VOLUME TWENTY-EIGHT

BROWNFIELD, TERRY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1932

NUMBER 9

Chamber of Commerce

—By J. E. Shelton, Secretary

The office now has blank applications covering on the Government Livestock Feeder Loans and while it is not going to be as easy to secure money with which to purchase livestock for feeding purposes as it was to borrow money under the Seed and Feed Loan, it will be available to both ranch owners and small feeders provided that they are able to convince the loan officials that they have sufficient feed and facilities, coupled with some feeding experience. We would be very glad to send in applications from any of our stockmen or feeders who are of the opinion that they can meet the requirements of the loan officials. The interest rate will be seven per cent, which includes the cost of expenses in connection with the loan. It might be well to state that the writer does not receive a dime as compensation for his services, but is willing to devote time to any activity that results in benefitting farmers and ranchmen of the county, this was the policy in connection with the Seed loan and will be repeated on livestock loans.

Mr. L. J. Hahn, of Lamesa, of the United States Department of Labor was here today and informed us that the services of his office will be available to us this year, as in the past, in the matter of furnishing cotton pickers when the need for them arises. He was informed that we expected to proceed with caution, when it came to applying for assistance as we did not desire to swamp the county with laborers for whom jobs could not be provided and that it was not expected that any considerable number of pickers could be absorbed prior to the 20th of this month and that the natural supply might take care of our needs this year.

Pebworth Given 99 Years For Murder

Lee Pebworth was given 99 years in the state penitentiary in the district court at Portales Wednesday when he entered a plea of guilty on a charge of murder. Pebworth is 60 years old and has been confined in the Roosevelt county jail since the killing, at which time he was seriously wounded himself.

He was indicted by the Roosevelt county grand jury for the slaying of Deputy Sheriff Harve Bolin of Plainview, Texas, when officers attempted to arrest him at his ranch near Mililand.

Similar charges against Joe Jones, son-in-law of Pebworth and Stanley Hedrick, who also were indicted for the slaying, were dismissed because of insufficient evidence.

The battle took place when the Texas officers, joined by New Mexico officials from Roosevelt county, attempted to arrest Pebworth at his ranch home upon a charge of robbing the bank at Olton, Texas.

Serious Wreck On Highway Sat. Night

When Mrs. B. Smith and her son and daughter left Brownfield late Saturday afternoon for their home near Tokio, they had a collision with an apple truck from Roswell about one mile west of Gomez, which proved to be very serious, although none of the occupants of either the truck or car were fatally injured. It seems that so many cars were returning home from Brownfield at that time that a great cloud of dust hung over the roadway, and little wind to carry it away. Both drivers possibly were over nearer the center of the highway than they thought.

It seems that the front wheels of each locked together, and both were badly wrecked. Mrs. Smith was badly cut about the face and body, and the others were more or less bruised. The occupants of the truck were the owner, Mr. Pierce, of Hamlin, and a driver, Mr. Lufkin of the same city. Mr. Pierce's hand was so badly mangled that it was removed at a local hospital, where all the injured were brought for treatment. The driver of the truck escaped injuries.

To Receive 9c For Cotton As Security On Loans

K. B. McWilliams, manager of the Texas Cotton Co-operative office at this place, yesterday received a message that the Agricultural Department had announced a plan for liberalizing crop production and seed loans in cotton states by accepting the staple as collateral on the basis of 9 cents per pound, middling 7-8 inch staple.

On loans that have been made to the farmers by the government for the purchase of seed or for crop production it was required to give a first mortgage on the crop for repayment. Under the new provision he can place his cotton with the government at 9 cents per pound as security. This prevents the farmer having to sell at the prevailing price of about six and one-half cents and applying the proceeds to the liquidation of the debt. It also withdraws this amount of cotton from the market which should have a favorable reaction on the price paid for cotton sold.

According to Mr. McWilliams, it will be required that the cotton be delivered to the Cotton Co-Operatives, or to have it classed by a Federal licensed classifier and placed in a Federal bonded warehouse.

In the latter case, the cotton must be insured and warehouse receipts delivered to field agents of the department or to the regional crop loan collection office. Receipts must be on sufficient cotton to collateralize the loan at nine cents per pound.

The borrower must sign an agreement reserving the right to sell the collateralized cotton at any time prior to March 1, 1933, and authorizing the secretary to sell it in his discretion at any time subsequent to that date.

When sold, the borrower would be credited with the sale proceeds. If the amount obtained is more than his loan, he would be refunded the balance; if insufficient to pay the loan and interest, the balance would remain as an obligation of the borrower.

Increase Of 115,000 Bales Over Sept. 1st

Washington, Oct. 8.—Cotton crop of 11,425,000 bales for the United States was forecast today by the department of agriculture on the basis of Oct. 1st condition, an increase of 115,000 bales compared with the Sept. 1st forecast. Simultaneously the census bureau reported 4,835,465 running bales ginned, Texas contributing 1,595,158 from this year's crop prior to October 1st, compared with 5,409,657 last year. The condition of the crop on October 1st was 54.02 per cent.

Well, We Are Going To Live, Awhile Longer

John King, local nurseryman and floriculturist struck the lick this week that scared the coyote away from our back door for at least two more weeks, and by that time, maybe we will find another friend, and so on and on until maybe we will make it through the winter again. Anyway, when John got through laying stuff out at the Herald office Wednesday morning, there was rejoicing in the household of the Stricklin family.

First and foremost, we want to mention the bouquet of dahlias he brought us, some of which were six inches across, and of every color imaginable. Boy that was by far the most beautiful bouquet ever presented us, and we appreciate to the fullest extent what John and his good wife meant in presenting those flowers. We only hope we deserve all they meant those flowers to convey.

As to vegetables, there was two or three meals of fine old white Globe turnips, as well as the fodder that goes with them, and a fine mess of good old mustard "sallet" of which no greens ever possessed a better flavor or a more delicious potlicker. Then there was a peck of sweet 'taters, some of which tipped the beam at three pounds and over. There was sweet pepper, about two gallons, larger than teacups not to mention a supply of the hot variety. To cap the climax, there was a generous supply of big red, lucious tomatoes, ripened in the sun, and containing that rare flavor that only this climate can impart.

You talk about a useful citizen, but the man that can turn the desert into a flower garden, the barren soil into yams and turnips, and the bleak prairie into inviting shade trees, is the man who is more useful to his community than any man who weilds the pen. John King not only is useful to Brownfield and Terry county, but people ought to show their appreciation by buying his stock instead of ordering it.

South Plans Freight Rate Ass'n. Meets

Representatives from a number of towns on the south Plains met at Lubbock on the 4th inst., to protest a new freight rate schedule proposed by the Fort Worth and Denver on cotton from this section to the ports, and while Brownfield does not ship via that rail line, belonging as we do to the association, we must stand ready to help those it will effect. R. M. Kendrick and J. E. Shelton were the representatives from Brownfield. Seagraves was not represented, but Mr. Shelton promised to see and try to contact the leaders of that city.

Chairman A. P. Duggana, of Littlefield, was empowered to appoint a committee to draft resolutions against the proposed rate advance, and to also appoint a committee to attend the hearing on the matter that is to come before the I. C. C. and State Railroad commission at Dallas this week. Mr. Kendrick was made one of the eight directors. Mr. Duggana was reelected President of the association, and A. B. Davis, of Lubbock, re-elected secretary.

Dobbs Sends In Samples Of His Crop Monday

Marion Brown brought in some samples of the corn and cotton grown out on the T. M. Dobbs farm north of town, Monday. Don't know how Marion had managed to be out there that early Monday, unless he was out there eating Dobbs' grub all day Sunday, over at himself and had to spend the night. This of course is all conjecture, but he looked unusually well fed up.

While we like to look at good cotton, corn is our favorite, and the day will come again when that staple feeding product will again come into its own. The samples sent in was of the bloody butcher and the wine colored variety. Indeed it gave the appearance of having dipped into a barrel of that fine drink, but of course we have no idea of accusing that gentleman of having any of that pre-war stuff stored about his place. Anyway, the ears are some short of a foot in length, as big as your arm, and look like they came from some river bottom farm. Indeed there is enough grain on those ears, if properly concocted to throw a dozen old toppers on their ears, not to say anything about how long they would feed an ordinary family if converted into meal, and they would make a nice meal for any hardtail.

