CAPROCK INDUSTRIES FEATHERS FLY AT LYNX ANNOUNCE PROGRESS GYM TUESDAY NIGHT!

Ralph Blodgett, speaking for Caprock Industries, announces the progress report of this latest Agri-Business Complex in Hansford county.

Caprock Lot No. 1, located 13 miles southwest of Gruver, is progressing nicely. The Dirt Contractor, Junior Lusby, is in full operation. The water wells have been drilled and the pen and trough construction is underway. Corral Lumber Company of Phoenix, Arizona, the pen contractor for Lots No. 1 & 2, has installed a Cement Batch Plant at this location to pour the feed bunks and aprons.

A contract has been made with Panhandle Steel Buildings of Amarillo, Texas, for the construction of two separate feed mills for Lots No. 1 & 2. These mills are of the latest design, and include air conditioned offices, mill offices and maintenance shops.

Construction on Lot No. 2, located 11 miles northwest of Spearman, Texas, will be in full sway by February 15th.

Corn silage contracts have been prepared by Caprock Industries, for the production of silage for Lots No. 1 & 2. Anyone interested in growing silage should contact Kenneth Irwin in Gruver, Texas, or J. D. Helms in Spearman, Texas.

The selection of site for Lot No. 3 is still in the hands of the project committee, and it is hoped that a location south of Spearman can be found in the near future.

Further projects of Caprock Industries will be the construction of a 40,000 head lot in Dallam County, southwest of Dalhart, Texas, and the possibility of another 30,000 head lot at Panhandle, Texas.

It is anticipated that at least 100 new families will be moving into the Hansford County Area within the next year and a half to be employed by Caprock Industries.

moving price. The housing officials cautioned the people of Spearman to not "ruin your real-estate values" in this town, with a bunch of cheap houses. They warned the town that these houses should be put in an area that would not affect the growth of the 'nicer" homes, and areas of the town. This is most important to a city, and this can easily be worked out.

However, it was pointed out, that these homes, most of them 2-bedroom types. can be fixed up just as nice as the owner wants to fix

It was conservatively estimated that Spearman would need at least 75 of these homes by October. Many feel that we could use more than 100 new homes now. FHA officials once again cautioned the public, that they didn't want to see a bunch of badly erected cheap houses thrown together, that might throw Spearman into the same depressed situation as Amarillo and Stinnett. Officials stated that they had another group of foreclosures coming up again this Friday. And even though Spearman is in a real need for homes, it might pay prospective buyers to be choosy, as another bunch of good homes will be up for sale in the Real estate people are finding that the new generation of home buyers, from 21 to 30 years old, just aren't interested in the apple crates and boxes that their parents had to live in. They all want a 3 bedroom home. And most of them want a fireplace and double car garage. With high interest, and low profits this has just about wrecked the construction of rental property everywhere.

Many in Spearman feel that we are on the verge of replacing "Chicago" and 'Kansas City" in the cattle industry. Why not? We have the water, the land, and the people to build everything from fertilizer plants, packing plants, and even a calf raising operation to go with the feed lot industries coming to the county. The people most responsible for the coming boom in the cattle feeding industry, of course, are the people who borrow the millions of dollars that it takes to start the industry rolling. Truly, we are amazed that this hasn't been done before. It is a fact, that the Hansford County area can support 270,000 cattle on the maize that is raised here now. And, if the cattle come to town, the farmers will surely raise more feed if it proves profitable.

And of course, we have our group of "aginers". This group is against the American Flag, mother hood, and the group that said you couldn't reach the moon, that the airplane would never fly, and thought Henry Ford was

And, thank goodness for these conservative thinking people. If it wasn't for them it sure would be a dull town to live in. Everything would go so smooth, and the town would grow so fast, that it wouldn't be any fun to even have any type of vision for the future." And remember the only difference between Dallas and Spearman is that Dallas said Yes, and Spearman said No, about 30 years ago! Someone in Dallas had the vision to dam up the waters, make it attractive to industry, and keep on "growing." Spearman said No to water 30 years ago and a large group of our people still are saying NO! But, you "doubting-Thomases" just stick around, and see what is going to take place here in the next year! Even some of you might decide that Spearman isn't such a bad place to live in. And, that new high school and that hospital that was built by about 15 votes (combined) is sure to come in handy! We might even have to "enlarge' both of them in the future. GET READY SPEARMAN! THE BIG BOYS HAVE SEEN THE POTENTIAL HERE, AND

THE TOWN IS GOING TO GROW, "if you will help just a little bit."

