CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The annual meeting of the chamber of commerce was had at the Hotel Brownfield, Friday night and while it was perhaps the best attended of any within the last three years, there was about one-third of the membership not present. Those who were not there missed an excellent meal and some very fine music, aside from the fact that accomplishments of the year and those planned for the coming year were made known and would have been right interesting. In the absence of President Graves, vice-president Hurst took the chair and commented upon results obtained and was afterward followed by the secretary who entered into a detailed explanation of activities undertaken. Among which was securing a county agricultural agent, I. H. C. Farm Short Course; attendance upon Pink Boll Worm Convention at Sweetwater and Lamesa, preventing Terry county from being included in the area; attended district convention of West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Lamesa with band and large delegation; attended West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention at Fort Worth and distributing literature; attended highway meetings at Rotan, Post, Carlsbad, Seminole and Odessa; attended Farm Short Course at College Station, distributed literature; luncheon served 4H clubs upon occasion of receipt of registered pigs; secured removal of more than 300 bushels of cotton seed from county that had been bootlegged in by a seed breeder from an infested county; assisted in putting over American Legion July celebration; wrote over 800 news articles; distributed 2,000 booklets concerning the town and county; Prepared and had printed 3,000 descriptive booklets; distributed several hundred U. S. Department of Agriculture booklets; secured cotton pickers; change in schedule of mail from Post, which arrives more than an hour earlier; special trip to Fort Worth in connection of establishment of seven day mail service between Brownfield and Roswell; assisted Santa Fe on Seagraves extension; prepared bill and sent to Austin calling for establishment of experiment station for this section; asked support of following laws: Utility rates control; Waiver of car tag purchase for non-residents; assisted in putting over best county fair in history. Other activities of importance to the section were entered into but are not mentioned upon account of taking up too much space.

The chamber of commerce is the heart of any town and its citizens should take an active interest in it and attend its meetings whenever possible. The present chamber of commerce year closes March 1st. Let's all of us resolve to assist its officials and make this year the most successful of any heretofore. The following editorials reflect the sentiment of other towns toward their organizations and they should be the attitude of our town.

C. of C. Means "Something Doing" (Kermit, Texas Tribune)

One striking feature of West and Northwest Texas newspapers is the frequency with which there appears in the headings a couplet that signifies the motivating influence behind the very remarkable development recorder in the news columns.

How many of us have noticed that among all the words, phrases and combinations of words, none appears so frequently as the couplet "C. of C." employed as an abbreviation for Chamber of Commerce?

Every time we see "C. of C." in a newspaper heading, or "Chamber of Commerce," for which it stands, there is denoted a community purpose, plan, proposal or activity.

No live town is without its active commercial body, and the publications active in community affairs play up that organization to the fullest extent.

If a business man or citizen is looking about for evidence that the commercial organizations are responsible for the development on every hand, he need look no further than the daily or weekly chronicles of events in a

Big Chain Store Co. Leases Building Here

Mr. O. J. Green, representing the Acorn Stores, Inc., was a visitor in our fine city Monday. Mr. Green, we understand, resides in Lubbock, but seems to be district representative for this section of West Texas, the headquarters of the company being in New York City. While here Mr. Green closed a contract with Dock Powell for his large mercantile building on the southwest corner of the square, in which this big company will open a department store on or soon after March first.

The building is 48x60 feet, contains an extra large balcony and a 25x40 foot basement. Mr. Powell informed us that he would do considerable remodeling in the building, including placing of plate glass in front instead of the present window arrangement.

The Acorn Store, Inc., are too well known to most people to need comment from us, but for the information of those who have never lived in or near our larger towns and cities, we will state that they seldom enter a town of less than 5,000 people, but seeing the future possibilities of Brownfield, as well as the present large but only partially developed trade territory, they have decided to cast their lot in our city and develop as the section develops.

These people now have upwards of 2100 stores in the United States and stand up in capital wealth favorably with such chain store companies as Woolworth, Kress and others. They handle a general line of dry goods, notions, etc., as well as 5 and 10c counters.

The Herald joins the other business interests of the city in welcoming this big store to our city to help us in developing the greatest section on earth.

Taboka Man in Car Wreck Here Sunday

A gentleman about thirty years of age, by the name of McClure, whose residence was said to have been at Taboka, wrecked his car, a new Ford, out on the Plains road Sunday afternoon, about three o'clock, that not only damaged his car considerably, but badly hurt the driver, who was the only occupant. The wreck happened out about the Sawyer place, we understand.

He was brought in and attended by a local physician, who stated that both shoulders were broken. He was fixed up in the best shape possible for traveling, as he wanted to go on home.

A gentleman right behind him informed us that McClure was a new driver, and although not making more than thirty miles per hour, seemed to have lost control when he hit a small sand bed in the road, wobbled from one side of the road to the other, suddenly applied the brakes, and rolled over. It is said that McClure was not drinking.

Announcing a Change In Business Relations

As announced in the news columns of this paper, I have purchased the Holgate stock in the Holgate-Endersen Hardware Co., Inc., and will be actively associated in the hardware and implement business with the other members of the old firm, namely, A. W. (Albert) Endersen and H. M. (Dube) Pyeatt.

Enough said to assure our customers that they will in the future as in the past be given "Goods and Service."

I wish to express to my friends my sincere appreciation for the business accorded me while I was engaged in banking, and to extend them a cordial invitation to visit me at the store in my new field of endeavor.

W. A. Bell.

EMBARRASSING MOMENT

A barber was shaving a new customer. "Haven't I shaved you before?" said he.

"No," said the customer, "I got those scars in France."

Rev. Cooper and Party Begin Revival Meeting

Evangelist L. L. Cooper, and his party began a "Stewardship Revival" Wednesday, February 20 at the First Baptist church. The Evangelist is a specialist in this phase of the church work. He stresses practical Christianity. He advocates and practices business methods in church finances and enlargement. He makes no attempt to parade pulpit eloquence or oratory. He avoids set customs, and "stunts" that some evangelists use. He preaches the plain gospel and magnifies the work and leadership of the Holy Spirit, depending on God to do the drawing of men and women into the Kingdom of Heaven.

