REMEMBER THAT MONDAY IS TRADESDAY--COME ON

Cubs To Open Season Saturday At Lubbock

The feature game of the Panhandle-South Plains Fair will be the game between the Brownfield Cubs and the Littlefield Wildcats. The game will take place Saturday afternoon, and should be a fitting climax to the grid features offered at the fair this season. Those who are thinking about going to the Fair this year should wait until next Saturday—if they can only go one day. If we give them enough encouragement, the boys will give a good account of themselves.

The Cubs, as usual, start the season as the underdogs in this quadrant. Slaton and Lamesa are the mighty stumbling blocks that lie in the Cubs path to success. The victory over these two obstacles depends largely upon the support given to them by the local fans.

But don't think the writer is gloomy about the team itself. On the contrary, he thinks that "thurs talent in them thar huskies." It is true that most of them have never played football before, but the reader has only to look back to Goza, Parker and others to see what Coach Hayhurst can do with green material.

Most of the green material is in the line, but it promises to develop into a machine that will be able to hold its own with any High school line. In the backfield, the youngest of the Graham brothers will play the least spectacular, but, by far, the most important role. It will be his duty to block. On his shoulders rests the responsibility to make each play a success. "Little Huck" is barking the signals. He has developed into an excellent passer and has plenty of pep. Tankersley, a new comer will do most of the line plunging. And he hits it. A combination of Casey Jones locomotive and O'Kelly's bull could do no better. And last, but not least, there is Neill. He has come back with all his old speed and a new-found ability to apply a stiff arm. Then there is a flock of reserves. They will be praying for a few regulars to get taken out in order that they can get a chance.

The team works out just east of the High School building every afternoon after school. Go out and watch them practice. It will give you as much encouragement as it will them.

And before we forget about it, Seagraves has purchased equipment and is playing football in actual competition for the first time this year. The writer wishes them luck, and he is sure that the Cubs will be glad to have them as friendly rivals in the greatest of College and High school sports.

Heavy Rains Made Mails Very Irregular

No mail came in from Post Sunday and until late Monday on account of the soggy condition of the roads, and as we have no Sunday train mail, the Lubbock papers were the only dailies to reach us. But it was a large fair booster edition, and that made up matters pretty well. A lot of people bought magazines or went to the show in the afternoon.

We did not learn just how much rain fell but there must have been at least an inch and a half or two inches, for two nights it fell pretty hard all night, and rained off and on for several days. In fact, we got so tired of it we quit counting.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of thanking the good people of Brownfield and Terry county for their help and sympathy in the recent illness and death of our loving wife, mother and sister. May God bless each of you.

A. May and family
Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bird
Mrs. E. W. Reed.

Old Time Terryite Fighting N. M. Republicans

All the old timers will remember Mrs. L. T. Brooks, who for several years lived at Gomez, leaving here about the time the railroad came here. They will also remember that she does not usually mince words when she thinks she is right about any matter. In our issue of the 9th of September, we had an article from the pen of the late Ed C. Lassiter, of Falfurries, Texas, in which he truthfully foretold what would happen if Herbert Hoover was elected president. Mr. Lassiter worked with Mr. Hoover on the Food Commission during the world war, and found out that he had no sympathy for common people.

Mrs. Brooks wanted four of these papers to show New Mexico people, as she says that is the best campaign thunder she has seen this year. She describes New Mexico, or that part where she lives, (Socorro) as a bog-hole of Hooverism, and she says the Democrats are in a fighting mood. She says they have had abundant rains, and that grass is good, but like everywhere, the farmer and laborer is working for starvation prices.

She describes one farm in a salt sink with a small house and windmill. The taxes on the place was $100. He made 800 bushels of wheat for which he received $200, taking half to pay the taxes. "That, is the result of Republican rule and Hoover methods," declares Mrs. Brooks.

You Are Expected Here Mon. Tradesday

Tradesday has rolled around again. It is right upon us. Indeed Monday is the day, and you and yours are expected to be here as the merchants are again preparing a gala day with big bargain events much of which will be based on entirely reasonable goods.

In the afternoon, the usual program will be pulled off on the grounds just south of Glen Akers' abstract office, and if you fail to come you are likely to miss a lot.

You are not so alifred busy yet in the crop, so hitch up old Beck and Dobbin and come on in with the crowd.

Anderson Return To Brownfield Shoe Shop

Mr. N. L. Anderson, who is one of the best bootmakers as well as one of the best shoe and boot repair men in West Texas, has returned to Brownfield, and will now be found with the Ward Shoe Shop. Mr. Anderson informed the Herald that he had traveled about quite a bit since he left here about two years ago, but had found no better country than Brownfield and Terry county.

Mr. Anderson has worked in shoe shops in cities like Dallas, Ft. Worth, Abilene and Wichita Falls since he left here, and has gathered in the latest ideas from the very best workmen, and is prepared to give Brownfield people the advantage of this experience.

Orphans Home Truck To Be Here Tuesday

Several members of the church of Christ have received letters this week to the effect that the truck from Tipton Orphans Home will be here next Tuesday, Oct. 4th to gather up groceries and other things intended for the home.

We suppose that anything intended for the home can as heretofore be left at Hudgens & Knight, Chisholm Bros., or Murphy Bros., where a list of things most needed can be seen.

State Engineer Promises Panhandle South Plains Fair Opened Monday To Start On 137

In conversation recently with Judge Jay Barret, he informed us that everything was about in shape for the contract for grading and darning of No. 137 from here to the Hockley county line was about complete, and that District State Engineer Johnston had recently informed him that the contract would very likely be let at a meeting of the highway commission on or about October 8th. Some trouble has been had passing the Sisk gin at Meadow, but Mr. Barret believes that part of the matter has about been eliminated, or will be by the time bids are passed on.

On the other end, between here and Seagraves or to the Gaines county line, good progress has been made, although condemnation proceedings may have to be taken in one instance to pass through one place. The highway will pass over the Santa Fe tracks beyond Wellman at a place that gives a clear vision in both directions for a great distance. There was some talk of an underpass this side of Wellman but that has been abandoned.

Mr. Barret said he informed Mr. Johnston that the county did not wish to go to great expense of obtaining additional right-of-way under present conditions unless they meant business. Mr. Johnston informed him however, that if Terry county would give them the land asked for the highway would be built as originally designated, and that it would be so far under way that the next administration, whether it be Mrs. Ferguson, Sterling or Bullington, would not stop it.

Newsy Stories About Ben Franklin League

Newsy Stories About Ben Franklin League

The other day your editor visited Mr. Cave, manager of the local Ben Franklin Store. We had never thoroughly understood the "Ben Franklin" part. We found that through a central organization in Chicago, nearly 2,000 independent Variety merchants had banded together to secure chain store advantages in buying and retail information. These members are furnished each week, from Ben Franklin Headquarters, specific and up to the minute information on merchandise trends, new items, shades, styles, etc. The moment that the largest chain syndicate in the country secures a new item, this is made available to all Ben Franklin Merchants.

