

Tokio Couple Celebrate Golden Weddi'g

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Young of Route 4, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on April 14th, at their farm home.

Mr. and Mrs. Young were married in the year 1895, at Rocky Ford, in Little River county, Ark., by uncle Jack Buchanan. They moved with their family to Terry county, in 1925, and have lived in the Tokio community most of this time.

A wedding supper was spread with a gold and white tired wedding cake topped with a bride and groom.

Those present were, six of these seven children, Mrs. Derrah Gaudin, who lives with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Young, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Young and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hubbard and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hubbard and family. A son, G. W. Young and family of Kansas City, were unable to attend; two grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Elmore and Mr. Earl Raymond Brock.

Mr. and Mrs. Young were presented with several gifts, one of which was a Coolerator, by the children and grandchildren. Everyone present enjoyed the evening meal very much, and wished Mr. and Mrs. Young many more happy years of life together.

Guy Tankersley is home on furlough, and as usual called to do a little "bull session" with the Herald. They are looking for Sgt. Jiggs, his brother, in any day now, and Guy is keeping his fingers crossed that he will not have to return to his headquarters before Jiggs gets here.

Lt. Jim Neill, who has been taking special training at San Antonio, stopped a few days this week on his way back to Kingman, Ariz. He said his supply sergeant out there was very kind. When handing out parachutes to the pilots, he informs them that if it fails to open when they jump, just bring it back and he will issue another.

The mother of Warren B. Brown, Rm 3/C, has been notified that her son is now aboard one of Uncle Sams ships and has a fleet postoffice address now at San Francisco.

Carbon Black Plant In Operation

The half million dollar Columbian Carbon Black plant in the southwest part of Terry county, which has been under construction for the past year, began operation on the half equipment now installed, employing about 100 men, several days ago. It will go to full capacity as soon as the balance of the equipment can be set up, and then employ some 200 persons. This is said to be a most refined plant, eliminating the smoke and soot that spreads to the countryside in many other plants.

A huge gas line fans out in the adjacent oil fields, bringing in the natural gas heretofore burned in flares and a waste. In this plant it is mixed with oil, from which the oil has been extracted hauled in tank cars from the Lovelland Refinery and burned. The residue is the carbon black product, which has as its principal use, the making of synthetic rubber, and an ingredient for other chemicals and articles. The navy now take the whole output, making it an essential and direct war industry. In fact, the government has recently aided in the construction of another similar plant, west of Seagraves, and one of the largest in the world at Odessa. They make a very valuable product from the waste of west Texas oil fields.

Several of the high officials of the company, who operate some of the 75 other plants in Texas and Louisiana, were inspecting the plant this week. Besides the large building housing the four huge vats and machinery, it has ample loading racks on a railroad spur built to it, and some 46 dwelling houses and a large dormitory for employees. When at full capacity, it will consume near 50,000 gallons of oil and turn out 100 tons of the product daily.

Thus, the development of the great south Plains did not cease when the farmers plowed up the ranches. Pioneering did not end with the covered wagon.

AMERICAN LEGION POST SEND DELEGATES

At the quarterly meeting of the Moward-Henson Post of the American Legion last Thursday night, six new veterans of War No. 2 were initiated. The meeting was addressed by Harley Woods, past commander and Mr. Rogers the present commander of Allen Bros. Post at Lubbock.

M. J. Craig and C. L. Lincoln were selected as delegates to the 119th district meeting to be held in Lubbock, May 6th.

PCF, JESSE CRISWELL WOUNDED IN ACTION

Mrs. Jesse Criswell, of Plains, received word last week from the War Department that her husband, Pfc. Jesse Criswell, had been wounded in the battle of Okonawa.

His mother, Mrs. Bettie Criswell, his brother, Johnny Criswell and a sister, Mrs. W. L. Lee, reside here.

Herald announced the marriage of Mr. W. G. Hardin and Mrs. Alameda Dial, a few years later our columns carried the announcement of the arrival of their second son, Joe Hardin, and this week we announce the arrival of a son to Joe and Mrs. Hardin at the Lubbock General Hospital on May 1. Joe lives in the south part of town next door to his parents where he was born.

Hugh Snodgrass Local Manager PCA

Hugh Snodgrass, long time resident of Tokio, has returned as manager of the Brownfield office of the Production Credit Association, according to Lee F. York, Lubbock office manager. Snodgrass has been a member and part time representative of the association for a number of years and served in his present capacity for about six months in 1944, but returned to his stock farm in the the fall harvest of his crops.

New office quarters have been established in the Lee Brownfield building just off the northwest corner of the square into which the association recently moved with the National Farm Loan Association and R. J. Purcell's butane gas business. Snodgrass operates the office one-half of the week, on Tuesdays, Fridays and Saturdays.

Approximatel 135 farmers and stockmen of Terry and Yoakum, and the northern portion of Gaines county, makes use of this Brownfield office for their short, intermediate term credit needs. York reports that fifty of these members have loans for about $50,000 at this time.

Ross Smith, of Tahoka, who has been managing the Brownfield office two days each week, will devote full time to his work in Tahoka and Lynn county now that Snodgrass has returned to the local office.

Brownfield trade area men who are officials of the PCA include Roy Fitzgerald of Plains, Vice-president and member of the Loan Committee, and C. E. Hicks of Meadow.

