We have wondered much about the Federal Department of Agriculture's concern about the pink boll worm. The greatest concern in this section seems to be the fleahopper, the old fashioned boll worm and the leafworm. In fact we never heard a farmer complain of pink bollworms here, although this county is said to have them, and has been since back in the early thirties. And for a long time we thought their most damaging area was in the lower Rio Grande Valley, where the winters are always mild with a freeze rarely ever seen. But for the past year or two, they have made bumper crops of cotton under irrigation in that section. But of late the State Ag. Department has taken up the hue and cry. The main reason given is that the pinkies have now spread to 193 of Texas counties and are also found in Oklahoma and New Mexico. And Commissioner John C. White says they are still spreading eastward and northward. Frankly, the reason of all the behest, says the Com. White report is that there is presently now known potent poison for the little rascals. That they make a hole the size of a pinpoint where they enter the boll, and what is small, if you ask us. So, the Governor has issued an emergency proclamation which requires a state quarantine. We have had one in Terry county for years, one being just east of Wolfarth, and the other out at the Westpoint gin on the Tahoka road. But since both Lynn and Lubbock counties have been put under quarantine, also, we suppose the signs have been moved further east. This was a quarantine against the hauling and movement of seed from Terry and other counties into those not quarantined. We have heard many farmers and some ginmen laugh about the matter, stating that it gave some good government jobs for "dead" pinkies in the gin trash in the fall. Possibly this was true; may a false premise. Anyway, three or four years ago, it was stated that the lower valley was practically through as a cotton section on account of the ravages of the pink bollworms. But they made their banner cotton crop of all time last year, and are scheduled to repeat this year. For that, as well as for the reason they have never in 20 years done noticeable damage in this area, people here are taking the pinkie scare with a grain of salt.

Homar Garrison Jr., Texas Public Safety Director, is urging one and all to apply at their favorite service station for a leaflet on the new Motor Vehicle Safety Responsibility Law. And he goes on to say that there has been many conflicting reports about the matter, and the leaflet is calculated to set you right. One report is that the law is already in operation, when as a fact, the law does not take effect until January 1, next. Garrison says the leaflet can be read in five minutes, and that it is written in a language that all may understand. But there is much difference of opinion of those we hear discuss the matter. First, there are those who maintain that the law was fathered and passed at the behest of the insurance agencies, as they will be called upon to write the policies. This has been strenuously denied by the companies and their agencies. Many stated that they did not even know that there was any such law anticipated. The writer happened to be in Tennessee about the time the law went into effect there, and that was the chief complaint about the law. The last time we were back there we heard nothing concerning the law pro or con. We believe that some 32 of the 48 states now have the law, and others are contemplating such a law. Most of those for the law have had experience with, or some of their relatives or friends have had run-ins with irresponsible drunken drivers, some of who had an old wreck of a car or hot rod not worth $30. Maybe the chief victims of the collision caused by the irresponsible, lost some of their family in the wreck, or some were badly hurt and had to be hospitalized for a long period. Not only that, but perhaps their car was a total wreck. But the guy with the jalopy that caused the wreck, perhaps, didn't have 30c to his name. Who takes the loss? You do not even have to take out the insurance unless you wish. If you are worth $15,000 or more, you can do as you like about the insurance. But if not, and the officials find you were responsible for the wreck, it will go mighty hard with you in the courts. Others maintain that a lot of people will not be able to pay the insurance, around $30, and will have to take their cars off the streets and highways. Others say that if you are able to own a car, you are able to take out insurance and be responsible for any damage you inflict on others. Otherwise, you should not run one.

We have heard much discussion of one Rev. Robert P. Shuler, pastor of Trinity Methodist church out at Los Angeles. In fact we heard a lot of talk about this preacher when we were last in the Golden state, and having no other idea save the opinion of others, we decided that this one time Texan was a ringtailed tooter, a radical of the first water, or perhaps a pinkie if not genuinely red. So, we dropped the matter so far as we were concerned. But a friend brought us one of his magazines last week, and wanted us to read one article in particular, headed, "A Moral Debauch." So we read, and found that the minister is no different to millions of other Americans, including this writer. The magazine, called The Methodist Challenge, takes up Mr. Truman and states his failure as a haberdasher in a small Missouri town, has become more autocratic than Brutus. That Nero was just a piker compared to the little man from the Show Me state. For instance, when HST took office in 1945, at the death of Roosevelt, he had an office force of 56, and it is now 293 and growing. His office force cost the taxpayers then $583,000, but presently $2,614,000. He has 33 domestic servants at his beck and call, including chauffeurs, for his 29 automobiles. Of course you have heard of Truman's airplane, and Rev. Shuler says the ash trays on it cost $18,000. He is now asking congress for $1,760,000 to maintain his retinue of servants in style that Nero never dreamed of. The monthly upkeep of the plane alone is $10,000. Then there is the yacht that he takes personal cruises to the West Indies every few months, while workers, including white collar men, are struggling to meet a rising living cost and higher and higher taxes. This personal yacht cost into the millions and millions of dollars. Then the preacher asks, "why not turn him out and elect some other man?" "That is the rub," says Rev. Shuler. Harry S. Truman was an apt scholar of Pendergast, and he has loaded the dice with appointees, all of whom would go to most any extreme to keep Little Harry in office. It means their well paid jobs." Yep, we agree with this California minister, who says his magazine is NOT a religious paper.

