The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

THE NEWSPAPERS over the country are picking all-district and all-conference football teams, and we've decided that there wouldn't be anything wrong with us picking an All-District 2A-10 team for the past season. There's nothing official about our selections and you are free to disagree on any and all candidates. We saw all of the conference teams in action, and our selection for all-district honors is as follows:

First Team

Ends — Mobley of Stephenville and Mendoza of Ranger.
Tackles — McCullough of Stephenville and Barnes of Ranger.
Guards — Justice of Ranger and McNutt of Comanche.
Center — Jackson of Stephenville.
Quarterback — Turner of Comanche.
Halfbacks — Kaufman of Stephenville and Massage of Ranger.
Fullback — Brunkenhoefer of Cisco.

Second Team

Ends — Webb of Cisco and Gorth of Comanche.
Tackles — Roberson of Stephenville and Price of Comanche.
Guards — Reynolds of Cisco and Hargraves of Ranger.
Center — Rush of Ranger.
Quarterback — Robertson of Stephenville.
Halfbacks — Hicks of Comanche and Bagwell of Ranger.
Fullback — Montgomery of Stephenville.

OVER AT THE Chamber office, they've just got in a big book from Mexico. It contains the names of all the "big men of Mexico" and their addresses. The information is written in both English and Spanish, and the book is very handsome and expensive. Manager B. A. Butler says you're welcome to drop by and look the book over.

The Chamber of Commerce library, by the way, also contains city directories of all the large cities and many of the smaller ones. And you're always welcome to look them over.

PRINCIPAL C. B. Midkiff of the West Ward School was a successful deer hunter the other day over south of Ranger. He bagged a 9-point buck that weighed over 175 pounds. . . Mr. T. C. Williams went along and didn't get a shot. . . The B. H. Grays brought home a couple of fine bucks on a recent hunting trip. . . Mr. Jere Westfall is a new hand up at McCauley's store.

IT'S CLOCK Painting time again up at the First National Bank, and Mr. Harry Schaefer is busy applying a new coat of paint to the big timepiece. . . Workmen are returning the top to Mr. Edward Lee's building. Part of it blew off in the recent windstorm. . . Glenn Furniture Company lost a window in the same storm.

STANLEY CARL WILLIAMS

Coach and Mrs. Jay Williams have announced the arrival of a son, Stanley Carl, at Graham Hospital at 10:40 p. m. Sunday. He weighed eight and a half pounds at birth and both Mrs. Williams and the baby were reported in good condition. Williams is assistant coach at Cisco High School. They have two other children.

SEVEN BASKETBALL TEAMS WIN FOUR CONTESTS TUESDAY NIGHT

Seven Cisco basketball teams did a little better than break even Tuesday night when they won four of the seven games played here and away.

The Cisco Junior College Wranglers opened their season by winning a thriller from the Tarleton State Ploowboys 58-57. The Cisco High School Lobos won over Clyde 35-31 and the Lobo "B" team downed the Clyde "B" boys 35-24. The Lobo Queens dropped their opener to the Clyde girls by a 48-22 score. The Midlets of Cisco Junior High School lost to Elmdale 19-3 and the girls "A" team lost to the Elmdale team 21-24. The Cisco Junior High School girls "B" team won over the Elmdale "B" team 12-0.

Peck Hall sank a field goal in the final two seconds of the Wrangler-Ploowboy game in Stephenville to put the Wranglers out in front 58-57. Hall made 19 points to take scoring honors for the game. Bill Young of the Tarleton team was in second place with 17 points. Tarleton led the Wranglers most of the way but there was never more than a few points difference. Coach Red Lewis played 11 boys in winning the opening game and was well pleased with the showing of the entire squad.

Playing for the Wranglers were Hall, Jim Barnett, who made 12 points, Bob Gibson, Dock Dawson, Edd Farmer, Robert Devers, L. A. Noles, Bud Miller, Burl Moses, Bill McGuire and Joe Murphy. Edd Farmer, diminutive player from Clyde, played an outstanding floor game.