Therefore Ben Franklin is an emblem of huge buying power, of constant contact with the world's greatest markets, the mark of a great chain of independently owned stores. Its announcement creates a new era of merchandising, which will mean greater bargain and better service.

Appointed to the state bar examining board of Ohio, Attorney Susan H. Rebhan of Cleveland, is said to be the first woman in American to win this distinction.

Panhandle South Plains Fair Opened Monday

Our understanding is that despite the fact that the weather was not the best Monday or Tuesday, and the roads were rough, a sizable crowd was in attendance at the opening of the Panhandle South Plains Fair. Not many attended from here the forepart of the week as many were waiting for Saturday as that is the day the Cubs are to play the Littlefield Wildcats.

Despite the fact that times are rather hard, and little cotton has been gathered up to this time, it is thought the crowds will be up to or nearly so to normal years, as the price of admission has been cut into. Our understanding is that all kinds of exhibits as well as other attractions will be up to usual.

Judges Find Lots Of Pretty Yards Tuesday

It is our understanding that it was rather hard for the Pretty Yard contest judges to decide on the yards here Tuesday, as there were so many that attracted their attention. After long deliberation, the following was a result of their findings.

District No. 1. Mrs. Joe J. McGowan got first prize; Mrs. W. H. Dallas 2nd. Honorable mention, Mrs. A. J. Stricklin, Mrs. W. B. Toone and Mrs. M. E. Spear.

District No. 2. Mrs. Spivey 1st; West Texas Gas Co. 2nd. Honorable mention, L. A. Jett; Junior High school and Arnett Bynum.

District No. 3. J. M. Telford, 1st; E. D. Jones 2nd. Honorable mention, Leo Holmes, Scott Eubanks and Homer Nelson.

Lloyd Cnoatser To Return To Prison

According to advices received here Wednesday, Lloyd Conatser who was given a furlough in May from the State Penitentiary for sixty days, and in July given an extension of sixty days, will be forced to return to prison after spending four months with his family here.

It will be remembered that Conatser was convicted of being an accomplice of Joyce Sheppard in the killing of two officers in Fisher County in 1927. That later, just before the execution of Sheppard he made a confession that he alone executed the crime and was wholly responsible for it. It was thought that Conatser would be pardoned and his friends here and at other points in the State have been active in his behalf.—Levelland Herald.

Once upon a time there was an old lady who refused to meet a well-known "strip artist" because she said she objected to painting in the nude.

To seek friendship is commendable; to find it fortunate; but to be in need of it is weakness.—George Eastman.

Some Causes For Trading Away From Home

Some people just naturally rather trade away from home than anywhere else in the world, no matter if the good or higher and of inferior quality. They are just made up that way and can't help it. On the other hand, the great majority of people had much rather trade at home with people they know, because they know that if anything isn't just right, their home merchant will make it right. But in the majority of small towns, the home merchant never has any news in the home paper about the new things or old things that he has. But the reader does see glowing ads in the nearby city papers, together with what appears to be bargain prices. The roads are good; they need an airing out anyway. Why not go to the city?

Once in awhile the merchants in the larger cities notice the fact that the home town merchants are neglecting their field, and the city merchant takes advantage of the fact by sending ads to the small town paper to brace up his city advertising. Nearly all country weeklies will take this advertising if it come voluntarily. You cannot blame them. It possibly means bread and butter and clothing for the family of the small town publisher. Would the home town merchant turn down any business sent him from the city? Hardly, and he generally does not feel hard at the local publisher if he accepts out of town advertising, if he is a reasonable fellow.

To more forcibly present our point, we have in mind a Panhandle paper, one of the oldest in that section, gotten out by an experienced and good man. He never says ugly things about his home merchants, but always something nice about them and the little home town. Last week that editor carried just about 50 inches of space of all kinds, exclusive of want ads for home merchants. In the same issue he carried 122 inches of advertising from Pampa merchants.

Is there any wonder then, that the roads are kept hot with shoppers going to the BIG TOWNS to trade? We should hate very much to see out-of-town advertising predominant in the Herald.

Bond Starts Feeding People Home Style

While the short order department of the Hotel Brownfield Cafe will be continued and receive a good patronage as usual, they have also initiated a table where one can eat their fill of things they want and leave that which they do not like. Mr. Bond, the proprietor informed us that he did this to accommodate farmers more than anyone else who will come in this fall with cotton. Then there are plenty of other people who like that style of eating better than either short orders or plate lunch.

The editor and son were invited up to partake of the first home style served meal Monday, and we must say that the table was loaded with as fine meal as we ever ate. There was at least three kinds of meats, the chicken being served two ways, fried and with dumplings. Many thanks for the meal, Mr. Bond.

MRS. A. MAY PASSES

Mrs. A. May of the Harmony community passed away last Sunday and the body laid to rest in the Brownfield cemetery Monday. Mrs. May was well thought of in that community, we understand. Relatives from San Antonio were in attendance at the funeral.

Officer—"Say, look here; you can't stop here."

Motorist—"I can't eh? Well, officer, maybe I shouldn't stop here, but you don't know this car like I do."

Terry County Poultry Men In Winnings

John Chisholm, local poultryman, was in Wednesday morning and informed us hat at least three poultrymen of Terry county that he knew of were in the winnings at the South Plains Fair at Lubbock this year. John says they sure have a good poultry display up there this year.

John showed four white Leghorns, and won 1st and second on his cockerels, 1st and 2nd on pullets, and championship on pullet. His Reds were not well enough developed to show.

Two Meadow men were also. John says it was his understanding that Mr. Lackey won 1st, 3rd, 3rd and 4th on Buff Leghorns. John Cadenhead also won 2nd and 3rd on white Giants, which is a new breed in this section at least.

Ask Highway Com. To Connect Roads

The house of representatives has passed a resolution which instructs the highway commission to desist and discontinue construction of all newly designated highways until all gaps in the state highway system are completed and main roads connected up.

The resolution was mainly directed at the Weatherford-Thurber cut-off and the commission was requested to abandon its plan to construct highway 89 known as the "cut-off" along the Bankhead highway from Weatherford to Thurber. This cut-off, 45-miles long will parallel the Bankhead at a distance of 20 miles and will cost approximately $1,500,000.

Meadow And Wellman Represented In A. C. C.

Abilene, Texas, Sept. 19, 1932.—Abilene Christian College has begun its twenty-seventh annual session with the largest enrollment and largest freshman class in the history of the school. A statement from the office of President J. F. Cox is that the total freshman enrollment for the fall term will be over two hundred fifty. Students enrolled come from eleven different states. The increase in enrollment has made it necessary to increase the number of faculty members over last year.

Among the students enrolled are: Louise Nelson, Senior, Meadow; Lometa Grigg, Freshman, Wellman.

Honor Roll Short On Account Of Weather

The Herald believes that it would have had a much longer honor roll to report this week if the weather had not been so mean. It is thankful that so many did wade the mud in order to get their papers up in advance. Here they are:

A. B. SANDERS, city.
CHAS. B. HOWARD, Meadow, Rt. 1.
W. W. MANLEY, Devol, Okla.
W. O. HART, Rt. 1, city.
M. J. CRAIG, city.

