

LOADING 600 TOYS FOR GOODFELLOW DELIVERY was the task of DeWitt Stafford, pictured at right, and his welder, L. T. Redding. Toys were brought to the Machine Shop where they were repaired during December, and the men are shown loading the toys that were taken to Knight's Implement for packaging. Thirteen Goodfellows delivered the toys to over 300 needy children, here, on Christmas Eve morning. Knight's Implement furnished the above pickup for delivery purposes. (Staff Photo).

BOY DID WE GET UP AND STAY GONE!

In reading the proofs we note that the reporter of this sheet has many stories of those who visited off somewhere, or they had folks that came from some place else here visiting them. And some of them at least mentioned having turkey, ham and other good eats. In other words, many of them were family reunions. But in the case of the Old He, the family ties this Christmas were broken right smack dab in two. The Junior and family accompanied by Brian Brady, were off to Denison to visit the kin, the S. R. Taylor family, parents of Mrs. Stricklin, Jr., and other relatives in that city.

So, being left all alone here in Brownfield, the Jr. family had not been gone an hour until we too, took off, the Old He and wife, accompanied by Mrs. Sallie Limer of Long Beach Calif., a sister of the Mrs. here on a visit. Our destination was Snyder, where we could be with the other side of the family, the Triggs, Herman, Sallie and Sara B. Right here we want to diverge long enough to tell all and sundry that unlike the old story, not all on the roads were going down east to see the wife's kin folks. Returning Sunday afternoon, we noted that there were just about as many cars returning to their homes in East Texas, as there were cars returning to their homes in West Texas—up on the "ballies," or perhaps in New Mexico, but most were Texas cars by odds.

How do we know they had been east or west to visit relatives? Brother, you don't have to be a very close observer of the fast cars passing our old 40ty, to know they spent Christmas somewhere else. There was worlds of luggage, and some of the boxes had Christmas decorations still on them. And all were in a hurry to get home and get the old house warm before bedtime, especially if they have to use old fashioned gas heaters like this family. When we returned Sunday P. M., and stopped by the office to turn on the "juice" so the linotype would be rearing to go when the navigator came on the job Monday A. M. at the printing office, which has circulating heat, was as warm as a bug in a rug. Not so the old domicile where we still depend on gas heaters. It was as cold in that old house as an iron wedge—yea, two of them.

So, this leads to another subject. Down at Snyder in the home of the folks, they have the circulating heat, and the rooms are almost as warm when on araises mornings, as when one goes to bed. And the first night, when we felt the small amount of cover that we were to have that night, we felt like we might freeze stiff and agrinnin' before day. But there was plenty cover all night, light as it felt. So, if we can find some trusting soul that has more pity in his makeup than business ability, before another winter arrives, we're going to make a deal with him to install an automatic heating arrangement in the abode. Then when we traipse off down to the lower regions, and return on a cold day, the shack will be as hot as chili con carne on a hot day in August, instead of as cold as a refrigerator.

With all these preliminaries aside, we can now enter into the spirit of Christmas. Arrived a good while before sunset at the county site of old Scurry, and found all fairly well, and this included the two pups, Rover and Earmuff, the parakeets and the chinchillas. And they had plenty cooked up to start off the holidays, such as cake and a boiled fresh ham. Might say that the parakeets are still brooding their young, having some 100 youngsters, and all doing fine. When the temperature runs too low, a heater is turned on, and as most of the daylight hours were sunny, the oldsters had a picnic on the trapeze, shoving each other off. Those birds have about the same idea in playing that a gang of young humans have. They side up to each other on the swings and fixed walks, and finally shove each other off.

Dimes And Friends Aid Four in Family When Felled By Polio

A Kansas farmer has discovered that a good neighbor in time of need is more valuable than silver and gold.

Robert Stahl and his family were saved from heartache and tragedy by the action of good neighbors. Stahl, his wife and four children were busy on their 127-acre farm near Wichita, Kans., last Summer—getting set for the Fall harvesting when polio struck.

First, little 3-year-old Troy came down with the disease. Then Ronald, who is 10, contracted polio. A few days later, Charles, 12, and Patsey, 14, also went on the sick list.

Finally, Mrs. Stahl, herself, was afflicted.

The whole family was moved to St. Francis hospital, Wichita, leaving Stahl alone on his farm.

For a while, he didn't know what to do. The financial burden had been lifted through March of Dimes funds but the burden of work remained.

Then his neighbors volunteered to take over his farm until the family was out of danger.

These neighbors pitched in and Stahl went to town. For days, he kept a vigil at the bedside of his wife and children.

With the continued help of that other good neighbor, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, the family began to improve.

Stahl went back to his farm comforted by the knowledge that his family was being cared for. His neighbors had done a wonderful job of keeping things going on the farm. So he was able to carry on.

Today, Mrs. Stahl and three of the children are fully recovered. Charles, the 12-year-old, still has one partially paralyzed leg but Mrs. Stahl hopes he too will soon be well.

"Then maybe," she said, "it'll all seem like just a bad dream." The National Foundation hopes so, too. That's why it has launched a huge polio prevention program involving gamma globulin and a trial vaccine. If the program succeeds, families like the Stahls may be free of the polio threat forever.

GRANDDAUGHTER OF T. L. LOWE IS IN A SERIOUS CONDITION

Mrs. Billy Jones, of Dallas, a granddaughter of T. L. Lowe, 401 West Lake, was seriously injured last Thursday morning and her husband asphyxiated from a defective furnace at their home.

At press time, Mrs. Jones was reported still unconscious in a Dallas hospital. When the Jones and their son, Don, were discovered, Mrs. Jones was sitting slumped over in a chair near the telephone where she had attempted to summon help, before losing consciousness.

The boy returned Friday to the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Z. D. Moore, and seemed to be doing all right.

Funeral services for the father, Billy Jones, were held at 2 p. m., Saturday at the Urvendale Baptist Church. Attending from Brownfield were T. L. Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Lowe, and Morris Lowe from Plains.

FIRING AIR RIFLES, PISTOLS UNLAWFUL

At this time of year, all boys who received air guns and air pistols for Christmas want to try them out, and the local police department urges all parents to see that such practice is carried out outside of the city limits.

A state law prohibits shooting of air rifles or air pistols within the city limits and violators are subject to a fine.

PVT. EARL CAROUTH ON VISIT TO PARENTS

Pvt. Earl E. Carouth, in basic training at Ft. Bliss, Texas, visited Christmas Eve and over the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Carouth, 701 South 7th, and with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Carouth, South Tenth. He returned to camp Monday.

POSTER BOY COLLECTS FROM GOVERNOR—Debby Dains, 4-year-old polio victim, who is the 1954 March of Dimes Poster Boy, collects the first contribution in his home state of Idaho from his governor, Len Jordan. March of Dimes has provided $15,000 for Debby's care since he was stricken. "It's the test tube where the money goes, Governor," he explains. The drive runs through January. 200 contribution receipts were distributed in the local businesses Wednesday. Persons making the delivery were Thurman Skains, Norwood Heath, Billy Blankenship, Don Cross, and Chairman R. V. Mooreman.

Goodfellows Take Toys To Over 300 Children On Eve

The local Goodfellow drive netted $473.96 in cash and approximately 600 toys. On Christmas Eve morning, the sponsoring Lions Club members along with various other clubs delivered baskets, each filled with $10 worth of food, to 39 needy families, here.

Toys were repaired during December at DeWitt Stafford's Welding Shop, and transferred from there to Knight Implement Company for packaging. On Christmas Eve morning, the Goodfellows met at the Implement Company, loaded the toys and baskets of food and delivered them to various parts of town, taking toys to over 300 children, by means of private automobiles and pickup.

Goodfellows who helped distribute the food and toys included Jake Geron, Judge Herb Chesshir, DeWitt Stafford, Virgil Walker, Jim Foy, Elmer Brownlee, L. J. Richardson, Carl Stephenson, Leonard Lang, O. B. Larner, Superintendent M. G. Gary, Jack Cleveland, and Alvin Davis.

The Goodfellows wish to thank all individuals and organizations that helped make the drive a success and made happy Christmases possible for many underprivileged families and children in Brownfield. Judge Chesshir served as chairman of the drive, and E. B. McBurnett, Jr., as secretary.

NEWLYWEDS AT HOME IN BROWNFIELD

Mr. and Mrs. Wyndal Miller, who were married, Dec. 20, at Paris, Texas, are making their home in Brownfield, at 709 N. Atkins.

Mrs. Miller is the former Carolyn Pipkin, of Paris, Texas, and a cousin of A. J. Stricklin, Sr., and a niece of Phillip Rogers. Mr. Miller is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Miller, 317 W. Tate, and is employed at Higginbotham-Bartlett.

Complete coverage of the wedding will appear in next week's Herald.

SONNY CURTIS OFFERED TV SHOW BY KCBD

Guest entertainer Wednesday night over Bernie Howell KCBD-TV show at Lubbock was Sonny Curtis, of Meadow. Sonny has been offered a 15-minute TV show by the station. However plans are still indefinite.

FIREMEN'S TRUCK HEAVILY DAMAGED ENROUTE TO FIRE

A volunteer fireman's '52 Ford pickup was heavily damaged last Wednesday in a collision with an automobile at the intersection of Fifth Street and Broadway, when the fireman was reporting to a fire.

The fireman was going south on Fifth and blowing his horn when the accident occurred. The automobile was headed west on Broadway when its driver made a green light, plowing into the pickup. All this time only two blocks away, the fire alarm sounded with all its might from the top of City Hall.

Volunteer firemen, police, and ambulances have right-of-way on all streets when the fire alarm is sounding and a driver is required by law, when meeting one of the above vehicles, to pull over to the right and stop. The same law applies when a person meets a vehicle with flashing red lights, pull over to the right and stop. Some volunteer firemen in Brownfield do not have flashing red lights on their cars, however, the same law applies when a driver meets one of the volunteers—pull over to the right and stop.

Whether a traffic signal is red, green, or yellow, and the fire alarm is sounding, no one has the right-of-way except volunteer firemen, police, and ambulances, as long as the fire alarm is sounding. In Brownfield, the fire alarm rings for only 100 seconds, sometimes not long enough for a volunteer fireman to reach his destination, therefore, caution must be taken even when the fire alarm stops. City authorities stress that any driver when parked at the side of the street, should check the street for possible late volunteer firemen before re-entering the thoroughfare. Volunteers will sound their horn when rushing to a fire, remember to give them the right-of-way.

Approximately $300 damage was done to the pickup and about $150 to the other car. Neither driver was injured, however, the volunteer fireman was unable to report to the fire.

It is unlawful to park within a block of a fire zone area while a fire is being put out, and violators are subject to a heavy fine.

There is a siren in every community and she usually aids considerably in varying life's routine gossip.

SANTA CLAUS BROUGHT US TWO MORE OIL WELLS

While Santa Claus was visiting some of the good children, and a few of the olduns that were better than common, the old boy also delivered two brand new oil wells to old Terry, and in addition gave us two new locations. Both the new wells, as well as the two new locations, were in the Prentice field in northwest Terry. But that is about all we can tell you as we lost our notes on the wells, their drillers and owners. One of the wells finished about 200 barrels per day.

To the best of our belief, however, one of the wells was on Al Muldrow's land and the other on the Brit Clare holdings. But to save us, we can't tell you the name of drillers and owners of the new locations.

