One thing which poses a challenge to us, and now that we think of it, it probably poses a challenge to a number of our readers each week, is the "Battle of the Singlewrap."

Perhaps first we should tell what a "singlewrap" is.

In newspaper parlance, the "singlewrap" is one newspaper, wrapped individually with the name stamped, pasted or otherwise fastened to the outside of a brown paper wrapper to be mailed out.

These things have always given us a headache.

Perhaps it is because one of the first jobs we had around a newspaper came in the way of the pore soul; that had about 200 of the dad-burned things to wrap up this way every day on the paper in our hometown.

Anyhow, each Thursday as we traverse to the post office and pick up the several papers which we received from our fellow newspapermen we think of the Battle of the Singlewrap.

Where is a battle you say?

The battle is—after you've removed the brown shell, which incidentally has gotten a little extra glue on it and rips off half the front page as you remove it from about the paper—

This problem is usually solved with a piece of scotch tape—

We find that without a miss the piece that is ripped out is exactly part of the most interesting article in the paper.

Anyhow after this task is accomplished just try and straighten out the paper so you can read it.

This is quite a chore.

If you try to read the paper immediately it curls up at all four edges and tries to choke you.

If you have the courage to turn inside the paper the guts jump out at you like something possessed.

We've solved this problem by merely removing the gluey brown shell, rolling and smoothing out the paper as best we can, then stacking it under our typewriter overnight.

This "ages" the news a wee bit we admit, but at least it saves our nerves.

We always think of the boy in the backshop that has the distasteful job of rolling the things and he, in turn, taking his spite out on the papers and just seeing how tight he can roll them therefore making them virtually impossible to read.

A little on the more serious side of life—

Each week as we travel between Friona and the "capitol" of Parmer County we have been observing the lush crops that are abounding in the fields.

One day lately we went against our better judgement and picked up a fella who was standing by the side of the road thumbing a ride.

He got in and we began shootin' the breeze with him and naturally asked where he was headed.

"California," he replied.

"Got out of work in Chicago and heard things looked a lot better on the coast."

The man went on to describe the people out of work back in the City of the Loop and the surrounding territory.

After a long discussion on politics and the "buzards" who are ruining jobs" the man ran out of talk and we asked him why didn't he look for work here and told him that most places would be happy to have an extra hand around the place in a couple of days to a few weeks.

"What kind of work," he wanted to know.

"Why, just plain farm labor," we went on to explain.

We added a little about the vegetables and how much labor was required to harvest the crop.

My passenger looked at me out of the corner of his eye and said—"M'gosh man, that sounds like WORK!"

With that retort, we gave up—anyhow, we decided he didn't want a job half as bad as he thought anyway.

Yipe!

Whatnheck has happened to songwriters these days?

We were sitting there minding our own business, just trying to forget the harsh events of the day, when out of the blue came clunk!

Normally we have no objections whatever to juke boxes.

In fact, we rather enjoy them. But we always were under the delusion that "music" came out of them.

The day this unmentionable event took place we just about changed our minds.

Anyhow—we heard the clunk of a dime being dropped down the hungry snout of the juke box. We don't keep up with all the latest rock 'n roll hits as they all sound alike to us but we gathered our wits together and prepared to meet the storm.

A normal storm would've been OK, and we doubt if we'd ever noticed it—BUT—what happened?

The beat started, then we grasped just a straw of what

Rockwell, Plains-Hurst Win Baseball Openers

Baseball play in the American Legion-C of C sponsored summer program got off to a flying start this week with Rockwell Bros. downing Co-op 10 to 7 Monday night and Plains-Hurst defeating Herring Implement by a lopsided football score of 30-11.

Action began Monday with Rockwell taking over a 4-run advantage during the first inning.

Co-op bounced back in the second half of the second to score four runs and tie up the game. Rockwell got one run in the third and as Co-op came to bat in the third they scored two runs to put them ahead by a slim margin.

The fifth inning turned the tide as Rockwell got three runs across the plate with home runs by Teddy Renner and Danny Nettles which scored Rodney Watts.

Co-op came back to score one run in the last of the fifth but Rockwell retaliated with two more runs in the first of the sixth and Co-op couldn't muster enough during their bat to pull even.

The game ended after six full innings of play with Rockwell, 10 and Co-op, 7.

There will be a called baseball game at the field Sunday afternoon and all men and boys interested in playing ball for the Friona Independents are urged to be at the park by 1:30 p.m.

Tuesday night a highly-favored Herring Implement team went down by a top heavy score of 30 to 11 before an onslaught by members of the Plains-Hurst team.

BASEBALL TIME AGAIN—Monday night marked the first night of a two-month series of games at the baseball diamond in Friona. Rockwell Bros. played the Co-op boys in the first game of the Junior League Series Monday night at the park. Above, young Ed Sides gets set for a two-bagger.

SENIORS BOUND FOR ARKANSAS—This "black-out" shot shows what can happen when you get up too early. Anyhow, members of the senior class at PHS either stayed up or got up last week and boarded a Greyhound bus about 5 a.m. bound for Arkansas and a five-day senior trip.

SORRY, IT'S ALREADY RENTED

The housing situation in Friona has been so critical for the past several months that any vacant house attracts the attention of persons looking for a place to live. Several persons have called the Star office in the past few days to inquire about the ownership of a house in the middle of the 600 block on Summit Street.

Our conversations usually go about like this: "Yes, it is vacant. It belongs to Glen Stevick. It has already been rented. Larry and Paula Fairchild will move in upon their return from a wedding trip following their June 10 wedding."

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Neel, Kay and Dale, spent Sunday visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Farington and family at Littlefield. The Neels returned late Sunday, but Kay and Dale remained for a longer visit. Mrs. Neel and Mrs. Farington are sisters.

Thompson Resigns Hospital Position

Kenneth Thompson, manager of the Parmer County Community Hospital has turned in a letter of resignation to the board of directors effective in August.

Thompson says he intends to quit his post as manager in order to return to college and study pharmacy.

He and his family will move to Houston sometime in August to look for a place to live while Thompson attends the University of Houston.

The Thompsons moved to Friona from Dove Creek, Colo., about a year and a half ago to accept the job as manager of the hospital here. A native of this part of the country Thompson is a graduate of Oklahoma Lane High School while his wife is a native of Texico, N. M.

The couple has four sons, Lavoy, 9; Wayne, 7; Bill, 4; and Steve, 2.

Thompson entered the U. S. Navy after his graduation from high school and served in Fleet Headquarters in Pearl Harbor and aboard the carrier Saratoga during World War II.

Following his discharge he moved to Colorado where he was engaged in the LP gas business for eight years.

War Declared on 'Skeeters'— Urge Vacant Lot Cleanup

Asking the cooperation of Friona residents Mayor Raymond Fleming says the city is doing everything possible with the equipment on hand to control the hard-biting, pesty mosquitoes which are infesting Friona.

"We hope each citizen will take it on himself to provide a cover for his garbage cans and keep them covered."

"In addition, if folks would keep the weeds cut off the vacant lots it would go a long way toward helping the situation," Mayor Fleming says.

The city has taken steps to prevent the infestation of mosquitoes on the pond near the sewer plant the mayor says.

This plus spraying every morning whenever possible in addition to the individual citizen's efforts will go a long way toward controlling the insects, according to city officials.

Several citizens have asked about the possibility of getting the Benger Air Park to spray the city. This will be used if needed later on, according to the city hall.

As of now the city will do the best job possible with the equipment we now have, says Mayor Fleming.

Seniors Return Late Wednesday

Memorial Day: Have We Forgotten?

Friday is Memorial Day in the United States.

This day has special meaning to thousands of people in this great land of ours, for it is on this day that we have set aside a 24-hour period to pay homage to those who have given their all to make these United States a safer and better place to live than anywhere else on this earth.

It comes to our mind that in this age of "rock 'n roll" perhaps we have forgotten what Memorial Day really stands for and instead, have come to regard it as a day to dash down the highway to the nearest lake, stay home and loaf or otherwise regard it as a form of "just another day off."

On this day our nation should stand in silent prayer and thank God for those thousands of our men, who in days before have laid down their lives that "this nation shall not perish from the earth."

As one statesman put it during the Blitz of London, "there are so many of us that owe so much to a few."

These men, and women too, died fighting in one form or another, that a way of life which we call Democracy should not be overwhelmed by the forces of evil and destruction.

This is a never-ending fight, as once again our nation stands fighting what we call a "cold war" with nations across the seas. Let us not forget these heroes who have marched away from the plowshare, the factory, and their homes and gone off to die on some battlefield in Europe, the South Pacific, Korea and even here within our own country.

