500 Expected For Legion Meeting

The 19th district American Legion convention will get underway Saturday, October 1, at 10 a.m., when registration at Veterans hall begins, according to Milton Bell, convention chairman. Five hundred Legion and auxiliary members are expected for the two-day assembly.

Saturday's program will include registration of members, caucuses and a tea Saturday afternoon for auxiliary members. A dance Saturday night will round out the first convention day.

A breakfast at the Esquire cafe for commanders, adjutants and service officers on Sunday morning will start off the day, with various committee meetings being held at 8:30 a.m. At 9:30 a.m., there will be a joint meeting of the Legion and auxiliary in charge of A. M. Muldrow, local post commander. Homer Winston will make the welcome address.

Main speakers at this session will be Coke Stevenson, former governor of Texas, and W. T. Bridges of Levelland, district commander.

The memorial service will be held by John H. Johns of O'Donnell, district chaplain, at 10:45 a.m.

At noon Sunday luncheon will be served at the hall by members of the local post.

Sunday afternoon will be filled with business meetings of both the Legion and auxiliary. High spots of the Legion meeting will be Texas American Legion Commander Joe Spurlock's report on the national convention, which was held in Philadelphia last month, and discussion of the Legion program for the coming year.

Mrs. L. B. Elliott of Colorado City, district auxiliary president, will be the main speaker for the ladies. The purpose of this meeting will be to lay plans for the expansion of the auxiliary program.

Other 19th district officials expected here for the convention, other than Bridges and Johns, are S. R. Heard of Petersburg, who is vice commander; Nelson Reinsch of Anton, adjutant; E. W. Boedecker, judge advocate, and Henry Buggs of Big Spring, sergeant-at-arms.

All local members of the American Legion and auxiliary are urged to participate in this convention.

Funeral Services Held For Calvin Johnson

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Wednesday at the Crescent Hill Church of Christ for Calvin Johnson, 61, who resided at 209 So. First street. Elder J. Chisholm officiated.

Johnson died at the McKinney veterans hospital Monday after being a patient there for the past month. He was a veteran of World War I.

A resident of Brownfield since 1935, Johnson owned the Johnson tourist camp.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Layland; two sisters, Mrs. Birdie Dunlap and Mrs. Willie Miller, both of Haskell, and three grandsons.

Brownfield funeral home took the body overland to Haskell for burial.

Pallbearers were members of the American Legion, of which Johnson was a member. He was also a member of the VFW.

Viola's Beauty Box Opened Wednesday

Viola's Beauty Box, formerly the Duchess Beauty Shop, opened for business Wednesday in its new location at 201 N. Sixth street.

Mrs. Viola Smith is owner of the shop, having purchased it from Gertrude in May, 1948. Miss Virgie Bowlin is operator at the Beauty Box.

The new location has recently been remodeled, and the interior has a grey, red and black color scheme.

Sheriff Murry Will Organize Club Here

There will be a meeting Monday, October 3, at 1 p.m. at the school building in Meadow for all boys between the ages of ten and 16 years who are interested in becoming members of the Terry County Junior Sheriff's league, according to Sheriff Ocie Murry. Murry asks that all boys who attend bring one or both of their parents to the meeting.

Electric Flashers Put Up At Crossings

Installation of electric highway crossing flashers on the east and west side of the Plains highway crossing was completed last Saturday by a special Santa Fe railway installation crew.

The flashers, which were put up by the Santa Fe railway and Texas highway department as a traffic safety measure, are being installed all over Texas.

MELVIN DIXON NEW MANAGER OF STORE

Melvin Dixon assumed his duties last week as manager of the Fair store. He has been in the clothing business for four years, and was assistant manager of the Fair up until last week.

He and his family have been in Brownfield for four months.

ESA's Toss Hat Into Harvest Queen Race

At a regular meeting of the Beta Theta chapter of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha Tuesday evening, members voted to run Margaret Goza as their candidate for harvest festival queen.

This will be nothing new to ESA members, who ran Glenna Winston, 1947 harvest festival queen. Other candidates in the race are Elizabeth Jo Anthony, who is sponsored by the American Legion, and Ann Snedeker, who is sponsored by the Lions club.

School Carnival To Be October 28

Members of the Jessie G. Randall Parent-Teachers association are making plans for the school carnival, which will be held Friday, October 28, according to Mrs. Leonard Chessier, president of the PTA.

This year, it is hoped that the carnival will be much bigger than before. Each room will have a booth or project, such as bingo, ring toss, horseshoe pitching, cake walk and grab box, and a cafe will be set up.

Mrs. James Warren is in charge of entertainment.

Expansion Program At Teague-Bailey

Teague-Bailey Chevrolet company has leased the building and purchased the equipment of Burrow Motor company, located at 112 So. Fourth street, it was announced Tuesday.

The building will house the body and paint department of Teague-Bailey, with Ragan Reed acting as manager.

New equipment has been added and the department is now open for business under the name, Teague-Bailey Body shop.

All repairs are still being done in the original business across the street. Johnnie Venable is manager.

Meanwhile, the office being constructed on the Teague-Bailey used car lot, located at 300 West Broadway, is nearing completion.

John Jennings, Clyde Bond and George Martin, used car salesmen, hope to be open for business within three weeks.

Owners of Teague-Bailey Chevrolet company are J. M. (Buddy) Teague and Jack Bailey.

Jack Bailey Heads March of Dimes Drive

Terry-Youakum county chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis received from the national headquarters of the March of Dimes organization yesterday a check for $1975 to assist in payment of local polio patients' medical care, it was announced today by Jack Bailey, chapter chairman.

The money was requested from the emergency epidemic aid fund because the local chapter, which retains 50 per cent of March of Dimes proceeds each year for financial assistance to polio patients whose families cannot pay full costs unaided, has run out of funds.

So far this year, national headquarters has advanced $5,518,164, 05 to chapters as a result of increased incidence of infantile paralysis plus a heavy carry-over of cases from 1948, year of highest incidence since 1916, Bailey said.

Terry-Youakum county chapter is presently providing funds for the care, in whole or in part, of eight patients stricken this year, and also is continuing to pay costs of care for six patients stricken in former years.

Williams Electric Open For Business

Melvin Ray, formerly of Levelland, has assumed his duties as manager of Williams Electric, located at 220 S. First, Mrs. J. W. Williams, owner of the business, said this week.

Ray, who has had years of experience in this line, is married and has a family.

NEGRO WOUNDED IN KNIFE FIGHT

Frank Loyd, colored, was arrested early Sunday morning after a cutting fray that sent Willie Campbell to a hospital with severe gashes on the left arm and chest.

Loyd pled guilty to an aggravated assault charge and was released after paying a fine.

Campbell is in a Roswell hospital.

LIONS CLUB CHOICE

The Brownfield Lions club has selected Miss Ann Snedeker as candidate for their Harvest Queen. Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Snedeker of Brownfield. The chosen girl is an outstanding senior of the Brownfield high school class. She is very active in school socials and activities, and is well liked by the student body.

K. D. Snedeker, father of Ann, is manager of Kobe, Inc., for the West Texas area.

Army Officials Here To Discuss Air Show

Gillham To Head Warm Springs Drive

Governor Allen Shivers has announced that J. O. Gillham, president of the Brownfield State Bank & Trust company, has accepted chairmanship of this county's committee to raise funds for the Gonzales Warm Springs foundation. Gov. Shivers is general chairman of the state-wide campaign committee. In urging Gillham to accept the chairmanship for Terry county, the governor wrote:

"Texas needs to provide more facilities at this great treatment center and more money to insure its operation on a vastly enlarged scale."

Directors of the foundation are proud that the state's own Warm Springs foundation for treatment and re-education of the physically handicapped is a truly Texas institution which was built and has been operated through contributions from every county. "Big-hearted Texans are not stinting their efforts to provide the best in treatment facilities for our small children and our young men and women who are crippled by poliomyelitis and other diseases," states Ross Boothe, president of the foundation's board of directors.

"We are pleased to have Mr. Gillham serve as chairman of the Terry county committee for the foundation campaign," Boothe declared. "We know that all the volunteer committee workers will join with the governor to make this a highly successful project."

Jack Blackwell, executive secretary of the board of directors, points out that this summer's epidemic of poliomyelitis has filled to capacity all the foundation units. "Our greatest regret at this time is that we cannot accept all who apply for treatment due to lack of space. Although our development committee, headed by Hulon Black of Austin, has increased our capacity from 110 to 130 beds through emergency measures, we must still turn away a number of children who could be benefitted by the skilled treatment provided at Gonzales Warm Springs."

Several automobile dealers in Brownfield have recently set up used car lots adjoining or near their businesses. Bowman Motor company completed their lot several weeks ago, and Les Short is now in charge of the lot.

Teague-Bailey's lot is being completed and will be ready for business at 300 W. Broadway in three weeks.

Ross Motor company has set up a lot at the corner of Broadway and South Eighth street, and an office is under construction at the present time. Walter Hord, manager of Ross Motor, has not announced the names of personnel for the lot. The former used car lot is now being used for customers' parking lot.

Tudor Sales company is also setting up a lot on South Seventh street. L.M. Pace will be in charge of the lot.

Legion Auxiliary Set For District Meeting

Twenty-three members of the American Legion auxiliary met at Veterans hall Tuesday night to make final plans for the 19th district convention which will be held here this week end. Mrs. Mon Telford, president, presided.

Two delegates, Mrs. Telford and Mrs. Eldora White, and an alternate, Mrs. Harry Cornelius, were elected to represent this auxiliary at the convention.

Members also voted to send a Brownfield girl to Girls' State at Austin in the spring.

The next meeting will be held October 13.

FORMER PASTOR NOW PRESIDENT OF COLLEGE

The former pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Brownfield was named recently to the presidency of the College of the Ozarks in Clarksville, Ark. He is Dr. Fred A. Walker, who served as pastor of the Brownfield church from 1935 to 1942.

A native Texan, Dr. Walker has served as acting head of the institution since September 1, following the resignation of Dr. W. L. Hurie. He has been vice president of the college for more than a year.

Automobile Dealers Open Used Car Lots

Several automobile dealers in Brownfield have recently set up used car lots adjoining or near their businesses. Bowman Motor company completed their lot several weeks ago, and Les Short is now in charge of the lot.

Teague-Bailey's lot is being completed and will be ready for business at 300 W. Broadway in three weeks.

Ross Motor company has set up a lot at the corner of Broadway and South Eighth street, and an office is under construction at the present time. Walter Hord, manager of Ross Motor, has not announced the names of personnel for the lot. The former used car lot is now being used for customers' parking lot.

Tudor Sales company is also setting up a lot on South Seventh street. L.M. Pace will be in charge of the lot.

RICHARD KIRSCHNER ENTERS COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

Martin Kirschner, member of the firm of Kirschner chain of dry good stores, was over this week, and informed us that he had moved to Lubbock, and a manager had taken his place in the Lamesa store.

He also informed us that his son, Richard, who attended Texas university last year, had entered Columbia university, New York, this year. He is majoring to be a motion picture producer.

A guy has to make a high grade to get into Columbia.

Three members of the 81st fighter wing of the army air force at Albuquerque, N.M., were in Brownfield Tuesday, for the purpose of making final plans for the jet fly-over exhibition that will be staged just before the big parade starts off the harvest festival activities here Wednesday, October 19. James Harley Dallas, program chairman, and Clovis Kendrick, president of the Rotary club, met with the men.

Lt. Col. Phillip M. Rasmussen, spokesman for the group, and Lt. Walter A. Lasek and Lt. Anton Schoepke said that a team of four F-86 jet-propelled planes will begin their show at 10:40 a.m.

