Farm Bureau Over Top In Membership Drive

The Terry County Farm Bureau has occasion to feel elated over the results of their drive for new members in the past two weeks, as they have more than doubled their membership in that period. Hub King is membership chairman, and Hub is the idea of central part of the wheel that goes around and around. But Hub also knew how and who to select as helpers.

As of last Friday the total membership in FB was, including new material, 654, more than the most optimistic expected when the drive started. The drive committee and directors other than Hub are J. T. Fuller, Meadow; Kenneth Purtell, Herman Wheatley, Loyd Dawson and Bill Carter, city and routes.

The committee on membership met at the courthouse last Friday night to report. All who have memberships to turn in are urged to hand them to Hub or Homer Winston right away; also list of unpaid members.

H. R. Winston is the president of FB, and Hub King is secretary-treasurer. The goal for the drive for new members and old ones is 1000.

Rural Telephone Co-Op Met March 4

Detailed maps of proposed rural telephone lines were studied by the directors of the Poka Lambro Rural Telephone Co-op at a meeting held at Tahoka on March 4.

Visiting consulting engineers gave the maps, as well as technical advice, to the directors. Detailed plans were made for surveying each community in the area in order to give each farmer an opportunity to sign for telephone service.

An estimate of the cost of the project was made, and a tentative application for a loan was prepared and forwarded to the Rural Electrification Administration in Washington. This loan estimate will be amended when a detailed cost analysis is made following the application.

Directors who attended the meeting were V. R. Osborne and V. H. Wheatley of Brownfield, George Teague of Lamesa, Claude Wells of Tahoka, and Sam Allen of the board; Judge Tom Garrard of Tahoka, legal advisor; and Ed Price, engineer, of Lubbock.

The Poka Lambro co-op receives its name by using letters from each county in the co-op. The counties are Terry, Hockley, Borden, Garza, Lynn, Gaines, Dawson, Yoakum, and portions of Lubbock and Martin.

State and local officers of the Big Bend country have organized search parties to seek the trail of the unidentified slayer. Morrow was shot and left dying on a lonely road. The sheriff, blood pouring from a hole through the left side of his body, managed to get into his car and drive a mile toward Presidio before he died. (AP Photo)

A Mexican boy who witnessed the accident said that the Ford was being driven south when it and a 1938 Oldsmobile coach, which was being driven north, collided.

The Oldsmobile, owned by Robert Fininen, was occupied by three negro women, and the Ford was occupied by Jesse, James and Troy Odom, and three other youths.

All of the injured persons were brought to Treadaway-Daniell hospital in a Brownfield Funeral Home ambulance.

Brownfield Firm Plans Expansion

The Tri-County Clay Company of Brownfield announced a large expansion program for their drilling clay business located on Rich Lake, about 8 miles northeast of Brownfield.

The plans call for doubling their capacity of EZMIX drilling clay and adding a special high yield clay, powdered Bentonite and Barite. With these drilling clays they will produce over 4,800 tons of filter media and 45,000 tons of inert matter.

With the plant expansion they plan an office and central warehouse building in Brownfield and possibly two area warehouses to be located at strategic points in the west Texas oilfields.

When the program is completed, this company will be one of the largest local companies operating in the Permian basin.

The industrial surveys and construction plans and specifications for this program were prepared by the Isbell Engineers of Brownfield.

R. L. Walker is owner of the company.

James Ray Odom, 14, remains in critical condition in Treadaway-Daniell hospital, where he is receiving treatment for injuries received in an automobile accident near Brownfield early Sunday afternoon.

The youth, who was riding in a 1946 Ford sedan driven by his brother, who was fatally injured, was taken to the hospital in a Brownfield Funeral Home ambulance. He is suffering from severe head and internal injuries.

Funeral services were held Tuesday for Jesse Aaron Odom, 18, brother of the critically injured youth, who died at 10:45 p.m. Sunday of injuries received in the collision.

Texas Highway Patrolmen Amos Eggen and Vic Atwood are continuing investigation of the accident, which occurred one half mile north of Brownfield on the Lubbock highway at about 1 p.m. Sunday.

A Mexican boy who witnessed the accident said that the Ford was being driven south when it and a 1938 Oldsmobile coach, which was being driven north, collided.

The Oldsmobile, owned by Robert Fininen, was occupied by three negro women, and the Ford was occupied by Jesse, James and Troy Odom, and three other youths.

All of the injured persons were brought to Treadaway-Daniell hospital in a Brownfield Funeral Home ambulance.

Receiving treatment at the hospital were Troy Odom, 20, brother of the other two Odom youths, dislocated hip and shock, still hospitalized; Finis Kirkpatrick, 15, treated for multiple abrasions and minor lacerations and released; and Donald Durham, 18, and Lonnie Mantooth, 16, treated for minor cuts and bruises and released; and the three Negro women.

The women were later sent to Chatman hospital in Lubbock for treatment.

Investigating officers said that both automobiles were heavily damaged.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

In this great land—freedom is slipping. Take work—the principal fragment of freedom left is the right to quit—a skimpy freedom. But as times goes on and we follow further in the footsteps of Ailee and Russia, the right to even quit may be in jeopardy.

Other freedoms are slipping too—like the freedom to grow. If you run a little laundry, you are okay so long as you keep it little. But you go to work and tear off fewer than average buttons, and your business grows big, what happen? You are undesirable. Or if you know something about kilowatts and choose to live in Oregon or Washington or Tennessee or a dozen other places, your freedom is tempered by our big government. The government will build the dams and power lines—Mr. Citizen is free to stand back—that is his freedom. It is proper and okay for the government to grow big—it is the real McCoy—but for a citizen to do likewise, he is a bad hombre.

Freedom is not 100 per cent on its last legs but it sits uneasy. It is almost time to buckle on our 6 shooter and begin the removal of some tail feathers from our New Thought leaders before we land in the same fix as did those old—but careless—Babylonians. The Bossman there led them up a blind alley—there is now no Babylon.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA

Many Big Plants Are Locating In Texas

AUSTIN — "Texas does" may well supplant "Texas brags" before the second half of the century is well begun. Such is the conclusion of Booth Mooney, who sums up 50 years of business activity, and takes a look at the next half century, in the March issue of "Texas Parade" magazine.

"Expert business opinion foresees a continued high level of capital investment in new industries, machinery and plant equipment and in commercial structures," Mooney writes.

He quotes Burt C. Blanton, Dallas consulting industrial engineer and industrial forecaster, as predicting that capital investments in Texas during 1950 will aggregate about $1,700,000,000.

