Armistice Day To Be Quiet In Brownfield

STRICKLINLY SPEAKING

A lady called in early this week that she had a stray dog that had taken up at her house, and wanted to know if we had had any inquiries. It was suggested that she run an ad in this week's paper, the owner of the mutt paying for the ad. She called back later to cancel the ad, saying she just couldn't keep the dog longer. Our guess is that the pup was not house broke.

While off on our jaunt, a late lunch hour caught us at Stephenville. We stopped at a cafe across the highway from the John Tarleton college campus, where we could look out of the window at football practice and a squad of cadets drilling all the same time. The cadets were keeping step, knew their right and left face, about face, double time, etc. But the football boys were poor on hearing or receiving forward passes.

Luck is a good thing to have around, OK, but hard work and skill are still in great demand by employers.

A Tennessee editor remarked that a newspaper without editorials is a paper without a soul. That's the reason we try to write 'em. Even a half soul is better than none.

Whether Demos, GOPers or Dixiecrats, all agree that we should get away from the horse and buggy days of starting the electioneering campaign way back in the summer and run till frost. Not only the candidates are ready to fall to staves, but even the voters are worn to a frazzle when it is over.

And Gracie Allen thinks the moving van folks were the real losers in the election. They were all set to move President Truman out and Tom Dewey and his household effects into the White house.

Maybe now we will learn just who "takes the polls" and where "Mr. Cross-section" lives.

And while HST might have won an even larger proportion of popular votes if 60 million instead of 45 million had voted, the fact that 15 million qualified voters failed to cast their vote shows that no candidate suited them. There was a much bigger upset in the electoral than the popular vote.

This one is going the rounds in Texas after the election last week. Three negroes were talking. The first said he was going to the Elite Cafe and sit down for a meal, and order the white gals to wait on him. The second was going to the swellest theatre in town and take his seat by a nice white lady. The third negro said nothing, but being pressed, stated he was going down to the undertaker and make arrangements for his companion's bodies to be handled.

To say the least our pitifully unsatisfactory election laws should be corrected, amended, or entirely new ones adopted by the next legislature. We no more have a secret vote than a crowded beach of seagulls have privacy.

If they don't already know it, the fellow that aims to follow politics should learn to control his temper. That popoff of Tom Dewey about the engineer being crazy that backed the train into a crowd probably cost him many votes.

Mr. Paul Campbell, manager of Cobbs is in Fort Worth and Dallas this week attending market.

Four Fires Reported By Fire Department

The Fire Department answered a call to the Independent Gin owned by Frank Weir Friday morning. A small amount of cotton was reported as a loss but no serious damage was done. On the same day around 2:30 P. M. the fire department answered a call to a residence on South 3rd street. The house was owned by Joe Bartley and rented by B. R. Neal.

The cause of the fire was reported caused by a stove setting too close to the wall. Estimated damage was around $1,000. This was a tough battle for the fire department putting out the fire as well as saving the houses next to it as a high wind was blowing. At 3:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon another call was answered by the Fire Department to the Mexican Barracks on the Leveland highway. These barracks were moved in and remodeled by the County and City for living quarters for the Mexicans. A butane explosion was the cause of the fire. One Mexican woman received 2nd degree burns on her hands and legs. Her baby received minor burns. Both were treated at the local hospital. Due to the promptness and efficiency of the fire department the north barracks was not damaged.

A house owned by Earl Holland was destroyed around 4:00 o'clock Sunday morning. The cause of the fire was undetermined as the house was vacant at the time of the fire. Estimated damage was reported about $750.00.

3-Point Trailer Court Now In Operation

George Wade, former civic and political leader of Union and more recently a local drug store operator, announced recently that his 3-Point Trailer court would be in operation by the latter part of this week. As a matter of fact several trailers have already been spotted on the court.

Water, gas and electrical connections have been provided for each trailer location and adequate laundry, bath and toilet facilities are available in the new pumicestone office building. Wade states he now has service outlets for 30 trailers. Should the need ever arise, the court can be greatly enlarged.

The Herald is happy to join the rest of the community in extending the heartiest of congratulations to Mr. Wade for taking this progressive step which has made a material addition to the business of this community.

Our Humble Apology Go To Cardwells

The Herald hereby offers its humble apology to Mr. and Mrs. George Cardwell and family of Denver City, for the error that appeared about the burial here of their son, Gilbert C. Harris, last Saturday.

The reporter that usually takes such notes was busy with another person at the time, when the elder Stricklin, hard of hearing, especially when a lot of machinery is running tried to take the notes from Mr. Simmonds of the Brownfield Funeral home.

CHECK CHARGE AGAINST TWO BOYS

Sheriff Cecil Murry went to Portales, N. M., and brought two boys back charged with giving forged checks here two weeks ago. The boys ages are 19 and 20 years old.

Each are held under $1,000 bond.

