Chamber of Commerce Endorses Bond Election

The Brownfield Chamber of Commerce looking forward to the continued growth of the city, authorized Wayne (Red) Smith to release for publication the endorsement of the city council's decision to call a bond election for the purpose of extending utility and building of the new combination City Hall, fire station and police station.

The Brownfield Chamber of Commerce is in a position to know the facts and are receiving comments daily, both written and oral, concerning the needs of the city. Therefore, we recommend that the citizens of Brownfield go to the polls on June 12, and vote for the bond election submitted for your approval.

We believe that Brownfield can be anything its citizens want it to be. This city advances only on the efforts and achievements of the individual—"you are the individual."

- Here are some of the facts we want to make clear:
1. That only $132,000 of the total amount is tax bonds. The remainder of this issue is revenue bearing bonds.
  2. That if Brownfield continues to progress we must have more utility expansion.
  3. That when the new unit is installed at the power plant there will not be enough room for a fire fighting equipment.
  4. That when Brownfield has a part time paid fire department we will be forced to furnish quarters for the firemen.
  5. That industry will not move into a city that does not have proper utilities including gas, water, electricity, street improvements and proper sewage.
  6. That your taxes will only be raised ten or fifteen cents on the hundred dollars.
  7. That Brownfield has and still will have one of the lowest if not the lowest tax rates of any city its size in the state of Texas.

In concluding may we state that we know the city council spent many hours studying the advantages of this bond election, and that much thought and time was given to such before making a decision and if you will stop and consider that the members of the Brownfield city council have all lived here for many years, and are considering the present and future needs of Brownfield in calling this bond election.

With these statements in mind, we ask you to support the bond issue and the Brownfield City Council in calling the bond election.

MONTHLY TRADES DAY COMING UP MONDAY

Despite the fact that only a few of the merchants seemed to be interested that the monthly Tradesday is coming up Monday, some are offering rare bargains for that day. Read them.

Perhaps some thought the men folks would be busy planting. But it must be remembered that some 85 per cent of family purchases are made by the female portion of the family.

51 Cut-off Draws Fire From Local Citizens

Announcement that work was about to begin on the proposed Highway 51 cut-off, which will leave the Levelland highway north of town, utilize part of the cemetery road, cross Highway 380 and continue southward to connect with the Seagraves and Lamasa roads south of town, drew rather brisk opposition from a group of local citizens, mostly property owners on the present route, at an open-air public meeting of the commissioners court held Monday afternoon in the bandstand on the courthouse lawn.

Announcement of the proposed project was made public over a year ago and complete right-of-way has been secured for some time.

At the meeting, the measure was discussed at length, both pro and con, by local citizens as well as out-of-town lawyers.

After each side had presented its case, County Judge H. R. Winston asked the court if any member wished to present a motion that its previous action be rescinded. No such motion being presented, Judge Winston adjourned the court and it is presumed that construction on the project will commence unless further developments arise.

Those from the Brownfield chapter who plan to attend are Doug Tankersley, Bobby Latham, Jerry Anderson, Crawford Burrow, Billy Don Noble, Bobby Ferguson, Paul Billings, Herbie Kendrick, Jerry King, Johnny Cloud, Lyle Shelton and Don Anderson.

Sponsors who will accompany the group will be Glen Akers, Dr. Gordon Richardson, C. K. Kendrick and Everett Latham.

High School Band Will Play Concert

Young said that this will be the only scheduled performance for the band during the summer.

A full one and one half hour program will be presented, featuring soloists and guest conductors.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

WILL OSBORNE

Will Osborne Band Plays Here June 7

Will Osborne, who brings his famous "Slide Music" to Veterans Hall on Wednesday, June 7, has wielded a very definite influence on the development of modern popular American music. Both as a conductor and composer, his ability to convey his ideas and thoughts, musically speaking, have exerted strong guidance in the growth and maturity of "smooth rhythms" styling.

With the era of swing following its predecessor, jazz, into near oblivion, the suave, smooth, danceable, melodic Osborne tailored arrangements have moved forward into first place in popular acceptance. And Osborne has, in forwarding the ballad and sweet,

Here 'Tis Lads; Call Goes Out For Legior Jr. Ballplayers

J. B. Huckabee, who has taken a leading part in Legion Junior Baseball the past several years, has called a meeting Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the American Legion Hall for all eligible boys who are interested in taking part in the Legion Junior Baseball program this year. Any boy whose 17th birthday did not fall before January 1, this year, is eligible to participate. Huckabee states there is no limit as to how young a boy is. "If he's big enough to swing a bat, we'll find a place for him," Huck said.

Huckabee said that a coach had not been named for the group at the present, but a competent person would be selected. He also stated that any boy, whether he made the first team or not, would get to play plenty of baseball. "Prospects are fairly good," Huckabee said, "for a team fully as good as the one last year, which placed second in the south half of the district."

The American Legion would appreciate the donation of any old baseball equipment, such as shoes, gloves, bats, etc.

State Bank Increases Board; Ups Capital, Surplus and Reserve Account to $500,000

J. O. Gillham, president of the Brownfield State Bank & Trust Co., announced this week that the stockholders had voted to increase the capital of the bank from $150,000 to $200,000 and the surplus account from $150,000 to $200,000. This increase in capital funds was effected by the sale of 2500 additional shares in the bank to present stockholders on a pro rata basis. The Brownfield State Bank & Trust Co. now has the largest capital and surplus of any bank in the entire Panhandle-South Plains area with the exception of banks in Amarillo, Lubbock and Pampa.

Mr. Gillham also announced that the board of directors of the bank had been increased from five to nine and the following Brownfield business men have been elected to the board: Grady Goodpasture, C. C. Primm, A. M. Muldrow and J. M. Teague Jr. These men were elected to the board in addition to the following already members of the board: J. O. Gillham, chairman, Leo Holmes, J. B. Knight, Bruce Zorns and J. E. Gillham.

Mr. Gillham gave the following statement with reference to the increase in capital funds and additions to the board of directors. "Due to the rapid growth of our business during the last few years and the bright prospects for our future growth, it was deemed desirable to increase our capital accounts. It will give us added strength and capacity to handle our ever increasing volume of business and will give us capital sufficient to meet the needs of a growing community. With this increase in capital and surplus accounts, our bank will now have capital of $200,000, surplus of $200,000 and undivided profit and reserve accounts of over $100,000. We feel extremely fortunate in obtaining the services of Grady Goodpasture, C. C. Primm, A. M. Muldrow and J. M. Teague Jr., all outstanding young business leaders of Brownfield. All have been very successful in their own affairs and we feel that their advice and counsel will be valuable to our bank."

Mr. Goodpasture was raised in Brownfield and is a fine example of home boy who made good. He is president and owner of the Goodpasture Grain & Milling Co. Inc., and has large farming interests.

