

PARENTS WILL DO WELL TO WATCH THE CHILDREN

Many Times the Child's Delinquency is Partly Due to Negligence of Their Parents. Early Childhood is When to Impress Property Rights on Children.

This week we are writing this front page editorial in the hopes that it will be of benefit to the community at large, and if possible to discourage the youthful criminal minded to desist before they are in real trouble...

In the past twenty years the average age of the criminal has been reduced from 30 years to 18 years, and is constantly going downward. This is at least in part accounted for because parents do not stay at home as of old, and know little about where the children are...

Union Baptist Church Thank All Who Helped

We as members of the Building Committee for the Union Baptist church take this means to thank the people of our community for their loyal support in building our church.

We want to express our thanks and appreciation to the business men and citizens of Brownfield for their liberal contribution, especially do we want to thank Mr. and Mrs. Ame Flache for the gift of our building lot...

Candidate's Consort Gets a Citizen's Hat

We all have our troubles, and they don't seem to come in pairs either, but by the wholesale and retail when they do happen. For instance we heard of a lady recently that was a candidate for some office that went to most all gatherings in order of course to meet the people in their own communities...

Preparing Forms For High School Foundation

The foundation for the Senior High School building was completed last week, and carpenters were put to work immediately preparing the forms for the portion of the foundation that will protrude above the ground.

The excavations for the foundation are large and deep, going down to the hard caliche rock, and will be ample to give the building a steady and sure foundation.

As soon as this building is completed, the board of trustees have their plans laid to begin beautifying the grounds with a coating of grass of some kind.

The auditorium of the new building will be commodious, and able to care for most any kind of school meetings.

Holiday Notice—San Jacinto Day

Monday, April 21st, 1930, being a legal holiday, will be observed by the local banks honoring the Texas Colonist that won Texas freedom on April 21st, 1836 from the Mexican yoke of oppression.

Our patrons are kindly requested to arrange their business accordingly in order that they may not be inconvenienced.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK BROWNFIELD STATE BANK

J. O. Wheatley and R. Stice, who keep the Johnson community in balance, were here Saturday, and claimed that C. Sears kept dodging them.

Dick Turner was in Monday from the farm in eastern Yoakum, after supplies.

We thank Lee Smith for a renewal to the Herald the past week.

Below we give a list of those of Brownfield who contributed to our cause:

- Cobb Dept. Store, Independent Gin Co., Harrison & McSpadden Farmers Gin, Miller & Gore, Michie Drug, C. R. Baldwin, Head Hargrave, Roy Herod, Dr. M. C. Bell, Alexander Drug, H. M. Fyeatt, J. W. Fitzgerald, Higginbotham-Bartlett, Cicero-Smith Lbr. Co., A. J. Stricklin, Bell-Enderssen, A. F. Schofield, West Texas Gin, Collins Dry Goods, Hudgens & Knight, S. O. Murry, Howell & Lovelace, Boone Hunter, J. T. Asburg, Gulf Refining Co., Dr. DuBois, T. L. Treadaway, Palace Drug, Craig & McClish, Tudor Sales Co., 'M' System, C. D. Shamburger, Magnolia Petroleum Co., R. L. Bowers, J. E. Greenfield, Chisholm Bros., Rex Headstream, Ernest Word, Jim Hughett, Dr. G. W. Graves, H. R. Winston, Hogan Dry Goods, J. L. Cruce, Glenn Harris, White & Murphy, Jess Smith, E. B. Brothers, W. E. Legg, Continental Oil, Phillips Petroleum, Henson Gin, Texas Company, Brownfield Hardware, N. G. Stewart, J. M. Telford, Brownfield State Bank, C. R. Rambo, W. W. Price.

Mr. Brown is doing a wonderful thing in getting the alleys of the town cleaned up, some of which were never cleaned up before, and he says he aims to keep everlastingly after the owners or leasees until they are in sanitary condition.

The Rotary Club as well as other civic organizations, we understand have pledged themselves to aid Mr. Brown all they possibly can in this cleanup campaign.

