The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

WE NOMINATE MR. C. B. Midkiff, principal of West Ward School, as Fisherman of the month. He hooked and landed a 40-pound catfish out at Lake Cisco the other day. Mr. Midkiff was using a trotline and had baited it with perch. Understand the big fish was sliced up into catfish steaks and stored in the home freezer, and there will be considerable good eating before it's all over.

ONE OF THE fellows who helped hold the election over at the Fire Station the other day tells us that the workers certainly appreciated a big pot of coffee and some delicious gingerbread that was served them in midafternoon. It was provided by Mrs. J. V. Heysler, Sr., who has done this for the election workers for a good many years.

THE BOYS AROUND the Victor Hotel enjoyed watching the election party on television, courtesy of Mr. Dewey Sage. Manager Ken Russ reports that the set was placed in the lobby and a large crowd enjoyed the fine reception.

The number of television sets around town continues to grow. Bet there are 200 to 300 sets in our area right now.

THE BOYS DOWN at the A&P Grocery are having a big special week this week. The store is handsomely decorated, they have music and a number of prizes are to be awarded. . . . Was by the Glenn Furniture Company to look at the Art Week Exhibit late yesterday (and it's splendid and worth anybody's while to see) and found Mr. Ralph Glenn building a flower box. The flowers will be just inside the front door. The entire store interior, by the way, has undergone a redecoration program. Looks very nice, indeed.

THE EAST WARD School had a net profit of some $153 at their Halloween Carnival the other night. And this fine profit will go into improvements for the school grounds. . . . Cisco Junior College had 197 paying customers at Chesley Field for the Allen Academy game last week. . . . The Floyd Pools of Moran were visitors in our town the other day. . . . Mr. W. P. Knight, the Legion Post adjutant, tells us the Cisco Post is the first in the 17th Congressional District to go over its membership quota for 1953. . . . Dr. W. P. Lee, the city health officer, tells us that he's mighty glad to see that Justice of the Peace Henry Curtis is vital statistics registrar for the precinct. Dr. Lee handles such matters inside the city limits and had been handling them for the entire precinct prior to Mr. Curtis' appointment.

MR. SAM KIMMELL, president of the West Texas Ranchers Association, reports they're expecting a large crowd for the semi-annual meeting over at Eastland tonight. The association is ending its first year of work, and it's doing a fine job. There's a good program ready for all members and interested stockmen at 7:30 p. m.

FOR A GOOD rain, maybe we should all get together and throw a barbecue for Mr. Bob Mancill. In all his years, he has never attended a barbecue where it didn't rain. . . . Jere Westfall went down to Austin last Saturday to renew acquaintances and to see the UofT beat SMU. . . . The J. D. Colliers saw the TCU-Baylor game in Fort Worth. Guess they might as well have stayed home, since nobody won.

IF YOU WANT to get your money's worth, go out to Chesley Field at 7 o'clock tonight and watch the doubleheader football game. The Mighty Midgets take on Moran's juniors in the curtain raiser, and the Lobo "B" team tangles with De Leon. All for 25 cents.

IT'S GOOD to see Mr. I. J. Henson out again after several days in the hospital. He reports that he is feeling fine. . . . Mr. J. L. Thornton reports that they're installing some more feed mixing machinery at the Thornton Feed Mill.

SHE'S TIED UP WITH NAVY—Duke University student Audrey Earle, right, whose father, grandfather and great-grandfather were admirals in the U. S. Navy, learns the complex knots which form part of her curriculum as a Reserve Officer Candidate in Durham, N. C. ROC Earle will receive a Naval Reserve commission when she is graduated from Duke.

POPPY DAY DONATIONS TO AID WAR VETERANS OF THIS AREA

Dimes, quarters and dollars dropped into the Poppy Day contribution boxes of the American Legion Auxiliary in exchange for the memorial poppies to be worn next Saturday in honor of the war dead, will bring their full value of help to disabled veterans and needy children of veterans during the coming year, said Mrs. Truly Carter, Rehabilitation Chairman of John William Butts Unit of the Auxiliary, today as the Auxiliary continued preparations for the annual Poppy Day observance.

