CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

After an absence from this column of several weeks, the writer believes that he has a few matters that would be of general interest to the readers of the Herald and is therefore making reappearance, although if the column has been missed, he has not been advised of it.

The Hon. Marvin Jones has written for the names of several people who reside in different communities of the county who are interested in public questions in order that he may write to them and get the benefit of their views concerning various legislative matters and also mail them such public documents as might be desired by them. Leave your name at this office if you are at all interested and it will be sent to him at Washington.

Heretofore the county fair has been handled by or through the chamber of commerce, but there seems to be a desire to organize a permanent fair association and the matter of transferring the responsibility to a number of public spirited citizens will be taken up by the directors of the chamber of commerce at their meeting this week. In the meantime a lot of preliminary work has been done and the dates decided upon, but in the event that a fair association is organized, the dates could be changed. Keep your eye on the Herald for news of it.

We pulled off our first district convention last week and everything was handled according to schedule and was a success from every viewpoint and brought much praise from the visitors, the crowd however was not as large as expected, due to bad roads in many portions of the district.

The State Fair of Texas will hold its 43rd session on October 12-27 and it is our intention to have a county exhibit, the score card has been changed and it is now possible to show a greater variety and upon this account we should make a good showing. We must major, however, on three principal crops.

Rainfall for the month of May totaled 4.69 inches according to the gauge and some guesswork, the gauge was turned over during one of the strong winds and we had to guess at it. This is probably the greatest rainfall for any month for the last several years.

Two Routes Out of One July First—P.M.

While over at the post office one day this week, Postmaster Claude Jones informed us that on July the first, the post office department had ordered the discontinuance of route one, said to be the longest in the United States, and carrying a salary of some $3,200.00 per year, and in its place two routes would be made with a carrier for each.

The official designation given them is Route One to cover the territory east and north of the city now covered by route one in the forenoon. The afternoon end of the route, northwest and west of the city will be known officially as Route Two. This will be some convenience to the patrons, especially the west end, as they will from then on get their mail some three or four hours earlier in the day.

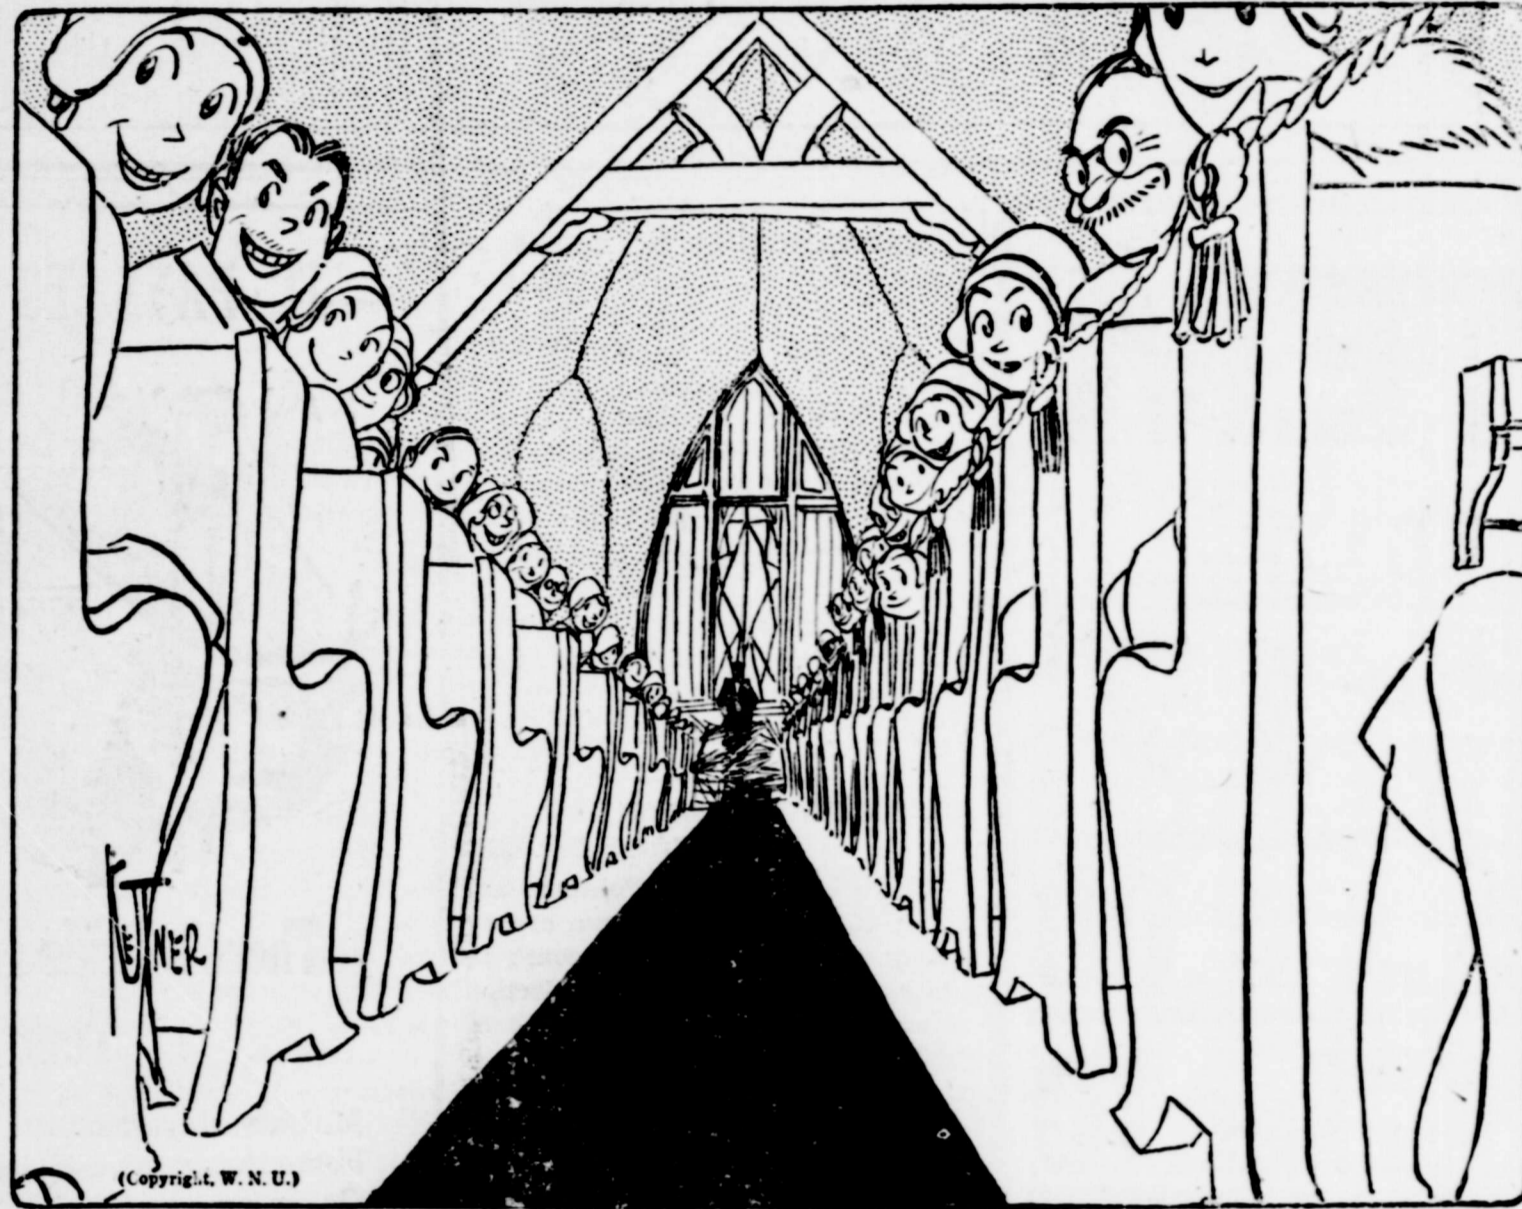

Mr. Jones also informed us that on the same date 18 miles would be added to the star route officially known as South Route, making it about 81 miles in length. This a daily service. The new portion of the route will cover the old Windham ranch, which has been settled this year by some 25 families, as well as a number of other families, some 60 in all, we believe Mr. Jones informed us.

