

GI Question And Answer Department

Q. I served only four months in the army before I got a dependency discharge. Now I'm in need of an operation. Am I eligible to enter a Veteran's hospital?

A. Yes, any veteran is eligible for hospitalization at a VA hospital providing he served at least 90 days in the armed forces and that his discharge is other than dishonorable. However, to be treated for non-service connected ailments, you must sign a statement that you are financially unable to pay for private treatment.

Q. Can a veteran be cared for in a private hospital at the expense of the government?

Yes, provided the ailment was incurred in or aggravated by service in the armed forces and prior authorization is obtained from VA Regional office. In the case of female veterans, the ailment need not be service-connected.

Q. Can I be treated at a VA hospital for malaria that didn't evidence itself until after I was discharged from the Army?

A. Yes, the VA rules that malaria may be service-connected even though no attacks occurred prior to the veteran's release from service. Therefore, you may be

Leroy Green Awaiting Discharge

According to word received here last week, Pfc. Leroy Green, having served his time in the Army, is now awaiting his discharge at Camp Beale, Calif. His wife, the former Miss Laverne Montgomery and six-month-old son are with him. This was the first time for Leroy to see his boy.

The Purnell Montgomery family who reported the above item, stated that they have recently visited Sacramento, the capitol city of California. They say fruit, especially grapes, is very abundant in this section and one of the places they visited was the Libby, McNeill and Libby cannery. They also reported seeing elk in the hills around Sacramento.

Q. Is a veteran's family entitled to care in a VA hospital?

A. Not unless they have attained eligibility by reason of service in the armed forces.

chair by the VA?

A. Yes, if you have a service-connected disability requiring the use of one.

Q. May an honorably discharged member of the WAC obtain hospital treatment and domiciliary care in a VA facility?

Local Recruiting Office Again On Full-Time Status

After being on a part-time basis for a few weeks during the summer, the local Army Recruiting Office has again been placed on a full-time status with Sgt. R. C. Dockery in charge.

Successfully completing a drive for a million volunteers, the Army plans to take it up from there in an endeavor to have its personnel composed almost entirely of volunteers. One result of the campaign is the discontinuation of the draft for the balance of the year.

With Sgt. Dockery is his wife and 14-year-old son, a student of the local junior high school. The Dockerys reside at 321 East Tate.

The Sergeant is leaving immediately to attend an Army school for recruiters at Ft. Oklethorpe, Ga. He will be gone for three weeks. During his absence, the office will remain open with a replacement from the Lubbock office in charge.

PONTIAC

When you consider how much more you'll get by waiting for a new Pontiac—you'll agree that here is one case where waiting pays off in handsome dividends.

Pontiac leads its field by such a wide margin because there is no substitute for what it offers. There is no substitute for Pontiac beauty—for Pontiac performance—for Pontiac comfort—or for Pontiac safety and handling ease. And the years of wartime usage proved conclusively that there is no substitute for Pontiac dependability. For reasons beyond our control, which we regret as much as you, production is below what had been anticipated. But improvement is being made—and the wait, from here out, may be shorter than you think. But whatever the time before your Pontiac is ready—wait! When you do get it—you'll have the finest automobile offered at anywhere near the price!

COMPLETE SERVICE OFFERED
While awaiting your new Pontiac, keep your present car running at peak efficiency with proper service and upkeep. Money thus spent may prevent failures at some inconvenient time and will protect your car's trade-in value. Our complete service facilities are offered at reasonable prices.

Tech Receiving Surplus Government Buildings

Lubbock — Government aid in moving numerous surplus buildings to be used for purposes other than housing to the campus of Texas Technological College appeared nearer this week when the United States Office of Education approved Tech's application for participation in the Federal Works Administration's program, according to Dr. W. M. Whyburn, Tech president.

The application is now being referred to the Bureau of Community Facilities, Federal Works Agency, for further consideration, the president said, and the fulfillment of the program now hinges on the amount of money FWA makes available for the Tech program and the number of available surplus buildings. FWA has $100,000,000 to be used for moving and reconverting surplus buildings to educational institutions training veterans.

Among the items approved by the United States Office of Education for Tech are approximately 32 classrooms, space for some 12 laboratories for general science, mechanical engineering and electrical engineering, additional ROTC facilities, a dispensary, a 600-seat projection room, additional space for about 32 faculty offices, more storage space for the bookstore and room for a veterans' guidance center. A quantity of technical equipment for laboratories may also be available to Tech by the FWA, either free or at a 95 per cent discount of a "reasonable" price.

Under the program the college will provide building sites and utilities and the FWA will move in the buildings, which are surplus war installations.