The little much to left of center sheet down at Austin really came alive last week, and gave us old "Disloyal Democrats" something to think about. He seemed still stirred up from the week before when the "loyal Truman-crats" met down here for bacon and eggs, and wrote the history for Texas for the next few generations. He mentions that a very prominent lady, so far as politics and clubs go, will have a "colyum" in his little 8x12 four page weekly from this on. Haven't figured where he'll locate her column, as the front page is filled with his political tirades and a sermon by some lay editor, and they are continued on pages 2 and 3. Page four is filled with Sheriff Sales. The next thing we wish to notice is the paper's description of the passing of Hon. A. J. Wirtz, who is described as a "liberal." Despite this, we had always considered Senator Wirtz as just a plain old Democrat without handles. He was admired generally all over the state, and was given a high tribute by such a very conservative paper as the Dallas News, and another just a bit more "liberal," the Star-Telegram. In another editorial, the editor went on to discuss the apparent victory of Churchill, and stated that the Tories in the USA would rejoice with the Tory crowd in England who "were out to exploit the masses which they considered as their divine right." The only reason we can see that the straight thinker from USA could get a kick out of the Churchill victory, is that they believe that Churchill and his government will co-operate better with America in trying to stop the commies, as well as some of the Socialism of the defeated crowd. And with better relations in defending free people against aggressors. Some people have funny ideas.

We might head this editorial, "Who Gins Whose Cotton," if we put heads on our editorials. Week before last our esteemed contemporary, the Yoakum County Review, over at Plains, said a bit about our report on the Terry-Yoakum cotton report that we have been running in these columns. These reports, Editor Hale, were derived from sources we regarded as responsible and official. And then the editor had a bit to say about some of the Yoakum county cotton being ginned at Tokio in Terry. That is true, and we know that the Lee O. Allen Gin at Tokio appreciates the cotton that comes from Yoakum county, or that Gomez or Brownfield ginmen also appreciate any that comes from Yoakum county, if any. But Terry county has a considerable wad of cotton ginned in other counties. To begin with, they have two or three gins at Seagraves that gin a lot of Terry county cotton from the Willow Wells community, especially. And Mr. Hale, they gin some of your

Around The Corner — And Down The Street

By Margaret Bandy Coward

Miss Elizabeth Jo Anthony, who is employed at Nelson's Pharmacy, recently accompanied her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Terry of Midland, to New York City, making the trip there and back by plane.

Then there were twin boys, with their brother and sister, who rode all the saddles in the bank while their mother made their deposit!

Mike Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Smith, and Kenny Kendrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Kendrick, were the first "straw bosses" . . . each with $250 deposits.

Mrs. Ramsey stated the pouches were arriving, direct from the ideal of most of the children of today . . . Hopalong Cassidy personally is sending a badge, a cowboy mail pouch, an autographed picture, a secret code and other thrift materials, to every boy and girl joining his club.

The following paragraphs were omitted from the story last week in the Herald about M. J. Craig Motor company receiving the Chrysler Merit of Award:

Mr. Craig and his son, M. J. Jr., and Robert Lee, who are associated with him in business, have the large plaque on display in their sales room. It is an attractively arranged medallion with the following inscription, "The Chrysler Medal of Merit Service Award— for distinguished service; adequate facilities, factory approved methods, expert workmanship, fair prices, modern equipment and factory engineered parts. We Aim To Take Care of our own, Chrysler Sales Division."

In making the presentation, Mr. Girard, district manager, stated that M. J. Craig Motor Company has received every award given by the Chrysler Sales Corp., the past 15 years. Charles Ward, bookkeeper for the firm, last year received the Chrysler dealer accountant certificate of merit; and men in the service department all have received awards as master technicians.

With Mr. Craig and his sons, and Mr. Ward, bookkeeper, are

It has a Way with Women

SOMETIMES we think that too little attention is given to the fair sex in automobile advertising.

After all, it's the woman of the house who has to do most of the shopping, which involves getting into tight places at the curb. And it's surprising what tight spots a Buick can fit into at a turn of the wheel.

It's the woman who likes complete freedom from things that it takes an engineer to operate—and a complete and utter freedom from mechanical complications is what makes Dynaflo Drive® such a joy.

It's the woman who has an eye for style and fine fabrics—and a nose for economy. On both counts, a Buick is tops.

But we suspect something else. We suspect that a woman gets just as great a lift as a man from commanding this great-powered and trigger-quick bundle of vitality to bow to her will.

Here's a car to win any woman's heart—by its level-gaited stride—its willing response to her hand on the wheel—its smart style and its smart performance—its spaciousness and comfort—and its thrift.

How about taking time off, some afternoon soon, to boss around a Buick? It's a date that's bound to thrill you.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

TEXAS ONE OF BILLION DOLLAR FARM STATES

Texas was among six Mid-American states to make the "billion dollar farm income" club in 1950, according to a survey made public by Capper's Farmer.

Texas farmers received $1,933,263,000 in cash farm income last year, including $806,100,000 from livestock products and $1,127,163,000 from crops, says the survey, based on U. S. Department of Agriculture statistics.

The nationally-circulated farm magazine reports that the five other states in the billion dollar farm cash income bracket were: Iowa, with $2,038,101,000; Illinois, $1,720,080,000; Minnesota, $1,164,558,000; Missouri, $1,009,281,000; Kansas, $1,000,790,000.

Total 1950 U. S. cash farm income was $27,920,746,000, comprising $15,593,222,000 from livestock and $12,322,524,000 from crops.

Farm income for 1951 is likely to set an all-time high of $35 billion, or $7 billion above last year's level, the magazine estimates.

Plan Your Household Spending of Income

COLLEGE STATION. — Often household members managing the family income estimate that they have put aside enough cash to take care of living expenses for the month, only to discover a week or so before the first that the funds are all used up. Much of this worry can be avoided, says Gladys Darden, home management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, if the family will develop a plan for spending.

This plan or budget might serve as a guide for what the family plans to do during the year and each member could have a part in the planning. Miss Darden says that first, the family as a group should decide what it will need, what it wants most, and what its goals for the year are to be. If a record of expenses is kept, the specialist believes, improvements in spending can be visualized and each member will understand better what the financial problems are.

Study the income expected during the coming year and list first those vital needs such as food, clothing, and housing. Insurance and installment payments should have a place in the records, too. Add up the estimated expenses and compare the total with that of the estimated income. If "ends fail to meet" study the plan again to see where adjustments can be made. It may be that some unnecessary items will have to be left off the list. More use may be made of free community services. Ways in which to increase the income may be considered by the family.

