Brownfield to Have All City Conveniences

With the coming of natural gas, which will be turned on here by the first of August for commercial purposes, as well as domestic heating and cooking, and the paving of our streets this fall, this city will be equipped with all the modern conveniences our largest cities enjoy with the exception of street cars, and no no cities that did not already have street cars previous to the coming of the motor bus are putting them in these days. So no new city, however large, has street cars added to their conveniences these days, that we are aware of.

We have one of the best water-works systems in this section of the country, with an abundance of pure cool water at the turn of the spigot. There is no water famine ever heard of here, and the water superintendent never has to warn people to conserve, for the one big well furnishes all the water two big centrifugal pumps of 250 gallons per minute capacity each will put out. We are badly in need of some water extension to cover some of the outlying sections of the city that has been built up since the mains were laid, and some that could not be reached at that time. Bonds will probably have to be voted for this purpose, as the water system barely pays the upkeep.

We have a fine city owned sewerage system, but like the water system needs some extensions in order that the city might be able to force people to tie on. There are yet many open toilets over the city which menace the health of every person here that should be compelled to connect with the city sewerage. This sewerage service is entirely free after you pay the one fee for connection, which is small.

Our electric light and power plant, like the water and sewer system, is city owned and the rates are in line with those of cities being served by the large power companies. With the installation of a new engine which has been purchased from the West Texas Gas Co., and which will use natural gas for fuel, the city will have two complete power units to keep the plant going if one has to undergo repairs.

Now comes natural gas, the perfect fuel, and paving in the near future. And while we are it, we might say that with the building of the new high school building costing $75,000 we will be equipped with a school second to none. All the old well established denominations are represented here with substantial church buildings.

What more could you demand of a town in which you expect to live, rear and educate your family?

Farm Lands Due For Big Rise in Values

"As we come to consider the situation with reference to agriculture at this time, we should not overlook the fact that the present price of land, in comparison with the inflated American dollar, is one of the cheapest commodities on the American market."

"Agriculture is today at the very threshold of its greatest prosperity. It is the soundest industry in the United States today. Owners of farmlands, whether they live upon the farms or are non-resident owners or have investment in farm mortgage loans, will undoubtedly hold the most advantageous position of any class of citizens of the United States during the 25-year period just ahead of us."

The above statements made by noted economists in one of our Farm Journals are made in their broadest meanings and cover the entire U. S. While they are optimistic yet they have sufficient reasons for their statements and prophecies.

Land, as cattle, sheep, hogs and all other commodities, has its low and high prices. In as much as it is the basis of all wealth and is now one of the cheapest commodities it stands to reason that it is due for a rise in value.

Plans Are Being Made For the County Fair

It is about two months until the County Fair which will be held here, but it is high time to start working for them two days, Sept. 27-28.

The fair last year was exceptionally good, but this year it should surpass last year, and rival the South Plains Exhibition at Lubbock in the number and quality of exhibits. The clubs are making preparations for the finest club and community booths that have ever been shown. Mr. J. D. Tinsley, the judge of last year, has promised to judge the exhibits again this year if it is at all possible for him to attend.

The general agricultural exhibits will again be under the supervision of John B. King, and there is every promise that his department will again be filled with exhibits of the various crops.

The livestock department will be much stronger this year than has ever been shown in Terry county. The dairy cattle department will be considerably better, and keep competition in the younger classes. The hog division will be a Fair within itself. Better hogs in every class can not be found on the Plains than will be shown here this fall.

The Textile, Culinary, Vegetables and Canned Fruit, and the Plant and Flower divisions will be greatly enlarged this year. A more complete list of the classes and premiums have been worked out by the Sup't. of these departments and every effort will be made to make the ladies part of the exhibits the most attractive and educational part of the fair.

Don't wait until a few days before the Fair to prepare your exhibit. If you have not already canned some fruit and vegetables why now is the time. All canned stuff should be in quart jars, preferably with glass lids. The judges will give preference to fancy packs. All canned fruit, vegetables, and meats must be edible but attractiveness counts quite a bit. With the fine fruits of this year why there should be a great display of every variety of fruit grown in this country.

The Fair catalogue will be published soon. The various department superintendents will be appointed and preparations made for the greatest County Fair in all Texas.

W. B. Brown and family of Richard Springs visited Clarence Lewis and family the past week. Mr. Brown was Clarence's buddy during the late unpleasantness, both being stationed with the coast guard units in Honolulu.

Nearly 1300 factories have been established in Mexico during the last few years. The plants employ more than 50,000 workers.

Wingerd Gets Contract For Needmore School

As stated in these columns last week, the contract was to have been let the past Friday for the erection of the modern brick and tile building for the Needmore Independent School District. At the time the Gomez contract was let, there was some hitch in the Needmore plans that required it to go over another week.

Roy Wingerd, a local contractor was the successful bidder for the job, his bid being in the neighborhood of $12,000, we understand. We were not able to get the exact figures. Construction will be started just as soon as material can be assembled on the ground, and rushed to completion so as to be turned over to the board of trustees as soon as possible after the new term starts. We understand that Higginbotham-Bartlett of this city will furnish the material, most of which will be unloaded at Meadow as that railroad point is nearer Needmore.