With this close cooperation, there is no reason why a crimp cannot be put in the wild eyed speedsters, who are mostly youths, who persist in making our streets a race course, and have no regard for the lives of others.

Local bankers are preparing to attend the meeting of the South Plains Bankers Association at Plainview, Monday.

If you are looking for a good place to trade go to the Brownfield merchants. If looking for a good place to live, come to Union, the best community in the best county in the best state in the world.

Tokio to Entertain Terry Co. Musicians

The Herald has been requested to announce that Tokio will entertain the Terry County Singing Convention next Sunday the 20th, and they aim to entertain the crowds in a real big way.

They are expecting crowds from every section of the county as well as many from adjoining counties on that day, and it behooves all who attend from this county to carry their lunches to help the people out there feed the crowds that will come from great distances.

Besides the many leaders and clergymen from all over this county, we learn that they expect some mighty good singers and quartets from Texas and eastern New Mexico.

Exhibitors and Judging Team Win at Show

While the exhibitors from Terry county at the Panhandle-South Plains Dairy Show at Plainview did not have as extensive herds on display as some of the counties, they were nevertheless right there in the winnings.

They were the high team of the contest, which carried the Silver Loving Cup and $25.00. High Team on Jerseys $10.00, High Team on Guernseys $10.00.

According to Mr. Davis, this was a great show, there being a total of 256 Jerseys alone, and a winner of money in this contest sure had to be good.

Local Boy is Tech's Fastest Track Man

Paced by their brilliant captain, James Dallas, the Texas Tech cinder artists handed their rivals from the West Texas State Teachers college a sound trouncing at the Matador oval Saturday afternoon, taking 11 of the 15 first places in piling up a total of 82 points as compared to 35 for the Buffaloes.

The Brownfield Jackrabbit stepped the century in 10 seconds flat, led the field to the tape in a fast 220 and staged a sensational sprint to take the quarter mile race in addition to running anchor on the triumphant mile relay team.

It was a great day for Holms and his mates, the only team meet of the season giving the pupils of Vic Payne an opportunity to gain sweet revenge for the setback handed the Crimson cause in football and basketball.

Some Remarkable Egg Productions For Mar.

County Agent R. B. Davis has handed us two remarkable records of egg production from Terry county flocks for the month of March which we print herewith.

The following is the J. L. Pirkle record. He resides on the Poole ranch. His 306 hens produced a total of 8348 eggs, which we find with a little figuring was 27.2 eggs per hen, or an 87.7 percent production.

The other was from the flock of R. L. Holley, and goes a little more into details: His flock was somewhat smaller, but shows a wonderful record. His 77 hens for the 31 days turned out a total production of 1572 eggs, or 131 dozen.

The above are just samples of what hundreds of farm families in the county are doing with their flocks, and shows well from one source where the average family in this section are getting a lot of their running expenses in order to make the main crops, cotton and corn, a surplus or cash crop.

The city council was in session Monday afternoon, and a meeting of the school board followed soon on their heels. Makes tax payers a bit suspicious.

All running events with the exception of the half mile in which Penick Canyon breasted the tape ahead of Hopper to take first place. The herd had one sure point winner in Captain Sloan Miller, who donated 10 points to the Teachers' scoring by taking first in both the shot put and discus throw.

"Where They Sell For Less"

MEADOW BRIEFS

By Aesculapias

The latter part of last week, wife and myself spent over in New Mexico, where she has a couple of boys that had gone west to grow up with the country.

On the way out we found that light rains had fallen from Littlefield to Portales, N. M. a half inch and more in places. It was my first trip into this part of the state and I was surprised that Portales is some town and growing rapidly. As Clovis and Texico-Farwell are close by and much of the intervening territory is brakes and sandhills, its growth is phenomenal.