HOUSE OF THE WEEK

In this space, you'll find "The House of the Week" with full descriptions. This series is made possible by area firms listed here... See them to help you with your Home Furnishing Problems.

A HOUSEWIFE'S DREAM HOUSE

FARM & RANCH House Plan No. 20 is adaptable to many areas of the South. It is designed for comfortable living and convenience.

The L-shaped porch would be a very desirable extension to the living room, and might even double for a guest room in the summer and on holiday occasions.

A movable bookcase between the living and dining areas are suggested to give privacy during meals, but it could be moved when large groups are present.

The arrangement of the kitchen and bath is good. All of the plumbing is concentrated in one very small area and can be installed for a minimum cost. Opaque glass in the bathroom windows eliminates the need for blinds.

You will find the kitchen especially attractive. The counter space is well divided on both sides of the range, and there is a broom closet. Family meals can easily be served in the kitchen.

The bedrooms are of very comfortable size. The master bedroom has two closets; the smaller bedroom has one. The large closet in the workroom and that in the bathroom hall will accommodate wraps and clothing which are not conveniently stored in the other closets.

Our plans show the screened porch or workroom enclosed, but it has four large windows on one side to give plenty of light and ventilation. This enclosure is optional since the porch would be very nice in milder climates when just screened! However, in cooler area it would be more usable when enclosed.

If you do not care for the horizontal lines which we have stressed, you can use 12-light windows and just the porch posts instead of the strong horizontal pieces indicated. It will be attractive either way.

SAFER IN TALL BUILDINGS THAN TALL CORN

CHICAGO.—When you drive a car, you're a lot safer among the tall buildings than out in the tall corn!

According to the 1951 edition of the National Safety Council's statistical yearbook, "Accident Facts," it is more than twice as dangerous to drive in rural areas as in cities.

Of the 35,000 motor vehicle deaths in 1950, rural accidents accounted for 24,800 and mishaps in cities 10,200. The rate of deaths per 100,000 miles traveled was 10.5 in rural areas and 4.6 in cities.

NAZI LIE RECORDED

VIENNA.—(P)—The wrongs of the Nazis are righted as the years go by.

When the Nazis occupied Vienna, they found the great-grandfather of Johann Strauss, who wrote the immortal "Blue Danube Waltz," was listed as a "Christianized Jew" in a 1762 marriage register.

Rather than risk Viennese wrath by banning the "Blue Danube," the Nazis removed the register. They substituted a photostatic copy that indicated Strauss' ancestor was an "Aryan."

The original, shipped off to Berlin, now has been returned to Vienna. The photostatic copy lies beside it as a permanent incrimination of the Nazi regime.

No Cotton Quota For Next Year

We received a release last week from Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan that there would be no quota on either long staple or upland cotton for the 1952 crop year. Currently, he announced, we find ourselves not only considerably short of quota position, even with a considerable carryover.

The Herald agrees with many farmers we have talked with that there should not have been any quota in 1950, but the Ag. Dept. thought otherwise. It seems from reading the release that the whole thing is based on a very fine spun theory, and gives little leeway for drought or insect depredations. The quota, according to Mr. Brannan, is based on the theory that the total supply exceeds the "normal" supply by 8 per cent. Just how anyone can know in advance what the world will demand next year or the next is beyond us.

But the matter is now settled for 1952, and our farmers can plant the field, pasture, garden and orchard in cotton if they like.

FARM QUESTION BOX
by
ED W. MITCHELL
Farm Advisor
General Electric Station WGY

Q. I have a straw hat which has gotten wet and lost its sizing. I would like to know what I could use to replace it and make the hat firm. It would have to be a chemical that rain would not harm, as the original was.

A. Inquiring to find a good solution to your problem of salvaging your straw hat has yielded several ideas—some unique, some helpful, and some insulting.

1—Throw the hat away and get a new one.

2—Take it to a hat shop where they clean and block hats.

3—Make a thin solution of wallpaper staling; immerse the hat and get some friend to shape it to your head while wet with the warm glue solution and then lay it away to dry.

These added thoughts are my own and offered in a friendly spirit. Substitute a watermelon or other form for your own head if you undertake to do the job at home.

Q. Can you tell me of a good grass and weed killer to keep down sod in a gravel driveway? Could kerosene be sprinkled on this area and would it be advisable to do this?

A. Crank case drainings which you can get free-of-charge from most filling stations will keep down most of the weeds and grass. Then spot spray with cleaning solution or ammate, to kill extra tough weeds or grass. Do not use kerosene.

Q. I am having trouble with Japanese beetles in my garden. Some years ago I recall seeing traps for Japanese beetles occasionally on lawns. Can you tell me anything about the effectiveness of such traps? Any information on this subject will be greatly appreciated.

A. Traps are not very effective and the best general control for a whole area is to inoculate the soil with "milky" disease to destroy the grubs. In the garden, the control is to spray thoroughly with DDT—a teaspoonful to five gallons of water.

Q. Will you please tell me when it is time to trim a weeping willow tree? I have a beautiful tree and the branches are all on the ground. Many limbs can be removed at one time.

A. Willow is pretty tough, and you can prune off as much as you wish, whenever it suits your convenience; however, most tree pruning is done in winter when trees are dormant. Cut close and do not leave stubs of branches.

Q. Can you tell me what time of the year to cut sumac, so they will not grow up again?

A. There is no such time. Cut sumac or other brush whenever you have time and then keep any and all new growth sprayed with a 2-4-D weed killer until no more new growth appears. The 2-4-D is absorbed by the leaves and carried to the roots and kills them. All stores sell 2-4-D, under various trade names, and directions are on each package.

WATCH FOR NEW TSC BOOK, 'SOIL AND WATER'

Landowners throughout the Terry and Yoakum area will be interested in the announcement by the Association of Texas Soil Conservation Supervisors that a new publication, "Soil and Water," will be launched the latter part of December, designed to help further the conservation of land through the far-flung conservation district program which now covers 95 per cent of the entire state.