MORE HOUSES FOR CITY SEEMS FAVORABLE

Officials of the Terry County Board of Development, were advised early this week of the WPB approval for 35 more modern dwellings for the city, 20 of which may be rented.

It is understood material will be available for them.

Walter Byron Paschal, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Paschal, of route 4, and husband of Mrs. Coleen Paschal of El Paso, has arrived at the infantry replacement center at Camp Wolters, for basic training.

The Go're Shop Has A Grand Opening

For almost a month now, the Go're Fashion shop, owned by Minnie Hazel (Gore) Bowman, has been under the touch of the remodelers and redecorators, and the capacity has been doubled.

Minnie Hazel Bowman Mrs. Bowman has taken the other half of the building formerly occupied by Mrs. H. R. Winston and daughters with their children's wear.

So, the Go're store is not only rearranged, remodeled, and redecorated, but the capacity has been doubled, and so has her stock of ladies ready-to-wear. Representatives of the Herald inform us that Minnie Hazel now has a very beautiful and well selected stock.

Her many friends remembered to call and see, and a lot of them bought, while many sent flowers. If you have not called, it isn't too late yet.

Craig Brothers Doing Share in the War

This week we are giving the readers a brief sketch about the two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Marion J. Craig, long residents of this city:

Sgt. M. J. Craig, Jr., volunteer-

Sgt. M. J. Craig, Jr.

ed his services three years ago come October, receiving his basic at Shepherd Field, Texas. He later took a short college course in connection with his training, at West Texas college, Canyon. He went from there to Santa Ana Calif., and then transferred back to Denver, Colo. He finished the gunnery school at Tyndall Field, Florida.

He was given special training at Boise, Idaho, and then back to Topeka, Kans. From there he went across the first of March, this year. Last letter from him stated he had finished three missions over enemy territory from his base in England. Jr. finished high school here in 1942.

Robert Chooses the Navy Seaman Robert L., is in the navy, and is a hospital apprentice. He finished high school in 1943, and volunteered for naval service the following Sept., receiving his training at the San Diego boot camp. He was assigned his duties and shipped out into the Pacific in April 1944.

He saw action in the hot combats of Siapan and Iwo Jima. He can't tell where he is, but informed the home folks that his company had taken over and was operating a hospital for the time being.

D. Ray Abney, who has been with the military forces in the south Pacific for 27 months, came in last week on his first furlough, to visit his parents, the Jim Abneys, here. By coincidence, he was met by a brother, Lester, here, foreman of a coal mine at Bisbee, Ariz.

Capt. Dub Walker Takes Engineering

Capt. Willie G. (Dub) Walker, son of Mrs. Lee Walker, city, is now taking an engineering course at Chanute Field, Ill. Dub has been in the air corps, and met the Jerries when they were really tough over north Africa. He had some very narrow escapes from death.

The Herald is glad to announce that Dub can now kinder sit back and take it easier, as thousands of other have now been trained to take his place. He can learn something that will be beneficial to him when the fighting is done.

Private James Suggs Dies From Wounds

Sympathy of the entire community goes out to the E. S. Suggs family of the Union community, upon receipt of brief telegraphic announcement of the War Dept., under date of April 27th, that their son and brother, Pvt. James A. Suggs, had died of wounds received March 28. He was in the heavy engagement with Japs on the island of Cebu of the Philippine group. A letter with more details was to follow. He had been in the army 10 months, going over from Ft. Ord, Calif.

Pvt. Suggs was none too well known in Brownfield, as he received the major portion of his education at Welch, graduating in May 1944. However, he had helped with a string band to which he belonged, at rodeos and such here, and a great many of the younger generation knew him.

Memorial services will be held for him at the high school gym at Welch, next Sunday afternoon May 6th, to which all friends of the family are invited.

Another brother, Pfc. Wm. E. Suggs, also in the army, is now located on Bataan. Bill has been in the army 18 months. The Suggs family live at the old W. J. French homestead.

HD to Hold Several Cooking Schools

Miss Mozelle Reast County Home Demonstration Agent, has announced that with the assistance of Miss Mary Grindstaff, Agent of Gaines county, will conduct schools of instruction in cooking, at the following places and times:

Seagraves, 4th and 5th; Brownfield, High School laboratory, May 9th and 10th; Meadow, May 23rd and 24th; Seminole, May 30th and 31st.

All courses to start at 2:30 and last till 5 P. M. The school will feature food substitutes, and the first session will deal with meats, and the latter with cakes, using syrup instead of sugar. The instructions are interesting pertaining to rationing.

Meadow Boy Gets Oak Leaf Air Award

An Eighth Air Force Bomber Station, England. — First Lieutenant Richard V. Turnbough, 24 years old, Meadow, pilot on an Eighth Air Force B-17 Flying Fortress, has been awarded the third Oak Leaf Cluster to the Air Medal for "meritorious achievement" during the bombardment of Nazi military and industrial installations, and in cooperation with Allied ground forces. The award was presented by Colonel Charles B. Dougher of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., commanding officer of the 94th Bomb Group.

Lt. Turnbough is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Turnbough, of Meadow. He was a student before entering the AAF.

Explains GI Bill of Rights Claims

The Veterans Administration has appointed the Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission as its representative in administering the Servicemen's Readjustment Act, Title V. The representatives of the commission in this area is H. W. Richardson, who visits the Brownfield area every fourteen days. His next visit is at the Court House in the County Judge's office on May 14th, 1945, at 11:00 o'clock.