"Am dere anybody in de congregation what wishes prayer for their fail-ins?" asked the colored minister.

"Yassuh," responded Bro. Jones, "Ab's a spen'thrif' an' throws mah money round reckless like."

"Ve'y well. We will join in prayer for Bro. Jones—jes after de collection plate has been passed."

Here She Comes

Delivery Made of Our City Directories

A representative of the Oklahoma City Directory Co., came in the past week and delivered several hundred city directories which were recently completed. It appeared to be a reasonably neat job and while there were some serious mistakes, there were few of them when it is considered that the job was printed several hundred miles away where it would be hard to verify anything in doubt.

Just the same, there is a world of information in the books for the public who wish to peruse, and nearly every business and professional firm in the city are represented in its pages. The directory not only tells where the person is located in the city, but gives the telephone number besides, and are therefore very useful and helpful to have laying around the offices and stores.

Another thing that is quite interesting about the directory, one can find out the given names of wives of the married men, and the Sallies, the Marys, and the Mollies all stand out to the gaze of the curious. Of course we fellows who may have been curious to know what our neighbor's wife answered to when she and John were alone, will not dare be so familiar as to address them thus when we meet them on the street, but that does not keep us from thinking of their name and being amused if we want to.

The representative also had a job of changing the names of two of the streets to conform to the new names, Main and Broadway, but that was not a big job and was done willingly. It is a lot more convenient to find one in a city as small as Brownfield with the streets named on each corner, and numbers on the houses, not to say anything about giving other people directions. Study the book that you may acquire this knowledge. The directory has 36 pages exclusive of the backs.

With this work accomplished, we are now ready for city delivery of mail if we want it and make the effort. It is now our move in that direction. An inspector has already said he is ready to recommend it if we wanted it, starting with one deliveryman.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express through the Herald my deep appreciation to my many friends for their kindness and thoughtfulness to my daughter, Birdie, and to me during her last illness and death. Also for the beautiful flowers. May God graciously bless you.

Sincerely,
Mrs. E. B. Fogle.

Church of Christ Revival to Close Sun. Night

The revival at the church of Christ which started last Wednesday night at the church building of this congregation, has been gaining in both attendance and interest since it started. Sunday night the seats were all taken and nearly all the chairs that had been placed about in vacant places in the building. Monday night saw an unusually good Monday night revival crowd, despite the fact that a revival had been going on in the city for the past two weeks.

Elder Phillips is just a plain old gospel preacher, with nothing up his sleeves to attract undue attention, nor has he any of the clap-trap methods of starting something sensational in the town concerning the private life of anyone. While he fights sin with all the vim at his command, he has only love and pity for the sinner, and is using every ounce of his energy, and all the persuasive power at his command to bring the sinner to repentance.

His son, Cecil Phillips, is whipping the singers into good shape with his own enthusiasm, and is getting good results from them, especially the young people who are working with him. Results, visible have already been seen, and it is hoped that many more will be saved before the meeting comes to a close Sunday night.

Many visitors from the congregations at Meadow, Union, Wellman and Gomez have been in attendance since the meeting started, and lending their support in the song services.

Rotarians Report Big Time at Convention

Mayor Joe J. McGowan and Tom May report a great time at the International convention of Rotary held in Dallas last week, despite the fact that it was raining most of the time. The only outdoor session, luckily was held on Monday night, with no rain to interfere.

They report the pageant was representative of 52 nations, and real natives from these countries filled the places in the national costumes. The business sessions were also good, they report, and full of wholesome interest, and were worth going miles to see and hear. Dallas did herself proud in handling the 10,000 attending delegates, they say, which was the second largest attendance on record.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Jones, of Hot Springs, N. M., parents of Mrs. W. J. Head, and Miss Ada Hefflin, a niece, also of that city, are visiting the Head family here.

Short Changers Visit Our City Saturday

There were and still are a couple of short changers in our city, for they are even now behind the bars waiting for justice to be meted out to them. They blowed in some time Saturday, but waited for a crowd to get here before beginning operation in order to take advantage of it to catch the merchants and clerks in a hurry and somewhat off guard.

There were two of them, one a rather short dark complexioned fellow, while the other is a tall blonde, and they worked in pairs. They gave their home as Lubbock, but Sheriff Telford is of the opinion that they live further away than that. They would go in a store, make a small purchase and throw down a ten dollar bill, and the merchant would then give the proper change. Whereupon, the other guy would say that he had the proper change and that it was not necessary for his friend to break his ten dollar bill. In the hurry of making the change back, and with a little slight of hand, the merchant would only get four ones and the silver change back.

Local Store Converging Into Hokus Pokus

The reader probably is already aware that the popular firm of White & Murphy have gone on the cash basis, as most of you read their half page announcement of that fact last week. They have something else of great interest for you this week. It is a well known fact that the man who is selling for strictly cash can undersell his competitor who is doing a credit business with frequent losses from bad accounts. This is the reason for the change.

This week they are busy with saw and hammer, the paint brush and paint transforming their place of business as fast as they can into a typical Hokus Pokus—we believe that's the way they spell it—store. When it is completed, they will not only have one of the neatest, but one of the cleanest stores in the city, and the customer can take his basket and pick just what they want from the shining shelves. They will retain their meat market in connection.

WELL KNOWN DUEL

Town Crowded With Mail Handlers Friday

Early last Thursday the crowd of mail handlers, including postal clerks and rural carriers from all over the 18th Congressional District began to gather here for the annual convention, and by opening time at nine o'clock, they were most all here and ready for the opening. Many of them brought their wives or families to help enjoy the day. It being Memorial Day, also, the city was in gala attire, with flags out in front of the business houses, over the post office, and at eight o'clock, a squad of Legion Boys and Boy Scouts, marched from the Legion Hall and officially raised the big flag in the court park. The Legion boys carried their recently acquired German rifles, which made the flag raising appear more real.

The business sessions were held in the morning at the Rialto Theatre, but at the school auditorium in the afternoon, inasmuch as the ladies and children of visiting delegates were to be entertained with a matinee at the Rialto in the afternoon. After a few musical selections by Mrs. Endersen and her orchestra, the meeting was called to order. An invocation by Dr. Dodson was followed by the singing of "America" by the audience. The welcome address by Morgan Cope and was responded to by W. C. Poote, of Petersburg. Appointment of committees by the president. Several readings, songs, etc., for the entertainment of the visitors were given by local talent.

The delegates were given luncheon at the city tabernacle by the chamber of commerce, under the direction of the 4-H clubs of Terry county.

