

SCHOOL BELLS TO RING OUT SEPT. 2

GRAHAM CRACKERS

—WHG

One of the worst cases of Can'tgetupitis is firmly lodged in the system of The Star's news editor, Leland Boyd, who in most other respects is as dependable as the morning sunrise.

Leland means well, but if he's ever needed by anyone, at, say, around 8 or 8:30 in the morning, there's nothing to do but go up to Joneses where he stays and pull him out of bed.

We have done this more times than we can count on our fingers, and at first it was funny. Now, however, we are beginning to see that this disease can cause the well-meaning Mr. Boyd considerable difficulty as he pursues his everyday activities.

We certainly have to give Leland credit for trying. When he came to Friona he brought with him an alarm clock, and, after oversleeping several mornings, was conscientious enough to go downtown and buy his second one.

Now, he has two clocks firing at him at once, and the upper story of the Jones home must sound like a bell-ringers convention. But to no avail, and the Star news hound slumbers peacefully on, dreaming, no doubt, of a tranquil subject.

Leland's roommate, Tom Darnell, volunteered to help out, and for a few days had some success. But like the flies that develop a resistance to DDT, pretty soon Leland's ears were deaf to the calls of his partner and even tweaking the toes sticking out of the cover didn't do the trick. Tom gave up in disgust.

The clocks made so much noise that it was hoped that nearby neighbors might come to Boyd's aid just to have peace and quiet restored in the community, but so far none have. Bells ring, cars roar by, the sun burns down and Friona, lively town that it is, starts its daily clatter, but the Star reporter snores soundly through it all. It's an amazing case.

Leland would like to get up about 6:30 or 7, but there doesn't seem to be much hope for him.

Going into virtual hibernation every night may seem funny to some, but it's a handicap to Leland, and on some occasions is downright embarrassing. Like the time he flew here from A&M to look over Friona. He was to catch a 12 o'clock flight from Friona, but so late he missed it and had to speed to Lubbock to hitch a ride on an afternoon plane.

The person who tries to get Leland up has a special problem, because Leland can usually fool you. To a call of "Get up Boyd, it's time to go to work," he will respond by sitting up in bed, blinking his eyes, and perhaps even muttering "What time is it?"

But, should the friend leave, within two minutes the logs are being sawed again, and the editor won't even remember anyone calling on him when he does eventually awake.

But maybe Leland's case isn't as bad as it could be. Listen to this story about Joe, for instance:

Joe was having trouble getting up in the morning, so his doctor prescribed some pills. Joe took them, slept well, and was awake before he heard the alarm. He took his time getting to the office, strolled in, and said to the boss, "I didn't have a bit of trouble getting up this morning."

"That's fine," replied the boss, "but where were you yesterday?"

Teachers Slate Meeting Aug. 31

A meeting for all Friona school faculty members is slated for August 31 at 2 p. m. in the high school auditorium, announces Superintendent Dillie Kelley.

Purpose of the meeting will be to orientate teachers for the beginning of school.

Another outing for teachers is scheduled for the night of August 31 in the school cafeteria. This is to be a social meeting for new teachers to get acquainted and returning teachers to visit.

FINE ISSUED

The lone case disposed of in city corporation court of Judge Walter Lovelless was O. W. Morris, charged with being drunk at the corner of Tenth and Main Streets. He pled guilty and was fined $25.

SCHOOL BLUEPRINTS — Building foreman John McCleery of Jones Construction Co. of Big Spring checks blueprints of the new school buildings at Friona, as what was a fairly smooth lot last week gets torn up and threaded with ditches for foundation concrete.

$677,831 Asked In School Budget

Proposed budget for the Friona School during the year 1957-58 calls for an expenditure of $677,831.13. The budget was drafted for final action for the next meeting of the board of trustees September 2.

Estimating that there are to be 1,000 students enrolled in the Friona school this year, an expense of about $677 per student is derived from the total expenditure.

"But to say that $677 is going to be spent per student this year would be misleading," says Dillie Kelley, superintendent. "About one half of the total budget—$340,326.39 will go for capital outlay. All of this cannot be charged to this year's spending. The real expense for every student will be about $278 for the nine-month period."

The following is the budget as drawn up by Kelley for presentation to the school trustees:

Spending for school administration is set at $15,543, with $13,643 allotted to salaries, administrative, business, secretarial and clerical; and $1,900 proposed for supplies and other expenses.

A total of $199,948 is proposed for salaries and supplies for instruction. A breakdown of the figure shows that $16,032 is marked for principals in elementary and secondary schools, elementary teachers to get $109,229, and secondary teachers to get $63,837 in salaries. Substitute teachers have $1,000 earmarked for their salaries, $1,200 is allocated for library books, and other supplies and expenses for instruction will cost $2,450.

Other school services will take a total of $31,255. Health service personnel salaries call for $3,458 and $300 in supplies is planned. Transportation personnel have $12,000 in salary allotted to them. For supplies, maintenance, operation expenses and replacement, $7,500 is set aside. $500 will pay for transportation insurance and miscellaneous other school services absorb another $7,500.

Water, light, power, telephone and heat and fuel bills, along with salaries, supplies and other expenses for operation of plant, will take a total of $22,769.56.

Plant maintenance, including salaries for carpenters, painters and plumbers, supplies, expenses and contractual services will require a total of $3,000.

Allowing $6,300 for fixed charges for insurance and judgements and interest on loans, and sick leave, a total of all current expenses is proposed for $278,818 for the year.

A proposed total capital outlay of $340,326.39 is listed with School bells, with a 1957-58 tone, ring for about 1,000 students in the Friona Independent School District at 9 a. m. September 2. All buses will be operating, and a busy faculty of 45 teachers, principals, and personnel will have their first day of the session.

This day, Monday, is set aside for registration of all grades, when students will be assigned class schedules and teachers, and pick up their books.

Registration chores are expected to last about two hours and 30 minutes. Buses will then return children to their homes, and students will be dismissed until Tuesday, September 3, the first full day of classes.

The school cafeteria will serve meals for the first time Tuesday.

After the first full day of classes, Tuesday, full operation will continue until Nov. 28, when classes will be dismissed for Thanksgiving. Christmas holidays will be from December 20 through December 29. Easter holiday will be April 7, 1958, and the last day of school will be May 23.

