

Commissioners Court Orders Liquor Election

Trends In Locker Business

College Station — Texas now has 403 frozen food locker plants in operation in comparison with 268 eleven months ago, an increase of 33 per cent in less than a year. A recent survey by the BAE's Texas Division of Agricultural statistics showed that 46 of this number are cooperatives, including 26 REA co-ops. Five of the number are branch plants serviced by central systems.

Roy Snyder, Extension meat specialist who also supervises a frozen food locker for the Texas A. and M. College, observes several other trends in the locker business besides a rapid expansion in numbers. For one thing, a large number of locker systems have been installing their own small killing plants and abattoirs.

For the last few years frozen food plants have been in their heyday, and rationing increased the popularity of the family locker, Snyder believes. He predicts that as fresh foods become more plentiful, city people are more likely to drop out as customers, buying custom frozen foods in stores rather than processing their own.

As far as technique is concerned, great changes likely are in store in the processing of frozen food. Enzymes, which affect the ripening of fruits and vegetables have been inactivated in the past by steam or boiling water. In the future, they might be inactivated electronically, and thawing may be done the same way. Flash sterilization also may be a new development in the frozen food field, Snyder believes.

A great deal of research remains to be done on the use of salts and seasonings in sausage and

Junior High Band Making Good Progress

The Junior High Band did themselves proud last Saturday afternoon and as a reward for their good work there has been planned a picnic. The date will be announced next Monday at band period which in all probability, will be about the middle of that week. So everybody be there to get the details.

Several of the band members are absent this week. They are the boys who have gone to Camp Post and we will be glad when they are back with us next week. A lot of the responsibility for getting these kids to practice on time (every time) falls back on the parents. The High School band is far behind the Junior band in attendance these Tuesday and Thursday night rehearsals. Remember, for your boy or girl to get anything out of our rehearsals they must be there!

The number of beginners starting this summer is far below expectations. There are several instruments to be had now and this is the best time to start. If you are interested, see Mr. Horn at the School Auditorium or at 110 South B St.

Big plans are being made for the High School Band. New uniforms will be ordered soon and new instruments are being secured. Next season should be the best in many years for Brownfield Bands.

Building Permits Declining

Building permit records in the City Secretary's office, indicate a decline in number of houses to be constructed, in the last two weeks. The last half of April showed ten permits aggregating $25,000, and during May ten permits aggregating $40,000, while the first ten days of June showed only four, with $10,000.

It is noted however, that more than half of these is for a building costing more than $5,000, and nearly all were dwellings.

This would give a total to date of $340,400.00 for all permits during 1946.

Lions Off To Big Springs Meeting

A large number of Lions from the local club will go to Big Springs, Sunday, to attend the annual convention of District T-2, comprising the great West Texas District.

Their main object is to boost and elect Frank Jordan, District Governor. Sumptuous reservations have been made, in a leading hotel there for headquarters, and will wage strong effort to elect him.

This would be not only a signal honor for Lion Jordan, but would bring pride to our city.

Mr. W. S. Cooper, 87 of Morton, Texas, passed away, June 11th. He is the father of Mrs. Thad Risinger of this city. Funeral at Roscoe, Texas, today.

Other survivors are, W. S. Cooper of Morton, Mrs. J. H. Clarkson of Lubbock, Cliff Cooper of Little Rock, Ark. Four sons by a former marriage live at Roscoe. His wife will continue her residence in Morton.

Lonnie Sexton, son of T. G. Sexton, prominent farmer northwest of town, who sustained a badly broken jaw while riding a bull, in the rodeo at Lamesa last Saturday night, is convalescing in the Treadaway-Daniell hospital.

Mrs. A. M. Day wrote in this week from Salida, Calif., to get the Herald started. She stated they had good jobs, and were making money, but Brownfield still was home to them. Here she comes, Mrs. D.

Mr. H. M. King of Oklahoma City, Okla., was a weekend guest in the home of his brother, John B. King.

Other ground meats, and in determining the best kinds of wrappers and containers for frozen foods. A. and M. research workers are investigating both these problems, Snyder says.

Watch Those Softball Gals Go Places

By Babe Anderson

Last Thursday night, June 6th, the Brownettes stayed out in front of the Al's Taxi team with a blazing finish of 27-16 in the second league game of the season. Thursday night, June 13th, the Al's Taxi team will meet a fast team called the Plains Liquefied Gas at 6:00 P. M. and the two undefeated teams, the Brownettes and White Bears, will play a good game at 8:00 P. M.

Monday afternoon on the practice field, the powerful White Bears met the Plains Liquefied Gas team in the fastest, best game of the season, but with that coach Stuff Moorhead, the White Bears won by a margin of 2 to 1. It was a seven inning game and played in 45 minutes. Now who says those girls can't play ball! Another close practice game was Tuesday, when Al's Taxi won over Portwood Motor with a score of 12-9.

R. J. Purcell is sponsoring the Gomez team, called Plains Liquefied Gas, and the third team in the Athletic Club, called the Red Sox, is being sponsored by the Short Motor Co. and the Gunn Brothers.

There are interesting practice games every afternoon, except Thursday, which is used to play league games at the football field, playing two games on that night, one starting at six-thirty, the other at 8:00. The public is invited to see these practice games free, and of course you don't want to miss a league game on Thursday nights.

TEXAS TECH DEAN GETS POSITION AT STATE FAIR

Lubbock, June 11 — W. L. Stangel, dean of agriculture at Texas Technological College, has been named general superintendent of the livestock division of the State Fair of Texas to be held in Dallas Oct. 5-20. The exposition this year will be the first since 1941.

What Became Of The 1945's Feed Crop

College Station — Half of the feed produced in Texas in 1945, on the basis of total food value, was wasted.

That is the contention of G. G. Gibson, dairy specialist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, who points out that most sections of the state have 90 days of plentiful pasture and feed and a nine-month's period of getting by the best way they can.

In his estimate of lost food value which might be conserved for feeding, Gibson includes such potential crops as fence row Johnson grass, crop residue, and bundle feed which is stacked in the open. Rat and weevil damage to stored grain, of course, takes a heavy toll.

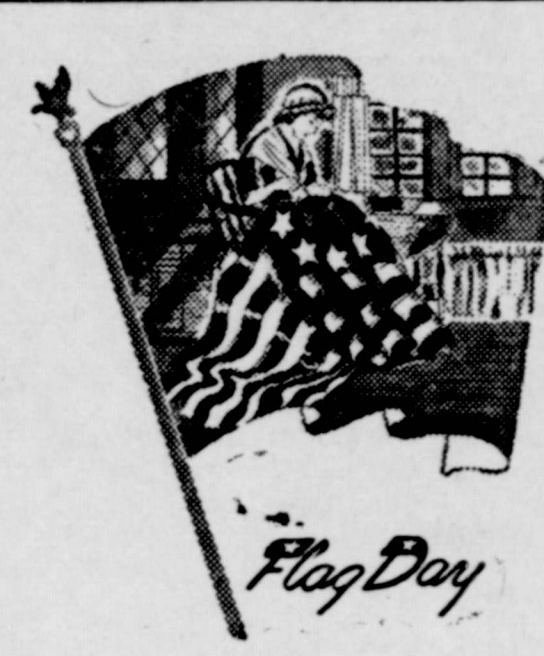

"There has never been a year when it is so important not only to produce as much feed as possible, but to save every bit that is produced," Gibson said.

He pointed to the silo, especially the trench silo, as the surest and least expensive method of storing feed.

"Some farmers point to high labor costs and labor shortage as the reason why trench silos were not dug and filled in 1945," Gibson added. "I believe that labor cost at its present level is not the limiting factor for food conservation in the face of the nation-wide food and feed shortage."

Mr. and Mrs. Don King and children Donna and John Richard, of Lubbock, were guests of Don's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John King, last week.

Noah Bell, well known ranchman of the Needmore vicinity, returned Wednesday from several weeks visit with his daughter, Mrs. Brock Gist, in southern California.

Soft Ball Games Still Hold Interest

Two of the tightest games of the season were played at the Club field here last Monday night, when Gene Gunn's team defeated Furr-Newsom's team, 12 to 11. In the second game the Jaycees scored 5 to Sinclair Oil 4.

In Tuesday nights games, Gene Gunn's again scored over Mack's Oil Well, 19 to 16, and in the second game Primm Drug's ran up 14 to Hamilton Tire 4.

National Guard Unit May Locate Here

The County Board of Development received notice from Major General Fred L. Walker of the National Guard, at Austin, that Brownfield has tentatively been selected as one of several sites for a unit of the National Guard, and would negotiate further if the city would furnish a 20 acre site, near town, with utilities available.

The building of barracks, and completion of grounds would be borne by the Federal War department. The proposed unit is a Cannon Co., with five officers and 76 enlisted men.

J. V. Burnett, president of the board immediately placed the offer before the Commissioners and City Council, who offered them a part of the County Park, the city expressing willingness to extend lights and either city water, or install an electric pump there. This tract seems to meet the general requirement. It awaits further orders from the department.

Civic clubs and the public are expected to aid in procuring this unit, as it means several nice buildings, and a payroll for the city. This is not to be confused with the State Guard, but will be under Federal supervision and expense.

Jaycees Install New Officers

The Junior Chamber of Commerce were to hold their annual installation of new officers last night. Buddy Gillham is their new President and Darold "Stuff" Moorhead to be the new Secretary. This club has been very active and useful in civic affairs of the city and county.