South Plains Ginnings Reach 261,192

According to the Texas Employment Commission, approximately 47 per cent of the cotton raised in 14 counties on the South Plains, had been ginned up to the 8th, presumably, when statistics are taken. But in traveling over the county or this section, fields that have never been touched are the rule rather than the exception. So, like the election, some one may be wrong when the windup of the crop comes.

Anyway, the TEC thinks that 25,000 bales have been lopped off the South Plains crop since the last report, mostly in dry farming areas. Apparently 14,500 bales had been ginned in Terry county to that date, some of which was Yoakum county raised cotton. Yoakum county has no gin, so most of their crop is ginned at Tokio this county, and some at Seagraves in Gaines county. The Terry-Yoakum estimate had been lowered from 30,000 bales to 28,000. Here are the county figures with the exception of Crosby where no figures were available. It will be noted that sometimes two counties are thrown together.

County	Est. Prod.	Ginned
Bailey	25,000	7,500
Floyd	30,000	15,000
Hale	65,000	32,688
Hockley and Cochran	135,000	41,123
Lamb	85,000	42,500
Lubbock	95,000	52,230
Dawson-Gaines	50,000	23,451
Lynn-Garza	45,000	32,200
Terry-Yoakum	28,000	14,500

Commissions To Reserve Lieutenants

In order to provide the necessary officer personnel to accomplish the mission of the Army under the current expansion program, the department of the Army will offer commissions as Reserve second lieutenants for active duty to young male citizens, who have served in the Armed Forces of the United States, it was announced here today by M-Sgt. A. W. Carnes, Commanding Officer of the local recruiting office.

The requirements for obtaining one of these commissions are: Applicants must have completed at least one year active service in any of the armed forces of the United States, during the period December 7, 1941 to June 30, 1947; must have completed two years of college work leading to a degree; must be between the ages of 19 to 32 years; and must be able to pass the physical examination as prescribed by current directives.

Sgt. Carnes said that this is an excellent opportunity for young men to get started on a fine career in the United States Army, and urges all qualified applicants to visit the recruiting office located on the second floor of the courthouse.

Two School Children Hit By Car

Billy Frank Chapman, age 7, son of Mrs. Pat Chapman and Rebecca Mason, age 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Mason were hit by a car Friday evening on the Seagraves highway near the Thomason Grocery store. The children had unloaded from a bus and started across the highway when hit by the car. The boy was treated for bruises and shock and dismissed from the local hospital. The girl is still hospitalized and is in a semi-conscious condition.

Ewell Bryan, a painter of North 2nd street was the driver of the car.

450 Attend Farm Bureau Convention

The Terry County Convention of the Farm Bureau was held at the Veterans Hall Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock.

Homer Winston, president of the organization made the opening address. A barbecue served buffet style was enjoyed by the estimated crowd of 450 members and guests.

H. B. Virgil Crawford was the principal speaker for the evening. He chose the subject "Americanism."

A business meeting was held and election of officers were, Homer Winston, president; Jake Fule, vice president; H. L. (Hub) King, secretary and treasurer. Directors are: Precinct No. 1, Earl McNeil; Precinct No. 2, Loyd Downs; Precinct No. 3, Herman Wheatley and Precinct No. 4, Bill Carter.

Delegates who were voted to attend the state convention in San Antonio on the 7, 8, 9 and 10 of this month were Looie Miller, George Henson, L. V. Alexander, B. M. Tuttle and J. A. McCraw.

Mahon Declares Communists Not Taking Over U. S.

"The Communists are not taking over America yet," Congressman George Mahon declared Tuesday at noon when he spoke to the Snyder Lions Club at its weekly luncheon meeting in the Manhattan dining room, "and there is little likelihood that they will soon if we continue to strengthen our country for defense."

After declaring that he did not intend to make a speech, the 19th District representative in Congress gave his hearers some comfort in their mixed fears and dread of hate future of our land by reminding them that great effort is being made by our government leaders to avoid war with Russia.

"Most of the $40,000,000 appropriated by our government this year has been in an endeavor to avoid a third World War," Mahon said. "$14,000,000,000 was voted for our armed forces, $7,000,000,000 for the Veterans Administration (to pay some of the cost of our last war), $8,000,000,000 payment on our national debt, $7,000,000,000 to carry out the Marshall plan of strengthening the countries of Western Europe to help build up a barrier against Communism."

The congressman declared that we may get into trouble with Russia, but it will not be because of unpreparedness. He said the U. S. is readying itself so it may speak the only language that Russia can understand—strength.

Shelton Store To Double Capacity

The Shelton store across the street from the Post Office on north Fifth is undergoing a lot of growing pains. This popular ladies and children's wear shop is, when carpenters finish the inside of the building to be 25x30 feet. The old partition wall is to be removed, and when the building is finished and furnishing is completed, for all outward and interior purposes, it will be a new store.

As Mrs. Shelton is out of town attending markets in Dallas and Fort Worth, one of the obliging clerks informed us this week that new alteration department will be made, much larger and more complete than the present arrangement. A new and entirely modern dressing room will be provided. New booths for dresses will be installed, and new fixtures will be provided throughout the store.

