Terry County Teachers To Be Banqueted.

A good will banquet for the teachers of Terry County will be held in the Venetian Auditorium, on the night of February 2nd. Some 100 teachers are expected to attend. The banquet is sponsored by the executive committee of the Terry County Interscholastic League organization.

The idea, according to Emmitt Smith, director general of the Terry County organization, of having a banquet was prompted by a desire on the part of the members of the committee to get all teachers of the county together in a social gathering to pave the way to a successful, enjoyable, County Meet. An effort is being made to make the evening purely an evening of entertainment and fun. No "Main speeches of the evening" have been scheduled. Numbers ranging from music to oratory have been arranged and will come from the faculties of several schools in the county. Dallas Waters, principal of the Scudday school, shall act master of ceremonies. Several schools are already represented 100 per cent and the executive committee is urging that this be true for all schools of the county.

Important announcements concerning the coming Interscholastic League Meet will be made at the banquet. Preliminary drawing that heretofore has taken up so much of the valuable time during the regular meet will be done in the lobby before or after the banquet by representatives from several schools. If the assembly wishes it, Mr. Raymond Simms, County Judge, has stated that the new T. S. T. A. set-up will be explained and organization completed.

Teachers who have not made reservations may do so by contacting Emmitt Smith at Brownfield High School by writing, personal call or telephone. The deadline for plate reservation will be Tuesday, February 1st, at 5:00 o'clock.

The Editor Gets An Appreciated Letter.

The Herald is always glad to get letters from its readers that are a bit complimentary, and even appreciate one now and then that is a bit critical, and we know that some are really just in their criticism and mean only to be of service to the Herald and to the community in general.

We received a letter last week from a boy, rather a man now, that has a family of his own, that we have known intimately since he was a kid in knee pants that we are really proud of, and we know that his sentiments come from the heart. Here it is:

"Attached find check for subscription to your paper. By way of flowers for the living, many times during my twenty-one years in Terry County have I heard the comment that the Herald is the best county weekly to be found. I still hear these comments and the ideals upon which the paper is founded and upon which it operates tend to perpetuate it as such an institution."

The Increasing Cost Of State Government

Here is what the State of Texas has spent for governmental upkeep for the last 10 years:

1927	$ 73,563,721
1928	$ 84,358,918
1929	$ 91,924,307
1930	$103,137,982
1931	$101,164,453
1932	$ 95,800,890
1933	$107,922,450
1934	$111,866,296
1935	$111,001,066
1936	$125,693,992
1937	even higher

The average head of a family of five in Texas pays $162.55 a year to keep the State, cities, counties and districts going. It costs $32.51 per year to every person in Texas—man, woman or child—to maintain State and local government.

Escaped Prisoner Picked Up in Okla.

Sheriff Ches Gore suspecting that Howard Atkinson, who escaped jail here last week had gone back to his old stomping grounds in Oklahoma, had a description of him broadcast over the police stations of that state, and something like two hours later, Atkinson was picked up by patrolmen for driving while intoxicated.

The car he escaped with here belonged to Rex Headstream, which will be recovered. Ches believes that he will have a rather hard time getting the prisoner, as he still has 19 months of a six year term standing over him in Oklahoma, and in fact Atkinson is already in the pen at McAllister. However, when his time is out he will likely be brought here and tried on a habitual criminal record, which carries a life sentence.

Sheriff Gore returned Tuesday night from Olney, where he picked up two men charged with horse theft in this county. It seems that a kind neighbor down about Wellman loaned them the team to gather some feed, and they carried the team over in Gaines county and sold it.

Referring back to Atkinson, there is really 46 years stacked up against him in Texas, and he is also wanted in New Mexico. It seems that his long suit was forgery.

Good Delegation For Highway Meet.

According to J. E. Shelton, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Brownfield and Terry county will have a good delegation at the meeting of those interested in the extension of highway 51 from McCamey to the Big Bend park. Among those who have already definitely decided to make the trip are Clyde C. Coleman, Mr. Shelton, and County Commissioners L. C. Green, Geo. Henson, J. F. Malcolm and Lee Lyon.

These gentlemen will leave early next Tuesday for the Big Bend section, where the meeting will be held at a CCC camp. Delegations are expected as far north as the Dakotas, and possibly Canada. Good camping facilities can be had at the CCC camp as well as meals, but one can establish their own camp if they wish.

Other good news to the citizens of Brownfield and Terry county was the designation as a State highway by the State Highway Commission of the road from here to Lamesa, which will give Brownfield a five-way network of highways. The C. of C. has been working on this project for some time.

January 31, Last Day To Pay Your Poll Tax

In conversation with Sam White, office deputy at the county Tax-Collector's office, Tuesday morning, he informed us that up to that time only between 1300 and 1400 poll taxes had been paid, and next Monday ends the matter for this year. With a campaign year on, the payments in Terry county to date should be nearer 2500.

Around 3000 people in Terry county should pay their poll tax by next Monday night, and if they do, there will be a last minute rush that will almost sweep Ches and his force off their feet. So the best thing to do is act right now.

Of course all monies that are turned in before midnight January 31 will be received by the collectors, but it will put a burden on them for several days afterwards, and with district court in session, they just about have their hands full anyway.

Jones Reports Sale Of Many Tractors.

E. H. Jones, prominent Meadow merchant, was down Wednesday morning and called on the Herald to place his announcement for County Judge. Mr. Jones seemed to be in a powerful hurry and when quizzed, he kinder grinned and said:

"Got to get back to Meadow and go to selling Farmall Tractors, and find a place for the stock we take in." And that makes us think that R. A. Pittman of the Pittman dairy stated that he had lost three of his horses with "sleeping sickness." What if they should get into a herd accumulated by tractor salesmen?

But they have their worries! But they have their worries the same as a country newspaperman, and ore the kind of men who don't cross a bridge before they get to it.

President's Birthday to Be Celebrated Here.

Nothing will be left undone if possible to make the President's birthday celebration an outstanding success, according to J. O. Gillham, county chairman. Unlike most years heretofore, there was not much offered any other than those who care to dance a chance to help in the eradication of one of the most insidious diseases of childhood, and even attacks on adults are not rare.

This year, you may invest in a Founders Certificate with President Roosevelt, he being No. one member of the society. You may invest $1.00, $2.00 or $5.00, and your certificate receipt entitles you recognition at the Birthday Ball at the Venetian Auditorium next Monday night. Heretofore, a per cent was sent to the Warm Spring, Ga., foundation, and a larger portion, retained at home. None goes to either of these now, but is sent to the Research Foundation to help carry on a search for a cure of this dreaded disease that cripples so many children yearly, and grants to state clinics.

The Foundation attacks the problem on four fronts:

1. Scientific Research.
2. Epidemic First Aid.
3. Proper Care—disseminating to doctors and parents the present and the new knowledge for proper care which may prevent sad after-effects, such as crooked backs, curvature of the spine, twisted bodies, contracted limbs.
4. Grants of money to orthopedic centers, hospitals, and clinics for combating human wreckage.

Mr. Gillham has chosen as his helpers to put over the birthday celebration and sale of certificates in a big way in Brownfield area the following:

County Vice-Chairman, Mon Telford; Executive Secretary, Roy M. Herod; Treasurer, Jas. H. Dallas; Publicity Chairman, Cye Tankersley, and the following members of the Executive Committee:

Mrs. Roy Herod, Mrs. Mon Telford, Mrs. Lee O. Allen, Roy M. Herod, Lee O. Allen, Mon Telford, Jas. H. Dallas, J. O. Gillham, Clovis Kendrick.

If you do not see a salesman for the Founders Certificates on the streets, they can be purchased at the following places: Nelson-Primm, Corner and Palace Drug Stores, the Club Cafe and Hotel Coffee Shop. Mr. Tankersley is negotiating with at least three fine bands at this time, but was not prepared to announce definitely what orchestra would play for the ball. But Cye says it will be a good one.

GOV. JAMES V. ALLRED ISSUES PROCLAMATION

Formal proclamation designating January 29 as the day for Texas to rally for a united fight on infantile paralysis was made by Governor James C. Allred last week. He urges generous support of the President's Birthday Celebration on that date for the purpose of raising funds for the new Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Governor Allred's proclamation is as follows:

WHEREAS, for the past several years the people of Texas have celebrated the birthday anniversary of President Roosevelt with entertainments to aid children crippled by infantile paralysis; and

WHEREAS, the President has now created the Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and has dedicated the celebration of his birthday to the sole purpose of raising funds for its support; and

WHEREAS, the Foundation for Infantile Paralysis provides for the first time a national organization to lead, direct, and unify the fight on a disease which is annually crippling, killing and maiming thousands of our beloved children;

NOW, THEREFORE, I James V. Allred, as Governor of Texas do

Conoco to Increase Newspaper Advertising

Giving due credit for the best year in its history to the heavy use of newspaper advertising, the Continental Oil Company today announced that its 1938 advertising appropriations for newspaper space will be increased by 17 per cent over the 1937 expenditures.

Continental during the coming year will allot to the daily and weekly press about 66 per cent of all that is to be spent on consumer media and will place advertising in approximately 1250 newspapers. The new advertising will continue to deal with Conoco Bronze Gasoline and Conoco Processed Motor Oil and the action of this lubricant, due to the presence of a product of the research laboratories, in forming an abnormally tough film that stays on metal surfaces even while the motor is idle, instead of draining off.

The new campaign, which has been carefully checked for reader response in selected test areas at Colorado Springs, Colo., and in Richmond, Va., will also stress the position of local Conoco dealers as "mileage merchants" who are independent of the company and must deal with the customer on the basis of their own ability and standing in the community they serve.