Evangelist Cooper is accompanied by Mrs. Cooper, who gives vivid chalk talks, depicting the truth of the gospel message at each service. These pictures have attracted a great deal of attention where-ever Mrs. Cooper has given them, and wonderfully reinforces the messages brought by her husband. Mrs. Cooper will draw these pictures every evening just before her husband preaches.

JOE MILLER, Personal Worker

Bro. Joe Miller, the third member of the Evangelistic party, is secretary and personal worker. He is a young man of sterling worth, and is proving himself to be of great value to the meeting.

The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

SO ARTISTIC

Caller: What a cozy little breakfast room—and the wall is so artistically splattered.

Mrs. Depew: Yes, this where my George eats his grapefruit.

Last Boxing Bout Here Great Sporting Event

The largest crowd that has ever jammed the Legion Hall at a sporting event was on hand last Thursday night at the third monthly athletic contest. They were not only there from every section of Terry county, but from the adjoining towns and counties, and although the writer was unable to attend on account of trying to get the Herald out on the routes in time for Friday morning, from the cheers coming from the Legion hall more than a block away, and the screams of laughter, together with comment for the several following days, all favorable, we did not need to ask the managers if any one wanted their money back.

The boxing events of the evening were, Whitaker of Seminole vs. Lucky Pace of this city. This, we understand was to have been a four round bout, but was stopped when a misunderstanding arose between the contestants, and it was reported to have been well matched and a good fight. The battle royal then took place in a free for all knock down and drag out staged by five of our sturdy school boys. It was reported to have been a scream from start to finish.

The last event of the evening was a wrestling event between T. G. Beauchamp, of Stamford, and Luther Jones a local boy. This was a hard fought and interesting contest, and said to have been worth the price of admission alone. The decision was given to the Stamford man.

It is said that with the exception of one or two of the contestants getting slightly miffed, that no better sporting event could have been seen outside the larger cities, and fans are looking forward to the one next month.

Sheriff Mon. Telford Returns With Prisoners

Sheriff Mun Telford and former sheriff, Frosty Ellington, returned Monday noon from Port Arthur, Texas, bringing with them a man and girl who are alleged to have left here together some two or three months ago. The officers stated that they were living in the home of a relative of the man.

The Herald stated last week on what it considered good authority that the couple were living as man and wife, but this statement seemed to have been made without being confirmed, and not wanting to hurt anyone's feelings or report anything falsely, especially under such circumstances, the Herald is glad to make a correction this week.

The couple were lodged in jail here awaiting further action of the authorities. We also wish to state, according to the father of the girl, that the wife of the man has not been here since last summer, but they seem to have just had letters from her.

'M' System Installs Kelvinator Cooling Plant

The 'M' System grocery and market has just completed the installation of the very latest system of keeping their fresh meats and other perishable foods in prime order, a brand new, late model Kelvinator made especially for meat markets. It takes the place of an out of date cooling system that while good a few years ago is now obsolete.

This progressive firm, determined to have the best and the latest made this change in order to better serve their trade, although the cost was great, yet there will follow a saving in the way of better and longer preserving of foods, not to mention a great saving on cost of operation. The new cooling system was purchased through and installed by the local Kelvinator dealers, Hudgens & Knight.

Davis Reports More Good Bulls Bought

Messrs. L. C. Green, L. L. Brock and G. W. Laker of the Union community and Mr. W. H. Black and others of Gomez have placed orders with the Santa Gertrudias Jersey Farms at Kingsville for two fine registered Jersey bulls. These bulls coming from this famous King ranch herd of Jerseys represent some of the best blood that has ever been brought to Texas. They have laid the foundation of their herd with imported bulls that cost them up to $30,000.00 each, and with some of the best cows that were to be had. These bulls will be out of cows that have register of merit butter fat records and they will raise the milk and butter fat production of the herds in these communities. Other communities should interest themselves in getting good bulls before spring.

Some registered Jersey neifers from the Taft ranch will probably be secured making a car of heifers and bulls. The county agent is assisting the farmers in selecting these animals and anyone who is interested in buying good Jerseys should see him by Saturday of this week.

Bell Sells Bank Stock— Buys in Hardware

A deal of unusual interest was consummated last week when W. A. Bell, pioneer banker of this section, disposed of the major part of his interests in the First National Bank of Brownfield. Joe Lane of Roswell, New Mexico becomes a large shareholder in the First National Bank through his purchase of the Bell stock in that institution.

Mr. Lane needs no introduction to the people of this community, having lived here up until a few years ago when he moved to Roswell. He is one of the largest individual cattle operators in New Mexico and is rated among the wealthiest men in this section.

Mr. Bell will remain a member of the Board of Directors of the bank but will be actively engaged in the hardware business, having purchased the Holgate interests in the Holgate-Endersen Hardware Company of this city.

The officers of the bank will remain the same with the exception of Mr. Bell. R. M. Kendrick is President of the institution; W. R. McDuffie, cashier and Jake Hall, assistant cashier.

Big Electric Hen is Strutting Her Stuff

The big electric hen at the Chisholm store is now busy on a large batch of future denizens of Terry county farm yards. They are, however, not pushing the big wooden biddy to full capacity right on the jump go, for they do not want 15,000 chicks on their hands at one time to care for, but at week intervals they are putting some four thousand eggs under the old biddy, and of course they will come off the same way.

This is an exclusively electric machine, all fans and other moving parts being operated electrically, and even the heat is supplied the same way. This is said to be better than any other method as it does not require such close attention, and gives more even heat and service.

Mr. Chisholm informed us that he was purchasing most of his eggs from the Dixie Poultry Farm at Brenham, Texas, where he was getting certified eggs from a reputable breeder of blooded chickens at a reasonable price, and that he in turn would pass this on to their customers. "I want to see the farms of Terry county covered with the best breeds of laying chickens it is possible to obtain," said Mr. Chisholm. "The better the breeds the more it will mean to us and every other business firm in the city, not to mention how much more the farmer will cash in on."

Beauty Shop Installs Permanent Machine

Among the very latest of equipment to be found in town is at the Dollene Beauty Shop, a Dixie permanent wave machine.

Since moving into the rear of Baldwin's store Mrs. Sudduth, where she has more room, has added to her shop quite a bit of improvement in modern equipment, and is now ready to take care of her patron's every want. We bespeak for her a large share of the permanent wave and in this trade territory. She had four years of experience. She has had four years of experience and is very capable in her line of work. Note her ad in this issue of the Herald.