The law sets up very specifically that for one to be eligible to draw benefits, he must be able and available for work at the time of filing application for an Initial Claim. The law sets forth for one, who is totally unemployed or part time employed, that he may receive $20 per week provided he has served ninety days since September 16th, 1940, or has been discharged because of a disability incurred while in service for a period less than ninety days. The law is specific in that the discharge must be other than dishonorable. The law goes further and states that after one has filed his application and Initial Claim and he is overtaken by illness or accident while this claim series is in effect, that the Veteran will receive Compensation while disabled, if he contacts the representative of the Commission so as to file his claims. The above deals with one who is paid on a weekly basis. The law further provides that a full time self-employed Veteran may draw compensation. This type claim is filed on a monthly basis and the Administration will pay up to the maximum of $100 a month. The Veteran must in this instance, as above, must have a discharge other than dishonorable and make a report on his income from his business as well as the expense of operating same. The Administration states that these claims must be filed by the 20th of the month following the one which they are filing on. This type of claim takes care of the small business man, farmer or any other type of Veteran whose income is small. He reiterates that a service man must be able to work at the time of filing his claim.

Service Men Official Holds School Here

Sid Lowry, of Austin, with the State Service Department of the American Legion, aided by J. A. Pruitt of Levelland, and R. L. Price of Lamesa, both county service officers, and C. L. Lincoln of Brownfield, conducted school of instruction at the Legion Hall, Wednesday a d Wednesday night, for benefit of veterans of both wars and dependents, in adjusting the benefits and compensations, and future aid to returning GI boys.

Preacher Not Joking About the Chicken

Last week Rev. J. N. Hester, of the Brownfield Methodist circuit, called in, and came back where this general all purpose writer was located, sweating with the linotype machine. He immediately felt sorry for us. We may have looked a bit undernourished to him. Anyway, he asked how we liked fried chicken, and we told him there was not a Methodist or any other preacher that had it on us when it came to eating adolescent chickens. What was our surprise late Saturday after we went home to have it announced that he had called, and when he came back to our den, he had a live chicken in a paper bag, and a mess of new onions. Such a preacher! Such a preacher!

We are informed by Prof. Helwig, of Texas Tech college, why we are so often shocked by static in our cars. He maintains that most of the static accumulate on the outside steel hull of the car, but leaks in, and a spark is often ready to "bite" you when you reach for the ignition key. He says, "when you enter your car, put a finger on some unpainted metal surface like the instrument panel, and keep it there while sliding over the seat into your position. And upon leaving the car, take hold of handle of door, and do not release your hold on it until you close the door."

Still another Tech professor, F. A. Klienschmidt, and his class in architecture, are experimenting with various clays of the Plains trying to get a material to make brick, tile or other materials, for cheaper housing in this area. He states that half the cost of shipped in material is expended in freight. Much of this could be saved if a suitable clay or building material can be found on the plains.

We acknowledge that we hate the Germans and Japs. Says some, it is a sin to hate, but Christ said he hated sin, and both Nazis and Japs are the very embodiment of sin. Yes, but what about our citizens of German extraction? Well, some are as loyal as the best of us, a few are rotten, selfish, boorish, Nazis, secretly, and such men of German extraction as our own Texas Admiral Nimitz and General Krueger are as ashamed of them as you. If there are any folks of Jap extraction in America that are worth a feather in hell, we have never heard of them.

Sometimes it seems that our powerful nation lets "diplomacy" get the better of us. Of course while we were up to our necks in a war with both Germany and Japan, when both were going pretty good, we had to make some concessions to another sword rattler, Franco of Spain, in the way of oil to that country, provided none of it got to Germany, in exchange for some badly needed war minerals they possessed. But there was nothing said in the agreement that the oil could NOT be used in carrying food and supplies to the Nazis still holding ports in France. But that is just what is happening, according to esmi-authoritative sources. As long as this continues, it is going to take the lives of a lot of our boys as well as French and English boys to oust the Huns from these ports. Spain should be warned and, then its ship loads of stuff sent to the bottom of the channel if they persist.

Just such boners as was pulled by the press and radio Saturday tends to weaken the confidence of the people in the press and radio, much of the later being controlled by the big dailies. Not only that, it gives the bruised and bloody Nazis, almost beaten to their knees, one last chance to ridicule America. It was really amusing while it lasted. Bill this and Tom this, and Dick the other, were asked what they thought about the matter, and each would four-flush and hem and haw, really telling you the same old story, all ending by admonishing you to keep tuned to the BULL network from President Truman. In the meantime, none would try to explain who was going to surrender a German army in Italy, Denmark or Norway, not to mention Germany already split into. And perhaps the man at the mike one min-

There's a man that I know, and he lives near you,
In a town called Everywhere.
You might not think he's a man from his hat
Or the clothes he may chance to wear,
But under the jacket with many a patch
Is a heart more precious than gold—
The heart of a man 'neath the coat of a boy,
A man who is twelve years old.