Paint and Body Works Locate Here.

One of Brownfield's newest businesses, The Acme Paint and Body Shop, located in the old Magnolia building on the southeast corner of the square, was opened up this week by C. A. Singleton, a young man of Wichita Falls, Texas. Mr. Singleton informed us he would employ four men and would be prepared to do all kind of paint, body and fender work.

hereby dedicate and set aside Saturday, January 29, 1938 to be observed by all patriotic Texans as the President's Birthday Anniversary, such observance to be evidenced by support of the President's Birthday Celebration throughout the State in aid of the Foundation and its fight on infantile paralysis.

—JAMES V. ALLRED, Governor of Texas.

STATES OBJECT OF BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

That the President's Birthday Celebration in Texas this year are proving more popular than ever in history is evidenced by figures from 138 Texas counties and 268 Texas towns received so far by George Waverly Briggs, vice chairman for the Texas campaign.

"Statistics at the President's Birthday Celebration headquarters in Dallas show more counties and cities organized at this period of the drive to aid crippled children than ever before," Mr. Briggs says. "The new Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, organized by President Roosevelt seems to have won popular acclamation and support throughout the state. All money raised by President's Birthday Celebrations to be held in Texas and throughout the United States January 29 will be sent to the new Foundation. The Foundation in turn will make grants of money and material to Texas institutions who are treating children recovering from infantile paralysis."

"To properly fight infantile paralysis, it has been necessary to make a unified and nation-wide effort with every State, County and City doing its part. Texas counties, cities and smaller communities have fallen into line and I am now certain that our State will do more than its part in this humanitarian campaign upon which so much depends. I believe that Texas will lead the nation in supporting Jesse H. Jones, State Chairman, who heads this unified effort to fight infantile paralysis through national research and local aid."

TELEGRAM TO BE SENT ROOSEVELT

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has been informed that the Western Union Telegraph Co., is going to transmit messages from each town in the United States on his birthday. These messages will be transmitted free of charge.

Individuals will be solicited to put their names on the telegram at 25c per name. All of this money will be used to fight Infantile Paralysis. Get your name on the telegram from Brownfield.

Unemployment Census Lists Many Minus Jobs

A breakdown on the census recently taken at every postoffice in the United States of those without jobs; those with part time jobs; and those who wanted more work, has just been released in Washington which clearly gives the Unemployment picture on the South Plains.

The figure given are those reported to the census. Beyond doubt there were many who were not enumerated who needed jobs. These figures given below are therefore minimized, compared with actual conditions. It must also be recognized that unemployment has increased further since the census, on Oct. 20th, or two months ago.

Lubbock easily leads in unemployment for the area. Hale second, Lamb is third. More people wanting work are listed in Lamb County than in Hale.

Despite the fact that we are sure the figures are inadequate, and nothing like complete, they are reproduced below for what they are worth.

In the tabulation for the South Plains area below, the first column lists county; the second column, the number totally unemployed and wanting work; third column, those working at WPA, NYA, CCC, or other emergency work; fourth column, partly employed and wanting more work (all figures as of the period Nov. 16-Nov. 20)

To Entertain Delegates To Highway Meeting

Arrangements to take care of 200 men and women over night have been made at the CCC camp in the heart of the Chisos mountains and plans are complete for the Highway 51 Association's most important meeting, which will take place on Wednesday, February 2.

Entertainment features include a barbecue and trips through the Big Bend National Park. Sul Ross College of Alpine will furnish some entertainment. Representatives of the national park service and the Texas state parks board will tell the story of the Big Bend region and its possibilities as a national and international park. Representatives from the Black Hills will present their interest in the north-south road.

Committee for arrangements is composed of Judge G. J. Henshaw of Sanderson, Commissioner H. R. Richardson of Iraan, and J. T. H. Bickley, superintendent of the Iraan public schools. Assisting this committee are E. E. Townsend of Alpine and Dr. H. W. Morlock, president of Sul Ross College at Alpine.

At present the CCC camp is equipped with only 30 beds. These will be reserved for the ladies. Superintendent Bickley suggests that other visitors bring cots and bedding. An additional 150 army blankets will be available at the camp.

18,000 Bales Ginned Up Until Saturday Night

R. M. Kendrick, president of the First National Bank, is our authority for the information that Terry county had ginned a total of 48,000 bales of cotton up to last Saturday night. And R. M. thinks he is going to win the top prize of $3.00 offered by the Herald for the nearest correct guess to the Terry county ginnings.

Just from hints and general maneuvers, we figure that his guess is around 48,200, and for some reason he thinks that is going to be the highest guess. But there are lots of guesses in the two ballot boxes and there is going to be a lot more cotton ginned between now and March 1st.

S. W. White of Meadow was here Tuesday on business.

U. S. C. of C. Gives Texas a Real Showing.

In the late business map put out by the United States Chamber of Commerce, they give old Texas a real Premiere. In fact the Lone Star State stole the show. Texas showed nine-tenths of the white area in the whole United States, and to tell the truth, that is going some.

If you have never examined one of these maps, there are three colorings, solid white, representing GOOD; slightly colored, representing FAIR; and black, representing SLOW. As stated above Texas had nine-tenths of the white area in the United States.

The largest white spot was centered around Fort Worth and Dallas, covering North Texas, part of northeast and central Texas. The second largest white spot started in about the oil fields around Odessa, and ran well above Amarillo to the north took in New Mexico next to Texas and ran east to below the caprock. The third largest spot was a narrow strip starting in near Laredo on the Rio Grande, followed it to Brownsville, and then up the Gulf coast to Corpus Christi.

While most of the country showed Fair, there was a considerable area in Slow or Black area. Many local merchants have informed us that their business is still good—much better than they expected following the holidays. Merchants who have put on sales in Brownfield since the first of the year are more than pleased with results.

With the coming in of a big corn crop to top a big cotton and feed crop, we think the Brownfield area will be "settin' jake" for some time to come.

Come to Terry!

P. O. Building to Be Located on North Fifth

Postmaster Jas. H. Dallas had a letter from the Postoffice Dept. last week to the effect that they had accepted the proposition of A. M. Brownfield and associates in the selection of a site on north Fifth street, just north of the First National bank. The price stated was $5,000 which will be deducted from the $75,000 appropriated for the building.

This is a nice location, 120 x 140 feet with pavement on both sides, and while us people here in town will be somewhat inconvenienced by that location, we are not blaming anyone, and will make the best of it. In fact, we aim to get city delivery before the postoffice is moved from the present location on the west side of the square to permanent headquarters.

By the way, we know a fellow that has layed some small sum wagers with one banker and three employees of the P. O. that they will not get into the new building before January 1, 1939. We understand that while this guy would like to see the new P. O. building as soon as possible, and is not much "scared" that Uncle Sam will not "stall around" on this job to some two years, he might consider a bit of hedging.

So, if you are prepared to take one or more of these bets off his hands, call or write AJS care Herald.

District Court Grinding Away This Week

The second week of district court started off with a bang this week, but the cases are mostly those of land title cases, we understand, suit on notes, damage suits and other cases, which we laity usually term just plain "law suits." But the court was into them hot and heavy Monday.

We understand that there will be quite a heavy docket of these, which are usually termed civil cases this week, and they will no doubt be mostly finished by Saturday night, or continued or thrown out. Next week, the court will begin trial of criminal cases, with an already reasonably full docket, and the grand jury probably handed in several more to be thrashed out.

Anyway, for the next two weeks at least, there will be many cases tried and disposed of. So far as we know, there are no murder cases to be tried, but possibly a rape case or two. Liquor cases have all been handed down to County Court, since they are only finable, or jail sentences, but not subject to pen sentences.

Mrs. Jas. A. Fry and children, June, Neal and David of Pecos, Texas, came in last Friday for a week end visit in the Roy Collier home.

Tex. Farmers' '37 Crop Income Was More Than 460 Million Dollars.

AUSTIN, Jan. 22.—Pockets of Texas farmers bulged with $61,188,000 more in 1937 than in the previous year in spite of generally lower market prices.

The State Department of Agriculture reported today the State's crops brought $460,983,000 last year compared with $399,805,000 the previous year.

Cotton and wheat, which reported a boom year, accounted for much of the gain, $47,559,000 and $22,763,000 respectively. Other crops showed a small aggregate net decline.

Spuds of the Irish and sweet variety soared to new heights with a value of $23,633,000 an increase of $3,724,000, while fruits and nuts had an aggregate value of $15,239,000, or $2,166,000 more than in the previous year.

Prices Are Compared
Had 1937 prices equaled those of 1936 farmers would have marked up $174,125,000 more, the department said. Comparative declines in prices of cotton and cotton seed, corn, oats, rice and the sorghum grains accounted for the aggregate "loss."

Latest Style Awning Moving Is Shown.

Someone is always giving you a new idea to think about, and Contractor Roy Wingerd introduced one to us, at least, last week, when a big high bedded truck was driven under the awnings of the two store buildings on the north side that are now occupied by the Cave Variety store, and the awnings were let down on the truck, and driven away, until they are ready to replace.

Or will they be replaced? That is another thing to think about. Up until the past few years, no one out side of the large cities would think of building a business house without awnings, and even in the cities, that was confined to sky-scrapers. But of late, many of the new business building houses in Brownfield are leaving off the awnings. But where will the "sweaters" take refuge from the sun?

Anyway, the work of remodeling the front of both stores, as well as the interior of both to make them match, is going steadily on, and when completed, we understand this will be just about the prettiest and most desirable locations in the city, and will house a stock of variety goods not seen outside of towns many times larger than Brownfield.