The Terry-Yoakum area is in the Cochran-Yoakum-Terry Soil Conservation District, served by SCS technicians with headquarters in Brownfield.

The publication is being sponsored by farmers and ranchers who are members of soil conservation districts, which now cover 142,327,400 acres in Texas.

Its purpose will be simply to help solidify the efforts of these 100,000 far-seeing landowners toward a permanent land usage program which will keep Texas soil productive from now on, Clayton Ruckett, president of the association and a landowner and active rancher at Ft. Stockton, said.

"Soil and Water" will be published monthly, starting the latter part of December, and will contain upwards of 50 pages devoted to all phases of the district program.

Mary Reynolds, a filly owned by tobacco man W. N. Reynolds, won the Hambletonian in 1933 in the third heat when the lead colt stumbled nearing the finish line. The trailing filly swept on to victory.

Howie Judson, pitcher for the Chicago White Sox, is a native of Hebron, Ill., and played ball for the University of Illinois.

gram, which includes conservation of soil, water, range, timber and wildlife.

Editorial offices will be maintained in the Wilson Building in Temple, where the long-handled organization, the Association of Texas Soil Conservation District Supervisors, has its headquarters. John B. Cole, executive director of the association, will serve as editor. He was formerly with the Texas State Soil Conservation Board and has had wide experience in agricultural and conservation work.

Louis Reid, native of Ft. Worth, is managing editor. His experience includes publishing a community newspaper in Fort Worth, reporter for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and Fort Worth Press. He is a graduate of the University of Missouri.

H. B. Fox of Taylor will serve as contributing editor. He writes for Collier's magazine and numerous Texas papers.

Ernest Lee Ludwig of Dallas is advertising manager. Ludwig is an experienced advertising man, attended school at UCLA and was a photo pilot in the Navy for five years during the war.

Dorothy Mafler of Temple, formerly with the Temple Telegram, will be circulation manager.

"While the magazine is designed for landowning members of the soil conservation districts of the state, it will be of interest to business and professional people and others interested in Texas' foremost resource, its land, and frankly we invite all to become subscribers," Cole said. "The price is $3 a year." The magazine will be a non-profit enterprise devoted to conservation of our agricultural natural resources, he added.

USO Quota Still Far Below Goal

"We are a long way from reaching our quota for the USO," Sawyer Graham, county chairman, said last Wednesday. Quota has been set for $1040, or approximately $5 for each Terry county boy in the service.

There are 228 boys now serving in the armed forces from Terry county, and we are making a special appeal for funds to help furnish entertainment for these boys," Mr. Graham said.

Checks can be mailed to James Mackey Dallas, community chairman, and assisting in the drive includes Johnny Kendrick, Bill Dwyer, Virgil Crawford, Jim Baggett and L. G. Smith.

Other community chairmen include Mrs. Louis Peeler at Meador, Mrs. Miller Rich at Wellman, and Lee O. Allen at Tokio.

Mrs. Jackson was ill Monday and Mrs. Lanious taught both rooms. The first grade box supper was a huge success for such a small bunch of children. The proceeds go toward their queen, Carolyn Warren. The contest for the queen closes at 4 p. m., Monday, Nov. 12. It is understood that the Coronation program is progressing nicely. The first grade, both rooms, enjoyed a party Halloween Day. Refreshments of apples, candy and bubble gum were served to the forty-two present that day. After bobbing for apples and listening to Halloween stories, the children saw their first ghost, but they were only amused because the had already been told that there were no real ghosts. After trying to guess who was impersonating the ghost they were told who it was and much to their surprise it was Margaret Weaver.

The Herald has received free passes to the International Livestock Show in Chicago which runs from the 24th to Dec. 1. We thank the management for the passes, but after looking all through the inclosure, we found no rail or bus pass. Not even one on the airways, although we would not have used it anyway.

Even though hwe wise-cracked about the rail tickets, you would be surprised at the number of people from this area that do attend this great show—the show of all livestock shows.

Truckers Pay Highway Taxes and Fines

AUSTIN.—To help stem the tide of Texas' rapidly depleting highway and road funds, more than 21,000 truck operators paid over one million dollars into the state road coffers last year.

The payments were not voluntary contributions, but represented $1,071,387 paid in fines and additional truck license and registration fees as a result of the arrest of 21,577 truck drivers caught violating the highway laws.

Stove Blast Claims Third Victim Monday

(Delayed)

The third victim of the kerosene stove explosion Sunday at the home of a Latin-American family near Gomez, Vello Volancia, 11, died at 6:30 p. m., Monday, in Treadaway-Daniell hospital.

The girl's mother, Mrs. Polloma Volancia, 36, died at 5 a. m. and her 10-month-old sister, Janie, died at 1 a. m. All had sustained third degree burns over their entire bodies when the stove exploded.

Three other children were treated for minor burns and released. The father was visiting the former family home in Big Spring, and Vello, only family member able to speak English, was conscious long enough to tell that the stove exploded, when her mother tried to light it. The family, originally from Big Spring, had been living and working on the Denver Kelly farm three miles north of Gomez.

Funeral services for the three were held at 5 p. m. Wednesday in the Brownfield Catholic church with the Rev. Charles White of Lubbock officiating. Burial was in the Old Terry county cemetery.

