Yoakum Wild Cat Expected To Produce

SE quarter of section 446, the Magnolia No. 1 Bertie Brown well was a wild cat Monday when it broke loose and scared the bravery out of the attendants and sent them scampering for safety. But who would not run? That big 4 inch overflow pipe which reached from the well to the tank 45 feet away and which was wired down, began to rise and stood up straight against the tower as the gas and oil roared out. Those men could have thought anything and probably one thing was that the casing would come up next. The oil flowed in heads and in 40 minutes it had produced 400 barrels of 42 gravity sweet oil. And when it is considered that this oil came up through the bridge, formed when the well was shot some days ago, it cannot be imagined by the ordinary person what the potential will be. It had been reported for several days that the gas pressure was more than 600 pounds but pressure enough to raise a 45 foot pipe was not thought of.—Yoakum County Review.

Saturday has been set as the date for the gala showing of the '49ers, Studebaker's newest line of trucks by West Texas Motors in their showrooms at 220 South 5th.

West Texas Motors Showing New Trucks

Answer to the garage man's prayer is the revolutionary lift-hood accessibility for easy servicing and adjustments. The '49ers come with extra large windows and windshields for wide-range visibility. Also available is what is claimed by the makers to be the world's finest truck ventilating and heating system.

The new trucks come in 3/4, 3/4 and 1-ton pick-ups and 1 1/2 and 2-ton trucks. The trucks are available in wheelbase lengths ranging from 133 to 159 inches. Shorty Forbus, owner and manager of West Texas Motors, invites everybody to come in and admire his newest line of motor trucks. Refreshments will be served throughout the day.

Southwestern ATC Installs Millionth Telephone

Its millionth telephone was installed May 20, 1948, by General Telephone System of which Southwestern Associated Telephone Company is a part. The system, headed by General Telephone Corporation, comprises the largest group of operating telephone companies in the United States outside the Bell System.

Good Rains Fall Over County

Following rains earlier in the week, covering most of the county with a quarter to half an inch, a slow rain began early Wednesday continuing through the day and bringing the total Wednesday night for the week to .93 inch. This was indeed a boon to the farmers, many of whom were getting uneasy over arid conditions. But many say this is the right planting time, anyway.

Yoakum Farmer Dies Suddenly Tuesday

Isaac M. Nunn, 70 died early Tuesday of a heart attack while on the way to a physician's office. He had been making his home with an only child, his daughter Mrs. N.F. Rowland, west of Tokio.

The Brownfield Funeral home shipped the body to Bigelow, Ark., where funeral and burial was held Thursday. His wife died several years ago. Besides the daughter, he is survived by two sisters, living in Okla.

Herman Heath Gets Promotion

R. F. Hinchey, Lubbock, president of West Texas Gas Company, has announced the promotion of Herman F. Heath to be superintendent of city plants. Heath was manager of the company's Brownfield district for 15 years.

Heath started to work for West Texas Gas Company in October 1928 and in April, 1930 was named manager of the Brownfield District. He served as manager of the Midland District comprising Midland, Odessa and Stanton. Heath was born in Palestine, Texas and moved to Lubbock County in 1919.

Gas Co. Trying To Check Gas Shortage

With the headaches that made the officials and employees of the West Texas Gas Co. go round in circles last winter still in mind, they are leaving no stones unturned this summer while old sol is hot to get ready for any eventuality this winter.

This is the substance of a statement given out by President R. F. Hinchey of the company this week. He stated that they were making a new supply of gas available at two points, by purchase from the El Paso Gas Co., between Hereford and Umbarger and also between Sudan and Ambert where the two company lines cross each other. This gas comes from the Panhandle gas fields, and is expected to be available by Nov. 1.

Mr. Hinchey stated there were still a few bottlenecks to overcome. With the rapid growth of towns on the South Plains, and with strikes and other hindrances in the steel mills, new piping for new sections of towns and cities is hard to get. However, the company is operating under a long term program, and hope to have everything under control before too long, and no more "cut off the gas orders."

Of particular local interest is the fact that a much larger pipe line is being installed between Brownfield and Tahoka, and a new 300 horsepower compressor is promised by July for the compressor station at Tahoka.

Large Number Of National Guardsmen

A letter was received this week from the War Department, commending the part the press of the nation has had in recruiting National Guardsmen. The letter stated that on August 1, 1947 when the campaign began, there was only 117,000 guardsmen enlisted in the USA. To date there are 240,000 officers and men, 50,000 more than pre-war days.

The following is the location, date, probable number to train, name of camp, etc. of the Fourth Army this summer:

- Arkansas: Camp Robinson Aug 15-29, 5,000.
- Louisiana: Camp Beauregard, Aug. 1-15, 4,000.
- New Mexico: Fort Bliss, Aug. 15-29, 1,917.
- Oklahoma: Fort Sill, Aug. 8-22, 6,000.
- Texas: Fort Bliss, Aug. 15-29, 327.

VA Warns Against "Side Payments"

Veterans Administration has warned veterans, builders and lenders against the consequences of making or accepting so-called "side payments" in the sale of home properties to veterans with the aid of GI loans.

VA said such side payments—usually made for the purpose of evading the prohibition against sales to veterans in excess of appraised "reasonable value"—are a direct violation of law and subject offenders to possible federal prosecution.

Many cases have been reported in which veterans have been induced to pay the builder or seller an amount over and above the sales price shown on the loan report submitted to VA, and upon which the Government loan guarantee is based.

Veterans who knowingly conspire to evade the law by making such side payments risk loss of their rights under all veterans' laws, VA warned.

VA said that any lender who submits a loan to VA for guaranty while possessing knowledge of a side payment in connection with the sale—even though the payment was made to a third party other than the lender—will be suspended from further participation in the GI loan program. Also, any guaranty issued in connection with the transaction will be invalidated.

Building Permits Decline This Week

With a total of $18,500 the building permits issued by the City of Brownfield May 19-26 show a decline from last weeks total of $27,970.

J. T. Blankenship, move in and modernize 14 by 26 residence, located North A, $1500.

J. W. Ball, build 26 by 34 five room and bath residence, owner Dr. Bernice W. McNutt, North 3rd, $4,000.

Lloyd Moore, build six room residence and bath, located Lons Street, owner Bobby Jones, $9,500.

Terry County Lumber Co. move in and modernize 24 by 24 bldg. owner Mrs. M. A. Gorman, located 7th and Repetto, $2,000.

C. J. Lane, 12 by 24 frame and siding residence, located 1321 West Powell, $1,000.

R. F. and T. F. Denton, office building, located Denton Courts, $500.

MAN INJURED AT THE OIL MILL

D. Neugent, 43, was badly beaten up at the Oil mill last week when a belt slipped off a wheel, lashing him considerably. He was hospitalized but expected to recover shortly.