Several Men Held In U. S. Mail Theft.

LUBBOCK, Jan. 21.—Oscar Petty, 45 of O'Donnell was under arrest Friday charged with theft of a United States mail pouch and rifling of registered mail containing $28,900 at Slaton.

Petty's bond is $7,500. His is the second arrest in connection with the disappearance early in November, 1937, of the pouch which was being shipped to the First National Bank of O'Donnell from the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas. Carl Williams of Brownwood is held at San Angelo under a similar charge. Petty was taken to Fort Worth by C. E. Luce, United States deputy marshal.

Later: Roy Cathy had been arrested. Like Petty, he was an O'Donnell man. Both came from old and highly respected families of Lynn and southeast Terry counties.

CARD OF THANKS

To our friends and neighbors we wish to thank each and every one for their many deeds of kindness shown us during the illness and death of our darling baby, Jimmy, and especially Dr. Turner for his untiring efforts. He leaves to mourn his passing his mother and father and sister, Carlene, besides many relatives and friends.

Signed: Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hyman

DIED

Little Jimmy Russell infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hyman passed away last Saturday, January 22, at 5 p. m.

Funeral services were conducted by Elder J. H. Killion. Burial followed in the local cemetery.

A forced smile is never effective.

Miss Jeanne (Chattergram) Suits, has left her first love, the old home town paper, owned by her father, J. L. Suits, the Lockney Beacon, and has joined the staff on the Big Spring Daily Herald as society editor and columnist. We miss her little thumbnail sized picture on the first column of the front page of the Beacon, and thought we had discovered her masculine successor with a full column picture on first glance in opening up the Beacon this week. However, it was just the picture of a new preacher that has come to town. All the south Plains papers glory in Jeanne's promotion.

We never like a squabble, especially with the ladies or preachers, but recent utterances by some ministers in Lamb county, who call themselves a ministerial alliance, appeared to be rather strange to us, and perhaps belong more to the 12th or 14th century than to modern times. All we know is what we read in the papers, as the late Will Rogers used to say, and from these sources, it seems that at least one of the brothers credited the epidemic of infantile paralysis last summer to dances given to raise money for treatment of that disease. We are inclined to think the medical profession will disagree with their brethren of the cloth on that score. There are lots of people who oppose dancing, and we rather expect the clergy to do so, but the fact that an adult's dancing would cause an innocent child to have infantile paralysis belongs to the dark ages, it seems to us.

Uncle Bill Kellis of the Sterling City News-Record seems to be having a lone battle with University of Texas students following their recent vote that they would not bear arms for the United States unless in case of invasion. Uncle Bill don't mince words, but tells them they are yellow, and points to Ethiopia and China as being recent examples of "waiting for the other nation to invade." Like Uncle Bill we have our aversion to Uncle Sam ever stepping out to stop a fight across seas, but we want our nation ready to meet any armed force from a hostile nation long before they reach our shores, and begin destroying our cities. Another thing that points toward something being seriously offhand at the U. of T. from the majority of Texas folks, was their recent vote in favor of the anti-lynching bill in congress. Is our state university that we have spent millions building and endowing being influenced by communistic teaching?

We have been asked a number of times why we don't report things of a shady nature, giving names, etc., court trials, etc. One man recently told us that he believed we ought to report every crime, and spare no names, and that we would be privileged to call his children in question any time, along with the others. The Herald is strictly a local paper, and it caters to the better things of life, or tries to do so, and while we have no sympathy for crime in any form, lots of times the mention of it would not faze the perpetrator, but would wring the heart cords of the parents and other relatives. The community gets such news anyway, by the grapevine route much sooner than we could get it to them. So why publish it? Only this week we had a letter asking for a paper of court proceedings about two boys and a girl in a certain community getting in bad and the boys put in jail. There was no such story printed in the Herald, and his money was returned.

Well, the anti-lynching bill seems to have finally been talked to death by southern senators. Even had it passed, the Supreme Court, even with the two gentlemen who have recently retired on it, would in all probability be declared unconstitutional as it was a plain invasion of state rights. Also the fact that it carried an amendment exempting gangster murders in the north, would have made it null and void. Negro murders and rapist have been projected in the south at the peril of many good officers in the past several years, only 8 lynchings being recorded last year and in 1936. They have murdered our officers and jailers right in this section, trying to escape a petty crime, yet have been prosecuted and given a fair trial. Only last week, it leaked out that a negro in nearby Littlefield has entered the room of a white girl and had tried to attack her. This was kept down for a full week to allow officers to quiz and protect the black beast. Such northern magazines as Time is what keeps the question to the fore. Last week was a fair sample of the stuff and nonsense it puts out about negro lynchings, and if we had our way we would stop it's circulation in the south. Just why southern people buy such trash is beyond us. Also politicians of the north in heavily populated negro areas, also keep the bill alive. The south can thank its stars that it has such defenders of state rights as Senator Borah of Idaho, who is not always looking after his political fences, even if it does hurt the other fellow.

The Distillers Bulletin issued regularly by the Distilled Spirits Institute, Inc., quotes a newspaper article of a man who was a notorious glutton, yet talked against alcoholism. The article claims that gluttony is just as bad as drunkenness. Well, maybe so, but you never heard of a glutton killing people while under the influence of a hearty meal; he would more apt to fall asleep. There is no argument for drunkenness, for it does not confine its harm to the man indulging in liquor; if it did, there might be a better argument for so-called "personal liberty."—McLean News.

Well, Bro. Landers, we were aiming to make a supreme effort to thumb our way up to Amarillo in April, and to let's you and I and Dee Eye Hill spy around there and find a pint and three bottles of strawberry roan soda pop, and slip off down to the wagon yard and really dissipate for one night. But your weekly cracks such as the above kindly discourages us. But we kinder agree with you anyway. A dogged fellow that insists that he must drive while floating in liquor up to his chin should be made to walk the rest of his life, and if he still insists in getting drunk and insulting and killing people, line him up against a rock wall and end it with a firing squad. A maniac like that has no business on the streets and highways with a high powered car.

Terry County Herald (Brownfield): Miss Jean Suits used all her column last week in telling the world just how measly and hateful a couple or two of young people can act up in a cafe, leaving their table in a mess that would disgust a litter of pigs. And, some of them think it's funny and smart to muss up the table and steal the silverware and shakers, according to Jean.
State Press in Dallas News: There is some excuse, but not a good excuse for those who make a mess of the table and purloin the tableware. They are inspired to such unseemly conduct by artificial inspiration.

bought at a bottle store or borrowed from a friend. Lately we have read that there is a new order of social interchange called cafe society. Cafe society, we apprehend, is a society foregathered at commercial refectories, and promoted at commercial refectories, and promoted by eaters of food and drink. The elect of cafe society are those who can be most entertaining, we gather, or those who can order the most expensive vintages or viands. As in some other social compartments, those who get in have certain aspirations or expectancies which they hope to further by meeting the right people. But in cafe society the cashier is more evident. She indeed hangs over the imagination like a sword of Damocles, and some of the brighter lights of the cafe group acquire a notable expertise in passing the buck, which means the waiter's check. They learn to outfumble those of the company who may venture to fumble for the ticket of expense. In more exclusive society, the host or hostess usually furnishes the comestibles, without offering any embarrassment to the guests by way of making known the price of entertainment. This is a more popular form of social excitement with all those whose brightness exceeds their incomes. But it is considered bad taste in any society for those who sit at tables to mistake them for stables.

Now in my third week of "double harness," I feel that I am qualified to give out a wee bit of advice on matrimony. E. H. JONES FOR COUNTY JUDGE

TO THE CITIZENS OF TERRY COUNTY:
I take this means of announcing my candidacy for the office of County Judge, subject to the Democratic Primaries.
You will remember that I made the race four years ago, and was defeated by our present judge.
Again I am asking you to give me due consideration when selecting a man to fill this office for the coming term. I shall endeavor to see each one of you before the primary.
If I am given the honor of serving you in this capacity, I have only one promise to make, and that is to try to the fullest extent of my ability to work for the best interest of the entire citizenship of the county.

A Three Days' Cough Is Your Danger Signal
No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with any remedy less potent than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble and aids nature to soothe and heal the inflamed mucous membranes and to loosen and expel the germ-laden phlegm.
Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, try Creomulsion. Your druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not thoroughly satisfied with the benefits obtained from the very first bottle. Creomulsion is the word—not two, and it has no hyphen in it. Ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

Sheriff's Notice Of Sale
STATE OF TEXAS, COUNTY OF TERRY.
WHEREAS, on the 16th day of September, A. D. 1936, the State of Texas recovered a judgment in the District Court of Terry County, Texas, against R. E. Schwartz for the sum of $29.34 with interest thereon at the rate of 6% per annum from the 16th day of September, A. D. 1936, until paid, and the further sum of $12.85 costs of suit; and
WHEREAS, said judgment decree described the foreclosure of the lien created, established and continued on the lands, lots and property herein-after described, by reason of the levy and assessment of taxes and of the delinquency therein, the said taxes remaining unpaid and due to the state of Texas and the County of Terry, and as the same lien then existed and at any time theretofore existed by reason of such levy and delinquency and at the dates and for the years 1917, 1918, 1921, 1923, 1924, 1925, 1926, 1927, and 1928, and against the property so described and set forth as follows, to-wit:
Lot No. 6 in Block No. 6 of the first addition to the town of Brownfield, Terry County, Texas; and WHEREAS, on the 25th day of October, A. D. 1930 at 9:00 o'clock A. M., the then duly elected and qualified Sheriff of Terry County, Texas, levied upon the above described land as the property of the defendant, R. E. Schwartz, and afterwards, on the 27th day of October, A. D. 1930, advertised the same for sale at the courthouse door of Terry County, Texas, such sale to be held, and the same was held, on the 2nd day of December, A. D. 1930, being the first Tuesday of said month, such notice of sale having been given by posting notices for twenty successive days next before the day of sale at three public places in the County of Terry, State of Texas, one of which was at the courthouse door of said county, and also mailed a copy of such notice to the defendant in said suit; and

WHEREAS, on the 2nd day of December, A. D. 1930, between the hours of ten o'clock A. M., and four o'clock P. M., at the courthouse door of said county, in pursuance to the order of sale and said advertisement, sold said property at public sale to the State of Texas for the sum of $54.16, that being the highest secure bid for the same; and
WHEREAS, the said property has not been redeemed within the time prescribed by law.
NOW, THEREFORE, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the authority vested in me by law, on the first day of February, A. D. 1938, being the first Tuesday of said month, between the hours of ten o'clock A. M., and four o'clock P. M., on said day at the courthouse door of said county, I will offer for sale as under execution, in behalf of the State of Texas, and sell at public auction for cash, all the right, title and interest of the said State of Texas in and to said property.