"Young Dyed In The Wool" Heard From

Just before we got off on our trip last week we had an unsigned card, other than anonymous, rather elongated "A Young Dyed-in-the-Wool Democratic House Wife. It said: "Dear Jack: That little 'ignoramus' Harry S. Truman, has dunked that 'smart' misplaced eyebrow of the GOP, hasn't he?"

Yep, you're right. But we'll bet a doughnut to a dime that you really thought Dewey would win, too, if you'd just shell down the corn. Lots of us were fooled. We shouldn't wonder if this did not include HST himself.

Former Brownfield Vet Reburied At Tahoka Tuesday

Delmer West, 20, was killed overseas in January of 1945. At the time young West entered the service, he was working in Brownfield, although his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. West continued to reside at Tahoka. After a training period at San Diego, Fort Bliss, and Camp Pickett in Virginia, he went overseas and was in the European operations.

SEMINOLE TO HAVE CITY MAIL DELIVERY

City mail delivery will become a reality in Seminole in the near future, Mrs. Jewell F. Cobb, postmistress has been advised by V. C. Burke, first assistant postmaster general in Washington.

The proposed city delivery service was recommended last June. The only delay will be in the installation by Seminole residents in installing mail receptacles or "door slots," which is required by the Post Office department.

Carol Johnson preached at Goetz Sunday.

Veteran All-Stars To Play Seagraves

The Cubs will be out of town this week making another try for their first 1-AA conference win of the season. However, grid fans of the community are promised football entertainment that should at least be up to par for the home course when a team of all-stars from Brownfield representing the Navy encounters a similar aggregation from Seagraves representing the Army tonight at 7:30 at Cub Field.

Coach Bond's starting line-up features a number of former Cub luminaries whose weights look very impressive on paper. Providing himself with an advance alibi "just in case," Bond hastily pointed out all that weight was "nearly all fat."

Following is a tentative starting line-up for the locals: left end, Monroe Rowden, 193; left tackle, Eldon Baggett, 220; left guard, Bobby Jones, 195; center, J. O. Burnett, 216; right guard, Euell McCrary, 200; right tackle, R. D. Jones, 180; right end, Clifton Jones, 200; quarterback, J. A. Chambliss, 160; fullback, Dewey Murphy, 165; left half, Dubois Huckabee, 108; right half, Dale Hill, 150.

Included in the list of reserves are such stalwarts as Monty George, Lewis Waters, Spencer Murphy, Dunk Warren, Raymond Warden, Jerry Jones and Kenneth Jones.

The Cubs, losers 13-0 to Plainview last Friday night in a very rough and hard-fought game at Plainview, play Berger Thursday of this week. Due to early publication date, scores were not available.

Mexican Child Fatally Burned Saturday

The child received 2nd and 3rd degree burns on her entire body and extremities. Cause of the accident was from pouring kerosene on a fire in a stove. The child lived three hours after the accident.

Another child received minor burns but was dismissed from the hospital.

Negro Seriously Hurt In Knife Fight

It is seldom that a "write-in" vote turns out any better than a bit of vengeance for a few write-in voters. It generally turns out like a lot of us who voted for the Dixiecrats. We did not have to fold our noses while we voted—it was satisfactory, although we knew when we cast it that it was a lost vote so far as Texas was concerned. But what we started out to say was that down in Brown county in July, a new man won over the old County Judge by a slim majority of less than 100 votes. But a substitute judge in the primary failed to sign the ballots. The old judge went to court and had that box thrown out, and that put him in by some 18 votes. That made Brown county men mad as wet hens, and they swore vengeance with a real educational write-in. They beat the old judge in the November election by about 1000 majority. By the way, Lyndon Johnson lost around 400 vote majority when that box was tossed out by the courts. The box in question had about 1800 votes in July.

This week in American Education Week, 8th to 13th. We have so many "weeks" these days, that it is hard to keep up with them. Most of them, however, are worthy of our consideration, and especially ABW. We wonder how many parents will visit the schools of our own city this week? Will there be any who are not parents, but friends of the school, that will visit the school plants of Brownfield, Meadow, Wellman and Union? Education of the youths of our fair land is the business of each one of us, and we should take more interest in our schools. They cost the taxpayers considerable money. Why not see that this money is being spent wisely?

With the election of the new and rather government ownership minded congress from the big cities of the north, Texas congressmen will find it increasingly hard to retain our oil bearing tide lands as the property of the state. And it will be almost an impossibility to pass such a measure over Truman's veto. In fact the measure was vetoed once before and failure to pass over it. So, by this delay, if Texas is to retain these properties for the benefit of its school children with most of the leases and royalty money going to the school fund, it may take a long drawn out legal battle to establish State's ownership. Folks, old man winter is right upon us. Which reminds us that we fellows who have been playing the part of the grasshopper all summer instead of imitating the energetic ant, may regret our negligence. By the way, is there any readers of this column who are about to throw away a size 42 suit? Call No. 1, please.