Facts About Our School

This year there are one hundred and sixty-one pupils enrolled in the Brownfield High School. Last year forty-eight pupils graduated from Junior High and all forty-eight of those grade school graduates are enrolled as freshmen this year. There are thirty this year. There are thirty-two sophomores, thirty juniors and forty-nine "dignified seniors."

In the eighth grade there were two new pupils, making a total of fifty freshmen. In the ninth grade there were four new pupils, four in the tenth and eleven in the eleventh grade.

We are very happy to have the new pupils in high school.

The Dramatic Club

Among the various clubs organized on Tuesday, September 20th is one we have not had heretofore—the dramatic club. The membership is limited to thirty, although there were fifty-nine applicants for membership. The work of this club promises to be both interesting and profitable and will result in a better knowledge of drama and dramatics.

Besides studying many of the best plays, the club will use as a basis, "Drama and Dramatics, for High Schools" by Fiske.

One of the immediate objects of the club is to produce a play probably early in October for the purpose of buying books for the school library.

It is intended that every member will have the opportunity of taking part in at least one play during the year.

The following officers and committee were chosen: President, O. D. Thomas; Secretary, Marion Chisholm; Treasurer, Frankie Rickles; Critic, Lee Brownfield; Reporter, Martha McClish; Program Committee, Jim Neill and Ruth Adams; Committee for Constitution, Sawyer Graham and Bonnie Dale Gross; Sponsor, Miss Perkins.

Pep Squad

The pep squad met Monday afternoon, September 19th. There were thirty-four girls present. Lois Goodpasture was elected pep leader, and in the future will pick two assistants. The girls have chosen red and white Spanish pep suits. Mr. Penn, the sponsor, is going to make the pep squad what it should be. We are going to do our part in all the games to help our boys win. The girls are meeting every lunch period for practice.

Sphinx Club

Tuesday morning, September 20th, twenty-four boys and girls met in Mr. Penn's room to organize the Sphinx club.

The following officers were elected: President, Roy Chambliss; Vice-President, Truett Flache; Secretary, Quenelle Sawyer; Reporter, Evelyn Pippin.

In the club we have lots to accomplish during the nine months. Our aim is to know our community, to know our county's history, to know the lines of our pioneer citizens and to know the leading institutions, such as churches, newspapers and schools. A collection of old relics for a downtown exhibition and a museum will be our goal.

Boys P. T. Class

There are many boys taking P. T. this year because everyone is required to take part. It meets every Monday and Wednesday. About the first ten minutes is taken up in Calisthenics. After this is done the smaller boys play football with Mr. Ledbetter as their director. The other boys work out for track or basketball under Mr. Hayhurst. There are also some boys who practice basketball each morning before school. By practicing before the season opens the boys will be in shape and be able to do much better. The boys are all working hard and they will find out it will do them very much good.

Juniors Organize

The Juniors of 1932-33 met in the sewing laboratory with Miss Taylor, the Junior's Sponsor. The purpose of this meeting, Thursday 22, was to organize.

Mr. Woodrow Chambliss was elected president; Miss Marion Chisholm, Vice-President; Mr. Horton Howell, Secretary and Treasurer and Miss Eunice Michie, Junior Reporter. With these faithful officers, we hope to make our class a success.

For class colors we chose orchid and green, and for the flower, sweet-peas. Our motto is "Be Square." There are thirty Juniors this year.

Senior Class Selects Rings-Invitations

The Senior class met Thursday after chapel had been dismissed and selected their rings and invitations. A gold ring, having our muscot, a cub, engraved on each shank, was chosen. On the mounting, which is black onyx, the initials B. H. S. are engraved in gold.

The invitations are very formal and are made in a sheet form with the lettering on the front page.

The class had no opportunity to organize, for the matters mentioned above took all of the allotted time.

Usually the Sophomore class is the most unpopular class in High School, but you wait and see what this class of 1932-33 is going to do. We have a bunch of live wires, both boys and girls. I fully believe we will have more than half the athletes this year. They are not only alive in their athletics, but also in their studies.

On September 22, 1932, the class organized for the coming year and the officers are as follows:

President, Roy Chambliss; Vice-President, Truett Flache; Secretary, Quenelle Sawyer; Commander-in-Arms, Johnny Bogle, Reporter, Kathy Hunter.

Home Economics Club

The Home Economics club was organized September 21, 1932. Miss Taylor being sponsor of this organization.

The following officers were elected:

President, Iris Lewis; Vice-President, Lois Goodpasture; Sec.-Treas., Margurite Burnett; Club Reporter, Verna Brown.

A due of five (5) cents is required each month to pay expenses of vienna roasts and social gatherings we expect to have in the future.

Twenty-three members have been enrolled and each one is going to do their part in making this club a success.

The last Tuesday in each month has been set aside for sewing of any kind we care to do.

Weekly programs are being made and later one will be given to each member.

Mr. Ledbetter received the following answer on examination:

"The Lord knows the answer, I don't"—Merry Christmas.

Mr. Ledbetter's answer was: "The Lord gets 100 per cent, you 0."—Happy New Year.

Mr. Ledbetter: O. D. how much does daddy, mother, and baby make? O. D.: Two and one to carry.

Mr. Penn: Woodrow, tell about the fall of Quebec.

Woodrow: Well, I didn't know she fell.

TOO MANY IN COLLEGE

President Arthur T. Hadley, of Yale, has made a valuable contribution to the current discussion concerning the advisability of trying to make "college men" out of unsuitable material.

It would naturally be supposed that the head of a great university would stress the importance of a college education regardless, but it is an encouraging sign that leading educators are coming to realize that for the vast majority of young people the four years required by a college course is largely a waste of time, money and efforts. We quote from Dr. Hadley in part:

"People engaged in public instruction are inclined to go too far in thinking that everyone should be encouraged to pursue his schooling to the furthest possible degree. They lament what seems to them the highly inadequate proportion of elementary school children who go to high schools and of the high school pupils who proceed to college; and they glory in any increase of these proportions. They seem to forget that the classroom is not the only means of education; that a youth may get more intellectual and moral training from practical work that he likes, than from moral lessons that he loathes."

Now, this does not mean to depreciate in the least the value of higher education to those who by intellect, temperament and inclination are capable of acquiring it and putting it into practical use. It simply means that unless a young person has the native ability to work with his brains, he had better be taught to work with his hands.—Haskell Free Press.

"Appreciates Your Business"

STATEMENT OF OWNERSHIP FOR OCTOBER 1ST

Before the undersigned authority appeared A. J. Stricklin, who under oath states that he is the owner of the Terry County Herald, that A. J. Stricklin and Son are the business managers and publishers, and that A. J. Stricklin is the editor, all addresses being Brownfield, Texas. That there are no mortgages or bondholders.

Signed: A. J. Stricklin.
Sworn to before me this 23rd day of September, 1932.
Martin Line, Notary Public.