DATED at Brownfield, Texas, this 11th day of January, A. D. 1938.

Brownfield-O'Donnell Sites For Mineral Activities.

BY J. SAM LEWIS
Avalanche-Journal Staff Writer

Mining operations are under way for the first time at two places on the South Plains and preparations are well along to produce sodium sulphate at O'Donnell and Brownfield in commercial quantities. Construction work at both points is making rapid progress and hopes are expressed that within a few months the plants will be producing the mineral.

Perhaps "recovery" instead of "mining" should be used, as the raw material is first recovered from the ground and then processed into a form that can be used commercially. Different methods are to be used at the plants; at Brownfield a standard process is to be used, while at O'Donnell a foreign process is to be used, for the first time in the United States.

Buildings Are Similar

Plant buildings at both locations are somewhat similar in size and construction. Chief difference is in the size of the two spray ponds. West of O'Donnell is an office building, with a chemical laboratory now in operation, where the products of operations are tested. There is also a machine shop and a warehouse or store room.

Already operations have brought a considerable amount of business to South Plains firms and workers, not only in Lubbock but in the nearby towns. Lubbock and Brownfield jobbers and contractors are furnishing supplies for both the company and contractors. Lubbock carpenters, as well as from the other towns are at work, while other labors come from the towns and out of town workers are living in the closest town. Tahoka also is the home of a number of workers.

Buildings Being Erected

A manufacturing building is being erected at both points, to house expensive machinery for processing the raw product. Both are of steel construction, with galvanized iron siding; the only wood being the flooring. The O'Donnell structure is 50 x 80 feet, five stories high, with an annex for a boiler room. Seven huge storage tanks, 10 feet in diameter, will be used to hold the finished product until it is ready to ship.

The spray pond is 100 x 300 feet, four feet deep and with four compartments. A 25-foot roadway separates the two twin sections. Chemical resistant cement was used for the tanks and the paint is designed to give hardness to the cement.

Overhead sprays will carry the hot brine from wells out over the ponds, to be shot in mist form onto the tanks. There, over night, it will crystallize. In this form the product is sent through the process in the manufacturing building, to be refined and all impurities removed.

Brine Shot Into Wells

Hot brine is shot into the wells over the section of land on which the producing wells are located. The brine is concentrated in a central well for a group and from there is piped into the spray line. There are several dozen wells on the section, No. 6, block H, lying in Lynn and Dawson counties.

The Arizona Chemical Co. is owner of the plants. It has secured a new type of process for the O'Donnell properties and has ordered special equipment. The plant is 10 miles west of O'Donnell.

E. L. Sturgis is plant manager there, with William Hardin as chemist. Sturgis came to O'Donnell early last summer.

The O'Donnell project and also the Brownfield was developed by W. L. Spaulding, a chemical research engineer long in the employ of the American Cyanamid Co., parent concern. He spent the better part of a year in research and experimentation work.

Smokestack Is Finished

At Brownfield the manufacturing building will be 50 x 110 feet,

66 feet tall, with five floors. A smokestack 175 feet tall has been finished. The spray pond will be 80 x 175 feet. Other buildings are the same in character as the other plant.

A new type boiler, 400 h. p. capacity, of the marine type, was built by the Erie City Machine Co., especially for the plant. It is said to be the latest thing in boilers.

The Brownfield plant is in a 47-section pasture of the Brownfield estate, with Ray Brownfield as manager. It is about six miles south of state highway 84 and a caliche road was built from the highway to the plant.

The Swenson process is to be used there, in recovering this sulphate. It is a type that is being used by the five or six other similar plants in processing the raw materials.

Gas Lines Are Laid

Panhandle Construction Co., of Lubbock is doing the construction work at both plants, maintaining a large force of workers at each place. The concern built gas lines connecting the plants with lines of West Texas Gas company. High lines from the two towns are owned by the company.

Latest known equipment for processing has been ordered. Some has already been received. Every known safety device has been installed to protect workers. The electrical equipment is said to be the latest in the state.

The company will carry life insurance on all employees who have been in its employ at least length of time.

Definite decision on the erection of homes for employes has not been made, the company having tentatively planned this, but holding up its decision for the present.

Brush Supervises Work

Construction work is being supervised for the company by John C. Brush, who has been here for several months. He will turn the properties over to the operating department when the plants are actually operating.

Product of the plants is used in the manufacture of kraft paper. It is indicated the entire output of both plants has been contracted for. It is to be shipped into Louisiana and Florida for kraft paper plants.

Sulphate process in the manufacture of kraft paper and other pulp woods, has been developed largely since 1931. Now, for example, nearly every sack of cement used at both plants came in kraft paper. Before 1931 cloth bags were largely used. Practically the entire output of sodium sulphate is snapped up by kraft paper concerns as soon as it is heard of.

No indication is given by company officials as to the probable cost of the two properties. It is apparent that several hundred thousand dollars will be spent at each place. Equipment cost is believed to be larger than the building costs.

May Double Capacity

Both plants are so constructed that by erection of an additional building the capacity may be doubled, when and if such is desired.

When completed, operating employes will largely come from O'Donnell and Brownfield, except in the more technical work, where trained men from the company will be assigned there. For the present at least, workers will live in the two towns.

Substantial payrolls are assured for years for both the towns. Officials decline to comment on the probable resources available for the recovery, but it is indicated that the known supply is enough to assure production for probably a score of years. Permanent type of construction indicates a large enough reserve to insure long time operations.

The refined product will be trucked from the plants into warehouses located on Panhandle and Santa Fe lines, where loading into cars will be done. It is indicated there will be daily, or at least, regular car load shipments.

Favorable freight rates have been asked of the railroad to the areas where the products will be shipped. Already a considerable tonnage of material has been handled into both towns.

Production is looked to be under way within the near future. No date is indicated as to when machinery will "roll."

Whether the operations on the plains are the first of many that will develop mineral resources of this area, is unknown. The company has been for years constantly seeking new minerals and new sources of supply for its raw materials to insure steady, long time production. Development work is constantly expanding and should minerals that the concern is interested in, are located in large amounts in this area, it is believed they will be developed if investigation substantiates expectations.

At the present time only sodium sulphate is to be processed. There has been no comment on whether other chemicals and minerals in the two locations will be processed or not. —Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

Mr. Robert Rosson, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Rosson of this community and Miss Stegal of Post were quietly united in marriage at Seminole on Saturday, January 8. Mr. Rosson is a prominent young farmer of this community, where the newly weds will make their home. We wish for this popular young couple the very best of marital happiness.

We are very glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Evans and children in our community from Happy. Miss Nora Grigg visited home folks at Wellman during the week end.

Mr. Farley Hopkins of Paris is visiting in the J. E. Rosson home.

Mr. W. G. Swain, Messrs. Foster Harkins and Ernest Warren were dismissed from the hospital at Brownfield last week. We are glad to report they are all recovering nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Morris of Brownfield were the recipients of a surprise shower given on Thursday evening of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young, by their host of friends in this community. Forty-two was played until the crowd was all there. Then everyone assembled in the living room, where some interesting games were played. One of the most amusing games was a letter telling of the honeymoon of the bride and groom. All objectives had been omitted and those blanks were filled in by the group and when read proved quite laugh provoking. Other games and contests were climaxed by a treasure hunt in which the honorees were surprised by a large treasure of beautiful and useful gifts. Delicious refreshments of cake, hot chocolate, punch and coffee were served to forty people.

Let us urge you, parents especially members of P.-T. A., to be present, February 4th at the local school auditorium, to hear Miss Weaver from Spur, Texas. She is our district president, and will have an interesting message for you.

Everyone invited to come and bring a pie or buy a pie, at the local school auditorium, Friday night, January 28th. The purpose of this pie supper is to help purchase a sewing machine for the high school. Be sure and come. Candidates especially invited.

Imagine scrambling more than one billion, two hundred million eggs! Approximately that many were laid by Texas hens in 1934. Although mathematicians might enjoy figuring out the volume of sound produced at about two cackles per egg, Texas business men are more interested to note that this number of eggs is equal to over twenty million dollars in cash.

FORD OFFERS TWO NEW CARS and keeps their PRICES LOW

Right — the Standard Ford Sedan 60 or 85 horsepower
Below — the De Luxe Ford Sedan 85 horsepower

THERE are two new Ford cars for 1938—the De Luxe and the Standard—differing in appearance, appointments and price—but built on the same dependable Ford chassis.