Fort Worth—Samuel A. Teague of Brownfield, shared in the awards announced this week by War Assets Administration in a special sale of "set aside" typewriters, offered exclusively to veterans of World War II.

Many of the veterans had held certificates for several months awaiting the declaration of certain critically short supply items by the armed forces as being surplus to their needs so that WAA might offer them for sale.

Teague secured a Royal Standard 12" typewriter for $34.50.

All awards were made on the basis of the oldest dated certificate submitted by veterans for each of the items offered in a catalog and orders were sent in by mail.

Philadelphia's Tun Tavern Marine Corps Birthplace

Founding place of the United States Marine Corps was Tun Tavern, a popular hostelry in late 18th century Philadelphia. Located at the corner of Water Street and Tun Alley, the tavern was operated by Robert Mullen who later became a commissioned officer in the Marine Corps.

Captain Samuel Nicholas, first Marine officer and later its first commandant, wisely chose Tun Tavern as a recruiting site because it was a mecca for stalwart seamen and soldiers—the type of man desired for our fight for freedom. In later decades Tun Tavern was razed in the growth of the city and its exact location remained unknown until 1925 when a commemorative tablet was placed on the original spot, thus giving due honor to the birthplace of the nation's most colorful fighting outfit.

Less than 1 percent of World War II veterans who had entered education or on-the-job training under the G. I. Bill by Aug. 31 had exhausted their period of entitlement, Veterans Administration said.

More than 127,000 wards were receiving benefits under the Veterans Administration guardianship program on Aug. 31.

Road Amendment Has Support Of High State Officials

Most of the state's highest officials had placed their stamp of approval on the Good Roads Constitutional Amendment Tuesday, October 22 as the list of endorsements began to mount during the last two weeks before the November 5 General Election.

Governor Coke Stevenson and Democratic Nominee for Governor, Beauford Jester, led the parade of supporters of the Amendment. Governor Stevenson asserted, "From my study of road building problems, I am convinced that the Good Roads Amendment should be adopted on November fifth," while the nominee for his office, Jester, proclaimed that adoption of the measure "will establish a sound financial policy upon which our road planning agencies may base their plans."

John S. Redditt, Chairman Texas Highway Commission, issued a statement declaring, "It is my firm and considered belief, as a citizen and as chairman of the highway commission, that the passage of this amendment is to the best interest of all Texans, and for that reason, I am for it and advocate its passage."

