The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

VISITOR IN Cisco Tuesday noon was Congressman Omar Benson. He reports that he's enjoying his stay in Texas and is spending his time visiting over the district and at his home in California. Unless there is a call on, the Congress won't go to work until next year. Mrs. Benson accompanied her husband to Cisco.

FORGOT TO report that all the hats and goblins of the community were at the West Ward pool last Saturday night for the annual P-TA Carnival. Underneath they made something like profits from the event. They had everything to offer in way of entertainment, including Shetland ponies to ride, legal ghosts, motion pictures, other fine side shows. They had popcorn, cotton candy, hot pie and other good things and everybody had a good time.

BY THE papers that Miss Peggy Cluck, daughter of the late Clucks of Cisco, who is now living on her master's degree, accepted a graduate assistantship at SMU, Dallas. She graduated last June with a BA degree, earning an "A" average for her three years of college. While at SMU, she was awarded $500 scholarships. The assistantship will allot her $700 or more in scholarship money. She is valedictorian of her 1950 S graduating class. The story added: "Upon graduating from college she was named one of the two most outstanding seniors, and she was the graduate in the music department, judged on the basis of her des, attitude and participation school activities."

NOTE FROM Mrs. R. B. James of 1805 Avenue D reports: know a lot of people are wondering about our little girl, Alura. Alura can't personally get in touch with all, so will you please print brief message for us. She is doing just fine. You couldn't ask for better doctors and nurses. I don't know when we will be home, but I think it will be sooner than expected. Alura is getting on so well. Thanks. As you know, Alura is a victim of a mild attack of polio and is at the Hendricks Memorial Hospital at Abilene.

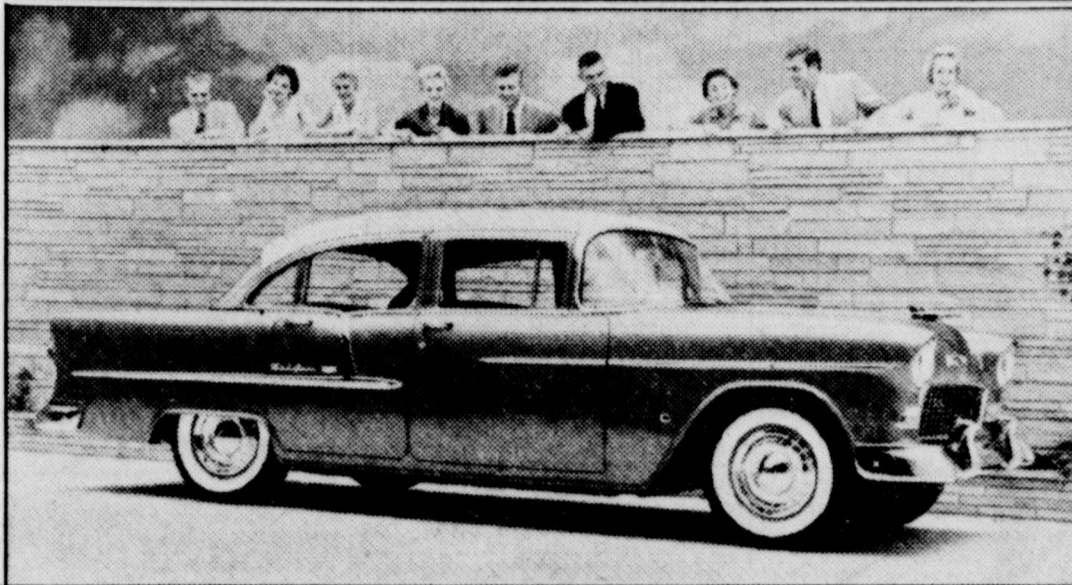

AND MISS Fannie Stephens would like to say thanks. She went to the post office to mail letter the other day. She dropped it or misplaced it somewhere or near the post office. And she kind person picked it up and ailed it for her and she wants to thank them very much, indeed. . . . Comes a note from a friend in Austin who offers "let's catch the University of Texas against CJC."