"There are no campaign expenses to be deducted from the Poppy Day contributions," she explained. "All workers are unpaid volunteers, except the disabled veterans who make the poppies. There is no elaborate publicity or advertising campaigns, all newspaper space and radio or television time being donated. The materials for making the little crepe paper flowers cost only a tiny amount per flower.

"Thus practically every penny of the amount dropped into the contribution boxes Saturday will go into American Legion Auxiliary rehabilitation and child welfare funds. Most of it will stay right here in Cisco and will be expended locally to aid war veterans and children of veterans during the coming year. As the Auxiliary's rehabilitation and child welfare programs are carried out by volunteer workers, there are no administrative costs to eat into these funds.

"Small percentages of the contributions will go to state and national funds, where, too, volunteer workers make every dollar count its full value in aid to veterans and children. American Legion Auxiliary Volunteer Hospital Workers, especially trained to perform many types of services for sick and disabled veterans, are on duty in practically every veterans hospital, while Volunteer Field Workers look after the welfare of veterans and children in communities throughout the nation. Poppy Day contributions count big for the disabled and needy children."

Beef breeding cattle will compete for $41,135. Of this amount $6,335 is offered for the carload-and-pen division of bulls, apportioned $2,335 to Herefords and $2,000 each for Shorthorns and Aberdeen-Angus. Division of the remaining $34,800 is: Herefords $13,800; Polled Herefords $3,000; Short-horns $6,000; Aberdeen-Angus $10,000 and Brahms $2,000. Half of the prize money for each breed is offered by the respective breed association and half by the show. Deadline for cattle, swine, sheep and Angora goat entries is Dec. 15.

Increased Funds For Health Work Asked By Dr. Cox

State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox intends to put a copy of a resolution urging increased operating funds and better working facilities for the State Health Department in the hands of "all interested persons."

The resolution, calling for legislative appropriation of 62 cents per capita for public health, was passed September 22 by the State Board of Health. Current appropriations amount to 20 cents per capita.

Based on a population of 7,750,000, 62 cents per capita would yield $4,805,000 in operating funds for the money-short department, the resolution points out, providing "sufficient money to hold together the present development and an opportunity for conservative expansion."

Part of the expansion, according to Dr. Cox, would be a research laboratory.

"The way things are now, we either neglect research work, or ask our friends in other states to conduct work for us, and that is limited," the health officer said.

He said he was "only trying to build for the state a program that will give people the best and the most in public health."

Present laboratory facilities are housed in a twenty-five year old brick building on East Fifth Street, adjacent to the million dollar State Health Department building which was built in 1943.

Shelters for experimental animals occupy a large portion of laboratory space. Operating for several divisions of laboratory activity are crowded together.

The State Board of Health described identification, prevention, and economic control of disease as the "greatest essential need at the present time."

To meet the need, the Board made available $400,000 of federal hospital survey and construction funds which the Board administers, with the understanding the Legislature would contribute an equal amount toward a new laboratory research building.

"It is the considered judgment of the State Board of Health," the resolution reads, "that to request of the Legislature an appropriation of funds in the amount of $4,805,000 is without question amply justified."

Poster Winners Will Be Named

The winners of the poster contest sponsored by the Child Study Club will be revealed at the regular meeting of the club Friday, it was announced Thursday.

The club sponsored a poster contest on the Texas theme as a part of Texas Art Week. The contest was open to students of the third, fourth and fifth grades in the latter areas is ample for the acreage now growing as they have first access to water from the river or have private wells.

Randy Steffen and Harry Schaefer were selected as judges for the contest and will present the program at the Friday meeting. Prizes will be awarded to winners in each class of both schools and the grand prize winner will be selected from the class winners.

Bloodmobile Will Be here Nov. 24th To Collect Blood

Plans are nearing completion for the visit of the Bloodmobile Unit to Cisco on Monday, Nov. 24, Mrs. W. W. Wallace, chairman, announced today. Various appointments were announced Wednesday.