As to the cotton, it had too many grown bolls on it, not to say anything about squares, blooms and small bolls for a lazy country editor to undertake to count. So we sat the stalk just outside the office to open up. Then we'll hire T. I. Brown, K. B. McWilliams and Frank Weir to pick it; sell the three bales to pay on our taxes, and along about Christmas we will shake the other bale out of the top and buy our eggnog.

If T. M. Dobbs will send us in another consignment of corn and three stalks of cotton, we will close this printing office and open up a distillery and a cotton factory.

Sheriff Mon Interferes With Crap Game

The cool autumnal breezes and the silvery moonlight of our delightful Octobers seemed to have lulled some of the colored population into a notion to try the fortunes of the cubes Saturday night. This was especially true of the "shines" and janitors. So a good, nice, quiet game was started in the old dugout just south of the printing office. A pretty good day was had Saturday. And didn't they have a little money?

Anyway, Sheriff Mon Telford slipped down there and came in the back way. One man was encountered in the back yard, but a few words from Mon and he agreed to make no outcry. Mon then slipped to a back window and peeped in. One black boy was trying to make eight. Mon stepped lightly—or as light as a 225 pound man can step—to the front door and entered. So very busy were they that he watched the game some time before on big fellow raised up and announced: 'Here's Mister Mon.' As a consequence, most of the barbershops and places where dishwashers and janitors are used, had to make other arrangements Monday morning.

Redman Case Ends With Hung Jury

Twenty four hours of a discussion of the issues in the case of the state of Texas vs. Ola Mae Redman, charged with the murder of Howard Chase, on June 8, 1931 failed to bring an agreement or even a change in the stand of the 12 men, and the Jurors were discharged at noon Thursday by Judge Gordon M. McGuire.

Judge McGuire first asked H. W. Calloway, foreman, if he thought an agreement possible. He was told "no sir." "I would like to have your ideas, gentlemen, about the matter of a likelihood of reaching a verdict," he said and then asked each member. "I think we are hopelessly deadlocked," Calloway said and this was agreed to by all other men.

"The jury is dismissed and the case will be called next term," Judge McGuire announced.—O'Donnell Index.

Ben Franklin Stores Are All Good Ones

Last week, Mr. Cave, manager of the local Ben Franklin Store, told us of a customer he had waited on that day. He said he had just returned from a vacation automobile trip, having traveled from Central Iowa to the Western Coast and back. He was surprised at the number of Ben Franklin Stores he found. They are all good stores, they all have excellent merchandise and unusual prices. He was particularly impressed with the fact that each store is independently owned. They certainly seemed to be doing as good a business as the biggest chains.

Mr. Cave explained this by the fact that more than 2,000 independent Variety merchants in America have gotten together and pooled their buying, thus enjoying all the advantages of the largest chains in the country.

Bank Robber Caught In Adjoining State

Jodie Edwards, the fifth man wanted in connection with the robbery of the First State Bank of Seagraves, was recently apprehended in Arkansas, and brought back to Silverton, Texas, where he was wanted in connection with the robbery of a filling station.

He has been in the Floyd county jail at Floydada until the first of this week for safe keeping, when on Monday he was carried to Memphis, Hall county, where he is being tried for robbery of a bank at Lakeview.

A co-partner of Edwards this week received a 25 year sentence for his part of the Lakeview robbery.

Edward's home is about 21 miles southwest of Childress, where he has a family residing at present.—Seminole Sentinel.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR VICTIM OF BURN

Funeral services were held at the Tabernacle Baptist church Saturday afternoon at two o'clock for Catherine Buck, age four, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Buck of Hart's Camp, who died Friday night at Simpson's Sanitarium, as a result of burns sustained Tuesday morning, when a gas stove exploded at the Buck home.

Rev. Ben D. Johnson, pastor, officiated, and interment took place in the Littlefield cemetery.

Mrs. Buck also received severe burns at the same time, and is in a serious condition, according to her physician, Dr. J. D. Simpson.—Littlefield Leader.

Singing Convention At Meadow Sunday

C. Sears, president of the Terry County Singing convention was in the first part of the week and informed us that the convention would meet at Meadow Sunday for the annual fall session, in the high school auditorium. The people of Terry county are expected to bring dinner not only for themselves, but for all visitors who may be there. Mr. Sears informed us that an effort was being made to make Brownfield the permanent home of the convention, if the board of trustees here would consent for them to use the auditorium in cold weather. The city tabernacl, he said would be used in warm weather.

Mr. Sears says that the Stamps quartette has been asked to be at the meeting at Meadow Sunday, as well as a number of other musical organizations from Lubbock, Lynn, Hockley and Yoakum counties. Also Lea county, N. M., including the famous girl's quartette from Lovington. No doubt, he said, many of these will be there. S. W. White of Meadow is the vice-president, and Roy Ragdoll of Forrester, is secretary of the convention.

Mr. Sears also stated that the old Sacred Harp singers will meet at the school auditorium at Gomez on the 5th Sunday to organize and begin to get ready for the West Texas convention next summer, as Terry will not only want to entertain the visitors then from all over the state, but to be prepared to sing themselves. Harp Singers from at least three counties have promised to be there and help them with the organization, and help sing that day.

Terry County Ginners Cut The Price To 25c

The Brownfield and Meadow ginners met recently and cut the price of ginning back to 25c per 100 pounds, the same as last year. Earlier in the season the price was set at the old figure of 30s per 100 when it looked as if the farmer would get 8 or 10c for his cotton. With that gins have agreed among themselves to help that much.

This will mean a saving of about a dollar a bale for the farmer, and a dollar is a dollar these days.

The Honor Roll One Less Than Last Week

The Honor Roll is not doing as well as last week, for this week we only had seven to come in, whereas, eight names were on the honor roll last week. This week we have:

PUNCTUATION MADE EASY

Returning from school the other afternoon little Dorothy proudly informed her mother that she had learned to 'punctuate.'

'You see, Mama,' explained Dorothy, 'when you write 'Scat' you put a hatpin after it, and when you ask a question then you put down a button hook.'

With Europe contending that America did not pay her fair share of the World War expense. Capper's Weekly visualizes them next asking us to pension their soldiers.

Bell Says No Fraud In Terry Primaries

Now that the election muddle has been finally disposed of by the highest court of our State, and Miriam "Ma" Ferguson has been declared the lawful nominee of the Democratic Party of Texas and Cato Sells, Alvin Moody, J. W. Hunt, and Mrs. Claude De Van Watts (God pity old man W) all self "confessed disciples of Good Government," have established their headquarters for Bullington, at Dallas, to tell the Democrats of Texas who to elect as Governor of Texas, for the ensuing two years.

Let us go back to the beginning of the Campaign and take a look at the situation.

But first I want to speak a word on behalf of the election officers, who presided over the first and second Primaries in our county, which was branded by Mr. Sterling as one of the many counties of the State, in which "Fraud and Dishonesty" were practiced.

True our editor almost entered a "Plea of Guilty" for the County, when he noted as a news item, that old Terry was included in Mr. Sterling's "Dishonorable List," by opining that "It did look strange that our county with only nineteen hundred poll tax receipts, could vote twenty-one hundred votes, in the election."

For the benefit of the uninformed, I am naming here the presiding Judges, of the twenty-one voting boxes in our county, and after reading the list, ask yourself, candidly, if you believe that these men were guilty of fraud and dishonesty, in the discharge of their sworn duties.

In the order named they were: Fred Smith, C. L. Lincoln, Ben Broughton, R. O. Black, I. A. Lowe, R. H. Timmons, J. M. Matthews, T. D. Warren, C. P. Buchanan, W. T. Patton, W. F. Christy, P. R. Cates, M. W. Hill, C. D. Gore, J. C. Bond, S. Z. Paul, W. J. Baldwin, Joe E. Bryant, R. H. Crocker, W. T. Briscoe and Keith Gore.

Now just a word to the friends of good government and "honesty in office," and I might add "honesty in all things."

"I am a Democrat, and Pledge myself to support the Nominees of this Primary Election."

What does the above clause mean? True the courts have held that you are under no "legal obligation" to carry out the pledge, but neither is there any "legal obligation" to make you "speak the truth," or obey the pledge that you may have made to your church, lodge or neighbor.

However to those of us, that are unversed in the legal technique of modern phraseology, such as is taught by the Honorable J. W. Hunt, the noted divine, mentioned in the earlier portion of this article. A promise or pledge is something to be kept or performed, and not something to be evaded.