Both shots missed and Mike Davis. who now holds the highest scoring record in the history of SHS players, tied up the ball as the clock ticked away. Coach Allen Simpson called time to calm the Lynx and when play began again the tip was controlled by Davis. As he passed the ball to Rondal Schell, Schell was fouled and the whistle blew ending the game. The crowd swarmed onto the floor to congratulate the Lynx and Coach Simpson had to fight his way to Schell to tell him he had a 1 and 1 shot coming. Tuesday. Lee Gauges, had apparently shot himself Sunday, in the left temple with a 22 caliber long rifle hollow point bullet. Local deputies had gone to Morse to talk with Gauges when they discovered his body. A suicide note was left at the scene. Eleven long rifle bullets were still in the rifle, according to investigating officers. Gauges was originally from Van Horn, Texas, and had worked in the Spearman area before moving to Morse. Deputy McFarlin stated that he went to Gauges residence downtown in Morse, and could detect an odor coming from the house. After looking in the windows, he discovered Gauges body, still holding the 22 rifle. The front and back doors were locked and deputy McFarlin had to break into the house. Sheriff Cooke stated that death was apparently caused by a self-inflicted gun shot wound.

SHOWS SWINE -- Jim Kunselman brought home six ribbons from the Ft. Worth Stock Show. This Future Farmer exhibited two Reserve Champions and won 4th, 5th, 6th and 12th place in 3 breed classes. Jim is shown here with the light weight Hamp which took reserve champion honors in the breed class out of some 250 head of swine. He will exhibit his animals February 24 in the Houston Show.

FFA Take Honors At Ft Worth Stock Show

At this time of year Future Farmers of America are involved in the most rewarding part of their training. It's the stock show season and they are exhibiting projects which have been underway for months. Through their projects they learn patience, discipline, and sportsmanship -- including how to win modestly and lose graciously. They learn to work, play and cooperate with others and how to present demonstrations with poise and confidence.

Such was the case this past week at the Fort Worth Stock Show when FFA members exhibited swine and cattle. The Spearman chapter showed 21 head of swine and 16 of these won ribbons.

Jim Kunselman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Kunselman brought home six honors, one of them a lightweight Hamp won Reserve Champion breed honors. Kunselman's heavy weight Poland also won Reserve Champion breed. Jim won 12th place lw Hamp, 5th place hw Duroc, 6th place lw Duroc and 4th place lw

Jerry Hawkins won three ribbons: 15th place lw Hamp, 2nd place lw Spot and 11th place hw Poland.

Pat Sloan exhibited a Reserve Champion in the lightweight Chester Breed and Gary Evans won Reserve Champion honors with his heavy weight Spot. These reserve champions were out of Breed entries with over 200 in each entry. The Fort Worth show had an overall entry of some 1365 head of swine. Other swine honors went to Richard Sasser, 9th place mw Duroc; Joe Bob Grayson, 1st place lw York; Steve Hicks, 11th place lw Hamp; Ronald Howerter, lw Duroc, 2nd place. Ronald's pig was runner - up to the reserve breed champion of the show. Kenneth Donahue took 14th place was an outstanding honor for Phil since a place in the carcass class is much more difficult to win than an "on the hoof" showing according to Ag instructor Herman Boone. Joe Vanderburg took 3rd place honors with his Shorthorn Steer and Pat Sloan's Shorthorn heifer won 2nd place.

Barnes Says School Bill Won't Pass

AUSTIN--Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes predicted defeat of the proposed compulsory consolidation of school districts in Texas.

The Governor's Committee on Public School Education has made many constructive recommendations. I feel that the Texas Senate will pass many of them," Barnes said in a statement released this week.

"However, I feel that the Texas Senate will not pass compulsory consolidation, the new lieutenant governor

Barnes added that the recommendation to consolidate school districts with less than , 600 students will probably fall on deaf ears.

'The Texas Senate and this Legislature will probably write an attractive financial incentive program to encourage voluntary consolidation but will not adopt laws making consolidation compulsory in Texas this year," Barnes Compulsory consolidation and other recommendations of the Governor's Committee on Public School Education are included in Senate Bill No. 2 which was introduced last week by Senator A. R. Schwartz of Galveston and Senator Oscar Mauzy of Dallas. The bill has been referred to the Senate Education Committee.