Cub Awards Friday

The annual awards program of the Cub Scouts is slated for Friday night at the Truett Johnson home south of Friona. A fried chicken, picnic supper is planned along with the awards. Starting time is 7:30.

Cub Scouts and their parents are invited to attend, and are requested to bring along a chicken ready to fry, a salad, dessert and bread. The other part of the menu will be furnished — drinks, potato chips — and there is no need to bring eating utensils, says Mrs. Leo Reed, a Cub Scout mother.

Due to receive awards are all Cub Scouts who have become eligible for promotions or honors, and a cigar box packed full of year pins, gold arrows and like decorations are to be presented.

Plans for the picnic were made at a training meeting Tuesday of last week. Present at the training meeting at the John Shelton home, were the Truett Johnsons, the John Wilsons, Mrs. T. A. Sherley and son, the Allen Stewarts, the Leo Reeds, the Coy Pattons, and the hosts.

20-Year-Old Fined For Bootlegging

Twenty-year-old Sonny Rondo, Friona, was arrested Saturday night for bootlegging. He was tried on two counts in Parmer County Court Monday morning and entered a plea of guilty. He was fined $225 by Judge A. D. Smith.

The two charges were for possession of alcoholic beverages for purpose of sale, and for selling the beverage. He was found making a sale at his place in Friona by County Sheriff Chas. Lovelace at 10 p. m.

Forty-one quarts of beer were confiscated by the sheriff. It was the second bootlegging arrest in Parmer County during the past two weeks. A week prior to last Saturday a man was arrested for transporting 25 cases of beer across the county.

Dads Authorize Street Repair Equipment

Friona city commission Monday authorized purchase of a street roller and an asphalt kettle to use in repairing city streets.

The roller is second hand and is estimated to cost $875. Cost of the asphalt kettle, brand new, is to be about $900.

The city has been operating without equipment to patch chug-holes in streets, and last month contacted a contractor to furnish the equipment but did not get results.

With the new equipment, Friona will be able to handle its street repair problems at home, reports Roy Wilson, city clerk.

Plains Machinery of Amarillo is present owner of the street roller.

Die Is Cast--Celebration Scheduled October 18-19

OVER BREAKFAST COFFEE: PLANS FOR MAIZE DAYS — Getting their ideas together for a community celebration are J. C. Claborn, chamber of commerce president, near the wall at left; and around the circle, Bob Ginsburg, Leland Boyd, Bill Nichols, Ralph Taylor, Wright Williams, and Ralph Wilson. The meeting was Tuesday morning.

"Gentlemen, what do you think?" queried J. C. Claborn, chamber of commerce president, to a breakfast meeting of a chamber committee to kick-off planning for the 1957 Friona celebration.

Present besides Claborn were Bob Ginsburg, committee chairman, and members of the committee: Ralph Taylor, Wright Williams, and Ralph Wilson. Also present were Bill Nichols, Leland Boyd and W. H. Graham Jr. Unable to attend the meeting was committee member, Russell Massey.

After a brief period of silence, ideas by the score began flowing across the table.

Suggestions for exhibits of agricultural products, vegetables, and features attractive to the womenfolk, beard-growing contests, plowing contests, horse races, drag races for the teen-age set, floats for all who want to display one, a home football game, style show, a queen's contest, a community barbecue, and many others started the members present off at an enthusiastic pace.

Then came the question of when and how long to have the festival. Finally settled on was the weekend of October 18-19.

Wanting to have the dates timed so a Friona Chief football game could be included as part of the activities for one day, the committee has checked with school officials for the calendar of football games.

Friona Chiefs meet Bovina Mustangs on Friday night, the 18th.

Discussion of handling of a barbecue for the entire community, and visiting communities arose with the main point of interest being a desire to make the barbecue even better than last year.

Talk of the queen contest centered around the thought that this would be just about the fanciest part of the program, if one could easily be classed the most fancy.

Speculation over the most desirable name for the queen came with several names being suggested, including Sorghum Susie, Milo Myrtle, Maize Daisy, Daisy Maize — then toned down to Maize Days, which was chosen as title for the celebration.

A celebration of some kind has been in the back of community boosters' minds for many months. It was one of the year's aims set out by the chamber back in the spring.

Enthusiasm for the project has carried over from last year, when Friona observed its 50th anniversary, and drew visitors by the hundreds to join in on the celebration.

At that time, one of the most frequently-made remarks by visitors was, "We should do this every year."

City Hires Chief

After operating a full month with one local law enforcement officer, Friona is to have a full two-man staff starting September 2. The city commission voted Monday morning to hire Ben Moorman of Saginaw as police chief.

Moorman, 33, is at present police chief at the small city near Fort Worth. He appeared at the commission meeting to make his application, and when contacted by City Clerk Roy Wilson Monday evening, accepted the job and gave Saginaw notice he would be leaving in two weeks.

Salary for Moorman will be $335 a month, to come entirely from the city funds. The city and county had shared expenses on officers preceding Moorman.

Moorman was rated highly for the work he has done at Saginaw by the mayor of the city there. He had held the job four years.

Wilson said another application was received for the job in the Monday morning meeting, and that he recommended Moorman.

He had known Moorman prior to the lawman's making application for the job as Friona police chief.

Phipps Working On Right-of-Way

E. G. Phipps, commissioner of precinct number one, is securing easement on right of way for seven miles of farm-to-market road east of Friona.

The road begins at Goodwine corner about a half mile south of Friona city limits, extends east about two miles to the corner of the Elmer Euler farm, then south one mile to the Jim L. Shaffer place, and then due east to the Claude Blackburn intersection.

Total mileage as given on State Highway Department maps is to be 7.261.

"I'm making good progress on securing the right-of-way," says Phipps. "About two-thirds of the land owners have already signed the agreement. I've been working on the easements for about two weeks."

A letter from the resident engineer at Littlefield said, "Plans are complete and project is ready for contract as soon as the right-of-way is acquired by Parmer County. Still unfinished is the gas line and pole line adjustments, but no difficulty is seen."

Commissioners Discuss Plans For Vault

Parmer County Commissioners discussed plans for building a vault, for housing deed records, at the regular meeting of the group Monday afternoon.

