The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

LET'S ALL GO out to the football game tonight and help the Cisco Junior College folks win and make their visitors feel at home. The Wranglers players have invited their parents to be special guests at the game, and the parents will wear the numbers of their sons so you can identify them. Let's make the parents feel very welcome and show them that we appreciate having their sons attend CJC.

MR. RONALD Farley wants to see Texas beat SMU down at Austin on Saturday, and if you have a couple of tickets and can't go he'll be glad to buy them from you. You can reach Ronald by calling him at phone number 1034-J.

COMES A NOTE from the Joe Subletts of Bell Gardens, Calif., to report a change of address. They're getting The Press regularly and miss the home town. They moved to California a few months ago and like the climate.

HAVE JUST received a list of everything that's going to be observed in November, and we'll report it now so nobody will miss any of the events. November events include:

- Nov. 1 — 4-H Club Achievement Week; author's day; all-saint's day; and Invest for Peace month.
- Nov. 4 — Election day.
- Nov. 5 — National Cat Week opens.
- Nov. 9 — Radio and Television Week; American Education Week; Optimist Week.
- Nov. 11 — Armistice Day.
- Nov. 16 — Diabetes Week; Children's Book Week; Freedom of Religion Day.
- Nov. 18 — Accordion Week.
- Nov. 23 — Latin America Week; Case Bird Week.
- Nov. 27 — Thanksgiving Day.
- Nov. 30 — Hotel Week.

OUT AT SCRANTON, basketball season is underway. And they're going to hold a big tournament Nov. 6, 7 and 8 for both boys and girls. The Cisco Junior high cage teams are already working out, and they'll send teams to the tourney. The local boys' team will be strengthened when the football season ends and some of the Midget players join the squad.

FRIDAY NIGHT will be Halloween night, and the folks over at the East Ward School are all set for a big carnival. There will be various concessions that will interest one and all. The Mothers Club of East Ward is sponsoring the big event.

COMES A POSTCARD from Mayor G. C. Rosenthal. He and Mrs. R. were seeing the sights in New Orleans on a vacation trip to the deep south country. . . Also comes a letter addressed to Santa Claus. It's a little early, but a fellow shouldn't take any chances of being overlooked.

MR. BUCK OVERALL, the high school basketball coach, tells us they're going to try something new this year out at CJS. They're going to sell season tickets. An adult can buy a season ticket to all regular season games for $2. Student tickets will cost $1. You'll pay 50 cents at the gate and there will be a minimum of eight games, so you'll save considerable money by buying a season ticket.

The Loboos are due to have a fine cage team again this year. The only regular missing from last year's good team is Doug Johnson. Some 10 Loboos are now working out daily and others will join the squad as soon as the football season ends. The first Lobo basketball game has been scheduled for December 2.

You'll hear more about the season ticket sale. The tickets will go on sale in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Gandy and daughter, Barbara, and Jo Ann Tucker of Eden visited in the homes of Mrs. E. C. McClelland and Mrs. C. M. Pogue over the weekend.

Four Grid Games To Be Broadcast

Humble Oil & Refining Company broadcasts this week end will cover football clashes with all seven Southwest Conference teams in action . . . six in Conference play and one in a long-awaited intersectional tilt.

In Conference play Saturday afternoon, T. C. U. meets Baylor while Texas clashes with S. M. U. Also Saturday afternoon, in the big intersectional tilt of the day, Rice meets Wisconsin. The final Conference play of the day takes place when Texas A & M and Arkansas kick off Saturday evening.

Broadcast of the T. C. U.—Baylor tilt begins at 1:50 p. m. Saturday with announcers Ves Box and Bob Walker describing the play from T. C. U. Stadium in Ft. Worth over station WFAA-WBAP-570, Dallas-Ft. Worth and others. On the air at 1:50 p. m. Saturday will be the clash between Rice and Wisconsin direct from Rice Stadium in Houston. Announcers John Ferguson and Dave Russell will bring listeners a running description of the action over station KRLD, Dallas and others.

Ever popular Kern Tips and Alec Chesser will bring the gridiron battle between Texas and S. M. U. to listeners from Memorial Stadium in Austin at 1:50 p. m. Saturday over station WFAA-WBAP-820, Dallas-Ft. Worth and others.

