By J. W. S.

THE WORST THING about atomic bomb is fear. That is the main point brought out in a picture show and lecture evening at the high school auditorium. Mr. E. L. Jackson discussed the things you do to protect yourself before picture was shown.

The film pointed out that fear come with every new weapon—from the cave man's stone chisel to the atomic bomb. The atomic bomb's destructive radius isn't big. Just about everything above ground is ruined in a half mile of the explosion. Chances for survival are from the half-mile point a mile, and beyond that the chances are very good.

The residents of small towns don't have as much to worry about as those of concentrated population centers. But we'd all better worry about it.

SEVERAL CISCO area ranchers are attending the Texas Cattlemen's convention in Dallas this week. Our scouts report that those from this area attend include Robert Donovan, George Wilcox, G. P. Mitcham, E. Fry and maybe some others.

IF YOU SEE Mr. Henry Schaefer of the radio shop working a little harder, you will know that he has a mark to shoot at. The company is offering a trip to Bermuda in a sales contest.

R. W. McCauley is offering an unusual special at his record shop. He'll sell you a record for a regular price and another for a penny. If you have an old record, you get two new ones for it.

THERE ARE some honest people left in the world. If you don't believe us, ask Mrs. Hugh Wolf Brown. She was up in court North recently and lost her child. It contained all her papers and some folded money. She went back to a cafe where she had eaten and inquired. And she was told that a man found the child and left his address. She drove by and he gave it to her, refusing a reward.

AN INTERESTING gadget to look at is the man with the green hair at the Victor Hotel Coffee shop. Mrs. W. T. Chance, the boss lady, picked it up on a recent trip. It is a head made of underwear looking stuff with a lot of narrow slots on top, the slots brows and sideburns. And it is growing out through the slots, giving it the appearance of a man with green hair. Clever.

THE TRUSTEES of the Cisco Consolidated School District are to be congratulated for the appointment of Mr. Jess Hagen to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Ronald Rhodes. Mr. Hagen is a successful farmer and rancher. He will be a valuable addition to the board.

New Pastor Will Take Part In Nazarene Service

Rev. D. M. Duke, new pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, will take part in the revival services at the local church tonight at his first appearance before the congregation, it was announced today. Rev. Duke moved here Tuesday to accept the pastorate.

Good crowds have been heard of Rev. and Mrs. Dick Littrell at the evangelistic services at the church each night this week. He spoke on "The Man Who Married the Wrong Woman" in the service Tuesday night, taking his text from First Kings 16:31.

Tonight's sermon topic will be "Life's Greatest Question." During each service, Rev. Littrell plays a trumpet solo. Mrs. Littrell plays the marimba and gives readings and they sing duets.

All teachers and students in the church's Sunday School have been urged to attend tonight's service. Members and friends of the church were invited to attend.

The 1951 fund raising campaign of the American Red Cross was coming along somewhat spotty this week in the Eastland County Chapter, Cisco.

CHS Students Are Busy With Plans For Senior Play

Posters scattered over the business district of Cisco reading "March 16, Senior Class presents, 'Willie's Week-end' at High School Auditorium at 8 p. m." are the art work of Jimmie Dan Cheshire in the distributive class. Young Cheshire is a senior who works part time at the shop of Randy Steffen assisting him in the publication of his magazine, "Back in the Saddle."

The remainder of his time is spent in Cisco High School carrying the classes prerequisite for his graduation. When the publicity committee asked Norris Young, D. E. instructor, for some help in painting the signs for advertising the play, Jimmie Dan volunteered for the entire job.

Last night the seniors held their first night rehearsal preparatory for their debut on Friday. The publicity committee swung into action Tuesday when David Pippen, publicity chairman, issued tickets to seniors for selling. David and Darlene Parmer distributed placards in the business district during the noon hour.

The stage committee, chaired by Kenneth St. Clair, and assisted by Jack Kisner, L. E. Sublet, Bob White, Ralph Green, Van Callaway and Carlene Pence have been building and painting since Saturday.

The make-up committee composed of Anita Pingree and Ann Zander were busy checking make-up kits and replenishing supplies.

The hustlers for the event are: Jane Huestis, Joyce Fry, Patsy Denton, Betty Gallagher, Doris Speegle, Carlene Pence, Tilda O'Kelley and Peggye Brown.

COLLEGE CHOIR WILL SING AT LUTHERAN CHURCH TONIGHT

The Chorists of St. John's College, Winfield, Kansas, a mixed chorus of 28 voices, will be presented in a program of sacred music at Grace Lutheran Church in Cisco at 8 p. m. Wednesday, Pastor H. G. Lohrmann announced.

Two Cisco girls, Misses Virginia Weiser and Ann Seaver, will appear with the group, which is stopping here on a tour of the state. Members of the choir will Chapter, Cisco was leading the county, with Ranger trailing, Eastland in the middle, and the rural areas showing a good return, Mrs. John Love, county fund chairman said.