The F-86, a North American product, holds the world's record of 660 miles per hour. Although both the army and navy have acrobatic jet teams, the festival show will not be an acrobatic show. This will be a regular training mission for the four pilots who stage the exhibition, Col. Rasmussen said.

He also asked Dallas to stress that there should be no other craft in the air at the time of the show. Due to the extremely high speed at which jets travel, this is a precaution that must be observed for the safety of pilots of jets and small aircraft, as well as spectators. Rasmussen said that unless the air was clear of craft, the exhibition would have to be cancelled.

All Out For The Cub Field Friday Night

The Cub fans that journeyed all the way to Big Spring last Friday night to see the home team hopelessly whipped were just about as badly disappointed as was the Steer fans. After the dose administered by a class A Pecos team, most fans expected most any kind of scare to be registered at the Big Spring battle ground.

On the other hand, it was a rather seesaw game and at times it looked as if the Cubs had the game sewed up, and only a costly error gave the Steers the lead. The final gun probably saved the day for the Steers, as the Cubs were nearing the goal post as the game ended.

Friday night under the lights, the Cubs will be entertaining the strong Ysleta team from near El Paso. We have been told this team of nearly all Latin-Americans are tough 'hombres, and the Cubs, while preparing to give 'em all they have, are not in the least over-confident enough to throw the game away.

If you are a football fan, you will not want to miss this game. Better get your ticket early, or better still, buy a season ticket and help whoop it up for the FIGHTING CUBS.

Terry Pool Gets Second Producer

Second Pennsylvania producer for the Mound Lake pool of Terry county was indicated Monday by the Seaboard Oil company No. 2 Hinson, section 91, block 4-X, psi survey, half-mile south offset to the discovery.

Tested in the canyon lime, the No. 2 Hinson showed gas at the surface in nine minutes and mud and oil in one hour and 50 minutes. (Turn to Page 8, Please)

DISCHARGED FROM SERVICE

Cpl. Bruce E. Thomas, Brownfield, has been discharged from the military service.

He had been stationed with the 141st General Hospital at Brooke General Hospital, Brooke Army Medical Center, Fort Sam Houston, one of the largest and most complete medical installations in the world.

Junior Deputy Sheriff League Planned Here

All boys between the ages of ten and 16 years are asked to meet in the county court room at 4:30 p.m. Friday (today) for the purpose of organizing a Junior Deputy Sheriff's league in Brownfield. Sheriff Ocie Murry will be in charge of the meeting.

The only requirement for attending this meeting is that at least one, or preferably both, of the parents of the boys must accompany them.

The Junior Deputy Sheriff's league is sponsored by the National Sheriff's association. Its chief purpose is to acquaint the youth with the functions of local government and law enforcement; to prevent accidents in traffic, in water and with firearms; to instruct in popular sports and safe driving of automobiles; to stimulate an interest for the choice of a later career, and to make good sports and good citizens of all the youth.

Upon becoming a member of the organization, each boy is given an identification card and badge. There are to be chief deputies over three age groups: boys ten to 12 years of age, boys 12 to 14 years of age, and boys 14 to 16 years of age. The program will include special activities, such as first aid, traffic safety, firearms, all sports, safe driving of automobiles and contests; and special juvenile police work. After the club has been organized, Sheriff Murry hopes to take the boys on field trips, letting them work on special problems.

There are only five junior deputy sheriff's leagues in Texas, the nearest being at Amarillo and Post. Sheriff Murry urges that all boys interested in becoming members of the local league attend Friday's meeting.

FIGGLY WIGGLY INSTALLS NEW SHOPPING CARTS

A large number of the latest type shopping carts or wagons, whatever you want to call them, have been installed at the Piggly Wiggly.

One convenience of the new cart is that it saves much room in parking them, as they telescope, taking about one-fourth as much room as the old style carts.

On the other hand, it was a rather seasaw game and at times it looked as if the Cubs had the game sewed up, and only a costly error gave the Steers the lead. The final gun probably saved the day for the Steers, as the Cubs were nearing the goal post as the game ended.

Friday night under the lights, the Cubs will be entertaining the strong Ysleta team from near El Paso. We have been told this team of nearly all Latin-Americans are tough hombres, and the Cubs, while preparing to give 'em all they have, are not in the least over-confident enough to throw the game away.

If you are a football fan, you will not want to miss this game. Better get your ticket early, or better still, buy a season ticket and help whoop it up for the FIGHTING CUBS.

Terry Pool Gets Second Producer

Second Pennsylvania producer for the Mound Lake pool of Terry county was indicated Monday by the Seaboard Oil company No. 2 Hinson, section 91, block 4-X, psi survey, half-mile south offset to the discovery.

Tested in the canyon lime, the No. 2 Hinson showed gas at the surface in nine minutes and mud and oil in one hour and 50 minutes. (Turn to Page 8, Please)

Jaycees File Project Request For Airport

A preliminary project request was filed with the CAA Monday, according to David Nicholson, head of a Jaycee committee working toward improving airport facilities in Brownfield.

The request, given authority by the county court and by County Judge Homer Winston, does not obligate the county in any way, yet will make it possible for Brownfield to be included in the 1950 federal airport program.

Under the present program, the federal government will provide funds for almost half of the proposed $75,000 airport, including buying the site. The request is for a class 2 airport, which will provide for a landing strip up to 4,000 feet long. With such a landing strip, airplanes as large as DC-3's can be accommodated, thus making it possible to make the city of Brownfield a feeder line to large commercial lines.

Nicholson said that his committee would submit a proposal to city officials in the hope that they too would file a request, thus making the airport a city-county project.

Other civic organizations in Brownfield have pledged support to the Jaycees and are working with them.

Nicholson's committee members are John Kendrick and Conrad Vernon.

Stricklinly Speaking

By OLD HE

We have an idea that the government of the U.S. will never bring suit against the Connecticut lady because she refuses to be the tax assessor-collector of Uncle Sam without pay. If there is still any justice, the government knows they will lose the case.

Of course, the lady helps each one of her employees make out their assessments, but has them to send it in themselves. The collector of internal revenue at Hartford has to do his duty, and has harassed and coerced the lady in every way imaginable. Some have been talking about the state rule from Washington. We already have it just the same as Stalin's Russia.

There is some good in the worst of us and some bad in the best of us. But we have seen a few people in our time that would express the opinion that all negroes are bad; all Irish shiftless; all Scotch stingy, and all Jews Shylocks. And we might add that some think all Anglo-Americans are wasteful and braggards.

It is true that a lot of us have room for improvement, and one of the biggest improvements should be that we learn to first examine ourselves and be a bit less critical of others.

Those of us who remember the late Judge W. R. Spencer will recall that we never heard of him demeaning anyone, no matter how sorry the might seem to others. Once when a bunch of friends were panning a guy as a thief, liar and just about everything else, the judge remarked: "He's sure a good shot with a rifle."

In this connection there used to be a lot more religious prejudice than presently. If you happened not to be a member of the other fellow's church, he almost looked down on you as a renegade—lost and without hope. And if your church happened to have a nickname, that was what was used.

It seems that Editor Morris of Ropes just don't want to understand us. Among the other civil laws we mentioned in Bible times, was the Law of Moses, which was part civil and part religious, but given by inspiration from Jehovah and under which the Jewish race lived from the wilderness until a while before Christ's birth. During His time on earth, He was partly under the Jewish Sanhedrin and the Roman civil laws.

But we have never read that either Christ or any of His apostles condemned the civil laws as unjust, although they carried the death penalty. Some, at least of the apostles suffered death on the cross, which was the Roman form of execution, while stoning seemed to be the Jewish method when Israel was a nation. In all instances, the apostles exhorted their converts to Christianity to be subject and obedient to the laws of the land under which they lived. They were not commies.

We know that sometimes Jehovah ordered the Jewish nation to utterly destroy nearby nations, even the women and children and all the livestock. One was the case of King Saul and the Philistines. He was severely rebuked by the prophet Samuel because he brought back from Jerusalem some of the fattest of the flocks. From our reading of the old Bible particularly, we gather that the nations at that time were in a constant warlike uproar, with murder, war, rapine, rape and such going on just as at present.

Let us get right here that we have nothing against Editor Morris or any other person for taking a pacifist view. But until the millennium, whatever that means, we don't look for such.

A subscriber out at San Jose, Calif., says that she liked our article about the naming of Meadow a few weeks ago. She owns some land just north of Meadow. Now, she and her lawyer are interested about how Terry county got its name, which was answered on a postcard she sent for that purpose. But for the benefit of others, we give the following short explanation.

Terry county was named for Col. Benjamin Franklin Terry, a noted Texas ranger in the early days of Texas statehood. When the war between the states came on, Col. Frank Terry organized a company generally known as Terry's Rangers, and we have been informed, were with Gen. Albert Sidney Johnston in the battles of Shiloh, Tenn., and Corinth, Miss., and possibly others.

These rangers left their mark back east of the Mississippi river, as we heard many of their old ranger and cowboy songs when just a lad that folks had learned from these Texans. We know that the older boys of our family used to go down a few miles where

Westex Offers Fine Woolen Mill Sites

LUBBOCK, Sept.—The advantages of West Texas as a site for wool textile manufacturing are stressed in a new bulletin released by the Texas Technological college research committee.

Titled "Wool Textile Industry Survey for West Texas," the bulletin was prepared for the West Texas-Santa Fe industrial committee of the West Texas chamber of commerce, Abilene. Its main purpose is to point out desirable plant locations in West Texas near the source of raw materials.

"It is not intended as a definite instruction for locating a specific mill in a given locality," the committee points out. Rather, it is aimed at presenting the broad picture to the woolen industry.

In support of its contention, the committee cites the 1947 wool production figures, which show that 25 per cent of the total clip came from West Texas. Of this, 95 per cent was of "the highest quality combing wool," the committee says.

"West Texas is strategically located in that it is not far south of the center of the United States," the report continues. "It is nearer to the farm west, southwest and far west markets than is the north eastern section. Its location should enable it to take advantage of the South American markets."

The bulletin also points out the location of the only textile engineering school west of the Mississippi river at Texas Technological college.

Besides location, the bulletin also mentions the favorable labor supply, transportation facilities and taxation program which make the West Texas area attractive to manufacturing concerns.

Andy Sain batched before he married. At the outbreak of the uncivil war, the folks at home knew Andy's age, and while overgrown in size, refused to take him. But when the rangers came, they didn't know or didn't care about Andrew's age. They took him.

It was in order to hear those old ranger songs that they would go to Andrew's "bachelor hall" to hear him sing them. When we were a small lad almost everyone knew "Come All You Texas Rangers," etc., as well as "Bury Me Not on the Lone Prairie," and numerous others, around our section of west Tennessee.

Anyway, the lady told us that there was a case in courts of California about 1860 that involved a Texan named Terry. Of course, the writer knows nothing about that case. Could have been a relative of Col. Frank. But we have known a lot of Terrys that so far as they knew were no kin to the famous Texas ranger, Frank Terry.

A-BOMB MADE OBSOLETE BY GERM WEAPONS

ST. CERGUE, Switzerland, September 9, (AP)—Deadly bacteriological weapons have made the atom bomb obsolete, Dr. Brock Chisholm, director general of the World Health Organization, said Friday.

"The time has now come when men's ability to kill man has become so terrific that he threatens his own survival," Dr. Chisholm told the World Union of Peace Organizations.

The health chief declared that scientists have discovered one substance so deadly that seven ounces of it is sufficient to kill all the people in the world if sufficiently distributed.

A state-wide group, the Committee is opposing Constitutional Amendment 2 in the Nov. 8 election claiming its passage would result in a greatly increased tax burden without improving the efficiency of the Legislature. Amendment 2, by raising legislators' pay and providing for annual sessions, would increase state taxes more than $2,500,000 biannually, the Committee says.