Kyle Field in College Station will be the scene of action as Texas A & M meets Arkansas. Broadcast time is 8:00 p. m. Saturday night and at the microphones will be announcers Charlie Jordan and Eddie Barker, who will cover the game over station KFJZ, Ft. Worth.

Turkeys Plentiful For Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving is several weeks off, but housewives across the land already are preparing for the traditional feast of turkey and all the trimmings.

Turkeys are in plentiful supply for the approaching holiday, according to A & P Food Stores. Turkey production is at an all-time high this year and it is estimated that about 20 per cent of the total crop may be sold by early November.

Many of the turkeys coming to market will be smaller birds preferred by young couples and small family groups. These young turkeys, plump and broad-breasted, weigh from 10 to 14 pounds each and usually reach peak quality at this season of the year.

Though it still is too early to predict what turkeys will cost for Thanksgiving, indications are that prices may be slightly under last year. Record production and the fine quality of turkeys this year should assure an ample supply for all who observe Thanksgiving with the traditional bird.

HUFFMAN WILL SPEAK

In observance of Layman Day, Bill Huffman will fill the pulpit at the First Christian Church Sunday morning. Mr. Huffman will be assisted by Bob Latson.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Williams and children of Fort Worth spent the weekend in the home of his mother, Mrs. R. C. Isabell.

LOOK WHO'S HERE—Little Victor, newest addition to the family of actor Ricardo Montalban and his wife, Georgiana, is shown in Hollywood with his parents as he faces the camera for the first time. Victor already has two sisters and a brother, and his aunt is movie star Loretta Young, his mother's sister.

El Chico Cafe Is Opened Here

Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Marquez of Cisco have announced that they will open the El Chico Cafe at 613 Avenue D at 11 a. m. Saturday.

They are spending this week cleaning up and decorating the building in the Mexican motif.

Plans call for the preparing and serving of Mexican style food and American food and short orders. Free coffee will be served on opening day. After Saturday the cafe will be open from 6 a. m. to 10 p. m.

Mrs. Marquez is the former Miss Mary Lucy Garcia. She has been employed with the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. Mr. Marquez has been in the Army and recently returned from a tour of duty in Germany. He has had some five years experience in the operating of Mexican style cafes in Old Mexico and El Paso.

HOLD SPECIAL SERVICES

The women of the Presbyterian Church are having services each afternoon from 2 to 2:30 o'clock in observance of Week of Prayer and Self Denial for World Missions. The services are under the leadership of Mrs. J. J. Tableman, chairman of world missions.

Guests for the luncheon included M. B. McAlpin of Fort Worth and B. A. Butler of Cisco.

The progress of highway and farm road construction in Texas and the need for more money to keep pace with demand for new roads and maintenance was shown in a motion picture presented Wednesday as the program feature at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Cisco Lions Club.

Lion D. N. Morrison was in charge of the program. The film was obtained from the Texas Good Roads Association and was shown by Lion Roy Killingsworth. Lion E. L. Jackson spoke briefly on the Texas highway picture to open the program. He noted that the ever-increasing number of motor vehicles is making greater the demand for more and better highways. Texas is first among the states for registration and sale of trucks and is sixth in the number of passenger cars, he said.

The picture indicated that the State Highway Department needs about $100,000,000 more money annually to build needed new roads and to maintain current highways.

Guests for the luncheon included M. B. McAlpin of Fort Worth and B. A. Butler of Cisco.

Less Than $1,500 Needed For Chest Drive To Go Over Top

It has come with agreeable surprise to a number of sincerely skeptical people that the United Fund campaign in Cisco already has progressed within $1,500.00 of what they considered an impossible goal.

Campaign committee leaders, checking results Wednesday afternoon and adding cash and pledges to what is reasonably assured from reports of teams in the field, found a total of $7,300 clearly in sight. Quite a number of areas are yet to be heard from—enough, if properly worked, to put the drive over the top, committee members said.

From a study of the contributions already in, campaign workers concluded that many contributors, doubting that the drive could reach its goal of $8,700 for the ten agencies, hedged on their gifts in anticipation that a second appeal would have to be made in the Spring. But this estimate, shrewd as it might be in view of the difficulties confronted during the drive, did not take into consideration the response of groups such as the employees of the Gallagher Clay Products Company, whom the campaign committee is citing for an example of outstanding citizenship.