MET UP WITH Mrs. Horace Horton of Eastland yesterday. He was in Cisco to drum up business for the Eastland Civic Association's drive to sell tickets for movie that will show over Eastland once a month. You say $4 for a season ticket and go over on the first Wednesday night of each month until you see we shows. The Hortons are the folks who at in the ceramics plant and shop at Eastland several years ago. and they are doing splendidly. A few months ago, they started making wrought iron for small pieces of furniture and gift items. and the new plant is doing nicely. It all goes to show what local initiative can do.

COMES A CALL to help Mrs. H. Cutting, the teacher, find a lead scarf that she lost at last Friday night's football game. It has a lot of sentimental value, Mrs. RHC says. She indicated that she would buy the finder a chocolate soda with ice cream for the return of same.

UP AT THE A-G Motor Company they're getting set today to show the 1955 model Chevrolets Thursday, Friday and Saturday. and Mr. A. D. Anderson tells us what folks are going to like in the new cars. They've made more changes in the new model than they've made in a single model since 1919. Everybody's welcome to come see, Mr. ADA says.

V8 Power, Complete Re-styling Mark Chevrolets

A styling advance from any point of view is claimed by the company for 1955 Chevrolets. The latest lineup of 14 models has been completely restyled and in addition incorporates the widest array of chassis improvements ever offered by Chevrolet on a new model. Lower, sleeker lines are accompanied by new frames, new suspensions, new operating devices and new power. With the optional Powerglide or overdrive and new V8 engine plus two six-cylinder engines, a customer has a choice of six "power packages." The Bel Air 4-door sedan is pictured above.

A-G MOTOR CO. IS READY FOR NEW CAR SHOW THIS WEEKEND

The 1955 model Chevrolet automobile will be shown to Cisco area residents Thursday, Friday and Saturday by the A-G Motor Company, 515 Avenue D, according to an announcement today. The firm has three 1955 model cars for display during the three-day show and open house.

A. D. Anderson of the Chevrolet agency reported that coffee and doughnuts would be served to all visitors during the show. Favors will be given to women visitors, he added.

Pronounced mechanical advances plus new riding comfort and a complete re-styling of bodies give Chevrolet for 1955 its most spectacular model announcement, Mr. Anderson said. No major part of the car has been overlooked in the broadscale improvement program, he added.

- From the long list of new features, Mr. Anderson described outstanding changes in the new model as follows:
1. Car reflects the "dream car" appearance with roof visibly lowered. Passenger room has been increased.
  2. First V-8 engine offered on a Chevrolet in 35 years. Named the "Turbo-Fire V-8," the new engine delivers 162 horsepower.
  3. Higher horsepower ratings and new quietness and smoothness in two "Blue-Flame" six engines of the traditional valve-in-head design. A 123-horsepower engine is available with the manual gearshift. The six built for the automatic transmission now develops 136 horsepower.
  4. Integrated body and frame design, reducing vibration and road shocks.
  5. Front and rear suspensions revamped for improved steering, riding comfort and general roadability.
  6. Increased safety through greater visibility. All windows are of safety glass, and visibility is increased 19 per cent.
  7. Optional overdrive is offered for the first time for better operating economy at high speed.
  8. More electric power is available with a 12-volt system to furnish ample reserve power for the growing demands of accessories.
  9. "Dry Air" ventilation is offered for all-weather driving. It is an adjunct to an all-weather air-conditioner which Chevrolet introduces this year as optional equipment.

introduces this year as optional equipment.

10. Tubeless tires for increased safety.

11. Smoother power application is available in the new models through new axle, springs and drive ideas, together with new engine mounts.

12. Easier steering is offered through the use of the recirculating ball-nut gear and combined relay type of linkage to increase smoothness and reduced driver effort.

"You can be sure that we are proud of the 1955 Chevrolet," Mr. Anderson said. "While the most distinguishing mark will be the marked changes in body appearance, the 1955 Chevrolet has been built and engineered to give the car owner more of everything for his money.

"We will be very glad to have everyone drop by our showroom this weekend to see the new models — the most significant ever offered by Chevrolet."