Economic Highlights

The investigation of the Washington "five-percenters" is out of the headlines, at least for the time being, but the chances are that it will be a long time before it is out of the public mind. Most of the commentators and editorialists said that, even though nothing actually illegal was unearthed, the inquiry had disclosed a shocking state of affairs, whereby many business men couldn't get to first base in negotiations with government bureaus without employing a man who had or pretended to have influence in high places.

All the five-percenter has to sell is influence. He impresses his prospective clients with talk about all the big men he knows intimately. Usually, his office walls will be covered with autographed pictures of senators, representatives, judges, cabinet members and, if he is lucky, the president himself. Pictures of this sort are easy to get in Washington—most of the presidents, for instance, have given away bushels of signed photos of themselves. If the prospect bites, the five-percenter generally works on retainer fees, monthly payments, and a percentage of whatever contracts they are able to obtain. Sometimes they succeed and sometimes they don't. The top operators in the business, who really did have influence and knew their way around the labyrinth that is the government, made very large sums of money with a minimum of effort.

It is probable that the investigation has put at least a partial damper on this novel profession. But the situation that brought the five-percenters into existence—and that, in many cases, made his services essential to business men—remains. It lies in the incredible amount of red tape that has been built up within the government, and in an endless maze of rules and regulations and policies and protocol that no outsider can possibly understand or penetrate without aid.

It is the small and middle-sized business which is hurt the most by all this. The big enterprises have lawyers and other experts who can follow the most winding legal paths. The smaller operator hasn't got these services and he can't afford them. So very naturally, he listens when someone comes to him with a story of being able to wangle a contract, or negotiate settlement, or do something else he wants.

Most observers think the five-percenter should be eliminated from the national scene. And they feel that the best way to do that is to eliminate the causes within the government which make his existence possible.

SNAKES BRING MILK TO NEEDY CHILDREN

Cotton snakes are benevolent reptiles down in Memphis, Tenn. These cotton "snakes" however, bear no resemblance to the slithering, fanged creatures with the poisonous bites. In the language of cotton men, snakes are the bundles of loose cotton collected from classing room sweepings. Memphis cotton merchants are donating their snakes to the city's Cynthia Milk fund, which supplies milk to needy children.

How Not To Get More Doctors

One of the most absurd arguments used in support of compulsory government health insurance is that it would help to cure the doctor shortage.

A 1948 report of the World Medical association discloses that the United States has more doctors in proportion to population than any nation which has adopted socialized or regimented medicine—and in most cases we lead by a very wide margin. Furthermore, we have more doctors in proportion to population than any other nation in the world save for little Palestine, where there are great numbers of refugee Jewish physicians from Central Europe.

It is true that even this country needs more doctors—there are serious shortages in some sections, just as there are shortages of other desirable services and facilities. But it is impossible to see how placing the medical profession under what would amount to political domination would do anything but make the situation worse. It takes ten years or more of arduous and expensive training to become a doctor. Would young men find the profession more attractive if they knew they would occupy much the same status as civil servants, that advancement would depend largely on political favoritism, and that, in time, they might actually find themselves part of a completely socialized medical system? The obvious answer to that is an unqualified "no." Measured by either the qualitative or the quantitative yardstick, the medical standards of the United States are unequalled in any comparable nation.

Sees Small Farmers Gradually Eliminated

In conversation with a prominent citizen recently, he stated that he believed the farmer that insisted on working a quarter section or less would be gradually eliminated in this area. To say the least, that is a sad jolt, as most of the farm homes will be moved to town and there will be few if any dairy stocks, hogs and chickens produced in the county.

But it is working that way. Some of the farmers are gradually expanding and are now working several sections, while the small farmer is moving to town or elsewhere. There are not as many farms in Terry as ten or even 20 years ago. But they are much bigger.

Our informant went on to say that farm operations on the big scale that payed off cost from ten to 14 thousand dollars to operate, and that the small man just could not get that much money to farm with.

Cotton Defoliation Helps Maturing

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. — Cotton has made exceptionally good growth in most sections of the state this year. Right along with a heavier set of bolls there has been rank growth of leaves. Many cotton growers are turning their attention to cotton defoliation—that is, making chemicals to make the leaves fall off so cotton will mature faster and be easier to pick.

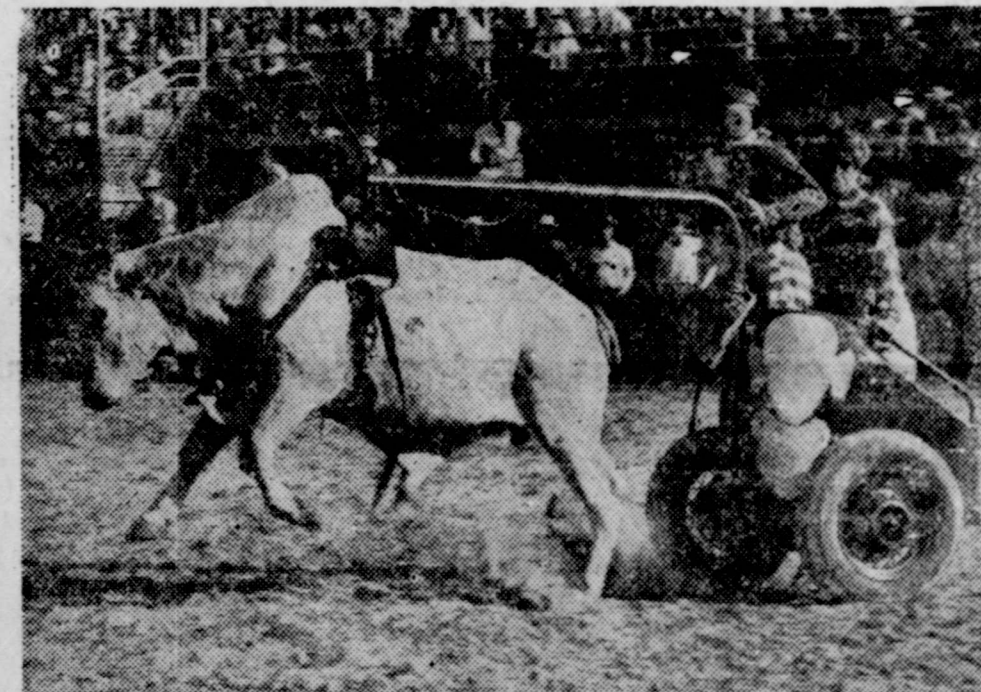

The chemical which has been used the longest and has given good results is freely ground cyanamid, according to M. K. Thornton, extension agricultural chemist of the Texas A&M college system.

Thornton says cotton should be dusted with calcium cyanamid at the rate of 30 to 35 pounds per acre. It can be dusted from airplanes or with ground dusting machines. The dust must stick to the leaves in order to get good defoliation. Early in the morning, while dew is still on the leaves, is a good time to dust, says Thornton, or after a rain while the air is still moist. He adds that defoliation is likely to be a failure if dusting is done during extremely dry weather or when there is no dew on the cotton leaves.

A spray of ammonium thiocyanate dissolved in water and applied at the rate of ten pounds per acre gives good results in drier sections of the state. This spray has not been tested thoroughly under Texas conditions and therefore cannot be definitely relied upon.

Wellman School News

One of the highlights of events has just taken place at the Wellman high school. The candidates for membership in the Wellman FHA chapter were formally and informally initiated the past week.

Tuesday, September 20, each new member had to bow and say the FHA creed when asked. On Wednesday, they had to wear a colorful apron and sell pencils. If a girl failed to sell her pencil, she had to help sweep out the hall with a toothbrush. On Thursday, they were required to know the eight purposes of FHA, to carry an egg beater and wear a hair ribbon. If a girl failed to do this, they were marched up and down the hall with a book on top of their head.

The new members felt that they received their just reward for this informal initiation when they became full pledged members of the Wellman FHA chapter in a formal service held in the dining room of the Wellman high school September 23. At this service the girls were formally initiated into the Wellman FHA chapter. The new members are Joyce Bruce, Rae Nell Liles, Mary Jo Caldwell, Louise Ballard, Alice Sparkman, Margie Graham, Patsy Hyman, Frances Gibson, Carolyn Adams, Anna Fay Abbott, Vida Mae Moffitt, Joy Boyd, Eileen Bloyd, Joyce Bryant, Beth Golden, Bernalene Zachary, Wanda Smith, Esta Fae Beavers, Montez Smith, Cherry Lee Johnson, Delphend Wright, Peggy Jane Foust and Jaynelle Brown.

The club officers, club mothers and club advisor bid them a warm welcome.

SEVENTY CENTS FOR CIGS

If you buy a pack of cigarettes in England, they'll cost you about 70 cents. A glass of beer involves an outlay of 30 cents or so. If you are lucky enough to be able to find bacon or butter, the price tag will stagger you. So it is with everything—save for the barest necessities, such as bread and turnips, and cheap grades of clothing and other manufactured goods.

The reason is that the British government establishes the price for which goods may be sold. There is no need for the producer or the retailers to try to do a better job than the next man, and to sell cheaper, or to offer a better quality, or to work at other consumer inducements. In a controlled economy, the political bosses make the decisions, and the rest of the people can choose between liking it and lumping it.

The British government has es-

Freedom Goes Where The Newspaper Goes

Beginning Saturday, October 1, and ending Saturday, October 8, will be National Newspaper week. Too many of us Americans look upon our newspaper as just a matter of fact. We fail to delve deeper into the significance of freedom of the press. Let this fact dwell deeply in our minds: "Freedom Goes Where The Newspaper Goes."

Let us just suppose for an instance that some one here in Brownfield, or at Austin or Washington, could tell the local newspapers just what or what they could not print. That every line and every word that goes into the local papers could be censored by some august official with authority to close the newspaper plant if they refused to comply. Where would YOUR freedom be?

Is it merely an accident that those countries that have a free press also have a free people? Most Americans realize that it is more than coincidence. They have learned that the right of newspapers to seek out and publish the truth without fear or reprisal is their only opportunity to know the facts on which they may exercise their freedom of choice. This is the essence of true Democracy.

Rediscover Your Home Town. Freedom of choice starts where people live and work. There have been vast changes in the past decade... not only in the world and nation, but in our home town. And more are on the way. Read your home-town newspaper with care—the advertising as well as the news columns—discover the freedom of choice that promises you a happier, a more abundant life, right here in Brownfield and its vast trade area.