We never may know what the future will make
Of the boys that we carelessly meet,
For many a statesman is now at school,
And presidents play in the street.
The hand that is busy with playthings now
The reins of power will hold,
So I take off my hat and gladly salute
This man who is twelve years old.

ute before had told us guys with the ears glued thereto, that there was no "authority" of any kind left in Germany. We remember that we made ourselves just about as ridiculous in War I, when it was announced that the Germans had capitulated, about November 8th or 9th, which was in reality before the allied and German commissioners got together in a little railway car.

Sometimes the Herald is amused then again fretted at the various maneuvers of the Pope at Rome, pleading a soft peace for the Hus and Dagoes. It doesn't take a very brilliant mind to see through all that. He is an Italian by birth and blood, and Germany too, is mostly Catholic. While apparently the Huns and Dagoes were winning, the old guy had nothing whatever to say about brutality, or a soft peace, but just as soon as the world saw and knew that the Allies were scheduled to polish off the Hun and Dago bastards, the Pope began his whine. Well, we are no Catholic or Jew baiters; we were not even Ku Kluck. But, we don't think the Baptist, Methodist or any other denomination, or the Jewish congregations have one right in the world to tell our nation, or any of our allies what kind of peace to make. Nor, do we think our nation is playing square with the protestant denominations, of which our nation is made up principally, by allowing a so called Vatican ambassador, when the government ignores the other 75 per cent of our religious people. The heads of the American and British governments may pay some attention to some of this whinning, but we have a hunch Russia will pay just about as much attention to the Pope as a west Texan pays the howling coyote.

No, the Huns, male or female, like for American army officers make them view dead victims of their barbarian cruelty, starvation and beatings, administered to helpless civilians, captured service men and slave laborers. It is said that they would rather whine how their country is torn up. They lay the blame of Nazi leaders, but when the going was good every mother's son and daughter of these cut-throats were in line cheering. In the meantime we have coddled and fed their lousy sons over here, until they are "as fat as pigs," says an Arizona congressman, and an MP is forbidden to lay a finger on them unless they get entirely unruly, and they get, ham, bacon and the best cuts of beef, which the congressman says Arizona people can't get at any price.

Mack Thomason Slips In Back Way

While no one was watching last week, probably during a nice sandy, Mack Thomason and his much better half, came home to Terry. At that time having failed to rent the place south of town, and being fed up on minding Nazi POW's (prisoners of war to us) he just wanted back in old Terry. Mack had promised himself in front of this writer that he would N-O-T spend another summer in Brown county—and evidently he meant it.

But being adoin' what he was doing, herding Nazirats, Mack may have accumulated some parasites not native to Terry. We understand, however, that some of his neighbors have duly dipped him in a strong, hot solution and pronounced him clean.

Mind you, we do not include the good lady in this dipping process, as she had nothing to do with the prisoners, and for all we know, made Mack sleep in the dog house at night.

Misses Martha and Frances Harred left Tuesday to visit their grandmother, Mrs. Lucy Beavers and their uncle, Willie Beavers, of Prairie Grove, Ark.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kirschner of the Bargain Center, are due home this week.

PLAN ANNOUNCED TO CURB FAMILY LOSSES

Washington, April 25.—The Army and Navy today announced a plan intended to prevent additional losses in action by families that have lost two or more members in the war.

In such cases, a joint announcement said, remaining members of the families in the service will be assigned to "non-hazardous duty" upon their own request or that of an immediate relative

WATCH YOUR SHOE STAMPS

A new shoe ration stamp will be validated August 1, according to the Rationing Division of the District Office of Price Administration.

Airplane stamps 1, 2 and 3 in Book III, all valid now, will continue to be good indefinitely along with the new coupon. The number of the new stamps will be announced later.

Rationing officials pointed out that this announcement is being made well in advance so that consumers may budget their remaining stamps to fit their own and their families' needs now and in the future.

The new stamp will come into use nine months after the last stamp was validated last November 1. This eliminates the two pairs of shoes a year policy that had been in effect since November 1, 1943.

The longer interval is necessary, it was explained, because of "extremely heavy demand for shoes and severe inroads on retail inventories of rationed shoes."

Mrs. Charles Stadel returned to her home in San Angelo, last week, after visiting several days in the home of her sister, Mrs. E. C. Black. The Blacks and Stagels spent the weekend with their mother in Tulsa, Okla.

Mrs. Roy Herod and Billy Mack, went to Snyder Friday, to visit relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Herod returned home with them and spent Saturday night and Sunday.

THE LOW DOWN FROM HICKORY GROVE

You know, the average citizen is not news. You gotta shoot or poison your wife—or walk a tight rope over Niagra—or get yourself on some Bureau—or pop-off and promise better and bigger security with less sweat, etc., to make page one. But if you and go down on Main Street and wanted to pick up your pencil, have a poll on your own account, it would not show us up as loony as we look, sometimes. I am talking about the average citizen who goes ahead and tends to his own affairs—and makes this country what it is—the folks who build the jeeps and make the 6 shooters and grind the corneal, etc., and don't brag and blow about it, but maybe

Behind the Scenes in American Business

New York.—During the twenties, a favorite topic for speakers before Rotary and other service clubs was "America As a Creditor Nation." After World War I we did become a creditor nation, with foreign countries owing us more money than we owed them. Soon we came to think of ourselves as occupying that position forever. But now along comes the National City Bank of New York with an up-to-the-minute study of the question—and a startling conclusion. Says the National City Bank for April: once again America, on balance, is in debt to the world.