Sign-up For Commodity Program Now Underway

Sign-up dates for farmers who wish to take part in the 1969 Feed Crain, Wheat and Cotton programs began Monday Feb. 3 and will continue through Friday, March 21, according to Ellzey Vander-burg, Hansford County ASCS

It is extremely important that your certification on wheat, cotton and feed grain be accurate, "Vanderburg said. He also stated that when making this certification, farmers will be expected to accurately report acreage devoted to each program croy as well as diverted acreage and to be ready to identify the respective fields upon request. "An error is this reporting may re-sult in the loss of all or a substantial part of any payments otherwise earned he said.

To help farmers meet program provisions fully, the ASCS office is offering measurement service at a nominal cost upon request. If farmers ARE NOT SURE of their certified acreage, Vanderburg suggests that they come by the office and request this measurement service.

In the past the county committee has been able to approve the burning of irrigated small grain stubble in some cases so that it would not effect that years ACP cost-sharing. DUE TO A CHANGE at the state level, the com-mittee will no longer be able to approve any stubble burning. Therefore, farmers are reminded that deliberate burning of crop residue will result in loss of ACP cost-share payhomemakers prefer Dr. David Mellor, Extension poultry marketing specialist, Dr. Fred Gardner and Lionel Lane, of the poultry ducted surveys to find the likes and dislikes of consum ers toward egg packaging.

They found that 43 perc of those questioned preferred a plastic foam type carton. Other choices included the standard molded pulp, paperboard cartons, a new see through carton and a sleeve type carton. Homemakers chose the foam carton because it was new, different, eye appealing, strong, easy to open, easy to remove eggs from and for overall cleanliness and freshness.

A majority of the consumers said they opened their egg cartons in the store before buying to check the number, soundness of shell and uniformity of eggs.

Consumers also were asked their preference on carton decorations. The winning carton showed a kitchen scene of eggs in a basket and copper tea kettle on a table. A colorful modern new design followed closely.

Many consumers indicated carton decorations did not make any difference and therefore they chose a plain carton with the mod design egg on it. Cartons with hens in cages or pictures of eggs ready to be served were not among the preferred cartons.

Rural Families To Face Poverty

COLLEGE STATION, Jan . --More than a third of all rural southerners will face poverty in some degree during retirement, predicts a recent fivestate research report.

"The survey indicates that the public should act to solve some of the human issues involved in rural retirement, says Dr. Alice Stubbs, head of the home economics de-partment of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

Some of these issues are substandard housing and the social adversities of rural isolation, she said.

The research was conducted by cooperative experiment stations in Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Tennessee and Texas. Dr. H. O. Kunkel, dean of Texas A&M"s College of Agriculture, served the project as administrative ad-

The research was to find how rural families were preparing economically for old age. Results showed that at least 1.5 million rural families in the five states will eventually receive annual retirement incomes of less than $75 a month for a family of two persons. This will come from Social Security and Welfare.

The study also showed that pre-retirement family income relate directly to economic expectations for retirement. In general, most Negroes and many whites eported their annual incomes were less than $3,000. For white the monthly retirement incomes was estimated at $165 and $81 for Negroes.

More families saved money through life insurance than by cash savings, Dr. Stubbs reported.

1969 Census Will Reguire Good Records

COLLEGE STATION, Jan. 30 -- Farm and ranch operators will need good records for the 1969 census of agriculture, according to James Mallett, Extension farm management specialist at Texas A&M University.

The farm census will be taken by questionnaires mailed out in January of 1970 to be completed and returned by mail. Response is required by law and information for each farm will be entirely confidential.

The census will ask for amounts spent for feed, fertilizer, pesticides, lime, gasoline, livestock, and poultry. Other information will include size of the farm, age of the operator, value of farm products sold, off farm employment, income from recreational use of the farm and numerous other good records are also essential to today's commercial farm-Top management required for success with narrow profit margins in agriculture must rely on complete and accurate information about the farm or ranch business. There are two kinds of farm and ranch records, according to Mallett--financial records and production records. Financial records are used to make tax reports, analyze the performance of the farm, and establish a basis for credit and other services.

Mallett emphasized that

Production records combined with financial records can be used to determine the profitability of each practice or enterprise. Production records include yields per acre, weaning weights of calves or pigs, milk production per cow, percent calf crop, the cost of producing a unit of output and other measures of production efficiency.