While there are many contributors who are entitled to recognition for their generosity, the workers and management of this new Cisco industry did their part in a way that brought a glow of appreciation to the Lions Club committee which took over the responsibility of putting over the drive in the face of honest opinion that "it can't be done." So did the response of the city employees who came across with contributions that should put a blush in the cheeks of some of those who receive the benefits of the work performed by these employees and are more able to contribute.

This is not to discount the generosity and public-spiritedness of many large contributors, such as the Humble company and its employees who, as usual, lead the list of givers, and numbers of others. It is cited just to show that when this campaign goes over the top, as it certainly seems now that

P-TA Makes Plans For Annual Dinner

The room mothers of West Ward School met Thursday morning for the purpose of making plans for the annual father's banquet to be held November 18 at seven o'clock.

The following committees were appointed: decorating, Mrs. Bob Ellison, chairman, Mrs. Buck Overall, Mrs. Bill Berry, Mrs. Durwood Morris, and Mrs. Roy Fonville, Jr.; attendance, Mrs. Troy Stewart; program, Mrs. J. W. Sifton; menu, Mrs. Chesley Tipton, chairman, Mrs. Fred Coulter, Mrs. Gloria Skinner, Mrs. Tom Smallwood, and Mrs. Norman Huston.

Mrs. J. H. Latson, Mrs. Marston Surles, Mrs. Harry Schaefer, and Mrs. I. A. Brunkenhoefer were appointed to obtain a place in which to have the banquet.

Episcopal Church Mission To Mark Centennial Event

A preaching mission will begin Sunday, Nov. 2, at 7:30 p. m. at the Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Eastland as a part of the observance of the church's centennial celebration, the Rev. Arthur E. Hartwell, rector, announced today.

The Rev. Father Ernest K. Banner, vicar of St. Francis' Church, Chicago, will be the missionary. The services will be held each night through Friday, Nov. 7. The public has been invited to attend the services.

It was 100 years ago that the Rev. George Washington Freeman bishop of Arkansas and the South-west, made a pastoral visit to North Texas and in November, 1852, the first recorded service was held at Clarksville. From that beginning, the Episcopal Church has grown to many thousands with congregations in all larger communities.

Preaching missions are being held throughout the diocese during the centennial celebration. The Eastland church serves the Episcopalians of Eastland and Stephens counties.

East Ward School Plans Carnival On Friday Night

The general public has been invited to attend a Halloween Carnival at the East Ward School at 6:30 p. m. Friday, Oct. 31, Principal Doyle Holmes reported today. Plans for the event have been completed, and a large crowd is expected.

Concessions will include a dart and balloon game, a fish pond, a grab bag, a country store, a cake and pie auction with Mart Agnew as the auctioneer, a circus clown, and other features. This will be the first annual carnival for the school. Plans for the event have been worked out by the East Ward Mother's Club, sponsors.

Wranglers Play Allen Academy In Grid Contest Here Tonight

INJURIES CAUSE LINE SHIFT AS LOBOOS PREPARE FOR ALBANY

Coaches Jack Everett and Jay Williams planned to taper off with a light workout Thursday in preparing their Loboos for the game Friday night in Albany with the Lions. The Loboos have been working hard during the past two weeks on fundamentals and have been polishing their blocking and defensive assignments.

The team was weakened Wednesday when Sonny McCrea, offensive guard, received a knee injury. McCrea will not see action in the Albany game and may be out for the remainder of the season. Andy Mosley, defensive linebacker, was injured Tuesday but was expected to play Friday night. The loss of McCrea caused a shortage of guards on the Lobo squad. Carl Ingram broke a finger in scrimmage last week and will be out for several weeks. Remaining guards are Jim Reynolds and Mac McCauley. The coaches indicated that Bill Miller, Joe Wayne Farrow and Edward Bernie might be moved up from the "B" squad to replace ailing "A" boys.

Everett and Williams were pleased this week with the improvement shown in line play and blocking. The running of Marcus Gallegos, Bob Lloyd and Irv Brunkenhoefer was encouraging and Bobby Black showed improvement on both offense and defense.