The town is located in an immense basin or valley and the soil is very rich. Added to this water is abundant and shallow and is being used increasingly for irrigation purposes. Large pumps are being installed throughout the valley and a deluge of water is being sent down irrigation ditches. The crops being at present, alfalfa, Tomatoes and yam potatoes, the latter crop being the principle one. As much as six hundred bushels have been raised on one acre. I was told of one farmer who had eleven hundred bushels bedded out for his own use. That is some potato plants for one man. Our fellow townsman Luther Herrington is now preparing land out there for potatoes and other crops. He owns a fine body of land as I saw there.

On the day I visited Portales, the place was crowded and I learned they were having a primary election for county officers. The polling places were thick with women and men, hands full of cards soliciting votes. Believe I could have voted without hindrance as there didn't seem to be any precautions taken.

It appeared to me that many of them were a little too hilarious to be altogether natural and the occasional odor of some fellow near wasn't onions. No one offered me a drink however, but I felt sure it could have been obtained in the offering. On my return I was pained to learn that my old colored friend Tom with his woman had been removed and deposited in the county bastille for giving home brew to some of the small boys. His house was accordingly raided at midnight, six bottles of brew found which would hardly have gone around for it seems there were some ten or twelve.

It appears to me as "Much ado about nothing" as one could happen on. The boys and girls of this community have in most instances learned to make and drink this miserable decoction in their homes and it looks a little cowardly to drag a decrepit, chronically diseased old negro off to jail when his white chums and associates drink it when they can get it.

The old negro is lazy and harmless. He might purloin a ham when hungry, steal a chicken, or rob a coal pile, but he won't be able to corrupt the morals to any considerable degree, of the youth of this berg. Most of the fathers and mothers had hard liquor fed to them sweetened when they were children and they in turn feed it to theirs now when they can get it. Lets not begin on an old infirm negro in inaugurating this campaign against brew.

Not many moons ago, as the Indian counts time, Tom was thought good enough to lead in prayer and make a religious talk in one of our churches here. Tom is just as good a man now as then and I am quite as sure that his intentions are just as good as that of the midnight marauders who invaded his home and browbeat and dragged him off to prison, with the miserable make shift excuse of dispensing brew to the boys.

Enforce the law yes against all alike regardless of age sex or previous condition. The negro and the Mexican are persuaded here every fall to pick cotton and assist in gathering crops. Often they are browbeat, mistreated and run out when they have finished. "I had rather be a dog and bay the moon than such a Roman."

Messrs. Herrington and Moorhead, owners and operators of the Meadow Drug Store are leaving for Hobbs N. M. as soon as their house there is ready for occupancy, where a new drug house will be opened. The community will lose a god pharmacist and druggist in the person of Mr. Herrington and one that contributed his part to furthering the interests of the community. On the other hand Rudolph gave of his time and money as very few have to the interests of the school. He has not always gone with the majority, and recently incurred the displeasure of many in school affairs but his place will not be easily filled by anyone who will devote so much of his time to the work.

Dr. Moorhead will take over the old drug store and run it in his own way. To those who wish to patronize the store he will do all he can to please them, but he will continue to write and talk as the issues please or displease him. If this suits you, come along, your patronage will be appreciated, if it doesn't then head in somewhere else, you will not be missed. He has made it the rule of his business life to trade at home absolutely when things needed could be purchased there. If you don't do this then the community is better off without you. He has also tried to divide his trade among all the houses as impartially as possible and the rule will be followed in the future.

trouble with my stomach. Gas accumulated after meals and I bloated terribly. The pains and pressure often made me short of breath and dizzy. Constipation was another of my worries and I became an almost daily user of cathartics. I had terrible headaches and found it difficult to sleep. My nerves became badly affected and my general condition badly run down.

"I am delighted with the results I obtained from Konjola. Before I had finished the second bottle my constipation had been relieved and my stomach greatly improved. As I kept on with this great medicine my general health improved until I am feeling better today than I have in a long time. I have an excellent appetite and eat heartily without distress. Even neuritis which attacked me occasionally has been totally driven from my system. I cannot say to much in praise of this great medicine.