Brownfield Girls' Team Has Good Season

At the beginning of the season a number of the girls met and organized the High School Girl's Basket Ball Club. Mae Holgate was elected captain and Miss Patterson was chosen coach.

Due to the flu epidemic several games were called off early in the season. The first game was played with Ropes, the score being 28-25 in Brownfield's favor. Before the county tournament, games were played with Meadow, Gomez, O'Donnell and Seagraves. The club was victorious in all these games except with Seagraves to which it lost by three points.

Last Saturday the girls went to Ropes for the tournament determined to bring back the title. In the preliminaries with Forrester, Brownfield copped the victory by a 22-8 score. And again the victory was theirs in the semi-finals with Tokio 45-24. Brownfield then met Meadow in the final clash. Both teams went on the floor for a hard game, and both demonstrated good playing; but Brownfield took the title 28-8.

For the championship credit goes to Mae and Phyllis Holgate, Christova Sawyer, Lucille Jones, Frances and Bernice Carpenter, Dora Dean Neill, Rozelle Goodpasture and Josephine Lee. As forwards Lucille and Christova proved themselves capable of their task. They were not only accurate through long hours of practice, but developed team work that was seldom broken. Mae and Phyllis were unsurpassed in the center. Their ability in passing the ball was commended by spectators at every game. Much responsibility rests with the guards in preventing opponents from scoring. Dora Dean, Rozelle, and Frances assumed this responsibility and were very successful. Bernice and Josephine were ready on all occasions to take their places on the floor, and played in more than half the games.

During the season the club scored 225 points to their opponents 116. Miss Patterson says that the girls have not only been successful in winning games, but also in developing a sense of co-operation, excellent conduct in sportsmanship, and have learned many other valuable things that would make the season worthwhile even if the games had been lost.

SUN, WIND, RAIN SLOWLY CRUMBLE OLD FORT DAVIS

FORT DAVIS, Texas, Feb. 14.—Old Fort Davis, established in 1854, and garrisoned with troops to guard gold trains and other commerce between El Paso and San Antonio, is slowly wasting away, guarded only by a government caretaker.

Its abandoned adobe buildings, resting under the paws of the Crouching Lion, a mountain at the side of this milehigh town, have seen much history in the making. In early days there were Indian fights with the Apaches, the Lipans and the Comanches. Many soldiers were killed, as were large numbers of Indians.

The fort was abandoned in 1861, reoccupied in 1867, and finally abandoned in 1891. It was located here because of the abundance of water in Limpia creek, which is crossed fifteen times in four miles by the highway between this place and Ballinger.

SEAGRAVES AREA HARVESTS RECORD CROPS THIS YEAR

SEAGRAVES, Feb. 9.—This territory is harvesting its largest corn crop. Approximately 150 carloads of corn have been shipped this season with approximately 100 carloads stacked on the ground for future shipments and 50 carloads remaining in the fields.

With a reasonably good cotton crop and a good price, together with the bumper corn crop and favorable price, the farmers of Seagraves trade territory are in excellent condition.

Some farmers have purchased a moldboard heavy plow, such as are used in the Rio Grande valley for clearing land, and are doing deep plowing, on an average of 14 inches, throwing up the clay, mixing with the sand and making a better soil. This experiment was successful last year, causing corn and cotton to produce one third more.

The corn industry is becoming too large here to be handled from the farmers' wagons to the freight cars. One or two large grain elevators are badly needed, and will probably be built this year.

Mrs. Oden Cardwell and Mrs. G. C. Green of Magdalena, N. M., are here visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Corning.

Miss Flora Mae Proctor of Tokio sent in her dollar this week for the Herald. She is a new reader.

S. A. LAUDERDALE PASSES

The city was again shocked last Friday when it was generally learned that S. A. Lauderdale, 39, had passed away at the family residence at about 9:30 Thursday night. He had been confined to his bed for sometime with some kind of stomach trouble, the nature of which seemed to be puzzling even to his physicians, and death came rather suddenly and unexpectedly.

The body was prepared by Roy Collier of the Brownfield Undertaking Co., and first carried to the Baptist church where funeral services were conducted at 10 o'clock Friday morning by his pastor, Rev. E. V. May under auspices of the Odd Fellows, of which deceased was a prominent and faithful member. The body was then carried to Snyder, Texas, where burial was made at 3:30 beside the grave of his mother.

Mr. Lauderdale was a hard working, conscientious citizen, and he built up a good drayage business by strict attention to it. We also understand he left quite a snug sum in paid up insurance to his loved ones.

He is survived by his faithful wife and five children, two boys and three little girls. His father also resides here and attended the funeral.

BALL GAME

We were visited last Thursday by the Harmony basketball teams. Two games were played. One between the boys and one between the girls. The boy's score was 9-12 in Brownfield's favor; the girls score was 18-16 in favor of Harmony. It seems like it helps our boys to play on their own court. And probably the reason our girls lost was because Lataine got a lication but he did not say so.

E-B OSBORNE GRAND DETOUR

TEXAS WOMAN LEADS LARGE UNDERTAKING

From Washington has come report that Mrs. Phebe K. Warner, as chairman of the rural co-operation committee of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, has undertaken the task of organizing the 6,000,000 farm women of the Nation, and quotes this Texas woman as having voiced belief that the power set in motion by such organization "would do more to bring about economic justice and rural prosperity than all the Legislature could ever do," says The Dallas Journal.

That is no overestimate of the possibilities. The effort will promise more than the awakening of rural womanhood. It will promise as well an awakening of the women of the towns and cities, and the development of an understanding of rural conditions and problems that has not existed heretofore.

It is a stupendous undertaking.

But if the Nationwide organization can be effected, this indefatigable and able woman from the Panhandle of Texas is the one person to direct the undertaking successfully. Mrs. Warner has devoted many years of her life to a study of conditions in the rural sections of her part of Texas, and, more recently, in all parts of the Nation. She has given proof of interest and understandings in her writings and addresses, and in her intimate association with rural citizens. She has won national recognition through service, and as a helpful and constructive factor, and with it large opportunity. W-W FEED GRINDER

HAMMER-TYPE

YOU pour good dollars down the manger when you feed unground grains and roughage. For one-third of the value of unground feed lies in the stalks and stems which livestock leaves untouched.