But the drillers did final the Terrentine well south of Tokio, and while a bit disappointing in relations to reports when tests were made, it is still a good well, and down in the reef where the high grade oil abounds. It went nearly 300 barrels per day of high grade oil, around 40 gravity, as we remember.

But we were expecting something like 1,200 barrels per day, as some of the tests were said to run 50 barrels per hour. But evidently that rate could not be sustained on a 24-hour trial. Anyway, we hope a lot of those old farmers out there get some of this play.

ROPES GUN BATTLE INVESTIGATION IS STILL UNDERWAY

No charges have been filed as yet in the recent affray four miles southeast of Ropes, which left Jesse Cano, 46, Brownfield, in the local hospital here with a bullet wound in his stomach, and an 86-year-old negro, "Fish" Stewart, with shotgun pellet wounds in his right eye and forehead.

The sheriff's office at Levelland said investigation of a reported argument and the subsequent shooting was continuing. The sheriff's office said that apparently the 86-year-old negro shot Cano with a shotgun.

Cano was reported to be in good condition at the hospital and Stewart was at his home where the shooting occurred.

MONDAY WILL BE DOLLAR DAY HERE

Come Monday and it will be Dollar Day again, as it is the first Monday in January and the new year as well. We believe that at least some of the merchants that were not too busy invoicing will have an array of bargains.

So just load up the old jitney, and come on in, as all the children of school age will be back to their studies.

THE BANKS WILL BE CLOSED TODAY

On account of this being New Year Day, both Brownfield banks will be closed for the day, but as usual will be open tomorrow until noon.

This is just as a reminder that banks always close New Years. But too late to tell you to make your arrangements beforehand.

Who Will Be No. 1 Baby For Year 1954

Terry County's First Baby of 1954 will be the lucky winner of valuable and useful prizes listed elsewhere in this issue of the Herald, under sponsorship of local merchants.

To be eligible the baby must be born within the corporate city limits of Brownfield and the parents must be residents of Terry County. The exact time of birth must be confirmed in a written statement by the attending physician and the parents before the baby is eligible to qualify for the prizes.

Watch The Herald next week for announcement of the winner!

Charlie Price Will Attend Showing Of Latest Merchandise

Charlie Price, Western Auto Associate store owner in Brownfield, will get his first preview on Jan. 10 and 11, 1954, of the nation's newest ideas in sporting goods, fishing tackle, outboard motors, power mowers, and other Spring and Summer merchandise. He will attend a Western Auto Supply Co. merchandise show at Fort Worth.

Mr. Price said that more than 600 items of new merchandise will be displayed at the show. Heading a new line of tools and chemicals for the gardener and homeowner, will be the last word in power lawn mowers. Among a wide array of power mowers for all sizes of lawns and purses, will be several models of the new "Rider" power mowers; this latest innovation in the power mower field allows the homeowner to ride on his mower, relaxed and comfortable, while cutting the lawn.

In the sporting goods line-up will be a new, more powerful model in the famous Wizard Outboard Motor line . . . the "Powermatic Twelve." The latest in boats, marine equipment and fishing items will also be shown.

It is from this preview of the biggest and most varied Spring

CUB PACK NO. 74 TO MEET ON JANUARY 5

Cub Pack No. 74 will have its monthly pack meeting, Tuesday, Jan. 5, at 7:30 p. m., at the Veteran's Hall.

Stunts will be held, advancement pins given, and a display will be shown of crafts made during last month's den meetings, according to Lewis Simmonds, Cub Master.

A Den party, Dec. 15, was held at the First Christian Church. All Cubs brought can goods for the Goodfellow drive. At individual Den meetings, held on various nights, gifts were exchanged. The pack Christmas party was given by the sponsors, the American Legion, 24 boys and their parents, and brothers and sisters attended the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Truett Flache and children, Elaine and Arthur Arne, left Saturday for a ten-day visit at La Fonda, in Santa Fe.

and Summer merchandise line in Western Auto history that Mr. Price said he would make his selection to fit the particular needs and desires of his trade area.

Mr. Price, who has been a Western Auto Store owner in Brownfield for 4 years, is one of 2,825 dealers in 37 states who will attend previews of new Western Auto Spring and Summer Merchandise this month.

3 FIRE ALARMS ARE ANSWERED 4TH WEEK OF DEC.

Three fires were answered during the fourth week of December by the City Fire Department.

At 6:05 p. m., Dec. 21, an automobile was reported on fire at 507 East Broadway. Very little damage was done when brakes on the car stuck and the fire was out when firemen arrived.

Occupants at the Pat Hendrick home summoned firemen when burning grease caused a lot of smoke but little damage in their kitchen at 5 p. m., Dec. 23. The fire was out when firemen arrived.

A small pile of cotton burs at the corner of Fifth and Felt caught fire, Dec. 24, at 5:20 p. m. The burr fire, located across the street from a huge pile of burs near the Travis Gin, could have proven disastrous if the wind had been from the other direction, as a group of business houses are on that block. It was believed that the fire started from a lighted cigarette carelessly thrown away.

Holiday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Scott Dalton, 109 S. 7th, were their sons, Harold, wife and daughter of Stinnett; John Earl, wife and son of Federal, Wyo.; and Arnold, wife and son of Gruver, Texas.

LOCAL LADY ATTENDS JAPANESE WEDDING—Mrs. Bill Rieck, the former Sug Hamilton, shown above, fourth from right, recently attended a Japanese wedding when she and her Warrant Officer husband were still in the inland continent. All guests sat on their feet, as is the custom, and Mrs. Rieck said she grew very tired as the celebration lasted from 11 a. m. to 9 p. m. Note the use of chopsticks, and also the tokonoma, the seasonal painting on the wall. The painting, which is a series of four traditional religious worship pieces, is in honor of the emperor and is changed only as the season changes. The Geisha girls, shown at left, foreground, furnished entertainment. The nippon (beer) shown at right foreground is served at all celebrations along with the national drink, sake (sock-e), which is a rice wine. The wedding pair are not pictured as this was only a portion of the guests at the wedding feast. Mrs. Rieck, her husband, and children, Carolyn, Sue, and Barbara Lee, visited last week with her brother, Charles Hamilton, all of Brownfield.

NEW YEAR'S GREETING TO ONE AND ALL!

Whether you are a regular advertiser, or an occasional one; whether you take the Herald regularly, may have done so for years, or whether you buy your paper weekly at the office, or at one of the several places where it is on sale each week, our heartiest New Year Greetings go out to you. To say the least, the year 1953 had many disappointments for we people here in Terry County and this area. It lacked a lot of being up to par. For the past many years we had no fall and winter season, and there was nothing left of the bottom season we usually have in spring. So our showers were just not sufficient to do the work. And when the farmers fail, we all fail here in this area.

But the fact remains that it has made the going hard on most of us poor or so-called middle class people. We have owed some debts we could not pay, and in turn others have owed us who could not pay. But we honestly believe that most of the people have tried to meet all their obligations. There are a few, always is, that did not try to meet them, and further, they would make no explanation why? If they had just dropped in to tell us frankly why they could not pay, or even written a letter, most of us they owed would have felt better toward them, and would have believed that they would have paid had conditions been better.

But we have had to meet and bear such conditions heretofore, in the some 45 years, come January 12th, the writer has seen since he landed here in 1909. To mention some, there was the great drouth of 1917-18, but this was then mostly a cattle country, and even though grass was scarce, and some herds or portions of them had to be shipped to greener grass. But the farmers, who raised mostly feed at that time, did fairly well in 1918. Most of the old timers who are still around will remember that government agents converged on the country, and had every grain field carefully harvested, threshed, and sacked. There was vast territory centered around Abilene that did not make a grain of feed that year or the year before, and they were in such hard straits the government had to step in and get seed for them. Feed for livestock was shipped in from elsewhere, and 1919 proved to be a bumper crop.

Then there was the depression years of the 30ties, usually termed by the strictly party people as the "Hoover Depression." And by the way, Hoover was the first Republican since Texas became a state, until last fall, that ever carried Texas. True, there were many that would not state how they voted, but the writer was not one that voted for Hoover. We voted for Al Smith, and are still not ashamed to admit it. Yes, we knew he was a Catholic, but he was not running on the Catholic ticket or the Pro-Testant ticket, but the Democratic ticket. He was the same kind of a Democrat that we are to this day. But for the record, let us state here and now that Hoover was no more responsible for that depression that you or we. He just happened to be the man that was President at the time, and a good person to lay the blame upon. Fact is, at the time when the depression really began to pinch in 1931-32, we had a Democratic Senate and Congress, and they couldn't or wouldn't do anything about the matter.

In fact, there was little improvement until 1941, when we got into a hot war, and began to talk about billions instead of millions of dollars. The old piggy bank was pulled out up at Washington and we had the PWA's and other alphabeticals leaning on their toes, rakes and shovels—talking politics. Then we pulled the old sock out of the closet, and the old fruit jar in a dark spot down in the cellar, and we spent and elected, spent and elected, until the government, if it were a private concern would be dead broke. There are very few of us that if given a few years with good conditions, good crops and plenty of oil, could not pull out of the hole and pay out. But with the government now owing its own people some $275 billion dollars it has borrowed, it is a different matter. If there are no more wars and depressions, none now living, perhaps will ever see the government clear of debt. On the other hand, we are pouring the filthy lure down the rat hole as fast as we can collect it from our own burdened people. We or rather our leaders, have come to the conclusion that it is our business to put every Dick, Tom and Harry nation of the world on its feet, and keep them supplied in the manner we have raised them. To say the least, this is a great, heart rending task we have taken on. Many of these nations we have adopted as orphans, are larger and more populous than the USA. And there has been little of the time in the some 60 years we can remember since we began to read, that people were not starving in India and China. Way back about 1900, a man we worked for on a farm in Johnson County, took the Christian Herald, which would give pictures of naked children with bigger tammies (bloat) than the rest of their poor little scrawny bodies. No telling how much longer this condition had existed.

Truth of the matter is, there are just too many of them for the amount of land they have, together with their manner of cultivating the soil. Their farming methods are just as crude as they were in the 16th century. Let us take our own nation as a comparison? Back in 1820, or 133 years ago, some 90 per cent of the people were classified as rural—farmers—in other words, and some 10 per cent lived in the villages, towns and cities, and were non-farming people. It was just about all these 90 per cent farmers could do to supply themselves and the small number residing in the urban centers. But let us take a look now, what with science and invention, our less than 20 per cent farming population is doing toward feeding the some 80 per cent urban people, along with themselves? They are not only feeding and clothing themselves, and the 80 per cent town people, but we are running up against surpluses that are making it a real he-man's job to dispose of, despite all the food and clothing as well as cash we are sending overseas. Most of the cash, however, we will state, is for them to arm and prepare for war. Well, you know it takes war and the killing of our youngsters to make PROSPERITY, according to the moguls, and we have had three of them in the past 35 years.

Back in 1938 to 1941, we were pampering and coddling Russia, and had it not been for the war supplies and other things sent them via the Pacific, and across country from the Red Sea, Hitler would have taken over at Moscow. But with all we did for those stinkers, they are the greatest enemies we have on earth today. According to the records, the Stinkos belong to the United Nations; so do we. And according to Hoyle, each and every nation that belongs to the UN must oppose any aggression from any source. But was this the case with Russia? No indeed. When the Ruskos saw that the UN was going to thresh heads out of Red North Korea, the Red Chinese stepped in on the side of their defeated Red brethren,

The American Creed

We believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many states; a perfect union, one and inseparable established upon these principles of freedom—equality, justice and humanity, for which American patriots have sacrificed their lives and fortunes.
 —Terry County Herald.

ren, and in turn all were supplied and encouraged by the Reds of Russia. And some of our returned service men say that some of the flyers and planes shot down were Russian, and some manned by Russian crews. But the former leaders and rulers of the USA were strangely silent about this matter. Perhaps they didn't want to make "good old Joe Stalin" mad. And up to recently, the present administration has not been too loud mouthed about the matter. Very recently, however, some of our higher ups have been letting the Russians have it right between the eyes.