Mr. Primm is owner of the Primm Drug Store, mayor of Brownfield and prominent civic leader. He has been a resident of Brownfield for many years and has attained unusual success in his chosen vocation.

Mr. Muldrow has been a resident of Brownfield for several years and owns Muldrow Grain Co., also large farming interests in Terry county. He is active civic leader being president this year of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce and is very active in American Legion affairs.

Two Negroes were treated at Treadaway-Daniell hospital late Sunday for minor cuts and bruises following an accident at about 6:40 p. m., four miles north of Brownfield on the Levelland highway.

Investigating officers, Highway patrolmen Amos Eggen and Vic Atwood, said the accident evidently occurred when the automobile in which the Negroes were enroute to a baseball game from Sundown to Seagraves, had a blowout on one of the tires.

The injured were brought to Brownfield by a Brownfield Funeral Home ambulance. They, as well as two other occupants of the car, were given first aid, but were not hospitalized.

New ideas and recommended practices are covered in this short course, according to information received from the University of Texas.

Advice on Repurchase
Of GI Leave Pay

Do not send cash or checks to the VA for repurchase of leave or other types of adjustments in entitlement under the educational provisions of the GI Bill until you know the exact amount necessary.

This advice was recently issued by the VA to veteran-students interested in buying back end of school year leave time in order to bring their entitlement past the mid-point of a school term and thus "stretch" their VA education assistance.

The VA points out that the case of each applicant for adjustment in entitlement must be reviewed individually, so that the veteran may be informed as to just how much leave time he may repurchase and how much money he must refund in order to do so. Until the VA has figured out the exact amount required, they do not want the student's money.

More About That NSLI 1951 Dividend Refund

It is reported by reliable sources in Washington that about $500,000,000 more will be paid in 1951 to some 9 million veterans in NSLI dividends. Reason for this new dividend is that the VA has not changed the premium rate on NSLI insurance, therefore another surplus.

Indications are that checks will be from 30 per cent to 50 per cent of the amounts paid this year, provided a veteran has kept his NSLI policy in force. It is the guess that the largest checks will not exceed $500. Reports indicate that private commercial insurance companies are complaining that VA refunds are higher than they should be, and there is strong pressure to change the law, but congress is not about to take any action. There's an election coming up, remember.

the care of all retired service personnel who are in Army or Navy hospitals for chronic conditions. This order was effective May 1, but it allows a 5 month grace period. It is the first instructions issued that relate to the "Career Compensation Act" passed in December 1949. Other instructions are expected later. It is estimated that between 1,700 and 3,500 Army men are involved. Some of these have not yet been retired but are awaiting retirement board action. It seems that the Navy and Air Force have not as yet available figures.

The order of the President also: (1) Transfers from the VA to the armed services the job of paying retirement pay to all non-regulars retired officers, effective July 1. (2) Assigns to the services all responsibilities for hospitalization and examination of individuals placed on the temporary retired list. (3) Transfers from the VA to the services responsibility for all veterans permanently retired for disability, with the exception of those with chronic disabilities.

The order gives any retired person also eligible for VA hospitalization a choice of going to a VA rather than a service hospital.

Before the Career Compensation Act became law last December, most enlisted men were discharged, not retired, for disability. They are the VA's responsibility. The new law includes a provision for the retirement of enlisted men for disability and the executive order places them on exactly the same basis as officers.

Farm Storage Loan Program Extended

Because of large crops in 1949 and large carry-overs into 1950-51, the government's farm construction loan program is being extended for another year, according to Hugh H. Harred, chairman of the Terry County Production and Marketing Committee. The original program announced in June of 1949, was intended to make loans available only through June 30 of this year.

The farm-storage loan program is open to producers of grain and certain other storable crops, including wheat, corn, oats, barley, rye, grain sorghums, soybeans, dry edible beans and peas, rice, peanuts, cottonseed and flax.

The loans are for the purchase or construction of farm-storage facilities in an amount not to exceed 85 per cent of the cost of the structure. Loans bear interest at the rate of 4 per cent per year and are payable in five annual installments or earlier at the farmer's option.

Move Over Satan

One of our contemporaries criticized us recently for saying the Great American Desert lies not in California, but under the hat of the average voter. History, of course, provides a lot of ammunition for our side. But we had it proved closer to home last week. We stroked past a group of the town's leading intellectuals just in time to hear one say: "I'm gonna vote for old so-and-so because Ernest Joiner's agin 'im." This being the most intelligent comment we've heard on the country's political situation in four years, our readers should know about it. There being many more harboring the illusion that the way to "get even" with the Banner is to stick their heads in the proffered noose, we take pleasure in announcing another policy: we are square set against the devil. No, move over Satan, and make room on your side for all the nice folks you couldn't have gotten if it hadn't been for us!—The Rails Banner.

Earl Browder, former Communist leader in America, has come out with pamphlet justifying his desolution of the Communist Party and his leadership of the "united front" in which he is now supporting the "liberal" Democratic party, which as all readers know is the present National Democratic (?) party. He sets forth 22 aims of the "United Front" and any and all of them read like the speeches now being made over the land, as well as the last platform of the Democratic party adopted in 1948 at Philadelphia. Anyway, a lot of folks, including yours truly, whose papery "fit" the Yankees, don't feel at home any longer in the so-called Democratic party. We have the US brand on our breast, and not the hammer and scythe of old Joe Stalin. We can name half a dozen prominent Republicans that we think are really better Jeffersonian Democrats than some that howl about never scratching the ticket. At least they have nothing in common with such tripe as Earl Browder.

The battle still goes on between the north and the south, but the latest one to appear in the dailies was a peaceful if a hard fought one. Recently the National Spelling Match was held in the city of Washington, D. C., and the two remaining after the given-outers had used all the jawbreakers they could find, was a boy from Georgia and a girl from Ohio. The weary judges called a halt to the match, gave each $500 and a free trip to New York. A Houston boy was runner-up, and received $300. The Georgia boy was sponsored by the Atlanta Journal and the girl by the Cleve-and pressure and minority groups. We hope the patriotic people of the south and of our nation do not sleep too long.