Let us think somberly of the significance of Memorial Day and not make the day our last here on earth by speeding carelessly down the highway only to die in a mass of twisted metal and broken glass.

Keep in mind the true significance of Memorial Day—let us bow our heads and pray that with the Lord's will our nation will never have to call our sons, brothers and fathers from their homes to sacrifice themselves on a battleground again.

In Remembrance of Margaret Landrum

Born March 31, 1944

Departed This Life May 11, 1958

Margaret Rose was born to Rosella and Ray Landrum in Magnolia Hospital, Long Beach, Calif., 14 years ago.

As a baby of nine months, she contracted diphtheria, and later, pneumonia and chicken pox. But she was strong and overcame these terrible diseases.

Margaret Rose was a beautiful child. She was kind to animals and always loved them. From the time she could walk, she especially loved horses. It seemed she could make friends with them when even seasoned cowboys failed. She took care of any animals she found and wanted to be a veterinarian when she grew up.

Margaret Rose was talented, too. She taught herself to draw and paint. Her favorite subjects were the animals she loved. Margaret Rose was to be a valedictorian of her graduating class this month. She was working on her valedictory speech and making plans to spend the summer with her sister and brother-in-law, Eugenia and Ben Konis in New York. She was the maid of honor at their wedding in February of this year.

She died very suddenly of acute leukemia on Mother's Day, May 11.

Margaret Rose is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Landrum; her brother, Joel; her sister, Mrs. Ben Konis; her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dixon; and her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Landrum of Tucumcari.

Margaret Rose is remembered with love by her relatives and many friends. She was saved by the grace of God's love at the age of 10 and became a member of the First Baptist Church in Friona.

This bit of history was written by her sister. (This memorial was submitted by, and is published at the request of, Mrs. C. W. Dixon.)

Carlsbad, N. M., Current-Angus: "New Mexico and neighboring states may be in for an interesting experiment, and shocking results, in the drive to employ farm workers from hard pressed U. S. areas instead of importing Mexican labor."

"One of the first questions is: 'Will American laborers who have been employed at other off-the-farm jobs return to agricultural work?' Observers wonder if enough of them will seek farm work to meet the demand. Hiring of unemployed workers in this country for farm jobs is being attempted under a new policy laid down by the U. S. Labor Department."

May 1 marked the beginning of the shift to compulsory inspection of poultry processing plants as required by the new Poultry Products Inspection Act passed recently by congress. About 50 plants in Texas are expected to be operating under the federal inspection service by Jan. 1, 1959, deadline for complying with the new law.

Usually an international representative is in charge, and when the time to vote comes he says in effect: 'All you loyal members who want to go back to work sit on the other side.' Most of the union members want to go back to work, but they also want to get home to their families without getting beaten up, so the strike is voted."

THE NEXT BEST THING TO PUSH-BUTTON FARMING...

Cultivating with a JOHN DEERE

You've no idea how much easier it is to do good work at cultivating time until you've handled a new John Deere Tractor and Cultivator in the field. For the first time, you'll come in from a long day without tired arms and shoulders, without a sore back or a stiff neck. That's because John Deere has taken all the hard work out of hooking up the cultivator... all the muscle work out of operating the rigs singly or in unison... all the fight out of steering... all the strain out of watching the rows. That's why cultivating with a John Deere is the next best thing to push-button farming. See us for complete details.

Modern Study Club Installs Officers

The final meeting of the Modern Study Club for this year was at the club house Tuesday evening. The program was Demitasse-Au'revoir and the quotation used was "Memory is the diary that we all carry about with us." Lilah Gay Gee gave the invocation.

After a buffet supper of ham and salads, served by Estelle Caffey, Mildred May, Tom Lewis, Eleanor Prewett, and June Spring, the installation of officers was conducted.

Fay Reeve, installing officer, used the theme, "What's Cookin'?" To Irene McFarland, the reporter, she said, "Everyone will want to know what's cookin' in the kitchen of the Modern Study Club. How will they know unless we have you write it up for the paper? This notebook and pencil will help you get the facts."

To Decima Beene, parliamentarian, she said, "If things get balled up and our chief cook gets lost, it is your duty to straighten her out, or if any of the members get out of hand, the same goes for them. Remember that 'saucer for the goose is sauce for the gander.' Here is your rolling pin for keeping things smoothed out."

Estelle Caffey, treasurer, received a kitchen collection plate with this admonition, "Somebody has to collect the money and pay the bills in this kitchen. This will be left up to you. Maybe this plate will help you."

Valoris Osborn, secretary, was told, "Every well-run household, club, or organization must have records kept. It will be your job to do this in an orderly fashion. You must measure out what is said and done and know how much of each ingredient to put in the sauce." Her gift was a set of kitchen measuring spoons.

Lucille Latta, president-elect, received a thermometer, cookbook and cooking spoon and these instructions: "As chief cook and bottle washer of the Modern Study Club, it will be your job to always know What's Cookin' in this organization of 35 women. I hope this cook book will help you and this cooking spoon will help keep the lumps out of the sauce and the thermometer will help you to be familiar at all times with the temperature of the club. Their feelings and wishes are important at all times."

Mrs. Latta responded, "It is indeed an honor to accept the responsibilities of the office of president of the Modern Study Club. I'll have to admit I had a selfish reason, I thought it would help me. Also my best critic said, 'Lucy, you can do what you want to do.'"

"You know every woman likes to shop and cook, and I'll need to do some of both before fall. I am completely out of self-respect, and I want to exchange some self-righteousness for some humility, which they say is less expensive and wears better."

"I want to look at some tolerance, which is being used for wraps this season. By the way, I must try to match some patience that my neighbor wears. It's becoming to her and maybe it will look well on me. And, since I love to cook, I decided to stir up a special dish."

"Here are some of the things I'll need to borrow from the former presidents, starting back with Carmaleet, who was the president the first year I was in the club. Add a large measure of faith and courage, which I plan to call on Fay and Melba for a dash of humor, which I will also get from Fay. Then I will sift in as much as needed a calm, reserve manner, which I can get from Rhea. Then I will add a love and understanding for all people, borrowed from Lilah Gay."

"Into this mixture I will pour a generous portion of charm and poise, given to me by Eufaula, and mix until texture is of proper consistency. From Pleta and all the club members, I will have to borrow inspiration, and fold all of this with a gentle spirit. I will pour all of this into the nearly perfect mold (the ability to do everything as nearly perfect as possible) from Carmaleet.

"Where is the man who has the power and skill To stem the torrent of a woman's will?"

For if she will, she will, you may depend on it.

And, if she won't, she won't, so there's an end to it."

"I would like to use the theme 'Community Service' or giving of your time, talent, and treasure. In all the ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths." (Proverbs 3: 6)"

Committees appointed were as follows: program, Mildred May, Decima Beene, Eufaula Ethridge, Vera Baimun, Elizabeth Carmichael, and Rhea Foster; finance, Jane Williams, Louisa Wilson, Eleanor Prewett, Estelle Caffey; community service, Juanita Dickson, Eva Miller, Wilma Jones, and Grace Whitefield; club house, Fern Awtry, Cornelia Kelley, and Tom Lewis; Social, Lilah Gay Gee, Odie Claborn, June Spring, Thelma Ford, and Allo Reeve; Lions, Carmaleet Truitt; membership and courtesy, Willard Stewart; youth direction, Deke Kendrick, Sarah Ann Miller, Wana Brewer, and Irene McFarland; federation counselor, Valoris Osborn; pressbook chairman, Jamie Lu Lillard; R. B. Miller Jr. loan fund, Illene Osborn, Fay Reeve, Ethel Ruth Spring, and Melba Miller Allen.

The decorations carried out the theme of the meeting. Bean pots filled with dry rice were used for table decorations. Bouquets were made of garden vegetables and flowers. Place cards were miniature cookbooks and miniature cooking utensils were used for nut cups.

Thirty-two club members and three guests, Ruby Don Nunn, Mary Kate Zeman, and Doris Hall were present. The outgoing president, Fay Reeve, was presented a gift.

Drakes Go Visiting

Mrs. Frances Howard of Abernathy came to Friona Friday afternoon to attend the eighth grade graduation exercises. One of her nieces, Betty Drake, and a nephew, Larry Drake, were members of the graduating class.