In the meantime, Mr. Stinkosky, who represents the Kremlin either in the UN or the USA, were given the greatest freedom to navigate about the USA, even visiting the secret munitions plants and proving grounds. But over in the land of "My Blue Heaven," every step our people take, who represent us over there, is watched, and there are many places they cannot visit under any circumstances. In other words they are watched as if they were criminals, and all people from the free, or what they call "capitalistic" countries, are on the same level as common thieves in that country. Many of our better statesmen, both Democratic and Republican, don't regard the Muscovites as friends, but speak of them as enemies, which they are. If they had one drop of honesty in their veins, they would be trying to repay the huge lease-lend bill we put up for them during War II. But confirmed liars are never given to honesty, and the Ruskos had rather tell a lie than the truth any time.

But what frets us here in the USA is to see the apology put up for the sympathizers in the USA. Only recently, Harry Truman, our apology for a President for nearly eight years, wanted to see a Communist, if any were ever caught by FBI or investigation committees. At the same time it is common knowledge that Mr. Truman had some of them among his cabinet personnel for several years. One at least, Hiss, is now serving time, one is dead, and those they worked with are in the pen, and two have been electrocuted. Then we have the case of many, including some students in a denominational university down at Dallas, who think the Combies have a right to hide behind the Fifth Amendment. To our notion, such educational institutions are taking a great risk in permitting such doctrine to come from their student body, who are in turn likely to be loaded by some of the instructors. If such a turn of events come about by these softies, and the Combies take over here in the USA, that great institution will be closed to all doctrines except Marxism, and their Bibles will be burned. But we will have eggheads as long as the nation endures, we guess.

Crooks of all kinds have always worked in the dark, and they despise investigations. And right now we are up against the fact that the "outs" are trying to stall investigations that may hurt their "cause." Some of them are already admitting that the White episode has hurt them. It should not. In fact, they should give all encouragement possible to any steps taken in ferreting out any setup that may prove the downfall of our country. The Democrats as a party is no more responsible for subversives than the Republicans. But there are individual leaders in both parties that seem to think that old Joe's worshippers here in the USA should have the permission of the nation to yell—Red! Red! Red! instead of Bah-rah-rah!

Let us have the truth of the matter, and that is, congressional investigations do not have any power to indict for crime. However, the evidence they dig up may be used in a trial by jury later if need be. Congressional investigations are mostly for the sole purpose of getting facts to base better laws upon, and not to indict anyone for crime. With the great growth of this nation in the past few years, numerically and financially, our government becomes more complex. True we have a free press in this nation, but it cannot get behind all the dark

BEHIND THE SCENES In American Business

by Reynolds Knight
 New York.—Last week began with a drop in stock prices on the New York Stock Exchange, and the Wall Street oracles began telling one another that 1953 was the big defense year.

Looking at appropriations, which run by fiscal years from July 1 to June 30, this may be correct. Looking at actual spending, which is what fills the pockets of workers and the tills of merchants, calendar 1954 will not see a sharp drop-off in defense or other federal outlays. Assuming that Secretary Wilson puts through his program of reducing armed forces personnel by 10 per cent, and that Congress is as hard-boiled about foreign aid as Secretary Dulles has been predicting, actual spending will fall by three or four billion dollars.

That isn't a great deal. Continued spending by industries to bring places and expose all the undercover designs of the criminally minded. . . . But congressional investigations can reach the darkest files, and illuminate the darkest passages. Treason and tyranny cannot stand up against the bright lights of public knowledge.

But we cannot put a gag on investigations just because they are likely to expose some of the rottenness and perhaps thoughtlessness of previous administrations. So, let's permit the investigations to go on. We feel certain that no innocent person will be subjected to indignities, but the reds, pinks and near pinks should be hauled before courts of justice, to tell what they know about the effort of foreigners trying to destroy our way of life. Our country is like we want it. No Communism for us.

We believe we have written this just as better than 99 out of every 100 people of Terry County see the matter. We don't have many, if any, with the wall-eyed theory of Marxism out here, and don't crave any. We want the true blue style of Americans—nothing more.

plants up to date will be one great offsetting factor. Another will be local government spending.

The small merchant and the wage-earner will notice one unhappy difference between spending by his home town, or county, or state, and the same amount of spending by the federal government. Uncle Sam borrows to spend, and then he borrows more to pay interest. Smaller government units, because of the tax-exemption on their bonds, borrow original sums more cheaply. But then they start right away taking it back from the taxpayers. Local taxes are going up in 1954.

May Not Like This Package In The Spring

A package is being prepared at this season which small business, especially where wages are lowest, may not like when it is opened in the spring. This is a proposed increase of 10 cents in the federal minimum wage of 75 cents an hour.

The Labor Department hopes at the same time to widen the coverage of this minimum, so that it will apply not merely to workers in interstate commerce, but to all jobs affecting interstate commerce. This would mean that employees in a building tenanted by offices of nationwide corporations would be covered. Store employees and farm workers would also be brought in, under present plans.

In the inflationary times since 1939, successive rises in the minimum have gone almost unnoticed. In some industries, however, they did kill quite a few jobs. If we are now facing a downturn from inflation, this effect will be sharper.

By far the biggest market, the Tile Council of America prophesies, will be in remodeling. Five of eight builders, queried by a national magazine about 1954 prospects, said 100 per cent of their business was in bringing homes up to date. Others said this was profitable between-big-jobs business for them.

The Tile Council represents manufacturers of clay floor and wall tile. Members' biggest markets are bathrooms and kitchens. Builders specializing in remodeling will find their largest activity in jobs for those two rooms, the Council believes.

ROBERT BECK SPENT HOLIDAYS IN JAPAN

Far East.—Christmas and New Year's holidays are to be spent in Kobe, Japan, by the USS Los Angeles.

Serving aboard the heavy cruiser is Robert M. Beck, fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion P. Beck of 902 E. Hill St., Brownfield.

The Los Angeles rejoined the US Seventh Fleet in early December for her third tour of duty in the Far East.

The visit to the Japanese tourist trade center is being made in line with the Navy's policy of giving personnel a chance to see the Japan that lies beyond Naval bases, and to promote goodwill between US citizens and Japanese nationals.

IN MEMORY

Of my beloved husband, James E. Mason, on our wedding anniversary, Dec. 29, 1953:
 Why did he go when life seemed fair,
 And no dark clouds were near
 To dim the brightness of our life.
 And start the bitter tear.
 We thought not at the close of day,
 When night veiled earth and sky
 That one so full of life and hope,
 Would breathe a last good bye.
 —Sadly missed by wife and son.

building is expected to pick up. The wide range of non-residential building—schools, churches, motels, filling stations—is also on an uptrend.

BETWEEN CLASSES AND 'ROUND TOWN

with Jane Griggs

Santa has been here and everybody has already made their favorite New Year's resolutions again this year (for good or bad?). Most of the kids that went out of town are back ready to go to school next Monday morning. Of course with many regrets that the holidays are over and not exactly looking forward to the mid-terms coming up soon.

The last day we had school before the holidays (Tuesday of last week), we had an assembly program with Joe Pat Cunningham playing Santa Claus and giving the teachers their booby gifts. Mr. Hale looked like some real big Indian chief or something in his new Indian headgear and Mrs. Miller really had a time with the "bouncin' back ball thing-a-ma-bob." The speech class gave a pantomime of "Christmas Dragnet" with Jerry Don Brown as the cop. The band played and the whole assembly ended with the audience singing Christmas carols.

Holiday daters were Nila Rich and Adrian Hinson; Parilee Nelson and Max Black; Marilyn Miller and Joe Sharp; Carole Dallas and Jacky Stockton; Dixie Brinson and Howard McQueen; Sue Campbell and Jake Bingham from Cedar Lake (by the way, Sue is coming back to school after the holidays); Vona Patton and Clyde Chambliss; Alta Merritt and Richard Hibbets from Seagraves; Johnora Haynes and Burl Warren of Seagraves; Ann Griggs and Bob Smith from Seagraves; Cleve Harbin and Charles Elliott from Seagraves; Norma Acker and Skeet Whitley; Janie Dickson and Clyde Trotter; Beverly Brown and Jimmy Nowell; and Linda Moore and Tommy Chisholm.

married after Micky graduates from high school.
 Next basketball game (games) will be the El Paso tournament.
 Karen and Linda White are back from Ft. Worth now and are having fun? moving into their new house.
 Patsy Rogers was a visitor with Royda Dumas and Sue Campbell during the holidays.
 Patsy Stice was home from Stephens.
 Shelby Thompson went to Tahoka to visit with Madelyn and Drew Hobby. Bye.

LIQUOR TAXES RUN MILLION AND A HALF

Austin.—Excise taxes on distilled spirits and beer account for the biggest part of revenue collected by the Texas Liquor Control Board.

These taxes on distilled spirits accounted for $896,972.89 of the November total, while the beer tax ran to $531,168.79.

The grand total for the month was $1,559,275.15, according to the Board's monthly review, published today.

Other revenue sources include excise taxes collected on malt liquor, wine, prescriptions, and at the international bridges; also for permit and license fees and sale of confiscated beverages.

A summary of enforcement statistics showed that 357 cases were filed during the month, there were 294 convictions and 28 jail terms assessed, 27 dismissals and five acquittals, and 53,208.15 collected in fines and costs.

Auditors of the board checked $1,798,680.19 in tax-paid and tax-due revenues, making 100 audits of eight types of accounts and collecting $413.30 in delinquent taxes.

The Board's inspectors captured two illicit stills in Marion County, seized 330 gallons of mash and made one arrest.

Reports of two wet-dry elections were received. Justice Precinct 2 of Tarrant County voted for the legal sale of beer. Justice Precinct 3 of Lipscomb County voted against the legal sale of beer for off-premise consumption only.

SESAME DISPLAY by Collin County Farmer. Carl Uland, Collin County farmer living near Plano, Texas, displays two stalks of sesame heavily loaded with seed pods. He is one of nearly 200 Texas farmers who experimented with sesame in 1953 and found it to be highly profitable cash crop. He'll plant a larger acreage in 1954.

SANTA FE GETS TRAVEL ORGANIZATION AWARD

Santa Fe Railway has received the National Association of Travel Organizations award for the year's best series of travel posters, ten four-color lithographs symbolizing in a dramatic manner colorful vacation areas in many of the Southwestern States served by the railroad.

A number of the country's foremost poster artists were commissioned by the railroad to make the original paintings from which the posters were reproduced.

A. A. Dailey, designer of the posters and general advertising manager for Santa Fe, received the award, which was based on simplicity of design and strong color treatment of the subjects.

BLACKEYED PEAS ON MENU FOR NEW YEAR'S DAY BRINGS GOOD LUCK

Taylor, Texas.—The traditional custom of eating black-eyed peas on New Year's Day to start the year off properly may have added meaning this New Year of 1954.

That is the opinion of Elmore R. Torn, who has promoted the wider acceptance of the custom as his hobby for many years.

