

The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

IN OUR SIX years at the Press, we've attended a lot of meetings in Cisco. But the most enthusiastic civic meeting we've attended during those six years occurred at 7:30 p. m. Thursday at the Cisco Junior College cafeteria.

The room was so crowded that we couldn't count the people, but there must have been more than 200 in attendance. The crowd consisted largely of business men and women — property owners — who are interested in their community.

Judging from the enthusiasm of the meeting, we are confident that Cisco Junior College will be rebuilt and that it will be bigger and better than ever before. The threat of losing the school has shown us all its worth to the community.

You'll find a complete report on the meeting elsewhere in today's edition of The Press.

ALL THIS TALK about income taxes being cut enough to turn new money loose to help business is just so much talk, if your figures are correct.

If, for example, you make $50 a week and your withholding tax amounted to $4 you now pay 10% less or $3.60. But the social security bite out of your pay check has gone up from 1 1/2% to 2% — from 75c to $1.

Get on an adding machine and check these figures closely, but we don't believe you will find more than 15 cents extra in your pay envelope when the taxes are all run and the deducts are made.

Maybe there's something wrong with us, but we sometimes get to day dreaming and remembering. There was a time about 15 or 16 years ago when, if your salary was $25 per week, you got a check for $25 per week. As Mr. Bob Mancill would say, them were the days.

THE CONDITION of Mr. C. E. Whitaker, the Gallagher Clay Products Company manager, is excellent after a very serious operation, Mr. Jack Anderson reports. Mr. Anderson is just back from Houston where he went to be with the Whitakers during the operation.

Mr. Anderson reports that the operation was to correct troubles with a main blood artery. The Methodist Hospital at Houston has on its staff one of three doctors in the nation who are qualified and have the equipment to perform this type of operation, we're told.

Mr. Whitaker is expected to be in the hospital through next week. Mrs. Whitaker remained in Houston.

MRS. J. A. BATES, county March of Dimes chairman, was here yesterday to complete plans for the drive to be held in our town. She reports that everybody in the county has been mailed a special envelope in which they may make their march of dimes donation.

The envelopes are to be dropped in the mail to Mrs. Bates. Be sure to sign your name on the flap of the envelopes, Mrs. Bates says, for she wants to credit contributions that come in through the mail to the community from which they originate.

The March of Dimes is the polio campaign. The national organization provides funds for research as well as for help in any community where polio strikes. Be on the look-out for the letters and for announcements concerning the local phase of the drive.

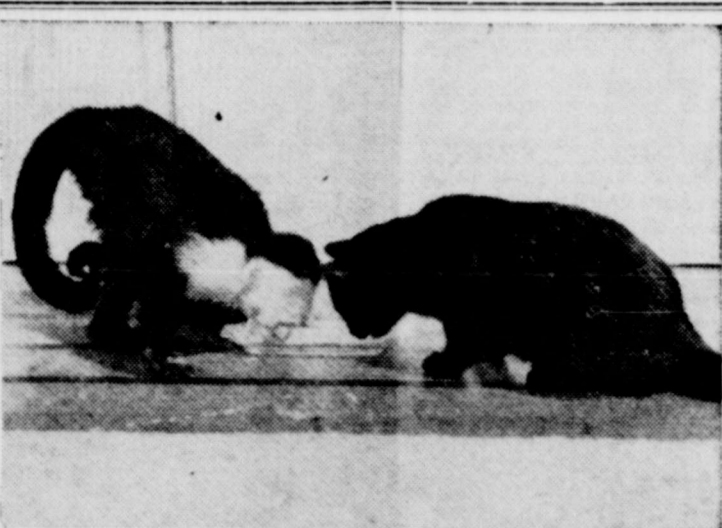

Mrs. Bates says that they mailed the letters from a list of auto owners — people who registered cars at the county tax office this year. If you registered more than one car, you'll get more than one letter.

THE LADIES of the WSCS of the First Methodist Church want to express their appreciation to Mr. W. E. (Dizzy) Dean and the Sunset Motor Lines for hauling the clothing they collected recently for Korean war victims. Sunset took the clothes — 220 pounds — to the west coast for shipment to Korea. And it was all for free.