The need for such a vault was pointed out due to the clerk's office being overcrowded and the possibility of fire sometime destroying all of the county records.

The court voted to ask for bids on such a project. Planned is a 12' x 24' vault and if built it will be located on the southeast corner of the building.

Other business for the day included the paying of bills and warrants.

He had known Moorman prior to the lawman's making application for the job as Friona police chief.

Friona Fire Rates May Be Lowered

Fire insurance rates in Friona may be lowered somewhat, according to Fire Chief Charles Bainum. An examiner from the State Insurance Board was in Friona last week testing equipment and checking fire zone figures.

All equipment was in fine shape, Bainum reports, and for the first time, the pickup with emergency equipment was figured into the fire insurance rate computation.

Friona does qualify for a lower rate, Bainum says, but the insurance board wants cities to be about two percent lower than the requirement when new rates are computed. This is to give more assurance that the rate will not jump back up, making new figuring required.

Gospel Meeting Begins Sunday

Plans are complete for a gospel meeting to begin Sunday at the 10th Street Church of Christ. Services will be held at 10:30 a.m. and 7:45 p.m. on Sunday and at 7:45 on weekday evenings through August 25.

Paul B. Keele Jr. of Big Spring will be the speaker at these services. Visitors are invited by A. H. Hadley and E. M. Jack to attend any or all of these services.

First Baptist Slates Revival

Friona First Baptist Church holds its annual summer revival starting August 23 and continuing through September 1.

Evangelistic team that is to conduct the services is composed of Dr. Judson Prince, in charge of the preaching services, and Bailey Forester, who will direct the choir and song services.

Dr. Prince has recently resigned a pastorate at Fort Worth Riverside Baptist Church to enter full time evangelistic work. He was a long time pastor at the Fort Worth church. He is a graduate of Howard Payne College and of Southwestern Baptist Seminary.

Prayer services are to be at 7:30 p. m. daily, and choir practice is set for the same time.

Ball Season Ends, Playoffs Begin

Regular schedule for Friona Little League and Intermediate League baseballers ends tonight as Bengier Air Park and Herring Implement teams meet to decide which team finishes in third place of the Intermediate League.

The two teams, prior to game time, each have a two win and five loss game record.

Tuesday night game results were McCaslin 13, Tri County Elevator 11.

Playoff between the top two teams of both leagues will be gin next Tuesday night. Hub, leader of the Intermediate League for the entire season, plays McCaslin as the lumber boys attempt to give Hub at least a good fight for title of the league.

Little League playoff will be between Jones and Co-op, with the Co-op favored with 8 wins and one loss for the season, and Jones having five wins and four losses. Little League playoff also starts Tuesday.

Other playoff games will be Thursday and Saturday. Winner of two games out of the three will be champ. Game time for the first game is 7 p. m., with the second to be at 8:30 p. m.

Awards will be presented after the last playoff game to the top two teams and best all-around player and the best sportsman in each of the two leagues.

Umpires for the playoffs will be Ansel Renner, behind the plate, and Floyd Brookfield, on first and second.

Johnny Nazworth will be scorekeeper.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 5, 1957.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 3 proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Texas adding a section to be known as Section 49-c of Article III, providing for the issuance and sale of bonds of the State of Texas to create the Texas Water Development Fund to provide financial assistance to certain political subdivisions or bodies politic and corporate of the State of Texas in the conservation and development of the water resources of the State, providing for the payment of such bonds; creating an agency to administer said Fund and to perform other duties prescribed by law; limiting the period during which financial assistance may be granted; and providing for the calling of an election and the publication and issuance of the proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of Texas be amended by adding a new section thereto to be known as Section 49-c, as follows:

"Section 49-c. There is hereby created as an agency of the State of Texas the Texas Water Development Board to exercise such powers as necessary under this provision together with such other duties and restrictions as may be prescribed by law. The qualifications, compensation, and number of members of said Board shall be determined by law. They shall be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate in the manner and for such terms as may be prescribed by law.

"The Texas Water Development Board shall have the authority to provide for, issue and sell general obligation bonds of the State of Texas in an amount not to exceed One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000). The Legislature of Texas, upon two-thirds (2/3) vote of the elected Members of each House, may authorize the Board to issue additional bonds in an amount not exceeding One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000). The bonds authorized herein or permitted to be authorized by the Legislature shall be called 'Texas Water Development Bonds,' shall be executed in such form, denominations and upon such terms as may be prescribed by law, provided, however, that the bonds shall not bear more than four per cent (4%) interest per annum; they may be issued in such installments as the Board finds feasible and practical in accomplishing the purpose set forth herein.

"All moneys received from the sale of State bonds shall be deposited in a fund hereby created in the State Treasury to be known as the Texas Water Development Fund to be administered (without further appropriation) by the Texas Water Development Board in such manner as prescribed by law.

"Such fund shall be used only for the purpose of aiding or making funds available upon such terms and conditions as the Legislature may prescribe, to the various political subdivisions or bodies politic and corporate of the State of Texas including river authorities, conservation and reclamation districts and districts created or organized under Article XVI, Section 59 or Article III, Section 52, of this Constitution, interstate compact commissions to which the State of Texas is a party and municipal corporations, in the conservation and development of the water resources of this State, including the control, storage and preservation of its streams and flood waters and the waters of its rivers and streams, for all useful and lawful purposes by the acquisition, improvement, extension, or construction of dams, reservoirs and other water storage projects, including any system necessary for the transportation of water from storage to points of treatment and/or distribution, including facilities for transporting water therefrom to wholesale purchasers, or for any one or more of such purposes or methods.

"Any or all financial assistance as provided herein shall be repaid with interest upon such terms, conditions and manner of repayment as may be provided by law.

"While any of the bonds authorized by this provision or while any of the bonds that may be authorized by the Legislature under this provision, or any interest on any of such bonds is outstanding and unpaid, there is hereby appropriated out of the first moneys coming into the Treasury in each fiscal year, not otherwise appropriated by this Constitution, an amount which is sufficient to pay the principal and interest on such bonds that mature or become due during such fiscal year, less the amount in the sinking fund at the close of the prior fiscal year.

