The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

LET'S APPOINT Mr. Benny C. Appen of the U. S. Navy at Kodiak, Alaska, as our correspondent in all the northern country. We haven't had a correspondent there since Sgt. Marvin Strickland returned to the states a year ago.

Benny has just submitted a very interesting report about a little fish he took. He adds that "I got some of those fishermen from Cisco could come up here. The fish are so thick you can't see the bottom of the streams. The fish are rainbow trout, Dolly Varden trout and almost every kind of salmon. I sure enjoy reading the Press. I sure would like to see the Lobos go all the way this year. I'll be home for Christmas in 1953. Can hardly wait."

The little trip that Benny took as a crewman on the USS Lagodon, ATA-194. The ship took a demolition team, including Benny, to Amak Island to explode depth bombs that had been attached on a mountain after a crash last year. The demolition team was put ashore on the island and after a two-hour search, they found the bombs and exploded them. En route back to their base, the Lagodon took a Coast Guard Cutter with a damaged propeller in tow. The trip required six days. Don't you think Benny would make us a good Far North correspondent? How about some more reports, Benny?

MAYBE WE CAN make Mr. Erwin Edward Brown our correspondent in the Pacific and Korean waters. He has just been home from a trip of some eight months in Korea as a crewman on the USS Strickley Bass, which is with Task Force 77. He spent two weeks with his mother, Mrs. E. E. Wagley and son, Billy Wagley, at Putnam.

Erwin has been in the Navy a year now, and in that year he has seen action in the Japan Sea, Korea Straits, East Coast of Korea, Formosa Straits, East China Sea and the South China Sea. He has received ribbons for Korean Service, United Nations Service and China Service. Erwin has just left for San Francisco to board his ship. And a ship will head up to near Seattle, Wash., and before many days, it will steam out toward Korea again. Let's have some more reports, Erwin.

COMES A NOTE from Mrs. C. P. Flinn. "While I was on my vacation, I clipped this little piece in another paper, thinking you might like to print it."

The clipping follows:
This Might Happen to You Sometime.
A man who was too stingy to subscribe for his home town paper sent his little boy to borrow a copy from a neighbor. In his haste, the boy can over a 34-cent piece of bees and, in 10 minutes, had like a waxy summer treat.

The father ran to his assistance, but failing to notice the barbed wire fence, ran into that, ruining his pair of trousers.
The old man took advantage of the slip in the fence, got into the field and killed himself eating green peas.

During the excitement, the old man, the dog broke up the dog house and the calves got out and chewed the tails off four sheep on the clothes line.
Moral: Don't borrow your neighbor's paper; it's too risky.

DO YOU GO ABOUT it just the way we imagine that you could subscribe for a magazine some days. The fourth and fifth editions of the schools are being magazines, and the salesmen are so thick they may have to wear badges so they can't try to sell each other. It doesn't seem to bother the salesmen. There's nothing like the enthusiasm of youth.

CANINE COMFORT—A boxer dog licks the face of his master, John Cobb, 24, of Westbury, N. Y., after four persons were injured there in a head-on collision. Marge Cobb is kneeling to comfort her husband who suffered lacerations of neck and head. James Siewierski, lying in background, suffered the most harm, including a fractured skull and internal injuries.

Former Resident Will Be Buried In Service Here

The Rev. Sidney Spain will conduct funeral services at 2 p. m. Thursday at the First Christian Church for Mrs. Lulu T. Angell, former Cisco resident who died in Longview Tuesday. Mrs. Angell, 82, lived in Cisco about 1900 to 1904 while Mr. Angell was area representative for the American Red Cross. Her husband died some 10 years ago and was buried in Oakwood Cemetery here. Mrs. Angell will be buried beside her husband. Welch Funeral Home of Longview will be in charge of the services. Survivors are a son, Marshall M. Angell of Longview; two daughters, Mrs. Frank Wunsch of Longview and Mrs. B. R. Lafferty of Fort Worth; four grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; one brother and three sisters. While they lived in Cisco the Angells were members of the First Christian Church.

Cisco Student Is At Daniel Baker

The first session of Daniel Baker College opened in Brownwood, on September 13, with a new student orientation period. Included among registrants for the 1952-1953 session are students from at least sixteen states and three foreign countries. One student from this area is James L. Brown, Jr., senior.