The City Bank study gives the reasons and the figures. Since Pearl Harbor, we have bought from foreign nations almost $5 billion more than they have bought from us. Much of our buying has been of needed raw materials to feed America's mighty war industries.

To pay for these goods, we have shipped some $2.2 billion of gold abroad, and earmarked other gold here for foreign account. Thus many a foreign nation which formerly owed us money now has gold and US dollars among its assets, with which it can buy American-made goods in the post-war world. But over a period of time, the Bank believes, the U. S. could regain—if it wishes—its position as "the world's greatest creditor."

This bright new post-war world is going to bring you some surprises. One of these days a salesman will call at your store, and give you a card bearing a noted airplane company name. Then the salesman will try to sell you on handling his airplane, but his line of optical goods, or farm implements, or household appliances. In their words, an enormous number of manufacturers are going to try to do business in other peoples green pastures.

The statistics of this invasion of the other man's business are impressive. Dunn and Bradstreet, Inc., has just finished a survey of 22,314 companies. The survey shows that 37 per cent of the manufacturers and 44 per cent of the wholesalers plan to make or handle new lines. This does not mean new products in the sense of gadgets never made before. Of course, there will be some wholly new items. But primarily it means that established companies in one business will also try another man's established field. To illustrate: a shipbuilding company plans also to make farm implements and building material products. And, so on. The post war shoemaker apparently wants more than one last.

should. If the average citizen ever should get organized, they would go to town. Where there is one windy gent living by his wits and bluster and promises, there's 100 average citizens. They could call the outfit the "Average Citizen Inc."—for short, the ACI. You don't get to first base unless it is in an alphabet. And when the ACI got up steam and gain, it would clear up the picture—like putting kerosene on a swamp. Yours with the low down

4-Hers Vie in Home Work Improvement

The 4-H rural electrification activity conducted for the last nine years under the direction of the Extension Service has been Better farm-and-home Methods. Now named the National 3-H Electric Contest, it is designed to encourage farm boys and girls to learn how to apply principles of work simplification to every type of 4-H Club project.

The new contest not only serves to show club members how to save time, labor, steps and money by making practical improvements in present methods of doing farm jobs and chores, but also affords them an opportunity to acquire a working knowledge and skill in the most profitable use of electricity. Both boys and girls may enter the activity. It is not necessary that they have electricity on their farms.

As incentives, honor awards are provided by the Westinghouse Educational Foundation for outstanding records of achievement in the activity. The Club Congress honors to the county winners, National 4-H state champion, and a $200 college scholarship to each of six selected from the state winners.

County extension agents will supply you with complete information.

1943 COTTON TO BE PLACED IN POOL

All 1943 cotton crop under government loan August 1, will be placed in a pool, as provided in the loan agreement, and sold by Commodity Credit Corporation, Dan L. Boyd, District Representative, WFA's office of supply, has been informed.

Meanwhile producers may repay outstanding loans and reduce their cotton under terms of the 1943 cotton loan program.

After final liquidation of the cotton, new proceeds, if any, will be distributed to farmers in proportion to the number of bales each had in the pool. All advances, accrued costs, including storage, insurance and handling charges first will be deducted before any payments are made, he said.

Average 1943 loan rate for 15/16 inch middling cotton, net weight, was 20.06 cents per pound.

The Senior Class Prophecy

The following is an excerpt from the weekly newspaper of the small town of Roaring Hiccoughs.

The date line of this issue of "The Roaring Hiccough Holler," is April 13, 1965.

This free copy was sent to the Herald by Josie Chisholm, the editor.

Aunt Kate's Column of Comfort and Consolation.

Crop-hair Kempson was the logical person to succeed Joyce McPherson when she took over Roaring Hiccough's Laundry last week. This work will keep him very busy, since he has recently purchased the "Seductive Beauty Salon" from Dale Hill.

The letter goes like this:

Dear Aunt Kate, Can you suggest a good method for removing freckles?

Spottedly yours, Bobby White

Aunt Kate's reply: Dear Bobby, I don't know.

2nd letter: Dear Aunt Kate, Can you suggest a remedy for dishpan hands? I've had Donald Wayne, my husband try rubber gloves and Ivory flakes without success, and he seems to suffer such painful embarrassment because of them.

Mrs. Sugar Hamilton Moore Aunt Kate's reply: Dear Sugar, I don't know.

3rd letter: Dear Aunt Kate: Our letter is very important. We want you to tell us your sentiments on this subject. Do you think forty-seven is too young to go with boys?

Timidly yours, Margaret Glandon.

Wanda James Glenola Murphy Aunt Kate's reply:

Dear Girls, Eee Gods!! 4th letter: Dear Aunt Kate, I'm writing as custodian out here at the old maids home. Some of my inmates seem to be taking it too seriously. Why, only yesterday, I had to pry the state inspector's legs out of a steel trap. I'm certain Joy Chisholm and Iva Lee Denton set it. And Catherine McMillan insists on drooling for thirty minutes, night and morning, over a picture she stole somewhere of somebody called "Cutie" or "Turkey." Please tell me what do.

(Miss) Evelyn Garnett F. S. And you should get a load of the man-holes I've been digging. All I've caught so far is a broken old man who keeps insisting that he is Morgan Copeland. He just keeps muttering something like, "The volume of the fustrum of a pyramid is equal to 1/3 of the Indicative Mood, Passive Voice of Carbon because it has three forms: 1. diamond 2. graphite and 3. beers."