Jim Webb sank six field goals and four free throws to lead the Cisco Lobos to the 35-31 victory over Clyde in the Clyde gym. Webb took scoring honors with 16 points. Pringle of Clyde was in second place with 10 points. Playing for the Lobos were Webb, C. W. Keller, Irvin Brunkenhoefer, Bob Lloyd, H. L. Youngblood, George Callerman and Don Emsley.

In the "B" game Jerry Weiser led in the scoring with 14 points to aid the Cisco team in their 35-24 victory over the Clyde team. Playing for the Cisco team were Weiser, Monte Ingram, Jim Reynolds, Fred Hayes, Bill Smith, Jim Branton, Kenneth Duke, Tommy Reynolds and Joe Wayne Farrow.

Coach P. C. Goza started Marie Borst, Bobbie Subblett, Kitty Lou Phippen, Martha Eudy, Bobbie Huffman and Loretta McKinney in the girls game. It was the opening game for the Queens and the sixth game for the Clyde team who had won their first five before tackling the Cisco team.

The Cisco Junior High School girls team showed improvement Tuesday night over their opening game a week ago. Playing for the Cisco girls were Bonnie Owens, Joyce Lancaster, Janice Clark, Treca Edwards and Janice Johnson. Donnie Owens won high point honors for Cisco with 12 points. Bonnie Owens accounted for five and Joyce Lancaster 4.

Coach Graham played every boy on the squad Tuesday night in losing to the Elmdale team 19-3. The Midlets were off on their shooting but the defense showed improvement.

Following the regular games at the new junior high school gym the Cisco substitute girls and the Elmdale girl subs played a short game with the local girls shutting out the visitors 12-0.

The Cisco Lobos open at home Friday night when the Eastland Mavericks come to community gym. The "B" teams of the two schools meet at 6 p. m. and the girls play at 7 p. m. The Lobos and the Mavericks square away at 8 p. m.

The CJC Wranglers open at home Saturday night when they meet the strong Howard County Junior College from Big Spring. The "A" and "B" teams of the two schools will play, with the "B" team game starting at 7 p. m. Tickets for the games were placed on sale Wednesday with prices set at 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students. Grade and junior high school students will be admitted free when accompanied by an adult.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ziehr, who live six miles south of Cisco on the Rising Star highway, lost their home and most of their possessions in a fire which completely destroyed the dwelling at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday.

Mrs. Ziehr was slightly injured while moving a trunk from the burning structure. The trunk and contents were all that was saved of the family household goods. Their clothing and all the furniture were lost.

In addition to the loss of their home and clothing and furniture, Mr. and Mrs. Ziehr lost some $400 in cash which represented their savings.

The truck of the Cisco Rural Fire Department answered the alarm but the house was almost burned to the ground when the alarm came in.

BOB LATSON ELECTED PRESIDENT OF NEW CISCO BOOSTERS CLUB

The Cisco Boosters Club, an organization designed to build a better athletic program for all Cisco schools, including the grade schools, the junior high school, the high school and Cisco Junior College came into being Tuesday night at a meeting of fans at the Cisco Junior College auditorium.

Bob Latson, local builder and former Cisco High School football player, was elected the organization's first president. Latson was elected by acclamation. Chesley Tipton, another former Lobo, was named as vice-president and D. N. Morrison was selected as secretary-treasurer.

Elected to the board of directors of the new club were J. L. Stafford, J. C. Fletcher, John Webb, Dr. J. H. Denton, Smitty Huestis and Elsworth Mayer. Stafford, Webb and Denton were elected for one year terms and Fletcher, Huestis and Mayer were named for two years.

The committee named at a meeting last week made recommendations for the organization of the club. The committee met with Eastland, Ranger and Coleman Quarterback Clubs to discuss the organization of the Cisco club.

Recommendations were that the club be formed as a morale builder for fans as well as school athletes; to educate the public on athletic affairs by regular meetings with coaches and reports to fans; to help in the securing of proper equipment, transportation, movie film; to hold weekly meetings during the athletic season and to set the dues at $2 per year.

The committee recommended that no financial aid be given individuals; that no person connected with the school system hold office in the club and that the club work as a separate organization and not combine, but to work with any existing club. Other recommendations had to do with the official family of the club.

The committee praised the present school system and recommended that a constitution be drawn up by the new officers for presentation to the club. It was decided to meet each Monday night, with a meeting place to be located this week.