RELIGIOUS CARTOONIST GIVEN AWARD FOR HIS WORK BY DAV

CINCINNATI — Sept. 24 — Jack Hamm, whose Religious Drawings Syndicate cartoons appear in this newspaper and more than 350 other publications, has been awarded third place in the annual editorial cartoon award contest conducted by the Disabled American Veterans. His award-winning cartoon was published the weekend of July 13-14 and was captioned "Western Day Samaritan."
His dramatic cartoon was based on a paraphrase of a biblical quotation (St. Luke 10:30-37) "But a certain American went to him and bound up his wounds . . . and took care of him . . ." The "American" is shown kneeling over a disabled veteran on the battlefield saying, "Um, Deeply Grateful . . . Don't Forget!" Two other persons are shown in the background with the text "When They Saw Him, They Passed By On The Other Side."
Hamm, who confines his efforts to subjects with a religious emphasis, receives $100 for the third award of the 1952 competition. Paul Conrad, Denver Post editorial cartoonist, was awarded first place. E. H. Stanala of the Victoria (Doc) Advocate received second award.
Announcement of the awards was made here at DAV national headquarters by Floyd L. Ming, DAV National Commander, who said the 1952 contributions to the annual DAV award brought a new record, topping all totals of the previous five years of the award. Cartoons on the subject of the disabled veteran, published between May 1st and July 15, were eligible for the award.
The judging committee consisted of DAV national officials from throughout the nation, who devoted a full day to the judging. In addition to its annual editorial cartoon award, the DAV each year conducts a similar award among newspaper columnists to further the cause of the wartime disabled veteran, his widow and dependent.

COMMUNITY CHEST SETS DATE FOR ANNUAL CAMPAIGN DRIVE

The week of October 20-26 has been selected as the date for the annual Cisco Community Chest finance drive to raise a record budget of $2,700 for ten public supported organizations, Chairman George Davis reported today. The campaign date and other phases of the drive were among the matters discussed Tuesday at a meeting of chest officials. Mr. Davis said, "The drive will be opened with a breakfast on Monday morning, Oct. 20. Organizations which will share in the chest drive proceeds this year include the Cisco Welfare Association, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, ABC Club, Honey Club, American Red Cross, Heart Association, Cancer Society, Salvation Army and the USO. This year's drive, has named Mr. Davis as campaign director. The Rev. Sidney Spain is the associate director. Campaign leaders include Ralph Glenn, chairman of the committee for canvassing the business district; Mrs. Don Choate, chairman for the residential district; George Irvine, gifts committee chairman; Arlin Birt, city schools; and C. J. Turner, junior college.

Vehicles Travel 81 Million Miles Daily On Roads

AUSTIN, Sept. 24 — Texas highways take a pounding from 81 million miles a day of automobile and truck traffic, according to recent studies of the State Highway Department. Of that amount, 47 million miles a day are driven over roads financed entirely with state funds. Federal and county funds are used in financing a portion of the remaining roads.

According to the Texas Good Roads Association, 50 per cent of the state maintained system now is more than ten years old. It has passed the half-way mark of the 20-year life expectancy for such highways. This accounts for the large amount of current revenue that must be used on maintenance instead of new construction on the state's system.

Game Variety Is Shown By Search Of State Wardens

AUSTIN, Sept. 23 — The director of Law Enforcement for the Texas Game & Fish Commission said routine searches by game wardens show several things, including:
1 — That pheasants are becoming numerous enough in some north Texas areas that hunters are tempted to shoot them.
2 — Prairie chickens similarly tempt hunters in the Panhandle where these birds are staging a comeback.
The comparatively rare species in Texas were mentioned in the August report.
The Director said the report listing should serve as caution hunters who might "jump the gun."
"Our wardens in routine pursuit of their duties are expected to check the hunters' game bags," he said. Therefore, it is the responsibility of the hunters not to harvest any game that is not in season.
The Director said dove hunters sometimes are tempted when they are adult and flush a covey of quail, or flush protected species like prairie chicken and pheasants.
The August report showed 200 arrests and $5881.91 in fines and costs. This compares with 220 cases and $5774.25 in fines and costs for August, 1951, and 273 arrests and $5717.50 in fines and court costs for July, 1952.
Arrests for game and fish law violations for the state fiscal year ending August 31 totaled 759, or 233 less than for the 4013 arrests made during the previous fiscal year.

RAILROAD CELEBRATION — Dainty Lorna Eblon got into this attire in New York for ceremonies marking the 100,000th freight car built by the Eastern railroads. Following a visit in Manhattan, the giant 40-foot-long, 17-foot-high boxcar will make stopovers in other major cities serviced by the 37 Eastern railroads.

The classes serve as refresher courses for members and afford anyone interested in the church an opportunity to learn about Episcopal history, doctrine and faith, it was said.

Commission Begins Study Of Annual City Budget At Meet

MIDGETS READY TO OPEN GRID SEASON AGAINST EASTLAND '11'

Coach O. B. Graham announced Wednesday that he was ready to take the wraps off the 1952 Midgets of Cisco Junior High School Thursday night when they meet the Eastland Junior High School Dodgers at the Eastland field at 7:30 o'clock.
Coach Graham was faced this year with building an almost new team after last year's starters graduated into high school. In addition to building a new team, Coach Graham started out with a new formation. The Midgets are running from the T and using many of the same plays being used by the Lobos this season. Plans call for working in some spread.