In the olden days, when even the best farmers here considered the county in the experimental stage, the rural districts of the county, or most of them would build the very cheapest little shack they could make out with. They would do all they thought they could in the way of public subscription in the community, and then bring the list to town and get all they could here, and finish up with a few pie suppers. Union was the first district to break away from the plan and build a permanent brick building. To, they soon found that Brownfield was burdened with their own schools, and that it was not right for them to keep up the schools in other communities. The county passed the experimental stage agriculturally, and the people begin to demand schools like the communities about them. Thus our rural school communities are building for the future with comfortable permanent buildings, and are bonding themselves to pay for them.

In this way they are inviting new settlers to come to their districts, and everyone of these will help to pay off these bonds as they mature. These country schools are just as efficient, and have just as good instructors as the best city schools, as far as they carry the student, and their graduates can enter any high school without examination.

J. C. White and family have returned from Texarkana and Wichita Falls, where they visited relatives. Jay said he killed some squirrels and did a lot of good fishing while in Bowie county.

SLATON reports that 400 cars of wheat from the Panhandle section and the South Plains are being handled through that terminal of the Santa Fe daily.

Preacher Supervises A 2,000 Acre Farm

Rev. H. D. Heath, a Missionary Baptist preacher, who is now farming northwest of Tokio in Yoakum county, reports a two inch rain on his farms the past Saturday.

Mr. Heath is supervising 2000 acres this year, every acre of which, including fence rows is clean, and every acre is covered with a good stand of crops.

He has 1300 acres of cotton, more than you would have suspected there was in Yoakum county, that promises to yield up toward a bale per acre. Few men in their prime have a bigger job than does this former pastor who spent the first 35 years of his manhood in the ministry.

Mr. Heath's farming operations would remind you of the plantations of the Old South in that he does intensive farming on an extensive scale. However, not all of the time is spent in the fields among those long, straight cotton rows.

There is a small herd of registered and graded Jersey that are cared for and they return in the neighborhood of $100.00 per month in cream. There are also the hog lots that are kept filled with good pigs grown on the place. Then there is the work mares which are doing double duty because they have fine mule colts at their sides which will take their places from year to year. There are about 70 mule colts raised each year.

Along with the many acres of crops are truck patches that furnish each family with vegetables that are canned as well as eaten fresh. The preserve cooker has found its way to this farm, and fresh meats as well as fruits and vegetables are available at all times.

Not all the time on this large farm is spent at work. A pack of grey hounds is kept and are always ready for the coyote chase. Even in selecting the wolf hound Mr. Heath followed his custom of having only the best and procured dogs which were registered. He says it pays to keep the best.

Getting Canned Fruits Ready For Co. Fair

Mrs. M. O. Proctor and Mrs. T. E. Loe of the Johnson community, report that they are busy canning and expect to have a display of fruits, vegetables and meats at the County Fair on Sept. 27-28.

Mrs. Proctor states that she canned a hog June 1st, and that every can was good. The old way of eating salt meat does not suit her family.

Texas spent $65,128,019 on public schools in 1928.

GREETINGS TO OUR BIG TRADE TERRITORY

Brownfield Merchants Will Appreciate Your Business Not By Spouting Hot Air, But by Giving Quality Merchandise at Lowest Possible Cost

The merchants and other business men of the city of Brownfield are making a special effort this week to interest more people in trading in this city, and as a means to this end, they in conjunction with the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce and the Herald printing plant have all combined to put on one of the largest advertising campaigns ever undertaken by a city the size of Brownfield on the Plains. In fact, they are not satisfied with a few of the people coming here to trade who are regarded as being somewhere about the dividing point of this and other cities, but are going out after more of this trade, and propose to show them why it will be to their advantage to trade here.

The town or city, yea, the individual who find themselves satisfied are needed for the rocks with quite some speed. There is nothing in nature that is on a stand still. The rock is either gathering more moss and dirt which it turns into more rock, thus constantly enlarging itself, or it is being crumbled by the floods of time. If we let well enough alone, Well Enough will go to some other town or city to do his shopping. Yes, he knows us alright, but perhaps some other town is introducing itself to Mr. Well Enough each week. Therefore, we must keep everlastingly at the game. It is true that Brownfield is constantly enlarging its territory, but the merchants are using space in the paper then backing it up with real service when they come. Those merchants are not laying down on the job. But they have conceived this big co-operative campaign, which is being run in the Herald this week with the idea of going out further after people to come here to do their shopping.

It is true that there are a few here who refuse to co-operate, and who scarcely ever use any space whatsoever, depending on his competitor to bring the people here thinking he will get the advantage of any slop-over trade that might come their way, but there are few drones here comparatively speaking. But they are in every town and the live merchant can't lay down on the job just to spite them, for he realizes that the town would soon be just a cross roads village—the kind these merchants would lead one to believe they want. But they are just as anxious for this trade as anyone, but are unwilling to put up the gaff to help out. We have this condition in the schools. Some raise children, others put up the tax money to educate them. In the churches some pay for the seats, the incidentals and the hire of the pastor, but the lone enjoys the services as well as anyone. But people are fast learners who is and who is not catering to their trade and welcoming them each week to their store, and it won't be long now until they will either invite people or quit business.