The afternoon session at the school building was strictly a business session, and followed very closely the set program printed in these columns two weeks ago, but it was nevertheless interesting, and the speakers showed great knowledge and close study of the subjects assigned them.

At night all the delegates who remained, were given free tickets or judges that entitled them to the Jubilee at the Legion Hall where the souvenirs given them recently by the war department were displayed. They were also entertained by music, boxing matches, wrestling matches, and last but not least a Dutch lunch.

The Boy Scouts did themselves proud that day by being constantly at the service of the visitors and helping out in various other ways. Free camping privileges were also given the visitors by our various service stations who maintain camp sites.

All delegates were loud in their praise of the way Brownfield tried to entertain them. It is true that a few became ill from something that was eaten at the noon meal, but this often happens, both to the embarrassment of the visitors and the host city. A few had to return home and could not stay for the night session on this account, but we understand that while some of the children were quite sick for a short time, they soon became better. A little child of Postmaster Vaughn of Lubbock was reported to have been the sickest person in the delegation.

The Herald had a letter this week from a delegate at Plainview expressing his appreciation of the entertainment here, and said he nor anyone else that he knew of felt that Brownfield was in any way to blame for the slight poisoning. This delegate had to carry his family home and could not stay for the night session. Tahoke got the 1930 session of the convention.

The Herald is Ready For A Real Cleanup

There has been considerable talk of putting on the annual clean up campaign, and weed cutting in the city here of late, and the Herald is ready to do its share with abundance of space, providing that a real clean up campaign is anticipated. If not, then we have no inclination to spend either our time, energy, or our space, which is our stock in trade to put on another farce.

Heretofore we have put on these campaigns in the residence section with some degree of success, and when they were over, it gave the appearance of being the habitation of people of pride and refinement. But after all, not many visitors visit the residence section, except that traversed by the portion with streets which merge into the highways leading in and out of the city. The place exposed mostly to the tourists and the visitor is the business section, and heretofore that portion has only been given a lick and a promise.

What good does it do for some of the business men to clean up the rear of their places, and the next man have his littered up with old boxes, barrels, open slop cans, old stoves, junked automobiles and what not? He just can't make his look half decent. If the city officials will go to work and pass an ordinance with teeth in it prohibiting the streets and alleys being blocked with such junk, and tell the city marshal to enforce the law, the Herald will publish the ordinance free of cost to the city.

Not only this, but we will give all the publicity necessary to carry out one of the biggest and best clean up campaigns ever put over in the city, a real clean up that all of us will be proud of. And we believe that when we see the effect of a real clean-up, we will from thence be willing to keep property, front and rear in the best of shape.

These columns are open to a discussion of this matter, no matter whether you agree with our views or not.

Phillips Station to Start Up Immediately

Brick and other material is on the ground this week, and workmen are excavating the foundation for the Phillips Petroleum Filling Station on the corner of Main and Fourth Sts. Work would have started sooner, we understand, but the owners and contractor have been waiting the arrival of the city engineer to come and set the grade lines for the paving. Roy Wingerd, the contractor informed us this week that they were going ahead with all the work that could be done pending the arrival of the engineer.

This station with its 60X60 feet of ground on this desirable corner, will cost several thousand dollars when completed, and will be the equal of any on the South Plains, we understand. It will add greatly to the appearance of that portion of the city.

Evangelist Party Off For Chattanooga

Evangelist Burke Culpepper and singer, John U. Robinson, of Memphis, Tenn., closed their revival campaign here Sunday night, which was in progress for two weeks, and left immediately for Chattanooga, Tenn., where their next revival will be held. They carried the good wishes of many people here wherever they may go.

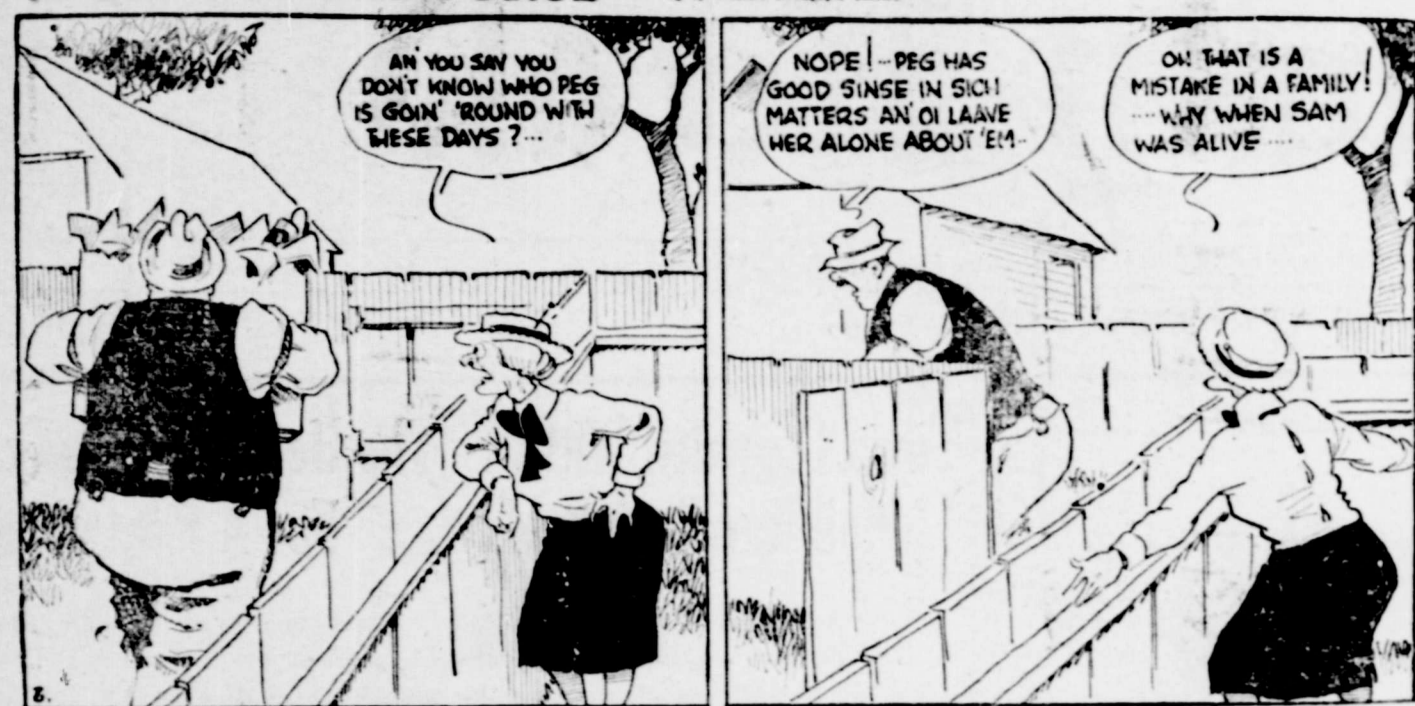

No one has ever given the writer the exact figures on the visible results of the revival here, but we understand that there was many conversions, and several promised to live better lives. The Methodist church has been strengthened and revived, and the members are well pleased with results.

Rev. Dodson reports splendid cooperation from the churches, especially the Baptist, for which he is very thankful.