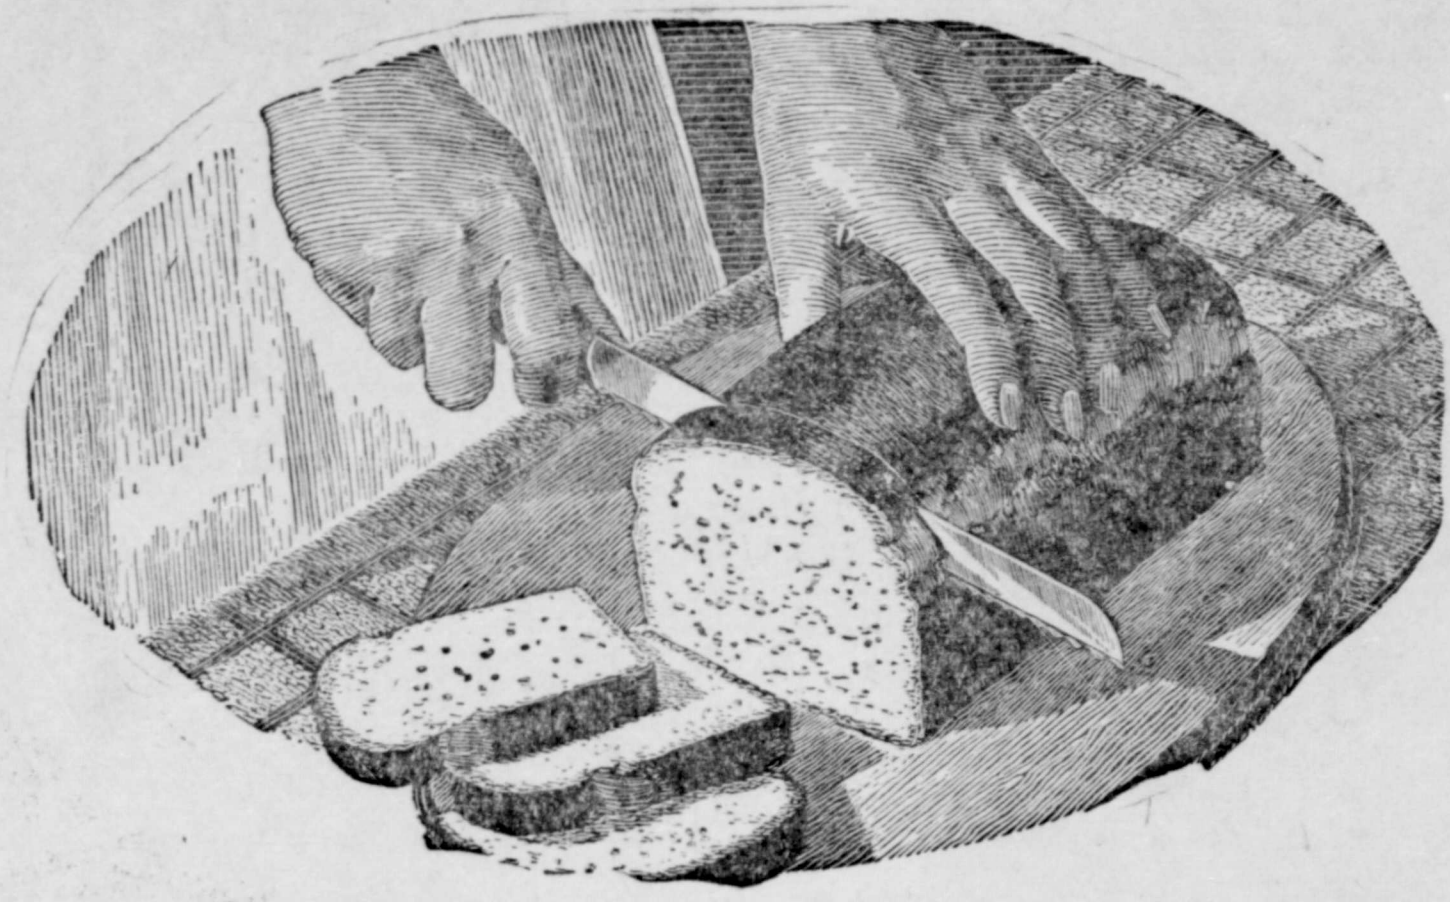

Pointing out the fact that the Good Roads Amendment will continue allocation of one-fourth of the gasoline tax for the Available School Fund under constitutional protection, Dr. L. A. Woods, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, explained it will also assure the availability of funds with which many miles of all-weather roads for school bus routes will be constructed.

"Adoption of the Good Roads Amendment will establish a sound system of road financing that will result in more and better roads for the people of Texas," Senator Allen Shivers, Democratic Nominee for Lieutenant Governor stated in his endorsement.

"Before our road building agencies can plan with certainty," Price Daniel, Democratic Nominee for Attorney General, expressed in a letter backing the measure, "they must be assured that our road funds will be protected. This amendment will give that protection and insure an orderly development of both State and Farm-to-market roads."

The president of the Texas County Judges and Commissioners

Enough Food is no Accident

It is no accident that the largest crops in our history are being harvested this year when we, and the rest of the world, need them most.

In spite of war, loss of labor and little new equipment, the American farmer has again taken care of us and provided a life-saving surplus for abroad.

How do our farmers do it? How is it that only sixteen per cent of our people can feed all of us and go on breaking records in the face of circumstances which slow up industry?

There are three reasons: First, farmers work harder and longer than most other Americans. Second, they know how to make the best use of tools. And, third, they have a long-standing partnership with industry seeking to satisfy their urge to get more out of the land for the same labor. Farmers are still practicing the kind of enterprise that built America.

National thanks are due the farmer for the job he has done in the last five years. Universal respect is due him for his foresight in helping industry equip farms to meet a whole series of emergencies.

BUT . . . we should not crowd our luck, or the farmer's luck either. Too many farm tools are now worn out. Without new ones production may go down. Farmers need over eight hundred million dollars' worth of new implements and equipment. It is up to industry and labor to keep wheels turning to produce them, but any recurrence of strikes would prevent this.

America should see that the hard-working farmer gets what he needs.

Hamilton-Hall Vows Are Read At Church

From Lubbock Avalanche-Journal Miss Henrietta Lucille Hall of 1419 Seventeenth, daughter of A. M. Hall of Lubbock, and Charles Thomas Hamilton, son of Mrs. C. F. Hamilton of Brownfield, were married at 8 o'clock Friday night at the First Methodist church in a double ring ceremony read by Dr. H. I. Robinson.

Woodwardia fern provided a background for the altar space which was decked with bronze chrysanthemums and lighted with cathedral tapers. Aisle candelabra were used.

Rayburn Jones, organist, played the wedding music and accompanied Miss Joyce Watson who sang "Because," and Bill Harrod, violinist, who offered "Ave Maria."