Some 45 fans were at the meeting Tuesday night.

Rates Raised For Big Water Users

A cost of living raise in salaries was approved for city employees Tuesday night at a meeting of the City Commission, Mayor G. C. Rosenthal reported today. The pay raise amounted to about eight per cent for all employees and will become effective as of December 1.

Mr. Rosenthal estimated that the salary raises would cost the city about $5,000 per year. This was the first boost in pay that city workers have received in more than two years, Mr. Rosenthal said.

The pay raise was made possible by savings in other items of the new budget, Mr. Rosenthal said. The 1952-53 budget anticipates income of $228,675 from all sources. Expenditures in the amount of $227,916 are provided for in the budget.

As a conservation measure, the Commission passed an ordinance raising residential water rates for those who use large amounts of water. The new rate, which becomes effective January 1, 1953 will not affect those who use 7,000 gallons or less.

The new rate leaves the minimum charge at $2 for the first 3,000 gallons and 30 cents per 1,000 for the next 4,000 gallons. Those who use in excess of 7,000 gallons will pay 60 cents per 1,000 for the next 8,000 gallons and $1 per 1,000 for all water used in excess of 15,000 gallons.

Mr. Rosenthal noted that "we are taking this action with the hope that all residential water users will conserve water." He added that the action would be effective as long as the supply is low at Lake Cisco. The rates will be restored to normal when the supply is normal again, he said.

The city has not rationed water during the past, but a rationing program may have to be worked out next year unless the lake supply situation improves this winter, Mr. Rosenthal said.

Water rate adjustments were approved for the Cisco Housing Authority apartments. Water rates for the school system were left at the minimum rate for the first 400,000 gallons used each month, but the rate will be doubled on water used in excess of 400,000 gallons, it was decided. The 400,000 gallons would allow the schools to use 20 gallons per day per student — the national average.

"The water rate increases as worked out by the commission will not effect anyone or any organization that practices conservation," Mr. Rosenthal said. "Our action in this respect has been taken with the hope of saving water — not increasing revenue. It is our sincere hope that everyone will recognize our purpose and cooperate in conserving the water supply."

The commission decided to hold its December meetings on the 2nd and 16th instead of the second and fourth Tuesday nights due to the Christmas season. All members of the commission were present.