Both bring you the basic advantages of a V-type 8-cylinder power-plant—smooth performance and compact design. The De Luxe Ford has the 85-horsepower engine. The Standard Ford provides a choice of 85 or 60 horsepower.

Both new cars are economical to operate. The Standard, with thrifty "60" engine, costs less to run than any other Ford car ever built.

And both new cars are priced low. Low price, like economy, is a Ford tradition. Ford founded the low-price field 30 years ago and keeps Ford prices low.

The De Luxe Ford costs slightly more than the Standard Ford, but provides more style with extra room in the closed sedans. Both cars, in proportion to price, represent unusual values. Both are built to the same high standard of mechanical excellence. There's a dealer near you.

Physicians report quite a number of cases of flu, but short of epidemic proportions. Very few cases of pneumonia have followed so far, as luck would have it.

Herman Heath, local manager of the West Texas Gas Co., reports that their gas pipe line from the main line from here to Tahoka, to the Chemical Works, has been completed.

The Bennett oil field in Yoakum county has been extended a half mile south with a new well that tested 826 barrels in 24 hours.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS
By Julian Capers, Jr.

AUSTIN—Confronted with a surplus above-ground storage of 50,000,000 barrels of crude oil or its manufactured equivalents, the Texas Railroad Commission this week was engaged in an unprecedented and revolutionary experiment to cut back oil production to prevent waste. The experiment took the form of an order for closing down all oil wells in the State last Sunday, and for the ensuing five Sundays, to effect a reduction estimated at about 8,000,000 barrels over the six week period. The shutdown, after a preliminary four-Sunday shutdown in the huge East Texas field only, as a preliminary experiment, was unanimously accepted by the oil industry, both majors and independents, without protest. Exceptions were granted in the case of wells furnishing necessary gas to towns and cities, these being permitted to shut down other days of the week; and wells which cannot be shut down without physical damage to the wells, which were permitted to reduce their daily production an equal amount.

The Order will effect an average daily reduction in total Texas production of about 234,000 barrels, or to a daily average production of 1,171,000 barrels. It is substantially under the Bureau of Mines estimate of market demand fixed at 1,365,700 barrels daily for Texas, but the latter figure is based on last year's production, and does not take into consideration the business recession, which has cut sharply into oil consumption.

Rail Commissioner Ernest Thompson expressed the hope other oil states will fall into line, declaring the step was taken to protect independent producers and the consuming public by preventing the independents from being driven out of business, thus permitting monopoly by the integrated companies, with the resultant opportunity to fix prices in future.

Governor's Race Warms Up

Development in the race for Governor came thick and fast this week, as "Red" Thompson, and Bill McCraw, the contenders, shaped their strategy. McCraw, taking personal charge of the Green estate tax suite, was in New York, where it appeared, after two weeks of hearings, that his strategy might not be as advantageous as he had hoped. The Green case now threatens to be so long drawn out that a final decision may not be handed down until long after the July elections. Thus, if McCraw wins it, it may not be in time to do him any good with the voters. Another unanticipated angle has been the lack of publicity McCraw has gotten out of the hearings. They are being held so far away, and with over 50 lawyers participating, that news reports reaching Texas have been meager, and have scarcely carried the names of any of the participating attorneys.

Allred Wages Hot Fight

Meanwhile, McCraw has been under a bitter and continuous fire from Gov. James V. Allred over the failure of the Attorney General to take action on the Governor's request to file suit on behalf of the State to recover title to Padre Island, off the South Texas coast. With McCraw absent, Acting Attorney General Scott Gaines has been attempting to fend off the bitter Allred attacks, and having but little success. Gaines, an able lawyer, was formerly an Assistant Attorney General under Allred, and is the Governor's personal friend. He has been extremely unhappy, trying to be loyal to his present chief, and at the same time, trying not to fall out with his friend Allred. The Governor, in another tart and vigorous letter addressed to McCraw, ridiculed McCraw's plea that a complete survey of Padre Island (which the State doesn't have the money to make) will be necessary before the suite can be filed. Oil in the vicinity promises to make Padre Island, once an almost useless sand dune island, immensely valuable. The school children of Texas, through the State's claim to ownership, if upheld, have a big stake in it. Allred has pointed to this as his reason for urging McCraw for over six months to file suit to recover the island.

Platform Preview

Meanwhile, Thompson, rapidly shaping up a statewide organization, has been using four stenographers (not employees of the Railroad Commission) to answer the thousands of letters that began pouring in after his formal announcement. Although he has announced no platform as yet, observers here pointed to these significant excerpts from a speech he made to welcome a group of winter tourists in San Antonio the other night. They claim these sentences will be the issues when hot weather rolls around and stump speaking begins:

Thompson said: "Texas has plenty of room for more factories, for textile mills, paper mills, chemical plants, water power . . . plenty of room for high type American citizens who want to progress and help communities . . . we have no room for those who want to destroy payrolls and industry . . . with a little cooperation by all citizens and a fair deal by government to legitimate business, there will be a job for everyone and prosperity for those who invest in Texas . . . Texas has no state income tax . . . no sales tax . . . there is a very definite trend in Texas today toward the realization that the way to attract industries is to deal with both capital and labor sympathetically and fairly . . . getting new industries will help get jobs for our workers."

Political observers here believe the obvious cooperation Allred has given Thompson in timing his attacks upon McCraw indicated pretty clearly the governor will turn his strength to the Amarillo red-head. Talk of a Ferguson candidacy has virtually died out here.

Another Race Tuning Up

Walter Woodard, ex-Senator from Coleman, cast a mild bombshell into the race for Lieutenant Governor, when he announced his candidacy, saying he "believed" Sens. Will Pace of Tyler, Willbourne Collier of Eastland, and G. H. Nelson of Tahoka would not run. Pace is reported here to be definitely out, but Collier resented Woodard's statement and said he "would do his own announcing." Likewise Nelson, advocate of a unicameral legislature and Allred floor leader, hasn't authorized any announcement he will not run. Coke Stevenson, ex-Senator, has said he would be a candidate for this office.

The formal announcement of John Wood, highway commissioner from Timpson, as a candidate against Chairman C. V. Terrell, of the Railroad Commission was another development of the week . . . Lt. Gov. Walter Woodard, continuing his spectacular race for Attorney General, gave the luncheon club circuit another heavy play this week, as District Judge Ralph Yarborough, of Austin, issued his announcement as a candidate against Woodard for Attorney General.

About once or twice a week, some old timer, maybe that we had not heard of in 20 years, will write in for one of our historical editions. How they hear of it, we know not. One this week came from D. H. Seitz of Bowie, Texas. That was the old home town of A. P. Seitz, an early settler of the place R. S. Heartstill now owns.

Mr. J. B. Goza of Calera, Okla., is here visiting his sisters, Mesdames Lee Lyon and Rentfro.

Editor A. E. Richards of the Meadow Star, was down Friday and called to talk shop.

The Snyder Transfer Co., of Snyder, Texas has asked the Railroad Commission to permit them to extend their line to Lamesa on to Brownfield.

T. I. Poore of Morton, was down this week shaking hands with old friends.

B. C. Cardwell of Plainview, was here this week on business. He was practically reared and educated here.

W. E. Latham and Mrs. W. A. Turner of Stephens-Latham Dry Goods Co. are leaving Sunday for the Dallas markets to purchase spring dry goods and ready-to-wear.

Lee Lyon was in town Tuesday.

IF—

"If radio's slim fingers
Can pluck a melody
From night and toll it over
A continent or sea,
If the muted raptures
Of a violin
Are blown across a mountain
Or a city's din;
If songs, like crimson roses,
Are culled from thin blue air,
Why should mortals wonder
If God hears prayer?"

DEDICATED TO JIMMIE R. HYMAN:

Perhaps God thought the earth too cold, For tender lambs like you. And took you to his heavenly fold, While life was young and new. Dicit non sin shall never mar, Your faith in God and man. You'll live where blessed angels are, Until we meet again. You cannot come, my darling, But we can go to you. So we shall say God's will be done, And help us to be true. —By A Friend Mrs. W. G. Hardin

BENBOW DRUG ANNOUNCES NEW PARTNERSHIP

George Bragg, who was formerly with the Alexander Drug Store here for several years, but who has been living at Lamesa and Brownfield for the past two years, has purchased an interest in the Benbow Drug and will shortly remove his family to this place.

Mr. Bragg is a licensed pharmacist and the Benbow Drug will shortly open a complete prescription department as a regular feature of their business. He has recently been the pharmacist of the Corner Drug Store in Brownfield.—Levelland Herald.

QUICK DEATH FOR ANDERS AIM OF FBI

A quick trial and death for the kidnap-slaying of Charles S. Ross, Chicago manufacturer, was marked out for Peter Anders, 30, one time lumberjack, who hoped to execute the perfect crime.

Ransom money spent at race tracks led to his arrest by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in California.

He was sped by airplane to St. Paul, Minn., where he confessed not only the Ross slaying, but the slaying as well of James Atwood Gray, 20, his alleged accomplice in the Ross kidnaping; two other Chicago abductions and four bank robberies. Apparently efforts to connect Anders with the kidnap slaying of little Charles Mattson of Tacoma were unsuccessful.

Confronted with the bodies of Ross and Gray, found in a cave near Spooner, Wis., Anders showed no remorse. J. Edgar Hoover, FBI chief, said, but he did make a futile attempt to escape by striking the agent to whom he was chained.

Hoover characterized Anders as brutal, ruthless, "the most dangerous man we have ever met up with."

Misses Florence and Frances Brock lovely daughters of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Brock are enrolled at Draughtons Business College, Lubbock, Texas. They are delighted with their work.

