

Hearing On New Bus Route To Be Held December 10

A hearing before the Texas Railroad Commission concerning the establishment of a new bus line to run from Lamesa to Hereford, via Brownfield, Levelland, Littlefield and Dimmitt, will be held Tuesday, December 10, at the Hilton hotel in Lubbock.

Proceedings of the hearing itself are not expected to begin until after lunch, but all representatives attending are urged to be present sometime during the morning, to attend a luncheon at noon. During the noon luncheon, testimony in favor of the proposed bus line will be discussed with everyone present.

J. S. Mansfield, secretary of the Hockley County Board of Development, stated Wednesday morning that a delegation from Levelland will attend the hearing. He also urged that anyone interested in the new bus route and wanting to attend the Lubbock meeting contact his office in the near future.—Hockley County Herald.

Country Club Employs Greens Keeper

Jimmy Bowen, formerly with the Lamesa Country Club, has been secured as greens keeper by the Brownfield Country Club. Mr. and Mrs. Bowen reside on East Hill Street. Bowen is already doing all the weather and season permits. Seeding the greens will be commenced the latter part of March or the first part of April. Local golfers are already playing on the sand greens.

Club officials are doing everything in their power to secure equipment for the benefit and entertainment of non-golfers, but are hampered by shortages and restrictions. A group from the club, together with representatives from other organizations, was in Abilene the past week looking over surplus buildings at Camp Barkley. An arms and ammunition company representative is expected here at any day to take the order for the Skeet range equipment. The swimming pool, croquet grounds and tennis courts should be ready by the time the season opens.

Post Jail Breakers Have Brief Respite

About 6 o'clock p. m., Monday, the Post, Texas, jailer, an elderly man, went into the jail, wearing his gun and keys, to feed his prisoners, three of them easily overpowered him, took his gun and keys, went down stairs, took his car and fled west.

Local officers were notified to look for the 1938 model car, but near Tahoka they abandoned his car and stole a 1946 Ford, and passed through here about 9 p. m.

Officers here on learning of the change of cars, notified Roswell officers, who received the fleeing culprits in open arms, about midnight. They were returned to Post Tuesday.

Firecracker Ordinance To Be Enforced

In response to several inquiries lately from business men, presumably to stock up on fire works, Mayor Jordan announced, the City Ordinance passed last spring prohibiting selling and shooting fire crackers in the city, will be rigidly enforced. This ordinance was passed at behest of a great number of citizens, who are pledging their backing of the officers enforcing it.

The public will patiently endure, and wish for the youngsters to enjoy moderate celebration of that great day, on that day and Christmas Eve, but the constant bombardment of huge crackers for a month before, and the fact that last year many upper teenagers fired roman candles into open windows of passing cars, and threw crackers in and on cars, injuring people and property, became intolerable.

They are also considered fire hazards. The ordinance plainly forbids the sale or shooting of firecrackers, within the city limits, and assesses appropriate penalties.

Jaycees Seeking Surplus Building For Show Barns

Virgil Crawford and Dennis Lilly made reports to Jaycees assembled at the Wines Hotel last Monday for their semi-monthly luncheon on the types of buildings offered for sale at Camp Barkley, Abilene. The Jaycees are trying to secure show buildings for the Annual FFA, 4-H Livestock Show. This show is sponsored by the local Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Crawford and Lilly stated there were several buildings at the camp suitable for conversion into show buildings.

Reports were given on the Fall Board Meeting, held at Austin last Saturday and Sunday and attended by Stuffy Moorhead, Herbert Chesshir, Buddy Gillham and Jeff Farley.

Guests were Johnny Brooks, local photographer and L. W. Keilers and Mr. Jones of the district office, Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission, San Angelo.

U. S. O. Drive Still Far Under Quota

W. M. Thomason, chairman of the current USO drive, stated early this week that Terry county was far short of the $1040.00 quota set for it, and wishes to reach that quota this week. The hat will be passed at the local theatres through the last days of this week.

It is pointed out that there are thousands of wounded veterans in hospitals, who cannot get about, the USO takes a show to them once each week. How many times per week do the free, able-bodied and prosperous people go to a show. Did we hear only the shots of the troops, and not the shouts of the wounded, when the battle is over. Can we see only with our eyes and not with our hearts. Shall we see only those who returned and enter prosperous businesses and walk down our streets and forget those who cannot walk at all?

Is this the American way of life?

J. J. Kendrick, at the First National Bank, is receiving treasurer of all donations. The public is urged to contribute liberally to this fund this week.

LOCAL LIONS ATTEND MEADOW AFFAIR

Local Lions, headed by District Governor Frank Jordan, presented the program for the annual Meadow Lions Club Ladies Night at the Meadow High School last Monday night. One of the highlights of the affair was the elk steak dinner. The elk was a hunting trophy of one of the Meadow members.

Mrs. G. W. Tarpley gave a number of selections at the piano. H. B. Virgil Crawford was next on the program with a humorous (according to Jeff Farley) talk. An outline of the activities of the various clubs throughout his district was given by Governor Jordan.

In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Jordan, the Brownfield delegation consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Chesshir, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gress, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Tarpley, and Messrs. D. Q. Lilly, Tommy Harrell, Virgil Crawford, E. D. Jones, Tom Chitwood, Les Short, Jeff Farley and Dr. W. A. Roberson.

Don't Crowd The Fire Trucks

Fire Chief Eunice Jones calls attention the fact that several men, who though volunteers, have taken much training, are efficient in team work, but are scattered over town and have to rush to fires in their own cars, and that many people jamb the streets adjacent to a fire and often hinder more than help the firemen in their hasty and very important work.

It is urged that all spectators steers clear of the volunteer firemen, and city fire trucks, keep the way open for them approaching and at the scene of the fire.

There is also an ordinance, carrying penalty on this.

Nineteenth District Legion To Meet In Colorado City

Colorado City — The annual Fall Convention of the 19th District of The American Legion, Department of Texas, will be held Sunday, December 1, at Colorado City with the formulation of plans for increased membership high on the business agenda.

A. C. JACKSON

A. C. Jackson, Lubbock, 19th District Commander, will preside with Oran C. Hooker Post No. 127 of Colorado City as host.

Registration of delegates will begin early Sunday morning at Legion Hall with the first session due to get underway at 9:30 A. M. Sid Lowery, Department Service Officer with headquarters in Lubbock, will represent the Department at the Convention.