For Something Old—Cox Has A Check

R. C. Cox dropped in this week and began fumbling in his bill fold, and 'lowed as how he had a check, and wanted to ask the Old He if he endorsed it.

We had. But the doggone thing was 26 years old, given by Mr. Cox on the Brownfield State Bank to the Herald in 1920 for his paper.

The old check had the Old State Bank Guarantee of their deposits up in the upper left hand corner. W. H. Dallas was the president and O. T. Hawley cashier at that time.

LOCAL MAN LOSES HIS MOTHER

Mrs. M. E. Campbell, 87, mother of W. A. Tittle of this city, passed away June 7th at Odessa, after a long illness. Funeral services and burial was held Saturday afternoon at Merkel.

Mr. and Mrs. Tittle, Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Lowrimore, Alfred Tittle, and Mrs. Ona Faye Thornton, attended the funeral from here.

R. M. Kendrick returned early this week from a short visit to his wheat ranch in eastern Colorado. He reports excellent crops, of near 40 bushels per acre. This land was in the edge of the famous dust bowl of a few years back.

Cline Paden is leaving this week for California for a two week vacation, mostly, although he will hold a short meeting while away. He promises to beat the Old He, and bring a rain back with him.

Judge James P. Stinson of Abilene, has passed on. When the writer left Jones county 37 years ago, Stinson was the county judge, and we considered him a very good friend.

Local McMurry College Building Committee Announced

A district meeting was held at Lubbock on Monday afternoon to consider finishing the McMurry College campaign for building and endowment. Dr. Howard Cooke and Prof. J. E. Kirby from the college outlined the plan and Bishop C. C. Selectmon of Dallas spoke words of encouragement on this ambitious undertaking for the college.

Five local persons have been appointed to the Brownfield committee of the McMurry College Endowment and Building Campaign which is being pushed to completion by July 31.

The local committee is composed of J. O. Gillham, chairman, J. B. Knight, M. J. Craig, Leo E. Holmes and R. N. Huckabee.

The $1,750,000 campaign projected for McMurry College, and of which approximately $1,100,000 has been raised, was laid aside last year because of the worldwide Methodist Crusade for Christ, to be resumed in May, June and July by action of the Northwest Texas Conference, Mr. Gillham said.

DDT Recommendation Stated By A. & M.

College Station — Texas county agricultural agents have been advised that for the present, the only treatment recommended by the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service for the control of horn flies, lice and mosquitos on livestock in wettable DDT powder.

DDT for this purpose is now on the market in two very different forms, 1) dry, in wettable powder and 2) liquid, in oil or xylene solutions or emulsions. Both forms may be diluted with water for use as a spray or dip.

The decision to recommend only DDT in wettable powder form for use on livestock was made by a committee of entomologists and animal husbandmen who checked all known sources of information. The group will make further recommendations as research on DDT goes on.

The committee pointed out that DDT in wettable powder goes into suspension when diluted with water for use as a spray or dip. There was no evidence that it was harmful to animals even if used at strength somewhat greater than that recommended by the manufacturer.

It was further reported that "DDT in oil solution or emulsion form does not remain in suspension but goes into a true solution. When applied to animals in this form it can be absorbed through the animal's skin. If the solution is used as a spray or dip at less than the manufacturer's recommended strength, it may not give effective or lasting control. If it is used at more than the recommended strength and if the precautions listed by the manufacturer are not exactly followed, it may have toxic results."

Carlos B. Cross To Be A Printer

Carlos B. Cross, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cross of Wellman, who was until discharged, a sailor in Uncle Sam's navy, is learning the art of printing at the Herald office, on the GI plan of some pay from the government, and some from the Herald as he learns.

As he learns, the payments to him from the GI bill of rights will decrease and payments from the Herald increase. Carlos is making a good hand, keeps busy and is learning fast. He really means to learn.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Longbrake have returned from a two weeks vacation in Ruidoso.

spreads, or why it started at some isolated place. Fact is, the larger part of our food supplies are shipped in, and if we do not get rain soon, all of it may have to be shipped in.

Speaking of food and its conservation, the Coleman, Texas, Lions staged an emergency food drive for the starving in Europe and Asia recently by putting on a big dollar plate banquet. Anyone knows that a lot of good food is generally wasted at a banquet, and for that reason the idea will sound a bit screwy to a lot of people.

An army colonel and a WAC captain have been arrested for lifting some $150,000,000 of jewels from a German royal castle. And the GI's are saying if it was two of them, they would probably get a life sentence. On the other hand they say that the colonel and his lady will probably get 90 days with three good feeds per diem in some air conditioned federal prison.

Despite the fact that Ero. Tobin and his union teamsters and trucker are boycotting cotton, that article rose to 29 1/2c per pound last week on the market, the highest point it has reached in 23 years. We imagine the south will go ahead and live somehow, despite the ideas of those people with European ideas, and a half baked notion of what the constitution of the United States stands for.

Fifty years of the automobile has come and gone. Of course the younger generation takes them as a matter of course, but we older ones saw them when they were laughed at, and they were considered a rich man's plaything. And not a few of us have been overtaken by them along a not too well graded highway, and as they made more noise than the present day plane or motorcycle, we have quickly jumped out of our buggy to grab the bridle bits of our old nag. And, sometimes we were scared worse than the old pony, as that animal, just to plague us, was liable to start grazing on the roadside after giving the gas wagon one disinterested look as it chugged by. Yep, we had it done to us, and we know just how foolish you felt. Even after we came to Terry in 1909, our old livery stable man said they were just a passing fancy, a fad, and would soon pass. But, what has become of our hitching racks around the west and north side of the square; what has become of the watering place on the northeast and southwest corner of the square? What has become of the livery stable? No, the crude machines we had at that date was here to stay and to be improved.

Well dadgum. We are sure getting modern out in this neck of the woods. One week we had a new man out for state representative. He even announced in some of the papers, and the next week the officers at Lubbock had him under arrest for burglary. He promptly withdrew. Why? If he could have got out on bond, dressed up in prison stripes, secured a man with a fiddle and another with a steel guitar, he could have been elected.

The day is past and gone when we can sarcastically yell at people who want something we are supposed to have, "don't you know a war is on?" Now we can change that to "don't you know there is a strike on?"

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Murphy and Carter of Ft. Worth were weekend guests of Rev. and Mr. Joe P. Murphy.

We Visit The Old Home Of Our Name Sake

We have been modestly told by our elderly kin back in Tennessee while a youth, that we had the honor of being named before we were born, after one of Tennessee's three presidents. We have forgotten what our names was to have been if we had been a girl—but that doesn't count now. But it seems that we happened to be a delayed action of the stork in the Stricklin family, as our youngest sister, 5 years older than we, was supposed to be the last of the family.

Anyway, the Old He, wife, little grandson, JT, from Brownfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Rogers, of Middleton, Tenn., the latter our niece, "lit a shuck" for the big smokies early on Monday, May 20th, taking a northerly course to Jackson, thence slightly northeast to Nashville, reaching that city directly after the noon hour. As the Old He is a bit allergic to cities, we did not tarry long in the city that was once Ft. Nashboro, before Tennessee became a state. As a youth, we attended the Tennessee Centennial in 1897, and there still remains one of the permanent structures, the exact copy in steel and concrete of the Parthenon building in ancient Greece. Tennessee needs a new capitol building badly, as the present one was erected back near the middle of the past century. And we hope they do not move it to another site, as they have one of the most novel and beautiful sites for a capitol in the nation—a high hill, sloping from every direction, and even a squat building could be seen from nearly any direction, as skyscrapers can hardly hide it.

But the place that caught all of us more than most anything we saw on the entire trip was the Hermitage, out some 12 miles east of the city, and two or three miles off the main Lebanon highway. Some two hours of our time was spent in the old home of Andrew Jackson, 7th president of the United States. Most of us when students dreamed of Andrew Jackson, as a poor, downtrodden boy, and he was. Born in North Carolina, he was some 12 years old during the American revolutionary war, and it is related that he was made to shine the shoes of British officers, and was frequently slapped by them, as he was too independent to suit them. The story then goes on to say that he vowed revenge, and that he faced some of these British officers in the battle of New Orleans in the war of 1812-15, and had the satisfaction of licking the tar out of old General Packingham and his army, although the war was officially over at the time the battle was fought, thanks to the slow communications at that time.

The Hermitage looks very much alike from the front and rear, as the inevitable huge columns adore both sides. The only difference is that the kitchen protrudes from the rear. Everything possible is left very much as it was when Gen. Jackson returned from Washington after his two terms as president, even to the old carriage in which he crossed the blue ridge mountains to Washington, and an occasional trips back to Nashville and home. Those huge four poster beds for he and the entire family, are there as of yore, including the drapery and spreads. But of most interest to young people was the kitchen and the utensils people of that day used, especially in a huge mansion of the calibre of the Hermitage. Many other visitors were there and going through. Then there were the relics he won for his successful war with the Creek and Seminole Indians as well as the British. Some of these were presented by grateful states and cities, but the most conspicuous was the gold sword presented by Tennessee. Then there was his favorite army uniform, very radical in design from the present uniform even of generals, including the cocked and tasseled hat. We did not join the rest of the crowd in climbing the steps to see the guest rooms, which they stated were beautifully furnished.