By 1960, according to Blanton, there will be 10,000 industries operating in Texas, employing more than half a million production workers.

Texas will pace the nation's industrial growth and expansion," Blanton prophesies. Summing up the past 50 years, Mooney shows that there have been startling changes since 1900, when Texas depended mainly upon the cattle industry for its wealth. In 1901, the Spindletop oil field discovery changed the state's economy and offered a great new source of riches.

More recently, the billion-dollar basic chemical industry came to Texas, with about 150 plants scattered along the Gulf Coast. Expansion in this industry may be expected to continue for many years, Mooney says.

Much of Texas' industrial growth, the writer declares, has come about through the efforts of far-sighted business men who applied capital to the development of the state's natural resources.

"Capital is put to work productively in Texas," Mooney observes. "That explains the unprecedented growth of the last decade. It explains why Texans look forward with confidence to the second half of the Twentieth Century."

Word of God Is Christianity's Motive Power

THE rapid and remarkable growth of early Christianity is summed up in the brief, concentrated statement in Acts 19:20. "Mightily grew the word of the Lord, and prevailed."

There is the secret of the motive power of early Christianity, and for that matter of Christianity ever since, wherever and whenever it has displayed phenomenal effectiveness and growth.

These early Christians were responsive to the word of God. A Psalmist, many years earlier, had written, "Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against Thee." For these devout Christians, deeply responsive to their Scriptures, the word of God had become incarnated in the word of a living Christ, whom some of them had known, with whom they had walked and talked, and with whom they had sat on a mountain slope, as He revealed the good news of the Gospel and the mysteries of the Kingdom of God.

The word of the Lord was for them a word of enlightenment. In Paul's conversion "there fell from his eyes as it had been scales," and a typical experience of those who came in contact with Jesus, and listened responsively to His words, was, "We never saw it on this fashion" (Mark 2:12). It was a word of enlightenment.

The word of the Lord was for them a word of life—a word of new life. Paul described the experience in crisp words of fact. "If any man be in Christ, he is new creature; old things passed away; behold, all things are become new" (II Corinthians 5:17). And the effect of that expression "in Christ," was as much as to say in whatever place one lived. Christ was their environment, their atmosphere, the place where they lived.

Has it not always been so when men and women have taken their Master seriously, and have really lived the Christian life that they have professed? Vital Christianity is the world's supreme need. But, alas! much of our professed Christianity is only conventional and formal, untouched by the true spirit of Christ.

Oil Imports Must Be Curbed—Thompson

AUSTIN—The oil import problem calls for statesmanship of the highest order in the oil industry, says Ernest O. Thompson, member of the Texas Railroad Commission.

Writing in the March issue of Texas Parade magazine, Thompson says that responsibility for solving the problem belongs to officials of the oil importing companies.

"Most of these companies originated from small Texas companies," the commissioner says. "Surely they can be depended upon to protect our domestic independent producers along with their own domestic production and their own domestic sales to the public."

The problem is a critical one, Thompson points out, because importation of oil in large quantity badly cripples state revenues, a large part of which comes from taxes on oil produced in Texas.

Last year, according to Thompson's figures, the nation's oil exports dropped 23 per cent, while oil imports increased by 23 per cent.

"The increase in imports has been just about the amount that Texas has had to restrict her daily oil production," the writer

Lubbock Expecting Many Buyers

Everything from cowboy boots to the latest fashioned spring evening dresses will be displayed in the Western Wholesale Style Market to be held March 11, 12 and 13, on the first four floors of both the Lubbock and Hilton hotels. The semi-annual market is sponsored by the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce. Room after room of Easter and summer lines will be displayed by representatives of manufacturers and wholesale houses from all across the nation.

Merchants from this area and as far away as eastern New Mexico and Southwestern Oklahoma attend the market regularly. Most of the merchants find the market feasible due to the fact that they can attend the market, buy their merchandise and return home in a single day. Many of the buyers have declared the market to have as much to offer in the price, quality and display as markets in the metropolitan cities.

Venezuela is about the size of Texas and Louisiana together.

Patricia Sikes of Tahoka, was flower girl. She wore a dress and hat identical to that worn by the maid of honor. She carried a ruffled marquisette basket filled with yellow rose petals. Jimmy Briggs was ringbearer.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original dress of nylon over satin. The fitted bodice, which came to a point over the low waistline, featured a yoke of illusion net edged in ruffles of Chantilly lace. The full colonial skirt, which was worn over hops, was edged in lace and extended into a cathedral train. At the front hemline, the skirt was caught in three places with satin bows and clusters of seed pearls, revealing rows of lace on the satin underskirt. Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls, satin and esquins. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid surrounded by appleblossoms and tied with white satin streamers. Billy Hamilton was best man. A reception followed the ceremony.

Gee Gee's Chit Chat

Sure, and it's a great day for the Irish today. For the past few days around here all the moon-eyed, scratchy throated crooners have been giving out with all the good old Irish ballads. Which is okay if you have the voice for it, but most of them had best stick to their be-bop and the slaughter of the western songs. But, that isn't actually the point. The point of the thing is that today, March 17, Saint Patrick's Day, is being observed by every Irishman, whether he has one drop or 17 barrels of Irish blood running through his veins, in honor of the patron saint of Ireland. And to day, the "Wearing of the Green" will probably almost be worn out, but will probably get raged in time to go again next March 17.

Speaking of green, I've been carefully watching the papers (yes, I understand there are a FEW more newspapers other than the Herald, in circulation) in regard to the high school girls in Hobbs, N. M., dyeing their hair with Easter egg dye. It seems that all the girls have rather colorful locks these days, but the one that takes the cake is the gal with the green hair with pink polka dots. I am strongly considering experimenting with the dye. For a person like myself whose spouse refers to her as "the one with the dishwater blond hair," I could at least have an actual COLOR of hair.

How about the new traffic light at West Broadway and South Sixth streets? Mighty fine, I think. And finer still if we could get one at the intersection of the Lubbock-Tahoka highways, huh?

Time now to buy your Easter seals. The drive began this week and will continue through April 9, according to Lynn Nelson who is the 1950 drive chairman. Would you give $1500 for a crippled child???? It costs more than that to cure one.

Firemen and local law enforcement officers ask persons who go to fires and scenes of accidents just for curiosity's sake, to please keep out of the way. Your getting under the feet of men who are trying to save lives and property may cost you your own. So please, if you have no business there—stay away.