In The State of Texas

HERE'S WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT THE NEW TEXAS "SAFETY RESPONSIBILITY LAW"

- 1 Enforcement Begins January 1, 1952. On this date, the new Safety Responsibility Law, as passed by the Legislature, goes into effect. This law was designed to protect you against financially irresponsible drivers and owners of motor vehicles involved in accidents. It affects all drivers and motor vehicle owners (except Federal, State, County and City-owned cars).
- 2 What Must You Do After An Accident? Under existing laws, you must file a written report to the Department of Public Safety if your car is involved in an accident where there is a death, an injury or property damage in excess of $25. Under the new law, a written report must be filed within ten days if your car is in an accident resulting in death, injury or property damage in excess of $100.
- 3 You Don't Have to Carry Liability Insurance, But . . . If you are not insured against bodily injury and property damage liability, you must be able to deposit with the Department of Public Safety security equal to the estimated damage, not exceeding $15,000.00, to cover all claims growing out of an accident anywhere in Texas in which you or your motor vehicle were involved. If you cannot establish financial responsibility for the future, your driver's license and your motor vehicle license plates are automatically suspended.
- 4 It's Easy to Establish Financial Responsibility with a motor vehicle liability insurance policy. If you do not now have such a policy, call your local insurance agent today. He is a qualified insurance counselor who will be happy to advise you concerning your needs.
- 5 What is the Minimum of Your Liability? The law permits each driver to establish the following minimum limits of liability: up to $5,000.00 for injuries sustained by one person; up to $10,000.00 for all personal injuries resulting from one accident, and up to $5,000.00 for property damage. You do not have to establish such liability but it is the easiest way.
- 6 Select An Established Insurance Agent. The Agents listed below know the insurance business and represent well-known dependable capital stock insurance companies. These agents are not of the kind that are here today and gone tomorrow. Their names are listed in the telephone directory. A telephone call will find them ready to serve you—not only NOW—but YEARS from now. CALL the one of your choice.

At least one Terry county Shetland pony has gone to the city, riding a special train from Dallas to Detroit, Mich., and "rates" a lot in a hotel in Detroit where Packard dealers, along with Money Price of Brownfield is staying! Mr. and Mrs. Price and Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Davis donned their western regalia and went to Dallas Oct. 23, leaving their Wednesday on a special "Packard" train with more than 500 dealers and friends from the Lone Star state. They are in Detroit seeing the new 1952 Packard demonstrated, and each couple will drive new cars home, arriving here next Tuesday or Wednesday. Dr. Davis and Mr. Price each wore ten-gallon hats, boots, and other western clothes . . . and "Money didn't forget his pipe," said one of the employees at Price Implement company. Mr. Price, who has been a rancher all his life, raises Shetlands at his place seven miles north of town. The district manager for the Packard company in Dallas called him to send a Shetland to be mascot for the group from Texas when they arrive in Detroit. Someone will "probably buy the pony 'up north' . . . and there is a wager that the little pony will get homesick for Texas.

We received letters from two of our servicemen this week. One from Marion Bowers who is aboard the U. S. Erben between the 39th and 40th parallel of the shores of Korea. The other from Elvin Bullard who is stationed in Korea. Bro. Wood writes a letter, and sends the little church paper to these boys about every two or three weeks. There were 369 in Sunday School Sun., Oct. 23, and a house full at the morning worship services. Sunday evening's audience was a little under 400. Bro. T. C. Livingston conducted the song service at both services. The young people of the Crescent Hill Church plan to go to Lubbock Saturday afternoon, November 10, for an all day service there at the Broadway Church of Christ. Our Young People's chorus will sing on the program. This group of young people meet here at the church building each Monday afternoon for song drill and practice. Bro. Horace Coffman, associate minister of the Broadway Church of Christ in Lubbock, directs them in this practice. Several members of the Crescent Hill church plan to go to Denver City next Sunday afternoon for a Gospel Singing there at 3 p. m. The fall meeting of the Denver City Church of Christ begins next Sunday with Bro. Wm. Irvin of Baytown doing the preaching. Come worship with us at any of our services, and listen to our Radio Program over KTFY, Monday-Friday, 4:15.

Cubs Lead 35-7 Over Muleshoe

About 1,500 fans "froze this one out" at Cub Stadium Friday night, as the Brownfield Cubs cleared the way for the district title, overpowering the Muleshoe Mules 35-7. This is seven straight wins and second District 7-AA victory, making a tie for the conference lead.

Their game with Littlefield on November 16 will be the deciding factor but the Cubs are on the way to being District Champions.

Sparked by all the players in jerseys, who, according to Coach Toby Greer, "like 11 brothers on the field," the Swan brothers, Fullback Howard and halfback Joe Swan carried the pigskin in the first half as they accounted for 27 of Brownfield's 28 points.

Howard raced for three touchdowns and smacked across for two extra points. Joe marked up a six pointer and tallied one extra point. The first scoring march covered 56 yards and was clinmaxed when Howard pushed over from the five. After a Muleshoe fumble the Cubs tallied again with Howard racing 35 yards on the clincher. Joe opened the second period by crashing four yards for the third touchdown, and Howard came back in the closing minutes with a 57-yard scamper.

The other Cub markers were racked up by Jerry Anderson and Billy Thomason. Anderson took a 48-yard pass from Donnie Boyd for the last Cub six-pointer and ran over the extra point. Thomason smacked across for an earlier extra point.

The lone Muleshoe score was made in the fourth canto after Brownfield fumbled on its 12 Aubrey Heathington bulled over from five yards out for the touchdown. Dewayne Burkhead kicked the extra point.

The Cubs also played havoc in statistics with 17 first downs against six for the visitors. Brownfield had 312 yards rushing and 79 yards passing. Muleshoe marched 151 yards on the ground and 78 yards through the air.

Homecoming Starts With Snake Dance

The Homecoming activities were started off with a bang Thursday night at 6:45. The snake dance began with the band leading the football boys and pep squad to the square. The snake dance broke up at the corner of Broadway and 5th street and the pep rally began.

The cheerleaders, Wynelle Webb, Roxanne Miller, Kay Szydoski, and Parilee Nelson led the crowd in a few yells. Great school spirit and pep was shown by all.

Head cheerleader Wynelle Webb then introduced the speakers. They were as follows: Bobby Jones, C. C. Griffith, president of the school board, Jerry Stolz, Al Muldrow, Kenneth Purtell, president of the Quarterback Club, James Harley Dallas, Buddy Gillham, Mayor C. C. Primm, Mr. Byron Rucker, and Mr. O. R. Douglas.

The Co-captains, Max Black and Howard Swan, each made a short talk after which the crowd gave 15 ralls for captains.