The merchants who have underwritten this advertising campaign and put up the money for the distribution through the mails and otherwise, extend the heartiest greeting to the people of this territory, and if you have not been coming to Brownfield to do your trading, they ask you just to come one time and give them a trial, and then if they are not able to save you money on high grade merchandise, they will not say one word if you tell them that they have failed. All they ask is one trial and they will endeavor to convince you.

They have unusually large stocks, and you will be able to find most anything you need in the city to eat, wear or use. In fact, visitors here are often heard to remark that the average merchant in this city carries the largest stocks of any town they ever visited anything like near our size. These stocks often compare favorably with like stocks carried in cities of 10,000 to 20,000 inhabitants. And you will not find any worn, rundown stocks here either, unless you happen into the store of some non-advertiser, for the merchants here with the use of the power and pull of advertising keep their goods sold while it is in style or season and are constantly replenishing with the latest and best the market affords.

This can only be done with our huge trade territory which is constantly being filled with more and more happy, prosperous people. Even if you do have to go several miles further, it will pay you to do your shopping in Brownfield. Over the week end many of our merchants have a great many special bargains in anything you eat, wear or use, that will save you at least your gas and oil bill to come and get, probably more. Some of our merchants are talking of sending the Herald for a few months on trial to those who live out of Terry county and express an interest in trading here in order to give them a chance of keeping up with these weekly bargains. If you are interested, speak about the matter to the merchant you do business with, and maybe he and the Herald can arrange for you to get the Herald weekly for two or three months, and in that time we are almost sure you will see that it will pay you to take it yourself.

You are always welcome to Brownfield.

Final Returns From Election Last Tues.

If it had not been for the bond election last Tuesday in which bonds were voted by the county for the paving of their portion of the streets around the court square, voters would probably have shown the same degree of indifference that most of the rural districts did. As it was, not more than a fifth of the voters cared to cast their ballot in this election. The following is the vote in Terry county on the two amendments as well as final returns on the bond issue:

Raising Governor's Salary	134
Against Salary Raise	398
For Increasing Court	141
Against Court Increase	376
For Paving Bonds	420
Against Paving Bonds	143

There was a clear majority of 134 votes for the paving bonds over the required two-thirds majority.

The Baptist parsonage is going up rapidly, and will soon be ready for the brick work. We don't if Ernest, when he gets domiciled in this new home will have very much to do with Warren and Life.

About 100 miles of railway lines are to be electrified in Spain.

New Store to Open About September 1st

The information comes to us that the old Tom Holley shack on the north side of the square will be torn down right away and make room for a modern brick building. The lease has already been taken by Fain & Company, a chain of variety stores, who will occupy this building when it is completed. We understand that W. G. Harris of the Harris Variety Store will have charge of the new store when it is completed. Mr. Harris is in Childress this week in the interest of the new firm. Some import as well as other merchandise is already arriving for the new store.

The new building and the lot on which it will be erected is the property of Raymond Barrier. He will let the contract for the new building as soon as plans and specifications are approved, we understand.