HE HATES TEXAS—Ray E. Halloran, 26, Cincinnati, Ohio, GI now working for a railroad in Detroit, has been notified that his letter, "Why I Dislike Texas," wins him an all-expenses paid trip to Texas for a week or more. The contest was open to all GIs who served in Texas during the war and was sponsored by the Madisonville Side-walk Cattlemen's Association of Madisonville, Texas. (AP Photo)

Pontiac Officials Visit Area

C. E. Ross, local Pontiac dealer, was in Lubbock Saturday to attend a Sales conference presided over by Harry J. Klinger, general manager of Pontiac Motor Division and vice president of General Motors Corporation, who is on a nation-wide plane tour that has already covered more than 35,000 miles.

Klinger was accompanied by L. W. Ward, general sales manager; Norman E. Perry, assistant general sales manager in charge of the West and Hugh J. Hales, service manager.

Klinger stated that demand in the Southwest for new cars is pacing the rest of the country. He attributed this to the healthy growth of the Southwest and the increasing demand for its products. "The demand for new cars, and Pontiacs in particular, is greater now than at the resumption of postwar production," he said. "Lack of sheet steel continues to pace other less publicized shortages and it does not seem likely that 1948 production will exceed to any extent that of 1947."

He declared that Pontiac production is continuing to average 1,000 cars each working day but that a huge backlog of orders still exists.

Speaking well for the Brownfield agency, and the healthy condition of the territory as a whole, was the fact that the meeting was open to the larger dealerships only, of the Oklahoma City zone and included dealers and members of the press from Amarillo, Lubbock, Pampa, Borger, Plainview, Lawton, Oklahoma and Clovis, New Mexico. It speaks doubly well for Mr. Ross, his agency and the Brownfield territory when the fact is taken into consideration that Brownfield is not in the Oklahoma City zone but in the Dallas zone and was the only dealership so honored.

Milton Bell Loses His Shirt

C. L. (Abe) Lincoln, W. H. Stell, J. B. Huckabee and Milton Bell and wife, attended the 19th district convention of the American Legion at Plainview last Saturday and Sunday. Abe had heretofore been his Commander's (Bell) shirt tail that Brownfield would procure more new members than Big Spring by convention time.

Abe lost and the winners proceeded to collect and collect in strips for souvenirs. Milton wore only the collar home. It was well, for no vet this side of War III or IV could have gotten into it. T. A. Thigpen, former commander of Big Spring, was elected District Commander, succeeding Bruce Zorns of Brownfield.

Carnation Day To Be Held In Seminole

SEMINOLE, May 27. (Spl.) — Tuesday, June 15th, has been tentatively set for the annual meeting of the Seminole Chamber of Commerce.

A feature of this occasion will be "Carnation Day" when all merchants, professional men and citizens who have contributed to the growth of the community will be lauded at the speakers stand and a carnation pinned on each as a mark of appreciation for their efforts.

In announcing the inauguration of this annual event, President Reeves Coates, of the C of C said, "The contribution may be in any form—new buildings, additions to existing structures, improvements of interiors, et cetera. We believe it to be both meet and proper to acknowledge the courage and confidence in the future of our fine community and trade area in this fitting way, and we feel this will present an opportunity to take a refreshing breather from the long list of 'this week' and 'that week' which bore us when we don't want to be bored."

"This is specifically a Seminole celebration, to be repeated annually on this same date, and we are only too sorry that we cannot present an orchid to each honoree to stress our grateful appreciation."

Sawyer Well Rated At 3980 Barrels

It has been learned here that the 12,000 foot oil well which was put down on the Ulyess Sawyer ranch at Crossroads, N. M., and brought in as a wildcat test late in April, has been rated as a 3980 barrel daily potential. Even at the great depth of 12,000 feet, this is a great well. It was flowing 42 gravity oil.

Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer's many friends here are congratulating them on their fine oil well on the ranch, and hoping that many more like it are brought in. When it was brought in, it is reported that it was time for lunch, and when the workmen came back on the job, 143 barrels of oil had been caught in tanks and pits an hour later.

Bank Handing Out Novel Souvenir

The Brownfield State Bank and Trust Co., is putting out quite a novel souvenir, in the way of a paper weight that is not only useful but attractive. It is in shape of a pile of gold ten dollar pieces, fused together. The metal is bronze, and is a close copy of gold coins.

On the reverse side we find this motto: "Your Friendship is more precious than a Pile-O'-Gold. Brownfield State Bank & Trust Co., Brownfield, Texas."

Sundown Building Collapses Recently

Made a drive over to Sundown Monday afternoon late, and noted a concrete tile building with both side walls tumbled outward. There was a steel framed top that looked as if in trying to raise it, there was a slip, and the walls tumbled.

As we were in a hurry, we asked no questions, but appearances were that not too much mortar was used. We did not ask if anyone was hurt in the wreckage.

LIONS ELECT NEW OFFICERS

The local Lions club elected new officers at their Wednesday luncheon. They are President, W. T. McKinney; First VP T. H. McIlroy; 2nd VP, Alton Webb; 3rd VP Frank Szylborski; Clerk, Jeff Farley; Lion Tamer, Jack Griggs; Tail Twister, Hugh Holmes; Directors, J. B. Ricketts and Les Short.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Pharr spent the weekend with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Val Perry of Spur. They attended the graduation exercises of their granddaughter, Valene Perry.

A Big Week In The Life of Seniors

Just once in a lifetime are school students privileged to have reached the proud period in life when they have finished high school work, and can be handed a diploma by the president of the school board or perhaps the superintendent. It is indeed a momentous time in their young lives. It has been well called the commencement period of their lives in more ways than one.

The Herald is proud of the more than 80 students who successfully finished their work. And we hope a lot of them decide to go on to college and finish their education, if they feel able. And these days most students can wholly or partially sustain themselves while in college by working before or after school hours and on Saturdays.

Or if they chose to obtain a job and go to work following high school graduation we hope they choose a job to their liking and so apply themselves that both their families, their employers and community are proud of them.

Anyway you decide, Seniors, the old town and Terry county are pulling for you.

New Arrivals

James Edward Thurman, jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Thurman of Brownfield, arrived May 26, weighing 9 lbs. 2 oz. The father is a farmer.

Beverly Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Duncan of Brownfield, arrived May 19, weighing 8 lbs. The father is an employee of Stanolind Oil Co.

Joseph Roy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ervin of Brownfield, arrived May 23, weighing 7 lbs. The father is a mechanic.