The local committee released an editorial that appeared in the July 14 issue of the Pittsburg (Pa.) Press regarding activities at the blood center there. The editorial follows:

"Not long ago a soldier stopped at the Red Cross Blood Center in Pittsburg and quietly gave a pint of blood and started to leave. Somebody asked him about the heavy barracks bag he was hoisting to his shoulder.

"Oh, that? Everything he owned. Shipping out again. Spent a short leave with his folks here. Just back from Korea. And, by the way, how were things going at the Blood Center?"

"Well, soldier, it's been a little slow.

"The Red Cross had hoped to get 2,625 pints in June, but wound up with 732. Of course there was a reason for this. There was quite a run early in May when a pint of blood would buy a ticket to Eddie Cantor's show here. Only 13 people, for instance, stopped by to give a pint of blood the day after the show.

"So you see, soldier, the people of Pittsburg still are behind the boys in Korea."

"It's just that the weather has been pretty hot, the sidewalks around the building have been all torn up lately and the summer vacation season is getting under way.

"By the way, how are the vacations in Korea?"

UNDERGOES SURGERY

Mrs. H. A. McCannies, local teacher, underwent a major operation Wednesday at the Scott and White hospital in Temple. Her condition was described as satisfactory following the operation. She was in Room 258, West Building, Scott and White Hospital, Temple.

Over 8,000 Vote In Tuesday Poll

Eastland County voters set a modern record for total ballots cast in last Tuesday's general election, County Clerk Virgil Love reported today, as it appeared that the number would exceed 8,000. Figures for the county were complete today except for Nimrod, a small box south of Cisco.

The returns, except for between 40 and 50 Nimrod votes, showed that the county cast 4,495 votes for General Eisenhower and 3,381 for Governor Stevenson in the presidential race. This was a total of 7,876 ballots.

Mr. Love said that the Nimrod vote plus scattered votes for other candidates and a few ballots which scratched all presidential candidates would bring the total vote to more than 8,000.

An official canvass of the returns will be made next Monday at the regular meeting of the Commissioners' Court, after which the figures will be sent by Mr. Love to the secretary of state.

Cisco cast 2,032 votes or about one-fourth of the county's total. Mr. Love said the two amendments on the ballot showed that opinion was about evenly divided in the county. Figures were not available for any phase of the election except the presidential race.

The various boxes cast presidential votes as follows:

| Box | Ike | Adlai |
|----------------|-------|-------|
| Eastland 1 | 593 | 390 |
| Eastland 2 | 480 | 229 |
| Ranger 1 | 373 | 485 |

| Long Branch | 19 | 10 |
| Okra | 21 | 37 |
| Scranton | 28 | 15 |
| Olden | 82 | 77 |
| Dothan | 16 | 13 |
| Romey | 22 | 17 |
| Pleasant Hill | 13 | 6 |

| Desdemona | 87 | 84 |
| Sabano | 12 | 17 |
| Absentee votes | 258 | 96 |
| Totals | 4,495 | 3,381 |

Mr. Love said the county's voters hadn't turned out in such large numbers since the oil boom days in 1918-20. A total of 7,250 ballots were cast last July in the first primary election.

NO. 1 HEALTH PROBLEM

Obesity is the nation's No. 1 health problem. This startling statement was made recently at the 80th annual convention of the American Public Health Association in Cleveland. The man who made this statement, and proved it with incontestable statistics, was Dr. Norman Jolliffe, director of the nutrition bureau of the N. Y. City Health Department.

Dr. Jolliffe cited figures proving that excess weight can quite literally kill you. He showed from a life insurance study of over 50,000 policy holders, that the mortality rate for overweight men and women was 1 1/2 times that of people of normal weight.

He explained that obesity is rarely listed as the cause of death, but is hidden in the figures of heart disease, high blood pressure, arteriosclerosis, cancer and diabetes. Studies have shown that overweight people are far more likely to get these diseases than are people of normal weight. Of one group studied, a 25% higher death rate from cancer was noted among men who were overweight by 15% or more. Jolliffe also states categorically that "overweight women have a 30 to 45% greater chance of developing a cancer of the uterus than those who are not fat."