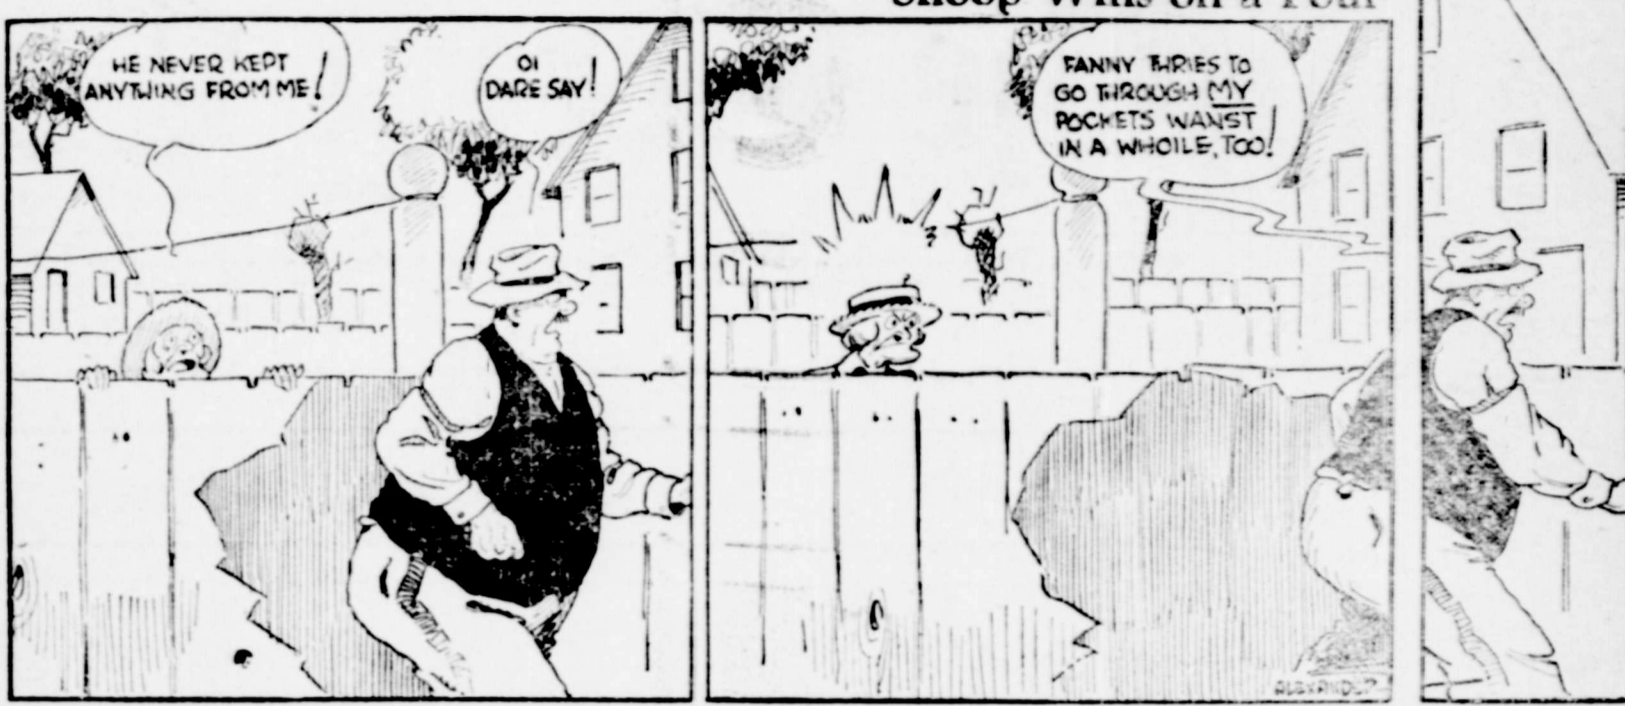

Mrs. Roy Herod was carried to Lubbock Monday by her husband for special medical treatment. They returned home Tuesday.

GRANDMOTHER RECEIVES DEGREE; PLANS TO TEACH

CANYON, June 1.—Mrs. Winnie Davis of Wilson, Okla., a grandmother, member of the 1929 class at West Texas State Teachers College, has received her bachelor's degree. She has taught for many years in schools of Texas and Oklahoma. Her major study this year was history, which she expects to teach in public schools.

LYNN COUNTY TO ASK ROAD BOND BALLOT

TAHOKA, June 1.—Petitions are being circulated over Lynn county asking the commissioner's court to order a $1,000,000 road bond election at an early date for the purpose of paving state highways No. 84, running through the county from east to west, and No. 9, federal highway No. 385, running north and south. The petition asks that $700,000 be spent on these highways, augmented by state and federal funds, and that the remaining $300,000 be spent in building lateral roads to serve every section of the county, including a road from here to Wilson and Slaton over a newly proposed highway route. The lateral roads, it is asked, should pass through and radiate from Eilson, New Home, Grassland, Draw, Newmoore, and other communities, and designated to protect the trade territory of each town.

THOSE THRIFTY SCOTCHMEN

One of the true bloods of dear old Scotland writes in thus: "If you don't quit printing so many Scotch jokes, the you are a tightwad yourself. I am going to quit borrowing your paper from the neighbors to read. Signed: Sandy McDougal. At the same time he furnished the information that Scotch government is seriously considering "I Can't Give You Anything But Love" as the national anthem. Which reminds us of a member of his tribe who built his chicken house by the church so the hens could eat feed after the wedding ceremony. Almost as bad as that tale from Oakland, that a woman went on a hunger strike for two weeks and twenty Scotchmen proposed to her.

RESTAURANT SLANG

"Scrambled eggs," ordered a customer in a city market restaurant. "Milk toast," murmured his companion, who was not feeling well. "Scramble two and a graveyard stew," sang the waitress with Titan hair. "Here," corrected the second man, "I want milk toast." "You'll get it, buddy," replied the girl. "That's what they call milk toast in Chicago where I was working." Next time the two customers held a conference and decided to "put one over" on the "fresh young thing" from Chicago. The first one wanted a glass of milk and the second one a cup of coffee. When the restaurant girl appeared to put a "set up" of the restaurant artillery in front of the men, the second man gave the following order: "A bottle of lacteal fluid for my friend and a scuttle of Java with no sea foam for me." "Chalk one and a dipper of ink," shouted the girl. She didn't even smile.—Typo Graphic.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 13

WHEREAS, the 41st Legislature of Texas, at its Regular Session, submitted to a vote of the people a Constitutional Amendment providing for a Supreme Court to be composed of Nine Members, instead of the present Supreme Court of Three members, assisted by six Commissioners, drawing substantially the pay of Supreme Court Judges, but those whose work must be reviewed and approved by the Supreme Court; and,

WHEREAS, the adoption of said Amendment would not materially increase the cost of our Supreme Court and would largely reduce the injustice resulting from the laws' delay under the present system; and,

WHEREAS, the said Amendment would also provide that the Supreme Court shall be open for the transaction of business throughout the year, instead of for only nine months as required by the present provision of the Constitution; and,

WHEREAS, the 41st Legislature has also submitted to a vote of the people another Constitutional Amendment, providing that the Governor of Texas shall receive a salary of Ten Thousand Dollars per year, and no more, and,

WHEREAS, the adoption of this Constitutional Amendment is necessary in order to provide a living wage for the Governor of Texas, and to make it practicable for a citizen, not possessed of great wealth, to serve as Chief Executive without ruinous sacrifice, and,

WHEREAS, both of said Constitutional Amendments are to be voted upon at a Special Election to be held in every voting precinct in Texas on Tuesday, the 16th day of July, 1929, and,

WHEREAS, regardless of the merits of the proposals involved in said Constitutional Amendments, respectively, it is highly desirable and important that as nearly as possible, every qualified voter shall go to the polls on said date, Tuesday, July 16, 1929, and vote upon both Amendments, now, therefore, be it, RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF TEXAS, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING THEREIN:

THAT the newspapers of Texas, including both the daily and weekly papers of the State, are urgently requested to improve all reasonable opportunities, through their columns, to call attention of the people to the importance of these Constitutional Amendments, and to the date of said election, and to urge the voters to attend the same, and, be it further,

RESOLVED That the Radio Broadcasting stations in Texas be, and they are hereby, requested to use their facilities from time to time, for similarly calling the attention of the people to the importance of these Constitutional Amendments and to the importance of all qualified voters attending and voting at said election, and, be it further

RESOLVED, that the Secretary of the Senate, and the Chief Clerk of the House be directed to join in sending a copy of this Resolution to the daily and weekly newspapers of the State, and to each Radio Broadcasting station.—Signed by above officials.

