VOLUME THIRTY

BROWNFIELD, TERRY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, MAY 24, 1935

NUMBER 41.

The truth about Terry County is good enough. An appreciated weekly that covers the territory thoroughly.

Wee Shirley Temple Has an Ideal Role

That bundle of screen magic, five-year-old Shirley Temple, will soon be thrilling and delighting her army of local movie fans in a new picture. Reports from other cities indicate that in "The Little Colonel," Fox Film has given her an ideal vehicle for her acting, singing, and dancing talents. It will come to the Rialto Theatre on Sunday.

She co-stars with Lionel Barrymore in this popular story of Southern prejudices, adapted from Annie Fellows Johnston's series of "Little Colonel" stories, which were the favorite reading of millions a generation back, and whose appeal is perennial.

"The Little Colonel," is the story of a Kentucky belle who marries a Yankee, against her father's wishes, and is promptly disowned by the proud old aristocrat, who is still living in the days of the Civil War. Barrymore is the obdurate Southern aristocrat. Shirley plays the cameo colonel whose dancing feet, smiling eyes, and honey-colored curls make a withering attack on the heart of the stern rebel.

In keeping with the importance of this picture, Technicolor graces part of this De Siva production. The real Shirley as she really looks is seen for the first time by her following of movie fans.

Critics in other cities where "The Little Colonel" is playing, hail it as Shirley's most superb vehicle. There is a blend of drama and comedy, in the plantation, frontier, and army scenes. Attention is being called everywhere to Shirley's dancing with Bill Robinson in his original stair dance, elaborately staged in one sequence of the picture.

Supporting the co-stars are such personalities as Evelyn Venable, John Lodge, Alden Chase, Sidney Blackmer, William Burruss, and others.

The direction is by David Butler, and the screen adaptation by William Conselman.

Old Timer Never Fails In Her Renewals

This week we had a letter from Mrs. L. T. Brooks, old time Terryite, who lives at Scholle, N. M., saying that her Herald would be out the first of June, and sent in two dollars for 16 months more of her old home county paper. By the way, Mrs. Brooks has been a reader from the first issue which appeared in the early spring of 1904, or a few months before organization of the county and has been a reader since, a duration of 31 years. We have an idea she is the oldest reader in point of subscription, we now have on our list. Thirty-one years is a long time to read one paper, and especially if some 15 of that is in another state, without a break.

We wish we were able to send the Herald gratis to her the rest of her life, or our life, and if the time ever comes when she does not feel able to pay for it, we will do our best to see that she gets each copy. While we are on the subject, we might state that the Gomez Items we are now quoting from in our old 23 Year Column, are the products of her pen, and if there was any news in the Gomez section, somehow she heard of it and reported it.

Mrs. Brooks tells in the letter accompanying the remittance that they have had lots of snow the past winter as well as rain this spring, and that grass is from 2 to 5 inches high. Also they have escaped the dust storms in the mountains, that have wrought such havoc in this section and north of here especially. Mrs. Brooks intimated that during the drought they lost many cattle, but what was left are doing fine.

The original of the constitution of Texas lost in Tennessee. Only the newspaper reports were ever ratified, and in the archives of the State today, a copy of the document, as printed in the Texas Telegraph, reproduces.

L. C. Sheppard and family are entitled to a pass to the Rialto Theatre to see West of the Pecos. Be sure to present this clipping at the box office at the Rialto Theatre. Compliment: Rialto-Herald

Great Rains Visit South Plains Section

More than two inches of rain fell here the past week end, according to the government gauge, and it is believed that the fall was lighter here in town than any place in the county, or this entire section, according to available information. And as far west, east, north or south as we have heard, there was abundance of rainfall that is needed at this time.

In some sections of the county, from one to three inches fell in just a few hours Friday, and lakes have more water in them than they have had for three or four years. All sections of Terry county, and the south plains and panhandle for that matter, are thoroughly wet, and bad dust storms are probably over for this year at least.

The faces of farmers, business men and others seemed to have "swunk" up several inches by Saturday. Seed buying was in evidence, and the planters that needed new parts or repairs were being put in shape to go to putting seed in the ground this week.

Some of our best farmers were not hurrying the planting, as they said there was plenty time, and as it was rather cool Monday and Tuesday following a norther, little seed was being planted. Mr. R. S. Heartsill, one of our best farmers informed us that he was leisurely planting, as there was no hurry, and he wanted to get his seed in the ground in fine shape.

By Wednesday, the weather began to warm up, following a southeast wind and clear weather. The streets were deserted by the farmers, and the old town was as quiet as you please. Some that had planted on the rain two weeks ago found that they would likely have to replant that part of their farms. Among this number was T. M. Dobbs, who lives eight miles north of town.

Everything has taken on new life since the big rains, and everyone is looking for a bumper crop in old Terry this year.

AAA Cotton Sign-up Is Well Under Way

COLLEGE STATION.—Two hundred and six cotton counties in Texas have completed their supplementary contracts for 1935, George E. Adams, assistant State agent of the Extension Service has announced.

"All of these contracts continued from last year have been checked and sent to Washington," Adams said, "and about 25 counties have received their first cotton checks."

He went on to say that in 166 cotton counties in the State, there were 47,254 cotton farmers who signed applications this year who did not have contracts in 1934. Also, 192,333 contracts have been sent to Washington, D. C., so far. Last year a total of 236,000 applications for cotton contracts were filed from Tex. Willacy county was the first county to send in completed applications for tax exemption certificates under the Bankhead Act, followed by Young and Washington counties.

"Bankhead sign-up of applications is now under way in every cotton county in Texas," Adams said, "and it is believed that all Bankhead applications will be checked through, approved, and certificates issued before the cotton farmers of Texas start ginning."

"The State Cotton Allotment and Review Board at College Station is prepared to check and approve cotton applications as fast as they come through," he added.

St. Clair Manager For Cicero Smith Co.

Homer St. Clair, who has been here in charge of the local Cicero-Smith Lumber yard since the death of J. H. Powell, has been named as permanent local manager. His family will remove to Tahoka as soon as school closes at Lamesa next week.

Mr. St. Clair and family resided here a long time, his wife being practically reared here. For many years he was with the Cicero Smith Lumber Company here and then made manager at O'Donnell. Later he was transferred to Lamesa as local manager there.

Many friends here will be glad to learn that this good family is coming back home.—Tahoka News.

R. L. McNutt, prominent farmer of the Meadow country, was down Tuesday.

Thirty-six Seniors to Graduate This Year

There are thirty-six young men and women to complete their courses this year in the Brownfield high school, a list of which are printed elsewhere in this issue. Besides these, we understand that two or possibly three more will be given diplomas later on when they have completed certain requirements during the summer months. While not quite so large as the class last year, it is something near an average for the past several years.

The term of school coming to a close was in many ways the best and most harmonious we have ever had here. Although there has been quite a shakeup in the faculty, it was not because that the teachers had not cooperated, or had not taught a good school. The fact that many are leaving us is entirely voluntary, some if not all concluding that they may better themselves elsewhere, or stand a better chance of promotion.

We are printing the commencement program as it will be given at the school auditorium here tonight, elsewhere, as stated above. Two girls led their class this year, Ima George Warren being the salutatorian, and Queenelle Sawyer, valedictorian. The class flower is the American Beauty rose; colors, red and white, and their motto is, "We have crossed the bay; the ocean lies before us."

Dr. D. D. Jackson, of Tech college, will deliver the commencement oration.

Boy Drowns in Lake Tuesday Afternoon

Roy B. Wright, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Wright, who live on one of the Noah Bell places, 12 miles north of town in the Needmore community, drowned Tuesday afternoon about three o'clock, in a lake on G. S. Webber's place. Several divers and swimmers from this city went out there, but the body was not recovered until about dark that night. It was found with a seine. Of the four boys in swimming, another came near drowning, and an hour was spent rescuing him.

Like several lakes in that part of the county, this is a large one, and when heavy rains like those which have fallen the past week goes into them, they often are ten or twelve feet deep at the center. As it has been real cool for the time of year, the water was chilled, and it is believed that Roy took cramps when he attempted to swim across the lake, which is said to be near a quarter of a mile across. The body was found in twelve feet of water.

The body was prepared for burial by the Brownfield Undertaking Co. Funeral services were held at the Meadow Methodist church at 1:30 Wednesday afternoon by Rev. Hester of Meadow, assisted by Rev. Ed Tharp of this city. The body was laid to rest in the Meadow cemetery.