The State Highway Dept., is building a real nice roadside park 12 miles east of town on 84.

Mrs. A. L. Turner is quite ill with the flu.

The ordinary pins, so commonly used today were once so expensive that only the wealthy people could afford them. The term "pin money" dates from that time, referring to the allowance a husband gave his wife to purchase pins.

Washington, D. C.

BY DR. JAMES E. POPE
WASHINGTON NEWS COMMENTATOR
PRINTING PRESS
BLAZED OUR TRAILS

President Roosevelt, discussing the deficit in the Post Office Department, decried the Department's time-honored custom of carrying newspapers at less than cost and making free deliveries of county papers within their respective trade areas, as being partly responsible for this shortage in postal cash. While he did not outrightly declare that as one stoppage for heavy leakage in postal revenues he would seek to force farmers to pay more for their Hometown weekly or daily newspapers, his allusion to the matter clicked with ominous bediment. Whether or not Mr. Roosevelt is truly cognizant of the full measure of devilry concealed in a proposition to force the payment of postage at regular rates upon small newspapers, it remains the indisputable fact that these hard-working publishers are already sorely beset with having to pay piratical and predatory prices for newsprint, and the imposition of this additional unjust burden would render almost impossible the profitable existence of many worthy publications.

We are told that commerce follows the flag. We also know that civilized society and the fundamentals of decency, honor and wholesomeness in home life followed the one-horse printing-press across America. This commentator has pursued a critical study of newspapers in their relation to communities, and has always found the community without a live local paper to be one wherein community life fails to function up to the normal or accepted level in ideals and intelligence—and it is never as prosperous proportionately as other communities in which good, sound home newspapers are firmly established.

Official mail is carried postage-free under the privilege known as franking. Just why and how it comes under such an innocent label is difficult to understand, for there is nothing candid about this system under present day abuses—unless graft and corruption may be called candid. Perhaps the name came down from that obsolete noun "frank," meaning pigsty, or pen where animals are fattened—because it does carry that familiar odor. Anyhow, during the current four-year period, which included a presidential campaign, postage-free mail was carried by the Post Office Department, at the taxpayers' expense, to the tune of 2 1/2 billion pieces.

The bulk of this matter disguised as official mail was raw political propaganda sent out under bureaucratic sponsorship, and by Members of Congress—the last named being composed largely of Democrats. The Republicans rated fever by heads, but their "official" correspondence per capita suffered nothing by volume. However, the New Deal held all the trumps and control levers when it came to Departments and Bureaus.

A total of 45 million votes were cast for both presidential candidates in 1936. During these four years every voter received 55 pieces of franked, postage-free mail, or an average total of 8 pounds each. With the expense incurred in printing, and the money loss to the Post Office, it is estimated that the cost to taxpayers was approximately $3 for each and every vote cast for both Roosevelt and Landon!

According to Rep. Albert J. Engel of Michigan, to dispatch all this free mail at one time would require 7,000 railroad cars and 140 giant engines for hauling it out of Washington. Rep. Engel projects his estimates to include the job of counting all this mail—propaganda for which the taxpayers are donating $180,987 each day, or $55,201,106 a year. He says that if an expert postal clerk had started sorting and counting it the moment the Mayflower docked at Plymouth Rock 300 years ago, he would be counting yet—and if his health failed him not he might finish the job sometime in the year 2042.

Then we talk about the newspapers and try to pin the blame on them!

LUNATICS KNOW LESS OF WORRY

Crop control and farm problems were being debated in the staid Senate chamber when urbane Senator Josh Lee, of Oklahoma, told this to Senators and gallery-ites. A well-to-do farmer, experiencing car trouble, halted in front of the well shaded grounds surrounding an asylum for the insane. An inmate approached the iron barrier from the inside and engaged the farmer in conversation. "Do you live here, too?" asked the inmate. "No," replied the farmer, "I live on that large farm a couple miles down the road. I am a farmer." Then, meaning to be cordial, the farmer asked about several things, and finally inquired of the inmate how he liked living at the asylum.

"It beats farming," the inmate laconically answered.

DON'T MEDDLE IN BREATHTHIT OR HARLAN!

During the protracted filibuster in Senate over the bill dealing with lynchings, several speakers had suggested the proposed law be amended so as to include racketeers, gangsters and gang murders in various sections of the country, and not confine the application of the measure solely to the control of a special Southern brand of lynchings, Senator Logan, of Kentucky, shouted: "We have no lynchings in Kentucky; therefore the bill does not affect us. We have no gangsters, consequently the amendment will not affect us in that respect. Nor do we have any racketeers. But I warn the Senators that when they are considering amendments of this nature they would better stay off feudists. We do not want them included. . . . I do not like to have our feudists mixed up with gangsters and racketeers or lynchings. Our feudists are perfectly honorable, upright men, and they never kill a man without reasonable and just cause for doing so."

LIVESTOCK PRICES VERY DISCOURAGING TO FEEDERS

D. Jones of Roswell was in the city on business Monday. He is the owner of one of the finest ranches in Lea county, located in the Tatum country, and he reports the range unusually good and both cattle and sheep doing extremely well, but says the price is very discouraging.

Mr. Jones says that every feeder of lambs in the Pecos Valley will lose approximately $3.00 a head on them. He is feeding a bunch of calves for which he is offered only six cents, when they could have been sold for nine cents before being put in the feed pens.—Lovington (N. M.) Leader.

MRS. DAN COBB SUFFICIENTLY RECOVERED TO RETURN HOME

Mrs. Tom Cobb of Brownfield was here Wednesday, she accompanied her mother, Mrs. Dan Cobb, who has been in the Brownfield hospital for the past three weeks suffering from a serious ailment. She is slowly convalescing. Her many friends in Seminole are glad that she is at home again.—Seminole Sentinel.

MRS. DAVIS ENTERTAINS COLONIAL CLUB FRIDAY

Among the many social functions is the report of a most delightful hostess on Friday, when Mrs. E. C. Davis entertained the Colonial Card Club from three until five.

At the three tables playing were, Mesdames Ray Christopher, Money Price, Garrett Daugherty, A. J. Stricklin Sr., Gertrude Lees, J. M. Telford, W. C. Smith, Cecil Smith, Jim Graves, Clyde Cave, L. Nicholson, Herman Heath.

Mrs. W. C. Smith and Mrs. Stricklin and Mrs. Cecil Smith received table cuts.

For high score Mrs. Christopher as guest, held the figures; for club score Mrs. Stricklin and Mrs. Cecil Smith held high and next to high.

On the refreshment plate, daintily and temptingly served, was chicken a la king, olives, pickles, pecan cakes, and for a beverage, spiced tea.

MRS. WAYNE ARNETT SHOWERED, THURSDAY, JAN. 20

A compliment, in which close friends played the role of hostesses, was paid Mrs. Wayne Arnett, recently, in a very cleverly planned shower. Mrs. Arnett, known to her many friends as Miss Ora Belle Chambliss was the recipient of a huge pack of lovely gifts of miscellaneous nature brought to her in an airplane. Mrs. Wayne Brown's delightful home was in the hands of Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Bandy and Mrs. Flache, who entertained the guests. Games were enjoyed and gifts viewed by about 45 ladies.

The tea service included colored mints, cakes and delicious spiced tea. The entertaining hours were 3 to 5 o'clock. Friends who were unable to attend sent gifts and well wishes to bind friendship.

MAIDS AND MATRONS STUDY CLUB HAVE ENGLISH LITERATURE, FEBRUARY 1

Mrs. Mon Telford will be hostess to the Maids and Matrons Club at her home east of town, Tuesday, February 1 at 4 o'clock.

Mesdames Price, Moore, Edwards, Lowe and Miss Edwards will present different phases of English Literature in "Sea Novels" "Old Wives' Tale" H. G. Wells (reformer) "Galsworthy" "The Forsyte Saga" Review of "Human Bondage."

CRAWFORD BURRUS NAMED S. S. SUPERINTENDENT

According to Rev. David Beebe the First Christian pastor, Crawford Burrus has been named as superintendent of Sunday School. Mr. Burrus is not only a good worker, but is a fine citizen.

Teachers to work under his direction, are as follows: Mesdames R. C. Crockett, F. E. Walters, David Beebe, and Mrs. Joe Price. Mrs. Burl Williams is Secretary-Treasurer.

PARKER—CHILDRESS

January 22, Mr. Otis J. Parker of De Leon, Texas and Miss Ruby Jean Childress were married at the Methodist Parsonage. The happy couple of splendid young people will make their home at De Leon after a short honeymoon.

Another marriage was performed at a later date, but the contracting parties desired the ceremony to remain unknown in the details of names and dates for a while.

Mrs. John Dumas of Seagraves was up this week shopping.

LIBRARY NOTES

WATCH FOR LIBRARY DAY! Three new books have been added this week to the Library.

"Tomorrow is Ours" by L. R. Peattie, a very interesting story. "Green Light" by Loyd C. Douglas, the author of "Magnificent Obsession" "The Lost Horizon" which is such a good mystery it leaves you guessing and wondering even after the final word is read.

WATCH FOR LIBRARY DAY! —Library Committee, Gertrude Rasco.

W. M. S.

CALIFORNIA VISITORS HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Earl (Skinny) Williams of Anaheim, Calif., were here Wednesday and Thursday of last week, guests in the McCormick and Winston homes. They had been on a business and pleasure trip to Detroit, Mich., and were driving a new car home. Skinny, son of the late M. D. Williams, former Baptist minister of this place was raised here and has many friends who will be glad to know he is making good in the sunshine state.