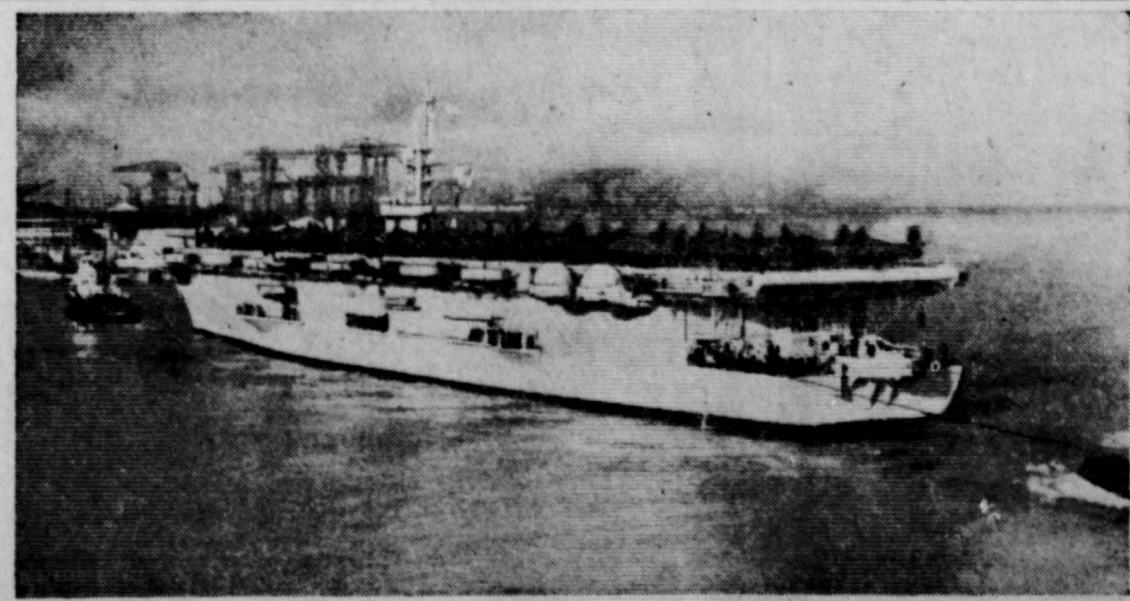

Hunting Data Now Required By State

RHUNTING DATA
AUSTIN, Dec. 3.—The chief clerk of the Game and Fish Commission urged persons taking out shooting preserve licenses to maintain and later forward an accurate record of the big game harvest.

Persons or corporations selling hunting leases are required by law to obtain a shooting license which costs $5. More than four thousand of these permits are issued each fall.

The preserve record books, supplied by the Commission, provide space for the name and address of the persons hunting, the number of days each spent hunting and the quantity of game each person takes.

These records, by law, are required to be forwarded to the game commission not later than February 10.

A VISIT TO THE WHITE HOUSE

Just 20 years ago President Hoover invited President-elect Roosevelt to the White House to discuss some of the problems involved in changing Administrations at a time when the country was sunk in a great depression. Mr. Roosevelt paid the visit. However, according to Mr. Hoover's subsequent account, little benefit came of it, for the reason that the President-elect was completely non-cooperative.

Twenty years later this highly unusual event was repeated—with some very great differences. This time the talk between President Truman and President-elect Eisenhower dealt entirely with international relations and the hot and cold wars. Its primary purpose was to acquaint General Eisenhower with highly secret information—most of which, Washington sources say, is of a very grim nature. Mr. Truman, according to reports, remarked that he did not want a new President to come into the vast responsibilities of office in a time of world crisis as unprepared as he was when Mr. Roosevelt died. As Vice-president, Mr. Truman was never close to his predecessor and was kept almost completely in the dark about matters of the highest importance.

News reports said that there was no sign of personal geniality between the President and the President-elect when they met—no doubt the charges and counter-charges made during the campaign have left much bitterness on each side. There was, however, an attitude of sober purposefulness. At the end of the meeting they issued a joint statement which emphasized the fact that General Eisenhower has not been asked to assume any of the responsibilities of the Presidency until he takes the oath of office, and that he could not under the Constitution, which provides that the President must exercise his functions until the very end of his term. But arrangements were made, the statement continued, for cooperation between the present and incoming administrations that "will be of great value to the stability of our country and to the favorable progress of international affairs."

It is unlikely that the details of these arrangements and of the Truman-Eisenhower conference will be made public until the passage of time dissipates the need for secrecy. But it is a safe bet that the talk ranged the whole world. Korea, China, Europe, Indo-China—all are trouble spots, all affect our foreign policy, all have an influence on our own economic situation to a greater or lesser extent. The policy we should pursue within the United Nations must also have been argued. And the President-elect was doubtless given the latest word on A-bomb and H-bomb development.

At the moment, the greatest interest hinges on General Eisenhower's trip to the Korean battlefield. This, it is believed, will produce certain much-desired results. It will give him, with his military knowledge and background, a better understanding of the tactical and strategic situation than he could obtain from reports and the accounts of other men. It will give troop morale a lift to know that the next President is vitally interested in them and their future, and that Korea is not a "forgotten war." But everyone agrees that it will be most unfortunate if too much is expected—if we look for Eisenhower to produce a miracle. No man more passionately desires to end that stalemated conflict. But, world communism's attitude and position being what it is, staggeringly difficult problems stand in the way.