Stop that waste! A W-W Feed Grinder turns alfalfa, snapped or ear corn, oats, maize heads, fodder, bundle feed, etc., into valuable mixed-feed that goes a third further. Grinds and mixes everything from the ground up with lightning speed—separately or together.

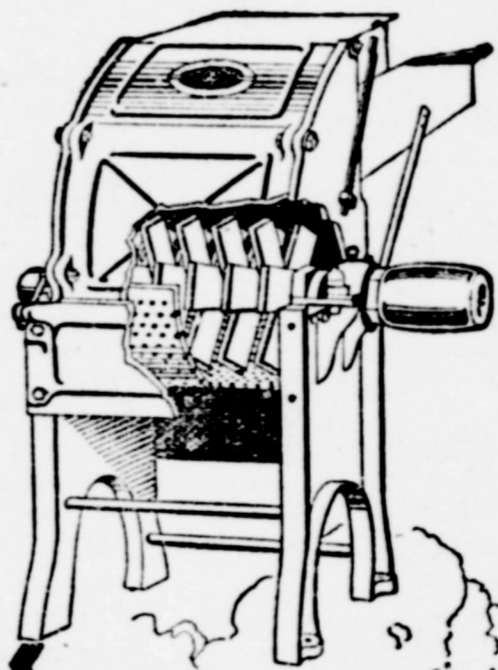

Thousands of farmers everywhere are cutting production costs with a W-W. Built for tremendous capacity and a lifetime of hard wear, the W-W has become recognized as the world's greatest feed grinder. Powerful steel hammers do the work! No burrs, gears or knives to break or give trouble.

A W-W to fit every farm. Six sizes —elevator, blower or self-feeder. All equipped with Timken Tapered Bearings —Alemite-Zerk lubrication —Rockwood pulleys.

Come in and examine this wonderful grinder. We will gladly give you a W-W demonstration right on your farm.

WARNING TO WEST TEXAS ON PLANTING PECAN TREES

FORT WORTH (WTCC)—A warning to West Texas farmers contemplating pecan planting, that trees which have been bred to high rainfall conditions will not develop properly in West Texas has been issued by Col. R. L. Penick, chairman of the Agricultural Committee of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

The West Texas organization, conducting an extensive pecan planting campaign at this time, advises planters to be constantly on their guard against any trees which were not developed for comparatively dry climates.

Col. Penick stated that many West Texas farmers have been interested in planting pecans to the extent that they have bought a few trees for experimental purposes and were very much disappointed when they died. This failure of the trees to live was because they had been raised in a climate where from 60 to 70 inches of rain fell each year and were planted in a climate which averaged 20 inches of rainfall per year.

The western varieties have smaller leaves than the eastern varieties and require less water. Reputable western nurserymen sell no other kind.

Originally the West Texas Chamber of Commerce undertook to distribute one thousand trees at very nominal prices but a new deal whereby all orders for trees during the season can be filled has been made. The orders will be received at the headquarters office at Stamford for Halberts, Nuggetts, Burketts and Succom, all proved western varieties.

KING COTTON MOVES WEST

Reporting on cotton crop conditions in the Eastern States of the South for the year just closed, the correspondent of The Cotton Digest writes his paper, under a Greensboro, N. C., dateline:

"Poor Old King Cotton! The South's once boasted king was supplanted this year by tobacco, which last year in our State took second place, and we are not afraid to predict that it will shortly do likewise in South Carolina, Georgia and other Southern States, leaving the cotton growing to Oklahoma and Texas. Should Texas alone learn to raise half a bale per acre with 20,000,000 acres, all planted, worked and picked by machinery, we Carolinians cannot compete with those wonderful States and their many possibilities."

The Star-Telegram has pointed out before that the inevitable trend of cotton production is toward the open lands of the West, where large-scale use of labor-saving machinery is possible. And in the same degree that Texas and Oklahoma as units possess the advantage over the cotton States to the East, West Texas possesses the advantage over the remainder of the State.

The pressure of economic factors is making itself felt in cotton production. Cotton not only will bring a generally better price to the farmer as world demand grows with the years but the area of production will tend to become localized and restricted where production is most economical. Right now, in the high, dry lands of West Texas, where the ruinous pests of other regions are tamed almost to innocuousness, and where it is possible for one man, with the use of machines, to tend 10 acres to everyone for the traditional "man and a mule" of the patchwork farms of the "older" cotton States, the staple can be produced at a profit in a year of low prices that mean bankruptcy for farming under the old methods.

In such circumstances, it is merely talk when people discuss the possibility of abandoning cotton growing entirely in West Texas. Here is the future home of King Cotton, but, through the employment of intelligence and thrift on the part of the new realm, the monarch will be enthroned as a benefactor instead of as the tyrant and taskmaster he has been in other regions. West Texas is learning—indeed has learned—the lesson of balanced farm production. It has found that the farm which is fortified with multiple resources not only is the best equipped to withstand the disaster of a poor cotton year but is also best situated to get the full advantage of a good cotton year. NEW CROP EACH YEAR

A Danville, Illinois, newspaper recently was printed on paper made from corn stalks. If a person had said five or ten years ago that such a thing were possible he would hardly have received an audience with reasonable men.

There are plenty of corn stalks in the world, and a new crop can be produced each year. That's where it has an advantage over wood-pulp. There's room for a substitute for wood in the making of newsprint.

AMUSEMENT NEEDED

Men, for their own protection, have been forced to be cruel to the leper, not out of desire to be cruel, but because there was nothing left to do.

Lately, however, there has been an awakening interest in how to care for the leper. The first attempt, of course has been to find a cure. The second is to find amusement, at least momentary relief for him.

Doctors are attending to the first. The moving picture is meeting the requirements of the second.

Official paper of Terry County.

Not only have our people responded well as to renewals to their home paper, but many more than usual have come in to get us to order farm papers for them. This shows a trend toward better farming that augurs for good of the whole section. A local paper cannot cover the ground these papers cover, and the Herald is glad to see our people buy and read agricultural journals.

Doggone 'em as old man Henderson at Shreveport would say, we thought they'd come to it. The Yankees used to make a lot of fun at us Southerners because we insisted on saying "you-all" instead of "you'uns." Now, all of the broadcasting station announcers from Cincinnati to San Francisco, from St. Louis to Chicago say our fine old "you-all," and you can almost detect that smooth, slow, southern drawl when they use the word. Automobiles and radios are knocking the sectional dialects out of English as we American speak 'er.