JIMMY WOOD ATTENDS MEETING AT DETROIT

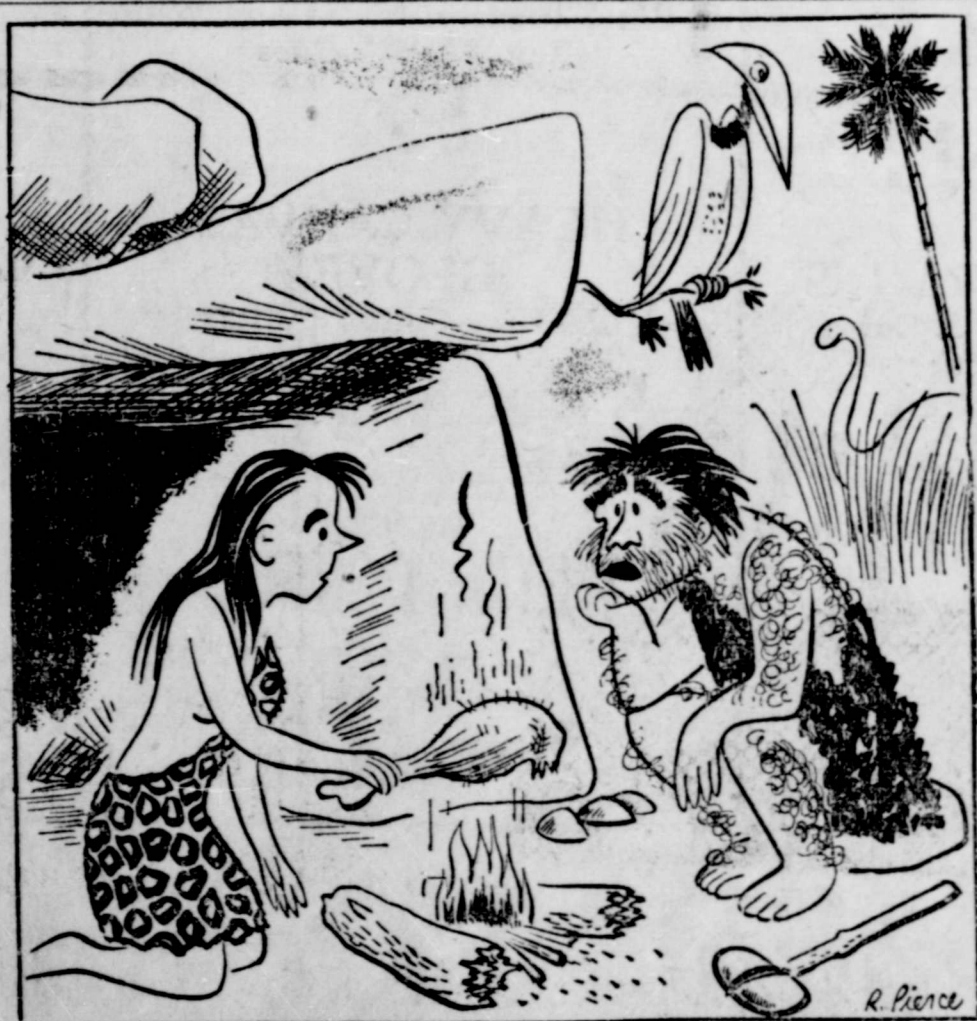

Jimmy Wood, minister of the Crescent Hill Church of Christ, left this week for Detroit, Mich., where a business meeting will be held. Presumably the meeting will be in connection with the work of the churches in Italy, and particularly the Fruscati orphan home in that country which the churches in America are supporting.

Bob Simmons attended a family reunion in Albuquerque, N.M., over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewel H. Scott and Mrs. M. M. Scott attended a football game in Odessa Saturday between Odessa junior college and San Angelo junior college. Joe Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Scott, is a member of the Odessa team.

Established high prices on a long list of items because it wants to make a tremendous profit—which it does. In a free economy, by contrast, the man who tries to gain such a profit is hell-bent for bankruptcy. His business will go to other manufacturers or, in the case of retailing, to other stores. A compelling example of what competition does is found in the fact that, as a general rule, the profits now earned by retailers on each dollar of business done is smaller than it was in the OPA era.

No nation has ever had abundance—save for the inner few—under a controlled economy. All it gets is more and more scarcity.

Eunice, N.M., Stages Appreciation Day

Citizens of Eunice, N.M., staged an "Industrial Appreciation Day" September 24, by giving a free barbecue at the high school football field for a crowd of 3,500 people.

The recent completion of two gasoline cracking plants near Eunice, the Gulf Oil plant, which is one of the most modern in the nation, and the ten-million-dollar Skelly Oil company plant No. 2, occasioned the celebration.

At a program held at 5 p.m., officials of all the major oil companies were introduced. Phillip H. Bohart of Tulsa, Okla., assistant vice president of the Gulf Oil company, was the main speaker. Also on the program was the 42-piece high school band, which is under the direction of Oran Bartholomew.

Eunice is situated over the richest oil deposits yet discovered in New Mexico. Located near the town are four gasoline cracking plants, three carbon black plants, and one of the main cleaning and pressuring plants of the El Paso Natural Gas company. The school district is one of the richest in New Mexico. At the present time a $625,000 additional gymnasium, laboratory, lunch rooms, and classrooms are being added to the school plant. At its completion, Eunice will have a million-dollar school system.

Members of the Rotary club were chiefly responsible for staging the celebration. Program director was C. H. Conway, superintendent of schools, and master of ceremonies was Rufus Walker, minister of the Methodist church. Other committee heads were F. H. Bowden, finance; Dr. Benjamin Barzune, food; and J. R. Green, arrangements. F. F. Hardison is president of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cooper and children visited his sister, Mrs. Clifton Hamilton, and Mr. Hamilton in Wilson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Greenfield of Plainview visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Scott over the week end.

Mrs. O. L. Jones spent the week end in Lubbock with her sister, Mrs. J. O. Green, who underwent major surgery in a Lubbock hospital last week.

Friends and relatives.

Freddie Huckabee left Sunday for Fort Worth after spending the past month with his mother, Mrs. Bernice Huckabee, and other relatives.

SEVENTY CENTS FOR CIGS

If you buy a pack of cigarettes in England, they'll cost you about 70 cents. A glass of beer involves an outlay of 30 cents or so. If you are lucky enough to be able to find bacon or butter, the price tag will stagger you. So it is with everything—save for the barest necessities, such as bread and turnips, and cheap grades of clothing and other manufactured goods.

The reason is that the British government establishes the price for which goods may be sold. There is no need for the producer or the retailers to try to do a better job than the next man, and to sell cheaper, or to offer a better quality, or to work at other consumer inducements. In a controlled economy, the political bosses make the decisions, and the rest of the people can choose between liking it and lumping it.

Freedom Goes Where The Newspaper Goes

Beginning Saturday, October 1, and ending Saturday, October 8, will be National Newspaper week. Too many of us Americans look upon our newspaper as just a matter of fact. We fail to delve deeper into the significance of freedom of the press. Let this fact dwell deeply in our minds: "Freedom Goes Where The Newspaper Goes."

Let us just suppose for an instance that some one here in Brownfield, or at Austin or Washington, could tell the local newspapers just what or what they could not print. That every line and every word that goes into the local papers could be censored by some august official with authority to close the newspaper plant if they refused to comply. Where would YOUR freedom be?

Is it merely an accident that those countries that have a free press also have a free people? Most Americans realize that it is more than coincidence. They have learned that the right of newspapers to seek out and publish the truth without fear or reprisal is their only opportunity to know the facts on which they may exercise their freedom of choice. This is the essence of true Democracy.

Rediscover Your Home Town Freedom of choice starts where people live and work. There have been vast changes in the past decade... not only in the world and nation, but in our home town. And more are on the way. Read your home-town newspaper with care—the advertising as well as the news columns—discover the freedom of choice that promises you a happier, a more abundant life, right here in Brownfield and its vast trade area.

Edwin Hamm and his brother, Wilburn, were here last week visiting their mother who was very ill at the local hospital. Both live in the San Diego section of California. They paid The Herald a short call while here. We regret to report that Henry Chisholm has been suffering an attack of pneumonia. He is reported to be improving.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Kendrick and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cunningham of Yoakum county left Monday for a few days stay in El Paso. Hope they have a nice trip, even though they asked us nothing about leaving.

JIMMY WOOD ATTENDS MEETING AT DETROIT Jimmy Wood, minister of the Crescent Hill Church of Christ, left this week for Detroit, Mich., where a business meeting will be held.

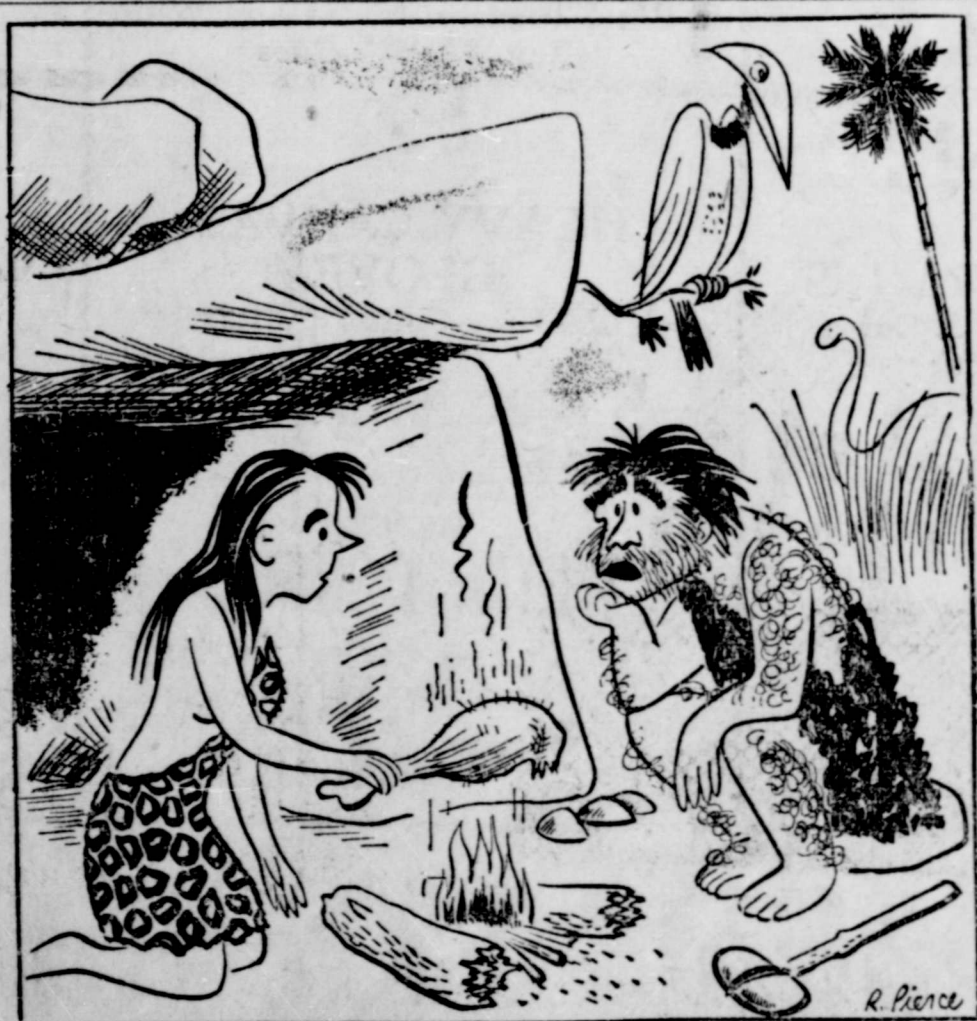

Presumably the meeting will be in connection with the work of the churches in Italy, and particularly the Fruscati orphan home in that country which the churches in America are supporting.

Bob Simmons attended a family reunion in Albuquerque, N.M., over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewel H. Scott and Mrs. M. M. Scott attended a football game in Odessa Saturday between Odessa junior college and San Angelo junior college. Joe Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Scott, is a member of the Odessa team.

Keep The Stock Off A Little Longer

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. — The reduction of livestock numbers in all sections of the state coupled with fairly good moisture conditions made it possible for many ranchmen and stock farmers to practice deferred grazing on much pasture land in the state this year. This is the pay-off season, says A. H. Walker, extension range specialist of Texas A&M college, and he recommends that grazing be withheld for another month or two to give the grasses a chance to mature their seed.

In some areas the preferred grasses have already made seed, but in others, they are making seed right now. He says give the elements a chance to shatter and distribute the seed first. If you permit grazing too soon, chances are good that you may lose what you have gained.

The choice is up to the individual producer as to whether he will grow the high producing good grasses or the low producing poor ones, says Walker. The essentials of good range management must be practiced to get the job done, and it takes time.