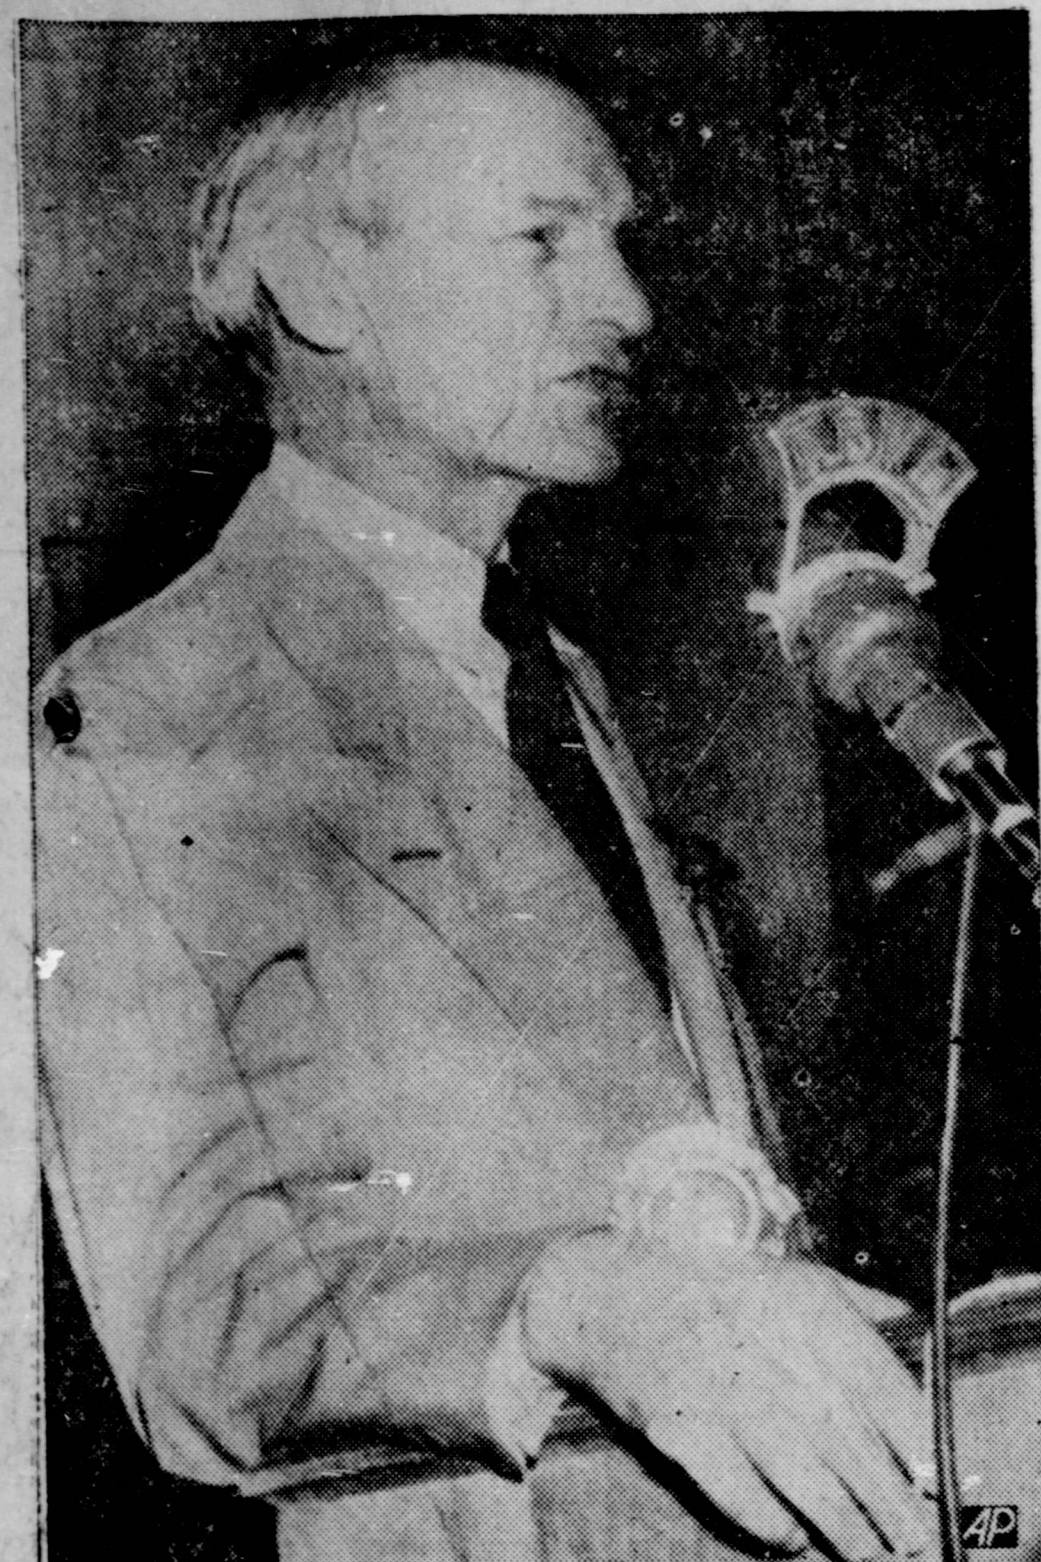

Linda Fae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Horton of Brownfield, arrived May 25, weighing 6 lbs and 2 ozs. The father is a farmer.

Johnnie Lorene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Short of Brownfield, arrived May 23, weighing 7 lbs. The father works at the mattress factory.

Official Scholastic Census Announced

The County Superintendent has just completed official count of Scholastic census for the county, and announced them as follows: Wilman 457; Union, 271; Meadow, 578 and Brownfield consolidated district at 2275.

This gives a total of 3581 scholastics for Terry county.

Craig Motors Erecting Modern Building

Called this week at M. J. Craig Motor Co., now located on west Main for a view of their blue prints for their 61X150 building the foundation of which has already been run. C. V. Paden is the concrete contractor, and will have the overseeing of the tile work. The walls will be concrete tile, with elaborate amount of plate glass front and sides.

This building which will house their auto agency, parts and works shop, will be entirely modern, both inside and out. It will front south on Broadway, and have large concrete parking space on the east side of the building and not too close to the highway loop on the west. The sales room will be 21x60 and the office and parts department occupying a space of 24x60. The work shop will be 94x60 feet. There will be a balcony over the offices and show rooms where parts will be stored and for other matters.

The building will be centrally heated in winter and cooled in summer, and the elaborate furnishings will be the most modern obtainable. This piece of ground was purchased several years ago but the war came on, and the two sons went into service, and the building operations were delayed until this time.

M. J. Sr. was out of town, but M. J. Jr. took great pains to show us the series of blue prints. While very proud of the show room office and parts department, M. J. Jr. was especially enthused about the thoroughly modern work shop in the rear. There will not only be all the latest in tools and testing instruments, but there will be at least three huge work tables that are costing upward of $300 each.

There is much more about this building that only a person that understands blue prints and building construction could explain, but it will be a building the town can be proud of. Cost of building will be around $35,000, was started May 10, and is expected to be ready for occupancy about August.

The M. J. Craig Motor Co handles Chrysler, and Plymouths cars, parts and service. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Privitt are vacationing in Georgia with friends.

Work On Roberson Building Started

A tip of the hat and a clap of the hand goes to Dr. W. A. Roberson, local dentist, who this week is starting one of the most modern dental clinics in this section. This building will be located at the corner of Tate and Sixth, just south of the hospital. The building will be 29x48, facing north, and will be of Austin stone.

It is a bit early to tell readers all the features of this new building, but suffice to say that the grounds will be landscaped, and the city has promised to pave in front. It will have both central heating and refrigerating units. The front doors will be aluminum.