The fat diabetic, Jolliffe said, has a two-edged sword threatening his life, because both the obese and the diabetic have a tendency to develop heart disease, high blood pressure and arteriosclerosis. The relationship between obesity and diabetes is strikingly shown in a study of thousands of diabetics at the Geo. F. Baker clinic. Of those who developed diabetes at the age of 40 or over, 85% had previously been overweight in some degree, and 60% markedly overweight. No diet faddist, Jolliffe has more bad news for the fatties. In his book "Reduce and Stay Reduced," he bluntly states that, except in a very few cases, people get fat because they eat too much. They eat too much because their appetat, a sort of thermostat control in the brain, goes out of whack. It is set too high, causing bulimia, an appetite for

Fall Is the Time to Start Renovating Old Pastures

Original run-down pasture on the left renovated pasture of sweet clover, alfalfa, red clover and timothy on right.

Much land in permanent pasture has become relatively unproductive, with weedy sods. Continuous close grazing, starved grass roots, depleted fertility and an acid condition are largely responsible for the low returns obtained from such pasture land.

These old pastures can be "renovated" or improved by disking or other cultivation, by introducing legumes and adapted grasses into the sod, by the use of phosphate and potash fertilizer and by lime applications if needed. Don't worry about hurting the grass by tearing up the sod, for grasses such as blue grass and bromegrass will come back quickly and better than ever.

This procedure feeds the grass roots, results in a thick, heavy sod, and largely eliminates weeds. The growth of clover provides succulent, nutritious, palatable pasturage in midsummer when bluegrass and other cool season grasses are likely to become dormant, hard and unpalatable.

Usually a good renovation job greatly increases the productivity and carrying capacity of the pastures. There are few communities in which the practicability of renovating grass pastures has not been demonstrated.

A renovation mixture widely used in the Corn Belt consists of 5 pounds of sweetclover, 3 of red clover, 2 of alsike and 1/2 pound of Ladino per acre, with 10 pounds of lespedeza also included for the more southern localities. If there is sufficient bluegrass, bromegrass or other vigorous grass remaining and properly distributed, no grass needs to be sown with the legumes.

HIGH JINKS IN WINE TIME—In Paris, a little dancer keeps in trim for the Can-Can routine she does with a company in a Montmartre cafe, as her companion displays some grapes. The fruit was picked during France's annual wine harvest from vines in the Montmartre district. They are the only vineyards in Paris.

THIS IS THE LIFE!—When actress Mitzi Gaynor went to the Beach at Santa Monica, Calif., she took her bloodhounds, Nip and Tuck, along with her. The dogs were with her when she was in her newest picture, and they had to be with her. And who would turn down a picture to be with Mitzi?

ART EXHIBIT ATTRACTS MANY IN PUTNAM CHURCH THIS WEEK

The people of Putnam and Callahan County are well aware of local talent in painting and crafts, for on Monday, November 3, an open house was held at the Methodist Church in Putnam from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m., with the members of the Woman's Study Club as hostesses.

All professional and non-professional artists of the county were invited to participate. Response came from Cross Plains, Baird, Putnam and Scranton. Eighteen artists were represented by fifty pictures, and three tables of beautiful ceramics of vases, figurines, powder boxes, and so forth.

The pictures were done in oils. The subjects varied from western to beautiful floral and fruit arrangements, an original of a copy of "Christ at the Tomb," another group of portraits done in oils, painted by the local art teacher, Mrs. Fred Tunnell of Cross Plains, were greatly admired.

An added interest was the entries of freehand drawings from the Putnam School. High School had one entry done by Ray Green. Fifth and sixth grades contributed eight drawings done in water color and crayola. "The Puritans," painted by Elsie West, won first place, and "The Thanksgiving Turkey," painted by Doris Clark, took second place. The third and fourth grades had a group of six drawings. Jim Bob Moore won first and Radolfo Mendez second place. In the first and second grades, with six drawings entered, Linda Isenhower won first place. An award was given the winner for his or her contribution.