Rural Carriers Meet In Post on June 8th

POST, May 20.—Rural letter mail carriers of the 19th district of Texas will meet here June 8, in their annual meeting, it was announced here yesterday by Walter Underwood, mail carrier of this city. A picnic supper will be given the visiting carriers at Two Draw Lake in the late afternoon. Business sessions will be held at the First Baptist church in the earlier part of the day.

A program for the full day will be arranged tonight, when the Program Committee of the Association, of which Mr. Underwood is chairman, will meet at Slaton.

Post welcomes the carriers to this city.

LITTLEFIELD YOUTH GETS APPOINTMENT

LITTLEFIELD, May 11.—Tilden Wright of Littlefield has been notified of his appointment, by United States Representative George H. Mahon, to the United States Military academy at West Point.

Wright, 19, was graduated from Littlefield High school in 1933, winning that year the state trophy for extemporaneous speech in an interscholastic league meet. Since graduation here, he has been attending Texas university.

Our own idea is that the country can afford some inflation but we are against running wild.

Clayton Tells Farmers Just What to Do

On the heels of the recent treke of southern and western farmers to Washington, recently, come Mr. W. L. Clayton, of Houston, member of the firm of Anderson-Clayton with an article in pamphlet form, copied from "Sphere" a Washington monthly magazine. Mr. Clayton is a shrewd business man, and for that reason, the Herald gave his article a close reading.

In it, as in former articles and speeches, Mr. Clayton takes the position that cotton prices cannot be pegged, despite the fact that for the past year the staple has been around 12c, excepting when it was attacked by all the fury of Wall Street and cotton factors in March this year. What Mr. Clayton and other men of his calibre want is for Texas and southern cotton farmers to raise the staple to the saturation point, when it will cost them almost as much to pick, gin and sell as they get out of it, by the time the rent is paid.

They want the farmer to pay from 30 to 40c per hundred to have it ginned whether the staple brings 3c or 12c, and Mr. Clayton, it seems, never reduces the price of compressing. In fact, they want to make of the southern farmer slaves and serfs compared with which the negroes of the ante-bellum south lived like kings.

It was such men as he, both north and south, that thought the farmers had no business going to Washington to look after their affairs. It is alright for the U. S. Chamber of Commerce to go up there, and any amount of lobbies representing Wall Street, the railroads, utilities or manufacturers, but the farmers should have, according to these men, remained on the farm and raised more cheap cotton, corn, wheat and hogs.

Convention of U. S. 62 At Fayetteville, Ark.

Officials of U. S. highway 62, which passes through Brownfield, are calling for the annual convention of this, the longest highway perhaps in the world, to meet in Fayetteville, Ark., Tuesday, June 4th, according to a communication from President Singletary, and W. S. Campbell, secretary. The governors of Arkansas and Oklahoma are expected to attend, as well as many state and federal engineers.

This is the only Federal highway entering Niagara Falls, where it connects with Canadian No. 2 for Quebec. At the other end, El Paso, it connects with the Mexican road system for Chihuahua, Mexico. It crosses 19 other federal east-west routes, and serves 244 town and cities with over two million population. It crosses the Alleghenies, Ozark, Wichita, Guadalupe and Sacramento mts., and the following rivers:

Allegheny, Scioto, Ohio, Kentucky, Cumberland, Tennessee, Mississippi, St. Francis, White, Arkansas, Canadian, Red, Pecos and Rio Grande. The natural wonders to be seen along the route are, Niagara Falls, Mammoth Cave, Diamond Cave, Arkansas Sunk Lands, Mammoth Springs, Oklahoma and Pennsylvania oil fields, Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico Plains, and the Carlsbad Caverns. Each end touches a foreign country.

Brownfield should by all means have a representative there, as this great highway means much to this section.

COWS FREEZE TO DEATH DURING MAY

Speaking of the near-freezing temperatures here on the third and fourth days of May, Dave Childress said Wednesday that about twenty-five head of cows and calves died from exposure to the cold rain and wind that came at that time.

This is the first time in many years that cows have died from exposure to cold weather in May.—Tahoka News.

HEREFORD BACKS SHALLOW WATER IRRIGATION PLAN

HEREFORD.—A shallow water irrigation system that will serve about 22,000 acres of land here is being pushed by business men and land owners. A brief is ready for presentation to the State Planning Board setting forth the cost and the benefit of the project.

Hot Topping Job to Start This Week

Mr. A. C. Elliott of Abilene, district supervisor of NRS (National Reemployment Service), came in this week to help get the hot topping job started on highway 51, from Brownfield to the Hockley county line three miles northeast of Meadow. He was in conference with the Relief Office here as well as R. T. Rhone, resident engineer of Terry county.

Mr. Rhone also stated to the Herald that Mr. Robert Wood, representing Hadin & Austin, contractors on the hot topping job on 51, had arrived and that actual work would start Thursday or Friday, as crushed rock had begun to arrive. Mr. Wood comes here from a job of hot topping from Post to the Scurry county line.

Several cars of machinery and trucks were unloaded here this week by the contractors, and it is believed that the work of hot topping this stretch of some 13 miles will be rushed to completion, and will give Terry county its first all weather road.

While this firm may use some relief labor, some believe that they will use men in the majority of cases that have had experience in road building. This is, however, purely hearsay. So far as we know Mr. Wood gave out no such statement.

Barret Buys Interest In Grocery Store Here

We learned last week end that Jay Barret, former county judge of this county had purchased an interest in the Terry County Grocery store, which was started some time ago by W. W. Terry. Charley Barret will assist Mr. Terry in running the store.

We were informed that they will greatly enlarge the stock, and that a complete and full line of staple and fancy groceries that are in demand in this section will be carried at all times. The stock is new and clean, and their business is growing daily, according to Mr. Terry.

SPARROWS STAY OUT OF AIRPORT HANGAR

Raucous sparrows do not nest in Municipal airport hangar, because two winters ago, W. C. Breedlove, the manager, did a good turn for two sparrow hawks.

Since one blustery, snowy night when Breedlove opened the hangar to shelter the two hawks, the small birds have made the place their headquarters.

They are now raising their third brood. The other nestlings severed the home ties as soon as they were able to take prey on the wing.

The old birds, however, continue to live in the hangar, catching sparrows and lizards in and near the airport. With uncanny precision the brown-white hawks dart among the hangar beams.—Lubbock Avalanche.

SLEUTH HAS REAL BIRTHDAY GIFTS

"The ancient remedies are best," chuckled Frank Norfleet, ranchman-sleuth of Hale Center as he explained to a reporter his near succumbing to influenza while on a recent trip over the west and into Canada.

"Ginger stew and whiskey pulled me through," he said. "Now I am all right but am still red-faced and happy over my son Pete of Hale Center and my daughter, Mrs. Arnold Haas, of Jacksonville, Fla., giving me grandsons on my 71st birthday recently.

"Ain't that something?"

FRED SNYDER SHIPS 22 CARS OF CATTLE TO SOUTH TEXAS

WHITEFACE, May 11.—Twenty-two car loads of cattle have been shipped from Cochran and Hockley counties by Fred Snyder, Lubbock rancher, to grass at South Texas feeding centers. The cars were destined for Manard and nearby points. Cattle were loaded here and at Lehman.

At the same time the Spade ranch at Smyer, east of Levelland, shipped 34 cars of cattle for the "flint hills" of Kansas.

The Mallet ranch in western Hockley county is still holding its cattle.

Sheriff and Mrs. Jess Smith and family had as their guests this week-end, Mrs. Smith's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Morgan of Jacksonville. Mr. Morgan is sheriff of Jacksonville.

Dry Goods merchants are urged to fight monopolies.

To Drive Out Crooked Securities Dealers

A concerted effort to drive out of Texas the swindling and fraudulent dealer of stocks and securities will be made under the terms of a new law known as the Texas Securities Law, recently passed by the Legislature. This measure replaces the present outworn and outmoded Texas Blue Sky Law.

Under the terms of the new legislation every dealer and salesman of securities must be registered with the Secretary of State. The licenses of dealers and their agents or salesmen may be revoked for cause by the Secretary of State after a hearing. No salesman will be permitted to use his licenses in an attempt to influence a customer into believing that the State endorses the stock which he is selling.

Before securing a permit the salesman will be required to tell something of his past history and associations. If it can be established that he has been guilty of fraudulent practices no license will be issued. The new law is designed on the theory that stocks or securities in themselves do not commit fraud but salesmen sometimes do.

The law seeks to regulate and control the human element.

In no case does the State attempt to say to an investor that, "This is a good stock," or "This is a worthless security." The law recognizes the fact that all investments are speculative in varying degrees.