With the notices Brownfield and Terry county are getting from the public generally further east and north, we should make a supreme effort to keep our Chamber of Commerce functioning to its full limit, and this means that EVERY business institution in the city must get behind our Chamber of Commerce and its active officials and give them all the encouragement possible. A report of the annual meeting is printed in this issue. Read it and if you are not a member turn in your application to the secretary at once. Don't always ride your best friends and neighbors. Help bear your share of the upbuilding of this section.

Recently a statement was published by authority of the Texas Division of the American Legion, stating they were sponsoring a bill in the legislature making it mandatory to fly the "American Legion Flag" on every public school building. They write us to make correction of the above which seemed to have been made by the one who mimographed the article, and state that instead they intended to say that the "American Flag" be flown from public school buildings. Well, his puts an entirely different face on the matter, and all will agree that such a law should be enacted. Let's make our children proud of and respectors of our flag, and also teach them all the ethics of the flag.

Thomas L. Blanton, who has long been the stormy petrel of Congress, is closing his lawmaking career, and will return to private life in a few weeks. But as a final play Mr. Blanton staged a fight with a Republican Congressman a few days ago. Tom said something was true, the Republican said it wasn't true. Tom handed the Republican the book containing the proof, and the Republican hit Tom in the face with the book. About that time the combatants were separated, otherwise Tom would have scattered that Republican all over the floor and mused up that congressional hall. Blanton is rather noisy and at times has made himself somewhat of a nuisance in Congress, but he's been a very useful man, and the country will sustain a real loss when he steps down into private life. He has stood like a lion against immoral practices on the part of public servants and against the waste of the people's money. He has had many fights in Congress, and came near being ousted on impeachment charges several years ago, but he has done a great deal of good work and history will carry his name on the list of faithful servants. —Hopkins County Herald.

POISONING PRAIRIE DOGS

There are two things that are essential to the extermination of prairie dogs. First, the purchasing of the proper poisoned grain, and second, the proper time and manner in putting out the grain. Of the latter I wish to call your attention.

For the best results I would suggest putting out the poison early in the morning. Any time of the day is suitable however, but you will see more of your results if poison is put out before 3:00 P. M. An ideal day for putting out grain is a warm still day following a cold spell. Avoid putting out the poison when it is snowing, raining, or the sand is blowing. Good results can also be obtained after a snow, while it is thawing.

The amount of grain it takes to kill dogs varies. It takes less grain to kill a dog with an empty stomach than when full, another reason for poisoning early in the morning. At least a heaping tablespoon of grain should be placed at each mound or hole. At large mounds I would suggest placing two or three tablespoons of grain, it is always best to have too much grain left on the ground than not enough to kill all the dogs. If a dog happens to get enough to only make him sick why he is a wise dog thereafter and can not be killed with poison. Rabbits will more than likely pick up any grain that is not eaten by the dogs so none will be wasted.

The proper place to scatter the grain is on the hard ground close to the entrance of the hole. Do not pile the grain up as cattle might be endangered. Grain should not be put on pastures where hogs and sheep are running for they will pick it up and die.

All sacks and vessels containing poisoned grain should be labeled and kept out of reach of children, irresponsible persons, and domestic animals. In case of accidental poisoning, call a physician, cause vomiting by using salt, mustard and warm water, or sticking finger down throat.

R. J. Powell,
Field Ass't U. S. Biological Survey.

Fuel system of the new Ford has been designed for reliability and long service

THE practical value of Ford simplicity of design is especially apparent in the fuel system.

The gasoline tank is built integral with the cowl and is unusually sturdy because it is made of heavy sheet steel,terne plated to prevent rust or corrosion. An additional factor of strength is the fact that it is composed of only two pieces, instead of three or four, and is electrically welded—not soldered.

Because of the location of the tank, the entire flow of gasoline is an even, natural flow—following the natural law of gravity. This is the simplest and most direct way of supplying gasoline to the carburetor without variations in pressure. The gasoline feed pipe of the new Ford is only 18 inches long and is easily accessible all the way.

The gasoline passes from the tank to the carburetor through a filter or sediment bulb mounted on the steel dash which separates the gasoline tank from the engine.

The carburetor is specially designed and has been built to deliver many thousands of miles of good service.

Since all adjustments are fixed except the needle valve and idler, there is practically nothing to get out of order.

The choke rod on the dash acts as a primer and also as a regulator of your gasoline mixture. The new hot spot manifold insures complete vaporization of the gasoline before it enters the combustion chamber of the engine.

As a matter of fact, the fuel system of the new Ford is so simple in design and so carefully made that it requires very little service attention.

The filter or sediment bulb should be cleaned at regular intervals and the carburetor screen removed and washed in gasoline. Occasionally the drain plug at the bottom of the carburetor should be removed and the carburetor drained for a few seconds.

Have your Ford dealer look after these important little details for you when you have the car oiled and greased. A thorough, periodic checking-up costs little, but it has a great deal to do with long life and continuously good performance.

CRITICISM ON THE MOVIES BY AN ELEVEN YEAR OLD

Amarillo, Texas
February 15th, 1929
Dear Sally T.:—
I just picked up the Terry County Herald and saw the pictures that are coming there. I will give some information.
I saw "The Case of Lena Smith." The story is good but the picture is not suited to Esther Ralston.
I saw "What A Night." Be sure and don't miss it. Awful good.
By all means see "Submarine." Wonderful. I believe I told you about it. Tell Uncle Jack to see it too. He'll never regret it. I heard it over the vitaphone.
Love,
Evelyn M.

P. S. I have not seen "Waterfront," but act in it, so it must be good, they hall act in it, so it mustbe good, they always are. Use your own judgment about the others, if any.
Note—The above letter was received by Sallie Truman Stricklin from her cousin Evelyn Morgan, of Amarillo and proves that children also read the ads. The pictures she speaks of were shown at the Rialto this week, excepting "Submarine," which is listed in the ad as coming soon.