The fight in the south must go on between the people who vote like they talk and those who talk one way and vote another. The fight may be discouraging to some at times, but so is many another fight for truth and righteousness. No people has ever kept themselves free who will not fight—at the polls—and by word of mouth. One of our early day statesmen once said that "it is easier to win freedom by resort to arms than it was to stay that way." That was just after the Revolutionary war that those words were spoken. Many of the leading daily newspapers of the nation have seen the drift to socialism, and are taking up the sword. Among them the Richmond (Va.) Dispatch. Before you decide that we are advocating that you vote Republican, just remember that the Old Dominion state of Virginia, is one of the true blue Democratic states, and remained that way when some other scattered and blew up, including Texas. Virginia went for Al Smith for president in 1928, when Texas deserted to Herbert Hoover. Smart men see us drifting with the "liberal" tide, and in many instances the tide is murky and brackish. Many high ranking Democrats don't believe that President Truman really wants FEPC passed, or the Taft-Hartley law repealed. If so, he is insincere and not fit to be president, and is merely playing politics to get the minority vote. Let's all use a little reasoning power and a bit less prejudice. Even Russia claims to be a Democratic nation. Just because one wears the brass collar is no sign that he is really a Democrat.

An Eruption Soon?

Stricklinly Speaking

By Old He

Well, we found a new traffic light in place at Fourth and Broadway when we got back home, and like to have run it on red before we saw it. One of the Piggly Wiggly gals wanted to know if we was in Mississippi, we explained that the state line was just four miles south of our old home town, and that we were in O' Miss several times while there. She's a native of Miss.

And then Red Tudor wanted to know if his cousin still ran the PO, a filling station and grocery at Brownfield, Miss. We imagine Red aimed to get a little stuff on credit. But his cousin had sold out. We too, had an idea like the above.

The weather has been under discussion quite a bit of late. While we like sports yet, and a lot when younger, one report we like to see in this area is, "no game—rained out."

Maybe we failed to see any item in the Herald about the Piggly Wiggly 40th anniversary, except their two page spread. Could have, but if there were none, here's wishing many happy returns.

It's hard to get away. While in Tennessee Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Sawyer on their way east, stopped at Bolivar the county seat and inquired at a drug store about us. The drug store called a grand-niece of ours on the phone who explained to Arthur and Irene that we were over at Middleton. Since returning home we have received a card from them at Augusta, Maine. They were headed for Nova Scotia.

Now, just a bit on the return trip. A grand-niece, Miss Zulene Jacobs, who will be a high school senior next session, returned home with us for a short visit, her first in Texas. She was carried across the dam the night we spent in Denison into Oklahoma, and the wife carried her to go through Carlsbad Caverns in New Mexico Tuesday this week. Three states she never saw before.

Monday 22, we started in the afternoon, as we only aimed to make Memphis for the night, 70 miles west of Middleton, where we spent the night with Zulene's brother, Enloe and wife. Really this was the first time in our life that we ever drove over that city, or saw much of it except from a railroad or highway. Memphis is a great old city, and is still growing like Carter's oats.

It had some notoriously fine old residences. Saw one that was said to have been all marble, and every piece imported from foreign countries. If we had what the front yard premises cost we'd retire and forget work the rest of our days. He also carried us to the home of an uncle of his, Tennessee Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Bate Jacobs, with whom we attended 3 months summer school in our youth. The last we saw him before last Monday night was in 1902 when both picked cotton in Fannin county, Texas.

We even did Beale street, famous negro thoroughfare from end to end. Saw the residence of composer Handy who not only wrote Beale Street Blues and St. Louis Blues, but many other popular blues. Lots of nice shops on the streets, but we were informed that they were mostly owned by Jewish people with negro personnel. This famous old blues writer is becoming quite aged, but we read an article not long ago that stated he was still the past master of the trumpet.

After a fine night's sleep and fortified by two good meals at Enloe's and Wardie's expense, we crossed the Father of Waters and headed for the Lone Star state. The day was clear but fairly cool and we made miles in smaller Monday highway traffic. Much of the water that covered a third of Arkansas had dried up in two weeks back there and there was some cultivation of cotton in the delta, and thousands of blacks were brought out of Memphis to chop cotton. The rice paddies near Little Rock didn't seem to need irrigation this year. The old Razorback state has on its best Sunday clothes and is very scenic. To Malvern for lunch.

Passing back through Prescott, we paused to look for barefoot tracks of Homer and Lynn. Nelson, but hard rains had eliminated them. We hastened on, only pausing occasionally to coke up, and to get past the Red River arsenal plant this side of Texarkana before the thousands of cars began to pour out at five o'clock. Into Denison about 6 p.m., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Taylor, parents of Jr's wife, Edith. We sometimes wonder if the kin don't get the idea that we are making their places a convenient stopping place to save expense.

The Taylors invited us for a longer stay sometime, when Bill and wife promise the Mrs. all the fishing she craves, and the Old He all the "estin'" we crave.

TELLS OF PASSING OF DR. JOHN R. TURNER

While away a letter came in to the Stricklin families from Mrs. Dr. John R. (Lone) Turner, telling us of many of the incidences of his last few days on this terrestrial ball, and about the funeral back in the old church in Georgia. This church was within a mile of where the doctor was born, and where he first joined the Methodist church.

He had been feeling fairly well, Mrs. Turner stated, the day the new Health Center at Rosenberg, Texas, was being formerly opened, and even kidded she and some of the nurses. But complained of indigestion, which nearly always accompanies heart ailment. She hurriedly got him home and to bed, but he soon journeyed to another land.

Mrs. Turner will visit her mother in Louisiana awhile, and then return to Brownfield, as she and the doctor always considered this their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Smith and children spent several days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bridges at Rotan.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Collins returned last week end from a week vacation at Ruidoso, N. M. weakness for home cured hams, had saved one for us to sample for breakfast, hot biscuits and other delicacies. Bill showed us around the lake Texhoma area over on the Oklahoma side next morning. Bill wouldn't take a brass monkey for that lake, and it is a great recreation place.

The Taylors invited us for a longer stay sometime, when Bill and wife promise the Mrs. all the fishing she craves, and the Old He all the "estin'" we crave.

Highway Operations - Traffic Safety

Center Lines

The Texas Highway Department is pulling no punches in an all out war on rural traffic accidents that exacted a toll of 1,395 lives, left an estimated 24,926 injured and maimed, and resulted in an estimated economic loss of $43,710,600 during the year 1949.

Taking note of this tremendous toll of human lives and property, a safety-conscious Highway Commission has decreed that every possible measure within the power of the Highway Department be applied to make Texas highways as safe as possible for all who use them. The decree of the Highway Commission was not an idle one; it was backed by an appropriation of $500,000 for center lines, lane lines and barrier lines for no-passing zones during the year 1950 alone. This sum will be applied on some 25,000 miles on the State Highway System on which the center lines are marked and about 23,000 miles on which the barrier stripes for no-passing zones are marked. These lines are just one of many weapons the highway department is employing in the battle for traffic safety.

Have you as a motorist ever thought of the meaning a center line on a pavement should convey to you? It should tell you that the right-hand half of the road is yours; it should tell you that it was not put there as a challenge to your driving skill to keep one wheel on it; and it should tell you that when you cross it to overtake and pass another car that you should be sure the other half of the road ahead of you is clear.