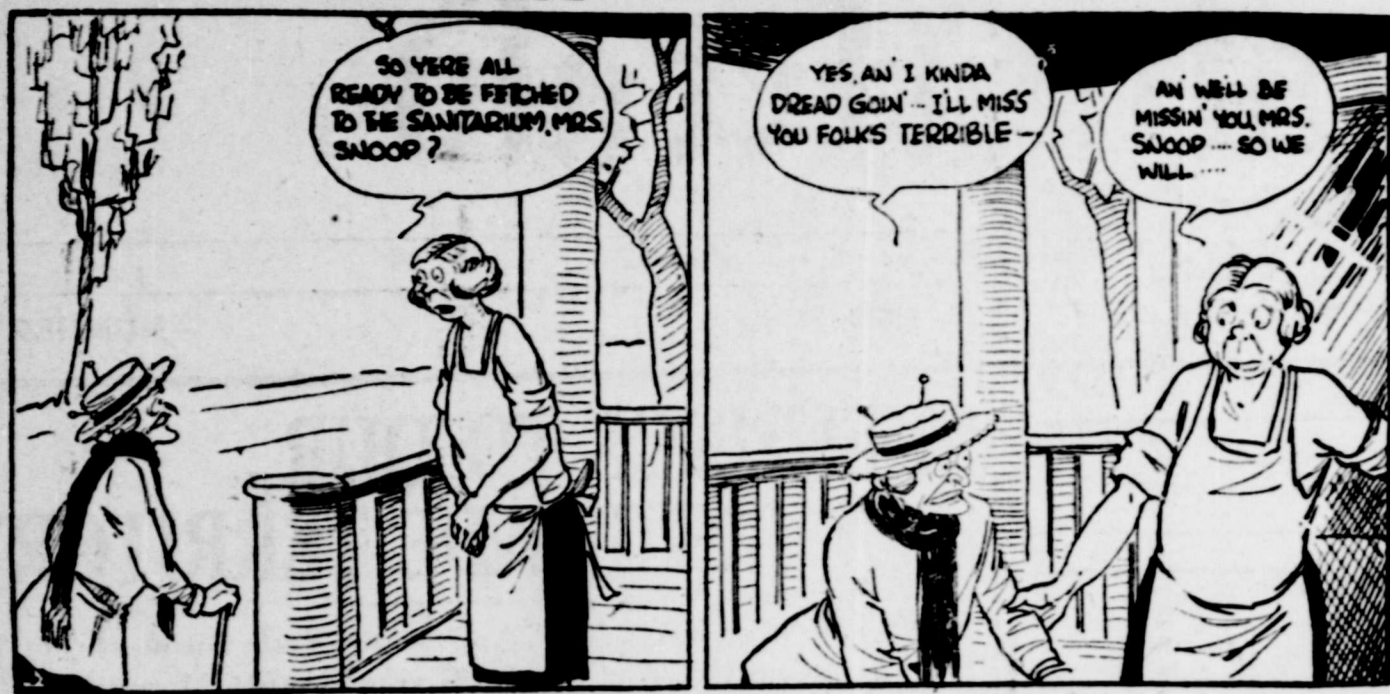

C. Sears was in with some fine sheets for the market last Friday. In fact, almost every farmer that came in that day had a few porkers on their wagons or trailers, and it was thought there would be two or three cars to go out Saturday.

We thank J. W. Neal for renewal of his Herald the past week.

After the assembly at Lamesa on August 26th, a visit to Carlsbad and the Cavern has been planned. The motorcade is scheduled to arrive in Carlsbad on the evening of August 27th, where they will be met and entertained by the Chamber of Commerce. The visit to the Cavern will be made the next day, where a program will be rendered either in the King's Palace or Big Room in the Cavern.

The young people have been invited to remain in Carlsbad the second night where an opportunity will be offered for an aquatic meet at Carlsbad bathing beach.

OIL TEST IS NEAR 4,000 FEET

Although the contract depth on the test oil well being drilled by the Ash Syndicate five miles west of Tahoka was reached several days ago, the drillers are going on down. They had reached a depth of 3815 Monday afternoon and stated that they were drilling approximately 100 feet daily. We were unable to learn how deep they expect to drill before abandoning the hole if oil is not found.

It was currently reported that a showing of oil was encountered several weeks ago but it was not believed to exist in paying quantities.—Tahoka News.

HOUSTON FAMILY BROUGHT NEWS OF SECESSION TO TEX.

Mrs. Theodore Lubbock, of Houston, says her family brought the first news of secession to Texas. In a recent interview, Mrs. Lubbock said: "My family, which emigrated from Mississippi to Texas in 1859, brought the first news of the impending secession of South Carolina from the Union. The news was several weeks old, but it electrified the whole Matagorda section where we had determined to settle. Anvils were fired by the enthusiastic people who quickly gathered, and in great excitement discussed the event which they apparently believed was to carve from the Union an independent government. I remember that one man's foot was accidentally shot off in the anvil firing."

Mrs. Lubbock is 93 years old, but has a splendid memory of early days. She was born in Mobile in 1836. She plays the piano perfectly and is an expert in playing such games as pitch and bridge.

WHO WOULD BELIEVE IT?

According to Dr. M. L. Condon of Chicago, a person may be wrongfully accused of alcoholic indulgence if only the evidence apparently disclosed by the breath is taken at full value.

In other words, the doctor declares that the characteristic odor of the alcohol breath may be caused by many things besides alcoholic drinks, among which he names the following:

- Eating several apples.
- Eating too much ice cream.
- Eating many oranges.
- Drinking sweet cider.
- Eating new bread.

Now, if a nosy official, or scandal monger, or the good wife, charges a fellow with having imbibed of contraband beverages, this statement by Dr. Condon may be offered as an alibi.

The only weakness of the argument is suggested by the question: Who would believe it?—Miami Chief.

Little Isaac was crying bitterly on one of the main streets of a big city. His sobs soon brought a large crowd about him. He was a miserable looking little wretch and his howls were loud and terrifying. An elderly woman stepped from the crowd and, placing an arm around the boy, asked sympathetically:

"What's the matter, my child? Are you lost?"

The boy sobbed on for a moment and then paused. He looked all around at the large audience he had assembled. Then, lifting up his voice, he shouted, loudly:

"Yes, ma'am, I'm lost. Will somebody please take me home to Jacob Silverstein, the well-known clothier of the West End, who has just got in his new stock of spring overcoats, suits, neckties, shirts, hats and umbrellas, which he will sell cheaper than anyone else in the city?"

Official paper of Terry County.

You are always welcome to Brownfield. And it is the best place to do your trading.

If only one in one hundred respond to the advertising campaign being put over this week, the business men here will be well paid for the cost of putting it out.

What is supposed to be gold was found in fuller's earth over near Turkey, Texas. It appears that someone is always determined to ruin a real farming section on the south plains to make a gold and oil country of it.

There is only a few more days left for you to transfer your children to high school from other districts in the county. The money allotted to them by the state goes a long way toward paying their tuition. See that this is done before the first of August.

They have an old sow up at the A. & M. College of Colorado that weighs 1123 pounds. She must have come from a half ton litter. In the old days when they got a hog to weighing 210 pounds dressed, in two years, they thought they were in the hog raising business.

With the first six months of the year gone, most of our business men are fully agreed that 1929 has been far ahead of the previous year so far, and they look for an even greater increase in the last half of the year. This is especially true as regards the consistent advertiser.

Lamesa has appointed a committee of electricians to try and discover the cause of radio interference before the radio season opens in the autumn, and they are instructed to try and remove the cause. This would be a good plan for Brownfield people to follow.