And here is a thrilling tip to the kiddies. In the first place, Christmas is just around the corner, and the toy makers come up with the information that they have really gone to town turning 'em out this year, and have the first real supply to meet the demand since the war. A lot of them will be mechanical and electrical toys, but remember, young friends that dad is supposed to have full play with the mechanical and electrical toys the first day. But he'll tire by the second day, and let you play with them.

And as Christmas approaches, don't forget to lay by in store an extra lot of Christmas Greeting cards. You know what a headache you've had in the past beating it down to the store at the last minute to find a card to send Aunt Jimina or Uncle Josh after their's come in, to remind you that you failed to send them one. Better to be a bit overstocked than sorry.

The fact still remains that all the hue and cry you hear about dams and more dams to be built at government expense, are just a cheap attempt to socialize the power industry. As for cheaper power, that is also a myth, as it is only cheap because all the people in the USA are being taxed to build them. An infinitesimal few are benefitted in proportion to the cost. They pay no taxes, local, state or national, and any deficit is made up by all taxpayers, whether they use the power or get it from private source, such as a utility company or by voting municipal bonds. As for flood control, that too, is just a cheap argument in order to spend millions of dollars. That idea was exploded last spring and summer when floods ravaged both the Tennessee and the Columbia rivers, both loaded with a series of dams. It has about reached the point where a lot of people are on the verge of saying—"dam the dams anyway."

In time of war, if a whole division of men are wiped out and a corps wounded and maimed for life, we are aghast, and talk in whispered fear and dread that next we'll hear of the casualty of a loved one; a close friend or a fine neighbor boy. It is the talk of the community in hushed voices. The newspapers play it up in glaring headlines, and the radios blare out the sad tidings. Yet, we do not bat an eye or hardly consider the matter when it is brought home to us that every year, fire takes just about the same toll in our beloved country: 11,000 killed and 50,000 injured slightly or seriously by fire. Aside from the human loss the dollar loss is terrific, $700,000,000. With all that knowledge before us, too many of us allow the worst fire hazards imaginable to accumulate on our premises and in our homes. Oh, well, I'll attend to that tomorrow.

The way the government payroll is upping these days, one is led to wonder how long the people will be able to support such a program. It is stated as a fact that one out of every six adults are now employed by the government, or are pensioned, or their dependents receive some kind of payment from the government. But, like the old saying, "we never miss the water till the well runs dry" may be the answer to that one.

Quarterback Sneak

Could be that the Democrats got too much of a good thing last week in the elections. For instance up in Minnesota, Senator Ball, Republican has proven himself a friend of the south on numerous occasions. It was he who refused to sign to get the Ives report out of committee on the CIO sponsored FEPC bill. But the last election Hubert Humphrey, Democrat so-called, was elected. He was a left wing mayor of Minneapolis, and thoroughly hates the south. It was he who led the fight for the FEPC and against states rights in Philadelphia. Could be that a lot of folks have cheered too early.

Those attending the 100th anniversary of the Texas Baptist State Convention in Houston are: Rev. and Mrs. A.A. Brian, Jack Pierce, Mesdames C. E. Ross, R. M. Moorehead, A. L. Stell, and Carl Johnson.

tators, Republicans, most Democrats, and in fact nearly all the folks and their dogs expected. But here are the last figures we saw on the popular vote: Truman 22,238,519. Dewey, Wallace and Thurmond had a combined vote of 22,315,149. The president lacked a bit over 26,000 of getting a clear majority. What we would call a "smashing victory" was the lead Lyndon Johnson had over Jack Porter, or Jester over his Republican opponent, Mr. Lane.

The Herald takes this means of thanking the Abilene Reporter News for copy No. 190 of "Governors of Texas," nicely printed on good mag paper, and slightly larger than Readers Digest. The author is Paul Bolton, and he gives a brief sketch of every Texas governor from James Pinkney Henderson to Beauford Jester. Only 750 copies were printed, so the Herald is highly pleased that it was included as one of the recipients of the limited edition.

That "smashing victory" of Mr. Truman's is a bit overdrawn. All however, will agree that it is far removed from the "smashing defeat" that the pollsters, commen-

Cooperation Wins on the Telephone Party Line, Too Real teamwork is needed to win football games. And the same spirit of cooperation is necessary in order for a telephone party line to function smoothly. Today, continued shortages of vital materials make it possible for us to continue our expansion program only by party line telephone installations. We would like to give a private line to everyone who wishes one; but when it is a case of party line - or no telephone - you'll surely agree that party line is better. So won't you please be a good party line neighbor. It means better telephone service for everyone - including you. Southwestern Associated Telephone Co.