"The Legislature may provide for the investment of moneys available in the Texas Water Development Fund, and the interest and sinking funds established for the payment of bonds issued by the Texas Water Development Board, income from such investment shall be used for the purposes prescribed by the Legislature. The Legislature may also make appropriations from the General Revenue Fund for paying administrative expenses of the Board.

"From the moneys received by the Texas Water Development Board as repayment of principal for financial assistance or as interest thereon, there shall be deposited in the interest and sinking fund for the bonds authorized by this Section sufficient moneys to pay the interest and principal to become due during the ensuing year and sufficient to establish and maintain a reserve in said fund equal to the average annual principal and interest requirements on all outstanding bonds issued under this Section. If any year prior to December 31, 1952 moneys are received in excess of the foregoing requirements then such excess shall be deposited to the Texas Water Development Fund, and may be used for administrative expenses of the Board and for the same purposes and upon the same terms and conditions prescribed for the proceeds derived from the sale of such State bonds. No grant of financial assistance shall be made under the provisions of this Section after December 31, 1952, and all moneys thereafter received as repayment of principal for financial assistance or as interest thereon shall be deposited in the interest and sinking fund for the State bonds, except that such amount as may be required to meet the administrative expenses of the Board may be annually set aside; and provided, that after all State bonds have been fully paid with interest, or after there are on deposit in the interest and sinking fund sufficient moneys to pay all future maturities of principal and interest, additional moneys so received shall be deposited to the General Revenue Fund.

"All bonds issued hereunder shall after approval by the Attorney General, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas.

"Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such acts shall not be void by reason of their anticipatory nature."

Sec. 2. The foregoing amendment to the Constitution shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the 5th day of November, 1957, same being the 1st Tuesday after the 1st Monday in said November, 1957, at which election each ballot shall have printed thereon, the following words:

"FOR the amendment to the Constitution of Texas adding a new section to be known as Section 49-c of Article III, authorizing the issuance and sale of Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000) in bonds by the State of Texas to create the Texas Water Development Fund to provide financial assistance to certain political subdivisions or bodies politic and corporate of the State of Texas in the conservation and development of the water resources of the State."

"AGAINST the amendment to the Constitution of Texas adding a new section to be known as Section 49-c of Article III, authorizing the issuance and sale of Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000) in bonds by the State of Texas to create the Texas Water Development Fund to provide financial assistance to certain political subdivisions or bodies politic and corporate of the State of Texas in the conservation and development of the water resources of the State."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State. The expense of publication and election for such amendment shall be paid out of the proper appropriation made by law.

Attend Funeral Services Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Sanders and David attended funeral services for Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ward and daughters, Nannette and Kathy of Morton, at Seminole Sunday afternoon. The Ward family was killed late Thursday when the Cessna 170 in which they were riding struck a tree and crashed into a farm house near Dundas, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward and their daughters were on their way to Hudson, Minn., to visit Mrs. Ward's mother, who was ill. They were within 100 miles of their destination when the crash occurred.

Officials at Northfield, Minn. reported that the sky was heavily overcast and it was presumed that Ward was attempting to land at the time of the crash. Ward, who was the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ward of Seminole, was a nephew of Sanders.

Burial was in the Morton cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Turner of Friona drove to Midland Sunday to carry their granddaughters, Gail and Charlotte Campbell, home. The granddaughters visited the Turners during the past week.

If you want quality merchandise, priced right, make Hurst Department Store your back-to-school headquarters.

Back-to-school means different things to different people. To the mothers of Friona students, it means preparing delicious meals for school-hungry appetites, among other things. Houser Grocery and Market is the place to get the food for those much-appreciated meals. Pictured is Cotton Houser by the cereal display in Houser's. You'll always find a complete variety of quality foods priced competitively at Houser's.

Os Lange, Rockwell Bros. and Co., Lumbermen, manager, suggests that a new room, all his own, would be nice for that back-to-schooler in your family. Also, he reminds you to compare the quality and price of building materials at Rockwell Bros. before you buy. Here, he poses with a quality paint brush and a part of the BPS paint which his business features.

A neat, well-lighted place to study is an inducement to do more studying. At Claborn Furniture you'll find desks, chairs, and lamps to furnish a "study corner." J. C. Claborn is showing examples of the furnishings which will be useful. The price, style, and color combination which is right for your home is available. Encourage more study with a study nook furnished from Claborn's.

What would be more incentive for a school boy or girl to strive for information now than for him to know that what he is learning is a foundation for a broader education later? Ethridge-Spring Agency suggests an education policy for future leaders so their further training in college is insured. Bill Stewart and Lois Norwood are ready to write the policy—get further details today.

Piggly Wiggly is the home of the exclusive dealership for "Friona Chief" zipper notebooks gaily decorated in school colors, and nationally advertised foods with tremendous selections in every department. If it's automotive and it's electrical, Friona Battery and Electric is the place to go or, if you desire, telephone. That's Johnny Wilson, Friona Battery and Electric manager at the phone. Say for instance, it's a cold morning, you're almost late for school, and your car won't start because of a dead battery. To avoid trouble of that nature, take your car by F B & E now, before it happens.

Now, at back-to-school time, is a good time to teach your youngsters more about money and money responsibilities. Open a checking account for them at Friona State Bank. A checking account offers wonderful financial training and makes young people realize more about the importance of money. Let Pat Meil, pictured here, or another of the friendly tellers at Friona State, help open accounts now for the students in your family.

These are only a few of the outstanding back-to-school items and services offered by Friona businesses.

It's about school time, and time for getting your school boys a supply of shirts. You'll find a wide selection of shirts in the most pleasing styles and color arrangements at Foster's Dry Goods. Wes Foster, displaying one of the fine examples, makes it a special point to have the shirts and other clothing school kids want to wear. Foster's is headquarters for Arrow Shirts, the brand most kids want for school wear. It'll be down-right pleasant to shop at Foster's.

Good study habits depend on the correct atmosphere, so why not make sure your school youngsters have a pleasing atmosphere in which to study. Bill Nunn, manager of Carl McCaslin Lumber, Inc., invites you to let him help you plan for a remodeled study room, or an additional room. You can get free estimates, all materials needed, and the folks at Carl McCaslin can recommend reliable contractors. Get this complete building service, with up to 60 months to pay, at McCaslin's.