P. J. Tackett, representing the Graham Paper Co. of St. Louis and Dallas, was here this week.

GOVERNOR REFUSES TO SIGN LAND PATENTS

According to reports sent out there are a number of land patents on Governor Moody's desk awaiting his signature. The Governor refuses to sign these patents on account of a little matter relative to land patents that is now up before the State Legislature.
The Governor may be right in his claim refusing to sign these patents, and we have always placed a great deal of confidence in administrative judgement, but at this time we cannot understand his motive in every respect. Some of the patents were due to be signed in October, a number of the land owners having made their last payments, interest and all at that time. The Land Commissioner, J. T. Robinson, has issued some of the patents to; and owners at that time, and all that is required to make valid is the Governor's signature.
It looks to us that land patents that were issued before the legislature went into session should have been signed by the Governor irrespective of any bill or proposed legislation now pending. The present bill has not passed and may not pass the Legislature. And in the event it does pass, it could have no effect upon patents that are already due have been issued. But it will be remembered that the Governor and Land Commissioner Robinson have not been agreeing on some land situation, and since the higher courts have ruled in favor of the Land Commissioner, the Governor may feel it is necessary to go a little slow on these land patents. However, this does not benefit those farmers who have made their land payments and cannot get the patents to their lands. Political fights always hold up commercial progress and business for the State.—Spur Times.

AGED LADY PASSES

Mrs. Mary Jane Pride, aged 76, passed away Sunday morning at the home of her son, S. F. Pride, who resides two miles north of Tokio. Funeral services were conducted at the family residence by Dr. Robinson, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Lubbock.

Following the funeral, the body was taken in charge by the Brownfield Undertaking Company and brought to Brownfield where burial was made. Those out of the county who attended the funeral were two nephews, E. S. McConnell, and a sister-in-law, Mrs. M. S. McConnell, all of Brownfield, Texas.

SPARE PARTS

"What are you doing now?"
"I have found a new circus turn—the friendship of a lion and a goat."
But aren't there quarrels between them?"
"Oh, yes, they have their little quarrels, but then we buy a new goat."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends who were so loving and helpful to us during the illness of our beloved and darling little son, A. C. and for their words of comfort and consolation after he was wafted away into the home where there is no sorrow nor pain. You were so sweet and so sympathetic that we shall never forget you and we hope in all your troubles God will aid you as he has so graciously aided us in our recent sorrows. We also thank each and everyone for the beautiful floral offerings. The flowers were to us a symbol of the purity and beauty of the little ones life. May God in his tender mercies care for each of you.

LEGION IS HAPPY OVER VICTORY OF 15-CRUISER BILL

AUSTIN, Texas.—News of the passage of the bill to provide the United States Navy with fifteen new cruisers and one airplane carrier was received with rejoicing at State Headquarters of the American Legion here. It was a signal victory for the Legion, as that organization stood virtually alone against many others for the construction of the cruisers as an item of national defense.

Paul V. McNutt, National Commander of the Legion, emphasized the need of the cruisers for national defense in every speech he made since his election as national commander in San Antonio last October. He said the passage of the bill "is the only answer the European governments will understand." It is the answer to the failure of other governments to "keep the spirit of Washington reduction of armaments conference of 1922."

LEGION RIFLE TEAM OUTSHOOTS GERMANS

Englewood, N. J.—The rifle team of Englewood Post No. 78, The American Legion, was victorious by fifty-eight points in their rifle match recently with a team composed of German War Veterans who now reside in Englewood. Members of the Legion Post believe this is the first rifle match ever held between teams composed entirely of American and German war Veterans. The match was shot on the range in the Englewood Ex-service Men's Club on West Street and was one of a series of competitive shoots arranged for the Legion team during the winter. Comparative scores of the two teams at the close of the competition showed the Legion team to have a total of 412 as compared to 354 for their rivals.

PAPER IS READ

Newspapers are read. RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

In the passing of M. V. Brownfield on Feb. 11th, the Masonic Lodge of Brownfield, Texas recognize the loss of one of its charter members. The Masonic Lodge of Brownfield, Texas was organized in 1904. Mr. Brownfield was active in its organization and instrumental in bringing the lodge into being at this place. He was a benefactor to the lodge in many ways, not only from the standpoint of material things but his steady and consistent devotion to the exercises of the ideals and principals of the same have left a rich heritage in his examples of its faith and practices worthy of the crafts emulation.

Mr. Brownfield was faithful in his attendance upon the lodge meetings until in later years, however the lodge felt his presence in his influence though absent in person, and it is the sense and resolution of the Masonic Lodge of Brownfield, Texas that our deepest expressions of sympathy and heartfelt condolence be extended to the immediate family and relatives, though his passing was sudden, he had consistently approached the time with a soothed and sustaining trust like one who would wrap the draperies of his couch about him and lie down to pleasant dreams.

The poet expressed a beautiful thought which is applicable here, when he versed the following:

The lives of great men, all remind us, That we too, may make our lives sublime;

And in the passing leave behind us, Footprints upon the sands of time.

The hand of fellowship goes out from this Masonic body to the family in this hour of bereavement and it is the desire of this lodge that the family be advised by a copy of this article of resolutions.

Morgan L. Copeland,
W. M. Adams,

PLAINS FARMERS SET BETTER RATE ON GRAIN

LUBBOCK, Texas, Feb. 18.—The Lubbock Chamber of Commerce has been advised by the Railroad Commission of Texas that rates on less than carload shipments of grain and hay seeds produced in the Plain-Panhandle section, cancelled as of November 8th, 1929 will be re-established effective February 15th, 1929.

This action will mean the saving in freight charges, thousands of dollars monthly to farmers and seed dealers of the Plains-Panhandle section, and comes as a result of a petition filed Feb. 4, by the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

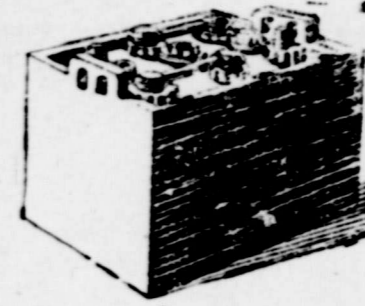

The old rate that was cancelled provided for a carrying charge of from 50c to 58c per hundred pounds on seed from Plains-Panhandle points to other points in Texas, while the cancellation of the rate boosted the carrying charges to a range of from 81c to $1.40.

With many requests from farmers and seed dealers who were effected, the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce began working on the rate case soon after it was cancelled. Late in the year of 1928, advice was secured from a number of outstanding traffic men about the case. Several expert traffic men advised that the ruling was final, with no hope of getting the old rate re-established.