Though Konjola works quickly, six to eight bottles are recommended as a fair trial. Although many people are benefited within a few weeks, the longer period is best.

Konjola is sold in Brownfield at Alexander Drug Co., and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

BOUNDARY LINE OF GARZA, LYNN UP IN COURT

A suit designed for the purpose of establishing a definite boundary line between the counties of Garza and Lynn was started yesterday in court at Abilene. Several members of the Lubbock county bar association, together with Judge Robert H. Bean, were called to the trial.

The suit has been pending in the courts for two years. Officials of Lubbock, Crosby and Kent counties have been brought in to the case for the purpose of furnishing records in the suit.

TEXAS STATE HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT TO ALL DIVISION ENGINEERS:

This being campaign year we will be very soon faced with the problem of candidates' posters and other advertising information of the nature on State highways. We have, for the past three years, barred advertising from the right-of-way and this has prevented merchants and others from using said right-of-way informing the traveling public of their wares.

Two years ago we did not interfere with candidates' posters for the reason that many thousands of them were already on the rights-of-way before we were aware of the extent of the problem, but we wish this year to consider such signs of the same nature as merchants' or business men's advertising and prohibit their erection on the rights-of-way.

We consider that with such notice given in advance it will not be detrimental to anyone and will be fair to all, and the Commission does not believe that any discrimination should be made between candidates for public office and merchants or others advertising.

Yours very truly,
Gibb Gilchrist, State Highway Engineer.

HOW TRUCKS HOG TEXAS HIGHWAYS

The nefarious practice of big blundering trucks hogging the road and driving those who travel in autos into the ditches and causing injuries and frequently deaths, is graphically depicted by a tourist who has written a letter of his experiences to Mefo, of the Houston Press.

The tourist tells about what happened to his party as follows:

"We took a northern route from our Chicago home to California, following the Old Spanish Trail on the return. We experienced more 'close-shave passing' and more 'hog-the-road' trucks between San Antonio and Eagle Lake and between Eagle Lake and Houston than in all of the other mileage.

"The big trucks traveling the highway between San Antonio and Houston, and they are very numerous, give no consideration whatever, in many cases, to passing passenger cars. These trucks, extending out a foot and a half wider on both sides than an average car, seem to think they are entitled to all the road.

"This is my first trip over the Old Spanish Trail and it will likely be my last. The chances in passing the hog-the-road trucks are too great and there are too many of the big trucks using this highway for safety to tourists and passenger travel."

That's a complaint worthy of somebody's attention. Does it come under the jurisdiction of the state highway department? Is the comment of Mefo on the above letter.

THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE

A Belgian student was relating his attempts to learn to speak the English language. "When I discovered that if I was quick I was fast, and that if I was tied I was fast, if I spent too freely, I was fast, and that not to eat was to fast, I grew discouraged. But when I came across the sentence 'The first one won one one-dollar prize,' I gave up trying to

The Brownfield Band is going out this week to put on their play at Tatum, N. M., Friday night, which will help both the band and the junior class at Tatum. They may also play for the celebration at Hobbs while out there.

We heard a joke this week that reminds us of our editorials at times. A child asked his grandmother what was meant by "dry wit." She replied that she hardly knew, but that his grandad pulled some dry wit at times. "Oh, yes," said the offspring, "stuff about half funny and half silly."

Last week the Lynn County News took up about three columns of its good white space to giving the many and sundry candidates the once over, and most of them a panning. But honestly, it is really a very hard matter to pick a real statesman in the bunch that have already announced. They are just too small to manage the affairs of grand old Texas. That is a real man's job this day and time.

The Littlefield Leader in making an argument for painting up this spring, put a good lick on the nail head when he suggested that there were fewer insects in the air at this time of the year to muss up the fresh paint. But—but—had Bro. Mitchell every thought about the fact that there might blow up one of our old time sandies and turn a perfectly good job of white painting into a very ugly sand dune yellow? But paint anyway.