Mrs. S. H. McCandies and others of the WSCS have expressed their thanks to Mr. Dean and to others who made their drive very successful.

Playing for Cisco were Lee Cheves, Joe Farrow, Kenneth Duke, Harold Pippen, LaVere Adams, Fred Hayes, Jerry Weiser, Lisenbee, Benji Lipsey and Johnny Trigg.

Wrangler Cagers Meet H-SU Team At Gym Tonight

The Cisco Junior College Wranglers will play the Hardin-Simmons freshman basketball team at the community gym tonight, it was announced by Coach Red Lewis. Game time has been set at 8 p. m.

The Wranglers opened the current season against the Abilene team in Abilene on December 3 and dropped the contest 70-56. The Hardin-Simmons team is one of the finest freshman aggregations in the history of the school, it was reported.

Coach Lewis said that he would probably start Joe Murphy, Bud Miller, Burnell Stephens, Ed Farmer and Bob Lynch in the game tonight. They have been working hard this week on defense against the high scoring Buttons.

Railroad Film Is Shown Rotarians

A 20 minute film on railroad research was shown to Rotarians at their weekly meeting at the Hotel Victor Thursday.

Rotarian R. J. Stevenson was in charge of the program. The film, shown through courtesy of the Association of American Railroads, told the story of the development of the railroad and of the research that was being done to improve service, comfort and safety on all lines.

The film was in color and gave a graphic description of the industry. Rotarian B. A. Butler was at the projector.

Visitors at the meeting were Rotarians John Cornell of Mineral Wells, Earl Stephens of Eastland, C. B. Newby of Breckenridge and Bob Gilchrist, R. O. Travis and Frank Pruitt of Abilene.

Other visitors were W. H. Bragg of Cisco and Com. Jim Whittington of Eastland. Com. Whittington, former Eastland specialist, is with the United States Navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fee of Colorado City are visiting in the home of Mrs. Alex Spears and other relatives.

Schools Asked To Sponsor Classes In Conservation

AUSTIN, Jan. 15. — Plans designed to expand the conservation education movement nationally and to intensify instruction efforts locally are being discussed at a conference in Chicago attended by the Director of Conservation Education and Publications of the Texas Game and Fish Commission.

He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Conservation Education Association which comprises leaders of all levels both in state, federal and private agencies.

The Director said one of the key objectives of the Association is to find ways and means of interesting all the schools in teaching basic facts about conserving natural resources.

He said one of the major topics of the Chicago conference is the progress in specific areas such as Texas where the number of schools teaching conservation education has been multiplied several times within the last few years.

"Our primary purpose," he said, "is to provide direction and leadership to how to give this vital movement the high priority that it deserves."

Scranton Cagers To Play Tonight

The Scranton High School boys and girls basketball teams will play teams from Desdemona in games beginning at 7 p. m. Friday at the Scranton School gym, it was announced here.

The Scranton boys team won their 19th and 20th games of the season recently by defeating Gorman, 60-37, and Olden, 56-37. The last two victories were district 17-B games.

Citizens Pass Resolution Of Support For College Building

MIDGET BASKETBALL TEAMS WIN OPENING CONFERENCE CONTESTS

The Cisco Junior High School Midgets staged a rally in the final minutes of their game in De Leon Thursday night to win their opening conference basketball game 29-28 and to remain undefeated for the season. The Cisco junior high girls won their conference opener from the De Leon girls by a narrow 18-16 margin.

The Midgets were trailing by 10 points with less than four minutes to play when they staged the rally that put them ahead as the final whistle sounded. Johnny Choate tossed in the winning point with a free throw with two seconds remaining in the game.

Choate led his team in scoring with seven points. Charles Lavery, Dal Elder and Milton King made six each and Tuffy Carlile made the remaining four. Dickie Bennie went in the game in the final minutes when Carlile fouled out.

In the rally that gave the Midgets the game they sank five long shots in succession to knot the count. Nash of De Leon accounted for nine of his team's points and was high scorer for the game.