By balancing the livestock with range forage production, deferred grazing, proper salt and water distribution and other management factors, more range livestock producers are finding that it pays to grow the good grasses, says Walker.

The good grasses will produce from two to five times as much forage as the poor invaders, and he says that the more pounds of good grass you can grow per acre will mean more pounds of meat per acre.

It takes grass to grow grass. From one-third to one-half must be left for maintenance of the

VA Announces GI Life Insurance Scale

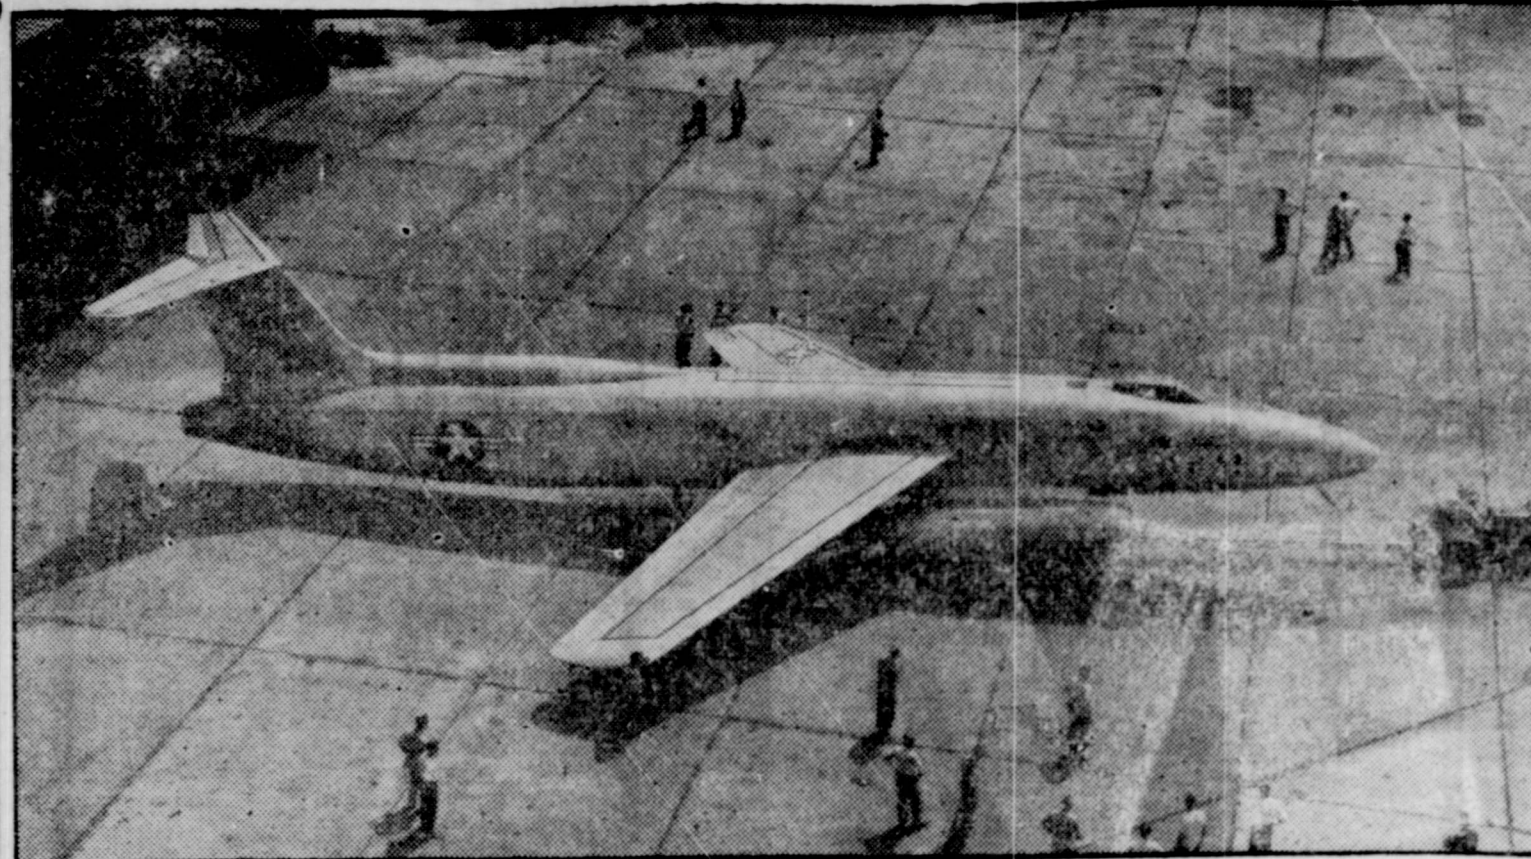

The Veterans Administration's first calculations on amounts proposed to be paid nearly 16,000,000 veterans in the $2.8 billion special National Service life insurance dividend have been received by the Veterans Administration regional office at Lubbock this week, Robert W. Sisson, manager, has announced.

Maximum possible amount that any veteran can receive will be $528. Other payments, based on age groups, will run to lesser sums. The dividend will be paid on both term and converted insurance policies, and will be paid only for the period that the policy was in force prior to the policy anniversary in 1948. No payments will be made for periods of lapse, it was emphasized.

According to Carl R. Gray, Jr., administrator of veterans affairs, the estimated rate of the dividend was arrived at after long actuarial studies, and that the rate of payment will be the same for both term and converted policies, as the dividend is based on mortality savings since there are no excess interest savings.

In arriving at the dividend scale, standard insurance practices were followed, whereby dividends on a life insurance policy represent a return to the insured of the excess of premiums over the amounts required to pay claims and set up necessary reserves. This is not necessarily proportional to the premium paid.

While portions of the premium originally estimated, as necessary to pay claims may turn out to have been too high and can return a dividend, the part of the premium plant and litter each year, says Walker, and that left is insurance for the future.

AIR FORCE DARLING—Unique features displayed by the U. S. Air Force's new Martin XB-51 high-speed ground-support ship include sharply swept back wings, tandem landing gear and "T" shaped control surfaces. Power is supplied by three turbo-jet engines, two mounted on pylons on the lower sides of the fuselage, the third in the rear of the fuselage. No indication of speed, other than "high," was contained in the announcement of the XB-51. Advice to pilots of small craft—get out of the way when you see this one coming.

mium that goes into building up reserves cannot return a profit unless the fund earns a rate of interest higher than that assumed in the premium calculations. This has not been done in the case of National Service life insurance.

In computing the maximum payment of $528, the dividend was based on a $10,000 policy in force for 96 months, (the longest possible period), on a veteran aged 40 or less at the time the policy was taken out. This represents a payment of 55 cents a month per $1,000 of insurance. As the mortality rate for the age group of 40 and under did not vary greatly, a single dividend rate will apply to this whole group.

The rates of payment will be: Those under 40 years of age at the rate of 55 cents per month per $1,000 of insurance; those 41 to 45 years of age, scaling down from 52 cents to 40 cents; those 46 to 50, 37 cents down to 25 cents; those 51 to 54, 24 cents down to 21 cents, and those 55 and over, 20 cents per thousand.

The proposed scale does not apply to insurance on a permanent plan which has been surrendered for a reduced paid-up amount. These cases will be handled separately.

No further information has been received as to the exact date payment of this dividend will be made, Mr. Sisson pointed out. Application blanks are available at Veterans Administration offices and, after being properly filled out, there is no need for further correspondence concerning the dividend as this will only cause delay in payment.

Cotton Crop Outlook Brings Many Jokes

The prospective big cotton crop not only poses a few headaches about harvesting the stuff, but a few jokes are sprung now and then. Here's the latest we have heard:

It is said that a young county agent in this area came back to his office after a field trip, and informed a bystander that some of the farmers who had white blooms were going to make a big crop, but those with red blooms were out of luck as they were all falling off.

Kenneth Purcell, one of our big cotton farmers, brought in a sample from his field last week that was full of grown bolls, smaller bolls, squares and blooms. It was about three feet long. Someone asked him if he searched around much for that stalk. Stalk, heck, allows Kenneth, that was just a limb from one of my stalks. He says his cotton in the region of the chemical plant is nearly up to his shoulders and full.

Hugh-Lee Hulse poses this one for all of us cotton men, the county agent included. He says that in a lot of fields he has examined, and we go along with him on some we have examined, you will find some pretty funny stuff. Here is a stalk that has a lot of grown bolls, right next to the ground, some on the ground. The stalk next to it will have about as many bolls, but they are all half way toward the top and in the top of the stalk, nothing lower. Then perhaps the next stalk will not have a grown boll on it.

Maybe Jack Cleveland, our county agent, or perhaps some other cotton grower can give us some idea regarding this condition.

Johnny Fitzgerald, Jr., one of Yoakum's newlyweds, was over the past week and briefly visited The Herald office. Reported that he and the Mrs. had a nice honeymoon trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fitzgerald of Yoakum county were over Saturday shopping, and Roy dropped in for about the "umteenth" time to renew for their Herald.

F. H. (Big Boy) Carpenter of south Terry was in last Saturday inspecting Homer Nelson's new place. He especially liked the good soft couch in the front end of the place where a customer may rest his weary bones.

HERE FROM TATUM, N.M.

L. A. Greenfield, Roy Hamm and Rev. Oliver Nelson, Baptist pastor, were all business visitors from Tatum, N.M., Friday, and paid The Herald a short call. Greenfield was for many years an employee of the local post-office.

Mr. Greenfield has an irrigation farm three miles south of Tatum on which he is raising some pure-bred cattle, and asked us to visit him sometime when in the Tatum section.

BUSINESS FAILURES LOWER IN JULY

AUSTIN, Sept. — Business failures numbered 13 in July, as compared with 29 in June and six a year earlier, Dun and Bradstreet reports to the University of Texas bureau of business research showed.

Liabilities per failure averaged $24,000 in July, $19,000 in June.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Vinther of Elida, N.M., visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Renfro last week.

and $123,000 in July of last year. Business failures totaled 113 for the first seven months of 1949 as compared to 45 for the comparable period last year.

TEXAS TODAY

By Dave Creavens
Associated Press Staff
AUSTIN, Tex., Sept. — (AP)— Gov. Allen Shivers' hope that the January session of the legislature can get by without passing a new tax bill is admittedly a slim one.

Shivers told a Houston audience he had such hope. Later, through Weldon Hart, his press secretary, he added it was just a hope and he didn't think it would be realized.

The governor had based his statement on indications that state revenues were coming in a little faster than had been anticipated.

There has been an increase, all right, but the increase is still behind the estimates of comptroller Robert S. Calvert, who necessarily must be conservative.

Increased production of crude oil would help. There have been two slight jumps in allowable production, which will boost crude oil tax revenues, but neither will make much dent in the deficit.

What the legislature must do first is provide operating money for state hospitals and special schools. When the 51st legislature overspent by 17 and a half million dollars, the late Gov. Beauford H. Jester vetoed second year appropriations for eleemosynary institutions to balance the budget.

If the insane and orphans and other wards of the state are going to have something to eat and to wear, and if the doctors and other attendants are going to be paid after September 1, 1950, the legislature has to provide funds which will amount to something in the vicinity of 17 million dollars.

If there are going to be any substantial improvements in how Texas treats its insane, it will take more money than that.

Most legislators can't see how they can avoid a new tax if income continues at or around the present level, and even if present low standards of maintenance for wards of the state are maintained.

And that doesn't take into account building needs, which have

PLAINS NEWS

Guests in the S. F. Pride home Sunday were all of their children, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wright and daughter of Childress, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Murphy and sons of Tatum, N.M., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hinkle and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beal and Tommie Pride, all of Plains, and Ted Murphy of Levelland.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Pete St. Roman September 21 a baby girl. Mrs. Loyd Coke underwent an appendectomy in the Brownfield hospital last week. She is reported doing nicely.