Aunt Katy always publishes a few of her most interesting letters. She can't spare any more space this week but here are some of her replies.

To Jay Denton: Don't worry Mr. I'm sure everything will come out alright even if you are sure that Mr. and Mrs. Mansel Simpson got their new son in a bargain basement. What if his fingers don't match?

To Betty Noble: Don't worry about the Willard Brock case. Even if you are the Coroner, and expect that his wife, the former Darceille's frying pan would just fit the little depression in his skull, you may as well forget things that are dead and gone."

The old General Store—Eula Marie Whitley, Prop.—announces a wonderful new shipment of that marvelous new gum—the Gum that Spits!

A Personal Notice

Those ancient old prospectors, Meta Day and Lyllith Crawford, were in town last week to stock up for another five years. The mailman, Mozelle Butcher, says she would have bought them a drink, but she couldn't tell which was Lyllith and which was Meta, and which were the burrs.

The Women's Federation, Associated, Liquidated, Antiquated Missionary Society met Tuesday at the home of Wilda Watkins for their weekly work day. Those attending were Joyce Trotter, Gladys Pearl Swain, Gerald Perry, J. A. Chambliss, and Doris Moore. A special attraction was the presence of The-da Jobe—the representative of the 999th district to the state legislature. A great deal of good was derived from the lesson, which was on the far-reaching, neglected subject of "Juvenile Delinquency." It is not the children—it is rather the parents who are the delinquents," boomed Miss Jobe. This new and entirely different slant on the subject will give everyone more to think about, it is thought. An uplifting time was had by all.

Personal item. Billy Winn's small daughter is still insisting that she can spell "cough medicine." Daddy had a bottle of it under his pillow, she piped in her childish voice,—"He said it was 'cough medicine' and it had the name on the label. Cough medicine is spelled "G-I-N."

According to Nita Chaffin, the post mistress, local members of the class of Brownfield 1945 will be happy to know that the rest of that class are moving to Roaring Hiccoughs. Glen Sexton, Nevada Joyce Moore, Maxine King Betty Gossett, Dorothy Grant, and Versa Gibson have all come down from New York. They're nearly driving the dairymen of the town crazy—Julia Mae Seaton and Janelle Turner. They keep asking, "Which one do you turn on to get buttermilk?"

The president of the Women's Hobo Association of Roaring Hiccoughs, Etta Lou Miller, announces that until Eve Jeter displays a more favorable attitude, her garbage can is barred to all loyal members.

The proprietor of the "Gobs of Gals," night club—biggest little gambling joint in the West—Ross Harmonson, has declared a gala celebration in honor of new shipment of White Mule. Everyone is welcome except David Brown. Just because he is chemistry teacher at the high school doesn't mean that he can cart off all the White Mule to use as synthetic sulphuric acid. We feel that the students' affectionate habit of calling him "old straight-up and die right" just. Lynn Crosby is right on the job as bounce to see that he doesn't get in.

There will be three big features—"The Lonely Nightingales of the West"—Gerald Harris and Joann O'Donley—singing their own composition "Empty Stum-mick Blues" or "Does your Cigarette Taste Different Lately?" accompanied by Lorene Hargrove. This crack (or cracked) trio, has played at all the big joints in these parts—"The Scattered Shambles," "The Morning After" and all of them.

The second will be the girls—seven beautiful dancers—La Verne Cammeron, Dora Mae Carter, Irma Lee Clark, Ollie Fae Cooper, Willie Merle Jackson, and the Aline sisters, Hobbs and Hodges. And the peer of them all—Joyce Evelyn Dungan the strip-tease queen.

And the third feature: Charlie Mae Harold, a missionary from India will discuss types of religion in far-away lands. And her assistant, Marjorie Rowden

Freeman will speak on "Why Hindu women throw their children in the Danube River." or "You gotta accentuate the Positive."

The whole danged jermt will be closed promptly at 6 a. m., at which time Myron Harris will step from behind the bar, take off his apron and sprinkle fresh sawdust on the floor. That guy's really funny—to any and every-one who will listen, he gives, "I made 100's on all my tests in high school."

Logan Herron invites you all to rent a wagon or leave yours at his deluxe wagon yard. After the 19th mug of Jaques, he admits beeryly, "The only one I've got in it is the one I stole in high school."

Wade Yandell, president of the Worst National Bank, has announced the burglary of the bank. Honest-Plus (Sammy Barton) Jones shot his way past three terrified women and an angora cat on his way out, thrust the gold into his saddlebags, leaped astride his splendid white stallion and shouted in his manful voice, "Away, El Burro?" and in a staggering creep he made his exit.

At the head of the posse was Sheriff Stringbean Mangum with his faithful cayuse, securely astride him. Well might his slogan have been "so round, so firm, so fully packed—so fresh and easy on the draw." Riding with him to enforce the law were common every day people of Roaring Hiccoughs. People like Gruesome Green who rides for BQ. He's the same as ever. If he'd only change jokes as often as he changes girls! And of' Rooter in Rambo who shoots a man before breakfast every morning. Saves red points, don't you know. And Tucker Lilly who's under mental observation at the present. It seems that when Faye Lang—the strongest woman in Roaring Hiccoughs asked him to pinch her muscle, he thought she said bustle!