These pure seed are given to the club members upon an agreement that they will keep record of their crop and return two pounds of seed for each pound received.

The club members will plant half their plots by skipping every third row which will give an excellent demonstration upon this method of planting as well as the value of pure seed.

BARNUM WAS RIGHT

A light covered truck drives up to the curb. The driver leans out and attracts the attention of the pedestrian on the walk. A furtive conference in hushed tones follows. "Want to buy some furs," asks the driver, glancing uneasily toward the policeman at the corner.

"Here, you can have this for less than one-third the regular price," he continues without waiting for an answer. The implication is that he offers stolen goods. The buyer, with no knowledge of values, finally closes a deal, and walks off with a cheap garment for two or three times its real worth.

This is but one of many "rackets" that flourish in the city, and even in small towns. A group of men come to town with some blankets, some furs or some rugs—goods supposedly smuggled from Canada. Local citizens are easy, giving proof of the truth of the old saying of Barnum's. Then they keep quiet. No man likes to advertise his folly.

Those who have been stung always turn to the local merchants in future transactions. They know he will be hereto guarantee the merchandise after it is in the buyer's hands. They know that he does not dare to offer "shoddy" goods for first class merchandise knowingly. They know that he must depend upon the good will of the community for his future financial well-being, and this good-will must be earned by giving honest values to the public.

But why turn good dollars over to strangers to learn that lesson.

Early Flying Enthusiast

The first comprehensive explanation of the laws governing heavier-than-air flying, especially with gliders, was made by Sir George Cayley, an English scientist, in a series of magazine articles written and published in 1809 and 1810. Although he produced several crude airplane and helicopter models to illustrate his theories, there is no record that he ever achieved any measure of success with them.

DR. A. HEFNER, MASSEUR

Who owned and successfully operated the Hefner Drugless Sanatorium at Sweetwater, Texas for a number of years, will be in Brownfield, Texas for three weeks, beginning June 10th, 1929. He will be located at the Smith Hotel one-half block northwest of square. He successfully treats all manner of chronic diseases without use of drugs or knife. He has years of experience in drugless healing. Read what he has to say in regard to personal magnetism. Also what people say who have been treated by him. Examination free. Hours from 8 A. M. to 12; from 1:00 P. M. to 5.

Personal Magnetism

—Personal magnetism is a scientific method of healing and has been practiced as far back as history dates. It is not an experiment but a natural law of healing. So we must turn the hands back on the dial of time and let nature prevail in her liberating of suffering humanity. Men have recognized the existence of this power of force and given it various names. History says this force is "Life." Physicians say it is "Thought" or "Ethric Energy," and Philosophy, as represented by Herbert Spencer, who says it is "An infinite energy from which all things proceed."

Man's powers may safely be called magical and measureless. Never until this present twentieth century have men understood the meaning of his statement. It is through advancement in the study of the relationship between the physical and mental forces of man that the great truth is dawning upon the minds of men and women.

Roby, Texas.

Gentlemen:—This is to certify that over three years ago I had a badly affected gall bladder and after taking your treatments for 5 weeks returned some entirely cured and have not suffered with same since.

Yours truly,
Mrs. H. J. Hadderton.

I was in bed five weary weeks with gastritis, suffering the most excruciating pains that only those who have suffered them can realize their hangings. Unable to sit up or eat anything, could not rest only under the influence of morphine. Friends and relatives stood over my bed day and night, five long weeks, and no hope was entertained for my recovery. After taking treatment from Dr. A. Hefner four weeks I am sound and well and able to eat anything, never feel any pain or uneasiness, sleep sound at night, cured of complications of five years standing of ovarian trouble and falling of the womb.

Words are in adequate to express the gratitude I feel for the benefit I have received from Dr. Hefner's treatments for all manner of deformities and diseases.

Mrs. Pearl Guinn,
Camp Springs, Texas.

Spur, Texas, May 6, 1927.
Dr. A. Hefner, Cisco, Texas.

I am sending you a testimonial of what you did for me. I took sick all of a sudden and was suffering death with my stomach. I sent for a doctor and when the doctor examined me they said I would have to be operated on for appendicitis and locked bowels so I would die, but I would not give up for an operation, so I sent for Dr. A. Hefner and the first treatment the pain was almost gone. He gave me ten treatments and I was sound and well and I haven't been troubled with my stomach since.

Your friend,
Ab Mindenhall.

And in addition to the standard temperature regulator which automatically maintains an ideal temperature in the food compartment, Frigidaire is equipped with the famous "Cold Control" that speeds the freezing of ice cubes and makes possible dozens of new and delicious desserts and salads.

Terry County 4-H Club Move Now Thriving

BROWNFIELD, June 1.—(Sp.)—When R. B. Davis, county agent of Gaines county was appointed as part time agent of Terry county he immediately began organizing boys and girls 4-H clubs.

Despite the fact that Terry county had never had an agricultural agent and that many of the people had never in a county where an agent was employed, Mr. Davis met with wonderful success and within a month and a half had succeeded in organizing 14 clubs with a membership of 275 boys and girls, and had shipped in a car of 71 pure bred pigs from the Lillard Stock farm. This was perhaps the largest pig club in Texas or anywhere that had pure bred pigs to start with.

This large shipment of pigs was made possible by the First National Bank and Brownfield State Bank of Brownfield, and the First National Bank of Meadow. These banks took notes made by the boys, all of which were paid last fall at maturity.

Wilton E. Williams was employed by the schools of the county as club leader for the summer with the cooperation of Davis, interest was kept at a high pitch throughout the year. Among the things that the clubs accomplished was to send 35 boys to the district club training course at Lubbock. A county club rally was held in Brownfield in July with an attendance of more than 200 boys and girls. Judging teams in grain, livestock, dairy cattle, and poultry were trained and when the carnival that was to have been held by the clubs was blown down by a storm the businessmen of Brownfield contributed the money to send the teams to the short course. Each club sent one or more delegates to the short course and paid their transportation, making 37 club boys and girls from Terry county who attended the short course at A. & M. college this past summer.

At the county fair at Brownfield 12 of the 13 clubs had attractive agricultural booths complying with the regulations of the score card. There were 65 pure bred club pigs on exhibit, and 12 exhibits of chickens and turkeys.

Thirteen club pigs were carried to the Lubbock fair winning first and second and third, in the junior pig class of both Duroc and Poland China and first and third in the open class on junior sow pig of Duroc.