Mrs. John McKee, Mrs. Dorsey McKee and Mrs. Joe McLaren were visiting in Lubbock last Wednesday.

been estimated at anywhere from 21 to 35 million dollars. Several plans are cooking to raise that money if possible without a new tax. Also, Shivers has asked the new state hospital board to take another careful look at its budget to see if it can't trim some items off operating expenses.

Even with some trimming, that 17 million dollar deficit would be hard to rub out.

Comptroller Calvert has demonstrated he is a close estimator of income.

He missed it less than three per cent in the fiscal year 1949. If his guess for 1950 is as good, that three per cent would still be far short of the 17 million needed for the general revenue fund.

Calvert had estimated income at $102,934,871. The state actually took in $105,215,980. The variation in all those millions of dollars was exactly 2.3 per cent.

Plenty Sleep Needed For Good Health

Sleep is a necessity of life and health, according to Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, and habitual less of sleep will tend to retard the body's recovery from fatigue of the day's activities.

"We may be able to go without sleep for a night or two, but too little sleep for a prolonged period will undermine the health of a rugged person and turn a cheerful individual into a cross, irritable one," Dr. Cox said.

"When good health can be protected to such a large extent merely by sleeping, and thus allow overtaxed bodies and minds to secure the proper rest, it is hard to understand why so many persons are heedless of this important health measure."

Some individuals require more sleep than others. How well we sleep is as important as how long we sleep. A good night's rest means a sufficient number of hours spent in sleep to enable each person to feel well, do efficient work, and to keep in a cheerful humor the next day.

"Some outdoor exercises each day, a comfortable bed, and fresh air in our sleeping quarters," Dr. Cox said, "will help us to sleep soundly at night. Do not mull over your problems and ideas after you have gone to bed. Make your plans early in the evening for a good night's rest by slowing down from the physical and mental work of your daily life. When you arise each morning, rested and with a feeling of general well being, you will be amply repaid for your thought in planning a good night's sleep."

WEST COAST PLANTED WITH ANCIENT TREES

BERKELEY, Calif. — (AP) — Thousands of seeds of a tree once supposed to have been extinct for 20 million years have been planted on the west coast. The tree is the dawn redwood.

Many fossil specimens of the tree have been found in the west. It is thought it is the ancestor of the modern California redwoods. Last year Dr. Ralph W. Chaney went to China and found the dawn redwood there. He brought back four seedlings and thousands of seeds.

In a trip up and down the coast this year, Chaney planted many of the seeds in areas where the same type of tree grew millions of years ago.

Lt. Comdr. Clyde A. Williams, who is stationed at Corpus Christi, visited his brother, Bill Williams, and Mrs. Williams over the week end.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

Today I come out with my own "Bold New Program." If Uncle Harry can have a "bold program" for saving the world, I reckon I reckon I can have one if it is just for salvaging our own U.S.A. — and let the rest of the world run its own shebang as it sees fit.

The army and the navy and the courts are plenty for Uncle Samuel. Get him out of everything else, is my bold program. Today there is no statesman or heavy thinker who can make many—if any—circles around Mr. Edison.

Mr. Edison, 25 years ago, said that Govt. should devote itself to governing. But the Govt. is tinkering today with 100 more things than in Edison's time.

I would sell TVA and 50 other but similar, dams and experiments in socialism, to the highest bidder. I would return the U.S.A. to the citizens thereof—I would sell 600,000 Govt. swivel chairs, including the cushions. I would let the weather man serve up 50 per cent less weather — with 50 per cent less help. Beds and how to make 'em — a booklet by our agriculture department—I would stop printing same, and save.

And hither and yon, hope would return — the sun would break through and shine again on Main street. Definitely—using his biggest word—says Henry.

MEXICAN LABORERS PROCESSED AT FORT BLISS

FORT BLISS, Tex. — Facilities for the processing of Mexican "braceros" have been set up in the Texas National Guard area of Logan Heights at Fort Bliss.

At the processing center, the braceros are given a general physical examination and are given typhoid and smallpox immunization. The United States immigration department is in charge of the center's operation.

A daily average of more than a hundred braceros was processed through the Logan Heights center during the first five days of its operation and authorities said they expected the number to increase.

BUSINESS FAILURES UPPED IN STATE FOR 1949

AUSTIN, Sept.—Dun and Bradstreet figures showed 31 business fatalities in Texas for August, 1949, with liabilities averaging $26,000, the University of Texas bureau of business research has reported.

Thirteen businesses failed in July and 12 in August, 1948. Liabilities per failure averaged $24,000 in July and $28,000 in August, 1948.

Advertising For Bids

Sealed proposals will be received by the President of the Board, Brownfield Independent School District, Mr. C. G. Griffith, Brownfield, Texas, up to and not later than 2 P.M., Tuesday, October 11, 1949, in the Superintendent's office in High School Building. At which time and place all of the proposals then received will be publicly opened and read aloud. Any bid received after the hour named hereinabove will be returned unopened.
The work to be done consists of Construction of High School Building and shop, at Brownfield, Texas, in accordance with drawings and specifications prepared for same by Wilson and Patterson, Architects. Separate proposals will be received for General Construction, Plumbing, Heating, and Electrical Work.
Copies of the drawings, specifications and other proposed contract documents are on file and may be seen at the offices of the Architects. One set of such documents may be obtained upon deposit of Fifteen ($15.00) Dollars, which deposit will be refunded to each actual bidder upon return of such documents in good condition within three days from bid opening. Additional copies may be obtained upon similar deposit but cost of reproduction of the set will be deducted from deposit. Similar deduction will be made from deposit of other than actual bidders.

Proposals may not be withdrawn for a period of thirty (30) days from and after the time established for opening bids. Each proposal, to be eligible for consideration, must be accompanied by a certified check or Bidder's Bond, in the amount of five per cent (5%) of the total amount of the respective proposal, to insure the Owners against loss occasioned by the bidder's failure to execute a contract, if awarded or to furnish satisfactory Contract Surety. The successful bidder will be required to enter a contract with the Brownfield Ind. School Dist., which will contain provisions requiring the contractor to comply with all state laws, including wage scales and hours as required by House Bill No. 45. Acts of 43rd State Legislature.

The right is reserved, as the interests of the Owner may require, to accept any or reject all proposals, or to overlook any irregularities or informalities in any proposals received.

Judge Winston Heads District USO Drive

County Judge H. R. Winston of Brownfield has been named district ten chairman of the Texas USO reactivation campaign. T. E. Braniff, state campaign chairman, announced recently.
The district headed by Judge Winston includes Terry, Yoakum, and Gaines counties.
The Texas campaign will raise $500,000 toward the national goal of $10,100,000 for USO, Winston said.
"The cold war continues," he declared, "and our people have called for a big army, navy and air force so that our country will be ready to meet any pressures from the enemy."
"Ninety-eight thousand of our young men and women from Texas are now in uniform, and it is up to us, one and all, to keep up their ties with home, so that they may return to us as happy and useful citizens," he continued.
"The best way to assure this is through USO which is on the scene to serve them whether they are stationed at some military establishment here in the United States or at an overseas outpost."
"The USO provides the thousands of army, navy and veterans' hospitals with regular professional entertainment, and the frequent reminder so valuable to their morale that neither they nor their heroic deeds have been forgotten."
"If our young people can give up valuable years out of their lives in the defense of their country, we civilians at home certainly can show our gratitude and our support through the USO," Judge Winston concluded.

utes. Turned into tanks, the well made 16 1/2 barrels of oil in one hour. After tool was closed, the well unloaded an additional eight barrels of oil. Tool was being pulled.
The Pennsylvania discovery in the pool, Seaboard's No. 1 Hinson, same survey, was completed for 150 barrels of oil daily from 9,400 to 9,433 feet, plugged back depth.
The above article, taken from Monday's Star-Telegram, is about all any of us know about the well. We have heard it talked that it is the general belief here that it is a better well than the discovery.

Mrs. N. R. Marchbanks for a 12x14 addition to her residence at 420 N. Second street, at a cost of $500;

Loyd Moore for the construction of a 28x32 foot residence at 705 E. Oak street, at a cost of $7,000;
J. P. Benson to construct a 28x38 foot residence at 504 N. A street, at a cost of $5,000;

Grady Goodpasture to build a 80x400 foot warehouse and storage building on West Lake, at a cost of $15,000.

BEER, BROTH HELP ENGLISH CABBAGE
In an Associated Press copy sheet about three short items apart this week, we found two very distinct remedies for growing tomatoes. Since this season has been a very unusually good one for tomato production here, the items naturally attracted our attention.
First, a retired ship captain (skipper) over in England had fed his vines a mixture of beef broth and beer, and had a remarkable yield. Across the Atlantic in Connecticut, a grower had fine luck by turning under organic matter, probably green, which held moisture and matured his tomatoes very nicely.

But we got to thinking. Would a Territe waste his beer on a tomato plant? Hardly. He would have very likely drunk his beer, soaked some crackers in the beer broth and eaten it and let the tomatoes root hog or die.

Anyway, maybe food and drink is not as scarce in deah of Hingland as we heard.

Bids Asked On New Half-Million Dollar High School Building
Presently a notice for bids is being run in The Herald for a high school building as well as an auxiliary building, to cost in the neighborhood of $550,000, furnished. This building will occupy a beautiful site the school board purchased a few years ago at the east end of the paving on Broadway.
Bids will be received by the board until 2 p.m. Tuesday, October 11. Bids received after that time will be returned to the bidder unopened. The building will consist of the high school building proper, and a shop for various technical training for high school students.
Wilson & Patterson are the architects, and blueprints of the proposed building may be seen at their offices in Fort Worth, or at the offices of the school board in Brownfield. Bidders are required to give a bidder's bond of five per cent of the total cost of the proposed structure.
However, the bidding may be broken down into a three or four way construction job; for the building, and others for heating, plumbing and electrical. Bidders must also comply with wage and hour laws now in force.
The school board has no hopes that the new school building will be ready for this term of school, but that it may be occupied during the 1950-51 term of school.
Dick Graves, who for a few years farmed the Graves estate land in south Terry, is now irrigation farming near Roswell, N.M. Dick was a caller at The Herald office late last week. His mother lives at Elkins, N.M.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Barnes and Mrs. B. L. Thompson are in Corpus Christi this week.

CORPORATION CHARTERS ISSUED IN AUGUST
AUSTIN, Texas, Sept.—Charters were granted 349 businesses in Texas with a capitalization of $9,987,000 in August, 1949, the University of Texas bureau of business research has reported.
A total of 318 charters were issued in July and 244 businesses were formed in August, 1948.
Totalling 76, firms with no capital stock received the greatest number of charters in August, followed by merchandising, 62; and real estate, 36.
Corporations with a capitalization of $5,000 to $100,000 received 161 charters in August. Businesses with a capitalization of less than $5,000 totaled 85 charters and 16 charters were issued to firms with a capitalization over $100,000.