We note that many small children are permitted to drive cars over the streets here who have difficulty in reaching the steering wheel, and buzz by at a terrific rate of speed. A child was run over by one of these baby drivers last week, but the wonder is was not badly hurt. Better be safe than sorry.

We note from our exchanges that many of the cities of central West Texas are running shy of water, and are cautioning their people to go slow with it. A water famine is unheard of on the south plains, and our inexhaustible wells contain the purest of water. Brownfield has only one well, but it would probably care for one or two more thousand people.

The two amendments to the state constitution were put over by the big city voters, despite the protest of the farming and small town element. The trouble is that the city voter has learned the importance of casting his ballot when given an opportunity, while the farm and small city and town population does a lot of talking but little voting. If they don't take more interest in future elections than they did last Wednesday, most any old thing is likely to be put over on them.

Amarillo with a voting population probably more than 5,000, cast some 300 votes in the amendment election last Tuesday. In taking them to task for their indifference last Wednesday morning the gentleman who operates the broadcasting station up there told them that some grafter would come down from some of the large cities some of these days, hire some 300 or 400 voters and get charge of the city government, and he talked like he didn't care, as it would be the best way to learn them a lesson. Most Americans, and especially Texans are too lazy to vote in hot weather. They believe in letting George do it.

Up in a town in Nebraska the negro population has been run out of town. Of course the northern papers will barely record this fact, but if such happened down in the South where a Negro is nigger, and a white man is white, they'd chronicle the fact with much gusto and declare to the world that we were heathens, and should all be hung for treating the black man in such an unbecoming manner. It makes all the difference in the world as to is wearing the shoe.—Ropes Hustler.

We read an article the other day where a woman not only shot her husband, but pelted her rival with buck shot. Verily times are changing, and woman, the so-called weaker sex are coming into their own. The time was when man went forth and shot many holes in the gentleman who got too familiar with his wife, but if some woman stole the erring husband that was the end of it. That's all changed. When a modern Cleopatra comes snooping around she is inviting sudden and violent death, for the "wronged" wife secures her trusty automatic and goes gunning right off.—Ropes Hustler.

HUNTER NOTES

The Herald family took in services at Meadow Sunday, and went on to Ropes to carry Mrs. Meeks Stricklin, of Johnson county, to visit a nephew, Aubrey Thomas, for a week. It was late when we got there but we had a fine dinner, and got back home with a good mess of beans and potatoes. Saw good crops, but they are needing rain.

Our old friend, Jessie May called on the Herald a few minutes one day this week. His family which was vacationing at Ruidoso, N. M., were called here to attend the funeral of Mrs. Gladys Green.

FEDERAL TIRE SERVICE

Threatens to Sue Herald on Contest

Tom May thinks he has been framed in the Yo Yo contest held here last Saturday, and has laid the whole blame for his defeat at the feet of the Herald man. He at first tried to get the Herald to repay his entrance fee, and when we refused telling him that he was trying to blackmail us, he threatened suit. Everett Michie also considers that he did not get a square deal, and is threatening reprisals, but he and Tom simply took buck-ages when the contest started, or were overconfident, and Bob Gage and Luther French easily took the lead from them.

Both are demanding a return match and are busily engaged practicing every day. Michie stands in behind his prescription case out of sight of customers about every thirty minutes to throw the Yo Yo. We learn that Tom has recently completed one out of a piece of 2X24 cypress, which is kept in stock for making "hoss" troughs. He is using a piece of lariat rope 36 feet long for a string, and is doing his stuff from the top of the Shamburger sheds.

Judge Neill has also caught the habit, but as the small commercial sizes looked to much like child play, and he being a staid, dignified lawyer, he invented one out of two syrup bucket lids, with spokes printed on the sides. He is using a trot-line to hold 'er.

Earl Jones is using a film reel and works it from the second story of the Rialto Theatre.

The American people are just beginning to learn to play, and with it they are living longer and staying young longer. Formerly we were all to dignified to play after reaching a certain age, but now we are boys and girls as long as we are permitted to stay on this old terrestrial sphere.

MEADOW BRIEFS

(By Aesculapias)

From press reports we learn that the Legislature has passed the Anti-Evolution Bill. This was of course expected as there has been quite a lobby of second rate preachers and other foolish folks demanding the legislation, and contrary to belief and convictions members have yielded to their importunities.

I have not seen the text of the bill and do not know its provisions. It perhaps follows the lines laid down by other states. It of course matters little in the way of suppressing the doctrine and will be observed by teachers in tax supported schools and of course church schools in most states.

The colleges and universities of the country will continue to teach it as a religion of life by natural causes. The action smacks very much of Papish Bulls and Encyclicals of the Middle Ages and will fizzle out in time just as they did. In this case however the Roman Church has not demanded nor asked the legislation along the line. They have learned better and are allowing the Protestants to make asses of themselves.

The objections come from those who would have us believe that they are not of the same flesh and blood as the other mammalia; that in some mysterious way they are far superior to what they are pleased to call the lower animals.

The mind of man and through it his ability to reason in a superior way is all that separates man from the brutes. Nature or God if you please is quite as considerate to the veriest bug or worm as to man. Each is put to the greatest effort in the struggle for existence and each finally succumb to the inevitable dissolution of the body and return to the elements of which it is composed.