At the end of the year the record books of the pig club members showed a profit of $1,951.17. All record books turned in showed a net profit of $3,019.24.

This year the outlook for club work in Terry county is more promising. At present there are 18 organized clubs with a membership of more than 350, and still growing. There are 105 in the pig club. Most of these boys were in the club last year and have their sow and litter. The boys are realizing $12 a head for their sow pigs. Most of the male pigs will be fed out this fall and exhibited at the county fair as fat barrows. Almost a car load will be on feed.—Abilene News.

WATER WORKS NEARING COMPLETION AT SEAGRAVES

Work on the water works system for Seagraves will be well near completed by the time this issue of the Signal is out. Workmen with the "ditcher" have just completed the laying of the main, setting the fire plugs, etc. Other workmen are busy erecting the tower and the only thing left will be tapping for household use and the city water will be a reality. The completion of the water system marks a long stride forward in the progress of our city and our city officials are to be congratulated for their efforts in expediting this work. Now that we will have city water lets get busy on other activities and put them over like we did the water bonds and watch Seagraves grow. Lets talk street paving, then vote bonds and pave a few blocks. Let's plan some beauty spots in Seagraves for children's play grounds, let's work for better highways leading into Seagraves, let's have a public library for Seagraves, let's get busy and map out a real program for the building of the town and put it over like we did the water works.

Remember folks, we get nothing in this fast age unless we go after it to win and also remember every good thing that comes our way costs money but there are very few free things worth having.—Seagraves Signal.

W. F. Young reports that he is planting on an average of 25 acres a day with his Farmall.

ILLITERACY SCHOOLS HAVE LARGE ATTENDANCE

Baton Rouge, La.—This state is making a determined campaign to wipe out illiteracy and has appropriated large funds to that end, according to an article in the Washington Post. Illiteracy schools have been founded which admit no one who is able to read and write. These schools now have an attendance of over 64,000 persons more than ten years of age. This is almost one-fourth of the illiterate population of the state. Other states could well follow this example. The percentage of illiteracy in this country, in spite of the boasted system of education, is astonishingly high. It is estimated that in the United States there are nearly 5,000,000 wholly uneducated people which is almost six per cent of the population.

According to the last census the number in some of the states is given as follows: New York, 425,000; Pennsylvania, 312,000; Alabama, 278,000; Georgia, 328,000; Mississippi, 229,000; North Carolina, 241,000; South Carolina, 220,000; Texas, 295,000, and Virginia, 195,000. The percentage is high in some of the southern states because of the large negro population, but many of the other states have a percentage just as high.

There is a noticeable improvement in the service to Texas radio listeners since the consolidation of the Dallas News, WFAA and the Star-Telegram WBAP, on the same wave length, and with a full 2 hour open channel between them. More power to these great Texas dailies.

Another big rain here Tuesday night in which the bottom of the rain pan seemed to have fallen out and Mr. J. Pluvius just poured it out in slushes. It also reminds us that the farmers of this section are perhaps secretly wishing that Mr. J. would take his vacation at this time for about three weeks.

Well, the solons are back at Austin, and we noted with pleasure that the dailies reported that this session was likely to be more harmonious and accomplish something. But in a few days after opening, the old Tom Cat methods of the past two sessions seemed to be the order, and fur and blood is likely to fly any time.

Sile Kildew in the Ryestraw Sayings, is made to say in one of the recent reports from that community by his creator, Mr. Bingham, that if radios had never been invented that there never would have been any trouble with statics. Which reminds us that perhaps Sile never had any experience in a printing office during a sandstorm.

Short changers like we had last Saturday are nothing more than drones on society. They reap where they do not sow, and should have no sympathy from any one. The best way to break them from coming to our towns is to put the extreme penalties on them. They will hand out this information to others of their ilk, and they will stir clear of us in the future.

What about a celebration of some kind here this year? If one is to be put on about July 4th, it is high time we were making a move to that end, for it will not be long till that time. We should have something like this every year in order to get our people together that they might become better acquainted. These celebrations do not cost much, but are worth every penny put into them by the towns sponsoring them. It all comes back to them with interest added by a grateful public.

The fifteen year sentence given a six year old boy in Kentucky for the slaying of a playmate is causing a lot of caustic comment, and bringing the judge in for a general panning. We thing the judge is in a need of a panning, as well as the jury, to say nothing of the grand jury that permitted a charge of murder to be turned in against a child of six years. Anyone realize that a babe of this age has no idea whatever of things, and no way of reasoning, and hence is not responsible for its acts. To commit this child to the reformatory for fifteen years, and put it in constant association with criminals until it becomes mature can mean but one thing, and that is that it will leave the institution a hardened criminal. In the words of Darrow, if these men who passed this sentence were given a mental test there is a chance that their intellect would not rank as high as the child they have convicted.—Ropes Rustler.

BROWNFIELD STEPS OUT!

Brownfield is stepping out—and how! Terry county's capital was host to three separate and distinct gatherings yesterday (Thurs. May 30) and from the reports received by The Avalanche did a bang-up job of entertaining which is certainly worthy of public commendation.

Just how large Brownfield is at the present writing would be hard to say. These South Plains cities, you know, have been adding to their population by leaps and bounds and it's not only impossible to guess at the size of any of them—but it's also dangerous!

The Avalanche, however, will guess that 3,000 to 3,500 will sum up the present population of Brownfield and a place of that size, dealing with three meetings on the same day, is ambitious to say the least.

Brownfield, in other words, has given the rest of the Plains country a new mark at which to shoot. The Terry county seat has proven that what has to be done can be done—and furthermore has done it along typical South Plains lines.

We repeat, without fear of contradiction, that Brownfield's record is worthy of commendation and take this opportunity to say:

"Brownfield steps out—and more power to her!"—Lubbock Avalanche.

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, God has called home one of our most faithful and regular workers in our P. T. A. and a most popular teacher, be it resolved by the Parent-Teacher Association that in the going away of Miss Birdie Fogle the association has lost a most faithful, helpful member, and the school has lost a most efficient and loyal teacher, that a noble Christian character has gone home to be with Christ and the holy angels, that Brownfield will miss her cheerful and happy countenance and her deeds of kindness. That we extend sympathy ears and love to the bereaved mother.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas on the 21st day of May 1929, God in his infinite wisdom saw prudent to call to realms of eternity Grandma Bridges, pioneer of this territory, and who so faithfully administered to the wants and needs of those with whom she came in contact and whereas she was the mother of Mrs. Cornelia Moore, who is one of the earnest workers of this order; be it resolved:

That we, the committee on resolutions, herewith tender the following:

1. That we deeply feel her passing, but realize the useful tenure of her life and know of God's pleasure in ever finding her faithful to her trust.
2. That we humbly look to her emulation of Christ's principles as a guide to our lives and point others to her work and influence.
3. That we offer our sincerest sympathies and condolences to her immediate family and relatives and point them to the solace of the prom-

IN MEMORIAM

Miss Birdie Fogle, who has taught in our Brownfield public school for her past four years and had been re-elected for another year, slipped away from us on Wednesday, May 29 and her mother took her back to Sherman for burial.

From a child, Birdie had been trained in the Holy Scriptures, and religion and her church held a large place in her life. Unswerving in her loyalty to Christ, she knew no greater joy than the joy of service in the church to which she had pledged her faith.

She was violinist in the church choir and Sunday School organist, and her pastor knew that she would be in her place, unless sick or out of town.