Banker Vernon had a double reason for riding with the posse. Not only had he lost his gold, but his daughter, too. Yes, Sammy (Honest Plus) persuaded the gullible old maid, Fannie, to accompany him in his dash for freedom. She forsook her respectful suitor, Oscar Leon Lewis for Jones' dashing ways.

The robber was finally traced to a lonely cabin in the hills where Honest Plus tried a last stand. The siege only lasted an hour and one-half, however, because Mrs. String-bean Mangum (she was Lottie Howard) sent word for String-bean to come right home "afore the supper biscuits git cold."

On his way back to town, Sheriff String-bean stopped at the luxurious one room hacienda of Barbara "Best cook in the West" Collier to water himself—for the weight of the horse was heavy on his back. He was watered with an eyedropper by Kenneth Victor Jones, who takes care of Barbara's 9.99 acre ranch. Indulging in a little carefree gossip, the sheriff promptly forgot Honest Plus.

However, Oscar Leon was determined that his Fannie should not be left in the hands of this notorious villain. Stealing stealthily up to the cabin, he peeked into the cabin and shuddered at the sight of Honest Plus and Fannie sitting before a glowing fire—a'holdin' hands! Quickly gulping a Pepsi Cola, he bravely leaped through the window and landed on his feet amid a crash of glass. But alas for our brave hero. Unbeknown to him, Honest Plus had an unbeatable advantage—He eats Wheaties.

When Oscar Leon recovered consciousness, he was bound to the foot of Sammy's narrow bed, and Honest Plus was contriving er and a pstoliBL-bandiadhisCae uhlradle. a.t.u. a5x MWa [We an ingenius device consisting of a buckskin thong, water, and a pistol. The pistol was pointed straight at Oscar Leon's heart, the buckskin thong was tied to the trigger, and water dripped gently on the buckskin thong. As the buckskin is dampened, it contracts, and soon the trigger will be pulled. Fannie repented when she realized that Oscar Leon had only 72 more hours to live. But at that crucial moment, a ringing of horses hoofs is heard and Honest Plus knows that his doom is sealed. The Lone Stranger rides again. The magnificent physical specimen that is Howard Mcilroy when his mask is off, save Fannie and Oscar Leon and came just in the nick of time to bring Sammy to justice. We'll admit that the Lone Stranger's mule isn't very impressive, but he learned about those motor-cycles—the hard way.

The hanging of Honest Plus and the marriage of Fannie and Oscar Leon will be special attraction at the rodeo next Tuesday. The rodeo will be performed by such Western stars as Bennie Wartes, champion bulldogger; Gwenette Doss, bronc buster; and Nita Marchbank, bull fighter; The wonderful Dale George who has replaced the rapidly aging Frankie Sinatra as Bing Crosby's rival, will sing before each daredevil stunt. His most impressive number is "I am the country's only spooner-crooner, I make them all swooner-sooner."

The hanging will be performed by the Justice of the Peace, Ira C. Byler. The marriage by Parson Reverend Dr. Charles Wayne Bandy, D. D., P. U., and C. D. (continually drunk).

That's all the news paper—Oh yes, here a post script—P. S. The editor of this document hereby slides from under all a-buse that may be heaped upon her head.

Mrs. Dorothy Nicholson and son, David, returned last week, after visiting in Terrell and Fort Worth the past month.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By Boyse House

You can have adventure as editor of a small-town weekly. Like the time an airplane made a forced landing in a field a short distance from our town, a long time ago. I walked out there and, after getting the story, had started away when a tall, middleaged man asked, "Would you like to ride back to town?" Then he added, "It ain't much," so I supposed he had a wagon but it turned out to be a mare hitched to a sulky. Have you ever climbed into one of those things? They look alright just to look at, but the seat is narrow with no back and there's nothing much between your legs and ground.

"Giddap," said the driver and the animal started at a brisk pace. "Git along," he said, and the mare increased her speed "Let's travel," he commanded, touching her with a whip and we passed all the flivvers on the gravel road. It was more breath-taking than a ride in an open plane or on the back step of a racing police patrol.

"Just let me out anywhere," I gasped as we reached the business section. Afterwards, I learned that his mare was a consistent winner in all the county fairs thereabouts, being able to trot a mile in a shade over two minutes. And you just try going at a 30-mile an hour clip in a steel spider-web kind of contraption like that.

Being young, I took my duties as editor with great and dignity. The Banner got in a controversy with the Post in our riva city and the Post said, "The young editor of our neighborhood town needs a few doses of grandmother's soothing syrup."

To which drew the retort, "We rejoice that there is nothing more serious the matter with us but what can be healed by a simple, household remedy, whereas until science discovers a cure for lunacy, our contemporary mus remain in his present hopeless and helpless condition."

Of the paper's community correspondents, easily the outstanding one was a storekeeper-philosopher who would write such an item as "Sam Smithers is keeping company with a beautiful Chinese lady in a neighboring city, object matrimony. It is believed this will aid the League of Nations."

Or: "Hiram Queak refused to chop wood for the cook-stove and based his refusal on scriptures, "What God has joined together let no man put assunder."

Mesdames E. C. Davis, P. R. Cates, Truett Flache and Jot Akers, went to Amarillo Tuesday, to attend the district meeting of the Federation of Womens clubs of Texas.