Whatever other endowments we may have are left to hope and faith of the believer in immortality. Like Swineburn I am inclined to

"Thank whatever gods there be
That no life lives forever,
That dead men rise up never,
That any weary river winds
Somewhere safe to sea."

I am therefore not inclined to think that their action will cause any appreciable stir except among those who have a vacuum in their cranium. God is still with us and the sun shines as of old. Changes continue and "Ancient fools but die to make A place on earth for modern Fools to take."

Through the usual apathy of the voters the Constitutional Amendments were carried and we will have six more "Old men of the Sea" about our necks at ten thousand a year. The balance of the politicians will be in the running for Governor and a warm seat on the Bench. Moody will be able to pay his political debts, if any and build up his chances for the Senate. May the Lord have mercy on our souls and pocket books.

Several of our citizens are having themselves adjusted and their spines straightened at Lubbock. We are acquainted with the gentleman doing the work and if there is any possible chance to benefit by his treatment he will succeed as he is a master of his craft.

Since last week the Stork has visited the homes of C. C. Bailey, a girl, W. H. Duke, a boy, W. H. Timmons, a boy. The Plains are rapidly filling up, if we should bar the door to immigration the present bunch now located here, and know what they are about, would have it peopled in a decade. However with the increased deaths from autos, airplanes, rail roads and dead prohibition officers together with the hapless bootlegger, the birth rate must perforce be high.

The meeting at the Church of Christ closed Sunday night with nine additions to the church. Some of them by confession and baptism and others by reclamation. May each keep his and her vows intact and follow the Master in doing good, relieving the distressed, as far as able and thus be worth something to the country and community in which they reside.

Creed: and professions are worth little unless backed up by a practical christian life. Service is the one and only indication that one has accepted Christ. You can believe this or not it isn't compulsory.

The editor and his wife were among us Sunday. Said he had come to hear preaching and incidentally, I imagine, strip the meat from some chicken's leg with a large slice of pie on the side.

Dr. Boone of Lubbock, an old acquaintance of ye scribe was down Sunday attending the meeting. He came there less than a year ago and is highly pleased with the Plains. Says he is having plenty to do Chiro-ing the halt and the lame.

Notice to Rural and Star Route Patrons

The No. 2 large mail box only shall be provided and erected by patrons of rural and star routes on and after July 1, 1929.

All approved mail boxes now in use on rural and star routes may be continued so long as they are weather-proof and in servicable condition, but patrons on new routes, new patrons on old routes, or extensions thereof, or patrons desiring to provide boxes of sufficient capacity to contain parcel post mail, will be required to furnish the No. 2 large size box on and after July 1, 1929. Any other kind of mail box, or any other size than the above described, erected on rural or star routes after July 1, 1929, will not be served by the carrier.

The United States Government expends annually over 100,000,000 main taining Rural Free Delivery of mail in the rural districts of the United States, and it is expected that each patron will comply with the regulations governing mail boxes. Patrons whose boxes are in leaky condition, signal or flag removed, door removed or any other of these irregularities, must replace them or service will be ordered withdrawn by the Postoffice Department as soon as these irregularities are reported, and carriers are now checking up on the boxes, and a report will be made to the Postoffice Department soon relative to the condition of boxes on the routes out of Brownfield. Patrons please take a bit of pride in keeping your mail boxes in neat and servicable condition. Paint your boxes white, and your name on the side of the box from whence the carrier approaches it, and erect it in a handy and accessible position for the carrier to approach as possible, and we know that you will be benefited by doing these things.

When the carrier fails in any respect to give the service you deserve you are supposed to make a complaint, and that carrier is compelled to make a report of any irregularities in your part in not keeping your boxes in servicable condition, and erected on substantial support, and erected on a level—that is, not in a ditch where the carrier's vehicle may slide into the barpit during wet roads. If we render you efficient service, you as patron must co-operate with us, and we expect you to do it.

Yours for better service.

BILL, YOU'RE GETTING OLD

After watching a few hundred tourists patching tires, doctoring boiling radiators, erecting tents and making camp for night, getting on wrong roads, having their sugar can occupied by ants and losing half their equipment, we have decided that it is pleasanter to stay at home under an electric fan and take our vacation in the fall and winter when temperatures are lower and one can put on enough clothes to keep warm. We'd rather freeze in a duck blind than roast in a touring car.—Garland News.

Bill, we know you hate to admit it, but you're getting old. You will remember when you used to slip off from mud and go swimmin'. There were no thermometers in those days—it was too hot, they couldn't live. You jumped in the swimming hole in the boiling sun. You came out with blisters as large as the palm of your hand. When you got home you had stone bruises on your heels, had knocked the nail off your little toe and stuck a thorn in the middle of your foot. Then the spots on your hide that didn't have blisters, your dad filled in the vacancies with applying a sapling. We may never ride in an airplane but be dogged on if we will allow ourselves to get so old we won't enjoy lying flat of our back and let Old Sol shoot his beams down on our shining countenance at the degree point of 106 in the shade while we are changing a punctured tire on our summer vacation. That would be exceedingly cool pleasure along side of the job the weekly editor performs getting out his paper.—Graham Leader.

Misses Maree and Pauline Gossett, of Paris, Tenn., were here the past week visiting their friend, Mrs. Ernest May.