We have gone through one of our bi-annual, political disturbances, so essentially necessary to determine, who shall hold the reins of our State Government during the next two years, and almost one million of us have spoken our preferences in the matter. Our collective verdict, has been determined, and the court has said that the "majority shall rule." Then as good sports, let us accept the verdict of the majority, remember our pledge, and support the nominees of our party from constable to president.

Respectfully,
Dr. M. C. Bell

The local postoffice announces that there will be an examination held in the near future for an assistant assayer and also for a guard at penal institutions. Inquire of L. A. Greenfield if interested.

This Woman Lost 45 Pounds Of Fat

"Dear Sirs: For 3 months I've been using your salts and am very much pleased with results. I've lost 45 lbs., 6 inches in hips and bust measure. I've taken 3 bottles—one lasting 5 weeks. I had often tried to reduce by dieting but never could keep it up, but by cutting down and taking Kruschen I've had splendid results. I highly recommend it to my friends."

—Mrs. Carl Wilson, Manton, Mich.
To lost fat CAPELY and HARMLESSLY, take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—don't miss a morning. To hasten results go light on fatty meats, potatoes, cream and pastries—a bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle—but don't take chances—be sure it's Kruschen—your health comes first—get it at Alexander Drug Co. Inc., or any drug store in America. If not joyfully satisfied after the first bottle—money back.

SCUDDAY NEWS

Well some have started the white trailer this week. The cotton hasn't opened real good but they want to get what is open.

Well, how did everyone like the norther. I think it was fine, but I guess if it had of come another frost I wouldn't thought it so fine. Anyway it made us feel like winter time was here. I like cold weather best of all, but it's pretty hard when you don't have clothes enough to keep you warm, like I afraid several will be this winter.

The slumber party was fine until Mrs. Sam Walters got her knee thrown out of place and then the fun was over for her. I guess she thought she would get out of pulling cotton this fall, but I am afraid she won't, for she has already been gathering beans and peas. The women thought they could set up all night, but only two did. About six men set up all night at Mr. Aycocks. Now don't that sound silly, to set up all night and then have to work the next day, when it isn't necessary.

Mrs. J. M. Robertson was called to Big Spring last week on account of the death of her cousin.

Mrs. Lee Floyd, her son, Burn and Bro. Bill Weathers left Monday morning for Grassland to pull cotton.

Our B. Y. P. U. took a program to Hunter last Sunday night. We hope the influence of it will help them.

Our B. Y. P. U. and Sunday school are growing nicely now, and we hope they continue to do so. We want this quarter to be the best that has ever been at Scudday, for it may be the last here for a lot of us.

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie J. Gibson were callers in the W. C. Kelly home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Walters spent Saturday night with the Norris family.

J. B. Donohan, one of our prominent sorghum makers, is now a new reader.

NOTES OF WELLMAN MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday school was well attended Sunday. The six point record system envelopes have been adopted. We do not know yet whether the envelopes or prosperity returning has cause the increase in offering. We do know that as long as a river gives forth of its waters it is a fresh beautiful river, but when it ceases giving, it becomes dull and ugly. So it is with the Christian, as long as he is giving his tithes and talent in service, he will be awake, alive and attractive.

Rev. McIlhany of Lubbock, brought an inspirational message at the eleven o'clock hour.

Sunday afternoon the officers of the B. T. S. met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Penticost. Plans were made for the work to be put over in October. A very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by those present. After the business, refreshments were served to eleven officers and five visitors.

The B. T. S. met at the church Sunday evening with great interest shown in the five unions. The B. A. U. having charge of the General assembly program. Mrs. H. T. Wilkins and Mr. Norton sang, "No Sorrows in Heaven."

Rev. Lovelace will fill his regular appointment here 4th Sunday. He will also preach Saturday night before the 4th Sunday.

DICKENS, AFTON, AND McADOO TO HAVE NEWSPAPER

The first issue of a new publication, "The North Dickens County News" appeared this week, and was issued in the towns of Dickens, Afton and McAdoo. Randolph W. Rutherford, of Crosbyton, is editor and publisher of the new paper.

Editor Rutherford plans to issue one paper which will serve the three towns jointly and include the news from all three of the communities. At present Mr. Rutherford is having the paper printed at Ralls but states that if it proves successful enough he hopes to establish a printing plant at one of the three towns.—Texas Spur.

The Herald offers condolence to Editor W. H. Graham of the State Line Tribune, Farwell, in the loss of his mother, recently at Oklahoma City.

The O'Donnell Index is celebrating its tenth birthday. The Index is a fine paper, and the Herald in offering congratulations, hopes that the next ten years of its existence will be far better than the last three, and this goes for all other county papers.

And Oran McClure of McClure Bros., publishers of the Texas Spur, recently captured a nice 'possum in his henry. We have just been supplied with a peck of the finest yams extant, Bro. McClure, so when the 'possum gets fat, bring him over and we'll combine for a real old fashioned southern feast.

Senator Hiram Johnson, progressive Republican of California, says that "a government that thinks only in terms of railroads and big banks is unworthy of being continued in power." It is believed by many that he will support Roosevelt for President, and it is known positively that the above expression from him was aimed at the Hoover administration.

Tom and J. L. Suits have started a monthly agricultural journal at Lamesa which they have designated the West Texas Stockman and Farmer. The first issue has reached the Herald, and we found it well printed, well edited and as a whole very interesting. It was also reasonably well patronized by Lamesa merchants. Both are experienced newspaper men.

It is said on good authority that the Insull brothers have robbed more people out of much more money than has Al Capone, yet the later is in the pen, and the Insull's should be there. This community escaped the clutches of this outfit, as they had no representatives here to sell stock to our people. This is another reason we are glad that we have a municipally owned utility.

J. H. (Buttermilk) Lowery, of Honey Grove, Texas, was in to see the Herald one day this week. Jim has sold his interest in the Signal Citizen, and is traveling selling a magazine section which appears monthly in country weekly newspapers. This magazine section will appear the second issue of each month for the next three months in the Herald, and if our readers like it, it will be continued.

As much as has been said and written about the nuisance taxes put on the people by the last session of congress, our congressman, Hon. Marvin Jones, in a letter to the press, has made his position clear on such matters. Mr. Jones states that he not only voted in every instance for the economy bills, but offered amendments to abolish a number of bureaus and commissions, and to curtail activities of others. He voted against the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and for a reduction of salaries of members of congress. He voted against increase in postage as well as the two cent tax on checks. However, after the R. F. C. was brought into existence over his vote, he worked hard to get a just share for agricultural sections. In conclusion, Mr. Jones states, that "recovery must begin at the grass roots, and that the only way to restore conditions is to have a higher price level for farm products. In this way, debts may be paid and the country put back on a sound basis."

Yep! Fall is here. Peddlers of whatever nature are here almost every day to palm off some scheme on the merchants that is not worth a whoop in hades as advertising. But it will pay the solicitors good money, and who should benefit but them? Don't you know it is your solom duty, Mr. Merchant, to buy a space in the scheme of each one of these solicitors? Don't you realize that you have been sitting around all summer while business was dull awaiting the approach of better times this fall, and now that they have arrived, don't you know that you should divide what you make with these fellows that have blown in here from the four corners of the universe? Of course they will buy nothing from you and will take all the money they get out of town. But just look what nice, well dressed and jolly fellows they are? Why it would be a shame to send them away empty handed. Of course they want the stuff they sell printed almost FREE of charge, but they must make lots of money while the sun shines. We offered to print one job this week for $10, a reasonable price, but he said business men quit biting at such he could get it printed elsewhere for $6. When will good, reliable fakes?

The Third Chapter Of The Reign Of Jim

Once upon a time, there reigned in the land of the Tehas the House of the Jimites, a strong and very warlike dynasty which ruled over all the land for many years.