The mention of "cops" brings to mind that the local highway patrolmen, Vic Atwood and Amos Eggen, are getting a new face lifting on their office, which was moved recently from South Fifth to North Fifth street. I believe they also let Curtis Pruitt keep his torture chamber there. Curtis is the hardboiled man who sometimes doles out drivers licenses in Brownfield.

Do you know the secret word???

We have just about decided that a guy can become intoxicated with his feet on the accelerator just the same as with alcohol. The moment some climb into a car, they seem obsessed with a desire to become reckless. Whether they are morons or Smart Ales is beside the point; they become potential killers. A study made by the Highway patrol department discloses the fact that some people are virtually Milwaukee toasts in their home or shops, become a regular desperado when they get their feet on the gas. Not more than a few hours after the news of the fatal wreck Sunday spread over the area, we saw two such cases. One was on B, a through north-south street. This guy was doing at least 80 mph, when some of the crossings are somewhat obscured by fences or hedges. The other had to pass another car that was going fast enough at the juncture of Main and Fourth in the vicinity where hundreds of cars are parked in the theatre area. A lot of folks just off the lunatic fringe like to show how fast their new cars will run; demonstrate the pickup and the stop. Trouble is they are stopped sometimes after they have killed someone or themselves.

Admittedly, the good old USA could become the Utopia of our dreams if all could be guaranteed against all the miseries and heartaches that sometimes come with advancing age. But the part that is bitter to the thinking ones, is that some have to work and provide taxes to do all this fixing. If all of us could from childhood to senility lay all burdens aside, and have some robot provide the work and tax money, it would be a lovely dream. It would of course provide free food, clothing, medicine and hospitalization. The old bad, bad wolf would be afraid to approach our door. But as long as we are called upon to keep up half the rest of the world, feed, cloth and arm them, we just can't overburden ourselves with taxes. Yes, we know it is nice to dream, visualize and speculate. This old world we live in is still very real. We cannot afford to kill off the people who work and keep things going. We wonder if the dogooders ever stop to imagine or dream that the people of the United States are the best fed, clothed and housed in the world? Far better than those of other countries whom our leaders, or some of them, would emulate.

The American Farm Bureau as a national organization has gone on record against dismemberment of the A. P. setup. And they have been joined by quite a few of the labor union organizations. This may sound strange to the higher officials of the government who are carrying on the prosecutions, the whys and wherefores no one seems to know. First, the Farm Bureau says it would cause unnecessarily higher food prices and poorer distribution, and at the same time cheaper farm products. And further, that it would be a blow to free enterprise on which we have built the greatest nation on earth. As we understand it, the suit was not started at the instigation of the small businesses, even the small grocers, but by politicians apparently appealing to minority voting blocs. Just why any voting bloc would want our system of distribution wrecked, is not clear. Visitors from other nations say that the American way of food distribution is a century ahead of any other nation.

Quietly, very quietly, the northeast industrial states, comprising the New England group principally, have been scouting the south and southwest, with the view of locating new factories. Report reaching the press are to the effect that the secrecy is primarily for two reasons. The first is to hide their movements from Yankee union labor organizers. The second is to gumshoe past the watchfully waiting southern real estate circles. These are mere guessing, as the real reason for the spying recently came out of Woodssock, Conn. It was stated that manufacturers are checking on the advantages of short, mild winters in the south, with corresponding cheaper productions, and less layoffs on account of frigid weather. Another consideration is the fast expansion of the south agriculturally as well as industrially. In other words, these manufacturers that are hunting new sites say there is an endless chain process, the more agriculture is developed, the higher the buying capacity; the more and varied factories with payrolls will consume the farm products faster and therefore demand more and more manufactured articles. When you get ahead of a down east Yankee on figuring, you will have to be in a class with Einstein. To say the least, the movement of industry from the north-east USA to the south and southwest in the past twenty years has been rapid, and the rate more and more accelerated.

Pulp and paper mills are not only expanding in the south, but the manufacturers, according to a recent press release are seeing to it that there will be more timber to cut in the future. They are putting out around 45 million seedlings per year. They are now consuming some 10 million cords of slash pine in their paper and pulp mills annually, which accounts for 13 percent of the forest drain annually. Of course the biggest drain is in the way of lumber. The pulp and paper men have some 425 foresters on their payrolls. At present there are two huge newsprint mills in the south using slash pine, one at LaFkin, Texas, and one opening recently on the Coosa river in Alabama. Many others are talked, and no doubt will be built in an effort to try to pry loose from the strangle hold the Canadian mills now have on newsprint, such as this paper is printed on. Also, an effort is being made to get the secretary of the interior to permit the building of pulp and paper mills in Alaska. The Canadian mills have a monopoly now, producing near 90 percent of the newsprint paper used in the USA, and they can therefore set their own price.

That old snooping deal has already started as per iron curtain methods. And of course they have started to smother the press to start with. That is the first step in dictatorship. Did you read the article in the current issue of Saturday Evening Post? A GI and wife started a small paper and job office in a little Pennsylvania town, and by hard work, they began to see the light. Another GI who had been a printer to some extent, joined them. They had begun to repay a loan at the bank, and had a bit above expenses. The Snooper wanted to know if they paid each a salary, it being a corporation, and he was president and his wife vice-president. They did not. Asked the man if the law expected them to borrow from the bank or friends to pay their own salary, and make a note to repay the loan? He was not interpreting the law, just enforcing it, he allowed. Then he took them to task for printing envelopes for some one who might send them out of the state, "interstate commerce," you know. And to head it all some juveniles ran in to see if he had some circulars for them to distribute, and the Snooper began to question them, "child labor law" you understand. Yes, folks, it has already started. The welfare state is here, and when a free press is killed off, the rest of you guys as well close your door, hand the key to the nearest bureaucrat, and step out as a slave laborer.

Survey Reveals Rich Deposits In County

Following a visit to his office by David F. Tipple, assistant division freight and passenger agent of the Santa Fe Railway Company in Lubbock, a survey of Block K, Terry county was made by the Isbell Engineers of Brownfield and given to Wayne (Red) Smith, manager of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce. The material is to be made into a brief in book form and sent to the Santa Fe office in Chicago, as well as to all Chambers of Commerce in Texas.

Although the report covers only one survey, the engineers reported that there is reason to believe that the deposits extend to adjoining sections and that on the ground investigations will bear this out.