Ben Crouch was considerably surprised when a party came to the Republican-Clipper office at Bethany (Mo.) on a recent Saturday and hurriedly inquired for the price of three or four hundred sale bills. "What do you want with hand bills?" was asked. "I advertised a sow and pigs in your paper," was the reply, "and I've sold 'em and want to stop people from enquiring about them."

Burned to Death

Carl Yarbrough, of Belton, Texas, has been charged with murdering his step-daughter, Doris, 16, above. When her clothing caught fire, Yarbrough threw a gallon of gasoline on her, thinking it was water, he says. He carried $12,000 accident policy on Doris' life.

LET'S GET RID OF BOTH FACTIONS

There is quite a stir among politicians of the State over the recent election. Mrs. Ferguson seems to be leading Ross Sterling for governor by about 4,000 votes. Each side is charging the other side with crookedness in the election. They are pointing fingers at each other and saying nasty things.

This paper is of the opinion that the whole of Texas is getting pretty well fed up on both sides and we suggest that for the good of the State of Texas both sides step down and out and turn the governor's chair over to Edgar Witt, a man who has the respect of all the people of Texas for his honesty and efficiency and a man who will make Texas a good governor. For goodness sakes, let's quit fighting and live like civilized people again—forget there was ever a Ross Sterling or Jim or Ma Ferguson and turn our heads toward a harmonious, respectable government—with Edgar Witt at the helm. What do you say, people?—Mexia Herald.

Official paper of Terry County.

And don't forget that we will be standing on the corner to welcome you to our Tradesday, Monday.

The Southwest Plainsman of Amarillo is now a local as well as a general Panhandle-Plains agricultural journal, and we must admit that it is meeting both requirements admirably.

In our rounds to see the sick and old time friends Sunday afternoon, we not only noted a lot of pretty, well kept yards, but some fine fall gardens as well. All of which speaks for the civic pride of our people.

The Snyder Signal last week accused a lot of the Sterling papers of putting on the soft pedal since the election was over. As for the Herald, it was always willing to fight until knocked down senseless, but it never did have enough Irish in it to keep on chewing the rag until thrown out into the gutter and the hogs called to do the rest.

Boy, fall is here. A number of our exchanges that have been coming to us for the past several months, came in last week with eight pages, all full of juicy ads. Would that all small town merchant would learn that May is as good month to advertise as December, if they have something to sell.

And one cannot help admiring young people from the farms of Texas and other states, who are trading produce for an education. Some are trading cattle, some canned goods, some wheat or potatoes. The Herald will bet a ginger cake to a doughnut that these young people will make a mark in the world. Such grit! Such determination!

They have a fellow over in Lea county New Mexico named Christmas, who is running for State Senate. He has been endorsed by both the Democrats and Republicans. Christmas is also popular with the young people over in Texas, but all the old Dads seem to have it in for him.

The Beaver City (Neb.) Times-Tribune notes the changes in human nature by remarking that back in Bible days when travel was largely by foot, a good Samaritan was one who halted his cart by the roadside and gave a fellow traveler a ride on toward his destination. But times have changed, and customs have changed with them. Today the one who tries the role of good Samaritan may wake up alongside the road to find that the fellow traveler he sought to assist has given him a knock on the head, rifled his pockets and then drove away with his vehicle.

A. P. Gregory, not only is editor of the News, but also is in the mercantile business in Porter, Okla. His reports on the changing of ladies' apparel is at times very unique. Just read: "Advocates for or against wearing stockings are pretting well lined up. Hose manufacturers and dry goods stores are for the wearing of them, while the makers of fly sprays, mosquito repellants and hair removers are against it. It will soon be decided by the girls. What's your guess."—McLean News.

The meeting of a lot of prominent politicians and others in Dallas last Saturday for the purpose of seeing just whom they would bolt to, would be bolters soon bolted among themselves. Some, seemingly a majority seemed to favor Bullington, the Republican candidate, while a rump meeting was held by the Bullington bolters for Armstrong, the Independent candidate. They will have to hang together better than that if they intend to beat the Fergusons.

The Wanoka (Okla.) News shatters more idols with the report that the man who composed "Home Sweet Home" never had a home; the man who composed "On the Banks of the Wabash" never had a bank; the man who composed "My Bark Is on the Sea" never owned a dog; the man who wrote "Tramp, Tramp" never owned a tomato can, and the man who composed "Only One Girl" is married and has a breach of promise suit on his hands.

The Meadow Democrats seem to think they are getting a raw deal from the party leaders of the county seat, and we must admit that it appears that way. But we do not believe that the slight is in the least intentional. At one time, one of the members of the executive committee lived in that city, but his attendance on meetings were infrequent. However, we believe that Meadow is entitled to representation, and we believe they will get it. In the meantime, just because they have no member of the Executive Committee is no reason whatever why they cannot hold precinct conventions, elect delegates to the county convention and come down and fight it out if it takes all summer.

Some people it seems wanted to make our editorial last week about the number of votes cast in this county mean more than we aimed for it to mean. As our Meadow writer remarks, lots of young boys and girls were qualified this year without having to obtain a poll tax receipt, not to mention old men and women who do not have to pay them. Some one counted 25 old men and women above 60 who voted in No. 2 here, not to mention other big boxes in the county where unders and overs voted. And pretty nearly every Republican in the county voted in the Democratic primary this year, and we don't blame them either, for to do otherwise, leaves them without the least shadow of a say as to whom will be our county and district officials. No, sir, everyone who knows the editor or cares to know him, knows that he has the utmost respect for all old people. We are fast getting that way ourselves. Somebody wanted to make a mountain out of a molehill.

An obscure news item appeared in the daily press a few days ago telling of the death of Charles H. Gabriel in Los Angeles, California. Possibly very few of our readers know who Charles H. Gabriel was. Yet he has probably influenced hundreds of thousands of people in this country for good. Millions of them have doubtless joined in singing some of the popular church hymns that he has written. Many of our readers probably sang one or more of these hymns at the last church service they attended, for he is the author of such appealing compositions as "Calling the Prodigal," "Glory For Me," "More Like the Master," "He Lifted Me," "How Marvelous," "He Is So Precious to Me," "Send the Lights," and hundreds of others. He also wrote the music but not the words for such inspiring songs as "Higher Ground," "All Hail, Immanuel," "Brighten the Corner Where You Are," etc. The Charles H. Gabriels, the Fanny Crosby's, the Ira D. Sankeys, the Rodeheavers, and others of their kind have probably done more to make this country safe for democracy and a decent place in which to live than all the statesmen who have sat in the halls of Congress. Instead of erecting monuments to our warriors, we ought to erect them to some of our song writers.—Tahoka News.