Koreans Need CARE Gifts To Survive Hunger, Cold

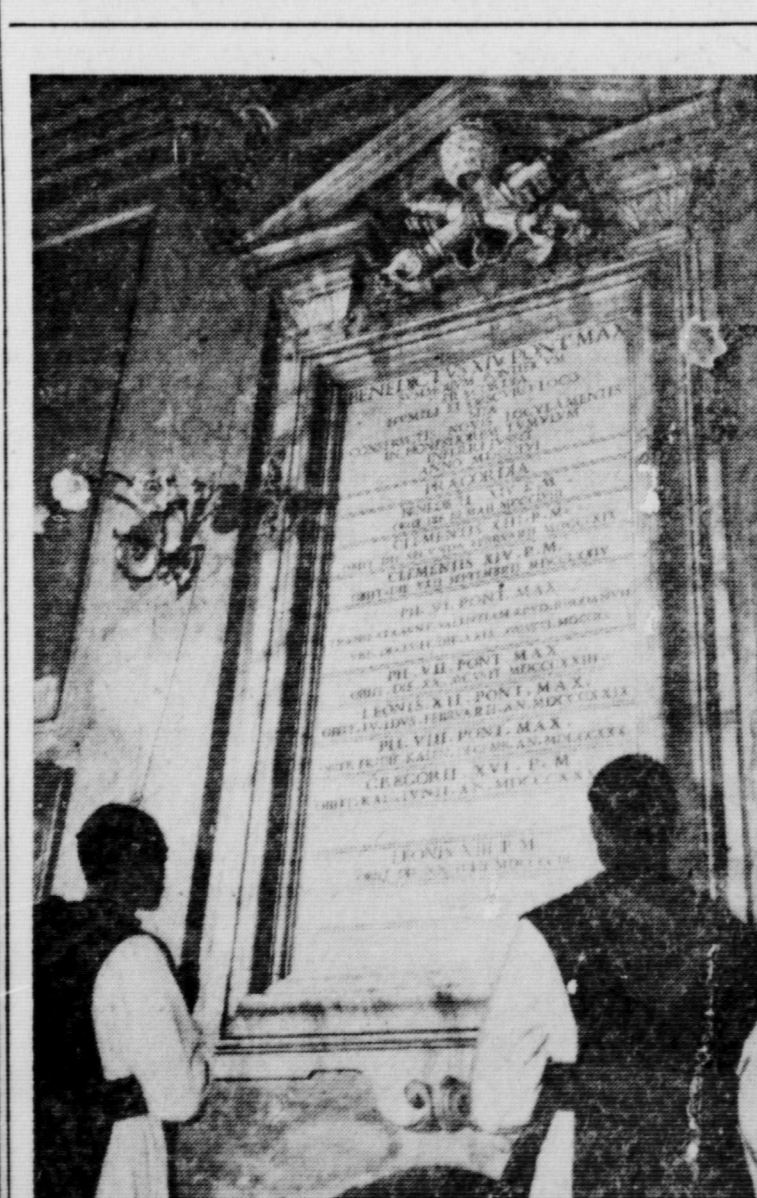

NEW YORK—The third winter of war means increased suffering for the South Korean people, Paul Comly French, executive director of CARE, reminded Americans in an appeal to continue their relief aid. About 10,400,000 persons, half the total population, are in dire need of food, warm clothing and blankets, according to reports from Dr. Charles R. Joy, CARE mission chief in Korea, Mr. French said. Relief packages provided through donations to CARE-for-KOREA, 20 Broad St., New York 5, N.Y., or any local office of the non-profit agency, are direct assurances of these lifesaving supplies, he pointed out.

Homeless War Orphan in Pusan

"Cities like Pusan and Seoul are swollen with refugees, who live in flimsy straw huts," Mr. French stated. "Orphaned children, clad in rags, roam the streets begging for food. Throughout the fall, families in rural areas were eating weeds and grass—but frozen fields do not yield even that surcease from hunger. "Starvation and cold must be fought as relentlessly as armed aggression, or the defense of freedom is meaningless. On behalf of Korea's suffering humanity, we must ask Americans to keep sending CARE."

CARE packages for Korea include: Food, underwear, knitting wool, cotton clothing fabrics, $10 each; blankets, $7 each; special food, $5. Distribution is made to orphanages, refugee settlements and relief centers, in cooperation with United Nations Civil Assistance Command.

HEARTS OF 22 PONTIFFS—The marble plaque in the 15th Century church of St. Vincent and St. Anastasio in Rome contains the hearts of 22 Roman Catholic Pontiffs. Ever since Pope Sixtus V asked that his heart be placed there on his death, other Pontiffs followed suit. The custom began in 1590, but was discontinued in 1903. The bodies are buried in St. Peter's Basilica.