Tickets Are On Sale For Friday Football Contest

Tickets for the Lobo-Stephenville Yellowjacket football game to be played in Stephenville Friday night went on sale at the school board office here Wednesday morning. The tickets are not reserved, and are priced at $1 for adults and 25 cents for students.

Those who plan to go to Stephenville for the game can save time and trouble by purchasing their tickets here, officials said.

Coaches Jay Williams and Charles Williams were giving their Loboes stiff drills this week attempting to correct flaws that were evident in the Friday night game with Ranger. Monday, the players and coaches viewed films of the Ranger game, and the coaches pointed out errors in play.

They worked hard Monday and Tuesday and were scheduled to work in the mud today. They came out of the Ranger game with no serious injuries, and all team members were expected to be in top form for the game with Stephenville. The Jackets surprised Mineral Wells' Mountaineers last Friday night.

The Loboes will conclude drills for the game with light practice Thursday afternoon.

Tragedy Strikes Displaced Person Again; Is In Hospital With Polio

Tragedy has again struck 29-year old Paul Navickas, former Lithuanian citizen who came to Texas and the Cisco area following World War II, as a displaced person, after he had suffered the horrors of both Russian and German prisoner of war camps, friends here learned this week.

Navickas, who lived in Cisco in 1951, was stricken with polio some two weeks ago, and has been admitted to the Taylor County polio center at Hendricks Memorial Hospital, Abilene, where specialists are staging a fight to save the use of his legs. Friends reported that the chances that he will ever have the use of his legs again are slim.

Tragedy first struck Navickas in World War II while he was living in Lithuania, which is located between Russia and Poland. His country was invaded by the Russian army and his entire family was reportedly killed by the Reds. He was taken to a Russian concentration camp, and while there saw his aged grandmother shot down by the Russians because she was too old to perform tasks assigned her. Recent reports affirm that both his father and mother were killed by the Russians. His brother and sister have not been heard from.

In the German drive toward Moscow, Navickas was liberated from the Red concentration camp, but was promptly placed in one operated by the Germans. During a bombing raid on German territory by American planes he escaped and worked his way to the American lines. Thinking he was a native of Germany the Americans placed him in a prisoner of war camp where he was kept for two weeks until it was determined he was a native Lithuanian. He was released and allowed to join the United States forces where he participated in the German invasion.

While in Germany he met and married a German girl. It was while he was in Germany that Navickas met Charles James Rice of Cisco, who aided him in entering the United States. He was at first sponsored by the late Wade Shults of Moran. Upon Mr. Shults' death Navickas came to Cisco where he was employed on the George Fee ranch. After nine months on the Fee ranch, in 1951, Mr. and Mrs. Navickas moved to Midland where he had obtained employment with Dowell Chemical Company. He spent several months with the company in Midland, and was transferred by the company to their branch in Snyder.

In March, 1954, tragedy struck again when Navickas' young wife died in a Snyder hospital.

Navickas is in Room 141, Hendricks Memorial Hospital. He has been in the hospital there since he was stricken some two weeks ago.

Over Inch Rain Is Recorded In Area With Cool Front

More than an inch of rain fell throughout this area Tuesday night and Wednesday morning as a cool front dropped temperatures to a new low for the season. Thermometers here went down to 42 degrees early today, and the forecast calls for similar weather tonight.

The rain gauge at the city hall registered 1.4 inches. The fall was a little heavier north and east of the city. Good rains were reported to the south and west.

Lake Cisco caught some three inches of new water, city officials reported. The ground was soaked and ready to send water into the lake if the rains continue. Area stock tanks are in comparatively good condition.

The rainfall was beneficial to small grains that have been planted in most parts of the county in recent weeks. A mild electric storm accompanied the rain to the area Tuesday night.

Injuries Suffered in Sports Are Seldom Fatal, According to Survey

Bloody noses, strained muscles, and assorted lumps and contusions are relatively common in competitive sports, but injuries severe enough to cause the death of a participant are quite rare, statisticians of life insurance companies find.