We're vastly amused at some of our local merchants this week over the outcome of what they considered a very smart advertising deal that came off at the Crystal Theatre Monday and Tuesday nights. It was an alleged cross-section of life in Ralls, filmed in sound, and for the trifling sum of $25 each, some 50 of our penny-wise merchants (who wouldn't spend $2 for a legitimate ad in the Ralls Banner) got their profiles in the movies! They literally fell over their cash registers to spend that money for one of the most stupid, amateur jobs of swindling seen in these parts in a long time. A few of the merchants who fell for this deal are the ones who think 40 cents is too high a price to pay to get the name of their business read by 1200 families in this trade territory. Yet they cheerfully spent $25 to get laughed out of a theatre by a capacity crowd of 500! Many will continue to keep their names out of the Banner because "it does not help my business" or "it's too expensive." Then some city slicker will come along selling ads on a church fan to be distributed to the missionary outposts in darkest Africa and they'll shoot a year's legitimate advertising budget on the belief that Harry Truman is going to have all the little black savages in Ralls anyway—and they might as well have their business! Too late some found that while the movie exacted the regular fee of $25 from some, others got the same deal for $15! Hello suckers.—Ralls Banner.

Skunks, when tamed, are more affectionate than kittens. They have two coats, a soft undercoat covered with long glossy guard hairs.

Spying A New Route To Brownwood

Heretofore, we had gone a number of routes to Brownwood, via Post, Claremont, Jayton, Hamlin, Anson, Abilene, and from there via Cross Plains and south to Brownwood. Up to 1947 we usually went via Coleman to Brownwood from Abilene, until after the newer and shorter route via Cross Plains was finished. Then there was the pick of either Post or Lamesa to Snyder, Anson, etc. Still another was via Big Spring to Abilene, etc., or Big Spring via San Angelo, but the latter is 20 or 25 miles out of the way.

This last time, we went from Big Spring to Colorado City, southeast to Robert Lee, Bronte, Ballinger, Coleman to Brownwood. Even the State Highway map of last year shows no road from Robert Lee to Colorado City, but it is there now and paved all the way. It is a long lonesome route. That is, there are long stretches that you see nothing but cattle—good ones—and an occasional horse ranch, where palomino horses are raised. And there is a sizable oil field way out there in Coke County, in a lot of mountains. Very little farming until you get to Bronte and beyond. It was too doggone dry to farm this year anyway. But they had late summer and fall rains, and in most places pasture grasses are good.

Found the "chillun" and dogs first rate, with Herman off to the football game at Bangs in which the Bangs Dragons took the Blanket Tigers to a severe whipping. He came in after the third quarter. So, we divided the dogs, Herman keeping Rover and the Mrs.

Sallie and Buddie taking off for Fort Worth Friday A. M. Saw brother Tom and wife a few hours, and hit the hike for the Meeks Stricklin farm 11 miles southeast of Cleburne. Found the folks at both places in fair health, though Meek's vision is failing. He has a good pecan crop, but the quality is hardly up to last year.

Thought we would miss seeing Meek's son, Alton and family at Cleburne as we learned he was working Oklahoma in his furniture business last week. He took his wife and four year old Judy, as his Mrs. is an Okie herself. But they returned Friday late, and got to see them briefly Saturday morning, as well as the Bentons. It is always a joy and pleasure to be with John, Will and Miss Lobbie Benton. We have been fast friends since our migration from Tennessee to Texas in 1900. In fact, John was our side kick in many a hunt, rabbits and squirrel in the day time and possums at night. Also chopping cotton, picking it, and hunting pecans Sunday afternoons.

Both our brothers, Meeks and Tom think they are too old to visit around much, so we have to go see them, even if it is just a few hours. Found that Tom sorter did as we, split his ticket a bit, but Meeks says he voted 'er straight as usual. But he was not wearing his brass collar while we were there, at least. Pretty chilly down there Friday night—in the low 40's. He had not put up his old box stove that the writer bought off Monkey-Ward 45 years ago and still good, when we were batching and cutting cord wood in the cross timbers for prairie farmers. We stayed fairly warm, however by a small electric heater.

Things were killed worse in some spots than others. For instance, when we left the Plains Thursday, there was a brisk west wind but cotton and feed were still green. Friday night got its goat, however. Down around Ballinger-Coleman sections, and from Brownwood to Fort Worth, stuff had been killed. But down in Johnson county, cotton was still a bit green. Lit out for Brownwood via Cleburne, Glen Rose and Stephenville Saturday about 11 A. M. Back in Brownwood by 4 P. M. Was with Herman little as he had an orchestra engagement Friday night in Brownwood and Saturday night in Abilene.

Returned via the old route, Cross Plains, Abilene, Anson, Snyder Lamesa and home just as the sun sank. Had a great time and a lot to eat. Thanks for listening.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jones of Slaton spent the past weekend visiting his mother, Mrs. O. L. Jones.

Highway Patrol Urges Motorists To Dim Lights

Don't dazzle 'em—DIM 'em. Motorists are thus urged to use their dimmers for safety's sake on the highways and on city streets, in the traffic safety program of the Texas highway patrol.