Eating of black-eyed peas cooked with salt hog jowl on New Year Day carries with it the legend that the custom associates itself with luck. Its observance is more universal in the Southern States, but has now moved into practically all states, according to Torn.

Torn feels that the millions of people who observe the custom this year will give thanks that the New Year of 1954 comes as a day of peace in the world, regardless of how unstable it may yet be.

At the same time they may offer a silent prayer that peace may remain in the world and that the struggle to keep and extend freedom may gain in its march towards eventual triumph.

Torn said he wishes to invite all to join in the observance of the custom of goodwill.

Any kind of black-eyed peas are satisfactory for the observance of the custom, but the truest interpretation calls for cooking dried black-eyed peas with hog jowl.

ROSE CULTURE AT TYLER IS TV FEATURE

The agricultural aspect of the rose industry in Tyler will be featured on Humble Oil & Refining Company's TV program, "Texas in Review," next week.

Dr. E. W. Lyle, a plant pathologist who devotes all of his time to rose breeding, will explain and demonstrate how roses are planted, grown, grafted and marketed. He will also give his recommendations for raising roses.

The rose industry in Tyler is relatively new, however, 30,000-000 bushes are now shipped out annually.

HALF BILLION SPENT FOR PLANTS IN TEXAS

Manufacturers spent $580,116,000 for new plant and equipment in Texas during 1952, according to the US Department of Commerce. Only four states exceeded this amount—Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, and Illinois.

New plant and equipment expenditures in 1952 in the other Southwestern states were: Arkansas, $53,286,000; Louisiana, $233,665,000; Oklahoma, $38,272,000; and New Mexico, $4,773,000.

THINK THIS OVER

We do possess a shop or store
We drive the grouches off the floor
We never let some gloomy guy
Offend the folks who come to buy.
We never keep the boy or clerk
With a mental toothache at his work,
Nor let a man who draws our pay
Drive customers of ours away.
We treat the man who takes our time
And spends a nickel or a dime
With courtesy and make him feel
That we were pleased to close the deal.
Because tomorrow, who can tell?
He may want stuff we have to sell.
And in that case then glad he'll be
To spend his dollars all with me.
The reason people pass the door
To patronize another store
Is not because the busier place
Has better silks, or gloves or lace
Or cheaper prices, but it lies,
In pleasant words and smiling eyes.
The only difference, we believe,
Is in the treatment folks receive.

WISHING YOU AND YOURS A HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR!

with Mary Winston

Many college students are home for the holidays enjoying use of the family automobiles and taking up where they left off with hometown girl friends and boy friends.

Among the coeds around town are Dale Travis, from Texas Tech College, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Travis; Joe Sharp, from Hardin-Simmons University, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Sharp; James Barnes from Hardin-Simmons University, son of Mrs. H. T. Boyd; Parilee Nelson, student at Hardin-Simmons University, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Nelson; Jerry Anderson from Texas Tech, and Jane Anderson from North Texas State Teachers College, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Anderson; Roccoe Treadaway, from Kemper Military School, son of Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Treadaway; JoAnn Short from Texas Tech, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Short; and Don Noble, Texas University, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Noble;

Ronny Daniell, Baylor University, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Daniell; Earle C. Davis, Baylor University, son of Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Davis, Sr.; Chris Burda, Southern Methodist University, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Burda; Georgia Martin, Isbell's Beauty School, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Martin; Kay Hinkle, Draughon's

Business School, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hinkle;

Jerry Bailey, Texas Tech, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bailey; Jack Lucas, San Angelo Jr. College, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lucas; Fay Grissom, Hardin-Simmons University, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Grissom; Jacky Stockton, Abilene Christian College, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glendon Stockton; Glenn Paden, ACC, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. U. Paden; Orville Miller, ACC, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oden Miller; John Odell, Texas Tech, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Odell; Fred Salmon, Texas Tech, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Salmon; Charles Mayfield, Texas Tech, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mayfield;

A note from all college students would certainly be appreciated. Let me know what you are majoring in and a few of the campus activities that you have participated in lately. I'd like very much to compile a complete list of former Brownfield guys and gals that are now attending college, and names of their parents. Any information will be appreciated. The Japanese seem to have it over the Americans when it comes to long wedding ceremonies, according to Mrs. Rieck, the former Sug Hamilton, who spent two years in Japan and who visited here last week with her mother, Mrs. Clemie Hamilton.

In America, guests become bored if a wedding celebration lasts over two hours, but in Japan, it usually lasts a day at least. Of course, the Japanese really "go all out" as they drink Nippon (beer) freely at the wedding feast and are entertained by the traditionally lovely Geisha girls. Seems our customs are a little behind the times.

A Japanese family's wealth is revealed at the wedding by the number of kimono changes the bride appears in during the celebration. At the wedding, which is pictured elsewhere in this paper, and which Mrs. Rieck attended, the bride appeared in four such changes, which symbolized a family of wealth.

While Mrs. Rieck was in Japan, she visited the so-called western style house in the immediate neighborhood and found only one room with chairs in it. The Japanese still prefer the floor to chairs and everyone takes their shoes off at the door, friend, foe, wealthy or poor.

Mrs. Rieck showed me a pair of ivory chopsticks and they were really beautiful. It was quite a surprise to learn that most Japanese use plastic chopsticks and a few of them use wooden ones. Cwo and Mrs. Rieck and children, Carolyn Sue, 5, and Barbara Lee, 3, left Tuesday morning for Baltimore, Md., where the warrant officer will be on the staff and faculty in the Counter Intelligence Corps.

MRS. WINSTON ANNOUNCES DAUGHTER'S WEDDING, AT HOME, CHRISTMAS NIGHT

Mrs. Homer Winston is announcing the marriage of her daughter, Glenna, to Wayne Curtis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Curtis, of Meadow. The couple exchanged wedding vows in a Christmas night double-ring ceremony, read in the home of the bride's mother by Bill Andrews, minister of the Southside Church of Christ.

The bride's father is the late Judge Homer Winston, of Brownfield. Recorded wedding selections provided a musical background for the ceremony and traditional wedding marches were played by Mrs. Robert Knight. The service was performed before a fireplace topped by a central arrangement of pink carnations and lighted by pink tapers burning in wrought iron candelabra.

The bride chose a beige wool suit with pink accessories and carried an arrangement of pink carnations atop a white Bible. Mary Winston, of Brownfield, attended her sister and wore a frock of navy blue antique taffeta with white accessories. The nosegay which she carried was of white carnations.

Sonny Curtis, of Meadow, served his brother as best man. Immediately after the wedding vows were exchanged a reception honoring the couple was held in the Winston home, with close friends and relatives attending. Mrs. Anna Bell Barrow poured fruit punch and Mrs. Harley Starnes served.

The bride's table was laid with an ecru crocheted cloth and topped by a wedding cake and crystal appointments.

Guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Harley Starnes and daughter, of Brownfield; Coach and Mrs. Brannon, of Dimmett; Mr. and Mrs. Craig Lewis, of Denver City; the bride's brother, Johnny Winston, of Lubbock; the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis; and sisters, Allene and Jean; Mrs. Knight and Mrs. Barrow.

Mrs. Curtis is a graduate of Brownfield High School and was chosen as Brownfield's first Harvest Festival Queen. After attending Texas Tech, where she received her Bachelor of Arts degree in journalism. She taught for one year each at Plains and Meadow schools.

The bridegroom was graduated from Meadow High School, where he was a football player, and has served two years in the Korean War Theatre. The couple will be at home in Brownfield following a wedding trip.

LA FIESTA MEETS FOR SEASONAL DINNER

Mrs. Howard Hurd, 505 East Lons, was hostess to the La Fiesta Bridge Club at a Christmas party and dinner held at 8 p.m., Dec. 22. Mrs. Tommy Zorns placed high score and Mrs. Ray Hailey and Mrs. George Germany binged.

Electric bells rang from a large Christmas tree, and white candles burned on the serving table; and all prizes were white.

A turkey dinner was served to Mesdames Slim Schellinger, Bill Anderson, C. L. Hafer, Johnny Kendrick, Bobby Jones, Zorns, Hailey, Germany, and a special guest, Mrs. Ted Hardy, and the hostess.

EIGHTY FIREMEN AND GUESTS ENJOY DINNER

Annual firemen's Christmas banquet was held at 8 p.m., Dec. 22, at the Country Club. Dance music was furnished by Ray Brooks Orchestra from Lubbock.

Eighty firemen and their wives were served a turkey dinner and special guests included two retired firemen, Walter Gracey, of Brownfield, and Lloyd McClish, formerly of Brownfield and now of Tullia.

Mrs. L. J. Stokes and daughter, Kathy, returned Wednesday from a week's stay in Dallas where they visited relatives.

FRED NICHOLSONS HAVE OUT-OF-STATE GUESTS

Guests in the Fred R. Nicholson home on Christmas day were Mrs. Nicholson's mother, Mrs. Donnie Bevels; a sister, Mrs. Clarice Haynie and son, Rodney, all of Broken Bow, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nicholson and son, Jimmy, of Kermitt; Albert E. Nicholson, of Milwaukee, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Nicholson, Brownfield. A turkey dinner was enjoyed by the group. Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Drake, RM3, USN, and daughter, Ann Dannelte, returned to their home in Norfolk, Va., on Dec. 3. Mrs. Drake is the former Annie Grace Nicholson.

CROSBY'S ENTERTAIN CHILDREN AND GUESTS

The local Methodist pastor, Rev. Uel D. Crosby, and Mrs. Crosby had as their Sunday guests, Mrs. Ruth Emory, youth director for the Northwest Texas Conference, from Lubbock, and Tommie Daniels, boy Scout executive, also from Lubbock.

Holiday visitors with the Crosbys included their children, Mrs. Alton A. Rodgers, husband, and baby daughter from Houston; Nancy Lou Crosby, teacher of home-making in Lubbock Senior High School; and Uel, Jr., a senior high student at Lubbock.

"Precious Gifts Are Given," Theme of Dec. Guild Meeting

The Wesleyan Service Guild held its December meeting and annual Christmas dinner Wednesday evening, Dec. 16. Mrs. Newell Reed opened the program with an instrumental prelude. The program theme for the meeting, "Precious Gifts Are Given," under the direction of Mrs. Carmen Davis, program chairman, was given by:

Mrs. W. W. Glick, gift of the Christmas tree; Mrs. Ione Turner, gift of holly; Miss Ann Lilly, gifts of art; Mrs. Harold Simms, gifts of food; Mrs. Leonard Chesshir, gifts of poetry; Mrs. M. V. Walker, gifts of Christmas seals; Mrs. Mary Ruth Nelson read "The Shoemaker's Dream;" Mrs. Evelyn Collins gave the scripture reading, Luke 2-1:15, "The Loveliest Story." The program closed with prayer and singing of Silent Night.

Instead of exchanging personal gifts each member brought a toy to be given to children in the county.

The dining room was decorated in the holiday motif, and lighted by candlelight. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. W. O. Helms, Mrs. Dave Finney, Miss Ludie Morgan, and Miss Mattie Morgan.

Members attending were Mesdames Jack Browder, Minerva Chesshir, J. W. Fitzgerald, Virgil Bynum, W. O. Helms, O. A. Lemley, Newell Reed, Kenneth Watkins, R. V. Moreman, Minnie Willingham, Dave Finney, Simms, Glick, Turner, Gage, Chesshir, Walker, Nelson, Collins, Davis, and Misses Ludie and Mattie Morgan, and Miss Lilly.