New Fiscal Year Begins October 1

Members of the City Commission began studying the annual city budget at the regular semi-monthly meeting Tuesday night at the city hall. Mayor G. C. Rosenthal reported today. The city's fiscal year begins on October 1 each year.
A proposed budget as prepared by City Secretary Hal Lavery and Mr. Rosenthal calls for expenditures of $227,918.36 for all purposes during the coming year. This was about $16,000 less than the total amount of the 1951-52 budget.
Income from all sources during the coming year has been estimated at $222,875 as compared with gross income of $215,642.23 during the past year.
Anticipated income for 1952-53 includes $75,000 from taxes and $155,000 from the water and sewer system. Other items include $4,000 from the parking meters, $7,000 from a gross receipts tax on public utilities; $3,000 from the housing cabins in southwest Cisco; $5,000 from the Lake Cisco cabins; $2,500 from the corporation court; and $5,000 from collection of delinquent taxes.
The city must pay $33,000 per year on its bonded debt as one of the largest items of expense in the proposed budget. Departmental estimated expenditures include: water department, $38,850; street department, $35,000; administration, $17,215; sanitation, $18,478; fire department, $15,100; and police department, $19,275.
Mr. Rosenthal said the commission hopes to complete work on the new budget at the first meeting in October. Some $10,000 in 1952 taxes have already been collected.
In addition to studying the new budget, the commission authorized the drilling of a water well on the old airport tract. Mr. Rosenthal said the well would test all water sands. The well is planned "to see what we've got," he said.
Department reports and other routine matters came before the commission.

Floyd D. Wooten, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Wooten, 508 W. 12th St.
Junior R. Marsh, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Marsh, 800 W. 13th St.

At an early date they will be forwarded to the Air Force Induction Center at San Antonio's Lackland Air Force Base to begin 13 week basic training cycle. After basic they will be sent to one of the AF bases for duty and specialist training.

Junior High Elects Six Cheer Leaders

James Clark, Lonnie Pingree, Jim Larson, Garland Black, Linda Lucas and Rex Townsend were elected cheer leaders at Cisco Junior High School last week and have begun practice on yells for the opening Midget game in Eastland Thursday night.
James Clark and Lonnie Pingree are eighth grade representatives and Jim Larson and Garland Black are the seventh grade leaders. Linda Lucas and Rex Townsend represent the sixth grade.

LEGION PLANS WRITING

Plans for the annual membership drive will be discussed Thursday at 7:30 p. m. when members of the John William Butts Post 123 of the American Legion hold a regular semi-monthly business meeting. All members were urged to attend.

LOBO 'B' TEAM READY TO PLAY COMANCHE '11' ON THURSDAY

Business was good at the Lobo practice field Tuesday afternoon as Coaches Jack Everett and Jay Williams prepared their "B" team for a game here Thursday night and the senior eleven for a contest Friday night at Rotan. The workout ended at dark.
The "B" team engaged the Junior High Midgets in a scrimmage program to allow the youngsters to rehearse for their season's opener at Eastland on Thursday night. And all hands agreed that the Midget eleven looked pretty good.
The Lobo "B" team will look about the same as it did in action last week when Cisco took a 16-0-0 game over Dublin's junior Lobs. Tommy Reynolds, Harold Pinner, Buck Whitehead and John Carlisle will be the starting backfield.
The line will include Ronny Qualls at center, Joe Wayne Barrow and Leonard Simmons at guards, Kenneth Penn and Edward Bernie at tackles and Bill Miller and Levere Adams at ends. A host of others will see action in the contest.
The "B" game will start at 7:30 p. m. and since it will be the only home game of the week a large crowd is expected. Admission charges will be 25 cents for both adults and students.
The Lobo "A" team went through a long workout, stressing pass offense and defense as well as blocking. Bob Lloyd, half-back, was on the ailing list, due to a leg injury in last week's Brady game. He is scheduled to play on the offense at Rotan unless his injury takes a turn for the worse.
Rotan is expected to be rugged competition, as that club has won both of their games this season, defeating Lakeview in the opener and winning an 18-0-7 decision over Risaco last week. Rotan has a bigger line than Brady but the backfield won't compare with the Bulldogs, according to Lobo scouts. The team operates from the T formation.
Area dopsters have picked Rotan to win over the Lobos.