The Convention will open with a joint session of the District Legionnaires and the Ladies Auxiliary. On the morning program in addition to Lowery will be Robert Sison, Lubbock, Regional

SID LOWERY

Manager of the Veterans' Administration; A. O. Willman, Austin, State Service Officer; and George Berry, Lubbock, Fifth Division Commander.

The delegates, besides making plans to increase the District membership will also emphasize Boy's State and the Child Welfare phase of the Legion program. Commander Jackson has announced.

Prior to the Convention opening Saturday night, a dance will be held for all registered delegates at Legion Hall. An "old-fashioned chow line" featuring barbecue will be offered Legionnaires during the noon recess.

Guard Recruiting Drive Starts

Graham Smith, commanding officer, received the official go-ahead signal last week to start the formation of Cannon Company, 142nd Infantry, Texas National Guard. Headquarters for the recruiting drive will be at the U. S. Army Recruiting Station on west Main.

Company strength will be five officers and 76 enlisted men. The unit, being highly mobile, requires highly skilled personnel. Almost the entire enlisted group will carry technical ratings.

In addition to the considerable amount of equipment to be located here, the government will erect a large armory, which will be available for community functions. Site of the building will be at the City-County Park.

Smith estimates the payroll will amount to approximately $1,000 per month. Pay earned at the annual National Guard encampment will be distributed here instead of at the camp.

Captain Smith, who has had a considerable amount of National Guard experience in addition to his Army career, states that he wants only the better type of citizens on his organization. Having had the opportunity to work with and check on numerous military units, declares that a military organization is vastly superior to the average when its personnel has been carefully screened.

Equipment, as has been previously stated in these columns, consists of medium tanks, Jeeps, other types of trucks, radio communications equipment, etc.

Brownfield is very fortunate in securing this type of Guard Unit. From every standpoint, it will be an asset to the town and deserves the wholehearted support of every citizen.

Five Injured In Muleshoe Gas Explosion

Five persons were hospitalized at Muleshoe Tuesday, when Postmaster Gardener attempted to light a gas stove that evidently had been left partly on and accumulated much gas. The postoffice building was wrecked and adjoining building badly damaged.

No fire followed which probably accounts for the lives of the five who were pinned beneath the wreckage, being saved.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Holmes and children spent Saturday night in Seminole as guests of Mrs. R. B. Holmes.

Gen. Wainwright Stresses Christmas Seal Sales

Austin, Nov. 19 — The 40th annual Christmas Seal Sale which opens Monday Nov. 25 will carry a life-saving Christmas tradition not only into Texas homes but to all military installations in Texas.

In a letter to Pansy Nichols, executive secretary, Texas Tuberculosis Association, General Jonathan M. Wainwright yesterday endorsed the State-wide campaign for funds to combat tuberculosis, and declared Christmas Seals will be made available to military personnel throughout the State.

"The purchase and use of Christmas Seals has become an institution in this country of ours," General Wainwright said, "and I would like to have you know that your efforts in raising funds through the sale of seals for use in the control of tuberculosis has my wholehearted endorsement."

"It has come to my attention that over 17,000 members of the armed services had to be discharged during the first three years of World War II because of tuberculosis. I know from personal experience of many occasions during the war when 17,000 men could have influenced a battle decisively.

"In these times it is most important that the preservation of good health and the treatment of disease receive proper emphasis in conjunction with other measures of preparedness presently being advocated by those who realize the necessity for a strong United States.

"I am certain you will find the commanding officers of the several posts, camps and stations within the Fourth Army Area very happy to cooperate with you in any way they can in promoting the sale of Christmas Seals to military personnel.

"You have my best personal wishes for a very successful drive. If I can be of any assistance, please call upon me," he continued.

According to a recent report by the Texas Tuberculosis Association, activities of the National, State and County tuberculosis associations, supported by Seal Sale funds, include education of special groups and the general populations, case-finding, operation of clinics, nursing services, rehabilitation, personnel training, cooperation with the medical profession in tuberculosis work and financial support of medical research. Ninety-five cents out of every dollar raised in Texas fights tuberculosis within the State, and five cents is sent to the National Tuberculosis Association to support the services which it performs on a nationwide basis to further the campaign against the disease.

A County-Wide 4-H Club Organized

The girls from Pleasant Valley, Gomez, Tokio and Johnson met in the District Court room, Saturday afternoon at 2:30, with Miss Helen Dunlap, our home demonstration agent, to organize a county-wide 4-H club.

The following officers were elected: President, Verna Loy Winn; Vice President, Charlene Tuttle; Secretary, Shirley Jean Duke; Recreation, Thresa Mason; Reporter, Wilma Davis.

Other members were: Margaret Davis, Onagene Walker, Willadean George and Doris Tuttle.

Our next meeting will be in the District Court room, Jan. 4, at 3:30. All girls between the ages of 10 through 20, who are not members of the county-wide 4-H club, are invited.—Reporter.

Light Vote Cast In General Election

Official canvas of the vote in the General Election, held Nov. 5th, discloses the vote for U. S. Senator and several other state offices, was from 335,000 to 350,000. Vote for Governor and Lieutenant Governor will be canvassed by the Legislature. Senator Connally's opponent received 43,000, and other Republican candidates for State offices, around 35,000.

All four amendments to the constitution carried. The one for John Tarleton building, for 226,000, to 74,000 against; the Good roads amendments, for 232,000, to 59,000 against, and the amendment authorizing purchase and re-sale of land to Veterans received 80,000, while 30,000 voted against it. About ten percent of the votes cast for candidates did not vote on the amendments.

There is approximately three million persons in the state eligible to vote. The highest number

No Evidence Of Drought Around Elevators

As we had been pretty busy since our western trip, we had little time to see just how Mayor Frank Jordan had been taking care of the town while we were away. So, Sunday afternoon was spent in making the old burg in the car. While there is hardly as much growth as earlier in the year, building material being scarce and frozen stiff besides, it has put a halt in many building operations. As you know certain kinds of building materials, such as nails (very essential) gas and water piping, and certain grades of lumber, are definitely out, unless an ex-service man wants them, and generally they are too high for him. That is the picture we get talking with this one and that one.

But as stated above, there are still many homes under construction, as well as some business houses, or material being assembled on the ground for them. Then a lot of the older residences are having additions built, a coat of paint, and other improvement, that helps the looks of the town. There is not half a dozen places in town that look as if there has not been a coat of paint added since they were built. Some of these old places would just look dandy if they had a new coat of paint, but as is, they look like the picture of some of the old "haunted" houses in story books.