On the interior there will be four operating rooms, and Dr. Roberson stated that a specialist in straightening teeth would visit the clinic once or twice a week. The large reception room will have plate mirrors all around. It will be finished by late fall.

Good Rains Fall Over County

Following rains earlier in the week, covering most of the county with a quarter to half an inch, a slow rain began early Wednesday continuing through the day and bringing the total Wednesday night for the week to .93 inch. This was indeed a boon to the farmers, many of whom were getting uneasy over arid conditions. But many say this is the right planting time, anyway.

During the past few years, the people of West Texas have taken considerably to the quarterhorse, and this very active member of the equine family is attracting much attention of breeders of much horses. It therefore was no surprise when the management of the Stamford Cowboy Reunion recently announced that judging of quarterhorse breeds would be one of the features of the annual reunion, July 1-4th.

Whatever they do at Brownfield this week at the Democratic convention will not necessarily be the law of the Medes and Persians. At least, they are expected to have a "hot time in the old town." The pro and anti Truman forces will be lined up, and there will be fireworks right there in the Memorial Auditorium; not out in some park. Despite all the sweat and oratory, perhaps a bit of bloodshed, the fact will remain that the human race has some inalienable rights vouched safe to them by the founding fathers of America. No man or set of men have any right under the law or otherwise to tell any individual how to vote. That is one privilege we still hold, and when we are loosed from it, we as well kiss liberty farewell. But the precinct and county conventions are the place to fight it out among the down to earth people, whether certain men or measures are wanted, and not in the state and national conventions. There the politicians are more apt to take over. Which all reminds us that the present setup in Washington lacks a lot of being what most Texas and Southern people consider as the Democratic party.

The writer has just returned from the old Southern states, and Tennessee in particular where we necessarily had to read such dailies as the Memphis Commercial Appeal and the News-Scimitar. There was but a passing notice here in Texas given to the vote on the 54 million dollar steam power plant at Johnsonville, Tenn., as a standby power plant when the series of dams on the Tennessee river fails to produce enough power. But there was a different song put up by the papers back there. In fact they almost termed the killing of the appropriation by the House of Representatives as a crime against humanity. Hot editorials emerged with each issue. And from their point of view, we can't say we blame them. They get a very cheap power rate from the Tennessee Valley Authority which is a almost tax free enterprise sponsored by the government. Take one of our relatives. Out on his farm he pays a flat rate of $5 per month and he has 100 and 200 watt bulbs all over the place, and they don't fail to use them. Such a condition metered out here in Brownfield would cost $10 or $12. He stated that some were getting an even cheaper rate, who had signed up after the REA line was secured. So you can easily see why they want the additional standby power furnished by taxpayers all over the USA. But, a lot of dissenting congressmen likely took into consideration the fact that there were millions of people in America like the people right here in Brownfield that had to vote bonds to build their own plants and shell out taxes to pay for them, along with revenue derived from the plant. We don't know how our Congressman, Geo. Mahon voted, but very likely he took into consideration the fact that most of the people of his district were either getting power and lights like Brownfield folks, or from privately owned utilities companies who are paying their just share of the community, state and federal taxes.

It would seem that the vast majority of economists either believe prices will go higher, remain as is, instead of any great reduction in the immediate future. Of 50 recently interviewed, 26 or more than half believed that price trends would be higher if anything; 14 said they would remain about the same, while only 10 believed there would be much lowering of the hel. Most of them gave the vast amount of spending by the government for supplies they wish, plus overseas shipments as the reason they thought prices would be higher instead of lower. The advise to shoppers is not to expect very many bargains in the stores for quite some time. It is true that in some instances, production is catching up with demand. But this is in the so-called luxury goods and not what you eat or wear.

Despite what the dogooders up at Washington wish to impose on the people, all polls so far show that the large majority of American people are still opposed to making the medical profession subservient to the "tender mercies" of the politician. And incidentally add to the people's tax burdens to the tune of an annual expenditure of 4 billion dollars. And all such polls show conclusively that the American health standard is far and away above that of countries that have compulsory health insurance, supplemented by the government. Besides the voluntary plan of health insurance is really working here in America, also hospital costs compare favorably with any other country when service and attention is considered. At the present time it is said that 30,000,000 American now have ample hospital insurance, and perhaps there are millions more who are in such financial shape that the thoughts of operations or hospitalization leave no fear with them when it comes to financing a huge bill of this kind. We in America want our medical profession to be as far as possible removed from political restraint, so that they will have some incentive to work as in years past to find cures for disease that are taking a terrific toll of life annually.

Behind the Scenes in American Business

If the weatherman continues his present cooperation on a world-wide scale, there is every chance that food will be cheaper this fall. Crop prospects at present are good, both here and in Europe, but the unpredictable weather controls everything.

So far nothing points to a repetition of the calamity of last year, when a European drought created a tremendous demand for American wheat and when bad weather in this country sheared millions of bushels from the domestic corn crop. Europe has had adequate moisture so far this year and the outlook in our own food producing belts is called the best in a decade. Crop yields stand to be good and with them the raw materials for the production of meat, milk, butter and eggs.

Of course there is no possibility of a precipitous drop in food prices so long as wages and employment stay near their present levels. And whatever downward revision comes about will have little or no effect on current farm prosperity.

THINGS TO COME—a new heating unit for the home is virtually strike and shortage proof. Burns either artificial or natural gas or No. 2 fuel oil. Ever wish you could shave on the way to work? A new electric razor plugs into the cigarette lighter socket on automobiles. It can be used at home, too. The half of Saturday and all day Sunday job of washing and waxing a car becomes a simple 30 minute operation with a new compound. Dissolve in water, apply with a sponge and wipe off with a chamois, and lo! New non-inflammable sponge rubber that can be vulcanized to fiberboard or upholstery is said to be odorless, resilient and tough. The new look has sneaked into men's sport shoes. Bright fabrics above cork soles. First synthetic varnish developed uses petroleum instead of scarce edible vegetable oils. Transparent plastic awnings for automobiles provide protection from the sun without obstructing the view and also come in handy in the rain. New upholstery shampooer works so fast that the cleaning fluid is dried before it has a chance to seep through the fabric.

NOTICE OF SALE

Notice is hereby given that the Trustees of Liberty Common School District No. 5 of Yoakum County, Texas, will sell a 6 room frame building, 30'x60' with 12' walls.

This building is located about 12 miles Northwest from Tokio in Yoakum County and the Trustees will receive sealed bids, for cash, at said school house at 10:30 o'clock A. M. on Saturday, May 29, 1948.

Mrs. Ruth Lowe Is Wed To Edward H. Durkee In Tulsa

Mrs. Ruth Lowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Pharr of Brownfield, and Edward H. Durkee of Brownfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Durkee of 1148 South Owasso, Tulsa, Okla., were married Monday, May 1, at Christ the King Church in Tulsa. The Most Rev. D. C. Fletcher read the double ring service at 10:00 a. m. in a setting of white calla lilies and fern.

The bride wore a dress of blue with accessories of cocoa brown and white. She wore a corsage of white orchids.

Miss Grace Durkee, sister of the bridegroom was maid of honor. She wore a blue and rose printed silk dress with white and black accessories. Her corsage was of variegated carnations.