Mrs. Howard returned home Saturday morning and was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. A. O. Drake. Mrs. Arthur Drake's mother, Mrs. Dodge of Denver, was also here for Betty's graduation. Mrs. Arthur Drake and daughters, Betty and Peggy, took Mrs. Dodge to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Drake and sons, Owen, Larry, and Bobby left Saturday morning for Houston to visit Mrs. Drake's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Winchester. They were accompanied by Erma Lou Drake and expect to return home late this week. They will come back by Abernathy and bring Mrs. A. O. Drake home.

Uncle John Has Birthday

Uncle John White observed his 90th birthday Thursday. He spent most of the day working. His big job order that day was programs for the eighth grade graduation exercises and when a Star reporter called on him late in the afternoon he was having difficulty with his press.

"This press has always been a temperamental piece of equipment. It runs good except when I get in a hurry then something invariably happens," was his answer to the question "Are you having trouble?" He went on to say, "I almost get mad at it at times." Then added, "I'm not as patient as I used to be and find myself getting mad more and more."

In the evening members of the family and friends gathered in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Flippen Jr. for an informal party. The centerpiece was a bouquet of roses, which was a gift to Uncle John from a paper supply house in Amarillo. The bouquet was made up of 90 red roses.

He received many cards, gifts, and good wishes. One old timer here expressed the feeling of most residents of the town when he said, "If each of us could do as much good for the town as Uncle John has, we would not need any law enforcement officers."

Uncle John founded the Friona Star in 1925 and served as editor and publisher for a number of years. The name was suggested by the late A. W. Henschel, who was president of the bank at the time the paper was established.

For a number of years Mr. White was an active civic worker and has the distinction of being the town's first mayor.

Elections used to be held in the Friona Star office.

In spite of his advanced age, he still puts in long hours working at his print shop, which is located in the northwest part of town, and is interested in what is going on in the world. He is deeply interested in the progress being made by Friona and the Star.

Tom Riley gave his sister in marriage and the couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ethridge.

The bride wore a mauve silk organza dress with matching hat and a corsage of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Ethridge was attired in a white ensemble with a corsage of miniature pink rosebuds.

Glenn Cunningham sang "Because" accompanied by Mrs. Cunningham, who also played the traditional wedding march. A bouquet of red roses centered on a pink lace table cloth was featured on the serving table at a reception immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. Ilene Nichols, niece of the bride, served the wedding cake and Mrs. Frank A. Spring poured the punch.

For a wedding trip to New Orleans, La., and the southern states, Mrs. Allen wore a white knit dress with blue accessories. Relatives attending from Ok-

"ELECTRIC COOKING IS Easy... EVEN FOR ME!"

says CARL McKINNON GUYMON, OKLAHOMA

Mr. McKinnon says, "Cooking electrically is easy for even inexperienced cooks like me. I never thought I would actually enjoy preparing dinner for the boys while Lou, my wife, is not at home. Now, when she goes to her church and social affairs, the McKinnon men take to the kitchen. Roger helps with the salad, Doug helps set the table, and Warner, like most four-year-olds, just does a little bit of nothing. Although we're having steaks tonight, the boys ordinarily vote for hot dogs or hamburgers; regardless, our electric grill does a wonderful job, no matter the menu."

"Now, with our steaks, salads, green beans and cake (Lou baked it in our electric oven this morning), we are ready to settle down and enjoy our meal, along with our 'men talk.' With Roger and Doug, that's football - with Warner, cowboys and TV."

Get free certificate for two bug lamps just for watching an electric range demonstration at your Reddy Kilowatt dealer store. Yellow bug lamps, which fit ordinary sockets, eliminate most of the light that insects see, yet provide a soft, comfortable light for outdoor living.

Pecan producers in south Texas have started their control program for the pecan nut casebearer. B. G. Hancock, extension horticulturist, urges other growers in every section of the state to check their orchards daily for signs of the casebearer. The lag in time between south and north Texas areas will be much shorter than normal; hence the checking to make sure of the timing of insecticides. Local county agents can supply detailed information on control programs.

Scientists have found that by examining samples of opium it is possible in many cases to determine from what country they come. This work has been carried on in the laboratories of eighteen countries with the help of the research instigated by the United Nations' Narcotic Commission. The object of the study is to trace the channels of illicit opium traffic.

Plans Underway For 4-Laning 84

If present plans develop, Highway 84, from Clovis, through Texico-Farwell, to Lubbock, will be four lanes in the next few years.

Parmer County commissioners met with Oscar Crain, district highway engineer from Lubbock, and Ray Bradley, resident engineer of Littlefield, in Farwell last week to discuss improving the now two-lane, much-traveled route. The engineers' purpose in meeting with the commissioners court was to consider rights-of-way through Parmer County.

Crain was seeking permission of the court to put Parmer County's portion of the road into the overall planning program. He told the commissioners construction was at least two years off.

At present, the highway right-of-way is 100 feet wide. To make the road four lanes, it will need to be 230 feet wide where it runs parallel to railroad right-of-way. Where it is not parallel to the railroad, 280 feet will be required, Farwell Precinct Commissioner J. H. McDonald explains.

Responsibility of obtaining the additional right-of-way will be the county's. However, the state will reimburse the county for 50 percent of the cost.

Present planning, as far as the commissioners court and the right-of-way is concerned, goes no farther west than the underpass to Oklahoma Lane—east of Farwell. Reason for planning no further west, McDonald explains, is that Texas highway officials and directors of New Mexico's highway program will have to agree on where the roads will come together at the state line. So far, such an agreement hasn't been made.

When the route through, or around, Farwell is known, the county will discuss rights-of-way with the City of Farwell, McDonald says. At present, though, the county is not concerned with this portion of the project.

Main thing that can be done now, McDonald explains, is to encourage property owners along the right-of-way to not make improvements of the portions of their land which may be used for the road. "It'll be better for the county and for the property owner as well if no houses, irrigation wells, or other improvements are put on the property which is slated for right-of-way purposes," he points out.

Portions of the road between Clovis and Lubbock are already four lane. Too, Bailey County has obtained right-of-way from just east of Muleshoe to the Lamb County line—some 12 miles. This stretch is ready for the contract to be let, McDonald believes.

Amount of right-of-way which will be obtained is enough for an eight-lane road. Only four lanes will be constructed under the present plan, but the space will be available should traffic on the route ever justify eight lanes.

In explaining why a planning meeting was held some two years before the improvements is scheduled to be made, McDonald says, "It takes a lot of time to get things like this done."

The group did not discuss whether the highway would go through or around Farwell. "There are two possible routes (concerning Farwell) and nothing is definite on either of them," the commissioner says.

District Engineer Crain replaced S. C. McCarty, who formerly held that position, a few months ago.

Reduce Delinquency

VIII
THE BIGGEST FACTOR
(A distinguished Texas judge offers pointers on combating our rapidly increasing juvenile delinquency problem.)

By JUDGE SARAH T. HUGHES

JUDGE HUGHES

What is the biggest factor in juvenile delinquency?

Every person, adult or child, needs most of all a sense of his own significance, his own individuality. An adult wants to be recognized in his home, his church, or his club, or he loses interest.

Most Important in Youth
It is even more important for boys and girls to have a sense of their own significance. Failing to get it starts many on the road to delinquency—doing things to be considered "smart"—to be recognized by someone.

I have had many cases where I thought the main reason the boy was there was that he had been given no recognition as an individual. There had been a failure in the home to make him feel that he "belonged," was valued.

Always Something Good
There is always something to praise a child for—to make him feel important and wanted—even if he's unusually faulty... always the chance to listen to him with interest and affection, to make him feel that he belongs, to give him the RIGHT KIND of attention, of affection, of KINDLY but FIRM DISCIPLINE and guidance.

That is what these youngsters need—to be wanted by somebody, to be important to their friends and parents, to have guide-posts in a puzzling world.

These are the 1958 Carol Lane Awards, presented to the three individual women and three women's or parents' groups who, in the opinion of a board of judges, have developed and directed the most effective traffic safety programs between June 15, 1957, and June 15, 1958.

The deadline for all entries is midnight, June 15, 1958. The awards are named for the women's travel director of Shell Oil Co., and are administered by the National Safety Council through a grant from Shell. They are presented each October to the winners at the National Safety Congress in Chicago.

Entries should be mailed to Alice Catherine Mills at the National Safety Council, 425 North Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill., where entry blanks and information about the awards may also be obtained.

Contract Let For More Parmer Roads

Contract for construction of two stretches of Parmer County Farm-to-Market Road has been let. Largest portion of the planned pavement is from one mile south of Friona to 7.3 miles south and east. The other portion is from three miles east of the state line and three miles south to Highway 60. Kerr and Middleton of Lubbock submitted the successful bid of $203,135.50. Announcement of the contract was made by Oscar L. Crain, district highway engineer at Lubbock.