A trip through the garden, burial grounds and the cabins of the old Negro gardener, ended the tour. The grounds, garden, stables, etc., are as interesting as the old mansion. There are the graves of the general and his beloved wife, Rachel, as well as other members of the family and the old gardener and his family, clustered around a huge magnolia. Throughout the grounds huge red cedar trees reach for the skies, and do not in the

Evidently someone last week, or sooner, begin to take up the idea that polio could be shipped in here with melons coming from south Texas, and conveyed their idea to Mayor Frank Jordan. His honor and the writer held a short conversation about the matter, and in the first place decided that there was little anyone can do about the matter of stopping it. In the second place, a second thought reveals the fact that not only melons, but all kinds of vegetables and fruits are coming from the same place. Yes we know that vegetables are cooked, but citrus fruits are not, generally speaking. Most of us humans get all heat up when any danger arises, and we begin to study ways and means without taking a common sense view of the matter. Of course no one wants polio to spread over this section, but even the medical profession are rather vague about how it

Americanism?

There is no mystery in Americanism. It is the warrant that any man may be Master of his Fate and Captain of his Soul.

The National Americanism Endowment Fund, headed by President Truman, is asking the Americans of Texas to contribute $450,000 toward the national goal of a $15,000,000 trust fund to further a broad—and urgent—program of widespread education in the fundamentals of Constitutional Americanism. Make your check payable to The American Legion—Americanism Endowment Fund—Austin, Texas.

Behind the Scenes in American Business

By John Craddock

NEW YORK, June 10 — Figures compiled by the Federal Reserve System indicate that employment and production have held up unusually well in the face of recurring strikes. Overall industrial production declined only 2 per cent during April while employment rose about 350,000. Production of such things as household appliances, furniture, automobiles and building materials recorded gains over the level of the preceding month. Rising prices were also apparent in a number of commodities. Grain price ceilings were increased substantially on May 13. Recent advances for industrial products were mostly between 10 per cent and 20 per cent, although the rise in automobile prices was smaller. People showed little inclination to cut down on their buying and department store sales during May were reported one-third larger in value than in the corresponding period of 1945. Part of that increase is, of course, attributable to higher prices. The sum of all this indicates that production is ready and willing to move considerably higher once labor and management settle their differences.

VITAMINS FOR EVERYONE—Vitamin conscious Americans are drinking more citrus juices than ever before. As a result, the volume of canned citrus juices has more than tripled in the past five growing seasons. Currently, the canning companies are packaging it at the rate of more than two quarts a year for every man, woman and child in the country. W. C. Stolk, vice president of American Can Company, attributes this unprecedented volume to several reasons: greater public appreciation of the food value, additional growing acreage, improved processing methods, and higher speed filling and closing machinery. He says that the phenomenal development of the citrus juice industry began during the depression years. During the early 1920's, people became acquainted with the value of vitamins. About the same time American Can Company, in close cooperation with the citrus industry, helped to develop improved processing techniques which enabled more efficient canning of the juices. An indication of the growth is given in figures for Florida. In the 1929-30 growing season that state shipped 212,000 cases of orange and grapefruit juice, while in the past season 32,705,900 cases of Florida juices were packed.

THINGS TO COME — A hoeing machine with an electric eye. Designed for weeding operations in such crops as sugar beets and cotton, it separates weeds from crops through electronic action . . . A new coin radio set which operates two hours for a quarter. It is designed for hotel rooms . . . Armor plate, made partly of nylon, it contains two layers of nylon and is said to be strong enough to stop a 22-caliber bullet fired from a distance of 20 feet . . . A new synthetic floor covering made of Koroseal that is said to be both long-lasting and flame-resistant. It is more expensive than linoleum, but extra durability recommends it for industrial plants . . . A motion picture film which emits its own light instead of reflecting it. It should prevent people from stumbling over one another in the darkened auditorium . . . A new electrical fuse which eliminates the question of “which one blew.” It has a large “OK” marked on its surface and the sign will be mutilated when the fuse blows.

BITS O' BUSINESS — While government officials worry about feeding the world, housewives are doing a little worrying about such prosaic things as bread and butter. Bread production dropped 25 per cent below normal during May and will slump more this month. Demand is estimated at 30 per cent to 40 per cent above the 1945 level, and millers are nearly out of wheat. Butter price was hiked 11 cents a pound to an official 65 cents, but black market operators have been getting $1 for it for some time, so kitchen tables are likely to get little more than they have been . . . Mills have been consuming wool as heavily as they did when the armed services were taking most of the cloth, but men's suits are no easier to obtain . . . If you are finding it difficult to get men's shirts, here is an item with a misery-likes-company slant: The Army, no longer backed by wartime priorities, is having just as difficult a time. And, the Army wants to buy 4,718,000 shirts instead of just a couple . . . Real estate dealers report a growing reluctance on the part of home buyers to pay “anything” for a house . . . Ironic note: John L. Lewis was the chief complainer when air-conditioning in Krug's Washington office was shut off because of the coal shortage.

USDA'S BIRTHDAY . . . The United States department of agriculture celebrates its 84th birthday, May 15. The act to establish the department was approved May 15, 1862. Isaac Newton, right, served as the first head of the department. He died July 19, 1897, the result of a sunstroke suffered while working in experimental plot. Left, Clinton P. Anderson, the present secretary of agriculture.

ACE CARD—“Cotton is the ace card in the hand of the farmer. Because we have seen cotton become a life-saver many times for farmers whose plans to grow other crops had not worked out, we believe that cotton should have a definite place in farm plans, every year.”—“Farming for Profit.”

U. S. COMPROMISE ON SPAIN IS ACCEPTED

New York, June 13 — Accepting a United States compromise plan, Dr. Herbert V. Evatt, of Australia, chairman of the U. N. security council sub-committee which investigated Spain, proposed today that the Spanish question be referred to the general assembly for its action.

Dr. Evatt opened the security council session with an announcement that the sub-committee had approved modifications of its recommendations as suggested by Herschel V. Johnson, acting United States delegate.

Initiative

The son of a drainage engineer, who had done a great deal of supervisory work with and for his father was inducted into the United States Army during the war. Before he had grown familiar with discipline he found himself digging a ditch to divert surface water from camp. His instructions had been verbal and reasonably plain but were not precise in every detail.

The youth had some knowledge of soil drainage and a real interest in it, so he set about to distinguish himself with good workmanship. When he was nearly half finished, his sergeant appeared, ruddy with indignation. Firmly the sergeant denounced the breach of discipline, going beyond orders. The recruit was confused and made a second mistake, speaking in his own defense.

Central Planning

"But, Sergeant, I thought..."
"Oh, you thought!" scornfully echoed his superior. "What right have you got to think? Are you drawing a thinking man's pay?"

Such is regimentation! The young man was not in school, where superior work yields superior grades. He was not in business, where better work means better pay. He was in the army.

This is not a criticism of military discipline or army efficiency. I am no military expert. I use this story to illustrate how regimentation kills initiative. By the very nature of its workings, it is destructive of progress in peaceful pursuits. In despot-ruled countries, things happen to all thinking civilians very much like what the young recruit experienced.

Competition a Remedy

In lands where authority is completely centralized, strict obedience to orders is the matter of gravest importance to private individuals. However wise and kind the dictator, when power-hungry henchmen reach into what we Americans call private business (as invariably they do) progress is paralyzed. Farmers and all other workers learn from unhappy experience to do as they are told, period.

Admittedly, parallel things happen occasionally in private enterprise but competition corrects them. Sometimes owners of businesses become indifferent, live apart from their interests and try to run live industries by dictum, as if methods they worked out years ago were eternally right. These cases develop their own cure quickly. Every office and every shop of such a proprietor becomes a hatchery of potential competitors.

Efficiency Rewarded

American business in general is operated with an aim to get maximum yield per hour of work. Executives and supervisors exist for no other purpose. More yield per hour means better wages for workers, more profit for management and lower prices for buyers who consume what is produced. The newest recruit on any job can get paid for an idea that improves production. America is famous as the best place on earth to live. Many people know it who don't know why, but here's why: In America, ideas count. No matter who originates them, they have value. Anybody with an idea is free to use it and, if it's good, we all benefit. Thus, Americans live better than people under centrally planned systems where only the few think who are officially appointed to think.

The International Bottle Club, whose members make a hobby of enclosing messages in a bottle, then tossing them into rivers or seas, was founded in 1926, by Col. Edward P. Bailey, San Marino, California.

GIVE COTTON A CHANCE—

"If we give cotton a chance, it will become as dynamic and progressive as any fiber on the market today—constantly improving its usefulness to mankind and its attractiveness to those who grow and process it." — Congressman Stephen Pace of Georgia.

SPEED INCREASES VALUE—

"Any machine or procedure that will enable cotton to be harvested early will materially increase the value of the crop." — Dr. J. E. Adams, Delta Station, Stoneville, Miss.

HONOR U. S. DEAD IN EUROPE . . . White crosses and stars in every country where American soldiers fought against Hitler's army, bear testimony to the sacrifice of U. S. lives. The liberated people of these countries now honor the U. S. war dead as fervently as their own. The photograph shows French and American officers saluting. Beyond the graves were the hills through which the Allied forces pushed their way to the Rhine.

Information On Vets Artificial Limbs

An improved nation-wide program to provide accurate information and prompt service on artificial limbs for some 23,000 amputees—most of whom served in World War II—is under development by the Veterans administration, Dr. Oza J. LaBarge, chief medical officer at the VA Lubbock regional office, announced today.