June Pig Survey Shows Slight Shortage

The survey conducted by the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture as to the number of pigs produced this spring shows a shortage of about 8% which amounts to 4,250,000 pigs less than were produced last spring. The number of sows bred to farrow this fall is also below the number for last fall. This would indicate that market hogs are likely to be profitable for several months.

ALFALFA BILL COMES BACK HOME.

Alfalfa Bill Murray is coming back home, a disillusioned man. Alfalfa Bill gathered up scores of his Oklahoma farming neighbors a few years ago and took them with him to Bolivia, where the land of plenty flourished for the delectation of the adventuring agriculturist. Milk and honey filled the new Eden and no tiller of the soil could fail there to find food for his family and abundance for the sustenance of his declining years.

Into this eldorado of the plow went Alfalfa Bill and his daring band, to sew out and furrow up a new civilization and father a new Bolivia. The oil was there, and it was virgin. Timber abounded and game was any man's for the taking. Isolated in the wilderness, the Oklahomans were virtually their own law, their own commerce, their own fortune. But with no flivvers, no movies, no future markets, no book agents, no circuses, no baseball, no farm relief and no politicians to blame with conditions, Eden palled.

The adventurers slipped back home y families and by troops. Comes now Alfalfa Bill, last of all. His dream is broken, his castle shattered, his rainbow gone. Back to his Oklahoma he comes to gather up the breads of endeavor anew. The hills that he fled from seem blessings now. The frettings of civilization that irked him have lost their goading sharpness. To man liveth to himself and no man lieth to himself. Though our modern life bears down upon us from every side, we miss it when we step out of it. Liberty perishes when too much alone. Wealth in the wilderness is merely something to spend with nowhere to spend it. Exchangeability is the true riches, after all.—Dallas News.

W. C. Smith and family were called to Stratford, Okla., the past week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Smith's mother, who passed away at Rising Star, Texas, where he had gone for his health. Cecil, Jr., also went with him.

According to the census of 1900, there were 35 persons in Dawson county. If we are not mistaken, 17 resided in Terry at that time, but the county was unorganized.

Judge J. B. Rector, city attorney of Austin, who owns a fine section of land south of town five miles, was up his week and was carried out by C. R. Rambo, who looks after it for him. Mr. Rector anticipates putting the land in cultivation before long.

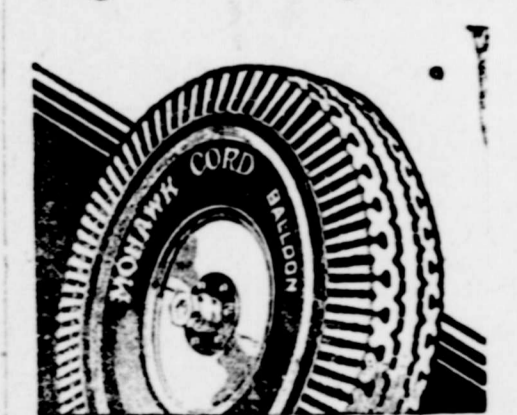

Plaintiff alleges that he has been a resident of the State of Texas for more than 12 months last passed and resided in Terry County for 6 months preceding the exhibiting of this petition. That on or about June 15, 1927, plaintiff and defendant were lawfully married and lived together as husband and wife until early spring of 1928. That the defendant is high tempered, quarrelsome and hard to get along with; that soon after their said marriage the defendant began a course of harsh cruel and nagging treatment of the plaintiff, that she constantly nagged him, causing him to lose his various jobs, that she would not live where he had provided a home for her and would not live with him and care for her family duties; that defendant has so mistreated plaintiff by continually harassing and nagging him until such treatment has made him sick in mind and body and has greatly impaired his health to such an extent that their further living together is insupportable. Plaintiff prays for judgment dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between them and that he be divorced from the defendant; for general and special relief in law and in equity.

FUTILE HOPE

A young man who ran out of gas on the outskirts of a large town saw a boy coming along the road carrying a big tin can. "Say, boy!" he yelled, "hope that is gasoline you have in that can."

"Well, I hope it ain't," returned the boy, with some heat as he continued on his way. "It would taste like the dickens on ma's pancakes."

WHY HE COULDN'T PAY

THE PAST DUE BILL

"I have your statement showing that I owe you $769.80, and I am enclosing a check for $5.00 for which please send me a receipt. I am sorry that I can not pay more at the present, as I am unable to collect from my customers, as money is so scarce right now. My own living expenses are terrible and I can hardly get along. I will try to send you another payment of $5.00 when I sell my hay, which should be in July. I can not pay you more at that time for my daughter finishes at Bristol this year, and that costs a heap of money.

"I thought I could send you a check when I got my tobacco money, but it took all I could rake and scrape to put in the Delco lights, as my wife didn't have electricity to run the sewing machine and the vacuum cleaner. Then, too, we had to build a shed for the Ford, so we could put the new Cadillac in the garage and build a concrete bridge over the brook in our front lot, as well as a new road, so we could get in and out better.

"I can't send you the corn money in the fall, because my son is going to college, and, although the lads of today are very economical about hats and garters, still a coon skin coat costs the old man a lot and even Junk yard Fords come rather high by the time they are decorated for college use. I might send you the hog money but the missus and I have planned a trip to Niagara in the fall, and after working hard all these years, I think she deserves a trip. We can't before taking out all the red plush and putting in over-stuffed cane and mahogany. This is a terrible strain on my finances especially as the new well that was needed closer to the house and the new up-to-date barn have to be paid for.