Drought Curbs Bass Planting

AUSTIN, Sept. 24 — The Chief Aquatic Biologist of the Texas Game & Fish Commission said distribution of hatchery fish is being hampered by low water in farm tanks.
He said many Texans' applied for bass and other kinds of fingerlings only to find that the long dry spell has either dried up their tanks or left them unsuited for the fish.
The Chief Aquatic Biologist urged that persons who have applied for fish and then have found water too low to receive the fish, should notify the nearest hatchery or the Austin office of the Commission. Those who do will be given preference for future fish distribution. He said that considerable damage to fish has resulted when shipments were delivered to farms where the water areas had been dissipated by the drought.
Texas hatcheries are expected to produce approximately 15,000,000 young fish in 1952, including black bass, channel catfish, crappie, bream and goggle-eye.

HEALTH TALKS

Prepared by the Texas Medical Association

Suppose your doctor puts you on a special diet. If you're used to carrying a lunch to work or school, you'll probably wonder what effect his advice will have on lunch packing — whether you'll have to give it up altogether or can change it enough to care for your special needs.

Off hand, it would seem the chances to follow the doctor's orders to a T are better by packing a lunch than by taking potluck at a cafe.

In the first place, many foods taken in ordinary lunches will be all right for the special diet, and the doctor will tell you the kind you may have. Special foods for the diabetic patient, for example, are seldom necessary; in fact, he usually is encouraged by his doctor to choose from ordinary foods as far as possible. However, if he wishes he may buy diabetic foods, which include canned fruits, peanut butter, flour, bread, crackers, cookies, cereal, noodles, macaroni, meat substitutes, and salad dressing.

Another kind of diet is one which is low in salt, or to be for exact, low in sodium, the part of salt that does the harm. A patient who needs this type of food can spread a couple of slices of salt-free bread with salt-free butter and as filler for his sandwich use a small piece of meat which has been grilled without salt. Fresh vegetables in their natural state are fairly low in sodium, and many make tasty lunch materials just as they are. If the dieter wants some cooked vegetables, he will feel safer about eating those cooked at home than those which he might buy in a restaurant, and he can carry them in a glass or plastic jar.

These are only two examples of special diets. Whether you are to gain or lose weight or are to take only foods to which you are not allergic, or whatever the reason for your diet, the doctor can help you decide the best way to plan your meals, including a lunch to take to work if you wish. Even with needed restrictions this noon-day meal should be as varied and appetizing as you can make it, so that it isn't the same old six-and-seven day after day. Its purpose is to keep you from eating too much or too little of certain kinds of food. If it becomes dull, your human nature is likely to get the best of you, and you'll find yourself fudging on your diet, possibly to the point of harming your well-being.

Polio Research Work Costs Huge Sums Each Year

AUSTIN, Sept. 24—The never ending war on polio through research is costing hundreds of thousands of dollars in Texas in 1952.

This was brought out by Brigadier General Robert J. Smith of Dallas, chairman of the 1953 Texas March of Dimes, spotlighting the overall expense of studies designed to curb the disease.

General Smith, who is president of Pioneer Airlines, pointed out that the Houston experiment of last spring cost more than half a million dollars.

In that historic community-wide project, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis sponsored gamma globulin injections as a possible means of preventing crippling after effects from polio.

"The research program is financed by March of Dimes revenue," said General Smith. "Theoretically, the funds collected in Texas during the March of Dimes Campaign are divided between the Chapters and the N. F. I. P. headquarters for research and other routine undertakings."

"But the 1952 epidemic in Texas, following two other severe polio years, has unbalanced the distribution of funds. The patient care load has exhausted the funds of the almost 100 Texas N. F. I. P. Chapters. Naturally, the National Foundation has made up the difference."

"Thus the N. F. I. P. share in 1951 shrank from the expected one half to 26 per cent. This

AN AREA OF DISCOMFORT—After heavy rains made life miserable for Leatherneck Sgt. Clovis Coffman, of Portsmouth, Va., and his buddies of the First Marine Division in Korea, helmets were used in an attempt to dry out foxholes. Coffman found he had a private swimming pool at a time when he didn't want one. As the downpour continued, piling discomfort on top of danger, the men's morale was dampened considerably.

"It's built like the big ones"

—that's why a GMC pickup will last longer, cost less to maintain!

WHEN the big GMC over-the-highway truck and the small pickup, shown above, are loaded to capacity—there's 30,000 pounds difference in their weights.

Yet they are alike in a lot of important ways that make GMC light trucks tops in all-around service!

For GMC is the ONLY pickup truck with all five of the important features which most manufacturers reserve for their bigger, "heavy duty" vehicles.

They are: Tocco-Hardened crankshafts, full-floating piston pins, airplane-type main and rod bearings, rifle-drilled connecting rods and full-pressure lubrication all the way to the piston pins—things that increase the life of any truck.

But that's not all. We'll be glad to demonstrate how other features like "pillow action" springs and recirculating ball-bearing steering give GMC's a real "passenger-car ride." Come in and see firsthand the fine features that make GMC today's top buy in pickup, panel and stake rack trucks!