The January meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Newell A. Reed. Mrs. Ted Davis will review "The Prophet Jeremiah."

COUPLE ON WEDDING TRIP TO LOUISIANA

Miss Bobbie Alexander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Alexander, of Sundown, and Dan A. Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. Casey Day, Route 2, Slaton, were married at 3 p.m., Dec. 27, in a double ring ceremony read at the Sundown Church of Christ.

A reception was held at the home of Mrs. Walter Frazier, and afterwards, the couple left for a two weeks wedding trip in New Orleans, La.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Roosevelt High School and attended Tech one year and is the twin brother of Don Day. The brothers are co-owners of a ranch eight miles south of Sundown, where the wedding pair will be at home following their trip. Parents of the couple are pioneer West Texans.

WEST TEXAS GAS CO. PERSONNEL ENJOY SEASONAL DINNER

A turkey dinner served buffet style was enjoyed recently by managers and employees and their families of the West Texas Gas Company from 10 area towns.

The dinner, held at the Seleta Jane Brownfield Clubhouse, was highlighted with magic acts by Skeet Whitley.

B. F. Hutson, local manager, served as master of ceremonies, introducing other managers, who in turn introduced their various employees. Approximately 80 persons attended from Seminole, Seagraves, Lamesa, Tahoka, O'Donnell, Ropes, Meadow, Levelland, and Lubbock.

Those attending from Brownfield included Messrs. and Mmes. A. E. Richardson and son, J. W., who is home on furlough from Ft. Benning, Ga.; Alton Seay, Howard Davis, Alfred Gore, and H. B. Parks.

Visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Burnett, 803 E. Main, this week were Elvin Burnett, wife and daughters, Livingston, Calif.; Ervin Burnett and wife, Placerville, Calif.; Walter Dee Burnett, wife and children, Cheyenne, Wyo.; Mrs. Homer Newman, husband and children, Oklahoma City; James Burnett, wife and children; Ernest Burnett, wife and daughter, Mrs. Ladel Nelson, and husband, all of Brownfield.

Mason-Durham Are Married in Double Ring Ceremony, Mon.

Miss Vada Beth Durham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Durham, Rt. 1, Brownfield, and Wendel Mason, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Mason, of Meadow, were married at 10 a.m., Dec. 28, in a double-ring ceremony read by Dr. J. Harvey Scott at the First Baptist Church in Meadow.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white knit suit trimmed in gold braid, tiny rhinestones and seed pearls. She wore a white satin hat trimmed in gold braid, and carried an orchid atop a white Bible.

Miss Joy Walser, of Brownfield, attended the bride as Maid of Honor, wearing a blue wool suit with a white gardenia corsage.

Eddie Bingham, of Meadow, served the bridegroom as best man. The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a short wedding trip in New Mexico.

The bride, a '52 graduate of Brownfield High School, was chosen Terry County Farm Bureau Queen this year and was formerly employed at the PMA office. The bridegroom, a graduate of Meadow High School and a football player, formerly farmed near Meadow and is now a Private in the Army, being stationed at Camp Gordon, Ga., where the couple will be at home following the wedding trip.

Jones Presented Toastmaster Cup

Members of the Brownfield Toastmasters Club, meeting Tuesday at Nick's Cafe, awarded the winner's cup to Bobby Jones for his speech, "Colored TV."

Approximately 40 members and guests attended the "Annual Ladies Night Program." Miss Diana Adams, daughter of Mrs. Mary Lou Adams, played two piano selections, and Miss Carma Cole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Cole, sang two numbers.

Grady Elder and Morgan Copeland spoke on "Vanishing Race Discrimination," and Harold Simms and J. C. Powell, "What's One Man's Meat is Another's Poison." Topic chairman was Hub King, and guest toastmaster was David Nicholson, who was introduced by President Arlie Lowrimore. Herbert Chesshir gave the invocation.

HUB KING PRESENTED TOASTMASTER'S CUP

Hub King was presented this week's Toastmaster Cup for his speech, "The Equalizer," at the Monday night meeting of the Toastmaster Club, held at Nick's Cafe.

King stated that as long as the United States has the atomic bomb, we will be on an equal basis with Russia, although Russia is three times larger than the US. He mentioned other equalizers in reference to relationship between the rich and poor, and the good and bad.

Marion Bowers served as King's critic.

A business session was held with Arlie Lowrimore, president, presiding, and a steak supper was served to approximately 14 members.

THE CHILDREN GATHER AT TOWNZEN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Townzen were, it seems, kinder expecting the children in from nearby towns and cities for Christmas gathering, but were certainly agreeably surprised when Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Richter, of Los Angeles, arrived by plane. Other children on hand for the family affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Barnes, Plainview; and Mrs. Garland Ledbetter from O'Donnell.

The grandchildren were, R. G. and Leroy Townzen from Lovington, N. M.; Thomas from Tahoka; Mr. and Mrs. Arvis Grogan from O'Donnell. Mr. Ledbetter is ill at the Veteran's Hospital at Big Spring.

Few employees refuse to leave their desks when the clock signals an end to the working day.

Duncan-Crabtree Vows Read At Home Of Bride's Parents

Miss Wanda Jean Crabtree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crabtree, 1204 Tahoka Road, and Lester Duncan, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Duncan of Route 2, were married in a double-ring ceremony read recently at the home of the bride's parents by Doyle Kelsey, minister of the Church of Christ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a navy blue gabardine suit with a pale blue nylon blouse and a matching pale blue hat ornamented with dark blue daisies. Her other accessories were in navy, and a rhinestone and amethyst blue pin completed her ensemble.

Mrs. A. D. Wilkerson, of Levelland, attended the bride as matron of honor, and Leroy Joiner, brother-in-law of the bridegroom from Amarillo, served as best man.

At a reception held honoring the couple immediately after the ceremony the serving table was laid with lace and centered by an arrangement of white carnations flanked by blue tapers burning in crystal holders. Carrying out the blue and white theme, the wedding cake was iced in white confection, and blue napkins were printed with "Wanda and Lester." Mrs. Cora Campbell, aunt of the bride, poured fruit punch, and cake was served by Mrs. John T. Burney, also an aunt of the bride.

The bride attended Brownfield High School, and is now employed at the Treadaway-Daniell Hospital. Her husband attended Wellman High School, and is associated with Crabtree Machine Shop.

The couple will be at home in Brownfield. Attending the ceremony and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Joiner of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Duncan of Miami, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wilkerson of Levelland, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Kelsey of Tahoka, Wes Price of Abilene, Mrs. R. C. Chisholm of Levelland, Rual Chisholm of Levelland, and Mr. and Mrs. John F. Burney of Houston. Brownfield resident present were parents of the couple, Mary Ann Crabtree, sister of the bride; Joe and Douglas Crabtree, brothers of the bride; Mrs. Lela Burney, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Cora Campbell, Miss Wilma Ann Price, Mrs. D. B. Seaton, Mrs. H. D. Miller, Miss Lovone Seaton, Mrs. Becky Sanders and Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Smyth.

London's Fleet Street is famous for newspaper publishing houses.

ADDISONS HOSTS TO RELATIVES AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Addison, city, had as their Christmas day guests, Messrs. and Mmes. W. E. Maberry, W. W. Miers and son, Billy, Miers, H. E. Pieper and daughter, Alton Addison and four small daughters, Virgil Addison and three sons and a daughter, all of Lamesa; George Addison, and two sons of Jal, N. M.; Jack M. Addison of Welch.

Turkey dinner was enjoyed by the group of relatives and games of dominoes and "forty-two" were played during the afternoon. All returned home that night.

Last Chance For Korean Vet Schooling Are Spring Terms

The spring school terms, starting early in 1954, mark the 14th enrollment opportunity under the Korean GI Bill for thousands of post-Korea veterans, Robert W. Sisson, manager of the Veterans Administration in Lubbock announced today.

The reason, VA explained, is that the law's cut-off date of Aug. 20, 1954, (exactly eight months away) applies to Korean veterans separated from service before Aug. 20, 1952. If they want GI training, they must begin by the 1954 deadline in order to continue afterwards.

The deadline, however, comes before next fall's school term gets under way. Therefore, except for the summer session, the school term starting early in 1954 will offer many veterans their last opportunity to get started under the Korean GI Bill.

Veterans who left service after August 20, 1952, need not concern themselves with the forthcoming 1954 cut-off date, Mr. Sisson said. Instead, they have two years from the date of their separation in which to begin GI training.

Under the law, a veteran actually must "enroll in and begin" the training before his deadline, if he wants to go on with it afterwards. The mere filing of an application beforehand, with no intention of starting afterwards, is not enough, Mr. Sisson pointed out.

Generally, the veteran will be expected to be in the classroom or at the training bench on his deadline date. But so long as he started in time, he may be permitted to interrupt his course because of the summer vacation, or for other reasons beyond his control, or for any circumstances that VA deems to be excusable.

Mr. Sisson emphasized that these cut-off-date rules apply only to veterans training under the Korean GI Bill. They do not pertain to those enrolled under the original World War II GI Bill.

The French Foreign Legion was originally founded for the conquest of Algeria.

PHILLIP ROGERS IS NOW A GRADUATE

Phillip Rogers dropped in early this week while his wife was in washing. Just like a man, always trying to dodge work. But maybe Faybelle ran him off; didn't want him standing around in the way. Well, these modern laundries of the helpy-selfy order do most of the work anyway.

Phillip is doing well since he got out of the Vet's hospital at Big Spring, where he parted with what was left of his appendix. He also informed us that he had graduated from the GI school here, that he has attended the past two years. Or was he expelled? Anyway, we're glad to see him out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Breeze, of Levelland, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stricklin, Monday night.

JONES THEATRES HOST EMPLOYEES AT PARTY

Jones Theatres feted employees and husbands and wives at a banquet, Dec. 23, at 4:30 p.m., at Nick's Cafe, and to a Christmas party Wednesday night after the show in the Regal lobby.

Approximately 30 guests enjoyed a turkey dinner at the banquet and exchanging of gifts at the Christmas party.

Mrs. W. T. Howze and Sammy Jones, owners and managers, were presented matching blanket and sheet sets by the employees.

The group enjoyed playing games, eating popcorn, and blowing up balloons.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Renfro, and three girls are moving to Lovington, N. M., this weekend, where Renfro will be employed with a Ford garage. He formerly worked for Ross Motor Co.

SANTA BROUGHT PRESENTS AFTER CHRISTMAS DAY

We had already quit dreaming of a White Christmas when we returned from Snyder, but all our luck had not run out by a jug full. When we returned home we found that Mrs. Money Price had cooked us an old fashioned pound cake. And then Monday in came Santa on a late trip in the form of L. L. Bechtel, with two pair of warm wool socks, and the prettiest tie this side of Sangra La.

Forgot to mention last week that we received a Christmas card from that long, tall, but not hungry nephew of ours, and his wife, Vernon and Emma Stricklin, back there at Middleton, Tenn., which mentioned there was some news on the inside. There was a little message there too, about the family, and a $5 "William" attached.

Now we have an idea that V. and E. decided that on account of the drouth out here we were too broke to buy some speckle-eyed peas for New Year's, and they guessed about right.

Anyway, we thank our stars that we have such lovely kin and friends.

STRANDRIDGES HAVE A NEW DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Strandridge, of Brownfield, are new parents of a daughter, born at 9:07 a.m., Monday, in a Lubbock hospital. The baby weighed 7 lbs. 7 ozs. The father is employed by the United Geophysical Company of Brownfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Thomason, 804 E. Harris, returned Tuesday from Carlsbad, N. M. For the past two weeks Mrs. Thomason had been at the bedside of her mother, who is seriously ill. Mr. Thomason spent only the holidays in Carlsbad.