The entire school, with the teachers, visited the exhibit during their noon hour.

Mmes. R. D. Williams and Douglas Fry served punch, cookies, nuts and hard candies from the table laid with a beautiful cut-work cloth over yellow. The centerpiece was a miniature of "The Lady and the Painter," bordered with mums.

Miss Betty Mobley, art chairman, was assisted by club members. Mrs. R. B. Taylor, president, greeted guests. Seventy-five registered from Cisco, Clyde, Moran, Cross Plains, Abilene and Putnam. There was fifty or more from the Putnam School.

The public has been invited to visit "The Art Shack," in North East Putnam, on any Tuesday to see the group at work, in preparation for next year's art exhibit for American Art Week observance, under the guidance of Mrs. Tunnell.

Friendship Class Has Meeting On Tuesday

The Friendship Class of the Church of the Nazarene met Tuesday at the church for a business meeting.

Mrs. C. M. Cleveland presided and Mrs. Andrew Orr led in the opening prayer. A committee was appointed to arrange the annual class Thanksgiving dinner. Those on the committee are Mrs. Odell Rains, Mrs. Leslie Fleming, and Mrs. Claud Wilson. Mrs. Grace Giddeon and Mrs. J. E. Hamilton were appointed to prepare the invitations and Mrs. J. R. Hill was appointed chairman of the flower committee due to the resignation of Mrs. Anable who moved recently.

It was decided to hold a business and social meeting once a month and a member of the class to serve as hostess for the meeting. Suggestions were given for visitation. Twenty-one members were reported to belong to the class.

Mrs. Keith Englehardt closed the meeting with prayer.

HEALTH TALKS

Prepared by the Texas Medical Association

"A thief in the night" is the apt phrase used to describe glaucoma, an eye disease that causes about 10 per cent of blindness. So stealthily can it rob its victim of sight that he can be unaware of its presence for a long time.

Glaucoma can strike in another way. An acute attack brings such severe pain in the eye and headache that the sufferer almost always seeks medical aid. Nausea and vomiting may be present, as may blurring of the vision and seeing colored halos around lights. The eye may look bloodshot. The amount which can be seen out of the corner of the eye may be cut to a slight or large degree and the eye or eyes feel hard to the touch. This hardness is caused by a rise of the pressure within the eyeball; it, too, may be slight or pronounced. A certain amount of pressure within the eye's contents against the inside of the eyeball is needed to give the eyeball its shape, but when this pressure rises to unhealthy levels, the sight can be destroyed.

The pressure of the eyeball and the field of vision can be measured. Often these two tests may help the doctor decide whether medical treatment is likely to be enough or whether he should operate. Medical treatment consists of eye drops to reduce the high tension of the eyeball. If drops don't control the disease, surgery aimed at bringing down the pressure within the eye is done.

The exact cause for glaucoma is unknown. It is seen more often in women than men. The disease may start of its own accord or result from another eye condition. It has been known to follow eye injuries as well as operations for cataract, which is a cloudiness of the lens of the eye. Glaucoma may occur in children, although it is most often in persons older than 40 years of age. The patient with glaucoma who stays under his doctor's care may keep his sight for many years without an operation. Surgery performed before the eyesight becomes badly damaged, however, stands a better chance of success than if done too late. Vision once lost is not often recovered; the most that can be hoped for is to keep what sight is left.

Since the "thief in the night" is no respecter of age or economic or social level, anyone who suspects he may have the disease should seek help promptly. Especially should older persons and those nearing middle age be on guard.

South Africa Studied By Nazarine Society

A lesson on South Africa was taught at the regular meeting of the Nazarene Foreign Missionary Society Tuesday at the church.