It was already obvious even to the administration that the forced production of our industry was far too great for our domestic markets. The President had to meet this fact and he did meet it by an audacious and fateful suggestion. We were to sell the constantly increasing surplus aboard. But how could this be done in the collapsed state of world finance? He answered "it is an essential part of the further expansion of our foreign trade that we should interest ourselves in the development of backward or crippled countries by means of loans." Obedient to this suggestion, the United States, which had already loaned fourteen billions abroad, was now lending over-seas at the rate of two billion per year. Thus was produced in fact the crop of foreign bonds which American investors know to their cast. The old economics had gone out of business; to the suggestion that mass and machine production ultimately must destroy unemployment, the President simply observed, "This is the re-echo of a century ago." And the new economics went merrily on. The agitation had already begun for the raising of protective tariffs according to good Republican principle. There were protests that you could not increase protective tariffs preventing foreigners from selling, and at the same time expect a greater expansion of our foreign trade. Said the President: "The theory was sound enough in the old days of direct barter." And after discussing polyangular trade, he concluded, "This I believe finally extinguishes the already depleted importance of the theory that our tariff seriously damages the buying power of foreign countries." I think the President himself knew better; but behind him was the insistent Mr. Grundy. They had let the President have his foreign loans—not unnaturally, in view of the huge banking commissions which were being made out of these loans. But Mr. Grundy and the Republican leaders, looking for something more substantial than the fanciful promises from abroad that were being sold American investors, asked for a copper riveted American market, sealed by the highest tariff in the history of the world. The President hesitated, because he must have seen the awful nature of the choice. But his courage failed. Grundyism had its way; and American industry, accelerated to a pace never before known, suddenly found the brakes locked on a slippery road. The law of gravity did the rest.—Franklin D. Roosevelt.

J. E. Michie has changed the name of his store from the "M" System Store to the M. Grocery & Market, thus retaining the "M" which stands for "Michie," and eliminating the "System." We also might state in case you did not see it in his ad last week, that R. C. Burleson won $25 for the name. So you see a good name is worth something after all.

Dr. D. B. Wade, wife and grandson, of Fort Worth, were here last week visiting Mrs. J. T. Hamilton and family. The doctor was their neighbor and family physician back in Red River county, years ago.

Believe It Or Not

Again it has become necessary to reply to the Honorable Grand Jury's report in as much as they have involved the Commissioner's Court and the method in which they have handled the county funds. Part of their report we want to affirm and part we want to deny being true.

In the first place we want to admit that we did attend three conventions at the county's expense, but before we even went to the first convention we called in our legal adviser and got his opinion and advise in regard to expenses. We explained to him the purpose of the organization and what it fostered in regard to trying to get constructive legislation passed that would be of more benefit to the poor counties of Texas who had no funds to take care of the ever increasing demand on them. And that these Conventions were not for the benefit of Judges and Commissioners but for the counties they represent. There has never been a resolution passed asking a raise of salary for the members, but all business taken up is for the benefit of their counties.

Our adviser informed us that in his opinion it would be legal to take the necessary money for the actual expense and that was what we did. Now we are all subject to mistakes and it may be that he made an error in so advising the Commissioner's Court.

After the January 1931 Grand Jury's investigation which was 18 months ago, we had our legal adviser get an opinion of this matter from the Attorney General, together with some other matters. The Attorney General approved the other matters not mentioned in this article but stated that he disapproved of the expenses to the conventions; so then and there we cut it out.

Our County Attorney might have made a mistake, but if he did, in our opinion it was an honest mistake for we have always found him to be fair and honest in every way. We hardly think that he would advise us to do a thing and then turn around and sue us for doing what he had told us to do. If all parties concerned will just keep their shirts on, we feel that things can be adjusted without overflowing the penitentiary.

At the Convention in 1929, one of which we attended and drew our expenses from the County, we got a resolution passed and followed it up with a bill in the Legislature giving the small counties all of the car registration fees which amounted to $8,000.00 for Terry county per year.

At the convention in Amarillo the 1st and 2nd of this month we got a resolution passed asking that the small counties without road bonds should be taken care of in the bill that was coming before the legislature and a committee was sent to Austin and got the bill changed before it was submitted. Surely the Conventions have done this County some good.

Some seem to think we go to these Conventions just to have a big time but they are badly mistaken. It is true, the city where the Convention is held has always entertained the members before and after the sessions, but usually from 9 o'clock A. M. to 5 o'clock P. M. is strictly business. As President Judge Eplen of Abilene said at the last Convention "when we work, we work and when we play, we play."

The Grand Jury must remember that so far as we know there was only one perfect man and He has gone to prepare a place for Grand Jurors, County Judges and Commissioners.

Now it seems that the Grand Jury has some positive proof that the present Court is still practicing what they have us charged with. This we want to brand as absolutely false without any grounds to stand on whatsoever. The records in the Court House show that the last warrants and checks issued for such purposes were issued September 27, 1930. The present court, which includes Judge Barret and Com. Hinson, has never attended a convention at the expense of the County, however Judge Barret feels the need of attending the conventions and does at his own expense. He has never missed but one, and we commissioners go when we have time.

Just where the Grand Jury got their information and positive evidence is beyond our comprehension. The report shows that some of the members of this Grand Jury were also members of the Jury that investigated this matter 18 months ago. The records in the Court House show that only one man that served on the Grand Jury in 1931 served on this Jury.

We think we have been pretty fair with Terry county, as we have gone outside the County several times in the County's interest and didn't make any extra charge, but when we were called to San Antonio to Court by Judge Smiley when the large counties were trying to get the car tax law repealed, which if it had happened, would have meant a loss of more than $12,500.00 the last two years to Terry County. Judge Smiley stated in his telegram that the Attorney General ruled to draw on the County for expenses. We went and did out best; our side won that suit and when a similar case was called in Harris County several months later for the same purpose, at the request of the Attorney General Department, we sent Judge Barret to represent Terry County, and our side won in that case. We are doing the best we can for Terry County. Although we make mistakes as we go down the road, we believe that the majority of Terry County citizens appreciate our services and all we ask is a reasonably square deal.

UNDERSTANDING

We like to know and understand the problems of our customers, and always try to look at things from their point of view. This attitude on the part of our personnel is one of the outstanding characteristics of this bank and has won for us the confidence and friendship of our depositors. They found we render the best of banking services—give something more—a complete understanding which is most helpful and reassuring.

BROWNFIELD STATE BANK

OUR 23 YEAR COLUMN

Taken from the Herald of September 24, 1909.