BROWNFIELD GIRL HONORED AT DINNER

WACO, Texas, Jan. 26.— Miss Irene Adams, Brownfield was among the 30 Baylor university coeds, residents of Memorial dormitory, who were honored with a formal dinner in the dining room of that dormitory Thursday evening.

All girls with birthdays during January were seated at the honorable, decorated with pot plants of Russian violets. Five white candles burned at each end of the table. Plate favors were nut cups filled with heart-shaped candy, covered and tied in bows of cellophane.

IT IS NOT EASY

To apologize, To admit error, To begin over, To be unselfish, To take advice, To be charitable, To be considerate, To keep on trying, To think and then act, To profit by mistakes, To forgive and forget, To shoulder a reserved blame, BUT — It always pays. —Texas Booster

Mrs. Jack Stricklin and son Jack Taylor and Mrs. A. J. Stricklin, accompanied Mrs. A. C. Crowe and Patsy of Seagraves to Denison, last Saturday. They took Mrs. Phillips, mother of Mrs. Crowe and her sister Mrs. Hulsey home, who had been here the past two months visiting in the Stricklin and Crowe homes.

Mrs. E. Z. Collier and Mrs. Gertrude Gray of Amarillo, were here last week visiting their sister, Mrs. Ralph Carter, who has been ill.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Brown are the proud parents of a daughter, who has been christened, Roberta Lee.

Mrs. M. E. Jacobson was a Lubbock visitor, Monday.

A family entertainment of gospel songs, harmony, novelty and comedy. This quartet has appeared on all the larger radio stations in Texas.
Admission: Children 10c, Adults 20c, Family 50c.
40 per cent of proceeds go to Meadow Pep Squad Fund.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

We are sorry to hear that our classmate, Nella V. Upton has been operated on for appendicitis. We hope that she has a rapid recovery and is back in school soon.
We have had a good many new pupils to join the Sophomore class since mid-term.
They are: Kenneth Wright from Lubbock, Irma Wylie from Plains, Frank Emery from Johnson City.
The Sophomores are boasting because both girls running for the most popular girl in high school are from the Sophomore class. They are, Lena Settles and Gervus Nettles.

BOY'S BASKETBALL

The Meadow boys went up to Lubbock last Wednesday night and played the Lubbock Cowhands. It was a good game. All of the members of the team played some at the end of the game. The score was Meadow 28 and Lubbock 20.
Friday night the boys played Cooper here on their own gym. They had a hard time making the goals. The score was 8 to 9 at the half in Meadow's favor, and at the end of the game the scores were 23 to 19 in Meadow's favor. This game was a conference game, and Meadow is 1000 per cent on the last half.

SENIOR CLASS NEWS

Most of the Seniors made passing grades on the mid-term examinations and are determined to make even better this semester. They have bought new English work books, and have begun entirely new work. They have also bought new bookkeeping books.

Junior White as "Jiggs" has spent all of his school days in Meadow, and he says he doesn't regret it. Junior is hard to beat as an athlete; he is good at class work; and he is one more ladies man. His favorite sport is basketball, and his hobby is conversing with the girls. And the girls don't mind it, either! We have never asked Junior, but we think he plans to be a movie star, because he is always trying to imitate one. Especially those such as Joe Penner! Noble Harris, our "little boy hero" is hard to beat. He is one of our best class members, but sometimes he gets a little lazy. Noble is another of our class members that has spent all his school days in Meadow, and he says he wants his children to come to school here. Noble enjoys playing basketball, but what he likes most of all is cherry ice cream and blond headed women. "Oh gee, Leona, I think you're terribly sweet," is often heard in the halls and classrooms, and we know it came from Noble. But he doesn't think enough about it to let it interfere with his studies.

FRESHMEN NEWS

The Freshmen Class welcomes Pauline Landers and Kenneth Nettles to their class. Pauline went to school at Spring Lake and Kenneth at Forrester before they came here.
Who's Who in the Freshmen Class: Gleonla Welch, Gleonla has been to school in Meadow every since she started to school. She has always been popular and as she grows older is more popular. She is an A student in most of her work. Her favorite sport is basketball. She likes ice cream for her favorite dish.
Ferrell Daniell, Ferrell has also always went to Meadow to school. He seems to be more popular with some of the Sophomores, than with the Freshmen. He is about four feet and six inches tall and weighs about 85 pounds and is thirteen years old. His favorites are: candy, sports.

Come around and see our popular students sometime.

MEADOW GRADE SCHOOL BOYS WIN ROPES JR. TOURNAMENT

On Sunday morning about one o'clock a great yell sounded the finale of the Ropes Junior Tournament. The Meadow grade school boys won first and received ten individual medals. The boys played Levelland Friday and won. Then they played Frenship Saturday afternoon, they won this game 14 to 4. That put them in the finals with Claueine. After a hard fought game they won this one 14 to 12. The boys did some nice playing through the tournament, and we wish for them the winning of many more games.

JUNIOR CLASS NEWS

The Juniors are starting off the new semester with new pupils, Edith and Edwin Mead, twins from Okla., and Sybil Landers. We are very proud to have these students with us and hope they will love "dear ole Meadow High" as much as we do. We also regret hearing we are losing Darline Mitchell.

The time for the Junior Play which we have eagerly awaited all the year is approaching. For our play we have chosen a side-splitting comedy, "Dotty and Daffy." If you want to enjoy one of the best entertainments ever sponsored by the Meadow High school, come to see "Dotty and Daffy," which will be put on during the first part of February. Watch for further notices. Not only are we going to have a good play, but also we're going to have some splendid theatrical acts as readings, singing and music.

MRS. J. H. O'CONNOR ILL

Mrs. J. H. O'Connor suffered a stroke of paralysis the first of last week and her condition has been considered quite serious. Children at her bedside are Mesdames B. J. Cook of Coaling, Calif., S. F. Rodgers of Amarillo, and sons, E. E. O'Connor, of Bakersville, Calif., J. L. O'Connor of Salisbury, Mo., and Mrs. O'Connor's sisters, Mrs. Jim Camp, Fecos, Texas, Mrs. C. E. Lester, Amarillo, and a nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lester, Slaton.

TO PLAY WITH WASHINGTON REDSKINS

Jim Neill has accepted an invitation from the Coach of All Stars of the South, to play a game of football with the Washington Redskins, at Houston next Sunday. Jim left Wednesday morning, going via Lubbock to take Red Ramsey, the star end of the Red Raiders, and an old school mate of Jims, who will also play in the game.

Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Parish were Lubbock visitors, Tuesday, January 25th.

Sam Goodlett of Cobb's Dept. store, visited with relatives in Hale Center, Sunday.

Johnson School News

Sixteen new pupils have enrolled in the Johnson school. This makes an increase of five per cent over the scholastic record. Miss Wilson has thirty pupils, Mrs. Banks has twenty-two pupils, Miss Luckie has twenty-two and Mr. Banks has twenty-nine.

Johnson girls and boys basketball teams played the Tokio teams here last Thursday. The scores were, girls 24-7 in favor of Johnson; the boys were defeated 13-7 by Tokio.

The pupils of Mrs. Banks room are giving the assembly program this week. The third and fourth grades have organized a reading club. They have 44 library books. About 32 of the books are new. The purpose of the club is to arouse interest in reading and to become better readers. They have made an attractive library corner. The officers are, president, Willadean Tuttle, vice-president, Billy Winn, and secretary, James Troy Snow.

The primary room had so many new pupils we do not have enough seats for them all. We have 23 seats and 30 pupils. We have a new reading table. Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Patton have visited our room recently.

The fifth and sixth grade room is getting so full that we think we will have to start hanging some like little paperoses.

The fifth grade has turned to poetry writing. They have decided to give you a poem written by Gordon Douglas Patton. There are lots of good ones.

"THE SWEET BIRD"
In the tree by the road, sits a Sweet bird.
He sings "Sweet, Sweet, Sweet!"
I asked him "Why do you sit there singing Sweet, Sweet, Sweet?"
Mr. and Mrs. Banks, Miss Luckie and Miss Wilson will attend the teachers banquet at the Venetian Auditorium, Wednesday night.

PLAINS

The infant baby of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Roberts passed away Thursday night and was laid to rest in the Plains cemetery, Friday.

Harry Morris of Amarillo, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Morris, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hague moved into their new home, Friday.

Mrs. Coke has opened up her Helpy-Seify laundry. It is located on the lot where the hotel burned.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blankenship and son and Mrs. Bettie Criswell were Brownfield visitors, Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob McDonnell and children of Brownfield visited relatives here last week end.

Mrs. Joe Ellison and Mrs. Mary Lackey were in Brownfield, Friday.

FORRESTER

Mrs. N. Chavis is very sick. They think she will have to stand an operation.

Mrs. G. W. Zachary's little girl, Bernalee is sick at this writing, some kind of head trouble.

Well this is Wednesday and looks very much like storming again, of which we would not want to see at this time as there are several that have cotton in the field yet.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Mathis spent Sunday with their parents and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Baldwin.

Billie Zachary stayed Saturday night with Arnold Baldwin.

Well, we have another dust storm this Sunday evening of which this county is noted for, especially at this time of the season.

A Mr. Briscoe has moved into the house that Mr. Ragsdill recently vacated.

There is talk of several of our neighbors leaving for California to live.

We have never learned whether any one has moved to the place that Mr. C. C. Nettles moved from or not.

HARMONY

Well, we seem to have a real mixture of weather, rain, snow and even a sandstorm all within a few hours. As many of our farmers are not done gathering, we would appreciate some pleasant weather.

On Friday night, January 28, at 7:30 o'clock, we have planned an interesting program. Mrs. Lee Fulton or Gomez will speak for us on any subject she will choose. Mrs. Fulton is president of our county council. We are glad to have her come.