Last but by no means least, the coaches of the Brownfield Cubs were introduced. Coach L. G. Wilson gave a talk and then Head Coach Toby Greer ended the speeches with a pep talk for the boys. The crowd then gave a very loud and peppy yell in appreciation for the coaches.

Bob Davies, star player for the Rochester Royals in the NBA, is also a top flight golfer.

The St. Louis Cardinals were once called the Browns when the club was in the National League in 1876.

Ben Hogan has been golf's leading money winner five times since 1940.

People

By James Barnes

People have been on the earth as long as anyone can remember. Some people are men and some are women. The women are supposed to be weaker than the men but I'm not too sure that they are. Some people are short and fat. Some are tall and skinny and some are short and skinny. And some are tall and fat. And then, of course, some are middle sized. There are no two people who are exactly alike. An example of different people is that one person may like a cherry pie while the other person doesn't like cherry pie at all but likes pineapple pie twice as much. Some people like some things that other people like. An example of this is a person may like cherry pie and the other doesn't like cherry pie but likes apple pie, but they both like chocolate cake.

There are some people that are smart and some are dumb. Some are average and some are just plain crazy. There are people who have red hair and some that have black. Some people have brown hair and others have bleached hair. Some people's hair is long and others is short. Some people have shorter hair and other don't have any hair.

There are people of all sizes, shapes and colors, and they all act like they have good sense but actually people sometimes do things that even a stupid mule wouldn't do. Such has write a theme like this.

Georgia Tech's Eddie Prokop holds the Sugar Bowl record for most yards gained running and passing. Prokop accounted for 256 in the 20-18 victory over Tulsa in 1944.

BHS Band Sponsors Ernie Field And His Orchestra

Ernie Fields, "The Crown Prince of Swing," and his sensational orchestra performed at the high school auditorium Saturday night. Performing in the concert were Butch Luckett, the well known guitar and blues artist; Jo Jo Evans, the "goody goody girl," plus many others. In the floor show you witnessed that sensational one leg dancer, Frank James.

Sports Personality

This week Doug Forbes is our sports personality. Doug plays offensive right tackle and defensive right end. . . . Doug wears jersey "42" and weighs 155 pounds. He has lived here for the last two years. He likes the game of football because it is in the family. Besides football he likes boxing. Doug has boxed in a few boxing tournaments, and won most of his bouts.

Coaches of other teams regard Doug as one of the toughest and best downfield blockers that they have seen this year.

He is known as the Clubhouse Joker and is liked by all.

ROPEVILLE DRUBS PLAINS COWBOYS

The Ropesville Eagles hung up their fifth straight conference win against no defeats last Friday night at Ropesville, by thumping the underdog Plains Cowboys 27 to 20 in a tightly fought contest witnessed by 300 shivering fans.

The victory assured Ropesville of staying in first place in the torrid district 4-B conference race and dropped Plains out of contention. The Cowboys now have lost two consecutive games against three victories.

High School Queen Crowned Friday Morning in Ceremony in Auditorium

In an impressive ceremony in the Brownfield high school auditorium last Friday morning, Miss Joan Shelton was crowned "Queen of Brownfield High." The entire student body and a few parents witnessed the affair that had been scheduled for the halftime period during the football game Friday night.

Miss Shelton was crowned by Student Council president, Dean Murphy. Her escort was Herbie Kendrick, president of the Junior class.

Should Take Measures Against Weevils

In a circular letter this month to farmers, R. N. McClain, Assistant Vice-President of the Brownfield State Bank and Trust Co., recommends the use of precautionary measures against weevils in grain. He goes on to state that much grain is lost yearly by these insects. He says that any good fumigant is OK for radication, either while or after the grain bin is filled.

The Queen's court included Princess Leah Dale Portwood, Duchess Patsy Rogers and Duchess Betty Cabbiness.

Crown bearer was Miss Lynne Smith, daughter of the band director, Mr. Fred Smith. The band and pep squad both took part in the colorful coronation.

Many fans, as well as the entire student body, were disappointed "in the weather," which prevented the beautiful ceremony being presented at the annual homecoming game between the Cubs and Muleshoe Mules. But the weather did not keep the queen and her "court" from being very attractive and the ceremony from being an elaborate affair!

Vets Owe Legion A Debt

Veterans of World War II have established an enviable reputation as good risks under the loan provisions of the GI Bill of Rights. They pay their obligations and on time!

But there is one big debt that millions of them have overlooked! Perhaps they have never thought of it! Perhaps it has never been called to their attention! But it is a debt of gratitude which they owe nevertheless.

The veterans of World War II and of the Korean conflict are the beneficiaries of the most generous readjustment and rehabilitation provisions ever made by any Nation anywhere, anytime! Just look:

World War II veterans numbering 13,201,829 drew mustering out pay! 10,644,495 got terminal leave pay! 8,216,034 drew unemployment compensation! 7,499,013 got schooling or on-the-job training under the GI Bill! 2,480,490 got loans to buy homes! 140,525 got loans to enter a business of their own! And 61,319 got loans to purchase farms!

In addition uncounted thousands got the finest medical and domiciliary care, pensions and allowances for their dependents!

Many veterans have accepted one or more of these benefits as a natural function of the government in looking after their needs. But these benefits, these rights and these privileges didn't just happen!

They had to be fought for and labored for, bitterly and unceasingly by somebody.

That somebody was and is the American Legion!

It has always stood on the firing line of veterans' legislation as the kindly and unselfish godfather of all men and women who wore the Nation's fighting uniform in time of war.

War veterans who have benefited as a result of the American Legion's loyal efforts in their behalf, should be appreciative.

The least an eligible veteran who has received a college education or bought a home or drawn an unemployment check under the provisions of the GI Bill can do is to show his appreciation to the American Legion by becoming its member.

Without the American Legion he wouldn't have all these advantages!

Join and capitalize the "GI" in Legion for a stronger and more secure America!

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Stevenson of Plains visited her mother, Mrs. Homer Winston, Sunday. They accompanied Mrs. Winston and son Johnnie to Denver City Sunday afternoon where they attended the singing convention at the Church of Christ.

