

STRICKLINLY SPEAKING....

By OLD HE

This week, we shall probably devote considerable of our time and space in this more or less read column, to reunions. Nearly every Sunday from July to late August, there will be two or three county reunions up at Lubbock, mostly people from counties in north or northwest Texas, such as Young, Jack, Parker, Red River, etc.

Admittedly, these get-togethers are enjoyed by those who left those counties many years ago, seeking a new home in the newer part of Texas. In fact, one has only to talk with them a minute to find out just how much these old annual reunions mean to the participants.

But here is the idea we had in mind. Why not each county out on the Baldies have a reunion of their own, like that so successfully carried on from year to year in Lynn County, for one? Most of us that have been here 25 years or more have reared a family here, and we do not think of the old county here we came from as home any more. Although we like to associate our thoughts with those in fond memory for the days of long ago, when they were most near and dear to us.

According to the last issue of the Lynn County News of Tahoka, some 750 people attended that reunion on Thursday, July 1, many of them being citizens of Terry and Yoakum counties, who formerly lived in Lynn County. There was, for instance, the Robert Nobles family, Uncle Jack Blankenship and Bigboy Mat Williams from over in old Yoakum. We ourselves attended the reunion several times, and had a pressing invitation this time, but just could not make it.

But we get a great kick out of the Lynn County gathering, as most of the old timers, especially around Tahoka and O'Donnell and western Lynn, are as familiar to us as the names around here in Terry. For many years after the railroad came to Tahoka, we made monthly trips over there for ads as it was our nearest railroad point, and many of the merchants of both Tahoka and Lubbock had regular ads in the Herald, inviting our readers to come over and trade.

Such of the old time firms as the Ketners, Wells, Welchers, Hall Robinson, Millikins, Redwines, McDaniell, the Collier Drug men, and many others, were as familiar to us almost as the early day names in Brownfield and Gomez. And we have spent many nights in Tahoka in the early days, as the freight wagon just couldn't make it back the same day it went. And we usually spent two or three days rounding up and chatting with the old boys over there, getting a change in their ad for the coming month, etc. One time we met a man from east-Terry we knew quite well, who was over there to get a bale of cotton ginned the next day, and we spent the night with him, bedded down on some quilts and the wagon sheet on top of the load of cotton. However, we usually stayed at the old Stokes Hotel.

But after the Forresters and their sister, Aunt Becky Roberts moved from the Mound Lake or Salt Lake, as we called it, section of west Lynn, and later joined by the Homer Scotts from Brownfield, we often paid them a visit, spent a day and night perhaps, at several good meals during the time. We have even taken meals with the McDaniells. In other words, we would feel as much at home over at Tahoka almost, as we would here.

Why Not a Terry Reunion?

For many years, we have wondered why Terry County does not have a reunion for the old timers annually? And we have heard others talk about the matter more of late than ever before. But most are agreed that it is a bit late this year to try to do anything about the matter. It will take time, study and planning.

But it is not too late to begin

THE PASSING OF A MIGHTY FINE CITIZEN

The calling to what we believe to be "higher ground," of George G. Gore, long time citizen, happened Saturday night, July 3, at 9:15 p.m., at his home on East Main Street. We are glad we can relate that G. G. Gore was a good man, a fine citizen, and a devoted husband and father, without hesitancy. We have known him intimately for years, visited in his home, both on the farm, and since he has lived in town.

He was the kind of man that would and could make his visitors feel at home. He could smile as he shook your hand on the street, or at church, or wherever you met him. He was loved and respected by his family, as well as by his friends and neighbors, who included all that knew him, as once a friend, always a friend. G. G. Gore will be greatly missed by his friends, as well as by his fine family.