Cisco reported $1340 as of Wednesday with more to come and sure that the quota would be met easily, according to Mrs. Willard White, Cisco chairman. Ranger was lagging behind with only $44.30 reported Monday to the county office. Eastland was holding the middle ground with $627 on record so far.

Rural communities had not all reported to the county office on Monday, but the tally at that time was as follows: Pioneer, $39.10; Okra, $18.59; Word, $4.50; Nimrod, $7.50; Sabanno, $9.45; Cheaney, $76.65.

Rising Star and Gorman reported they had not yet started their campaigns, but would this week, and promised that in each case, it would be wound up in plenty of time and with the quota met. No reports had come in from other places at that time.

Various activities were in the process of being planned as money raising schemes over the county, most interesting of which was the double-header basketball game scheduled to be played on the night of Friday, March 23, at the Eastland high school gymnasium, Cyrus Frost Jr., Eastland Chairman said. All of the gate receipts would be turned over to the Eastland County Chapter. So far the only team known for sure in the play in the Lamb Motor Co., but announcement of the game will be made later when plans are completed.

spend the night in the homes of Cisco church members.

Special numbers on the program will be given by Marla Harms, soprano, and Lonnie Lassmann, tenor. A male quartet will also offer special numbers. Organ interludes will be played by Mrs. W. H. Wentte, accompanist for the group.

The program will include the music of Crueger, Bach, Mendelssohn, Palestrina, Lotti, Schuetz, Wright, Rossini and others.

There will be no admission charges. A free will offering will be taken to help defray the expenses of the choir.

White said two or three committees still are to make reports.

Norman Huston, local manager of West Texas Utilities Company, was a business visitor in Fort Worth Tuesday.

Sublett Awarded Combat Honors

WITH U. S. 1st CAVALRY DIVISION ON KOREAN BATTLEFRONT — (Delayed) — Private First Class Marshall Sublett, son of Mrs. Rebecca Sublett, 1704 D Ave. has been awarded the Combat Infantryman's Badge in Korea while serving as an Infantryman with the 7th Cavalry Regiment.

This badge, which is only awarded frontline combat infantrymen, distinguishes the actual fighting man from the rear area and service troops in a combat zone. A soldier must be a member of an infantry regiment to be eligible to receive it.

The badge itself consists of a miniature replica of a revolutionary flint lock rifle on a rectangular blue background superimposed over a wreath. It is worn by the soldier over his left breast above his campaign ribbons.

OPS Forms Available At Cof C Office Here

A limited supply of forms needed by retail stores to file price control information with the regional office at Fort Worth is available at the Chamber of Commerce, Manager B. A. Butler reported today.

These forms must be filled out by all retailers with volume of $50,000 or more in 1949, Mr. Butler said.

Marine Corps To Take Men With Physical Orders

High School and college students and recent graduates who have received orders to report for physicals or induction in the armed forces under the Selective Service Act can now enlist in the Marine Corps, Master Sergeant Gentry of the Marine Corps Recruiting Station, in Breckenridge, announced today.

Previously, the receipt of a notice to report for pre-induction or induction barred a student or recent graduate from enlisting in any branch of the service.

The new order, it was warned, applies only to high school and college students or recent graduates. Anyone else receiving pre-induction notices still cannot be enlisted he said.

Students or recent graduates who have received only their orders to report for pre-induction physical and mental exams can enlist without reference to their draft board.

Recent graduates or students who have received their orders to report for induction and have had them postponed may have their classification reopened by their draft board in order to volunteer for service with the Leathernecks.

The student or graduate can have his classification reopened by sending a written request to his draft board asking them to cancel the induction notice, so that he can join the Marine Corps. The letter must contain a statement from the recruiting office that the man will be accepted for immediate active duty, it was added.

"We don't want students to drop out of school to join the Marine Corps," Sergeant Gentry said. "The more education a man has, the better Marine he makes. But if he has already decided to leave school we want him to know that he can enlist in the Corps if he can meet our high physical and mental standards."

WTCC Will Have Meeting Mar. 21 In Wichita Falls

ABILENE, March 14—Members of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce from 24 northwest cities will meet Wednesday evening, March 21, in Wichita Falls for a dinner and discussion of the organization's expanded activities and general program of work. B. P. Bludworth, WTCC president announced today.

The meeting has been arranged on invitation of WTCC officials and civic leaders in Wichita Falls and the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce, Bludworth said.

Conferences with small groups of key men in the larger cities of the region have been held during the past 45 days, and the Wichita Falls meeting has been planned to bring together a large number of members to stimulate interest in the work of the organization. It is expected that 400 will attend.