Blinding an oncoming driver with your headlights is one of the most foolish and unnecessary things a motorist can do," Colonel Garrison, Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said. "You are threatening your own life when you fail to lower your headlights for an approaching car. Only a few seconds of light blindness can result in tragedy.

"It's not only good manner to dim your lights when meeting another car, it's often a matter of self preservation. And it's safer and more courteous, too, to use the lower beam when overtaking cars. Lights glaring into a driver's eyes from the rear-view mirror can dazzle almost as readily as when they are head-on."

Here are some pointers Mr. W. J. Elliott, Chief of the Texas Highway Patrol gave for safer use of headlights and dimmers:

1. Dim lights well ahead when meeting a car on a level road.
2. Dim before a car coming over a rise or around a bend in the road catches the full force of your bright lights.
3. Dim when overtaking to avoid blinding the driver through the reflection in his rear-view mirror.
4. Use city beam (dimmers) on heavily traveled two-lane highways and in lighted areas of settled communities.
5. Check the level and aim of your headlights frequently and see that they are correctly beamed at all times.

"The special emphasis program on night traffic accidents is part of a continuing safety educational program coordinated by the Texas Highway Patrol, and sponsored nationally by the National Safety Council, said Captain E. L. Posey of the Lubbock office of the Texas Highway Patrol.

"Texas law requires that headlights be 'dimmed' when an oncoming vehicle approaches within five hundred (500) feet," he said.

BOYS' RANCH PROUD OF NEW CHAPEL
Young cowhand's at Boy's Ranch, Amarillo, are bursting with pride over their newest building—the non-denominational chapel. Jack Dempsey, former World Champion heavyweight boxer and a true friend of boys, recently visited the Ranch and a group of the boys took him to the new chapel, moved to the Ranch from Dalhart Air Base. The building was given two coats of paint by members of the Amarillo Junior Chamber of Commerce. Non-denominational services are conducted every Sunday in the new chapel. "Now the Ranch has everything," Dempsey said. It's wonderful that the boys have a place to worship."

TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR

The typographical error is a slippery thing and sly. You can hunt until you are dizzy but it somehow will get by. Till the forms are off the presses it is strange how still it keeps; It shrinks down into a corner and it never stirs or peeps. That typographical error, too small for human eyes, Till the ink is on the paper, when it grows to mountain size. The boss stares with horror, then he grabs his hair and groans; The copy reader drops his head upon his hands and moans, college is to have a $322,000 museum. The college board of directors recently voted an appropriation of $135,000 to finish the building started in 1936.

A contract for construction has been left, and work is underway. Dr. W. C. Holden, curator, estimates the building will be ready for general use by the opening of school next year, September, 1949.

What They Expect Of Valley Visitors

Brownsville, Texas, Nov. 9 (AP) Ygnacio Garcia is president of the Brownsville chamber of commerce. Garcia merged his promotional and statistical talents and came up with this composite picture of the winter visiting couple this semi-tropical city expects in the next three months:

They will be a conservatively dressed man from 45 to 60 with two children, thoughtfully left at home. They will be driving a new, or late model sedan in good condition except that the motor will be over heating because of the thermostat, and the hot water heater will have to be disconnected.

They will be worth from $10,000 to $50,000 and have a going. The remainder of the issue may be clean as clean can be. But that typographical error is the only thing you see business, farm or professional practice back in Iowa, Michigan, Illinois Wisconsin, Kansas or Minnesota, left in the hands of a relative or junior partner. The husband will worry about this.

They will be the opposite of the popular idea of the American tourist, being sweet-tempered, reasonable and easy to please, and will reflect their own security.

They will have been to both California and Florida and will not have liked either place.

They will be fairly religious, but appreciative of the gay nightlife of the cantinas in nearby Matamoros, Mexico.

The husband will be a good sport and poor sportsman, but will have a burning desire to shoot things and catch fish. The wife will think this is silly and say so.

Almost without exception, the husband will affect the long-billed beanie like that worn lately by President Truman.

Coyotes Abuse Sanctuary

DENVER—(AP)—Western cattlemen and sheepmen, who have reason to hate him, will admit that of Br'er Coyote is plenty smart. As any visitor to Yellowstone national park in northwestern Wyoming knows, no wild animal may be shot once it's inside the park boundaries. The coyote, say the stockmen, is hep to this. They contend that hundreds of them stay in the park while eating is good, then, come winter, move out to prey upon the stock grower's lambs and calves.

The federal fish and wildlife service listened to the ranchmen's complaints and decided to see how right they were. Since then, says Weldon B. Robinson, biologist in the Denver office of the service, 319 coyotes in and near Yellowstone park have been trapped, ear-tagged and released. So far, 65 of these tags have been turned in by hunters killing the coyotes outside the park. One of them was shot 115 miles airline distant from the reservation, others have wandered as far as 50 miles before catching a bullet.

Robinson insists the coyote, while cunning and furtive, is no coward. Cornered he'll put up a terrific fight. Hungry coyotes, Robinson said, often go far out of their weight class to tackle an antlered deer or elk, only to be slashed or trampled to death.