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, A. M. Hall, Jr. She chose a wedding gown designed with white lace bodice fashioned with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves terminating in points and a white satin skirt ending in a train. Her veil was of fine Dutch lace and she carried an arm shower bouquet of gardenias and white carnations.

Mrs. Jack Gordon was matron of honor, bridesmaids were Miss Imogene Boyd and Mrs. A. M. Hall, Jr. They wore tailored frocks of pastel green silk faille, fashion with cap sleeves and wide belts and carried arm bouquets of Thanksgiving pink chrysanthemums and Dubonnet carnations and wore the blossoms in their hair.

J. E. Smith of Brownfield was best man and Jake Geron of Brownfield, brother-in-law of the bride, Dutch Snellman and Jim Christian were ushers. Little Irving Hall and A. M. Hall, III, were ring bearers.

A reception was given at the Hilton Hotel and the three-tiered wedding cake was served from a table decorated with chrysanthemums.

Assisting in hospitalities were Mesdames M. I. Hall, C. F. Hamilton, Alex McDonald, W. J. Spikes, C. B. Martin, Winston Reeves, Misses Leona Gelin and Mattie Lou Christian.

Guests were present from Lubbock, Brownfield and included the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Moore of Tishomingo, Okla.

After a trip to Santa Fe, the couple will be at home in Lubbock. For travel the bride wore a brown gabardine suit with natural color wool coat trimmed with collar and tuxedo of natural Lynx fur. She wore a brown hat and a corsage of gardenias.

The bride was graduated from Texas Technological college in 1944. Mr. Hamilton, a junior in the Tech agricultural division, is a member of Los Camardas club.

HARMONY HD CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. BILL SMITH

Another luncheon and all day meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Smith, Thursday, October 17 with twenty persons present.

The house was called to order by the vice president, Mrs. Paul Gracey and roll called was answered by telling something we would like to be able to do in our kitchens.

After a business meeting the program was turned over to Miss Dunlap, and a very interesting demonstration on handicrafts was given. She showed us how to make house shoes from corn shucks and also table mats, and explained how to make lapel pins and belts out of old felt hats.

There was one visitor, Mrs. Noah Bailey, two new members, Mrs. Harvey Smith and Mrs. Bill Harold, and seventeen old members present.

A quilt was quilted for the hostess. Our next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. R. E. Townzen on November 7th, and also a covered dish luncheon and an all day meeting.

All be sure and come and bring your birthday gifts.—Reporter.

Walter Tomlinson is now employed as head mechanic at the Burrow Motor Company.

A MESSAGE OF INTEREST to all who await deliveries of new Chevrolets

We want you to know that everything possible is being done to speed deliveries to you; but production still lags far behind schedule—even though Chevrolet has built more cars and trucks than any other manufacturer from January through September 1946.

WE REALIZE how eagerly you are awaiting delivery of the new Chevrolet you have ordered from us, and we want to pass on to you the latest information received from the Chevrolet Motor Division, even though that information isn't too encouraging at this time.

It is true that Chevrolet leads all other manufacturers in total production of passenger cars and trucks from January through September 1946, despite the fact that Chevrolet was out of production entirely during the first three months of this year. It is also true that Chevrolet has continued to maintain its lead in total production during the third quarter of 1946. And yet production is still running far below desired levels, with the result that Chevrolet's output of cars and trucks through September 1946 was only 38.7% of the number produced during the corresponding period of 1941.

This means it may take many months for the Chevrolet Motor Division to reach peak production of new Chevrolets—even longer to fill the unprecedented demand for this product of BIG-CAR QUALITY AT LOWEST COST—and, for the present at least, "there just aren't enough Chevrolets to go around," much as we wish there were.

However, we want you to know that new Chevrolets are leaving the plants in the largest numbers possible today. The Chevrolet Motor Division tells us it is doing everything it can, in the face of continued suppliers' strikes, material shortages and manpower problems, to step up shipments to us and to all dealers, in accordance with a predetermined distribution plan assuring each dealer of his fair allotment, based on 1941 passenger car sales. And we, in turn, are doing our best to deliver new Chevrolets to our customers as rapidly as they are received and in the fairest possible way. We are too appreciative of your loyalty and goodwill—to be grateful for your patience and understanding—to do anything less than continue to serve you to the very best of our ability.

KEEP YOUR PRESENT CAR RUNNING

Meanwhile, the most important car of all to you is the car you are driving now. May we suggest that you keep it in top running condition until you secure delivery of your new Chevrolet, by bringing it to us for skilled service now and at regular intervals. Remember—cold weather is hardest on old cars. Please see us for a complete check-up today. . . . And, again, thank you!