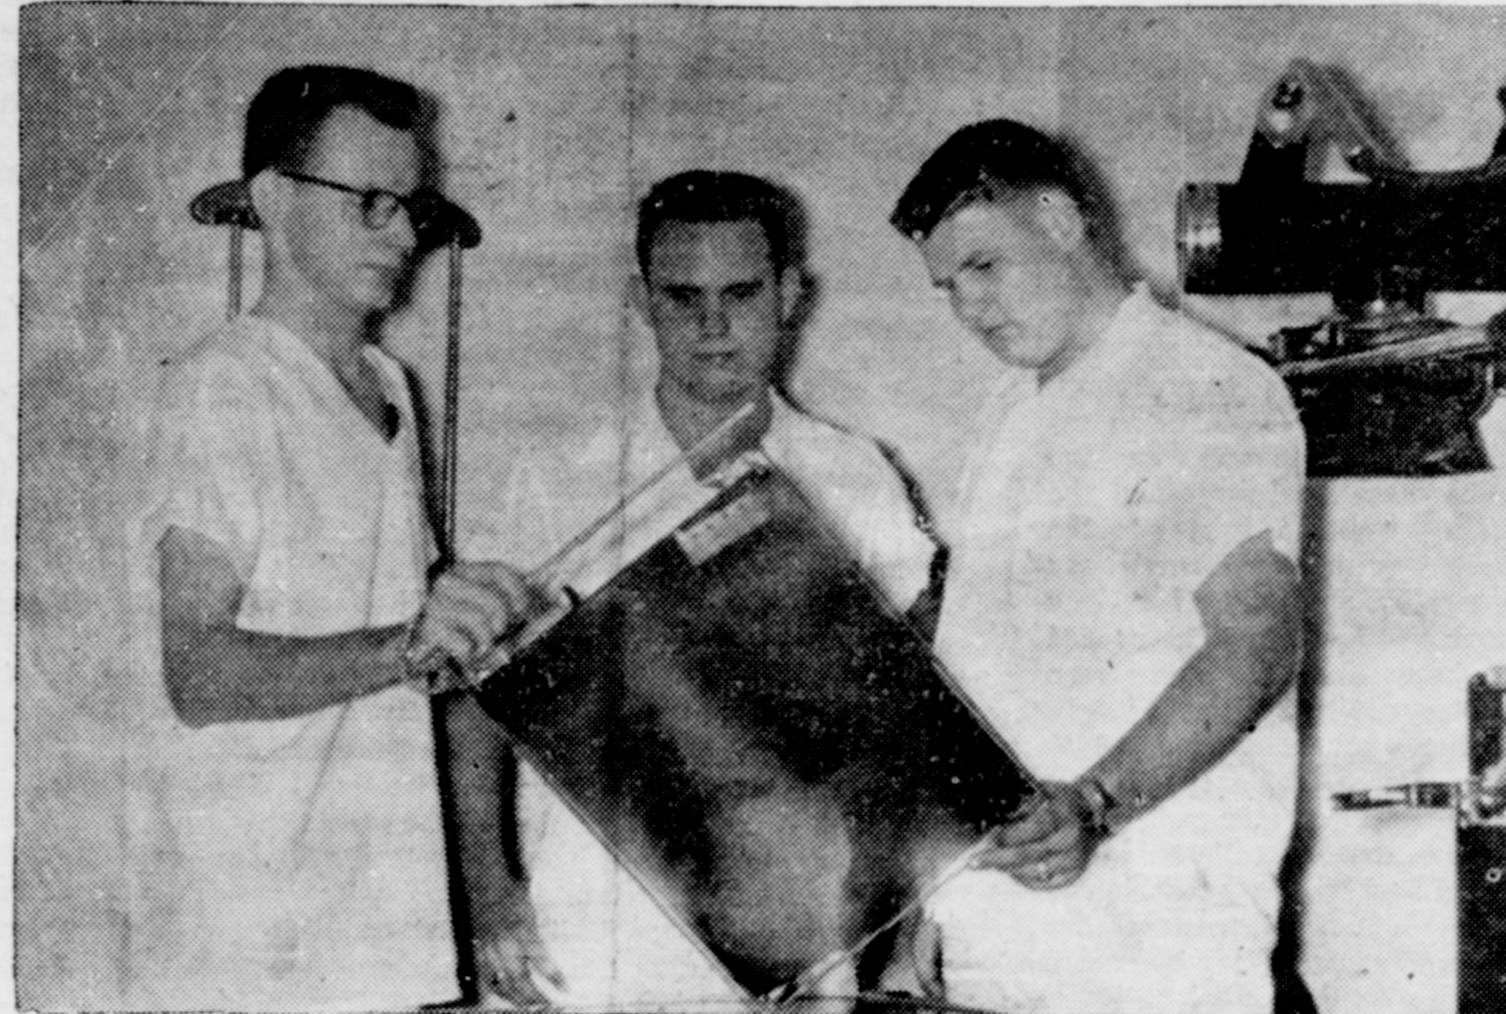

Like the writer, G. G. Gore was a native of Tennessee, and related to Congressman Gore of that state. As a young man, Mr. Gore came to Texas, and settled permanently in the Memphis section of Hall County. There he met and married Miss Minnie Tarwater, Feb. 20, 1897. A portion of their oldest children were born there, but several were born in Terry County, after their removal here in 1916. They built their home between where the Magnolia Camp and the Cottonoil Mill now stand. They later moved to a farm in the Johnson community, where they lived until he retired several years ago, when he moved to the home he purchased at 104 E. Main.

Funeral services were held at the Crescent Hill Church of Christ at 2 p.m., Monday, with T. J. Finley of Dimmitt, offering the funeral oration, assisted by John McCoy, present minister of the church. Burial in Terry County Memorial Cemetery, under direction of Brownfield Funeral Home.

Deceased is survived by his wife and ten children, six sons and four daughters. The sons are Alfred, Chess, Keith, Crede and Jake, all of Brownfield, and Bill, of Lovington, N. M. The daughters are Mrs. Harry Cornelius, Mrs. Cecil Casey, Mrs. J. T. Bowman, city, and Mrs. Olie Bruton, of Snyder; two brothers, L. T. Gore of Houston, and Lee Gore of Hopkinsville, Ky.

Pallbearers were Leonard Lang, Eldon Cornelius, Boyd Hogue, Choc Winn, J. L. Newson and Cub Newson.

SCHOOL BOARD WILL DISCUSS CAFETERIAS AT OCTOBER SESSION

Supt. O. R. Douglas, of the Brownfield school system, was in to see us early this week, and stated that a discussion of school cafeterias came under discussion at the meeting of the board last week. But as the board is not at this time well aware of just what they can expect from the district financially, improvements of all natures were put off until their next meeting, the 2nd day of October.

As most people know, the board was served with a petition to provide such service some time ago, but at that time a bad drought was glaring in the face, and the matter was deferred — not dismissed, as some perhaps concluded — until such a time when they knew more about the financial status of the district.

The idea of cafeterias for all the schools, was not so much because of any great saving in food. But no private food dispenser would take it on themselves to tell a child that came into their place, what he should eat for a balanced diet. That would be out of his hands. And it was not so much of what the student would save on a meal.

Of course all the food dispensaries near the schools, except the Jessie Randal, which happens to have a cafeteria, do the very best job they can in providing good food for the students. But after all, year in and year out, their main business comes from local people and travelers. In many instances, we have been told, the pupils take a table to order a sandwich, when perhaps some mature person might order a regular meal, costing around a dollar. But the cafe people are too polite to demur.

Another thing, advanced by advocates of the cafeteria is that they would more nearly keep students on the school grounds, except those who may go to their nearby home for lunch. Crossing highways is dangerous, even if there are officers present to watch the steps of the youngsters.

Mr. Douglas stated that on account of the many new oil wells in northwest Terry, and other improvements, the taxable valuations had increased seven million dollars in the past year. In fact Brownfield Independent School district extends some five miles over in Yoakum County, taking in all the Tokio district, and of course the many oil wells in that county.

At the October meeting, the

The Hon. Ralph W. Guinn, a congressman from New York State, made a fine address before the Congress recently on the subject of rent controls by Congress.

In fact, Guinn stated that the Congress had no right, according to the Constitution, to slap controls on rent, even as a war emergency. But after the Korean War started, in locations where there were war material manufactured, especially, workers began to flock there, and some of these workers began to murmur that rents were too high. So, Congress acted. But while the lawmakers were placing a limit on the amount that could be charged for rents, they were doing nothing about lowering the prices on food and clothing. This limit on rent controls hindered in other ways too. People had money and could have invested in more and more rent houses, were discouraged in doing so. What incentive was there in building a lot of rent homes, if the government stepped in to tell them what they could or could not get in the way of rent for the new dwellings or apartments? So it developed that the government entered into the idea of building houses themselves, and we know the result. A number have already been indicted for fraud and overcharging in this latest government entrance into business, and not a few of the top hands in the setup have resigned. It just seems that every time the government enters into business that the idea falls into the hands of natural born grafters, and we have another mess up at Washington to clean up. The argument is also made plausible, that this low rent idea of the government gave the high paid workers even more money to spend for food and clothing, and they used it, thus hiking the prices of meat and clothing to proportions that the poorer classes could hardly afford them. For that reason, many have reached the conclusion that controls of all sorts should be eliminated, and let the world get back to normal production as soon as possible, with normal prices and sound money. Since 1939, the cost of living has risen some 60 per cent, but the cost of shelter has risen only 10 per cent. This is not a healthy state of affairs, in a land that made its reputation for a great nation on the free enterprise system. But since 1932 we have tried just about everything in the books to control this and control that. We even tried killing off little pigs and yearlings to get rid of surplus, when many poor people would have been glad to get that meat. Then the government began to tell the farmers what they could plant, and how much, and we are now in controls up to our necks.