The public is cautioned against the smooth-talking, suave type of salesman who does not present satisfactory and sufficient credentials. The files of the Secretary of State will be open for public inspection to determine whether or not salesmen or dealers are registered. This information is available to those who seek it.

In certain cases the advertising matter used in connection with the sale of securities must be submitted to the Secretary of State. Virtually every type of security commonly used in business comes within the scope of the new law, by virtue of its extensive definitions. No longer will it be possible to evade the law by avoiding the common names of securities. Among other things oil and gas leases are defined as securities.

"The heart of the bill is the control given the State to hold dealers and salesmen accountable for the representations made in the sale of securities," Secretary of State Gerald C. Mann said.

The law was passed by the Legislature at the insistence of Governor Allred and Secretary of State Gerald C. Mann, and was authored by Representative W. O. Reed of Dallas and sponsored in the Senate by Senators John Hornsby of Austin and E. M. Davis of Brownwood.

"NO, I DON'T CARRY LIFE INSURANCE—I OWN IT"

"Yessir, those words get me madder'n a wet hen. Carry insurance. Carry your Aunt Minnie.

"I don't carry life insurance. It's money I've saved—and it's mine. The insurance company is just taking awfully good care of it for me, and for millions of other smart people in this country.

"That money is going to send Buster and Betsy Ann to college.

"It's going to take care of their mother and them, too, if anything happens to me."

"And if anything happens to me, it's going to take care of both the wife and me after the kids are married and on their own.

"Carry insurance—shuks! That sounds like carrying a load, when what those blessed old policies have done is to lift the biggest load off me that man has to carry—the load of uncertainty."

"No sir, I don't carry insurance. But I OWN a sizeable piece of it—thank heaven."

NOTICE

The farmers who made the recent trip to Washington invite all other farmers, business men, or anyone interested to meet them at the court house Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. A complete report of the trip will be given.

Mack Thomason and G. C. Ashbeck freshened up after the rain and handed in the price of another year of the Herald.

Inflation may be ahead if we hope to ride the crest and leave the raft.

No Football Players Over 18 in Texas

AUSTIN, Texas, May 14.—A significant change has been made in the rules of the Interscholastic League, following the recommendation of the State meeting of delegates. The State executive committee has adopted the 18-year old age-rule to become effective September 1, 1936, in all contests, athletic, literary, artistic & commercial. This rule will render obsolete several rules which have cluttered up the rule-book for several years, it was pointed out by Roy Bedichek, chief of the Bureau of Public School Interests at The University of Texas.

"It will do more than any other half dozen rules to guarantee to bona fide high school students the privilege of engaging in the League's program of educational competitions," Mr. Bedichek said. "It definitely places Texas organization for in the lead of other organizations of similar kind in other states. With the exception of New York, where a 19-year old rule is in effect, all other states permit participation until 20 or 21, irrespective of the fact that the average age of graduation is around 17 years."

On recommendation of the recent State meeting of delegates, the executive committee directed the appointment of a committee to work out a statewide conference of student self-government organizations under the sponsorship of the League, a proposal which has been under consideration for several years. Another action of the State meeting, recommending an addition of one individual to girls' tennis doubles teams and one alternate to girls' singles entries, was adopted. The recommendation made by the State meeting of delegates to include junior tennis in county meets, was adopted by the executive committee, effective for the 1935-36 school year. Junior declaimers were advanced to regional competition by action of the State committee, also made effective for the next school year.

U. S. Army Resumes Recruiting 200 Men

The War Department has resumed army recruiting officers to order recruiting for the regular army, after a suspension of three months. Two hundred recruits are wanted at once for the garrison at Fort Bliss, Texas and over eight hundred more will be needed when the increase takes effect in July. Troops at Fort Bliss are mostly cavalry and field artillery, with a sprinkling of quartermaster, vedicos, single men and ordnance.

Recruits must be at least five feet four in height and of corresponding weight, and must be in first class physical condition. They must be unmarried and must have no one dependent on them for support. They must be men of good character and must be over eighteen years of age. Character must be testified to by at least two well known and reputable citizens of the community. If under twenty-one years old, age and consent to enlistment must be sworn to by parents. (Blanks for character and age may be secured at any army recruiting office). In addition, the educational test is the equivalent of about the eight grade in school.

The main office for this district is located at Fort Bliss, Texas, Branch offices are at El Paso, Big Spring, and Lubbock, Texas, Clovis, New Mexico, and Phoenix, Arizona.

Applicants for enlistment must make their own way to the branch offices. Then, if they pass the preliminary examination that is given by the sergeant, they can be sent at government expense to Fort Bliss.

Full information will be furnished at any recruiting station. If you live very far away write a letter to the nearest office for special information that you need.

No, there are no Infantry at Fort Bliss, Go to San Antonio.

HIGHWAY 16 IN MOTELY TO GET ASPHALT TOPPING

The Official Paper of Terry County and the City of Brownfield.

Beginning with this issue, the Herald is running seven constitutional amendments to be voted on the 24th day of August.

The farmers who have returned from Washington tell us that they had a great time in Washington, also going and coming, and that President Roosevelt and Secretary Wallace were pleased that one bunch of the men of the nation came to commend and not to criticize.

While the people of Georgia by a small margin have decided to let outsiders ship in beer and wine to sell, they by a still smaller margin decided to use their own "kawn liker."

Another effort is being made to pass that fool drug bill at Washington which is as useless as it is silly. It seems that the time will come when our pills, smokes and eats will have to be minutely inspected by some expert before we can be trusted to use them.

According to the Cleburne Daily Times, the County Attorney of Johnson County announces that crime in that county has decreased 50 percent in the past year.

"For once we are all agreed, Mr. Hines is our second choice," J. W. Smith, sr., comments in the Lamesa Reporter and Andy Jack's outburst recently. "Not that we loved Caesar less, but Rome more."

ther, dear Smitty, the writer of this spent one whole day in Brownsville and old Matamoros in 1930 with Jimmie Allred. Jimmie went with the editors into the drinking places too, but Jimmie don't drink beer, but he paid for some of the treats.

WHERE DID FARMERS GET THE MONEY?
Things are coming to a pretty pass when a farmer can't get off of his own little farm and travel around over the country a bit without some Congressman at Washington wanting to know where he got the money to pay expenses with and demand a Senate investigation as to the source of funds to buy railroad tickets.

and head for Washington and some Congressman from the East wants to know "where in the hell did he get the money" to make the trip on.
The meeting in Washington recently of the officials of the United States Chamber of Commerce is fresh on our minds.

RED GOOSE—THE OJIBWA INDIAN BOY

An Indian Story for Boys and Girls by CARLYLE EMERY

Following the return of the Ojibwa pretty quiet in the village for several weeks. And hinc came a message that thrilled Red Eagle to the core.

When Red Eagle received word that General Custer had sent for him, he was a proud and happy Indian.

But now, the General, called "Yellow Hair" by the Indians, was going to make a last desperate effort, and he wanted Red Eagle to act as guide.

After considerable thinking, Red Eagle decided to take Red Goose and Little Beaver with him, for alho they were children, they had demonstrated their helpfulness in many dangerous situations.

This pleased Red Goose more than you can imagine. The name Custer was known and loved by every good Indian and it seemed too good to be true for the boy to know he was going to join this great white chief on a war expedition.

Preparations for departure were made quickly and so it wasn't long before Red Eagle and the two children set out to meet Custer.

Custer and Bear Cat were first to see them approaching. "Good! Here comes Red Eagle now," said Bear Cat, happily. "I knew he'd be on time.

"But what in the world are those children doing with him?" asked Custer, surprised beyond words to see his chief scout coming up with a young boy and girl.

"Don't you worry about those children," Bear Cat laughed. "That boy is Red Goose, you know, the one I've been telling you about, and that girl is Little Beaver. They're thinkers—those kids—and good fighters, too. You wait and see.

By this time, Red Eagle had come to his General, who looked him over with an approving eye and said:

"So you are Red Eagle?" "Yes, Yellow Hair," was the reply. "This my son, Red Goose this Little Beaver. We wait for orders."

"Fine!" Then turning to Bear Cat, Custer said, "Throw out outposts beyond that first hill. Put a double guard around camp. Tell every man to be ready to ride at a moment's notice. We're going to get Black Kettle this time or my name isn't Custer. If we don't, he'll get back into the Bad Lands, and then we'll lose him."

After giving a few preliminary orders to his men, Custer turned again to Red Eagle.

"Any suggestions, Chief?" he asked. "We're on Black Kettle's trail the time to move on."