Tom Layman of Tulsa, attended Mr. Durkee as best man. After a ten day wedding trip to Missouri, Arkansas, and Oklahoma the couple returned to Brownfield, where they will make their home.

Mr. Durkee is employed by the Stanolind Oil Company. Open house was held Sunday May 16, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Durkee in honor of the couple.

The house was decorated throughout with bouquets of spring flowers.

From the dining table laid with a lace cloth and centered with spring flowers, tea and wedding cake were served to a large number of guests during the afternoon.

TRUE FUNCTIONAL DESIGN

True Functional Design is beauty with a purpose. For example, the STREAM-THRU fenders of the Kaiser or the Frazer are a style feature others have attempted to copy. But the real reason for the design has been overlooked. The true function is to provide more usable space without increasing over-all width. Only the Kaiser and the Frazer have more usable space. MORE SEAT WIDTH! . . . MORE HEAD ROOM! . . . MORE LUGGAGE SPACE! The Kaiser and the Frazer aren't the same old girls in a new dress—they're new from the road up! Best of all these modern cars from Willow Run are yours at no increase in price!

How To Be Happy On Vacation

BY DAVE CHEAVENS

AUSTIN, May 27— (AP)— How to be happy although taking a vacation in the out-of-doors was the subject of a recent state health department release.

It covered considerable territory, but left some things unsaid that should be mentioned, now that kids are about to get out of school and Texans will be flocking to lakes, rivers and woods by the tens of thousands.

The Health Department was mainly worried about people drowning. Swimming is all right as an out-of-door sport, but drowning is considered very unhealthy. That was the gist of it.

We will beat Dr. George W. Cox, the state health officer, to the punch with a few timely words of caution about ticks, poison ivy, poison oak, poison sumach, chiggers, rattlesnakes, mosquitoes, bull nettles, stinging javeline hogs and sunburn. Those are the chief hazards of out-of-doors vacationing in Texas.

Just a few pointers:

Sunburn—don't fool with the Texas sun, even in May. It's hot. It burns just like fire burns. Wear a hat, use a good commercial sunburn cream (names on request) to work up to a brown, but don't try to do it all in one day. A ten minute exposure will turn the average blonde pink, 30 minutes will fry an egg and may give you a couple of degrees of fever. An hour may send you home and or to the hospital for a couple of weeks.

Javelina hogs—don't fool with them, either. This is written especially for hardy vacationers who plan to take long, healthful walks in the Chisos Mountains of Big Bend State Park. Recently a couple of these rangy, mean wild Texas pigs kept a couple of bug-hunting scientists up a tree for eight hours. If you can't find a tree when a Javelina gets after you he is likely to put a quick end to all your health and vacation problems once and for all and you'll be advertising for a tarp or a shovel.

Scorpions—this is written especially for people who like to spend their vacation on going around turning over rocks. Before you put your hand under a rock, pry it up with a stick to be sure there isn't a scorpion waiting there to whip that jointed tail over and make you wish you had.

Bull Nettles—This paragraph is for wildflower gatherers, amateur. The bull nettle has one of the prettiest white flowers and meanest stings of any creature, living or dead, in Texas. It's a bush-like plant with leaves that look like, but aren't grape leaves. The leaves and stems are hairy as Esau and each hair is a poisonous lash that you'll never forget. (If you get stung by a scorpion or whipped by a bull nettle, apply household ammonia with a wad of cotton, but call a doctor if there is much swelling.)

Rattlesnakes—Just keep your eyes and ears open and when you hear anything that sounds like you think a rattlesnake might sound, clear out fast, away from the sound, wear knee length walking boots and heavy trousers if you are in rattlesnake country. That might strain out enough venom to keep you alive if you guess wrong.

Chiggers—they ruin more vacations than all these other risks put together. They live in Bermuda and Johnson grass especially and have an affinity for fishermen. Dust your trousers, socks and inside your shoes with sulphur. That discourages chiggers. If you must lie down to rest, stretch out on a hot, flat rock. That's not as soft as grass but in the long run you'll sleep better.

Mosquitoes—sleep under a net outdoors. There's just isn't any better method, except to sleep indoors. Dope yourself with a good insect repellent, but why not try the Davis Mountains, where they don't grow.

Poison ivy, sumach and oak—look them up in the dictionary and find out what they look like. If you see something out in the woods that looks like you think they look, don't touch it.

Ticks—don't turn up your nose. Anybody that goes in to the woods or brush in east, south, north or west Texas is liable to find a tick or two hanging on to some juicy portion of his or her anatomy. They are all kinds of ticks, but they are all ticks. They may give you several kinds of unpleasant or fatal fevers but don't get excited and yank them off. If you do, that may leave the pincher in you and give you an infection, too. Easy does it. Try to work the tick loose with a pair of tweezers. Or put drop of kerosene or creosote on him, the tick. In time, that will cause him to relax and drop off.

And the health department is right about swimming. Don't plunge headfirst into a pool of water until you know what's under the surface.

Happy Vacation!

Pat and Forest Steen visited Mrs. Ell's Wood in Amarillo over the week end.

Mrs. Harvey Gage is attending market in Dallas and Fort Worth this week.

Not Very Sick Nor Very Well

"Although we may not be sick, we may be far from being well. There is a great and vital difference between high and buoyant health and the health of the average person, or of one who is only well enough to be out of bed," Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, said today.

"Unless we have the essentials of health in our daily habits of living, we are as sure to pay the penalty of impaired health, sickness and early death as we are of cause an defect in other situations," Dr. Cox continued. "We should ask ourselves, 'How long do I expect to live?' 'How long can I retain my efficiency, both in work and play?' 'Do I want to become incapacitated soon after middle life?'"

The alternative, according to Dr. Cox's statement, is to adjust one's program of living to insure the fundamentals of health and thus, barring accidents, keep young and retain active efficiency to an age of 70 to 80, or more.

The essentials of health are simple; sufficient fresh air and sunlight, good food and food habits, regular exercise and adequate rest. Yet, in checking the health of thousands of individuals who considered their health good, it has been rare indeed to find a single person who did not habitually disregard one or more of these essentials. Therefore, no matter how good or poor our health, we should check our daily program of living for health habits that are essentially faulty but of which we may be unaware.

Old Harrison Makes Sharp Comeback

Texas Liquor Control Board Inspectors in April reported the seizure of 11 illicit stills.

With the stills, which had a cubic capacity of 600 gallons, inspectors captured 745 gallons of mash and made eight arrests. Forty-five gallons of moonshine liquor were destroyed.

Four stills were taken in Titus County, two in Harrison County, two in Smith County and one each were taken in the Counties of Red River, Wood and Freestone.

FIRM CHANGES NAME OF CORPORATION

ABILENE, May 27—(Spl.) Two students from Brownfield are listed among the 145 candidates for graduation from Hardin-Simmons University this spring. Dr. Robert A. Collins, dean, has announced.

They are Wanda Jean Tyler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Tyler, 512 Lubbock Rd., and Dale B. Daniel, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Daniel of Brownfield.