Fred H. Husbands, executive vice president and general manager, will report on the enlarged program of work outlined for the coming year, and on additional staff personnel engaged to work on activities and projects. Community-level services are being emphasized in the objectives to be accomplished in 1951.

J. S. Bridwell, Wichita Falls oil man and leader in soil conservation activities in the area, has been invited to appear on the program. Bridwell is past president of the WTCC and a member of the present executive board.

Members in the following cities and towns have been invited: Wichita Falls, Henrietta, Bowie, Gainesville, Denton, Jacksboro, Graham, Olney, Throckmorton, Seymour, Haskell, Iowa Park, Burk Burnett, Electra, Vernon, Quanah, Childress, Paducah, Aspermont, Knox City, Munday, Rochester and Rule.

ANOTHER NEW WELL SEEN FOR OIL FIELD NORTHEAST OF CITY

Another new well for the Bankline-Owens pool, five miles northeast of Cisco, was in prospect today after the Kupp and Dickson No. 4 Otto Chance flowed Monday in a drill stem test from the prolific Lake sand. The well ran tubing and cemented. Completion work was due to begin today.

The drill stem test was taken after coring 20 feet of sand. Gas appeared at the surface in three minutes, and oil flowed in 41 minutes.

City Donates To Fund To Purchase Fire Equipment

Members of the City Commission voted to donate $200 to the Cisco volunteer Fire Departments drive to raise $800 to buy an automatic artificial respirator and two suits of fire-fighting breathing equipment at the regular semi-monthly meeting Tuesday night.

Mayor G. C. Rosenthal said the commission voted to lend financial assistance to the project because of the value of equipment to the city. The respirator would be available to help save lives, and the fire-fighting breathing equipment would enable firemen to go into burning buildings to battle fires.

The council, in giving it the city's help, expressed the hope that contributions would come in to the department in amounts sufficient to enable the department to buy and pay for the equipment in the early future.

With this donation, the fire department has approximately half of the money needed to buy the equipment.

Other routine matters, including plans for a street paving project, were discussed by the commission.

MUSTANG CORRALS TO HAVE MEETINGS

DALLAS, Mar. 14—Mustang Corrals, traditional annual round-ups of former students of Southern Methodist University, will be held this year on March 24, according to George E. Bushong, executive secretary of the SMU Alumni Association.

Some 128 Corrals will be held throughout the United States, Bushong said, adding that there may be more, unscheduled, meetings of SMU alumni. "Wherever former SMU students have formed alumni clubs, or wherever at least two exes meet on March 24, there will be a Mustang Corral," he noted.

At least one Corral is scheduled outside the territorial limits of the United States. It will be held at Instituto Porto Alegre, "Little SMU," in Brazil. Numerous faculty members of the institute are former students at SMU.

A Hilltop Corral will be held on the SMU campus in Dallas. The program will include a business session of the SMU Alumni Ass'n, when new members of the organization's board of directors will be announced.

BACKGROUND MEMO ON RETAIL MARGIN CONTROL REGULATION

By LUCILE HUFFMYER, Sec'y MERCHANTS CREDIT ASSOCIATION

This regulation is the first of a series designed to replace the General Ceiling Price Regulation, the freeze order of January 26, 1951, with an effective price control system for stabilizing the economy.

In brief, this regulation locks up and freezes the margins of retailers on broad categories of consumer soft and durable goods, restricting specifically the spreads between retailers' costs and selling prices to those existing on the list date and with a provision for periodic comparison of the individual retailer's margins with those prevailing during the very competitive periods before Korea.

A retail margin is that amount of the selling price which the retailer adds to the cost of the merchandise to cover his operating costs in getting the merchandise to the consumer at the retail counter, or at his home.

These operating costs include wages and salaries for the store's personnel, rent of the store and its maintenance, heat, light and other utilities, taxes, advertising and delivery costs, and other customer services.

After these operating costs are paid, if the retailer has been efficient and his sales volume adequate, what remains of the margin is profit to the retailer.

However, because of competition, the difference between profit — which is necessary if the store is to remain in business — and loss — which if continued would mean bankruptcy — is a narrow range of 3 to 8 percent.

Provision for this variable profit — loss factor in the retailer's margin provides no assurance of a profit for that still depends upon efficiency of operation and volume of sales. If either volume or efficiency declines, the merchant quickly reaches his break-down point below which he must operate at a loss.

This regulation, therefore, exercises control over the retailer in that limited range of his margin which determines profit or loss after his operating costs are paid. As such, this regulation pinpoints the only area in a retailer's pricing practices where the retailer and his government can exercise any control over prices.

If controls at prior levels exert an equally effective stabilizing influence consumer prices will be held in check.

Experience in World War II demonstrates the effectiveness of retail margin control in contrast to a price freeze type of control. For example, gross margins on department and specialty stores in 1944 averaged six tenths of one percent point higher than in 1941, the year before the first price freeze order (General Maximum Price Regulation) of World War II went into effect.