Mrs. S. L. Cook, president, presided and Floyd Raines opened the meeting with prayer. The song, "Rescue The Perishing," was sung by the group and maps of South Africa were given to those present. As Mrs. J. E. Reddrick taught the third chapter of the study book, each member filled in their maps. Mrs. Reddrick told of the missionary efforts of Moffat and Livingston and the place of the Church of the Nazarene in the picture of South Africa.

Clothing was brought by the members to be sent to the North American Indian. Mrs. Pearenea Cearley is in charge of the box work.

Twenty-four members attended the meeting.

King's Daughters Class Has Meeting

The monthly business meeting of the King's Daughters Class of the Junior Sunday School Department of the First Baptist Church was held in the home of Mrs. Bill Barnby on Friday, Oct. 31.

The meeting was called to order

The United States copyright laws give to authors, composers and artists the exclusive right to their works for a period of twenty-eight years. During that time others are prohibited from copying or reprinting such works without permission of the copyright owner. Copyrights are renewable once for a second period of twenty-eight years.

Works that may be protected under our copyright laws include books (not only bound volumes, but also pamphlets, leaflets and even single sheets); periodicals (newspapers, magazines, reviews, bulletins, proceedings of societies, serial publications, etc., which appear at regular intervals of less than a year); contributions to periodicals; lectures, sermons or addresses prepared for oral delivery; musical compositions and dramatic or dramatico-musical compositions.

Also maps; works of art; models or designs for works of art; published three dimensional works by the class president, Loretta Whitehead, and the class song was sung, accompanied at the piano by Judy Kay Slaughter.

Following the business session, the group had their memory work drills and a review of the lesson of the month. A brief social period followed conducted by the social chairman, Judy Kay Slaughter, and refreshments were served.

Those present were Loretta Whitehead, Judy Poe, Mary Wayne Huston, Judy Kay Slaughter, Linda Curry, Barbara Jenkins, Evelyn Bint, and two visitors, Joy Stephens and Frances Bryant.

Lawyers say the principal steps to be taken in securing a copyright include (1) properly marking the work with a notice of copyright, (2) publishing the work, and then (3) filing with the Register of Copyrights in Washington an application for registration of the copyright. A relatively small fee and a specified number of copies of the work must accompany the application.

It should be noted that the marking must precede publication, and that both of these steps must precede the filing of the application.

Failure to incorporate the notice of copyright before publication or to set it up in proper form or to place it in the proper place on the works will result in abandonment to the public of the claimant's rights. He will lose his copyright. Requirements vary in respect to the form of the notice, and the place on the works at which it should appear—depending on the nature of the works, whether they are published or unpublished, and other factors.

On some works it is mandatory that the notice contain the word "Copyright" or the abbreviation "Copr.," on certain other works, the letter "C" enclosed within a circle may be used instead. On some works the notice must include the year in which the work was first published.

In every notice the copyright claimant must be identified. In some cases the full name of the Claimant is required; in others the initials or monogram, or an identifying mark or symbol, is sufficient. The name or mark may be that of the creator of the work, or of one to whom the copyright has been assigned.

It's Girl Scout Week

GIRL SCOUT WEEK is being celebrated from October 26th to November 1st by thousands of Scouts and their friends across the country. Many are busy raising funds for their camps and other special activities. Some Scouts like Karin Swanson and Maryellen Weinberg of New York do this by selling salted Spanish peanuts which are vacuum canned especially for Girl Scouts. Here they are getting some ready to serve as refreshments at a party so that their friends can try them.

PAINTING THE TOWN—A street in New York looked like a rainbow after a paint truck and a trailer truck collided on the east side of Manhattan. Ladders, paint cans, brushes, overalls and other contents of the paint truck littered the avenue when the crash caused the vehicle to turn over. No one was hurt, but a lot of street cleaners were probably annoyed.