The program will be conducted by newly-designated and specially trained contact representatives, all of whom have major amputations themselves.

They will operate from the Dallas branch office and from VA's regional offices in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi, Dr. LaBarge said.

The new type of contact men will be trained not only to provide information and advice on prosthetic devices, but also to help amputees select proper devices and to assist rating boards considering amputee cases.

Their training further will enable them to explain veterans' rights generally so that they may serve as advisors to all veterans.

Men hired for this new type of contact work will be given special training in VA's Central office, Washington, D. C.

Dr. LaBarge said the operation of the prosthetic appliance program will revolve around the specially trained contact representatives because they will meet the veterans daily and learn their individual problems.

They will also aid veterans with hearing aids, artificial eyes and other prostheses.

WHO LIVES HERE?

It has been estimated that we have in America a third of a million Indians; a third of a million Orientals, Filipinos and Mexicans; sixty million Anglo-Saxons; ten million Irish; thirteen million negroes; fifteen million Italians; two million Frenchmen; four million Scandinavians and one million each of Finns, Lithuanians and Greeks. Everyone in this conglomeration is supposed to be American, at least they united as such to win the war. Yes, they were all American at war, but if they cannot be Americans at peace and unite in preserving the "Spirit of 1776" let us sort out the dissenters and reconduct them to the places whence they came. Let us make America American. — "Masonic News of Idaho."

Rocket Proving Ground At White Sands, N. M.

Schenectady — There's a gold prospector in New Mexico, near the place where V-2 rocket tests are being made, and he has a plan which would have him a lot of digging.

The plan was told in a General Electric Science Forum address over WGY and WGFM by Lt. Col. H. R. Turner, commanding officer of the White Sands, N. Mex., Proving Grounds for the 46-ft. rockets.

"You see," Colonel Turner said, "when we selected the White Sands Proving Grounds, we naturally selected a section of the country that was pretty sparsely inhabited, away from railroads and airlines. But within this area there is a gold prospector who owns a mountain, and he has been pestering us to aim a rocket over his way and blow up the mountain. He said this would save him a lot of digging, but I'm afraid

The Gloucester Leg Stool, with which tired business men can relax with their feet up at a comfortable angle, was the result of a hobby of a retired business man.

Sing Sing prison was built by a construction force from Auburn penitentiary.

Samuel Wilson was the original "Uncle Sam." He was a native of Troy, N. Y.

Surveys among newspaper readers indicate that not more than 11 per cent would like to have their newspapers without display advertising.

New York and California have more federal employees within their borders than the District of Columbia.

Colonel Turner revealed that Army Ordnance engineers plan to send up 24 more rockets, in addition to the one that was successfully launched May 10. "That means," he pointed out, "if we follow our schedule, we'll celebrate the fourth of July about four times a month for the next five months at White Sands."

TRY A HERALD WANT AD

IT'S VERY SIMPLE, Jim. When a man's handicapped, what does he do? Well, the right kind works hard to overcome it. He asks for no special treatment, yet is doubly anxious to get ahead. That's why he's a steadier employee, a more loyal one, and generally a more productive one!

"Big industrial employers have known that for years! During the past twenty years, over a million men have been physically handicapped in industrial accidents. Yet, their records, after returning to work, are so excellent, it's almost unbelievable! But it's true! Bill, there, is proving how true it is, right in my own shop!"

Yes, Mr. Employer, the disabled war veteran can be a valuable asset to your business. He has become more mature, more reliant. He has learned new skills, developed new talents while in service! He has broadened his education through courses offered by "USAFI" (U. S. Armed Forces Institute). He is thoroughly equipped, when properly placed, to do an outstanding job for you!

If you will study your business, thinking in terms of what the handicapped veteran can do, instead of what he cannot, you will be amazed at the number of jobs he can fill.

The Veterans' Employment Representative of the U. S. Employment Service can help you make your job analysis—whether you employ two men, or ten thousand—and give you the facts on disabled veterans in your community. Get in touch with him at your local U. S. Employment Service office at your earliest opportunity!

READ THESE STARTLING FACTS ABOUT DISABLED EMPLOYEES!

Industrial employers have found,* by actual experience with over a million men, that physically disabled workers, when properly placed, have:

- 1 FEWER Accidents!
- 2 FEWER Absences!
- 3 FEWER Resignations!
- 4 FEWER Discharges for cause than the average for all other groups!

Suntan Not Needed To Cure Rickets

Schenectady — It is not necessary to get a suntan, from long exposure to ultraviolet rays, to cure or prevent rickets, according to Dr. Lewis R. Koller of the General Electric Research Laboratory.

"The antirachitic effect is quite independent of the tanning effect. Rickets can be prevented and cured by repeated doses of ultraviolet too small to produce any tanning," Dr. Koller said in a General Electric Science Forum address here.

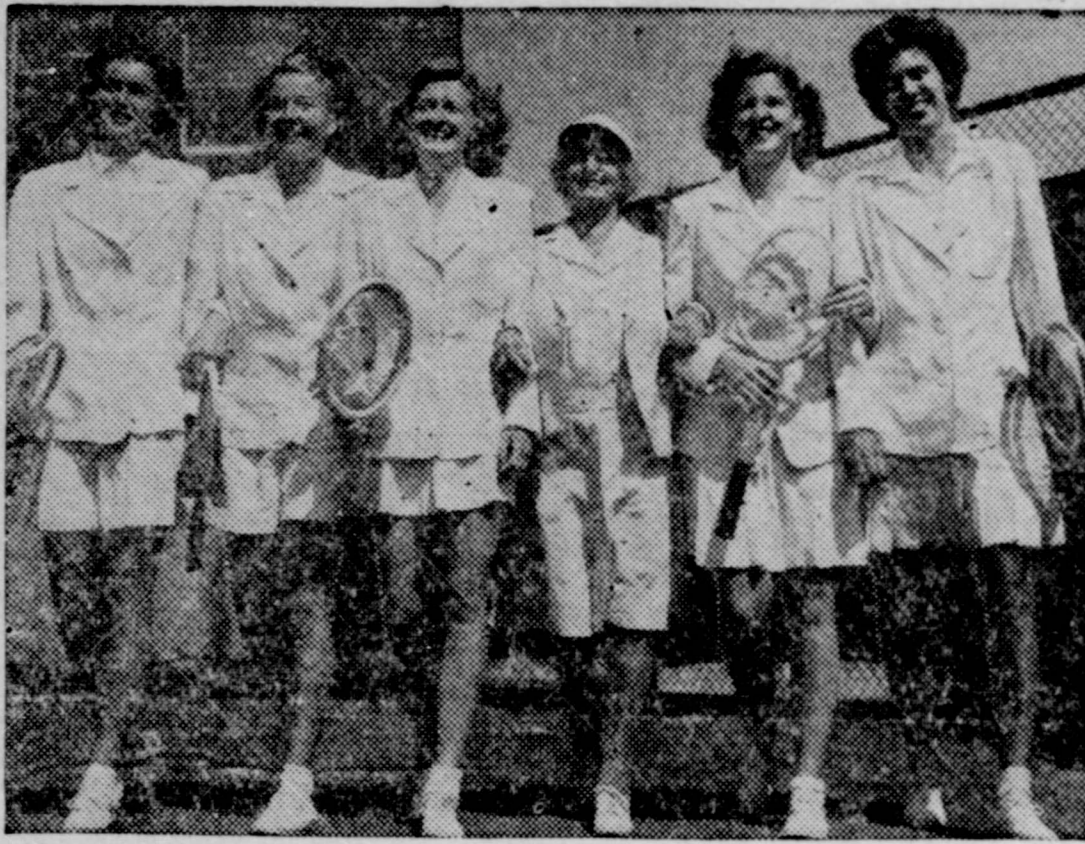

Ultraviolet does not penetrate very far into the body tissue, Dr. Koller pointed out. "It is practically all absorbed in the first millimeter of skin," he said.

"Ultraviolet radiation either from the sun or from ultraviolet lamps has the property of converting certain substances present in the skin to vitamin D," Dr. Koller explained. The value of ultraviolet for this purpose has been definitely confirmed, "and we know quite accurately the amount of energy required at various wavelengths," he asserted.

Houston, June 13 — Bonnie, a white spaniel, was despondent when her litter of seven pups was taken from her but she soon found a substitute for their feeding activities.

She's adopted a baby skunk who was found beside his dead mother on a highway.

Bonnie feeds the skunk, the skunk has a mother. Everyone's happy except Bonnie's owners, Jon and Edward Bourg, who fear the little animal will grow into a stinker.

COMPLICATIONS FOR BIG FOUR . . . While the Big Four conference in Paris faces many difficult problems involving treaties and claims and boundaries, the Turkish situation presents future complications. In the lark areas shown are the three buffer states of the Near East and Middle East. Here the strategic and economic interests of Russia and the western powers meet. Control of the Dardanelles is a vital issue and Russia has sought to press claims on Turkey's eastern frontiers. Arrows on the map show how use of the straits cuts 3,000 miles from the supply line to Russia. At the opening sessions the Big Four sidestepped the troublesome Trieste and Italian colonial questions and began the consideration of the Italian-French frontier, the size of Italy's future armed strength and disposal of her surplus shipping. France's proposal to add internationalization of the Ruhr and detachment of the Rhineland from Germany to the agenda, added further complications. British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin caused another upset by insisting that Belgian, Dutch and Luxembourg representatives be permitted to sit in on such negotiations as spokesmen for nations which suffered heavily through German aggression.