Before Red Eagle could reply, there was a crack of a rifle in the distance, over toward the first hill. Then another shot, this one followed by shouts and confusion. At the same time, a soldier came running up. "General Custer! General Custer!" he cried.

"Speak, man—what's happened?" "That Indian, Tall Horse, he had with us, is a spy for Black Kettle. Just now he got past the guard and he's gone to warn his Chief we are getting close. The Sioux will get back into the Bad Lands before we can catch up with them unless—"

"We ride again," interrupted Custer happily at the thot of action. "We've got to! We can't let Black Kettle get away from us again. Bugler, Quick! Blow "Boots and Saddle"! Blow, man. Quick, Captain. My horse!" Clear and loud, the bugler blew the command to mount and the General, turning to the Ojibwa chief, said "Ride with me, Red Eagle. Guide us. Come on, Red Goose—you too, Little Beaver—we're going to move."

"Forward, the Seventh! Ride!" commanded Bear Cat, who was Captain of the Cavalry; and with cheers from the soldiers, they started off in pursuit.

Custer and Red Eagle rode up in front and for some time no word was spoken between them. This was action and gave one of them a thrill. It thrilled Red Goose and Little Beaver, too.

They were riding with Custer something they would never forget as long as they lived. From time to time, Red Goose would watch the expression on the face of the big white chief, & his heart was filled with admiration of the bravery and courage, that was there. Little Beaver urged her pony on and on, for she wanted to be up front with her friend and playmate.

Finally, Red Eagle raised his hand in command to halt and said slowly, "We can go no farther, Yellow Hair. See?"

Looking ahead, Custer saw that their trail led to the foot of a high embankment—so high, it seemed like a mountain in front of them. It rose straight up, almost perpendicularly, and in dismay Custer volunteered:

"You're right. The cliff goes straight up, and not a path anywhere."

THIRSTY FROG-CATCHING RATTLE WINS PRIZE

CHICAGO, Ill., April 12.—Have you heard the one about the angler, the bullfrog and the rattlesnake? Chester McCarty of Portland, Ore., told it Friday to best a score of piscatorial prevaricators and won first prize in the liar's division of the Isaak Walton League.

McCarty was fishing in the Desautles river. Luck was bad. He tried many baits without success. Off in the brush, he sighted a fat bullfrog. That, he decided, was the answer to an angler's prayer. He bent to grasp the frog. Quickly he jerked his hand away. The frog was in a rattlesnake's jaws!

So McCarty whipped out his trusty whisky bottle. He poured a slug into the reptile's mouth. The delighted serpent dropped the frog. McCarty picked it up, went back to the stream, placed it on a hook and fished away. Five minutes later there was a gentle tapping at his boot. He glanced down. The rattlesnake, he insisted, had brought him two more frogs.

The tall tale earned McCarty a shellacked minnow. Dr. George M. Oppermann of Buffalo, N. Y., got a can of sardines for second place. He claimed he and a companion were casting from a flat rock. A bellicose pickerel bit, but with a terrific lurch, pulled hook, line, sinker and bobber from the fisherman's hands. It was T-H-A-T long, but it got away.

The doctor and his friend, disconsolate, walked off. An hour later they returned to the rock. And there, you can believe it or not, was the hook, line, sinker and bobber. The pickerel had brought them back.

Messrs Anderson and Swanson, of Peoria, Ill., came by this week to see their boyhood friend Emory Longbrake, and visited in the H. O. Longbrake home a few days. They are on a trip to the west coast, intending to return to their home by way of the northwestern states by the first of September.

CHALLIS CHATS

I believe the editor made a slight mistake last week as our news came out under Needmore News.

Bro. Horn filled his regular appointment Sunday. He also met with the school in chapel Monday morning and made a nice talk which everyone enjoyed.

Everybody seems to have forgotten the dust storms and are all smiles since the rain.

Mr. Lence Price returned Sunday night from Washington where he went as a delegate to the AAA conference. Now we know he had a great thrill as he said he had his picture made standing right near the President and it will soon be on the screen.

Mr. Cecil George who was operated on at the Treadaway-Daniell hospital is at home now and doing fine.

Mrs. Dave Jenkins and little son of Okla., are visiting with their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Neely. Mrs. Neely who has been sick for some time is slowly improving.

Mrs. Irwin who has been very ill with rheumatism for some time is still not much improved.

Hunter News

Bro. Hawthorne from Loop will preach here Sunday at 3 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Grady Reece and children from Ralls were week-end visitors with Mrs. Reece's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Smith.

The Sunday School literature is expected to be here by next Sunday. Everybody come and lets try to have a good school.

Mr. and Mrs. Holleman and family were visitors in the Crestman home Sunday. Remember Sunday night is our regular singing night.

Mr. Deward Williams and family have moved into the house vacated by Mr. Gill. Several from this community attended church at Forrester Saturday night; also the singing there Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Gibbs from Seagraves, Mrs. Goslon and children, Mrs. W. E. Breazeale and children, and Mr. Galor Gibbs visited Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davis, Sunday.

Hunter was visited by several inches of rain last week. Also a light shower Monday. Everybody has their planters at work.

Little Clois Reece from Ralls is staying this week with her grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Scott are spending this week with friends and relatives at Ralls, Texas.

Gomez News

Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Black and children visited in the H. N. Key home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kern and little son, of Brownfield, Mr. Lester Caswell, of Loop and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Carter were guests in the J. W. Ball home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Longbrake and children, of Quemado Valley, were guests in the V. V. Brown home during the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Vest and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Gunn, of Brownfield, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ball and daughters entertained several of their friends Thursday evening of last week, with a delightful fish dinner. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tittle and daughter, Lola Mae; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Fulton; Mr. T. C. Redford and little daughter, Dixie Jean; Misses Viola Brown and Nellie and Rena McLeroy.

Miss Viola Brown was a charming hostess to the other members of the Gomez faculty on Wednesday evening of last week, at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Ruth Moore of Brownfield. A very enjoyable evening was spent at playing interesting games after which ice cream and cake were served.

FINGERPRINTING GROWS

Fingerprinting, which is—believe it or not—a 1,300-year-old Chinese custom—is almost daily finding new uses as an aid to the law-abiding citizen and a deterrent to the one who is not according to Donald C. Stone, Chicago police official, whose views are broadcast by the Public Administration Clearing House.

Mr. Stone points out that the practice of sending ahead fingerprints of officers dispatched to return criminals captured in other cities has foiled the machinations of gangster associates of the prisoners who sought to free them by impersonating the officers.

Los Angeles now takes the prints of all suspects arrested on drunken driving charges, while Denver fingerprints every person who enters the city jail, regardless of offense. New Jersey plans fingerprinting all applicants for drivers' licenses.

While police make these new uses of this identification, law-abiding citizens in many cities are voluntarily recording their fingerprints for the purpose of identification in case of amnesia, aphasia, kidnapping, or accident. Since the United States Department of Justice suggested voluntary fingerprinting of citizens, about 6 months ago, many cities have been building up files of their residents' fingerprints. At the request of their owners, several thousand of these prints have become a part of the federal file "for personal use" in Washington.

"Although universal fingerprinting is probably a long way off," comments Mr. Stone, "these sporadic attempts at identification records are steps in the right direction. The public is learning that the protective possibilities of fingerprinting for the law-abiding citizen have only been partially realized."—Star-Telegram.

LEARN TO SWIM

The call of the open spaces is with us again, the old swimming hole, lake, river, and shore all have their devotees, but in the contemplation of the good times we are going to have on the water let us pause a moment to resolve that we will not be one of the unfortunate victims that each year is added to the toll of those drowned.

If you expect to spend some time near the water, learn to protect yourself—learn to swim. It isn't difficult; you will soon learn to keep afloat, and better still, lose that dreadful fear and panic into which a person is thrown who knows nothing about swimming when he finds himself beyond his depth. Just the ability to keep afloat a few minutes may mean life. And, those of you who can swim! Remember, it is not always the non-swimmer who is drowned. Don't let the knowledge that you are a good swimmer make you fool-hardy; you can have just as much fun swimming parallel to the shore as trying to make the other side, and it is much safer. It is much more fun to swim with a companion than alone. Don't dive unless you know where you are "heading."

Have you ever stood helplessly by and seen a bungling attempt to resuscitate a drowning person, minutes lost when seconds are precious? The prone pressure method should be started at once. You can learn the proper method in a few minutes yourself.