An analysis of water from Rich Lake shows:

Total dissolved solids	92,459 ppm.
Calcium	2,496 ppm.
Magnesium	7,500 ppm.
Sodium & Potassium	18,000 ppm.
Bi-carbonate	561 ppm.
Sulfate	40,577 ppm.
Chloride	23,700 ppm.
Total Hardness	37,040 ppm.

Springs and wells north and east of the lake are all mineralized with a hardness ranging from 1000 ppm to 3500 ppm.

The survey also showed that there are rich deposits of drilling clay, brick material and building stone.

Engineers said that their preliminary investigations showed that the building stone and brick materials showed enough promise to justify a more detailed quantity and markets survey.

In a meeting of the Safety Committee of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce, the following recommendations were made to the city council and school board:

1. That uniformed policemen be stationed in the high school block to direct foot traffic of students and enforce the speed limit. It is important that the policeman be in uniform and not in overalls or other makeshift uniform, if so he will have no effect whatsoever on the students or the car traffic.
2. That pedestrian lanes plainly be marked and school officials and the policeman see that they are used.
3. That the entire block be made a 15 mile speed limit and this law be enforced.
4. That the practice of double parking and triple parking be eliminated and this law enforced as recommended by the Department of Public Safety.

TERRY COUNTY HERALD, FRIDAY, MARCH 17, 1950

5. That students being called for by parents park into the curb at the specified zone for loading and unloading.

6. That parking be zoned for both students and teachers and these regulations should apply to Jessie G. Randal, West Ward, and high schools.

The safety Committee of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce realizing from history of the past, not only in Brownfield but in other cities as well, that there is usually a death or disaster before the citizens of the city realize the dangers that have existed for some time.

This is not an attempt to regulate anyone, but parents who have children in school realize the dangers that exist and the money involved would be practically negligible and could save the life of someone's child—may be your own.

A letter containing the above recommendations was sent to the mayor, the president of the school board, the school and county superintendents, and to presidents of the Parent-Teachers Association in each school.

E. B. McBurnett is head of the Safety Committee of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce.

In a letter from Senator Lyndon Johnson, to Wayne (Red) Smith, manager of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce, he advised that Brownfield is unacceptable as an auxiliary landing field for Reese Air Force Base (Lubbock) due to the short sod runways at the municipal airport.

A recommendation, prepared by Colonel Edward N. Backus, USAF, who is deputy director of the Directorate of Legislation and Liaison, was enclosed with Senator

Johnson's letter.

Clovis, N. M., which is some 90 miles west of Lubbock, was the only acceptable auxiliary field.

Senator Johnson stated in his letter to Smith that Brownfield's interest in the matter was appreciated and that, in the event the local airport is improved and the occasion arose, he felt sure that Brownfield would be considered for an auxiliary field.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne (Red) Smith and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Virgil Crawford attended the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet in Tahoka March 16. Smith is manager of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce, and Crawford is president of the chamber.

The United States Senate Interior and Insular Affairs Committee hearing on the Canadian River Dam project is set for April 18, according to a telegram from Senator Lyndon Johnson sent to the local chamber of commerce.

"Red" Smith contacted Clarence Whiteside, chairman of a committee concerning the project in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce; D. A. Brandeen, president of the WTCC; and Raymond Lee Johns, of the Panhandle Plains branch of the WTCC, asking their representatives at the hearing to represent Brownfield as well. All of the men acknowledged Brownfield's interest in the project and have offered their help in our participation.

Anyone who has suggestions for civic improvements in Brownfield and Terry county are asked to contact Smith at 606 W. Main or call 641-M.

Gov. Shivers Lauds Work of Special Session

Governor Allan Shivers, reporting to the people of Texas on work of the special session of the legislature which ended last week, declared that the purpose for which the session was called had been fully accomplished.

The session was convened to raise money to operate the state hospital system during the next fiscal year and to finance a long-range building program for the institutions included in the system. The Governor reported that the legislature made $21,000,000 available for operating the system and established a building fund of $5,000,000 a year for seven years.

"As a result of this progressive step, Gove. Shivers said, "our state hospitals will be places where sick people can be brought back to mental and physical health—rather than unsafe, unsanitary places of confinement where they exist without much comfort and without much hope of a permanent cure."

"Thus the 51st Legislature, already distinguished as a Legislature that has attempted to give Texas one of the finest school systems in the United States; that was the first Legislature to provide for system of rural roads, and a Legislature that made a long step toward the control of juvenile delinquency, has now crowned its record with this humanitarian legislation of enduring merit and continued benefits."

Money to finance the program will be raised through an increase of one cent per package in the cigarette tax and in slightly increased levies on beer, wine, whiskey, natural resources, public utilities, insurance companies and other items included in a tax bill passed in 1941.

The purpose for which the lawmakers were summoned was carried out in the first 24 days of the session the Governor said. The remainder of the 20-day session was devoted to passage of other emergency legislation.

"These additional acts mean," Gov. Shivers pointed out, "that from now on, we will be protected by more stringent and comprehensive laws against sex crimes; that telephone service will be easier to secure in the rural areas of the state; that the search for a cure for cancer will be accelerated at the M. D. Anderson hospital in Houston; that our battle against federal control of our tidelands will continue unabated, and that the legal status of many newly created or consolidated public school districts over the state has been established."

The Governor declared that the session's record provides "conclusive proof" that business methods will work in government.

The success of this session is a tribute to the business approach

CORPORATION CHARTERS ON THE INCREASE

AUSTIN, Texas, March 17—Charters were granted to 368 firms with a capitalization of $6,395,000 in January, 1950, as compared with 234 charters granted in December 1949 with a capitalization of $4,606,000, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reported.

A total of 317 charters were issued in 1949.

Corporations with a capitalization of $5,000 to $100,000 received 190 charters in January. Businesses with a capitalization of less than $5,000 totaled 113 charters, and 8 charters were issued to firms with a capitalization of over $100,000.

to governmental problems," he said.

He explained that the accomplishments were made possible, first, by vision: "a grasp of the problem and a conception of the solution;" second, by orderly planning, participated in by a wide segment of the state's population, and, third, by "the cooperative action of the Legislature, the administration, the state hospital board and all the individuals, groups and organizations that had interested themselves in the program."

Governor Shivers said this formula was submitted to the people of Texas "as a sound basis for present and future operation of our state government."

Radiation May Effect Many Generations

LUBBOCK—The best information that American scientists have indicates that the soil around Hiroshima and Nagasaki, Japan, will be radioactive with particles from the A-bomb for about 1,700 years, Dr. J. C. Cross, Texas Tech biologist, reports.