The Cisco high girls led all the way in their game with De Leon's girls. Lorelei Lipsey was high for Cisco with 10 points. Jan Lattson made three and Linda Lucas five. Other players were Hughes, Sumore, Keller, Plumlee and Bassett.

Hulsey of De Leon made 12 points for scoring honors.

The wins Thursday night kept the slate clean for both teams. In pre-season contests the Midgets and the Cisco girls had defeated Rising Star twice. The boys had won by scores of 34-1, and 35-14. The girls had won by

Big Crowd Attends Meeting Thursday

More than 200 Cisco school patrons and taxpayers passed a resolution "to support the board of trustees 100% in action necessary to rebuild Cisco Junior College" at a mass meeting Thursday night at the college cafeteria.

The unanimous vote for the resolution, which was offered by F. E. Shepard, came after a number of citizens had made short talks to urge the rebuilding of the main building that was destroyed by fire last week.

Luncheon Club Aids March Of Dimes Campaign

A total of $28.35 for the Moran March of Dimes campaign was raised at the Moran Luncheon Club meeting held Wednesday.

The amount came from a part of the proceeds from the luncheon and from a collection taken at the meeting.

Mrs. Ezra Weir and Mrs. Ben Waters served a fried chicken dinner at the meeting.

A March of Dimes benefit will be held at the Moran gym Monday at 7 p. m. There will be no admission charge made but a free will offering will be taken for the drive. A novelty program is in store for those attending. The quota for Moran has been set at $100, it was announced.

Briggs Todd, president of the First State Bank in Abilene, will be the speaker at the meeting of the Luncheon Club at noon Wednesday, January 20.

Kamon Leaves For Australian Trip

Robert Kamon, local oil man and geologist, left Wednesday for Australia where he will spend some time in the interest of holdings he has there.

He left from Greater Fort Worth International Airport for California where he was to board a plane for the trip across the Pacific. He was accompanied on the trip by Gene Goff of Tulsa, president of Lucky Strike Drilling Company, who is also interested in the Australia project. They will stop in Hawaii for two days en route to Brisbane where they will set up headquarters for their operations.

Kamon received leases on some three million acres of land in Australia while he was there in 1953. Upon returning to America he organized Lucky Strike Drilling Company for the purpose of exploring the possibilities. He sold part of the leases and drilling company to Mr. Goff and others, but retained a portion of the interests. He is secretary and chief geologist for the company.

Nell Carmichael Will Open Cafe

Nell Carmichael of Cisco has announced that she will open the Twin Oaks Cafe at 4 p. m. Saturday (tomorrow) and that free coffee will be served until closing time Saturday.

Miss Carmichael said that the cafe would specialize in Mexican foods, including tacos, tamales, enchiladas and chili. She also plans to specialize in pit barbecue as soon as repairs can be made on the pit.

Home made pies and coffee will be served at all times. Twin Oaks, located on East Highway 80, at the edge of Cisco, has been closed for some time. Miss Carmichael invited all her friends to visit her at her new location.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Parrish of Enterprise, Ala., have announced the birth of a daughter, Alice Elizabeth, on January 4, 1954. Mr. and Mrs. David Parrish and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bailey of Moran are the grandparents.

More than 200 Cisco school patrons and taxpayers passed a resolution "to support the board of trustees 100% in action necessary to rebuild Cisco Junior College" at a mass meeting Thursday night at the college cafeteria.

The unanimous vote for the resolution, which was offered by F. E. Shepard, came after a number of citizens had made short talks to urge the rebuilding of the main building that was destroyed by fire last week.

After the meeting, many of those present signed petitions to be presented to the board of trustees, asking that an election be called to vote a maintenance tax of 50 cents per $100 valuation on all of the Cisco Independent School District. Action on the petitions was expected in the near future.

President Ralph Glenn of the school board presided over the meeting. Following an opening prayer by the Rev. Leslie Seymour, Mr. Glenn spoke briefly to express the trustees' appreciation to "the faculty, students and the public for carrying on after the fire."

Mr. Glenn expressed the opinion that a new building can be erected without a bond issue. He said the school board wants the assurance of the public that they want a junior college. He added that a maintenance tax would have to be approved before a new building can be erected.