Looks like we have some hot races in view for the State at least, and along with hot weather this month, things are going to steam and scorch like nobody's business. It is just as well, as it is going to be a very tame affair here in Terry, and the district races, so far as that is concerned. This is sort of an off year so far as precinct, county and district races are concerned. Three of the holdover places for precinct officials have opponents, and just two of the County officials up for reelection have opponents. Mahon, for Congress; Gillham for State Representative; Reed for District Judge; and Townes for District Attorney, have no opponents. But the important State races seem to be wide open, and there will be a fight to the last ditch. These include the US Senate, Governor and Lieutenant Governor, especially, and more or less hot in some of the State Judiciary races. Every mail loads the newspaper with propaganda, especially from the would be Senators and Governors. In fact, busy as we are on the old Golden Anniversary edition and other matters, like watching our weeds grow and reading a few Texas Tall Tales, along with naps at night after it gets cool enough to sleep, we have little time to spend on this propaganda. In fact, after a hasty glance to see that there is no checks attached, our big mouthed waste basket with its huge open man stands ready to absorb the many sheets of costly paper enclosed. Some of the stuff, heavy as it is, comes air mail, in the form of speeches, daily newspaper editorials, as well as supposed interviews. In fact we could fill the Herald over and over, and get out a number of extra editions if we used all the stuff that we receive daily from these candidates, courting the votes of the people hereabout. Boy, will we be glad when this thing is over, and they quit filling our old box at the postoffice with this load of junk? We may not vote as we predict, but presently, we believe that Senator Johnson will refill his place in the US Senate by a large majority. That Gov. Allan Shivers will go back in for his third, or if you wish, fourth term by a much slimmer majority than he had two years ago. Also that Licut-Gov. Ben Ramsey will be safely re-elected. Now this is just our opinion two weeks before the election, and it is mostly guess work with us. If you differ, that is your privilege and right as an American citizen. But as we started out to say, this race is getting plenty warm—in fact hot.

The day is almost past when there are any great amount of people in this country, who are opposed to labor unions as such. But like too many other organizations, most are just dues paying members, and do not work at the job; and they do not see much ahead of their nose what is going on. Let us take many of our elections as citizens of Terry County and the State of Texas, as an example. An election will come up, and there are legal notices of the matter, as well as articles in the papers. For just two, let's say they are school trustees or city council elections. And let us add right here that while these men may be our neighbors and friends, the offices they are supposed to fill, are important. Each of them have a lot of tax money to spend annually, that is collected from you and you. Not only that, but in the case of school trustees they have a tremendous job of selecting well qualified, efficient teachers, as well as those morally righteous and trustworthy people, those you would not hesitate to place your youngsters under for educational and moral instruction. But some of these elections draw only a handful of interested people; say two dozen or more out of a possible number of qualified voters that run into the hundreds. Then there are the councilmen, who, in most cases are honest and good taxpayers themselves, and are willing to do the right thing regardless. Even so, a community can on occasion be fooled, and we are handed a bunch of men, or at least a majority who are crooks, and willing to line their own pockets. It is for these very reasons that labor organizations, where a great majority of the membership are the "let George do it" kind, and that is the way that the gate is left open for the Communists to get in their dirty work. One prominent writer has made a deep study of the situation, and he comes up with the information, that some unions with a membership of around 20,000 often are run by less than 100 men who are interested in getting control. Some of these union members mine such vital and valuable war use materials as copper, nickel and uranium. One such union with a membership of 70,000, let a few hundred do the voting last fall; when a pro-Communist was elected to head the organization. And the secretary-treasurer of the organization refused to answer the Senate investigating committee, as to whether or not he was innocent of any conspiracy to overthrow the government of the USA by force. The day has arrived, when we must watch our step.

We believe there is no argument from any source these days that each and every family should be sure they have full hospitalization coverage. We passed the stage of argument long ago that all of us should carry life and accident policies, unless it be the very rich, who are sure they have sufficient funds in the bank to cover any and all emergency occasions. At the same time, most of us have long since arrived at the conclusion, that the poorer we are, the more we need the insurance. Of course there is a fringe of society, perhaps, who are really not able to carry insurance of any kind, although life insurance, and hospital insurance in particular, is very reasonable. We sometimes even wonder how any company for some $20 annually, can carry a hospital policy that will pay some $10 per day for a room, not to mention considerable on an operation, other incidentals, etc. It is all based on the fact of which insurance people have made a profound study, and they have found that a very small per cent of the insured over the years, will ever have occasion to use the policy. And the more people who take out such insurance, the cheaper it becomes. Let's go back no further than 1941, for instance. At that time only 16 million Americans were carrying hospital insurance, but presently there are some 100 million Americans that are so insured. And they were paid a total of around two billion dollars last year for hospital, medical and operational care. But because we have a small fringe of indigent families who are not able to carry such insurance, is no reason that we should stand back and let the government have a monopoly on insurance. This would just be another political football, in which a great majority of the real taxpayers, as well as the medical profession as a whole, are opposed. Most of us have read of government medical care over in England, and we know what an abject failure it has been. The doctors are all monopolized by people, a lot of whom have imaginary ailments, and those in real need of medical attention have a hard time seeing a physician. It is believed by those who have studied the matter with care, that it would be much better to allow so much of income tax to take up expense of medical care. It would not be a bad idea to allow a deduction for hospital insurance premiums. All of us believe that the poor should be aided, and make it possible for them to get medical care, but we are just as firmly sure that it is the duty of the local communities, counties and states—not the federal government.

As suggested by a recent release by US Senator Lyndon B. Johnson, our foreign policy is shaping up fast. But on some points, we may not know just where we are, as some of the things are confusing. And as he suggests, some of the ideas of England are pretty foreign to those of the people of the United States, and that perhaps some of them can be straightened out following the conference of Churchill and Eisenhower, Dulles and Eden. As Senator Johnson suggested, it appeared to the United States weeks ago that there was no use continuing the talks with the Communies over at Geneva, as possibly nothing would come of it except talk, and the endeavor of the Bolsheviks to try to gain all they can and lose nothing. In fact, many of us did not believe at the beginning that anything but failure would come from this meeting. The writer will admit that he knows little about foreign affairs, but we have been about long enough to know that when a civilized people try to do business with the Communies, they are let down. This has been proven too often for our own good, with such meetings in which both Presidents Roosevelt and Truman took part. We have learned long since that they will steal your collar button while they talk. At the time Senator Johnson wrote, the meeting between Eisenhower and Churchill had not taken place, but he was no more optimistic about the matter than we. Since that time, all that development of "Commie schemes down in Guatemala has taken place, and we have to our sorrow, found that the Bolshes have their eye on an opening here in America. On top of that, we have been wondering why the British are so persistent in recognizing Red China, even though representatives of the British government has been contemptuously treated by the Communists. Also, why the British have persisted in keeping open certain trade channels to the Iron Curtain countries? This along with the utter failure of the talks at Geneva, which were instituted and encouraged by Britain, makes one wonder why two supposedly sane men of the calibre of Churchill and Eden, could be sucked under by the Communists. Since the Communist uprising down in Central America has been quelled, we are just waking up to what it means for these stinkers to get in charge for just a short time. It means the death by torture of every living human that opposes them. For that very reason, the people of all lands that love liberty, should unite to make it hard on these dirty beasts that would deprive all people of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

No Place On Hogs For Lice

Hog prices are favorable and profits can be stretched further if producers will control the lice on their animals.