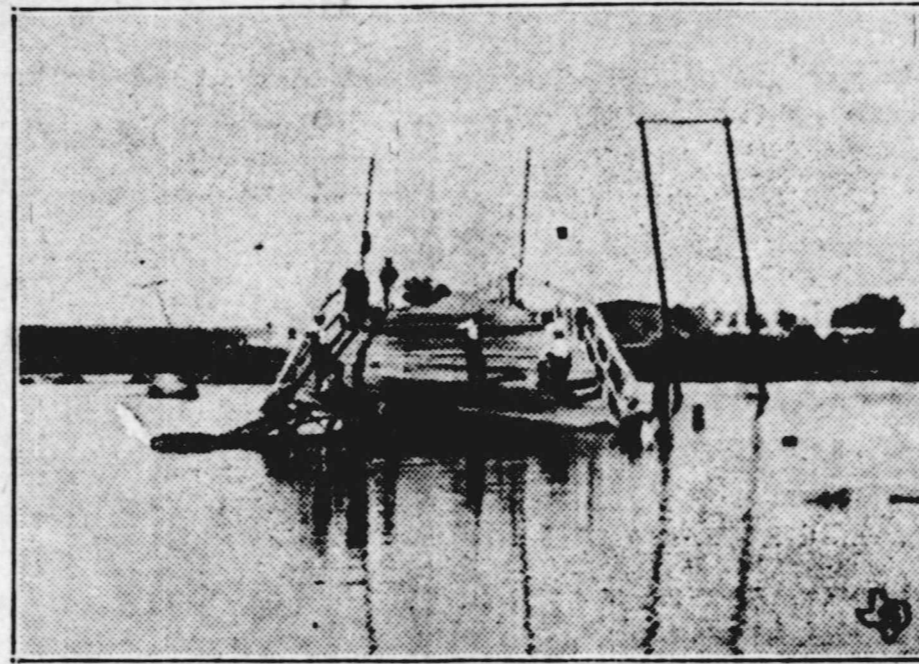

And, in those days, there were Giants in the land. And the Giants made war on the Jimites and fought against them with "putterback!" "putterback!" which in the Danite tongue meaneth restore ye again the shackles to the sanctuary. Therewith were the Jimites discomfitted and put to flight, and the Danites ruled in their stead.

And it came to pass after these days, there ariseth another, the House of the Rossites, a strong and warlike dynasty which draweth much people after it.

And in those days there was war between Rossites and House of the Jimites as to who should rule over the land.

And it came to pass the chief of the Rossites spake unto the people

Most Recent Rise of Rio Grande

Here is the International bridge at Presidio, Texas, way down at the bottom of the "Big Bend." The Rio Grande river's latest rise swept portions of this bridge away last week, and caused extensive crop damage in the vicinity. The flood resulted from heavy rains on water sheds of the usually dry creeks in this desert-like section, and spent itself before it reached the lower sections of Texas, which have just passed through a serious flood period.

saying: Why follow ye the Jimites? Follow me; and I will lead thee into green pastures, and besides still waters, and I will bring thee into a land flowing with milk and honey.

Wherefore, the people of that land spake the one to the other, saying: What meaneth this? What meaneth this? Then spake the chief of Rossites unto the people again, saying, "I will no longer speak unto thee in veiled language. I will now tell thee plainly what I will give unto thee. It is a business administration that I will give unto thee. And the chief of the Rossites prevailed. And a business administration gave he unto them.

And it came to pass after many days there arose a murmur in the land. And the people murmured against the House of the Rossites and spake against the chief captains of the Rossites saying: "Why broughtest thou us into this land of the business administration? For there is no business that prospereth in this land save that which thou protecteth with thy bayonets."

Therefore will we appoint unto us captains and we will return again unto the Jimites.

Then was the chief of the Rossites wrath and full of fury. And the form of his visage was changed. And he caused to be sent a decree throughout all the land to gather unto himself the Giants and men of war to council how he might slay and utterly destroy the House of the Jimites.

And it came to pass, the Giants and men of war stood before the Rossite chief, and he spake unto them saying: Ye know that for many years we have kept the Jimites away from the shackles of the sanctuary. Be courageous and fight against them, and they will be as grasshoppers in our sight.

Whereupon spake timorous unto the chief of the Rossites saying, My Lord, when we go forth to battle against the Jimites and the Jimites see our necks are not long as are the necks of the sons of Anak, I fear my Lord they will not be as grasshoppers in our sight, but will fall upon us and slay us.

Then said the chief of the Rossites unto him saying: "Thou fool! Though our necks are not long as are the necks of the sons of Anak, yet know ye not that the tongue of a Rossite is long and sharp that it maketh up that lack?"

And it came to pass, that the Giants, and men of war with a mighty shout sayeth: "Yea, it is with putterback we will slay the Jimites. It is with putterback, we shall smite them."

And it came to pass when tidings of these things came unto the ears of the chief of the Jimites, he was troubled in spirit, and sleep broke from him and he sayeth to himself, "what shall I do?" They keepeth me from the shackles of the sanctuary. To dig, I cannot, to beg, I am ashamed. I am resolved what I will do. Whereupon, reacheth he his hand into his vest pocket, and to himself sayeth. "It is with these I will slay the Rossites. It is with these I will smite them."

Then siteth them all in a row upon his knee and to them sayeth: "Ye know how far these ten times these Rossites have reproached me with putterback, putterback. Now if ye will be valient and fight against the Rossites and over-come them, then will I give unto thee the spoils of office and moreover ye shall be fed from my Forum all the days of thy life." Whereupon they all answered him saying: "Yea my Lord, we will follow thee whither soever thou goeth."

And it came to pass, there was war in the land of the Tehas. The Jimites fought and the Rossites fought and strove the one against the other.

Then were the inhabitants sore and sighed by reason of the strife of the Rossites.

And it came to pass that armies of the Rossites and the armies of the Jimites were gathered in battle array. The one arrayed against the other.

Then spake the chief of the Jimites unto the chief of the Rossites saying: "Cometh thou again to battle against me with putterback! putterback." But I come to battle against thee not in mine own name, but the name of Miriam of the House of the Jimites, and with it, I will this day smite thee; and take from off thee thy political head; and thy fat offices will I give to others, and moreover, it shall come to pass that in thy political demise, thou shalt dynasty.

And it came to pass the armies of the Rossites and the armies of the Jimites fought and battled the one against the other, and it was Miriam who held up the hands of the Jimites. And the Jimites smote the Rossites from the rising of the sun to the going down of the same, and there fell even in one day of the Rossites of them that were smitten of the Jimites four hundred and seventy-three thousand eight hundred two score, and six souls.

And with a mighty shout the Jimites sayeth: "Hurrawfermaw! Hurrawfermaw!"

And it came to pass the walls around the citadel of the Rossites fell down flat to the ground.

And it came to pass after many days that the inhabitants of that land had rest for a season. Selah! Agricola.

Clarendon Leader: The following ebullition is the terst opinion of our bucolic ramrod and friend, Col. Jack Stricklin of the Terry County Herald down at Brownfield:

The Snyder Signal last week accused a lot of the Sterling papers of putting on the soft pedal since the election was over. As for the Herald, it was always willing to fight until knocked down senseless, but it never did have enough Irish in it to keep on chewing the rag until thrown out into the gutter and the hogs called to do the rest.

UNDERSTANDING

We like to know and understand the problems of our customers, and always try to look at things from their point of view. This attitude on the part of our personnel is one of the outstanding characteristics of this bank and has won for us the confidence and friendship of our depositors. They found we read the best of banking services—give something more—a complete understanding which is most helpful and reassuring.

OUR 23 YEAR COLUMN

Taken from the Herald of Date Oct. 15, 1909.

In our issue of October 15, 1909, we find that there was only one community heard from, being from the Meadow school. Preparations were still going forward to rebuild their school which had been burned, but nothing definite had taken place at that time. Hopes were held that the people might agree to tax themselves to rebuild. However, school had been dismissed the last two days of the week previous that those who wished might hear Joe Bailey speak at Lubbock. It seems however, from some cause that distinguished statesman did not appear, but the writer of the Meadow notes remarked that Bailey had no idea he was to be there was the reason he (Bailey) did not come. But they had received some thrills from the movies and a circus that happened to be in Lubbock. Mr. Ford of west Terry had spent the night with W. H. Long. Messrs. Long and Ferris had gone to Kansas City with another herd of cattle. The Keeter brothers and John Raymer had gone up the trail with them. Rev. Dixon of Lubbock had failed to fill his appointment the Sunday before. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Long left for their ranch west of Gomez. A north-er had just blown up. So much for Meadow.

One of the prominent features of the International Fair at San Antonio was to be an Old Timers Roundup. Jim Callan was at that time the President of the Texas Cattle Raisers Association, and he was planning a great time for cowmen, cowboys and families. It was also announced on the front page that William J. Bryan would again go into old Mexico to hunt ducks, and was to be a guest of Col. J. A. Robertson, proprietor of the Monterey News while in that country.