A new main building would cause the student population of the college to be doubled within a few years, Mr. Glenn predicted.

President O. L. Stamey expressed the appreciation of the faculty for the help of the public since the fire. The loss of the building can't be measured in dollars and cents, he added.

P. E. T. Peters told the meeting that he began his Eastland County teaching career in 1897 at Eastland. Later he taught at Ranger and then joined the faculty of Britain Training School in Cisco. He then went to Scranton as president of the Academy there. He remained in the teaching profession until after 1918, "and I am convinced that you cannot overlook any educational opportunities," he said.

Secretary Clyde Karkalits of the school board, answering questions asked by Mr. Peters, said the Cisco Junior College has a faculty of 17 persons with an annual payroll of $51,542. Other expenses amount to more than $46,000 per year.

The school will have an income from all sources this school year of $65,821 — as compared with expenses of over $97,000. Tax funds now available to the college amount to about $8,500 per year. This would be increased to about $32,000 with the approval of the 50 cent tax rate for the district. An election on the proposition failed last May.

Mr. Karkalits pointed out that the school has a total enrollment of 210 students at this time.

Mayor G. C. Rosenthal spoke briefly to say "if a tax increase is needed, let's vote it. The junior college is as important to us as a large industry."

Dr. Paul Woods reiterated the thought expressed by Mayor Rosenthal, adding "an additional tax to support the junior college would be a good investment from every standpoint."

In answer to questions, Mr. Stamey said that school officials have the assurance of state education leaders that existing junior colleges would never be closed. Junior colleges now receive state aid on the basis of the number of students they enroll.

Dr. H. M. Ward, pastor of the First Baptist Church, described the junior college as "exceedingly valuable to the community, and it will be a sad day for Cisco if the school is not rebuilt. The college has a spiritual and religious value that is worth much."

L. A. Warren, former member of the school board and an oil operator, said "money couldn't buy the value the college has been to the hundreds of students who have attended classes there."

A YEAR OF OPPORTUNITY

WASHINGTON — The new year will be a good year for business with great opportunities to build new markets, according to the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

True, defense spending will continue to decline as it has since the end of the Korean war, but tax reductions and tax eliminations will pump new money into business. Taxes on personal income dropped an average of 10 per cent on December 31, and the so-called excess profits tax expired. During the year beginning next July, tax changes will add about $7.5 billion to the nation's buying power.

That means business opportunities.

nities. Opportunities to make better products, and new products with plenty of sales appeal. These new products will create new markets, jobs and income.

Another opportunity for increasing business next year is the household fix-up market, for King Customer is ready to spend a lot of money on his castle. The fix-up market, now around $6.6 billion annually, can be pushed up 30 to 50 per cent, according to estimates in the construction industry. A University of Michigan survey shows that interest in the home repair is growing steadily in comparison with interest in spending for other important items.

The President's Advisory Committee on Government Housing Policies and Programs recognized the importance of the fix-up market. It proposed several methods of easing credit for household repairs, in a recent report to President Eisenhower.

Of course the opportunities for new markets do not mean that present markets are exhausted. Auto makers say there are 12 million pre-war cars still on the highways, and 17 million families who do not own even an old car. Only a little better than half of the American families own television sets.

There is a backlog of needed public works, not make-work projects, but projects such as new schools and new and improved streets and highways. At the recent National Conference on Highway Financing, sponsored by the Chamber, several speakers pointed out that we need between $40 billion and $50 billion to put our streets and highways in shape.

All of these factors, the Chamber is convinced, mean that 1954 will be a year of opportunity. Business men can be expected to bring out new, useful products at reasonable prices, and to bring these products to the attention of buyers through advertising and all the other methods of marketing that are available.

during the 14 years the school has been in operation." Mr. Warren recalled that he was a member of the school board when the property was acquired during the depression days for $3,500.

"The best day's work we can do would be to vote a tax to maintain the college and rebuild the main building," Mr. Warren concluded.