A 1910 Model Candidate Card Recalls Hot Campaign

While Bill Lindley was remodeling the old Doggie Patterson home near Seagraves recently, he ran onto a 1910 model candidate card. It was one put out by Reuben M. Eller, of Plainview, who was an unsuccessful candidate for district attorney of the old 64th district, of which this bunch of counties down here was then a part. L. C. Penry was the incumbent, and successful in the July primary.

Just a few of the real old timers, such as John Burnett, H. H. Longbrake, Brit Clare, Bill Fulton, Noah Bell, the writer and the like, will remember, but it was a hot one, no holds barred, and only one primary—no runoff. At that time Plainview was by far the largest city in the district. It was not only the home of the two contestants for district attorney, but of the lamented District Judge L. S. Kinder, as well.

But about 1912 the 72nd was created with our old and tried friend, the late Judge W. R. Spencer named judge by Gov. Colquitt. Spencer held the office till his death many years later. J. E. Vickers of Lubbock was named the district attorney, but was defeated by the late Judge G. E. Lockhart, then of Tahoka, but for several years a citizen of Gomez and head of their schools.

In the twenties another district was cut from the original 64th, and the 106th, composed of Yoakum, Terry, Lynn, Garza, Dawson and Gaines, was formed, and officers appointed till election time by Gov. Jim Ferguson. Yep, that was a hot race—Penry and Eller—and the writer came near seeing at least one nasty fight over the matter.

So you see, there is still a lot of us left that have lived in three judicial districts and three congressional districts, the 16th, 17th and 19th, as well as two or three senatorial and representative dis-

Three Charged With Tire Theft Here

Three young men, two of them married, all local residents, were apprehended late last week, and charged with theft of three tires from a wrecked pick-up car here in town, a week before.

Tires were found sold in Lubbock. They were arrested, one at Berger, one at Canyon, and one at Olney. They were admitted to bail.

Deserter From Navy Arrested Here

City police force apprehended a young man, son of well to do parents in the south side of the county, Monday, for questioning on several minor offenses, and lodged in county jail.

County officers notified the FBI, whose agent got an admission from him that he had gone AWOL from the navy several months ago. He was turned over to a navy officer Tuesday afternoon.

Airport Building Contract Rejected

As there arose some misunderstanding between the low bidder some time ago for construction of the City-County Airport buildings east of town, and local authorities, over the contract following same. A joint meeting of the City and County officials, last Monday rejected the bid.

They will re-advertise same for a new letting soon.

The high school age group of the Church of Christ daily vacation Bible school were given a trip through the Carlsbad Caverns Monday as an award for their attendance at the school. A bus was chartered and 39 enjoyed the trip. Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Hicks and Mr. Cline Paden accompanied the young people. Enroute home the group stopped in Carlsbad for skating and bowling and supper.

More than that if east Texas would follow the constitution and allow the state to be re-districted.

Commissioners To Let Road Contracts

After advertising for bids, the Commissioners will let contracts for construction of 28 miles of farm-to-market roads, on July 18, if the bids are not too high. The Court made it plain, they would not hesitate to reject all bids they considered excessive.

One of these roads is to begin at Forrester gin, thence south and east in direction of the Cedar Lake oil fields. The other begins on Yoakum county line, thence due east via Wellman to intersect the above named road, near Forrester gin. Other roads are to be bid for, as soon as engineers can finish surveying.

The commissioners are securing right of way, and caliche pits, from which to make the foundation, and this to be hot-topped with gravel and asphalt.

County HD Club To Send Delegates

All home demonstration clubs this month, were asked to name a nominee for the meeting of the State Home Demonstration association. At the meeting of the County home demonstration council in the district court room last Saturday, the group was told that the election meeting will be held immediately following the council meeting in July. All nominees will be introduced at the July council and the three receiving the largest number of votes will be the delegates to the state meeting in Amarillo in August.

The council voted to sell waste paper and rags to those companies who are in need of them.

Each club was asked to try to get a correspondent in the same community and report to the Terry County Herald.

Anti-Firecracker Law—Thanks To City Dads

If the present City Council does nothing else commendable during the present term, one thing they have done will stand out like a sore thumb to the thinking people of the town. That is the anti-firecracker law passed in May. We have really waited too long on this ordinance. Already some have suffered by the careless use of this useless thing in the hands of thoughtless youths.

Right here it would not be amiss to remind parents or guardians that they will be held responsible for the use of fire works in the hands of their children. If you did not read the ordinance when it was printed in the papers, better do so and get posted on the law and its penalties.

We have often wondered who got the idea first, that the loud and terrifying explosion of fire crackers was a fitting way to celebrate the birth of Christ, one of the most peaceable and modest men that ever lived upon this earth.

Noise and confusion, burns, bruises and wrecks were as far from His nature as the north pole is from the outh. Again, the Herald commends the city council for the step they have taken to eradicate one of the greatest nuisances ever perpetrated on civilized man, so far as the city of Brownfield is concerned.

Could it be possible that the County Commissioners could by law take the same step in regards to the whole county?

Marking 50 YEARS of FORD Progress

1896-1946

Just fifty years ago, on a quiet, rainy day in June, the first practical Ford car chugged erratically along a Detroit street. It was powered by a small, two-cylinder engine, steered with a tiller and looked like a buggy with bicycle wheels. It was the forerunner of all the many millions of Ford cars that have contributed so greatly to the steady development of individual transportation and to the growth of a nation.

In these fifty years, the basic Ford policy has never varied—to build through constant research and refinement an ever better product at the lowest possible price.

The results of this policy are ever greater economy, comfort, reliability and value. We are proud of our association with the creation of this great industry, and proud to join the thousands of Ford people all over the world in celebrating this milestone of automobile history—the Golden Anniversary of the Ford car.

"Fifty Years of Ford Progress" — an illustrated history of automotive development—is yours for the asking. Get your free copy of this colorful story at our salesroom, with our compliments.

What Is Americanism?

By Channing Pollock

In support of the campaign of the National Americanism Endowment Fund to raise $450,000 in Texas, as the opening of a $15.1,000,000 nation wide drive to support an expanded program of public welfare work and education in the fundamental principles of Constitutional Americanism, permission to use this editorial was given The American Legion by Channing Pollock, famous playwright and essayist, and King Features, Inc. (Editor's Note).

The United States is unique in that most of its population started at scratch.

Our original settlers, James Truslow Adams says in "The Epic of America," came from prisons, from hovels, from little farm cottages, from country manor houses and rectories, but never from palaces."

Europe was frozen into ruts from which it was impossible for anyone to escape; frozen into classes, and limitations of earning power, and prescribed religious faiths. A poor man must remain poor; a common man remain obsequious and subservient.

So THE best of Europe, in the sense that they were the hardest and most enterprising, set forth on the long, painful and hazardous voyage to a wilderness sunlit by opportunity. Here, they believed, were to be found fair rewards for industry, thrift and intelligence, and social position depending wholly upon these. They wanted food and freedom; material betterment and things of the spirit.

Fundamentally, theirs was the religion of self-reliance. Let everyone be his own man, and let the best man win. There was no room for weaklings and parasites,

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

Well folks, this is anniversary week here in Hickory. This Hickory Grove essay—this weekly literary gem—this symposium of heavy thinkin' and brilliance—it is just completing a 10-year continuous run and is startin' its eleventh year. Folks who say that the day of miracles is past, they can revise their ideas. Anything can happen. This essay proves same. So any young feller thinkin' he don't maybe have a chance or something, he can shut off his squawk. All anybody needs to do, is do something. If you do it good like with this young guy Clag-horn—the Senator—or if you do it more on the order of this column, you will eat—most of the time. I mean you will eat if these dude farmers there in Theorland on the Potomac will go on home and quit tellin' the farmer and his wife which is the wrong or right end of a cow for gettin' milk.

Opportunity is whamin' on all sides—just one thing you gotta do to squeeze in the door — black, white or bronze. Perspiration is it.

READ HERALD WANT ADS

The "delicate and unfitted . . . that cannot endure the biting of a musketo," William Bradford, one of the leaders, wrote, "we would wish to keep such at home, till at least they are musketo proof." A Maryland colonist recorded that "the Son works as well as the Servant, so that before they eat their bread they must earn it." If they worked well enough, the bread might become cake.

Out of all this came not only the best government, the strongest and most prosperous nation in history, but the blossoming, throughout the Occidental world, of the bud of liberty that had been more than a thousand years in development. As Ogden Mills pointed out in "The Seventeen Million," it is no accident that material progress has been greater during the last 150 years than in all the preceding centuries. The explanation is that in 1776 these settlers, these seekers after freedom and opportunity, proclaimed both, that the ideal became almost universal, and that henceforth men assured of the full rewards of their labor, of the right to think and speak and act as they pleased within laws of their own making, reached a new zenith of happiness and achievement.

There is no mystery in Americanism. It is the warrant that a man may be Master of his Fate and Captain of his Soul. You will find it in every paragraph of the Declaration of Independence, beginning with the assertion that Governments derive "their just powers from the consent of the governed," and throughout the Constitution, which provides for political equality and free and secret elections.