Dr. Cross, professor and head of the Tech biology department, says that from a genetics standpoint, no conclusions about the effects of radiation can be made until the exposed Japanese have produced a number of offspring.

"Our known patterns of radiation tell us that we can expect anything insofar as heredity is concerned," he says.

"About all we can say is that the outlook is very black," he adds. He says the use of geiger counters in connection with radiation studies "might be of doubtful value" from a genetics standpoint.

LYNN NELSON STILL HAVING TOUGH LUCK WITH CLOCKS

Lynn Nelson, as we related a few weeks ago, was having trouble replacing small electric motors on some of the clocks that were evidently made and palmed off on jewelers during the war. And Lynn told us last week that some of the cog wheels, for instance, were made of fibre or plastics.

Of course they soon wear out, and must be replaced if the firm that made them is still in business. If not the whole clock must be junked. Now that would irk some people no little, but somehow Lynn can always smile no matter the going.

GI Bill which stipulates that a veteran must attend a State-approved school or training establishment to receive VA benefits.

Q—Will VA guarantee my loan for the purchase of residential property containing more than one family unit? I am a World War II veteran.

A—Yes, but the total number of separate units in the apartment cannot be more than four if you are the only buyer. If other veterans are joining with you in the purchase, then one additional unit may be added to the above mentioned four for each veteran participating in the purchase.

Q—Where does Veterans Administration conduct medical examinations for rating purposes?

A—Examination for rating purposes are made whenever possible in regional and sub-regional offices. If more convenient, they may be made in VA hospitals or by VA designated private physicians.

Q—Have I any recourse to civil courts if I do not like the decision of Veterans Administration on my claim for disability compensation?

A—No. The law specifically provides that the decision of the Administrator of Veterans Affairs in such matters is final and conclusive.

Forrest Weimbold To Seek State Representative Post

Forrest Weimbold, publisher of The Hockley County Herald and the Sun-News and owner of Radio Station KLVT and Weimbold Printing and Office Supply, Levelland and The Morton Tribune, Morton, announced Friday afternoon that he would be a candidate for State Representative of the 119th District of Texas in the Democratic Primary, July 22.

The 119th district is composed of nine counties including: Hockley, Cochran, Crosby, Dawson, Gaines, Lubbock, Lynn, Terry and Yoakum. At the present time the district is represented in the State Legislature by Preston Smith of Lubbock.

It is widely rumored over the state that Mr. Smith will not seek re-election as Representative of the 119th district, but will announce his candidacy for Lieutenant-Governor soon.

Weimbold, who is 36 year old and married has been a citizen of the South Plains for the past 25 years and is a native West Texan. He graduated from Texas Technological College, Lubbock, in 1936 and owned and operated The Sudan News with his father, the late H. H. Weimbold, who was a pioneer West Texas newspaper publisher, until 1939 when he purchased The Hockley County Herald and moved to Levelland.

Since being a citizen of Hockley county, Weimbold has been active in all civic and county affairs, being a past president of both the Levelland Rotary Club and the Hockley County Board of developments, as well as a director of these organizations and the Hockley County Fair Association, and other local organizations. He is also a past director of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Weimbold is treasurer and a director of Hotel Levelland, Inc., a community enterprise.

The Levelland publisher has been active in the various professional organizations, as he is president of the West Texas Press Association, as well as a past president of the Panhandle Press Association and has served on the executive board of the Texas Press Association for the past four years. He is also a director of the Texas Technological College Alumni and Ex-Students association, and a member of the Tech Museum membership committee.

Weimbold served about three years in the United States Army Air Force during World War II, 16 months of which time was spent in the China-Burma-India theater.

During Weimbold's army ser-

MRS. BARTLETT HOSTESS TO NEEDMORE CLUB

Mrs. Lee Bartlett was hostess to members of the Needmore Home Demonstration club in her home March 10.

Recreation was under the direction of Mrs. Curtis Hulse. Several interesting games were played. The club bought a Cokesbury game book to help her. Money was put aside to buy a gift for the winner in these games.

The business session was called to order by the president. Ten old members and two new members answered with a favorite ironing trick. Minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Norvel Hulse.

Mrs. Jewell Bell gave a very interesting demonstration of tips on sewing in zippers, making the piped buttonhole, and pressing.

A report was made from the Messenger by Mrs. Norvel Hulse. Refreshments were served and the meeting adjourned.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Harry Cornelius, on March 25.

We were very proud of our two new members, Mrs. D. R. Smith Jr., and Mrs. W. E. Patten.—Reporter.

B. R. LAY ENTERS RACE FOR COMMISSIONER PRECINCT NO. 3

After due consideration, I have decided to make the race for County Commissioner, Precinct No. 3. Will say that I have spent the last seven years in Terry county. Have farmed most of my life in Howard and Terry counties until last year, at which time I purchased the Johnson store.

I believe I am fully qualified for this office, both in the matter of looking after the roads of the precinct, as well as the financial end of the matter. Will also state that I shall consider the funds of the precinct and of Terry county as a public trust, and will at all times see to it that the money is as wisely spent as possible.

There are some in the precinct that I have not personally met, but will try to see each voter in the precinct before election.

Your vote and influence will be highly appreciated.

B. R. LAY

vice, The Hockley County Herald was managed and operated by his wife, the former Ruth Maples of Spur. Weimbold is a member of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars organizations.

"I feel that I am well acquainted with the problems and needs of the peoples of the 119th district and that I am qualified with experience and ability to capably represent this large district in the Texas State Legislature," Weimbold said in making his announcement.

"I fully realize that it is imperative that every economy be exercised in our state government as well as all other branches, and that for each tax dollar spent, 100 cents worth of value must be received," he stated.

"I believe that I can serve the people of this district well as State Representative, and sincerely solicit the support, influence and vote of each citizen who believes in good, sound, common sense state government. I promise to serve all sections of the district fairly and impartially," Weimbold concluded. A full statement will be made later.

Weimbold is the first candidate to publicly announce his candidacy as State Representative of the 119th district in the coming Democratic primary.

CARNIVAL TIME IN CUBA—Carrying traditional "farolas," natives cavort down a Havana street, marking the opening of carnival season. "Comparsas"—Negro folk dances—were the feature of the opening night festivities.

Old Temple Star Song Heard On Radio

Monday night we had the radio tuned on one of the "Border Stations Down Mexico Way," and heard a song by a quartet that we used to hear as a child back at the old New Hope church in Tennessee, as well as frequently at home, when two or three of the older brothers wished to harmonize a bit.