This parasite constantly irritates the hog, slows its rate of gain and, in turn, raises the producer's feed bill, explains E. M. Regenbrecht, extension swine husbandman. Lice also are a common spreader of Swine Pox.

Hog lice too often are taken for granted, but they can be easily controlled with DDT, chlordane, toxaphene or methoxychlor sprays at 0.5 percent concentration, or with 0.06 per cent lindane or gamma BHC. The latter two insecticide give best results, Regenbrecht adds.

Sows with suckling pigs should not be sprayed with any of these insecticides, the specialist precautions.

HOW MUCH TIME?

How much of one's life can be given to being plain friendly? How attentively and for how long must one listen to a talkative visitor? Is it rude to be inattentive? I should say that it is kinder not to accept invitations to go places if you can't face conditions as you find them. After fifty-seven dull parties, why should anybody imagine that the fifty-eighth will be better?

FOOD SPOILAGE WATCH OUT FOR HOT WEATHER

AUSTIN.—Dr. Henry A. Holle, State Health Officer, warns that now hot weather is here, everyone should be careful in handling and storing food to prevent food poisoning. The organism grows best in foods that are quite fatty, such as ham, pork, salads or sandwiches with rich dressings, cream pies, cream puffs, or any food with custard filling. Keep this in mind when you prepare a picnic lunch or when anyone in the family takes a lunch to work during the hot months.

Symptoms of food poisoning usually strike quickly and explosively, and those who do not eat the contaminated food do not become ill. Usually from one to four hours after eating contaminated food, victims feel ill. If it is a mild case of food poisoning, recovery usually begins in eight to 12 hours, but victims may feel the ill effects for several days.

Usual symptoms of food poisoning are diarrhea, nausea, vomiting, abdominal cramps, and weakness. Whenever you feel these symptoms, be sure to call your physician. Do not wait, hoping it will wear off. Sometimes food poisoning causes death.

Careless handling of food before cooking or serving, improper home canning, storing food too long at room temperature, and improper heating of leftover foods are the main cause of food contamination. So, in order not to endanger your family's health, be especially careful in preparing and storing food.

The easiest way to make a mountain out of a molehill is to add a little dirt.

Never let a cut or sore place on your hand come in contact with food. Remember, don't take on a picnic or pack in a lunch, fat meat, salads with egg dressings, cream pies, cream puffs, or any food with a custard filling, unless you can keep them properly chilled until serving.

Mrs. Sam Miller Ups Herald Another Year

Mrs. S. T. Miller was in not too long ago, and decided what she paid on the paper put her time up to February, 1955. We never dispute what our subscribers say, as we figure they can keep up with one subscription better than we can keep track of some 2,000.

But that good lady was not satisfied, and came in this week and paid for another year that she feels confident puts her to Feb. 1955. Have known the Miller family a long time. They came out from the Stamford-Haskell area in the early days and bought a fine body of land in the Needmore community, building a nice home on it.

There they reared a fine family of children. Mr. Miller passed on many years ago.

Sailing, Sailing, Over The Ocean Waves

Sailing, a favorite summer pastime for many Texans, will be featured next week on the Humble Company's TV program, "Texas in Review." There will be excellent pictures of several types of sailboats being operated in Texas' lakes, rivers and bays.

Other Texas items of interest on the program include the centennials at Navasota and Sulphur Springs, M-Day in Houston, Breckenridge Sports Day, the State Bar Association meeting in San Antonio, and the Texas Cowboy Reunion at Stamford. On your station, Tuesday, July 13, at 8 p.m.

Fletcher Stewart Here Visiting Mother

Fletcher Stewart, a young blade that used to roam the area hereabouts before balling the jack for California many years ago, was a caller at the Herald office late last week. Fletcher lives in the Los Angeles area. His wife did not come with him.

Now it does not seem long, according to the way time buzzes by to us, that Fletcher was just a young, unmarried sprout. Now he does not have a child at home—all married—and he has six grandchildren.

He is here visiting his mother, Mrs. Tina Stewart, as well as other relatives, such as his uncle, Judge Geo. W. Neill and family.

Mrs. Homer Winston, Mrs. W. W. Price, and Mrs. Hattie Holgate were in Gordon, Texas, on Monday. They attended the Pervis Reunion on Tuesday with Mrs. Effie Cooper, who accompanied the group back to Brownfield.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Greenfield, Sr., 315 West Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Greenfield, of Tatum, N. M., and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Greenfield, formerly of Brownfield and now of Fort Worth, were among those attending a family reunion held Sunday, at Snyder.

Hamms Were Oldest Couple At Red River County Reunion

Mrs. R. L. Hamm called this week and got the Herald started up to her son, Edwin, out at San Diego, Calif. She and Mr. Hamm attended the old Red River County reunion at McKenzie State Park at Lubbock last Sunday. There they met a number of old friends of other days. They were the oldest couple on hand, receiving a prize as such, and Mr. Hamm was the oldest man to attend. He is now 84.

Mrs. Hamm, who called on us to report the affair, did not state whether other Territes from Old Red River were there or not, but presumably some were. The Hamms repeated from last year, in receiving the prize as the oldest couple present.

PROPER CANOEING TECHNIQUES are demonstrated by Olympic champion Steve Lysak in a new color movie, entitled "Paddle A Safe Canoe," just released by the Aetna Casualty and Surety Company. The above scenes from the film, which was produced in cooperation with American Canoe Association, show: (1) correct method of boarding a canoe, grabbing both gunwales while lifting foot nearest craft in first; (2) safest way to paddle is from kneeling position just forward of the thwart—even though seats are provided; and "shaking out" a capsized canoe by (3) grasping nearest gunwale and (4) depressing until craft is almost vertical, then pushing canoe away using scissor's kick at same time. The 14-minute film may now be obtained on a free loan basis from Aetna's Public Relations Department at Hartford, Conn., or through the company's local representatives.