On the editorial page, we were advising the people to begin fattening the Thanksgiving bird. That freedom of the press had been sustained in some of the eastern states again. That Col. J. T. Gainer had gone to Dallas with Terry's first exhibit. Brownfield had defeated the Gomez baseball team at the fair 24 to 11. Must have had a lot of good runners in those days. At the county fair, the Greeley Importing Co. had won on best horse. C. F. Sullivan the best horse colt; also sweep stakes. S. A. Shepherd 3rd prize. W. D. Winn won on best boar; Bert Shepherd on sow under 12 months, and S. W. Abbott on sow over 12 months. W. D. Gainer won on red kaffir; B. L. Thompson on maize; Wm. Howard on white corn and H. M. McPherson on mixed corn. Geo. Black on peanuts and popcorn and J. E. Woodard on watermelons. This was our first annual fair. Pardon, J. L. Clark and S. H. Key won first and second respectively on cotton.

Local page: Mrs. L. T. Brooks was in Saturday. D. J. Broughton was in Monday. John Scudder was on the sick list. Mr. Porter of Rotan was up on legal business. M. V. Brownfield had rounded up 480 steers. Ray was over from Yoakum county helping his father roundup. H. M. Bridges came in to subscribe. Ed Ellis returned from Miles where he visited a brother. C. V. Harris was in from west Terry. Biles Bros. had started making concrete blocks for the DeShazo residence. Mr. DeVitte, proprietor of the Mallet ranch, was out from Fort Worth. J. O. Jones and Cleve Williams had returned from attending Federal Court at Abilene. W. L. Allen was in on business. O. M. Daniel had purchased three lots on Main street (where church of Christ now stands.) Robt. Forrester of Lynn county was here. Rev. Johnson, Presbyterian minister, was here for his appointment. Coal was quoted at $16 to $17 delivered here. Wm. Howard was in and reported his feed better than he first expected. Cleve Holden was running the Brownfield-Lubbock Auto route vice Chas. Cope-land, whose car was being repaired. Miss Gaster Randal had just returned from a visit to Seymour. J. E. Woodard was making at the rate of 270 bushels of sweet potatoes to the acre. J. F. Winston came in from Rosenberg to permanently locate. C. P. Biles and family had located in Brownfield. Thad Durst had accepted a position as local manager of the Staked Plains Telephone Co.

PLAINS LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moreman were

Walter Holden of Coke county, was visiting his father, J. F. Holden and family. Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Moore, a boy Monday night, and to Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Meyers, a girl Thursday night. Elmer Spurgeon, who had been working on building the Santa Fe line into Lubbock, was going with his construction company to San Angelo to build the Sterling City line. R. M. Kendrick had kicked in the week before with an ad from the Plains bank, and we find that Will Alf Bell came in with his in this weeks paper. C. H. Hester of Frost, Texas, send in a renewal. He later moved to his farm just north of town.

A petition had been circulated asking Presiding Elder Hardy to return Rev. P. E. Riley to this charge. Some fellow got hungry (and we'll bet it was Geo. Tiernan) and went into the Holden grocery and bought a click of cheese and some crackers and came out to eat them. This made others hungry and almost a cake was sold before the eating stopped. Mrs. Mary M. Cowell, of the Harris community, died on the 6th and was buried here, The Odd Fellows Lodge had resolutions on the death of J. H. Black, they were signed by Percy Spencer and J. L. Randal. J. O. Miller, a Woodman deputy, was to speak here in the interest of that order.

On the back page we find that the Maids and Matrons held the first meeting of the year Oct. 2, 1909, with Mrs. W. A. Bell. The study was North American History. The North American Indians was discussed by Miss Harris; The Mound Builders by Miss Daugherty; The Aztecs by Mrs. W. R. Spencer; The Norsemen by Mrs. Claude Criswell. A reading, "The Skeleton in Armour" was given by Miss Rather.—All for this week.

Ed Thompson was in Wednesday with his first bale. Ed has some mighty good cotton.

Marlin Hayhurst and Jack Stricklin Jr. were PROSPECTING in the vicinity of Plains, Sunday afternoon. Our understanding is that they found a very attractive ranch out a few miles from Plains.

TOKIO NEWS

The Tokio school closed Friday, October 7th, in order that students should be enabled to take part in the cotton harvest. It is believed that the school authorities have the full cooperation of the patrons of the school and other residents of the community judging from the very profitable six weeks session which has just ended. School work will probably be resumed again in December or January, depending upon the length of the harvesting season.

A very inspiring church service was held Sunday in the Church of the Nazarene, with Mrs. B. M. Wade, pastor, in charge. The latter lance was very good.

Miss Capitola Hobbs is attending Wayland Baptist College in Plainview.

The Tokio gin operated by Mr. Leo Allen is operating several hours each day at this writing. Mr. Allen has done extensive remodeling work in the gin plant during the summer and early fall.

Miss Ola May Lovelace has returned from Plainview where she has been attending Wayland Baptist College. Miss Lovelace returned because of illness, but it is hoped that she may be enabled to return and take up her school work.

is making rapid progress under the leadership of Mr. Lovelace. Among those taking part in the program were, Miss Ola May Lovelace, the very capable song leader.

Mr. Gwin Casey is attending West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon. This is the fourth year in Canyon for Mr. Casey and he will probably obtain his degree in the Spring. He is majoring in government.

Miss Lena Roper has returned from San Angelo where she has been visiting her sister through the months of the summer and early fall. Miss Roper is valuable to the community as a church and social worker.

Mr. Donald Smith was injured in an automobile collision Saturday, five miles east of Tokio. The sympathy of the community is with him and it is hoped that he may soon recover.

It is hoped that the people of the community will attend the regular prayer meeting; services held each Wednesday evening in the Nazarene church. Interesting and inspiring services are held thus justifying the gratifying number in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Wade, with the assistance of Mr. Arthur Scudder are in charge.

A WORD OF APPRECIATION

As I am leaving Brownfield I want to express my sincere thanks for the many kindnesses shown me.

I have enjoyed the fellowship of the Rotary club and my work with the Parent-Teachers Association has been pleasant I have appreciated more than I can tell the confidence and help given me by the citizenship at large.

Last but not least, my work with the church has been fine. I have not given entire satisfaction, "but who does?" I have made some mistakes and a few enemies for which I am sorry.

I am moving to Tahoka, the latch string will be on the outside and welcome on the door mat to one and all.

RED GOOSE The Ojibwa

An Indian Story For Boys and Girls
 By Carlyle Emery

RED GOOSE BECOMES A BRAVE

Red Goose was fourteen years old when his father, the good Indian Chief, Red Eagle, said to him: "My son, Red Goose is now an Indian Brave. No longer can he stay at home in the Village. It is time for him to ride out with me on his pony and help protect the Pale Face people."

This pleased Red Goose more than you can imagine. For some time, he longed to ride out with his big, tall father, and now that the time had really come, he was so happy, he could only say: "Thank you—Red Goose is ready."

But when he went to bed that night, Red Goose was so excited and happy, he just couldn't go to sleep. His father, Red Eagle, was Chief of all the Ojibwa Indians, and the stories of his battles with the bad Sioux Indians had always made Red Goose tremble with excitement. And now he was to ride out with Red Eagle and help his father protect the Pale Face people. Is it any wonder he tossed and turned on his bed and found it hard to go to sleep?

"Tomorrow - tomorrow - tomorrow," he said to himself, over and over again. Then he would shut his eyes tight and begin to think of all the things he would do when morning came and he started out on his first ride with Red Eagle.

But at last he fell asleep and dreamed the kind of dreams that come only to brave, courageous little Indian boys who have stout hearts and active bodies.

The next morning, looking very slim and straight and handsome, Red Goose mounted his pony and, holding his head erect with pride, took his place beside his father and together they headed for Fort Ridgley.

Fort Ridgley was a stronghold of the Pale Face in Minnesota, which Red Eagle knew was being held by only three men—Sergeant Henry, Tom Boling, and a fearless youngster they called Bear Cat.

The brave Indian Chief and his happy, excited son had not gone very far before they met several terrified women whose husbands had been killed and whose homes had been burned to the ground by bad Indians. They crowded around Red Eagle and Red Goose and begged to be taken to Fort Ridgley for protection.

So, led by Red Eagle and Red Goose, they started for the stronghold, little knowing what they were to encounter when they arrived.