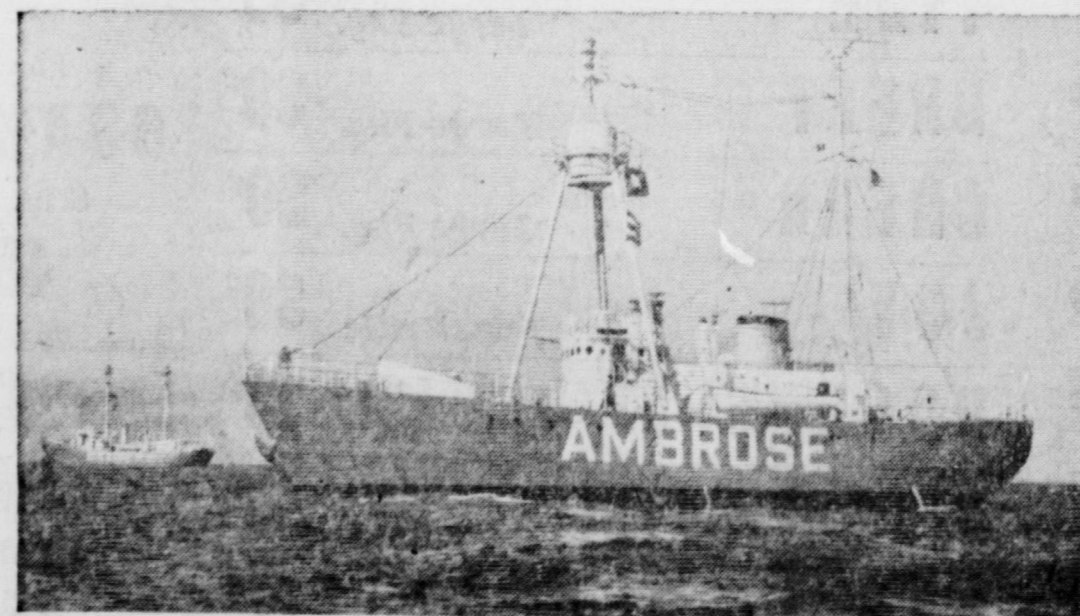

Moslah Temple's Huge Shrine Circus at Fort Worth, Nov. 21-30

DAZZLE, DARING, AND DANGER—Elephants, wild animals, clowns, spangle-sparkling girls flying through the air. For the young and the greatest indoor Circus in the World is coming to Fort Worth. Moslah Temple's gigantic Shrine Circus will be in the Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum November 21 through 30. Above at the top left is the lovely Goldi Locks and her Bears; top center are the Pounds 'n Pounds of pachyderm pulchritude that will perform; and at right top, the Great Beckett, King of the High Pendulum. At bottom left are Bundy's trained Greyhounds, and to the right, "Mr. Circus" himself, Clyde Beatty and his wild animals. In the center is the Generalissimo of the 1952 extravaganza, Chairman George I. Billingsley. These acts and countless others, many from foreign shores, will perform November 21 through 30 at the Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum in Fort Worth. Matinees will be November 22, 23, 27, 28, 29, and 30. Tickets may be obtained by writing Moslah Temple Shrine Circus, Post Office Box 1320, Fort Worth, Texas.

A TIME OF INDECISION—Five French pups are not quite sure if they have really enjoyed their first auto ride in Paris. Of course, they'll have plenty of time to make up their minds, probably in favor of more rides, but five won't always be able to crowd in.

VERY LATEST—The Ambrose, newest lightship in the U. S. Coast Guard fleet, has moved into place at the entrance of New York Bay, replacing the Relief, in background. The crew of the older ship has been transferred to the very up-to-date Ambrose.

What's the Use of an Abstract —

... if it doesn't cure the title? is another puzzling question to some abstractors, but we have never worried much about this one. Neither does the doctor's prescription cure human ills in all cases, but it may help. The abstract never was designed to cure anybody's title, but the better type of abstract will reveal the condition of the title and place it in position where it may be perfected, if necessary, by the examining attorney.

Letters

I wish to thank all of the women who joined me in working for the presidential movement. It has been both interesting and inspiring for all of us to feel that we have in some measure helped our country by electing an honest and forthright man to the presidency.

I urge all women now to put their shoulders to the wheel of peace and pull together for a peace loving and honorable nation.

Mrs. Charles Spears, President Cisco Women for Eisenhower