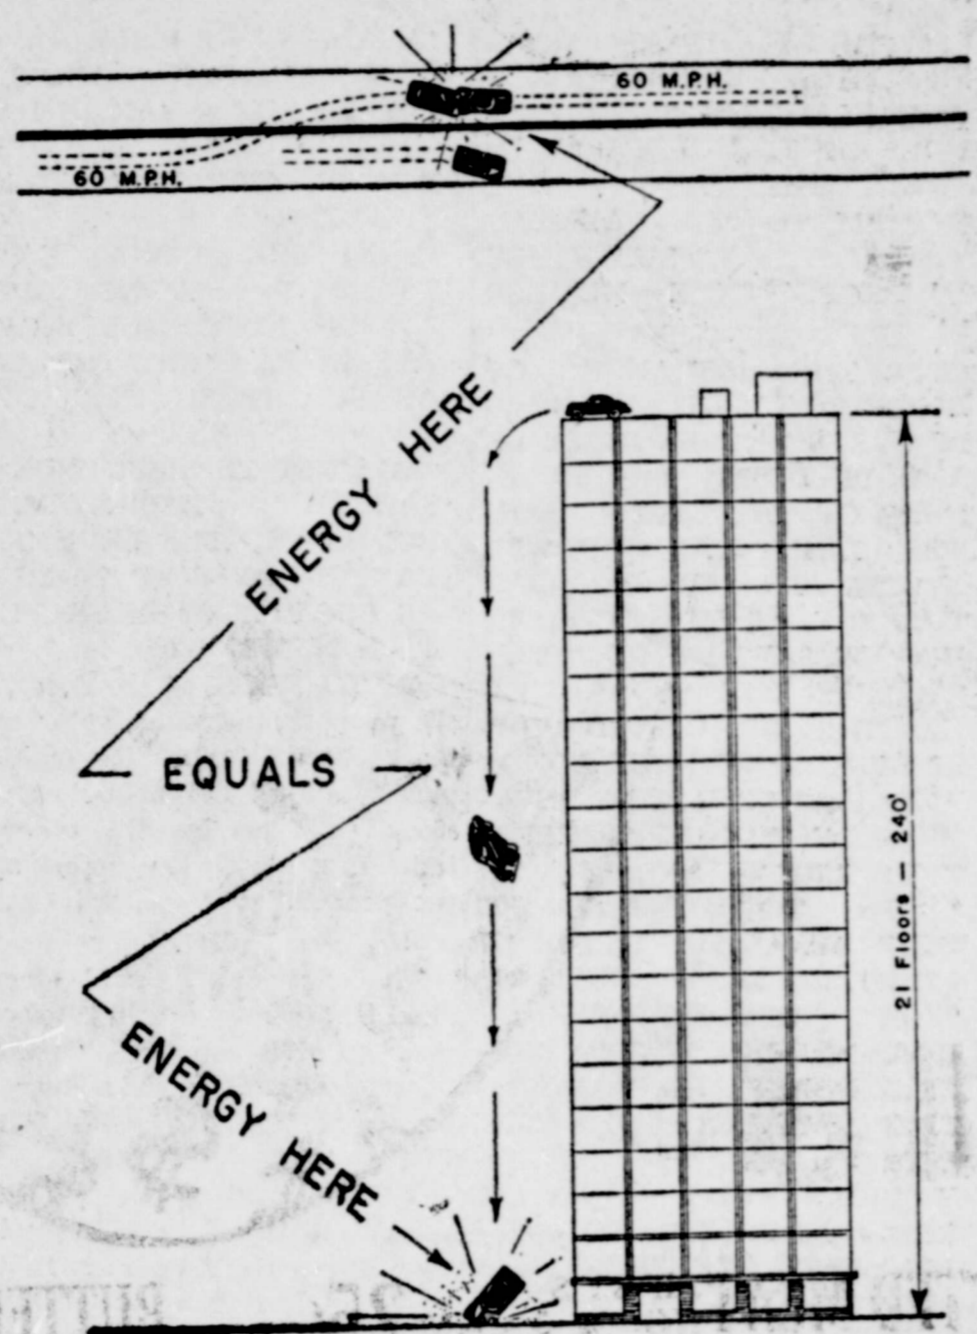

Failure to observe the simple but important meaning of the center line can result in a tragic end for you. Last year (1949) on rural highways there were 3,625 accidents caused by thoughtless drivers who were on the wrong side of the road, and they were not even in the act of passing another car—just driving on the wrong side of the road for no good reason whatever. These needless "on the wrong side of the road" accidents cost the lives of 253 people; maimed and injured 2,316 others; and caused property damage of $7,927,400. Take a good look at that center line when you drive and think what it can mean to you.

And what happened to those who made a mistake in passing another car when the road way ahead was not clear? These mistakes cost the lives of 46 people; maimed and injured 462 others and added more thousands of dollars to the toll of property damage. It is not too hard for the average motorist to make a mistake in judgment on the distance ahead a roadway must be clear for him to overtake and pass the car ahead of him.

Take a look at the sketch showing the distance required for a car traveling 60 m.p.h. to overtake and pass a car traveling 50 m.p.h. when there is a car traveling toward him at 60 m.p.h. in the opposite lane—2,360 feet or 6 1/2 city blocks! If the car in the sketch had failed to complete his overtaking and passing maneuver safely and had met the opposing car head-on at 60 m.p.h., the energy developed by the collision would be as great as though one car had been driven off the top of a 21 story building. Head-on collisions are deadly!

Respect that center line and stay on your side of the road; cross that single center line to pass another car only when you are sure that the roadway is clear far enough ahead for you to do so safely, but don't ever cross that double center line unless directed to do so by an officer.

HOBERT NELSON STOPS IN FOR A CHAT

G. H. (Hobert) Nelson, of Lubbock, candidate for Court of Criminal Appeals, dropped in on us for a few minute's chat Monday afternoon. He was on his way to El Paso and other underslung sections of Texas in the interest of his candidacy.

Most of those who were here several years ago will remember that Mr. Nelson was our district attorney when he resided at Tahoka. He and Burton Hackney are brothers-in-law.

For the reason he is so well known here, Hobert asked that the Herald explain to the people that most of his work of necessity would be in parts of Texas where he is little known. But he craves your vote just the same.

BANK HANDING OUT PERPETUAL CALENDARS

The Brownfield State Bank & Trust Co., were handing out a perpetual calendar to their customers and friends last week. This calendar is very attractive, and we feel sure all who received one greatly appreciate the gift.

The outside of the calendar is made of metal, nicely printed with a facsimile of the front of the bank on the top part. In a small slot appears the day of the week, and in another the month of the year, that are easily turned to the day and month needed.