The statisticians, studying the causes of death among the millions of males between the ages of 10 and 29 insured under industrial policies, discovered that less than one in each 300 accidental deaths could be attributed to competitive sports.

Information gathered by the statisticians from a wide variety of sources supported the results of the study. For instance, New York City records show that the largest city in the country has averaged only three deaths a year from competitive sports for more than 30 years.

In baseball, the professional major leagues with their 400 players have not had a fatality from injuries on the field since 1920. In major league professional hockey — regarded by many as the roughest of sports — there has not been a death since 1937. Professional basketball has no record of a fatal injury in a game. The only death on the field in soccer in four decades was the result of a heart attack. Roller derby, one of the newer professional sports with about 100 skaters a year in competition, has not been responsible for a skating fatality since its inception in 1935.

National statistics on the overall number of fatalities resulting from baseball are not available, but in spite of the good record of the major leagues, the sport probably accounts for more fatal injuries than any other. This is a reflection of the game's wide popularity rather than the hazards of playing.

The statisticians pointed out that it is impossible to compare the risk of fatal injury in the various competitive sports, because figures on the number of persons participating in each are not available. However, they add, football and boxing — the two most popular "contact" sports — are responsible for a large proportion of the accidental deaths in sports.

In the five-year period from 1949 through 1953, 65 direct and 29 indirect deaths from football have been reported. The direct deaths were those from injuries sustained during play — in tackling, blocking, piling up — while those classed as indirect were due to infection, heart failure, pneumonia, and other conditions resulting from the game.

High school football accounted for 37 of the direct deaths. This was equivalent to an annual death rate of 1.2 per 100,000 for the 600,000 students a year playing the game. College football, with about 65,000 players each year, had four direct deaths with about the same death rate. Professional and semi-professional football had nine deaths and sandlot football had 15 during the 1949-1953 period.

Annual surveys by The Ring, the magazine of boxing, for the same five-year period showed a total of 12 deaths among professional boxers and 17 among amateurs. Because of the efforts of state boxing authorities to make the sport safer, deaths among professional fighters have been decreasing in recent years. There are about 3,000 licensed professionals in the United States, and probably a larger number of amateur boxers.

Attention focused on features of Smartly Styled '55 Chevrolets

The fair sex notes new features on the 1955 Chevrolet. (top left) The gas tank filler door now is vertically hinged. (top right) New outside air cool intake affords more and cleaner air circulation inside the car. . . new sweep-sight windshield is also shown. (lower left) Tiny tot's bonnet favors the bonnet over headlamps. (lower right) New V8 engine is compact and powerful. Header bar of grille is now a part of the hood.

State Capital NEWS

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN — Democratic State Committee, led by Governor Allan Shivers, have taken steps, some of them unprecedented, to keep Texas politically conservative.

With the goal being a strong conservative backlog when the national election comes up, committee members made several moves, beginning at Texas grassroots, to insure that conservative forces can present a strong front in the campaign.

The committee created a special statewide group to keep conservative party leadership active through 1956, added 27 "special advisers" of Governor Shivers to work over the state, and decided to hold quarterly meetings from the precinct level up, for closer contact with voters.

It also voted to hold $50-a-plate fund-raising dinners to maintain interest in the off-election year, and increased the committee budget from $12,000 to $20,000 a year.

Shivers emphasized the importance of maintaining political interest over the state. He told the committee that it would determine Texas' role in the election campaign, and said that Texas could be a pivotal factor in 1956 national politics.

UT Growth

Suggestions of Dr. Logan Wilson, president of the University of Texas, that the giant college's enrollment should be halted at 20,000 students stirred up quite a ruckus in the state capital.

Wilson made the remark in an explanation of the University's problem of meeting space requirements for an increasing student body. The present "forty acres," he said, were not capable of providing facilities or space for many more than the present 16,000 students.

Opposing the "freeze" were Austin Chamber of Commerce Manager John D. Simpson, Jr., and Land Commissioner Bascom Giles, who urged that other University property in Austin be used for expansion.

After the matter had been discussed pro and con for several days, President Wilson, made a vigorous restatement that "educational excellence" — not bigness — is the number-one consideration for the university.