LOCALS
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hill were week-end visitors in Midland with Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hill. 50 cents on the dollar. But that would be owing to whether one aimed to pay a debt or have the debt paid to us. But over in Britain and 11 other European and Asiatic nations, the matter is nothing to create laughter. It is a very serious matter. Some say that it will cheapen Scotch whiskey, tweeds and chinaware to American buyers. Since a lot of us don't use Scotch or any other kind of whiskey, tweeds are for jellybeans, and as for china, most of us feel that the bit of grub we get still tastes good out of anything from a tin to an American-made china plate, we interior Americans are not greatly interested. Fact is, they can so far as we are concerned, keep all their Sir Tom Lipton tea on that side of the pond. But with just a bit of sympathy for the former world banker nation, we hope she will now be able to run her own shebang by the time we are broke helping them come 1952. And we imagine the young banker nation (USA) will be just a wee bit more lenient with the old banker nation than they were with us on occasion. Anyway, we don't hate nobody.
Mrs. Beaula Page and Bud Emory spent the week end in Jayton and Post.
Faye Ross is in Jayton this week visiting her grandfather and grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Page, and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hall.
Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Marchbanks and daughter, Woodie Kay, spent the week end in Ruidoso, N.M., with Mr. and Mrs. Coy Maroney.
Billy Maxwell of Odessa was a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Prentice Walker Monday and Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Kennedy of Glendale, Calif., returned to their home Thursday after a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Swan, and family.
Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Barnes of Fort Worth are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Thompson this week.

Baker-White Vows Exchanged Saturday

In a double-ring ceremony read at 6 p.m. Saturday, September 24, in the First Christian church in San Angelo, Mary Beth Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Baker, 610 E. Avenue D., San Angelo, became the bride of Norval Ted White of Kermit, son of Mrs. Eldora White. The Rev. G. N. Goldston officiated.

Vows were exchanged before an arch of huckleberry twined with asters, with candelabra and baskets of sters, caspia and pom-poms flanking the arch. Pews were marked with white satin bows and streamers.

Jack Shirley, soloist, sang, "Because," "Oh, Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." He was accompanied by Mrs. Ferah Leonard of San Angelo, who also offered the traditional wedding marches.

Maid of honor was Miss Nancy Nörman of San Angelo, who wore a lavender and pink iridescent taffeta dress with a taffeta halo. She carried a heart-shaped bouquet of asters and illusion net.

Bridesmaids were Misses Paula Sue Wyckoff and Barbara Allison, a cousin of the bride, and Mrs. R. H. McComb, all of San Angelo. They wore dresses of green and pink iridescent taffeta made on identical lines as that of the maid of honor, and carried small heart-shaped bouquets of asters and illusion net.

Diane Allison of San Angelo, a cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a yellow taffeta dress and halo and a flower wristlet. Her yellow basket was filled with rose petals.

Ring bearer was Reba Gail Willis of Levelland, a cousin of the groom. She also wore a yellow taffeta dress and halo, and had a flower wristlet.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white slipper satin and lace gown made with a fitted bodice and flowing skirt. The lace bodice had a high rounded neckline and the long sleeves terminated in points. Pleated illusion and seed pearls edged the neckline, sleeves, hipline and a lace panel down the front of the skirt. Her chapel length illusion veil cascaded from a shirred illusion halo, which she enhanced with satin and seed pearl rosettes. She carried an arm bouquet of gardenias and tuberose edged in illusion with tiny gardenias cascaded down the illusion streamers. The brides mother wore a rose satin dress with brown accessories and a corsage of brown baby orchids. The groom's mother wore a gold crepe dress with black accessories and Vanda orchids.

Morgan Copeland was best man. Groomsmen were Andy Griffith of Kermit, Robert Lee Craig of Brownfield and Marion Bowers of Brownfield. Ushers were Winston Churchill of Odessa, and Edgar Self, Tom Haley and Myron Harris, all of Brownfield.

A reception given in the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. R. D. Allison, Jr., followed the ceremony. The couple were assisted in receiving guests by the bride's mother, the groom's mother, and (Turn to Page 8, Please)

MRS. GRADY DAVIS HOSTESS TO NEEDMORE HD CLUB

Mrs. Grady Davis was hostess to members of the Needmore Home Demonstration club Thursday afternoon, September 22.

The program was opened by singing "Beautiful Texas," after which Mrs. Lu Bartlett gave her report on the short course which she attended at Texas Tech.

The council report was given by Mrs. Jack Gray, and Miss Helen Dunlap, county home demonstration agent, gave a demonstration on designing and making bed-spreads.

Refreshments were served to nine members. Mrs. Henry Witt was a visitor, and Mrs. Harry Cornelius a new member.

Eyes bright with excitement, this winsome pupil has to wait for teacher and the ten o'clock scholars to arrive. She wanted to be on time for her first roll call in the first grade. For the momentous occasion, she wears a crisp little cotton frock designed by Johnston of Dallas.

Gee Gee's Chit Chat

Much attention will be focused on Brownfield this week end when Legionnaires from 42 counties gather here for the 19th district fall convention. This is the second time that Brownfield has been the convention city, the first time being in 1944. The local Legion members and their auxiliary members have worked hard on this convention and are looking forward to full cooperation from this post. Milton Bell, convention chairman, asks that, if possible, all members of this post be on hand at 10 a.m. Saturday to register early.

If the weather doesn't settle down to something definite pretty soon, half the population of Brownfield will probably be dead

Texans in Washington

By Tex Easley

AP Special Washington Service
WASHINGTON, Sept. — (AP)—
This column has dealt considerably with activities of Texas members of congress. But what of the staff's ex-congressmen who are still living?
A calling of the roll shows there are 22 of them—one less than the number of seats Texas has in congress.

No official trace is kept of former members of congress. The house and senate sergeant-at-arms who handles business affairs for them while they are in office, has no official data on those who have left congress. The pension system for the lawmakers is voluntary, and relatively new, so it is not such help.

But here's what's become of former Texas members, so far as can be ascertained from here:

Four are federal judges, with salaries ranging from $15,000 to $17,500 each:

One is a retired federal judge whose salary continues for life:
Five others are retired;

One is a registered lobbyist in Washington;

Nine are engaged in private law practice;

Two are lawyers with government agencies in Washington.

Most prominent among the state's former members of congress is former vice president John Nance Garner, who is living in retirement at his home in Uvalde. He served in the house from 1903 to 1933 and was speaker from 1931 to 1933.

The state's list of "Ex'es" includes two former senators:

W. Lee O'Daniel, who left office at the beginning of this year and is living on his ranch just west of Fort Worth; and Earle B. Mayfield, Sr., who served from 1923 to 1929, now practicing law in Tyler and Meridian.

The four federal jurists are: Chief Justice Marvin Jones of the United States court of claims, formerly of Amarillo and the Panhandle's congressman from 1917 to 1941;

United States tax court judges Luther A. Johnson, Corsicana, who served in the house from 1923 to 1946, and Eugene Black, Clarksville, who served as congressman from East Texas from 1915 to 1929;

West Texas district judge Ewing Thomason of El Paso, who served as a congressman from West Texas from 1931 to 1947.

The retired federal jurist is former North Texas district judge James C. Wilson of Fort Worth, who served in the house from 1917 to 1919.

The following have retired but still devote some of their time to law practice or other activities: Hatton W. Summers of Dallas, now writing a book on constitutional government, who served in the house from 1913 to 1947;

Richard Kleberg, part owner of the famous King ranch in South Texas, who represented the Corpus Christi district from 1931 to 1945;

D. H. Cross of Waco, who served in the house from 1930 to 1937. Former Fort Worth Rep. Fritz G. Lanham, who served from 1919 to 1947, now represents the Trinity River Improvement association and other interests in Washington.

Big Giant Among The Tractors

It has been 40 years since we farmed down in Jones county. At that time, the Mr. Bill Avery combined bedder and planter was the acme of perfection, but we still like to look at farm implements—the modern types.

Among several John Deere tractors received lately by Johnson Implement Co., is one that is outstanding in size. Was examining it recently, and one of the salesmen was telling us about it. Its engine is so large that one would have a hard time finding a starter that would "crank" it. So, other arrangements had to be made.

The starter gets a smaller motor in operation, which pumps compressed air into a cylinder, then the compressed air is turned on to start the huge motor that makes the big tractor perform its duties.

There are an estimated 3,000,000 miles of rural roads in the United States.

Suds Don't Clean, Says Extensionist

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. — White foamy suds are usually accepted as the sign that soap or a detergent is doing a good job of cleaning.

But it isn't always true, research shows. Foam is an attractive and pleasant indication that a detergent is in the washing solution, but it is not the guide to its cleaning effectiveness.

Mrs. Florence Low, extension specialist in home management of Texas A&M college, says that research recently made at the New York State experiment station by G. J. Hucker, indicated that suds don't clean. Washing tests showed that some of the sudsless solutions removed soil in dish-washing better than others with plenty of foam.

Clyde L. Garrett of Eastland, in the house from 1937 to 1941, now is an attorney with the Veterans Administration and travels in Ohio and Michigan.

W. D. McFarlane of Graham, now an attorney in the justice department here, served in the house from 1933 to 1939.

Others who once answered roll calls in the house and who are now practicing law are listed below with the years of their service in congress:

Maury Maverick, San Antonio, 1935-1939; Tom Blanton, Albany, and Abilene, 1929-1937; Nat Patton, Crockett, 1935-1945; Charles South, Coleman and Austin, 1935-1943; Martin Dies, Jasper and Orange, 1931-1945; Sam Russell, Stephenville, 1941-1947; Morgan Sanders, Canton, 1921-1939; Joe H. Eagle, Houston, 1913-1921.

Avoid Fall Moults In Pullet Flocks

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. — No wonder hens cackle! Even the roosters have a right to crow. A total of 55 billion eggs was produced in the United States last year, according to W. J. Moore, associate extension poultry husbandman of the Texas A&M college system.

What egg producers do now to prepare for pullets coming off the range, says Moore, will determine largely whether this figure will drop or still go higher next year. It can also mean the difference between profit and loss for the flock owner.

If pullets are coming into production now, Moore suggests no immediate changes other than moving them into the laying house.

Continue free-choice feeding of growing mash and grain. After pullets have become accustomed to their new surroundings, gradually substitute laying mash for growing mash, without decreasing grain. Too sudden a change in grain feed, Moore cautions, often causes the birds to lose body weight which in turn causes pullets to go into a neck moult.

After pullets reach approximately 20 per cent production, they should be on a complete laying mash ration. Then discontinue free-choice grain and hand feed about one pound for every ten birds daily.

If the pullets are well developed, have clean houses and equipment and plenty of good litter and nests, Moore says they stand a much better chance to maintain high egg production.

ter than others with plenty of foam.

The cleaning ability of any detergent depends largely on two things; first, how well it dissolves soil and second, on how much it aids water in getting the soiled articles wet so that the dirt can be carried away quickly and thoroughly. Water alone, the specialist points out, cannot wet material as well as water containing soap or other detergents.

The amount of soapsuds in the dish pan or wash tub has long been used as a rough guide to indicate whether the water contained enough soap for efficient washing. But what holds true for soap does not hold true for all detergents.

The report adds that the synthetic detergents simply remove soil and cannot be counted on as a sanitizer.

We live up to your Buick's promise!

FOR sure, at this time of year you want a full measure of real driving sport from your Buick—an eager answer to your toe on the gas treadle, softly obedient brakes, a willing wheel that steers for you without effort. Let's just say—you want the royal ride that only a Buick can give you!

All this you'll get and more, if your Buick gets the care it deserves. Not just a peek here, a poke there—but real Buick care! Our kind of care!

You don't pay any more for Buick-experienced workmanship and know-how, or for our Buick-trained skills, or for the fact that every part, every adjustment and operation is just what the factory has specified.

Yet there's a thrilling difference in the way your Buick behaves under our careful care. Bring it to us next time you want lubrication, or an adjustment, or a thoroughgoing checkup—and give yourself a mighty pleasant surprise!

You get 2-for-1 with Lubricare

One of our biggest bargain-offers is Lubricare—complete, elaborately thorough lubrication plus a stem-to-stern checkup of your Buick and its general health. Pay us just for the lubricants it needs; the diagnosis is a service we're glad to give! How about driving in this week?