Salad Menu For Summer Luncheon

For a decorative and delicious summer luncheon, serve seafood salad in a tomato aspic ring. Assorted crackers and mugs of cold beer are a good choice for accompaniments.

Summertime entertaining calls for special planning and circular snacking. Your menu should lend itself to advance preparation so that you can be cool and relaxed when guests arrive. The illustrated salad fills this requisite, for it can be prepared during the cool morning hours—or the day ahead.

For the tomato aspic, follow any standard recipe and chill the mixture in an 8-inch ring mold. Here's the recipe for the seafood center:

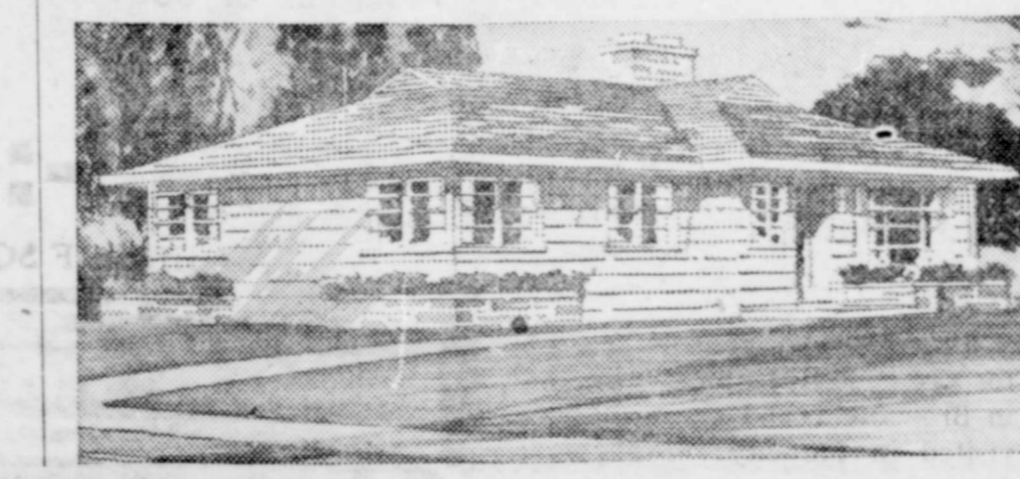

- 1 7-ounce can tuna
- 1 6 1/2 ounce can crabmeat
- 1 6 1/2 ounce can shrimp
- 2 tablespoons French dressing
- 1 cup diced celery
- 1/2 cup diced cucumber
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1/2 cup mayonnaise

Salt, pepper, paprika to taste

Flake tuna and crab meat. Remove black vein from shrimp. Combine seafood and French dressing. Marinate 15 minutes. Acid remaining ingredients. Toss lightly. Serve in center of unmolded tomato aspic ring. Garnish with lettuce and whole black olives.

WHEAT GROWERS WILL VOTE ON CONTINUATION OF QUOTA PROGRAM

By LOOE MILLER

July 23, 1954, is the date when Terry County wheat growers will join other wheat growers throughout the nation to determine whether or not the wheat marketing quota program will continue in operation for the 1955 wheat crop. This in effect is the decision which wheat growers will make in the coming wheat referendum, says Riley D. Jones, chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Mr. Jones points out in compliance with the law Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson has proclaimed marketing quotas for the 1955 wheat crop. The marketing quota program will be in effect if it is approved by at least two-thirds of the wheat growers voting in the July 23 referendum. If the quota program is approved, growers who plant within their 1955 acreage allotment will be eligible to market their 1955 wheat free of a marketing penalty.

Mr. Jones also explains that if the vote in the referendum is favorable wheat growers who exceed their allotment will be subject to a 45 per cent parity penalty on their excess wheat. If the vote is unfavorable there will not be a penalty.

To be eligible for price support on any crop produced on the farm in 1955 the producer must comply with all acreage allotments established for his farm for that year. On farms where the crop allotments call for a diverted acreage of more than 10 acres, a total acreage allotment will be established for the farm and, in that case, the farmer must stay within that total as well as individual crop allotments to be eligible for price support.

This means that wheat seeded and harvested on a farm with no allotment, will not be eligible for price support on cotton and other crops, and cannot obtain a government loan on commodities produced on the farm.

In making his allotment proclamation, Secretary Benson stated that: "The long range interest of agriculture and the national economy will best be served when we can have less—and not more—government regulation and control." He added, however, that under present conditions "we have no immediate choice. With approximately a two-year supply of wheat expected to be on hand when this year's crop is harvested, there is no question at all about the requirement for marketing quotas and the establishment of a national wheat acreage allotment at the level prescribed by law."

Referring to the "cross-compliance" requirement, making it necessary for the farmer to stay within all acreage allotments established for his farm to be eligible for price support, the Secretary said: "Neither is there any question about the need to require cross-compliance with established acreage allotments. It does not make sense to encourage the building of new problems through the unwise shifting of acres from one surplus crop to another."

Terry County ASC Committee Chairman, Riley D. Jones, advises that conveniently located referendum polling places will be announced in advance of the referendum.

In the referendum conducted a year ago, for the crop now being harvested, the vote was 390,221 to 57,536. By special act of Congress the acreage allotment for the 1954 crop was set at 62 million acres. The allotment for the 1955 crop is 55 million, the minimum acreage permitted under the law.

WHAT'S SEPT. 17?

The 4,000 people of Louisville, Ohio, are making preparations for the greatest celebration in the city's history on September 17th. Can anybody guess what they will be celebrating—on Sept. 17? Not many Americans can. And yet the event that occurred on Sept. 17, 1787, might well be considered of greater importance to mankind than any since the days of Jesus Christ on earth. The event was the adoption of the United States Constitution by the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia.

The Constitution created a national government to strengthen individual freedom and safeguard that freedom against all encroachments including government itself. James Wilson, a delegate and noted lawyer, said at the opening of the Constitutional Convention: "For the first time in six thousand years of human history men have come together to deliberate and peacefully resolve what their government shall be." The Constitution they thereupon drafted and signed is the greatest governmental document in human history.

Originated in Louisville That's why little Louisville, Ohio, will stage a city-wide celebration and have special instructions on the Constitution in the schools on September 17, for the third consecutive year. Citizens will thrill to marching bands, parade floats, and a big auditorium program; and then soberly reflect on the debt each of them owes to the principles of freedom written into the Constitution 167 years ago. A few other communities will celebrate too, but none perhaps on the scale and with the enthusiasm of the Louisville citizens.

In fact, Louisville people were the first in recent years to celebrate Constitution Day. A group of representative citizens got together three years ago and decided Louisville ought to do something to dramatize the value of the Constitution and the blessings of constitutional government. All the patriotic, civic, educational, religious, and business organizations joined on September 17, 1952, in a celebration bigger than any Fourth of July in Louisville history.