Change In Sunday-Monday Program At Ritz

Your attention is called to the fact that "Bedlam," with Boris Karloff, will appear at the Ritz Theatre Sunday and Monday instead of the originally scheduled "Spook Busters."

"Bedlam" deals with inhuman conditions once existing in the famous, or rather, infamous London asylum whose very name became a synonym for uproar and confusion. This picture drew important notices in Life magazine and is likely to be named one of the important pictures of the year.

Band News

The band is planning to take a trip to Canyon this coming Saturday. We will march and then go to a football game at Buffalo stadium. We will spend most of the day in Canyon.

We have an open date this week in football, but the band is still working hard for the trip to Canyon. We are learning about nine or ten required maneuvers for the trip to Canyon. We are having three or four members trying for individual contests.

Partnership

Did you ever have a joint checking account with somebody? They can be handy things sometimes. So can a tin of gasoline in the basement, but both are extremely dangerous. All parties concerned must of necessity, have a co-operative understanding about how a joint checking account is to be used, how fast and for what purposes. Otherwise, one party's error might cause the other one trouble, no end.

I knew a man once who had a joint checking account with his son, who was a minor. The father didn't deposit all his money in this account. He didn't use it at all, in fact. It was just his way of guiding his son's early efforts to balance accounts and use money wisely. The idea was to teach the boy to distinguish between investing and just plain spending of money.

A Joint Account

I wish all taxpayers in the United States could realize that they have a joint checking account with Uncle Sam. Moreover, I wish they might suddenly wake up to the fact that everything they have is in this joint account. If Uncle Sam's stubs are not balanced, or if Uncle Sam's checks are not all numbered, Mr. Taxpayer is certain to have to make it good personally when something "bounces."

Government can assess taxes to the amount of what government needs, or thinks it needs, and that's a matter of judgment. During the war our executives spent money faster than it came in, running the country's debt to 268 billion dollars. However wisely the debt was contracted, it will never be any smaller until government officials begin spending less than they collect from the people by taxation.

Balance the Budget

There is considerable doubt whether those who spend and those who pay have a co-operative understanding about their joint account. They ought to see eye-to-eye. Victory was cheap, whatever it cost in money, but the unpaid portion still has to be met. Moreover the country's best economists think now is the time to start paying off the debt, while nearly all of us are earning good pay.

Recently I saw a summary of proposed federal spending for the next 12 months; a work-sheet from the 1947 budget, currently being considered. This budget can be balanced as certainly as figures can be depended upon to tell the truth. It calls for an outlay of $51.1 billion dollars to come from $11.5 billion of revenue—just 3.6 billion dollars in the red. Such a shortage need not exist.

Stay in the Black

The deficit can be offset two or three times by economy. Most of the expense items can be deflated some. Such obligations as social security, veterans' benefits, refunds and the interest on public debt are fixed. They can't be cut. But there are seven other general classifications of expenses that ought to be deflated about 50 per cent, all told. If this over-draft can be avoided it's a duty.

Proposed expenses that ought to be lowered are these:

Items Might Be Cut	From	To
National defense	$16.0	$8.9
International finance	1.7	0.2
Aids to agriculture	0.5	0.3
General public works	1.1	0.7
General government	1.6	1.1
Suppl. appropriations	0.9	0.7
Proposed legislation	1.5	0.0
Total	$23.3	$11.9

A year after the world's largest oil field, East Texas, was discovered in 1930, it was estimated that total recovery would be about two billion barrels. It has produced well over two billion barrels already and remaining reserves are estimated at about three billion.

Liquified petroleum gases account for approximately 50 per cent of the components of synthetic rubber. More than a million gallons a day are used for this purpose.

More than 16,500, or 60 per cent of the employes of a large oil company, have been with the organization more than a decade.

The Tuberculin Test And Significance Of A Positive Reaction

Attention is called by the South Plains Health Unit — A positive tuberculin reaction is evidence that the individual has been infected with the tubercle bacillus and is allergic or hypersensitive to its protein. The presence or absence of activity of the lesion cannot be interpreted from the extent of the reaction. The test is a method for selection of those who have had a tuberculous infection and who thus require further examination to determine whether the lesion is active or quiescent.

Exception.—The failure to positive reaction to the possibility of the presence of tuberculosis infection during the period between exposure to the tubercle bacillus and the onset of symptoms which

Mrs. A. J. Hartman and Mrs. G. M. Devitt, of Tokio were in town Monday shopping.