No longer than the next to last week in August, it did not appear to the most optimistic that more than a tenth of a grain crop could possibly be harvested in Terry county. But the rains finally came, and as a result, a large portion of the county is making a fair grain crop. The north, east and southeast is making a good crop. With the exception of Harmony, Pool and parts of the Johnson-Gomez area, all are making a fair grain crop. Pool and Harmony for the most part just did not get enough rain in June and July to get their grain up so that the big rains of August would do the rest.

In some sections of the county, higeria and plainsman maize were up something like an average of knee high, and in a few places heading, when the glorious rains came in five inch proportions the last week of August. But it was entirely too late to get stuff up and make before freezing weather. So the best the farmers of these areas could do was plant something to graze until killed down, which many of them did, and not a few planted some wheat or other winter grazing grain.

Crowds of Trucks Around The Elevators

In making our rounds we noted that great crowds of grain trucks with combined maize were crowded around the elevators. Some had informed us that either the grain was too wet to put in elevators, or that elevators were not ready to receive it. We had one report that on account of the grain being so wet, the buyers were laying off. We checked none of these reports, but at one large elevator, we feel safe in stating that at least 30 large trucks were waiting to unload. There could have been more, as some were down under the bluff, and a dozen or more trucks between us and a view of it.

To say the least, hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of feed will be shipped out that was not in sight to anyone, up to the last week in August.

Which fully sustains the old saying that this country can promise more and deliver less, and promise less and deliver more than any other country in existence.

It is not our putin; no one has called for our two-bits worth of advice, but that fact does not keep us wondering why some one with a resounding whack and roaring voice like our Tom Connally, or Michigan's Vandenberg, after one of old bullet-headed Molotov's rantings about our aggression, don't mention to that guy that our memory is not as short as he thinks. That the people of the United States still remember Russia's aggression against little Finland the Balkan states. The more you try to appease and pet a bull-necked guy like Molotov or John Lewis, the worse you make 'em.

We had a form letter this week from Vernon L. Clark, assistant to the US Treasury secretary, which stated that if he knew us personally he would call us Houdini. Of course he meant this as a great compliment to the country press, and is accepted as such. But Mr. Clark may not be aware of the fact that it almost takes a Houdini to make both ends meet running a country weekly, sometimes. What Clark meant of course, was the great influence for good the country press renders this nation. Well, perhaps he's not far off at that. We firmly believe that no organization or individual with no more capital than the weekly press possesses, did more, for free, for this nation in its time of stress in selling war bonds and encouraging enlistments, than it. Nor, for that matter does any organization do more for the advancement of their community, state and nation than the free and untrammeled country press. But many other organizations get more credit, and yet always call on the press to help them put over measures for the good of the community, which is truly commendable. Yet it would be hard to find a country editor that would acknowledge he was even remotely related to Houdini, the world's greatest magician.

Rent controls in the larger cities, with the war over more than a year ago, is working a hardship not only on the owners, but in many instances to those the law is expected to help. For this very reason some of these rent places, some in Texas cities, are being closed as soon as a tenant leaves them, and not for rent sign placed on them. It is the contention of the owners that they have no way assessing damages to the building by tenants, as the Housing Act takes this privilege from them. And, they maintain, the war was over some 14 months ago, and it is time that an owner have some sayso about his own property. As a result the homes are under lock and key, and thousands hunt for just any little old place to stay. The sooner all controls come off, and let the nation settle down to normal, the better.

Local lumbermen tell us that building restrictions are so rigid and materials so scarce, that they cannot now even start a house, much less complete one. When the new Congress meets, in January, about the first hard work it should do is to remove all war restrictions, executive and otherwise, and let the nation get back to normal.

A British writer says that all the rest of the world is going left while the United States trends right. Well, that is alright, alright. We are the "have it" nation and they are the "have not" nations. Naturally they are chasing the rainbow end, with the prospect of getting the pot of gold for nothing. Americans still believe that it takes work and planning to find the rainbow end. In other words, the United States has only 6 percent of the world's population, but that 6 percent has 50 percent of the world's wealth. This wealth did not come to us by wishful thinking.

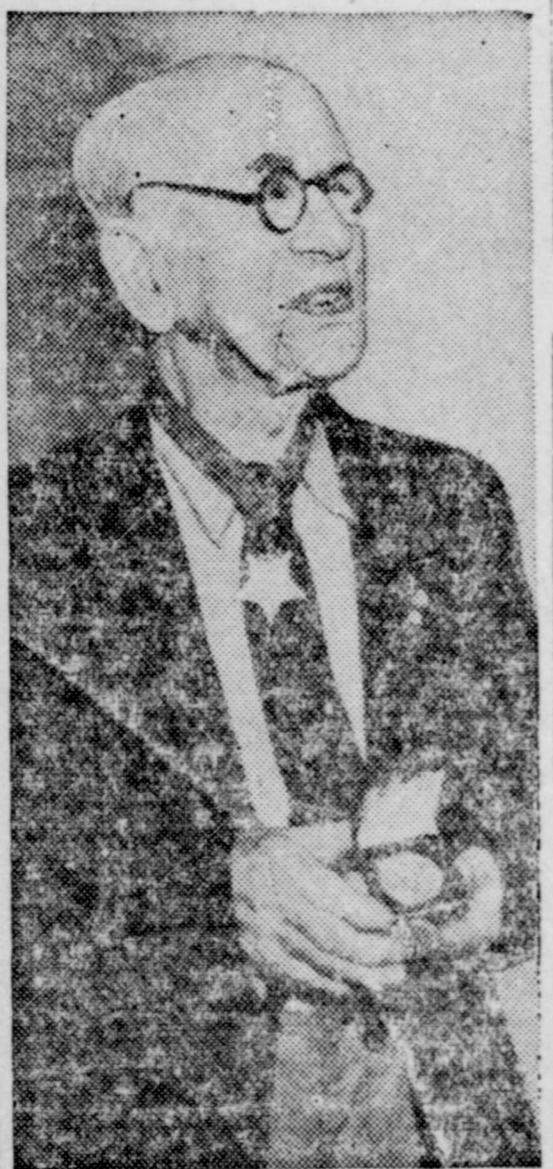

Most people in the southwest, at least are so fed up and disgusted with strikes, that most of us have figured out what we would do with the miner's strike. Here is one man's idea: Lock John L. in the coldest cell in the nation, and keep it that way. Get the draft board in action, and get all miners in the army or navy that are qualified. We have to keep an army in Europe and Japan. Fine the organization some $100,000 per day while they are on strike against the government orders. Our idea is that the strike would be called off pronto.