THE STAR'S EDITORIAL COMMENT

What Is The Angle On Main Street Parking?

When you park your car at an angle on Main Street of Friona, as is customary, you are eligible to receive a ticket. Angle parking there is in violation of the law.

That law should be enforced. But it has been about two years since the city commission chose to enact this law, through adoption of the code of traffic regulation as set forth by the Department of Public Safety. The code outlaws angle parking within 10 feet of a state highway, and Main Street is a state highway south of Highway 60.

If the code of traffic regulation is not suited for Friona, the law should be repealed. If it is a just code, then it should be followed, and if violated, punishment should be measured out.

It is doubtful that any driver can drive on the street without noticing why the law should be enforced. For one thing, Main Street is not the ideal width for the main street for a city of Friona's size. And a sizeable volume of traffic is present during most parts of the day.

Then, when a parked car is backed into the street in preparation for leaving, this is apt to congest the street until the car moves away.

But the most noticeable condition that arises because angle parking is practiced is the obstructed view at corners. It is bad enough when passenger cars are parked near the corners, and vision is obscured then to a degree which handicaps safe driving, but when a truck is angled in to the curb near corners, it is impossible to turn into Main Street or cross it safely. The driver of a car approaching from a side street must nudge the front of his car almost to the center stripe of Main Street before he can determine whether a car is coming. When his car is that near into the street, it would be impossible to back up in time to avoid obstructing traffic on Main Street.

Friona could well use the parallel parking system on Main Street. Of course this would cut down on the number of spaces, but store owners and their employees could alleviate this somewhat by parking their cars on a side street and walking a short distance to their businesses.

Loading zones would be essential. A little paint for marking off parking spaces, a little enforcement, and a little change of habit on the part of drivers are other ingredients for a safer, more orderly Main Street.

Pickup Submerged In Wyoming Tues.

Word reached Friona last week that W. V. "Bud" Elmore had trouble with high water. Elmore and Tilden Slagle of Hereford, who are cutting wheat near Burns, Wyo., started into town Tuesday morning when a shower began to fall.

Elmore's pickup, in which the two were riding, became mired down in a small stream and they went for help. When they returned, what had started as a gentle shower had turned into a flash flood and the pickup was completely submerged.

No one was hurt, but the pickup motor was a total loss.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Patterson and family of the Rhea community are vacationing in Georgia this week, and visiting their relatives. Both were formerly Georgians. A two-week trip was planned when they left last Tuesday.

FORGIVENESS THROUGH CHRIST'S BLOOD AND THE GOSPEL

The New Testament is a better covenant, established on better promises (Heb. 8:6). The Old Testament had animal blood for atonement (Heb. 10:1-4). The New Testament has the blood of Christ. Jesus said, "For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins (Matt. 26:28). The gospel contains two things for the alien sinner; terms of pardon to be obeyed and the blood of Christ to atone for his sins. When the sinner meets these terms of pardon God forgives his past sins.

If it were possible for man to live without sin he could be saved without the gospel and the blood of Christ. If he lived above sin he would be saved by his own works. All responsible people are sinners (Rom. 3:23; Gal. 3:22; 1 John 1:10). That is why no person can be saved by his own works of perfect living (Eph. 2:9; Titus 3:5). The conditions of pardon set forth in the gospel of Christ must be obeyed by the sinner (II Thes. 1:7-9). The gospel is God's power to save (Romans 1:16). When the sinner obeys the terms of pardon he is made free from sin (Romans 6:17-18). The conditions of pardon are as follows: BELIEVE, Mark 16:16; REPENT, Acts 2:38; Confess Christ, Acts 8:37; Rom. 10:9-10; Baptism for remission of sins, Acts 2:38; 22:16; Mark 16:16; 1 Peter 3:21. THE LORD ADDS ALL WHO OBEY THESE TERMS OF PARDON TO HIS CHURCH (Acts 2:47).

in & around FRIONA WITH JUNE

Ordinarily most of us think of spring as being the "clean-up" "fix-up" time of year. A little observation in our city would reveal the fact that some of our residents are getting a late start or starting real early one or the other.

Maybe after hearing rumors going around that we are definitely going to have a "celebration" later this year, some property owners decided to get an early start on making our town look nicer. Whatever the cause, we have noticed that Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baxter are getting a new finish on their home on Main Street.

John and Louise Hays have also done some redecorating on the outside of their house in the north part of town. A very attractive sign is now hanging on Eva Miller's studio near the Mabry Building. It reads, "Eva Miller's Little House of Music." Think most everyone had been referring to it as "Eva's Little Brown House." The new name sounds much more dignified. Don't you think so?

As has been stated in this column before, the entire population of our town and surrounding trade territory should be very proud of our new hospital. Any time this statement is made in a crowd, someone invariably comes up with, "Yes, but, it sure costs a lot of money, etc., etc., etc."

After spending the better part of two days down there with our daughter, Geneva, who had had a tonsillectomy, and doing some very close observing while we were there, we decided on an answer to everyone who begins with "Yes, but—" In the future when we hear that statement begin, we are going to answer with, "It's worth every cent of what it cost."

Is there any way to measure in dollars and cents the value of having a good hospital with competent doctors, good equipment, nurses who think only of the patient's welfare, and aides who faithfully and cheerfully carry out instructions to the letter? And, in addition to this, the entire staff does its duty willingly with only the patient's best interest in mind.

Enjoyed brief chats with Hap and Julia Fairchild early Friday morning at the hospital. Both of them seemed to be taking becoming grandparents for the first time very calmly. We offered to sit and hold Hap's hand, but he declined the offer. He did suggest that we might help out by going and getting him a walking cane.

Julia didn't seem to need anyone to hold her hand either. She might have appreciated having someone walk up and down the hall with her, but she wouldn't have admitted it. It's remarkable how soon people seem to recuperate after becoming grandparents.

Send them back-to-school with the security and responsibility that a savings account offers. Now paying 4% interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Davis of Olton and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Mayfield and daughters of Bovina were Sunday evening guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Freeman and Doyle.