Resident Engineer Rhea E. Bradley, Littlefield, will be in charge of the project for the Highway Department, and it is estimated the work will take 120 days to complete.

Weed Control Topic Of Discussion By Commissioners

Business, other than that of a routine nature, was scarce at a regular meeting of county commissioners Monday.

Probable highlight of the session was a request by Howard D. Ellison, Bovina. His proposal, which was brought up by Charlie Jefferson, Bovina precinct commissioner, was for the county to apply soil sterilant to bar ditches on county roads. Purpose of this action would be to control plant growth, including bindweed and Johnson Grass.

The commissioners took no action on the request. They did, however, consider using a sterilant on test plots to determine the results of the weed control and the cost per mile. Bar ditches which will be used as test plots were not selected.

Each of the county's four precincts contains approximately 400 miles of road, County Clerk Hugh Moseley pointed out. This would make the number of bar ditch miles 800. If the cost per mile were $10, the cost for controlling the weeds in each of the precincts would be $8,000.

Soil sterilant can be expected to keep the ground infertile for five years.

County Agent Joe Jones met with the court briefly in regard to the project.

In addition to this discussion, the court paid the county's monthly bills. Judge A. D. Smith presided.

Commissioners present, other than Jefferson, were H. L. Ivy, Lazbuddie; E. G. Phipps, Friona; and J. H. McDonald, Farwell.

"Say Bill," the farmer said to his new hand, "What's the idea of feeding that pail of milk to the cow?"

"Well," said Bill, "this darn cow stepped in it and got it dirty so I'm running it through again."

The industry-sponsored Tree Farm program means wood for man's use; food and shelter for wildlife; recreational areas; water and soil conservation.

Reduce Delinquency XIV AT GATESVILLE (A distinguished Texas judge offers pointers on combating our rapidly increasing juvenile delinquency problem.) By JUDGE SARAH T. HUGHES... For many years whippings and solitary confinement were routine punishment at the state reformatory at Gatesville. We heard that sadistic guards punished the boys unmercifully. Several years ago a drill-master jumped on a boy who refused to drill any longer and choked him. The boy died. Like Hardened Criminals... The boys in this institution are subject to the same harsh and strenuous rules and regulations as you would expect to find in controlling the hardest criminal in the penitentiary. Despite the harsh treatment (which included 10-year-olds who were there because they were neglected but who were learning crime from the older, more serious offenders) there were gang fights, hunger strikes, and many escapes. In 1952 a new policy was inaugurated. Today the whip is gone. Bars have been removed. Boys are punished by being deprived of privileges. There have been no gang fights or hunger strikes. Escapes have decreased. Institutional Whippings... Authorities believe that whippings in institutions often build up resentments that cause the boy to commit other offenses. Those who have actually worked with teen-age offenders believe that institutions for delinquents should have treatment seeking the causes of delinquency, together with a program of education, rehabilitation and vocational training.

in & around FRIONA WITH JUNE... The flowers in Friona have never been more beautiful than they are right now. There are beautiful roses all over town. The rose garden on the south side of the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boggess is one of the most beautiful spots in town. Bushes that we had not seen bloom in several years bloomed profusely this spring. Some of our more experienced flower gardeners say this was caused by the excessive amount of nitrogen the winter snows put in the soil. Maybe we should add nitrogen to our soil every year. Another beautiful flower garden is at the F. L. Spring home. The climbing roses at the Ralph Roden home are also very pretty. The Charles Russels, who live northwest of town had one of the prettiest iris gardens we have seen. With all the beauty blooming in town a very pleasant way to spend a few hours would be to walk around and look. Our apologies this week go to Carla Sue Mann. Since Carla Sue is one of our best customers and a little girl we have known all her life, it is difficult to explain how we came up with Paula Sue. Perhaps this typewriter just made a mistake. The conversations going on in the City Park Saturday afternoon about the time for the weekly drawing were interesting. Most of those we heard expressing opinions agreed that doing away with the drawing was not a wise move. After hearing one such opinion, we asked whether or not the person speaking thought people came to town on Saturday afternoon to shop. It was beginning to look to us as if the only merchants who received more Saturday afternoon trade were the service station operators. The reply we got was interesting and thought-provoking, too. The person we were talking with said, "No, not really, but you would be surprised at the number of us who do our shopping here during the week then attend the drawings on Saturday afternoon." The following item was handed to us by John Allen Sr. Think one of his granddaughters from Lubbock brought it up for him to read. The author is anonymous, but his political affiliation isn't hard to figure out. IKE IS MY SHEPHERD Ike is my shepherd. I am in want. He maketh me to lie down beside the park benches; He leadeth me beside the still factories; He restoreth my doubt in the Republican party; He guideth me in the path of unemployment. For his name's sake, yes, as I walk through The valley of the soup kitchens, I am hungry. I fear evil; thou art against me; thou anointest my income with taxes, so my expenses run over my income. Surely poverty and hard luck shall follow me all the Days of the Republican administration and I shall Live in the poor house forever.

Most of us are embarrassed at times because we are unable to remember the name of a person to whom we have recently been introduced. We generally make the excuse that we "just can't" remember things as well as we once could. In all probability we could do something about it if we would just put forth a little conscientious effort to do so. Too many times we never hear the person's name in the first place and hesitate to ask the person who is making the introduction to repeat it. If each of us would follow the advice given by an expert on the subject of remembering names, we could all improve. He expressed it this way: THE ART OF REMEMBERING NAMES: From both a business and social standpoint, it is important to remember names. What can be more embarrassing than to meet a person to whom you have been introduced but whose name has slipped your mind? Here are five rules that may help you remember names: (1) When introduced make certain that you have heard the name correctly. (2) Repeat the person's name as often as possible as you stand talking to him. (3) Learn as much about him as you can and study his features. (4) Mentally associate the name with something. (5) Later in the day test your memory of the name. Read this little jingle somewhere and liked it very much. Hope you enjoy it, too. TROUBLES If you talk about your troubles And tell them o'er an o'er. The world will think you like 'em And proceed to give you more. Now that school is out there will be more small children playing near the streets and crossing them. Let's all be very careful when driving in the residential area as well as downtown. Most of the children who cross downtown will be watching for cars, but those playing near the street get too absorbed in their games to remember the boundary of the yard or playground. Charles Evans Hughes once said, "A man has to live with himself, and he should see to it that he always has good company." Milk and dairy products are the featured items on the USDA's June plentiful foods list. June is dairy month.

The industry-operated American Tree Farm System of Texas will be presented as a growing timber as a crop on taxpaying lands, through which small landowners are encouraged to reap steady income from their woodlots, is now active in 46 states with more than 45 million acres of timberlands enrolled. Fifty years of 4-H progress in Texas will be presented as a pageant on the opening program of the annual Texas 4-H Club Roundup, Texas A&M College, June 10. From the corn and tomato clubs of 50 years ago to the present day 4-H clubs, will be reviewed by a fast moving pageant.

THE BIBLE IS THE ONLY WORD OF GOD

SHALL YOU FORGET

The Bible contains God's only authority to mankind. Many people claim to have late-model revelations. These so-called revelations both contradict the Bible and each other, consequently they are not from God. God cannot deny himself nor contradict himself, II Tim. 2:13. If all the so-called modern revelations were written in one volume, this volume would contain the greatest conglomeration of contradictions the world has ever known. They not only contradict themselves, but also what God has said in his divine will, the Bible.

The apostles were chosen and sent forth by Christ, God's son. God guided them by the Holy Ghost into all truth, John 16:13. The Gospel is the word of truth, Eph. 1:13. These apostles preached the gospel with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven, I Peter 1:12. This gospel is God's power to save, Romans 1:16; I Cor. 15:1-2. If any man or even an angel from heaven preaches another gospel other than the one preached by Paul and the other apostles, the curses of God would rest on them, Galatians 1:6-9. They who do not obey the true gospel will be lost, II Thes. 1:7-9.

Churches of Christ teach, preach and practice the pure gospel of God, both in its entirety and completeness, without anything added to or taken from. This will make people Christians only and only Christians. It will make them members of the church built by Christ, Mt. 16:18. The Lord adds people to his church when they believe and obey the true plan of salvation, set forth in the Bible, Acts 2:47.

WELCOME TO THE CHURCH OF CHRIST, WHERE THE WORD OF GOD IS TAUGHT, WITH NOTHING ADDED AND NOTHING TAKEN FROM. TO BELIEVE AND OBEY THIS WILL MAKE YOU EXACTLY WHAT GOD WOULD HAVE YOU BE.