RABBIT AND DUCK ADDICT TO DRUG HABIT; ONE DIES AS STUFF CUT OFF

DALLAS, May 16. — This story concerns a rabbit and a duck. "So help me it's true," said a federal narcotic agent, who, like all good federal men, "would not be quoted."

Recently a squad of narcotic agents raided a narcotic nest and discovered a waddling duck and a frisky rabbit. Both had apparently become "addicted" to the habit by picking up capsules from the floor.

"The two would fight over the capsules," said the agent. "When the duck got the capsule first, the rabbit would wrinkle his nose in a threatening manner and thump his hind legs against the floor.

"It was the duck's turn to flap his wings and quack when the rabbit was successful."

But the animals suffered a pitiful fate when their owners were led off to jail.

"Two or three days later we went back," said the agent. "The old duck was dead and the rabbit was nothing more than a twitching heap on the floor—without the use of his hind legs."

He attributed their condition to the effects of shutting off their supply of narcotics and partial starvation.

The rabbit was nibbling on fringes of the carpet. It was lifted from the floor and taken to the local humane society. At last reports it had been "cured" and was recovering nicely.

"It's all true," the agent said, "but don't use my name."

WASHINGTON WAS NOT A ROBUST INDIVIDUAL

Few persons are aware that George Washington was anything but a robust individual and that historical facts tend to back up the assumption that he suffered from pulmonary tuberculosis.

Washington's first recorded illness attacked him in his seventeenth year when he had to go to bed exhausted by "fever and agues." Four years later he was stricken with smallpox on the Barbados Island in the West Indies, where he had gone with his brother, Lawrence, ill with tuberculosis. Shortly after returning to the mainland his diary records: "A violent attack of pleurisy which reduced me low." Some medical men contend this attack weakened him for life.

During the Braddock expedition Washington was so ill he had to travel in a wagon where a bed was prepared for him. Returning from that ill-fated expedition he spent months recuperating. In 1757 he had to give up his colonial command and in February, 1758, wrote: "At times I have been reduced to great extremity and have now too much reason to apprehend my approaching decay (consumption) being visited with several symptoms of such disease." Thus, at 26 Washington feared death from the disease which had claimed his brother, Lawrence.

In 1790 he had an inflammation of the lungs which physicians today think was pneumonia. In 1794 he was operated on for cancer and in 1798 he lost twenty pounds while laid up with a fever. His teeth were defective and when reading an address he had to have his glasses. His hearing was noticeably bad in 1789. In December 1799, after riding about his estate in snow, sleet and cold, he contracted his fatal illness and forty-eight hours later discharged the debt which he said "we all must pay."—Hoosier Rescuer.

Texas sold 100,000 square miles of land comprising portions of Oklahoma, Kansas, Wyoming, Colorado, and New Mexico, to the United States government for $10,000,000.

BATHING WAS CRIME HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Bathing, less than a hundred years ago, was a crime in Boston and was taxed in many cities and states to prevent its spread. This was also because a man in Cincinnati, Ohio, stimulated interest in bathing in 1842 by inventing a water heater consisting of a crude coil of pipe in his fire place chimney which warmed water for a lead lined bathtub, according to sanitation historians.

Healthful results of the bath, however, defeated the anti-bathers. More water heaters were invented and improved until now one only has to turn a faucet and an automatic gas water heater instantly sends a stream of steaming water in bathroom or kitchen.

Rome used no medicine except bath for 600 years. Bathing ceased with the fall of Rome. Pestilence, disease and death found unclean bodies easy prey in Europe for the next 10 centuries. Then, crusaders, coming back from the far east where bathing was still practised, returned the bath and Europe began to emerge from personal filth and consequent plagues. Soap is only 300 years old, and the modern bathroom less than 100. Ancients used olive oil sand and scrapers made of bone, ivory, or precious metals in place of modern soap. Certain Arabs still roll in sand and use it to scratch off the dirt.

NATION'S WEALTH ROSE 16.6 PER CENT IN '34

WASHINGTON.—National wealth of the United States amounted to 264.4 billion dollars in 1934, against 237.2 in 1933 and 26.7 in 1932, the low for the depression.

Thus, although the 1934 total was 16.6 per cent higher than in 1932 it was 42.6 per cent lower than the record high of 460.6 billion dollars in 1929.

Suicides Decrease—Accidents Increase

AUSTIN, Texas May 14.—A report of the Bureau of Vital Statistics, State Department of Health, says, "Contrary to public opinion, the number of suicides in Texas has decreased during the last few years. There was an increase from 616 suicides in 1930 to 772 in 1931 and a further increase to 828 in 1932, which was the greatest number of suicides that occurred in Texas during the past five years. Following 1932, suicides have decreased from 828 that year to 722 in 1933, with a further decrease to 705 in 1934.

"While suicides have decreased, there has been a gradual increase in fatal accidents, which totaled 3,112 in 1930 as compared with 4,013 fatal accidents in 1934.

"The increase in accidental deaths has been closely associated with the use of motor-driven vehicles. In 1931, there were 23 deaths due to collisions between automobiles and railroads, as compared with 69 similar deaths in 1934. Fatal accidents in air transportation increased from 27 in 1932 to 46 in 1934.

"The greatest increase, however, was found in automobile accidents involving no other vehicles. The records of 1934 show an increase of approximately 70 per cent over 1932, there being 907 deaths due to automobile accidents in 1930 as compared with 1,533 in 1934.

"With the decrease in suicides and the increase in accidents, there has been a more appalling increase in homicides. The Texas mortality records show 576 murders in 1930 and 1,016 in 1934, an increase of 440 or 6 per cent during that five-year period."

Mrs. S. Johnson has gone over into New Mexico to visit her children for several days.

Mesdames Lazelle Huckabee and Harvey Gage visited in Levelland last Sunday.

Royal S. Copeland, U. S. Senator from New York: "The patent medicine manufacturers are the vilest men on earth, taking money from innocent people."

MIDDLE WEST LOOKS FOR STEADY EXPANSION

CHICAGO.—Improvement in manufacture and sales in most lines of business in this territory is indicated by reports for the first quarter of this year.

All business distributors handled a greater tonnage, with the majority showing fair profits, compared with 1934. A disposition to look forward to a steady expansion is apparent, especially as employment increases.

WORLD'S TALLEST MAN CAN WALK AGAIN NOW

ALEXANDRIA, May 12.—The "tallest man in the world," Mohamed Ghazi, the 9-foot Egyptian, is recovering from an accident, and is able to walk again.

Mohamed suffered from a damaged pituitary gland, caused by a fall from some scaffolding, and for 7 months has been lying in some discomfort in his room—which is only 11 feet long.

Treatment by Professor Fritz Mainzer at the Jewish Hospital here has "put him on his legs again."

DAWSON COUNTY HIGHWAY DUE FOR EARLY COMPLETION

LAMESA—Highway No. 9 soon will be completed all the way through Dawson County. Dallas contractors who will do this job were here last week looking over the prospect. They will have machinery on the ground and work going shortly. Contract for topping the highway south to the Martin County line will be let May 13.

TRADING AT HOME

There are any number of people living in this town who laugh at the idea that it is best to buy at home. They take the position that it does not matter where they spend their money if they get their money's worth. They subscribe to the doctrine that the only obligation they owe the home town to get what they can out of it.

Our idea of trading at home does not include buying goods from merchants who attempt exorbitant profits. It does not necessitate the acceptance of worn, dirty or bedraggled goods from old time merchants who think that it is up to the community to keep them in business. It only means giving the local merchant a chance and then, to buy if he can reasonably meet other competition.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE HERALD NOW!

ALVAREZ, Minn.—Two neighbors got into an argument and fought over who should first read the county newspaper. The one who subscribed for it contended that she was entitled to read it first because she had paid for it. Her neighbor did not dispute this statement, but insisted on reading it first since the postman had handed it to her. Friends intervened, and the editor has a new subscriber.

COLORADO PLANS BIG JULY 4TH CELEBRATION

COLORADO.—This city backed by the whole of Mitchell County is planning one of the biggest Fourth of July celebrations in the history of West Texas. H. F. Ward and John Baze, who have handled the affair successfully the past few years, will again be in charge of arrangements.

Dallas has $30,000,000 worth of hotel rooms in which to house the visitors to the Texas Centennial Exposition in 1936.

Pure water will boil at the sea level at 212 degrees F., and on Pike's Peak at 186 degrees.

To prevent motor damage when you

...you must have oil of high film strength!

DID YOU know that idling along at 10 miles an hour or picking up suddenly can cause as much motor wear as high-speed driving?