Miss Tyler and Daniel will graduate with the largest group of seniors in the school's history. Besides the 145 candidates listed for the spring exercises, an additional 120 will receive diplomas in August after completion of required work this summer.

Miss Tyler, who has majored in Biology and minored in English while at Hardin-Simmons, is a candidate for the Bachelor of Arts degree.

Daniel is also an A. B. candidate. He has majored in Chemistry and minored in Biology at H-SU.

The 56th annual commencement exercises will be held Monday morning, May 31, in historic Behrens Chapel on the Hardin-Simmons campus. Allan Shivers, Lieutenant Governor of Texas, is to be guest speaker.

Dr. Jesse Northcutt, pastor of the Abilene First Baptist Church, is to read the baccalaureate address Sunday morning, May 30, from the pulpit of his church.

Of the 145 spring candidates listed by Dean Collins, 23 are from out-of-state. The majority of the non-Texas seniors are from Louisiana and Oklahoma, but such widely separated states as California, Georgia, and Minnesota are represented.

The main purpose of any military force, naturally, is to fight if it has to, and to maintain itself in a state of constant readiness for whatever is to come. However, on occasion, the fighting arms can be used as an instrument of high diplomacy as well. They can implement and advance, vitiation to attend.

One of our subscribers, Mrs. J. C. # You Name it... the 'Jeep' does it

THE UNIVERSAL 'Jeep' DOES MORE FOR THE FARMER THAN ANY OTHER VEHICLE

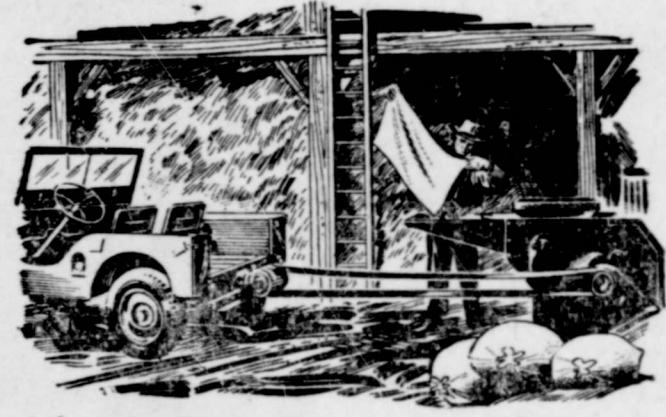

● With 4-wheel drive for traction and steady pulling power in the field, the "Jeep" has a drawbar pull of 1200 lbs., operates almost any standard tilling or harvesting implement. Rear power-take-off runs power-driven implements from standard spline shaft drive.

● The "Jeep" can be used with the latest development in modern farming—a new hydraulic lift that raises, lowers or adjusts depth of implement while the operator remains comfortably seated. And of course it handles conventional pull-type implements, too.

● The Universal "Jeep" is for hauling and towing on or off the road in all kinds of weather. It carries up to 2500 pounds, pulls a braked load of 2½ tons at highway speeds.

● It provides mobile power anywhere on the farm, for operating many types of power-driven equipment such as separators, feed grinders, buzz saws, hammer mills, ensilage cutters and numerous others.

This message gives but a glimpse of the all-around, year-round usefulness of the Universal "Jeep". We invite you to see this versatile vehicle in action and let us prove that it does more different jobs than any other single farm vehicle. Call for a demonstration now—on your farm, with your equipment.

Texans In Washington

BY TEX EASLEY

AP Special Washington Service WASHINGTON, May 27— (AP) An issue in the debate over the draft and Universal Military Training is whether the National Guard and Reserve Forces should be strong and fully recognized defense organizations.

Rep. Olin E. (Tiger) Teague, a six-times wounded World War Two veteran, is one of the staunchest supporters in the House of the guard and reserves.

"I am very much concerned about our National Guard and Organized Reserve units which form the backbone of our National Defense," he says.

"I believe that we should maintain an adequate active armed force as authorized in the Selective Service Act of 1948, but it is equally as important that we should strengthen our National Guard and Reserve units.

He is backing actively a proposal to make a man exempt from induction after six years in the National Guard or Reserves.

Maj. Gen. K. L. Berry, Adjutant General of Texas, has been here conferring with Teague and others and urging this provision.

He says it will remove an inequity which would handicap recruiting for the Guard and Reserves. As now proposed, the Youth or 17 enlisting in either organization is subject to longer military service than the boy who waits until 18 and is drafted.

AROUND THE CAPITOL

A Temple boy who lost both arms above the elbow in combat has been here demonstrating the latest development in artificial limbs for amputees. He is Lonnie Carberry, formerly a patient at McCloskey hospital in Temple. He and other amputees appeared before the House Veterans Committee.

The Presidency. General Clay carries the burden of responsibility for us in Germany. General MacArthur is practically all-powerful in Japan. Officers of the U. S. Navy have been entrusted with the complex task of administering the Pacific Islands and strengthening the primitive economies of their peoples, which in many instances were disrupted by the last war.

There has been much argument pro and con, concerning the wisdom of giving men, whose sole prior experience has been in the profession of arms, such appointments as these. The American tradition is that the military shall be apart from and subservient to the civil authority. Regardless of that, almost everyone agrees that the soldiers and sailors have done exceptional work. There are no sabers rattling among those in the key spots. And they have all shown the qualities of mind, character and decision that are now necessary.

So much for individuals. How an actual military body can be used to forward our diplomatic policy is vividly described by Demaree Bess in a recent Saturday Evening Post article. Called "Our Navy in Striped Pants," it tells how our big task force in the Mediterranean has turned it into an American lake—and has done it without land bases, without straining our ties with other countries, and without getting us too deeply involved in the internal affairs of Western Europe.

The attitude that governs this mission was obliquely expressed to Mr. Bess by a chief petty officer of long experience. "In the war, every sailor was a fighter," he said. "Now they tell us we are diplomats, and it is our business to be friendly with foreigners."

This is pretty largely true—though our Mediterranean task force, like all other naval units, is always in readiness for trouble. Today, our foreign commitments are greater and more involved than ever. We are the leader of a Western bloc of large and small powers which is being cemented together in opposition to the Soviet Union's Eastern bloc. On Mr. Bess' accurate phrase, "Our Navy is the visible symbol of participation."

This is a ticklish business, but the Navy seems to be executing it effectively and with tact. Visits to foreign ports are always arranged for well in advance. If the local authorities feel that a visit would be impolitic at any given time, it is cancelled and the fleet goes somewhere else. Now and then, a government will request a visit on some particular occasion, and the task force obliges.

American officers are careful to avoid political discussions when they gather ashore with their counterparts from Italy, France, Greece and the other countries. Shop talk—the problems that are common to every navy—dominates. This makes it possible for people of all points of view to get along fairly amicably.

As Mr. Bess points out, there are times when "our Mediterranean task force" is required to show a sterner aspect. A while ago, for instance, bomber and fighter planes from the carrier Midway flew over and around the principal cities of Italy. They did this for three successive days, returning to their floating bases between trips. This show of American strength was, of course, of great service to an Italian government which was trying to stop the communists.