What's the Use of an Abstract —

... if it doesn't cure the title? is another puzzling question to some abstractors, but we have never worried much about this one. Neither does the doctor's prescription cure human ills in all cases, but it may help. The abstract never was designed to cure anybody's title, but the better type of abstract will reveal the condition of the title and place it in position where it may be perfected, if necessary, by the examining attorney.

OPENS AT PALACE THURSDAY

JOHN WAYNE and RALPH HONDA listen to radio reports in this scene from Warner Bros' 'BIG JIM McLAIN.'

OPERA IN KOREA—Kim Baik Hi, a Korean opera singer, left, is getting herself made up for an appearance on-stage at one of the 12 rebuilt theaters operating in Seoul. Military personnel, who comprise most of the audience, pay half price for their seats at the theaters, where Eastern operettas and vaudeville are performed. A male singer, right, is shown with Miss Kim.

MONKEY BUSINESS IN KOREA is transacted by Army Private Abraham Hancock, of Pelham, Ga., right, and friend. Hancock's simian side-kick takes a long pull on a cool drink during a pause from his duties as mascot for Third Infantry Division tankers. Not one to throw a monkey wrench in friendly machinery, the monkey expert at "gorilla" fighting—now feels quite at home in the mechanized Army unit.

'YOU'RE NOT TAKING ME FOR A RIDE' seems to be the attitude of this reluctant mule intent on keeping all four feet on terra firma as soldiers strain to get him aboard the Army's new helicopter near Philadelphia. Dubbed the "Army Mule," the H-25A Piasecki helicopter is one of the latest additions to the Army's growing fleet of versatile "whirly-birds"—or is this one a "whirly-mule"?

HEALTH TALKS

Prepared by the Texas Medical Association

"Acute otitis media" sounds fearful, and indeed it is to be feared if neglected.

The disease sometimes called ear abscess, is an infection of the middle ear; "acute" indicates that Eustis is severe and lasts a fairly short time. In the majority of cases the germs that cause the trouble enter through the Eustachian tube, which runs from the throat to the middle ear and which also may be inflamed and stopped up.

The first sign of acute otitis media usually is pain in and around the ear; it may come on suddenly or follow a feeling of pressure and fullness in the ear. It usually disappears after the drum tears or is lanced, after which a bloody, pus-like discharge flows into the ear canal. There may be fever, either low or high depending on how severe the infection is, also deafness with or without ringing in the ears. Other symptoms may be headache, "feeling bad all over," loss of appetite, pain in the back and limbs, vomiting, constipation, or convulsions.

The length of the time required for a patient with acute otitis media to get well is influenced by the poisonousness of germs causing the infection, the patient's resistance, and the effectiveness of treatment. Even fairly bad cases may heal in four weeks, and symptoms lasting longer usually mean that some kind of complication has set in. Complications of otitis media, such as mastoid infection, meningitis, and brain abscess, have been reduced to a very low number by use of the many new medicines available; however, they still are seen occasionally. While the patient is receiving drugs to fight the infection in the middle ear, he also must receive general treatment, such as rest in bed while the fever lasts and drugs to relieve pain if necessary.

Another kind of infection of the middle ear is called "chronic catarrhal otitis media." It is not as severe as the acute kind, but it hangs on longer (possibly for years without serious symptoms) and usually involves both ears. Deafness may be present, but not very often does it become complete. There may be a feeling of fullness, ringing in the ears, and dizziness.

Treatment will depend upon what is causing the infection and the changes which have occurred in the parts of the ear that conduct sound, like the ear drum and the bones of the middle ear (especially the last, the "stirrup," that fits into the opening of the inner ear). Removal of diseased tonsils or adenoids, treatment of an allergy, or reopening a stopped-up Eustachian tube may be needed.

HEARTS OF 22 PONTIFFS—The marble plaque in the 15th Century church of St. Vincent and St. Anastasio in Rome contains the hearts of 22 Roman Catholic Pontiffs. Ever since Pope Sixtus V asked that his heart be placed there on his death, other Pontiffs followed suit. The custom began in 1590, but was discontinued in 1903. The bodies are buried in St. Peter's Basilica.