All three put extreme pressure on your connecting rod and crankshaft bearings. If your oil does not have enough oiliness and film strength to withstand these high pressures, your motor parts suffer damaging wear. That's why you need oil with the greatest possible oiliness and film strength.

Straight mineral oils have no more oiliness and film strength than they had 10 years ago. Some, because of over-refining, have less!

Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil has more oiliness and 2 to 4 times more film strength than straight mineral oils! The Germ Process—adding concentrated oily essence to highly-refined, paraffin-base oil—puts into this oil more film strength and oiliness than any oil possesses naturally, no matter what crude oil it is made from!

That extra film strength and oiliness enable Germ Processed Oil to stay on the job and prevent wear under the most extreme pressure and heat. It helps Germ Processed Oil give long mileage with greater motor protection, as proved by the famous Indianapolis Destruction Test.

Germ Processed Oil protects your motor another way. Because it penetrates and combines with metal surfaces, it forms a "Hidden Quart" that stays up in your motor and cuts down wear during the starting period.

Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil is the oil you need in this day of slow city driving, speed on the highway and sudden acceleration everywhere. It protects your motor and saves you money!

*MOTORISTS WHO KNOW THESE FACTS WILL SAVE MONEY!

Motor oils refined by the usual methods have some oiliness and film strength, but they may form carbon and sludge, which lead to expensive motor repairs.

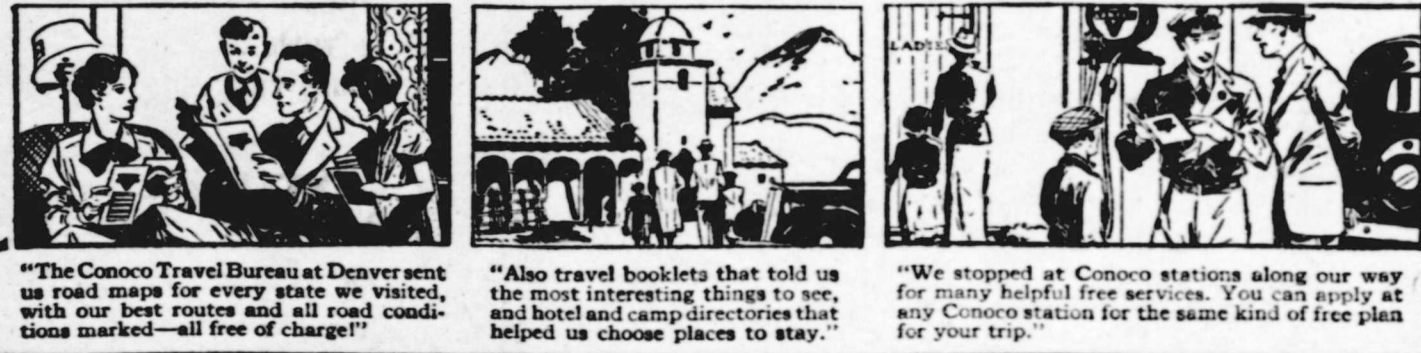

Other oils may form almost no carbon and sludge, but are so over-refined that they are robbed of oiliness and film strength they need to prevent motor wear.

Germ Processed Oil is refined to eliminate carbon and sludge troubles and then the Germ Process adds extra oiliness and 2 to 4 times more film strength than any straight mineral oil, as tests on Almena and Timken machines have proved.

In Memory

Holmes has well said that we measure our progress by the friends that we leave behind. Yet this did not mean to suggest that the leaving behind would be pleasurable. Those who push on to success and accomplishment must do so at the price of many broken ties of friendship. Partings are frequently often too permanent. Perhaps a new day wherein the individuals may get their highest development merely by growth within the group.

As we come to leave Brownfield High with its associations, its teachers and its student body, we pause to linger over memories of our years together. We have had tasks to perform together, work which has required our very best efforts. There were days when it seemed we could not possibly do the work set before us. However we managed to get it done, and today we remember it as a matter not of worry but of pride. In fact we are almost willing now to admit that those who gave us hardest work to do was after all our best friends. It is with regret that we recall now those forgotten ones who refused to work and therefore fell by the wayside and ceased to be one of us. May we never shirk the tasks which life gives us, and may we forever work together as loyal members of a noble plan.

Through our yesterday years we learned to play together. And what fun we have had! Parties, picnics, programs, holidays—these like a string of pearls sparkle in our chain of memories. Then there were football games when The School With the Spirit made a grand show of the enthusiasm that wins. Basketball and track contributed their share. In all these games together we have learned something of fair play and of the high pleasure that comes from teaming together. May we continue to play life's games in a spirit of co-operation.

Finally it is here in the walls of B. H. S. that we have dreamed our dreams of the great tomorrow. We have caught a vision of the ideal. In our association one with the other there has been an interchange of hopes and aspirations—a practice which has lifted us above the lonely common level of a single individual and has made us to see grandeur of human desire for attainment. In these brief moments when we have stood face to face as true friends and have opened our souls one to another we have come to know that best part and have seen for a moment that human excellence akin to God himself. It is from these experiences fellow classmates that we shall never escape. If Brownfield High School means anything important to us in our cycles of tomorrow it is that here we have learned to dream greater dreams, to aspire to nobler life. Then at parting may we beg of ourselves that we be not content to dream great dreams, but let us rather set ourselves to the task of making these dreams come true. Then when age shall have all but run the curtain down and we sit in life's gloaming it will be good to remember our High School days when we worked together and played together.

Long may we remember The School With The Spirit!

History of the Senior Class of '35

The beginning of the Senior Class of 1935 began in 1923 when three children started to kindergarten. Those three children were: Logan Redford, Clyde Dallas, and Kathie Hunter. Mrs. Greenfield was teacher at that time.

In 1924 this class entered the public schools of Brownfield. New members were not added until in the second grade, and then along came Wilma Frank Dunn, Ima George Warren, and Ona Faye Tittle. Ona Faye did not stay long because she moved to Gomez. The teachers of the second grade were Mrs. Savage and Miss Stee Crawford.

In the third grade Bill Savage, Irene Adams and Truett Flache were picked up.

New pupils were added to the class in the fourth grade but have since that time dropped out and moved elsewhere.

By some streak of misfortune, we happened to get hold of Ethel Pippin along in the 6th grade, and as you can still see and hear—we still have her with us.

When the class graduated from the seventh grade they had added Ruby Nell Smith and Roy Chambliss to their list. The seventh grade class graduated without a single failure—Kathie Hunter was Valedictorian and Wilma F. Dunn, Salutatorian.

The next year was a great year because the class was entering high school. This class has always had more on the honor roll than any other class in high school. In the Freshman year Queenelle Sawyer and Marjeanne Griffin joined the class.

When we were Sophs we had a pretty hard time because all other classes were against us. But we think that it was because we led in honor students.

Dore Fay Jenkins, Sallie Ruth Cox and Vernon Pharr entered school last year—all being Juniors. Also Irene Jeter became a member of the class.

The class of '35 is made up mostly of students that have come to B. H. S. this year. They are: Mabel Rowland, Luna Maud Gore, Ona Faye Tittle, Verl and Vergie Hulse, Christine Cooper, Bessie Johnson, Ruth Young, Val Garner, Monroe Gilmore, Curtis Bass, Raleigh Luker, Carroll Bryant, William Pollock, Bill Childress, Dorothy McGlothlin (she was with us last year), L. O. Greenfield, Catherine Cates, Glenn Eakin, and W. D. Christy.

This is the end of the high school history of the class of '35 but it is not the end of their records for the annals of time.

Jokes

Marjeanne—What a pity it is that handsome men are always conceited.
John: Not always, my dear, I'm not.

Clyde: How are getting along in Glee Club?
Vernon: Fipe, I made first bass on four bawis.

Roy: I made myself what I am by thinking.
Logan: You must have had some funny thoughts.

Queenelle: I have musical feet?
Wilma Frank: How come?
Queenelle: Two flats.

Sallie Ruth: Tell me please, what time it is. I am invited to a 6:00 o'clock dinner and my watch isn't going.

Ima George: Why, wasn't your watch invited?

Truett: A fellow just told me I looked like you.
Bill C.: Where is he? I would like to knock his block off.
Truett: I have just killed him.

Lucille Mc: What are you doing?
Z. O.: Don't bother. I am adding up some figures and every time I look at you I put down zero.

Mr. Ledbetter: You made 99 in that last exam, why didn't you get a 100?
Elray: There must have been a misprint in the book, sir.

Bill S.: Have you given the gold fish fresh water today?
Coach D.: No, they haven't finished the water I gave them yesterday yet.