Misses Jean Knight and Joyce Dungan and Sammy and Bobby Jones were in Dallas over the weekend for the fair and the Tommy Dorsey show.

extends for several weeks after the entrance of this germ into the body, which during this time there is no skin reaction to the test. Falsely positive reaction to tuberculin tests are occasionally obtained.

Every person showing a positive test should have an X-ray of the chest and the source of the infection determined to prevent further exposure. Infection may be contracted at any time. Individuals should be tested yearly if possible, at least every three years, beginning at the age of three, every three years thereafter up to eighteen years of age and at any time when there is a history of exposure to active tuberculosis.

Mrs. Sam Kirschner was in Dallas and Ft. Worth the first part of the week for the spring market.

Mrs. W. R. Richards, of Ropes and Mrs. Arp Farrell, of Rt. 3 were shopping in town Monday.

It's not that we don't love our work!

WE DO LOVE our work—but these days, we almost dread leaving home and going to our showroom.

So many people want new Packards, and there are so few coming through!

But you can't build cars without materials!

The factory is straining every effort to get more parts and material so production can be increased.

We're doing our best!

Some cars have been shipped with wooden bumpers, some without window regulator handles. This costs the factory a lot of money, for it means that replacements must be shipped and installed later.

Under such difficulties, it's a wonder the folks at the factory have done as well as they have. This year, compared to the same period of 1941, Packard has built a higher percentage of cars than the industry as a whole.

We don't dare predict!

Our customers have been so patient that we'd like to sound some optimistic note.

But word from Detroit says that parts and materials are still scarce. Steel continues to be limited. Shortages of lead, copper and other materials are looming up.

Scrap iron has been so scarce that Packard started the ball rolling on a nation-wide collection drive!

Take care of your present car!

Until you're sure of getting a new one, give your present car the best of care.

Lots of cars are running better and lasting longer because our trained mechanics have serviced them right. Give us a chance to catch those little troubles before they grow up into big ones.

Bring your car in any time. We're short on new cars, but we're long on helpful, car-saving service.

Perk Up Your Menus With Peanuts

Many a housewife is still facing the problem of how to satisfy her family's needs when meat is still so short. Chickens, of course, have been in plentiful supply and in farm homes a dependable mainstay. But we all like a change. That's when we turn to foods like fish and eggs and all the many dishes we can make from cheese.

But how many of us are overlooking what might be called the diamonds in our own backyard? How often do we make use of our peanut crop, one of the South's fast growing industries? The National Peanut Council has come up with some good ideas for just these moments.

Peanut Butter Souffle, for example, is an ideal answer for a meatless dish. No matter if you have never tried your hand with a souffle you'll serve a "wonder" if you keep these points in mind. First of all for a souffle to be good it must be handled carefully and quickly. So be sure to have all the ingredients measured and ready for mixing. Folding in the stiffly beaten egg whites is the really crucial point—it's done by cutting and turning the mixture over and over very lightly, until no mass of white is visible and the mixture is light and fluffy. Then it's ready for the oven and there must be no delay, or the eggs will go flat. From the oven to the table is the way it should be served. So don't let the family dawdle—far better to round them up in advance.

Here's a good tested recipe for your first venture in souffle making. Your family will go for its rich nutty flavor.

Peanut Butter Souffle

2 tablespoons fat 4 eggs
6 tablespoons flour 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/2 cup milk 1/2 teaspoon lemon juice
3/4 cup peanut butter

Make a white sauce from the fat, flour and milk, cooking it thoroughly. Remove from heat, add peanut butter and pour over well-beaten egg yolks. Mix thoroughly, add lemon juice and salt. Cool. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake 30 to 60 minutes depending on size and type dish in a 325° to 350° F. oven. Serve immediately.

Of course, with the corn crop hitting a new high, piling the platter to the limit is the theme these days. Long, slender ears or short, fat ones, Golden Bantam's yellow ears, Country Gentlemen's irregular kernels—or what have you. The word is serve them hot and brushed with butter, and eat ear after ear until you can't munch even one more kernel. That's usually when the question of what to do with the leftover ears pops into mother's mind. They'll neither be a worry nor a waste if you have a couple of good recipes on hand. For example, let them take their second showing in Spanish Corn Slaw, a dish that blends the succulent, full-kernel goodness of corn with tender, shredded cabbage and nourishing popular peanuts.

Spanish Corn Slaw

4 cups shredded green cabbage 1/2 cup salted peanuts
1 cup fresh corn kernels 2 tablespoons chopped onion
1/2 cup pimiento 2 tablespoons minced onion
Salt, to taste French Dressing

Have vegetables very crisp. Finely shred cabbage. Combine all ingredients. Toss well and serve.