Legislature Adopted Then early in 1953, John Lehman and Karl Bauer, members of the Ohio House of Representatives acting at the request of Louisville people, presented House Joint Resolution No. 24, setting aside September 17 as Constitution Day throughout Ohio, calling for special instructions on the Constitution in Ohio schools and for appropriate celebrations. It was adopted. Early in September last year Gov. Frank J. Lausche proclaimed the day officially and urged state-wide observance. Louisville, proud as a peacock, went all out.

The Louisville Herald splashed 15 photographs of the celebration activities on its front page. Its story of the big day took up the remainder of page 1. "Starting off this grand and glorious event," reported the Herald proudly, "was a colorful and meaningful parade which wended its way through the main streets of Louisville, with what seemed like the entire population looking on." And the entire population participated too, in all the other events of the day. Ohio's Attorney General came and addressed a Constitutional convention.

Why Not Nation-Wide? Rep. John Lehman, who introduced the Constitution Day resolution in the Ohio House, has just written me: "Can the fact that a serious attempt is being made to observe this day properly here in Ohio (at Louisville) be carried further? I thought that probably if this does interest you and you believe in it, you, in your position as a speaker and writer on American ideals, would welcome the information."

And I do. The American way of life has three foundation stones: faith in God, constitutional government, and the private enterprise economic system. Whatever can be done in America to make our people aware of how indispensable these factors are, to our freedom, our spiritual growth and economic progress, has my whole-hearted support. The Constitution and the background for its creation ought to be studied by every school child in America; and all Americans ought to pause one day in the year to be reminded of how it works to preserve our liberty. Louisville has reason to be proud. What about a Constitutional Day in your community?

Retail Sales Increase In Small Tex. Towns

Retail sales increases in smaller Texas cities during May countered a general decrease in the state, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

Increases in towns with populations under 2,500 averaged 8 percent more than May, 1953. January-May increases were 2 per cent higher than the same 1953 period.

May retail sales for the whole state slipped 1 per cent below April and 6 per cent below May, 1953.

“Licker” Business Moves To N-E Texas

The Texas Liquor Control Board Inspectors in May reported the seizure of two illicit stills.

With the stills, which had a cubic capacity of 110 gallons, inspectors captured 800 gallons of mash and made seven arrests. Eleven and a half gallons of moonshine liquor was destroyed.

One still was taken in Lamar County and one in Titus County.

GI Q's and A's

Q. I'm planning to take farm training under the Korean GI Bill, but I found out I'll have to pay $30 a month tuition. My cousin, a World War II veteran, trained, and the Government paid his tuition. Why the difference?

A. Your cousin trained under the World War II GI Bill; you will be training under the Korean GI Bill. They are separate laws, and each operates differently. Under the Korean GI Bill, you pay all training expenses yourself. But you get a single monthly allowance to help do this. Under the World War II GI Bill, the VA paid a veteran's training costs.

Q. My husband was killed in Korea, and I've been receiving monthly indemnity payments of $92.90. Will those payments stop if I remarry?

A. No. Remarriage will not bar your continued entitlement to the indemnity payments.

Q. I am a Korean veteran and I'm thinking of opening a business. I will have to wait for several years in order to accumulate enough cash. When I'm ready, will I be able to get a GI business loan, or is the program due to expire soon?

A. You will have plenty of time to get your GI loan. The Korean GI Bill loan program will not expire until ten years after the end of the present emergency.

Q. I'm planning to take flight training under the Korean GI Bill. Will I be allowed 30 days absence a year, the same as veterans taking trade and vocational courses?

A. No. Under the Korean GI Bill, you will be paid on the basis of flight instruction actually received—and nothing more. You will not be paid for absences.

See where a teacher's college has come out with a report that today's children cry more and behave worse than those of a generation ago. No wonder—those others weren't children, they were us.

HUB-CITY JR. TEAM TAKES B'FIELD, 16 - 8

Despite the fact that Brownfield's American Legion Junior baseball team outthit Lubbock's team, Thursday of last week at Chapman Field in Lubbock, the Hub-City group managed to bang out a 16-8 victory over the Brownfield team.

Brownfield hammered G. W. Wylie with 12 hits—two more than Lubbock was able to get off losing pitcher Bob Patterson.

For Brownfield, two hits were made by Wiley, Lee Allen Jones, Dennis Knight, Patterson, and Bobby Moore.

LUBBOCK GOLFER WINS 2ND B'FIELD TOURNEY

LUBBOCK GOLFERS TIE IN FIRST DAY OF PLAY
Dick Jennings and John Markham, both of Lubbock, tied for medalist honors in the beginning rounds of the second annual Brownfield Invitation Golf Tournament which began Saturday and continued through Monday. Both scored 69 over the 6,233-yard, 9-hole course.

Also in the championship flight was Ray Warden of Brownfield, with a 72, and Prentice Walker, of Brownfield, with a score of 74.

Other Brownfield golfers participating in the qualifying rounds, and their scores, were: First flight, B. F. Hutson, 77; Jerry Stoltz, 76; J. O. Burnett, 77; second flight, Jack Shirley, 78; Curtis Sterling, 80; George O'Neal, 79; third flight, Don O'Neal, 81; Harold Crites, 81; Jerry Kirschner, 82; Lee Brownfield, 82; Charles Gersch, 82; Lester Storch, 84; fourth flight, Ted Hardy, 84; Paul Woods, 85; Sawyer Graham, 84; Pat McMillan, 85; fifth flight, Bill McGowan, 88; Sammy Kendrick, 86; Jim Bayless, 87; Ike Peace, 86; Jim Cousineau, 86; Coleman Williams, 86; sixth flight, J. T. Bowman, 88; O. C. Elliott, 92; Ted Hardy, Jr., 90; Jimmy Walker, 92; Dusty Kemper, 89; Dick Chambers, 90; Ray Edgemon, 93; Jack Bailey, 90; seventh flight, Earl Jones, 98; Bill Singleton, 94; Murphy May, 97; Otho Reeves, 96; Bill Williams, 98; Crawford Taylor, 94; eighth flight, Bobby Jones, 109; Jack Eastham, 102; Dye Pemberton, 106; Phil Gaasch, 100; and Thurman King, 104.

Host Pro Joe Lopez and the tournament committee were highly pleased with the turnout, although it was doubtful if everyone was going to get to play. Teams entered from Brownfield, Lamesa, Lubbock and Levelland.

In the final rounds of Brownfield Country Club's second annual Golf Tournament, which began Saturday and ended Monday, Dave Lawson, from Hillcrest Country Club in Lubbock, defeated Ray Warden of Brownfield, 2-up, for the 1954 championship.