The dates, from 1 to 31 are tough cardboard, hung on metal. As each day closes, or another begins, one can be raised, and is hidden in a hood that composes the top part of the calendar. The Herald extends thanks for this gift.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lackey and children of Brownfield, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Clark and children, San Angelo, Mr. and Mrs. Niles Morris and children of Albuquerque, N. M., were week end guests in the home of their mother, Mrs. Pearl Morris of Tatum, N. M. This was the first time all of the family have been together in several years. All of the grand children were there except James Lackey, who is attending the University of New Mexico.

Important '51 Wheat Questions Coming Up

Important question affecting the growing and marketing of the next wheat crop must be decided within the next few weeks, B. F. Vance, chairman of the State Production and Marketing Committee, said today. Notice has already been given that the Secretary of Agriculture is preparing to determine whether marketing quotas are required to be proclaimed for the 1951 wheat crop, to determine and proclaim the national wheat acreage allotment, and to apportion the allotment among states, counties and farms.

Vance explained that the decision on marketing quotas must be made by July 1 and that the

OLD TITUS LEADS STATE IN ILLICIT STILL

The Texas Liquor Control Board inspectors in April reported the seizure of six illicit stills. With the stills, which had a cubic capacity of 475 gallons, inspectors captured 1,125 gallons of mash and made four arrests. 95 1/2 gallons of moonshine liquor were destroyed.

Three stills were taken in Titus county, and one still each was taken in the counties of Bowie, Red River and Freestone.

GOMEZ HD CLUB MET THURSDAY, MAY 25

The Gomez Home Demonstration club met Thursday, May 25, at the home of Mrs. Jack Mason for a covered dish luncheon and all day meeting.

A mattress cover was quilted by members attending.

The next meeting of the club will be June 8 at the home of Mrs. Kelly Sears.

national acreage allotment must be announced by July 15.

As directed by law, marketing quotas on the 1951 wheat crop must be proclaimed if (1) the total supply of wheat for the 1950-51 marketing year exceeds the normal supply by more than 20 per cent, or (2) the total supply for the 1949-50 marketing year is not less than the normal supply and the average farm price for wheat for three consecutive months of that year does not exceed 66 per cent of parity.

"Normal supply" of wheat is the estimated domestic consumption of wheat for the preceding marketing year plus exports during the marketing year for which normal supply is being determined plus 15 per cent.

The national acreage allotment must be that acreage which the Secretary determines will, at average yields, produce an amount of wheat which, plus the estimated carry-over and imports, will make available a supply equal to a normal year's domestic consumption and exports plus 30 per cent.

A total of 72,750,000 acres has been reported seeded for 1950, 14 per cent below the record seedings of 84.9 million acres, and a little below the 1950 national wheat acreage allotment.

Farmers Redeem One Third of Loan Cotton From Hickory Grove

Farmers have redeemed about a third of the 1949 cotton under Government loans, B. F. Vance, chairman of the State Production and Marketing Administration, points out. Loans were obtained on 3,179,120 bales of the 1949 crop, and 1,061,638 bales had been redeemed through April 27, 1950.

Cotton put under loan represented less than a fifth of the total crop of 16,127,000 bales, Mr. Vance said. According to Department of Agriculture records, this was the largest cotton crop since 1937 and the fourth largest on record. Other estimates relative to the 1949 cotton crop are:

Acreage in cultivation July 1, 1949, 27,719,000 acres about 19 per cent above 1948, 26 per cent more than the 1938-47 average and the highest since 1947.

Production of cottonseed from the 1949 crop, 6,613,000 tons, 1 per cent more than in 1948 and 43 per cent greater than the 10 year average.

Average price received by farmers for lint cotton during the period August 1, 1949 to May 1, 1950, 28.1 cents per pound, compared with the 1948 season average of 30.38 cents. Season average price of cottonseed, $43.40 per ton.

Lint yield per acre in 1949, 283.9 pounds, 27.3 pounds below the 1948 record of 311.2 pounds, but 30 pounds above the 10-year average.

Value of cotton lint from the 1949 crop, $2,262,779,000, slightly higher than for 1948. Value of cottonseed ginned from the 1949 crop, $286,965,000 down 28 per cent from a year ago.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

You know folks, our economists, we take 'em too serious. They talk in 3 and 4 and 5 syllable words—impress us immensely—we are not too sure but maybe they are saying something. Most of them have had experience in business to get the maximum extent of keeping some place within gunshot of the remittance budget set up by their pop and mom, who hustled them off to the Big University.

Everybody is for education—I am for same—also I am for wisdom from experience. But we are educating some of our youth beyond their understanding and capacity. But even so, we might stagger along under the load if these inexperienced boys and girls with sheepskins, fresh out of college, were not snapped up pronto by the Govt, and put at the throttle.

What is a solution, says Henry, answer me that. Well, I says I would cut down the university term from 4 to 2 years. Thereby more than half would get out in 2 years—the boys would have their man by that time—it would relieve the moms and pops of a lot of expense. It would flood the nation with fewer unneeded economists, psychologists, and social scientists, which Sambo otherwise would grab and put on the payroll.

Well now, says Henry, you finally have a solution that might click—you surprise me. Thank you very much, I says.

Yours with the low down, JO SERRA

Evinces Value of Working Man

The railroad strike last week gave evidence of the value of the working man—the absolute need of the intelligent fellow that operates the country's industries and makes commerce possible. Also it gave evidence of the need for public backing in any attempt to settle a major mis-understanding in modern industry. Because the matter in controversy had been before the public for two or three years the beliefs of the public had pretty well crystallized on the basis that the firemen do not have good ground to stand on, that they might have some proper grievances, if there were any, to be added to those of the men on the railroad.

Because of high cooking temperatures a type of oxide coating forms on the aluminum burner heads of your gas range. Just shine them up with ordinary aluminum cleaner.

The smoky type of cheese lends piquant taste to broccoli or artichokes. Melt cheese in double boiler, pour over the vegetable.

If there's a slight odor when feather pillows are drying in your gas dryer, don't worry about it. Feathers are animal fibers and the odor is caused by the high temperature needed to get the pillows thoroughly dry.

SLATON TO CELEBRATE 39TH ANNIVERSARY

Word comes from the Slaton Chamber of Commerce that Slaton will celebrate its 39th anniversary with a big rodeo, parade, etc., and June 17th. The writer was here at the time, and remembers the building of the South Plains railroad center and Santa Fe shops, June 17, 1911.

And it looked for a time that the ambition of Slaton to be the largest city in Lubbock county would be realized, for rail lines really meant something more in those days before many cars, and no trucks or buses than now. And the Taboka-Lamesa branch was soon built. But we leave the rest of the argument to Editors Jackson and Guy.

Anyway, the Slaton celebration calls for a booster trip which will include Brownfield, June 13th from 1:45 to 2:15 p.m.