The reason we give our readers extracts from the first page articles is that we may see what was being discussed 23 years ago in a State or National way. For instance, in our issue of October 1, 1909, one writer was discussing the "Undeveloped Resources of Texas," which included the possibility of irrigation in the Pecos valley in Texas and New Mexico. Irrigation was just starting good in that section then, especially around El Paso. Another writer was blasting the old theory that alfalfa had to have a favored soil and a favored climate. This writer proved that it was grown successfully from New England to Florida, from the upper reaches of the Mississippi to its mouth, on all kinds of soil, and from heights of 800 feet to below sea level in California. Another article told us why it was that England profited more out of our cotton crops than did the south. With their huge factories covering less than 10 square miles, she reaped 33c out of each dollar's worth of cotton. The southern grower got 27c, the transportation companies got 7c (but they get a long sight more than that now) while 33c went to the government. Another short article told us that an Ellis county man was fined $25 at Waxahachie for kissing a girl. Kisses may be lower, maybe higher now. On the second page, we had an editorial in which we copied an extract from the Dallas News warning east Texas that while west Texas usually did a lot of talking, they usually produced the goods at the Dallas Fair. We might add they are still at it. That was our first year to carry an exhibit down there. That was the day before the score card came into existence, and every exhibit carried and displayed what he wanted like he wanted it, and in those good old days, Terry was always right there in the winnings. Under a headline, we told about Jim Walker and John Waltrip bringing the editor a huge melon, which was straightway devoured. Then, as now, we were advocating readers to read the ads. The folks here were still trading. W. R. Harris had traded two lots, where the Hotel Brownfield now stand to M. V. Brownfield for the two-story residence now owned by N. W. Jones. Dr. J. W. Ellis sold six residence lots to Walter Posey at Lubbock for $750. That's as much or more than they would bring now, probably. J. C. Whisenant had purchased a house just south of town and was moving it in to remodel into a residence. Prof. Herring had purchased a lot near the school building. Thos. DeShazo of Gomez had let the contract to Biles Bros. to build a concrete block two story residence in the west part of the city. A lumber yard and a new residence for M. V. Brownfield were announced as assured facts. Two Texas editors, Joe J. (State Press) Taylor of the Dallas News and J. H. (Buttermilk) Lowery of the Honey Grove Signal were said to have just returned as representatives of the government from China, where they had gone in the interest of larger feet for Chinese women. Their quest for smaller feet seemed to have unsuccessful, but they brought back a connoction called Slang Jang which they maintained would become very popular. It was a food, they said—not an intoxicant—and looked very much like our present shredded wheat. One editor is said to have eaten a whisk broom thinking he was eating Slang Jang. On the third page: W. G. Hardin was a Lubbock visitor. Sam Withers was in from the farm. C. H. Walker was over from Plains. A party of Dallas business men were here prospecting. Judge Spencer went to Austin on legal business. B. F. Nix had returned from Big Spring with a load of lumber. Frank and Kenneth Adams were here from Lynn county. D. Robinson had returned from Lubbock and reported it booming. Neill H. Bigger and Arthur Moore had been over in Yoakum surveying Mr. Bigger's bonus. Dock Powell and Will Dixon made a trip to New Mexico. Robert Forrester and wife of Lynn county were visiting relatives here. Dr. Griffin, Orel Adams and Will Allen passed through from Gomez on their way to Lubbock. Col. J. T. Gainer and son, Will, of Gomez, and Arthur Alexander of this city were visitors in Lubbock. J. J. and R. M. Kendrick of Plains attended Masonic lodge here. The postoffice was moved to the north side of the square and the mail put up in 30 minutes. J. O. Jones was summoned to Abilene as Federal court juror. Jim Burnett had already bundled 3000 binds of feed. J. G. Cruigshank, of Plains was here on business. W. R. Harris was figuring on having the upstairs over Randal Drug Store remodeled. Uncle Billie Byrd's new residence on the heights was nearing completion. Contractor Biles found very good concrete sand ten feet under ground in the draw. Joe Shelly and family and John Landers, were visiting Jim Burnett and prospecting. Dr. R. L. Howell was here from Snyder looking after his property. Several relatives from Scott, N. M. were visiting Mrs. Chas. Copeland. A dance at the J. G. Mallard home the Friday night before. S. A. Shepherd was a visitor at the Herald office. T. M. Biles had left for Rotan after the concrete block machine. Arthur Moore, county surveyor, had been appointed deputy surveyor of the Big Spring district. J. F. Blankenship, one of the early settlers of Terry county, was up from Stanton. The Brownfield Mercantile Co. had purchased a building on the south side of the square for a furniture warehouse. Dr. Jones of Austin and nephew J. P. Jones of Brady, had purchased some town property here and a section in west Terry on the line of Yoakum county. GRAND JURORS for Oct. term district court: W. R. Bridges, T. C. Ivey, Mart Ellis, H. F. Adams, T. J. Broughton, J. N. Farris, Sam Arnett, Jess Black, Lee Walker, S. E. Hamilton, M. C. Adams, A. M. Brownfield, A. P. Moore, J. C. Whisenant, Billie Byrd and A. V. Taylor. PETIT JURORS: Chas. Boone, Noah Bell, Jim Lewis, H. C. Byrd, S. W. Abbott, C. S. Cardwell, Brit Clare, H. L. Ware, W. D. Winn, I. H. Hudson, T. L. Clark, Will Black, Will Adams, Dale Adams, Harry Braidfoot, John Hays, Ray Brownfield, Will Dixon, Lynn Adams, John Scudday Sr., Reg. Burnett, John Welch, A. P. Seitz, Tom Taylor, Chas. Copeland, W. J. A. Parker, R. P. Way, Cleve Williams, O. C. Biggs, Jack Bryan, Bud Jones, R. W. Glover, J. V. Newsom, M. V. Brownfield, Lee Allmon. (Say, how does the above read to your old times? Note the number of Adams' on the grand and petit jury. But it took about all of us to hold court in those good old days for just one week.) County Clerk J. T. Price notified all who had interest due on state lands could find coupons in his office. Mrs. Chas. Copeland had given a 42 party for her visitors. On the back page was a Harris communication that reported that Mr. McMillan, and W. D. Shaw were off for the railroad. That the T-outfit had got in with one of their herds. Luther Crutchfield had gone east with a bunch of horses. That Bro. Robert Harris had delivered a good sermon the Sunday before. W. T. Petty was there looking for grass, and that school was to start Monday. Another item told how Lubbock people raised more than $600 for

HUNTER NEWS

More rain for Hunter is the news now. If Hunter got as much other stuff as it did rain we sure would be rich. Don't you think? We are proud our laughing Nola Bennett is back with us again. We are also proud to have Mr. Fred Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Scott, and Mrs. Scott's father, Mr. A. J. Old from Daingerfield, Texas. Mr. Old will stay with us for awhile. They all enjoyed their trip just fine. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Scott and Mr. Old went to Mr. Scott's father at Smyer last Saturday afternoon. Mr. Lee Lyon has gone to Dallas to take treatments. He left last Tuesday and stayed a week. Mr. Orvis Bockmon has gone to Anson, Texas to visit friends and relatives. Mr. Robert Smith is visiting his friends and relatives at Jayton, Texas. The rain knocked every body out from coming to Sunday school last Sunday morning. There were some present, but not enough to have Sunday school. Then Sunday night a few came to B. Y. P. U. but not enough to have anything, so they all met at Mr. Joe Smith's home and talked and laughed. You know we had fun—Nola Bennett was there—and you know she can make you laugh. The rain kindly put a stop to the canning last week, but they are all trying to can now. Corn is the talk this week. I don't know what we will can next. I guess it will be squash. Mrs. Bockmon has been on the sick list this week.

Because of her recent remarkable showing in the Forest Hills tennis tournament, Eileen Bennett Whittinstall, has been called England's best feminine tennis player.