OLD FIDDLERS CONTEST TO BE HELD IN AMARILLO

AMARILLO, Tex., Feb. 14.—Plans are virtually complete for the second annual Tri-State Fair association's Old Fiddlers' contest to be held in the municipal auditorium here on March 7, according to Wilbur C. Hawk, president of the fair. Entries will close on March 1. The contest is open to old fiddlers of the Panhandle, Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico. Each county is entitled to one contestant. Ten prizes totaling $200 will be given this year. The first prize will be $75; second $50; third $25; fourth $15; fifth $10, and five $5 prizes.

The contest program will be broadcast over radio station WDAG at 8 P. M. Further details on the contest may be secured from Wilbur C. Hawk, president of the Tri-State Fair, Amarillo.

THE HEART OF YOUR CAR IS THE BATTERY

The most sumptuous car on the road is no better than its battery. For the battery is really the heart of the car—the thing that starts it going—that changes it from a lifeless, motionless mechanism to a pulsing, almost living thing. Of course, you can accomplish the same thing with a crank—but that belongs to the automobile stone age. A good battery starts the car every time you step on the starter—and that's the kind we sell here.

MCS PADDENS ELECTRIC SHOP

LUBBOCK TO HAVE TALKING MOVIE SOON

LUBBOCK, Tex., Feb. 18.—Equipment for showing of talking motion pictures is being installed in the Palace Theatre here and the first vitaphone show will be held about February 15, according to C. C. Lindsey.

After the equipment is thoroughly tried out and prove beyond a doubt that it is in perfect working order, Lindsey is planning a grand opening which will be highly advertised, in an effort to bring many people from over the Plains of Texas here to hear the first talking movie on the South Plains.

The Lindsey Theatre which is being remodeled at this time will be opened about April 16th, and will also be equipped with the vitaphone equipment. With the opening of the Lindsey the two vitaphone shows will have a seating capacity of about 2,000.

Quite a bit of interest has been manifest over the Plains in when the "talkies" will be offered to the movie going public.

We thank R. O. Benson of Rt. 1

1000 EGGS SEPARATED IN TWO SECONDS

Now all you cooks get busy and see if you can beat the record set by Mrs. H. H. Williams for scrambling eggs. According to our information Mrs. Williams was bringing one thousand eggs to the new Electric Hatchery last Monday, when as she crossed a side street and was compelled to slow down, her foot slipped from the brake to the accelerator and oh boy! at the scrambled eggs.

Somehow we didn't much care about asking many questions about the affair, especially of Mrs. Williams so if any details are wrong we humbly apologize. But we do want to give Mrs. Williams this credit, when she scrambles eggs, she does it right. —O'Donnell Index.

frequently hears complaints against the use of the radio for advertising purposes. People who are in a mood to listen to a concert or a speech are not pleased when they are forced to hear how a soap or cosmetic will preserve "that school girl complexion."

Possibly some of these complainers are unreasonable. Perhaps they should realize that advertising enables the broadcasting station to present a delightful program without cost just as advertising enables the publisher to sell his newspaper at less than the value of the white paper on which it appears.

But public attitude cannot be ignored. Advertising that arouses resentment does not pay. The radio and the newspaper cannot be compared as advertising mediums. With the former you are forced to listen. With the latter you can read wherever your interest directs your attention.

Advertising is or should be news—news having a commercial value. For this reason it belongs primarily in the newspaper.—Wilson Pointer.

Says He Wants to Live in Brownfield

Since Friday of last week, Jack Wilder from Seminole has been visiting with his friend Lewis Whitaker who is an employ at the Herald.

Jack has the reputation everywhere of being an expert machanic and says that he came to Brownfield hoping to find a job of his trade and to live with Lewis at the Weldon Hotel.

Jack and Lewis have been buddies somewhere and seem to think that it is too early to break that bond now. Yes, we all like our Brownfield.

Mr. O. J. Green, of Pueblo, Colo., was down this week looking over this section with the intention of locating, and while here called on the Herald. He stated that he like Colorado fine, but was bothered considerably with asthma and hay fever up there and would have to make a change. He also informed us that he liked this country mighty well what little he had seen of it, and if he could find a suitable place, he would locate. Mr. Scott said he had a son at Levelland.

Deep Plowing Test For Terry, Says Davis

Through the cooperation of the county agent and the city council, Terry county will have a test plot in deep plowing this year. A small patch near Brownfield will be plowed to a depth of 14-16 in by the use of a tractor grub plow and a two-ton catapillar tractor. This will be a similar demonstration to those conducted in Gaines county last year, in an effort to stop the blowing of sand. Making a new top soil that will not blow is the primary purpose of the demonstration. The plots in Gaines county have never blown since they were plowed this way while the land around them is drifting sand. Not only did these deep plowed plots hold but the production was increased from fifty to eighty per cent.

Many farmers who watched these plots last year think that it is the salvation of this deep sandy land and there is doubt but it is worthy of further experimenting.

Prevention of blowing, production per acre, and cost of breaking will be brought out in this demonstration which will be held on a plot near Brownfield on February 26 and 27. Those who are interested in deep plowing should attend this demonstration on one of these days. For further information or particulars see the county agent.

ICELESS CARS CARRY PERISHABLES TO NEW YORK

Mercedés, Texas—That refrigerator transportation is likely to undergo wholesale improvement during the next few years is indicated by results of a test recently conducted with one of the new iceless refrigerator cars in a run from Mercedés, Texas to New York City. Loaded with Rio Grande Valley vegetables, the car left Mercedés, January 8th, arriving at New York on the fifteenth, being opened exactly one week after leaving its point of origin, and for the first time in history carrying vegetables at an absolutely uniform low temperature. Beets, carrots, parsley, cabbage, anise and broccoli made up the shipment carried by the iceless car, and were packed with and without ice in the crates, to afford as much data from the test as possible. No sign of discoloration or decay was found in any of the vegetables upon arrival, and their good condition found them a ready market.