It provides more: The protection of minorities against majorities. "Consent of the governed" doesn't mean 51 percent of the governed, but ALL of them. The fact—if it were a fact—that 99 percent of our citizens voted to take the life, liberty or property of the remaining one percent gives them no right to do so under the Constitution. These guarantees were safeguarded by what has been called a system of checks and balances—by provision for the independent functioning of the Executive, Legislative and Judiciary branches of Government.

They were further safeguarded by the first ten amendments to the Constitution, known as the Bill of Rights. Among these rights are:

The right of free speech and a free press; that is, the right to hold and express opinion, and to free sources or information. Also, the right to get together for public or private discussion and the right to worship as we choose.

The right to bear arms—to protect ourselves, by force if need be, against tyranny.

The right to be secure in our persons, houses, papers and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures.

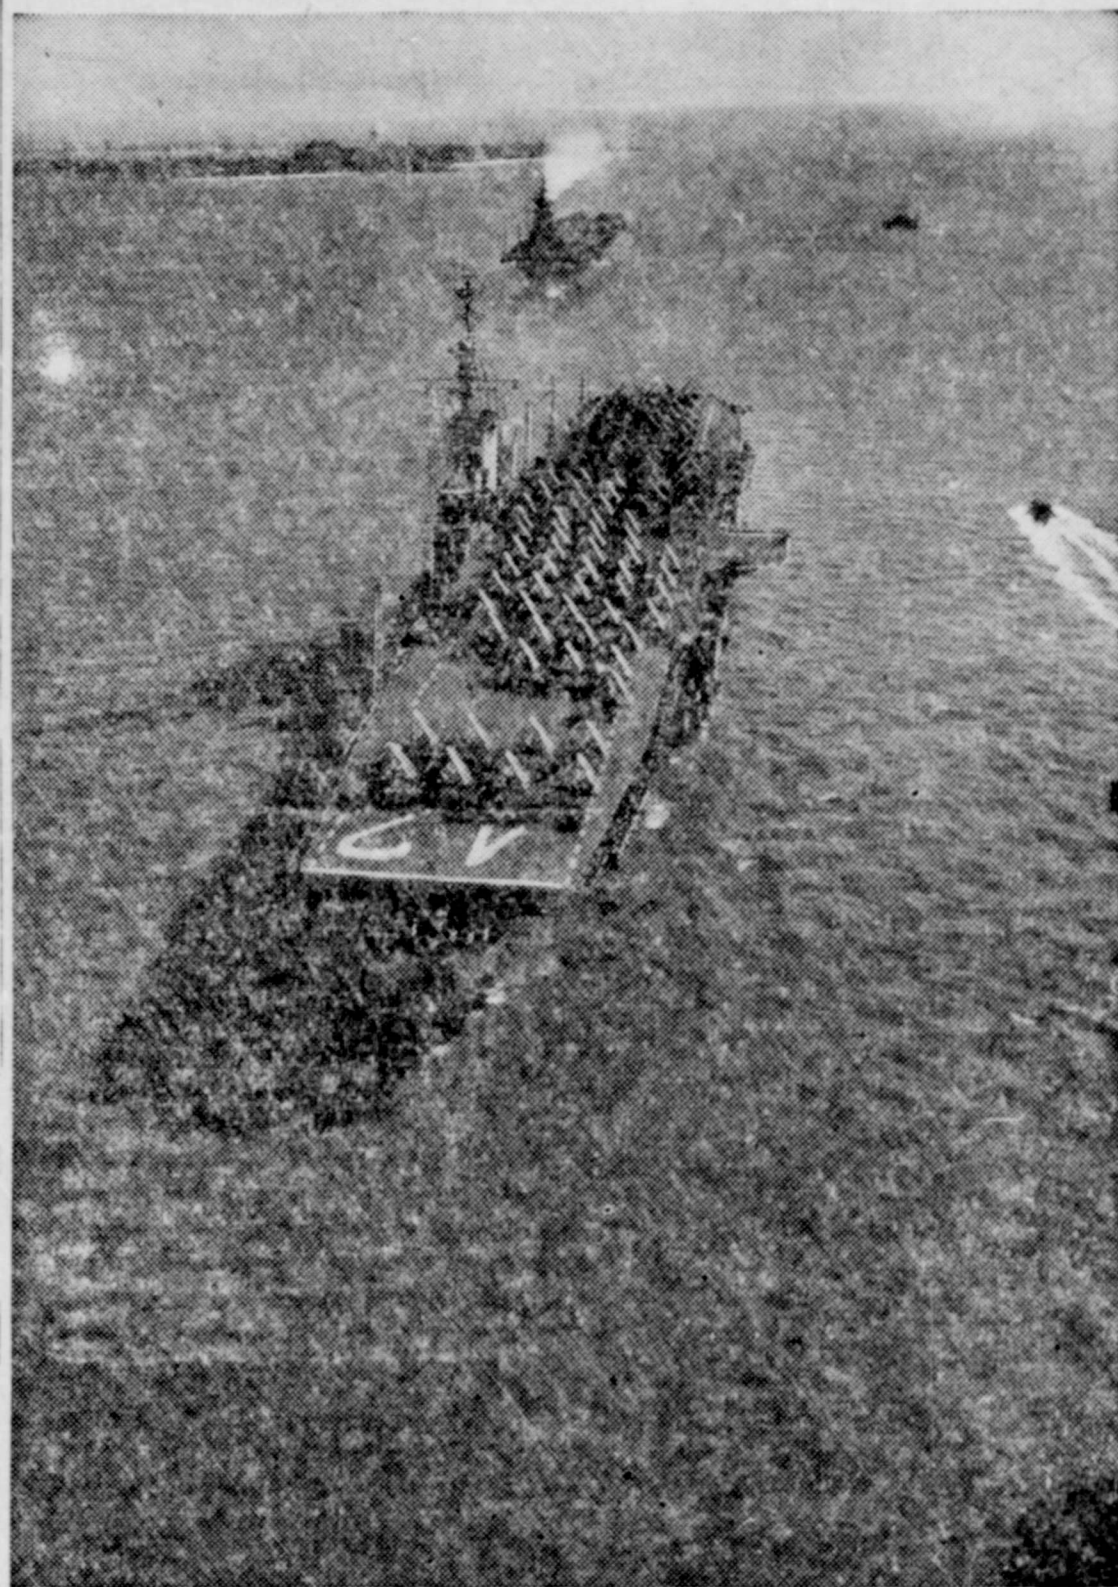

The guarantees that we shall not be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law, "nor shall private property be taken for public use without just compensation." What constitutes a fair trial is defined, and punishment is limited.

Finally, if in common sense and the spirit of the Declaration and the Constitution, you have any right that was overlooked, you are assured that it remains your right.

All these rights, and many more, have been nullified and violated under the "isms"—Communism and Fascism—now being urged as superior to Americanism. Naturally, I have spoken of the spread of liberty "throughout the Occidental world," but it never spread to the Orient. Slavery and absolute monarchy, under whatever name, have continued to be Eastern concepts, and were adopted by the Facists. Individualism is an Occidental invention, collectivism is Oriental.

The possessor of the blessings of Americanism will do well to think hard before he sacrifices any of them to the fancied security of a planned economy or a Totalitarian State. Whatever they promise can be no compensation for having every word and deed reported by secret police, for dreading the knock of the Gestapo or the Ogpu, and liquidation at the nod of dictatorship.

There's no need for any radical change in Americanism. We've done pretty well without that change so far, and none of the recently instituted "isms" seems to have helped much. Slow, normal and organic development within the framework of the Constitution is another thing, and it has been going on from the beginning.

But Communism and Fascism are Asiatic systems, and a sure return to the bondage from which we escaped more than two centuries ago.

Coronet Spotlights Texas' Silk Industry

The Lone Star State is out to end Japan's silk monopoly and provide America with a new major industry!

The enterprising citizens of Mineral Wells believe that within five years Texas will have about 1,000,000 acres devoted to sericulture—the production of silk. In a June CORONET article, SILK STOCKINGS FOR YOU—FROM TEXAS, Willard C. Haselbush tells that with this revolutionary impetus from Texas, silk will become a No. 1 American enterprise.

The new industry will provide jobs for thousands of wounded and incapacitated war veterans, for the crippled and the blind. CORONET also prophesies that there will be a huge cash crop for farmers who can plant anything from a few rows to hundreds of acres of mulberry trees.

Mineral Wells' unique venture began in 1944—and by last December they had acquired 63,000 leaf producing trees, raised more than 1,000,000 worms, turned out hosiery made of Texas silk, and wound up the year with corporate assets $6,000 greater than the initial investment.

4-H "Cook" Cut Use Of Wheat, Fats, Oils To Aid Starving Lands

Club girls participating in the National 4-H Food Preparation Activity are on the job to help relieve famine abroad. Specifically, they are conserving wheat, fats and oils in preparing and serving family meals.

Among their conservation measures are: Substituting oatmeal, potato or soy flour for wheat in bread . . . Replacing bread with potatoes in stuffings and in making fluffy topping for meat pies . . . Using stale bread in escalloped dishes, and for French toast . . . Serving raw vegetables from their Victory gardens in salads with homemade boiled dressing instead of oils . . . Baking or broiling, instead of frying fish, to conserve fats . . . Using meat drippings for cooking and seasoning foods, to save cooking oils . . . Serving fruits instead of cakes and pastries for desserts.

