Midgets To Play In Two Tourneys This Week End

The Cisco Junior High School Midgets will be playing in two grade school tournaments this week end to wind up a week in which both boys and girls have been active

Friday night and Saturday the boys and girls are entered in the Putnam grade school tourna ment. Coach Sledge will probably use some of his first string boys in the game in Putnam Friday night but will have to call on his "B" string for games Saturday because of conflicting commitments. Saturday the string boys will go to Coleman to enter an eight grade tournament. The "A" string girls will go all the way through the Putnam tournament if they win their opening contest Friday p.m. Both the boys and girls will play Elmdale Friday night. The Putnam tourney was scheduled for last week but was postponed due to bad weather.

Thursday night the boys and girls lost by small scores to Rising Star. In the opening game Coach Killignsworth used every player he had in losing to the Rising Star girls by a 16-13 final score. It was the first win of the season for the Rising Star team. Coach Bill Sledge was handicapped in the contest due to the illness of regular players Bill Miller and George Callerman.

Playing for the girls were Donce Johnson, Sue Harrelson, Snirley, Miller, Barbara McCorkel, Wanda Hock, Kathryn Edwards, Jane McCauley, Nixie Gregory, Jerry Turner, Janice Hawkins, Sandra Duff and Norma Schae-fer. Starting for the Midgets were Fred Hayes, Bill Smith, Herbie Locke, Harold Hammett and Jim Brogdon. Cindy Gallagher of the girls team was unable to play because of an an-

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS (Charles M. Adams)

"Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" (Acts 16:30) Mark 16:16, is one of the many scriptural answers to the above ques tions. At the same time it completely refutes the modern denomina tional teachings of the question, and on Mark 16:16 as well. They would have you to believe it reads thusly: "He that believeth, is saved, and may b ebaptized if he so desires." There is not one syllable of truth in any such doctrine. Before we study some various translations of this particular verse of the New Testament, let us give the familiar King James Version's rendition: "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned

Charles B. William's Translation-Endorsed by J. R. Mantey of the Northern Baptist Theological Seminary. "He who believes it (gos pel) and is baptized will be saved, but he who does not believe it

John Wesley's Translation. "He that believeth and is baptized, shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be condemned." Now let us note from the Methodist Discipline - "Justification by faith only is a most wholesome doctrine and very full of comfort." Is not a fact that if Mr. Wesley was correct, then does it not follow that they who adhere to the discipline are in error. Mr. Wesley was the der of the Methodist Church (Wesley's works, Vol. 7, p. 348.)

(2) New Version-"He who believes and is immersed will be saved; but he who believes not, shall be condemned." In conclusion, may we suggest to you that when someone says that "You believe and receive salvation, and may then be baptized if you like-" ask them to harmonize such with Gods eternal Word. We urge all who may chance to read these few lines teo turn your New Testament and see if these things are not so. We invite you to attend the services of the

Christian Women Meet With Mrs. Fred Steffey Tuesday

Group Two, Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Christian Church, met Tuesday, February 6, with Mrs. Fred Steffey. Mrs ton; and, reporter, Judy Kay Fleming Waters reviewed the first chapter of the book, "Wence and Wither," the topic being un ion and liberty. A round tab le discussion of the School of Missions in Abilene, February 6 followed. Roll call and minute were read and a treasurer's re port was submitted by Miss Es

> Mention was made of a shipment of eye glasses to be sent to India, in an effort to reach the untouchables, who are not in a po sition to afford this luxury. These people suffer from cataracts of the eyes and are in great need of glasses. In conjunction with this, a project for buying a bicycle for Peter Solomon, an evangelist, of Balispur, India, was discussed.

The meeting closed with the Missionary Benediction and refreshments of pie and coffee were served to the following: Mesdanes Callie McAfee, D. E. Aden Fleming Waters, James Honea, Billy Bacon, J. S. ing upon the older generation to turn these hidden powers into safe and useful channels.

In some countries youth and childhood are exploited to foster political aims and bolster the power of totalitarian dictators. Such organizations desecrate youth and add to the pain and confusion of the world.

The Boy Scouts organization exists to bless and strengthen youth itself. It seeks to develop character by inculcating the principles of truth, honesty, integrity and faith. It builds strong bodies through healthful outdoor exercises.

Religion is the safest guide in human living." Boy Scouts are taught to respect and reverence religious faith, to attend Church and put their trust in God. Scout troops seek to translate religion into practical tor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your. Bible daily.