THE $849,000 BOND ISSUE!

Here Are Only a Few Of The Many Reasons
Why We Need Improvements And Extensions
To The Water, Sewer, Power And Light
Systems Of Brownfield.

1. People cannot build new homes in the City of Brownfield because of lack of utility connections.
2. Present city utilities are inadequate to take care of our current and future needs.
3. Brownfield needs a combination City Hall, fire and police station. This Bond if passed, will provide adequate space for these departments.
4. Brownfield is known as having more paving than any other city of its size in West Texas... WHY STOP IT NOW!
5. This Bond will provide sewer connections for many homes, thus providing a cleaner, healthier city in which to live.
6. This bond, in the opinion of the City Council, will not bring about an increase in city taxes of more than 15 cents per $100.00 valuation, and possibly less.

NEW HIGHWAY BRIDGE IN WEST TEXAS

Standing against the picturesque hill country in West Texas, this handsome concrete and steel span six miles west of Junction is one of a series of four new highway bridges over the North Llano River and tributaries in western Kimble County. Just opened to traffic, the bridges will serve motorists on the scenic U. S. Highway 290 route between the Austin and San Antonio areas and El Paso. The structures, representing the most up to date in highway bridge design, include three concrete and steel crossings—

800, 800 and 1010 feet in length—and one reinforced concrete structure. All structural steel and cement for the four-bridge project was supplied by U. S. Steel subsidiaries. Virginia Bridge Co. furnished structural steel totaling 950 tons. Universal Atlas Cement Co. supplied 4,656 barrels of Atlas Duraplastic, a special air-entraining cement used to impart to concrete an increased plasticity for proper placement in forms, an improved surface appearance and greater durability in use. The 800- and 1010-foot bridges replace hazardous low water crossings over the North Llano's shallow stream bed which frequently were closed when waters from its Edwards Plateau watershed fed the quick-rising stream. These are the last low water crossings on U. S. 290 in Texas. General contractors were M. E. Worrell, and Worrell & Watkins, Junction and Dallas, and the project was under the direct supervision of W. N. Hardeman, Texas Highway Department resident engineer.

Brownlee Makes Formal Statement To Voters

Some two months ago I announced for the office of County Superintendent, Terry county. I would at this time like to make a few statements. I have been in Terry county since 1936 and with the Brownfield schools all this time except one year.

I have been Principal of West Ward, Gomez school and business manager, tax assessor and collector for the Brownfield schools during this time. I have certainly enjoyed my work in each of these places.

I am married, have wife and one daughter, who is now in college. I have a B. S. degree from Sul Ross college.

I don't suppose I will have time to see everybody and give you one of my cards, but remember, I will appreciate your vote just the same.

If elected to this office, I will serve you to best of my ability. Thanks,
E. G. BROWNLEE

No Smoking

Up at Wayland College, Plainview, directors and officials of that school created quite a publicity stunt—probably a whole lot more than they anticipated—when they announced that henceforth students and teachers who smoked would be banned from the school. Daily newspapers all over the state carried large headlines over the announcement, and events which have happened since. One director—who smokes—has already resigned, protesting the ruling. It is rumored that 20 instructors have their resignations before the directors in case the no smoking ban is carried out. And it is a safe bet that students—including many who do not smoke—will stay away from the school which sets out to govern their personal habits by mandate.

Wayland has made big strides in the past two or three years, following a long period of dormancy. It is regrettable that its officials would jeopardize this progress by an edict that cannot possibly be enforced.—Trends in Crosbyton Review.

'The Outriders' Now Showing at Rialto

Filmed in Technicolor against the spectacular mountain and canyon settings of Utah, here is the compelling story of three Yankees who escape from a Missouri prison stockade during the Civil War and embark on one of the strangest and suspense-filled adventures to be shown on the screen in a decade of film making.

Joel McRea, Barry Sullivan and James Whitmore form the oddly assorted trio who make their escape only to find themselves prisoners again, this time in the hands of a roving band of guerrillas led by one of Quantrell's infamous raiders. In exchange for their lives they agree to head for Santa Fe, New Mexico to become instruments in a plan to ambush a wagon train carrying a million dollars, gold bullion, for the Federal Treasury in St. Louis. Before this 800-mile trek is completed, the members of the wagon train encounter one hazard after another, including an Indian attack, a disastrous stampede of livestock and a terrifying episode in which the caravan is forced to cross the rain swollen Arkansas river and in which the youngest rider in the group, played by Claude Jarman, Jr., loses his life in an act of cowardice. An enemy builds up between McRea and Sullivan who become rivals for the love of Arlen Dahl and the story moves to a thundering climax of intrigue and gunplay in which this romance is finally resolved and in which McRea proves himself a true patriot.

Additional credit goes to Irving Ravetch for his exceptional screen play, to Roy Rowland for his direction and to Producer Richard Goldstone who has given his picture magnificent production values. It all adds up to making "The Outriders" a notable addition to the current crop of outdoor adventure dramas.

Judge Tom Garrard of Tahoka, a candidate for the office of District Judge of the 106th Judicial District, was a pleasant caller at the Herald office last Friday. Judge Tom, like the writer, is rather pioneerish in this area, and we had much in common.

The 106th district is composed of the counties of Dawson, Gaines, Garza, Lynn, Terry and Yoakum. His opponent is Judge Louis B. Reed, present incumbent, and a mighty fine man.

National Service Life Insurance. Will Veterans Administration give me the name of the beneficiary of his policy?

A—VA does not divulge the name of the beneficiary of a living veteran. Only your husband can give you that information, and he is free to change his beneficiary at any time without consulting or notifying anyone.

About a Little Boy and His Deadly Toy

It was a gift. An honest-to-goodness BB gun. The little boy romped merrily along, popping at odds and ends. His aim wasn't bad and the odds and ends became monotonous.

"Shh . . . see that bird?"
Pop!
"Birds-eye!"
Meow . . . pop!
"Got him."
This was real sport. Not make believe.

"Wait a minute. See that dog sleeping in the sun? Just watch me make him jump."
Pop!

"Ha ha. Bet he never knew what hit him. Wait until the rest of the kids see what I have. My pop's a pretty good guy. Bet the others will be jealous. Hey, Pete, come see what I have!"
"Wow! Where'd you get that? It's a dilly."
"It's a present. A birthday gift from my dad. Swell guy, isn't he?"

"I'll say. Let me try."
"Naw, you stay your distance— or I'll let you have it."
"Hadn't you better be careful?"
"What for? It won't hurt you. It's only a BB gun, not real bullets. Hey, Pete, you're one of those Brink robbers and I've caught you."

"Don't point that at me. It might go off."
"You're scared, aren't you? I think I'll take a shot at you."
"Aw come on, stop kidding . . ."
Pop!