Good farm records alone will not insure success. Even the best farm records are of little value if they are not used, said Mallett.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ: TAXES AND THE GROUND-

Many taxpayers resemble the groundhog in their approach to preparing their income tax return and/or in keeping the records that they need to prove their deductions to keep from paying too many tax dollars. Every time these taxpayers come out of their hole--or whereever taxpayers hibernate the year around -- the bright sunshine casts such a long shadow on the Form 1040 and that shoebox full of records (?) that it "plumb nigh" scares them to death. Sorry! There is only one approach that these folks can take and that is to face right square up to the old Form 1040 and those messed-up tax records and -shadow or no shadow -- get with preparing that tax return. However, don't you take any bets that these folks won't find April 15th to still be a mighty wintry day.

Interested farmers, both irrigated and dry land, are invited to attend the Clinic which will be a fast-moving presentation of the latest research, products and services from the agri-business which are sponsoring the Clinic. Daily Records Not Adequate Tax Records

COLLEGE STATION, Jan. Most business expenses still are allowable but in two recent cases, the U.S. Tax Court has refused accept businessmen's diaries as adequate records of unreimbursed expenses for business entertainment. Mrs. Wanda Meyer, Extension home management specialist, sums up the court's ruling: There must be documentary proof or other "sufficient evidence" to support all diary entries covering expenditures of $25 or more. Documentary evidence was held to include receipts and other records showing the amount of the expense, time and place of entertainment, and the business purpose of the expense, she explains.

So if you have been wondering if all this warm weather means that Spring is just around the corner, you can now rest assured that it is at least six weeks away. Except for a few days in December, we have not had any winter and its a disappointment to me for I love cold, snowy

The past several weeks I've been bird watching. I have kept the bird feeder in the back yard full of food would be surprised at the number of birds that take advantage of it. This large swarm of black birds invade the place twice daily, Someone told me they were Starlings, but I am still wondering if they really are. They seem too large for Starlings. They are black, speckled and have long beaks. Their favorite foods is table scraps if you can believe it. Left over sweet potatoes, peas, beans, rice and bread and cake crumbs. And apples, man do they go after apples. They are fun to watch, but I may be getting myself into lots of trouble if they really are those pesky Star-

WELL I GOOFED again last week, and I hereby apologize to Mrs. Maude Mathews whose name I inadvertently left out of her grand-daughter's wedding. I named Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith as grandparents of the bride and left out Maude. Apologies don't help much I know, and I don't blame her for being mad, but I truly did not intentionally bering" problems lately. They promise us, in the near future, a drug to correct this most dreadful mental defect, and I will be one of the first to subscribe for it. I keep so many notes and reminders pinned here and there --- my desk is littered -- the front of the refrigerator is slathered with them as well as the walls. But, I even forget to read my reminders. Last Sunday morning I heard Dr. Winfred Moore preach, and he too has this problem. He was sitting in the barber shop waiting for a hair cut when the phone rang. It was his secretary reminding him that he was 45 minutes late for a wedding ceremony. Can you imagine him having to look into the face of a bride who had been waiting 45 minutes? I've heard of the Groom being late (or not even making it) but never before have I heard of a Minister forgetting he was to perform a Church wedd. ing. Dr. Moore says its all due to anxiety. We are too busy, with too many things to times, in mental black-outs and this is not always GOOD. I agree, so, bring on the remembering drug," I need some bad! Billy and I take our paper into Amarillo on Wednesdays to get it printed and while we wait we go out to Kerr Paper Company to pick up office supplies. For Christmas we had a stereo tape player installed in Steve's car and on our way out to Kerr we ran across this Tape Exchange where you can turn in your old, worn out tapes and get another one for $1.50. So each week we have been stopping by this "groovy place. To say we felt a little out of place is putting it mildly and I kept telling him I even felt a little spooky in that joint. Behind the counter stands these bearded, longhaired, German cross-wearing fellows, and the customers all look about the same. The walls are plastered with these way-out posters. One is a woman's head, larger than life size. Now she is a beautiful woman but for this streak of blood which is oozmouth. Another 4' x 6' poster shows a Negro soldier with lettering beneath which says: "PASS God and PRAIZE the ammunition." On the counter is a stack of newspapers, The Los Angeles FREE PRESS, an underground publication. We buy one. Never in your life have you seen so many 4-letter words in print. And the 'words' are about the only thing I understand -- every thing else is so far out it doesn't make sense to me. But it does to many evidently, for the newspapers sell fast. I stood and watched the young customers in the Tape Exchange. They actually admire those posters -- they stand before them almost as if they were mesmerized.

A few days ago the Tape Exchange was raided by the Amarillo Police. The mana-ger was charged with selling pornographic literature. Well, there goes our chance to swap tapes, and if the truth were known, we probably just escaped being hauled in for contributing to illiteracy" or something.