HUNTER NEWS

We sure have been having some pretty weather the last few days and we hope it stays pretty.

Well everyone is still in the syrup and canning business.

We are sure proud to have with us, our new neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Robb and son from Odessa. They are living on Bro. Butler's place.

Mr. Lewis Youngquist has returned home from his vacation in Jones county. His brother, Mutt Youngquist, brought him home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Albert Smith and family, Mrs. W. R. Smith, Cecil, Leo and Lois Smith, all went on the other side of Lubbock to pull cotton.

The Scudday community brought an interesting play last Sunday night to Hunter. It was highly enjoyed by everyone. We will have to try to return the favor sometime.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith last Sunday.

Miss Lucille Smith spent the day with Miss Viola Hight last Sunday. Bro. and Mrs. Webb and Opal High spent the day with Bro. and Mrs. Homer Butler Sunday.

Herman Edwards is getting to be a real cowpuncher for he rode a spotted horse last Sunday and didn't get thrown, but got kicked.

Mr. Charlie Cox and children from Tatum, N. M., was down here last Saturday night and Sunday to see his wife who is sick and is staying with her sister, Mr. Bill Hight.

Mr. Arville Snow has returned from his cotton picking job in Oklahoma.

Mr. Oliver Miller spent the day with Mr. Herman Edwards, Sunday. Mr. Joe Smith and Mr. Oris Breland went to Olton, Texas last Tuesday and returned Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Armo Craudle from Gomez visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hight last Sunday.

Remember next Saturday night and Sunday is our regular preaching day. Lets everyone come and bring someone with you.

Mr. and Mrs. Check Landess has a new girl at their home.

We are proud to have our other new neighbor, Mr. and Mrs. E. Brown of Brownfield. They have moved on Mr. Montgomery's place.

Mr. and Mrs. Roseman has gone to Tahoka to pull cotton.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Scott and Mr. Old has gone to Mineral Wells, Texas to take hot baths. Mr. Old will stay there for a while and will go to his home at Daingerfield, Texas.

We was proud to see Mrs. Lindsey and little daughter, Pearlinae out last night, after they had their tonsils removed a week ago.

NEEDMORE NEWS

A large crowd attended Sunday school and church Sunday morning. Rev. V. W. Allen preached both morning and night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Crowover and Mrs. P. M. Williams visited with Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Bennett Sunday.

Miss Vada Bain's mother and little nephew is visiting here.

Mr. J. R. Bennett, Mr. Dock Cole and Mr. Regnal Bennett came last week from Bronte, Texas to Mr. J. H. Bennett.

Several people have started pulling cotton. We understand that Mr. Mackey has out five bales. Mr. Watkins and Mr. Duncan has out a few bales.

Mr. Dan Taylor from Alabama, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Mackey.

Prayer meeting met last Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Tuckness.

Miss Odeen Bennett visited Sunday with Miss Margaret Banks.

Rev. V. W. Allen spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Tiner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Mackey and family visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Banks.

Mr. Gillentine and sons have been hauling their cane to a mill east of Brownfield and making syrup.

Miss Lois and Mr. Orvelle Watkins spent the week-end at home. They are attending Tech at Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Wessile Scott and family from New Home, visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bennett and children visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. Y. Bennett.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Nolan and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Nolan, visited with the latters' brother, Mr. B. H. Nelan, Sunday at Gomez.

Mrs. Gertrude Duncan canned last week at Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Robinson gave a party Saturday night. A large crowd were there and all reported a good time.

Whenever Jack Harris of the Chautau (Kan.) Tribune notices the loyal party organs whooping it up for their candidates, he is reminded of that very old story of the meek little widow at her husband's funeral who listened with increasing wonder for fifteen minutes to the eulogy the preacher was delivering, then tipped up to the coffin to make sure it was her Bill he was talking about.

HARMONY HAPPENINGS

The great poet Whittier wrote a beautiful poem about the month of October. Here is a quotation:
 It was late in mild October,
 And the long autumnal rain;
 Had left the summer harvest fields,
 All green with grass again.

The first sharp frost had fallen,
 Leaving all the woodlands gay,
 Like the hues of summer's rainbow
 On the meadow flowers of May.

There is not very much picking being done around here, but several from this community are picking in the Needmore community. Cotton here was hauled out in the spring, which will make picking quite a bit later.

Well, all the other communities have been reporting much canning going on. We have all been canning at Harmony too.

We still have Sunday school every Sunday. Preaching by Bro. Lovelace on 3rd Sundays and by Bro. Richards of the Primitive Baptist on 4th Sundays.

Mr. Ben Clark sold his crop and left with his family for Aspermont, last Monday.

Mr. J. C. Buckhalter of Palestine visited his sister, Mrs. Franklin Buckhalter, last week.

Mr. Myrick who has been in Oklahoma some time for his health, returned home about two weeks ago. He seems to be in some better health. Although, he is still feeble.

Mr. O. C. Campbell and son, Leo, went to Mexico after some horses. They arrived here with them last Saturday.

Buford Hobbs is looking for Mrs. Buford in sometime this week.

The coyotes have been bothering the turkey crop pretty badly. Sometime ago they got into Mrs. Farrells flock. Last Sunday they killed eleven for Mrs. Phillips.

LOCAL DRUGGIST PASSED AWAY HERE MONDAY

Shortly after mid-night Sunday night, the spirit of J. C. Lewellen sped back to its Maker, following an operation in a local hospital for ruptured appendix Monday, October 10th. After the surgeon cut into him, it was found that not only the appendix was in bad shape, but the intestines were even worse, and no hope for his recovery was entertained following the operation. This was his fifth attack.

Mr. Lewellen was born at Woodbury, Texas, in 1888, being 44 years at his death. He came to Vernon, Texas, several years ago, and to Brownfield about two years ago, and purchased the Corner Drug store from J. E. Michie. During the short time he lived here he made many friends. He was a registered druggist, a Mason, a member of the Presbyterian church and the American Legion. He leaves at devoted wife and other relatives and friends to mourn his passing.

The body was prepared for shipment by Roy Collier, local undertaker, and carried in their hearse to Vernon, where the body was laid to rest.

Too Much Water for Flood Control System

Cubs Win

The Brownfield Cubs motored to Seminole to meet the Seminole Indians Tuesday. Some of the boys played a good game while others were new and got mixed up, but all of them did fine. The fighting Cubs won with a score of 20 to 0. Captain Huckabee was the Brownfield scoring man and did most of the signal calling. Most of the boys who went over got to play some.

Cubs Win Over Amherst

Friday afternoon the Cubs defeated Amherst 45-0. Amherst kicked off to the Cubs who after the first down sent Neill on a long end run to put the ball in scoring position. Captain Huskabee then carried the ball over for the opening counter of the game.

The try for point went wide.

The second touch-down was made on a reverse play from the 25 yard line with Woodrow Chambliss carrying the ball. The try for point, good. Again Neill went through the line for a touchdown. The quarter ended with a score of 19-0.

After the opening of the second quarter, Graham caught a pass down the side line and ran for a counter without being touched. The half ended without any more scoring.

The second half opened with Amherst receiving the kick-off. After failing to gain, they punted the Cubs who started an effective attack and scored on a line play by Huckabee. The try for point was good.

In the fourth quarter, Neill intercepted a pass and ran for a touch-down. Many substitutes were made and Amherst made two first down on a penalty and line plays. The Cub first teams again went on the field and scored again on line plays. The game ended with the Cubs in scoring position.

Pep Rally

On the night of October 6th, a Pep Rally was staged on the vacant block east of the court house. Mr. Penn and some of the High school boys fixed a bonfire which was set off at 7:30 o'clock. The pep squad was there full of pep. When the bonfire was started, the fire department was notified and they brought the fire truck and came to the Pep Rally. The Pep Squad gave several yells and then came the speeches. Of course the first speech was greatest of all given by Mr. Hayhurst the football coach. Anyone should be able to play football after hearing a speech like that one Mr. Hayhurst gave. Of course there were other interesting speeches given by Mr. Sanders, James Harley Dallas,

Mr. McDuffie, Jack Stricklin Jr., and most of the football boys made speeches. Everyone marched around the bonfire chanting one of the pep yells. Then everyone went to their home in high spirits about the football game that was to be played the following afternoon, October 7, with Amherst.