She was a faithful, loyal, conscientious, and devoted follower of the Lord, and she has gone to the House of Many Mansions. Our prayers and our sympathy go out to the bereaved mother; but while her church and her friends will greatly miss her, we know that Birdie has gone up to be with God.

"We know she has gone where her forehead is starred
With the beauty that dwelt in her soul:

Where the light her loveliness cannot be marred

Nor the heart be held back from its goal."

Her Pastor.

MARRIAGES

George Lane, postal employee, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Lane, and Miss Roselle Goodpasture, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Goodpasture, all of this city, drove over to Tahoka last Saturday evening where Rev. B. N. Shepherd, pastor of the Baptist church in that city said the words that joined them for life. They will make their home in Brownfield.

Mr. Weldon Ridgeway of Fort Worth, who has been making his home with his uncle, B. L. Thompson for some time and engaged in the contracting business, and Miss Allie Hamilton, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hamilton, were married at the Methodist parsonage last Sunday afternoon, Rev. B. W. Dodson, officiating. They will make this city their home, after a short trip.

In 1929 Texas had 2,430,715 potential voters—potential in the sense that they were 21 years or older. In that year 811,104 persons actually voted or a fraction more than one-third.

ONE COW VS. ONE DOZEN

"Why milk twelve poor cows when one good cow will do the work of the twelve?" asks the bulletin of the American Bankers Association Agricultural Commission. It declares that analysis of more than 100,000 individual yearly records from cow on test in dairy herd improvement associations indicate that on the average:

Cows that produced 100 lbs. butterfat a year returned $14 each over feed cost.

Cows that produced 200 lbs. butterfat a year returned $54 each over feed cost.

Cows that produced 300 lbs. butterfat a year returned $96 each over feed cost.

Cows that produced 500 lbs. butterfat a year returned $178 each over feed cost.

In other words, one 500-pound producer will return $10 more over feed cost than twelve 100 lb. producers. This does not take into account, either the added labor of milking and caring for the larger herd, or the much greater expense of providing stable room for a dozen instead of a single animal. The figures are based on farm prices from all parts of the country.

TECH MILK TESTING BY MODERN EQUIPMENT

LUBBOCK, Texas, April 4.—The West Texas By Mail Cow Testing Association, located at the Texas Technological College and directed by K. M. Renner, head of the dairy products and manufacture department of the college is thoroughly equipped with modern and standard equipment and is now in operation.

Several days ago, supplies, instructions and other material were mailed out to twelve members that have approximately 100 cows. The first shipment of samples of milk to be tested was received Wednesday, May 29, from J. T. Cochrell, of Moran, Texas, Shackelford County, 250 miles southeast of Lubbock.

The association makes available to all farmers and dairymen of West Texas official information on the production of their dairy cattle at a nominal charge. A flat charge of $2.75 per herd and $1.00 per cow is made for membership in the Association for a year. County Agents over West Texas will assist farmers and dairymen in keeping their feed records.

Sterling C. Evans, district agent of the Extension Service of the Texas A. & M. College was instrumental in organizing the association and under his direction county agents over West Texas will promote and cooperate with the association in an effort to obtain the best possible results to the dairy farmers of West Texas.

The Lubbock Chamber of Commerce has cooperated with the organization by buying equipment for the testing laboratories.

Hardware Firm to Give Prizes on Pigs

Mr. W. A. Bell of the Bell-Enderssen Hardware Company announces that his company will offer cash prizes amounting to thirty-five dollars to pig club members this year. This money will be divided into three cash prizes of twenty dollars as first prize, ten as second and five to the third winner. It will be offered on the fat or market class of club pigs that are to be exhibited at the County Fair this fall.

Mr. Bell believes that Terry County can produce as cheap pork as can be produced in the U. S. and that hog feeding is a profitable business that every farmer should engage in as far as his skim milk will permit.

Under the rules any Terry county boy or girl may feed one or more pigs of either sex and of any breed or cross breed. Any ration may be fed just so some skim milk is fed throughout the feeding period which begins any time between now and June 15 and lasts until the opening day of the Fair, September 27th.

The following rules will govern this feeding contest which will be carried on in connection with 4-H club work.

1. Any boy or girl who is enrolled in a 4-H club of Terry county, is eligible.
2. One or more pigs of either sex, of any breed or cross breed may be fed.
3. Pigs must have been farrowed on or before March 1st of this year.
4. Records must start on or before June 15th and will close September 27th.
5. Pigs must be weighed at beginning of record and every month hereafter and gain for that month reported to the county agent and to Mr. Bell.
6. Final weights will be made at Fair grounds, September 27th.
7. Skim milk must form a part of the ration.

9. Awards will be made by a committee on the following basis:

- (a) Highest average daily gain 50%
- (b) Lowest cost per pound gain 50%

old grain dies, and the re-incarnation of the old into the new—But O God, the unexplained mystery of growth. The planting of that grain of corn how like the planting of human ideas—The teacher is the seedman, and good sound wholesome ideas must be like the sound grain of corn, so to, must the brain soil be properly for the planting of human ideas or else the harvest will be unsatisfactory. Out of the old corn comes the new. Something about that grain of corn that never dies—Same can be said of human ideas, added thereto and multiplied, hence this vast sum of human intelligence—We said that a human idea was like a grain of corn, the teacher plants an idea in the plastic mind of youth, the old idea germinates, then dies, and a new idea is born in the plastic mind of youth, that is if he be an individualist and not a copycat, puts new clothes on it and sends it out on dress parade, and thus, we get a concept of the evolution of human thought, growth, passing on, passing on—Another lesson we get out of the planting of the grain of corn or an idea, we would liken each of them to this body of corn, it too is a grain of corn and an ideal of creation, and the human tree grows a pace, though not just properly rooted, has rotten spots, doughty places, weak spots, dead limbs, etc. But with all the lights before us, we've done the very best that we could, and some day, bye me bye, this human grain of corn is going to die, the material stuff will again mingle with Mother Earth—But this mystic something, life, spirit, mind or soul, call it whatever you may, will it like the grain of corn be re-incarnated, walk out of the old tomb house, enter that unexplored realm where things physical are barred, and live forever? Is man endowed with the elements of immortality—This mind that has directed and given cunning to the hands, and they have carved and hewn, builded temples, adorned picture galleries with great paintings, builded stages, wrote drama, fiction and poetry, and filled the libraries of the world with mummied thoughts—Tell me not O Man that the Soul is only a myth, and that Immortality is only a dream and not a fact.—By Richard H. McCarty, Albany News. (Copyright McVeigh Country Newspaper Syndicate).

J. W. Jones, of Erath county, Texas, is here visiting his brother, S. W. and N. W. Jones.

CORN PLANTING TIME

The blue-bird has returned from its winter sojourn, it's now building its nest in the hollow barn log.—The dogwood trees over there on the mountain side are in bloom, hence it's corn planting, the soil has been especially prepared, broke up deep like, harrowed and pulverized ready for the seedman—It's steaked off, deep plowing, subsoiled that the grain of corn may find lodgement in the rich humus soil, and ever keep in touch with the moisture. The seed corn has been selected with care, all through the fall and winter months every time Uncle Tom found a big well developed ear of corn, filled clear out to the end of the cob with fat plump grains, it was put aside for corn planting—You can't plant defective seed corn and get a good yield, and besides the soil must be properly cultivated or else you will have a lean harvest. Then away down there in its dark womb, the grain of corn swells and bursts, the

MAKING AUTOMOBILE TRANSPORTATION SAFER

Every year, as thousands of additional automobiles come into use and traffic congestion grows, the accident risk increases.