With the exception of the long gab the sponsors have to put out, or the barking preachers of Denver, Kansas City and other big burbs who imagine they are great, we like to listen to these stations with their hillbilly music. But occasionally there are some good quartets, mostly records we imagine.

Tuesday night we heard a mixed quartet render several old and new religious hymns. The one mentioned above, the chorus as follows:

"Far away beyond the starlit sky,
Where the love light never,
never die,
Gleameth a mansion, filled with delight,
Sweet happy home so bright."

There are literally hundreds of the old tunes, some of them originating in the old countries hundreds of years ago, that will never die. The song above mentioned perhaps first appeared in a song book known as Temple Star about 1880, and was published in Virginia.

Announcement

To the Voters of Terry County: I wish to take this opportunity to present myself as a candidate for the office of County School Superintendent of Terry county.

I have been a resident of Terry county for the past four years, during which time I have been engaged in farming four and one half miles southeast of Brownfield. The past two years I have been teaching in Meadow high school.

I hold a Life Certificate, and have done my college work in West Texas State College and Hardin-Simmons University. I have studied law two years.

I have been teaching for twenty-seven years. I was teaching in 1917, when I resigned to enter the armed forces of the U. S. in the World War I. I served 15 months about half of which was overseas. I am a member of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars. I have three sons and a son-in-law who served overseas in World War II and my daughter was a member of the Cadet Nurse Corps. I have taught as a Principal of a three teacher rural school, Principal of Rule schools, Superintendent of Rochester schools, Superintendent of Mattson rural high school all in Haskell county. I was Principal of Sunnyside school in Castro county for three years, which was attached to Dimmitt high school.

I feel I am qualified from study and experience to fill this responsible office, as I have had many years of experience as an administrator in the various types of schools which are under supervision of the county superintendent. Having had experience as a rural teacher and superintendent of a consolidated rural high school I feel that I understand the many problems that will be handled through this office.

If you, the voters, feel like giving me this responsible position I feel it would be a crowning achievement and reward for twenty seven years of teaching in the public schools of Texas. I will endeavor to see each and every voter before the July election.

Your vote and influence will be appreciated.

Yours respectfully,

ELMER C. WATSON

LOSE TRUCK IN SEAGRAVES FIRE

A very serious fire occurred at Seagraves Monday, when a butane truck, said to belong to Messrs. R. J. Purcell and R. O. Black of this city, took fire at a Cities Service Station at Seagraves. Both the truck and service station were a complete loss.

The owner of the service station said his loss ran over $3000 and the truck, almost new, was said to have cost $3200. Mr. Purcell stated at Seagraves that liability insurance they carried, would perhaps cover the loss to the filling station.

Stricklinly Speaking

By Old He

Sometimes we are led to wonder what people find about stamp collecting that amuses or interests them. This also goes for "gopher" match boxes. But just this week, we noted a match folder in our bath room with an ad of Don Herron way out at Compton, California. Don happened to marry a niece of the Old He, and the case, box or folder could be easily accounted for.

But then, we returned to our easy chair, filled the old pipe and looked for a match. There was an extra big folder of gophers nearby. On the outside it announced, "It's a boy." On the inside, the little gentleman's name and weight was given, but whose, it sayeth not.

The past week we got some nice publications from Tennessee. One was the annual report of Tennessee Gas Transmission Co. Rather familiar, as all the directors, except one each from Dallas, Fort Worth and Beaumont were from "Heavenly Houston," and all officers from that burg, and even the headquarters domiciled in their own Houston skyscraper.

But the TGT means much to the little town of Middleton, Tenn., as one of the compressor headquarters (No. 9) is located there, and gives some 300 people employment, among them some of our kin. But the monthly publication, "The Line," also published at Houston, had a real Tennessee Edition, and the pictures in it was what we liked. It not only had some scenes in the Big Smokies that we saw a few years ago, but one of the state's shrines, The Hermitage, home of Andrew Jackson, for whom we were named. We also visited this place in our rounds that year.

Perhaps most people think some of the western national parks, or perhaps some in the Catskill mountains of New York, would be the most popular as well as the most visited parks in the USA. But the Big Smokies have all the others backed off the boards by big odds.

The Herald thanks the local force of the International Harvester Co. for an exact replica of the Farmal tractor that came in Saturday by mail. It was a beauty, but our little grandson, Robert "talked us out of it." Anyway, thanks to the IHC bunch here who submitted our name.

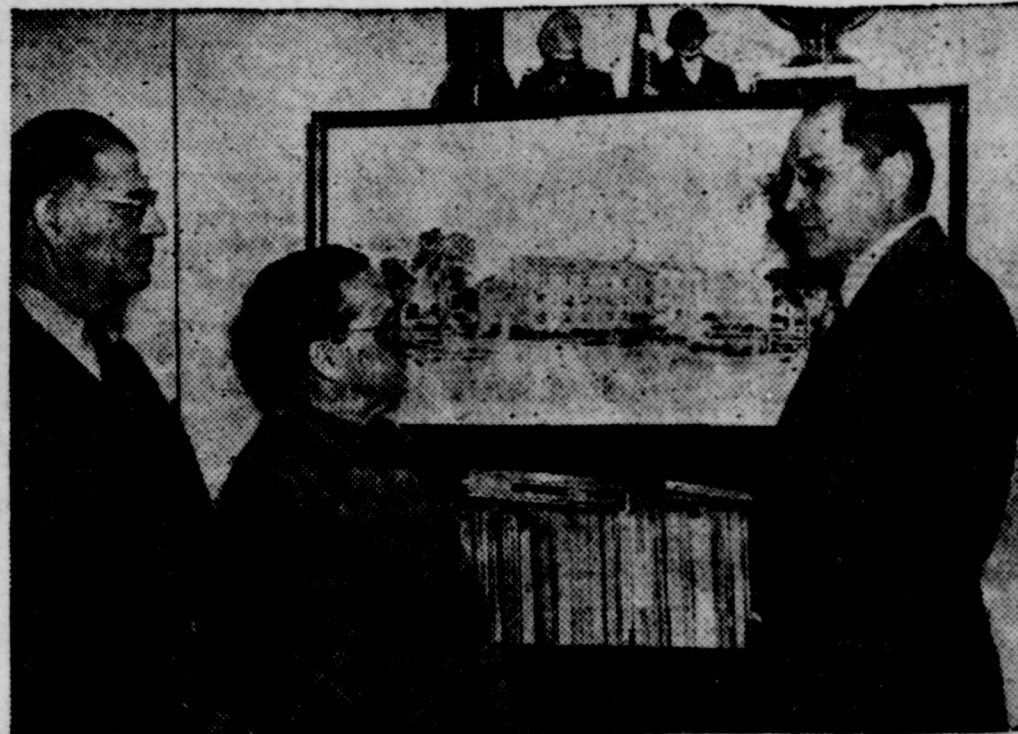

The greatest inconvenience we can see in having triplets born on three consecutive days is the future. What day will be selected by them as the day to have the birthday party? Will Sallie, Susie and Sarah decide on the middle day, or the first or last day of the series of birthdays?