For the second time in the past year the death angel has entered the home circle of Editor Oran McClure of the Texas Spur, Spur, Texas, and took a member of the family. Last fall his brother was accidentally killed by a high powered rifle which was discharged while he was crossing a small stream in the Davis mountains, and died a few hours later. The past week he lost his eldest sister by death from natural causes. The Herald joins the fraternity in extending its tenderest sympathy to Oran.

A western Kansas editor started this gem out into the world without his name signed to it: "The average business man eats in a hurry and gets dyspepsia. He walks in a hurry and gets apoplexy. He talks in a hurry and becomes bankrupt. He votes in a hurry and produces corruption. He marries in a hurry and gets a divorce. He trains his children in a hurry and develops criminals. He gets religion in a hurry and forgets in a hurry. He makes his will in a hurry and leaves a legal contest. He dies in a hurry and goes to hell. And his tribe is steadily increasing."—Exchange.

It is reported now that Cal Coolidge really came to the Alamo to get first hand information to be used in his history of America. Well, he at least asked a question that most any school boy can answer, showing that he was moving up from the bottom to top of the question. One friend of ours suggested a few days ago that Mr. Coolidge really gained his reputation as "Silent Cal," because he was just ignorant, and was afraid to say anything for fear he would give himself away. We rather think that his being raised in the narrow provincial confines of the New England states is the most logical reason he does not know or seem to care about the history of the rest of America.

There is a friend of ours who earns—or gets, whether he earns or not—one hundred and seventy-five dollars per month. He possesses a wife, but no family, yet from one month to another he bleats about hard times and tells of what a time he has meeting his debts. Five years ago this man drew one hundred dollars a month and was saving money—today he is in debt. When his income jumped he found out there were installment houses that craved his business, and now, by the time he has met his different installments, he has nothing to pay his grocery bill. There's a moral here if you can see it.—Ropesville Hustler.

It seems that there are some here who persist in talking hard times, when as a matter of fact this section is in the best shape of any section of the state, according to all reports. To talk hard times on the streets causes people to hold on to their earnings, until a condition of miserism is developed. Way down where a very short cotton crop and no feed was raised the past year is the place for people to talk if they want to, but our people should be ashamed to do so. Of course we admit that in certain lines of business, trade has slowed up a bit in the past few weeks, but as soon as people have pitched another crop, all this will be ironed out satisfactorily. Most of our merchants who are consistent advertisers in the Herald, tell us on the contrary that their business is good or at least satisfactory. We know of merchants here who will not themselves or let their clerks talk hard times with customers. The customers can talk all they want to, but the hired help must not join them. This merchant's argument is that in most instances the supposed hard times is entirely imaginary, and any agreement with them makes matters worse. There is not a thing the matter with Brownfield and its trade territory. Things are really happening here, and are going to keep on happening. Nine chances to one is that most of the people who are doing the hard times talk are not busy people, and really don't want to be busy.

No One Knew there was a Woman in England

ABOUT fifty years ago an Englishman came to one of our large American cities. He built up a fortune in real estate. He sold large pieces of property and built hotels. He married. Both the Englishman and his wife died. All deeds and titles to the man's properties, conveyed and mortgaged, were, seemingly, in good order. His will was probated.

Everything appeared right. The purchasers of the properties slept in peace.

One morning a young Englishman appeared in a lawyer's office in the American city. He had come to "secure his grandmother's dower in the estate." No one had known of an English wife—still alive.

Innocent property owners were forced to pay thousands of dollars to an unknown woman across the sea—losses which could have been protected by title insurance.

Chamber of Commerce

By Secretary—

A charity organization is badly needed in Brownfield and an effort should be put forth to the end that some method may be devised to care for cases that are not eligible to support at the hands of the county. Lamesa has a Mutual Organization that seems to cover the situation in a thorough manner and the plan will be put up to the directors of the chamber of commerce at the next monthly meeting which occurs this week. The chamber of commerce has undertaken to handle emergency cases but its funds are not sufficient to enable it to operate in all cases that are presented and at the same time have money with which to carry on work for the development of this section.