Brownfield came out on the numerical top with three champions, three runners-up and five consolation winners. Lubbock had one other winner, Andrews had one, Amarillo one, and two won titles from Dumas.

G. W. (Dub) Darden, formerly of Brownfield and now of Andrews, defeated George O'Neal in the second flight. O'Neal's son, Don, high school sophomore, won the third flight.

Winning the first flight title was Jerry Stoltz of Brownfield, who had to go 80 holes to defeat Stanley Black of Lubbock, 2-up.

Two other Brownfield high school students, Jerry Goble and Jimmy Walker, won consolation titles.

Jack Shirley, club president, won second flight consolation. He and J. O. Burnett presided at the awards ceremonies.

In Sunday's play, quite an upset was experienced when Ray Warden of Brownfield upset Dick Jennings, Calcutta favorite in the top bracket, who tied with John Markham for medalist honors with a 69. Markham lost to Dave Lawson, who won the title Monday in the finals. Warden was 1952 club champion and finalist last year.

Also, on Sunday, the longest golf match anyone at the tournament could remember, was played when Jerry Stoltz had to play 28 holes in his first match before eliminating Lubbock's C. E. Young.

NO NEW WELL FOR TERRY OR YOAKUM CO'S.

May have been the approaching holiday—might have been the hot weather and then their drills might have gotten dull and needed a week or two delay for sharpening. Anyhow, neither Terry or Yoakum county sported a new oil well last week, according to reports reaching us via flying fish route.

But Terry did get one new location, and Yoakum County, three. Seems that the main activity of Yoakum is along the line of New Mexico; rather deep, but good flowing wells. The report was as follows:

Terry County

Yoakum County
Prentice—Tennessee Production Co. 1, H. A. Hedberg, 1,980 from north and 660 from east lines of section 322, Block D, John H. Gibson Survey, 6 miles northwest of Tokio, rotary to 6,900 feet, at once.

Bronco-Siluro-Devonian — Felmont Oil Corp., et al 3, R. M. Kendrick, 1,980 from south and west lines of Section 455, Block D, John H. Gibson Survey, 5 miles south of Bronco, rotary to 12,000 feet, at once.

Prentice 6700—Tennessee Production Co. 6, H. A. Hedberg, 1,980 from south and east lines of Section 322, Block D, John H. Gibson Survey, 7 miles northwest of Tokio, rotary to 6,900 feet, at once.

Mrs. Lyon Returns From Okla. Visit

Mrs. J. L. Lyon, Rt. 3, Brownfield, returned home Sunday, July 4, after spending four weeks in Dallas at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. C. E. Hodges, followed by a week in Durant, Okla., where Mrs. Hodges was moved and is convalescing.

Mrs. Lyon returned by way of Fort Worth and visited her nephew, Charles Goza, who is in the Harris Hospital suffering from a spinal injury at the base of the skull and an injured knee, caused when a drunken driver of another car ran into the car in which Charles was sitting parked in Breckenridge. Mrs. Goza and the owner of the parked car were not injured seriously.

STANFORD (Ky.) Interior Journal: "Why does an editor use the word 'we' in writing an editorial? The following explanation was published in Williamstown Advocate over 100 years ago. A country editor—is one who reads newspapers, selects miscellany, writes articles on all subjects, sells advertising and subscriptions, sets type, reads proof, folds papers, and sometimes carries them . . . As he performs the work of so many different persons, he may justly . . . say 'we' on all occasions and in all places!"

LOVINGTON (N.M.) Leader: "If we would remain free and enjoy rising living standards, it is time for all of us to realize the necessity of encouraging the saver and stimulating to greater efforts the few constructive men and women among us who have the capacity endlessly to improve living standards for all of us."

A starving man or a starving nation isn't interested in preserving order.

Brownfield Ties Whitharral Monday

The Brownfield and Whitharral American Legion Junior baseball teams moved into a fourth-place tie Monday when the Whitharral crew beat Brownfield, 9-8.

Bob Patterson, losing pitcher, gave up nine hits, while Paul Williams twirled a two-hitter for the winners, but was hampered by Whitharral errors.

POLSON (Socialist) Flathead Courier: "In socialist and communistic countries the representatives of government pull the strings and the puppets jump in a mechanical way that does not lend the enchantment of freedom to the work of the citizens."

EAST ROCHESTER (N. Y.) Herald: "The subsidizing of the highway transportation industry at the expense of the public, is a cost which should not be charged to the taxpayers."

WEST POINT (Miss.) Daily Times Leader: "We talk of billions as if our weekly pay checks were calculated in eight and nine figure numbers. From the county itself to the federal government itself we have become lost in a maze of financial figures that should stagger us, but mean little to us."

Stricklinly Speaking

By OLD HE

Planning ahead for a Terry County Reunion come 1955, with say people belonging who have been here for 25 or 30 years or more. A person who came to Terry a quarter century ago, is now considered an old-timer.

We would certainly like to have expression either privately or to be printed in these columns, from people who would like to see such a reunion. We feel sure that the Lynn County people would assist all they can toward helping us put over such a proposition. And, of course it should be set some week that will not interfere with those who wish to attend both.

Last week's Lynn County News was very interesting to us, as it gave many particulars of the Lynn County Reunion. That good lady, Mrs. Hall (Ethel) Robinson, who was elected as president of the association, rode in the parade on one of those old three horn side saddles that our mothers and grandmothers used in the days long ago, before the good ladies thought it a disgrace to be caught riding astride. Then there was another old timer, who hitched his nags to his old 1910 cultivator and rode thusly in the parade.

After a fine barbecue, well served, the afternoon entertainment at one of the local theatres was really good, according to all reports. Then the News gave a full page "over in the inside of the paper, headed, "Pioneer Reunion Highlights." Many names were used, among them Uncle Bob Holley of this city, who has been around in these parts since 1894, and folks, that's a long time for this South Plains area. It was really wild and woolly at that time, and there might still have been a few stray herds of buffalo.

Among the most amusing was that the good old pioneers were so glad to see each other that they would pound each other's backs, and in some instances hug each other a bit. Same with the old gals. One old boy all the way from Mariposa, Calif., took the prize as being from the longest distance. He came to Tahoka in 1903, and had the honor of buying the first nickel's worth of niggertoe candy from the first grocery that opened in Tahoka. But there was a good lady from another town in California that ran him a close race. Then we got some kick out of Col. E. E. Hill's prose poetry on the old windmill. It seems that some minister wanted some poetry as a tribute to the old windmill, which played such an important part in making this country what it is today. However, with Rural Electricity, the old windmill has just about gone the way of many of the pioneering implements and utilities, including the one-row horse drawn cultivator mentioned above.