Pep Squad

The girls pep squad made their first appearance in their red and white suits Friday evening with about thirty-six girls suited out. They also made quite a good impression on the crowd.

Like boys, they stayed in there and routed, until the game was finished giving some real good yells for the boys and team.

They had not arranged for any field stunts so they marched around the field but in the future they will try to have some field stunts ready and also some news yells.

The girls are inviting the boys to come out and join them in the pep squad. Mr. Penn is arranging for the boys organization, and if any boys wish to join, see him about it.

Chapel

We were very glad as high school students to have with us Dr. Preston in chapel on October 1. He talked on various subjects which were very interesting and held the attention of all. Among the many things he said the following words stood out, "The greatest thing in the world is life." The Junior High School pupils were also present. A song was sung and a few announcements were made.

Chapel Program

- 1. Song—"Work for the Night is Coming."
- 2. Song—"Long Long Ago."
- 3. Mr Sanders Makes a Talk—School.
- 4. Mr. Hayhurst makes a talk—Football.
- 5. O. O. Huckabee, football captain, a talk—"What his boys can do."
- 6. Pep Squad and leaders give some yells.
- 7. The whole high school give yells.
- 8. Mr. Sanders another talk.
- 9. Mr. Penn a speech about Pep Squad Girls.
- 10. Announcements.

Senior Class Organizes

The senior class met Tuesday, September 6, at 12:45 to organize. There are ten new pupils bringing the number in the class to forty-two. The following officers were elected. President—Don Hulse. Vice-President—Evelyn Pippin. Sergeant at Arms—Carmon Anderson. Reporter—Louise White. A committee consisting of Ruth Adams and Louise White was appointed to select a class motto. Some discussion was made as to what sort of memorial the class of 1932 would leave to the school, but no definite decision was reached.

Basket Ball Practice

The High School girl's basket ball team began their practice about three weeks ago and the girls have been taking plenty of interest from what I have seen every afternoon after school. Twenty-three girls have reported to the gym so far, and I believe we will have more later on. We will not have a match game until about Thanksgiving.

Girls Glee Club

The Girls Glee Club met with Mrs. Dallas Tuesday morning October 4, in the high school auditorium. The ones that get credit for their work meets every Tuesday morning at the second period. The ones that are taking Glee Club on Friday morning meet at eight o'clock. The Friday meeting is only for training and not credit.

She invites every one to come. They will be giving a program soon.

Girls P. T.

The girls of Brownfield High School take physical training every Wednesday and Friday. We take this to develop properly and to be strong.

Last Wednesday, October 5th, we went hiking. We went east from the school building to Mr. Ballard's residence where we stopped in the middle of the street and called the roll. Then a group of girls went ahead of the leader and got some of Mrs. McDonald's cane. We were later made to put this back. If anyone gets hungry and can't find any sudan along the road, they may get some cane. Well, after all of these happenings, we returned to the school house.

Today, Friday, October 7th, we hiked again. This time we went north to the Rainbow Inn tourist camp. While we were there calling the roll, we were carefully warned not to eat any of the sudan which was growing beside the road. Well I think every one of us had a great appetite worked up by the time we got back to the school building.

Athletic Club

In the Athletic Club we talked on the subject of football. The coach, Mr. Hayhurst, drilled the boys on what they would do on certain plays and signals. He put the play on the board and showed the boys how to shift to right and left.

The Zellica Club

The Zellica Club was called to order October 4th, for a very beneficial program given by the members on the subject of "Lace and Lace Making."

Venetian raises point—Imogene Wall, Pillow and bobbins—Lois Goodpasture; Point dalencia—Opal Bingham; Mechlin—Hazel; Valenciennes—Emma Donathan; Curtain of Irish point—Iris Lewis.

Each member received valuable information from these interesting reports on making of the different types of lace that were first in use.

Our sponsor is willing to help make this an interesting, as well as a useful club to the school and we are headed for that goal.

The Boys Glee Club

The boys have organized a Glee Club with Mrs. Harding as leader. The boys who go to school and those who don't are all welcome. One of our biggest aims is to win in the singing contest at Lubbock. The changes will be fifty cents per month. Mrs. Harding hopes to teach each member to read music. Mrs. Harding is planning on making sea warblers out of the boys this year.

Dramatic Club

The Dramatic club met Tuesday, October 4th. James P. Davis gave an interesting discussion on The Elements of Drama.

The next meeting will be given over to try-outs for the play that is going to be given for the benefit of the library.

Mr. Hayhurst: "Now from whom did we copy the 'Initiative Referendum and Recall.'" Evelyn: (who was to make a report)—"If you please, sir, from the World Book."

Sphinx Club

The Shpinx club met at its usual time Tuesday morning, October 4, with twenty-four members present. We had a fine program. It was as follows:

Biography of W. G. Hardin, by Kathleen Hardin; Discussion of museum, by Mr. Penn.

After the program the president appointed a program committee for this month, which was as follows: Evelyn Pippin, Truette Flache, and Sharleen Graves. Others are appointed at the first of every month. They also appointed a museum committee which was Wilma Frank Dunn, Bill Joe Savage and J. D. Stewart.

James Parker Davis, the Business Man: "What do you do with all these pictures you paint?"

Otis Moore, the Modern Artist: "I sell them, sir."

James Parker Davis, the Business Man: "Well, name your terms, my man. I've been looking for a salesman like you for years."

Mr. Lawlis: "Wilburn Hamm, name a poisonous subject."

Wilburn: "Aviation."

Mr. Lawlis: "Explain yourself."

Wilburn: "One drop will kill."

The Young Bride, Mrs. Ledbetter, was asked how she liked married life. "There isn't much difference," she answered. "Before we married I waited half the night for Floyd to leave, now I wait half the night for him to come home."

They Couldn't Decide

Two boys walking to school one morning were arguing about which was the best looking. They had discussed several subjects when they came to the subject, mouth.

O. D. Thomas—Well, I don't know what I'd do if I had such a large mouth. Woodrow Chambliss (looking at O. D.)—Well, that isn't any key-hole in the front of your face.

Mary D.—(In history class)—Is anyone using the Aramda? (meaning the book.)

Mr. Penn—No mam, it was sunk years ago.

Woodrow C.—They don't have gold (goal) posts at Seminole.

Manard S.—What kind do they have?

Woodrow—They have cedar posts.

Eunice: If it wasn't for but one thing I would be dead.

Mary D: What's that?

Eunice: My heart beating.

Round 'n Round 'n Round 'n Round

Evelyn: John L. don't you remember when we met in the revolving door?

John L.: Gracious, yes! That was when we first started going round together.

Victory or death
William Barrett Travis
St. Cal. com & C

The appeal of William Barrett Travis from the besieged Alamo to "all Americans in the world," dated February 24, 1836, is one of the most heroic documents of human history.

"If this call is neglected, I am determined to sustain myself as long as possible and die like a soldier who never forgets what is due to his own honor and that of his country."

Thus wrote Travis, and he carried out that determination in a manner so heroic as to command the admiration of all men of all time.

One hundred years after Travis died that his country might live—shall not Texans show to the world that they revere the memory of his magnificent sacrifice?

Let us revere the memory of all the immortal heroes of Texas by observing the Centennial in a manner worthy of it.

Such a patriotic event must have the official sanction of the present-day government of Texas.

This sanction must spring from the people themselves. At general election on November 8th, Texans will be given an opportunity to make possible the celebration of a centennial through the passage of the Texas Centennial Constitutional Amendment authorizing it.

CHEAP SHOE REPAIRING

is like cheap shoes. The one that buys it gets cheated, and not the one that sells it. My Motto is still QUALITY and SERVICE.

With Mr. Anderson helping me, you won't have to worry about getting what you want. If you want him to do your work, just say so, when you bring your work in its all the same to me. It won't make me sore. Say so if you have any preference.

Don't forget the boot laces, leather or cloth. Neatfoot oil 1.00 per gallon if you furnish the can. An appropriate place for all particular people to trade.

TEXAS HAS SEEN TWO CLOSER RACES THAN THE PRESENT ONE

The closeness of the contest between Mrs. Miram A. Ferguson and Governor Ross S. Sterling for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination this year is not without historical precedent.

In 1861 Frank R. Lubbock and Edward Clark, both of whom had served as Lieutenant Governor and Clark as Governor for a few months after Sam Houston, elected in 1859, had been deposed, contended for the governorship. Lubbock received 21,854 votes and Clark 21,730.