Welcome to the

ETERNAL LIFE THROUGH JESUS CHRIST

Millions of Americans will make a trip to the cemetery this week to place a wreath on some loved one's grave. And everyone once again realizes the reality of death.

This is a good time to take inventory of our lives. Are we prepared to die? And are we prepared to meet God in Judgment? The Bible declares that we must all die and face the judgment. Read Heb. 9:27. The blood of Christ Jesus is still the only power that can cleanse man of sin. It still takes the power of God Divine to inscribe our names in the Lamb's book of life. Turn to Jesus today with all your heart, soul, and body. Then we too can say: "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?"

Why not find your place in church this week and let Christ meet that need?

—M. Alvin Askins

"THEY'RE DOING GOOD," SAY VEGETABLE GROWERS

All vegetable crops in the Parmer County area are "doing good" in the words of the farmers who are raising them. Vegetables got off to a shaky start early in the spring when cold and wet weather delayed planting intentions and upset many a farmer's timetable.

But they are coming back in great form and are making up for lost time as brilliant sunshine pulls the latent growth from the small plants. If fair weather continues, a harvest date of almost normal is hoped for, although the weather between now and then could hinder this possibility.

The acreage devoted to vegetable production in the Parmer County area this year will more than double what was planted to vegetables in 1957. A trend toward vegetables is unmistakable and new growers are popping up over the county where truck farming has never been done before.

The fact that new growers are trying out the water could mean that this is a crucial year for vegetable production in this area. If most growers get "burned" it may curtail development in the future, mainly because few farmers have money to lose trying to get started.

The market, which is always the big "if" of Plains vegetable production, is following tradition, very hard to predict at this early date, but adverse weather in many parts of the nation point to much improved prospects for local production.

In fact, many growers and some trade journals are openly predicting good times for potatoes and onions all season long. This is in sharp contrast to a "just fair" year for spuds in 1957 and thumbs-down reception for the High Plains onion crop last year.

Carrots, last year's Cinderella vegetable entry, may be riding for a fall. Most brokers are frank to say that they feel the farmers of the High Plains have overdone it in tripling carrot planting this year.

Many of the new growers on the eastern part of the Plains are getting on the carrot bandwagon this year after good prices in 1957, plus the fact that investment is lower and production is easier for this crop than for many other vegetables.

In Parmer County, Friona continues to have the biggest concentration of vegetable growers, and five crops will be produced there this year to furnish a diversified deal with Friona Growers & Shippers.

Potatoes, the staple item, will go on from 550 to 600 acres, and carrots will be not behind with 500 acres. Considerably smaller plantings of onions, cabbage and pepper make up the deal.

Growers and Shippers are making an attempt to grow with increased interest in vegetable production. They are building a 6,000-foot addition to their shed facilities and are ordering new equipment to handle the diversified crops. Previously, they had packed and shipped only potatoes and carrots.

After several years of talk, Bovina came forth with a deal of its own this year. A Laredo firm, Gateway Produce, has moved to Bovina and, after obtaining a site, is ready to build its shed.

Vegetables for this shed, which will be tomatoes, cantaloupes, and a smattering of bell peppers are already planted. Cantaloupes were the most popular with Bovina-area farmers at planting time. They planted 640 acres. Tomato acreage totals 320 and peppers claimed 61 acres in that section of the county.

Otto Ables, Gateway representative, is directing the Bovina operation. More interest is being shown there in truck farming than ever before. However, as in most cases, the acreage grown by each farmer is relatively small.

Ables is optimistic about prospects. He says, "There's no question about whether vegetables can be produced.

The land is good. Water is plentiful. And the climate is all right."

Hail is the chief worry Ables has as far as production is concerned. Bob Wilson, who farms six miles west of Bovina, lost 10 acres of tomatoes and 10 acres of cantaloupes to hail Saturday night. However, Ables feels there is still time to replant the crops and have them come off all right.

Cantaloupe planting began around Bovina April 25. Tomatoes were put in the ground May 10.

As is often the case with vegetable production, the lack of labor is causing some concern. Ables hopes this bottleneck can be worked out before the need becomes critical and steps are being taken in that direction.

No shed has located at Farwell, but Evon and J. T. Ford and sons have a pretty sizeable deal of their own going in the way of onions. They have about 85 acres of white granos this year, which is the biggest concentration of onions in the area.

This week their onions are progressing well and they are satisfied with growth. The Fords are kept busy with fertilizing, irrigating, and weeding the crop, which is one of the "problem" crops so far as labor and care is concerned.

Here, again, market prospects look good right now, but then they looked good at this time last year but pooped out, too, so rash optimism is pretty scarce.

Frank and Charles Seale, also of near Farwell, are onion growers too although their acreage is considerably smaller.

The biggest worry for onion producers this year has been quality stock. Onion sets from the Winter Garden area have been poor in quality, and this has been a problem for nearly all Plains growers.

At Lariat, in the southern part of the county, early potatoes are coming along well and no clouds have yet appeared on the horizon. There will be from 275 to 300 acres of potatoes in the Lariat area this year, and most will be processed at the Gregory shed there.

On this foundation will rest a 6,000-square foot steel building. Inside it will be equipment that will be used to process vegetables and ready them for market. This will be a major expansion move for Friona Growers & Shippers, who operate a growing shed on the Santa Fe siding in southeast Friona.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

During the month of June most of the farmers here in Parmer County should receive a newsletter which is published by the Parmer County Soil Conservation District. This quarter it will be on improving the water application which is of interest to all the farmers in this area.

Quite a number in the county have changed their row direction or contoured the end of the rows to reduce slope in order to get more water in the ground.

Last week Jay Sanders and Glenn Floyd worked with several of the farmers to improve water application. They were Bud Crump, A. E. Southward, C. W. Tannahill and H. A. Hyde. These men realize that improving the water application will result in less pumping cost and more profit.

Robert Zetsche made a range survey with Sloan Osborn on a part of his rangeland. Osborn is interested in overseeding this particular pasture since he has deferred it and there seems to be very little grass coming. He is thinking about putting this land in the Great Plains Conservation Program.

Last Thursday contour lines were run by the Soil Conservation Service on the Hastings and Wilson section of dryland west of Friona. This land is in the Great Plains Program.

The Soil Conservation Service office will be closed Friday in observance of Memorial Day.

It isn't too early to plan and purchase the seed for this summer's temporary pastures, suggests E. M. Trew, extension pasture specialist. Local county agents can supply material on the subject, says the specialist.

Brandon Winner Of SCD Contest

The following essay was first place winner in the recent Soil Conservation District contest. It was written by Ramey Joel Brandon, who is a student in Bovina High School.

WE ARE STEWARDS OF THE LAND

We are stewards of the land. What does this mean to many people in the world? Many probably do not even know what "steward" means. It is defined as "one who manages another's property."

If this is true, then we certainly are supposed to be "stewards of the land." We are stewards of God's land. He created it and put us here to make our livelihood from it. Almost every means of our existence comes from the land: our food, shelter, and raw materials for clothing, medicine, and every other thing that we need.

We must take good care of the land or it will decrease in value, the same as anything else that is neglected. Every year we come to be more aware of the importance of our land and since the beginning, we have constantly been on the lookout for means of improving it and the way we care for it.

In farming we have set up conservation districts for the protection of our land. A man who loves the land will take great pride in his own and follow man's management of it. Anyone who has even a backyard has to think about land use.

Our early forefathers took a great risk when they came to this country. They had many questions in their minds such as: "What will it be like?" and "How will we do it?" But with the help of the natives of this land, the Indians, they soon knew and exercised good land management. The land is all of a country's wealth. Are we going to let the labor of our forefathers go to waste? Let's all work and help the other fellow work to secure better and better methods of land management in order that we might become better "Stewards of the Land."

A Tree Farm is an area of taxpaying timberland dedicated to the growing of repeated timber crops.

"The Place Where Most People Trade" Friona, Texas Wednesday, May 28, 1958

A famous doctor from the Mayo Clinic lists the eight worst things farmers do for their health. 1. Don't go for help soon enough. 2. Eat too much. 3. Hurt themselves by showing off. 4. Don't take care of small scratches. 5. Breathe too much dust. 6. Put up with allergies. 7. Abuse their joints. 8. Don't get enough rest. The good doctor says farmers should complain more but that the big doses of fresh air and exercise are good medicine.