Col. Hill, editor of the News, wrote his poetry to the metre of "Old Oaken Bucket," and he stated he gave the preacher permission for revising, if he liked, which was done. But Editor Hill printed his original, and we admit it was interesting. As little as we think of the matter, the old windmill played a great part in the settlement of the Plains section. With water more than 100 feet down on an average, what the heck would the old nester and the old cowman have done without the ever faithful old windmill, with its pipes in the well.

Our good friend, Mrs. J. L. Randal, also got a good writeup as she was the first teacher in Lynn County, at New Lynn, in 1903. Her school opened in August, whereas the one at Tahoka did not open until October that year. We wish, however, to correct the statement that Mrs. Clara (Randal) Eckert is a daughter of Mrs. Randal. She is a niece. John and Horace Randal married sisters, daughters of Grandpa Phillip Marmaduke Mitchell Shrock, who passed on many years ago. However, the Horace Randal family lived in Lynn County until they moved to Terry after the writer came here in 1909.

In closing, we wish to thank the many people of Tahoka, who sent us special invitations to attend this year, which we regretfully had to decline. Bob Noble offered a time or two to haul us over in his car. Bob was reared over on the line of the two counties, lacking just about a mile being in Terry. If we live and don't wear out our old walking cane, will try to be with the old boys and gals next year.

Forty years ago I was less interested in making the grade for myself than I was in getting my automobile to make the grade.

Beaumier will serve as president, Bryant as vice president, and Whitehead as secretary treasurer. The association selected June 10-11, 1955 as the dates for its 76th Annual Convention, and Galveston as the convention city.

STATE SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT SLATED HERE, AUG. 16-19

Brownfield has been selected as the site for the 1954 International Softball League State tournament, scheduled to be held August 16-19, according to Clyde Bond, Jr., director here.

The team that wins the tournament will have all expenses paid to the World Softball Series, at Selma, Calif., and will be certified to represent Texas at the meet. They will also be presented with a trophy from Pepsi Cola Bottling Company.

Teams must-win district play-offs or receive invitations before competing in the state tourney. Lorenzo Lions, who won the tournament last year went on to the world meet, and finished third.

McCutcheon Tells About His Coming To Terry County

S. B. McCutcheon was in this week to renew, and told us some of his early day experiences here in Terry. The first night was spent with a friend in the Meadow section, who had preceded him by a year or two. Mack finally settled on his place some eight miles north of town, and close to the old Lovelland road.

His neighbors were the Hymans, Howards, Broughtons, etc. In those days he made a trip out to Tokio in his old Model T, when the road ran a mile south of where the highway is today. Before getting to Gomez, he had a breakdown, and had to be towed in for repairs.

Local Boys Visit Observatory, Wed.

Terrill Isbel, Charles Isbell, and Thad Risinger, all of Brownfield, visited McDonald Observatory at Fort Davis, Texas, Wednesday, June 30.

After the group took a tour through the observatory, Charles talked to an astronomer, Dr. Helmut A. Abt, who showed him the photographic equipment, parts of the telescope, some spectrographic pictures, and the spectroscope.

That night, the boys saw Saturn and its rings through the telescope and they spent Wednesday night at Fort Davis, returning home Thursday.

Bucky Newsom Is Back From El Paso

Bucky Newsom, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Newsom, 608 Repetto, has returned home from El Paso where he has been taking treatment for the past nine months. His hip has mended satisfactorily, the doctor stated, but it will be necessary for him to keep off his feet for a few months. He needs a light wheel chair that he can operate with his hands. Anyone knowing of one, or having one, please notify Dude Newsom, residence phone 3487, or business phone 2232.

Long Beach Man Was In To See Us

Had Chester Osgood, from Long Beach, Calif., with us for a few minutes last week. He was here looking after his land in the Union community, and stated there was no oil wells too close, but he hoped that it would not be too long until a test was made nearer or on his property.

Mr. Osgood stated that a good crop was in prospect on his land, and that his renter was in hopes for a bountiful harvest—so was Osgood. Come see us again. To save trouble and some expense, he renewed for two more years.

AN UNEXPECTED TRIP DOWN TO SNYDER AREA

It all happened in minutes. Had just had our fruit and ice cream, the regular night diet, and was fixing to settle down with the reading matter for the night. No, our bath is not a Saturday night affair—it comes Sunday, first thing after we arise. Anyway, the Jr. decided to run down to Snyder to visit, and the Mr. to look over the Trig jayloopy. Did we want to go? Edith was feeling punk after a hard week trotting up and down the streets after ads. She would stay home with the kiddoes, and wife and the Old He could go.

While it was some 10:30 when we arrived at our destination, that little old shaver, Sara B, along with her dad and mother, was still up, as she had heard we were coming. After a good night, or what was left of it, snoozing, all were up betimes, and getting the hotrod ready for the road ahead.

While down there, met a lady who works in a beauty parlor, and used to work in one here, she stated. She happened to know us, but as we seldom visit a beauty parlor—being pretty enough—we failed to recognize her. We met in a store. But she went home and told old W. H. Height, who used to live here. So, that had called us up on the phone, and we had to go over events that had happened since he left here. Not feeling very well, as he is having some trouble with his heart, he stated.

Left after noon, arriving back home about 3:30 p.m., and to work. Boy, there is good looking crops all the way from here to there, and if nothing serious happens, it will take all the braucers beyond the Rio Grande to pick the cotton. Some fields are a bit weedy, as cotton choppers had not gotten to some of the fields, but most of them were pretty clean.

And that breaky country down below the caprock looks better than for years. There is really lots of green grass on the ranches, and the kine is fat. Don't look much like a desert now, and we are proud of the old country again.

VISITS 12 STATES

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Pounds and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McBurnett and daughter, Ann, all of Brownfield, have returned from an 18-day automobile trip. Among the states they visited were Mississippi, Alabama, and Washington, D. C.; also parts of Canada. They also enjoyed scenic Niagara Falls.

Ruidoso visitors and attending the horse races last week end were Mr. and Mrs. Tess Fuller, J. B. Huckabee, Mrs. Maxine Turner, Jim Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hailey, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fleming, Dave Burton and Mrs. Mary Lou Adams, all of Brownfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Jones, of Lubbock.

State Jaycees to Help Flooded Mexicans

An appeal has been made by Rocky Ford, State Jaycee President for aid for the flooded Mexicans across the Rio Grande. He states the Texas side of the river has been very well cared for, but that there are 15 or 20 thousand across on the Mexican side who are homeless.

The call is for non-perishable foods, closed water containers, clothing of any kind and money. The Jaycee clubs of Laredo, Eagle Pass and Del Rio, are acting agents, but the Laredo club is acting as the general agency.

The need is urgent, the communication states, for these people are not only homeless, but hungry, and many are ill.