The test of the iceless car was arranged by Harry L. Seay, president of the Southland Life Insurance Company and president of the American Rio Grande Land and Irrigation Company of Mercedés, in the interest of Rio Grande Valley Vegetables Growers' Association of Mercedés, principal shippers of Valley vegetables products. The car was handled by the California Vegetable Union, sales agents for the Growers' Association, working in cooperation with officials of the Missouri Pacific Railroad, and Ralph Killingstad, agent of Safety Refrigeration, Inc., of New York City, manufacturers and operators of the cars, accompanied the car enroute.

Results of the test indicate that the future may see vegetables shipped from grower to consumer with express speed and without delays of any kind along the route. The iceless car requires practically no attention while in use, as the temperature is set at the desired point on departure of the car and controlled thereafter by an automatic thermostat.

The iceless car is cooled by what is known as the silica-gel system, consisting of a non-mechanical circulatory device actuated by a gas flame and effecting a condensation and evaporation of the refrigerating liquid, producing temperatures as desired. While the car is not entirely new to shippers of perishables, having been in use transporting fish about the country during the past year or two, the test just completed is the first time any attempt has been made to determine the adaptability of the car for carrying vegetables.

Great interest was shown in the test by producers, shippers and railroad companies, and it is hoped its success will result in the construction of a large number of the cars to take care of Rio Grande Valley shipping, which not inclusive of citrus fruit exceeds 6,500 carloads annually.

Fine Egg Record

Odell Ballard, a 4H club boy of Brownfield, reports a record in egg production for the month of January that is hard to equal. From eleven hens he gathered 279 eggs for the past month. This is an average of nine eggs per day or a production of eighty-one per cent.

Odell has barred rocks that he bought from the Golden Rule Poultry Farm last year. He says that every hen he has a producer for he gets as many as one-hundred per cent some days. Good stock, well fed and cared for, and being free from lice makes a record like this easy. As for profits Odell furnishes these figures:

Eggs marketed	$6.28
Eggs set	4.88
Total	11.16
Laying mash	3.60
Grain	1.36
Sprouted oats	.24
Total	5.20
Profit	5.96

EVEN IN THE CAT WORLD IT WON'T PAY TO INFRINGE

Our Tom Cat, after laying dormant under the kitchen stove for several days has bestirred himself. He yawned muchly, stretched his hairy person, gazed about, wagged his tail, and yawned again. Following this process he leaped upon a chair and gazed on the bleak world outside. Leaping from the chair in his most graceful manner, he looked up at us, then pointed one be-clawed hairy paw at the exit. We turned him out, and he vanished in the seductive moonlight. Presently we heard his bass voice lifted in song, then across the waste after a moment's silence we heard a thrill "diddy" in alto. So we thought two kinder souls had met, and although it be on a dreary winter night, love flourished under the cold light of the moon. Hours later we opened the door to a hasty, scratching, moaning cat. We gazed with be wilderment and surprise upon our Tom—tuffs of hair were missing from his hairy coat, one eye was closed, and the other looked purple, while crimson streams flowed from numerous cuts in the feline body. Evidently, Tom had visited the neighbors where he discovered the evidence of a big, battled scarred tom and a dainty, white puss. This thing of infringing on the rights of the other fellow doesn't work even in the world of cats.—Ropesville Rustler.

WAS JESUS A CHURCH MEMBER?

Some writers say that Jesus did not organize a church at all. Some say that he made Simon Peter the head of the church and thus began the Roman Catholic Church. Some say that the church was not organized, until after the resurrection of Jesus. Next Sunday at the Methodist church, the sermon subject will be "Was Jesus a church member?" This sermon will be interesting and instructive. You ought to hear it.

No services Sunday night or Wednesday night on account of the revival meeting at the Baptist church; but the Hi-League will meet at 6:30 p. m. and Sunday School at 9:45 a. m.

You are cordially invited to attend the Methodist church next Sunday morning. Rev. B. W. Dodson, D. D., pastor.

The metropolitan dailies go to a greater extreme in using the couplet "C. of C." or that for which it stands. They comb the state for industrial and agricultural news, and they almost invariably find it interwoven with the activities of the commercial organizations. Hence the larger dailies fairly bristle with crisp, bright headings in which "C. of C." is outstanding.

If one has not noticed this, that one does not read carefully the newspapers. Such a one will probably be found listed among those who have not estimated the community's Chamber of Commerce or kindred organization at its intrinsic value.

If the newspapers have one outstanding lesson for us, that teaching is that the Texas community that does not make of its Chamber of Commerce a live forceful entity for advancing every community cause is not getting anywhere. All of the newspapers can not be wrong, and without exception they drive home this teaching.

We have with us one great truth to which there is no exception, not even so much as a variation: The communities that are continually bringing home the bacon maintain and support to the limit the Chamber of Commerce.

Bear in mind, there is NO EXCEPTION to this.

As for Kermit, it has proven what its Chamber of Commerce can do. But it does need to go further, and to rally to the support of its organization in a larger sense, in a more practical way, in a more enthusiastic manner.

We are doing MUCH.

We could do MUCH MORE if a larger percentage of the citizens and business men would join the organization and give their financial support as well as moral support.

Chambers of Commerce

(Abilene Reporter)

A few rambling thoughts:

In this day of standardization, we have seen a great leveling factor working on the growth of cities and towns. Little places have a real chance to compete with larger ones. With highspeed transportation, utilities and paved highways, the former don't have to modestly sit back as more satellites and feeders to the latter.

Which being true, why should not the Winters chamber of commerce (holding its annual "feed" Tuesday night) jump right into competition with, say Abilene; and why shouldn't Abilene compete with Fort Worth? No reason at all.

Take the competitive spirit out of life, and watch it cease to be worth the living. Show us a town without a wide-awake chamber of commerce, and we'll tell you, just like that, what is killing it. Slow rot. A town's competitive spirit heads up in its chamber of commerce.

All by preface to this:

If you read this paper regularly you have been noting that we are having, this season of the year, a round of chamber of commerce annual banquets throughout this section. You have noticed it because of the "play" we have been giving these events.

We have been "playing" them—displaying them prominently in the news—because, in our opinion, they are the biggest single civic item on a town's calendar. Or should be. The night of the annual "feed" is the one night of the year on which the town's powerhouse, its chamber of commerce, calls the rank and file of membership together to meet the president, the secretary, the board of directors, for the purpose of looking back over the old year and taking a squint at the new.

If your town is having its yearly spread soon, why not plan to be there. And, being there, "you tell 'em.