Mr. Bess sums up our naval policy in the Mediterranean in these words:—"First to show Europeans that we do not intend to desert them while they are comparatively helpless; second, to treat them in the meantime as allies, not as dependents. That policy has worked well, and our naval commanders see no reason to believe that it will not work equally well in the future.

The nation recently witnessed another and somewhat different kind of military diplomacy when the Russians made their effort to drive us out of Berlin without actually going to war. A weak and vacillating American commander might have let the Russians succeed; a firebrand might have chosen a course leading to the direct consequences. General Clay, as almost everyone seems to agree, acted flawlessly. He made no threats—but he was completely firm. He made it clear, in polite language, that we would remain in Berlin unless we were pushed out by force. He won.

This concept of diplomacy through the military is a new thing to the United States—at least, on so large a scale. But it seems to be here to stay.

What Is A Democrat? A Matter For The States

The question has been asked: "What is a Democrat?" The answer should be: "A Democrat is a person who is always ready to bury the hatchet—in the head of another Democrat."

The "Civil Rights" issue reminds us of the campaign and issues that we had back in '28.

At that time we Southern Demos did "resolve," "whereas" and "spout off" about the prohibition question, but after four long years of Hooverism, we Demos decided to vote like we drink just for a change and most of us have been feeling better ever since. Hoover will always have the honor as having been the last prohibitionist to have been elected president, and if the GOPers can not defeat a man like Truman, then Hoover may have the honor as having been the last Republican to have been elected president.

The Demos want to win this year's election, and there is no reason why the party should burden itself with a candidate who has alienated so many voters, whatever the cause and however honest the motives. The dissatisfaction that HST has created in the South by his all-advised civil rights utterances may not alone block his nomination, or perhaps might not bring about his defeat, but there is a factor far more formidable, and that factor is the people's apathy concerning HST as a president.

It is customary for a Demo to point with pride and view with

A Matter For The States

A spokesman for a retail association, testifying before a Senate committee which has been considering proposed changes in the Federal wage and hour law, made some very sound observations. He pointed out that retailing, whether carried on by large or small stores, is essentially intra-state and local in character and, where circumstances make wage and hour regulation desirable, it should be administered by the states. Going on, he said that retailing must be immediately responsive to the desires of the buying public, and that Congress cannot control the whims and wishes of millions of individual consumers. Those wishes are the reason for the many variations in working hours which stores in different communities must observe.

A wage and hour law which established too high a minimum of pay, or a too-short work week, or which was arbitrary and inflexible, could be a very serious problem to thousands of stores. Or, alarm. No one seems to be able to point with pride concerning the achievements of Truman, so all we can do is to view with alarm any proposal that is made by the GOPers.

Two major political parties, fighting each other tooth and nail is a system that works and works for the best interest of our country—for reasons which no political philosopher has yet discovered. Our country has made wonderful progress under a Republican president and it can do so again. Nothing to worry about—not as long as "us" common citizens can keep Pappy in the Senate and not as long as we can have a man for Governor who can promise better schools, better paid teachers, better roads, all without increased taxes, or without bonded indebtedness—and yes, one who says it is unTexan for our gallant soldier boys to ask for a state bonus, when if it had not been for the unselfish patriotism of our G. I.'s then instead of school grounds and ball parks we would now be having concentration camps. Wonder if the heroes of yesterday are to be the forgotten boys of today?— JAKE.

top of that, it could hurt the people it is supported to protect by reducing opportunities for employment, especially among those without skills. And, lastly, it could give price inflation still another boost.

What is true of retailing is true of many other kinds of enterprise to some degree. It is one thing to prevent exploitation of the least experienced and least competent worker. It is a different thing to use the wage and hour law to throw the economy out of balance. And it is certainly true that regulation by the states, in most instances, will provide a far more realistic and workable policy than blanket regulation from Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bowers lax Monday for Austin. Their son, Robert, who has been attending the University will return with them.

Before Taking Retonga She Could Hardly Sleep

"I Have a Hearty Appetite Now and Relish my Food," Declares Texan. Retonga Promptly Relieved Distress From Sour Stomach, Restlessness, and Weakened Feeling.

"Suffering the tortures and distress I did for several years, it is no wonder that I am so grateful for Retonga and the grand relief it brought me," happily states Mrs. Fannie Wortham, life-long resident of Mount Calm and Hill County, Texas, who gratefully continues:

"My appetite was so poor I would go for weeks at a time without eating hardly a bite. Food seemed to turn sour and fill my stomach with gas until the distress was almost unbearable. Many times at night I would have to sit up in bed to get my breath. I lost weight and felt so worn-out I didn't seem to have enough strength to do my housework. It looked like I would have to take strong laxatives the rest of my life and aches and pains seemed to be in every muscle in my body.

"I am so grateful for the grand relief that Retonga brought to me. I have a hearty appetite now, no longer suffer distress from sour stomach, those awful aches and pains in my body have let up, and I no longer take strong laxatives. I know what a good night's sleep means and I feel like my real self again. No one can be more thankful for Retonga than I am and the grand relief it brought me. I am glad to recommend it to other sufferers as I did."

The active ingredients of Retonga are purely herbal, combined with Vitamin B-1. Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, borderline Vitamin B-1 deficiency, and constipation. If the first bottle fails to bring you relief, your money will be refunded. You can get Retonga at Primm Drug and all other good drug stores. adv.

To Men of the High School CLASS OF '48

THERE'S a big day coming soon—the day when you get your diploma. By enlisting in the Army or Air Force after graduation you can take full advantage of one of the finest opportunities ever offered a young man.

CHOOSE YOUR FIELD OF SPECIAL TRAINING BEFORE YOU ENLIST!

If you are 18 to 34 (17 with parents' consent) and a high school graduate, you can select your course of training in the Army or the Air Force before enlisting.

Under the Army Technical School Plan you can specify two different courses that appeal to you in each of two fields. The Army will check to make sure there is an opening in one of the four courses you have selected, and a place will be reserved for you in that course. Then you enlist for 3, 4 or 5 years, and after passing the physical and mental examinations and completing basic training you will be guaranteed training in your chosen field.

The Air Force offers a similar opportunity in its Aviation Career Plan, giving you a pre-enlistment choice of 3 among the more than 40 USAF Specialist Schools. There is no better way to get a start in the great and growing field of aviation.

Either plan gives you good pay, excellent training and a splendid chance for advancement in a real career. You can get full information, including lists of available Specialist Schools and Technical Courses, at your nearest Army and Air Force Recruiting Station.

To Men with 2 Years or More of College WIN YOUR WINGS with the Aviation Cadets

If you are single, 20 to 26½ years old, physically sound, and have completed at least 2 years of college or the equivalent, you may be qualified for pilot training as an Aviation Cadet. Get full details now. Next class starts July 1, 1948.

G. I. Questions And Answers

Q Is it correct that training officers from Veterans Administration have been relieved of all responsibility for the direct supervision of World War II veterans training under the G-I Bill?