MULLINS & GRACEY

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF WELLMAN

Pastor, W. Loveless

We had Sunday school with 51 present. We are anxious to have an improvement in attendance every Sunday over the last, so we cordially invite everyone to come to Sunday school. The preaching service followed with a stirring message on "The Crucifixion," brought by the pastor. Then followed a real good old fashioned dinner on the ground, after the delightful lunch, a Sunday school examination was given to the different classes, covering all the lessons studied during the last quarter about Moses and his leadership. All students making fairly good grades.

B. T. S. met at 7:30 with an attendance of 51. Our goal is to enlist all (whoever will come) to these services. We have five departments in our B. T. S. Primary, Junior, Intermediate, Senior and Adult unions.

We are looking forward to a great year in the Lords Service, as we are adopting the Budget System for carrying on our work this next year. Our Sunday school superintendent is busy with plans for the coming year, and our B. T. S. leader has plenty of things for us to think about and do.

We are going to mix pleasure along with our other work by having socials occasionally. Mrs. Burnett is a very skillful and efficient social leader, speaking from what she has done in the past. We are looking forward to Hallowe'en.

Mrs. Jenkins the new Intermediate B. T. S. leader gave us something new at the B. T. S. General Assembly, when one of her members, Geneva Thompson, read "The House With Nobody In It" by Joyce Kilmer.

"Entering The Kingdom" was the subject of the evening message. Each and every one is cordially invited to attend all services. First and Third Sundays, Sunday school, 10 o'clock, and B. T. S. 7:30 second and fourth Sundays.

In the morning Sunday school 10 o'clock, Morning services, 11:30. In the evening B. T. S. 7:30. Song services 8:00 and 8:30 preaching. Again we welcome you to come.

KNOW TEXAS

What does the average person know about Texas? What does the so-called "above the average" person know about Texas? Very little indeed. It is utterly impossible for any man to know Texas. Most of us can in time, learn a few things about Texas, but to actually "Know Texas" is impossible.

Texas has a total of 253 counties, and many of them are as large or larger than some states. No man can know all there is to know about the agricultural land of the State, and no one man, nor no one hundred men can know about the agricultural possibilities of Texas. Right now there is enough good agricultural land in Texas that has never felt the tickle of a plow to give the head of every family out of employment in the United States an eighty acre farm.

There is enough pasture and grazing land in Texas to feed every head of cattle South of the Mason and Dixon line. There is now growing in West Texas alone, enough feed stuff if it could all be harvested to cover some of the smaller states solidly. It is possible to raise the world's need of cotton in Texas alone, and have plenty of room left to grow all the feed stuff to feed all the livestock required in the cultivation of the lands of the state. If all the coal in Texas was dug up and piled into one big pile and fired, after it got under way, hades would probably compare with it as a match to a burning oil well.

If all the natural gas that escapes from the gas and oil wells of Texas in the run of a year could be confined and lighted at one time it would make an explosion that would jar the moon out of its orbit.

Know Texas? Who knows Texas? No man knows Texas now and no man ever will, but it would pay the world to learn what they can of Texas aid it would pay Texans double dividends, monthly if they would put in one-half of their surplus time reading about and studying Texas and traveling over this vast state getting acquainted with its vast unlimited God-Given resources.—Ex.

Meadow Briefs

Well that bunch of Reverends, College Presidents and political high binders met at Dallas as per schedule Saturday, September 24th and resolute and finally left poor old Brother Armstrong out in the cold and of course did just what the meeting was called for to indorse Bullington the Renegade Democrat running on the Republican Ticket for Governor. Provided the Right Hon. Sterling fell down in his efforts to oust Mrs. Ferguson from her place as Democratic Nominee of the Party. This poor specimen of Dan Moody, Woodward and company is a political orphan and it is hard to find around here any one that will confess to voting for him.

His assertion that an unestimated number of illegal votes were cast for Mrs. Ferguson is just a lot of hooey. Even the Herald is inclined to slur the vote of Terry county for the reason that some two hundred more votes were polled than the list showed. At this box, Meadow had some thirty-five boys and girls along with old decrepit fellows like myself voted and we were not on the poll list. There are some twenty-one boxes in the county and two hundred would not be large for the overs and unders, that is twenty-one and sixty or above. Two hundred votes if thrown out might change the county election.

All these were not cast for Mrs. Ferguson by a darned sight. Old Ross got his share of the illegal if they are illegal. There are men here that declare that they signed on the dotted line to get a job on the highway a short time before the election. There wasn't a shadow of a reason why any one should vote illegally for the Fergusons. Nobody expected her to be nominated and the prospects of a division of the Loaves and Fishes among her supporters was just about as distant as Judgment Day.

I am not partial to the Fergusons, have repeatedly voted against them and will be glad when the time arrives that they can be decently and legally eliminated from Texas Politics by a decent white man who has sense enough to stay out of the fire.

It is amusing and pathetic to hear men extol the virtues of Sterling who two years ago could not find their disgust with his millions of dollars of road bonds and other dam foolishness. The Fergusons were badly beaten by Sterling two years ago and prior to that Flaxen Haired Dan Moody. But then, nobody expected a come back but they have come back and by nearly a half million of votes are the nominees of the party. What will Sterling supporters do about it. I will tell you that every man and woman who value their promises as of any value, if they vote at all, will get to the polls and vote the ticket—and I don't mean maybe. In other words they are in the position of the Ancient King who saw written on the wall of His Palace "Mene, Mene Tekel Upharsen" you have been weighed in the balance and found wanting.

To shirk the responsibility of keeping your promise is to say the least abominable. Either vote it straight or stay away from polls. It has been excellent past time for the past sixteen years to lambast the Fergusons. When a campaign was in progress the Fergusons were made the goat. The papers could not mention his name and can't now without explaining that he had been impeached. I have never spoken to either of the Fergusons, although I was present at their nominations in 1924, not as a delegate, but through the kindness of Judge Neill who furnished me with a badge. Our Precinct you know has no standing in Brownfield.

Well the Grand Jury has taken a shot at the County Commissioners. Being strictly an Exparte Tribunal, they can get by with most any old thing. But dollars to doughnuts they are off their base. I haven't talked with the Commissioners, but I am not prepared to believe that they are a gang of thieves which is just about what these good men and true make of them.

Doubtless the Commissioners will answer the charges and it will doubtless turn out that some influential individual is evening an old grudge against them. Unfortunately, Grand Juries do not go into an examination of facts on both sides. This is perhaps alright in finding indictments but when it comes to besmirching the reputations and defaming the good name of officers, they should know.

Aesculapias.

Scudday News

If we don't can something to eat now—where will we get it. For it seems like the rain is going to ruin our cotton, so we wont have any high price cotton to sell. Every one down here is still eating what they canned, and canning what they can't.

The Texas Centennial Means
The 100th Birthday of Texas

Sam Houston was inaugurated President of the Republic of Texas on October 22, 1836. As a symbol of his assumption of civil office, he presented his sword to the Speaker of the House.

Celebrated in Honor of the Immortal
Heroes of Texas' Early History

"It now, sir, becomes my duty to make presentation of this sword . . . this emblem of my past office," said Houston at his inauguration. "I have worn it with some humble pretensions in defense of my country—and should the danger of my country again call for my services, I expect to resume it, and respond to that call, if needful, with my blood and with my life."