What Now?

What to do with Germany, we asked. Re-educate them is the only cure, was the popular answer. So the program for re-education was advanced and apparently some ground work laid to de-Nazi the German mind. The hope was to bring democratic principles into the reach and understanding of all ages but especially the young, who have been nurtured on Nazi principles since birth. After invasion there was a concentrated effort to decide how to defeat what the militarists of Germany had built up in the German mind. Came the duty of our occupation army of devising a way through education and attract them to the path of fellowship among nations. Education, not force, seemed the best method to accomplish the task.

We now hear that this plan has to be abandoned because of lack of interest on the part of America. The complaint is that such procedure would be so long, so expensive. But wars are expensive too! There was no effective campaign for directing such a program. The occupation army wants to come home, naturally. And such is the situation confronting us today. What to do with Germany? Well, we had better find some peaceful, comprehensive way of directing the German mind along pacific lines. —Big Spring News.

Editor Morris' Smart Cat Starts Something

In last week's issue Editor Troy Morris took a great section of his Ropes Plainsman and Meadow News to tell us the whole story of his long handled cat that recently visited Plains, Brownfield and Meadow, before getting home with his nine other lives.

In Brownfield, according to Morris, the cat not only tangled badly with the Old He, but got in Judge Homer Winston and Sheriff Joe Price's hair.

After a swift journey to Meadow, the talking (?) cat came in contact with officials and business men there. Oh, it read more fascinating than the midnight ride of Paul Revere.

Call again cat, another time when we are still asleep.

No Savva Da Angleesh

The Terry County Herald reports display models of the new Kaiser-Frazier automobiles at the Terry County Motor Company. The paper adds, "While somewhat similar in appearance, the Frazer has more luxurious appointments and sells for a slightly higher price." Similar to what? —Andrews County News.

Just what is hard for Editor Roberts to understand about the above, heads us. We have shown the article to several, including some college graduates, as well as the agent of the two cars in question, and they could see no puzzle about the matter.

Just two makes of cars was under discussion, the Kaiser and the Frazer, therefore the comparison or similarity was not with any other make.

Cotton Insurance Offered Farmers

College Station — Federal crop insurance on the 1947 cotton crop is now being offered for sale to every cotton farmer in Texas, State Director B. F. Vance of the Production and Marketing Administration has announced. Insurance contracts will be signed in county ACA offices.

Under the 1947 insurance plan, farmers are being offered a wider choice on the amount of insurance they can buy. Coverage may be made for as low as 40 percent of the average yield and as high as 75 percent Vance says.

All-risk insurance, which protects the crop against any unavoidable hazards, goes into effect when cotton is planted and continues until it is ginned. The amount of insurance increases as the crop grows, because more costs have been incurred and the crop is worth more to farmers, Vance explains.

"Demand for all agricultural products promises to continue at high levels and no farmer can afford a crop failure when protection can be bought cheap. Crop insurance will help bridge the financial gap if losses occur," the PMA official states.

Shriners Active In Crippled Children Work

The Shriners of North America are very active in their work with crippled children, said Mr. C. K. Kendrick. More and more cases, regardless of race, creed, or color, are being treated. While the Shriners of North America are financing this most worthwhile humane activity, they feel that others may want a part; and it is now possible for anyone outside of the organization to buy a Voluntary Contributing Life Membership in the Shriners Hospitals for Crippled Children.

A beautiful certificate is issued to everyone purchasing one of these memberships, said Mr. C. K. Kendrick.

The cave dwellers should have been happy. There was no land-lord to refuse renting a cave to a family with children.

Don't worry about the future generation. The present one can furnish all the worry needed.

Behind the Scenes in American Business

— By Reynolds Knight —

NEW YORK, Nov. 25 — The farmer appears to be doing very well these days, if figures on national income may be taken as a criterion. His income has risen substantially in recent years and government guaranties of so-called parity levels indicate that he is less likely to see a serious decline in his income than might otherwise have been possible. Income figures show that the farmer has increased his average revenue fourfold since the depression low of 15 years ago. To put this gain in a clearer perspective it might be added that the average income of all Americans has risen two and a half times during the same period. The revenue gain in the rural sections is even more significant in view of the fact that there has been a decrease of 22 per cent in the number of people living on farms. Currently, some 25 million people are listed as living on farms, and this is in contrast to the 32 million which came under that category 15 years ago. This relative prosperity of the farmer may continue for the next several years, largely because of the government guaranty to support post-war farm prices at 90 per cent of parity.

THINGS TO COME — A new packaged pie crust, to save still more time for busy housewives and the tempers of critical husbands... A new machine to make peanut butter sandwiches automatically... A sheet covered with adhesive which, inserted in a typewriter, quickly picks up all fuzz and dirt from the keys... A gas incinerator said to be suitable for any kitchen, and capable of reducing 60 pounds of garbage and waste to an easily handled dry ash... A completely automatic coffee brewer. The housewife just puts in the coffee and the water, turns the switch. The brewer does the rest... Still another synthetic anti-slip coating to make steel, concrete, hard tile and wood floors safer... A new electric radiator which operates through both radiation and convection, but uses no water, no steam. Plugged in, it gives heat instantly, its makers claim... A new floor cleaner with a special baseboard polishing brush.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

For me, you know, it is hard to get over the idea that we can't have a kind of money that to most folks is sure enough money. Gold. World-wide, gold has tradin' value. Nothing approaches it—never has—since away back there in Lydia around 600 B. C. when they first started to use gold as coin. Of all the things our U. S. A. needs more of, it is confidence. Good money is the place to start. For a dozen years we been ambuling around in confusion.

If I was ever running for something, like maybe president, one of my planks to stand on, would be gold dinero. And if it was somebody running like Mr. Bricker and Mr. Wherry, or Mr. Byrd and Mr. George—republican or democrat—it would cut no ice or make a difference. Folks want to get away from fummiddles. Gold has a clink and jingle to it that oozes confidence.

And getting a little further into elections and what has took place, it is sorta like with an old car, you trade it in regardless, whether the old bus was a flivver or at one time a glamorous limousine. Folks who guessed wrong on what was to happen on last election day, their crystal ball, it musta been out of kilter.