SANTA FE CARLOADINGS

Santa Fe carloadings for week ending Dec. 26, 1953, were 17,748 compared with 18,216 for the same week in 1952. Cars received from connections totaled 10,999 compared with 12,406 for the same week in 1952. Total cars moved were 28,747 compared with 30,622 for the same week in 1952. Santa Fe handled a total of 32,157 cars in preceding week of this year.

Silverware Helps Family Relax

To meet growing demand by families who entertain formally and informally, 1847 Rogers Bros. is introducing a "modern living chest" (above) that combines silverplate and stainless steel.

Beautiful silverware, for many families, is taking on an importance beyond that of setting an attractive table.

"A survey we have just completed," states John D. Shaw of 1847 Rogers Bros., "disclosed a new concept of the value of owning beautiful matched silverware."

"Many women, for example, have learned that beautiful silverware enhances the eye appeal of the best prepared food. It seems to stimulate the appetite and make the meal more enjoyable."

"These women also have noticed that members of the family linger longer at the dinner table when tempting food is served in an attractive setting. Why, the most expensive food even when properly prepared loses much of its appeal if placed on a table set with battered silverware, cracked china and a faded tablecloth!"

"Wives have learned that beautiful silverware helps in relaxing a husband who has been forced to move at a fast pace throughout the day. In fact, these wives know that the dinner meal can be a period of pleasant relaxation for every member of the family."

To aid the ever-increasing number of women who realize how beautiful silverware can help make each family dinner a special occasion, 1847 Rogers Bros. this Christmas is introducing a new modern living chest that combines a 52-piece service for eight in silverplate with a 26-piece service for six in stainless steel. Thus, in this one chest a family has tableware for both formal and informal use.

Also available are a number of special gift packages including serving, party and pastry sets.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Curtis, of Brownfield, returned Monday from a trip to Albuquerque and Santa Fe, N. M.

Arthur Curtis, of Meadow, visited Tuesday with his brother, Freeman Curtis and family, in Dimmitt.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Fenton and son and daughter visited during the holidays with their parents and grandparents in Snyder. Ronnie Fenton and Brenda Ann Fenton had as their guests this week, David Wiman and Ann Emerson, both of Snyder.

Mr. Robert Knight and son, 1207 E. Cardwell, and her father, M. G. Tilley of Lubbock, visited this week with Mrs. Knight's grandmother in Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Blankenship and son spent the holidays in Andrews with Mrs. Blankenship's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Williams.

Carlsbad Cavern sightseers, Wednesday, were Don Anders, who attends Texas Tech and has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Anders this week, and Miss Sandy Casstevens, of Brownfield.

Stricklinly Speaking

By OLD HE

According to the Welcome Wagon, five new families have moved to Brownfield recently, four of the families with children, one or more, and one with no children—yet. One family was from Lubbock, one from San Antonio, another from Wellman and one from Coleman. One family was from Toxey, Ala., and another from Carlsbad, N. M. Welcome, all.

A statewide poll of Arkansas was taken by a Little Rock daily recently to determine who was the "Arkansan of the Year." The vote went to George S. Benson, president of the Harding College, in the little city of Searcy, by a good, safe margin.

In this connection we might mention that Benson's articles appear weekly in the Herald under the column headed, "Looking Ahead." Thousands of weekly and many dailies all over the USA run this column. And we might add that this minister and educator is well up on what this nation has always stood for, and what has made it great, and that he disparages any deviations via the modern path that the government support the people instead of the other way around.

By the way, did you have your mess of "speckled-eyed" peas for New Year? Just why people persist in following some old superstition that is supposed to bring luck, is beyond us. Be as it may, we never heard of black-eyed peas injuring anyone unless they over-indulged. So, this is one superstition that is not hard to follow, luck or no luck.

It is with no degree of pleasure that we have to chronicle in these columns the fact that we have just passed through another bloody holiday here in Texas, as well as all over the USA, and perhaps Canada and other nations. Up till Tuesday this week, the killed from all sources, traffic, fire and miscellaneous, had mounted to 94 in Texas, and we still have the New Year weekend before us.

This report is of course minus the injured, seriously and otherwise, many of whom will be hospitalized for weeks, maybe months, and the hundreds of thousands of dollars damage to cars and other property. We hear talk of a Safe, Sane Fourth of July. Why not Christmas?

One joker tells us that he has figured that Adam and Eve were Soviets. Then he goes on and tells his reason for this conclusion: Nothing to wear, only an apple to eat, but living in Paradise. This guy may have had something there, as to comparison, but the description don't exactly fit history, sacred or otherwise.

Besides, Adam and Eve soon found some fig leaves to clothe themselves, and there were all kinds of eats in the garden. Last but not least, they had only one boss, who was the Alwise and Almighty.

Gathered some information from the report of Arthur H. Dean, one of the men of the USA who have been trying to reach some kind of agreement with the Bolshevik mugs out in Korea, that other GI's don't have much sympathy for the 22 Americans who have decided to go over to the Reds. In fact, according to Dean, these men who have stood in the frigid weather of northern Korea, and guarded our interests, call these deserters, "rotters." And they wonder why the people of the US have become so excited about these "rotters." Forget them, these GI's say.

And going along with these patriotic soldiers who have seen the hard life of the Army, we want to add our bit, and it is this: Any guy or guyene who falls back on the Fifth Amendment to keep from testifying against himself or some other subversive, had already branded himself or herself as a Commie in our sight.

Out in California, according to reports reaching Texas, they are not only having wind and fire of unprecedented proportions, but divorce suits go on and on. Recently, after a ten-year period of watchful waiting for the man who phoned her one night that he had a business conference, and would be late, proved just that.

She kept her vigil for ten long years, and hubby never showed up, and so a divorce suit was filed and tried and won. In addition, she got vast amounts of property, stockholders' shares, money and alimony. Sometimes pays to wait-see.

Well, come today and we'll all begin to see how much bigger that Christmas bill was than we expected, and most of them will be. And how those who have not paid their 1953 taxes can begin to worry about that.

We have two thanks to offer the Southwestern Life Insurance Co., over at Dallas. First off, their agent, Graham Smith, called and presented us with a desk calendar, which we highly appreciated. Then the company at the home office sent us a huge desk calendar pad, good for the full year, nicely bound in cloth covered board, and our name in gold on the outside. Thanks a lot!

We note that Sherman and several other cities over the state have passed city ordinances against leaving abandoned ice boxes or refrigerators out where children can get to them, with the locks or latches intact. These must be removed, so that there will be no chance of the youngsters getting locked inside.

We note in one instance where a family had a deep freeze inside the home, one of the children got inside and was locked in, but was rescued before it perished. This leads us to the conclusion that every city should pass an ordinance forbidding dealers to leave discarded refrigerators in the alleys, with the locks and catches intact.

We sometimes wonder how the heck children are reared to be grown men and women, as they will try anything once. And it is small wonder that more of them do not perish before reaching the age where they can reason whether or not such and such is safe to tamper with.

We are hoping for each and all a very happy and prosperous New Year, and that we have a good rain this year whenever it is needed. That would be the most welcome New Year gift in the catalogue.

Texas agricultural producers who had a net operating loss in 1953 should investigate provisions of the federal income tax laws which make an allowance for unprofitable farm operations.

FIRST BABY CONTEST

Who will be No. 1 In '54?

Who will be Brownfield's First Baby of 1954? That's the Big Question! What lucky baby will be the winner of all the valuable and useful prizes featured below?

To be eligible the baby must be born within the corporate city limits of Brownfield, and the parents have to be residents of Terry County, and that the exact time of birth must be confirmed in a written statement by the attending physician and parents before the baby is eligible to qualify for the prizes.

Watch this paper for announcement of the Winner!

The statement must give the place and exact time of birth, the sex, weight and name, plus the name and address of the parents.

Reports of first 1954 babies will be gathered by the news department of The Terry County Herald beginning at midnight, Jan. 1, in an effort to determine the winner of the Derby, but in order definitely to determine the winner, the affidavit from the attending physician and parents must be made in order to avoid any dispute over the rightful claim to the First Baby title.

It has always been our policy to give the first-born of every family a thermometer. After that, other gifts will be presented your new born babies. Come by and see us.

Nelson Pharmacy

Welcome to you Little Miss or Master 1954. We have a lovely Carter's Sleeping Bag just waiting for you. You will just adore the way it keeps you so snugly warm.

Collins

We have a lovely Thermo-Trav'ler, three-compartment, insulated bag. Just the thing to carry Baby's belongings in.

Dunlap's

We wish to present a theatre coupon book to the parents of the lucky baby born first in 1954. Coupon book is good in all—

Jones Theatres

We cater to beautiful Mom-mies, instead of babies, so bring Mommy by for a lovely gift that we have for her.

Go're Fashion Shoppe

We want the new '54 baby to have the very best in beauty aids, so we're giving a Johnson's Baby Set.

Palace Drug Store

We want the new baby to be healthy and happy, so we're presenting it with a case of Gerber's Baby Food.

Piggly Wiggly

We have a beautiful Baby Blanket for you. It's a "Bunny Esmond" crib blanket by Baby Chatham, 36x50 inches. Very fine quality.

PROMISE OF THE LAND

One of the world's great problems within man's capacity to solve is that of adequately feeding the people. At many places on the earth's surface it has not been solved. It hasn't been solved in India where famine has stalked throughout the centuries and where teeming millions today are perpetually undernourished. It hasn't been solved in China where chronic hunger has been a miserable burden passed from one generation to the next. And there are other places around the world where it hasn't been solved.

India hasn't at last solved the problem of feeding her millions by adopting Socialism; nor is China's centuries-old hunger going to be appeased by the phony "land reform" of the Communists. The great food problem of Asia, as elsewhere, can be solved only by vastly increased productivity on the land. In our free America, industry and science have joined to make our farms the biggest producers and our people the best fed on earth.

Key To Survival

But America alone hasn't the acreage to fill the gap in the world's underproduction of food. Nevertheless, our industries are harnessing science to develop an amazing new form of agriculture which, if it could be applied throughout the world, would ease mankind's age-old struggle for life-giving nourishment. And the most productive field in this scientific pioneering by American industry is that of chemistry, it can be said now with certainty that chemistry literally holds the key to survival in a world whose underfed population continues to grow and grow.

Our big chemical industries have already begun to revolutionize American agriculture. Monsanto, Union Carbide and Barcon, Dow, American Cyanamid, Du Pont and many others have developed chemicals which in recent years have brought astonishing results in farm productivity. And all these companies agree that they are but on the threshold of an almost unlimited potential for agricultural development.

A Big Truth

Du Pont, one of the biggest, seems to be focusing its vast total resources in the direction of the land and its potential. This one company is spending a substantial portion of its multi-million research budget on agricultural chemistry. It has just published a fascinating booklet entitled "The Story of Farm Chemicals." In it is traced the history of mankind on the land. The story of man in his rise from poverty and want, Du Pont observes, "is the story of his struggle to wrest his food from the soil."

And the booklet points up another significant truth: "When each man can raise only enough to feed himself, then all productive effort must go to the raising of food. Thus, a valid yardstick of civilization's progress is the extent to which the farmer's productivity permits larger segments of the population to use their skills in other fields."