Our consultant and counselor at law, Billie Joseph McGowan came along about the time the above speculation was written. BJMac suggests all three of the three-plets be given a separate birthday celebration. Now you ladies who expect triplets in your home may take this matter up with our lawyer.

A lot of good people who are able to control their appetites think the so-called Alcoholic is the bunk—they just don't try to control their craving for liquor. On the other hand, have you noted how many fat men and especially women of your acquaintance will sit and munch candy and rich cake? And they know good and well they are simply insulting their stomachs, and adding extra poundage.

The hardest nut we ever undertook to crack was quitting all uses of tobacco. We did it OK, even for a whole year, but we developed such a ravenous appetite that we took indigestion, and our doctor told us it was better to use the weed than to suffer the disease. We agreed.

So far as we know, the best way to write such truck as we produce herewith would be to use the scissors, and lift them from our exchanges. But the force keeps the scissors hidden.

CAPS and lower case, a house organ we get, gave us a few ideas on the apple, a sample of which we produce herewith—one a day keeps the doctor away—they make the teacher happy—the first fruit mentioned in the Bible, and caused quite a family stir—the juice makes quite a popular drink—can be eaten raw or cooked, and the only fruit animals really like, particularly the horse—apple of your eye is quite a compliment to a girl friend, and the story of William Tell and his bow and arrow will live on and on.

Just about the time the Old He became an active member of the Farm Bureau, a piece came out in the dailies that the people over in Arizona who were starving, were abiding in PB huts. Well, at least us farmers were furnishing the famished with some kind of shelter. Other should look at their feed and clothing.

At times it is rather hard to head the juveniles. The old man was showing some displeasure at the offspring's report card, which was admittedly poor. In answer to some criticism, the youngster allowed: "Well, I have been promoted each year of the first six, while you have been the same assistant sales manager for the past ten years."

The Texas highway department has recently put out a rather pretty as well as interesting brochure, especially devoted to the Traffic Service Division, and opens with this little bit of rhyme:

The sun has riz,
The sun has set,
And here we is,
In Texas yet.

The supposed tourist evidently entered the state in the vicinity of Marshall, for there is the green grass and tall pines, as well as oil well derricks. But now the old jiteny is way out in west Texas as the sun goes behind the mountains. There is the usual cactus and bleaching skeleton of animals but the "towerist" has many miles to go to make the 900 across the biggest state.

Of course State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer may be a native of the pine section and has no particular love for the wide open spaces. And while no stametes are available, five dollars will get Mr. Greer ten if we can't prove that the per capita wealth is greater in Texas west of Cisco, with a line drawn north and south than they are east from Bonham, with a line north and south through the state. How about it Mr. Greer?

Most of us like the guy that is easy on the draw—draw a check in our favor, that is.

Us westsiders are talking of bringing out a candidate for "Cunstabull." There are three running on the eastside. We might consider announcing some nice gent free.

Explored Scouts To Visit RAFB

Dr. C. C. Schmidt, chairman of the camping committee of the South Plains Council announced today a rendezvous of all Explorer Scouts to be held at Reese Air Force base near Lubbock, March 24-25.

Explorers will arrive at the base after school on Friday, March 24. The rendezvous will open with dinner at 7:30 p.m. Each group will bring their tents and bedrolls.

All explorers 14 years of age and up are urged to attend. Reservations must be made with the Council office, 2109 Avenue X, in Lubbock, by March 18. No registrations will be accepted after this date. Major S.S. Williamson of Reese Air Force Base and Scout Executive W. R. Postma are handling all arrangements.

The population of Venezuela is about 4,500,000.

Tech Students Will Study Dust Storms

Nobody in the South Plains is going to be accused of perverting the facts. Dust storms do exist. But a research project at Texas Technological college, Lubbock, is aimed at the discovery of useful information through study of dust storms and their intensity.

student, has begun a sedimentation study in the department of geology that will deal exclusively with dust and sand storms. Cox plans to collect sediment carried by the wind at different levels (from the ground to around 100 feet above the surface). He hopes to relate the collected particles to wind velocity and direction, and perhaps learn more about the technical conditions which bring about the "dusters."

John Anglin, Tenor Here Next Thursday

Any concert artist will tell you that auditions are the bane of his existence—that auditions are the most grueling, nerve-wracking things of the business.

That is, with the possible exception of John Anglin, the great young Negro tenor who will sing here on Thurs., March 23, under the auspices of Brownfield Concert Association.

Recently Anglin was called to New York City to audition for several of the country's leading concert managers. The result—a packful of signed contracts which will keep this young artist busy from early June to well into next year.

New York's famous Carnegie Hall was the setting. The audition, for managers from Atlanta, Minneapolis and Winnipeg, had been set for 2:00 p.m. After a stroll in Central Park, John and his accompanist, Kelley Wyatt, reported to the stage door, and were ushered to the bare stage.

Carnegie Hall without lighting and crowds, seems like nothing more than a cheerless, empty loft. A couple of work lights for the cleaners provided the glamor; the audience consisted of perhaps a dozen people.

But Anglin walked to the piano announced his first number and sang as if the hall were full. By its finish the dozen persons sounded like at least a hundred. By the end of the second number the applause was tremendous.

Then Anglin requested permission to sing the spiritual he has sung without accompaniment in every concert he has ever given, "Steal Away to Jesus." More was unnecessary. Contracts were figuratively thrown at him along with enthusiastic congratulations.

After the close of his current tour of the West, Anglin will begin an extensive series of engagements in Minnesota, Wisconsin and the Dakotas. Next fall will find him making his first tour of the Southeastern states, and early in 1951 he will tour Canada.

Von Forbus Cast In College Show

Miss Von Forbus, a freshman music major at Sul Ross college, was selected to present three numbers on the Varsity show at the college March 9. The show was such a success that it is being carried to neighboring schools in South Texas. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. "Shorty" Forbus.