Yours with the low down,

TEXAS EMPLOYMENT AND PAYROLLS BOOSTED

Austin — Both employment and pay rolls in Texas edged upward in October over September to hit their 1946 peaks according to data compiled by the Bureau of Business Research of The University of Texas. The gains for the month were 1.4 per cent for employment and 0.9 per cent for pay rolls.

Compared with October 1945 employment last month was up 6 per cent and payrolls 21 per cent. The Bureau's index of Texas employment in October stood 152 per cent above in Oct. stood 152 war month, while pay rolls were up 105 per cent—more than twice their 1935-39 level.

Metal For License Plates Said Found

Austin, Tex. — State Highway officials believed today that sufficient plate metal had been located for normal issuance of 1947 automobile license plates for Texas.

The state will return to the two-plate system for 1947, requiring both a front and a back plate. The plates will have a black background with white letters and numbers.

Manufacture of the plates is under way at the state prison at Huntsville, and plates have already been shipped to Amarillo, El Paso, and other far counties.

The long green doesn't go as far as it once did.

More Sugar In 1947 Forecast

Miami, Nov. 21 — James H. Marshall, director of the Agriculture Department's sugar branch, predicted Thursday that consumers may get five pounds more sugar in 1947 than is being rationed to them this year.

The ration entitles everyone to 25 pounds this year, including 10 pounds canning allowance. Under Marshall's forecast, the 1947 direct supply would be 30 pounds.

An additional quantity averaging about 48 pounds per person is used in manufactured food products, soft drinks, candies and the like. Marshall said this quantity might be increased to an average of about 54 pounds through allocation of large supplies to the manufacturers.

Marshall gave this preview of the 1947 sugar outlook in a talk prepared for a meeting of the American Bottlers of Carbonated Beverages.

Inspectors Capture Eight Illicit Stills

Texas Liquor Control Board inspectors in October reported the seizure of 8 illicit stills.

Destruction of the stills, which had a cubic capacity of 345 gallons, prevented the potential evasion of $5,941.66 in State taxes.

With the stills, inspectors captured 800 gallons of mash and made 4 arrests. 19 gallons of moonshine liquor were destroyed.

Three stills were taken in Red River County, 2 in Harrison County, and 1 each in Titus, Robertson and Cooke Counties.

Bakers Must Return To 16-Ounce Loaves

Austin, Nov. 21—Texas bakers must standardize the weight of bread loaves to conform with state law, which sets a minimum weight of 16 ounces per loaf. W. S. Bussey, chief of the weights and measures division, told inspectors attending a two-day conference here.

Bussey explained that some bakers complied with an OPA directive last summer which called for a 10 per cent reduction of bread weights. He said the OPA directive has been removed but some confusion still exists.

BENEFITS ASSURED FOR DURATION

Men who enlist on or after 6 October 1946 are assured of accruing benefits for the duration of the war. Any person who serves honorably on active duty for a period of 90 days, one day of which must be served between 16 September 1940 and the date of termination of the present war, or is discharged with a service-incurred injury or disability incurred within that first 90 day period, is entitled to one year of education or training. If he continues to serve honorably on active duty beyond the initial 90-day period, and between 16 September 1940 and the termination of the present war accrues one year of educational or training benefits for his first 90 days of active service and one month or year of such benefits for each month or year of honorable active service, or a total of four years of education or training for a three year period of active service. Or, if a man enlists now and the war is declared over after he has served honorably on active duty for four months, he is entitled to 16 months of education or training.

Something To Be Thankful For
GWN

Are we thankful? Last Monday morning when the breath of Amarillo blew snow and sleet down upon us, we didn't have to scurry around to get in wood and kindling, or shovel scarce coal, or shiver in fear of where another bucketful would come, only hurried to our offices and places of business, struck a match, lighted the gas stove and looked out, and says, "Let 'er snow." Nor worried but little about our livestock, in this seldom frozen zone. This was only noticeable, after reading the Sunday's papers and listening to the constant chill of the radio, reciting the below zero weather, with only a few days coal on hand, and none in prospect. Schools closing for want of fuel, railroads, factories and businesses slowing down, even hospitals and homes with cold floors and frosted windows. Are we thankful to live in the sunny south, and especially in grand old Texas, and double special in west Texas. Though nature failed to bless us with a ten year period of bumper crops and this year, slowed us down in our mad rush for more and more, only to let us know that in our clamour for a leveling off of prices nature can do some leveling off too.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Miller spent the weekend in Snyder visiting friends.

Stop Racial Strife In Time

While there is yet time to nip the movement in the bud, not only our Texas lawmakers but every Texas citizen should be on the alert for eruptions of racial strife now being brewed in the cauldron of the Communists and those who would arouse civil warfare in this state and the South.

Unless we take the proper steps in time—be they drastic or not—we will one day be faced in the South with civil warfare that could indeed prove serious.

The fomenters of racial strife are going about their unholy business behind darkened curtains, and in the cheap atmosphere of back rooms in many more communities than the average citizen thinks. If we allow this scum of our generation to continue sowing seeds of discord we will reap a whirlwind that will not be easily or bloodlessly stopped.

Those who plan only strife and teach hatred for the American way of life and for our present legal status for the colored people would promptly be executed as traitors and criminals in any other country except easy-going America. It will take unity on every front to pull us safely through the days of economic upheaval and readjustment which lie immediately ahead.—Snyder Times.

Fatal Complacency A Social Disease

Popular complacency toward the menace of traffic accidents was properly defined by Capt. J. O. Musick of the State Department of Public Safety as "a social disease," at a police executives' conference in Austin a few days ago.

Until the people awaken to the criminality of wanton negligence that leads to the killing of thousands on the nation's highways each year, nothing will be done to abate that toll. Automobiles and highways can never be made fool-proof. The blindness of the people to the murder, negligent homicide and aggravated assault by irresponsible motorists is a disease of the mind, a flaw in human character and decency. Capt. Musick is correct in stating that 90 per cent of motor accidents are avoidable through proper caution and regard for welfare of others. Prosecution of offenders and severe punishment are the only means for restoring sanity to the highways.