Productivity Pays Off

How strikingly this truth is brought home as you travel across the Orient, or the Middle East, or India! In the rich Nile valley, I saw literally a whole people enslaved to the land because their ancient farming methods produced so little. I lived among similar conditions in China where the tools and techniques of farming are as old and unchanging as the Great Wall and where 85 per cent of the people are pinned down to the soil in an attempt to eat. Too few are left to be producing the sinews of advancing civilization.

In 1820 America was producing very little more than enough food-stuff for herself even though 85 per cent of her people lived on farms. Today, with 12 per cent of the population on farms, we are much better fed. The remainder have been freed to go to industrial and business centers and produce other goods and services to enrich American life. Our population has increased 18 per cent in the last 20 years, and our food production 50 per cent—on fewer acres and with fewer farmers. That is but an inkling of what industrial research promises, in further mechanization, improving techniques, and in the great world of chemical science. Next week: The Story of Nitrogen.

Let's all go to Church Sunday where we are all one with the Lord

PRIMITIVE BAPTIST CHURCH, at the corner of East Hill and "C" Street, began meeting at the present location in 1948. The pastors, Rev. V. J. Lowrance, of Lubbock; and C. A. Seay, of Brownfield, alternate at preaching, the Rev. Lowrance preaches every third Saturday and Sunday, and Reverend Seay preaches the first Sunday of every month. The Lubbock pastor also preaches for churches in Tahoka and Sudan. Rev. Seay, wife, and children, Juanita, Charles, and Lula B., moved here in January, 1950, from Tahoka, moving there from Delta, Colo., where he pastored for a year. The family lives at 115 North "A." Deacon at the church is T. W. Bingham, and the congregation hopes to remodel the building throughout and add additional rooms. Mrs. Hobbs, of Ropes, is treasurer, and her daughter, Joyce Hobbs, serves as clerk. (Staff photo).

BHS Faculty At Home And Away During Holidays

Faculty members at Brownfield High School are enjoying the holidays in various ways, most of them are visiting in their hometowns with relatives and friends. However some of the teachers consider Brownfield their home town and are staying here amid friends.

H. W. Peace is spending the holidays in Frederick and Clinton, Okla.

Mrs. Ella Mae Carr and her husband are spending most of their holidays at home. Their married daughter and family, and their daughter in college came home. They will also spend some time in Post visiting father, sisters and their families.

Aubrey Culp is at Cooper visiting his Mom and Dad.

Toby Greer ate Christmas dinner at the home of Mrs. Greer's mother.

Ves Hicks and wife, Mary Jane, are at Brownwood with his family and will spend the rest of the holidays visiting Mary Jane's folks at Tokio.

Lester Buford is getting acquainted with his new job as Area 2 Supervisor at Big Spring, visiting relatives in Houston, and will go to Austin to get instruction on his new job from the State Office of Education.

Miss Mattie Morgan is visiting friends in Central Texas.

Mrs. Sammie Miller is in Sweetwater visiting relatives of her's and her husband's.

Miss Nancy Arnold is home in Dallas, seeing her parents, and she might possibly go to Louisiana.

Calvin McIntosh and his wife spent Christmas with his mother and sister in Denver, Colo.

Bonnie Cain is staying at home and her parents are visiting her.

Byron Rucker in Strawn, Texas, visiting his mother and father.

Mrs. Kelton Miller is in Pampa, visiting her brother-in-law.

Supt. and Mrs. O. R. Douglas were in Hamilton visiting his parents on the 23 and 25 of December, are now in Dallas visiting with Mrs. Douglas's parents.

Orville Hale is in Goldthwaite, visiting his folks and his wife's folks.

L. G. Wilson is visiting in Sweetwater and Anson.

Mrs. Helen Roberts visited in Paso and Fort Bliss, where she picked up her husband, and they returned and spent the holidays here at home.

Faris Nowell is spending Christmas at home with his wife and children. He will be getting ready for the El Paso tournament.

Mrs. J. D. Akers is spending Christmas at home with her husband, daughter, and mother.

Mrs. R. D. Jones, 704 East Repeto, returned last week from Big Spring, where she underwent chiropractic treatments, and is reported much improved.

Banquet At Meadow Honors The Bronchos

Gene Tyre and Larry Wartes, coaches of the Meadow Bronchos, were presented gifts in appreciation of their services at a banquet honoring the Region 1 Class B football champions, at Meadow last Monday night.

The Bronchos won 12 straight games to take the regional Class B title and as Supt. H. E. Barnes said, "If there had been a state championship, we know you could have gone all the way."

Barnes introduced the guests and the speaker for the occasion, Weldon Calloway, who told the squad that he had "never seen a team with more drive and one that finished with more sportsmanship than the 1953 Bronchos."

Mrs. W. Warren welcomed the guests and team for the mothers, who, along with the pap squad, sponsored the banquet and the response was given by Dale Fulford. "You may see other teams, equal your record," Mrs. Warren said, "but you will never see it bettered. This was the best football team in Meadow's history."

Fulford thanked the mothers and pep squad for the dinner on behalf of the football squad.

Entertainment was furnished by singers Sally Rutledge and Jo Ann Hardin and Pianist Glen D. Hardin. Bobby Horton told of another banquet he had attended and gave an imitation of some of the school officials.

Dub Warren was master of ceremonies and Dr. J. Harvey Scott, Baptist Pastor, and Melton Bruster, Church of Christ minister, gave the invocation and benediction.

Coach Wartes was absent from the banquet due to an appendix operation, and his gift was accepted by his wife.

CAN PAY PO BOX RENT MORE THAN 3 MONTHS

We had notice this week from the PMG, the Hon. Joseph Shelton, that the patrons of the local postoffice, can, if they wish, pay their postoffice box rent up to June 30 instead of just a three months' period, up to March 31.

On June 30, the regulations will change, and if you wish to do so at that time, you may pay your box rent for a full year, or until June 30, 1955. But this is optional. You may still pay your box rent quarterly if you wish, according to the Postmaster.

Mrs. Herman Chesshir attended a Luziers Christmas party at the Chickens Village in Lubbock, Dec. 21. Gifts were exchanged and Santa Claus came to the party. Mrs. Chesshir is the local Luziers representative.

DE PERSONALITY OF THE WEEK IS NAMED

The DE Personality of the Week, chosen by the Cubs Den Staff, is 18-year-old junior, Tommy Hamilton, who works at Martin Radio and TV Shop. When school started, Tommy was working at Hamilton Auto Parts. This is his first year in Distributive Education.

The DE Personality has brown hair and eyes, and is 6 feet 1 1/4 inches tall and weighs 155 pounds.

He has chosen his favorites as follows: Food, just food; song, "There's a Tear Drop in Every Rainbow;" color, brown; and pastime, drinking coffee.

Tommy seems to like all his teachers and classes. He said that he is going to the Navy after he finishes school.

SANTA VISITS BHS CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

Brownfield High School students enjoyed a Christmas assembly program Tuesday of last week at 1:45 p.m. when the High School band offered musical selections and the Speech Department presented a skit. Highlight of the afternoon was the arrival of Santa Claus at the program.

The band played "Christmas Festival" and "Jingle Bells," and a group singing featured carols, "Hark the Herald Angels Sing," "O, Little Town of Bethlehem," and "Silent Night."

SERVICES CONDUCTED FOR LINCOLN'S UNCLE

A heart attack last Monday, Dec. 21, killed Associate Justice Elmer L. Lincoln of the 6th Court of Civil Appeals at Texarkana, and uncle of C. L. Lincoln, of Brownfield.

Lincoln, 70, was in Wichita Falls last Friday, to visit his son, Elmer L. Lincoln, Jr., until Christmas Eve. His wife was in Wichita Falls.

The late Gov. Buford Jester appointed Lincoln to the appeals court six years ago to succeed Judge Hicks Harvey, now a State Supreme Court Justice.

Lincoln was elected to a six-year term on the bench in 1952.

DAV BADGE COLLECTOR

William V. Pierceall of Indianapolis hasn't missed a national convention of the Disabled American Veterans in 20 years. Mrs. Thomas Rostedt of DAV National Headquarters staff in Cincinnati is shown pinning on Pierceall's 20th consecutive delegate badge at the national convention in Kansas City, Mo.

CHRISTMAS PARTY ENJOYED BY BUILDERS SS CLASS AT MEADOW

The Builders Sunday School Class of the Meadow Methodist Church held its Christmas party Wednesday, Dec. 16, at 7:30 p.m. in the fellowship hall of the church.

Christmas songs were sung, and our opening prayer was given by Rev. James Patterson, pastor.

A turkey dinner was served buffet style. The tables were decorated with miniature Christmas trees set in star foam. The serving table was decorated in Yuletide motif.

Rev. Cecil Tune, former pastor and present pastor of the Methodist Church in Shallowater, was the speaker of the evening. He brought an inspiring message on "The Meaning of Christmas."

Jolly Santa Claus, who gave the Christmas gifts off the tree, was enjoyed by all.

For the teacher of the class, Mrs. Louis Peeler, the occasion served a double purpose—for it was also her birthday. The class presented her with gifts in remembrance of both.

Lincoln went to work at 14 in Milam County, where he was born. He sold newspapers and peanuts on the streets of small towns. When he was 17, he began teaching school in Bell County.

C. L. Lincoln was unable to attend the funeral, which was held last Wednesday in the First Christian Church at Texarkana.

Coleman Wins Over Cubs, 55-46, Here

The Brownfield Cubs suffered a 55-46 defeat from the Coleman Bluecats last Monday night at the Brownfield High School gym.

Kenneth Cleveland, the 6-1 senior, a three-time all-district selection in 8-AA and a unanimous choice for all-tournament at Odesa last weekend, hit shots from all over the court to lead the winners.

Coleman jumped off to an early lead and held it all the way, although Coach Faris Nowell's Cubs tied it up once, but couldn't forge ahead. The visitors held 14-7, 30-23 and 44-31 quarter advantages.

Cleveland wound up with 26 points while teammate Charles Clary tossed in 11 more. James Meeks paced the Cubs with 16 points while Robert McIntire and Vernon Brewer had 12 each.

Coleman also took the B game in stride, 64-37, with Mike Powell and Jack Balcom hitting 18 and 17 points respectively. Richard Baggett was high for the losers with eight.

Former Methodist Pastor Here, Rev. Fike, Died at Dallas

The Rev. Charles E. Fike Sr., 73, former pastor of at least seven churches in the Northwest Texas Conference of the Methodist Church, died at 6 a.m., Friday in a Dallas hospital.

The Rev. Mr. Fike had lived in Lubbock since his retirement several years ago until two months ago when he went to Dallas for hospitalization. He had recently undergone surgery and suffered a heart attack several days ago.

The well known minister had served churches in Slaton, Brownfield, Levelland, Spade, Tulia, Paducah and Stratford.

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Oak Lawn Methodist Church, Dallas, with Dr. A. H. Carleton, one-time pastor of St. John's Methodist Church in Lubbock, officiating. Burial was in Dallas.

Among the survivors are his wife and a son, the Rev. Charles E. Fike, Jr., pastor of the Oak Lawn Methodist Church.

Funeral Services Held Saturday For W. R. Richards

Funeral services were held at Emma Saturday afternoon for W. R. Richards, 84, of Brownfield, a resident of Crosby County from 1907 until 1941.

Richards, who just recently moved to Brownfield, died shortly before midnight Thursday in the Treadaway-Daniell Hospital. The retired farmer had been in the hospital about seven weeks.