All the farmers here are in a hard place, financially, with strawberries his season at seventy-five cents a quart and the price of gasoline as it is. Then, too, there is an epidemic among the married women to have their plain gold wedding rings platinized and set with diamonds and everybody is having their tonsils and teeth removed."—Tulsa Bulletin.

PAINTROCK'S exports during one week recently included one car of sheep, and three cars of mixed stock. Eighteen cars of grain and 15 cars of wool have been shipped to date. Last year's cotton crop is expected to be equalled this year.

COMMANCHE will be visited by representatives from Aransas Pass, who are making arrangements to ship the Comanche county Carmen grape crop. Growers are urged to inspect the method of grading and packing, and inform themselves as to what they will be expected to offer.

HEMMIT will have a new $100,000 high school completed by Dec. 1st. Excavating work has already begun. The contract for plumbing and seating will include the installation of heating and plumbing in the old building. Supplies are being selected at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Jeter gave a big dinner Sunday. Ten children and eight grandchildren were present. Also Mr. and Mrs. Heir and family and Grandmother Lannis of Pleasant Valley.

A TRAFFIC TRAGEDY

A panicky pedestrian hesitated at the intersection of two busy streets. A motor car was rushing upon him by one direction; from another point a motorcycle was approaching rapidly; an auto was coming from behind, and a taxicab was speedily bearing down upon him from the fourth direction.

He gave a hopeless glance upward. Directly above him a runaway airplane was in rapid descent.

There remained for him but one resource. He was standing upon a manhole cover. Quickly seizing it he lifted the lid and jumped into the hole—and was run over by a subway train.

Some of Our Farmers Don't Want Rain Yet

We interviewed a number of farmers Saturday about the question of rain. No, it was not so much of an interview, but rather just a question of whether or not they were needing rain. Some of them in fact put the question themselves in the form of "when are we going to get another general rain?" But whether or not we put the question or they, we came to the conclusion that they were about evenly divided 50-50 for and against a rain at this time.

The nigger in the wood pile with most of those who are willing to do without rain for awhile yet is bugs and worms. For the past two or three years, and especially last year, the farmers had a battle royal with insects almost from the time the plant was out of the ground until frost. First the web worm, the flea hopper, the boll worm and then the leaf worm and Mr. Farmer is a bit afraid of his bitter enemy this year. Some seemed to think the cotton would fruit better, and they knew the old corn and feed needed rain if they were to mature good crops, and were willing to risk them in order to have rain on the crops now suffering, but ready to do their do or nothing.

The flea hoppers are reported to be in evidence in the Union community, and the Pleasant Valley section in this county, and Ropes farmers reported Sunday that they were getting busy in that section of this and Hockley counties. This is the hardest insect yet to poison, as he does not eat anything but the heart of the new forms that come on after the last dose of poison is probably washed or blown off.

As well as we like to advise the farmer, we must back up this time and leave the matter entirely between them and the weatherman as to whether or not they need rain. We do not have one ordered at this time, and those who want it may order or do their own praying.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Janes were over this week from Rotan, looking after business matters. Being old timers they stopped in at the Herald office to visit the editor, but he is sorry that he was out at the time. He was resident engineer here during construction of the Santa Fe.

There was a light rain here last Saturday morning that settled the dust and cooled the atmosphere. It was said to be heavier northwest of town.

MRS. GLADYS GREEN DIED LAST SATURDAY P. M.

Mrs. Violet Green, aged 25, wife of Gladys M. Green, druggist of this city, passed away at the Lubbock Sanitarium last Saturday afternoon at 1:35, following several week's illness. Besides her husband, she leaves a small son about 7 years of age, and the baby girl about two years old, both parents and a number of brothers and sisters. Roy Collier of the Brownfield Undertaking Co. brought the body back to this city immediately after death. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Huckabee of this county.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at four o'clock at the Baptist church, by Rev. E. V. May, her pastor. The services were attended by one of the largest crowds ever seen at a funeral in this city. Following the services the body was laid to rest in the Brownfield cemetery.

The active pall bearers were, Earl Alexander, of Plainview, Geo. Bragg, of Levelland, Homer Nelson, J. E. Michie, Walter Bond and Eunice Jones, of this city, all except Mr. Jones being druggists.

Out of town relatives attending the funeral were, J. R. Huckabee and wife, Drury Huckabee, Ray Huckabee and family, Herman Huckabee and family, and Joe Eicke, all of Snyder, Texas; Ulysses Sawyer and family, of Cross Roads, N. M.; Jessie May and family of Clovis, N. M.; also Mr. and Mrs. Frank Auecutt, of Clovis, friends of the family.

The Herald extends their sincerest sympathies to the bereaved family.

T. B. Rodgers and family of Pampa, stopped over here last week on their return home from San Angelo, to visit relatives here a few days. He says Terry county has the best highways he was over on his trip.

J. M. Story was up from the Wellman community Saturday shopping with our merchants. He reports prospects good for crops.

Fred Smith and family left Saturday for their vacation at Hot Springs, N. M., and will likely return all limbered up for the fall grind.