Work horses at work were hardly a rare sight when International Harvester introduced Farmall tractors more than 30 years ago. In 1925 there were 1000 Farmalls on American farms and there were 23,000,000 horses and mules. Today there are fewer than 3,500,000 horses and mules (that includes shetlands) and more than 4,500,000 tractors. Even if you have work animals, it's hard to find a qualified teamster. ## Charter Sought For Labor Group

Steps toward getting a charter for a farm labor association in Parmer County were taken Friday night of last week in a meeting of Bovina area vegetable growers.

Word on the success of the venture was not known at press time.

Another meeting for discussing plans for the association and for telling all farmers of the opportunity the association would present is scheduled Friday at 8:30 p. m. in the American Legion Hall in Bovina.

James Worley of McAllen, a broker of Mexican nationalist farm laborers, is to be on hand. Worley attended the meeting last week, and prompted area growers to form their own association, instead of trying to secure adequate labor individually.

The charter application was taken through channels at Austin early this week, and was to finish the rounds of labor department officials Wednesday.

If chartered, the association will be formed to supply labor to area farmers for all types of farm work. Area farmers are invited to attend the meeting.

Five Parmer County farmers were designated as temporary directors of the organization in the meeting Friday. They are James Readhimer, Leon Grissom, Robert E. Wilson, Wendol Christian, and Durward Bell. If chartered, the association is considering erecting a building for housing a large number of laborers. A site for the building was being sought earlier this week.

THE HAPPY HOMEMAKER

BY JUNE FLOYD

At this time of year a lot of outdoor meal cooking is done and one of the most popular main dishes when an outdoor meal is planned is barbecue meat of one kind or another. Whether you prefer beef, pork chops, ribs, or chicken, the following sauce will be suitable.

A large quantity could be made at one time and set aside for use at any time the family or a group of friends gathers together for a noon or evening meal.

BARBECUE SAUCE

- 1 cup catsup
  - 1/4 cup Worcestershire sauce
  - 1/4 cup lemon juice, fresh, frozen, or canned, or 1 lemon, sliced
  - 1 teaspoon salt
  - 1 teaspoon chili powder
  - 1 cup water
  - 1 teaspoon celery seed.
- Combine all ingredients in saucepan; heat to boiling point and simmer five minutes. Store in refrigerator for use whenever you want barbecue sauce.

Any of you homemakers who are planning on refinishing the inside of your home this spring might like to keep in mind a prediction made recently at an American Interior Decorators convention. The new colors for home furnishings will be green and yellow.

A letter came to the Happy Homemaker this week from one of our men readers in Montgomery City, Mo. Uncle Bill Callaway has written several letters to the Friona Star in the past and we always enjoy reading them.

This is the first one he has ever written this column and we are printing it. Hope everyone who reads it enjoys it as much as we did. A little footnote he added at the bottom was interesting. He spells his name with three "a's." Apparently we have been spelling it wrong. The reason he gives for not using an "o" is that he has been told that an "o" in the name indicates that the bearer is a Republican.

The letter reads as follows: "After reading your recipe for fried pies in a recent paper, I felt I should tell of our meeting with fried pies. When we were surveying land and staking out townsites in Texas in 1906, one of the things we had taken from Missouri was a fifty pound sack of home dried apples.

"The cowboy who learned to cook by experimenting on us had never seen any dried apples. He asked what they were and how to use them. I told him the best I could about fried pies. He said, 'That sounds good for a cowboy likes everything fried.'

"When we came in from work in late evening, Hogan had a double stack of pies on a plate the size of the plate and about a foot high. There were 25 pies and two bowls of stewed apples sitting beside them. I said, 'Hogan, did you cook all the apples at once?'

"He replied, 'Heck, Bill, you ain't seen no apples yet. Look over here in this dish pan.' And, there was about two gallons more of our prized dried apples. But the pies were delicious and three of Hogan's cowboy friends rode up for supper and a visit and those pies vanished so quickly we had a fresh supply for the next day. And, so, Hogan's supply of ready cooked fruit came in handy. None of it was lost.

"I don't do any fancy cooking but can and do some plain cooking. Last summer my brother and his wife with whom I make my home, went west to Canada, Montana, Wyoming, Nebraska, Colorado, New Mexico, Friona, Oklahoma, Kansas, and then home. They went through Iowa, Minnesota, and North Dakota on the way to Montana.

"After staying home a few weeks, they left again and went to Arkansas, Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee, Kentucky, and Illinois. On the two trips they were gone two months and I batched all the time and did my own cooking, too.

"One of our local papers, the Mexico Ledger, put out a supplement to the Daily Ledger recently containing over 200 favorite recipes. After glancing over them I wrote the editor telling what my favorite foods were, admitting that they were maybe high in calories and could be low in vitamins but:

'Methuselah ate what he found on his plate
And never as people do now
Did he note the amount of the calorie count.
He ate it because it was chow.
He wasn't disturbed as at dinner he sat
Devouring a roast or a pie
To think it was loaded with granules of fat
Or a couple of vitamins shy.
He cheerfully chewed each species of food
Unmindful of trouble or fears,
Lest his health might be hurt
By some fancy dessert,
And he lived nine hundred years.'

"I enjoy reading your column, so keep on writing."

Sincerely,
Uncle Bill Callaway

Seven Parmer County men attended a board of directors meeting for Farmers Union at Plainview Monday.

Attending were Elmer Hargrove, president of the Farwell Local, and Glenn Phillips and Charles Seale; T. O. Lesly, president of the Lazbuddie Local, and Clayton Graef, Wyle Bullock, and Charlie Watson.

HD Council Meets Monday in Bovina

Parmer County Home Demonstration Club council delegates met Monday afternoon at the home economics cottage at Bovina. Seven visitors and 13 members were present. The opening exercise was conducted by the Northside Club.

It was reported that each club in the county observed National Home Demonstration week with a special project. Some made window displays, some had teas, and some had family picnics or other meetings. A THDA report was given by Lauretta Brookfield of the Northside Club.

Members of the council voted to contribute $18 to a fund for some 4-H girls to attend camp this summer. Jimmie Lou Wainscott announced that each club had had a program on family filing systems and kitchen cabinets.

A group discussion was held regarding a course in driver re-education which the clubs are considering sponsoring in the near future.

Those Bug Killers: Handle with Care!

Don't fail to follow the manufacturer's directions when handling and using highly toxic insecticides, warn Extension Entomologists F. M. Fuller and C. F. Garner. They point out that weather conditions continue to favor heavy insect infestations and this means farmers will be handling materials which kill bugs as well as humans.

Insecticide injury to man is most common through oral and respiratory intake or by skin absorption. Continued exposure even to lower insecticide concentrations, with no regard to safety measures, can result in accumulation of chemicals in the body and may cause eventual tissue or organic injury, say the specialists.

Many phosphorous compounds such as parathion, methyl parathion, EPN, TEPP, demeton, Diazinon, Phosdin, Thimet and Guthion are extremely poisonous and must be handled with care. Many phosphorous insecticides are more poisonous to warm-blooded animals than most other chemicals used for insect control, say the specialists.

Since phosphorous insecticides tend to reduce the cholinesterase enzyme, entomologists advise regular handlers of such materials to have cholinesterase tests at 10-day intervals while working with the material. Local doctors can provide information on such tests.

It's a good idea to bathe and change clothing immediately following a highly toxic job and not enter a field for two or three days after it has been treated, say the specialists. Always wear gloves and freshly laundered protective clothing during handling, and stop working if a toxic insecticide is spilled on the skin or clothing for a thorough bath and change of clothes, they advise.

Other pointers to remember include the use of approved respirators; protection of humans and livestock from drifts, sprays or dusts; store all chemicals away from children, irresponsible people, and all forms of feed and food; keep readable labels on all containers and have first aid information and antidotes available in case they are needed.

Seven years ago when a clinic was opened in Kandahar, Afghanistan, by the World Health Organization of the United Nations, doctors and nurses had to go into the market place to persuade husbands to allow their wives and children to visit it. Now more than 5,800 mothers and children have had treatment and checkups there in just one month. Growing faith in modern medicine is dramatically demonstrated in the changed reactions of the clinic patrons.

U. S. GRAIN—

Third Largest Crop Expected

WASHINGTON—The specter of another possible shortage of storage to take care of the nation's grain supplies is leading the government to urge farmers to erect more bins of their own.

The country moves into the new production year with a record supply of food and livestock feed grains. But the prospects of the third largest wheat crop on record and of big crops of corn and other grains raises the possibility that more storage facilities will be needed.