Buick care keeps Buicks best

TUDOR SALES COMPANY

No bookworm, this young scholar! She is more interested in the brand new cotton dress she is wearing for her first day at school. Her striped cotton frock, designed by Trude of California, gives her a real grown-up look of fashion.

Aubrey Copeland of Abilene was here last week visiting his brother, R. D. Copeland. The Copeland family are old-timers.

Mr. and Mrs. Tess Fulfer, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Gillham, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Halley spent the week end in Ruidoso, N.M.

Mrs. A. J. Stricklin, Sr., was hostess to the Kolonial Kard Klub Friday, September 23, at 3 p.m. At a short business meeting, the members voted to donate $10 to the polio fund.

A salad plate and cherry pie were served to Mesdames W. T. Howze, Bill Williams, Mike Blair, Money Price, Roy Wingerd, N. L. Mason, Arthur Sawyer, W. B. Collins, Mon Telford, E. C. Davis, O. W. Schellinger, and Sallie Limer of Long Beach, Calif.

Mrs. Mason scored high, and Mrs. Collins second high.

MRS. T. L. TREADAWAY HONORED AT SHOWER

Mrs. T. L. Treadaway was honored at a pink-and-blue shower Thursday, September 22, in the home of Mrs. Ted Hardy. Mrs. Forrest McCracken was co-hostess at the affair.

Cakes, frosted cakes and mints were served to approximately 50 guests. Miss Katherine Marchbanks assisted in serving.

Ken Sadler, Ralph Howell and Earl Morris attended a district Frigidaire sales meeting in Fort Worth Monday. Sadler is a partner, and the other two are salesmen, in the Farm Home Appliance company.

W. M. Goldston was taken to a Mineral Wells hospital, Sunday where he will receive treatment.

Rainy days hold no blues for this little miss! She is all decked out for her trip to school in a cotton rain outfit that laughs at showers. Her pretty raincoat and hood are made of Reeves Byrd cloth, the National Cotton Council reports.

A ground breaking ceremony for the new $42,000 cerebral palsy treatment center was held Wednesday, September 21 at the time of the regularly scheduled meeting of the Lubbock Rotary club, co-sponsors of the project.

The new building, to be located at 34th street and avenue M in Lubbock, will be a one-story masonry construction providing facilities for physical therapy, occupational therapy and speech therapy for the cerebral palsied.

The treatment center, at present located at 1317 Tenth street in Lubbock, completed its first year of operation August 22. During the year, 202 cases of cerebral palsy were registered for treatment and 2997 treatments were given. Seven clinics were held with 289 examinations being made in the clinics. Clinics were held at approximately two-month intervals with two orthopedists specializing in the care of the cerebral palsied present to examine the patients in each clinic.

One fourth of the cases treated during the past year were two years of age or less when registered. The youngest child registered was five months of age.

Cases came to the treatment center from 80 towns and surrounding areas in Texas, New Mexico and Colorado, extending southeast 500 miles to Cuero, Tex., and north about 325 miles to Holly, Colo.

Facilities of the treatment center are available to all cases in need of care. The next clinic for the examination of patients will be held Monday, November 14, with Dr. C. B. Sadler, Amarillo, and Dr. E. T. Driscoll, Plainview, examining patients. Parents are requested to register children at the center at some time before the clinic date. Further information may be obtained by writing Dr. E. E. Snell, director, or by calling Lubbock 6541.

Jack And Judy Shows At Br'nfied, Meadow

The South Plains health unit has announced that a "Jack and Judy show will be here and at Meadow on the following dates:

Brownfield—September 26, 8:40 a.m., 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. Three shows.

Meadow—September 29, 8:40 a.m. All shows will be held in the high school auditorium.

The show deals with the subject of dental health, and comes to the county from the state department of health, division of dental health under the sponsorship of the local county health unit, in cooperation with local schools and dentists. It is written and designed by the good teeth council for children, of Chicago, to impress upon the children the importance of dental health and its relationship to total health and scholastic achievement.

While very impressively stressing the four fundamentals of dental health, it is interspersed with wit, humor, dialects and music in such a way as to furnish laughter and entertainment, as well as valuable health lessons for children. The show is given by Mr. and Mrs. Cephas Kelly, highly-trained teacher-puppeteers, and consists of a miniature stage on which the drama is performed by hand puppets. Parents and pre-school children in each school district are invited. There will be no admission charge.

This or a similar show has been given high acclaim by the schools of Texas for several years. The time allowed for the show was not sufficient to enable it to make all schools of the county, and was therefore scheduled only to larger schools where the greatest number can be reached in the limited time allowed.

Ideal Card Club Met With Mrs. Kirschner

The Ideal club met in the home of Mrs. Jerry Kirschner at 3 p.m. Thursday, September 22.

Fruit compote, finger sandwiches, chocolate roll and coffee were served to Mesdames Hiram Parks, Roy Herod, Chad Tarpley, Glen Akers, Bill Williams, Slick Collins, A. A. Sawyer, A. M. Muldrow, W. A. Roberson, Harold Crites, Joe McGowan and R. N. McClain.

Mrs. Muldrow received high prize, and Mrs. Crites was second high. Bingo winners were Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Roberson.

Mrs. Joe Shelton returned last Monday from Mineral Wells where she had visited her husband who is receiving treatment at a hospital there. He is greatly improved and may be able to return home this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gore visited relatives in San Angelo over the week end.

This peppermint-striped kerchief serves a dual purpose. Besides being a colorful chaparral, it is a hair dryer. Action of chemicals inside the cotton kerchief gives hair a rapid drying treatment. The thirsty kerchief permits miliary to go out when her hair is damp or rolled in curls. This practical bit of headgear was designed by fashion expert Lily Dache.

Wellman HD Club

The Wellman Home Demonstration club met in their club room September 16 with five members present.

Miss Helen Lunlap gave a demonstration on making a bedspread.

Mrs. Miller Rich will be hostess to the club September 30. She will give a demonstration on making bedspreads. Also at this meeting, members will make out the new roll and report on the year's work.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ballard spent the week end in Tulia and Muleshoe visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Self spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Ruby Bomar, in Lubbock.

the maid of honor and the bridesmaids.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and featured a four-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple. Miss Frances Rambo and Mrs. Johnny Haynes poured, and Miss Rosemarie Bradbury and Mrs. Lewis Liles served.

Miss Johnora Haynes registered the guests who were from San Angelo, Kermit, Brownfield, Midland, Levelland, Lubbock, Odessa and Andrews.

For traveling, Mrs. White wore a teal blue satin suit with a matching hat and brown accessories. She had a gardenia corsage. After a wedding trip to Villa Acuna and Monterey, Mexico, the couple will be at home at Kermit after October 2.

Mrs. White is a graduate of San Angelo high school and San Angelo junior college, where she was a member of Lambda Tau and Phi Theta Kappa sororities. She also attended Texas Technological college, where she was a member of DFD social club.

The groom graduated from the Brownfield high school and received his degree from Texas Technological college in August. While at Tech, he was president of Socii, a member of the student council, secretary of the VFW, and was mentioned in Who's Who on the Tech campus. He served 22 months in the navy during the war, with 16 months of that time spent overseas.

Mrs. White is employed by the B. F. King Construction company in Kermit, and White is in the production office of the Magnolia Petroleum company there.

Chit Chat

as I keep yakking about, there had been practically no enthusiasm for the harvest festival. As far as the casual observer can tell, the harvest festival might as well be held in Russia, for all the natives care. But all you other fellers better settle yourselves in the saddle a little better now, because these business and professional gals know what they're doing. Remember that they ran Glenna Winston in the 1947 festival? Remember what happened? Well, it could happen again, and they're not in this race for their health, you can be sure.

Mrs. T. W. Bruton and Mrs. F. L. Morgan returned last week from a trip to east Texas where they visited relatives in Bagwell, Detroit, Blossom, Paris and Dallas. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Gaston of Cone.

Girl Scouts Plan Hiking Trip, Picnic

Troop 5 of the Girl Scouts met Tuesday at the Girl Scout Little House. President Jerry Katherine Dumas presided.

Betty Criswell, secretary, called the roll, and Myrtice Jones collected the dues.

Meetings were planned a month ahead of time. At the next meeting, the girls will go on a surprise hiking trip and will take a nose-bag lunch with them.

The meeting was closed by singing taps and making the magic circle.

Members present were Sandra Vandell, Royda Dumas, Myrtice Jones, Patsy Teague, Donna Mae Patton, Jerry Katherine Dumas, Wanda Mae Rainey, Toni Akers, Betty Daniel and Betty Criswell.

TOKIO HD CLUB MET WITH MRS. FARQUHAR

The Tokio Home Demonstration club met in the home of Mrs. T. B. Farquhar Wednesday, September 21. Mrs. Derah Gaulding gave a council report. The club made plans for serving dinner for Odis Echols and his melody boys Friday night at the home of Mrs. W. P. Elmore. Miss Helen Dunlap gave a demonstration on making bedspreads.

Refreshments were served to seven members and two visitors, Mrs. Leslie McGee and Mrs. G. W. Gotcher, and Miss Dunlap. Definite plans for the next meeting were not made. The president will let each member know where it will be held.—Reporter.

GOMEZ HD NEWS

The Gome Home Demonstration club met September 22 in the home of Mrs. Denver Boulware, who received a miscellaneous kitchen shower for hostess gift.

Lemonade and cookies were served to four members and the hostess.

The next meeting will be held October 14 in the home of Mrs. Pat Harkins.—Club Reporter.

The Gomez Home Demonstration club had their annual social meeting last Friday night at the home of Kellie Sears.

A barbecued chicken supper was enjoyed by the families of Kellie Sears, Jack Mason, Denver Boulware, Tress Key, Alvin Heron, R. G. Herron and Walter Paden, Jr.

Games of "42" followed the supper.—Club Reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. James Allen and children of Guyman, Okla., visited Mr. and Mrs. Doug Jones and family over the week end.

THDA HOLD ANNUAL CONVENTION

The annual convention of the Texas Home Demonstration association was held September 21, 22 and 23 in the convention hall at Mineral Wells.

There were 461 delegates, 376 visitors and 22 board members present, representing 46,000 home demonstration club women in the state.

Terry county had three voting delegates, Mrs. Lillian Doak, county THDA chairman, Mrs. E. V. Riley, council recreation leader, and Mrs. Wesley Sherin, president of the Tokio club. Mrs. H. R. Fov, council delegate of the Wellman club, went as a visitor, and assisted the state recreation committee in entertaining Thursday evening.

Mrs. F. T. Maltby, vice president of district two, gave a short talk Thursday afternoon.

Tommy Hardy Honored On Sixth Birthday

Mrs. Ted Hardy honored her son, Tommy Dee, on his sixth birthday Saturday, September 24, with a party.

Ice cream and cake, with plate favors of cellophane bags containing balloons, suckers and gum were served to 24 children.

September 21, the THDA work shops were held.

Mineral Wells Lions club entertained the group with a "Womanless Wedding" the evening of September 21.

Wes Izzard, editor of the Amarillo Daily News, spoke on "Opportunity—Old World and New." Homer Wanderpool, pastor of the Tyler Street Methodist church in Dallas, spoke on "Ahead of Times."

On Thursday afternoon, the two chartered buses met ladies at the convention hall and took them on a short sight-seeing trip.

Mrs. Barton Named Honoree At Shower

Mrs. E. M. Barton was honored at a pink-and-blue shower at 3 p.m. Monday by members of the WMU o Gomez Baptist church. The shower was given in the home of Mrs. T. L. Burns. The house was decorated with fall flowers. Games were played, and Mrs. M. C. Wade presented the honoree with a basket of gifts. Sandwiches, cookies, mints and punch were served to 26 guests.