The services were held at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Emma Church of Christ with Joe Chisholm, minister of the Brownfield Church of Christ officiating. Burial was in Ralls cemetery under the direction of the Marr-Carter Funeral Home.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Doug Lowe, Brownfield, and Mrs. G. Gibson, Burbank, Calif.; and five sons, T. H. Richards, Camarillo, Calif.; J. C. Richards, Huntington Park, Calif.; H. C. Richards, Ralls; D. L. Richards, Brownfield; and R. G. Richards, Fort Worth.

Pallbearers will be: Elba Hall, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McClure had Christmas dinner with his brother and wife, Capt. and Mrs. Max W. McClure, of Big Spring. Another brother, Oran R. McClure, of Seminole, was present for the occasion.

SANTA FE CARLOADINGS

Santa Fe carloadings for week ending December 19, 1953, were 20,752 compared with 24,515 for the same week in 1952. Cars received from connections totaled 11,405 compared with 12,887 for same week in 1952. Total cars moved were 32,157 compared with 37,402 for same week in 1952. Santa Fe handled a total of 34,971 cars in preceding week of this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daniels, 720 East Tate, had as their holiday guest, Mary Daniels, daughter of former residents of Brownfield, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Daniels, now of Oregon. Miss Daniels attends Shawnee University in Oklahoma.

Jessie Hall and Russell Noble, all of Ralls, Carl Gunter of O'Donnell, Johnny McKnight of Lubbock, and Clyde Bond of Brownfield.

Plenty of Moisture in 1954? YOU CAN BE SURE OF IT IF YOU IRRIGATE!

1954 MIGHT be the year we will receive the right amount of moisture at exactly the right time. BUT DON'T DEPEND ON IT! If you have been planning the installation of an irrigation system, by all means, carry on through with your plans. What better crop insurance could you ask for than an irrigation system standing by ready to take over during the dry periods?

FOR OVER a quarter of a century, J. B. Knight Company has been serving the farmers of Terry County. From the beginning, we have studied climate and soil conditions of this section. Our representatives have traveled over the country to study the operation and maintenance of farm machinery. We are fully equipped to take care of your entire installation—from planning to completion—and we will be here at all times to give you prompt and efficient servicing of your equipment at all times.

Income Tax Laws Allow Farmers To Reclaim Losses

College Station.—Texas farmers who suffered a net operating loss in 1953 should investigate provisions of federal income tax laws that make allowances for unprofitable farm operations.

Farmers showing a net loss this year can use the loss to offset income in future years, says C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist. Also, Bates explains, any farmer who paid federal taxes on 1952 income and who operated at a loss in 1953 is eligible to claim refund.

This is done by refiguring tax on 1952 income taking into account this year's deficit. If all 1953 deficiencies are not absorbed, the remaining loss may be carried forward for five years consecutively commencing with 1954.

Whether a farm showed a net loss or gain during the year is determined by the figure derived on tax schedule 1040F, page one, line number 10.

"The computation and claiming of a farm loss is not as easy as it first appears," says the specialist. "Farmers desiring to claim deficits should consult a competent accountant or a representative of the Internal Revenue Service."

Bates explains farmers should claim the refund when submitting this year's tax return, using form 843. Otherwise, they lose the chance to file losses for the 1952 period when income was subjected to tax.

Many operators are hesitant to report their complete losses, Bates concludes, but a careful tabulation from records should be made and all deficits reported. Actual farm records, however, he warns, should

4-H, FFA To Have "Day" at Ft. Worth

Fort Worth.—Thousands of boys and girls will throng the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show grounds on Saturday, Jan. 30, which has been designated in honor of Future Farmers, Future Homemakers and 4-H Club members.

Because of the educational value of the livestock exhibits and other features of the exposition, the annual exhibits and other features of the exposition, the annual pilgrimage is eagerly looked forward to and buses and cars bearing the classes and groups roll into Fort Worth from all sections of Texas and from other states.

Interest of the students of agriculture and livestock raising centers naturally in the junior show where steers, lambs, dairy calves and poultry compete for top honors.

The world's greatest indoor rodeo, the "Battle of Songs," the Midway shows and rides, free Western entertainment on the stage in the Exhibit Building, band concerts and scores of educational and commercial exhibits give the young visitors a full day.

Stock Show dates are Jan. 29 through Feb. 7.

The only thing a man knows is himself. The world outside he can know only by hearsay.

A thoughtful gift for the dairy herd is a water heater. It doesn't have to be a fancy job—just one that will keep their drinking water warm. Milk is approximately 87 per cent water and if the milking herd doesn't drink because the water trough is frozen or too cold, production will drop.

be kept to substantiate losses.

HOSPITAL PERSONNEL HAVE HOLIDAY PARTY

Twenty five staff members of the Treadaway-Daniell Hospital attended a Christmas party held on Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the hospital dining room.

Gifts were exchanged and the employees presented Drs. T. L. Treadaway and A. H. Daniell each with a gift. The group was served fruit cake and punch. On Christmas day, the entire staff at the hospital enjoyed a turkey dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. George O'Neal and son, Don, 706 East Lons, spent Christmas week with Mr. O'Neal's brother, Sim Jr. and wife and two boys of Lubbock, and his sister, Mrs. Jack Womack and husband and two children of Waco.

LOCAL FOUR SQUARE CHURCH HOLDS WATCH

A Watch Night Service was held Thursday night here in Brownfield at the Four Square Gospel Church. The local church and its pastor, Rev. R. J. Walls, were host to the Church of God, and Assembly of God churches of Brownfield, and the Four Square Church of Lamesa.

SINGING SLATED AT CHURCH OF CHRIST

First Sunday singing is scheduled at 3 p.m., Jan. 3, at the Wellman Church of Christ.

Brother S. A. Ribble, minister, and the congregation extends an invitation for everyone to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Horn and children, Jackie Sue and Bobbie, visited this week in the home of Mrs. Horn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Holt, 604 East Main. The Hols spent Christmas day with the Horns at McAllen. Mr. Horn is high school band director there.

Texas Agriculture Workers Annual Meet

College Station.—Texas agricultural workers will have their 1954 annual convention at Waco, Jan. 8 and 9. Paul A. Cunyus, dean of Tarleton State College at Stephenville and president of the Association says the program theme centers on research as the foundation of progress for agriculture.

Friday morning the Association will discuss the need for research after hearing C. H. Fisher, director of the Southern Regional Research Laboratory at New Orleans. The afternoon program will feature a panel discussion reporting the progress of research in Texas with Sterling Evans, president of the Federal Land Bank of Houston as chairman. The traditional banquet will be held Friday evening featuring Maurine Hearn of the Agricultural Extension Service, who has been on leave for Point IV in Bolivia.

Mrs. Katherine Randall, home editor of the Farmer Stockman magazine from Oklahoma, will conduct a panel of farm and ranch families, who will talk about the application of agricultural research. The program will end with an address by Wheeler McMillen, editor-in-chief of Farm Journal, Philadelphia.

The Association membership is made up of workers in the State as well as others concerned with the progress of agriculture. The officers include vice president W. N. Williamson and secretary, Mrs. Bernice Claytor of the Agricultural Extension Service, and treasurer, B. F. Hartman, agricultural representative of the Central Power and Light Company of Corpus Christi.

Include Personal Health In Your New Year's Resolutions

Austin.—At this time of year when everyone is making their New Year resolutions, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, urges that one be included to do something about personal health. That resolution would be to have a complete physical examination.

This is the time for the person forty and over to take stock of the situation as far as he is concerned. The best way to prepare for a continuing happy life is to begin early. An important thing is the periodic check-up by your doctor. A health problem discovered early is always easier to correct. Prevention is the watchword. The principal foes of health to confront in the middle years are heart disease, cancer, high blood pressure, hardened arteries, diabetes and arthritis.

Heart disease is the leading cause of death. A person with a damaged heart should learn his limitations and not exceed them. Many persons with heart disease lead useful and productive lives by following their physician's instructions.

Cancer is the second leading cause of death. Many types of cancer can either be cured or brought under control if found early and diagnosed. This is another important reason why the periodic medical check-up is a "must."

Diabetes is a condition in which the body cannot use sugar. If you have not been tested lately to see if this has developed, you should do so at once.

Three of the diseases common to the after-forty group are concerned with the circulation of the blood. These are apoplexy, hardened arteries, and high blood pressure. You will want your physician to check your blood pressure.

A great deal can be done to arrest certain forms of arthritis. The person may be on a special diet. The doctor may advise the removal of some hidden infections. Let's plan to keep well during 1954.

Visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bradley, last weekend, were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bradley, of Muleshoe; Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Lawrence, of Pampa; and A3-c Doyle Bradley, stationed at Kessler Air Force Base, Miss. Their daughter, Peggy, also paid them a visit on Christmas Eve.

Among those attending the funeral of W. R. Richards of Brownfield, which was held Dec. 26, at Emma, Texas, included Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bond, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Harris, and Mrs. Frank Wier, all of Brownfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Hadyn Griffin, 204 East Broadway, had as holiday visitors, their son, Andy Griffin and wife and children from Midland; a daughter, Mrs. D. A. Peachee and husband and daughter from Lubbock; and Mr. Peachee's mother, Mrs. Cora Peachee, of Enid, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Donowho and daughter, Robbie, of Brownfield, were Christmas Day guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Standefer, of Plainview. Other guests in the Standefer home at Plainview were Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hart, of Meadow; Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Widener and Bill, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Counts and Jane Ann, all of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Castleberry, Frank and Paul Jr., of Borger; and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Standefer, of Plainview.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thurman, Mrs. W. T. Saner and family, of Velma, Okla., James Thurman and family, 1st Lt. Grady Warren and family of RAFB, Lubbock, all ate Christmas dinner with William Thurman and family of Edmondson, Texas.

Christmas Trip—

Lynn Morgan and son, Charles Robert came in from Dallas, she being a daughter-in-law of Mrs. Limer, and he a grandson. This crowded some for bedroom, but cots were brought into play, and everything was hunkadora, as we always get a good bed, come what may. But no one complained, and we imagine that none lost a wink of sleep. In fact we put in no little of the daylight hours, in snoozing and resting. But four nights away from home of late years is almost like a trip to Tennessee, where we usually spend from ten days to two weeks. There was plenty of tongue lashing to do, as it had been some time since some of us had been together. In addition, we were well supplied with newspapers and mags for the olduns and funny books for the younguns, and after Friday morning, lo and behold, the array of presents for one and all.

Then at noon there was a turkey, cake, etc., with all the trimmings, and all were happy and gay. Then Saturday, all but Herman took a car over to Coahoma to chat awhile with Rosetta Roberts and her family, the Roy Holdens, who were visiting them from San Antonio. A pleasant afternoon was had at the home. Didn't get to see Roy's wife, as she was visiting her sister at the time. However, they were over at Snyder, Thursday, most of the day. Rosetta informed us that she got 29 bales of cotton this year on her farm, which we consider good, as dry as it has been all over West Texas. It was not irrigated. Back in Snyder about dark, after a pleasant afternoon, interspersed with coffee, cake and a nap.

Time rolled off in a hurry, and Sunday afternoon, we reluctantly took our departure, and headed for the "ballies," going and coming via Lamesa, as it is a much straighter road. No mishap on the return, but wind got rather hard from the northeast after we passed Lamesa, and we thought it would be cold as mid-last week, but it proved to be a mild cold front. Hope all our readers had a Merry Christmas. And let us state right here that we do not expect you to read this tripe, but we had to kill space with something.