G. R. (Pete) Nance, another former school trustee, expressed the opinion that last May's tax election failed because "too few of us got out and worked for the proposition." He suggested that the value of the school to the community might well be measured by the fact that it will bring about higher educational levels and more earning power.

Dr. E. E. Addy, Jr., asked whether closer relations between the high school and junior college would be desirable with a building that could serve both schools. He added that he was in favor of rebuilding the college.

Supt Arlin Bint of the high school, commenting on Dr. Addy's question, said that a good many experiments over the state in combining high schools and junior colleges left the conclusion that it was not advisable. He added that "I'm 100% for Cisco Junior College." He pointed out that "you get fine training in junior colleges — a type that you can't get elsewhere."

Gene Abbott, manager of Cisco Gas Corporation, and others volunteered in short talks to work in any manner assigned to help obtain the approval of all taxpayers in supporting the school with more tax dollars.

After the vote on Mr. Shepard's resolution, picture slides of the fire were shown by Jack Chambliss, a member of the college faculty. Mr. Glenn and other trustees present expressed their appreciation for the large turnout and for the expressions of support.

Lutheran School Club Has Monthly Meeting

The monthly meeting of Grace Lutheran School Club was held Thursday evening at the school with Mrs. Ernest Reich and Mrs. Johnny Gerhardt serving as hostesses.

The meeting opened with prayer by Paul Knauft, teacher, and Mrs. Ernest Reich presided over the business session. Minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Charles Spears, and approved. Mr. Knauft gave a report on the Christmas party held at the bank and on the merry-go-round installed recently on the school ground.

The group voted to have a free offering to pay for the merry-go-round with the surplus, if any, going into the treasury. Suggestions were made for a field trip for the children to be taken in the spring and a committee appointed to work on it. An offering was taken to purchase two trees to be planted on the school ground on Arbor Day. Mrs. Charles Spears, Mrs. Dorothy Prange, and Mrs. O. J. Weiser volunteered to serve at the next meeting.

The second program in a series of programs on Social Development in Children was given under the direction of Mrs. R. H. Cutting, program chairman. The program was in the form of a panel discussion led by Mrs. Cutting and Mrs. Charles Spears. The topics discussed were: Is the child socially immature, exhibiting unsocial tendencies, such as sportsmanship, selfishness, and domineeringness? Does the child show cruelty, teasing, or obnoxious tactics? and Is the child obedient?

The panel discussed the possible causes and the guidance measures stressing the commandments: Love Thy Neighbor As Thyself, Fear and Love God, and We May Not Hurt Our Neighbor, and Honor Thy Father and Thy Mother. The meeting closed with the Lord's prayer in unison.

Refreshments of cookies and coffee were served to Mrs. Ernest Reich, Mrs. Charles Spears, Mrs. R. H. Cutting, Mrs. Dorothy Prange, Mr. and Mrs. Park Plambeck, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Weiser, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weiser, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Gerhardt, Ed Wende, and Paul Knauft.

Speakers To Tell How To Obtain Industry Payrolls

ABILENE, Jan. 15. — Nine speakers will tell West Texas community leaders what to do about getting more industrial payrolls during a one-day industrial conference here on January 28.

After the first announcement of the conference program, officials of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, sponsoring the event, have begun to revise upward initial estimates of the number expected to attend.

"We're getting reports of delegations of from five to fifteen persons per town who plan to attend," the WTCC's industrial committee chairman, E. L. Buelow of San Angelo, said.

Local chambers of commerce throughout the 132-county West Texas region have been asked to notify members of their industrial committees of the conference.

Frank Cantrell, managing director of the Arkansas State Chamber of Commerce, will tell the group of techniques used in the nationally famous "Arkansas plan" for attracting industry.

Other addresses will be heard on making a community inventory, what industry expects of a community, transportation, labor, markets, industrial financing, and organizing action committees.

Opening address is to be "Industrial Development in West Texas — A Challenge," by Fred H. Husbands, executive vice-president and general manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

JAMA SESSION—S/Sgt. Harold O. Brown, left, and A/2C Robert R. Colson, both of Dayton, O., present man-size pajamas to a smiling orphan girl in Korea.