It is a cruel paradox that a boon of civilized progress, the automobile, can be used as a weapon of destruction and death. As a reversion to barbarism, the disregard for human life, safety and security call for study by psychiatrists to determine fitness for driving a car. The social disease of complacency toward highways danger demands a cure by a sane responsible society, if the United States can lay claim to that rating.—Star-Telegram

Negro Editor's Wise Words

(An Editorial from The Savannah, Ga. Morning News)

It would appear that the negroes in the South are getting better advice from members of their race in the South than they are getting from the colored citizens and the white radicals in the North, of which no better evidence is at hand than a recent editorial in The Florida Sentinel, a negro newspaper, published in Tampa, of which C. Blythe Andrews is editor.

Editor Andrews, for some time, has looked with skepticism on the suggestions, advanced from time to time, that more Southern negroes should migrate to the North, the idea being that they would be received with open arms and given more privileges and luxuries in that section than in the South. And so he is prompted to editorialize as follows:

"Since the orgy of lynchings in Georgia, Louisiana and Mississippi, there have been some to urge negroes to flee North.

"Those who have gone North don't find a bed of roses. Things are just as bad up there as down here, and perhaps worse for the men and women who have no trade or profession.

"The jobs may pay more money up there but living conditions are bad and crowded and costs are so much higher.

"The negro gets along pretty well in the South if he wants to work and tends to his business. Many of us don't want to work, and the few days we do, we throw away our earnings in foolish things.

"There is no social equality up North and down South, neither among black folks nor white folks. There is no such animal on earth. The politicians talk about it when they run out of issues, but there never did exist any such thing as social equality."

Assisting Mrs. Nelson as hostesses were Mmes. Joe Chisholm, Roy Collier, Rudolph Gracey, J. O. Burnett, Jack Holt, Clifford Horn, Dick Henson and Miss LaRue Ross. Miss Murphy and Mr. Jordan will be married Dec. 27th in the First Baptist Church, Brownfield.

Receiving the guests were Mrs. Nelson, Miss Murphy, Mrs. Dewey Murphy, mother of the bride-elect and Mrs. Gracey. Delma Dawn Murphy, sister of the honoree, registered the guests in a white leather bride's book with white satin streamers and pink carnations marking the pages. Mrs. Clifford Horn assisted with hospitalities in the reception room.

The tea table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of white mums. Mrs. G. W. Graves and Mrs. Collier served spiced tea from silver tea services and were assisted by Wanda Jean Collier and Judy Barrow, who served heart shaped cookies and mints. A bride and groom doll flanked with white tapers decorated the buffet.

Members of the houseparty wore corsages of white mums and the honoree, pink carnations. Chrysanthemums in autumn shades were used throughout the entertaining rooms.

Mesdames Burnett and Henson displayed the gifts.

Mrs. Sam Teague was surprised Monday morning by several of her neighbors when they dropped in with gifts for her birthday. Coffee and sweet rolls were served to Mmes. Tom Harris, Kenneth Hill, Clyde Truly, George Germany, Gail Woods and Logan Redford.

A Living Memorial To Armed Forces

A Living Memorial to the Members of the Armed Forces of World War II is being sponsored by the Texas Roadside Council. The plan is to inaugurate the planting of a county wide selected tree and/or shrub in the yards of all homes and along the highways, filling stations or corners that would otherwise be neglected.

The Maids and Matrons Club of Brownfield will sponsor the planting of the shrub, which has been chosen for Brownfield. The Delphian Club, the Alpha Omega Club along with the Rotary Club, the Lions Club, The American Legion and all organized groups in Brownfield and Terry County will be asked to cooperate in helping to make this Living Memorial to World War II Veterans a success.

The Pyracantha has been chosen as the shrub to be planted along our highways and in our yards. This is a very hardy shrub, stays green the year around, and in summer and fall is covered with either an orange or red colored berry and is very beautiful throughout the year.

This is a peoples program, and the plan gives every citizen an opportunity of participation that should be considered a privilege, the planting of these shrubs over a distance, displaying the motif and producing an effective Memorial.

Mrs. Joe J. McGowan, Chairman, Terry County.

Betty Holmes, Judy Griffin, Lois Stafford and Dolores Gillham were in Lubbock Saturday. Lois and Dolores attended the Amarillo-Lubbock football game.

Misses Billie Faye Finney and Jane Weir were weekend guests of Miss Marian Kelso, of Lubbock. They were named honorees at a party in the home of their hostess Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulee McPherson spent the weekend in Lubbock as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stice.

Is He Headed This Way?

It's hard to tell just what might happen in West Texas, but at least one local institution is keeping a weather eye out and considering the possibility that John L. and Santa Claus might be running a neck-and-neck race.

Postoffice visitors are greeted with the sign: "Mail your Christmas Packages NOW! Who Knows—Tomorrow, John L. Lewis Might Take This Joint Over!"

While the sign was primarily designed to stimulate the early mailing of Christmas packages, there could be a mite of truth on the matter due to the fact that a prolonged coal strike could tie up the railroads and seriously affect the Christmas mails.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the kind friends and neighbors for their helpfulness and their kind and consoling words during our recent bereavement in the passing of our loved one, Mr. J. L. Bradley. The nice food you prepared and the many beautiful flowers were so much appreciated and we shall always remember each of you.

Big-Little Business Must Sink Or Swim Together

It is important that the public understand the type of thought prevailing in the minds of those responsible for the operation of American industry. The following remarks by Eugene Holman, president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, are illuminating:

"The distorted picture of big versus little business, in which an effort is made to portray an opposition of interest between large and small enterprises, is basically false. We are not on opposite ends of a seesaw so that when one goes up, the other must go down. We are in the same boat. We will float or sink together. Without each other, big business and little business would both go out of business."

"We oil men believe in freedom and competition. We are opposed to any arrangement whereby fair and open competition is restricted. We reject agreements to fix prices, allocate markets, or limit production, except where production is controlled to avoid waste of natural resources. As a result of this fundamental belief, the oil industry is today one of the most competitive in the entire economic field."

"We are against monopolies, either formed by private companies or by government, because we believe they result in less goods distributed to fewer people at higher prices. Monopolies and closed economies don't harmonize with our conviction that the challenge of competition provides one of man's greatest incentives to progress. In the face of definite trends abroad and some sympathy at home for centralized control and the reduction of individual freedom, we in the oil business see the path of our development in the direction of greater freedom."

Wild game and furbearing animals are considered the property of the state and can be regarded as "possessed" only when taken in accordance with all regulations.