"My eye, my eye! You've hurt my eye!"
"Ge, Pete, I didn't mean it. Let me see . . . Jeepers, I better get you home. Your eye looks funny."
Pete was rushed to the hospital, but in spite of all the doctor's efforts to save his eye, there was nothing they could do.

The eye was gone.
That toy, that BB gun, had done it again.
—And who, do you think, was actually responsible? . . . —Cranston (R.I.) Herald.

Western Auto Store Here Handling 'Westline' Furniture

Newest contender in the field of America's $12 billion annual home furniture business is Western Auto Supply Co. (Missouri), which recently announced its entry into the furniture market with an initial line of several hundred items, and plans for expansion.

With 17 manufacturers as supplying sources, Western Auto has started its furniture merchandising program through 2,661 company owned retail outlets and independently owned and operated Western Auto Associate Stores in a 37-state area reaching from Canada to Key West.

The line will be merchandised entirely through a catalog order system, a sales method which Western Auto successfully adopted two years ago for heavier automobile, farm and other equipment. Under the trade name, "Westline," the multi-colored 44 page furniture catalog now being shown at the Brownfield Western Auto Associate Store, lists living, dining, bedroom, kitchen, occasional and juvenile furniture; bedding, lamps, mirrors and other items.

Merchandise will be ordered directly from the factory by the Western Auto Associate Store, and will be shipped direct to the customer from the factory. "Westline" furniture items are in the lower and medium price brackets.

Charlie Price, owner of the Brownfield Western Auto Associate Store, said the catalog order plan of direct shipment to customers results in economies in handling which mean lower prices.

Brownfield Church Featured In Magazine

"Mail from home every week is matched at Brownfield First Methodist church homes when 268 copies of The Christian Advocate helped to make the postman's load heavier. The Methodists out in Northwest Texas in Terry county will receive 13,396 copies of their church periodical for the 540 active members registered at Brownfield, this being the third year for 100 per cent of this congregation to receive the church-wide publication of Methodism."

"Rev. Herschel L. Thurston, minister in his third year at Brownfield, has the distinction or honor of having a six year record of having all the active families of his congregation receiving the Advocate. Three previous years of his four at Perryton were so marked. However, Mr. Thurston wants it known to all inquirers that credit due to the assistance of leading laymen in both churches."

The above paragraphs were taken from June issue of "The Texas Methodist" magazine, monthly publication. The story of Rev. Thurston's work in the church, as well as the Methodist men's club here and church circles and activities, illustrated with pictures, is featured in the June issue.

Telephone Officials Met With Rural Co-op

The directors of the Poka-Lambro rural telephone co-op met Saturday, May 27, and discussed the telephone problems of this district with three representatives of Southwestern Associated. It was agreed between this co-op and Southwestern representatives that they would work together in trying to place telephones in rural homes on an area coverage basis. It was further agreed that the rural people are very much interested in getting these phones and as soon as possible.

They further stated when asked the question "if we could serve them first if they had any objection?" and their answer was no. They also stated our problems were about the same and the first to reach the rural people, the much the better.

After the discussion with the telephone men the board decided to get maps and plans ready by June 10 to go to Washington for the first loan and of course, this will only be for the district or community that has enough subscriptions in to justify a line or more to that community.

The director's urgent request is that if you want a telephone in the near future and on this first allotment you get your application in before June 10, otherwise you will have to wait for a later allotment and it might be quite some months before the demand would justify a second allotment.

To subscribers in the area about Brownfield, Meadow, Ropes, Sundown, Plains, Denver City, Seagraves and Loop, we urge that you send these applications in at once and if you would like to know anything more about it you may contact V. R. Osburn or V. H. Wheatley at Pool and Johnson, or some of their workers who are taking applications.

Please get your application in before June 10 in order to be in the first allotment.

ANOTHER HOSPITAL QUILTS ADVERTISING

After some 35 years continuous use of the Herald to carry their card, which seldom changed, except when staff members were changed, the Krueger, Hutchinson & Overton Clinic at Lubbock, killed their ad this week. For many years this card ran as Lubbock Sanitarium, then for a few years as the Lubbock General Hospital.

Most doctors and hospitals everywhere are quitting newspapers and all other forms of "unethical" advertising. They do not however, object to nice "writeups," or congratulatory paid ads from other firms. The above Clinic was the last to withdraw their ads from the newspapers, and we understand the idea was not unanimous among them.

But Drs. Krueger, Hutchinson and Overton belong to the Lubbock-Crosby Medical Society which like the one in the Brownfield area, have banned even small cards.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Benton and Billy, and Elmer Phillips left last Friday for several days visit at Fort Worth and Paris. They returned home Tuesday.

LOCAL MAN PLACED ON DIRECTORATE OF PLAINVIEW MILL

Grady Goodpasture, local grain dealer, has been named as one of the six new directors of the Harvest Queen Mills of Plainview.

The company has recently doubled its capital stock to $2,500,000 and also has secured 13,000,000 bushels of additional storage space in the form of steel tank farm properties formerly operated by oil companies at Kingsmill and Mexia.

Don Franklin Shows Here Next Week

Operating under the auspices of the Terry County Junior Deputy Sheriff's Posse, the Don Franklin Shows open here Monday, June 4, for a week run.

Billed as "The Cleanest Show in Texas," the Franklin shows headline their carnival with their all-steel portable roller coaster and a trained dog circus featuring "Tippy," a diminutive Chihuahua in a 50-foot dive into a net. The carnival also has the familiar midway features—the Merry-Go-Round, Ferris Wheel, Fun House and rides for the kiddies, also a new Streamlined Caterpillar and a Fly-O-Plane.

The portable roller coaster is unique in the Southwest. Even though the ride is only 102 feet in length, the owners state that it packs plenty of thrills. Three circuits constitute a ride.

In keeping with the policy of the show billing, Don Franklin, owner of the show and a caller at the Herald Wednesday, stated emphatically that he tolerated no Gypsy shows, grifters, gyp joints or Gypsy fortune-tellers on his midway, and that kiddies left at the show grounds by their parents would be as well taken care of as if they were escorted.

Morgan Copeland Home For Short Vacation

Among our visitors this week was Morgan Copeland Jr., who is home from the University of Texas law department, making a visit with his mother, Mrs. Morgan (Bit) Copeland Sr. He will be here about another week, and return to Austin for the summer course.

We enjoy a call from Morgan, as he is always in a happy frame of mind, and has always acted like a grownup from childhood. We predict that Morgan's future before the bar will be all that he or his friends desire.

He brought us a large 84 page edition of the Daily Texan, publication of the University of Texas, and we jokingly informed him that we'd look through it to see how many pinkish articles we could find.