Cub Comment

The Press Club wishes to thank Mr. Stricklin and his staff for making it possible for B. H. S. to have a page in the Terry County Herald.

The Seniors of '35 haven't accomplished all that they wanted to, but the class has accomplished a few things that will make other classes that follow remember the Seniors of '35 as a Class that had the spirit and will to do great things.

The Class of '35 are leaving their unfinished business for the Seniors of '36 to complete. Carry On, Seniors of '36, Carry On.

During the school year of '34-'35 the faculty and student body was named B. H. S. "The School With The Spirit." May B. H. S. continue by that name.

The Seniors are glad of the tradition in B. H. S. which makes it possible for the Seniors to be exempted on a "B" the last semester.

The Seniors wish to thank the School Board for buying their diplomas.

It is grand to graduate from High School, but still it is with difficulty that the Seniors of '35 leave their alma mater, the faculty, and other members of the student body.

How many members of the Class of '35 will graduate from college?

Farewell, B. H. S., Farewell.

Bill: What business are you in, Roy?
Roy: I'm in the lumber business.

Mr. Penn: I was afraid your mother might read it.

Mr. Penn: Clara, why are you tardy?
Clara: I saw a sign down the road.
Mr. Penn: What did that have to do with it?
Clara: It said, "School ahead, go slow."

Harold: I am trying my best to get ahead.
Sallie R.: Well, you certainly need one.

Coach Daniel: Jack, how long can a guy live without brains?
Jack S.: I don't know, how old are you?

Queenelle: I know it. I haven't been able to read his writing yet.

Miss Winston: Yes, father has always given me a book for my birthday.

Helen Q.: My, what a wonderful library you must have.

Accomplishments of the Class of '35

At the beginning of the term in September, 1934, it was stated that the Senior Class of '34-'35 would be one of many accomplishments, and they have fully lived up to that statement during their Senior year in B. H. S.

On the football squad of the Cubs in '34 out of eleven men, including the captain, six were from the Senior Class.

On the girls basketball team six Seniors lettered.

The captains of the boys and girls basketball teams were Seniors.

The king and queen of the Cubs were members of the Senior Class.

Three of the Senior boys lettered in basketball and four in track.

Pep was a great characteristic of B. H. S. as well as the Senior Class. One Red and White yell leader was a Senior.

The Seniors have had one of the most loyal sponsors in B. H. S.

There are two outstanding extemporaneous speakers in the Senior Class.

Three debaters are members of the class.

Two members of the high school quartet and one from the trio were from the Senior Class.

The Seniors have had a great time this year. They have had two parties, two banquets, one play, one operetta, and a trip to the Carlsbad Cavern.

They are leaving all their privileges and good times to the Juniors of '35, and we hope they have the good times the Seniors of '35 have had.

(BHS)

The Senior Class Prophecy

Here I am back in Brownfield reading the Terry County Herald. I will admit that it is a larger paper than it was when the Senior Class of '35 had their Cub Reporter in the columns of the county paper.

By the way the date of this paper is May 17, 1949.

Something important must be going on because there are large headlines, "Chambliss To Defend Case." Well, well, I wonder if Roy is a lawyer. Yes, here it reads "Marjeanne Griffin, Famous Chorus Girl of New York, Sues Reverend Flache For Breach of Promise." It seems that Truett is the Pastor of the First Baptist Church, and this all happened when they were Seniors in B. H. S.

Roy Chambliss, a famous lawyer of Reno, is defending the former classmate, Rev. Flache, from the wrath of this lovely chorus girl. Too bad!!

Here are some more head lines which read "England Will Honor Mr. Redford For The Knowledge That He Has Learned Concerning the Animals of Africa." I guess Logan's dreams did come true. He used to day-dream in Economics about the day when he would be in Africa hunting wild animals.

I just must turn over and see who is in the society columns. Here it is; they must still be playing bridge here in Brownfield because it says: "Mrs. Dr. May entertains Bridge Club." Before her marriage Mrs. May was Miss Kathie Hunter. In the guest list we find the names of Mrs. Harold Carpenter, Mrs. J. W. Duke, and Mrs. R. L. Bandy. I guess Sallie Ruth, Wilma Frank, and Ethel finally married the boys they were going with when they were Seniors in High School.

Marriages are still taking place in Brownfield: "Miss Verl Hulse and Mr. Monroe Gilmore were married in local church, May 15, 1949. Miss Vergie Hulse was the Maid of Honor with Mr. William Pollock the best man."

There will be a meeting of the State P. T. A. in Brownfield on May 20. The principal speaker will be Miss Ruby Nell Smith, famous journalist, who is visiting in Brownfield at this time. Another number of interest will be a lecture by Miss Irene Adams who is home for the summer.

For the past six years Miss Adams has been a Dean at a college in Rio de Janeiro. Mr. Vernon Pharr's bass voice will be heard on the P. T. A. program. Mr. Bill Childress, a famous actor of Hollywood will bring a group of actors from there to present a play the closing night of the convention.

Here are the birth announcements. I must see who have been having blessed events. Rev. and Mrs. Flache announce the arrival of their fourth son on May 1. Mrs. Flache was the former Miss Dorothy McGlothlin. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dallas announces the birth of their third child, Mary Elizabeth on April 29. Mrs. Dallas was Miss Cathryne Cates before her marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Bass announced the arrival of their first child on May 10. Mrs. Bass was the former Miss Dora Faye Jenkins.

I see that some of the local school teachers took a trip to the Carlsbad Cavern the past week end. The teachers were the maiden ladies, Misses Irene Jeter, Bessie Johnson, and Christine Cooper.

Here are the personals. I wonder if there is anything about the kids that I used to know.

Miss Queenelle Sawyer is giving her final Recital in Paris on June 1. Soon after Miss Sawyer's final Recital we understand she will go to England to meet her fiance, Logan Redford. They will return to Brownfield to be married in the country home of the brides parents.

Miss Ima George Warren is studying voice at the University of Chicago. She will soon go to New York where she will appear in her first opera.

It is rumored around town that Mr. Bill Savage, President of the First National Bank is the most eligible bachelor in Brownfield.

Miss Mable Rowland will soon open her tea room on East Main. This will be one of the most interesting businesses in town.

Messrs. Val Garner, Carroll Bryant and W. D. Christy, three of the most prosperous farmers in Terry county are experimenting with the new airplane-tractor on their farms near Union.

Glenn Eakin and Raleigh Luker are the two farmers that Terry county are sending to Washington to see about the cotton bill that went before Congress last week.

Miss Ruth Young is the nurse who won a medal when one of the local hospitals burned last winter. Miss Young saved the lives of twelve patients.

Miss Luna Maud Gore has applied for a position in the Home Economics Dept. of Brownfield High School since the marriage of Miss Winston.

Miss Ona Faye Tittle is back visiting friends in Brownfield. She is the chief dietitian at the insane asylum at Wichita Falls.

Well, well! A lot can happen in fourteen years.

ering the production of cotton in the crop year, 1935, V. F. Jones, county agent, reports.

Thirty Million Miles of Ford Economy

MORE MILES. Faster miles. Greater economy . . . that is the story of the Ford V-8. There are conclusive figures from owners to show that it is the most economical Ford car ever built.

A particularly interesting and complete report of costs comes from a national fleet owner who has owned 854 Ford cars which have run more than thirty million miles in business use.

175 were Model T Fords which were run 5,017,075 miles. 599 were Model A Ford cars which were run 24,041,632 miles. 80 are Ford V-8 cars which have been run 2,982,886 miles.

This owner's cost records show that Ford V-8 cars cost 12% less to operate than the Model A Fords and 31% less than the Model T Fords. And they covered more miles per month! The monthly average for the Model T Fords was 1509 miles. . . . For the Model A Fords, 1866 miles. . . . And 2571 miles for the Ford V-8.

Each year the Ford car gives you more in value and performance and costs you less to operate.

Actual Figures Show
The Ford V-8 is 12% More economical than the Model A and 31% More economical than the Model T.

OUR 23 YEAR COLUMN

In our issue of May 24, 1912, we find that we were beginning to have a "lot" of traffic over the "Trans-Continental" route. One car was from Phoenix, and another from Los Angeles. The California man said it was possible to make 50 miles an hour between Brownfield and Gomez. Forty-two Roswellites on their way to the Ad Convention at Dallas, had supper at the Hill Hotel, which was paid for by M. V. Brownfield. Nationally, politics were warming up. Reports from the Wilson camp stated he was leading, the same from the Champ Clark and Harmon camps, among the Democrats. Among the Prominent Republicans, were Teddy and Taft. The Woodmen were to have a big picnic here July 19th.