MANUFACTURE OF DAIRY PRODUCTS

September dairy production in Texas fell 13 per cent in September to 54,922,000 pounds, milk equivalent, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reported.

Ice cream production stepped up 14 per cent from August, while output of American cheese and creamery butter slid 43 and 21 per cent, respectively. All types of dairy products shared in the 16 per cent decline from September 1947. Manufacture of ice cream dropped 22 per cent; creamery butter, 7 per cent;

Brief History Of Cotton Machinery

A summary of the best recommended practices in the mechanization of cotton in Texas has just been released by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. Bulletin 704, by H. P. Smith research agricultural engineer of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, and D. L. Jones, superintendent of the Lubbock Experiment Station, presents high lights of cotton production and shows how mechanization has been developed to meet these problems.

Early Texas farmers produced cotton with the hand hoe and the sweep stock. Riding mule-drawn planters and cultivators were not developed until the 1880's and 1890's.

Outstanding progress has been made in mechanization since the introduction of the row-crop tractor about 25 years ago. Tractor-mounted middlebreakers, planters and cultivators were developed about 1930. Though strippers and pickers were experimented with nearly 100 years ago, there was little progress in their usage until attention was given to the effect of varietal characteristics on their performance.

This bulletin, "Mechanization Production of Cotton in Texas," lists each phase of Texas cotton production and discusses the various and time-saving machinery which has been developed to handle it. Fifty-five illustrations show these mechanized tools and their relation to cotton production problems.

Armistice Day

Thirty years ago today the "Cease Fire" command ended World War 1. And on that day we honored those who had fallen in the service of our country. Today, added to that honor roll are those who gave their lives in the second great world conflict. It is not enough this Armistice Day to honor the brave dead of two wars by bowing our heads in prayer. Only by each of us working assiduously to prevent another war—working to build an everlasting Peace—can we pay them deserving tribute.

Honor their names— and remember!

In city squares and on village greens throughout the land, there stand the Rolls of Honor.

They bear the names of those who served—in one or both great wars—that peace again might live and freedom endure.

Will new names—an even longer list—someday be added in another war? Your name? The names of your children?

A lot depends on the strength of our determination—and the strength of our Armed Forces. For only a strong America can stand firm against aggression, can command the respect and attention its plea for peace deserves.

Our Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen, Marines and Coast Guardsmen must be the best—alert, efficient, expertly trained. They must be equipped with the very latest in scientific advancement. Above all, they need the wholehearted support of every loyal American to maintain the strength authorized by Congress.

On this our thirtieth Armistice Day, we would do well to remember not only those who sustained us in war, but those who now stand between us and the threat of attack.

Last time we forgot. And in our forgetfulness, we allowed our Armed Forces to grow weak. In our weakness, we could only hope. We cannot—we must not—repeat that tragic mistake.

On this day of memory, let every one of us resolve that America shall stay strong.

TEXANS IN WASHINGTON

By Tex Easley
Washing, Nov. 10 (AP) This is the time of the year when congressional secretaries swap government publications for army-navy football tickets and Lacey Sharp of Rep. Bob Poage's office is the champion swapper on Capitol Hill. Each congressman, as an ex-officio member of the Army-Navy Athletic Association, is given an option on eight tickets for every game played by the service academies. They have to buy them and this year the Army-Navy game tickets are selling at $6 apiece. Bartering on behalf of his boss, Sharp has swapped the Waco congressman's 1948 game tickets for 100 of the Agriculture Department yearbooks.

A 1,000 page volume which sells at the Government Printing Office for $2, the year book is eagerly sought by farmers, agriculture students and farm organizations. It is filled with the latest of scientific and practical information regarding virtually every problem that faces a farmer or livestock producer.

Every congressman is entitled to 400 of these books free. Poage's central Texas district is predominantly rural, so his allotment is exhausted early each year. So Sharp starts horse trading, telephoning secretaries of congressmen from eastern cities who have little or no demand for the year books. These lawmakers have plenty of constituents who want to see the football games of the West Point and Annapolis teams, particularly when they play each other. It's not primarily a question of expense it's a matter of getting the opportunity to buy the tickets. In some of the trades Sharp has to buy his tickets to make a trade, in others he simply barbers off the privilege of buying them.

Two years ago when the demand was so great that every congressman was allowed only four tickets to the Army Notre Dame game, Sharp got 100 year books and 50,000 farm bulleting in trades.

Around The Capital:
Uncle Sam delivers the mail to the remotest of places. Postal authorities here do not have any table of mileages between postoffices, but from a of a large map of rural and star routes, the most isolated postoffice in Texas appears to be Carta Valley, in Edwards County. The nearest postoffice to Carta Valley is Del Rio, 37 miles away. Travelling the opposite direction, one has to go 73 miles to Sonora, the nearest postoffice to the north.