DISABLED VET RE-ENTERS ARMY . . . Pleas of a one-armed ex-soldier, M/Sgt. Richard Montgomery, Pittsburgh, Pa., to Gen. Dwight Eisenhower for permission to resume his army service prompted the army chief of staff to welcome back into service thousands of disabled combat veterans for limited service. Maj. Gen. Edward F. Witsell, left, administered oath to Montgomery, right, as he was sworn into the army as the first disabled combat veteran to re-enter the service.

HOLY CARPET GOES TO MECCA . . . One of the most picturesque of Moslem ceremonies, the departure of the Holy Carpet for Mecca, took place in Cairo, Egypt, recently. Here is the carpet, loaded on a camel, just before the departure. Every year the Egyptian government sends to Arabia gifts which are to adorn Mecca's shrines. Most important of these is the Holy Carpet, a huge black brocade, embroidered with gold thread which is laid over Ka'aba.

Mrs. Dee Hunter spent last week in Petersburg visiting her daughter, Mrs. Joe Barlow. Jackie and Jerry Worsham and Jimmy Billings spent Sunday in Amarillo visiting friends.

Meaningless Hair-Splitting

A good deal of meaningless hair-splitting is going on concerning the proposed Wagner-Murray-Dingell public health bill. Some of its advocates seem hurt when critics say that the measure amounts to socialized medicine, and claim that nothing of the kind is intended.

It is true that the bill would not go whole hog in the direction of socialization, by having the government establish a monopoly on hospitals, clinics and doctors. It is equally true that the bill would regiment medicine — and that is always the first step toward eventual socialization. Once the doctor becomes dependent on the government for part or all of his practice and his livelihood, the beginning of the end would be in sight for free, private medicine.

Further, the fact that the bill makes government-administered health insurance compulsory instead of voluntary indicates the way the wind blows. One hundred million or more Americans would be forced to accept and pay for this insurance whether they wanted it or not. It would be deducted from each paycheck, precisely as are social security taxes, and the annual cost would run between $37.50 and $40 per capita.

Again, the measure would reduce and in many instances eliminate the patient's freedom of choice in selecting a physician. That is always true of schemes to make the practice of medicine in whole or in part a function of the state.

The great objections to the bill are that they would give an enormously costly bureaucracy stringent powers over the practice of medicine, that political favoritism would in great measure determine a doctor's earnings and success, and that the people would be compelled to pay for a state doctor when they might prefer to pay a private doctor. Those are facts and hair-splitting over words won't change them.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Purtell were in Abilene over the weekend to attend the funeral of Mrs. Purtell's uncle.

Mr. and Mrs. Harest Sherrod, of 720 E. Broadway spent the weekend in Lubbock visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lewis and daughter, Patsy, spent Sunday in Plainview visiting relatives.

GI Question And Answer Department

Q. What is the difference between compensation and pension?
A. Compensation is a term used to describe monetary benefits payable for service-connected death or disability under laws administered by Veterans Administration. The term "pension" is used to describe nonservice-connected monetary benefits.
Q. Is a widower of a World War II veteran eligible to receive compensation or pension?
A. No; the term "widow" does not include a widower with reference to payment of compensation or pension based on the death of a World War II veteran. However, a widower is eligible to receive unpaid disability compensation or pension which accrued prior to the death of a woman who had served in the armed forces in World War II.
Q. How do I go about filing a claim for pension on the death of a veteran who was my sole support?
A. You should file your claim for pension with the Veterans Administration on its Form 535.
Q. Will various monetary benefits received by veterans under the G. I. Bill be deducted from future bonus?
A. No, that portion of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act (GI Bill) which formerly provided that any benefits received under the Act would be deducted from any future bonus authorized, has Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. Wait a little longer - Get a great deal more!

The production of Pontiac has fallen far below expectations because of conditions beyond our control. Now, the outlook is encouraging. The number of cars being built—while still below pre-war levels—is steadily increasing. Which means that more of the people who simply won't have anything but a Pontiac will be satisfied sooner.
 If, in the meantime, you are ever tempted to take delivery of a more quickly available car, consider this: The things that made you want a Pontiac in the first place are still EXCLUSIVE TO PONTIAC! Nowhere else at any price can you get the same time-won reputation for dependability, long life and over-all economy. No other car offers the ever-fashionable "Silver Streak" beauty that lifts Pontiac out of and above the rest. None handles so sweetly—rides so comfortably. And none can parallel Pontiac's basic value—for no other car offers so much of everything you want for every dollar you invest.

 You've been patient and loyal to Pontiac for some time now. So why not wait a little longer and get a great deal more? You'll be glad you waited.
Preventive Service Pays Off Every Time!
 Just because you HOPE to get a new car soon, don't let your present car get into a dangerous state of disrepair. Having your car properly serviced pays off—not only in assuring you the safe, economical, dependable transportation you need, but also in protecting the used car allowance you will ultimately receive.

Veterans News

More than 13,000 veterans training in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi are currently suspended from Veterans Administration subsistence rolls for failure to report their earnings.
 Subsistence checks ordinarily mailed to these veterans the first of every month will be held up until the required report is submitted to the proper VA regional office, VA officials said.
 Both veterans in training and educational status must report their earnings from productive labor for the months of August, September and October.
 Forms have been mailed to all veterans on the suspended list, but if these have been misplaced, the report on earnings can be made in a letter over the veteran's signature.
 Under legislation passed last summer, veterans' payments and earnings are limited to a total of $175 monthly for those without dependents and to $200 monthly for those with dependents. In the event those figures are exceeded, the subsistence allowances must be reduced accordingly.
 VA officials believe most of the reductions will be made in allowances to veterans taking on-the-job training. It is believed that only a few veterans in educational status will be affected.

The Veterans Administration has obtained an additional 1,600,000 books from the United States Armed Forces Institute to add to the 600,000 other surplus books still available to schools and colleges for their veteran-students, VA announced this week.
 The USAFI list contains 196 different titles and includes standard cloth-bound texts, paperback volumes, and self-teaching texts. Mathematics, literature, foreign languages, science, history and business are among the many subjects included.
 Library of Congress is distributing the books. VA pays the library for its handling and pays the school for handling costs for books distributed. Only veteran students can obtain the surplus volumes.
 The Library of Congress cannot send books direct to veterans. VA requests that veterans inquire only through school officials, or, in the case of job trainees, through VA training officers.