Last year we handled six emergency cases, that is furnished food and gasoline sufficient to get them to the next town on the way to their supposed destination, and so far this year we have had nine families and the cost in each case was much greater than any one cared for in 1929. A halt must be called and the only solution is an organized agency to take over the work. It could be done under the direction of the chamber of commerce, but the fund should be entirely separate.

At the last meeting of the directors of the chamber of commerce it was decided that some sort of control should be exercised over the circulation of petitions which called for donations of money or merchandise and that all such should be referred to the chamber of commerce for attention by an appointed committee. The action taken was not meant to enable our citizens to refuse to subscribe to worthy causes but was for the purpose of determining whether requests were based upon a real need and one to which our business and professional men would be glad to contribute. The committee will also pass upon all promotion of special advertising where it does not originate from our local newspaper and members of the chamber of commerce are invited to use the service. In other words if any petition is presented to you that calls for money donations, just refer them to the office of the secretary of the chamber of commerce, who will place the matter before the committee and if they find that it is worthy of your support a letter will be issued from this office to that effect. This is a service that is being offered to you as a member of the organization and strict adherence to it will cause you to save a considerable amount of money during the course of the year. Just this week a request was made to the committee for approval of a petition for money and while it was possessed of some merit, the opinion prevailed that it was for the best interests of the whole citizenship, that it should not be approved, as by so doing, a situation would be developed that would cause the outlay of several thousand dollars on projects that should be taken care of by other agencies. Rejection of the request, will probably save members of the organization considerably more money than is paid into it by them.

Another Article On Paved Roads

Our highway letter of last week was left off, for the reason that we were awaiting a reply to a letter that had been written to the Chief Engineer of the Highway Department, concerning the type of highway that would receive approval from that body and the approximate cost to the county. However his answer has not been received and the conclusion is reached that he desired to place the matter before the commission before complying with our request. The regular meeting occurred yesterday. And we hope to have a letter within the next day or two, but in the meantime we are going to give a little information as garnered from the highway department and from some of our Senators who are actively interested in highway matters.

The Highway Association of Texas together with those of other states, has estimated that the average mileage cost for traveling over a dirt road amounts to seven cents each mile, while the average cost over a paved or hard surfaced road amounts to five cents, a difference of two cents to each mile. As a basis to work from, we will say that the average car owner travels twenty miles each week or one hundred miles to the month, which would mean a saving of $2.00 the month or $24.00 the year if he had the advantage of paved roads. The average home in this section might have a taxable value of $1,600, but would probably range on a lower figure and while as stated above, we do not have any figures from the state highway department concerning the type of road that would receive approval, are of the opinion, gained from observation, that the bond tax would amount to about 75 cents to each $100.00 or $12.00 to the home. Which would mean an actual saving of $12.00 annually on operations costs.

In view of the fact that agitation for a State Bond Issue or a change in the highway laws to provide for reimbursement to counties who have voted bonds for constructing highways, has reached such proportions as will cause the Legislature to take action either one way or the other, it is very probable that bonds so far as they pertain to state highways, will be assumed or paid off within the next two or three years. So it behooves us to bestir ourselves and arrange to provide for an improved road system in order to share in the distribution and have our highways several years before they would ever reach us if we delay action at this time.

Within the next few weeks it is expected that steps will be taken toward the organization of a county highway association composed of citizens from all sections of the county. The purpose of the association being to formulate plans that will result in placing the matter before our voters and include the amount of the issue that would be needed to serve the best interests of the entire population.

Dr. Morrow Delivered Lecture Here Monday

Dr. George W. Morrow of Detroit, Michigan, National lecturer for the Anti Saloon League, spoke here under the auspices of the Anti Saloon League of Texas, at the First Methodist Church, at 8 P. M., Monday, April 14th.

He said in part: "The 18th Amendment is the greatest human welfare movement of the century. Looked at from every angle this cannot be gained. Lloyd George, the great war premier of Great Britain, after visiting America, went back home and told the people that 75% of the great industrial heads of this country are in favor of prohibition, and his people must realize that a drunken England cannot long compete with a sober America."