The offensive starting lineup was announced as Bobby Qualls at center, Jim Reynolds and Mac McCauley at guards, Bennie Edwards and Arzell Hale at tackles, Jim Webb and Bill Smith at ends, Boy Gallagher at quarterback, Bob Lloyd and Marcus Gallegos at halves and Irv Brunkenhoefer at full.

Plans call for using Sherwood Gaines, Daniel Gray, Bennie Edwards, Jim Webb and Irv Brunkenhoefer in the forward defensive wall, with Bobby Qualls, Andy Mosley, Bob Lloyd and Bill Smith in a four man secondary wall. Marcus Gallegos and Boy Gallagher will be used in safety stops. Bill Miller will probably see a lot of action on the defensive line and Bob Black will be called on for offensive duties.

Drought Still Is Holding Up Crop Planting In State

Drought continued over the entire state during the past week, and no measurable rain was recorded at any official weather station for the second consecutive week. This open fall weather permitted harvest of remaining crops to be pressed toward completion at maximum speed, but the critical lack of moisture prevented the development of winter pastures and non-irrigated small grain. Blowing dust in the northwest was limiting visibility to 5 miles at some points at the end of the period.

In the northwest cotton pulling and snapping was active and sorghum harvest was nearing completion. A large acreage failing to produce grain was cut for bundle feed. Peanut harvest in central and northern counties made good progress, but because of low yield of peanuts, an increasing proportion of the crop was being grazed. Along the upper coast, combining of late maturing rice continued active. Pecan harvest was gaining momentum in central and south Texas, and the strong winds blowing across the State at the end of the period was shaking many nuts off trees.

Progress of commercial vegetables in the lower valley continues to be limited to crops irrigated by private wells. Water from the irrigation districts is restricted to domestic needs. Considerable acreage was planted following the mid-September rains, but many plantings have been lost. Conditions continued favorable for development of fall-crop tender vegetables in the Laredo, Winter Garden, and Eagle Pass sections.

Fall and winter range and pasture feed reserves were getting progressively shorter over the entire state. In the northwest stalk fields, as well as some sorghum fields which failed to make grain, were being grazed. Wheat pasture prospects are limited largely to irrigated acreage. Many farmers and ranchers were hauling stock water. Cattle and calves were showing considerable shrinkage in spite of widespread feeding. Importation of drought emergency hay from out of State and close culling of livestock continued.

Staff Roads Are Studied By Court

A committee of residents from the Staff Community, located in the southeastern part of Eastland County, met with the Commissioners' Court at the courthouse on Monday to discuss plans for moving roads in that area.

The projected Leon River lake, which is being built by the Cities of Eastland and Ranger as a source of water, will cover existing roads with water. Present roads will have to be re-routed to provide the community with roads to Eastland and Ranger.

No action was taken at the meeting. The court took the matter under advisement. Residents of the Staff community discussed the problem with water district officials and others at a mass meeting last week.

1952 Grid Queen Will Be Crowned

The Wranglers of Cisco Junior College hope to win their first game of the season when they meet the Allen Academy Ramblers in a conference football contest at 8 p. m. Thursday (tonight) at Chesley Field.

A feature of the game will be the coronation of the 1952 Wrangler football queen. Three pep squad leaders, Misses Valla Ray Henry of May, Wylene Bint of Cisco and Diana Farquhar of Big Spring, have been nominated for the honor. The winner will not be known until the half-time ceremony takes place.

Parents of Cisco Junior College players will be special guests at the game, and they will wear their sons' numbers for identification and will occupy a special section of seats.

The Wranglers completed their plans for the game in a light drill Wednesday afternoon.

Coach Red Lewis announced a probable starting lineup as follows: ends, Dale Hatley and Don Carman; tackles, Jack Voss and Bob Cooke; guards, Gerald Davis and Henry Sellers; center, L. A. Noles; backs, J. C. Suggs, Dell Wright, Don Denard and Ed Lee. Defensive players will include Noles, Suggs, Davis, Bob Cooke, Jim Cooke, Hatley, Charles Atkinson, John White, Lee and Bud Miller.