Despite a small "liberal" minority of the faculty and student body, the University of Texas stands among the greatest universities in the country.

WTCC MAN HERE IN MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Raymond Lee Johns of Plainview, in tow of Al Muldrow, president of the local Chamber of Commerce, was here Wednesday making a canvass of the town. As there was no complaint from either Muldrow or Johns, we presume most people approached shelled out for a year's receipt.

Mr. Johns stated that a regional or branch office was being opened in Plainview, which would, believe more nearly look after the interests of the Panhandle and South Plains section than has been the case of the Abilene office.

BOND SALES SLOW IN OLD TERRY

We had the first report from Dallas headquarters on bond sales in the area recently. This is a special campaign and is to run from May to July 4.

The quota assigned to Terry county was $21,000, of which on $18.75 had been sold or 1.52 per cent.

Yoakum county was doing much better. Their quota was $6,000, they had bought $881.25 worth of bonds, or 14.69 percent of their quota.

Federated Church Women Met Monday

The Federated Missionary Society of Brownfield met Monday at 3 p.m. in the First Methodist church.

Fred Stumpp, minister of the First Baptist church, opened the meeting with a prayer. Mrs. Wayland Parker, president, conducted the business meeting. Mrs. Darrell Moorhead, chairman of the federation-sponsored Negro vacation Bible school, held last week, reported that there were 69 children enrolled.

Special music, a vocal solo by Leah Dale Portwood, accompanied by Mrs. Roy Herod, organist, was given.

Rev. Stumpp gave the devotional, from the 40th chapter of Isaiah, beginning with the 28th verse.

The program was a two act play, "As It Might Have Happened," was given by the women from the First Presbyterian church. The cast of characters included Mesdames J. L. Moore, L. L. Bechtel, W. B. Brown, Abel Pierce, L. E. Hamilton, Claud Buchanan and Phil Gasch.

Refreshments of punch and cookies were served to members in Fellowship Hall at the conclusion of the program.

RAIN LAST THURSDAY AFTERNOON, NIGHT

A shower amounting to 42-100 inch fell here last Thursday afternoon late, and during the night another harder rain of 74-100 fell making 1.16 inch altogether. Some other sections perhaps got more, some less.

While most farmers are doing some planting, a few have told us that their land was only wet some 10 inches deep, and they were having to plant shallow. But they believe they will get a stand.

We understand that most of Yoakum county is still dry, and reports coming in from the Carlsbad section of New Mexico say it looks like the dead of winter there.

DAVE JUST WANTED TO ARGUE A BIT

J. D. (Dave) Beasley was in from his fine farm in the Needmore community Tuesday, sitting in his car when we waved a greeting. He wanted us to come out as he had an argument all fixed up. We declined, as we were in a hurry that day.

But we did make Dave a proposition to come to his home some day, have one of those good meals his Mrs. puts out, and take an afternoon on arguing. Dave didn't seem to be interested.

Mrs. C. V. Brown came in last week to renew for their Herald. She stated that they had taken the Herald ever since they came to Brownfield. And if you ask us, that wasn't yesterday. We thank this fine lady that she can still smileingly hand in the price and tell us to keep 'er coming.

Mrs. Eula L. Day, of Tokio, was in one day last week to report that since she renewed a few weeks ago, she was getting two papers. "Sure want one," she stated, "but don't need two." Always glad when anyone getting duplicate copies will let us know.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Y. Douglass and granddaughter Margaret Elyson, spent the week end in Abilene to attend the graduation exercises of Hardin Simmons University. Ray Douglas returned home with them Monday afternoon after receiving his B. A. degree. Ray majored in Bible and minored in speech, English and Greek.

Mrs. A. J. Stricklin Sr. and visitor, Miss Zuline Jacobs of Middleton, Tenn., were Carlsbad Cavern visitors, Tuesday.

George Burke, prominent Seminole real estate man, was up this week and paid a call at the Herald office.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shelton were in Dallas this week, where she attended market for Shelton's Ready to Wear.

Turners Return from Eastern Trip

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Turner returned Saturday from a visit with their son K. Lance Turner, who is with the Textile Research Institute of Princeton, N. J. The Turners went by way of Norman, Okla., St. Louis and Washington, Pa.

Guests and hosts spent Friday May 19 seeing the sights in New York, and on the way back to Princeton, passed near the scene of the South Amboy N. J. explosion a few hours before it happened. The blast was heard in Princeton.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner returned via Baltimore, Washington, D. C., the Blue Ridge mountains, Knoxville, Nashville, Memphis, and Little Rock. They spent Friday and Friday night in Pittsburgh, Texas, visiting with Mrs. Turner's father.

Mr. Turner reported very pleasant weather throughout the trip. Like most others, the Turners think the Great Smokies among the prettiest scenery in America.

SERMONS ANNOUNCED BY BAPTIST PASTOR

The sermon topic for Sunday morning, June 4, at the First Baptist church will be "A Summons to Christian Stewardship," by Fred Stumpp, minister of the church. Special music, an anthem by the choir, will be "None Other."

On Sunday evening the sermon topic will be "Look and Live," with special music given by a mixed quartet.

SHIRLEY & CO. WIN TEAM TOURNAMENT

A foursome captained by Jack Shirley and composed of Lee Brownfield, Thad Risinger and Frank Szydoski, carried off top honors in the four-man team tournament held last Sunday at the local links.

Frank Baldwin, captain and J. O. Burnett Jr., Ted Hardy and Chad Tarpley came in second with Patterson, McGowan, Latham and Lohman and Smith, Cadhead, Taylor and Self deadlocked for third. Awards are to be presented to the winning teams.

Next scheduled golfing event on the program for the local club will be a match with Levelland Country Club here on the 18th.

RETRACTION

It was erroneously stated in last week's issue of the Herald that Mrs. Mary Jo Hardy is the 1950 champion woman golfer of the Brownfield Country Club. Mrs. Hardy is champion of the recently completed "Handicap" tournament, but the annual tournament for the 1950 champion has not been slated, as yet.

Also erroneously stated in the same story last week was that Mrs. Lois Wingerd was the 1949 champion. Mrs. Wingerd was winner of the "Handicap" tournament last year, but Mrs. Evelyn Cruce is the 1949 club champion.

ME NO SAVVY THE "OFFICINO CENSO" The Herald received a letter this week from Donna, Texas, addressed as above except that it had PO Box 752, Brownfield, Texas, as that is our city and box number, we had a perfect right to break it and did.

But the writer had filled out one of those little "overlooked" blanks that have been appearing in newspapers, listing himself and family in the 1950 census.

We have an idea that the writer, a Mr. Lopez, and family, picked cotton in this area last fall, and got used to saying and writing Brownfield instead of Brownsville. It should have been addressed to the head census mar at Brownsville, who had same box number as the Herald.