Stricklinly Speaking

By Old He

Sometimes these dagnabed old farmers try to get mighty smart with us, and if there were not so many of them, might try to do something about it. For instance last week, a day of two after the rain, snow, sleet and freeze had done its dirtiest we found four of these birds sunning themselves out in front of Primm Drug. We innocently asked if the freeze had done much damage. "Done all it could," says A. J. Loyd, and then he and Tom Doss and two other farmers whose names we do not recall here, gave us a down right old hoot laugh. And that's all we got for our trouble. But what can one old "kentry edjuter" do with four husky farmers? We hope they run out of matches some cold day and have to go two miles to borrow from a neighbor. But we'll bet they have a cigaret lighter somewhere around the house.

Talk about misplaced persons, reminds us that publications can get away out of plumb. You will remember that back in October this great religious journal had what it termed "Fire Prevention Week." This week is devoted to education of people in general to be careful about fires, and to give their homes and places of business at least, a good inspection to avoid fires.

This week we received our issue of Fire Insurance Facts and Trends, an organ of fire insurance companies, just about a month after FPW was over and gone. And it had worlds of good ideas concerning the prevention of fires before they start. Never too late to check up on fire hazards, however. Fires not alone destroy property, but take its toll in many lives during the year.

Such things happen to most of us. We had a little grand-nephew to burn so badly he died back in Tennessee in 1941. Some of the older boys were working on an old jalopy, and threw some saturated gasoline rags to one side, and then a neighbor boy lit a cigaret and threw the match carelessly on the rags. The little fellow was standing almost over the rags. He died in a Memphis hospital that night. We also had a girl cousin badly burned in our boyhood days.

You'd be surprised to find the number of your friends that do not wish to see the other fellow prosper. And if they do prosper in spite of your wishes, are inclined to say that they are grafters and cheaters. And then there is a great number that love to spout off about the owners of the big factories, and hate them almost for the money they make.

Too many of us for the nation's good, wish everything was on a small scale. Farming is no longer on a small scale in this area; that is most of it would be considered big farming back further east. These people acknowledge in so many words that they do not like mass production.

Had it not been for mass production we'd have gotten the whey whipped out of us in the past two wars, and would in the next one, if No. 3 comes up. The only reason Hitler and Mussolini are not ruling the roost today all over the world is our mass production and our assembly lines. Because of them, we are still free people.

When we got our morning area paper Monday, it stated that the north (cold front) was stopped shorter just south of Amarillo. Secretly we yelled for good old Amarillo to hold the line. But we had no more than gotten the words out of our mouth than the frigid thing struck with vim and might, and roared on all day and far into

Crops Dead As They Ever Will Be

We had been confined to this burg since the freeze last week, and had not been out in the country until Sunday afternoon. We had an idea that the cotton leaves, and the maize blades would be laid in the shade, but were a bit blacker than we anticipated. In fact, the leaves on crop plants will be no deader in January.

Farmers reported that the maize had begun to topple over, as usual following a freeze, and some farmers were busy even Sunday running their combines. As many as two in some fields. After a freeze, maize falls to the ground and cannot be combined. The loss is sometimes great, especially when maize is as high priced as now.

Cotton, however, will stand, and the frost and freeze will hasten the opening of mature bolls, and crack open the immature bolls perhaps, enough to get bollies from them.

One bad feature is that some farmers have reported to us that since the freeze, many of the migrant laborers have left. However, one has to be rid of the leaves to use the mechanical harvester satisfactorily. And the leaves will soon be on the ground.

What the farmers hope for right now is little wind and plenty sunshine. Wind will blow more or less sand and dirt into the cotton and hurt the staple that much.

SIX MARRIAGE LICENSES ARE ISSUED

H. M. (Dube) Pyeatt reported the following marriage licenses issued from his office last week:

Mr. Oscar Allen and Miss Janet Gipson; Mr. W. B. Smith and Miss Mary Venus King; John Era Herring and Miss Rose Mary Drake; Mr. Calista Garcia and Miss Evangelina Baldez; Mr. Philiberta Padilla and Miss Antonio Torres; Mr. Julian Gomez Balmorez and Miss Mary Gonzales Daran.

During the same period, two suits for divorce were filed with District Clerk Mrs. Eldora A. White.

the night. And we shivered and shook despite the fact we had fortified ourself with a good pair of long-handles, and about all the last year's winter wearing apparel out of the closet.

We try to kid ourself that because we had so much extremely hot weather in the summer that our blood has become as thin as water. Fact of the matter, however, is, that age is creeping up, and we just can't take it any more.

Our fine youthful friend, Morgan L. Copeland, who is attending the University of Texas law school, wrote us the past week. The text of his plea was to get us to support the Amendment to be voted on next Tuesday, giving the Regents of the U. of T. the right to invest university monies in securities of private corporations.

INSPECTORS CAPTURE FIVE EASTX STILLS

The Texas Liquor Control Board inspectors in September reported the seizure of five illicit stills. With the stills, which had a cubic capacity of 290 gallons, inspectors captured 1,025 gallons of mash and made three arrests. Eleven gallons of moonshine liquor were destroyed.

Two stills were taken in Anderson County, and one each was taken in the counties of Titus, Marion and Nacogdoches.

Mighty Near Had A Family Reunion

Sunday was almost a day of family get-together for former Hardeman county, Tennessee families in this area at least, at the Old He home on Broadway. His own clan were all there with a broad smile and a good appetite. There was the junior and his family, he and wife and the three offsprings, Jack Taylor, Robert and Mary Ann.

Then there was the Trigg family up from Snyder, Herman, Sallie and little Miss Sara Beth—yes and Rover, the dog. In addition there was Cousin Phillip Rogers, wife and children, Phyllis, Gary, Shirley and Mary Beth.