The youthful "cooks" are also showing community groups through demonstrations and talks how to stop waste and conserve food.

Merit awards will be given by Servel for outstanding records. County winners will receive medals. The state winner will be a guest-delegate at the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago. National winners will receive $200 college scholarships.

County 4-H Girls Hold Dress Revue

Nineteen girls from Union, Meadow, and Wellman 4-H clubs displayed dresses they made themselves this spring, in a dress revue held at the Jessie G. Randal school auditorium Saturday morning. The meeting was opened with recreation, consisting of a singsong and games played in club meetings this year.

The girls were divided into three groups, according to their ages, for the purpose of judging work. Those in group one, were ten and eleven years of age; those in group two were twelve and thirteen; while group three consisted of girls fourteen to twenty years of age.

All girls took part in the judging, guided by Mrs. Jake Gore and Mrs. J. O. Burnett Jr., both home making teachers of the Brownfield high school. Winners of group one were: Yvonne Herring, Union, first; Joyce Bruce, Union, second; and Lee Nell Walker, Meadow, third. Those of the second group were: Linnie D. Hawkins, Wellman, first; Juanice McBeth, Wellman, second; and Betty June Howard, Meadow, third. The older group of girls were judged by the two home making teachers. Winner of first place was Velma Jean Bruce, and second Ellen Hill. Both are members of the Union 4-H Club.

Velma Jean Bruce, winner of the first place in the older group, will make a trip to Plainview Friday, June 14, accompanied by Juanice McBeth, Yvonne Herring, Mrs. Clyde Heafner and Miss Helen Dunlap, County Home Demonstration Agent.

Juanice McBeth of Wellman was placed first among the 4-H club presidents who made short talks and wrote papers on their club work. The reporters wrote the story of the dress revue and Yvonne Herring, winner of first place will have her story printed in the newspapers.

Since the girls are to be accompanied by a club sponsor, they voted to have Mrs. Clyde Heafner, one of the sponsors at Wellman. Miss Helen Dunlap, county home demonstration agent will take all five people to Plainview on Friday morning.—Yvonne Herring, Union.

Fine Rodeo At Cowboy Reunion

STAMFORD, Texas — those attending the 16th annual show of the Texas Cowboy Reunion to be held in Stamford on July 2, 3, and 4, are assured of witnessing the finest rodeo performance, and of having lots of fun and plenty to eat.

One of the most unique features of the Texas Cowboy Reunion is the Chuck Wagon Camp. After the spring round-up and branding are finished, bosses and cowboys load up the old chuck wagon and head for Stamford and the Texas Cowboy Reunion as a sort of vacation. There the ranch hands set up camp on a special reservation provided for that purpose. They eat at the chuck wagon, compete in the cowboy rodeo and take in the other attractions of the annual celebration.

R. G. Bowdry, Chairman of visiting Chuck Wagons, announced this week that all ranches are invited to bring their wagons.

All provisions, including groceries and meats, are furnished, without charge, to all wagons after they reach the reunion grounds, providing that they have notified the chairman of their intention to attend. Visitors have the privilege of buying meals at these ranch chuck wagons, and of visiting and mingling in the chuck wagon camp.

Among the famous West Texas ranches which brought their wagons to the reunion last year were: the Pitchfork Ranch of Guthrie, the Davis Ranch, Throckmorton; the 6666 Ranch, Guthrie, the Masterson Ranch, Truscott; the SMS Flat Top Ranch, Stamford, the SMS Spur Ranch, and the SMS Throckmorton Ranch.

Production—The Hope Of Coal Miners

Even in the depths of the coal strike crisis the coal industry continued to lay plans for future development of the coal business. These plans will benefit the miners as much as they will the operators. They represent a serious attempt to offset the increasing disparity between wages and output per man shift in the mines. Actually they are the only hope for the future of the coal miners. Rising wages and rising prices can ruin any industry if they get out of line with competitors, and coal has reached its limit if it is to stay in the competitive fuel market.

Mine union leaders from this point on can either bring hardships and unemployment to their followers or they can encourage the use of coal by helping to hold costs down to manageable levels. This is not hot air. It is a disagreeable truth and any miner who wishes may look up the figures for himself. They are a matter of public record.

There is the case history of the coal industry in England that was ruined beyond repair in the foreseeable future, at least in part, because wage problems and other demands of miners were not resolved in coordination with the needs of the industry. The result has been tragic. No one wants a repetition in this country.

Increased production is the only sure path to sustained wage increases. But it takes more than mechanization to increase production—it takes rising consumer demand, stimulated by a fair price for coal. This is a fact of life that every miner will have to learn.

"Gives You Texas"

It's an old one but I've always liked the story of the intoxicated man who was shoved out the front door of a club and he announced to a bystander, "I'm gonna go back in there an' throw 'e mall out. You stand here an' count 'em." So he made his wobbly way back up the steps and back into the building. In a little while the door flew open and out sailed a form. The man on the sidewalk slowly rose and said, "Don't start counting yet; this is just me comin' out again."

And changing the subject:

For the first breakfast in their home, the bride cooked some biscuits. Her husband said, "Darling, don't cook biscuits anymore; you are too light for such heavy work."

Here's a little poem whose author or is unknown, entitled "Give Them the Flowers Now:"
 Closed eyes can't see white roses,
 Cold hands can't hold them,
 you know;
 Breath that is stilled can not gather
 The odors that sweet from them blow.
 Death, with a peace beyond dreaming,
 Its children of earth doth endow;
 Life is the time we can help them,
 So give them the flowers now.

Here are the struggles and striving,
 Here are the cares and the tears;
 Now is the time to be smoothing
 The frowns and the furrows and fears.
 What, to closed ears, are kind sayings?
 What, to hushed heart, is deep vow?
 Naught can avail after parting,
 So give them the flowers now.

Just a kind word or a greeting,
 Just a warm clasp or a smile—
 There are the flowers that will lighten
 The burdens for many a mile.
 After the journey is over,
 What is the use of them? How can they carry them, who must be carried,
 Oh, give them the flowers now.
 Blooms from the happy heart's garden,
 Plucked in the spirit of love;
 Blooms that are earthly reflections
 Of flowers that blossom above—
 Words can not tell what a measure
 Of blessing such gifts may allow
 To dwell in the lives of many;
 So give them the flowers now.

Social Security Man To Be Here Monthly

John Palmer, manager of the Social Security Board in Lubbock, will be in Brownfield at the U. S. Post Office Thursday, June 20, at 9:00 a. m. He is in Brownfield one day each month for the purpose of answering any questions people may have on Social Security; discussing possible benefits and taking claims from persons who may be entitled to benefits; and of taking applications for Social Security account number cards.

Many features of the old-age and survivors insurance plan are of particular interest to returning service men and women. One of the most important ones is the necessity of having a social security account number—whether he is entering covered employment for the first time or whether he is returning to a job in an office, store or other work in industry and commerce. A social Security account number is issued by any field office of the Social Security Board upon receipt of an application for a number.

A veteran who returns to his old job needs to know the social security number which was given to him when he got his first job. Any veteran who has lost his card and is returning either to his old job or is entering a new job should apply to the nearest Social Security Board field office for a duplicate.

Any veteran starting a new business will have to secure an employer's identification number. This number is secured through filing an application with the Social Security Board field office. It is suggested that he call in person for this purpose to have the advantage of a discussion with the field office staff of his obligations as an employer under the Social Security Act.

Some Do's And Don'ts About Obtaining Your Driver's License

A lot of time and effort could be saved by the applicant when he or she applies for a driver's license if they will abide by the following rules:

1. Be sure you have studied the Driver's Manual thoroughly. Over 50% of the tests given each day are failures.
2. If you do not have a valid license have someone that has, drive your car to the Examining station and stay with you till you finish the test. You may need someone to drive the car away.
3. A boy or girl under the age of 18 must have their father with them to authorize the examination. If the father is not living then the mother or guardian may sign their application. If the applicant is under 16 and over 14 years of age they must have permission from the county judge in the county in which they reside.

4. Check your vehicle and be sure that it is roadworthy. About 30% of the cars brought to the station will not pass an inspection.

5. Last and not least—Please come early as there is only one examiner on duty and if you came late you may not even get a chance to take the test. The Brownfield office is open each Saturday and Monday. Please do not go to some other town as we cannot examine the people that come from other places, for lack of time. Take your examination if possible in your home town or county.

There can be no dissent. The death of free enterprise is inevitably accompanied by the death of a free press.

Polio Sanitarium Established At Plainview

Jack Bailey, Chairman of the Terry-Yoakum Bi-county chapter, Walter Breedlove of the local Health Unit, and County Judge H. R. Winston, attended a meeting of other West Texas chapters of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and public officials at Plainview, Thursday of last week.

The purpose of the meeting was the establishment of a hospital, with all special equipment, in West Texas, for treatment of polio, now increasingly prevalent in Texas, and to inspect the newly completed three story annex of the Plainview sanitarium and clinic, headed by Dr. E. O. Nichols, eminent West Texas physician, who are offering the annex, specially built for the treatment of such cases, with large rooms, open air porticos, and bath equipments, including laboratory, to be attended by specialists in that ailment, providing a 44-county district in this area, will provide them with the latest and most modern equipments, not usable in average hospital work. This special equipment, including the Iron Lung, will cost about $13,000.