In his annual report to the faculty, Dr. Wilson put the immediate future of the school into the collective lap of the 1955 Legislative session.

"We believe our case is a strong one," Dr. Wilson said, "and that the proper approach should be informative rather than manipulative."

Since the legislature holds the university's purse strings — and with an increasing number of students apparently headed for the "forty acres" in coming years, the upcoming legislative session could be the most important in UT's history.

Union Law

A law giving a union member full protection if he disagrees with union politics is proposed by a University of Texas professor.

Jerre S. Williams of the University law school suggested that the National Labor Relations Act be amended to let the federal labor board settle cases involving union discipline.

That would determine whether a member was thrown out of a union for just cause, said Williams.

He said that union officials have been promising for fifty years to set up better methods of handling such disputes.

Gasoline Suit

Gasoline wholesalers involved in a state anti-trust suit have asked the Supreme Court to review its charges.

Firms asked the court to write an opinion on certain key questions involved in the case, saying that it would save both money and time for an Austin district court that will be assigned the suit.

Attorneys for the companies argued that the trial court now has insufficient guidance on interpretation of anti-trust laws.

Oil Allowance

An increase of 64,300 barrels of crude oil per day in November has been ordered by the Railroad Commission.

The boost will jump total permissive flow to 2,864,749 barrels daily.

Truckers Protest

Texas truck operators are protesting a suggestion of the Texas Railroad Association that increased financing for Texas highways be derived from a ton-mile tax on truck freight.

Spokesmen for the Texas Motor

Transportation Association, state trucking organization, vetoed the suggestion on grounds that:

The tax would necessitate an increase of truck freight rates and a reduction in service.

Similar taxes in other states have been repealed as unfair, expensive, and not in the public interest.

The suggestion was made at a group meeting called by the Texas Highway Department to discuss ways of obtaining additional financing for highways.

Savings Bonds

Governor Allan Shivers has designated the remainder of 1954 as a "Put-Texas-Over-The-Top 1954 Savings Bonds Drive."

Shivers urged that everyone help make the drive a success, pointing out that $75 million in additional bonds are needed to reach the state goal.

Water

Streamflows continued to decrease over Texas in September but storage in reservoirs still can meet needs, the Board of Water Engineers has reported.

Storage capacity of the state's nine largest reservoirs fell from 62 to 50 percent during the dry month, the board said.

ACREAGE AND PRICE SUPPORTS ARE ON FARM BUREAU PROGRAM

GALVESTON, Oct. 27. — Acreage allotments, price supports and the farmer's cost-price squeeze are likely to get top billing when the Texas Farm Bureau holds its 1954 convention here Nov. 8-10.

Some 1,500 members, representing every phase of agriculture in Texas, are expected to converge on this resort city for the state farm organization's 21st annual session.

Policies to guide the organization in its dealings next year with Congress, various government agencies and officials will be formulated by voting delegates from about 180 counties.

A state-wide resolutions committee will meet here for four days prior to the convention to draft tentative resolutions for the delegate body's consideration. These drafts will be based on county resolutions.

Registration for the convention will begin Sunday afternoon, Nov. 7, in the Buccaneer Hotel. A vesper service will be held that evening.

An open hearing on tentative resolutions will be held Monday morning, with conferences on various commodities scheduled for that afternoon.

Finals of the state-wide Farm Bureau queen contest will be held Monday night. Thirteen district nominees will compete for the state crown and its accompanying prize, a trip to New York.

The convention proper will get under way Tuesday, Nov. 9, with the morning session featuring TFB President J. Walter Hammond's annual address.

Two nationally-known speakers will address the convention that afternoon. They are Senator James Eastland of Mississippi, and Howard Hill, president of the Iowa Farm Bureau Federation.

Banquet speaker Tuesday night will be the well-known Dr. W.

H. (Bill) Alexander of Oklahoma City.

Voting on resolutions will be held in the afternoon and delegates will be elected to the annual meeting.

Adopted resolutions will be recommended to the annual meeting Dec. 12-13 in
