattie Jo Gracey, the toe dancers; Miss Roselle Goodpasture accompanied by her father on the banjo did athletic stunts; Miss Quilla Graham was the fat woman and Bobbie Lewis, the fat man; Miss Queenelle Sawyer and Wendel Rowe Smith were the rope walkers and Billie Jo McGowan, Clyde Dallas, Wendel Rowe Smith and Boyd Moore were the clowns. Candy and peanuts were served by circus ladies; Misses Lataine Eicke, Mary Handley Endersen and Martha McClish. The announcer was Miss Bernice Carpenter.

Bride Is Honoree At Shower

Mrs. Bynie White, who was Miss Nellie Flache before her marriage in September, was the honoree Monday when Mrs. B. D. DuBois assisted by Mrs. J. L. Cruce and Mrs. S. L. McDonald entertained with a miscellaneous shower.

Pretty autumn flowers were used in decoration. As the guests arrived, they wrote their names in the bride's book. Contests were enjoyed and then "Home" by Edgar A. Guest was read by Mrs. Boone Hunter. Mrs. McDonald read the toast (written by Mrs. W. G. Hardin) to the bride:

"N is for newest, our bride of today,

E is for each wish we give.

L is for love to smooth your path-way—

I is for luck, to help you to live.

I is for interest we pledge you always

Every day of each year, thou sweet bride of today."

Mrs. Ike Bailey then gave a toast (written by Mrs. Roy Wingerd) to the girls left behind:

"If it's true each girl is fishing

As I'm sure the old rhymus run

Then one girl to day is happy

For her hardest task is done.

And the others who were fishing

Gather round to hear her tell

Just exactly how she did it—

For they know that she's done well.

Since it's true each girl is fishing

May your bait be sweet with smiles,

Happiness be your best suckers

And your line be long with wiles,

Hook and pole be joy and beauty,

That in future none may say

That you let one single victim

Of the fish tribe get away."

Little Miss Margene Griffin and El Ray Lewis presented the many pretty and useful gifts to the bride.

Mrs. Cruce was in charge of the punch bowl.

Mr. and Mrs. White are living in Carlsbad, New Mexico and have been here visiting her parents.