And on these hot, hot days the clamour for more chilled foods reaches a crescendo. Frosted drinks, crisp salads, frozen fruit sherberts are in demand but above all it's for ice cream. The favorite dessert of Americans, chock full of all the fine nutritious qualities of milk, cream and eggs. There can never be too many recipes for it in the file box—nor can it be served too often if you rotate the flavors. ## Well, Here We Is In California

Long Beach, Oct. 17th—Landed in Redlands, Calif., about four PM last Tuesday was a week ago, but dogged if it appears that long. And folks, it seems that we have seen just about all that is worth seeing in that brief space of time. In fact the Old He has been dragged from one sight seeing expedition to another until it will take us at least a month to rest up after we get home. Yet in a way, we have enjoyed ourself, and credit our tired feeling to age and wear and tear. In fact, we started this kind of a life 30 years too late.

A present we are at the home of the wife's sister, Mrs. Sallie Limer, who is well known to all the old timers of Terry, as she spent many years of her young life in Brownfield, and has visited us on numerous occasions. Also, as luck would have it, her daughter and husband, Don Herborn, whom some will remember, as living in Brownfield the first part of the war period, and little Larry, who was born in the Stricklin home in 1942. Day before yesterday, we made San Diego, Calif., and Tijuana, Mexico, which will be another story. Even saw the boot camp where the Junior Editor trained, as well as a raft of other good old Terry lads. They are still drilling 'em there.

Back to Redlands: They received us with open arms, and acted as if they were really tickled to see us, and we only hope that they enjoyed seeing us half as well as we enjoyed being with them. Mother Holden, while looking well, has like the Old He, had to slow up a bit, but she gets around quite well and looks after the household affairs. Osa, the only one at home, is receptionist and secretary of a large roofing company and likes her job. Ruth, next to youngest daughter, lives within a block of Mrs. Holden. Her husband, Bill Shollinburger is an accountant, and keeps books for, as well as social security and withholding accounts for numerous firms who are unable to keep a regular bookkeeper. He is a busy man, but always takes time out when callers come to sip coffee, the inevitable hospitable offering of the California home.

Have only seen the youngest daughter, Alpha and little daughter, Linda once. They live at Riverside, and her husband, Hugh, is a brother of Bill Shollinburger. We aim to make their home later. He is in about the same kind of work that Bill is doing. Luther Holden is a paint and wallpaper dealer, and has a nice business in Redlands. Also some 25 acres of oranges just in bearing. Luther and wife have a daughter and son, the daughter in high school.

Vera and family also live in Redlands, but her husband Hartwell Davis is agent of the Southern Pacific, just two miles from Redlands. The Santa Fe and Southern Pacific both could not get in between the same mountains, so the SP had to have a station 2 miles from town. Dropped in on Hartwell at his place of business, and found him at leisure enough to show us about. They have three children, the eldest daughter, Louise is a graduate of Lubbock Memorial Hospital, and before returning to California, nursed a stretch at McCloskey Army hospital at Temple. She is to be married the 21st to a native son. The boy, Hartwell Jr., is grown, and they have a fine young lady coming on that was born since our last visit here in 1934.

The youngest son, R. V., known in California as Ted, has a flower seed nursery up the coast some 200 miles, and don't suppose we will get to see he and family. Jessie lives over across the mountains at Hemet, and she and husband Bill Wilson have three daughters, all practically grown, and let's say, like all the kin out here, beautiful. Bill and his two brothers were left an estate of some 1200 or 1500 acres of walnuts, apricot and citrus upon the death of their father a few years ago. They talk of selling off the 400 acres of apricots. Bill was showing us around the ranch, as he calls it, but we saw few cows, but some saddle horses. Bill is a native son, but don't mind putting out whatever you ask him. In fact Bill likes to tell jokes on himself, and told us an incidence of having an old Texas boy working for them one time tell him he was a d-m liar when Bill showed him an apricot tree that had a ton of fruit on it the year before. Said the Texan, 'the tree wouldn't hold up a ton of fruit. But the certain tree was pointed out to us and we agree with Bill. It was a huge one. We also asked what they wanted for the 400 acres west of the highway, and he said $400,000. So you see the Old He has some rich brothers-in-law in California as well as Colorado and Texas kin.

Truth of the matter is the Wilsons are primarily citrus men, and want to get out of the apricot and walnut business. He showed us all over the ranch in his new Mercury. We even saw men harvesting the walnuts. A man sits on a tractor with a long crane which he runs up into the limbs, clamps it one one, turns on an off center shaft, and it simply shakes the filling out of that limb, and the walnuts tumble to the ground. He also showed us the large private packing and curing sheds, where they sometimes work as many as 400 people, 100 of which are Mexican national men; no women or children from Mexico, and large barracks are built for them to sleep, and a dining room is maintained to feed around 200 at a sitting. They maintain their own citrus nursery, and are constantly buying more land up the canyon.