JEAN CRISWELL, 6, HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Mrs. J. C. Criswell honored her daughter Jean, Tuesday afternoon from three to five with a birthday party to celebrate her sixth birthday.
 Birthday cake, ice cream and party favors were enjoyed by Carolyn Burnett, Ann Griggs, Linda White, Judy Frazier, Claud Wallace Lee, Betty and Doyle Criswell and the honoree.

Mrs. E. Brown and daughter, Miss Ola Belle, and of course the later's seeing-eye-dog, Rexie, are now in Corpus Christi, visiting their daughter and sister, Mrs. Donald Hill, Mr. Hill and family. They report they are having a time seeing that beautiful gulf coast town.

Mrs. Ed S. Turner was over from Plains, this week, and called to renew.

LA FIESTA CLUB ENTERTAINS WITH DANCE

Members of the La Fiesta club entertained with a dance at the American Legion Hall last Saturday evening.
 Dancing was enjoyed by a Nickleodean and cokes were served.
 Chas. Leonard, erstwhile Brownite, but now way out there in the Golden State, "guessed it was time for him to renew." It was, April 23, being his date line. And so he and family will get this grand old weekly another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stutts attended the funeral of Mrs. Stutts' grandmother up at Lockney, Monday.

FFA BOYS STAGE BANQUET FRIDAY NIGHT

The Brownfield Future Farmers of America staged their annual banquet at the high school gym, last Friday night, along with their teacher, Tom Neeley. The food for the banquet was prepared and served by the Home Ec girls.
 Dale George was master of ceremonies, according to the report reaching us, and did most of what little talking there was. It seems the boys went there to eat, and not to be seen or heard.
 Anyway, the FFA boys, along with their counterpart, the 4-Hers, are prime movers in making Terry a better county in which to live, along with the production of a lot of good food which is prime helper in winning this war.

KOLONIAL KARD KLUB MEETS IN HOWZE HOME

Mrs. N. T. Howze entertained members of the Kolonial Kard Klub with games of bridge Friday afternoon in her home on East Main.
 Mrs. Roy Wingerd and Mrs. N. L. Mason received vases for high scores in bridge and Mrs. Herman Heath received a water set for bingo.
 A salad plate, ice cream with strawberries and cokes, were served to Mesdames Wingerd, Heath, E. C. Davis, A. A. Sawyer, Roy Crosby, Money Price, and Walter Hord.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Harred and girls visited in Lubbock Sunday with Mrs. Bertha Bevers and Mrs. Oliver. The ladies were enroute to their home in Coldwell, Idaho, after visiting three weeks with their sons, who are stationed at Camp Wolters. Mrs. Bevers is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Harred.

We have a time with that guy E. C. Throop down at Baytown, Texas, as he tries to get in on a one dollar a year rate, claiming Baytown is in the Brownfield trade area. Just the same, we get the two batskins or their equivalent, per year, from him. He is still monkeying around playing like the Southwestern Associated Telephone Co., is still using him—as best they can.

It Costs a Pretty Penny! It's Worth the Best of Care—

THAT'S why women who value their fur coats send them to us for storage over the summer months. No risk of destruction by theft, fire or MOTHS when our storage vaults safeguard your fur and fur trimmed garments.

We also have space to store your out-of-season woolens, blankets, down comforts or any other item that the moths can harm. Storing will make them last years longer as well as save your precious closet space.

JAMES OFFILL BURIED MONDAY AFTERNOON

James Offill, 45, of Roswell, who died there last Saturday, was buried Monday afternoon in Forrester cemetery, where his father was buried several years ago. Funeral services were conducted at the Second St. Church of Christ, conducted by the minister, J. C. Davis.

Mr. Offill is survived by his wife, one daughter and one foster son and three foster daughters, all of Roswell, and three brothers and six sisters. M. S. Williams of this city is an uncle, and Raymond Adams a brother-in-law. Brownfield Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mr. C. G. Cross of Wellman, sends in his dollar this week to keep his Herald coming.

NEIGHBOR GETS FREE SACK OF GLADOLIA FLOUR

It is our habit Saturday nights just after the newscast over the TQN stations, to settle in our chair with a well loaded pipe of PA, and listen to the Saturday night shindig. And we even like to hear the names of the 12 winners in Texas and adjoining states, called out for a free 50 pound sack of Gladolia flour.

Last Saturday night we got a real thrill, when a close neighbor and friend, Mrs. Ralph Ferguson, was called out for a free sack

Mrs. Jess McWhirter and little daughter from east Terry, called this week, partly social and partly to renew for the Herald going to her sister, Mrs. David Johnson, at Phoenix, Ariz.

BROWNFIELD MILLING CO.

Makes Wrong Crack At Wrong Time

We don't know any of the parties involved, or just where or when it all happened, but we have it on good authority that it did happen, and understood at a local helpy-selvy laundry. One of the ladies involved had a son just returned home from war, minus part of his leg.

The matter of war was brought up as it mostly is these days, and as we understand it, one of the women remarked she hoped the war would last ten years, as they were making more money than ever before. No sooner said, according to our informant, than the mother of the wounded vet, popped the other right smack in the kisser.

Money crazy people had best keep that to themselves now and even more so after the "boys all come marching home," or what is left of them.