"The claim of the enemies of prohibition that it has caused disrespect for law is as absurd as to claim that the Ten Commandments have caused disrespect for religion."

"The 'wets' are complaining that the law is not being enforced. One may well ask 'did this class of violators EVER obey any law?'"

"In 1929 the Federal courts convicted 50,000 bootleggers and other prohibition violators, and that was 75 percent of the cases brought before them. In 80 of your smaller counties of Texas, last year, the county officers brought into court 1595 prohibition violators and the courts convicted 1188 of them; which was a pretty good showing for those Texas counties. Of 10,000 prisoners in the Federal prisons of the country, there are 2700 there for violating the narcotic laws, but only 1800 for violating the prohibitory laws. There are 1300 there for violating the Interstate Automobile Theft Law, but no one is arguing for the repeal of the narcotic law, nor the interstate automobile law!"

"We have had only ten years of Prohibition. The Liquor Traffic had its day of 100 years. Our appeal to America is to give prohibition ITS CHANCE."

W. E. Henson was a business visitor to Hobbs, N. M., Monday.

We are sorry to report Mrs. Clarence Lewis on the sick list.

Governor to Run First Train Into Hobbs

SANTA FE, April 7.—Attired in overalls, cap and with a brand new oil can as an accessory, Governor Dillon on April 19, will run the first passenger train over the new Texas-New Mexico line to Hobbs, with Corporation Hugh Williams swinging a lantern and collecting fares. The celebration will be April 19 and 20.

The last bit of steel on the line was laid at Hobbs Monday, and already freight is moving over the new line, the first railroad to enter Lea county, with this traffic moving as far as Jal.

Measurements have been taken for Corporation Commissioner Williams' conductor's uniform, and Governor Dillon's overalls and cap have been ordered.

Both Governor Dillon and Commissioner Williams are former railroaders, although it has been a long time since Hugh Williams swung a lantern as conductor, and likewise a long time since Dick Dillon worked for the Santa Fe in its pioneer days in northern New Mexico.

Governor Dillon and Hugh Williams will board the train at Cheyenne, a small town near the Texas line, and will run it on into Hobbs, the end of the line at the present time.

RUSHED TO HOSPITAL HOPE HELD FOR RECOVERY

Mr. John C. Sartin, pioneer ranchman and resident of Gaines county was seriously injured last Sunday afternoon when his horse stepped into a dog hole and fell, pinning him beneath his horse. The accident occurred while he was driving some cattle from his Texas ranch to one in New Mexico.

He was rushed to a Lubbock sanitarium where an operation was performed immediately. It seems that when the horse stepped into the hole Mr. Sartin was thrown forward and the horse somersaulted and the back of the saddle crushed the pelvis. Reports from the West Texas hospital state that his pelvis bone was torn into fragments and an artery was torn, causing serious complications of internal injury.

At the time this article is written (Tuesday) reports from Lubbock indicate Mr. Sartin is resting as well as possible and some hope is held for his recovery.—Seagraves Signal.

Old Fiddlers Do Stuff At Seagraves Contest

Among those who attended the old fiddlers contest at Seagraves last Thursday night from this county were Bill Crowder, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Turner, and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stone. There may have been many others, but these reported that they went and had a great time. Messrs. Turner and Crowder were contestants, the latter winning one of the prizes. Dad Turner was also a contestant, but was rather out of practice with the bow. A man from Lamesa won, as also did a man from Tahoka.

It is reported that everyone had a fine time, and the Legion boys of Gaines county took in about $140, which will come in very handy in aiding this young camp to get on its feet. They have recently organized a ladies auxiliary down there.

The Herald sure made a raid on the funds of one Terry county family Monday over at the courthouse. We just happened to walk in and found Noah Bell, together with his son Jewel, and his son-in-law Johnny Bingham, talking near the fountain. Jewel remarked that his time was up and handed in his dollar. Johnny said his was about due and handed in another. We then suggested that Noah, whose time was not up until July, also dig up to complete the family circle, as he was likely to go to California again this summer and forget it. He did.