McCracken Irrigates Farm And Melons

W. F. McCracken is irrigating his 100 acre farm one mile south-east of town, obtaining water from a 147-ft. well, with engine powered by liquified gas, that lifts 800 gallons per minute, and apparently inexhaustible. He will plant 15 acres to melons, supervised by W. J. Wingo, the melon man. Several acres to sweet potatoes, and other truck, balance to cotton.

Allen Winningham of near Meadow is installing one, to water 100 acres. Andrew Cooper and Fred Cornelise, south of town, Walter Fulton, of Gomez, and J. V. Burnett are to install plants soon.

It is understood if the district will do this, their hospital charges will be correspondingly less.

Mr. Bailey highly praised the effort, and the institution, and says from our March of Dimes, the birthday dances, and donations Terry and Yoakum has on hand its prorata share of the funds. He highly commends the project. He also requests that in event any such ailment appear in these two counties, that Judge Winston, Mr. Breedlove, or himself be notified at once, as the quickened after attack treatment can begin, the better.

DON'T BUY COTTON

—GWN—

Among the many periodicals that come to the desk of the Herald, is the International Teamster, which describes itself as being the Official Magazine of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Warehousemen and Helpers of America, affiliated with A. F. of L., edited by Daniel J. Tobin, published at Indianapolis, Ind. In its June issue just received, boasting a membership of 800,000, and fourteen million in cash and bonds, it devotes a page editorial, entitled "How to crack the cotton bloc," castigating the southern senators and congressmen, for being interested chiefly in higher prices for cotton. It says, "The public can go naked, for all the cotton 'bloc cares.' It then urges the public to strike back with 'devastating force' by boycotting cotton goods, and buy rayon, nylon, silk, and wool, even demand tires using rayon thread instead of cotton, and thus break the cotton bloc, (and we might add here, also break the South). The article ends in capital letters, "DON'T BUY COTTON."

Arrogance gone to seed! Patriotism? We withhold our personal comment, pending inquiry of the Postoffice department on restrictive language. But such philosophy. What would their Million Unionette cousins, in the Textile mills do, if such a boycott could be effected? Would the teamsters miss the handling of five billion pounds of cotton, across the nation and back. Destroy a billion dollar industry? Would it affect our foreign trade? What of the millions of tons of cottonseed cake, used exclusively in feeding cattle for the teamsters tables? What price paid, if rayon and wool had a monopoly. Silk? Where from, Japan? Imagine a teamster and warehouse worker wearing silk or nylon. But that would be no thicker than his ideas.

Who cares if the teamsters and millions of workmen in the industrial north and east starve because of the Union Packing house strike, or if they freeze because of the Union coal miners strike, or if our armies, all around the world, starve and go naked because of the Union Maritime strike, or if we all have to walk, because of the Union automobile strike, if all manufacturing, with millions of workmen, stop because of the Union steel strike, or if the life giving activities of the nation stagnates in its tracks, because of the Union trainmen strike? Yes, who cares for who, anyway in America.

But don't worry, Mr. Tobin, if your brother Unionists, now on strike in the Farm implement industry don't cease their "blocing," you may get your wish, both on the back and on your table. Maybe you can eat silk for breakfast, rayon for dinner, and wool for supper, and drink nylon cocktails at your meetings.

Honor Our Veterans Give Thanks This Father's Day

There's an air of jubilation this Father's Day. For after too many years, father are once again united with their families—rollicking with the youngsters they dreamed of in their foxholes. To all our veterans — but especially those who are the parents of our new generation — we owe more than a debt of gratitude. It is our time now to show by tangible means how deep and sincere is our appreciation. Let us give them a helping hand at every turn as they gradually acclimate themselves again to civilian life. Offer these men a good job, a good home, a good community for the security of their American home. Let us honor and give thanks to our valiant veteran-fathers on this commemorative Father's Day, June Sixteenth.

SIDELIGHTS From Washington

By George Mahon

My mail from our District indicates widespread approval of the quick action of the House of Representatives in passing legislation to stop the paralyzing railroad strike. Within two hours after the President addressed the joint session of Congress we had passed the bill requested by him.

The railroad unions are made up of the very highest type of American citizens. They did a great job during the war. The union organizations were 18 to 2 against the strike. It was principally the stubbornness of one man, Mr. A. F. Whitney, that produced the disastrous situation. A country that cannot protect itself against utter chaos is in a bad shape. I am convinced that the quick action of the House gave hope and encouragement to a great majority of the American people. The American people have been kicked around by such tyrants as John L. Lewis until their patience is threadbare. People generally do not have time and opportunity to read the Congressional Record and they cannot understand why more effective action was not taken against racketeers in industry and labor months ago.

The fact is that before the war, during the war, and since the war, the House of Representatives passed legislation to meet the situation but the legislation has usually died in the Senate. However, the Senate has now passed the Case Bill which was approved months ago by the House, and the Bill has gone to the White House.

Those of us who voted for the bill to stop Mr. Whitney's paralyzing railroad strike have been threatened by Mr. Whitney, and he has also insulted the American people. In commenting on those of us who voted for the bill, Mr. Whitney, according to the Associated Press, said:

"My Board of Directors already has authorized me to spend $2,500,000 to defeat the members of Congress who have voted for the shackling labor legislation Mr. Truman has proposed. We mean to defeat every member of Congress who voted for that bill."

The C. I. O. continues to breathe out threats against those who have advocated and are advocating remedial legislation. What we desperately need in America today is government in the public interest—not government by pressure groups who threaten legislators and insult the intelligence and patriotism of the people. Minority groups are entitled to be heard in America and they are entitled to a fair deal and every legitimate right, but they are not entitled to run roughshod over the majority.

There is no perfect answer to all the problems which beset our Country. But one thing is sure—this Nation cannot safely go forward without the adoption of a more clear-cut and workable Labor-Industry policy—a policy which will safeguard the best interests of the American people.

SWISS JURA HORSE TYPIFIES NATIONAL BREED . . . A lively parade is one of the features of the annual National Horse fair and races at Saignelegier in the Bernese Jura, Switzerland, held during August. The Jura horse is of exceptionally strong build, is tame and docile, and stallions can even be used for all sorts of farm work.

Tech Museum Gets Historical Document

Lubbock — A 110-year-old document which bears the seal and signature of Sam Houston has been given to the West Texas Museum on the Texas Tech campus by Dr. Clifford B. Jones, president emeritus, according to Dr. W. C. Holden, director of the museum.

The document, a letter from Houston to the Comanche chiefs written Dec. 3, 1836, appealed to the Indians as common enemies of Mexico to make peace with Texas for mutual benefit of both the red and white men.

The letter, held in an elaborate walnut frame, is decorated with red, white, blue and green ribbons and bears Houston's private seal, part of which is gone.

Union 4-H Club Reports On Projects

Members of the Union 4-H club have been busy this spring sewing for themselves and helping with the home work. This was evident as they visited among themselves with Miss Helen Dunlap, County Home Demonstration Agent, viewing the work of the members.

Velma Jean Bruce, clothing demonstrator of the club, since January has made six garments and is keeping accounts of her own clothing expenditures. She assists her mother with sewing for the family and has made kitchen curtains, a quilt top, 4 cup towels and a pair of pillow cases.

Joyce, Velma Jean's younger sister, has made two garments for herself and helps her mother to feed and water a flock of over 200 spring chickens. The older ones are now four and one half months old and are just beginning to lay.

Willie Dean Snow made a play suit of rayon material and a blouse of feed sacks. She owns her own Jersey milch cow which her father gave her for doing the milking. She milks two cows every day.

Jeanell Wood made a plaid gingham dress and a play suit of print material for herself.

Dorothy Jean Wood made a play suit, two cup towels, an apron, and two pairs of pillow cases. She has tomatoes, onions, and turnips growing in her garden.

Sadie Shults is sewing for her first time this year. She has completed a red plaid dress, a gown and a cup towel. She takes care of 25 chickens and 175 spring chickens that are now large enough to fry. Sadie's mother states that she feeds seven hereford calves every day. She does much of the cooking and always gets dinner on wash days.

Martha Ann Blankenship, eleven, made a play suit, a skirt and two pairs of shorts. This is her first sewing and she has done the work entirely alone, even to the placing of the pattern and the cutting.

Nora Davis made a blue print dimity dress and trimmed it in lace. Besides she made a gown of feed sacks. Nora does much of the home baking and house keeping, while her older sister works more outside the house.

Reba Cullifer has helped her mother to water and feed 170 spring chickens this year. In addition, Reba made five cup towels and a pair of shorts. Working in the field with the machinery is a part of the summer

This week she is working with her mother in making three dresses, one of which is for an aunt. There are yet four blouses, one skirt and two more dresses to make this month, which Yvonne will help to sew. She has helped her mother care for 200 baby chicks and when her mother starts to summer school, Yvonne and her father will do the house work.

Ellen Hill is garden demonstrator of her club. Recently she planted it and has been watering it every day. In one or two more days the vegetables will all be up to a good stand. In her clothing work, Ellen has made a print dress, a bonnet and a vanity set. She made a quilt top of tobacco sacks and set them together with a plain red material. Ellen has another quilt almost completed which she made of scraps of print dresses.

Mildred Brock has cucumbers, English peas and beans in her garden almost ready to bloom. She irrigates the plot by running the water down ditches. Mildred, so far this year has made a dress and a pair of shorts for herself. Together, she and her mother have 50 chicks that are now six weeks old.