In the show Von does a tap-acrobatic dance, with the boy's orchestra and chorus, of putting "Dem Bones" together in a very unique and clever arrangement. She also does a toe dance when the girl's chorus sings "Stardust," and is a member of the "Von and Don" dance team, which does a ballroom routine of modern dancing.

Von is drum majorette of the Sul Ross college band and is active on the campus. She is a graduate of Brownfield high school and was drum majorette of the BHS band.

Laverne Collier, who is in the display department of Hemphill Wells, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Collier, Sunday.

Terry County Pioneer Has 94th Birthday

On March 8th, Mrs. W. N. Copeland of Lubbock, celebrated her 94th year on this terrestrial ball. There was a nice writeup of the affair in the Lubbock Avalanche, and that publication kindly furnished us a mat for more localized writeup down here in Terry, their first home after moving to the plains. Of course the ladies of Lubbock called to congratulate the good lady on her longevity, and to wish her more birthdays.

There are several living here that have known Mrs. Copeland for almost a half century. The writer for 41 years has claimed friendship with this very fine old pioneer lady; our wife a few years longer. The main reason for this writeup is to show you the picture in cut and type of a lady who really knows pioneering.

She started it off as a new bride down in Coke county, when she made her home in a tent made of buffalo hides. They later moved to Rannels county where her husband served as county clerk.

Judge Copeland moved his family to Terry county in 1901, and they settled on some four sections of land near old Meadow which is some 4 or 5 miles east of the present Meadow, which was moved to the railroad when it came through in 1917. He put in a store at old Meadow, and applied for a postoffice, which was then the furthest from a railroad in the United States. The closest was Canyon on the north, and Colorado City and Big Spring on the south.

But the selection of a name for the new postoffice had to be decided on, and it must be something new in Texas postoffices. With abundant rains that year the prairies were green, and full of wild flowers. With no intention of naming the postoffice, someone casually remarked: "Isn't the 'meadow' pretty?" "That's it," says Judge Copeland, "we'll call the postoffice Meadow." And so it was.

After the county was organized, he moved to Brownfield and became the first county judge of Terry county. Up to 1904, Terry had been attached to Martin county (Stanton) for judicial purposes. Yoakum county was until its organization about 1907, at the same time, attached to Terry for judicial purposes. After the writer came to Terry county in 1909, Judge Copeland was elected as a county commissioner in 1910, of Precinct No. 1.

MRS. W. N. COPELAND

Up in the 'teens, his daughter, Miss Irene, married Manion Cosby, a Lubbock druggist, and the Judge and Cosby formed a partnership and bought the Red Cross Drug store on the west side of the square at Lubbock. So, the old pioneers bid farewell to their many friends in Terry and moved to Lubbock. But the friendship ties lasted, and all Terryites would call at the drug store when they visited Lubbock.

We remember that the old timers here used to guy Judge Copeland about being a Coke county rabbit twister. And some said he brought his barbed wire "twister" to Terry with him. The Herald, as well as other old friends here in Terry wish Terry's first, First Lady, many returns of the day.

High prize went to Mrs. Crites, and Mrs. Chambers was second high. Mrs. Hackney and Mrs. Barrett binged.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Duncan, Richard and Martha, spent the week end in Alpine with Mrs. Duncan's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stephenson.

LAS AMIGAS CLUB MET ON MARCH 9

The Las Amigas bride club met at the Esquire restaurant March 9. Mrs. Chad Tarpley was hostess.

The guest list included Mesdames Gordon Richardson, Jack Cleveland, O. L. Stice, Clovis Kendrick, Mike Barrett, J. T. Hoy, Burton Hackney, Tom Harris, Dick Chambers, Jerry Kirschner, Harold Crites and Ruth Huckabee.

High prize went to Mrs. Crites, and Mrs. Chambers was second high. Mrs. Hackney and Mrs. Barrett binged.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Duncan, Richard and Martha, spent the week end in Alpine with Mrs. Duncan's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stephenson.

UNIVERSITY TO MAKE STUDY OF "REEF"

AUSTIN, Texas—A project for contributing to basic knowledge of geologic reefs is underway by the University of Texas Bureau of Economic Geology and the United States Geological Survey. Reefs in carboniferous rocks in North-Central Texas from the Bend arch country to the Midland basin's eastern edge will be studied on the cooperative research project.

"We realize this reef area is now under active petroleum development," said Bureau Director John T. Lonsdale. "However our project is designed to contribute to basic knowledge and is not concerned primarily with the present oil exploration."

Permanent preservation of well cores is made possible at the Bureau's Well Sample Library at the University's Off-Campus Research Center. More than two million samples representing over 25,000 wells are available for study by oil companies, economic geologists and students.

ISRAEL LACKS NIGHT CLUBS

Culberson Announces For Governor

AUSTIN, Tex., March 17—Olin Culberson, a member of the Railroad Commission, has announced his candidacy for Governor of Texas in the following statement: "Firmly believing that a change in attitude is necessary toward the wasteful operation and run-away cost of our state government, I am formally announcing my candidacy for Governor of Texas. My filing fee has been mailed to John C. Calhoun, chairman of the State Democratic committee."

A great deal has been said about the soaring cost of the federal government. In the fifteen year period between 1935 and 1950, and exclusive of the cost of wars and affairs incidental to them, the annual cost of the federal government has increased 280 per cent.

"But little has been said about the fact that during the same period 1935 to 1950, the cost of our own state government has increased almost 500 per cent—from $111,000,000 in 1935 to approximately $550,000,000 in 1950."

"The policy seems to be to spend for most any purpose when money is available, and then levy a new tax when some emergency arises. We have seen just such a situation in the last few weeks when an $80,000,000 sales tax was placed upon the people of Texas.

"Much is always said about the emergency, but never a word about the wasteful and extravagant policies that emptied the treasury and created the emergency. The talk is always about some necessity for spending more, but never about the need for spending less and spending it more wisely.

"I propose to talk about such things in my campaign which will be opened later and carried to every section of Texas."

MULE TEAM IS MAKE BELIEVE
NORTH HOLLYWOOD, CALIF.—(AP)—A. J. McKnight, 60, who handles horses and mules for movie studios, has always wanted to drive a 20-mule team. The closest he's come to this ambition was 30 years ago when he enthusiastically watched a team clip-clop across the wastes of Death Valley. A year ago he settled for the next best thing—make believe.

With clay and wood he settled down to making a scale model of a fully equipped team in action. Now McKnight has a replica authentic down to the last harness buckle.