Sunday school was well attended last Sunday. Mr. Joe Davis Murry of Lahey was a visitor. Come back to visit with us. We are always glad to have visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Murry had as their guests last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thomason of Lahey.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wilhite visited relatives in Lubbock last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Davis visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Campbell last week.

Miss Velma McManis spent the week end with home folks at Lakeview.

We are glad to see Desmond Murry

YOUR MILEAGE MERCHANT ADVISES

There is one best way
TO CHOKE IN WINTER

Through no fault of your own, during past winters, you may have formed a bad habit of "too much choke." Perhaps your gasoline absolutely demanded overtime choking—harmful and wasteful. No need to continue that way with Special Winter Blend Conoco Bronze. You could scarcely keep it from starting quickly, even if you wanted to. But you'll take pride in your skill, you'll save gasoline, and you'll make sure of topnotch starting speed, by using your choke—and Conoco Bronze—in this approved way:

- (You may want to tear this out and keep it in the car for the next few days)
- |   |   |
|---|---|
| Leave ignition OFF.*                          | Wait for two or three engine revolutions.   |
| Keep clutch pedal clear down.                 | Now switch on the ignition.   |
| Open hand-throttle about one-third.           | Be ready to let up on starter.  |
| Pull choke out full, if not automatic.        | And you'll know you can promptly begin to push in the choke, as you hear the steady powerful firing of your Special Winter Blend Conoco Bronze. |
| And then—but not before—operate your starter. |   |

*If your starter is of the type that does not spin with ignition off, consult Your Mileage Merchant.

Highway 84 East and West of Brownfield.

By J. E. SHELTON
 Soon after the appointment of the Hon. Harry Hines to the chairmanship of the Highway Commission, a delegation of County Officials of Garza, Lynn, Terry, and Yoakum counties and the writer appeared before the Commission at Austin and requested improvement of the route between Post and Bronco, but did not receive any encouragement, as county officials along the line of No. 83, since changed to No. 15, had gotten to Mr. Hines and other members of the commission and had thoroughly sold them on that route. In fact, the commission suggested that our route be cancelled, but we would not agree to this and came home and commenced figuring out other ways of convincing the commission of the importance of the route and in an effort toward this end, the County Judge, Commissioners and the writer made several trips to other towns wherein Mr. Hines was slated to appear, but in every instance we failed to arrange for a conference with him, so we just marked time until October, 1936, the writer at the suggestion of Judge Simms, addressed a letter to Mr. Hines asking him for a conference at his office in Wichita Falls, Dallas, or any other point that would be most convenient to him, and on the latter part of the same month, we received a letter from him that he would be in Midland on October 30th and would be glad to meet our committee and he was immediately notified that we would be there. So on that morning, Judge Simms, Tom May, A. B. Davis of Lubbock, P. B. Ralls of Ralls and the writer went to Midland and had a two-hour session with him and succeeded in selling him on the importance of the route, and, in fact, he came to Brownfield the following day and made a personal inspection. Mr. Hines also agreed to undertake to get the route reinstated on the Federal Aid System which was cancelled in 1921, when Terry county "Outlawed" on the Highway Department and refused to pay Automobile License Fees, which at that time were retained by the department. After selling our route to Mr. Hines, we decided that it was necessary to sell the route to another member of the commission, but as Mr. Martin was due to be replaced within the next few weeks, his term having expired, we just marked time until the Governor appointed his successor. The Hon. R. L. Bobbitt was appointed during the latter part of February, 1937, and the writer immediately got in touch with him by letter, and on March 2nd, received his reply in which he suggested that he was going to be in Lubbock on March 19th to attend a convention of West Texas County Judges and Commissioners, and suggested that he might be able to grant us a conference at that time. We replied that we did not believe that this would be satisfactory and would much prefer to meet him at his office in San Antonio. So, after passing several letters and a few telegrams, we arranged a meeting with him on April 17th and in the meantime, arranged for an appearance before the Highway Commission at a regular meeting which was later for the 19th. We had a two-hour session with Mr. Bobbitt on Saturday night and appeared before the Commission the following Monday.

 As a direct result of these meetings 84 is under construction west of Brownfield. The Highway Department has asked the Bureau of Public Roads to place us on the Federal Aid System, from Jayton to Bronco, which means early construction of this route between the two points. Judge Simms, all members of the Commissioners Court and the writer composed the delegation to Mr. Bobbitt and the Highway Commission.
 Jim Neill and Otis Moore went to Dallas last Wednesday, returning Monday. They went down to see the Washington Reds and the Chicago Bears play Sunday.
 If you happen to be talking to or writing an old time Terryite tell them about our Historical edition. They'll thank you for telling them about it.

Cleaning From The Terry County Voice.

JUNE 10TH, 1904

MARRIED: Tuesday night of last week at the home of the bride's parents, six miles southeast of here, Rev. J. W. Cotten of Scurry county and Miss Laura Sawyer, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Bro. G. N. Groves officiating.
 Mr. Cotten is one of Scurry county's young ministers and Miss Sawyer is one of Terry's charming and accomplished young ladies. They will make their home in Scurry county. We join with their many friends in wishing them a life of peace and happiness. Several of the young people from here attended, while there were several who were lost on their way and never reached their destination, but returned and told of their fate.

MAY 20TH, 1904. Mrs. Jim Smith of north Terry was in shopping Tuesday.

W. T. Dixon tells us the well he has finished for M. V. Brownfield, 15 miles east of here, is one of the best wells in Terry county. He says it is fifty feet deep and that the well was tested and was found to furnish 30 gallons per minute.

J. H. Oglesby and family of Clarendon, Donley county, have returned to their home in south Terry. Mr. Oglesby stated as he came through Lubbock county he learned that the ranchmen were killing calves in order to save the cows.

An old lady, who had never ridden on a railway car recently visited a station and was shown into the waiting room. She took a chair and prepared to enjoy herself, after sitting quietly for half an hour, she reached over and touched a stranger on the arm and remarked: "It rides real easy, don't it?"

MAY 13TH, 1904. Charlie Boston went up to his bonus five miles north of here, Tuesday to spend a few of the sunshiny days.

Sam Pyeatt and Lester McPherson returned from the railroad, Tuesday, with a load of lumber for Mr. McPherson.

A few nights ago Lence Price was very painfully hurt by his horse stumbling and falling on him while going from town to his home, three miles southwest of here, but after a few days of careful nursing, he is able to be out mingling with his many friends.

Mr. McDaniel and daughter, Miss Eva, were in town trading, Monday.

Bob Fowler, in company with Uncle Joe Bryant, called on the Herald last Saturday. Used to play with Bob when we were younger men down in old Johnson county, when his dad's farm lay on one prong of the Chambers creek, and our brother had one a mile or two on the other prong. Bob with his son has been working on the Luther Smith farm this fall pulling cotton. Their home is in Breckenridge. Always tickled to see those old boy friends.

Rudolph Moorhead informs us that his father Dr. Moorhead (Aesculapias) has his shack up in western New Mexico and has gone native. Well, when he gets everything straightened out and a good supply of fire wood in, we hope "he will seat himself to write us a few lines" for publication. Tell us about it Dr.

With a joint meeting of Lubbock World War Veterans here recently, and another at Lubbock last week in which both posts participated, it looks like everything is underway to organize the sons of veterans here. But we'll tell you about it when looks like an actuality.

The J. L. Cruce apartments are going up on Hill street, and stretch out there for almost a block apparently. Luther is doing his part to house the new comers. You talk about glad handing people and telling them they are welcome, but show them a nice apartment for rent, and you really have their thanks.

Recent renewals: Gay Price, W. H. Black, Tom Howard Wesley Hamilton, W. R. Lanier, W. B. Martin, L. D. Hamrn, W. S. Crowder, W. M. Green, W. C. Welch, Horace Rambo, Annie Watkins, M. C. Chambers, J. A. Rushing, J. P. Patton, H. D. Leach, W. H. Hight, O. F. Krueger, Red Top Service Station, H. M. Perkins, J. A. Drennan, John Fitzgerald, C. W. Waters, C. B. Quante, all in trade area.

Among our recent readers in the trade area are Ralph Simmons, Rev. David Beebe, Ernest Phillips, Loyd Dawson, L. R. Bench, Joe E. Shelton, S. R. M. Leroy and H. H. Williams. The later gets his mail on an O'Donnell route, but does considerable trading here. Thanks gentlemen, there is room for many more.

A tentative program has been made for Scout Week here from February 6th to 12th. There may be a few changes, however. The Herald will endeavor to carry the full and revised program next week, which will be in plenty time to give it publicity.

Mrs. George Carter and two of her grandchildren were down from Ropes Wednesday. They were accompanied by a young man by the name of Hogan from McCrory, Ark, who is the son of a step-daughter of our youngest sister. Yes, pretty near kin folks, and really is distantly related, for his own grandmother was about a third cousin to us. Mr. Hogan will continue his tour to Long Beach, Calif., to visit his mother.
 Our old friend T. L. Chapman of Sulphur Springs writes in to renew and to tell us how much the family enjoys reading the former home paper. Having lots of rain, he reports.
 Quite a big stir has been created about the new parking ordinance, but we believe that when all of us cool down a bit, and reason the matter out from a standpoint of eliminating danger to both driver and pedestrian we will all be satisfied with the new order. At least we can all give it a whole hearted trial.
 J. H. Ward, 87, of Henderson county, was recent guest of his son, Edd Ward and family. The elder Ward gets around, and has a remarkably clear mind for one that age.
 C. T. Edwards was a business visitor to San Antonio this week.