Pamphlets Distributed
Secretary of Agriculture Benson has said he hopes the government itself will not be forced to buy additional bins. It already owns facilities with a storage capacity of about a billion bushels. Benson hopes to get the government out of the storage business, but the continued existence of surpluses has prevented this.

The department is broadcasting through grain areas pamphlets telling producers it will pay them to buy or build storage facilities for their farms.

Loans Available
In these the department points out that it will make loans at 4 per cent interest covering up to 80 per cent of the cost of facilities. These loans are payable over a five-year period.

In addition the department offers farmers payments for storing government grain in their bins. These rates are 16 cents a bushel a year for corn and barley; 16 and 17 cents for wheat, depending on the state; 12 cents for oats; and 28 to 31 cents a hundred-weight for grain sorghums.

Officials say these payments would pay for new bins in two or three years. Hence the claim that it will pay farmers to build new bins.

INSPECT CANTALOUPE—H. W. Odom, left, who farms east of Bovina, was cultivating his cantaloupe crop this week. Here, he takes time off from his weed destroying chores to inspect the tiny plants. At right is Otto Ables, Gateway Produce representative, who is directing the Bovina vegetable growing operation.

Lots of hopes are wrapped up in these little onions, now "coming along" on the farm of Burl Ford near Farwell. Burl and his brother, Doyle, and his father, J. T., and J. T.'s brother, Euvon, together farm 85 acres of this eye-watering crop, which, when the price is right, can also be mouth watering for farmers.

Summer Is Here And Crops Show It

Farmers pay more attention to the weather than to the calendar, and to them, summer has been here about a week now. The cloudy, cold days of early spring have been left behind and hot sunshine has brought about ideal conditions for two things: starting cotton and finishing wheat.

Early loads of the first cuttings of 1958 wheat are expected next week and already fields are turning a golden hue in nearly all parts of the county. Prospects for a good wheat crop continue good as widespread hail and wind damage remains insignificant. A few farmers are making a last-minute application of irrigation water on wheat that was late, but most are patiently waiting for the wheat to ripen and attending to other spring chores.

Any rain that may fall at this stage would come too late to help the dryland crop any more, which is about "finished." Some of the crop, especially in the northern part of the county, was hard hit by a late season drought and yields have been reduced, but still, most observers agree that prospects are the best since 1949.

The hot weather, which has pushed temperature readings into the 90's, is just what the doctor ordered for the young cotton crop. All of the Parmer County area cotton is planted, and nearly all of it is up to a stand.

Most farmers are satisfied with the stands of cotton they have this year, especially after last year which was one of the toughest on record for getting cotton started.

Early season insect control programs are beginning (see separate story).

More than 1,600 foresters serve as inspectors for the voluntary Tree Farm program, which is helping small landowners to grow timber as a crop.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

By RAYMOND EULER

President Gilbert Kaltwasser took most of the directors and members of the Legislative Committee to a sub-district Farm Bureau meeting in Dimmitt Tuesday night. We don't have a full report on the meeting yet, but it concerned the Farm Bureau proposed cotton program. There will be a report on that in next week's paper.

Did you know that there is some possibility of curbing the inflationary trend in the National Legislature this year? We believe that if some of the following amendments can gain passage, a bill that is likely to be reported out soon can do more to alleviate the cost price squeeze farmers are caught in, than anything else. We hasten to add that you, a farmer or rancher, can give strength to the possibility of passage if you will write Senators Yarborough and Johnson about them.

Here are some of the possibilities:

1. A prohibition of recognition and organizational picketing.
2. The delegation to state governments of authority to deal with labor disputes in those cases where jurisdiction is not assumed by NLRB.
3. Legislation to provide adequate remedies against secondary boycotts.
4. Extension of anti-trust statutes to labor unions.
5. Legislation to prohibit the forced collection of truck unloading fees.
6. Prohibition of compulsory unionism. (Right to Work)

Consider Air-Conditioning

Real air-conditioning involves both temperature and humidity control as well as purification of air, and provision for ventilation, according to extension home management specialists. It lessens the problems of dirt, dust and noise. It can add to good health and comfort the year-round.

Some day it may be just as normal to have your home kept cool in summer as it is to keep it warm in winter. In southern states, as in many parts of the world, the warm months outnumber the cool months.

There are window-sill units and console units to condition one of your rooms, or complete year-round air-conditioning units to provide cooling comfort for the whole living area.

Air-conditioning lowers humidity to give relief from the sticky, muggy feeling on sultry days. It ventilates by bringing in a supply of outside air free from dust, and filters out pollen. It circulates air evenly, without draft, to all parts of the room. Windows stay closed, thus reducing noise and outside distraction.

READ THAT LABEL

Take time to read that label! Every word describing a food, a drug, a cosmetic or a medical device is important in protecting you and your family, advise extension home management specialists. It will guard against buying an inferior product, misusing a good one, falling for dangerous quackery, or unknowingly using a substance harmful to health.

The label on a can or package of food must be completely truthful. The wording must not be misleading. Manufacturers are required to list their names and place of business on the label.

Net contents of a can, must be stated in common units of weights and measures. Sometimes the size of a can may be misleading, so standards of "fill of container" have been set up. Under this law a can of peas containing too large a proportion of liquid must be labeled "below standard in fill."

A standard of quality and a standard of identity have also been set up.

Under the quality provision, canned tomatoes that are not red enough, peaches that are bruised, peas that are over-mature must be labeled "below standard in quality."

Should you feel that you have fallen victim to an illegal label complain to your local health department. It will notify FDA inspectors if federal law is involved or act directly if the product is made and sold within the state.

Meanwhile, keep reading labels carefully before you buy. It's good business.

IT'S BERRY TIME
Whether you eat them in preserves, on ice cream, in pie, a shortcake, or fresh with cream and sugar, it's berry time.

Why not freeze some strawberries or dewberries now while they are in season to enjoy later during the non-productive months. Firm fully ripe red berries are best for freezing. They may be packed in sirup, in dry sugar or packed without sweetener. However, they have a better texture and flavor if sweetened.

Ask your county home demonstration agent for a copy of B-175, FROZEN FOODS, for specific instructions on freezing berries and other foods.

A red-faced character, a little the worse for wear and tear, staggered to the cab stand in front of the City Hotel and climbed into a waiting taxi.

"Take me to the City Hotel," he muttered.

"But we're in front of the City Hotel now," said the cab driver.

"Okay, okay," the passenger answered. "Next time don't drive so fast."

Fleahopper, Thrip Object Of Early Season Bug Control

Early season insect control is becoming a more important part of the Parmer County cotton farmer's operation.

At one time—a few years ago—Plains cotton growers, as a whole, considered the control of cotton insects early in the growing period unnecessary. This has changed.

County Agent Joe Jones points out this week, "Early season insect control will pay six out of 10 years and will pay big dividends some of the six years. It will insure the earliest possible fruiting. This will increase production as well as quality."

With cotton up and off to a good start throughout the county, it's time now, or soon will be, to begin early insect control programs.

Cotton fleahoppers and thrips are the two insects farmers are primarily interested in controlling with early-applied insecticides. First treatment should be applied when cotton is in the four-leaf stage, Jones says, and he warns not to count the first two leaves which the young plant produces. These are cotyledon leaves and are not permanent. Cotton is in the four-leaf stage when it has developed its first four permanent leaves.

After the first application of insecticide, treatments should be repeated every seven days until two to four applications have been made. According to Jones, it isn't as important to have a certain number of treatments as it is to stop early season control at least 30 days prior to the expected time for bollworm to appear.

In Parmer County the bollworm can be expected to make an appearance in the third or fourth week in July. The 30-day period between the last early season control treatment and the bollworm's appearance leaves sufficient time for beneficial insects to build up and help control the bollworm.

Points to remember in regard to having cotton free of early season insects are:

1. Do not apply excessive amounts of insecticide.
2. Do not get off schedule more than you can help. Cotton grows each week and new growth must have poison applied on it for the most effective control.
3. Follow the guide for controlling cotton insects. This guide is available at the county agent's office and offers information on both early and late season insect control.
4. Keep in mind that it is much easier to be late with early season insect control than it is to be on time. "Many times in previous years, farmers have started early season control at the time it should have been stopped," Jones says.

High Plains Farm and Home calls attention to an advertisement in this week's issue that encourages cotton farmers to use early season insect control, and contains information from the Extension Service pertinent to the practice.

THE PARMER FARMER

by W. H. Graham Jr.

As modern agriculture looks for expanding markets, and the search for new consumers extends to overseas economies, more and more emphasis is being placed on the subject of exports.