This is being offset to a great extent by the trend in automobile construction and modern highway design.

Present-day cars, with four-wheel brakes, non-shatterable glass and all steel bodies, give the rider a maximum of mechanical protection. In an emergency any one of these features may very easily mean the difference between a fatality and a slight mishap.

The new trend in highway building is likewise conducive to the highest possible degree of safety. Engineering specifications call for wider roads many of them capable of carrying four cars abreast, with smooth "non-skid" surfaces and banked turns.

New roads are being built and old roads rebuilt to conform to these modern standard of safety and comfort. Motor car manufacturers are using all-steel bodies and equipping their machines with modern safety devices. As a result, in spite of high-speed driving and heavy traffic, motoring dangers are being minimized.

We had an announcement this week stating that Forrest Reeves, formerly of Gomez, was graduating this year from Southern Methodist University. Forrest is the son of Mrs. Reeves, who was for a number of years postmistress of Gomez, and will be remembered by all the old timers.

County Clerk Rex Headstream, accompanied by his brother, Wade, left this week for Dallas, where he will attend the state convention of county and district clerks. After the convention is over, they will spend the balance of the week in visiting relatives in and around Roby, we understand.

Paul Crawford, employee of the Hunter Drug Store, left Saturday night for Paris, Texas, where he will visit his parents for a few weeks.

J. C. McAtter, of Meadow, is now a reader of the Herald, complimentary of his son-in-law here.

JUNE TO BE MONTH OF RAGGED MONEY; 857,000,000 SMALL BILLS

Washington, D. C.—If the paper money you get during June has a ragged and disheveled air, don't blame the banks, they can't help the situation.

More dirty money will be in circulation during the next few weeks than ever before, for the Treasury already has ceased issuing the old greenbacks in preparation for the issuance of the new and smaller bills which go into circulation the first week of July.

The Treasury expects to have recalled all of the present bills by the end of November, and 857,000,000 new bills of all denominations will be passed out in the first issue.

The saving in paper and printing costs, plus longer wear, resulting from use of the smaller bills is expected to be $2,000,000 a year.

"THAT QUESTIONNAIRE"

Some weeks ago the press was full of an episode occurring in the University of Missouri. It all came about a certain Questionnaire that had been produced and circulated among the students of that institution both male and female. It was the work of a student and two professors of that institution.

It kinder shook up all the latent morals of the patrons of the institution as well as the Legislature and the offenders were at once removed from their places in the institution.

None of the newspapers however, that I have read, enlightened the public as to the intimate details of the transaction, but in the last few days I have been able to secure a copy of the Questionnaire and it is a hum-dinger.

Its rather intimate and obscure nature prevent most publications from using it, but I am of opinion that it should be given wide publicity that parents and others may have an inkling of what is taking place in the schools and colleges that are supported by the state, as it is hardly probable that such questionnaire would emanate from a church school.

It is now some twenty or more years ago when we began to hear that the laws governing sex relations should be taught in our schools; that girls and boys should be made wise as to sex and sex relations; that mothers and fathers were no longer able to impart the necessary information to their children; that it was all important that girls should be made acquainted with relations that hitherto they had learned among their associates or picked up from observation or was revealed to them after marriage.

Soon books began to come from the press bearing the stamp of some professor this or that, or some Reverend, "What a boy ought to know" or a "Girl ought to know," and most of them too purient to be admitted to any household where purity of thought was necessary.

Knowledge of sex relations are no bar to doing wrong. I don't believe that any girl or boy has been made better by the perusal of such literature, but on the contrary many have been lead to spend valuable time on such matters and possibly lead astray by much misinformation. No one, male or female need any sex literature who attend the average movie.

The response to the five hundred Questionnaires issued to the girls at the Missouri Institution was followed by two hundred responses on the part of the girls—don't you know it was a feast to the sex perverts who engineered the scheme?

The Questionnaire to girls consists of five paragraphs subdivided in each to a. b. c. d. e.

Paragraph 5 the most decent— (a) Would you favor the establishment of a system of "trial" marriage wherein a man and a woman would be expected, not only, but privileged to live in intimacy for some days or weeks prior to their definite marriage in order to determine whether or not they were compatible? (b) Would you favor the establishment of a legal system of "Companionate Marriage" which would require for its dissolution merely a public announcement made by mutual agreement of parties without any appeal to the courts?

Biology and Sociology are frank enough to bring an occasional blush. Mother Eve instituted the fig leaf—but then she was an old timer.

"God of our fathers be with us yet, Lest we forget, Lest we forget."

Most of this section was visited by another rain Thursday night. Something near an inch falling in Meadow.

The late plantings are now coming up and if no disaster comes the fields will soon be green and the "tender footed" will again be able to smile.

Memorial Day passed without much attention being given it here. There were no flags in evidence, no special services, no placing of flowers on the graves, although there are three veterans of the World War buried here.

We were favored however with some special services over Radio and heard tributes to the veterans of our last three wars. The Confederates, who are now but a hand full, gray haired, stooped and with faltering steps are nearing their earthly end; The Spanish War which seems but yesterday has now its gray haired men, many of them very old men. Most of its prominent leaders like Roosevelt, Wheeler, Lee and Miles have all gone over the Divide. Many also of the more prominent leaders of the World War just past ten years, have Gone West and the present condition of the world today is at best an armed peace. Only this morning I listened to a preacher talk of the end of all war. The League, The Kellogg Pact and the various organizations for peace, that it would be almost impossible to start a war.

He forgot such men as Mussolini and others of his ilk in every nation are so placed that they can start the artillery and machine guns any day that suits their mood. The world is still ruled by jingoes and others that want a place in the Sun. There have been wars somewhere every year of my natural life. Let us hope that our country will be prepared for it when it arrives—as it will arrive.

This time its a boy at the home of Hayden Warren. The Stork is a dependable bird, only give him time.

A few evenings since some very select fellows came through our berg waving arms and bottles and incidentally telling us they were the real thing. Our deputy gave chase and caught up near Brownfield and after a few preliminary checks were given and the gang were much wiser and perhaps sadder, but I doubt if much better.

"So you've come for your wife — well we'll let Her decide!"

As the words of his wife's letter burst in his brain, it seemed impossible that Janet could have written it. No word of endearment, not even a hint of regret. And they had been so gloriously happy.

"So you're the loving husband! And you've come for your wife! Well—we'll see what she thinks about that." He turned to Janet. "Are you going with me, Janet? We'll let you decide."

Two days later he had traced and found her in a hotel room—but how changed since the day she had fled! How she clung to him, sobbing, refusing to explain, pleading frantically for him to go.

Her eyes, desperate with mute appeal, wavered from one to the other; her lips trembled in a piteous attempt to speak. Finally she voiced her decision—and thus launched one of the most astounding dramas ever unfolded in a woman's life.

"He may come any minute," she cried. "He will kill you—kill us both. For myself I don't care. I want to die. But I won't sacrifice you. There are things I can't explain. I love you, I swear it. You are everything in the world to me, but—"

Who was this man? What did he mean in Janet's life? Why had she fled the security of marriage and the happiness of a devoted husband's love to go away with this stranger? This amazing situation has at last been explained in "Why She Disappeared," in July True Story Magazine.