In this dramatic manner constitutional government began in Texas nearly a century ago. The centennial of that event, and of other events which marked the birth of Texan independence, will come in 1936. We should observe it with a Centennial Celebration worthy of Texas and the heroes who won and established Texan independence.

Such a Centennial Exposition can rival the foremost of such events ever held. Literally millions of people will throng the borders of Texas. They will not only see the glories of our illustrious past—but the golden opportunities of the present. Happily, such an Exposition will return revenue to the State far in excess of its cost . . . and individual Texans will see direct economic benefit.

EAGLE MAKES EFFORT TO ATTACK AUTO

Earl Read who recently returned from a 3,000 mile automobile trip to California and points on the west coast had an experience he will not soon forget that of being attacked by an eagle at night.

In order to save a few miles Earl had been directed to take a short cut across the desert near the western border of California when a blow-out left him high and dry out in the desert and a weak spare tire to depend on. Just about the time the tires were changed a huge eagle swooped down on them and kept circling the car and making as if to dash against the glass. Not until they put out the lights and drove some distance from that point did the eagle back off.

Old timers in that area informed Mr. Read there were many large eagles in that area but it was unusual for them to attack anyone after nightfall.

Earl declares the eagle looked as big as a cow and as fierce as a tiger as it made its dashes toward the car thru the beams from the headlights. —Big Spring News.

Watch Out For All Kinds Of Tricks

This fall will be a good period for all kinds of solicitors, salesmen, sellers, traders, grafters, etc. It's time to watch out.

Last week they started in here. There were about two or three "tie" solicitors, charity "fakers," numerous "insurance" peddlers, and ere long there will be book agents, subscription grafters, for magazines and daily papers, all with a story of "need." It's always that way in the cotton season. Some of us will "bite" at one or the other of the "off-springs."

The newspaper is the first "goat" to be tried on advertising schemes. The newspaper can be a party to such grafting, but it's not much of a paper that will encourage outsiders to stay in a town and high-pressure the folks out of their money. We have "home folks" who have held the bag all the year, who are the main backbone of the community and who need all the patronage they can be given. It's an easy matter to send your money out of town if you yield to some slick-tongued guy: Better remember that you can't live in a community alone, that it takes you and me and all the others pulling together to get through his old hard world. Let the grafter stay out of our community for the lack of patronage. Well we remember a certain gang of fellows who came into Hamlin and sold themselves to some of our best citizens a few-years ago. One of them sold a kind of farm bookkeeping outfit, another sold a certain kind of chair, another outfit sold a patent right, another got up a bum advertising scheme, another grafted on the churches, another the American Legion, another got in with the local Chamber of Commerce, another worked on the P. T. A. and every last one of them got what they came in for—the money, and hiked out. We should learn to tell them to get the heck out of here. Tell them all the suckers in the Hamlin county had to leave town or are dead, none left.

It seems that people just love to be humbugged. That reminds us. What is the biggest bug in the world? While we are on this subject, there is another fellow whom you should watch out for. Be shy of the fellow who wants you to take a certain kind of paper. He will give you the paper and a map or a whip, or some kind of a trinket all for a quarter just to get your name. Look out for him.

If you want some good socks, nice ties, or any kind of dry goods, go down in town and tell you hard-pressed faithful merchant. If the goods are not satisfactory, your merchant is here and will make them good.

The next few weeks will find grafters encamped on every side. Even the fortune teller, the phrenologist, palm-reader, medicine-man and his show, selling stuff that will clean you up. STAY OFF of them.—Hamlin Herald.

Forced to Resign

Here is Pascual Ortiz Rubio, resigned president of Mexico. The photo was taken as Rubio greeted supporters from the train in El Paso, Texas. STAY WITH YOUR JOB IT IS VERY LIKELY NOT SO BAD

You know a lot of us are griping these days when we are really better off than we think. Some of us don't know when we are well off. We think that just because we are making a little less salary than two or three years ago, everything is shot to pieces. I picked up a copy of a letter from a father to one of his married daughters giving her some good advice and pointing out some facts which are worth considering. Read the letter:

My Dear Daughter: You ask me if your husband should stay on at an "adjusted" salary, but you forgot to tell me what he would do if he didn't. You and he couldn't very well come here just now. Your brother, Sheridan's salary has just been "reconsidered," so he moved into his old room at home and brought his wife.

Your sister, Eloise, telegraphed the next day that Wilfred has just been offered a new contract that was an insult, so you mother is airing out her room. Wilfred never could endure insults. Your sister, Frances, whom, you recall has been a private secretary, wrote last week that if anybody thinks she is going to drop to the level of a common typist, they are mistaken, so we expect her any day.

So with these and the younger children, I imagine that as long as Rupert's salary is merely being "adjusted," he had better stay. An adjustment is nothing like a reduction. It's hard for me to keep up with the new language of big business, but as I understand it, an "adjustment" is the equivalent of a raise, of course, Rupert wouldn't know that because he has been working only since 1928; he should ask some old timer to explain what a raise is.

My business is coming along fine. It was sold on the courthouse steps last Friday, but there were no bidders so the sheriff let me keep it. That makes the best month I've had since the upturn. Your affectionate father. —Wink Times-Herald.

Our old friend, W. J. Hicks, was in from the farm Monday and brought the Herald two fine melons. While the editor seldom eats them, the rest of the family does. We like 'em but they don't like us. Mr. Hicks had three very old coins, a dime of 1856, a half dime of early date and a silver 3c piece. The 3c piece was the first we ever saw that we remember. It was paid Mr. Hicks on wages back in Mississippi when he was just a boy.

Jones Dry Goods Co. has on a sale this week, the Herald printing some 2000 full page circulars for them. Manager Paul Robertson says they are cutting prices to the red this season.

NOT HANDY

A small boy went into a grocery store and asked for a box of matches. Presently he returned saying:

"Please, mother says these matches won't light."

"Won't light," cried the grocer. "Why, look here!" and he struck one on his trousers.

The boy took the matches away, but presently returned with them once more.

"Please, sir, mother says she hasn't time to come and scratch all her matches on your trousers!"—Agents Bulletin of Mutual Life.

Teacher—Willie, can you tell me one of the uses of cowhide?

Willie—Ye, ma'am. It keeps the cow together.

Ed Thompson was in from the farm Monday and presented the Herald force with a lot of fine roasting ears. Ed has several acres of cotton that will make a bale to the acre if the weather will clear up and stay clear.

Charred Plane on Sheer Face of Mountainside!

It is all that is left of the American Airways plane which crashed and burned on the face of a Malibu mountainside, resulting in three deaths and possibly fatal injury to a fourth man. In the picture workers are struggling to remove the bodies of Pilot W. J. Robbins, Francis Briggs, copilot and Victor Ellman, passenger. Another passenger, George A. Davidson, was thrown from the wreckage and escaped with serious injuries. The tragedy occurred in a wild and uninhabited region at the foot of El Capitan pass, 80 miles east of El Paso.