Mrs. W. A. Tinney Sr. visited Mrs. Lee R. Pool at Muleshoe Sunday afternoon.

Potato Growers Near Harvest End

The peak of the potato harvest in the Parmer County area is past, although there is still considerable activity at the processing sheds in Friona and Lariat.

Market conditions moved up slightly the first of the week, and increased the intensity of harvesting operations, as growers, some of them operating near the "break-even" point, were glad to get any increase in price, no matter how slight.

The price rise, rather unexpected, pushed the price of spuds shipped from the two Parmer County points to $2.25 to $2.35. It was not anticipated because of the lateness of the season and the fact that nearly all states that have potato production (except Maine) were digging.

Ordinarily, this heavy production from all over the country depresses prices. However, this week the demand continued strong and the price moved up a notch or two.

John O'Haugherty, salesman at Friona Growers and Shippers, says Chicago is receiving potatoes "from all over the country."

In the Friona area, about two-thirds of the 300-acre crop has been dug, and harvesting is expected to be completed within a week or 10 days. Showers have slowed operations some, though not seriously.

Buck Gregory at Lariat says his shed will be through by this weekend. On Wednesday, only 25 acres were left to be harvested, those being Netted Gem russets. Russets are commanding a premium price of $3 this week, and the late-season spuds are selling well. Tonnage is down, however, and they are yielding only slightly more than 100 sacks of No. 1's per acre, says Gregory.

Gregory feels that growers have been fortunate to have the market improve this late in the season. Most of the area-grown potatoes are headed for southern markets, he says.

This has been a "mediocre" year for potatoes, following one of the best seasons in history last year. Prices this year are ranging from one-third to one-half of what they were at the peak of 1956.

However, most potato growers aren't too surprised to see things slow down this year. It is most unusual for Plains potato deals to be "hot" two years in a row. The average grower is glad to get his money back and get ready for another season, though some have managed to pocket some profits, too.

Special beds are used on trucks to bring potatoes in from the fields. Here a special conveyor carries the spuds out and dumps them into a waiting washing trough at the Gregory potato shed at Lariat.

The first step in potato processing at Friona Growers & Shippers is to unload the spuds as they arrive from the field and dump them into these bins where they await their turn at the washing, grading, and packing operations.

were sold and the project was carried on much the same as our fund raising drives are done here. The difference was that there was no program, no time, no place, no speaker, or no refreshments.

All that was necessary for a person to do was to buy a ticket entitling the holder to an evening at home. At the rate most of us go any more, that idea might work out real good in our home town. There are a lot of times when we had rather buy the ticket and forget the rest of the things it calls for.

So much has been written and said about parents staying home with their children that we have been hoping someone would come up with an idea that would keep the children at home with the parents. Maybe this is it. What do you think?

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

For anything worth having, one must pay the price; and the price is always work, patience, love, self-sacrifice—no paper currency, no promises to pay, but the gold of real service.—John Burroughs.

This past week a number of the cooperators with the Parmer County Soil Conservation District picked up their potted Arizona Cypress trees. It seems like we were a long time in getting them but most cooperators said that they would be easier to take care of now than earlier in the year.

The first year the trees should not be placed in the field or around the farmstead in a permanent place, but rather place them in a sheltered spot from wind and direct sun until the second year. They won't grow much the first year, but special attention should be given

TEC Sees Shortage Of Cotton Pullers

Parmer County will be short 5,297 cotton pullers during the peak period of the 1957 cotton harvest, estimates the Texas Employment Commission.

The figure was presented at a Parmer County farm labor committee meeting, in which Committeeman Sloan Osborn reviewed the total seasonal employment needs developed by the TEC with Edward D. Vaughn and Eldrid G. Travis of the TEC.

The committee will function under public law 78, obtaining facts about the supply of domestic farm workers and the shortage of workers, if any, which must be met by importing Mexican nationals. The TEC will supply the data to the secretary of labor, who will limit the number of Mexican Nationals to be used in this county by granting a ceiling.

Local office managers assist with estimating the number of workers who will be needed, basing the figure on current local conditions affecting the cotton crop.

Ceilings adopted by the secretary of labor limiting the importation of Mexican nationals into this area will be displayed in post offices in Farwell, Bovina, and Friona; the county agent's office, and the county courthouse.

The TEC estimates that 1,250 Mexican nationals will have to

THE HAPPY HOMEMAKER BY JUNE FLOYD

From early spring to late fall in our section of the country an outdoor meal is enjoyed by every member of the family. There are so many quick and easy things that can be prepared for such a meal that not even the cook in the family balks when someone says, "Let's eat outside!"

Many homes have outdoor cooking facilities and use them often. If you are one of those fortunate enough to have an outdoor picnic area that is equipped with electricity, your waffle iron should not be overlooked when you are planning an outdoor meal.

There is no end to the variety of things that can be cooked on it. Golden brown cornbread, crisp brownies, and dozens of different kinds of waffles and breads can be baked quickly and easily by using your waffle iron.

The new brown 'n serve sausage makes a nice addition to any meal and especially to one that is cooked outdoors. The sausages may be placed inside a hot dog bun, wrapped in foil and baked in coals. Tasty burgers of any kind are very tasty if they are filled ahead of time, wrapped in foil, then heated in hot coals.

Homemakers who feel that an outdoor meal takes too much time and effort should spend some time working on menus which are simple and easy to prepare. An evening spent outdoors with your family and friends will long be remembered and are not too much trouble if the outing is carefully planned ahead of time.

Had you ever thought of preparing red beans and rice in the same dish? We ran across a recipe that sounds interesting. Haven't tried it yet so don't know how it will go over with the family, but it would be different at least.

RED BEANS AND RICE
1½ cups rice
3 cups cold water
1 teaspoon salt

6 tablespoons butter
½ teaspoon pepper
1 1-pound can red kidney beans

Place rice, water, salt and butter in a large saucepan. Cover and bring liquid to a boil rapidly. Reduce flame and simmer about 15 minutes or until rice is cooked through. Heat beans in their liquid, drain and toss with rice. Season to taste. Makes 4-6 servings.

If you mothers who are having your little daughters go to school for the first time are planning school clothes, a good rule to remember is KEEP THEM SIMPLE. Of course, all of us want our little girls to be well dressed and sashes, bows, and frills are all very pretty—but not practical for school dresses.