By imposing a control on margins at the retail level, Office of Price Stabilization has pinpointed with precision the only point in the distribution process where the retailer has any control over prices.

12. By adoption of the margin-type control office of Price Stabilization has required retailers to put into action again a regulation with which they are familiar, and as a result, there will be a minimum of confusion and lost motion.

It brought stability to retail prices then, and it will do so again. The major reasons for effectiveness of margin type control are: 1. It is the type which during the World War II control era substantially slowed down the threat of price increases when coupled with controls at prior levels in the production-distribution process.

In contrast the freeze type regulation was found by experience to become progressively less effective in stabilizing prices each day that passed from the freeze date, because it failed to incorporate a definite and specific pricing formula and relied instead in individual judgments of what constitutes similarly of merchandise.

In other words, the reliance on individual judgments under a price freeze creates variances in the pricing of new items and new models of merchandise which results in price inequities for the consumer and confusion among retailers.

2. The margin-type regulation locks up the margin percentage that may be applied to the cost of goods on new items in any individual retail store by providing an automatic limitation based on the store's exact pricing practices during a competitive period.

3. Since the regulation relates to the retailer's cost, and locks up his margin it provides a specific, enforceable system of control completely removed from the retailer's discretion.

4. The locking up of margins as they exist in each individual store, assures to each store an opportunity to continue providing consumers with the variety of available goods and services the basis of their shopping preferences. In addition, it provides as-urance that consumers generally will have access to their fair share of availing goods and services.

5. The regulation is designed to encourage and enable retailers to stock and sell the same inexpensive and budget-type lines of merchandise as were available in peacetime.

6. Margins are being locked up at a level substantially below those prevailing generally under controls at the end of World War II because competitive conditions coupled with abundance of merchandise have brought about a steady decline of realized margins since the last period of price control.

7. Experience during the period of World War II price control was that the margin type control reduced the margin percentage added to the cost of goods in retail stores, with the results that overall store margins declined substantially.

8. In the margin-type of control the maximum allowable margin is that which the retailer was able to add under highly competitive conditions and this margin is assured of being no higher than that required to cover costs of merchandise, the retailer's cost of doing business, and a degree of profit or loss related to peacetime competitive conditions.

9. Margin-type control permits and encourages keen competition and emphasis on efficiency which prevails among retailers in peacetime.

10. Despite the fact that margin-type control imposes an extremely heavy burden of record keeping and formula conformance on retailers, it is a contribution which retailers are required to make in the interest of stabilization.

11. By imposing a control on margins at the retail level, Office of Price Stabilization has pinpointed with precision the only point in the distribution process where the retailer has any control over prices.

12. By adoption of the margin-type control office of Price Stabilization has required retailers to put into action again a regulation with which they are familiar, and as a result, there will be a minimum of confusion and lost motion.

HUNTING IS FUN AGAIN

Construction business is hard work, says Maurice H. Runnells, of Mabevale, Arkansas, but he likes it. He also likes hunting with his hounds but for a while he didn't feel like doing much of anything. He had that run-down feeling, aches and pains, and just didn't seem to have any appetite. Being an active man, he didn't like not feeling well, and decided to do something about it. He heard about how HADACOL has helped many folks with troubles like his due to a deficiency of Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin and decided to give it a trial. He made a good decision, for HADACOL did help him. Soon, his aches and pains were relieved, he had a good appetite, really enjoyed his food, and he rested well.

Mr. Runnells says: "I am in the construction business, which everyone knows is mighty heavy work. I was working so hard, and just didn't seem to have any appetite at all. I started having aches and pains at about the same time. Then, about that time I decided to give HADACOL a trial. Right away, my aching was greatly relieved and my appetite picked up. I started eating regular meals, sleeping well and my general condition was greatly improved. I have since continued taking HADACOL regularly, and feel that it is a wonderful product. I freely recommend HADACOL as a good product."

HADACOL can help you if you suffer such deficiencies. Ask your druggist for HADACOL today.

"I GET WONDERFUL RELIEF NOW FROM HOT FLUSHES"

and urge every woman 38 to 52 years old who suffers this distress to try Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound"

"I had heard so many stories about the functional middle-age period peculiar to women—I hoped I'd escape such symptoms. But I didn't. I found myself terribly embarrassed by hot flushes—I suffered such restless nights, and I could sense myself getting irritable and cranky—due to this cause.

"My druggist recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. I can understand now why he called it 'the woman's friend.' Pinkham's Compound gives me amazing relief. I find if I take it regularly—don't miss a day—it helps build up resistance against such middle-age distress."

P. S. Pinkham's Compound is very tasty in a little fruit juice. Or you may prefer Lydia Pinkham's TABLETS with added Iron. Handy to carry in your purse.