What is more, the Rogeses brought a young baked hen, fat and prime, including the "stuffing" and gravy to add to the repast at noon. Did you note the similarity of names of the three youngest children of the Stricklins, Rogeses and Triggs? Mary Ann, Sara Beth and Mary Beth. Children are great even if a bit noisy at times. Late in the afternoon when all but the Rogeses family had returned home, they and the Old He and wife drove out to Ed Thompsons, who like the Old He was born in Hardeman county, Tennessee. We had a fine short visit out there. Most of the children and in-laws on hand, but Jack was running two combines as his maize had begun to fall.

Mrs. Saffell Also After Bargains

Mrs. R. E. L. Saffell, of Lubbock, but formerly of Meadow, observed in a recent issue of the Herald that Mrs. Minnie Williams had decided to cut down time and trouble to both, and renewed for three years for $5, and she wanted a bargain. But as Mrs. Saffell now lives out of the trade area, her paper costs $3 instead of $2 for one year.

But we did make an acceptable bargain with Mrs. Saffell for the $5 check she sent in. She stated that the family came to Meadow in 1920, and lived there for many years. She also stated that she knew the Old He had seen lots of changes in all this section. We sure have, Mrs. S.—from frontier to greatness.

The lady also stated that she enjoyed our recent spiel on the Fall Season, and added that it was her favorite time of year.

Some Don'ts For Texas Hunters

AUSTIN.—As the hunting season gets underway Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, urges caution in handling firearms. More than 160 Texans were killed in 1950 as a result of carelessness in handling guns. At a time like this it is more important that we should conserve human life whenever possible.

"It is not enough to deplore the waste of human lives caused by the careless handling of firearms," asserts Dr. Cox, "we should learn from the deaths of these victims the lessons of safety which will prevent this needless and shocking waste. With the price of meat at the present level there is a possibility of more hunters going into the field than ever before."

The State Department of Health gives the following safety suggestions in handling guns:

While hunting to be sure that the loaded gun is on safety until ready to fire.

Never shoot without seeing your target clearly.

Never crawl through a fence carrying a gun.

If hunting with a companion stay close to him.

Do not strike the ground or a wounded animal with the butt of a loaded gun.

Never scuffle while holding a loaded gun or point it at a person "for fun."

Always unload guns before taking them into camp or houses.

All guns should be carefully put away in the home out of reach of small children.

Not A Good Cotton Gathering Week

(Delayed)

According to a report handed us by Earl H. Zeiger, Tuesday afternoon, the ginnings up to that time was 18,615 for both Terry and Yoakum counties. Divided, there was 16,720 for Terry and 1,895 for Yoakum county.

Up to this year, Yoakum county ginnings were included in the Terry county totals, as they just had one gin. This was done in order not to reveal individual ginnings. They now have three gins.

There was not too much increase over last week, as much of the time was misty weather, there being a quarter inch Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. Earl H. Zeiger, who has been here with Texas Employment Service, left this week for his home in Alton, Texas. He stated that he had enjoyed his stay here.

House guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Murphy May, the past week, have been her aunt, Mrs. Christ Christerson, and her cousin, Mrs. Merrill Stoker and daughter, Carolyn, all of Idaho. They returned home Wednesday.

Miss Olga Fitzgerald, who is in charge of the local library, spent Sunday night in Lubbock in the home of Mrs. W. J. Morris, 1523 15th Street. She returned home Monday at noon with two new books for library—"The Road to Bithynia," a story of Luke by Frank G. Slaughter, and "A Woman Called Fancy" by Frank Yerby.

A Bit of Information On the Amendments

The editor of this paper has been a bit too lazy to study much about the five Constitutional Amendments to be voted on next Tuesday, Nov. 13. In fact the Herald only ran two of the amendments. But Editor Roberts of the Andrews County News took time out between football halves to make a pretty good study of them.

While Editor Roberts does not commit himself too much, he gives a pretty accurate explanation of them. As well, that is, as any one not a Philadelphia lawyer could give them. Some of them are so strangely worded with high sounding legal phrases that are so hidden that the average person is in the dark about the amendments. But here it goes:

"Senate Joint resolution No. 8 would give the Legislature power to establish fire prevention districts and to authorize a tax of not more than 50c on each $100 valuation to support them. No tax would be levied in the district, however, unless it was approved by a vote of the people living in the district.

This amendment might help some districts in East Texas where forest fires are prevalent. In West Texas we do not need such a district. We think there would be no harm in voting for this measure.

House Joint resolution No. 2 would provide additional funds for the veterans land board to aid veterans in purchasing farms or ranches. The original money voted to the board was well spent and most of it is being paid back. We believe this amendment deserves your support.

House Joint Resolution No. 6 is one amendment that is causing a lot of discussion. It provides for the lifting of the ceiling on old age assistance from $35 million to $42 million.

Whatever the intentions of the author of the bill, the wording of that portion of the amendment which deals with the restrictions and limitations is extremely hard to understand.

One group claims that the passage lets the bars down so that anyone above 65 can get a pension whether he is a resident, alien, Mexican, or displaced person. This group claims that if the amendment is passed the needy old age pensioners will get less instead of more.

On the other hand, backers of the bill claim that all the confusion has been purposely brought about by special groups who want to see the amendment defeated because it will increase taxes.

... and provided that any resident of the state, if otherwise eligible, many not be excluded who has resided in the State for five years during the nine years immediately preceding the filing of the application for such assistance including the one year continuously immediately preceding the filing of such application.

House Joint Resolution No. 22 would authorize the Legislature to provide for a statewide system of retirement and disability pensions for appointive officers and employees of the counties.

The plan would have to be approved by a vote of the people of the county. Counties have such authority to pass such a plan now, but a statewide plan is wanted.

The last amendment, No. 37, provides for additional securities in which the University Board of Regents may invest in Permanent Fund, some $122,000,000.

At present, the money can only be invested in federal, state, county, school and municipal bonds. Under the new provisions, stocks, bonds, and other securities as the Board of Regents deemed proper could be invested in.

At present they get about two and a half per cent return on their investment. The amendment would give them a chance to seek larger returns.