A money raising project one club on an island sponsored recently sounds like fun. Tickets

THE PARMER COUNTY IMPLEMENT CO. NEWS

"The Place Where Most People Trade" Friona, Texas August 14, 1957

We are home after spending almost a month at Tres Ritos, New Mexico. The boys split wood, waded in icy streams, built fires, chopped down trees, climbed mountains, chased chipmunks, fished at the beaver dam, caught live worms and snails, picked wild strawberries, climbed trees and ate and ate. Their feet were dry only two or three times while we were gone except when they were asleep.

Have you seen the beautiful new Oldsmobiles on our show floor? We will be glad to have you take a demonstration ride in one of them. The new Golden Rocket '88' packs all the pleasure and satisfaction of owning a big car—big in size, big in performance, big in value. Parmer County Implement allows long trades on the Golden Rocket.

Chatter at our house: How far is it?—What time is it in China?—How many miles across the mountain?—Do I hafta brush my back teeth, too?—How many miles to the middle of the earth?—How does a man (on TV) fall off a big cliff and not get hurt?

PCICN One reason we enjoyed the mountains so much was the fact that it rained every day except two. The trees are greener and grass is better than it has been for years. Wild flowers are beautiful and the woods are full of mushrooms, some as big as a small wash tub. Cattle are fat and there are lots of deer and we enjoyed a fire in the fire place every day.

PCICN Our sister, Gay, her husband, Ben Jordan, and Doris Jane came to see us at Tres Ritos. Ben, who listened quietly to their back seat driving finally said, "Can't you make up your minds which one is driving?"

PCICN We were so glad to get home, we had planned a long visit with the neighbors in our block. We got home Sat-

Soils of Parmer County Vary, SCD Map Shows

Parmer County's soil resources are rich and varied. It has been said of Parmer County that, "Here is an area where a man can find the kind of land he's looking for."

That is an accurate statement, because many kinds of soils are within the bounds of the county. The above picture gives a general idea of the soil units. It is supplied by the Parmer County Soil Conservation District. No. 2, the largest soil type in the county, is described as deep, fine-textured, slowly permeable soil. It generally is referred to as the "tight" or "hard" or "heavy" land in the county.

The 7X soils in the southern part of the county are deep, medium textured, moderately rapidly permeable soils. They are locally referred to as "deep sand" soils and do not ordinarily have a clay sub-soil structure.

Another major soil group in the county is the No. 7 soil, which is a deep, medium textured, moderately permeable soil. It is usually called "mixed" land, and is a transition type between tight and sandy land.

Others shown on the map:

- No. 4—Deep, fine textured, slowly permeable bottomland soils.
- No. 6—Deep, medium textured slowly permeable soils.
- No. 9—Deep, medium textured, moderately permeable bottomland soils.
- No. 18—Shallow, fine textured, moderately permeable soils.

No. 24—Very shallow, fine textured soils.

As will be noticed, most of the minor classifications of soil types are in or near Friona and Running Water Draws that pass through the county. They obviously do not constitute major agricultural areas.

It should be remembered that the map is generalized, and does not show farm-by-farm transitions. For example, it is not too unusual to find a 160-acre farm with both sandy and tight soil on it.

In addition, while the majority of the soils of the county are deep, anyone familiar with the county knows that there are some "skinned" fields where caliche base shows through whenever the land is plowed.

Although any crop grown in Parmer County can be produced in any given Parmer County location, it is the popular notion of farmers that the heavy lands are better suited for grain production, the sandier lands for cotton; and also that the heavier lands produce better under ideal irrigation conditions, and the sandier lands give bigger yields under drouthy conditions.

Grain Sorghum, Cotton Approach Maturity Dates

Maturity dates for grain sorghum and cotton are on the horizon in the Parmer County area this week, as farmers begin to see an end to the fight with one of the hottest, driest summers on record.

Most grain sorghum heads are now developed, and a few are even beginning to turn. Cotton is still blooming profusely, and fruiting is heavy. Insects so far have remained under control in nearly all cases, and the setting of early-fruit appears to be assured.

Many cotton farmers are now making their final watering—or plans for it—mindful of the recommended "shut off" date of August 20 to 25 as the time to quit irrigating High Plains cotton.

County Agent Joe Jones this week warned cotton farmers that it will be a great temptation for them to continue to irrigate after the normal "deadline", because of the danger of either late-season rains or a wet, cool fall. The memory of 1955 is still fresh in the minds of many cotton growers. That year they watered up into September, only to find their crops in the middle of a cool, wet fall which would not allow the plants to properly mature. Then when the freeze came, the yield and quality of the crop was reduced to an all-time low for irrigated acreage.

"It has been proven through the years that anytime you irrigate High Plains cotton after the recommended stopping date, you are gambling with nature on making a good crop—and the odds are against the farmer," points out Jones.

Sometimes the gamble pays off. It would have last year, when beautiful fall weather matured the cotton under ideal conditions. But getting caught with late and immature cotton greatly reduces profits, and agricultural authorities advise against gamble-irrigating.

further looking into. I have seen cucumbers growing without the benefit of rich land available in Parmer County, and on soil that is only mediocre, a small patch of cucumbers will produce more pickles than Peter Piper can pick. Cucumbers are generally planted on rows about eight feet apart, cultured something like watermelons, and require considerable attention only at picking time, for the vines will quit bearing if mature cucumbers are left unpicked. I hope to give you more on the story before long.

Over the weekend, we had occasion to visit most of the South Plains area, from Littlefield to Lubbock, then south and southwest through the Brownfield and Denver City area. As a whole, we have never seen that area look as good as it does right now.

Crops, though rather late, are doing fine in nearly all cases, and they appear to have a bumper crop (for them) of grain sorghum already made. The cotton, too, appears in excellent condition, although cotton is one product that is very difficult to evaluate from a moving car, as any farmer knows.

Just a little bit of moisture, such as has hit this year, makes the South Plains region truly an agricultural marvel, because their clean, open fields—characteristic of the entire Plains area—can yield a bountiful harvest.