By the narrow margin of 120 votes, Lubbock became Governor. This is the narrowest race for Governor in the records of Texas.

The second closest gubernatorial contest came in 1869, only eight years later. It was during the reconstruction days that followed the Civil War. The two candidates then were Edmond J. Davis and Andrew J. Hamilton.

The Democratic party in that year was defunct. Davis was the "bold and unscrupulous leader of the Radical Republicans" and Hamilton was "the able, eloquent and patriotic champion of the conservatives."

Texas was under the dictatorship of a military satrap, General Joseph Jones Reynolds, who ruled it with an iron hand. The legal machinery was in the hands of the Davis faction, with armed soldiers overlorded the polls. All election returns were made to General Reynolds.

According to the announcement made by him, Davis received 39,901 votes and Hamilton 39,092. Davis was declared elected by 809 votes.

In 1875 a committee, during the convention that framed our present Constitution, reported that the returns of this election had been removed from the state when General Reynolds left."

Joe Shelton and wife, of Tokio, were visiting relatives in Brownfield, Sunday. Joe is one of the teachers out there, but says they have been dismissed for cotton picking for awhile.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Webb have recently torn down their old home and had it rebuilt into one of the prettiest little cottages in town.

This is fire prevention week, and we hope our people read everything on the subject they can procure.

CHEERING NEWS FOR COTTON GROWERS

Two million farmers are interested in the price levels of cotton. They are reminded that sensational improvement in the cotton textile industry of the United States was revealed in figures issued by the Association of Cotton Textile Merchants of America. For instance: Records were smashed during August when sales of cotton cloths ran up a huge total of 510,531,000 yards, the largest monthly amount since comparative figures became available in January, 1928, the year previous to the great financial crash and coming of the depression. This is the story as given by the bulletin of the textile merchants: Cotton mills were unable to turn out goods fast enough to keep up with the pace of the textile demand that sprang up during August, and the months sale was 282.4 percent of production, or, in other words, 182.4 per cent above the output. What happened as a result of the report? As a result of the scramble by merchants to snap up all the cotton goods in sight, needing to replace stocks depleted by three years business depression, a large backlog of unfilled orders developed in the cotton mills of the United States during the month of August. All this should be encouraging, to say the least, to the cotton growers of the Southland and the Southwestern empire. — Cleburne Times.

LUBBOCK MAN BUYS SEAGRAVES DRUG CO.

E. W. Bradley took charge of the Seagraves Drug Co. last Saturday, succeeding J. L. Brabham, who has been owner of the store since May. The deal will be closed tomorrow.

Mr. Bradley is an experienced drug man, having been in the business in Amherst six years and in Lubbock for the past two years. He was connected with the High School Pharmacy at Lubbock.

Mrs. Bradley will arrive here about October 15 and will assist her husband in the operation of the store.

Mr. Brabham has not announced his plans, although he stated yesterday that Mrs. Brabham and the children would remain in Seagraves.—Seagraves News.

A large apple crop is reported both at Roswell and the Hondo country this year. They are above the normal in size and condition too.

"BUT HE WONT STAY GONE"

Geo. W. Neill

Yes, there is a man in Texas, they've called him Farmer Jim, In fact they've called him everything from Adam, to setting sin; He was Governor twice, instead of once, as enlightened people know, He spoused the cause of common schools, and the University let him go. He took the States money out of Sam Sparks Austin Bank, And placed it around with others, of equal safety and rank, Then this money crowd, and the college crowd, merged a mighty blow, With office-seeker Hoggy's aid, the Senate let him go.

But he won't stay gone.

He tried again in eighteen, "he said it wasn't fair," And two hundred thousand farmers shouted "thar ye aire." But the war-muddled minds, of Pro and Cons and suffragettes, Meekly followed their leaders (?) into one of the State regrettes. So being "out" in 'twenty, he formed a party, of his own, Early in the year, open and above board, to the world well known; But he didn't go into a primary, and cause he lost his man, Bolt and blow I'll rule or ruin, and join the Republican. He entered the race in 'twenty-two, with Mayfield on the track, Without script or purse, and printers ink, staged a great come back. But again the great Trio, a church, and cash, and clan, Pulled their bridle-wised following and put him under ban.

But he wouldn't stay banned.

He asked to print his name on in 'twentyfour, the committee answered 'naw,' The "Good" crowd, to this ruling yelled, hippity-hip, hurrah. But when the same authority, prints at the top a pledge, This same "Good" crowd says naw, we'll bullfrog over the edge. "Well" say Jim, "You good folks decreed, women the right to vote, We'll just put "Ma's" name on, she as good as you," so we note. So on she went, and in she went—but did you really know, The very crowd, that shouted loud 'for women' were those to let her go.

But she won't stay gone.

'Tis true she pardoned lots of fellows, oh, so bold and bad, But most of these went back home, to mother and to dad. Many went back to wifey, and his babies all alone, And despite these Moralists, built another home. They didn't join the church perhaps, for reasons plain to see, The pastor called 'em criminals, cursed the hand that made 'em free. Her Jesus taught her to forgive, she followed in His steps, But when she does His biddings, you see what she gets. "Tho you sins be as scarlet, they'll be made as white as snow," But let her practice Christ's teaching, and "THEY" will let her go.

But she won't stay gone.

In 'twenty-six came Dan and Ross, with their hi-ways and their sly-ways, For six years held the state, long-ways, end-ways, and side-ways. And with millions teeming, full-page beaming, and head lines screaming, With tinkling symbols and sounding brass, took us to a real reaming. Now its debts, deficits and delinquencies, all about the State, Foreclosure, bankruptcy and bustedness, seems to be our fate. Tax burdened, tax ridden, they've wasted us to the paupers row, Till people have decided, we better, far, let their kind go. They've heaped upon the Ferguson's, every verbal curse, But everytime they kick 'em out, they make the State, the worse. Now the people have finally learned, that Pa and Ma's their friend, And half a million voters says, we want 'em back again.

They have searched, churchd and smirched them, smeared, jeered and sneered them, They have slammed, jammed and damned them, but never yet have skeered them.

For sixteen years, vile has flowed from pulpit, stage and pen, But like "truth crushed to earth" old Jim has rose again. It's true there'll be a few their '24 stunt will pull, Then they took the republican, Butte, now to ride their Bull (ington).

Is there something in these names, that attracts these funny folks? To quit their Fathers party, and gee-haw ns in 'publican yokes? We are tired of smoke-screens and alibis, and imaginary stuff, Of these false, and fake and fickle issues, we have had enough. We want a real government, for every group, class, kith and kin, And for restoration, we have called them back again. Jim Ferguson is a Statesman, broadminded, big and fair, And Ma, a Christian woman, as good as anywhere. They've won thru two campaigns, and thru the Courts Supreme, Now lets be men and put them in, it's simply right, it seems.

Ray Brownfield dropped in one day last week and had the Herald sent to his son, Ray Jr., who is attending the New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell. We just know the boy will get lots out of the Herald that the folks will fail to write.

Mrs. J. W. Thompson presented the Herald with a nice lot of apples and the last pear of the season this week. She will sell fruit again on the east side of the square this winter.

Claude Hudgens was on the puny list the first of the week.

Our old hot tamaie friend is back again this year with 'em just as good and hot as ever.

Richard Crews was up from the Wellman country, Monday.

Lamesa was one of the few towns in West Texas to get a new Federal building appropriation.

Eli Perkins and family spent the week-end with relatives at Amherst.

RUINOUS TAXES ARE DESCRIBED BY PUBLISHER

French Lick, Ind.—Col. Robert R. McCormick, in a speech prepared for delivery here tonight said that the ownership of property in the United States "has become a liability, not an asset."

Addressing the 36th annual banquet of the Grain and Feed Dealers National association, Colonel McCormick declared the return to prosperity depends upon tax reduction.

Strike Talk Heard

"The evil of tax strikes is heard throughout the land but far more serious than strikes is the growing inability of taxpayers to pay," Mr. McCormick asserted. His remarks were broadcast over a national radio network.

"Strike or no strike, it is absolutely impossible to pay the taxes assessed," he said. "Owners of buildings are tearing them down because the taxes are more than the receipts. Owners of unimproved property are unable to pay their taxes and tax buyers can not be found to evict them. Individuals, estates and corporations are beginning to find it impossible to find it impossible to meet federal taxation extorted with all the ruthlessness of the Germans in Belgium."