A number of Wranglers aren't expected to see action due to injuries. Burl Moses and Eugene Pallett, two regular backs, suffered shoulder injuries last week and aren't due to play. Pat O'Neil is another top back out with a knee injury. Lefty Subiett, a southpaw passer, has a bad arm. The Ramblers were due to arrive in town early this afternoon.

Two big tackles spearhead the Allen forward wall. They are Jerry Hentchell, 225 pounds, and Edgar Johnson, 215 pounds.

Coach Nick Rurnace has announced a probable starting lineup as follows: ends, Fred Foreman, 175, and Charles Broach, 170; tackles, Hentchell and Johnson; guards, Henry Tuck, 180, and Don Lynch, 175; center, Jim Bennett, 165; backs, Lloyd Scherer, 165, Billy Bullock, 165, Fred Sampson, 165, and LeRoy Pearce, 160.

The Wranglers lost 28-to-0 to Allen Academy in their meeting at Bryan last year.

Girl Scout Leaders To Attend Institute

A number of Cisco Girl Scout leaders are expected to attend the 40th anniversary round-up program institute at Coleman at noon on Thursday, Nov. 6, according to an announcement today.

Those who wish to attend were asked to make reservations by contacting Mrs. J. W. Sifton at telephone number 788. The event will be held in the Girl Scout house in Coleman, and the luncheon will cost $1.

The leaders will meet Miss Virginia Burgess, the district's new community adviser, at the institute. All leaders, assistant leaders, troop committee members have been urged to attend.

Gorman Doctor Laid To Rest Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Harrelson and daughter, Sue, and Guy Brogdon of Cisco attended funeral services in Gorman Wednesday for Dr. Edward Blackwell, 62, a practicing physician in Gorman since 1915.

Dr. Blackwell was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Harrelson and Mr. Brogdon. He had been ill for six months and died at his home late Tuesday.

Dr. Blackwell was a native of Eastland County and one of the area's leading physicians.

WTCC URGES DEFEAT OF BOTH AMENDMENTS IN NOV. 4 VOTE

Defeat of two proposed amendments to the Constitution of Texas to be voted upon November 4 was urged by the taxation and legislation committee of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at its convention in Wichita Falls last week.

Basic provisions of the two proposals are:

1. To empower the Legislature to enact laws to enable cities to provide Workman's Compensation Insurance, including the right to provide their own insurance risk for all employees, and provide suitable laws for administration of such insurance, and for payment of costs, charges premiums on insurance policies and the benefits to be paid under them. (House Joint Resolution No. 20).

2. To require that the Legislature create a State Medical Education Board, establish a Medical Foundation Fund and make adequate appropriations for that fund to provide grants, loans or scholarships to persons desiring to study medicine and to practice in rural areas in Texas, upon such terms and conditions as shall be prescribed by law. The term "rural areas" would be defined by law. (House Joint Resolution No. 38).

The WTCC committee is composed of many businesses and professions living in all parts of the 132 counties served by the organization.

Among reasons for opposing approval of the measure relating to Workman's Compensation for city, town and village employees were the following:

1. The Constitution already provides for passage of laws to provide Workman's Compensation Insurance for such employees. Such insurance is available from private insurance companies.

2. Language of the proposed amendment may be interpreted to make it mandatory upon cities to set up a Workman's Compensation system, unlike a present law that makes such policy voluntary for counties and their employees.

3. It would further encroach upon the legal power and authority of cities, and is a step toward centralization of government.

4. It could bring about creation of an additional State Board that would be supported by further taxation.

Among reasons for opposing the proposal to create grants, loans or scholarships to students who would agree to practice medicine in rural areas, were the following:

1. It would add another to the numerous boards and commissions of the state.

2. The Constitution now prohibits the State from appropriation of public funds for "private or individual purposes" or "giving or lending of the credit of the state."

3. This is a step in the direction of socialized medicine.

State in aid of, or to any person, or for pledging the credit of the State... for payment of liabilities, present or prospective, of any individual."

4. Nothing is binding beyond the moral obligation of a person receiving its benefits to practice in a designated area, which would have to be defined by law.

5. All Medical schools of the state are overcrowded and have long waiting lists, and additional facilities for teaching medicine would have to be provided.