A. Yes. The change will permit VA's training officers to devote more time to the needs of disabled veterans training under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act. All state approval agencies, schools and training establishments have been asked to meet fully their obligations under the Servicemen's Readjustment Act (G-I Bill).

Q. How many veterans suffered speech impairment during World War II and what is being done to aid them in overcoming their handicap?

A. Approximately 100,000 World War II veterans suffered speech impairment in service. Special restorative training has been established by VA to help eligible veterans overcome the handicap.

Q. May I name more than one beneficiary to my National Service Life Insurance?

A. Yes. You may divide the amount of your policy between two or more beneficiaries. You may also name one or more contingent beneficiaries.

Q. Can a World War II veteran be denied benefits by Veterans Administration if he has fraudulently obtained subsistence payments under the G-I Bill?

A. In a decision issued re-

For today the lecture is OIL. What do you know about oil, says Henry. For one thing, I says, I know that all you have to do is drive up to the service station, and on the run comes Joe Guzman or Raleigh Cronan—down at a couple of our station here at Hickory—and you get one gallon or 10 gallon and no questions asked—or coupons. And the price is about half what it is in lots of places like Europe, etc., where the Govt. is the Big Cheese in most kinds of business—and that is what I am concerned about—and the reason for this learned essay.

And everybody else should be concerned. There is talk springing up recent-like about how maybe the Govt. or the Army should step in and clamp controls on oil—and which could land us in the same kind of fix they are in across the pond—where everything is a coupon and a skimpy one at that.

So folks, if you hear talk about Uncle Sambo elbowing himself into your favorite service station, don't let it go in one ear and out the other—dash off a line to your man there in Congress. He knows if you are a voter. Don't put it off till manana—and you drive in for your next 10 gallons, but get only 2 gallons.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA.

LUBRICARE—tailor-made lubrication for Buicks

It's lubrication made to measure for your Buick by the engineers who built the car—with lubricants carefully chosen for just one reason: they are best for your Buick.

Men who know Buicks thoroughly see that all the different points that need it are properly supplied with exactly the right kind and right amount of lubricant.

You're away knowing your car is protected and set to roll smoothly and dependably with lubrication that has been matched to the mileage you have driven.

SEE YOUR BUICK DEALER REGULARLY FOR LUBRICARE

No wonder you grin! There's that zoom again—that go—that flashing spirit that you know is built in Buicks. There's that split-second answer to your call for power, the feather-light response to your finger that makes your two-ton honey handle like a baby buggy.

This is what happens when a Buick is cared for by men who know Buicks best—men who know the height of spirit a Buick can reach and how to bring it out.

Buick men have a way with Buicks no one else can have. That's only natural. Whatever they do, they do as the designers and builders of Buick say it should be done. They use Buick-approved checks and tools. And when time and miles finally take their toll in wear, they have right at hand a stock of Buick-engineered replacement parts.

Wheel in and they'll sweeten your engine to bring out all its surge and go. They'll steady your car's easy gait and make steering limber. They'll even take out your worn engine and give you new-car zing and power with a factory-fresh Fireball.

See for yourself. Bring your car in and get real, understanding Buick car care. You can't buy it anywhere else—and job for job it doesn't cost you a penny more.

IT PAYS FARMERS

...TO MAKE EVERY BIT OF WORK COUNT AND TO GET FULL SERVICE FROM OIL

Farmers are learning to arrange things so chores can be done without unnecessary work. It's sheer waste to take 150 minutes for a job that could be done in 60 or 70 minutes with better planning. Just as it's wasteful to accept only 60 or 70 hours of use from tractor oil when Veedol Tractor Oil stands up for 150 hours in gasoline-burning tractors. 150-Hour Veedol is made by advanced methods and equipment from 100% Pennsylvania, the world's toughest crude.

150-HOUR VEEDOL

SAVES FUEL by reducing power blow-by.
SAVES TIME by avoiding breakdown delays.
SAVES REPAIRS through greater heat and wear resistance.
SAVES OIL—stands up 150 hours in gasoline-burning tractors; cuts oil consumption in all tractors.
SAVES TRACTORS—assures long, economical service.

We Visit Old Tennessee Again

BY THE OLD HE

Four times in some six trials we have returned from a visit to Tennessee with rain about the same time. One the night before our return, and twice in the rain. This happened Sunday night when we made the last leg of the trip from Brownwood home. We have just about decided that this better than 50-50 chance is a good gamble and offer our services to Tennessee and return as partial payment for a rain when it gets dry.

Three of these years were really dry, being 1934 and 1936 and this year. In 1941 we had more than 12 inches in May, and about 25 for the year up to that time. So we will not bear down on that year too much as the folks here were wanting dry weather instead of rain. The night we arrived home that year there were seven motor boats running on the lake in the Santa Fe addition.

The Old He and Madam took off from Brownfield bright and early May 5th. As luck would have it, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Rogers and little daughter, Phyllis, who had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Oliver of the Pleasant Valley neighborhood, were ready to return to their home at Middleton, Tenn, right where we were going and Phillip is an excellent driver. Phillip is the writer's cousin. It had not been too long since the Madam's operation, and this fitted in like a kid glove. In fact Phillip was at the steering wheel when we left, and was handling it when we arrived at our destination.

As we needed to stretch a bit, we made our first halt at Aspermont, and spent most of that time with Mr. and Mrs. Afton Richards of the Aspermont Star. About half of Afton's time, however, was taken up by taking a long winded telephone call about some news item. We threw in our hat first to see if his pet skunk was about. Evidently it had been eliminated. Thence on to Rule and Haskell, Seymour and Whiskeytown Falls. In that area we saw some of the best wheat we have seen this year, but there it was fully 50 per cent under the 1947 crop. Some cotton was up and quite a lot of maize. We dined at a small roadside park about half way between Seymour and Wichita Falls. No shade but a very putrid pond nearby to toss chicken bones in.

When we arrived at Henrietta, we gassed up, and saw a cloud forming in the west, and knowing that section's rep for cyclones, we hit the vbreze but a shower fell on us after we arrived in Denison. Found Mrs. Taylor (Edith's mother) at home, and Sack came in soon from his work at the MKT store house. So we were welcomed for the night. However, Mr. Taylor had a slight disappointment, as when he came in Mrs. Phillip Rogers was temporarily out, and seeing a baby about the size of little Robert A. Stricklin, his grandson laying on a pallet, he got down on his knees and remarked, "you don't know me do you, young fellow." He was told his mistake, but had a great time with the little girl born the same day Robert was born.

The usual trip was made over Denison, and we found it like all towns with growing pains. After a hearty supper, we made a drive across Denison dam over Red river, and into Oklahoma on the north bank. The Rogers had never seen the dam or Lake Texoma. And here we had the first joke pulled on us by Bill Taylor, brother of Edith. Passing a huge cemetery out toward the lake, he asked us to guess the number of people buried there. We had no idea—but a lot of them. "They are ALL buried, he rejoined." Yep, we took the bait, hook, line and sinker.

If we have as many as two readers other than ourself next week, we'll continue where we left off.