But the Wilsons have been there a long time, and they don't get fooled on land where an irrigation well is not available or procurable by drilling. Some newcomers have been caught off balance that way. And at supper, or dinner to them, we had real T-bone steaks, as Bill has a box at the locker plant. But let us state right here that at no place we have visited among the kin, but there was always a good table well loaded when the meal is announced. So just get the idea out of your head that we have had to open up that sack of corn meal and can of sorghum, yet. That was just a pre-visit raw joke anyway.

Be seeing you in a week or two.—Old He.

Fabrics Can Be Made Fire Resistant At Home

Lubbock — A solution of seven ounces of borax and three ounces of boric acid in two quarts of hot water will make fabrics fire resistant and is highly recommended for treating children's clothes, drapes and upholstery, according to Robert H. Lucey, field aid representative of the American Red Cross safety service.

Lucey spoke on accident prevention work to a number of student groups at Texas Technological College last week.

Wash fabrics may be made fire resistant by dipping them in the solution, he said, while it may be sprayed with good effect on other clothes. The treatment has no effect on fabric appearance except to make it slightly stiffer in some instances, and is effective on all fabrics, including synthetics.

The Army As A Career

Many advantages await the young men who enlist in the Regular Army of to-day and the future. Good pay, security, travel adventures and a substantial retirement pay are only a few of the advantages.

A young man 18 years old may upon completion of 20 years service retire at $48.38 to $107.25 per month, and after 30 years service from $84.38 to $185.63 per month depending on his rank at time of discharge. After 20 years service the young man is only 38 and still able to obtain a good paying job on education he received while in the Regular Army, at the same time he will draw his retirement pay from his military service.

Travel and a chance to see far-off places that most people never see are also available to those who enlist now.

Education is still available to those who desire to take advantage of it on a basis of service prior to the official termination of the war. This means that if a person serves 90 days before the official termination of the war they will receive a one year refresher course of schooling and one month of schooling for each month served under the G. I. Bill of rights.

For further information, see your local recruiting officers, 605 West Main, Brownfield, Texas.

Praises Papers

Wilder Breckenridge, of the American Fat Salvage Committee, tells the New York Newspaper Representatives Association that the amount of fats available for soap making this year is about 22 per cent less than it was in 1942, on a per capita basis.

Praising newspapers for their help in the fat salvage campaign, he points out their assistance has been invaluable.

Have You A Little Rattlesnake In Your Home?

Silly question, isn't it? No normal human would even think of such a thing. But even so, you may be harboring an object, even though inanimate, quite capable of being more treacherous and deadlier than any snake. Strangely enough, the two bear somewhat of a resemblance. We are speaking of the flexible gas connection hose.

Natural gas, as it passes through the flexible hose has a deleterious effect on the rubber. Time gets in its licks; twisting, connecting and disconnecting all come in for their share of making the hose subject to leaks.

While the West Texas Gas Company recommends the use of metal connections and a permanent installation, flexible hose can be relatively safe if inspected and replaced regularly. In testing for leaks, the gas company recommends making up a lather with soap suds and applying the lather to the surface with a small brush. A leak will show up as a series of small bubbles, the same as a leak in an innertube will show up when the tube is submerged in water. The company will answer all calls on suspected leaks, but due to their limited personnel, there may be some delay on occasions. Leaks calling for major repairs must be handled by plumbers.

With cooler weather coming on and heaters being turned on again, now is the time to make sure that your heating system is free of defects.

Fats Are Short

"No improvement in the fats and oils situation for a good long time," according to E. A. Meyer, Deputy Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, Department of Agriculture, who spoke before the New York Newspaper Representatives Association in New York City recently. He urged continued fat salvage by housewives.

4-H's Producing Heavier Poultry To Combat Meat Crisis

With large feed supplies assured, 4-H Poultry Club members in 45 states are concentrating on producing heavier fowl, as well as increasing egg production, to cope with the acute nation-wide meat shortage.

Outstanding records of achievement will be recognized in the National 4-H Poultry activity by Swift & Co. Five top ranking participants in each qualifying county receive sterling silver medals. Each state's winner will be given an educational trip to the 25th Anniversary National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago next December, and the next four highest rating participants receive $25.00 U. S. Savings Bonds. Ten selected state winners receive national awards of $200 college scholarships.

The activity is conducted under the direction of the Extension Service.