6. The term "medical" is not defined. It is left to the Legislature to determine whether the term would include dentists, veterinarians, nurses, technicians, chiropractors, and doctors of osteopathy as well as doctors of medicine.

7. There is no limit upon the amount of money the legislature may appropriate to operate the proposed Board and create the proposed Fund.

8. This is a step in the direction of socialized medicine.

THEY AGREE!

"Americans who fail to go to the polls actually are voting by default for minority rule. Let no one forget that in every instance in which modern totalitarian rulers have seized power they have done so with minority rather than majority support. I wish every success to The National Non-Partisan Register and Vote Campaign."

— Dwight D. Eisenhower

"Thoughtful Americans of both parties, I am sure, want ours to be truly a government of all the people. I hope that both political parties, the press, radio and television and leaders in every field of American life will do their best to impress upon the people their individual responsibility to vote and express their preference in the ballot box. I am glad to give my hearty endorsement to The National Non-Partisan Register and Vote Campaign."

— Adlai Stevenson

Republican or Democrat, there's one party both presidential candidates agree on. That "party" is YOU—the individual voter. Both candidates agree you should VOTE. Naturally, each man hopes you'll vote his way but the right of preference is yours.

VOTE AS YOU PLEASE—BUT VOTE! See you at the polls!

HEALTH TALKS

Prepared by the Texas Medical Association

When your arms start getting "too short" to read the evening newspaper, or you notice it's hard to find a telephone number in the directory, chances are your doctor will recommend bifocal glasses.

What are bifocals? They are spectacles which contain a smaller lens for near vision placed below the center of a larger lens which is for distant vision. Thus, when you look down in the normal reading position and hold the material at the right distance, you can see fine. On the other hand, merely by shifting your gaze upward you can recognize someone who enters the room.

Why are bifocals needed? The eye reaches its most efficient stage when you are about 8 years old. From then on, your accommodation, the ability to shift from seeing distant objects to ones up closer and vice versa, gradually but surely decreases. This loss of accommodation doesn't become bothersome, however, until you approach 40 years, the approximate age at which bifocals usually are recommended for the first time.

Some people with good distant vision may manage with a pair of single vision reading glasses, but they have to put up with the annoyance of having to remove their glasses to see across the room or of having blurred vision.

Another type of lens used for seeing objects at various distances is a trifocal lens, which has three parts: the top for the far vision, the bottom for reading, and the middle for some in-between point, usually at about arm's length. They are not prescribed as often as bifocals, and the eye specialist questions the patient very carefully before deciding whether or not they are needed. For persons in occupations who need to see at a distance other than for reading and far off, trifocals are a sensible answer. Some experts have claimed that it is no harder to get used to trifocals than bifocals. They also say that these three-way lenses often help prolong the number of years people can work at top efficiency.

So bifocals or trifocals — take your choice. They mean greater comfort and better vision for many adults.

The U. S. Constitution was signed on Sept. 17, 1787.

Why Should I Have An Abstract?

. . . is a question often asked of abstractors and one we like to answer. When ownership of real property enters your business life then title problems also come in. Buying, selling, mortgaging and otherwise dealing with real estate require correct title information. The abstract reflects the true record title and therefore has everything to do with values. That's one answer, there are many others.

He also suggested that contributors who had withheld a part of what they intended to give because they anticipated another appeal next spring, could now very well make this additional contribution or pledge.

"With this drive over the top there won't be any drive for any of the ten agencies listed until next fall," said Mr. Davis. "It means that there won't be any Red Cross campaign, as there has always been in the spring. The Red Cross quota and the list of those who gave in the United Fund and did not specify that none of the gift should go to the Red Cross, will be given to the County Chapter at the appropriate time, and that will be over. A careful check and accounting of all gifts is being made that every dollar given is applied to the purposes for which the donor directed it on his card.

Thus if a contributor specifies that his contribution shall go to a certain fund or funds, or that none of it is to be applied to any certain fund or funds, the wishes of that contributor will be strictly followed and a record will be kept for his inspection if he wishes."

The tendency of some givers not to take into consideration that ten agencies, instead of five, are grouped in the program, has been noted, Mr. Davis said. He urged that in making their gifts they include the amounts they would normally give to the additional funds. "Unless this is done," pointed out, "the program work and separate drives for various agencies might have to be made."