Every other postoffice in Texas appears to have a neighboring postoffice nearer to it than does Carta Valley. For instance, from Del Rio to Quemado is but 36 miles. Recent visitors here included C. T. Dean and his son, Marcus, who came up from Dallas to attend a book manufactures convention.

Architects of federal buildings have a display in the lobby of the Museum of Natural History. Among drawings on display as excellent examples are those of Naval reserves armories in Dallas, Austin and Fort Worth, the postoffice at Garland, and the Veterans Administration hospital in Houston.

Here is the tentative schedule of the forthcoming inspection tour by Veterans Administration Carl R. Gray, Jr., VA installations in Texas:

Houston, Nov. 24; San Antonio, Nov. 25; Legion, night Nov. 25 and Nov. 26; Temple, Nov. 26 and night of Nov. 27; Waco Nov. 27; Dallas, night of Nov. 28, Nov. 29; McKinney, Nov. 30, returning to Dallas for the night and Dec. 1; Lubbock, Dec. 2; Dallas, Dec. 3; Amarillo, Dec. 14 (eq). A special Senate committee headed by Senator Wherry (R-Neb) is to start a new study of the foot and mouth disease situation.

The group is to convene Nov. 8 in Omaha and, after hearing testimony there, will head for El Paso and then Mexico. It is expected that at least 10 senators and several technical experts will be in the party. Besides Wherry, others on the committee are Senators Green (D-RI), Russell (D-Ga.), Thomas (D-Okla.), and Young (R-ND).

The exact time of their arrival in El Paso is not yet set. Except from a news letter by Rep. Wilson (R-Ind):

"Too many of our people allow anything, or nothing at all, to keep them away from the polls, but in proof of my point that every vote by every voter does count, I call attention to the recent senatorial race in Texas. "At one time the tally changed back and forth five times until finally the ballots of 87 citizens, from all the great state of Texas, determined that Lyndon B. Johnson shall sit in the Senate of the United States next January, while Coke Stevenson is just a candidate who lost a race for seat. "I am bound to wonder, with

TODAY

Want to be a successful rancher? Here are tips from three old timers at the game a Texan, a New Mexican and a Scotman who insists there "is precious little difference between a Texan and Scotman.

George W. Evans, president of New Mexico Cattle Growers Association is a firm believer in large ranches for which his state is noted.

His four pointers are:
1. Have a large ranch of about 50 sections, so that some portions will receive rainfall even during dry years.

2. Keep the herd "liquid" so that livestock can be sold at any time.

3. Operate the ranch economically. When prices are high pay debts, make improvements, build up the calf crop, replace heifers and don't overstock.

4. Keep breeding herds intact. "The good years will take care of themselves," he said. "It's the bad years we must guard against."

John P. Lee, 73 year old rancher from Tankersly in Tom Green County thinks ranching is a good business for Texas youths.

"The livestock industry offers a wonderful opportunity for the boys of Texas," Lee said. "It looks like Texas must feed not only a lot of our own people, but also help feed the whole world."

Lee, who recalls shipping steers to Chicago in 1889 for $8.26 a head, said it is comparatively easy to stay in livestock business under present high prices.

But he dont think this will last.

"Things have got to level off," he said. "Everything has been too high."

The advice from Scotland comes from James Wright, director of the Matador Land & Cattle, Ltd., a Scottish corporation that owns almost a million acres of ranchlands in eight West Texas counties.

The 65 year old Scotsman spend three months out of every year in Texas, and feels right at home as indicated by this observation:

"Texans are just as close with money, despite all those vaudeville jokes. Both Scotchman and Texans are fast thinkers and slow talkers."

"Our policy on meat production is to sell as many cattle as we can when the prices are too high," Wright said in explaining his company's policy. "When the wholesaler market is too weak, we hold back all the cattle we can so as to help the small rancher."

He mentioned that Matador now has its V shaped brand on 50,000 head of cattle grazing on about 1,800,000 acres of owned and leased land. The calf crops run to about 16,000 annually. About this number is sold each year.

"We've sent more than a million cattle to market since a bunch of Dundee merchants bought the Texas land in 1887," Wright said.

Cattle Going Into A Hard Winter

College Station, Nov. 9 Texas cattle, both beef and dairy, face a hard winter.

In average years cattle enter the winter months in good shape after feeding on green grass. This year, however, many cattle are already suffering from a lack of the green feed. There just isn't any to be had.

Many cows that are now carrying calves may not be quiet up to the task of giving birth and taking care of their young, says Dr. W. C. Banks, extension veterinarian of Texas A & M College.

Banks suggests that stockman plan a good feeding program for the cattle. In addition to protein feeding, plenty of good quality hay should be kept on hand. And, if possible, hay with a good, green color is recommended. If you can't get green hay, Banks suggests getting some other source of vitamin A to add to the ration. Your local veterinarian can give you the names of several commercial sources of vitamin A or you can give the cattle a dose of some kind of cod liver oil.

Only in a well planned feeding program can we expect to keep down the death losses of both cows and their calves, says Banks.