But were it not for above-normal moisture for this time of year, the South Plains would look hard-bitten, for their irrigation water is certainly running thin. We saw an eight-inch well just outside Lubbock on the Brownfield highway that was pumping an unbelievable amount of water. We stopped to see if perhaps the engine was not failing, but it seemed to be operating satisfactorily. The water in the bottom of the pipe was a little deeper than the end joint of our first finger—about an inch. We'd hate to see our farmers trying to raise a crop with a stream like that.

Surprisingly enough, most of their fields are weed-free. At least, they look clean compared to some of our earlier-planted stuff. We hate to say it, but Parmer County has more weed crops than any place we've seen this year.

It would surprise you to see how much sesame there is in the Parmer County area this year. We published early estimates that ran from 2,000 to 2,500 acres, but now it appears that a figure of 3,000 would be a little more realistic. Sesame seems to be doing exceptionally well this year, and if blooms mean anything, there is sure going to be a lot of seed made. Most farmers have mastered the knack of getting a good stand of the "new" oilseed crop, which, we understand, is quite a feat. The idea most seem to be following is to seed heavily, fertilize liberally, and water often. It looks like it's the thing to do.

There is a renewed interest in growing seed instead of feed, too, as has been pointed out previously in this column. Hybrid grain sorghum is being produced in the area, as well as certified corn, sorgho, and a few other crops.

By and large, there is every reason to believe in the future of growing seed on the High Plains. Many factors are in our favor. We have open country, where isolation is more easily arranged, we have clean, comparatively new land, fertility is excellent, the growing season is adequate, and of course, we can "control" our climate with those wonderful irrigation wells.

Our farmers are in the notion of adapting most any kind of farming that appears sound and reasonably profitable, and they have the equipment and the know-how to get the job done. Also, farm labor is becoming less of a problem as the area continues to settle up and more people are brought in.

Arizona Cypress Popular

A total of 525 Arizona Cypress seedlings, destined to become windbreaks on Parmer County farms, have been distributed by the Soil Conservation District this week and last week.

The seedlings are about six inches tall, and came in pots for transfer to balls or burned tin cans, then to a permanent setting next year.

All of the trees were contracted in advance of shipment and were for delivery to five persons. Receiving the future windbreaks were Leo Bails, 50; Reardon Wenner, 200; Buck Ellison, 50; Mike Ellis, 100; and Otho Whitefield, 50.

Other persons wanting to get seedlings for windbreaks may contact Steve Messenger, secretary of the district. Messenger says he may be able to get more of the seedlings, but cannot assure that the trees are available.

LETTERS To The Editor

Leland Boyd
The Parmer Farmer

I just got through reading in your report what you called some relatively fresh ideas in the field of cotton marketing and producing that were presented by Mr. Edelman at the Lions Club. I kind of got to wondering why some of these things seemed so fresh to the speaker, because we of the Farm Bureau have been advocating the program he talked about for the last several years, and he was cursing us and telling people they were crazy if they paid their dues in Farm Bureau.

This export program that he was telling about is the program made possible by what is called Public Law 490 which is the law that our legislative director Jack Lynn wrote and submitted to congress and the American Farm Bureau got passed several years ago. That is the one that lets the secretary of agriculture sell surplus products to foreign countries for their money, and then we can use that money to buy things they have that our country needs.

The National Cotton Council and Farm Bureau have been working together for a long time on getting cotton advertised and priced so it could keep synthetics from stealing our market and that is not new to most people. Farm Bureau is trying now to get congress to allow cotton producers to vote on a referendum that would let them decide whether they want the present acreage controls with high parity or more acres with a little less parity. We think the lower price would sell enough more cotton so we could plant more and make more net profit at a little lower price. Congress is studying this proposal.

I am glad that lots of folks that used to be against Farm Bureau in things like this have decided maybe it was right. I know that Farm Bureau makes some mistakes, but we would like for people that have fought us to give some credit to the outfit that thought up the ideas they think might be good. We are working on policies to be presented at the annual convention in October now, and anyone that has some good ideas about helping the farmer is welcome to tell us what they are, and maybe we can get them started to operating if a lot of other farmers think they are good too.

Yours truly,
Jack D. Patterson

Application Date Nears for Winter Wheat Reserve

Applications for the 1958 winter wheat acreage reserve, a part of the soil bank program, will be received beginning Monday, August 26, announces Prentice Mills, ASC office manager.

The payment for placing wheat acreage in the program has been substantially increased in Parmer County, owing to the increased average yield as farmers have more success with irrigation.

Last year's payments on irrigated acreage were at the rate of $11.90 an acre. This year they will be $20.32. Last year's dryland payments were $5.95 per acre, and in 1958 they will be $9.31 an acre. The payment is based on a 10-year production record. Parmer County this year greatly improved its average with the best year on record, yield-wise.

In 1957, slightly over 7,000 acres were placed in the reserve, and Mills expects the amount to increase for next year, "especially dryland." Parmer County has a wheat allotment of 107,000 acres.

Payments under the plan will be limited to $3,000 to any one producer. That limit will apply to all commodities. If a person places wheat in the acreage reserve and gets a payment of $3,000, he is not eligible to participate in the cotton acreage reserve.

A 10 percent premium will go to farmers who return the same land to the reserve in 1958 as they did the past year.

The deadline for making application is October 4.

Clyde Beardon, agronomist for J. R. McNeill of Spur, removes a tall "off" plant from a row of male pollinating plants. This is part of the roguing operations in producing hybrid grain sorghum. The grain sorghum is being grown for McNeill by Buddy Wiseman, north of Farwell near the state line. The plants shown here are Feterita, double-dwarf. They are being crossed with M. C. 36, male sterile, to form Texas 630. Latin American laborers do most of this type work, and a crew can cover about 50 acres a day.

A Parmer County Soil Conservation District banquet, an annual occasion, is piecing together as district leaders plan together. Proposed place for the banquet is Bovina, since Bovina has not been the site of the banquet for several years. As is customary, the banquet is held in different communities each year, except that last year the festivities were held in Friona for the second year in a row.

Definite arrangements are not complete. Preliminary plans include the selection of the outstanding Parmer County Farmer for 1957, and recognition of the winner of the soil conservation essay contest, conducted earlier this year.

A field day is being planned in connection with the other activities of the day.