Jim Parks of the Tokio section was noticed on the streets here Saturday.

DAWSON COUNTY ROAD BONDS LOSE BY ONLY 79

Lamesa, April 9.—Dawson County voters Tuesday voted down for a second time a highway bond issue. The vote was 1,117 for and 598 against. A two-thirds majority was needed to vote the bonds, which were to be used in paving two state highways.

The issue was for $600,000.

P. F. Bruce who lived here several years ago, but strayed off to Lamesa for a few years, then to Littlefield, is farming north of town on the Chisholm farm.

The weather has been looking favorable for rain for the past several days, but failing to do so, we have just about quit looking at the clouds.

We are glad to report that Postmaster J. H. Carpenter is fast improving. He has had trouble with one of his eyes of late, and having it treated by a specialist at Lubbock.

A lot of the citizens are having to resod their yards with grass, as the extreme low temperature of the past winter killed it out badly.

The regular monthly meeting of commissioners court was in session here this week.

Max Thomason was in Monday attending the regular monthly session of commissioners court.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Davis, Tom Cobb and Tom May left Saturday for El Paso, where Messrs. Davis and Cobb will take the Shrine work.

IMPROVING THE BREED

"And how much would you say this colt was worth?" asked the railroad claim agent of the farmer.

"Not a cent less than $500!" emphatically declared that sturdy son of the soil.

"Pedigreed stock, I suppose?"

"Well, no," the bereaved admitted reluctantly, "but you could never judge a colt like that by its parents."

"No," the attorney agreed dryly.

"I've often noticed how crossing with a locomotive will improve the breed."

City Man—"Where is that ham you said you would give me?"

Farmer—"Well, sir, that hog finally got well."

All the seniors were clerking at the M. G. Hargrave store Saturday, and got five percent of all they sold. We understand that they added quite a snug sum to their funds.

New Light on Battery Values

The SAFETY POINT

You might buy a battery for less than a Willard would cost. But later you'd be bound to pay more than the difference—for towing, repairs, recharging, or early replacement. There's a safety point in battery buying below which you risk disappointment.

The best value you can get is a fair-priced battery of known quality and correct electrical size. You'll find it in a Willard.

COMPARE the delivered price as well as the list price in considering automobile values. Chevrolet's prices include only reasonable charges for delivery and financing. Easy G. M. A. C. Terms.

There is one sure way to get greater value in a low-priced car today—choose a Six!

This greater value is instantly obvious when you drive a Chevrolet Six. You notice first of all its greater smoothness. There is no tremor in the steering wheel—no rattle in the floor boards—no drumming in the body.

In addition to the finer performance of its six-cylinder motor, the new Chevrolet gives you truly remarkable economy.

Its six-cylinder smoothness saves the entire car from the strain and wear of vibration. This, of course, lowers the cost of maintenance and assures a longer-lasting automobile.

From the standpoint of operating expense, Chevrolet is equally economical. No automobile uses less gasoline and oil. No car shows a lower expense for tires. And no car costs less for service.

Because of its modern engineering, Chevrolet also assures a high re-sale value—for its entire design is just as advanced as its six-cylinder engine.

Chevrolet gives you fully-enclosed, weather-proof, 4-wheel brakes. It gives you a modern fuel system—with the gasoline tank mounted in the rear outside the body. It gives you four long semi-elliptic springs, mounted lengthwise in the direction of car travel. It gives you beautiful Fisher bodies built of combination hardwood-and-steel. It gives you a full ball bearing steering mechanism, an adjustable driver's seat, a Fisher VV non-glare windshield, and tilting beam headlights, operated by a foot-controlled button.

Before you decide on any car in the low-price field, see and drive the Chevrolet Six. The more thoroughly you investigate, the more certain you are to conclude that it's wise to choose a Six—for value, for performance and for economical transportation!
