PARIS From Page One

one of the greatest attractions by Louis XIII as a small hunting lodge. By 1630 it had taken on the proportions of a castle and was transformed little by little into an extensive and ornate palace that houses some eight thousand pieces of sculpture and paintings, some of the most elaborate chandeliers ever produced, entire walls of mirrors, the table on which the treaty with Germany was signed in 1871, and which was used again for the signing of the Treaty in 1919 that put an end to the First World War. The beautiful gardens of Versailles were mentioned earlier, but in addition to the formal gardens, there is an orange orchard of vast size planted in tubs so the trees can be stored if the need arises.

In the village of Versailles a series of royal buildings including the mansion built by Louis XVI for his mistress, Madame Pompadour, and called "The Petite Trianon," the little village of seven quaint buildings that Madame Du Barry caused to be built for herself, where she could go and live the simple life and "play milkmaid" when she tired of court life, and the stables that house the coaches and sleighs used by the three Louises and their wives and mistresses.

According to the French, Louis XIV was their best king, ruling from the age of five to seventy-seven. The visitor to the Palace of Versailles is shown the bedroom of Louis XIV where, every Thursday, he washed the feet of thirteen poor children brought in to him from the street, to teach himself humility. Louis XV was the worst king, and generally hated by the people; while Louis XVI was "touched in the head" as the guide put it, and, since he was "silly," no one expected anything of him and tolerated him as a necessary evil. But the hero of Paris was and is, Napoleon Bonaparte. He is everywhere—in the streets, public buildings, museums, parks, monuments, and in the conversations of the guides throughout Paris.

We left Paris on July 21, for La Harve, to board the S. S. Washington for the return home.

... to build up an abstract plant to the point where it is considered safe to offer title information to the public for sale. The public generally does not realize this, but some do. If an abstract comes from a plant with adequate facilities, an established reputation and sufficient financial responsibility to protect the customer, it should be safe. The best title attorneys steadfastly refuse to render an opinion on an abstract which they believe to be sub-standard, and they should.

COOK ELECTRICALLY
 ... it's ECONOMICAL
 Cool, Clean, Fast and Automatic!

A few of the reasons why Women prefer ELECTRIC COOKING

- It's Fast! Electric "speed-units" now cook faster than any other method!
- It's Automatic! Electric cooking's automatic features save you time, labor, and money!
- It's Cool! Electric ovens are insulated on 6 sides. Heat goes into food, not into the kitchen.
- It's Safe! No matches, no flame, no fumes to bring hazards into your kitchen!
- It's Clean! There is no smoke, soot, or dangerous fumes to mar your kitchen.
- It's Modern! Once you cook electrically, you'll wonder why you stayed so long with horse-and-buggy methods as old-fashioned as flame lamps.
- It's Healthful! Foods cooked electrically retain the garden-fresh flavor and food values which are often lost when cooked by old-fashioned flame methods.

THE ECONOMY of the new electric ranges will appeal to any woman who watches her pennies. It's a real money-saver! Heavy insulation on all six sides of the oven keeps the heat in so you use only the heat needed without waste. Surface units, too, save by cooking faster; by putting heat directly into utensils and food, allowing no waste heat to escape around the pots and pans to heat up the kitchen.

Electric cooking requires less water; foods cook in natural juices retaining the garden-fresh flavor and food values so often lost in flame type cooking. The moist heat of an electric range reduces meat shrinkage to a minimum. (With today's meat prices that's a most important saving.) Even the cheaper cuts come out tender and juicy!

Don't overlook the penny-saving deep well cookers that cook entire meals, soups, pot roasts and vegetables with so little electricity. Clean and fast (just like electric light—and just as economical), an electric range will save you time, work, and money.

Some day you will cook ELECTRICALLY, Why not NOW?

SEE YOUR ELECTRIC RANGE DEALER NOW!

He will tell you more about the wonderful electric ranges... tell you of the ease, convenience, and economies that only modern electric cooking can bring. He'll also tell you of many, many other modern electric appliances that make your work easier, your home more comfortable, and your family happier.

It's the best!