Fifteen or 20 years ago, it was predicted that the population of the United States was increasing more rapidly than its farm production could accommodate.

As cities expand, new highways are built, and modern civilization eats up more farmland, this is still the forecast for the long range outlook. But in recent years, mechanization and better farming practices have meant that agricultural production has increased at a more rapid rate than population and the demand for food.

Consequently, we have the current emphasis on selling food and feedstuffs abroad. This may not be expected to continue indefinitely but at least for the present, markets outside our boundaries are necessary to satisfy the rate at which agricultural commodities are being produced.

Exports are vital to regional economies, too. That is, something that is produced in one part of the country that is in demand in another part of the country usually assures the producers an opportunity to sell their produce at a profit.

The High Plains has always been an exporting area, and our original growth is directly attributable to the marketing of grain, beef, and cotton for others—most of whom are long distances away.

The only thing wrong with this kind of exporting is that so much of it must be classified as simply "raw goods." None of the cotton produced on the High Plains ever leaves the area where it was produced in any shape or form except the tightly compressed bale, which has no consumer value whatever.

Not until the bale is broken open and the fibers processed and manufactured does the raw cotton have any value on the retail market.

Our tremendous tonnage of grain sorghum is hauled thousands of miles to all parts of the world. Hardly any of it is used as an "end product." Nearly always it is transformed into some other finished product, mostly by feeding to livestock. Then the beef and pork and poultry is ready for market.

For many years the High Plains was a producer of some of the finest milling quality of wheat in the world. With the introduction of irrigation, the quality of our wheat has diminished somewhat, but there is still plenty of it good enough for milling and making finished products.

There are but two mills on the Plains, one at Plainview and the other at Clovis, and neither is making a dent in the annual crop. Our wheat is still essentially an export item.

The Plains have always been famous for beef on the hoof. With the potential we have for beef and pork production (our big grain crop) there is a great opportunity for an expanded meat producing economy, with a processing and packing industry to go along with it.

All of these things may come in time, but we think that some of them have already been too long in coming. Precious few people on the High Plains today recognize that the biggest part of any consumer product is value added by processing the raw ingredients.

Here is what we mean:

If you are wearing a cotton shirt—as all High Plains folks should—how much do you estimate the cotton grower received for the cotton which went into it?

From five pounds of cotton goods the shirt maker cuts about 12 shirts. A 500 pound bale of cotton brings the farmer an average of $150. There is some loss in spinning the raw cotton into finished cloth, yet on the basis of 12 shirts from five pounds of cloth we have 1200 shirts from a 500 pound bale of cotton.

If we allow a full 50 percent loss in spinning, and for the weight of starch and other filler materials, we still have a total of 600 shirts from a bale of cotton.

Then, 600 shirts at $3 each mean that the bale of cotton is finally worth $1800 by the time it goes to market. How much of this money stays on the High Plains? Less than 10 percent of it.

It may be argued that the comparatively young economy of the High Plains is not ready for such extensive processing and manufacturing enterprises as would be required to transform our raw products into finished goods.

This may be true, but that doesn't alter the stark economics of the picture, and even if we can only make a beginning, we should be pointing our plans in the direction that these deficiencies clearly show exist.

The truth is, we are complacent and content with being producers of raw goods, and we hope that either a catch-up market or government price supports will assure us of a reasonable profit as each year rolls by. We have no planning for the future—no goal that we are working toward.

We do not really know whether we could attract industry and encourage others to invest in it, because we have never tried this approach. That is an indictment against the foresight of every person who has a stake in the future of the High Plains farming economy.

Six to Attend 4-H Encampment

Six Parmer County 4-H Club members are planning to attend a district training encampment Tuesday through Thursday. The sessions will be at the Don Harrington Scout Camp near Canyon.

In addition to the training program, they will participate in social gatherings and recreation.

Planning to go are Barbara and Virginia Rea of Bovina, Cooper Young of Lazbuddie, Judy Billingsley and David Watkins of Farwell, and Joe Weldon Jones of Bovina. They will be accompanied by Miss Jimmie Lou Wainwright, county home demonstration agent, and Joe Jones, county agent.

Olympia, Wash., Daily Olympian: "Canadian railroads have the same problem as U. S. rails — 'featherbedding'. Rail unions insist on assigning more men to trains than management regards as necessary. . . Far-sighted union leaders have gone along with technological improvements in industry, confident they will provide more and better jobs in the long run. Certainly more jobs will not be created by rules freezing unneeded employees in obsolete tasks."

Cotton Soil Bank Minor in Parmer

Participation in the cotton soil bank program by Parmer County farmers is only about four percent of the acreage allotment, which amounts to a pretty insignificant total.

The 1992 acres that farmers in the county shelled for soil bank payments is less than the average soil bank participation for other cotton growers of the Plains, who put a total of 145,778 acres in the bank from a cotton allotment of 2,279,436 acres.

Farmers of Parmer County who signed for the soil bank will receive payments of $64 per acre for irrigated cotton and $19 per acre for dryland cotton under this year's program. Most of all the county cotton land banked is irrigated. The 23 counties in membership of the Plains Cotton Growers put 6.4 percent of their 1958 allotments in the bank. Parmer County put 4.2 percent of its 47,246 acre allotment in the bank.

Washington, Iowa, Journal: "There is a modern parable about a troubled old king who summoned his wisest counselors and instructed them to prepare a simple text on economic principles, which the wise men came back in a year with 67 volumes, profusely illustrated with graphs and charts. But a venerable old patriarch came forward with his appraisal—eight little words: 'There ain't no such thing as a free lunch!'"

MAKE 1958 A BANNER YEAR FOR PARMER CO. COTTON

EARLY SEASON INSECT CONTROL PAYS BIG DIVIDENDS

Make More and Better Cotton Earlier with Early Season Insect Control

EARLY SEASON CONTROL PROGRAM (Insecticides Listed at Random)

INSECTS	INSECTICIDES		*Amount of Spray Concentrate Per Acre	REMARKS
	DUSTS	SPRAYS AND POUNDS OF TOXICANT PER GAL.
Cutworms and certain armyworms	A. 10% DDT	A. DDT (2 lbs. per gal.)	1/2 to 1 gal.	Examine seedling cotton for presence of these pests. Apply treatment as needed.
	B. 20% toxaphene	B. Toxaphene (6 lbs. per gal.)	1 1/3 to 2 qt.
	Apply dusts at 15 to 20 lb. per acre.	C. Toxaphene—DDT (4 lbs.—2 lbs. per gal.)	1 1/3 to 2 qt.
	Thrips and cotton fleahoppers	A. 2 1/2% dieldrin—40% sulfur	A. Dieldrin (1.5 lbs. per gal.)		1/2 to 1 pt.	Begin treatment when cotton is in the 4-leaf stage or earlier if necessary. Two to 4 applications may be needed, but regardless of number, stop treatment at least 30 days before the bollworm usually appears, UNLESS FLEAHOPPER OR BOLL WEEVIL INFESTATIONS ARE EXTREMELY HEAVY. This period allows sufficient time for beneficial insects to build up as an aid to bollworm control. Use maximum dosage recommended if overwintered boll weevils are present. Sprays are more effective and economical than dusts for controlling insects on young cotton. One-half pint of malathion (5 lbs. per gal.) or parathion (2lbs. per gal.) may be substituted for the second early season treatment to control thrips and the BROWN COTTON LEAFWORM.
		B. 2 1/2% aldrin 40% sulfur	B. Aldrin (2 lbs. per gal.)		1/2 to 1 pt.
C. 2 1/2% heptachlor—40% sulfur		C. Heptachlor (2 lbs. per gal.)	1/2 to 1 pt.
D. 2 1/2% endrin—40% sulfur		D. Endrin (1.6 lbs. per gal.)	1/2 to 1 pt.
Boll weevils, thrips and cotton fleahoppers	E. 10% toxaphene 40% sulfur	E. Toxaphene (6 lbs. per gal.)	1 to 1 1/2 pt.
	A. 2 1/2% dieldrin—40% sulfur	A. Dieldrin (1.5 lbs. per gal.)	1/2 to 1 pt.	Apply dusts at 7 to 10 lbs. per acre at 7-day intervals.
	B. 2 1/2% aldrin—40% sulfur	B. Aldrin (2 lbs. per gal.)	1/2 to 1 pt.

	B. 5% malathion	B. Parathion (2 lbs. per gal.)	1/2 pt.
	C. 1% methyl parathion	C. Malathion (5 lbs. per gal.)	1/2 to 1 pt.