May Eliminate Spring Football Training

Austin — It will be up to the individual conferences in the University Interscholastic League football competition to vote on whether to eliminate spring football training, Rodney J. Kidd, athletic director, has announced.
 Schools will vote by conferences next April on whether to eliminate the spring training, and substitute opening fall practices on August 15, he said.
 There will be no change in the present spring training football practice this school year, Mr. Kidd said, but the rule will be in effect for the 1947-48 session for schools in conferences accepting the new plan.
 The recommendation to eliminate the spring training was made by the League Advisory Council at a meeting early in November, and it was approved by the State Executive Committee at a later session, Dean T. H. Shelby said.
 During 1946 to date the mailman has delivered more than 1,300,000 letters to the national headquarters of The American Legion in Indianapolis, indicating the huge volume of business carried on through there.

THREE POLIO CASES AT LORENZO

Lorenzo, Nov. 23—Three cases of poliomyelitis have broken out in the Lorenzo school during the past three weeks.
 Mary Hopper, 17, junior, is the latest victim, the other two, Geo. Hill, 9, and Mary Scott, 8, have been released from a hospital.
A GROWING PROBLEM
 Municipal engineers and other officials who are worrying over the increasing volume of traffic may derive some solace from the knowledge that their problems are shared by others. Take San Francisco, for instance.
 Just 10 years ago the magnificent, multi-million-dollar Bay Bridge linking San Francisco with Oakland was opened, and hailed as a solution of trans-bay traffic problems for the next 100 years. During the first year the bridge averaged 25,000 vehicular crossings daily.
 This year, however, there has been an average of 71,000 daily crossings and officials say that's about the limit. So now they are looking for a place to build another bridge.—Star-Telegram.

Editors Urge Fight Against Lewis Control

Galveston, Nov. 23—Members of the Texas Editorial Association Saturday urged President Truman and Congress to take any steps necessary to insure control of the nation remaining in their hands.
 The association adopted this stand in the form of a resolution taking notice of "the battle for control of the nation between constituted authorities and John L. Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers."
 At the same time the association adopted a resolution urging repeal of the Wagner Labor Act.
 Politics is a field in which a farmer never is referred to as a "yokel" or a city resident as a "slicker."

Band Clinic To Be Held At Tech

Lubbock — Between 500 and 700 high school band members from West Texas and Eastern New Mexico are expected to attend the fourth annual band clinic Dec. 6 and 7, sponsored jointly by Texas Technological College and Lubbock High School, according to Prof. D. O. Wiley, Tech band director.

Those attending will be given the opportunity of hearing new music and conferring with visiting directors and other music leaders. A business session of the Texas Musical Education Association, regions one and eight, is slated for 3 p. m. Dec. 7.

Studies conducted by the U. S. Department of Agriculture show that pure 2, 4-D does not harm milk cows.

Butterflies Aid Scientists in Drug Discovery of New Vitamin

Dr. S. M. Hardy, Medical Director, Lederle Laboratories Division, American Cyanamid Company, points to spot on world map where macrocytic anemia is prevalent. Lederle scientists recently synthesized a new vitamin known as fol'c acid, which contains a "pterin" compound, and is being used in the treatment of certain anemias. Over 10 years ago scientists isolated these pterins from the wings of butterflies, but were prohibited from continuing experiments by Hitler's order

Rheumatic Heart Causes Many Childhood Deaths

Austin, Texas — Rheumatic heart disease is now the first cause of death among children aged 10 to 14, and is second only to tuberculosis at ages 15 to 25. Despite the importance of this disease its epidemiology is not completely established. No vaccine such as those that prevent typhoid, diphtheria, smallpox, and whooping cough has yet been developed for its prevention or control. We do know, however, some of the danger signals and with the physician's accurate diagnosis some of the damaging results of the disease may be prevented.

Exposure to frequent chilling, damp or overcrowded living quarters, a poor diet, an attack of scarlet fever, a bad cold or other infection caused by certain streptococcus germs are likely to be predisposing factors in the appearance of rheumatic fever.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health

Officer, points out that in general the danger signals of rheumatic fever are pain and swelling in the joints of the knees, ankles, elbows, or wrists. The pain usually is felt in one of these centers and spreads to the others. Oftentimes a child will get irritable and cross without any visible signs of a good reason for this attitude; he may cry easily or develop habits of nervousness. A physician should be consulted at once in such a situation, for these symptoms may be the beginning of rheumatic fever.

According to Dr. Cox the best safeguards this disease are to have each child examined at least once a year by a physician, to have the right kind of food and plenty of rest. When the disease is suspected of being present, a doctor should be consulted at once, and if he prescribes complete bed rest, his advice should be implicitly followed.

Farmers in 1947 are expected to receive higher prices for eggs than they are getting this year.

Hockley-Lamb Farmers Oppose Water Control

In line with efforts over the South Plains to block threatened legislation for control of irrigation water in this section, about 100 farmers of Hockley and southern Lamb county met at Anton Friday night.

The group organized an association, and passed a resolution opposing any control legislation.

Wells Named President

K. W. Wells of Anton was elected president of the Association to be known as the Hockley and Lamb County Irrigation association. Other officers named were S. N. Twilley of Anton, vice president; and J. S. Bridges of Anton secretary.

The meeting was staged at Anton High School and speakers were outspoken in expressing their opposition to any control of irrigation water. Speakers explaining the problem included Hockley County Judge Z. O. Lincoln and Dave Sherrill, Hockley county farm agent.

The approved resolution cited "much agitation" for regulation of irrigation water by law, set out that there is no evidence that the water supply underlying the High Plains of Texas is being depleted, then resolved "that we express our opposition to any laws that in any way tend to regulate use of this national resource for irrigation."

Texas U. To Get New Seismograph Station

Austin, Nov. 21 — Operation of a complete seismograph station at the University of Texas will begin in January, university officials have disclosed.

Dr. D. S. Hughes, professor of physics and consultant in geophysics, is in charge of construction which has been delayed pending arrival of a $3,000 standard time clock.

The new station will be the only one between St. Louis on the north and Mexico City to the south and between New Orleans to the east and Denver to the west.

Garrison In Warning On Dangers To U. S.

Galveston, Tex., Nov. 22 — Homer Garrison, director of the Texas State department of public safety, believes that Communism and gangsterism are the greatest threats to internal security in Texas and the nation in the post war period.

In a speech before the Galveston Rotary club yesterday Garrison also listed racial tensions as a grave danger to public order.