Jim Walker was in attending county court; also W. B. Carson. Mrs. R. H. Banowsky was visiting in Emma. Roy Scudday had returned from College at Cisco. Fred Scudday had started a cleaning and pressing establishment. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bell had returned from a visit to Marshall. J. R. Hill was local agent for the Lubbock Steam Laundry. Grandma Green of Georgetown, was visiting her son, J. C. and family. G. A. Whitley of the Needmore community, was doing jury duty. The Primitive Baptist observed the ordinance of foot-washing at Gomez the past Sunday. G. E. Lockhart was over building his political fences for district attorney. M. B. Sawyer was preparing to sell off some cattle and purchase some sheep to keep down the weeds on the ranch. Pappy John Powell reported a 100 percent lamb crop from his sheep ranch.

Mrs. Pickens of Brownwood, mother of Mrs. W. R. Spencer, had passed away. Prof. Johnson was conducting a "Writing Normal" here. Among the cases in county court was First National Bank, Lubbock, vs. Lum Hudson, continued. There was a hung jury in the famous Newsom vs. Sawyer "bull case." J. A. West vs. W. A. Chisholm was winner in contract disagreement. Mrs. J. T. May was visiting in Lubbock. Another well was being put down on the southwest corner of the square.

Pride Dots: A good planting rain was needed. A pound supper at Newt Taylor's. School was closed at Midway. N. B. Cathey was leaving for Hunt county on a visit. J. K. Epperson had completed a neat cottage. Pride school was to close the following week. A new phone line was being built from O'Donnell to Pride.

Gomez: Will Moore and family were visiting in Dawson county. Mrs. Simon Holgate was teaching a class in Music at Plains. Mrs. Stricklin spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Addie George. John Hays passed through with a herd. Rev. M. D. Williams was to preach at J. Cross the following Sunday.

Harris: Ed Spear was visiting in Lubbock. Lynn and Glen Harris had a pleasant trip to South Dakota. McPhaul Bros. had gone to New Mexico after a herd of cattle they had purchased. Measles had several of the Fitzgerald family down. Wolf-forth Bros. bought a bunch of mare at Lubbock, and were moving them to the ranch. Rev. B. F. Dixon was to preach the first Sunday at Harris. All for this week.

Meek of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Ellison Carson and Mr. Wilson Carson of Turner and Mr. Clyde Lewis of Brownfield. Visitors have a hearty welcome any time.

GETTING OUT PAPER NO PICNIC

Getting out this paper is no picnic. If we print jokes, people say we are silly. If we don't they say we are too serious. If we clip things from other papers, we are too lazy to write it down ourselves. If we don't we are "stuck" on our own stuff. If we stick close to the job all day, we ought to be out hunting for news. If we do get out and try to hustle we ought to be on the job in the office. If we don't print contributions, we don't appreciate true genius. If we do the paper is filled with junk.

If we make a change in a fellow's write-up, we are too critical. If we don't, we are asleep. Now, like as not someone will say we swiped this from some other paper.

WE DID!
Messrs. M. B. Sawyer and Cye Tankersley made a business trip to Wichita Falls first of this week.

NATURAL FORCES AID BUSINESS RECOVERY

By R. S. HECHT President American Bankers Association

ALTHOUGH, as official studies of business conditions show, business is still far from having struck its full stride, nevertheless, I believe that it is undoubtedly true that the natural economic processes which have always brought the nation out of a slump are now and have been for some time steadily at work laying the foundations for more active and normal business conditions.

I believe that there is growing a broader public perception that the people of this country must make their own prosperity and not wait for the Government at Washington to make it for them. In other words, normal economic vigor and vitality of the United States is slowly but inevitably bringing a return of natural business recovery.

The Fundamental Cure Like a doctor, the administration can help nature. But the fundamental healing processes will come from natural causes and not from political remedies. Despite the slackening of business now apparent, despite expressions of disappointment we hear from various quarters, nevertheless I am confident that these fundamental healing processes, if not spectacular, are none the less surely at work. Gradually our business leaders are showing greater confidence in the future and are assuming a more forward looking position. I firmly believe that if we will make up our minds to replace fear-psychology with confidence-psychology the results will fully justify such a new attitude.

BANKERS' ASSOCIATION STIMULATES ADVERTISING

The American Bankers Association's Advertising Department reports rapid progress of the use by banks of the informative bank newspaper advertising prepared by it for members to assist them in rebuilding public confidence and good will in their communities.

The central theme of this advertising service deals with the "essential line of economic and social service that all sound banking inherently renders the depositor and the public," the report says, showing that "it is not banking laws which make banking useful and safe, but that fundamentally it is honesty and skill in management under private initiative."

The Advertising Department is supplying about a thousand members of the association with newspaper and other advertising material. The newspaper material totals about 50,000 advertisements annually. The growth of the work of the department is shown by the following figures: On September 1, 1934, the number of banks being served regularly each month was 623. The total number on April 1, 1935, was 924, an increase of 301 regular subscribers, or 49 per cent in a period of seven months.

BANKERS HELP

"Save the Land and You Save the Man" is the essence of a suggested agricultural program recommended by the Arkansas Bankers Agricultural Committee. "Beware of impoverished soil. It leads to impoverished homes," says a statement sent to the banks to be distributed to their farmer customers. "To help nature save the land, build up the soil, by:

- a. Stopping soil erosion.
b. Planting legumes.
c. Raising livestock.
d. Developing pastures.
"Look ahead with confidence—know what you are doing, therefore:
1. Draw up a farm inventory.
2. Keep a record, daily or weekly.
3. Budget expenses, and keep within it."

TRENDS FAVORABLE IN STATE BANKING

Recent Figures Indicate Large Increases in Deposits and Invested Funds

Improvement in the condition of state banks in almost every respect during 1934 is shown by statistics recently assembled, Robert M. Hanes, President Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, points out in an article in "Banking" published by the American Bankers Association. The figures on which this statement is based were gathered by the Committee on State Bank Research of the association from reports furnished by state bank supervisors throughout the country.

"Ever since 1921 the number of state banks has been declining," Mr. Hanes says. "Between 1931 and 1934 the decline was rapid. Figures for December 31, 1934, showed that the downward trend has not yet ended, but the decline last year was the smallest in twelve years."

There are now, he says, about ten thousand state banks, which term includes all state chartered institutions with the exception of mutual savings banks. The article continues: "Even more significant was the ending of the decline of deposits in state banks which had been going on since the collapse of the stock market boom in 1929. In recent years for which figures are available the drop has been particularly abrupt. Total deposits in state banks declined from $20,395,762,000 on December 31, 1931, to $15,424,823,000 on December 31, 1933. The record for 1934 shows a recovery to $17,508,766,000 at the year-end.

Significance of Increased Deposits "It is particularly gratifying to note the expansion of deposits, since it was their decline which made necessary the liquidation of investments, the calling of loans, and all the other phenomena which go under the name of 'deflation' and have brought banks so much criticism in recent years. It is now plain that this was due to efforts of the banks to place themselves in the possession of enough liquid assets to meet the growing demands of depositors for the return of a part of the money which had been placed on deposit.

"That this is true is borne out by the movement of invested funds of state banks, which has paralleled that of deposits. These invested funds (loans and discounts plus investments) for state banks, dropped from $20,391,320,000, at the end of 1931, to $15,915,773,000 at the end of 1933. By December 31, 1934, however, they had recovered to $15,769,510,000. All of this gain is accounted for by the increase in investments during 1934, the expansion amounting to approximately $1,300,000,000.

"As for loans and discounts, they registered a slight drop again in 1934, but the rate of decline was much smaller than in previous years, which in itself is progress. Whereas the drop in loans and discounts amounted to approximately $3,300,000,000 in 1932, and to approximately $1,300,000,000 in 1933, it was less than $500,000,000 in 1934.

"In another respect the balance sheet figures for December 31, 1934, were especially impressive. Bills payable and rediscounts of the state banks, which at the end of 1932 had reached a depression high of $669,709,000, had dropped by the close of last year to the low figure of $32,101,000. One must search the records as far back as 1917 to find bills payable and rediscounts of state banks at a lower figure. Moreover, it is reasonable to expect a further reduction of such borrowings during the current year."

No Cows Brought by Pilgrims No cows were brought by the Pilgrims to the United States in 1620. The first cows imported were in 1624, by Governor Winthrop, according to Albert S. Bolles in the Industrial History of the United States. These cows were raised primarily for hides, secondarily for meat, and only incidentally for milk.
